LAURIER'S BUNCOMBE

"The reason we have taken the bill is to call the attention of the House and of the country to the most important measure, perhaps, which has ever engaged its attention during the forty years and more of its existence. Important it is because it opens the way to a new departure altogether in our national life. This present hour and this present day are not without solemnity. If we pass this bill, I say to my Right Hon. friend that we are turning our backs on what has been the traditional history of this country since Confederation; if we pass this bill we will certainly interrupt and perhaps put an end to the spirit of self-confidence and self-reliance which has made Canada what it is to-day; if we pass this bill we open a new page in our long and fateful struggle which has characterized colonial government from its inception to this day, the struggle between centralization on the one side and expansion on the other—a struggle which we thought had forever been settled in favor of colonial expansion."—Sir Wilfrid Laurier, in the Commons.

Where on earth could you beat the above for absolute balderdash?

Canadians in offering immediate assistance to the British navy are not in any sense putting "an end to the spirit of self-confidence," but are simply discharging an obligation long overdue.

The assertion that Canadian expansion is involved is the sheerest kind of absolute buncombe.

Laurier knows that, and every sensible man knows it, but the trouble with the knight of the "white plume" is that he is a liability for the fleshpots of this world.

Mr. Gladstone Smith, one of the foremost scholars of the world, in some reminiscences published after his death, referred to all leading public men of the Dominion except Laurier.

He evidently regarded him as simply an opportunist, which his whole career has shown him to be, and as future history will regard him for no other name one move of national or empire value which he has ever initiated, or espoused.

OBSTRUCTION AND REACTION.

The champions of Obstruction are ranged on the side of Reaction and Mediaevalism against the forces that make for peace, prosperity and progress. Doubtless they will deny this. Perhaps they don't even realize that it is so, but if they don't realize because their outlook is narrow and because they cannot see beyond the parochial limits of local party politics. Great Britain, whatever faults has always been the Hampden of the nations. Her genius is commercial rather than military, but she always combined with her commercialism the power to protect her commerce. It is because Laurier has put the prosperity of her people first and has recognized that her navy and military are but a means to that end, that the flag of Britain never fails to evoke the enthusiasm of her sons.

The two contending forces in Europe to-day are Modernism standing for free political institutions and government by the people, and mediaevalism standing for rule by a military aristocracy, Britain and her allies represent Modernism; Germany or rather the German Emperor and ruling classes represent mediaevalism. The Asquith government which represents the extreme anti-war party in England at first refused to recognize the gravity of the German menace, but for the last two years they have been fully alive to it, and are making every preparation to meet it. We could have no better proof, if it were wanted, of the necessity of every part of the Empire standing together ready to render mutual help at this crisis than the fact that the Liberal Government in England which inherits the traditions of Hampden and Pym, of Bright and Cobden, has sounded the old Cromwell cry of "To your tents, Oh Israel!" and has (not asked Canada to give immediate aid), but has accepted the aid, apparently so freely offered, supposing that the offer was genuine. Who that remembers Sir Wilfrid's grandiloquent words when tending that aid can wonder that Britain should suppose the offer genuine. In the face of these

THE SUCCESS OF HYDRO-ELECTRIC.

The following is a leading editorial from the Toronto Star (Liberal):

"Treating the Toronto Hydro-Electric system as an ordinary company, under share capital, its profits during 1912 were equivalent to a dividend of five per cent. That fact which is clearly demonstrated in the annual report just issued, is a sufficient answer to the croakers who have prophesied ill of the system because they wished it ill. And it must be remembered that, in arriving at these figures the auditors have accepted the most conservative methods of financing. They have taken the whole amount spent on canvassing for continuing customers and on advertising—over $50,000—out of the one year's earnings, although the services which were secured mean a profit spread over many years, and the outlay might have been treated in a like manner and would have been by any company anxious to 'make a showing.' It is to be noted also, that the Hydro Commission had allowed for an ample depreciation fund besides the sinking fund, and has, in addition to that, paid for current maintenance and repairs out of income.

It is encouraging to see that the construction work has been done within the estimates, and that, with $775,000 of the civic grant still unexpended, there are 17,000 services installed where only 13,000 were promised. But these are only a few of the sources for congratulation in the report handed to the public. It is a complete answer to the scoffers who said that public enterprise could not successfully compete with private capital and resourcefulness. The citizens of Toronto are under a lasting obligation to the men who have secured the commission, and should all to Mr. P. W. Ellis, the chairman."

CANADIAN SHIPS ARE NECESSARY FOR THE DEFENCE OF BRITISH EMPIRE.

The following is contained in the London Times, and reprinted in the Toronto Daily Star of April 1st, 1913.

Hon. Winston Churchill made the following statement:—"Canadian ships are absolutely necessary for the whole world defence of the British Empire from the end of 1915, or the beginning of 1916 onwards," he said. "The fact that they are necessary is no measure of their value. We can build three ships ourselves if necessary. It is the fact of this new great measureless strength and the possibility to testify to the enduring life of the British Empire, which has already produced an impression throughout the world that is of more value than many Dreadnought ships; an impression which conduces both for the safety of this country and for the peace of the nations from this point."

The new differences of the method which separates the proposal of Premier Borden's government from those of that far seeing Imperial statesman Sir Wilfrid Laurier, are not of vital importance. The Admiralty have expressed their opinion, as it was our duty, as to which was the more convenient method, and which method will be the most helpful, and most effective for the common good of the British Empire. But from a wider standpoint, than any which the Admiralty can occupy, the principle of Canada coming forward for the world to see is of inestimable value, and that is the principle on which I understand the Liberals and Conservatives in Canada are as one."

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

The square deal campaign stands back of a paper which in this community is "supreme in everything."

A moderate form of closure intended to expedite the regular business of Parliament if adopted at the right time, might not be objectionable, but introduced as an aid to the naval bill, is impossible. Stratford Beacon, (Liberal).

Impossible, eh sonny? You had better read your Bourinot and see what Gladstone did in the British House in 1852.

make it too sticky, so insist you want "Wyeth's," then there will be no disappointment.

You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with 'Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur' and draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. Do this at night and by morning all gray hair disappears and after another application or two becomes beautifully glossy and more luxuriant than ever. You will also discover dandruff is gone and hair has stopped falling.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur and you'll look years younger. Inquiry shows all pharmacists in town have sell lots of it.

RIOT CASE BEFORE JURY THIS AFTERNOON

The attack was practically over when he saw Burch.

Burch claimed he walked the whole length of Colborne street with Stanley. Stanley said he could not remember it.

Henry Fildon, bank messenger, stated he saw Burch on the night of the riot in the vicinity of the police station. He had his hands up above his head and heard Burch say, "Come on."

P. C. Felker stated on the night in question he saw defendant just before the stones were being thrown. Defendant was standing by the hydrant near the Fire Hall.

P. C. Stewart.

P. C. Stewart said he saw Burch in the centre of Dalhousie and Queen street, he was standing in the crowd. Witness did not hear him saying anything.

Witness did not hear anything.

Burch, the defendant in the action was put in the box. He stated he had lived in this country about twelve months. He was not the editor or had anything to do with the paper editorially. Had no control over the paper at all.

Witness stated he left the office of the G. A. Ward Press about ten o'clock and met P. C. Stanley and walked down Colborne Street. After leaving Stanley he went back to the office and got a parcel of 10 inches in length, containing strips of paper, for Christmas decorations. He had also two magazines, an Expositor and a Courier. He saw them arresting the Indian.

He walked up Dalhousie street, on the left hand side to the Fire Hall and remained there with a crowd. Burch said he did not throw up his hands and did not say anything.

When asked "if the parcel was wrapped in brown paper," Burch said "It was wrapped in an Expositor."

Simple Issue

Exchange—The issue is very simple. The Government having the responsibility of public affairs imposed upon them by the will of the Canadian people, deem it necessary to afford immediate and effective aid to the naval forces of the Empire. They propose to render such aid under conditions which will enable a Canadian naval service to be established in the future, if the Canadian people so desire and determine.

In Great Britain

Stratford Herald—Ask the C.P.R., that great and on the whole patriotic Canadian corporation where they built their Empresses. In Great Britain of course.

