President Cosgrave and Brother Are Elected in Ireland

REPUBLICAN TICKETS UP IN RACE

GOVERNMENT LEADER IS RETURNED

President of Free State Elected by Preference Vote from Kilkenny.

CABINET MINISTERS

Early Returns Indicate a Victory for Irish Government.

(Canadian Press.)

Dublin, Aug. 28.—President William T. Cosgrave has been elected on the first preference vote from Kilkenny.

The President's brother, Philip, was elected from South Dublin, and both Gen. Richard Mulcahy, minister for defense, and Kevin O'Higgins, minister for home affairs, both of the present cabinet, were also returned from Dublin.

C. N. Byrne, Government candidate from Wicklow, was also elected.

Aided by Cosgrave.

Dublin, Aug. 28.—It is believed that the government candidates were aided by a revelation recently made by President Cosgrave.

Countess Markievicz, who was elected in the early morning and later toured North Kildare last evening in time to cast her ballot.

Countess Markievicz seems to have furnished about the only diversion from the general dullness of the day's events. The Daily Telegraph's correspondent tells of a last minute Sinn Fein rally at Rathmines late last night at which the Countess told her audience that if the Republicans did not win a majority in the Dail there would be a resumption of shooting.

"Here's First Shot"

"If that's your game," replied a voice from the crowd, "here's the first shot."

This rally was accompanied by a well directed egg which, the correspondent asserts, found its mark.

The Daily Mail's Dublin correspondent says it was almost pathetic to see Countess Markievicz driving about the capital in a taxicab, the sides of which were covered with posters and flags.

MAKES RECORD FLIGHT AT NIGHT TO FATHER'S SIDE

Mail Pilot Races From Cheyenne to Chicago—Spent 285 Minutes in 9 Hours, 40 Minutes.

Buchanan, Mich., Aug. 28.—Jack Knight, veteran air mail pilot, flying through the night, won a race against an unseen competitor—Death—when he landed here about 7.30 a. m. in what is believed to have been the longest single night flight in the history of aviation. Having flown from Cheyenne, Wyo., nearly a thousand miles from time to find his father, Dr. M. M. Knight, sixty-nine years old, alive.

He received a telegram informing him his father was seriously ill of bronchial pneumonia, and air mail officials gave him permission to make the flight in a Postoffice plane. He took off at 10.45 p. m., Central time. He reached Chicago, 425 miles from Omaha, at 4.42 a. m., Central time, having flown the 885 miles of lighted airway between Cheyenne and Chicago in 9 hours and 40 minutes. Buchanan is approximately seventy-five miles from Chicago.

CATS SAVE TICKET TAPE FROM ROBERT INVADERS

Feline Guard Placed by Cotton and Other Exchanges on Trading Floors.

"Food for cats, $81.73" is an item which appears in the annual report of the New York Cotton Exchange, just published. Members of the Exchange yesterday said that the reason for it is rats. One official said that in the past all the precautions taken, rats and mice occasionally appear on the trading floor. Traps have been employed in vain and as a result the cats is the mainstay in combating the nuisance.

The rats appear to have a fondness for ticker tape and infrequently new rolls are found nibbled through and other damage is done from time to time. As one member put it, the bulls and bears in Wall Street may be more or less mythical, but the rats and mice are real, hence the contribution of the Exchange in the feeding of cats.

The cotton exchanges in the financial districts also have their feline aids.

The Cotton Exchange expects a reduction in the price of the cats this year and the rats must climb nineteen stories to reach the trading floor, boards an express elevator and descends to the engine room, where they sleep until the market closes. Then they again board the elevator and is whirled up to the trading floor to resume their vigil. Only a few rats have been caught since occupation of the new building.

Something to Brood Over.

Opportunities, like eggs, should be hatched while they are fresh.

That $875 Flat; The Living Room

A wonderful flat you see in these windows. The Living Room to begin with. Such a sizeable Chesterfield suite—the thickness, the springiness, the loose spring cushions, the high backs, the arching arms—all in such strong and cheery Tapestry in forest hues.

The size of the wing backed Fireside Chair and the other with it. The genuine Mahogany Chesterfield table, twenty inches by fifty. And the lavish beauty of the Wilton Square, deep piled durable.

A great result in home planning for $875 when you add in a complete Dining Room suite of nine pieces in genuine Mahogany, a Brussels Square upon the floor, a Kitchen with Porcelain top White Table, Chairs and 16 yds. of Tile covering. Then a complete 6 piece Bed Room suite in either genuine Walnut, Mahogany or Ivory—spring, mattress and Axminster Square. All in windows.

CAUSE MUST BE ADJUSTED

CHIROPRACTIC is based on fundamental, natural laws. The organs of the body are the motors, the nerves are power lines which carry the energy of life to all parts of the body. Impairment or pinching of the nerves interferes with the carrying power and disease is the result. The chiropractor adjusts with his hands the misaligned vertebrae and the impinged nerves are freed. The flow of life enters the part diseased, normal functions are resumed and health restored. The Chiropactic way is Nature's way.

GERMANS BEGIN FIGHT TO HOLD SAAR DISTRICT

Active Paid Propaganda is Already Under Way for Plebiscite.

Paris, Aug. 28.—Active propaganda, aid for and carried on by Prussian individuals and organizations, is already being conducted in the Saar in preparation for the plebiscite in 1935. The Treaty of Versailles provided for its plebiscite and envisaged three possible results—return of the territory to Germany, re-attachment to France, or the creation of a small autonomous state.

Typical of the Prussian efforts to sabotage the plebiscite in advance is the following appeal to the population of the Saar, published in "L'Echo National."

"The future of the Saar is in great danger. With all our strength we must defend the rights guaranteed to us as to our Germanism and our liberties. Our road is difficult and it will bring us to the desired destination along the entire population co-operates."

The creation of the Landesrat, the commencement of preparations for the plebiscite of 1935, the discussion of the Saar question in parliament of various countries, the intelligent intervention of Sweden in favor of our rights, the proposal of the British Government for an investigation by the Council of the League of Nations into the present administration of the Saar—all this is the result of our common efforts.

"The Saar population must tenaciously continue in its efforts, even engaging its demands and its activities. To do this considerable sums of money are necessary. Without money our arms are tied. We therefore appeal to you to contribute generously. Every cent should give as much as possible. A common fund has been founded by the parties represented in the Landesrat—the Center, German Socialist, Liberal-Popular, German Democratic parties. Payments should be made in favor of the "Saarland-Zukunft" ("Future of the Saar") in the following banks.

