Town and County News.

PUSLINCH AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.—This Society have fixed Tuesday the 8th October as the date of their annual Exhibition, to be held on the Society's grounds, Aberfoyle.

BASE BALL.—A game of base ball was played in Acton between the "Renforts," of Stewarttown, and the "Pastimes," of Acton, on the 20th, which resulted in favor of the "Pastimes" by a score of 63 to 15.

OUR YOUNG FOLKS.—This is one of the most attractive publications of Messrs. Osgood & Co., and is especially suited to young people. It contains much instructive and interesting reading and is nicely illustrated. For sale at the bookstores.

On Friday last, Mr. Wm. Hele, father of Mr. John Hele, Druggist, Elora, was taking hay into his son's barn, and had just finished when he stepped upon the end of the plank, which tipped up, and he fell heavily to the ground, breaking several of his ribs. Owing to the injuries he received at the time, he died on the morning of Tuesday last, in the 74th year of his age.

NOTES CRESCENT CITY CIRCUS.—The mammoth establishment will visit our Town next Saturday, and give two exhibitions. It is spoken of by the press as one of the most entertaining circuses travelling. They have four clowns, the best equestrians of the day, the most surprising and talented female trapeze performer, Miss Millie Turnour; also some celebrated trained horses. In addition to the circus performance, they give a grand free balloon ascension, which will be a new feature to our people, Prof. A. Rose, a celebrated aeronaut, making the ascension.

FIRE IN HILLSBURG.—On Saturday about two o'clock a most disastrous fire occurred in Hillsburg, totally destroying Mr. Lang's bakery, dwelling house and stables, also Mr. Close's tavern and out-buildings. Had it not been for the strenuous efforts of the inhabitants the great part of the village would have been in ruins. Messrs. Lang and Close saved very little of their furniture, the flames spreading so fast that they were unable with all the assistance at hand, to get out. There is some insurance on the property, but we have not learned to what amount. The origin of the fire is unknown, some saying that it started in the bakery others in the stable.

ALLANTIC MONTHLY.—We have received the August number of the Atlantic from the publishers. There is a variety of reading in this month's number, and all of it of a very interesting character. We have another instalment of Hawthorne's Septimus Felton, second very clever paper on why Seneca of the Alabama was not tried; a Hawthorne Romance by Aldrich; an amusing article by James Parton on Johnson's amusing account of Mrs. Cass's Lippincott's courtship; and a further instalment of the Comedy of Terror, the Poet at the Breakfast Table; like reviews of new books, and interesting papers on Art, the Stage, Science and Politics. For sale at the bookstores.

POLICE COURT.

James, William and Bridget Corbett, for being drunk and disorderly on shire street on Monday, were fined each and costs, or 15 days at hard labor.

Base Ball Notes.

The Mutuals defeated the Athletics of Philadelphia, on Saturday, by a score of 11 to 6, and the Troy club defeated the Boston club at Boston, on the same day, by a score of 17 to 10.

Boston, puritan Boston, has just opened its public library on State Street.

About one-third of the world's production of sugar is from the beet-root.

Mr. Wm. Johnstone, M. P. for Glasgow, had a magnificent reception at his home to-day.

Among the latest arrivals at the migrant Home are several experienced farm managers and French and English gardeners.

The Paisley Advocate says that the young men belonging to the Glasgow and Paisley regiments, who were caught a large maskalonge Saugen river.

The Ottawa Citizen understands that Messrs. T. & W. Pannock have secured a Plumbago mine in Buckingham to furnish firm for one hundred thousand tons of Plumbago.

A son of Patrick Wallis, of New Glasgow, was killed on Monday afternoon, driving a load of lumber into a mill, when the load fell off the wagon, which passed over his body, causing immediate death.

The store of Mr. G. H. Green, Nelson, was entered on Friday by one John Osborne, who was charged with taking goods from the store, and was arrested and sent up for trial.

Although Ireland cannot be said to be in a settled state, yet it appears from the latest statistics that the rate of increase of the population is noticeable. In 1871 there was a population of 5,100,000.

A telegram from Geneva, Switzerland, informs us that Mr. Warner, a correspondent for an English newspaper, was murdered there and robbed of 700 francs. Most of the money has been recovered, but the murderers have not been traced.

CHAPTER VIII. AN UNEXPECTED ARRIVAL FROM JAMAICA—THE CONSTERNATION OF STEPHEN AND MALCOLM.

Nathan Garret noted the effect, and his face brightened as that of the others...

"Well, gentlemen," he quietly asked, "are you satisfied that this letter is in your cousin's hand-writing?"

Stephen turned away in gloomy silence while Malcolm looked as if he could tear the paper to fragments.

"I see you do," added Nathan, as he slowly lifted and folded it up.

Therefore, the authority on which I have been and am acting. Your cousin gave Mrs. Morrar and her child into my care, and I accepted the charge.

These were unfolded on the table, and the brothers looked at them with a dispirited air.

"Of course not," said Garrett. "These are copies. The originals are in the books of the church, as is asserted by the minister who married the parents and baptised the child."

"Who is this Walter Colville whose name is down as one of the witnesses?" asked Stephen in a listless kind of way.

"That is the faithful attendant of the young lady. He had long been her father's servant, and was greatly attached to her."

"Where is he now?"

"He is dead."

"Umph," muttered Malcolm, and then there was utter silence in the room.

The other certificate, which was to the effect that the child of George Morrar and his wife Felicia had been baptised by the name of George, was hardly looked at, and Nathan, retying the packet, deposited it in the tin box, which he looked and retied in his hand.

Stephen had gone to the window, and was standing there silently ruminating. At length he turned suddenly round with this remark, "I think we should now proceed to the presence of the lady."