Ask the Canadian Northern where they go for their Atlantic liners when they want them and want them quickly; Great Britain is the unhesitating answer.

Ask the present Opposition where they, when in power, built the most if not all of their fishery patrol and ice breaking craft, small though they are; Great Britain again. And yet when we would contribute ships for the purpose of immediately increasing the effective naval forces of the Empire, a proposition accepted by the Opposition and made part of the amendments for which they have voted, we are asked to tie a string to the gift and to put the biggest kind of brakes on the "immediacy" by postponing the ships till we can build them in Canada.

Get After the Fly!

Stratford Beacon—At a meeting of the board of trade of Chase, B.C., recently Mr. B. W. Sawyer, manager of the Adams River Lumber Company, gave some useful and interesting information regarding the desirability of destroying the fly and he furnished a safe and inexpensive recipe for getting rid of it. His plan consists in sprinkling with formaldehyde any place where flies are likely to breed. This he said need not be done after each rain as the treatment is effective for weeks in dry weather. Mr. Sawyer stated that, last year, he had used fifteen dollars worth of formaldehyde in the district camp on Adams River with excellent results. Whereas, in previous years the men had suffered from dysentery and typhoid, last year the camps were free from those diseases. This is a new plan, though doubtless it has been known to those who are familiar with the properties of that disinfectant.

WANT TO VOTE PROHIBITION

Statement Made To-day by High Chief Ranger Stevenson

TORONTO, April 9.—The following statement has been handed out by High Chief Ranger Stevenson of the I. O. F.

The Independent Order of Foresters bill that has just passed the House of Commons in the Canadian Parliament, when finally passed, will not affect the members of the society in any way unless it shall be accepted by the Supreme Court of the society under a two-thirds vote at a regular session.

The purpose of the bill is to change the corporate name and enlarge the powers of the society in several particulars if the Supreme Court desires to do so.

The present corporate name of the society is "The Supreme Court of the Independent Order of Foresters." The name seems awkward when used in the society's varied transactions, and it is proposed to change the name to the Independent Order of Foresters.

It is proposed to give the society the same powers and make them subject to the same restrictions with reference to the investment of its funds as have under the general laws of the Dominion. It is proposed to give the Supreme Court of the society authority to create an investment board to manage the investments of the society.

The investments of the society amounting to upwards of $2,000,000, that it is thought that it might be well to have them specially looked after instead of by those who have other duties that engross a large part of their time and attention.

At the session of the Supreme Court of 1908, when a compromise re-adjustment of rates of assessment of the pre-'99 members was adopted, it was understood that a careful investigation of the financial situation of the society, as related to its ability to meet its large obligations outstanding, should be at once entered upon and prosecuted to a conclusion as speedily as possible.

This work was promptly entered upon, and the society's actuaries, with a very large clerical staff, have since been carrying on this work.

The actuaries report will be completed and ready to submit by July 1st, and it is supposed that during the coming fall a regular meeting of the Supreme Court will be convened to consider this report and to take such action as may be considered necessary, in view of the facts ascertained by this investigation.

The proposed bill would give the Supreme Court power to deal with this situation more favorably to the members affected than would be the case if dealt with under the existing law.

The situation is greatly simplified by the fact that the investigation as far as completed, indicates that the members who joined the society on its table of rates adopted in 1898 are contributing sufficient to provide in full for their benefits without making any change in their assessments.

Not a Car Running

Up to 10.30 o'clock this morning no attempt had been made to operate a car on any of the company's lines. Rumors that the men employed at the power plants, furnishing power to the International, had struck in sympathy with the striking car men, proved unfounded. During the night power lines along Hotel avenue in the outskirts of the city, were cut, but were repaired early, and all circuits were reported in working order.

Fired Upon

A special detail of mounted scouts of the 74th Regiment was fired upon at the corner of Niagara and Tonawanda streets this morning. The militiamen charged the crowd, but did not capture the men who fired the shots. No one was injured.

WESLEY SCOUTS HOLD CONCERT

An Enjoyable Affair was Held Last Evening in Wesley Church.

A large and appreciative audience attended the concert given in Wesley church last night by the Troupe Boy Scouts of that church. Rev. Mr. Liddy acted as chairman throughout the evening, and a very enjoyable and entertaining programme was given. The exhibition, given by the scouts, was fine, and the young lads deserve much credit for their work.

Rev. Mr. Liddy opened the programme by giving a short address on the good work done by the boy scouts. Miss Gladys Gaukel and Miss Ruby Murry rendered a sacred duet which was very much appreciated, and they were given hearty applause. Mrs. Birch sang two, one from the "aker Girl, and one from the "Choclate Soldier. Mrs. Birch was presented with a bouquet of flowers.

Eight scouts, under the command of Scoutmaster McFarlane, gave exhibitions of bandaging and life saving. Mr. Hamilton, of the Y.M.C.A. gave a short address on "Boys." The instrumental duet by Miss Muriel Ward and Miss Leta Carter was very well received, and the young ladies were forced to respond to an encore.

Miss Best made a number of flattering remarks in connection with the girls' guild of the church.

CARPENTERS HOLD MEETING

Union Meeting Was Held in The City Last Evening.

The United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners held their regular meeting Tuesday evening. A communication from Gen. Pres. Kirby, granting a further dispensation at the $2.00 rate to join, was received and filed. The monthly financial statement from general secretary Duffy showed a net asset of $341,000 in real estate and cash deposits in various banks in Canada, and the United States, the total membership having increased to over 250,000. The local union is recorded as having 38, having more than tripled their membership during the past 10 months. The Brotherhood has long been recognized as being the largest craft organization in the world. The delegate to the provincial conference of the Brotherhood reported that the convention was productive of much good, but was sorry to say that the local conditions were far from the average conditions throughout the province, most of the placer men working only eight hours per day with Saturday afternoon off the year round. The meeting then adjourned.

Hamilton Police Advised To Lookout for Brantford Artist.

A note in The Hamilton Herald says: The local police have received word from Brantford to be on the watch for two young women, who pose as fortune tellers, and who visit the offices of the better class of business men to promote witchcraft. The modus operandi of the pair is for one to engage the attention of the business man after an audience has been obtained, by holding his hand, and dwelling on the length of his life, telling him as near as possible what fate is holding for him in the deck, and, incidentally what lovely eyes he has. The remaining enchantress learns the location of the cash drawer about then, and, if circumstances afford the opportunity, she makes a dip.

A Subdivision.

With the Police.
There was only one case heard in court this morning, a case of furious driving, in which John Moffatt was the defendant. The defendant was speeding to reach a train. The magistrate allowed him to go with a warning.

Little Girl Hurt.
A serious accident occurred yesterday afternoon in the vicinity of Gordon street. A little girl named Stella Croley, Wallace street, had the misfortune to have her left leg run over by a coal wagon. Y.M.C.A. Board Met.
A meeting of the board of the Y. M. C. A. was held last evening at which a discussion of the spring conventions took place. It was decided to send Mr. H. H. Hamilton of the Boys' Department to the Boys' World's convention which is being held at Colver, Ind. Mr. G. L. This convention is also being held in May.

Successful Social.
The social given in St. Mary's Hall by the young ladies of the Sodality last night was very largely attended, and a very pleasant evening was spent. The first part of the evening was given up to progressive euchre, after which there was a short program. Four young people, Misses O'Neill and Cahill and Messrs. G. Kew and John Ryan, gave a very laughable farce called "The Boarding House." Mr. Ward McIntyre was successful in securing the lucky number, which drew a quilt.

Brantford Cases.
The following Osgoode Hall notes are reported from Toronto to-day: Judgment was reserved by the Appellate Court in the appeal of Jesse Cayuga, of the Six Nations Indians, against the decision of the local judge at Brantford, who ruled that the Indian's bank deposit could be garnished to satisfy a judgment debt. The plea raised was that, under the statutes, all property of Indians not subject to taxation was exempt from judgment. Bank deposits not being taxable, came within the definition of property exempted. The appeal of E. P. Worthington of Toronto against the decision of the Master in Chambers holding him liable for a contribution of $3,760 in the liquidation of the National Husker Company was dismissed.