The banks named are all Prussian institutions.

"L'Echo National" declares this sort of thing to be in violation of the spirit of the Versailles Treaty and urges the Government to put a quick end to "this manoeuvre of a few Prussian agitators who pretend falsely to represent the opinion of the Saar population."

EXTINCTION FACES THE LABOR HERALD

(Canadian Press Dispatch.)
London, Aug. 27.—In connection with the recent announcement that the Daily Herald, official organ of the Labor party in Great Britain, may cease publication on Sept. 30, owing to lack of support, it is stated that during the last year the Trades Union Congress has spent $76,000 on the Herald.

Commenting on the threatened extinction of the Daily Herald, the London Observer says Germany can support a great Labor newspaper like the Herald in the world, a Labor paper should have some difficulty in striking roots. The idealism of the Labor movement apparently is unequal to the task of supporting a Labor paper as against the penny daily, the Observer says.

The collapse of the Daily Herald will be a blow to the Labor party, the Observer declares, and adds that the Herald might fight on as a political broadsheet.

ENGLISH CHURCH TO AID
AUSTRALIAN EMIGRATION
Melbourne, Aug. 28.—The Anglican Church of Great Britain has undertaken to share with various state governments of Australia the cost of bringing over desirable Englishmen to settle in Australia. In Western Australia each contribute a third of the transportation charges, the remainder coming from private sources. Measures have been taken for the reception, placing and after-care of British settlers from the mother country.

In South Australia, the Anglican church will undertake to assist the arrivals after they set foot on Australian soil.

CASE OFF UNTIL SEPT. 18.
The case of Franklin W. Allen of Long Island against the Atlantic Sugar Refineries, a suit for approximately $2,000, was continued in the Circuit Court before Mr. Justice Crockett, yesterday afternoon. Mr. Allen said that he was the official reporter for the U. S. Federal Trade Commission. The commission held an investigation into the sugar industry. He said the refineries company accepted his offer to supply them with the evidence at 18 cents a page. The report amounted to some 15,000 pages. The company refused to accept the report, contending that they had only ordered a copy of the finding. Mr. Lowrey, statistical manager for the company, on the stand said that he had understood that he had ordered a summary of the case and not a complete report. The court adjourned until September 18. C. F. Inches, K. C., and E. C. Weyman appeared for Mr. Allen, and Dr. F. Taylor, K. C., for the defendant company.

This is the season when nobody declines the gift of a few days extra vacation.

WHAT'S THE RUSH?

A few Canadian newspapers are borrowing trouble over the question: Is Canada a nation? The Canadian public is not, and is not likely to be, very much concerned over the matter, not seeing that it is of more than academic interest, though some of the publicists take it rather seriously.

Since then the war brought about a more intimate and directly responsible relation in regard to foreign policy, or war policy, and both in Great Britain and the Dominions there have been many outspoken declarations as to the equality of the self-governing peoples constituting the Empire.

Defence and economic relations are the two big questions, and there is much talk about both. At the Imperial Conference in October both the subjects will be up for discussion rather than settlement.

Neither the ultra-imperialists nor the ultra-autonomists will run away from the Conference, and it is likely to run its course without even trying to define to what extent each of the self-governing Dominions is a nation.

AN INTERESTING DIARY.

Some new light on the ex-Kaiser comes to hand with the discovery of a diary kept by an officer who was for some years—critical years, too—personal aide-de-camp to Wilhelm. Subsequently this officer, General Count Dolna-Schodien, became German military attaché in Russia, where he incurred the attention of the Czar's secret service.

"I will let loose such a world war that it will shake the whole universe. I will raise the whole of Islam against England. And the Sultan has already promised me his support. England may succeed in destroying our fleet, but she will bleed from thousands of wounds. King Edward will then learn that it is not so easy to plunge Germany into a war."

That was early in 1906. Later the Kaiser began to speak of his country as isolated, ringed about by actual or possible enemies. Austria, he thought, was the only friend, adding "and that is not saying much."

He was by that time reaching the mood in which he afterwards declared that no international agreements should be made without his consent. His suspicions in Italy's case were justified by the end. That Italy was not to be made the tool of German ambition had been made plain to him.

Belgium, in its reply to Britain, agrees with France on the chief points at issue, but the note is calmer in tone than the French communication. Evidently Belgium still hopes for an agreement by the Allies.

There "must" be a settlement and coal "must" be mined, says Governor Pinchof. Here is a mandate. A very short time now will tell how much there is behind it.

In Waterford on election day four bands, two government and two Red, would all play the same tune. No they did not all play the same tune. It's too early for that yet.

About the biggest turn out of motor cars St. John has seen was that of last night in the vicinity of the Reg. The lure of the squared circle is strong.

BLISS CARMAN'S TRIBUTE TO HARDING. (Vancouver Province) Dip, Lord, Old Glory, now: The world is in a state of confusion. A startled nation in its grief stands with uncovered head.

Droop the Red Ensign, too. In sign we understand. And to our brothers in their loss stretch forth a brother's hand.

How shall we better praise Than in the world's lament: "Here died a great American."

Simple, sincere and just. Let the wide tribute run. In token of the faith he kept—"Servant of God, well done!"

Born of our common stock, Beed in our common ways, Devoted to the common weal, All his laborious days.

He held no thought of self On whom our load was laid, But faced the burden and the fight, Ungrudging, unafraid.

To the last ounce of strength He gave, and to the last breath He gave; He loved; when more was asked He spent the last reserve.

We shall not be ashamed To let the quick start For one who loved so well, with such a manliness of heart.

AN ELECTRICAL UTOPIA.

Ideal states of society have been portrayed since the age of Plato, and even today, when the world is in danger, the hopeful Utopian is still being left to his own devices.

Who could perform that task better than our "electrical wizard" Dr. Charles P. Steinmetz? And what department of science could be better suited to the task than that of electricity?

At the present time conditions in Canada are gradually but steadily improving. Our international trade is the greatest in our history.

It is remarked by The Ottawa Citizen that modern fiction is notable for the almost total absence of popular characters.

Some modern writers make no attempt to create characters, but depend for interest upon plot and incident.

BELGIANS HONOR WOMAN MARTYR, SLAIN IN WAR

Brussels, Aug. 28.—The fires of patriotism kindled in Belgium by the World War have not been extinguished. Her national fête day saw the people throughout the country and in the provinces engaged in stirring demonstrations that had not been equalled since the days of 1830, when she won her independence.

