

A Solemnity At Church

Conferment of Holy Pallium on Archbishop Orly at St. Andrew's Cathedral

Impressive Ceremonies to be Celebrated To-day at Roman Church.

Insignia of High Office to be Laid Upon Prominent Local Dignitary.

At 10:30 this morning there will be a solemn pontifical mass at St. Andrew's Cathedral. His Excellency, the Archbishop of Vancouver, will officiate. At the conclusion of the pontifical mass His Excellency will confer upon Archbishop Orly the insignia of the archiepiscopal dignity. The pallium will be conferred by the late Pope Leo XIII. It is the highest honor which can be conferred upon a bishop. Before that the structure now used as a chapel for St. Ann's Academy was used as a church until 1858.

The St. Andrew's Cathedral is a noble edifice on the corner of View and Blenheim streets. It was erected during the incumbency of Right Rev. Bishop Levesque, ten or twelve years ago, and it is easily one of the handsomest structures in the Northwest. It is of brick and pure gothic in style. It is splendidly finished both externally and internally. It is a fine example of modern architecture. The building now used as a chapel for St. Ann's Academy was used as a church until 1858.

The diocese of Vancouver was established in 1847, and was created archdiocese in May of this year. It comprises Vancouver and adjacent islands. The former bishops were: Right Rev. Modeste Demers, Right Rev. Chas. J. Mathers, Right Rev. J. B. Brondel, Right Rev. J. N. Lemmens, Right Rev. J. Loontjens and Most Rev. Archbishop Christie.

Junior Lacrosse Match Won By Vancouver With Score Five to Four.

Shamrocks and Westminster Will Play Final Match Today.

From Our Own Correspondent. New Westminster, Oct. 2.—Tomorrow will be the last day of the Provincial Exhibition, and what has proved to be the greatest success of the year will be over. The attendance this year has not been up to last, but the exhibits are of a high order. Today was children's day, and the youngsters were to enjoy themselves. The procession left Central station at 10 o'clock, and the thousands of kiddies came from all parts of the city. Adult attendance was about 3000.

The live stock is being moved tonight to be in readiness for the Victoria fair next week, and some fine stock will be shown. The steamer Tosemite is leaving tonight and will get away at daylight with several hundred head of stock.

The junior lacrosse match today was won by the Vancouver Argonauts, defeating Westminster West Ends by five goals to three. The Argonauts played an exhibition football game.

The baby show drew a large number of visitors. The baby contest was won by Westminster, first, Mrs. Spang, second, Mrs. Spang, and third, Mrs. Spang.

The big event tomorrow will be the lacrosse match—Westminster vs. Shamrocks. Hoobin and Kavanagh of the Shamrocks are expected to win.

The catalogue in the dog show has been issued. Everybody takes in this department, and the first attempt has proven very successful.

Last night a number of sailors from the U. S. S. Albatross landed, and to the music furnished by half a dozen brass bands, they danced until a late hour.

HONORABLES ARRIVE. Boston, Oct. 2.—The Dominion line steamer Mayflower, having on board the Honorable Artillery Company of London, reached here just before 8:30 o'clock this morning.

TROOPS RETURN HOME. Toronto, Oct. 2.—(Special)—Two hundred and seventy-five members of the 4th Battalion, Royal Canadian Mounted Police, who left Sault Ste. Marie, yesterday, arrived here this morning at 8 a.m. They made no complaint against food supplies, but they complained of lack of room in the barracks. Immediately upon their arrival the troops were formed up and marched to the Armouries, where they were dismissed.

INTERNATIONAL CRICKET. Philadelphia, Oct. 3.—Although the final international cricket match was not played at Havertown today, the Kent county team of England is assured a victory. The Quakers in their two innings scored 245 runs and up to the present the visitors have lost only one wicket in their second innings for 87 runs. Twenty-two runs are therefore needed by Kent, which still has nine wickets.

THE BRANTFORD OUTRAGE. Brantford, Oct. 3.—The coroner's inquest in the Irene Cole murder case is in progress. The evidence in the case is being taken. The coroner is expected to return to Toronto tomorrow.

Local Vote A Surprise

City Count in Provincial Elections Upset All the Calculations.

Situation in Country As Result of Poll Difficult to Diagnose.

