Will You Vote? The Issue Cuts Deep

Of course you—you yourself, not the other fellow—will vote on Monday.

Some people are saying (they must be wrong, of course) that not more than half or two-thirds of the eligible vote will be cast.

There are 12,469 men and women who have the right to vote on Monday.

What's one vote? Sometimes it's everything. This is your fight. You cannot hire out your fighting or dodge your responsibility in any cause that is of grave import.

Faith without works is dead. Have you no faith? Where have you been—what have you been doing or thinking—since the day when you saw a capitalization of $2,057,000 grow in a night (like Jonah's gourd) into a capitalization of $5,100,000.

They call that sort of thing "Reorganization." Mr. Taxpayer. The other name for it is "water." And that's the right one. You have paid for some of the water, and you are going to pay—through the nose—for a lot more of it if you do not look the issue in the face—now—and deal with it, sharply and decisively, on Monday.

Shrewd, daring, greedy, un-social forces have capitalized your apathy, your desire or your willingness, to avoid the real activities and responsibilities of life, sane, vigilant, resolute citizenship.

The $5,100,000 was not enough. Recently you, Mr. Apathetic Citizen, were slapped in the face with a Power Company assertion that the $2,057,600 property—the same old property of 1916, mark you—is now valued at—what?

At $7,000,000. Do you like it? If you don't vote against it, if you tacitly assent to it, if you are afraid to stand up and deal with it, you must like it, and you inevitably will be inviting more of that sort of thing at your expense. That conclusion is unavoidable.

Your own money built the Musquash plant—built it for the publicly avowed and oft-repeated purpose of supplying you with electric energy at cost. At cost! You are told that you must not use that current at four cents—the current generated by public money for public use without private profit—but that you must continue to pay the monopoly twice or three times the four cent rate to provide dividends for those who bought the old St. John Railway Company with its own money and then turned the hose on it.

Do you really like it, Mr. Elector? Do you think that 12,469 enfranchised men and women in Old St. John are so apathetic, or so timid, or so blind, that they will bow their necks to the yoke on Monday, November 13?

Will you vote, Mr. Elector? Will you vote, Mr. Elector?

TO THE RESCUE

Comes a man who will see that Saint John will get a square deal.

CONCENTRATE ON LONDON POLLS

Labor Party Exhorting Its Members Not to Be Depressed by Municipal Set-back.

London, Nov. 9.—(Canadian Press.)—The London labor party has issued an exhortation to its supporters not to be unduly depressed by the result of the recent municipal elections which resulted in heavy losses for labor.

WOMAN SHOT BROTHER DEAD

Enraged Because Latter Had Made Attempts to Kill Her Husband.

Paris, Nov. 9.—Learning that her husband had been shot by her brother, Madame Tourneville de Longueuse hunted down the murderer and killed him.

Re-encountering the wounded man later in a restaurant, Vannielove again opened fire. This time Tourneville was wounded more severely and too feeble in an adjoining room, barricading the door. The enraged brother-in-law fired fifteen shots through the door, further wounding the victim.

PRISON OR DEATH FOR A SPANISH GENERAL

Madrid, Nov. 7.—The supreme military tribunal, according to Correspondencia de Espana, has agreed to declare General Berenguer, former Spanish High Commissioner in Morocco, subject to article 275 of the military code.

Or will you desert on the very day when you can serve the city and yourself by—what? By simply exercising the franchise which, we so often tell one another, is the badge of freedom and the shield of right.

Will you vote on November 13, Mr. Elector? Or will you stay at home, and by so doing vote for the Power Company? Vote for Fisher, and for St. John. It is one vote you will long regard with satisfaction.

MISS MARGARET ROSS

An interesting discovery during the Canada Book Week was Miss Margaret Ross, who, at the age of seventy-seven, makes her first contribution to literature in the form of a biography of her brother, Sir George Ross, once premier of Ontario.

HUNGER STRIKE IS KEPT UP BY MARY MACSWINEY

Dublin, Nov. 8.—Mary MacSwiney, who was arrested by the Free State military on Sunday and who went on a hunger strike, continued today to refuse food. She shows no signs of flinching from her determination to keep up the fight.

DENIED SHIP'S ENGINEERS DIRTY

Montreal, Nov. 8.—Evidence was concluded yesterday in the examination into the collision of the steamer Saskatchewan with the gates of No. 1 lock of the Lachine Canal on Oct. 21. Wreck Commissioner Demers presided. Prolonged argument by counsel followed. Yesterday's statement by the ship's engineer that her engines were dirty and not in good working order was strongly denied, and the whole affair described as coming under the head of inevitable accidents.

Skeleton Found Hanging

Hammond, Ind., Nov. 9.—The skeleton of a man identified as A. M. Sena of Indian Harbor was found this week suspended from a tree in the woods near the Cudaby Packing plant at East Chicago. Sena had been missing since March. It was an obvious case of suicide.

New Italian Ambassador

Rome, Nov. 8.—Prince Gelasio Casati, a member of the chamber of deputies, has been appointed Italian Ambassador at Washington.

HEARKEN TO THE WISE ONES OF THE WOODS; THEY SAY MILD WINTER

North Bay, Ont., Nov. 9.—Residents of the Northern woods, long famed for their prophecies with regard to the weather, are unanimous this fall in saying that all signs point to an unusually mild winter. Bushmen and farmers arriving in North Bay from the north said that the Indian weather prophets of that section were taking their cues from the appearances of the heavens and say that there will be less cold weather this winter than has been experienced in years.

In support of this forecast visiting trappers say definitely that the beavers are dilly-dallying unprecedentedly with the construction of their winter homes. Observers also told the Canadian Press that the chipmunk and squirrels were collecting extremely small stores of food for the coming months.

SIKI GETS INTO TROUBLE IN PARIS

His Man Beaten in a Fight, He Enters Ring and Attacks Manager.

Paris, Nov. 8.—Battling Siki, last night during a fight in which he was a second, got himself into trouble with the boxing federation by striking the manager of the man who had knocked out his charge in the 11th round. Siki was behind Ercole de Balzac, French middleweight champion, who was fighting Maurice Prunier. In the 11th round when de Balzac took the count Siki apparently displeased at the result, crossed the ring and struck Prunier, Prunier's manager. The spectators were furious and tried to get at Siki. The Hongkongan was rescued and escorted out of the hall by the police.

WAS PROMOTION, SAYS BONAR LAW TO BOSCAWEN

London, Nov. 9.—(Canadian Press.)—Sir A. Griffith-Boscawen, new minister for reconstruction, has received a message from Premier Borden, congratulating a suggestion made at Taunton, Somerset, where the minister is fighting for reelection, that he was removed from the ministry of agriculture because he had been a failure.

JURY FINDS HE STOLE LIQUOR FROM FATHER

Windsor, Ont., Nov. 8.—Walter Pastorius, 22 years old, of Walkerville, yesterday, was found guilty by a jury at Sandwich of stealing eighteen cases of liquor from the home of his father, Thomas Pastorius, Justice Lemox deferred sentence.

INDICTMENTS AGAINST THREE IN DOUBLE MURDER

Mott Ready Today to Go Before Grand Jury

Man Whom Mrs. Gibson Says She Saw Shoot the Rector and Mrs. Mills; "Woman in Grey" and a Member of Dr. Hall's Church, Suspected as Accessory.