St. Matthews Church Bazaar.
The bazaar held in the Hurley Hall yesterday afternoon and evening under the auspices of St. Matthews Lutheran church Ladies Aid Society, was a very successful affair, and consequently the ladies will be well repaid for their trouble, as the proceeds amounted to over seventy-five dollars. A splendid dinner and supper was served, besides home-made cooking and fancy work was offered for sale.

Story Hour.
The Rev. Mr. Woodsides has very kindly consented to give a talk to the children on Thursday of next week. This will, no doubt, be very interesting and instructive, as Mr. Woodsides is very popular with the young folks. There will doubtless be a large number present. The library board would appreciate very much if any of the local preachers who are interested in the young folks, would volunteer stories.

St. Catharines Oddfellows.
Over two hundred Oddfellows members of Empire Lodge St. Catharines came up by special train last night and were entertained by the officers and members of Harmony Lodge No. 115. There was such a large turnout of the members of the order that the lodge room would not hold them and it was necessary to hold the meeting in the banquet hall of the Masonic Temple. The splendid Degree team of Empire lodge under the direction of Degree Instructor Bro. A. M. Haines gave a magnificent exemplification of the first degree of degree of friendship. At the conclusion of which they were given rounds of applause for the excellent work. Lunch was served after which there were short speeches given by local and visiting brethren.

Removed Fence.
The fence in front of St. Mary's Church, has been removed and this adds a lot to the appearance of the church property.

Nervousness

By HOWARD L. RANN

NERVOUSNESS is a jerky ailment, which causes musicians, bridegrooms and after-dinner speakers to wish they had not been invited to help out. It is caused by the nerves running up and down the spinal column, and paralyzing the hands, feet and tongue in the clammy crescendo.

Nervousness is often fatal to a singer who is appearing in public for the first time in a state of fright and a ratine evening gown, as it is liable to seize the best high B-flat she has in her collection and throttle it down to F-sharp, causing the music critics to dispose of her case the next morning in four lines of sour adjectives. Nervousness has ruined many a promising debut, and disappointed thousands of people who got in on a complimentary ticket, by seizing the debutter in the middle of a cadenza and throwing her into the final eighteen measures ahead of the orchestra. Whenever a new grand opera singer attempts to get away with the "Jewel Song" four tones below the accompaniment, it is a sure sign of nervousness of the thorax.

The most painful spectacle in the world is that of an after-dinner speaker who gets up in a breezy, debonair manner and then becomes so nervous and that he forgets the point of every story he comes to and finally wanders off into a sickly soliloquy. Nervousness affects some after-dinner speakers to such an extent that they forget anybody else is on the program and pass right by several good stopping places. There would be less nervousness among entertainers of this class if they would write out their remarks and then learn how to pronounce most of the words.

The most rapid and virulent form of nervousness in existence is that which attacks a bridegroom just as he is about to walk the plank in the rear of the officiating clergyman. This malady usually induces him to step on the clergyman's heels, put the ring on the thumb of the bride, kiss his mother-in-law on the left ear and perform numerous minor pleasantries which his wife will remind him of for the next thirty years.

IN ONE MIUTE! CLOGGED NOSTRILS

OPEN—COLDS AND CATARRH VANISH

Stops Nasal Discharge, Clears Stuffed Head, Heals Inflamed Air Passages and You Breathe Freely.

Try "Ely's Cream Balm."

Get a small bottle anyway, just to try it—Apply a little in the nostrils and instantly your clogged nose and stopped-up air passages of the head will open; you will breathe freely; dullness and headache disappear; in the morning the catarrh, cold-in-head or catarrhal sore throat will be gone. End such misery now! Get the small bottle of "Ely's Cream Balm" at any drug store. This sweet, fragrant balm dissolves by the heat of the nostrils; penetrates and heals the inflamed, swollen membrane which lines the nose, head and throat; clears the air passages; stops nasty discharges and a feeling of cleansing, soothing relief comes immediately.

Don't lay awake to-night struggling for breath, with head stuffed, nostrils closed, hawking and blowing. Catarrh or a cold, with its running nose, foul mucous dropping into the throat, and raw dryness is distressing but truly needless.

Put your faith—just once—in "Ely's Cream Balm" and your cold or catarrh will surely disappear.

MANUFACTURERS NOT BENEFITED BY TARIFF CUTS

Sir Lyman Melvin-Jones Says the Implement-Makers Can't Break Into U.S. Market.

at two points for the English trade. We have been able to sell our offal to the United States right along and get a fair price for it. Now the American our mills will be able to get the this reduction of 15 cents a bushel, but they themselves from Manitoba with and making their own offal will get, as they have done right along, a much better price for their own wheat offal in the United States than we could get."

They Have Better Rates.

"Now we have a shipping rate to England of 10 cents a hundred pounds on wheat, and 21 cents per hundred pounds for flour. The millers of the United States have much better shipping rates than we have for flour and wheat, so you see they are now in a much better position to compete with us for the English market. With the reduction of the duty on wheat, the tendency will be for duty on wheat to flow into the States to be ground. The millers will get the revenues from the offal themselves; they have some method of Government supervision of shipping rates, and they get reasonable rates."

The millers of this country have repeatedly asked for better shipping rates from the companies, but nothing has been done, and an appeal is to be made to the Government.

"It may be that the slowness in cable orders at present to the mill here are due to the fact that they are this coming on the other side of the water."

CANADIAN MILLERS IN SAME POSITION

Though Americans are a Little Worse Off, If Anything, Now.

(Toronto Star)

"Whether the United States duty on agricultural implements were 2 per cent, or 50 per cent, would not make the slightest difference to the Canadian manufacturer of such articles," said Sir Lyman Melvin-Jones, president of the Massey-Harris Company, when asked his opinion of the proposed United States tariff, which puts agricultural implements on the free list. "Conditions in the States are and have been such that the American duties on agricultural implements have not the slightest interest for Canadian manufacturers. I don't think tariff changes in the United States will affect our position in the slightest."

"Any possibility of an export trade to the States?" inquired the Star.

The Senator laughed heartily. "That would be sending coals to Newcastle with a vengeance," he said. "Canadian manufacturers of plows and binders haven't the slightest chance to break in on the American market."

Won't Affect Lumber Trade.

The lumber merchants do not expect much immediate change from the removal of the duty on lumber contemplated in the proposed United States tariff.

"It won't affect us one way or the other," said Mr. R. A. Laidlaw of the R. J. Lumber Company. "The general opinion for lumber in Canada is at present so insistent that we are actually importing from the States. There has been so much building in Canada lately that the demand for lumber has for a time got ahead of the supply. We'll not be exporting much lumber across the line for some time to come."

"Ten years ago, however, we should have been overjoyed at the removal of the duty on lumber by the States. Things were dead here then, and we had any amount of wood to get rid of. But things are different at present. Eventually, of course, there will be a large export of lumber from Canada to the States, but not for several years. We're all glad to see the duty go, however. It was a spiteful piece of work at the best."

Makes Difference to Millers.

A. W. Campbell, of the Campbell Flour Mills, stated that the reduction of the duty on wheat from 25 cents a bushel to 10 cents a bushel in the United States certainly would make a difference to the millers in Canada. "It means now that we are handicapped in competition with the United States

MUSIC and DRAMA

Reverals are the rage just now, but the one of "Robin Hood," which will be seen at the Grand on Tuesday, April 15th, is probably the most pretentious one that has ever been made of a light opera. Not content to spend an immense sum for the scenery and the costumes, the management of the De Koven Opera Company has drawn from the principal opera houses of the world for its leading singers. Bessie Abbott, who heads the cast, had her first experience in the musical world at the Paris Grand Opera and this was followed by several seasons at the Metropolitan Opera House in New York. Henrietta Wakefield and Herbert Waterous also come from the last named theatre. Walter Hyde, by all odds the best tenor in England, hails from the Royal Opera, Covent Garden, in London. Sylvia Van Dyck is an English soprano who won her spurs at the Brussels Opera House, Anna Buesert was a member of the Berlin Opera House, while Mincha Piranzo was for several seasons at La Scala in Milan. In addition to its musical score, "Robin Hood" possesses a witty libretto and the principal fur-makers of the company will be Helen Mostyn, Phillip Sheffield and Anna Boyd. The musical director, Frank Tourin, comes from the Gaiety Theatre in London.