Unveiling of Bronze Statue to Gabrielle Petit at Fete.

One of the moving features of this year's celebration was the unveiling of a bronze statue in Brussels in memory of Gabrielle Petit, the Belgian heroine in Belgium today. Fired with patriotism in those days, when the nation was invaded, Gabrielle Petit offered her services to the country as a spy.

At the present time conditions in Canada are gradually but steadily improving. Our international trade is the greatest in our history; the same is true of the national revenue.

It is remarked by The Ottawa Citizen that modern fiction is notable for the almost total absence of popular characters. If they have been created, they are not widely known.

LEAPS TO DEATH FROM 24TH FLOOR

Gruber Plunges From Top Story of New York Building

New York, Aug. 28.—Samuel Gruber of 308 Ebley street, Brooklyn, leaped to his death from the twenty-fourth floor of the Municipal Building and his body struck the sidewalk on the Park Row side of the south wing, near where Chambers street passes through the building, narrowly missing two men and a woman who were passing.

Identification was made through an automobile driver's license found in the man's pocket.

Gruber's leap was made from such height that the air currents caused him to swoop out over the sidewalk, close to the elevated railroad structure opposite, then back toward the building again as he neared the sidewalk. No one could be found who had seen Gruber in the building and a search failed to disclose the window from which the suicide dropped. The door to the stairs leading from the top floor to the roof was found locked, as it had been left the night before.

John Massoney of 22 Mulberry street, a photo engraver; Fireman Blackmore of Engine Co. 71 and Mrs. F. Millmore, an employee of the Department of Corrections, were the persons nearest struck by the body. Massoney was within three feet of where it fell and was staggered for a moment by the rush of air.

Thousands of persons coming from Brooklyn Bridge and the subway exits in the Municipal Building and City Hall Park soon gathered at the scene, and police were called from the Oak Street Station to keep them back.

ATTEND SERVICE IN MEMORY OF CZAR NICHOLAS

Sofia, Aug. 28.—The anniversary of the death of Czar Nicholas II and the Russian Imperial family by Bolshevik violence was marked by an impressive memorial service in the church attached to the Russian embassy in this city.

Russian pilgrims of all classes of society, from nobles to laborers, filled the beautiful structure, which is a gift from Nicholas II. Each member of the late imperial family was mentioned by name, the priest referring to "The servant Nikolai," "The servant Alexandra Feodorovna," "The servant Alexei," and so with the princesses, Olga, Tatiana, Maria and Anastasia.

Pains were taken by the police to exclude all Bolsheviks for fear they might disturb the services.

OLD MINES GIVE NEW GOLD

Corbach, Germany, Aug. 27.—Gold-diggers are working again along the Eder River in pits which have lain idle since 1886, and there is great excitement in this principality of Waldeck over reports which assayers have made on the red clay taken from the old diggings.

Dr. Beyschlag, president of the Institute for Geology, has studied the property and discovered that under the archaic methods of the sixteenth century, 70 per cent. of the gold in the clay was lost. By using chlorine and other solvents the amount of gold obtained from one ton of clay has been as high as 11.4 ounces.

EX-CROWN PRINCE ON MOVE

Hopes to Live in House Friends Bought

Amsterdam, Aug. 28.—The ex-Crown Prince of Germany again has changed his residence. He sold a house near Berlin which he owned, and he and his wife have left Wieringen with the intention of living in Holland in a house which friends have bought for them.

It is necessary that Holland give her consent to this project before it can be carried out.

Early Autumn Brings Forth Fresh, New Style Versions

Darker colors, including deep, rich browns, dark navy and black are destined to be in great demand.

IN SUITS—Coats are longer and in many cases are fashioned with the new flat back, with or without belts. Point Twills and Bolivias are perhaps the most favored materials. Suits are plain in tailored or semi-tailored styles, or are elaborately embroidered in self color.

IN COATS—The wrappy lines again hold sway. Many particularly fine models have large roll collars and flaring cuffs of contrasting fur. All sorts of heavy, thick piled fabrics, such as Velvets, Marvellas, Bolivias, etc., are fashionable. There is also a noticeable tendency toward raglan styles made from heather tweeds and rough, fleecy materials.

IN FROCKS—The circular skirt is seen on some of the very smartest models. Silk and satin crepes of various weights and weaves are holding first place among dress fabrics. They are used alone or in clever combination with some contrasting material. Draperies, unusually full sleeves, beaded girdles, pleats, and bright embroideries all add touches of distinction.

JAIL FOR DRIVING AUTOS TOO NEAR THE STREET CARS

All automobile drivers found guilty of driving their vehicles within eight feet of a standing street car hereafter will receive jail terms Magistrate E. J. B. House announced in the Tr. / Court when he sentenced Louis Bloom, 29 years old, a chauffeur, of 225 East Ninety-eighth street to five days in the work house for the offense.

"People who cannot afford to ride in automobiles and must use street cars have to be protected against chauffeurs who pay no regard to their safety," he said to Bloom, who was arrested by Traffic Policeman Conscience at Broadway and Fourth street. "This law is no joke," he continued. "It will be enforced, and other chauffeurs may as well take your case as a warning, for they will not receive any sympathy if they are brought before me for this offense."

ST. LOUIS BOASTS FINE ORCHIDS

St. Louis, Aug. 28.—With 5,200 plants recently added to its orchid collection, The Missouri Botanical Garden here is said to have the largest and most varied orchid collection in America, if not in the world.

G. H. Pring, horticulturist at the garden, who collected the 5,200 plants in Columbia and Panama, says that the collection includes Panamanian orchids hitherto unknown to the United States, and a rare albino specimen said to be one of only two plants of its kind known to exist.

TOO MANY WANT TO BE TEACHERS

Fredericton, Aug. 27.—Dr. H. V. B. Bridges, principal of the Normal School, said today that he would have a statement ready for tomorrow regarding attendance figures for the next year at the school, opening on Sept. 4.

Meanwhile all that he would say was that there were more applicants than the regulations would permit to be admitted.

At the Education Office official said that instructions had been issued for the new regulation limiting the number of students at the Normal School to 400 enforced, and their information on record, considerably exceeding 400.

It was stated, however, that the applicants who would be refused admission would be some of those seeking to train for third-class licenses and, it was said, there was no scarcity of third-class teachers but rather the reverse was the case now. Attendance last year was largest on record, considerably exceeding 400.