New Brunswick, N. J., Nov. 8.—The information which the State of New Jersey expects to obtain indictments of three persons for the murder of the Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall and his choir leader, Mrs. Eleanor R. Mills, was to be laid before Supreme Court Justice Parker and Grand Jury foreman Gibb by Deputy Attorney General Mott today at Somerville.

Persons close to the authorities say that investigators have identified the man whom Mrs. Jane Gibson says she saw shoot Mrs. Mills and the rector.

The authorities will ask that he be indicted for first degree murder. They will also seek to indict the "woman in grey" for first degree murder on the grounds that she was an accomplice, but not actually kill either Dr. Hall or Mrs. Mills.

Another man under suspicion is said to be a member of the Episcopal church of St. John the Evangelist, of which Dr. Hall was rector. Authorities hope to obtain an indictment on a charge of being an accessory after the fact. They say he drove the auto which he used to take Mrs. Mills to the Phillips Farm where they were murdered and also that he has concealed information from the authorities.

EIGHT CARS SEIZED BY CUSTOMS MEN

Follows the Concealment of American Goods in the Mechanics.

Montreal, Nov. 9.—Eight light touring automobiles were seized by the local customs officials this week. Included in the seizure are three large limousines. In each case the occupants had goods concealed somewhere about the car. While the customs officials are looking out names, it is known that seven of the cars are from Toronto. Bounties were lifted and engines repossessed, as well as the bodies of cushions and upholstery. All kinds of things were confiscated, including wearing apparel and cigarettes. The cars which have been confiscated will be repossessed by the owners paying the assessed value of them in Canada. Most of the seizures were made from prominent people of Toronto, Brantford, Hamilton and other cities.

ATTEMPT TO SLIDE ROPE WAS FATAL

Montreal, Nov. 9.—When a rope, down which he was attempting to slide, gave way, Omar Grandchamp, 32, fell forty-five feet to the floor of the Sacred Heart Church, which is being rebuilt, at the corner of Ontario and Plessis streets, and suffered injuries which resulted in his death at a hospital.

COURT MARTIAL FOR MINISTERS

Paris, Nov. 9.—The troubled state of affairs in Constantinople may not be getting any worse, but there certainly seems to be no improvement in good feeling between the Kemalists and the allied commissioners. Two British soldiers were assassinated last night at Kasimpasa, according to the correspondent of the Petit Parisien.

Greek Revolutionary Committee Exempts Former King Constantine from Trial

London, Nov. 9.—The revolutionary committee in Greece has published a decree ordering the trial, by extraordinary court martial, of the former cabinet ministers and generals now under arrest charged with responsibility for the Greek disaster in Asia Minor, says a Reuter despatch from Athens.

Turks Cut Cable; Keep News From British Government

London, Nov. 9.—Both the eager British public and the government were very much in the dark today regarding the grave situation in Constantinople, the lack of information being the result of the cutting of the cable near Chanak, by the Turks.

GRAVE SITUATION KNOWN TO EXIT IN CONSTANTINOPLE

—Kemalists Renew Demand for Evacuation of Capital City—Lord Curzon's Speech.

London, Nov. 9.—(Canadian Press Cable.)—The latest news at the foreign office was received last night. The message contained no mark to indicate by what route it had been transmitted. The government officials therefore, were in a peculiar position today of asking the newspaper correspondents for news.

As Hiram Sees It

"Hiram" said the Times reporter to Mr. Hiram H. Homburg, "what does your opinion of the present situation of Constantinople?" "So it is," said Hiram, "I see it, old St. John. I think that there Commercial Club was started they was a lot of talk about what the Kemalists done—the folks after the big five years of them. When it was mighty hard sleddin'—but here you are with newspaper men on your door-step and I hear some of them say 'Beats all—don't it? Yes, sir—it beats all!'"

It was said at the foreign office that the only thing that could be done now was to await a report as to whether or not martial law had been declared in Constantinople. Complete discretionary powers in this regard are now in the hands of the allied authorities there.

REPUBLICANS IN CONTROL ON SCANT MARGIN

House Majority Handful Senate Cut in Two

More of the G. O. P. Stalwarts are Found to Have Been Retired to Private Life—Notable Figures in the Majorities in New York.

New York, Nov. 9.—Continued Republican control of the U. S. congress, but with a senate majority cut in two and a house majority of 160 slashed to a scant handful, appeared today as the net result of last Tuesday's congressional election, with returns almost complete. Tight races in the few undecided districts not affecting the general result, and delays in counting, however, threatened to postpone the final figures until tomorrow.

With seven congressional districts in four states—Kansas, North Dakota, Washington and West Virginia—still unreported at 9 a. m. today, the roll in the next house stood: Republicans, 220; Democrats, 205; Socialists, 7; Farmers-Labor, 1; and Independent, 1. The Republican margin promised to be increased slightly in the remaining contests. In addition, it date seventy-six places now held by Republicans had been captured without single counter-balancing democratic loss.

Ontario, under public ownership, has 1,212,505 horse-power of electricity at cost available to the people. California, under private ownership, has only 968,320 horse-power available, and on that the power corporations collect a minimum of 8 per cent. profit.

Save on Baking For Christmas

The housewife's Christmas has already begun, what with baking, sewing and shopping. A first class moment to introduce an understanding family to the saving helps and goodness of Robinson's milk-made bread.

You have wondered if Robinson's would live up to all that's said and written about it—here is the most favorable time of the year to try the scheme and save yourself for other things. Then you'll be able to see what you save in money as well as time these days with coal sky high and scarce, and flour up again in price. It is always up, the way you have to buy your ingredients as compared to the carload savings Robinson's is able to share with you on top of wholesale cooking.

Bread of the Robinson class has become by far the majority of housewives, in city and town throughout America, to study out the savings in work and expense provided by such community baking as you have.

DON. HUNT'S SALE BREAKS RECORD IN CLOTHING VALUES

The sale of the season, if not the year, for men and boys was sprung today by Don Hunt, the enterprising price-cutter of Charlotte street. For weeks Mr. Hunt has played one trump after another, bringing hundreds to his store in single day specials. But now at the crest of the autumn he has thrown all his winter stock on sale at drastic reductions. See the latest announcement elsewhere for grand sale savings.

Montreal, Nov. 9.—In an attempt to kick at which rat across the sidewalk in front of him on St. James street near the corner of Inspector Ernest Saunders, thirty-two years of age, lost his balance and fell, fracturing his left leg. He was taken to the Montreal General Hospital. Constable Roy of the Traffic Squad, under Lieut. Trudeau, who was on duty at the corner of St. James and Inspector streets, picked up the victim and called the ambulance. Saunders told the constable that he had seen the rat in his path, had kicked at it, but lost his balance and fell.

UP TO THE VOTERS.

Mayor McLellan and the New Brunswick Power Company must be defeated if the interests of St. John are to be served. As the campaign has progressed, and the citizens have noted the nature of the campaign carried on by Mayor McLellan and his aids, they have realized more and more the character of those behind the campaign. The issue before the people is a grave one, and the outcome of the contest will have a very serious effect upon the city's future.

THE CASE PRESENTED.

If a campaign of vilification and personal attack could win an election in St. John the odds would be on the side of the mayor in the present contest. He and his friends of the New Brunswick Power Company are pursuing a course which is not unusual on the part of those who have no case.

THE EVENING TIMES AND STAR, ST. JOHN, N. B., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1922.