CAN FIND A CURE IN DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS

Madame Perreault Tells How She Cured Her Kidneys With Dodd's Kidney Pills, and Found Health and Contentment.

VERNER, Ont., Apr. 6 (Special)—"I am very content. Dodd's Kidney Pills have made me well. Those are the words of Madame Eugene Perreault, a highly respected lady of this place and mother of a large family. For twenty years she was a sufferer. But let her tell her own story.

"I was always tired and nervous," she stated, "I felt heavy and sleepy after meals. My limbs were heavy, and I had a dragging sensation across my loins. My skin itched and burned at night. I had a bitter taste in my mouth, especially in the morning. In twenty years I hardly knew what it was to have a well moment. Then I commenced to use Dodd's Kidney Pills. Six boxes cured me."

Madame Perreault's symptoms were those of kidney disease. They are the symptoms of nine out of ten of the nervous, run-down, pain-racked, women of Canada. Madame Perreault found a speedy and complete cure in Dodd's Kidney Pills. They simply cured her kidneys.

STREET CARS WRECKED, SCORES OF PEOPLE HURT

Militia is Called Out in Buffalo to Put Down the Disorder Arising From the Strike--Attempt Made to Dynamite the Car Barns and the Chief of Police is Fired At.

Rioting General Throughout City, People Being Injured and Much Damage Done Everywhere.

BUFFALO, April 9.—Scores of injured in the hospitals, 300 cars wrecked and not a wheel turning in the city was the situation in Buffalo at the close of the third day of the street car strike. On an order from Justice Spring of the Supreme Court, two regiments of the state militia will be called out today, including Troop 1 of the First State Cavalry.

One good sized stick of dynamite was found with a cap attached, under a corner of the floor of the Forrest Avenue car barns, by Detective Sergeant Caine O'Connor, and the chief of police ordered that investigation be made at all other barns.

At Niagara street and Forrest Avenue the strikers made a new departure when they dragged out a number of car wheels which lay in the yard of the New York Central Wheel Works, obstructing traffic for some time. In order to put down violence the police had to resort to gun play and in an encounter with a mob of strike breakers policemen had a gun fight with four rioters, but no one was hurt. One hundred cars that were being carried to the Main street car barns were looted by the striking men, after midnight in the houses.

The police up until a late hour last night were being called out to all parts of the city where rioting was still going on. Men were being injured and much damage was being done everywhere.

KING'S DEATH WAS CAUSED BY VACCINE

Suit for Damages Arises in Old Land.

Queen's Statement

That King Edward Received Benefit from Vaccine.

LONDON, April 9.—The suit for damages brought by Miss Lind, a prominent anti-vivisectionist, against William Waldorf Astor, the owner of the Pall Mall Gazette; J. L. Garvin, the editor-in-chief, and Dr. Caleb Williams Salesby, because of an article written by the latter, in which he accused the anti-vivisectionists of conducting a campaign of falsehood, was again in court today. Sir George Kekewich, who is closely identified with the Parliamentary Anti-Vivisection Society, took the stand and maintained his belief, published in a leaflet by the society at the time of the death of King Edward VII., that the latter's death was due to blood poisoning, following an injection of vaccine. The society withdrew the leaflet because Queen Alexandra objected to it. She gave out a statement in which she said: "King Edward was vaccinated against the grip or pneumonia before he went to Biarritz, and he benefited much from it. It kept him in excellent health for fifteen months. His attack at Biarritz in novise related to this treatment."

MAKES YOUR BACKACHE VANISH, DRIVES ALL RHEUMATIC PAINS AWAY

New Discovery Eases Stiff, Sore, Swollen Joints and Muscles Relieving Backache and Bladder Disorders After Few Doses are Taken.

No matter how badly you suffer, how chronic your case may be, or what has failed to cure you, your pains will leave, your aches vanish and the torturous killing backache or rheumatism will bother you no more.

This is what Croxone, the new scientific discovery does for sufferers of such troubles, it cures these diseases because it reaches the cause and removes it. It soaks right into the walls and linings of the kidneys and cleans out the stopped-up, inactive organs like water does a sponge—neutralizes and dissolves every particle of uric acid and makes the kidneys sift from the blood all the waste matter and poisons that lodge in the joints and muscles to scratch and irritate and cause rheumatism. It soothes and heals the delicate linings of the bladder and leaves the kidneys in a clean, strong healthy condition, so they can filter the blood and keep you well.

If you suffer with backache, have pains in the neck or sides, nervous or dizzy spells, a few doses of Croxone will relieve the congestion and you will be surprised how quickly all Croxone is different from all other remedies. It is not like anything else on earth ever used for the purpose. It starts to work the minute you take it and relieves you suffering the very first time you use it. It is so prepared that it is practically impossible to take it into the human system without results. You can secure an original package of Croxone at trifling cost from any first class druggist. All druggists are authorized to personally return the purchase price if Croxone should fail in a single case.

night invited strike leaders, police officials and representatives of the company to participate in a conference at his office. At the appointed hour no representative of the company appeared and the meeting was adjourned until a later hour.

Scores of the company's cars were put out of commission, and the company issued a statement in which it was said that over 400 cars have been damaged by mobs since the strike began. The entire police force has been on duty almost continuously since Sunday night, and last night Chief Regan swore in 200 additional men.

An Always Ready Pill—To those of regular habits medicine is of little concern, but the great majority of men are not of regular habit. The worry and cares of business prevent it, and out of the irregularity of life comes dyspepsia, indigestion, liver and kidney troubles as a protest. LIQUOR MEN AND Y. M. C. A.

Both Work To-Gether in Re-furnishing Flood Stricken Homes.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 9.—A contest between the retail liquor dealers' association of Indianapolis and the Y. M. C. A. in which the two organizations are working toward a common end, that of aiding flood victims in rehabilitation of their homes, is lending a spirit of keenest rivalry to the plan of re-furnishing houses ruined by the overflow. The saloonkeepers already have given a thousand dollars to the flood relief fund when yesterday afternoon Mayor Shank appeared at their meeting and explaining that the Y. M. C. A. had refurnished three hundred homes, challenged the liquor dealers to do as well.

In fifteen minutes after the Mayor finished his talk, $1,021 had been raised toward the fund and pledges to refurnish fifty homes had been received. A committee of liquor dealers was appointed to continue the work today and the Chairman promised Mayor Shank his organization would at least try to equal the record set by the Y. M. C. A.

KING NICHOLAS MAY ABDICATE

If European Powers bring Force Against His Little Kingdom

(Canadian Press Despatch)

LONDON, April 9.—King Nicholas of Montenegro has definitely arranged plans for his abdication if force should be employed by the European powers against his little kingdom to prevent it from obtaining the territory it considers necessary for its independence, according to information obtained in official Monteneigrin circles in London today.

The arrangements for this action were made by King Nicholas in consultation with King Peter of Serbia, the agreement being that King Nicholas should abdicate and with his family quit his country.

Montenegro would then effect a union with Serbia, while King Nicholas and his family would be given an appropriate provision from the civil list and would reserve the right of succession to the Serbo-Monteneigrin throne.

LIBERALS ARE PERPLEXED

There is No "Gag" Feature About Closure Proposed by Mr. Borden.

OTTAWA, April 9.—Parliament has talked navy in parliament and closure out of it.

The Prime Minister's notice was all day under the anxious scrutiny of the best Parliamentarians in the Liberal ranks. Every argument that can be conjured up against it and every precedent that can be twisted into a support for the Liberal attitude has been diligently searched out for use in the debate upon the Borden resolution.

The Opposition will fight the closure with every weapon which the rules permit, and where the rules are not wide enough the blockers are prepared to break them.

The Opposition hoped for and expected a form of closure much more drastic than that which is proposed. They wanted and expected a chance to talk about "gag" and "the right of British free speech." They are disappointed because there is no "gag" and because the right of British free speech is being amply preserved.

