ANOTHER EFFORT TO GET TO CALAIS EXPECTED

One Report Says March 18 Date For New German Drive

Care Being Taken to Prevent British From Landing Troops on Belgian Coast—Soldiers of the King Hit Hard at Germans And May Drive Them From Lille District

Amsterdam, March 11.—Strong precautions are being taken by the German military authorities to prevent any attempt of the British to force a landing upon the Belgian coast.

Sturdy British Blows Promise Soon To Drive Germans From Lille District

Paris, March 11.—British forces stationed north of Labasse in France, are striking hard at the German troops defending the Lille railway line, and it is predicted by military experts in Paris that the Germans soon will be compelled to retire from that district.

The Belgian coast city of Nieuport, which was bombarded by the Germans with their heaviest artillery, has been nearly destroyed.

Heavy German reinforcements are arriving at Bruges, and this leads to the belief that the invaders are getting ready for another great effort to cut their way through toward Calais.

WILL ALLOW THE PRINZ EITEL TO MAKE REPAIRS

Washington, March 11.—Officials of the United States government today awaited a decision by the neutrality board on problems arising from the destruction of the American sailing ship William P. Frye by the German converted cruiser Prinz Eitel Friedrich, now at Newport News, Va.

Every indication, it was said, led to the belief that the commander of the vessel would elect to return the ship until the end of the war.

LATER Washington, March 11.—The neutrality board has made a report, which it is understood, recommends that the Prinz Eitel Friedrich be permitted to make repairs as would make her "seaworthy" under supervision of American naval authorities, if the commander of the German ship requests it.

FATHER OF MRS. CORTRIGHT HAS PASSED AWAY Sad news came over the wires today to Mrs. L. H. Cortright, 70 Queen street, in a telegram announcing the death of her father, George Perrault, in New Bedford, Mass.

It had been previously announced that he was ill with pneumonia and Mrs. Cortright went to her home spending some days there. His condition was made more precarious by a stroke of paralysis, but even in spite of this there seemed no immediate danger of death.

The physicians advising that death was not near, Mrs. Cortright returned to St. John just a few days ago, only to be greeted this morning by the sad tidings of her father's death. Mr. Perrault is survived by his wife and his daughter, Mrs. Cortright. The funeral is being held today.

REINFORCING TURKISH ARMY Aviators who made an aerial reconnaissance over the waterway reported that a big fleet of transports had passed through the Sea of Marmora, making it appear that the Turkish army was being reinforced.

Constantinople is said to be full of officers, including Germans. Comparatively few troops, most of them artillerymen, are going to the front.

GROWN LAND SURVEY THE CHIEF MATTER IN SPEECH FROM THRONE

Dugal Report Gets a Few Lines—Provincial Legislature Opened Today With Men in Khaki Much in Evidence

Fredericton, N. B., March 11.—The opening of the legislature this year is much later than usual but is accompanied by the usual ceremony. It is of greater interest, no doubt, because of the presence of so many military men from various parts of the province.

The precautions of the government military expert, Attorney-General, General Baxter, are somewhat in evidence in the house staff being very busy handing out tickets which are necessary before anyone can enter the legislative halls this afternoon.

There are several absentees who were very prominent in the legislature last year. Dickson's health keeps him at home and the deputy, O. M. Melanson of Westmorland, will assume the duties of the office.

Another royal commissioner, W. B. Chandler, began his work this morning. He read his authority and adjourned the sitting. He then continued his work in the department of the government while the house is in session.

His letter was emphasized, as it were, by a demand made upon him by his secretary, H. M. Blair, for an inquiry that would bring him and his treasurer face to face.

The appointment of Mr. Chandler is the answer of Messrs. Forsyth and Blair and at the same time before him. Just how or what is necessary for any citizen to make his complaint known and have it inquired into is not stated but that will no doubt be cleared up in the near future.

SPEECH FROM THE THRONE Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the Legislative Assembly: In meeting you on the occasion of the third session of the present legislative term, I am happy to be able to say that since the last meeting of the legislature the business of the province has been carried on with most satisfactory results, and it is a matter for congratulation that nowhere in the king's dominions has less disturbance of conditions appeared during the year than within our own borders.

A beautiful harvest has been vouchsafed to us. Prices secured by the farmers have been fully up to the average and in many cases have exceeded those of previous years. Contrary to the very general belief which prevailed at the opening of the season, lumbering operations have been vigorously carried on, and returns to date indicate that the timber cut will approach in volume that of the preceding year. It is to be sincerely hoped that the men who are engaged in this important branch of the industrial life of the province will realize the active market and the good prices which are now confidently anticipated.