FIFTEEN MINUTES OF RADIO EACH DAY

By Edward N. Davis
Formerly Technical Electrical Expert For U. S. Government

Lesson No. 149. VARIABLE CONDENSERS IN RECEIVING CIRCUITS.

The variable condenser constitutes a very important part of the receiving set, even the simpler sets having at least one such condenser. In its usual form the variable condenser consists of alternate metal plates semi-circular in form, each alternate plate being attached to a shaft capable of rotation so that surface of the movable plates opposite the other plates which are stationary may be changed by turning the shaft, thus varying the capacity contained in the device. The air between the plates constitutes the dielectric and the maximum capacity is determined by the area of the plates, number of plates and the spacing between the plates.

The most common place to connect a variable condenser in the receiving circuit is across the secondary of the loose coupler or variocoupler, where it serves to increase the total capacity of the circuit and forms an easy method of tuning the secondary closely to the desired wave length. When receiving through heavy interference the coupling may be reduced between primary and secondary by cutting out some of the turns in the secondary, using the switch provided for that purpose, at the same time keeping the same wave-length by increasing the capacity of the circuit by means of the variable condenser in shunt to the secondary coil.

Another place where variable condensers may be employed to advantage is in series with the antenna or ground, especially in cases where a comparatively long aerial is used. In some cases where an exceptionally long antenna is used a series condenser is absolutely necessary in order to tune the receiving circuit to resonance with the transmitting station. For example, if the natural wave length of the aerial is 400 meters without inserting any inductance coil in the circuit, it is necessary to insert a variable condenser in the circuit in order to properly tune signals from a station transmitting on 300 meters.

A variable condenser may be employed in shunt to the primary to increase the wave length of the primary circuit beyond the range of the inductance coil alone. It is common practice to employ the same condenser for both shunting the primary and connecting in series with the primary, a switch being used to change the connection from series to parallel.

In circuits employing separate heterodyne principles a variable condenser is usually employed to change the frequency of the generated radio frequency current so that audible beats are produced when the two radio frequencies are combined.

In some types of regenerative receivers such as that shown in the diagram above a variable condenser may be used as a radio frequency by pass across the telephone receivers although a fixed condenser of many experimental receiving systems is often a variable condenser.

Most of the common forms of wave meters employ variable condensers for adjusting the meter to the desired wave length, the plates of the condenser in this case having a special shape so as to give more uniform spacing on the wave length scale.

Some types of variable condensers are constructed so that the condenser in which the condenser is mounted may be filled with insulating fluid such as castor oil, thereby greatly increasing the capacity of the condenser. For most purposes, however, it is better to use condensers having the dielectric which are available in a great variety of sizes and capacities.

SWISS FARMERS MAY SETTLE HERE

British Columbia's Hills and Valleys Would Attract the Little Republic's People—Journalist's Project.

Providing assistance were given by the Dominion Government in the way of easy terms for payment of farms, or grants of land, and aid to locate them as desired, Canada can serve a large number of agricultural immigrants from Switzerland, in the opinion of Otto Paul Schwarz, newspaper correspondent of several Swiss papers, who has been touring this country studying the conditions for possible immigrants, and is now staying in Montreal for a short period. These Swiss immigrants would be easily assimilated into the citizenry of Canada, according to Mr. Schwarz. British Columbia would be the most favored place. Men experienced in guide work on the Alps would also be glad to do similar work in the Canadian Rockies, and thereby expand that section. "The question of Swiss emigration is not a problem to my country as yet," said Mr. Schwarz. "We can wait and choose the country to which we want to send our settlers. The country which offers us the best opportunities we shall take. Canada here, it is forced to seek immigrants; but if Canada does not provide inducement for Swiss people they will not emigrate from their country." The question is now treated in Switzerland by the Government, and there is already a fund there to help Swiss people to emigrate. "I cannot advise our people to settle down in the prairies," said Mr. Schwarz. "I will certainly do what I can to prevent our people from going into the prairies; that is the provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan, and even Alberta, for the isolation of the people in those parts would be insupportable for our Swiss. "Your Minister of Immigration says he does not want immigrants to settle in colonies because trouble has been experienced with certain nationalities in the matter of schools and language, but that is not the case with Swiss. They have learned that Canadian schools are very good, and our Swiss people who have emigrated always send their children to the established schools and learn the language of the country they adopt, although they like their own tongue. Valleys Preferred. "It is preferable to choose British Columbia for Swiss immigrants because they find valleys there of Alpine character, and you must give our people mountains or they cannot live. The Dominion Government ought to allow whole colonies of Swiss people to settle down there, in a place which has been found suitable for farming. Before asking Swiss people to come to this country it must be determined that the place is suitable, for upon the success of the first immigrants will depend the continuation of the movement. "I think Canada would like to have some Swiss, because everywhere you hear that Swiss people are good workers. Besides being farmers in grain and fruit and dairy produce, we have men experienced in mountain climbing; and for the development of your beautiful Canadian Rockies, immigrants of this character would be a great advantage. "About thirty years ago," added Mr. Schwarz, "we sent some Swiss emigrants to Brazil, but owing to bad conditions the movement of our men there was a complete failure. That must never be repeated, but if our Government is shown that the conditions in Canada are favorable, whole colonies would be organized over there and sent in groups here. If your Government will help our settlers in every way, I feel sure that money so spent will come back to the nation some day."

Ailing Children Get Well on Laxative Syrup Pepsin

A small dose at bedtime brings relief and laughter by morning. HOSPITAL and doctor's records prove that 75 per cent of human ills has its origin in the intestinal canal, complicated with what is commonly called constipation. Realizing what that figure means, mothers should contrive methods of handling their children while they still control them that will prevent these future dangers. Teach children regularity of bowel movement, and be especially watchful of young girls. Insist on two passages a day until the age of 18, when one is usually sufficient. Give plenty of oranges and apples, plenty of butter because it lubricates the intestines, and encourage the drinking of water. If you detect restlessness, belching, gas or wind on the stomach, sleeplessness, or lack of appetite, examine the tongue and you will find it coated, accompanied by unpleasant breath. The child is bilious, constipated. According to age, give from one-half to a teaspoonful of Dr. Caldwell's

WHOLE TOWN RAIDS RAILROAD FOR COAL

Led by Burgess and Protected by Police, Citizens of Olyphant, Pa., Seize Fuel for Schools—Will Pay for it.

Scranton, Penn., Nov. 8.—Angered by the failure of the Federal and State Fuel Commissions to furnish coal for schools and churches, more than 2,000 citizens of Olyphant, near here, marched to the yards of the Delaware & Hudson Railroad Company and confiscated four cars of coal. The fuel was loaded into auto trucks and wagons and hauled to the nine churches and ten public schools in the borough. The schools have been closed for two weeks because the coal companies have refused to sell coal in Olyphant Borough, although thousands of tons are mined there daily.

The Olyphant citizens held a mid-night meeting on Saturday with Burgess P. B. Dempsey, members of council and the school board. It was decided that the burgess should exercise his police power and confiscate sufficient coal to supply the schools and churches. Shortly after 6 o'clock Sunday morning the fire gong in Olyphant was struck. This was the signal for the seizure of the coal. Fire trucks loaded with firemen raced through the streets and got the citizens up. Scores of other vehicles, including auto trucks, wagons and push carts joined the gathering in front of the Borough Building. Hundreds of men and boys carrying shovels formed in the line, and Burgess Dempsey, the Councilman and School Directors, all with shovels on their shoulders, led the caravan on the half mile jaunt to the railroad yards, while hundreds of women lining the streets shouted words of encouragement to the marchers. "Get us coal for our schools and churches." "Fight for fuel if you have to," were some of the cries.