Those Liberals who want the obstruction stopped, and they are many, secretly welcome the closure. Even the irreconcilables recognize in it a means of saving them from themselves.

Premier Borden will move the resolution today unless prevented by the slight indisposition from which he is suffering.

ANNIVERSARY WAS OBSERVED

Salvation Army Held Very Pleasing Event Last Night.

The best banquet and concert given under the Salvation Army auspices in many years were features at the anniversary which was observed last night. The local corps was launched in Brantford in Victoria Park, June 22, 1884, and officers were permanently stationed here April 3, 1885.

Three large tables in yellow, red and blue in charge of the young people, the band and the songsters respectively, made the banquet a very pretty one. The judges of the table competition were Messrs. Darwin, Sr., Crooker and Whitaker and the reds won, followed by the blues.

The concert had an excellent program, consisting of the following numbers:—

Concertina, Liberty Bell, Mr. Huntington; Remarks on Early Day Fighting, Mr. S. G. Ready; violin solo "Kilbarney" Mr. A. McKellogg; vocal solo, Mr. G. Crooker; dialogue, "Sweet Violets," Masters C. and T. Uden. C. Mulley; selection by the songsters; financial report, Secy. T. Brown; pianoforte solo, Miss Gladys Veen; incidents called from old fighters, 29 years ago; Scotch solo, tune "Bonny Mary of Argyll," Secretary T. Brown; dialogue, "Critic and Salvationist," Deputy Bandmaster and Band Secy; vocal solo, "Over the Bounding Main" Mr. G. Crooker; selection by the Silver Band; dialogue, "Seeing the Animals," Mrs. and Miss Rhoda Buck; electric club swinging, Instructor Ramza Ward; Doxology.

Mr. John Kerr of this city spent Monday in Woodstock.

Mr. Ed. Brooks was a Woodstock visitor the early part of this week.

Mrs. C. C. Fissette, 110 Darling St. will not receive on Thursday, April Tenth.

Mrs. Claude Secord and Miss Pearl Secord are visitors in Toronto to-day.

Mr. Reg. Whale, who has been a recent visitor in Brantford, leaves for Chicago again to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Belcher and family, 84 Clarence street, left for Winnipeg to-day, where they will reside in future.

A most enjoyable dance was given by the Bankers in Tillsonburg on Monday evening—several out-of-town people attending.

Mrs. Hoskin and Mr. Gordon Hoskin, who have been recent visitors at Atlantic City, returned to Toronto the early part of this week.

The many friends of Mrs. J. R. Taylor, Brighton Row, will be pleased to learn that she has quite recovered from her recent illness.

Mrs. Hugh McKenzie Wilson, Dufferin avenue, was the hostess of the Ladies' Bridge Club on Monday evening, Mrs. E. A. Mahon, Mrs. George Hatley and Mrs. F. D. Reville winning high score.

The engagement is announced of Margaret Jane, youngest daughter of Mrs. Dougald McEwen, Brantford, to Charles Henry Van Loan of Waterford. The marriage is to take place the latter part of April.

Miss Edna Leys, a former Brantfordite, and but recently a graduate of the Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal, is now in England doing private nursing at 10 Beaumont street, Portland Place, London.

Several beautifully written manuscripts have been received from Miss Evelyn Johnson, by the Brant Historical society (of which she has been made Associate Historian), which are of invaluable assistance to the society and much appreciated.

A pleasant episode occurred at the Princess Theatre, Toronto, when Miss Bessie Abbott, leading prima donna of the Robin Hood (De Koven) Company, listened to the singing of about twenty young singers of Toronto, who are aspiring to an operatic and dramatic career.

Mrs. Alexander Fair has returned from an extended visit to her daughter, Mrs. Walter Hyslop, in Chicago. The heartfelt sympathy of their countless friends goes out in the hour of their bereavement to the family of the late Mrs. Enos Bunnell, who passed quietly away this morning at the home, 41 Wellington street.

The regular meeting of the newly-formed Regimental Chapter I.O.D.E. was held in the mess rooms of the Dufferin Rifles armories on Monday evening, 30 of the already signed membership of 55 being present and great enthusiasm shown in the organization. It is proposed to hold a "tea" for the benefit of the Dufferin Rifles Chapter later on in the month, announcement of which will be made in due time.

Much interest is manifest in the coming engagement of the De Koven Opera Co. and its cast of grand opera stars in "Robin Hood" at the Grand Opera House, Tuesday, April 15th.

Seats will be placed on sale on Saturday, and it is announced that the following well known singers will positively appear: Bessie Abbott, Walter Hyslop, Hilda Walsfield, Robert Waterous, George Frothingham, Anna Boyd, Hallen Mostyn and Phillip Sheffield.

The company's own orchestra, augmented by all the local musicians available, will interpret the music under the conduction of Frank Tours, the London composer.

The chorus, handsome, tuneful and of a goodly number, are an especial feature of the entertainment.

The marriage of Miss Katherine Foster, only daughter of Mr. John G. Foster, consul-general for the United States, and Mrs. Foster, to Mr. Carroll Aikens of Winnipeg, son of the late J. Somerset Aikens of that city, takes place quietly on Wednesday, April 16th, in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Ottawa. The bride will be attended by the bridegroom's sister, Miss Mary Aikens, as maid of honor, and the best man will be Mr. George Culver of Winnipeg. The bride's brothers, Messrs. Austen and Stephen Foster, will act as ushers.

It may not be generally known that Norman E. Mack, the Buffalo newspaper man appointed by President Wilson as United States ambassador to Austria-Hungary, is a Canadian by birth, born in West Williams county, Ontario, Ottawa. The bride became a news agent, working on the railway out of London for a number of years before going to Buffalo to start on the career that has made him a power in the Democratic party.

The Marguerite knot is the latest fashion (ad to be inaugurated by one of the President's daughters, Miss Marguerite Wilson has interested the younger set in the quaint black velvet bow knot she wears on her left shoulder instead of the neck. Her friends have christened this tiny bow "The Marguerite Knot" and are using it as the final touch on their afternoon costumes.

A CHALLENGE WITHOUT ANY CONDITION

Sir Thomas Lipton Wants Yacht Race.

Leaves No Loopholes No

New York Yacht Club Will Find Unconditional Defiance Hard to Evade.

LONDON, April 9.—Sir Thomas Lipton, the British yachtsman, today sent an unconditional challenge for a series of races for the America's Cup, and, after ten years' undisturbed possession of the trophy, American yachtsmen must again prepare to defend it. The challenge was cable to the New York Yacht Club to-day through the Royal Ulster Yacht Club.

After the challenge had been sent Sir Thomas said to the Associated Press: "They will now either have to race or give me the cup."

The cablegram transmitted to the New York Yacht Club read as follows:—"I have the honor to inform you that the Royal Ulster Yacht Club has received the following communication from Sir Thomas Lipton:—"Although our opinions differ from those of the New York Yacht Club as to the meaning of the deed of gift in the interests of yachting and with a view to eliminating any possible source of discord, I shall be glad you will inform the New York Yacht Club that I withdraw all stipulation as to the size of the yacht defending the America's Cup and I look forward to a good race with my 75 footer in 1914 (Signed) Thos. Lipton."

"We have the greatest pleasure in transmitting the foregoing and trust that the New York Yacht Club will share the view of the Royal Ulster Yacht Club that Sir Thomas Lipton has solved the difficulty in a satisfactory manner. By separate cablegram I am sending the formal challenge (Signed) T. F. Patterson, Hon. Secretary."

The formal challenge is worded precisely as was the former challenge with the exception that the clause stipulating the size of the boat has been omitted.