The depression which has been experienced, unfortunately, in certain sections of Canada, has affected some lines of manufacture by the other hand the stimulation afforded by prevailing overseas conditions has brought to many manufacturers a considerable amount of business. The employment furnished by the construction of public works, for which generous financial provision has been made, has materially aided in the maintenance of the satisfactory conditions which have happily prevailed throughout the greater part of the province. The business of our merchants has been well maintained, payments generally have been satisfactorily made, and our people have every reason to be thankful for the prosperity which has attended them with little interruption during the entire year.

The War In common with every section of the empire, New Brunswick has been deeply affected by the outbreak of hostilities, my government sympathies with the imperial authorities in every respect, of which the province was capable, to maintain the integrity of the empire and to assist in the relief of suffering.

As soon as the form of contribution could be determined to the satisfaction of those in Great Britain who had the matter in charge, a cargo of one of New Brunswick's most important products was despatched to the relief of suffering.

Coincident with the preparation of the relief shipment to Great Britain the call for sorely needed assistance came from Belgium, whose heroic defence of her territory was made not only for the homes and liberties of her people, but for the principles involved in the great struggle which the allied nations are fighting.

It is gratifying to note the greatly increased interest taken by our people in the science of agriculture. My government is pursuing an active policy of agricultural education, elementary work being done in the public schools and more advanced teaching being given at the agricultural schools at Woodstock and Sussex. It is hoped in the near future to have an agricultural school established in the northern part of the province.

The important subject of drainage has received very considerable attention during the past year, the ditching machine purchased by my government and used for this work having demonstrated the profit and advantage to be derived from the work improved in this way.

A line rock crusher has also been purchased recently and is now in operation. This will give our farmers an opportunity of securing this very valuable ingredient for the soil.

The past year has been very satisfactory to our dairymen, and it is pleasing to state that the quantity of butter manufactured in the province is greater than (Continued on page 2, fifth column)

ALL FOREIGNERS SHOULD GET OUT, SAYS CARRANZA

Yens Cruz, March 11.—General Venustiano Carranza, in answer to the protest addressed to him by Secretary of State Bryan, through United States Consul Silliman, regarding conditions in the City of Mexico, last night addressed a reply to President Wilson personally.

General Carranza declares that he does not desire to see the responsibility of the Constitutionalists for a situation which is considered alarming for foreigners, but expresses the hope that Americans and citizens of other countries will lose no time in departing from Mexico until tranquillity shall be restored.

The Constitutional chief pledges himself to provide every facility for the exodus which he recommends. He suggests that if foreign residents do not desire to leave the country, they should seek safer places in the republic.

General Carranza declares that he always has tried to safeguard the interests of Americans and other foreigners and intends to continue this course.

The charges that General Obregon has deliberately fostered disturbances in Mexico City are denied by Carranza. He declares that every possible effort has been made to distribute food supplies. He contends that the revolutionary has been aggravated by the conduct of merchants who have protested against the imposition of a humanitarian relief tax.

PHILIP BREEN OF ST. STEPHEN DEAD

Passed Away This Morning at the Age of 85

St. Stephen, N. B., March 11.—Philip Breen, aged eighty-five years, a prominent citizen of this town, died early this morning at his home in Market street.

For many years he was engaged in the hotel business and erected the fine brick building now known as the Johnson Hotel, at the corner of King and Water streets.

Mr. Breen retired from business some years ago. Until within the last few days he had been able to go out daily. He leaves one son, Philip, in business in Butte, Montana, and who arrived home two days before his father's death; and a daughter, Mrs. Bogue, who tenderly cared for her father during his illness.

The funeral will be held from the Church of the Holy Rosary on Saturday morning at nine o'clock. Interment will be in the Catholic cemetery.

PAY $56 IN FINES OR TO JAIL FOR TEN MONTHS

William White, who was arrested last night by Policeman Anderson in King street and charged with drunkenness, using profane language and violently resisting the police, received a stiff sentence from Magistrate Ritchie this morning.

He was fined $8 or two months in jail for drunkenness, $8 or two months for profanity, and $8 or four months for resisting the police. During the evidence Policeman Anderson swore that he had also used obscene language and as a result an additional fine of $8 or two months was struck against him, making a total of $26 or ten months in jail. A prominent lawyer assisted in making the arrest.

Million and Quarter In Trio Of Battles

New Phase of Conflict in Eastern Theatre—Petrograd Says Russia is in the Master Position For She Can Supply Reinforcements

Petrograd, March 11.—With 1,250,000 Russians and Austro-German troops engaged in three great battles, the struggle in the eastern theatre of war is entering upon a new phase in this, according to the Petrograd War Office, the Russians will hold the master hand because of their unexcelled ability to reinforce their army.

The scenes of the three battles are: 1. Northern Poland, along a front running from Milawa to the Naraw and Bobr Rivers. The Russians and Germans have 500,000 men in this conflict.

