Jane Weddings.

RAY-FREEMAN. A very pretty wedding was celebrated at the Baptist Church at Weymouth, Digby Co., on Wednesday, the 23rd inst., the contracting parties being Mr. J. Howe Ray of Belleisle, and Miss Mabel Freeman of Fessio, California, who were united in marriage in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. They were unattended and as they walked down the aisle Mendelssohn's wedding march was most beautifully rendered. The Rev. J. T. Eaton who being a favored friend of the bride's family, was assisting them at the altar, spoke the solemn words that made them one till death should them part. The bride, who is a very propitious lady, was beautifully robed in white crepe de chene with pointed de Venice lace. After a week's sojourn with relatives of the groom at Yarmouth and Digby, they arrived at their home in Grandville on Tuesday the 14th inst., where they were met by many of their friends and most warmly welcomed. The groom is a son of the late Alfred Ray, Esq., who was one of the grand old men of the county. The bride is also an Annapolis County lady, being a daughter of the late Simon Freeman, Esq., of Paradise. She has resided several years with her brother, Mr. George R. Freeman, who owns and operates large tracts at Fessio, N. B. Ray and his older brother own and reside on the homestead farm, one of the most beautiful and extensive in the valley. Both bride and groom are very popular and have very many friends. The bride was the recipient of many costly and beautiful presents. We hope that there are many long and happy years before them.—Com.

DANIELS-GAGE.

One of the prettiest home weddings of the season occurred at Beverly, Mass., on June 16th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan M. Gage, when their daughter, Edie M. Daniels, became the wife of Herman Budd Daniels, of Auburn, Me., formerly of Lawrenceston, Annapolis County. The ceremony was performed under a bower of laurel and was witnessed by the Rev. Edwin Blakey, pastor of the Dana Street Congregational Church, the single ring service being used. The couple were attended. The bride was charmingly gowned in white silk crepe trimmed with thread lace, and carried carnations. She was given away by her father. The wedding march was finely executed by Mr. Warren B. Stanley of Williamstown, Conn. The house was elaborately decorated with flowers, white and green predominating, and was crowded with guests who represented the elite of Beverly, Roxbury, Brookton and Somerville, Mass., and South Eliot, Maine. Following the ceremony was the customary reception, which proved to be a brilliant affair. The presents were numerous and costly, the display of cut glass and silver being large and beautiful. After a short tour Mr. and Mrs. Daniels will reside in Auburn, Maine.—Com.

MOHSE-ENSIGN.

Simsbury, Conn., June 15. Rev. William Inglis Morse, curate of St. John's Church, Stamford, and Miss Alice Ensign, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hart Ensign, were married at the Methodist Church in this town, this afternoon. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Charles E. Beck of Wolfville, N. Y., uncle of the bride, assisted by Rev. John P. Wagner, pastor of the church, and William Woods Chamber of New Haven, presided at the organ. The nuptials were Joseph R. Ensign of Simsbury, Robert Darling of N. Y., John S. Ellsworth of Simsbury, Dr. Vernon Morse of Canby, and William M. Ray of Boston, Mass., and William M. Reed of Princeton, N. J. The groom was attended by Rev. Anson Phelps Stokes, junr., of New Haven, as best man. The bridesmaids were Miss Naomi Donnelly of Chicago, and Miss Susan W. Dodge of Newburyport, Mass., and they were escorted by seven green chiffon cloth, trimmed with valencienne lace, picture hats of lace and roses, and carried white carnations. The bride, who was escorted by her father, wore a dress of white buty lace over white chiffon and silk, trimmed with rose point and duchesse lace. Her veil of tulle was fastened with orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas. A feature of the wedding was the presence of eight young women, intimate friends of the bride, preceding the bridal party. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ensign, the interior being decorated in the same color scheme as that prevailing at the church. Mr. and Mrs. Ensign left for a trip, after the reception, and will spend the greater part of the summer in Nova Scotia and the White Mountains. Mrs. Lydia Munroe arrived home on Wednesday last, having spent the winter at Boston attending the N. E. Conservatory of Music.

In a Canoeing Trip.

The Halifax Recorder says: "Angus Wright, of T. L. Lorne & Co., and H. C. Becher, leave on the steamer Bridge-water to-morrow morning on a canoeing trip on the LaHave River. They are taking their canoe, tent and supplies down to Bridgetown, and then up the river, all the way to Lunenburg and Annapolis County, for 75 miles, against six days, nearly to Middleton, they go by canoe. Their canoe, which is a small affair of fourteen feet, weighs only 60 pounds, but carries a load of two hundred pounds, besides the boys. There is said to be excellent fishing along the river and in the numerous lakes on the way. They return by the same way, covering in all about 150 miles canoe. They will be gone about two weeks. Colonel Lord Aylmer has been appointed Lord Dundonald's successor as general officer commanding, his duties to begin forthwith. The Empire Liniment M'F Co., Bridgetown, Nova Scotia. Dear Sir:—This is to certify that I have used your Empire Liniment for rheumatism in my knee, and by the use of a single bottle have had no return of it since. Four weeks ago I was taken with rheumatism in my back; I purchased a bottle of Empire Liniment and used it freely on the parts affected by bathing therewith, and now my back appears to be all right. I consider it the best liniment on the market. S. C. PADDOCK, Haymarket Square, St. John, N. B. June 13th, 1903.