Straight Lines-- But Higher--Corset Backs
A fullness through the shoulders that corrects the tendency toward excess flesh that might come from low back corsets—there you have a new note in Modart Front Lace Corsets for Autumn modes. A waistless season. Further good news. No matter what your figure, you are bound to get any effect you covet and get it with every comfort in a Modart. Only one place to have it though, at Daniel's, where fittings are free by a well qualified and experienced Corsetiere, Miss Christina O'Neill.
With a flexibility unequalled, Modart Corsets form you for your evening gown and your golfing costume with equal ease and freedom. On top of this and longer service, there's the command of figure alignment that counts so high for all. But, as it is a case of fitting to a style rather than a size, the services of the Corsetiere are indispensable, though costing nothing.
And the way the new models are graduating higher in the back and front is a fresh help to take keen note of. A big difference. The style up in the corner for average to slender figures starts at $7.25 according to model and material.
The one at the right accommodates large hips for a curved figure, and it has a low elastic top. From $7.50.
Bear well in mind the need of that free fitting, and that only here can you find the improvements of the Modart.

SILLS AND BOWERS IN NARROW ESCAPE

Screen Stars Near to Death During Making of an Ince Feature.

A double tragedy that would have robbed the shadow screen of two of its most popular leading men nearly occurred during the filming of Thomas H. Ince's "What a Wife Learned," showing at the Queen's Theatre.

To get shots of a big scene at the climax of the play when John Bowers and Milton Sills, who are featured in the picture, are trapped by flood waters and swept over the spillway of a dam, the two actors climbed upon a temporary staging built just below the big Laguna Dam at Yuma, Arizona.

At a given signal a dam structure which had been built for the filming of the sequence was destroyed by a rush of waters released from the dam and a flood tide swept on down to the lower site where Bowers and Sills were clinging to the staging.

Both Bowers and Sills got the fright of their lives when a wall of water, forty feet high, bore down on them. The head of water from the gates to the right of the dam was misdirected and the scene described in the script became terrifyingly realistic. The two actors were thrown into the water with terrific force while even the cameramen on the side lines were knocked off their feet.

RICHEST PRINCE OF INDIA DEAD

Gaekwar of Baroda Expires on Train Traveling in Holland.

Flushing, Holland, Aug. 27.—Maharaja Gaekwar of Baroda, said to be the richest prince in India, died here tonight on a journey from Berlin.

The Maharaja was taken ill on board the train and died just before reaching Flushing. During the Delhi Durbar in 1912 the Maharaja created a tremendous sensation by turning his back on King George at a reception, instead of walking backward, as is customary in the presence of royalty.

During the war, however, he proved among the most loyal of the Indian princes, giving great assistance to Great Britain.

The Maharaja of Baroda, 60 years old. He was a descendant of the famous Mahatma leader, Gamaji Gaekwar, who obtained from the Shahu of Satara the title of Shansher Bahadur for bravery at the Battle of Balahur, fought against the Imperial forces of Delhi at the close of the seventeenth century.

The reign of the dead Maharaja was one of progress and prosperity. His state in India covers 8,182 square miles and contains a population of 2,120,000 souls. He was cultured and had written extensively on India.

Baby Cutting Teeth Was Very Sick With Diarrhoea

When the baby starts to cut its teeth, especially during the hot weather, then is the time that the poor mother is under the stress and strain of great anxiety.

There is no remedy so safe and effective, for the teething complaints of infants, as Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, no remedy that has had the endorsement of so many Canadian mothers during the past 78 years it has been on the market.

Mrs. C. W. Myers, Clonwilliam, Man., writes: "My baby girl was very sick with diarrhoea when she was cutting her teeth. I tried several different remedies, but nothing did her any good. She was getting worse when my mother sent me out a bottle of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. I gave her a few doses and the next day she was much better, and in a couple more days she was as well as ever.

"Now, I always keep Dr. Fowler's in the house and recommend it to all those troubled with diarrhoea."

STATESMEN LEAVING FOR EMPIRE MEETS

London, Aug. 27.—Preparations for the Imperial Conference and the Imperial Economic Conference which are to be held in London in October simultaneously, are already well advanced and in the next few days several delegates from the Dominions will leave home on their way here.

Premier W. F. Massey, of New Zealand, and the other New Zealand delegates will sail from Auckland tomorrow.

Australia's delegation, which, it is said, will number more than 20, will sail from Melbourne on Saturday. Premier S. M. Bruce and Senator R. V. Wilson, Honorary Minister in the Commonwealth Government, will be accompanied by their wives.

Premier Jan Christian Smuts, of South Africa, will sail from Cape Town on Sept. 4 to attend the Imperial Conference. He is not carrying out his original intention of attending the League of Nations assembly at Geneva.

An encounter with three moose near Spruce Lake last evening resulted in damage to an automobile owned and driven by Max Seresky. According to Mr. Seresky's story the animals charged the car and he was unable to turn, another carried away one light and part of the mud-guard, and the third missed the car.

WAS UNABLE TO EAT MEAT

Mrs. Robichaud finds relief from distressing digestive troubles in Dreco, the famous herbal remedy.

Again has Dreco proved its value as a tonic and regulator for the digestive system, by restoring Mrs. Robichaud, of Woodstock Road, Fredericton, N. B., to health. Mrs. Robichaud's troubles were all traceable to the organs of digestion for which Dreco is especially prepared.

"Dreco relieved me when I had abandoned all hope of ever recovering my health," says Mrs. Robichaud. "I suffered terribly with dyspepsia. I had it for years and all the medicines which I took did not do me any good. I read about Dreco being good for all stomach troubles and disorders of digestion, so I gave it a trial.

"After taking three bottles of Dreco, I was entirely relieved of the dyspepsia, and my general health was restored. I cannot praise Dreco too highly for the wonderful help I got from it. I had a very poor appetite and was very restless and nervous at night and before taking Dreco I was unable to eat meat. I suffered terribly with heartburn and water-brash. But my health has been completely restored after taking three bottles of this splendid medicine."

One secret of Dreco's effectiveness is that all the scientific skill with which it is compounded has been directed towards one object only—the production of a reliable tonic and corrective for digestive troubles. This Dreco undoubtedly is, as every user testifies. Dreco is prepared from roots, herbs, bark and leaves, whose medicinal value has been established for years. It contains no mercury, potash or habit forming drugs and may be taken with safety and certainty of result.