2. In Western Poland between Rawka and Pilica rivers. In this region there are 450,000 Austro-Germans and Russians engaged. The Teutonic troops are making desperate efforts to cut through the Russian lines and reach the Vistula River between Czerk and Maszow. Neither side has yet been able to gain any appreciable advantage.

3. In southwestern Poland and western Galicia, where 300,000 Austrians and Russians are contesting along the Nida and Dunajec Rivers. The Austrians have made some gains in this battle, by which they are attempting to reach Tarnow, and at the same time drive a wedge into the Russian lines south of the Pilica River, which would compel the retirement of Grand Duke Nicholas's troops there and deprive the Russians north of the Pilica of all protection on their left flank.

ANOTHER ATTEMPT ON PRZASNYSZ

Petrograd, March 11.—A regrouping of the German forces in Northern Poland and the commencement of a new attempt upon Przasnysz is noted by the general staff of the Russian army.

This movement is being made in considerably greater strength than was the recent operation in the direction of Przasnysz which terminated in the general retirement of all German forces in the direction of their own frontier.

SAFEGUARDING LIFE ON RIVER

Stringent New Regulations For Life Boats, Rafts and Belts on Steamers

New regulations have been issued by the government regarding inland navigation, and will necessitate the expenditure of hundreds of dollars by owners of river steamers. Every steamer must hereafter be equipped with life-saving apparatus for every person on board.

The new equipment will consist of lifeboats, rafts and belts. Some of the steamers have life-boats but will have to purchase rafts and belts. One steamship owner told a Times reporter that the new regulations would cost him more than $500 and others would have to spend considerably more.

Steamers which ply along the river where it is more than two miles wide and where the water is shallow, will have to be equipped with life-boats besides the rafts and belts. That such precautions are deemed necessary can be seen from one instance where a steamer which can accommodate several hundred passengers, will be allowed to carry only fifty this year unless the boats, rafts, etc., are produced.

REICHSTAG PRESIDENT FORCES NOTE OF CHEER

London, March 11.—The president of the Reichstag, reviewing the Reichstag yesterday said, according to a Berlin dispatch to Reuters, by way of Amsterdam: "In the west, from the Vosges to the channel, and in the east, from the Baltic to Bukovina, our armies and those of our allies are standing like a wall of steel and iron."

"In the south, the brave Turkish army is guarding the Dardanelles, which a great Anglo-French fleet is vainly attempting to conquer. This army is also threatening the Suez Canal and Egypt, which has become the prey of the British Empire."

"England declares that she cannot forego the right to starve Germany. Germany has replaced with submarines the crews of which have already given many proofs of their heroic bravery. Germany is not to be conquered by starving. Our enemies did not reckon with our economic strength, with the organized strength of our agriculture, commerce and industry, the unity of the nation and our firm determination to win."

"Our sacrifices are gigantic, but on the blood-soaked battlefield a lasting peace is springing up which will lead our great and beloved fatherland to new and flourishing power."

THE ISSUE AT OTTAWA

The Canadian government proposes that such British trade with this Dominion as may escape German submarines shall fall under the taxing machine of the Canadian government.

In this striking phraseology Sir Wilfrid Laurier asks the question that has been pressing itself upon the minds of thoughtful Canadian people ever since the Borden government announced its policy of raising the tariff against British goods.

In one of the great speeches of his career the Liberal leader defined clearly the attitude of the Liberal party. That party recognizes to-day as its duty the duty of any sort in the way of the government in carrying out its policy.

The Germans are said to have lost eleven submarines in the last month. A new government has been formed in Greece, but it is likely to be short-lived.

They are already beginning to tickle the land in the west, in preparation for that greatest of all Canadian harvests which it is hoped will be reaped next autumn.

The proposal of Conservative newspapers in Toronto that Hon. J. D. Hazen be made an admiral suggests about some of those famous cruises of the Lansdowne in the Bay of Fundy.

A German submarine made a deliberate attempt some time ago to torpedo a British hospital ship. The captain of the ship says that the attempt was made in clear weather, with no possibility of mistaking the identity of the vessel.

French civilian prisoners who have been in the hands of the Germans tell of hardship, ill-treatment and suffering. This is in marked contrast to the treatment of German prisoners, who are not civilians but fighting men, by the French and British.

Up to the time of going to press no alarming reports have been received from Frederick. The very careful precautions taken by Colonel Baxter appear to have discouraged any attempt to kidnap any of our legislators.

The German auxiliary cruiser Prinz Eitel Friedrich, in the course of her commerce destroying operations, sent an American ship to the bottom in defiance of the protest of the captain. The American people have now an additional proof of the utter disregard of Germany for the rights of neutrals.

production. Reference was made by some of the speakers to the valuable work being done in the farming districts by boys' and girls' clubs, and to the other important fact that the western banks are encouraging the production of more corn, and have joined in an arrangement to supply free seed to a limited number of farmers who will undertake to grow one acre of corn for green fodder.