When the railroad yards were reached Burgess Dempsey climbed aboard one of the cars on a long train of coal. He

NEWS NOTES OF THE WEST

Edmonton, Alta., Nov. 8.—Dedicated to the memory of the late M. R. Jennings, formerly managing director of the Edmonton Journal, a stained window was recently unveiled in Christ church here by Lieutenant-Governor R. G. Brett. The window is in the form of three panels illustrating the well known verse: "Come unto Me, all ye that are heavy laden and I will give you rest."

Saskatoon, Sask., Nov. 8.—The body of William Francis Walsh, aged 67, killed by a train near Regina recently, will be cremated. The ashes will be buried at sea along with those of his wife. Instruction to this effect are contained in his will.

When a young man, Walsh saw graves being opened to permit the construction of a canal in Ontario. He took a vow that the same fate would never overtake his remains. When his wife died last July the body was cremated and Walsh drew up his will. His own ashes and those of his wife are to be taken on board ship at Seattle and thrown on the waters of the Pacific.

Port Arthur, Ont., Nov. 8.—A strange proceeding to Canadian courts was introduced when Charles Wong, non-Christian, was administered an old Chinese oath during a case in the local court. From somewhere in the police station an old saucer was brought to the court room and on taking this oath "As this saucer is broken, so may my soul be broken and destroyed, if I do not tell the truth and the whole truth," Wong broke the saucer over a window sill.

Vancouver, B. C., Nov. 8.—Records of the City of Vancouver's license department indicate that 1,658 Chinese and Japanese are licensed tradesmen within the city limits. This does not include Orientals working for a salary. Dotted up and down the city and confined to no particular quarter these Orientals are engaged in thirty-nine separate lines of business, including one boot-black, 201 tobacconists and thirty-one licensed druggists.

CLUETT, PEABODY & CO. OF CANADA, LIMITED

announced an embargo on all coal mined in Olyphant and all coal passing through the borough. He said this embargo against the Delaware & Hudson Company and the Hudson Coal Company would continue until such time as conditions in Olyphant were remedied Town Police Afford Protection.

The citizens then swarmed upon the cars of coal and commenced loading the trucks and wagons. People from other towns of the mid-valley came up on the scene and shouted words of praise. The Olyphant police force stood ready to give battle to railroad and coal police if they interfered. Firemen had hose attached to hydrants and any one who attempted to interfere with the seizure was doomed for ducking. Hudson Coal Company police arrived on the scene shortly, but the mob never hesitated and the coal policemen turned around and walked away.

The Rev. P. J. Murphy, rector of St. Patrick's Roman Catholic church and beloved by people of all creeds in Lackawanna County, visited the yards and praised the citizens.

"You did all in your power to avoid this, but when the health of your loved ones is menaced you must act in their defense," he was quoted by an official as saying to the crowd.

After the schools and churches had been furnished with coal the confiscation was stopped. Burgess Dempsey stated that about two hundred tons had been taken from the cars.

"We tried to buy coal for weeks and could not get it. Today we took it, but tomorrow we will pay for every ounce confiscated. We had to have coal to protect the health of our school children and citizens," Burgess Dempsey said.

AN A. Y. P. A. VISIT.

The members of the A. Y. P. A. of St. Jude's church were guests at an entertainment given by the members of the A. Y. P. A. of the Church of the Good Shepherd last night in the hall of the Fairville church, and the evening was pleasantly spent. The Good Shepherd A. Y. P. A. provided an excellent programme of vocal and instrumental music, readings and recitations, and the various numbers were heartily applauded. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening. The two organizations have established a custom of visiting each other which fosters good-fellowship and works for mutual benefit.

It has brought back into the lives of thousands the radiant joy of Health

IT'S a pleasure to read them—the thousands of letters which are pouring in from every state in the Union—
 From men who are finding again that abundance of health which gives energy and decision to a man's personality—
 From women, young and old, who are rejoicing in the return of that freshness and glow which can come only from deep inner stores of buoyant health.

Why is it that many people lose so early their freshness and power?

When your strength begins to slip away—when you begin to show constant signs of vague ill-health, it is due to the fact that the body, from some deep underlying cause, is failing to perform two vital functions.

Either it is failing to build up properly the living cells which compose it, or it is not throwing off the poisons that gather in the intestines.

The fresh, living cells of Fleischmann's Yeast contain a natural food—with the very elements which help the body perform these two vital functions.

Like any other plant or vegetable, yeast produces the best results when fresh and "green"—not dried or "killed." Fleischmann's Yeast is the highest grade living yeast—always fresh. It is not a medicine, it is a natural food. Results cannot be expected unless it is eaten regularly. Eaten regularly, it helps to "tone" up the whole system and assures regular daily elimination.

Three thousand years ago yeast was used by Hippocrates, the famous physician of the ancient Greeks. Today Fleischmann's Yeast is being prescribed by physicians and hospitals everywhere.

Eat two or three cakes a day. If you prefer, get six cakes at a time. They will keep in a cool, dry place for several days. Begin at once to know what real health means. Be sure you get Fleischmann's Yeast. All grocers have it.

Appetite and digestion restored

The great problem for those who are run down or suffering from indigestion is first to stimulate the appetite, and at the same time make it possible to digest the increased food that is eaten. Fleischmann's Yeast has this remarkable effect on the digestive system. It enables you to eat more, and to get more benefit from the food you eat.

Laxatives made unnecessary

Fleischmann's Yeast does for you naturally and permanently what drugs at their best do only artificially and for a short time. In hospitals, even chronic cases respond to it and normal functions are restored in from 3 days to 5 weeks. People all over the country are telling how Fleischmann's Yeast has helped them.

Skin and complexion cleared

A poor complexion and even actual skin disorders are usually signs that your vitality is being lowered. Fleischmann's Yeast by increasing the number of white corpuscles in the blood acts as a powerful agent in clearing the skin of boils and pimples.

THE TRADES AND LABOR COUNCIL AND POLITICS. Representatives of the Longshoremen's Association gave as a reason for withdrawing from the Trades and Labor Council the statement that it has been turned into a political machine. The answer to this is that the Trades and Labor Council is nothing if not political. It is the legislative arm of the labor movement and as such must be political. The Trades and Labor Council gets its charter from the American Federation of Labor, and also holds a charter from the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, which gives it the constitutional authority to function as a legislative body in conjunction with the two great legislative arms of the labor movement of the continent. It has the power to nominate or endorse candidates for federal, provincial or civic honors. The local council, therefore, has not overstepped its jurisdiction in this matter, and it is passing strange that any labor leader should say so. The action taken is appreciated by the citizens as in the interests of St. John.

Premier Foster Has Important Message For St. John Citizens

WILL MAKE STATEMENT REGARDING SCHEIDENHELM REPORT AT IMPERIAL MEETING TONIGHT

A Clear Presentation of the Hydro Issue Will be Made by the People's Candidate and Engineers Who Know Their Business, and Mayor McLellan Will be Answered.

Premier Foster will reply at the great meeting in the Imperial tonight to Mr. Schiedenhelm, the American engineer, who says the Musquash cannot give Moncton its hydro and at the same time supply St. John's needs. The premier has asked for the opportunity to make a statement, and will do so in no uncertain terms at tonight's meeting.