British yachtsmen believe that since Sir Thomas Lipton declares in his unconditional challenge his intention to enter a 75-footer, the American syndicate must build a boat of approximately the same length. To exercise their freedom of the term (Continued on Page 10)

Spring Longings

By WALT MASON

I'd fain be a-fishing while I sit here dishing up motheaten verses for butter and bread; I'd like to be straying in green lanes and playing in sweet scented meadows, with blossoms bespread. I yearn for the forest where songbirds have chorused their anthems in April for thousands of years; I sigh for the wildwood where now, as in childhood, I'd gambol around like the friskiest steers. I'd like to be swimming, like gossling a-skimming around in the brooklet, my clothes on the brink; it's sad to be trammelled by bathtub enameled, when one is so anxious to plunge in the drink. This life brings me closer to butcher and grocer, I order my fish from the market or store; no more do I angle, my baited hooks dangle in front of the suckers and troutlets no more. I sigh for the open, I find myself hopin' that I can go fishing in June or July; but just for the present I find my chair pleasant, and I am contented to sit here and sigh. In springtime we're yearning, our bosoms are burning with fond recollections of woodland and stream; it all ends in wishing; when some one says "Fishing," we think staying home is a bully good scheme.

Here She Comes.

Yes, here she comes—the Grand Old Game—The old Hip, Hip, and all the rest, Where peaceful eyes are now aflame And frenzy grips the bulging breast; Where hope eternal upward springs Until about the Tenth of May—Whereat the old-time Anvil rings And gives "Next Year" another play.

Yes, here she comes—the Grand Old Stuff.

Some Institution is the phrase; The essence of all hectic fluff, And yet the dream of barren days Since Boston fought her way to fame, As New York took the soapy dip, You've counted seconds till it came; So now go to it—let'er rip.

The ball club which does better than any one expects it to do stalks along an easy trail. The worst knock in the world is an over-boast.

Several years ago we asked Bill Bernard where he thought his club would finish. "If I am talking for private information," he replied, "I think we'll finish 1-2. If I am talking for publication, make it seventh place. It's better to start in seventh place before the season starts and work up to fifth than to start in first place and drop to fourth." Big Bill knew something more than how to run a ball club.

In other words it's the unexpected winner who produces the vibration—not the old-on favorite in a pipe heat.

To a Point of Order.

Prof. G. B. Smith, the well-known savant desires to rise to a point of order.

Prof. Smith would like to know whether there are any more budding hopes between him and Luther McCarthy. If not, Prof. Smith and a good many others figure it's about time that Luther was steaming into range.

It is announced that the winner of Cross-Rivers match is to meet Willie Ritchie.

If the announcement is framed to pan out within a year keep it shut off from Willie until it's too late to duck.

Ball players returning from the south and west are reported to be in shape to swim at a 300 clip from the jump. Annette Kellerman, in comparison, is a lameness out on the dry sand. She may have more talent, but she hasn't drawn the same chance for preliminary practice.

Says the Ottawa Free Press:

Score is 2-2 in last half of ninth. Ottawa at bat; bases full; two out and three and two on the hitter. What should the Brantford pitcher do?

C. Q. D.—Brantford—Strike him out. S.O.S., Ottawa—Walk him.

132,000 saw a football game in Glasgow. When Scotland scored they, say it sounded like a downpour of marbles on a hardwood floor.

As all the 1913 crop of Canadian League umpires are strangers to Ottawa, they will come in for some original ethn music from the front row habitues at Lansdowne Park. Bill Pearson declared last season he was never called anything worse than a yeggman in the Capital. Umpire Cancelli said he never enjoyed anything better than the fast hundred he did from the grandstand to the street car one day in Ottawa. Welcome back robbers.

Circuit Notes.

Manager Louie Cook of Guelph, has signed a phenomenal hitter who is expected to wreck all the fences around the circuit. Last year he clouted .430—in the Cornbeef and Cabbage League.

London's pitching staff will be strengthened by a youngster who won every game he pitched last season.

His record is: Won 2, Lost 0; Per. 1.00.

The fence buster who signed up with Berlin on the strength of making four homers and a triple in one game has been released. His record was made on a Eureka baseball board.

St. Thomas has a second Bob Beshcher who stole 96 bases in 1912. They all belonged to the Reach Company and he brought them into Canada so the official scorers would give him credit for 'em.

Peterboro's catcher, who never had a base stolen on him has been let out. His rep. was made in a one, two league where only a single base was used.

Thursday, May the 15th is the anniversary of the demise of numerous grandmothers, and office boys in particular will take the afternoon off to strew flowers over the graves of the departed ones. Strange the office boy's grandfathers never kicks in.

In Addition to Which—Lives of hold-out oft remind us In the essence talk is cheap—And departing leave behind us, Threats we never meant to keep.

There has been an ominous lull about the Browns so far. Can it be that Stovell is preparing to smash another world's record by lifting his people another notch. The Browns in seventh place looked strange, enough, but the Browns in sixth place would need a letter of introduction to get recognized.

The Old Pep is often mentioned as a casual incident across the fray. Yet that's all Washington tacked on in 1912 to move from seventh into second place. As to what its true worth is—all the rest of it from the Bating Orb to the Salary Whip with the O. P. missing, isn't worth 7 cents a hog's head or 3 beans a bale.

Each time we figure the Red Sox a cinch to repeat, we take another look at that Athletic line-up with two young pitchers of merit added and immediately request waivers upon all bets.

Jack Sloan says he has a pupil, weight 165 pounds who will wrestle Harry Ireland for $10 or up. Prof. Sloan is quite sure his pupil can defeat Ireland. We rise to remark that first thing these wrestlers know there will be a suffragette parade and they will be forgotten unless they supply some action pretty soon.

LEAFS AT LAST SCORE A VICTORY

GOODWORK BY TROUT

RICHMOND, Va., April 9.—Heavy sweaters were again the order yesterday's Toronto-Richmond game, which the Leafs won by 7 to 5. Kelley's men were inclined to burlesque the piece, but took advantage of every opportunity to rehearse signals, offensive and defensive. In addition they hit the ball hard in spite of the best efforts of three Richmond pitchers. Last night the Kelley's left for Washington to engage the Senators.

Herbert worked the first five innings for Toronto, and shut Richmond out, with four well scattered hits, no two in an inning. When Kuba went to the mound, in the sixth, he was hit for a double and two singles, which, with two errors, were good for three runs. Two singles and Shaw's error were productive of two more runs in the ninth.

Toronto hit for ten extra bases, gathering no less than five triples. Bridges, with Toronto for a month early in 1907, pitched the last three innings for Richmond. Shaw cut off a home run with a jumping, bare-handed catch. Trout caught the entire game, and featured it with good throwing to bases, in addition to brilliant work in other departments.

After training was over, the committee met and it was decided to purchase new jerseys in time for the opening league game. Dufferin Club.

There was a good turnout last night of the Dufferin Rifles club for training, under trainer, Sergeant Blues. The following players were present: George, Cole, Mercer, Richardson, Dudden, Hurson, Harris, Rogers, Cook, H. Martin, Hutchinson, Bingham, Lofly.

There were interested spectators members of various clubs in the city, who seemed to take a keen interest in the Duffs training. In the final run the colonel passed a jovial remark to the trainer, "You're last." The trainer replied, "I may be last but not least." The trainer reports the team fit and able to put a good game up on Saturday. The following are the team selected to play on Saturday against the Hamilton team:

CHICAGO, April 9.—Frank Schulte who predicted a few days ago that he would make thirty homers this season, to-day drove out two of them, and materially assisted the Chicago Nationals in winning 12 to 1 a practice game from Minneapolis, champions of the American Association. Rainbow the 24 karat flour

Just as the metal refiner repeatedly skims off the dross from the molten gold, so we remove, by repeated bolting, the fibre, embryo germ and other dross of the wheat that enters into the making of Rainbow Flour.

Were Karat marks given to flour, Rainbow would win the verdict "24 Karat." And it is the only flour that would be entitled to such distinction. For in its milling, the less desirable elements are most painstakingly removed.

We utilize only the choicest portion of the wheat berry. There is not a trace of fibre in Rainbow Flour—not a trace of dirt or germ—nothing remains but the pure starch and gluten.

What bread it makes! Snow-white and flaky—a mouth-melting delight!

Test some and you'll agree it's the one 24 Karat Flour.

BIG LEAGUE OPENS TO-DAY

First Game Will be Played To-Day On Brooklyn's New Field.