One of the most encouraging signs of the times in the west is the rapidly growing interest that is being taken by bankers and business men in the promotion of agriculture. We need more of that spirit in the Maritime Provinces.

In St. John, for example, there is no co-operation between the trade organizations and the organizations of farmers in the district of which St. John is the natural centre. Neither do the trade organizations manifest any interest in the question of agricultural education.

There are very many ways in which the principle of co-operation might be applied with great benefit to the people of town and country, but apparently we are very slow to learn the lesson.

Mr. Pitt was a man of punctual habits. Every morning he caught the 9:24 to town and every evening he returned by the 7:12.

Seated opposite was a maid of some nine summers. He noticed she looked at him uneasily. Suddenly it dawned upon him that he was sitting on her newspaper.

"There you are my little maid!" said he genially. "Pardon my sitting on it." The train sped cityward and they soon reached their destination. The little maid got up first.

"Please, sir," may I have my fried fish, too?" It was wrapped up in that paper!

President Carranza, replying to the American note of protest, advises all Americans and other foreigners to get out of Mexico as fast as possible. Advice of this sort is more likely to send more of them into Mexico, with guns on their shoulders. Mexico in the past welcomed foreign men and money and owes protection to both.

The citizen who is constantly making an outcry about his taxes is not always the most valuable kind of citizen. The latter may not want to be taxed too much, but he is even more deeply concerned to be assured that the community is getting value for the amount he pays in the form of taxes.

The chairman of the Winnipeg school board said that the board was already endeavoring to interest city pupils in farm life, and the principal of the Manitoba Agricultural College said that the question of a special course at the college for town-bred youths was receiving consideration. It was also pointed out that by means of vocational talks to boys and evening lectures to young men an effort was being made in Winnipeg to arouse a deeper interest in farm work, and to induce foreign born citizens, who had originally come to Canada with the intention of settling on the land, to secure homesteads and join the army of

LIGHTER VEIN

"I reckon," said Farmer Comtossel, "as how mebbe barbed wire ought to be counted as one of the most useful inventions of the age."

"For what reason?"

"When there's a lot of work to be done barbed wire makes it impossible to sit on the fence and look on."

Space—I believe that if Shakespeare were alive at the present time and trying to live by his pen in London, the comic papers would reject many of his best jokes.

Humorist—I know it I have tried 'em all.

"Would you marry a spendthrift one girl asked another."

"Well," was the perceptive reply, "it wouldn't be so bad if he was just starting out on his prodigal course, would it?"

"Does Jane believe that?"

"No, but all the other men that the fortune tellers have offered her were little and dark with grey eyes and a Vandyle beard—and Jane addresses blonds."

Mr. Pitt was a man of punctual habits. Every morning he caught the 9:24 to town and every evening he returned by the 7:12.

One morning, however, he was rather late, and he just managed to rush into a car as the train was moving out of the station.

Seated opposite was a maid of some nine summers. He noticed she looked at him uneasily. Suddenly it dawned upon him that he was sitting on her newspaper.

"There you are my little maid!" said he genially. "Pardon my sitting on it."

The Canadian government has recently levied a war tax of 7 1/2 per cent.

Diamonds must just naturally go much higher. The American continent, which is being belted by the war, buys about 70 per cent of the world's output.

We have a beautifully selected stock of this kind of gems. Our prices have not been changed. They are the lowest in the land.

Paris, March 10.—A man who belonged to the school of the old Turks for a long period of years and is in close touch with what is happening in Turkey, discussed the aspects of the situation in the Dardanelles as it appeared to be developing.

"From what I know of Turkey and the Far East," he said, "the fall of Constantinople will mean the complete discrediting of Germany. Hitherto the people of Constantinople and throughout the empire have been fed on lies and once they realize the truth, as soon as the first battleship is sent to Constantinople, they will be furious to capitulate, they will be furious with the government that misled them. A massacre of the Young Turks will be one almost certain result, and I have for my own part little doubt that as soon as the first battleship is sent from Constantinople the people will take things into their own hands, and white flags will be seen flying from the windows of every house in town."

"Presumably the allies will establish a committee of control and keep the administration of things in their own hands; but there will clearly be need of native administrators. It is too soon yet to speak of the men who are fitted for such work; but they exist—men who have neither been dominated by the Young Turks, nor mixed up in their schemes."

The Russkoye Slovo is responsible for this interesting sidelight of the war, which it publishes under the caption of "The Kaiser's Garden."

It indicates, according to the newspaper, the thoroughness with which the Germans prepared for war.

A Polish magazine living in the government of Suwalki, Poland, about two and a half miles from the East Prussian frontier, lost his 16,000-acre estate some four years ago.

It was thought some other local dignitary would purchase the property, which was adorned with an ancient mansion, but at the sale, a stranger, who gave his name as Kleinsberger, surprised all bidders by running the price up $350,000, which he paid in cash.