Citizens who attend this meeting will not have a dull minute. In addition to what the premier will say, Mr. K. H. Smith of the Dominion Water Powers Branch will speak of what Musquash can do to give the people cheap light and power; Gordon Kribs, district hydro engineer for half a dozen years in Ontario, will be heard; G. Fred. Fisher, the candidate who stands for power at cost; Herbert Phillips and Roy Willet will also speak plainly on the great issue at stake in St. John today. Mayor McLellan and the New Brunswick Power Company will be answered, and the answer will be emphatic.

Citizens will be especially interested in the addresses of Premier Foster and the engineer, because of the shameful efforts that are being made to discredit the Musquash development.

The Imperial orchestra will be present, the meeting will start at sharp eight o'clock, and citizens should be early on the scene to secure seats.

INCREASE TAX ON TAILORS FROM OLD COUNTRY

Make it $500 is Recommendation—Local Men Say They Take Away Much Business.

Following representations made by a delegation from the merchants' section of the Retail Merchants' Association the city council passed a resolution this morning favoring an increase from $100 to $500 in the tax on non-resident tailors coming into the city to do business. The delegation consisted of H. C. Brown and L. B. Wilson. Mr. Wilson said that a lot of business was taken out of the city by country tailors and he understood that one man last season obtained orders aggregating $8,000. They came here, he said, from London, Edinburgh and Glasgow. Mr. Brown said that the competition was not from the United States, but from tailors who came from England which sold here for $75, sometimes cost as high as $200 in the States. A writer argued that the local tailors paid taxes and had to meet overhead costs they were at a disadvantage in competition with the states. The taxer paid only a hotel bill. The employees of the local firms were for the most part taxpayers also. On Commissioner Wigmore's motion it was decided to amend the section covering visiting tailors to make the license $500 instead of $100. Mr. Bullock said there was too much buying outside of the city by local residents and if there was any way to stop it legitimately he thought it should be done. He referred also to the mail order business. Commissioner Wigmore said he would like to have more time to investigate the matter. If goods were smuggled in, he said the matter should be called to the attention of the customs department. After the delegation withdrew, Mayor McLellan was presiding, handed the chair over to Commissioner Frink and left the committee room.

FEWER "EMPTIES" IN HOTEL ROOMS

How Volstead Officers Know Prohibition is Winning.

Austin, Tex., Nov. 9.—An odd way of determining the growing effectiveness of the enforcement of prohibition in Texas was adopted recently by federal officers, who have this work in charge. At stated intervals they gather data from the garbage collectors of the hotels of the principal cities of the state as to the number of empty liquor bottles taken from the rooms of guests for a given period. It is shown by this record that there has been a gradual decrease of empty bottles from hotel rooms of the state during the last several months, which is taken as evidence that the drinking habit is falling off and that bootlegging is no longer flourishing as it once was.

It is pointed out that in one of the larger hotels in San Antonio the maids formerly collected from the vacated rooms of guests an average of two and one-half baskets of empty liquor bottles daily, whereas now the collection is less than one-half a basket.

Prohibition enforcement officers are also able to determine the kind of liquor that is mostly sold by bootleggers by the dregs in the empty bottles from hotel rooms. In Houston, San Antonio, El Paso, Austin and all of the towns in the Rio Grande border region the fiery intoxicants of Mexico are the favorites, probably because they are the cheapest and more easily obtained. These liquors include tequila, aguardiente and mescal.

GANGES IN FLOOD INUNDATES VILLAGES

Cawnpore, India, Oct. 9.—(Associated Press, by Mail)—The great rise of the Ganges River, which has broken all records of the last thirty years, has led to the flooding of vast districts on the Unao side. Many villages on both sides of the railway line to Unao are under water, and hundreds of hamlets have been washed away.

The floods are on a decline now, but the rains continue intermittently, making the lot of those rendered homeless still harder. People whose houses have been washed away have taken shelter in neighboring villages, and some have been accommodated in railway cars. Virtually all the villages situated along the banks of the Ramganga river have been inundated. Houses and cattle have been washed away, and standing crops ruined.

In some places the rise of the river was so sudden that people who were in the fields tending their cattle or crops were cut off. Many were compelled to take refuge in trees until the floods subsided. Others were rescued by relief parties. Blankets were tied together and let down from railway bridges on the Ramganga, enabling a number of people struggling in the water to be hoisted to safety.

The railway line between Kathgarh and Got has been washed out for about seven hundred feet, and cannot be repaired for some time. The railway connection with Delhi also has been cut. The Lucknow road is still impassable in many places, and no communication is possible with outlying villages. Large supplies of food, sent by the citizens of Cawnpore, have helped to relieve the distress.

Court Oungandy, I. O. F., had a much enjoyed card party in its rooms in the Temple building, Main street, last night when special guests were the High Chief Ranger, Duncan Lingley, Past Vice-Chief Ranger James Stephenson and High Secretary E. FULL IMMERSION FOR CENTENARIAN

A North Carolina Woman Joins Baptist Church at Age of 104.

Greensboro, N.C., Nov. 9.—Mrs. Susan Pruett of Casar, Cleveland county, N.C., holds a most unique place in the baptismal records of the Baptist church of the world over. She was baptized at the age of 104. She was baptized at a few days of being 103 years of age. She was taken from a sick bed and immersed, all the way under, the water closing over her head. She insisted that the immersion be complete, even should she die under the strain.

People came from 100 miles around to a sight that they can relate in years to come to their grand-children. More than 1,000 persons assembled to witness the symbol of the old woman's faith. Today, a few weeks after the baptism, she is apparently no worse from it.

In all those years she had not joined the church. She was known as an excellent woman, one who visited the sick, who fed the poor, who was on hand in any of the emergencies that come to the mountain folk among whom she lives. About four months ago she fell and fractured her hip. Ill, helpless, bed-ridden, she became convicted and expressed her firm determination to be baptized and to unite with the Baptist church.

She met strong opposition as to the baptizing. She thrust it aside. Her physician advised against it. Many of her friends told her that she was too old and that her death would be fatal. She insisted that she be baptized. Let death come if it would, she said, she was determined to be baptized.

COAL IN ENGLAND IS BECOMING DEARER

London, Oct. 23.—(A. P. by Mail)—Coal prices in England probably will reach the highest level in history during the coming winter, according to London retail dealers. A general increase of three shillings a ton was made recently, and it is expected that another will be announced within the next few weeks.

The price of the best hard coal is now fifty-seven shillings, about $12 a ton, graduating to forty-five shillings for kitchen coal. The highest prices for kitchen coal. The highest prices for last year for the same grades was sixty-one shillings and forty-eight shillings. A further increase of six shillings may be looked for.

The labor troubles and the forecast of an early and severe winter are given as the reasons for the added cost.

Blue Fox Furs Cost No More Than Dyed Fox. Now for a treat—the very first Blue Fox fur you have seen in years, brought straight from Siberia by a personal friend—and priced so low, you not only get it under wholesale, you have it for the same amount you'd pay for imitation.

Take a look in our window, see what you can have made up in any style of neckpiece or muff as well, in the furriest of all foxes. The beautiful Silver Blues of this rarest of Arctic foxes, color tones that are without exaggeration gorgeous to look upon, and a huffiness and warmth found only in this fur from the high North.

A neckpiece of color and character, made up the way you like it, between $75 and $150, according to your preference—and at that a complete Fur less than the old wholesale cost of the pelt—such is the exceptional offer made possible by our direct importation.