(Canadian Press Dispatch)

NEW YORK, April 9.—Under a brilliant April sun, major league baseball got a running start for 1913 to-day with the official opening of the National League season at Ebbett's Field in Brooklyn towards which "fans" began to flock at an early hour for the initial clash of the big league baseball year.

By the grace of the baseball powers that be, the Brooklyn club, so that the new field might be fittingly dedicated, was permitted to have an opening day to itself, properly assisted, of course, by a visiting team, the Philadelphia. Not until tomorrow will the game be on in the big double circuit as a whole, teams of the National and American leagues meeting then in the usual full complement of eight cities.

Partisans of to-day's competing teams each braced by new material and with the old stars nearly all back in form, anticipated an interesting battle for the season's initial honors. President Lynch of the National League, assigned Klem and Orth to umpire the game. President Ebbets of Brooklyn had a band out early and a flag raising and other opening day ceremonies for his fine new park arranged for the benefit of the loyal home enthusiasts.

The Ring

British fight fans will celebrate to-day the anniversary of the birthday of Jem Mace, one time heavyweight champion of the world, who died in 1910 in his eighty-first year. A monument to the great prize fighter has been erected at Norwich, where Mace lived for many years. Mace was born in Norfolk, and was the Cy Young of the ring in staying ability. Beginning his pugilistic career as a lad he continued fighting until well past sixty, and won several battles with fairly good men when beyond the three-score mark. He won the championship by defeating Sam Hurst, "The Stalybridge Infan" in 1861. In the following year he defended his belt against Tom King. Half a century ago Mace and King again met in the squared circle, and this time King was the victor. Tom claimed (Continued on Page 10)

MOST REMARKABLE CRICKET MATCH

Game Extended Over a Month, and Then Abandoned By the Teams.

SIX CENTURIES MADE

(By E. S. Jackson) One of the most remarkable cricket matches ever played recently took place in the West Indies. It was a game in which the Pickwicks and Wanderers, two well known clubs played off a tie in the Barbados Senior Cup competition.

The match was started on December 7th, and when play ceased for the day only one wicket had fallen. A week later the game was resumed, and the Pickwicks' first innings closed at 227. During the third day's play only four Wanderers' wickets fell, the score standing at 204 when stumps were pulled. On December 21st the match was continued, and at the end of the day 566 runs had been scored for the loss of seven wickets. Then on January 4th the game was resumed and the Wanderers first innings having closed for 673 runs, the Pickwicks went in again, and had lost one wicket for 188 when play ceased for the day. It was again resumed on January 11, and when 306 runs had been totalled for four wickets the match was abandoned as the ground was required for an M.C.C. feature.

In the course of the game 24 wickets realized 1,366 runs; there were no less than six centuries, 3 of which were made in the Wanderers' first innings; one batsman topped the hundred twice, and another was only five runs short of the 200 mark.

The Visiting Australians The latest information to hand as to the personnel of the Australian cricket eleven, now on their way to Vancouver, shows that New South Wales will have at least six men on the team. These will include C. G. Macartney, whose acceptance of a place on it after his announcement that he had given up big cricket is somewhat of a surprise. Playing for N.S.W. against South Australia recently he scored 125 and 76 not out. V. T. Trumper, who will captain the eleven, is also apparently in the team. Some of the interesting matches in which he engaged was against South Australia, when he played a brilliant 201 not out and 96. W. Bardsley, another of the 'big guns' who will be included in the team, recently batted 148 minutes for 90 runs without giving a ghost of a chance. Other N.S.W. men will be H. L. Collins, F. S. Annot and A. Mailey. South Australia are sending J. N. Crawford (bat and best performance with the bat 93 against Victoria), E. R. Mayne, W. J. Whitty, and G. C. Campbell. The latter will be the team's wicket keeper, whilst Crawford, Macartney and Whitty, all of whom have been doing considerable mischief with the ball in recent big matches in Australia, will be the principal bowlers. Queensland and Victoria will each furnish a representative; but neither Armstrong nor Hill, who have been mentioned as members of the team, will take on the trip. Although a much stronger eleven could have been selected, the visitors will no doubt prove themselves quite strong enough for the opposition they will encounter either in the United States or in Canada.

The Ottawa baseball club today completed its field with the signing of Tom O'Hara, the shortstop who has been working out with the New York Americans in Bermuda. He was recommended by Frank Chance, Pitcher Carpenter, after signing with Ottawa, jumped to the Richmond club. No action will be taken. Frank Shaughnessy leaves for Port Wayne next Monday night and will report with twenty-one players there the following week. Word was received to-day that the Fort Wayne diamond would be suitable for practice purposes. Dolan and Robertson will play first and third, while Tom O'Hara, Williams and Arnold, of the Notre Dame University recruit, will fight it out for short and second base. They may get Harris, an outfielder, from Richmond.

Merle's Homer Beat Senators. WASHINGTON, April 9.—The New York Nationals won yesterday's game from the Washington Americans, when with two men on bases, Merkle hit a fast drive over second, which took an odd bound and went in for a home run, three scoring. The final score was 4 to 2. Mathewson and Marquard pitched excellent ball for New York, while Gallia and Boehling, Washington recruits, showed good form. The score:

Phillies Again Beaten. PHILADELPHIA, April 9.—In an exhibition game, the Philadelphia Americans defeated the local National League team yesterday by a score of 6 to 5. Durning, a youngster of the Americans pitched splendid ball up until the eighth when he was hit hard, and the Nationals secured all of their runs. Pennock relieved him in the ninth and checked the rally. Score:

Table with 2 columns: Team, Score. Nationals 6, Phillies 5.

Red Sox Beat Harvard. BOSTON, April 9.—The Red Sox returned yesterday to Fenway Park, scene of their world series exploits, and defeated the Harvard College nine, five to nothing. The Crimson runners never passed second base. Leonard and Foster, the Red Sox recruit pitchers had their game well in hand at all times.

The game was played in football weather, and the crowd was a small one. Boston scored all its runs off Pelton, who pitched the first six innings for Boston. The Crimson twirlers were effective in spots, striking out three men in the second inning. His passes at other times were costly. Score:

Roots, Barks, Herbs

Are skillfully combined with other valuable ingredients in Hood's Sarsaparilla, making it, in our opinion, the strongest and safest, the most successful, and the most widely useful medicine for the Blood, Stomach, Liver and Kidneys. It contains not only Sarsaparilla, but also those great Alteratives, Stillings and Blue Flag; those great Anti-Bilious and Liver remedies, Mandrake and Dandelion; those great Kidney remedies, Uva Ursi, Juniper Berries and Pipsissewa; those great Stomach Tonics, Gentian Root and Wild Cherry Bark; and other valuable curative agents.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Is of wonderful benefit in cases of Rheumatism, Sciatica, Oostarrh, Stomach Troubles, Kidney and Liver Affections, Scrofula, Eczema, Skin Diseases, Blood Poisons, Boils, Ulcers, all Eruptions, General Debility, Loss of Appetite, That Tired Feeling, and other Ills arising from Impure Blood.

Leonard, Foster, Carrigan and Cady. Highlanders Jinx Still Exists. NEWARK, N. J., April 9.—The "jinx" of the New York American League Club continued on duty yesterday afternoon when Chance's men, minus their leader, met the Newark club of the International League here and were defeated in a loosely played game, 12 to 7. In the ninth innings Third Baseman Roy Hartzell, who has been doing sterling work at the difficult corner in the preliminary corner, was struck by a foul tip from his own bat and knocked unconscious. He had to be carried off the field and it was feared his injury was exceptionally pleasing. The company is also worthy of the environment. Gus Collins, the eminent minstrel star, offers an excellent study of Uncle Tom.

The Old Favorite. There has never been so lavish and adequate a production of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" as that which Kibble and Martin will offer amusement lovers at the Grand, Friday, April 17, matinee and night. The scenes are large enough to fill the most spacious stage could no teasily be improved. Those representing the Ohio River in winter, the rocky pass in which Geo. Harris protects his family, the St. Clair plantation, the levee at New Orleans, the cotton fields in full bloom, and the "Celestial City" are all most notable effects. Each picture the reality as closely as paint and canvass will permit and the stage perspective is so deep that the effect is exceptionally pleasing. The company is also worthy of the environment. Gus Collins, the eminent minstrel star, offers an excellent study of Uncle Tom.