The new owner soon transformed his estate by a lavish expenditure of money. He appeared particularly addicted to landscape gardening. He constructed new buildings, improvised mounds and little chains of hills, he installed an elaborate system of irrigation ditches, put in many wine cellars and capped it all by erecting a massive tower.

The article continues that when the war began, it suddenly developed that this wonderful garden was nothing more or less than a German fortress. The mounds were for heavy guns, the wine cellars for the storing of armament and ammunition, and the irrigation ditches were perfectly arranged trenches for the German soldiers. It took two weeks for the Russian troops to reduce and capture this floral fortification, and it cost many lives. There was an elaborate system of wireless and wire communication from the tower, which was admirably constructed for observing everything within a range of many miles.

SAYS MASSACRE OF YOUNG TURKS WILL FOLLOW

Fall of Constantinople Will Also Completely Discredit the Germans—The Views of an Old Turk

Paris, March 10.—A man who belonged to the school of the old Turks for a long period of years and is in close touch with what is happening in Turkey, discussed the aspects of the situation in the Dardanelles as it appeared to be developing.

A clergyman was discussing with an illiterate member of his flock religious topics of varying interest. The member expressed the suggestion that even the best were none too good in this vale of sin and 'tiltation.

"Yes, believe, then," interposed the preacher "in the doctrine of total depravity."

"Yes, sir, I do," responded the members. "That is, where it's lived up to." National Food Magazine.

"Grayce is engaged to four different men. I wonder which one she'll marry?"

"She doesn't know herself. She hasn't had the rings appraised yet."

Diamond's Peculiar Position

The South African Diamond Mines are closed. The cutting and polishing industry of Antwerp is ruined. The only other centre of the kind, Amsterdam, is little better off.

At present there are no Diamonds being put on the market.

The Canadian government has recently levied a war tax of 7 1/2 per cent.

Diamonds must just naturally go much higher. The American continent, which is being belted by the war, buys about 70 per cent of the world's output.

We have a beautifully selected stock of this kind of gems. Our prices have not been changed. They are the lowest in the land.

Paris, March 10.—A man who belonged to the school of the old Turks for a long period of years and is in close touch with what is happening in Turkey, discussed the aspects of the situation in the Dardanelles as it appeared to be developing.

"From what I know of Turkey and the Far East," he said, "the fall of Constantinople will mean the complete discrediting of Germany. Hitherto the people of Constantinople and throughout the empire have been fed on lies and once they realize the truth, as soon as the first battleship is sent to Constantinople, they will be furious to capitulate, they will be furious with the government that misled them. A massacre of the Young Turks will be one almost certain result, and I have for my own part little doubt that as soon as the first battleship is sent from Constantinople the people will take things into their own hands, and white flags will be seen flying from the windows of every house in town."

"Presumably the allies will establish a committee of control and keep the administration of things in their own hands; but there will clearly be need of native administrators. It is too soon yet to speak of the men who are fitted for such work; but they exist—men who have neither been dominated by the Young Turks, nor mixed up in their schemes."

The Russkoye Slovo is responsible for this interesting sidelight of the war, which it publishes under the caption of "The Kaiser's Garden."

It indicates, according to the newspaper, the thoroughness with which the Germans prepared for war.

A Polish magazine living in the government of Suwalki, Poland, about two and a half miles from the East Prussian frontier, lost his 16,000-acre estate some four years ago.

It was thought some other local dignitary would purchase the property, which was adorned with an ancient mansion, but at the sale, a stranger, who gave his name as Kleinsberger, surprised all bidders by running the price up $350,000, which he paid in cash.

The new owner soon transformed his estate by a lavish expenditure of money. He appeared particularly addicted to landscape gardening. He constructed new buildings, improvised mounds and little chains of hills, he installed an elaborate system of irrigation ditches, put in many wine cellars and capped it all by erecting a massive tower.

The article continues that when the war began, it suddenly developed that this wonderful garden was nothing more or less than a German fortress. The mounds were for heavy guns, the wine cellars for the storing of armament and ammunition, and the irrigation ditches were perfectly arranged trenches for the German soldiers. It took two weeks for the Russian troops to reduce and capture this floral fortification, and it cost many lives. There was an elaborate system of wireless and wire communication from the tower, which was admirably constructed for observing everything within a range of many miles.

"I'll clean the snow off yer walk fer a quarter."

"Why, I just paid a quarter to have it cleaned!"

"Taint half done."

"Come, come. That isn't a nice way to abuse a fellow worker!"

"O, dat's all right—he's me partner."

"Grayce is engaged to four different men. I wonder which one she'll marry?"

"She doesn't know herself. She hasn't had the rings appraised yet."