A few minutes at night putting the family wash to soak in the rich, cleansing Rinso suds saves hours of rubbing next day.

Do not put the Rinso direct from the package into the tub. Make the Rinso liquid first. Mix half a package of Rinso in a little cool water until it is like cream. Then add two quarts of boiling water and when the froth subsides you will have a clear, amber colored liquid; put it in a tub of cool or lukewarm water and you have enough for a batch of clothes. If the clothes are extra soiled, use more Rinso.

BRITAIN IS SUING FOR ANCIENT DEBT

Cayugas' Claim is Being Pressed Against State of New York.

Washington, Nov. 9.—Great Britain is suing the United States before the Arbitration Commission provided for under the treaty of 1910, for a 110-year-old debt of $8,000,000 which it is claimed New York State owes the Cayuga Indians. Besides the $3,000,000, New York may also have to pay $2,400 a year forever.

In 1808 the Cayuga Indians ceded their lands to New York State. The state in return agreed to pay $8,400 annually to the Cayugas or their heirs in perpetuity. New York charged that the outbreak of the War of 1812 the Cayugas joined the British and the State stopped paying the annuity and has not paid it since. But the peace treaty stipulated that Great Britain's allies sacrificed none of their rights.

"TAPS" ON EACH MORN; MEMORIAL TO SOLDIER DEAD

New York, Nov. 9.—(By Canadian Press)—In view of the projects which are under way for the erection of Canadian war memorials in France and elsewhere, it is of interest to note that a movement is on foot in the United States to keep a bugler at Belleau Wood (where many U. S. soldiers fell) to sound taps every morning, this arrangement to take the place of erecting a monument. The idea is thus expressed in a letter to the New York Times:

"The more one reflects the more one is impressed by the idea, its novelty and beauty. In the minds of many thousands of thoughtful Americans, not all of them soldiers, the sound of taps on the night air awakens memories that reanimate far better than could a mute monument something of that exalted spirit in which our country entered into and carried on the war. To these minds, who would like to apply that spirit to life itself were it humanly possible to sustain such an attitude even the imagined notes of taps sounding 'over there' its nightly requiem would prove an inspiration. How could we more vividly keep alive our sense of gratitude to our dead and our consciousness of that which they symbolize than by the audible sweetness of the bugle notes in taps?"

ST. LUKE'S GIRLS' BRANCH

The monthly business and devotional meeting of St. Luke's girls' branch of the W. A. was held on Tuesday evening, when the first mission study class of the year was held. Mrs. H. Usher Miller, the convenor for the study class, gave an interesting address on the first study in the scheme of lessons. Mrs. E. P. Wright conducted the Bible reading in the devotional period and solos were sung by Miss Bessie Chittick and Miss Mary Phillbrick. Mrs. Lester Mowry, the president, was in the chair and the meeting was well attended. After the business was completed refreshments were served and a pleasant social hour enjoyed.

Skin Cleanliness means Beauty

Cleanliness is one of the first essentials of a beautiful complexion. You must keep your skin thoroughly clean—each tiny pore free from impurities—if you would have that clear, fair complexion every woman desires. It has long been acknowledged that a good cold cream is the best skin cleanser and the value of Daggett & Ramsdell's Perfect Cold Cream, as a part of your toilet, has been proved by three generations of women.

NEW BUREAU BOON TO DOCTORS' WIVES

No longer Slaves to Telephone Bell—A Day and Night Service to Tell Patients Where Physician is When Called from Office.

(New York Evening Post) There are several thousand women in New York City who up to now have been literally "slaves to the telephone bell." For them no bridge parties, no matinees, no evenings at the theatre. They have had to rock the baby with one hand, wash the dishes with the other, and drop both when the phone sounded. Who are they? The wives of doctors.

For years the doctor's wife has found it necessary to forego many of the pleasures and entertainments that other wives enjoy because she has had to be not only the efficient wife and housekeeper, but telephone operator as well. A new idea in twentieth-century efficiency is about to liberate her. A cents a day is all that now stands between her and emancipation.

In a little office in West Fifty-sixth Street, New York, is an organization known as the "Doctors Information Bureau." It consists of a telephone switchboard, two operators—formerly trained nurses—who are on duty day and night, a large filing system, and a corps of special messengers. This combination is the modus operandi of the wives' deliverance. Only a few months ago it was a nebulous idea. Today it is in operation, with more than 400 of the 19,000 accredited physicians of Greater New York on its roster of clients.

It works like this: Dr. A is called put on an operation. He leaves word with the Doctors' Information Bureau where he has gone and how long he will be away from his office. If a patient calls up while he is away the patient is referred to Circle 5716. There is a courteous and professional response awaits him.

"Dr. A is operating at Hospital. He will be through at 4 o'clock. If this time too late we will send him to you at once." Special Listing in Phone Book.

The only wonder is that some one didn't think of it before. One of the big problems of the young physician has been how to afford an assistant to answer the phone. The annual calls missed for lack of one often amounted to a considerable figure—from the viewpoint of income. Now for 10 cents a day he can get perfect telephone service without any office help. Under his name in the phone book is placed a special listing. "If no answer call Circle 5716." There he has a reliable assistant on the job every minute of the day or night whose expert help costs him only 80¢ a year—cheaper than getting married.

To the established physician, who has always depended more or less upon his family or household help, it proves a boon of the greatest importance. Dr. A's wife need no longer be a social recluse. She may spend the afternoon at her reading club without feeling that her husband's professional duties are being neglected, and the doctor himself is no longer forced to depend upon the haphazard service of apartment operators or household help for notice of his calls and appointments. He may slip forth of an evening with his better half with no impulse to trump his partner's size under the apprehension of a hurried call from some neighbor with the gout.

Best of all, we desecrate, ailing humans can rest assured, no matter where our doctor is, that he can be reached when we need him—and a margin of a few minutes is often the difference between the present and the hereafter.

The Doctors' Information Bureau is the newest thing of its kind. It could probably be applied to other lines of work. It has been operating in New York only a few months, but has already received the hearty endorsement of many prominent practitioners, including Dr. Royal S. Copeland, Health Commissioner of the city. Similar bureaus are operating in Western cities.

The system is said to have originated with a Mrs. Partridge of Hartford, Conn., an elderly woman who first conceived the idea in 1918, during the influenza epidemic, when doctors were unusually busy and hard to find. Since then it has been developed, put on a commercial basis, and is said to be proving its value daily to physicians, their wives, and the public.

ENGLISH WOMEN ARE ADVISED TO SMOKE PIPES London, Oct. 23.—(Associated Press, by Mail)—English physicians are urging women who are addicted to smoking, to use a pipe and good tobacco instead of the cigarette.

The doctors point out that the nicotine found in the cheaper brands of cigarettes is much more injurious to women than to men, and they declare that the perfumes are secreted in brands prepared for the fair sex also are injurious.

Two recent deaths of women have been attributed directly to cigarette smoking. While these cases have been due to excessive smoking, the physicians say that the same amount of pipe smoking probably would not have had fatal results.

Smoking among women in London is now almost universal, and one rarely goes to a theatre, dance or restaurant where the majority of the women present are not smoking.

Recently two young women appeared at an athletic meet smoking pipes, and many of the fashionable shops of Bond street have exhibited stocks of pipes designed for the feminine smoker. However, the innovation has made little progress, and cigarettes are still the favorite.