Dreco is being specially introduced in St. John by Ross Drug Co., 100 King street; Moore's Drug Store, 105 Prince Edward street; F. W. Munro, 357 Main street, and in West St. John by Watson R. Dealing. It is also sold in Fairville by T. H. Wilson, and by a good druggist everywhere.

Doctor Tells How to Strengthen Eyesight 50 Per Cent. in One Week's Time in Many Instances

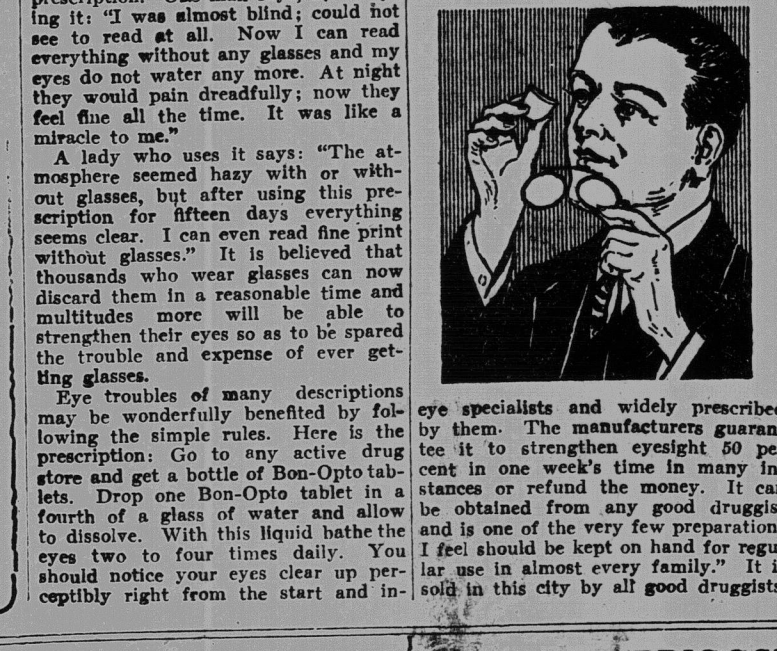

A Free Prescription You Can Have

Philadelphia, Pa.—Do you wear glasses? Are you a victim of eye strain or other eye weakness? If so, you will be glad to know that according to Dr. Lewis there is real hope for you. Many eyes were failing say they have had their eyes restored through the principle of this wonderful free prescription. One man says, after trying it, "I was almost blind; could not see to read at all. Now I can read everything without any glasses and my eyes do not water any more. At night they would pain dreadfully; now they feel fine all the time. It was like a miracle to me."

A lady who uses it says: "The atmosphere seemed hazy with or without glasses, but after using this prescription for fifteen days everything seems clear. I can even read fine print without glasses." It is believed that thousands who wear glasses can now discard them in a reasonable time and strengthen their eyes so as to spare the trouble and expense of ever getting glasses.

Eye troubles of many descriptions may be wonderfully benefited by following the simple rules. Here is the prescription: Go to any active drug store and get a bottle of Bon-Opto tablet in a fourth of a glass of water and allow to dissolve. With this liquid bathe the eyes two to four times daily. You should notice your eyes clear up perceptibly right from the start and inflammation will quickly disappear. If your eyes are bothering you, even a little, take steps to save them now before it is too late. Many hopelessly blind might have been saved if they had cared for their eyes in time.

NOTE: Another prominent Physician to whom the above article was submitted, said: "Bon-Opto is a very remarkable remedy. Its constituent ingredients are well known to eminent eye specialists and widely prescribed by them. The manufacturers guarantee it to strengthen eyesight 50 per cent in one week's time in many instances or refund the money. It can be obtained from any good druggist and is one of the very few preparations I feel should be kept on hand for regular use in almost every family. It is sold in this city by all good druggists."

Face Disfigured With Large Pimples Cuticura Healed

"For some time my face was affected with pimples and skin eruptions, which by times became so irritating that I was unable to go out. The pimples were very hard and large, and turned bluish when rubbed or picked, which caused disfigurement.

"I was treated but it did not prove satisfactory. I read an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment and decided to try them, and after using two cakes of Cuticura Soap and two boxes of Cuticura Ointment I was healed." (Signed) Mrs. Earl Cooke, Box 374, Naponee, Ontario.

—Cuticura Soap daily, with Cuticura Ointment occasionally, prevents pimples or other eruptions. They are pleasant to use, as is also Cuticura Talcum for perfuming the skin.

Samples sent Free by Mail. Address: "Cuticura, Dept. 44, P. O. Box 5600, Lowell, Mass., U.S.A." Write for literature. Cuticura Soap shaves without razor.

DOCTORS WANTED TO OPERATE

Mrs. Quillon Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Saved Her from an Operation

Muskegon, Michigan.—"A free doctoring for eight or ten years with different physicians without any relief at all. They said that medicine would not reach my case and I should have an operation. I had heard of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and often saw it advertised in different papers where some women had suffered just as I did and got well and strong again by taking the Vegetable Compound. I decided to see what it would do for me, and before I had finished the fourth bottle I was much better, the weakness stopped and severe pains in my sides left me. I am now much stronger and do my own work and work in the factory besides. I am still taking the Vegetable Compound and give it all the praise."—Mrs. NELIE QUILLON, 17 Morris St., Muskegon, Mich.

Women should heed such warning symptoms as bearing-down pains and weakness, for they indicate some female trouble, and a persistent and faithful use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will seldom fail to help.

THE EVENING TIMES-STAR, ST. JOHN, N. B., TUESDAY, AUGUST 28, 1923

WARM WELCOME AT OPERA HOUSE FOR COMPANY

St. John Greets the Carroll
Players in Theatre Made Almost New.

Resplendent in new decoration, new hangings and new atmosphere and, above all, in new seating arrangement, the Opera House last evening opened its doors to the people of St. John after being for three weeks in the hands of the decorators. The occasion was a double celebration for it marked the opening of the second season of the F. James Carroll Players, who presented "Cillian Clohes" to a highly pleased audience.

The Opera House is under lease by The Maritime Amusement Company, Limited, with A. L. Gaudet as manager. F. G. Spencer is the director and to him belongs the credit for the wonderful transformation made. From the time one enters the street doors the change is apparent and the excellence of arrangement and good taste in colors impresses one as he progresses to the auditorium. The stairway leading to the lobby has been redecorated and handsome swinging doors with plate glass panels have been installed under a fanlight. The doors have curtains of pongee silk tied with brown satin ribbons and the whole effect is very pleasing.