U. S. PRESIDENT ON HIGH SOCIETY

"For Those Who No Longer Have Anything Important to Do," He Says

President Wilson paid his respects to so-called "high society" in a speech he delivered recently at a public meeting held in Washington in the interest of Bera College, Kentucky.

"It is very amusing sometimes," said President Wilson, "to see the air that high society gives itself. The world could dispense with high society and never miss it. High society is for those who have stopped working and no longer have anything important to do. The president said among other things: 'The only thing that is worth while in human intercourse after all is to wake somebody up, provided you wake them up to see the light, provided you wake them up to see something that is worth seeing and to comprehend something that their spirits have not hitherto comprehended.' 'There are colleges and colleges. I have spent the greater part of my life doing what is called teaching, but most of the pupils of most of our universities systematically resist being taught. 'I remember being somewhat comforted and reassured some years ago, after I had taught for ten or fifteen years, by being told by a friend of mine at Yale University who had taught for twenty that he had found that the human mind had infinite resources for resisting the introduction of knowledge. 'But here is a college filled with people hungry to learn. If I had anything that I thought was worth their hearing I should love to address a body of people hungry to learn. I have never done it yet. I have devoted the best energies to getting their attention. 'What America has vindicated above all things else is that native ability has nothing to do with social origin. 'The president here made the remarks quoted.

"Those who can open up the great organs of power, the executive, the legislature, the judiciary, and when one thinks of that old stock in storage there in the mountains for over one hundred years untapped, some of the original stuff of the nation, waiting to be used one ought to bid good-bye to those who are going there and using their old capital that has not even been put out at interest, that has been, as it were kept in a chimney-piece until we shall go to it and use it and find that the usury from it was that same usury of freedom and of power and of capacity which has been so characteristic of the American from the first. 'It do not see how anybody can think of Bera and the work it has to do without catching fire. The trouble about the world is that there are so many interesting things to do that one hates to confine himself to one or two of them. I find myself envying missionaries, envy engineers, envy pioneers of all sorts, envying those who touch with the closest possible contact the genuine stuffs.

whether of the animate or inanimate world, because they must have the sense if they have any imagination at all, of in some way carrying the great world upon their shoulders and making it responsible for mankind. 'So that I have not come here to patronize this cause. I have not come here to lend it such support as it may get from the office that I temporarily occupy.

I have come here as I have come on many other occasions before the American people had put any burdens on me, to help Dr. Frost, if I can attract the attention of men, and thinking men and women everywhere, and men with means, and men with energy to these great and noble things that need to be done and done well and done at once.

KEEP URIC ACID OUT OF JOINTS. Tells Rheumatism Sufferers to Eat Less Meat and Take Salts. Rheumatism is easier to avoid than to cure, states a well-known authority. We are advised to dress warmly; keep the feet dry; avoid exposure; eat less meat, but drink plenty of good water. Rheumatism is a direct result of eating too much meat and other rich foods that produce uric acid which is absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine; the pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly cold weather the skin pores are closed, thus forcing the kidneys to do double work, they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate the uric acid which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles causing stiffness, soreness and pain called rheumatism. At the first twinges of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of these impurities. Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink which overcomes uric acid and is beneficial to your kidneys as well.

WOMAN'S BEST MEDICINE

Mrs. Kelly Advises All Women to Take "Fruit-a-Tives"

Hagerstown, Ont., Aug. 26th, 1913. "I can highly recommend 'Fruit-a-tives' because they did me an awful lot of good and I cannot speak too highly about them. About four years ago, I commenced taking 'Fruit-a-tives' for a general break-down and they did me a world of good. We bought a good many dollars' worth, but it was money well spent because they did all that you claim for them. Their action is so pleasant, compared with other laxatives, that I found only pleasure, as well as health, in taking them. They seemed to me to be particularly suited to women, on account of their mild and gentle action, and I trust that some other women may start taking 'Fruit-a-tives' after reading my letter, and if they do, I am satisfied the results will be the same as in my own case." MRS. W. N. KELLY. "Fruit-a-tives" are sold by all dealers at 50c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c, or sent postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

CHIEF BROTHER IS SOME CRACK SHOT

Jack Dempsey, the Nonpariel

(Robert L. Ripley in Boston Globe)

Few people, not even his closest friends, knew that John Kelly was the true name of the beloved Nonpariel, Jack Dempsey. It will be a shock to many old-timers who thought they knew him well, and a surprise to the present day followers of the manly art.

boxing, why he just kept the name of Dempsey with it.

"Funny," laughed McAuliffe, "but Dempsey, Sicily, I learned the game together in that old cooper shop. At noon hour we used to wrap our aprons around our hands for gloves and go at it. We had some great battles, I tell you.

"I was in Dempsey's corner at New Orleans when he lost to Fitzsimmons. I never will forget my first sight of Dempsey with it.