SHOT, GRABS GUN: BEATS ASSAILANT

Wounded Twice in Chest, a Brooklyn Man Battles with Opponent Until Police Arrive—Were Restaurant Rivals.

New York, Nov. 9.—Although shot twice in the chest, Peter Gregory, 32, of Brooklyn, grappled with his assailant, snatched the revolver from his hand, and beat him about the head with it until the police intervened. Gregory then collapsed, and was taken to Beth Moses Hospital, Brooklyn, in a serious condition. His assailant, Peter Poulas, 20, was locked up, charged with felonious assault.

Fiercely developing out of rival restaurant businesses is believed to have been responsible for the shooting, Gregory is the proprietor of the Star Restaurant and his enemy is the son of Nicholas Poulas, proprietor of the New Great Restaurant, just across the street. Both men cater to the students of Pratt and Hefley Institute, near by, and the police believe that this rivalry led to the quarrel.

Gregory and Poulas met last night in De Kalb avenue, near Steuben street, shortly after 7 o'clock, according to the police. They stopped for a moment to talk. Poulas suddenly drew a .38-calibre revolver and fired twice at his opponent. The injured man flew at his adversary, twisted the revolver from his grasp and began to beat him about the head.

The sound of shots brought Patrolman Edward McGeehan and John Newman and Detective Gene Daly from the Clason avenue station house, two blocks away. As they separated the fighters Gregory fell to the pavement. An ambulance from Beth Moses Hospital soon brought Dr. Weiler, who found that Gregory was in a serious condition from two bullet wounds in the chest. While the injured man was hurried to the hospital, Poulas was taken to the station house, where he was locked up, charged with felonious assault.

PEERLESS LODGE SOCIAL Peerless Lodge, No. 19, I. O. O. F., held an "at home" last evening for their lady friends at their hall in St. John street, which was very largely attended and thoroughly enjoyed. The programme was an excellent one.

Those on the programme giving songs, were J. Simpson, who was thrice encored for his Scotch selections, Mrs. E. Smith, George Bustin, Mrs. V. I. Henderson, John Salmon and J. McEachern; instrumental music was provided by Mrs. J. T. Shaw, J. F. Habsall, Mrs. Aichorn and Frank Stanton, the accompanist. M. D. Brown, the deputy grand master, gave a fine address on Odd Fellowship and was very interesting. C. Ledford, M. Alcorn and D. Lindsay proved an excellent committee. Refreshments were served and games played. This is the first of their monthly gatherings and a good one. The National Anthem closed the proceedings.

Many plans for furthering work for girls in the city were made at the meeting of the St. John girls' work board held last night in the Y. W. C. A. recreation center in King street east, with Mrs. J. D. Hunter, the president, in the chair. Miss Mary Allison, maritime girls' work secretary, was present and gave many helpful suggestions. Plans were outlined for the fall work.

THE POPULAR PRINCE.

(London Daily Telegraph).

Opening a four days' fête in aid of Coventry's hospital yesterday, General Ian Hamilton said that that rally by Coventry deserved a better kick-off than could be delivered by a battered old soldier like himself. "I wish you could have seen our Prince of Wales leading off the great rally of the British Legion last Saturday at the Crystal Palace," he added. "I wish we could all see him next Friday, as president of the hospitals of London Combined Appeal, going one better than getting blood out of a stone by extracting Bradburys from skinflints. But, as we cannot see him, let me, as one who has been an eye witness, try to explain to you what happens.

"If I can just bring home to you some idea of what happens you will understand better, when you see it in the papers, how fine is the scopy he is about to bring off in London. It will first and foremost be our own, our very own, prince—royal not in his name alone but in his nature. How does he do it? I will try to tell you. When last Saturday he left the raised platform at the Crystal Palace a way had been laid open for him well guarded by policemen. Instead of taking it, he gave all these grave guardians the slip by diving into the very heart of the vast crowd feeling, no doubt, that he was there quite at home.

"Then those who lingered a little on the day saw a strange sight. As he passed along he lit a regular configuration of smiles amongst the rough old 'beavers' just as much as upon the ruby lips of smooth young ladies. This combined smile had a most extraordinary effect, making a bright ring in the crowd like the reflection of a star in dark waters. We struggled to see him, as best we might in the wake of this procession, and as we did so I heard a woman say to her man, 'It's too bad to let him go down amongst a lot of folk like that—that might be anyone there—how do you know there mightn't be one of our club friends with a red flag hid away in his pocket?' and the man said, 'Don't you worry; there ain't a red-flagger in England, Scotland or Ireland would hurt a hair of his head.'

WHAT'S DOING IN THE MONEY AND STOCK MARKETS TODAY

TRADE BALANCE WITH SWITZERLAND FAVORS CANADA

According to a statement issued by Carl P. Hubscher, L.L.D., Swiss consul general in Canada, this country rapidly developing into a Swiss supplier of foodstuffs to the world...

If consideration is given to the fact now officially acknowledged, that the greater part of the wheat, with a value of thirty-eight million dollars, shipped during 1921 from the United States to Switzerland, is really of Canadian origin...

In this connection it is interesting to note that during the first six months of 1922 Canada exported more wheat to Switzerland than the United States...

Switzerland exported to Canada, during the same six months, goods for a value of four million dollars, mainly silk goods, cotton fabrics, embroideries, lace, dolls, curtains, gloves and other articles...

According to present indications it would appear certain that the balance of the commercial exchange between the two countries will again be in favor of Canada this year.

BRITAIN'S TRADE AND CANADA'S

(Bank of Commerce Circular) The trade of Great Britain, at the present time by far the largest purchaser of Canadian products, is steadily increasing both in volume and value...

As this is so, and as her commercial and financial position is not likely to be affected by any changes which may take place in her domestic affairs during the next few months, it is only reasonable to expect that the trade between Canada and Britain will continue to show expansion...

The financial statement of the United Kingdom for the first six months of the current fiscal year, up to 30th September, indicates the soundness of conditions in that country...

While there has been a substantial gain in the value of our exports to the United Kingdom, Canada has experienced a contraction of trade, not so much in volume as in value, with the other British possessions. It is evident, however, that our standard markets are those within the Empire, and this fact has been recognized by the Dominion government in the mission which it is now sending to Australia with a view to establishing more favorable trade relations with the Commonwealth...

Getting Together. Ottawa Journal—Whatever reasons we may have for anxiety as to the present course of civilization, and unquestionably there are some, it is always worth while to remember that never before in the world's history have there been so many well-directed efforts toward getting together. And by that we mean, getting into touch with one another, understanding and appreciating the other fellow's point of view, realizing his difficulties and the sincerity of the purpose, perceiving the value of a keenest view of his prejudices as we know that we are not free from similar weaknesses.

CARPENTIER IS WINNING BACK POPULARITY Campaign was Engineered by His Opponent

Siki, in Flashy Garb, Makes Scene in a Paris Bar—Believed Carpenter Will Challenge Winner of Senegalese-Beckett Bout.

London, Oct. 27.—(By mail.)—A curious change has taken place in the minds of the sporting classes of France and England during the last week. The campaign of criticism directed against Georges Carpentier after his defeat at the hands of Siki has suddenly turned, with an equally quick reversal, into a campaign of praise.

If this incident provoked by Siki had led to a free fight, the color problem would have been definitely introduced in Paris, says the despatch, which adds: "Siki strode in with a handsome Frenchman, well known as a dancer, and a Frenchman. When the barman refused to serve him, Siki's companions began to throw things at a portrait of Jack Dempsey, at which he glared, muttering something like, 'Because I beat Carpentier, and I'll show Dempsey.'"