Nathan stood a moment and gazed at him keenly.

"Yes, certainly," he rejoined. "Mrs. Morrar will, I have no doubt, be glad to see her husband's cousins."

"Come, Malcolm, Thomas will inform us in what room she is to be found. Your presence, Mr. Garret, will not be necessary."

"Pardon me, sir, I think it will be necessary," answered Nathan, preparing to go with them.

"Look you," said Stephen, turning quickly upon him. "Your charge was ended the moment you brought Mrs. Morrar over the threshold of this house. She is now under the natural guardianship of her husband's relations, and I as the representative of these, will not allow you to usurp my place."

"That is for her to determine," answered Garrett. "She has it in her power to choose whom she will have as leg guardian, and if she declines my services further, I have nothing more to say, but until she does this I will stick to my post. Therefore, gentlemen, I mean to go with you."

The resolute and determined tone in which this was said left no room for further discussion, and turning haughtily round, Stephen strode to the door. The overseer was following close behind, when Malcolm jostled him aside, and went before him, saying angrily—

"Keep your own place."

Nathan smiled grimly, and took a step back.

"You will speedily find what my place is," he muttered under his breath, as he followed them out into the passage on their way to the room in which sat the lady who had come to them as their cousin's wife.

EQUITABLE Life Assurance Society, No. 120, Broadway, New York.

Wm. C. Alexander, President. Henry B. Hyde, Vice-President.

Net cash assets, 1st Feb. 1872... $18,000,000 Annual Income... 8,000,000 Total paid policy-holders, 1871... 3,450,360.57 Surplus, 1871... 1,700,000 New Business, sum assured 1871, $41,804,027.00

The Largest of any Company in the World.

This Society has led the van in the Insurance world for many years; it has introduced more improvements and given greater impetus to the business than any Life Company in the United States, and is deserving in this respect of the praise and gratitude of the community.

There are many reasons for selecting the Equitable Life Assurance Society.

1st—No company has such large annual transactions, thereby infusing into its business a constant accession of fresh and selected lives which is one of the greatest elements of strength.

2nd—Liberality in dealing with all claims: observing at the same time, a due regard to the interests of its present large body of policy-holders by a firm resistance to any attempt at imposition.

3rd—Perfect organization in every department, which renders official information easily attainable and secures a complete administration of its affairs.

4th—Being one of the most progressive institutions of its kind in the world, it is ever prepared to seize at once upon all the improvements in the business that science can suggest.

The Equitable Life Assurance Society issues every recognized form of policy, and especially the TONTINE SAVINGS FUND INSURANCE which the Company introduced. This new plan has become very popular, as equalizing among all who are insured, under it the advantages which arise from the profits of the business, without in any respect intruding upon the normal results for which Life Insurance was first instituted.

THE EQUITABLE feels that it has the strongest claims upon public confidence. Under the management that distinguishes it and the principles by which it is guided, perfect security is given for the future, than which no greater inducement can be held out to all who wish to insure their lives.

Further information regarding the different kinds of Policies issued by the Society can readily be obtained at THE COMPANY'S OFFICES, 120 Broadway, New York, Or from any of its representatives throughout the United States and Canada.

DR. HOWE'S USE OF FELLOW'S HYPOPHOSPHITES—Fitzgibbon, M.D., March, 1872. Dear Sir: During the past two years I have given your Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites a fair though somewhat severe trial in my practice, and am able to speak with confidence of its effects. In restoring persons suffering from emaciation, the debility following diphtheria, it has done wonders. I constantly recommend its use in all affections of the throat and lungs. In several cases considered hopeless it has given relief, and the patients are fast recovering; among these are consumptive and old bronchitic subjects, whose diseases have resisted the other modes of treatment. For impaired indigestion, and in fact for debility from any cause, I know of nothing equal to it. Its direct effect in strengthening the nervous system renders it suitable for the majority of diseases.

BREMEN—Epps' Cocoa, Cacao, Merguez and Comfrey—By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. Civil Service Gazette. Made simply with boiling water or milk. Each packet is labelled "James Epps & Co., Homoeopathic Chemists, London." Also, makers of Epps' Milky Cocoa (Cocoa and Condensed Milk).

Married ladies, under all circumstances, will find Parson's Purgative safe; and, in small doses, a mild cathartic. They cause no griping pains or cramp. A crowd of "Horse Men" and others, daily through the stores in country and town for Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Powders. They understand that horses cannot be kept in good condition without them, and with them can be fed on a much less quantity of grain.

No intelligent mind can fail to observe how the serious and ever-varying wants of the community are attended to by the enterprising merchants of Guelph. Instantaneous Hardware, in Mr. Horsman's Establishment, so noted for many years as the Emporium of everything in his line of business, it is some what astonishing to take a comprehensive view of the variety of his stock—Guns, Pistols, Ammunition, Fishing Tackle, House Furnishings, Floor Oil Cloths, Mats, Ivory Table Cutlery, Plated Ware, Bird Cages, Flower Baskets, Smoothing Irons, Tea Trays, Wringers, Mangles, Lamps, Mechanics' tools. Besides the great assortment of Farming Implements, Seythes, Snaths, Rakes, Forks, Hoes, Building and General Shelf and Heavy Hardware, Oils, Paints, Colors, Varnishes. One gets from this a slight idea of what it is to carry on with enterprising spirit a large Wholesale & Retail Hardware Establishment. Every want for House, Farm, Trade or Manufacture can be supplied Wholesale and retail at Mr. Horsman's. See advertisement.

DR. WHEELER'S COMPOUND EXTRACT OF PHOSPHATES AND CALSAYA—This elegant and agreeable preparation has speedily become a favorite on account of its great reliability in the cure of Diseases of the Stomach, Liver and Kidneys.