The walls of the lobby have been redecorated and the ceiling has a leaf grilling from which are suspended cages of canary birds. The ticket waiting rooms have been painted and cleaned and chairs have been installed in them.

It is only when one sinks into the handsome, comfortable chairs that the full significance of the change is felt. When it was decided to change the seating a man was sent for from the factory. He made a plan of the house and designed the chairs to fit the house. When they had been manufactured and shipped he came back to supervise their installation and the result amply justified the expenditure involved. The smallest chair is twenty inches wide and there is plenty of knee room. Another improvement is that there are now four aisles instead of two. Formerly if one had a seat near the wall it was necessary to climb in over seats or through the aisle which had been made next to the walls. This allows the house to empty in about one-half the time it used to take.

About the walls are pairs of rose shaded lights which, shining softly against the fawn tinted walls, give a very pretty effect.

Leading Lady at Opera House

The front drop is new, of heavy rose poplin, replacing a rather unsightly scenic drop. All the electrical fixtures are new. New equipment for the expeditious handling of scenery has been installed and everything back stage made to run smoothly. The dressing rooms for the players have been redecorated and improved.

In the balcony there is new seating arrangement and new lighting and the stairs have new treads. The windows are faced with attractive hangings. Now has the upper gallery been forgotten. It has come in for its share of cleaning, painting, redecorating and everything possible done looking to the accommodation of the patrons.

It is almost unbelievable that in the short space of three weeks such a transformation could have been accomplished. The lessees have spent about $12,000 in the redecorating of the Opera House and the result is a completely changed atmosphere and an Opera House that is a credit to the city.

The Players.
Fitting perfectly into their new surroundings the F. James Carroll Players reopened in St. John to the tune of rounds of applause from an audience which knew the capabilities of the company last season and who look for equally good, if not better plays, this season. Some familiar faces were absent. Miss Lillian Foster, who won her way solidly into the hearts of the people last year, was missing as was also Leslie Adams, who played the male lead last season. However, from the bands of histrionic ability displayed last evening by each member of the company, it is fair to assume that, though their acting will be missed, the reputation of the company will suffer none as Mr. Carroll has been at great pains to secure the best possible. The people last night and it is safe to say, are well on their way to becoming real favorites.

John Gordon, the genial and popular director received a great welcome when Mr. Carroll introduced the players one by one. Each one of the players was well received. Owen Coll, a former St. John man who has been playing in the West since 1905, was heartily received though he remarked that he had heard it said that a poet was without honor in his own country. James Coats said he had been a member of the 98 Howitzer Battery and urged any of his old "buddies" to come and see him. Miss Preston made a few remarks, the gist of which was that actions speak louder than words. All the members of the company were well received.

The play itself was good. It dealt with the plight of a young girl who, in a romantic moment in France during the war, married a dashing captain of infantry, resplendent in uniform and hard won decorations for gallantry. She believed him dead when she was suddenly confronted by him at the magnificent home of her aristocratic parents. He was gallantly in a suit of light green with khaki shirt and red tie and yellow boots. She refused to go away with him and to teach her a lesson and to learn the manners which she complained he had not, he became a butler in her home in spite of her protests, holding over her head the threat to reveal their marriage. Stretches of humor and scenes of drama followed each other during the course of the play.

Miss Preston plays the young wife and Mr. Coats plays Captain Sam McGinnis, her husband. The part of the war bride's father and mother are well handled by Paul Broderick and Miss Dorrit Kelton. Miss Kelton was very popular here last season and received great applause on her first appearance last evening. Unwittingly she played the part of the bride who was Billy Arkwright, played by Charles Nelson; General McInerney played by Owen Coll; and Jack Butler, played by John Gordon. Virginia Odson played the part of sister to the bride. The Miss Edna Preston, Miss Myra Marsh, playing the part of Mrs. Smythe, the dashing lady who wanted a man, made a dashing figure, especially in the last act where she appeared radiantly beautiful in a costume that suited her to perfection. She became popular at once. Zack Hart, the promoter, was played by Clyde Franklin in an able manner. He finally was "lended" by the energetic Mrs. Smythe. The part of Mr. McGinnis Sr., was played by F. Haggerty, a local boy, in his usual finished manner. The part of Belle Henderson, a dinner guest well portrayed by Miss Kathleen Galloway. Miss Mabel Munroe and Walter Dale handled well the parts of maid and bell boy respectively.

That the large audience appreciated the quality of the acting was evidenced by the loud and frequent applause. Mr. Carroll has brought to St. John a company of which the city may well be proud and last evening was an auspicious beginning.

GLOBE-TROTTERING YANKEES MAKE A RUSH FOR HOME
Fifteen Thousand, Lighter of Pocket-Books, Returning From Europe.

London, Aug. 28.—The eleventh hour homeward rush of globe-trotting Yankees continues apace, and the weekend saw fifteen thousand Americans with lightened pocketbooks cleared, eight big liners for the United States. From all parts of Europe, citizens of "the States" are rushing into London to catch homeward bound steamers, all of which have booked full for many weeks ahead.

The Waterloo station cleared 2,900 passengers for the Berengaria, sailing from Southampton. This is a record number of passengers for any vessel leaving England in the present year and officials had a hard task in coping with the crowd.

Baggage gradually accumulated into a bulwark one hundred yards long and ten feet wide. The first-class passengers stood in a long line, five abreast, outside the railings to the train platform, for half an hour before they were admitted, as the baggage occupied so much space that there was no room for passengers.

There has been a more highly developed sense of small than human beings.

FINE PICTURE, VERDICT ON "POOR MEN'S WIVES"

Elaborate Sequel to "Rich
Men's Wives" Belyea
at St. Catharines.

It probably will be pretty generally agreed by theatergoers that "Poor Men's Wives" are poor in name only after the unusual picture production of that title, which had its local premiere at the Imperial Theatre yesterday.

For in this attraction, Director Gaster has made use of beautiful women, elaborate settings and remarkable artistic photography to tell a story that is brimful of the colored contrasts of light and shadow that go to make up a great photoplay.

Like all productions, the cast leaves nothing to be desired. Such beauties as Barbara La Marr and Betty Francisco play the principal feminine roles. David Butler, the lovable hick of screen fame, gives an unusually convincing characterization as the taxicab driving husband of Miss La Marr. Richard Tucker, suave, handsome and confident, plays a villainous role with a polish that almost causes one to wish he had been cast in a better part.