Paris apparently is as much interested in London in Carpentier's film, "A Gipsy Cavalier," produced by J. Stuart Blackton, in which the famous boxer plays a dual role—that of a dilettante young nobleman and a picturesque boxing gipsy. This film has been privately shown to the press and to cinema exhibitors in London, and was received with great enthusiasm.

BOILS Made Him Sick and Miserable

Mr. Richard Zelenoski, McLean, Va., writes: "I had been suffering continuously with boils, for three years, and during that time I tried many different remedies without any success whatever. In spite of all my efforts I was compelled to go to the hospital. This was in the Fall of the year, and in the busiest time of the season. Upon my return home I just took about two weeks until my neck and arms were again occupied by the boils which made me feel very sick and miserable."

NON-SUPPORT CASE

George Cook was charged in the police court yesterday by his wife with non-support. Mrs. Cook testified that her husband had left home about two weeks ago and had not supported her since. She said she needed both coal and food and that $34 was owing for rent. She said she had seen him with another woman. The defendant said he was employed with the Dominion Coal Company and that in 1917 he had been married to the complainant who was a widow with four children. He said that on any occasion which he had been in getting home he had either worked or staying at the club. He said he had come home one night and had to sleep in a coal bag. He had got a policeman and had gone to his house to get his clothes. His wife had thrown a pair of overalls and a cap out of the window to him. The magistrate attempted to effect a settlement but was unsuccessful and postponed the case for a week to see how they made out. Hon. Dr. J. B. M. Baxter, K.C., appeared for the defense.

SUFFERED SO From Heart and Nerves Life was a Burden

Mr. A. H. Lee, Beamsville, Ont., writes: "I am delighted to let you know what I have to say regarding the good Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills did me. A short time ago I suffered with heart and nerve trouble, and was so bad I could not sleep, only about two hours each night. My heart was so bad I had spells when driving on the road and would faint away, and neighbors would carry me in from my wagon. I also took these pills in the night and during my daily work on the farm. My nerves were so bad I would jump out of bed, and was then compelled to walk the floor before I could settle down again, but after taking a few boxes of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills I am now as well as ever."

MORE EVIDENCE IN PARKER CASE

The case against Mrs. Bessie Parker, charged with the murder of Mary Emily Frontin, was continued in the police court yesterday afternoon. BOSTON POST PUTS IT UP TO MAYFLOWER

Boston, Nov. 8.—(Canadian Press.)—The Boston Post said editorially today: "In answer to the challenge of the master of the Mayflower for a race, the master of the Bluenose counters with another challenge. It opens up an interesting possibility, and says the gallant skipper of the cup winner of this year and last: 'For two years the master and owner of the Mayflower have been studiously ignoring our offer to race the Bluenose against the Mayflower for a side bet of $10,000, vessels to sail from Newfoundland to West Indies with equal cargoes of fish, discharge, proceed to Turks Island, load equal cargoes of fish, and return to Newfoundland. We have sought a race with the Mayflower, the seeking has been on your side. You content that the Mayflower is a bona fide fishing schooner capable of doing what the Bluenose can do and going where the Bluenose can go. If you are still of the opinion, we suggest that instead of writing the story of wires received by you, you realize that our share of the side bet, I have mentioned has been lying here ignored since last year.'"

National League.

A postponed game between Dominion and District will be rolled tonight.
HOCKEY.
National League.
Montreal, Nov. 9.—Scheduled games in the National Hockey League will commence on Dec. 16, with the Canadiens playing St. Patrick's at Toronto and Ottawa opening at Hamilton, according to the schedule submitted to the annual meeting of the National Hockey League held here Saturday. The new schedule will be submitted to the various clubs before being announced.
Each team will play in 24 games, as last year with the first and second teams in the standing at the end of the season playing for the title. The play-offs will be home-and-home games, with total goals to count and must be completed by March 10. If a tie, teams will play a deciding game on neutral ice. No changes were made in the present regulations.

In regard to the "Newby" Lalonde deal, through which Lalonde went from Canadians to Saskatoon, though there was considerable argument over the right of the Canadians to make the trade, nothing in the constitution was found that made it illegal, so the deal was allowed to stand.
As a sequel, however, two new regulations were added to the N.H.L. rules. One raises the waiver price on a player from $500 to $1,000, and the second, introduced by Ottawa and supported by St. Patrick's, made it compulsory to first offer a player to the other clubs in the league before being allowed to trade him to an outside organization.
The same slate of officers as was elected last year was chosen again this year, Frank Calder remaining president for the sixth successive year.
FOOTBALL
U. N. B. vs Dalhousie.
Amherst, N. S., Nov. 9.—Nothing in relation to the maritime inter-collegiate championship to be decided here on Saturday will be left to chance with the exception of the score, when U. N. B. and Dalhousie meet.
A committee of business men and members of the Amherst Amateur Athletic Association met last evening and arranged for the advance ticket sale. The bank managers of the town volunteered to take charge of this end of the business, while the G. W. V. A. will aid in policing the grounds.

Fences are being built to keep the crowd from the field. The Marshland Club has offered the playing teams the freedom of that institution with a reception in their honor Saturday evening. Mayor D. W. Robb will kick off.
Fredericton-St. F. X. Fridays.
Fredericton, N. B., Nov. 9.—Word was received last evening from Antigonish, N. S., that St. Francis Xavier High School Rugby team would be unable to play here on Saturday, because of faculty objections to the students remaining away for so long a period as a stop here over the week end would involve. It has therefore been arranged for them to meet Fredericton High here on Friday afternoon for the inter-school championship of the maritime provinces.
Fredericton High's team has had to be more or less re-organized because of injury to Archie Sterling, star forward and the serious illness of Earl Hickson, blocking quarter. The game will be played at College Field.
To Play For Title.
St. Francis Xavier High School and Fredericton High School football teams will play in Fredericton tomorrow for the High School Rugby championship of the Maritime Provinces.

GOLF.
Father Eliminates Son.
Pinehurst, N. C., Nov. 8.—Percy W. Thomson, of Rothesay and the Riverside Club, played against his son, Eric D. Thomson, in the semi-final round of the autumn golf tournament at Pinehurst today and won by 2 up and 1 to play. Percy Thomson will be opposed by E. H. Wiswell, of Montclair, in tomorrow's final battle for the third division trophy. Howard G. Phillips and Carl Lohman survived for the final in the first division.
BASEBALL.
Red Sox Beaten in Court.
Philadelphia, Nov. 9.—A jury in the Common Pleas Court here awarded to Henry Molliter, manager of the Johnston (Pa.) Independent baseball club, $384.65, in a suit against the Boston Red Sox for breach of contract in failing to keep an engagement to play in Johnston on September 8, 1921.
The Boston Club in its defense said the game was called off when it was informed that two of the Johnston players were ineligible. It appeared later, however, that the players were eligible. The court threw out a claim for prospective profits and the jury of them. "Are you willing to swear

Has Convincing Manner.
New York, Nov. 9.—Pancho Villa, fly-weight champion, was arrested and fined five dollars for driving his manager's car without a license, but the little Filipino got some glory out of the affair. When brought to the station his assertion that he was a champion was doubted by a six-foot sergeant, who took the fly-weight into the squad room and put on the gloves. Pancho convinced the "Sarg" in just one round.