It is evident that Ervin Trout, the former Peterboro backstop, now in the south with Kelly's Leas, is using his overplus of gray matter to good advantage. In yesterday's game he engineered the neatest and most unique play ever witnessed in any league. The dispatch giving Trout due credit states as follows: "The feature play of the game was made by Catcher Trout, the Peterboro recruit, in the sixth inning. With first base occupied and nobody out, the batsman put down a sacrifice hit. Bradley fielded the ball close to the foul line about twenty feet from the plate and Fitzpatrick expecting play at second, covered that bag. Bradley threw the batsman out at first, but third was left uncovered. Trout hustled to the bag, took Jordans throw in time to get the runner. It was a play seldom seen."

Lady Marjorie's Love

Now, although the Dowager Countess had been thus totally forgotten by her granddaughter, it chanced that Marjorie had not been forgotten by the Dowager Countess. Getting tired presently of trying to go to sleep and failing, and getting still more tired of contemplating the handsome, motionless figure of Lady Marjorie, somewhat ostentatiously absorbed in a flame-coloured magazine, the old lady's thought reverted to the passionate little figure which had rushed out of the room in a whirl of rage an hour or two before. No doubt the saucy little mix was somewhere either crying or sulking. The Dowager, being at once fidgety and irate, got up, shook out her brocaded skirts, took up the ivory headed stick without which she never moved indoors or out, and approached the curtained arch leading to the hall. The little mix must be brought to hear reason then and there and to understand that Ireland and Ireland only was her future destination.

"Sure it's a little fool, she is to think of Eleanor Paget at all!" the old lady muttered, with a nod or two. "No, it's to me own home in Tipperary my Lady Marjorie will go, and it's thankful enough she ought to be for the chance of it. Eleanor Paget indeed! Sure it's a pretty thing if her own father's mother isn't to do as she likes with her."

The Dowager might have continued her soliloquy, but that there struck upon her ear from the other side of the curtain the ripple of a soft little laugh. It was Marjorie's voice, and it had no sound of tears in it—quite the contrary. The Dowager softly pulled aside the curtain and stared with all her might. The big sofa was full in her range of vision, and shrewdly, more pitilessly piercing eyes than her ladyship's never shone and twinkled yet. She had never set them on Gerard Barrington in her life before, but she knew him as instantly as if she had been his own mother. The Dowager, as proud an old woman as ever wore a coronet, fairly bristled with indignation.

"Sitting close enough to her to count her eyelashes, and she looking down to let him do it!" commented the irate old woman. "Very well, my Lady Marjorie! And what is it, I'd like to be told, that ye're whispering about as though butter wouldn't melt in the mouths of ye? Ah, plays, is it?"

"It must be lovely," Marjorie said, with a sigh. "I should love to see her play that."
"I am sure you would. I should like to take you!"
"Sure it's eat her ye'd like to judging by the looks of ye!" commented the Dowager.
"I suppose though, that I never shall see her now that I'm going abroad."

"It's Ireland ye are going to before ye are a week older, and it's tight enough up that I'll shut ye when I see ye there I promise ye, my lady!" muttered the incensed watcher.
CHAPTER XX
The Dowager Countess's wrath was of the type which grows the hotter and angrier for nursing. Her bell was pealing a good hour before the usual time in the morning, and she rated her unlucky maid during her long and elaborate toilet with such unusual loudness, acrimony, and venom that she was audible in her granddaughter's room causing poor little Marjorie to tremble in her shoes and wonder what could be the matter with her grandmother now. In short, the Dowager was in a desperately bad temper, and burning to give everybody a piece of her mind. There was belated in the very set of her cap, and threatened war in every tap of her stick as she went downstairs to breakfast.

Barrington, encountering the little woman halfway across the hall, and bowing politely to her ladyship, reeling by the "books of ye!" commented the Dowager.
"I suppose though, that I never shall see her now that I'm going abroad."

"It's Ireland ye are going to before ye are a week older, and it's tight enough up that I'll shut ye when I see ye there I promise ye, my lady!" muttered the incensed watcher.
The Will Habit
By RUTH CAMERON
"A MAN'S will is his heaven," says an old proverb. It seems to me the proverb-maker should have added, "or his hell."

The other day we were talking about a woman who has a very powerful will. She dominates every one with whom she comes into contact by the force of her tremendous will. She is the dominant force in several societies to which she belongs. She has ruled her parents and brothers and sisters for years. Her profession is that of nursing, and before she has been in a patient's home twenty-four hours, she is managing it, unless perchance she happens to meet a will as strong as her own. And that is very seldom.

Now this woman is extremely clever and competent, and usually far more capable of managing things than those whom she dominates. Moreover, she is self-sacrificing and kind-hearted, and wants nothing so much as to help every one. And yet, as you easily imagine, she antagonizes people everywhere she goes. At the mention of this woman, some one expressed a feeling pity for her family, especially for a younger sister whom she has managed into a very pulp of incompetence. And then the Man-Who-Thinks spoke up and said, "I pity the woman herself far more than any one else."

"Why?" asked the Author-Man. "Because she makes so many enemies?"
"No," said the Man-Who-Thinks, "not exactly that, but because she can't help making so many enemies by it, but think how it dominates her. She dominates other people by it, but think how it dominates her. Remember, she didn't create that will; it was born in her, and I believe it drives her just as relentlessly as she drives other people."
That's a rather new point of view, isn't it?
But a very convincing one, I think.
When one of these dominating people comes into our orbit and tries to drive us by his or her will, we are apt to feel resentment. And yet after all, are they not more to be pitied than blamed?
We do not blame the man who inherits a taste for drink; we pity him. But what is the power of a taste for drink compared to that of a taste for dominating? The love of drink is in the blood, we say. The imperious will that dominates its possessor as well as every one else is even more deeply rooted than that. It is part of a man's very nature.
I know a man who has antagonized his wife and children, and made his home a bleak and loveless place by his dominating will. Do you think he really wanted to do that? Do you think he prefers loneliness and hate to love? Not so. He is simply the worst victim of his own will.
Of course, if they struggled hard enough, these people could conquer their tyrannical wills; but then, so might the drunkard conquer his habit. And yet we pity rather than blame him. Why should we be less lenient to the victim of the will habit?

TERRIBLE RESULT OF BLOOD POISON

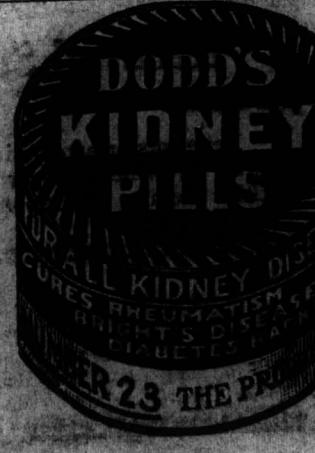

After Three Operations Zam-Buk Was Tried and Proved Successful

If people would only use Zam-Buk for chronic sores, blood-poison, etc. before permitting an operation, scores of limbs would be saved.
Mr. Robt. Patterson of North Pelham, Welland Co., Ont., writes: "My daughter, Annie, had blood-poison in her finger. The doctor operated twice on the finger but did not obtain the desired result, and a third operation was considered necessary."
"We at last tried Zam-Buk, and it was really wonderful to watch how this balm healed the wound. Each day there was a marked improvement. First the wound in the palm of the hand closed, and then the finger which had been bad so long began to heal. The deceased flesh seemed to rise out of the wound and then drop off, and new healthy flesh formed from below, pushing off the diseased tissue. In a short time the wound was completely healed. Had we not tried Zam-Buk at first we might have saved the finger."
"We had another proof of Zam-Buk's power in the case of my son. When two years old he had his hand badly mangled. One finger had to be amputated and it left a running sore for some months. This would also have been healed by Zam-Buk."
For chronic sores, blood-poison, ulcers, abscesses, scalp sores, piles, eruptions, inflamed patches, eczema, cuts, burns, bruises, and all skin injuries and diseases Zam-Buk's with out-equal, see box all druggists and stores, or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price.