And Za Su Pitts, whose return to the screen has been one of the pet hopes of so many picture fans, is seen once more at her best. Last, but far from least, are the lovable twins—Mickey McBan and Muriel McCormac—who probably are the tiniest villains on the screen. They succeed in doing the one thing that brings trouble to the beautiful heroines, but win your hearts while doing it.

The production is a fitting sequel to "Rich Men's Wives." It is from the pen of the same writers, Agnes Christine Johnson and Frank Dacey, the work of the same director, and the same studio organization. But it promises to be an even greater success—which is saying a lot.

The Imperial's programme also contains a splendid budget of typical news, including a spirited review of the St. Catharines regatta, at which our own Hilton Belyea was defeated by Gilmore, of Philadelphia. There were also lovely pictures of Bergen, Norway, and scenes in Germany, England and throughout Canada. "The Topics of the Day" were as amusing as ever.

The same programme will be presented today, but tomorrow Dorothy Dalton and Theodore Kosloff will be seen in the big Paramount production, "The Law of the Lawless," and in addition a four-reel movie of the Leonard Truller fight in New York will fill out a big bill.

DEALER MORTALITY HIGH

Twenty-Five Per cent. Went Out of Business Last Year on Account of Large Used Car Losses.

Figures gathered this year by the National Automobile Dealers' Association in the U. S., disclose that 68 per cent. of all automobile sales in 1922 involved the handling of an old car. This fact, coupled with the $105,000,000 loss in the sale of used cars in the same year, is inseparably a part of the condition which caused the business failure of 25 per cent. of the dealers in business last year.

Such enormous losses cannot be absorbed in an industry which records a net profit of about 4 per cent., unless there are also many business failures. The number of dealers who went out of business last year will be nearly equalled this year, close check on records indicates, according to the N. A. D. A. It means that if 25 per cent. of the dealers went out of busi-

The Rockefeller fortune owes much of its growth to sleep

The most urgent demands of his fortune-building years could not deprive John D. Rockefeller of his regular mid-day rest.

He knew that an alert mind and unwearied body are essential to the clear reasoning and calm judgment on which success is built—and that enough sleep is life's most profitable investment.

You may be unable to plan such a rest period. But every night you can make up for the wear and tear on your brain and body by using proper sleep equipment.

Small Boats Used As Floating Cafes For Merry Bathers

Brisk Trade Obtained by Boatmen Offering Hot Weather Menus.

Berlin, Aug. 28.—Campers on the shores of the Obereppre do not need to cook any meals this summer.

The rapid growth of summer colonies, crowds of campers in the Obereppre country who spend the day and most of the night at the water's edge, suggested to many that the operation of such boats would be a paying proposition.

And now, here and there along the river banks, a six-bowened boatman may be seen sitting at the helm and offering his wares to the bathers.

Bottles and sandwiches are kept in wet cloths on the floor of the boat, or in a refrigerator, if the salesman is quite prosperous.

Empty bottles are collected on the next trip. The most popular salesman is the one whose boat is arranged that the besieging customers may come on board without disturbing the boatman.

Bathers, however, are not his only purchasers. Many of the hotel guests, strolling along the shore, wish to buy from him, and he must be prepared to wade ashore at any minute with the things they call for.

As the season advances the floating restaurant business grows more extensive. Different kinds of boats appear, and some merchants add to their stock such delicacies as small baskets of cherries and strawberries.

The latest improvement is the champagne or barber, who, like a doctor, takes the red-faced bathers on board and in some shady corner of the boat prescribes proper treatment for their burns.

This salesman keeps on hand a good supply of vaseline, sal-salmon-oil for cuts, bites, and other remedies.

SPORT NEWS GLEANED FROM WORLD'S CENTRES

WILSON AND GREB IN FINE CONDITION FOR CHAMPIONSHIP BOUT ON FRIDAY

Middleweights to Meet in New York on That Night.

New York, Aug. 28.—The first of a series of three world's boxing championship contests to be held in Manhattan rings within the next three weeks is scheduled for Friday night at the Polo Grounds, when Johnny Wilson, Harlem boxer, who has adopted Boston as his home town, will defend his world's middleweight championship against Harry Greb, Pittsburgh challenger for the title.

The contest is scheduled for fifteen rounds to a decision at the prescribed middleweight limit, 160 pounds, at 2 o'clock, eight hours before the men are scheduled to enter the ring. It will witness the first appearance in this city of Wilson in almost three years. The last local encounter in which Wilson engaged as champion was his unsatisfactory bout against Bryan Downey in Jersey City, which was followed soon after by his suspension because of his refusal to go through with a bout at Madison Square Garden against Greb.

Because of the tremendous interest in the championship bout between Jack Dempsey and Luis Firpo at the Polo Grounds on Sept. 14, and the overshadowing attractiveness of the lightweight title struggle between Benny Leonard and Johnny Dundee at the Yankee Stadium, which is approaching middleweight championship encounter has been affected to a considerable extent. There is not the evidenced any of the atmosphere which is characteristic of boxing circles with a few days of a championship bout. Nevertheless, it is confidently expected that the Wilson-Greb struggle will attract a large crowd to the Polo Grounds on Friday night if the weather is favorable. The match promises plenty of action, for both boxers are reported in superb shape after intensive training periods.

The contest will furnish a clash between a mechanical, plodding slugger of unorthodox stance and a light-hitting boxer whose unerring antics in the ring justify calling a perpetual-motion machine. Wilson is the unorthodox slugger; Greb the tireless piece of human fighting machinery.

These ring contests between boxers of the differing types can be interesting or not, according to the calibre and ability of the principals. The Benny Leonard-Lew Tendler lightweight battle is an illustration. There is every reason to believe that Wilson and Greb will furnish a similarly strenuous battle, for Wilson is eager to retain his title and reap some of the financial reward which has been denied him through his period of suspension, and Greb is ambitious to succeed to the title and convince skeptics that he is capable of greater effort as a middleweight than as a light-heavyweight, a class in which he has done most of his fighting.

Regardless of the outcome, neither boxer will have cause for complaint on the point of physical condition. Each has undergone a stiff course of

FIRPO TELLS FORTUNE TELLER FORTUNE IS IN FIST, NOT PALM

Atlantic City, N. J., Aug. 28.—A mysterious dark woman, gypsy-like in appearance, accosted Luis Angel Firpo, South American heavyweight boxing champion, as he turned from his training camp. "Let me read your palm," said she. "I will tell your future." "No," replied Firpo, as he passed along. "My future is not in my palm. It's on my fist and the strength behind it."