Yesterday dawned fine, presaging a good day for the election contest, and Old Sol smiled benignly all day on the efforts of the contesting parties at the polls. The day was devoid of excitement. The active workers of both Conservatives and Liberals were early assembled at the polling booths, and while no excitement prevailed at any period during the day, the hours which intervened between the opening of the polls at 9 a. m. to 7:30 p. m.—were full of interest. All day long voters came into the polls in a quiet fashion and recorded their judgment on the issues of the day, there being nothing in the way of excitement. The last vote was cast at 7:30 p. m. The election was held in the city of Vancouver, and the results were as follows:

Arrival From Far North Tells of the New Find West of White Horse.

Leading Terminal City Financier Satisfied With the City's Prospects.

Vancouver, Oct. 3.—McNeill's sawmill and No. 10, located on the bank of the Fraser, was totally destroyed by fire tonight, together with about fifty thousand, fairly well covered by insurance. At midnight it was seen still burning, but fairly well under control. The police have received several more reports of the work of the gang of pick-pockets which operated in the city on Thursday. The Hon. David Healey lost his pocketbook while on the train going from Westminster to the fair grounds. It contained $50 in cash and several valuable papers. He was followed by a man in a dark coat and hat, who snatched the book and fled. Mr. Healey reports his watch being stolen as he alighted in a Water street hotel. Several thieves are now being sought by the police. A man in a dark coat and hat was arrested on a charge of stealing an overcoat, and W. G. Ireland, a guest of a Water street hotel, reports a watch, coat and pocketbook stolen in a second-hand store. J. W. W. of 583 Grandville street, reports his watch and pocketbook stolen in a second-hand store. E. Carver, of the Wonder Coffee House, has also lost his watch. E. Banks, a guest of a Water street hotel, reports a watch and pocketbook stolen in a second-hand store. The police are getting so much business that they are unable to handle all the things as they are running in paragraphs. The police say there is at present a bad gang of toughs in the city, and a round-up will have to be made pretty soon.

The body of a Japanese was found floating in False Creek yesterday, and was a fisherman and was drowned some time ago. Mr. R. Brown arrived today from the new find west of White Horse. He has been driven out by water. There were men left about fifty people on the creek. Men are now going in with their winter packs, and two pumping plants are being taken in. This shows faith in the proposition, although the diggings have not yet been proved. Discovery was located by Indian Charlie, a Canadian Indian, on the 4th of October. TAMING THE CAYOOSH

A Story of the Kootenais.

By J. Johnson.

The following narrative is how a refractory horse became subdued, docile and gentle by kindness and humane means employed in its accommodation.

In the latter sixties and early seventies I obtained a contract to carry the mail between Hope and Kootenay. My first contract was made with the late Mr. B. B. Baker, the colonial postmaster general until 1871, when this was transferred to the Dominion government, represented at Victoria in the person of John Dewey, Esq., chief post office inspector, with whom I renewed the contract for three years.

This was done in the old wooden post office building on Government street, where the late Henry Woodson, Esq., was postmaster, a gentleman to whom I was indebted for many favors officially. There were two routes, one by trail, by horse from Hope during the summer and autumn months—the Shepherd and the Colville trails.

Dewdney trail over the Hope mountain was followed to Christiana creek, on lower Kettle river, where the Colville trail branched off to the east, from Hope to Kootenay was computed by the Dewdney trail to be 440 miles, the Colville and Spokane route 550 miles.

The Colville route was the only feasible one during early winter months, summer months. The Shepherd and Kootenay trails being practically impassable on account of snow, the route from Kootenay lake, Goat river and other places, the Colville trail, although the longest but as far as the expense and time was the best, being through a bunch grass country and comparatively easy to travel.

On the Colville trail, although the longest but as far as the expense and time was the best, being through a bunch grass country and comparatively easy to travel. opportunity while she was making a "Spanish ride" and mounted. When the fun commenced, my pack-horse who was grazing placidly near by stopped eating and watched the proceedings, being apparently interested in the manoeuvres, as if he would learn something, and I thought that he looked as if he enjoyed it. She then turned loose, as the saying goes, bucked and kicked, making a circle this way five or six times, each turn narrowing until she stood in the centre, her feet together, for the final plunge, and three or four times she kicked.