"I recall Jack's two fights with George LaBlanche very well. The first was fought at Larchmont, N. Y., on March 4, 1886, and Dempsey knocked LaBlanche out. The second which LaBlanche won with the famous pivot blow, occurred in San Francisco, on August 27, 1889.

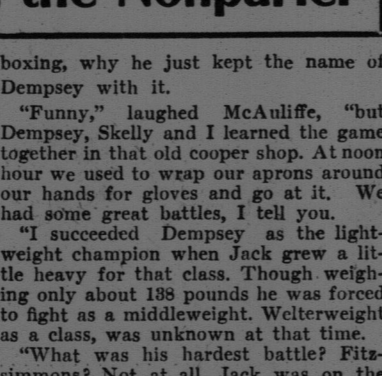

"Why did they call him the Nonpariel? Why—because he was, that's why," and McAuliffe, with a trace of a tear in his eye, shook his head sadly, as he continued.

It helped me so much I bought another bottle which completely cured the cough and allayed the irritation. It is certainly the best cough medicine I have ever tried."

NO PROFESSIONAL BALL THIS YEAR

That is Statement Today—Amateur Leagues Are Being Organized and Good Games Are Assured

The most discussed question of the day among the young men of the city is, will there be any baseball in St. John this year? According to information from reliable sources there will be no professional baseball, but there is expected to be an abundance of amateur leagues throughout the city.

There is considerable talk of the re-organization of the East End League. This will be welcome news for the fans for many interesting contests took place on the Erin street grounds last season. The league has the best amateur players in the city and although their ranks have been thinned by several of the players joining the colors there are many promising young men who will have an opportunity of filling their places.

It is not as yet known where the games will be played, but there is some doubt regarding the possibility of procuring the grounds again this year, but every endeavor will be made to acquire them. In case the efforts of the executive fail it is said they will endeavor to secure the Marathon grounds.

It is expected that the South End league will again be in existence this year as several of the former members are planning to reorganize it. They are endeavoring to obtain permission to play on the Barrack Square and if they succeed the executive will bring forth plans for the season.

Chief Bender cannot only shoot 'em over the pan, but he can also shoot some with the 12-gauge, double-barreled artillery. The chief, now with the Baltimore Federals after years of service with the Athletics, is a corking good trap-shooter. The last four scores he made in recent clay pigeon competition were 99, 94, 97 and 100 out of a possible 100. The veteran when photographed at the traps said he was anxiously awaiting the opening of the season to prove to the Baltimore fans that he is not through yet.

Red Sox Training Hot Springs, Ark., March 10.—Carroll used very same methods in strutting the Red Sox to work. Figuring that it was just the right kind of a day to develop the wind and strengthen the legs, he kept his charges constantly moving, and he took care at the same time that nobody jeopardized a $5,000 salary wing. Legs can stand the rigors of the cold better than tender arms, and may be forcing the men to do a lot of running the Red Sox director and in mind of the games at Fenway Park when one of his pitchers had to retire from the game after the usual exertion of running on a bases on a hit. With only four catchers to handle the offerings of eleven pitchers, some of the star box men had to take a hand in the receiving game. Joe Wood was one of the volunteers, while Long Shore helped out after he had spent ten or fifteen minutes testing the ball about. Heine Wagner was also a volunteer catcher.

Cubs Trimmed Athletics Tampa, Florida, March 9.—A big delegation of Tampa fans noticed in detail today just how the Cubs clutched a 6-2 victory over Harry Davis' squad of near regular Athletics. The trouble with the Mackmen was weakness in the box at the wrong moment, or else undue pounding strength by the Cubs. At any rate the Rajahs seemed to be able to connect on those occasions when they were in a run or so, whereas the Athletics were in the reverse mood during the greater part of the afternoon.

There is considerable talk of the re-organization of the East End League. This will be welcome news for the fans for many interesting contests took place on the Erin street grounds last season. The league has the best amateur players in the city and although their ranks have been thinned by several of the players joining the colors there are many promising young men who will have an opportunity of filling their places.

It is not as yet known where the games will be played, but there is some doubt regarding the possibility of procuring the grounds again this year, but every endeavor will be made to acquire them. In case the efforts of the executive fail it is said they will endeavor to secure the Marathon grounds.

It is expected that the South End league will again be in existence this year as several of the former members are planning to reorganize it. They are endeavoring to obtain permission to play on the Barrack Square and if they succeed the executive will bring forth plans for the season.

MORE THIEVING

In addition to reports of thieving from summer cottages noted in the Times a few days ago, further acts were made known today when the loss of a small rowboat and the proprietor of a motor boat owned by Carl E. Bonnell of Ketepec was complained of. In this case the thieves worked from the river front, and it is believed that the same was true with respect to damage done at Doctor Wetmore's place in the half a mile above the Bonnell residence.

Both boats had been pulled out of the water last fall, and were covered over for the winter in the shelter of some trees near the shore. The rowboat which was of the class known as tenders, was between two motor boats, and it was from one of these that the propeller was stolen. Mr. Bonnell is planning to take action against these to whom it is said he has traced the stolen articles.

MANY READY TO GO OVER-SEAS

Twenty To Be Sent From Artillery Here FOR GARRISON DUTY

Latest Word of the New Battalions—Reported Appointment of Col. Landry as Brigadier—B Squadron to be City's Guests.

Another call for volunteers has been answered by the artillerymen of St. John. The response was practically instantaneous. Within a very few moments after he received the inquiry as to whether or not he could send twenty men overseas for garrison defence, presumably in England, Lieut.-Col. Armstrong had more volunteers from the 3rd C. A. garrison on Partridge Island, than he required and only a list of names has been forwarded to headquarters for approval, including Lieut. Colin McKay as officer commanding the detachment. Confirmation of the appointments is expected within a few days. The taking of these men overseas is in accordance with the announced intention to send volunteers across in detachments as they were needed. The presumption is that they are to replace partly, an English coast garrison.

Home Defence.
With the sending of this unit to England and another for service in Halifax on garrison duty, it will be a total of about 190 more men. Seventy-five men are required for the garrison at Halifax, and many names are being taken for this service. Captain L. F. Allen will command this unit, with Lieut. Herbert West and another lieutenant to be selected. The members of the 3rd Regiment are filling the lists for the unit to be taken to the sister city.

The New Battalions.
While no definite announcement has been made concerning the mobilization of the 29th Battalion it begins to look as though it would be centred in St. John. The housing of the 29th here was satisfactory and with a little more accommodation, which it is known can be easily furnished, following their removal overseas, the quartering of the 29th can be comfortably carried out here. The 29th Battalion, a French Canadian infantry unit, will be taken to Amherst. This is declared positive. Orders have been issued for it to move from St. John's, Quebec, and the battalion will probably train for Amherst today or tomorrow. The 29th will be under the command of Lieut. Col. J. P. Landry, who will also be in command of the 40th which is under training in Halifax.

Brigadier Appointed.
From Upper Canada the announcement of a brigadier to command the infantry in the maritime provinces has come, the choice being Colonel J. P. Landry. It is not known just where he will take up his quarters, but it will probably be at Halifax. No announcement has been made as to the appointments in his command.

Recruiting.
The work of taking on men for the 55th Infantry and the 29th Artillery continues somewhat slowly. Men are not offering so readily as had been expected but with an active campaign now being arranged, to be put under way within a short time, it is anticipated that the 29th will be easily swelled to the required total. A few more names were taken at the local recruiting offices today.

Drill.
The 26th will drill today for the most part in the vicinity of the armory. The 6th C. M. R. will continue their preliminary training. The Army Service Corps are practising wagon drill, having become expert in the foot-drill. There is still no word as to when the mounted infantry will go to Amherst.

For House Opening
Several of the officers of the local units are in Fredericton today attending the ceremonies for the opening of the legislature, among them being Lieut.-Col. J. McAvity, Major A. E. G. McKenzie, Major Jas. Pringle, Captain Alex. McMillan and Lieut. Wm. Barrell, all of the 26th battalion; Major C. H. McLellan and Captain Morris Scoville, of the 6th R. C. M. Rifles; and Major F. T. McKean, Captain Wickwire, Lieutenants Hill, Pidgeon and Rainnie of No. 5 Co. C. A. S. Corps.

In Soldier's Honor
A pleasant surprise party was last night tendered Corporal Burt Lloyd, of the 26th Battalion, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Linde, 31 Rodney street, West St. John. Friends assembled in his honor, and during the evening the young soldier was made the recipient of a handsome gold-mounted fountain pen. Best wishes for his success were extended.

City's Guests
The members of B. Squadron, 6th Mounted Rifles, to the number of about 150 men, will be the guests of the city at a banquet to be given in Wanaamak's restaurant tomorrow evening. The city already has entertained the 26th Battalion and the Army Service Corps, and wish also to extend this courtesy to the mounted rifles enlisted here also.

Two Sons There
The name of Ernest G. R. Clayton, son of J. P. Clayton, superintendent of Fernald, was omitted from the list of the members of B. Squadron, Mounted Rifles. Mr. Clayton has another son, Roy, in A Squadron.

DAREY McGrath, son of H. J. McGrath of Fredericton, has enlisted with an infantry battalion at Fort George, B. C. He is the second son of H. J. McGrath to enter the militia, the other being Justin McGrath, who is now at the Artillery School at Kingston, Ont., taking a qualifying course.

In Nova Scotia
Two hundred men are getting nearly six hours' drill each day at Amherst. They say they enjoy it. Fifty recruits have enlisted in Pictou county for the 40th, and are drilling at New Glasgow.