RUGGED BOUT AT ARENA IS WON BY HEALEY

Fast and clever boxing, ring generalship, good clean hitting and aggressiveness were features of the boxing card at the Arena last evening when "Neddy" Healey of Halifax captured the welterweight championship of Canada by winning a decision over Billy Groff of Winnipeg, and Johnny McIntyre of Glace Bay was awarded the honors against Joe Irvine of this city. The bouts attracted some 2,000 fans, who showed their appreciation of the good work on the part of the participants by frequent applause. The programme was carried out in a manner which reflected credit on the promoters and was for them the success of all in attendance in addition to putting the sport on a sound basis in this city. It was soon brought home to all present that those in charge intended to keep the sport clean and strictly business in character, and they conveyed to the door and sent about his business. The bouts were conducted in a strictly business manner, ready to receive instructions from referee James Power started as a lively man. Both seemed willing and mixed freely especially during the early rounds, although towards the close Irvine showed a marked tendency to run into clinches. McIntyre had some trouble breaking through Irvine's peculiar defense. Time after time both boxers cut loose and a wave of excitement swept over the spectators, ready to applaud the good work of either man. Both were in good condition and finished strong. McIntyre was awarded the judge's decision and undoubtedly earned it by his willingness to lead and also due to his scoring repeatedly during the majority of the rounds.

Gets Decision Over Groff, Sturdy Miller, McIntyre Wins from Irvine.

Feature Bout. The feature event of the evening, a ten round bout between Healey, welterweight champion, and Groff, was a rapid exchange it was apparent that the Westerner knew how to handle himself and had a left that meant instant defeat if it landed flush on any vital part of an opponent's anatomy. He also was as quick as a flash in recovering, but he lacked one great essential—condition. He was puffing after the first round and appeared to be tiring in the second. In the third he was almost given the count, but managed to weather the attack and although many present predicted that he would never last, surprised all by his gameness and staying powers. Healey hit him frequently, but he lacked the necessary punch to terminate the bout and he left that night in time after time he stopped Healey's attacks with his straight left and occasionally started his right, but the boss of his wind took the steam out of his punches and Healey was never in danger. When the tenth round terminated the judges awarded the bout to Healey, who received hearty plaudits. The judges were: James Laidlaw and L. MacLaren, and the timers were: F. Logan, M. Dolan and George Lawson. James Power officiated as referee in a highly satisfactory manner.

The Dick Trophy.

Owing to lateness of the season it has been decided that there will be no play-off this year for the Dick Trophy by the South End teams. The league schedule calls for several postponed games and the teams feel that these should be played first and a champion team decided. The Dick Trophy, with the consent of the owner, will be played for next season.

Baseball at Night.

A nine-inning baseball game on a regulation diamond was played last Friday night on the field of the Athletic Association of the General Electric Company employees in Lynn, Mass. Powerful electric flood lights provided the illumination, and the players found no difficulty in hitting and fielding, while the spectators were able to observe every play.

The Juniors.

The juniors had their troubles last evening on the Canterbury street diamond. The Red Wings and the Giants were in combat but no umpire was available. Various claims were set up by the different players and the score was in doubt as was the number of innings played. The names of the batters also were questioned. The dispute was carried to the street in front of the Telegraph-Journal office and bloodshed was averted by the timely appearance of the police in King street.

St. John the Baptist Juniors defeated the Hawks 8 to 0 on the St. John the Baptist diamond last evening. The batteries were, for the winners, McIntyre and Leung; for the losers, Ward, Smith and Cummings. There were many interesting features in the game. The St. John the Baptist team wishes to challenge any junior team in the city.

LANGFORD BOUT STOPPED. Los Angeles Police Halt Match and Crowd Stages a Riot.

Los Angeles, Aug. 28.—Sam Langford, negro pugilist, was the innocent storm centre of a riot at a boxing arena here, when ticket holders for his match with Dick Szymanski were refused admission because the arena was full. Sticks, stones and bottles were showered into the arena, then part of the board fence was pulled down and, finally, the electric light switches were turned off and on by the crowd unable to gain their seats. Promoter Fred Windsor sent in a riot call and 100 policemen, with 20 Deputy Sheriffs, responded.

Police Captain Adams entered the ring, and called off the main event, stating that "California laws require that participants in boxing bouts be protected by frequent applause. The crowd again became riotous, hurling every available missile toward the ring. The police quieted that demonstration, but there went up a cry of "Money back!" The promoters rushed boxes into the ring and a number of bouts, but no money was refunded, according to the police.

LAST GAME OF SAINTS AND VETS

Tonight on Local Park—Getting Ready for the Play-off.

St. Peter's and the Vets will meet this evening in their final game of the season. As a result of the old rivalry between the teams, fans are assured of seeing a real good game with both teams trying hard for a victory. It was not known this morning who would be assigned to mound duty. St. Peter's team will go to Fredericton next Thursday to start their championship series with the Capital team. Two games will be played, one in the afternoon and the second in the evening. It is expected that St. Peter's will use Shields and Price in these contests. On next Saturday two games of the championship series will be played on St. Peter's Park. Interest in the series is high and will develop as work as the first crack of the bat on ball sounds. The Saints had a week-out last evening and were working on some new combination plays.

Mike McGuire On Way To Montreal

New York, Aug. 28.—Mike McGuire, New York's light heavyweight champion, accompanied by his wife and manager, Joe Jacobs, left last night for Montreal where he plans to engage in at least one bout and discuss terms for another.

Before leaving Jacobs announced that he had practically accepted terms for a bout between McGuire and Brossiere, Canadian middleweight, to be held at Montreal. Jacobs asserted that Montreal is also negotiating for a match between McGuire and Battling Siki.

MONCTON WINS FROM FREDERICTON

Moncton, N. B., Aug. 27.—Ragged twirling by Clancy, the Fredericton moundsman, in the sixth inning allowing a single and two passes to Moncton batters and a costly overthrow by O'Brien, the visitors' catcher, gave the locals three runs in the sixth inning and a 5 to 2 win over the capital city outfit in a postponed game of the second series of the Two-I League here tonight. The game was one of the poorest games of ball dished out in the Independent League here this season and was witnessed by an unusually small number of fans. The game was called in the last of the sixth with one man out. Score:
