Criticizes the Doctors

Calls Upon Them to Abandon 'Prejudice' and Points to Decades of Antagonism Before Other Great Advances in Medicine Were Accepted

Berlin, July 7.—Dr. Friedmann's remedy towers high and superior to all other tuberculosis specifics ever discovered.

After recalling that such things as quinine, quillsilver, chloroform anesthesia before being accepted, Professor Schleich asserts that the medical world combated Dr. Friedmann primarily because it was afraid of again falling a victim of the unexampled blunder it committed in accepting Koch's tuberculin.

Discussing Doctor Friedmann's insistence upon keeping the remedy secret, Professor Schleich says: "Disclosure to the general medical fraternity is simply an impossibility because the specific has to do with living bacteria and not every physician knows how to deal with such bacteria."

London, July 7.—The Daily Mail says that, as a result of a special investigation, it was announced that the "Cat and Mouse" law has killed militant suffrage as an organized conspiracy.

After protesting this delay, General Savoff, the commander in chief, offered his resignation. He urged a general advance, but was opposed by the premier and the minister of finance, who counseled reference to Russia.

DISTRICT FIRE CHIEF HELD ON CHARGE OF INCENDIARISM

John P. McAndrews Denies Setting Fire to Shed in Carleton

Accusation Made by Mrs. Leslie, Colored Woman, of Guilford Street, Who Says She Saw Him Set Fire—Remanded Till Tomorrow—Given Good Name by Superior

The fire-bug situation which has been agitating the people of St. John so intensely during the last few months took another sensational turn this morning, when John P. McAndrews, the district fire chief of the Carleton section of the city, and who has always been considered one of the best firemen on the force, was arrested charged with setting a fire in a wood-shed at the rear of Mrs. Leslie's house, 101 Guilford street.

Mrs. Leslie, who is the mother of Frank Leslie, barber of Carleton, and is widely known on the West Side, says that she heard a suspicious noise in the back yard between twelve and one o'clock on Saturday night; that she dressed hastily and went down to see if anything was the matter. A light was coming out of the woodshed, she says, and when she looked in the door she saw a man with a lighted match in his hand bending over a pile of shavings. She says she had already set fire in three other places in the shed. Mrs. Leslie heard her husband as soon as the man fled and he made a rush for the door and disappeared.

The fire fortunately was only smouldering and was put out without difficulty with a pail of water. If it had a chance to get under way the loose material lying around the shed, she says, would have furnished quick kindling for a serious fire.

Mrs. Leslie says that she distinctly saw the man who lighted the fire and is positive that it was McAndrews, whom she knows very well by sight, having been acquainted with him for years.

When Police Sergeant Flaherty, who made the arrest this morning took McAndrews to her for identification she said she was certain that he was the man.

The story of the arrest caused a great deal of surprise about the city. He has served a long time on the fire force, and as district engineer has had charge of the Carleton section of the city.

Chief Blake, when questioned as to McAndrews' record, said that he was one of their most valuable men and was particularly prompt in answering all calls. In the business which he had to do in connection with his department such as the purchase of supplies and discipline of men, McAndrews had an enviable record. The chief could not credit the charge which had been made. Other gentlemen who had acquaintance with McAndrews expressed high opinion of him.

McAndrews was brought into the police court this morning and, although not asked to plead, he asserted his own innocence. As no witnesses were present he was remanded until tomorrow morning.

KILLED WOMEN AND CHILDREN BEFORE THE BATTLE WITH CHINESE

Tibetans Feared They Might Be Captured But They Won Combat

Cheng Tu, Province of Szechuan, China, July 7.—A large band of Chinese recently surrounded the Tibetan town of Hsiang Chen. The Tibetans, before going into battle, killed their women and children, lest they should be captured by the Chinese.

The Chinese, however, ran short of ammunition, and the Tibetans repulsed them on all sides, with heavy losses. One hundred Chinese were drowned while fording the river.

INSECT PLAGUE

Caterpillars Ravaging Bartibogue District

Millions in Army

Chatham, N. B., July 7.—According to John Connel, a veteran guide, a plague of caterpillars has struck a section of the Bartibogue district and they seem to rival the activity of the pests that have scourged Montreal and other portions of the Dominion this year.

They exist in millions and are attacking the poplars, alders and birches and one of the noteworthy features is the fact that they are eating the leaves of the alder, a thing they have never been known to do before.

Where they have passed along the woods look as though a forest fire had swept through them as the trees are completely denuded of leaves. They have already destroyed a large amount of poplar, and while the loss of the alder is not mourned the visit is fatal to young birch.

The maple and fuller grown birches do not seem to be selected by the insects for food. The pests are now making for the settlement and will soon be a menace to the farmers unless something can be done to stay their progress.

LADY SACKVILLE WAS NOT IN COURT TODAY

London, July 7.—Lady Sackville, the person mostly interested in the outcome of the "case for the millions," was not present in court when the concluding stage of the case opened today. It was said that she felt the need of rest after her experience on the witness stand last week.

When Sir Samuel Thomas Evans, the presiding judge, took his seat for the eighth day of the hearing in the action by relatives of the late Sir John Murray Scott to plead the invalidity on account of alleged undue influence of the will by which he left nearly $5,000,000 to Lady Sackville, the court was again crowded with representatives of aristocratic families.

Sir Edward Carson at once began to address the jury on behalf of Lord and Lady Sackville, upholding the validity of the testator's will. The verdict is expected to be delivered tomorrow.

BADLY BEATEN; IS FOUND AT ROADSIDE

Young Man From City Supposed to Have Been Ejected From Road House

A young man lying unconscious on the side of the road was found at 5:30 on Sunday morning by some men who were driving out the Rothery road. He was severely cut about the head and bore some ugly looking bruises and lacerations. His appearance indicated that he had been murdered in a particularly dangerous manner.

The papers say Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, who is recovering from her latest hunger strike, is not likely to be arrested again, unless she tries to participate in a militant campaign.

The Quality of Service

Merchandising without advertising's helpful aid is a custom that is more profitable in the branch than in the service.

Run over in your mind a dozen first grade businesses that serve the public with daily interesting news of all that is going on within their spheres of activity—and then, if you can, think of just one establishment, great or small, depending upon the patronage of the public, that does not advertise in some way or another.

The advertiser not only renders the public a distinct service in presenting his announcements frequently, but he also has performed a high quality of service in his relations with his patrons that is of an unusually satisfactory order.

One of the big things in business today is service, and we think that it is found in its finest development in those progressive concerns who, through the medium of the daily newspapers, tell you the interesting things you are interested in about themselves, their merchandise and the quality of service they have to offer you.

MILLIONS TO MAN WHO SAVED GIRL

Millionaire's Daughter Was Rescued From White Slavery

A FATHER'S GRATITUDE

D. S. K. Byrne to Receive More Than $2,000,000 By Will and Also Be Manager of New Institution For Fallen Women

(Montreal Witness) David S. K. Byrne, a Montreal man, who was left $2,000,000 by the father of a girl he saved from white slavery...

But the long waiting and trouble is nearly over, he says, for he has just had a letter from the lawyers telling him of the final proofs that will be required, expressing regret that they are obliged to give him so much seemingly unnecessary trouble...

Mr. Byrne, who is accompanied by his wife and son, told a "Witness" reporter that he had already traveled more than 40,000 miles, and spent more than $10,000 in verifying his right to the estate left him by the late Robert Byrne, a traveling stock broker, of Australia.

Mr. Byrne, according to his own account, afterwards heard from the father, who was a millionaire, that he never forgot the man who had rescued his daughter.

A year afterwards, in July, 1908, he heard of the death of the girl, and in September of the same year her father died. Both were buried at sea by their special request and almost immediately the Montreal man was told he had been left a fortune of about two million dollars, on condition that he look the name of Byrne.

The lawyers wanted 100 signatures of identification, headed by the names of representatives of municipalities of his birthplace. These, Mr. Byrne declares, he has obtained. In fact, the number of signed, sealed and registered documents he has already collected, signed by municipal authorities, town clerks, wardens and representatives of all kinds who knew him, knew his parents, or knew himself in the days of his childhood.

Mr. Byrne told a "Witness" reporter that the plans have all been completed for the erection of the Memorial "Star of Hope" Tabernacle, which will be erected in Toronto.

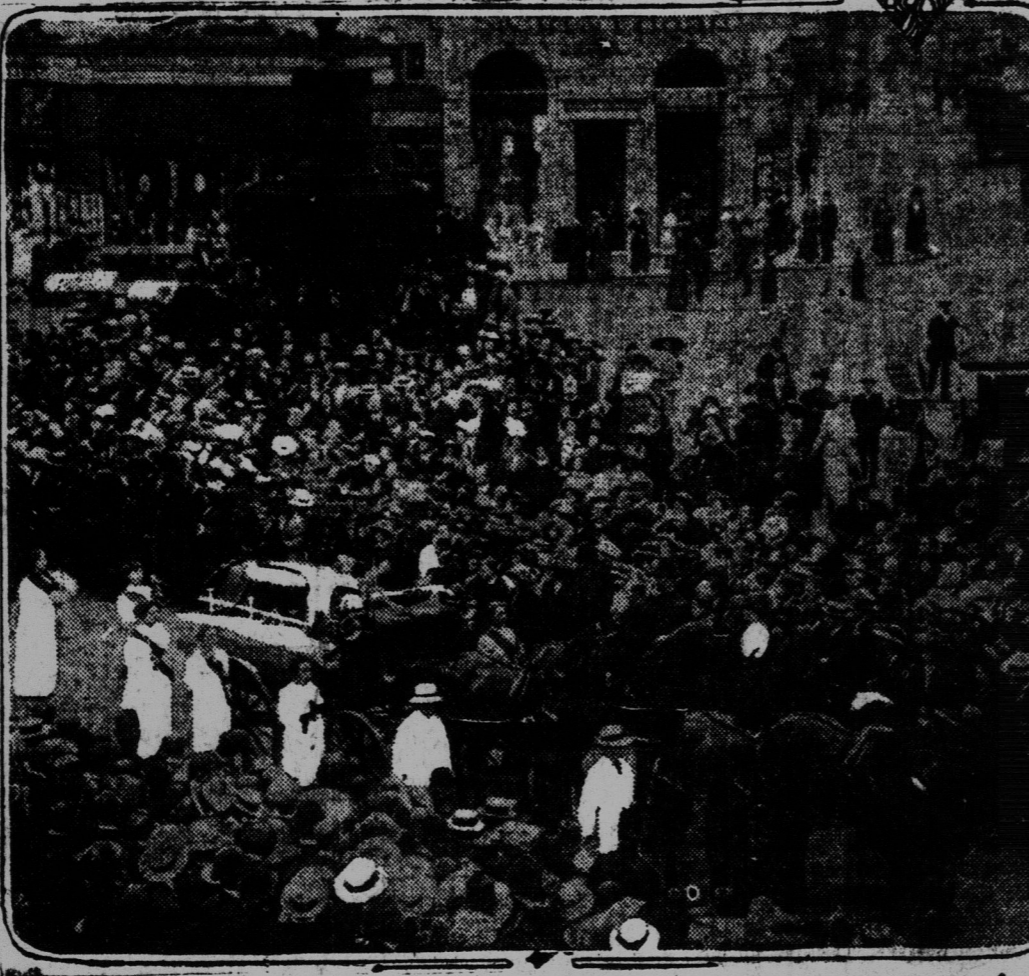

It will be five stories high, and will contain 300 rooms, besides a secretary's, pastor's, and other officials' living quarters. Three sections of it will be set aside for use as a maternity hospital, a foundling nursery for children, and a labor department, which will find every kind of work for the inmates.

Mr. Byrne says that the present official statement of assets is $8,100,000, a sum of which he himself claims $2,750,000, a sum which he is absolutely confident he will soon receive.

Meantime he has started his reign of riches by erecting a red Scotch granite monument over his mother's grave at Bewley, Mice Lake, Ontario.

When he receives his two million dollars, Mr. Byrne says that he will stay for a time at least in Montreal. Probably he will erect another Byrne Memorial here.

Daily Hints For the Cook

ESCALLOPED CORN Put a layer of cracker crumbs into baking dish, then a layer of fresh corn pulp or canned corn. Season with salt, pepper and bits of butter, cover with crumbs and repeat until dish is full. Add milk and bake.

BLACKBERRY CUSTARD Line a deep dish with dead ripe blackberries. Beat the yolks of 5 eggs to a cream with 7 tablespoons of powdered sugar and stir in 2 cupsful of hot milk. Cook this in a double boiler until it becomes a smooth custard, then add a dash of salt and 2 teaspoons of lemon juice. When almost cold pour in between the berry walls and set away to harden. When ready to serve heat with whipped cream.

EFFORTS TO SETTLE STRIKE INEFFECTIVE

Johannesburg, July 6.—The settlement of the strike among the gold miners in the Rand district which the government arranged with a committee of the strikers yesterday has proved ineffective, although comparative order was preserved overnight.

The strike leaders were apparently trying tonight to get the men to accept the terms, but on all sides dissatisfaction is expressed. A spirit of anarchy has been roused which is difficult to control.

Montreal Church Burned Montreal, July 5.—The St. Charles Roman Catholic church in this city was destroyed by fire this afternoon. The loss, amounting to $200,000, is covered by insurance.

CREW ALL SAVED The crew of the Glenmark, a Norwegian bark which is floating in mid-ocean, a derelict, have all been saved. Word was received in Montreal that the steamer Gavinholm, in passing Brown Head, signalled that the Glenmark, from Dieppe, via London, for New York, had been wrecked and all her crew were saved.

Their own ways, and what is the result? The result is that working for their cause in the House of Commons today is like swimming, not merely against a tide, but against a eddies. The one barrier there is no surmounting and no getting round is the decided and increasing hostility of public sentiment; and for that the militants have only themselves to thank."

ORGANIZED LUNACY

So Lloyd George Describes Antics of the Militants

KEEPING BACK THE VOTE

Woman Suffrage Would Have Been Accomplished Fact Before Now Had it Not Been For The Fighting Tactics

London, July 5.—Hon. Lloyd George, Chancellor of the Exchequer, in an article on "Votes for Women and Organized Lunacy" writes: "I have long been a convinced advocate of woman suffrage, and am now firmer than ever in supporting it."

The solution that most appeals to him, he says, "is the one embodied in the Dickinson bill—that is to say, a measure conferring the vote on women householders and on the wives of married electors." In that form, he believes, woman suffrage will come, but how soon it will come depends, he thinks, upon how soon the militants come to their senses.

"One cannot dignify such tactics and antics," he says, "by the title of political propaganda. The proper name for them is sheer organized lunacy. The militants have erected militancy into a principle. I am beginning to think that a good many of them are more concerned with the success of their method than with the success of their cause."

"If they had accepted Mr. Asquith's pledge of two years ago, and thanked him for it, and helped him to redeem it, woman suffrage by now would be an accomplished fact. But they preferred

BATTLES MARKED BY ANWFUL SLAUGHTER CLAIMED BY BOTH

London, July 6.—After ten days of fighting, more severe and deadly in character than anything in the last Balkan war, a little light begins to break upon the hitherto obscure operations.

In the first place, the Serbians have lost more men than in the whole previous campaign, and semi-official statements issued at Belgrade have the appearance of an intention to prepare the public for news of a disaster.

Desperate fighting, with fluctuating fortunes, is proceeding along the Vardar and Bregalnitsa rivers, which seems to be in favor of the Bulgarians. Important news has been received of the Bulgarian invasion of Serbia through Belogradchik, about forty-five miles northeast of Nish, Serbia's most important fortified town.

No indication is given of the strength of the Bulgarian column at this point, but the Bulgarians claim to have defeated the Serbians and captured five guns and a quantity of other war material, and by the occupation of the passes to have opened the road to Nish.

There is heavy fighting also between the Serbians and Bulgarians to the south of Ispit and in the neighborhood of Kocchana. About two hundred thousand men are engaged, and the losses on both sides appear to be terrible.

Bulgaria's strategy appears to be to hold the Greeks in check, probably with comparatively small forces, while she deals with Serbia. This assumption, if correct, would explain the victorious advance of the Greek army.

Unconfirmed reports credit the Bulgarians with victories near Kopriv, giving them the key to Uskup, and with an outstanding movement from the south of Thessaly Lake which would cut off the Greek retreat.

Saloniki despatches continue to report Greek victories. The Greeks are said to have captured sixteen guns at Dobras. Evidences of desperate fighting is found in the arrival of 8,000 wounded at Saloniki, taxing the town's accommodations.

A conservative estimate of the killed or disabled in last week's fighting fixes the number at from 30,000 to 40,000. Thousands of disaffected refugees from the scene of the fighting are pouring into Saloniki.

The Greeks have made wholesale charges against the Bulgarians of burning and pillaging all the villages they abandon and of committing murders, mutilations and other horrors. More than 4,000 refugees are concentrated at Nigrita and adjacent villages.

WHY MARRIED MEN LIVE LONG (Cincinnati Enquirer) The reason a married man lives longer than a single man is because the single man leads a selfish existence. A married man can double his pleasures. Any time he has a streak of good luck it ticks him all over, but it makes him feel twice as good when he tells his wife about it. And she is so pleased and proud that she feels like a two-year-old. There isn't a chance in the world of a man's arteries hardening or his heart weakening when he can get a million dollars' worth of pleasure out of making his wife happy.

Doctors' Opinions About POSTUM Are best expressed in their own words Writing under date of May 13, 1913, one physician says: "From past experience I have become a strong friend of Postum. I am now advising its use over that of tea and coffee altogether, and find that most of those who give Postum a trial become users of it." "It is however sometimes very hard or impossible to get folks to purchase something when they don't know anything about it, and don't want to throw away money on a chance of liking it." "Now, it occurs to me these people are not to be criticized for such feelings, but at the same time I am sure many of them would become friends of Postum if they could but have a sample of it placed in their hands." "If you think this is a good suggestion, and will send me samples from time to time, I will see that they are placed among my patients where they will do the most good, for I believe it is to their interest to drink Postum rather than tea or coffee. Postum is used in our home, but we buy it of our grocer, and we expect to keep right on doing so."

four years and a half to the present average. Writing of murder convictions, Mr. Sawyer explains: "Many prosecutions of unusual importance from the public standpoint have been undertaken during the last year. In the first place I desire to call attention to the fact that there have been far more convictions of murder in the first degree than in any other year in the history of the county so far as can be learned from the records. Thirteen persons have been convicted of first degree murder, while the highest known record heretofore has been eight in one year, thus exceeding the previous record by five. It is also worthy of note that for the first time in recorded history four men were jointly tried and each found guilty of murder in the first degree."

He then tells of the conviction of Police Lieut. Charles Becker, of the murder of Herman Rosenthal and the conviction later at one trial of Jacob Scidmochner; Frank Cirofici, alias Dago Frank; Harry Horowitz, alias Gyp the Blood; and Louis Rosenberg, alias Letty Louie, the four assassins hired by Becker.

The report indicates that there is a gradual increase of crime among young men, the male criminals under the age of 30 years having increased in number from 1,700 in 1904 to 2,200 in 1912, during the last year many offenders were between the years of 15 and 20. Assault charges show forty under 20 years and sixty-four from 20 to 30 years. Third degree burglary, 218 for younger period and 205 for the older; grand larceny in 1912 as compared with 1911, 157 under 20 and 144 from 20 to 30 years; and twenty-two from 20 to 30 years. The total shows 940 under 20 convicted last year and 1,278 from 20 to 30. Only 404 offenders from 30 to 40 years were convicted.

The report shows that the district attorney's office disposed of 4,897 cases last year, with 8,028 convictions after indictment and 2,888 convicted upon pleas of guilty. There were 821 trials which resulted in acquittals.

Most Women Criminals Under 30.
The statistics for women prisoners show that two-thirds of the women brought to court were under 30 years. Convictions for larceny stand highest, grand larceny, eighteen; second degree grand larceny, fifty-five; petit larceny, forty-two. The total number of women brought before the higher criminal courts was 166.
Making averages, the usual sentence imposed was five years and six months and the total state prison terms amounted to $391. A gradual increase in the length of sentence imposed since 1904 is noted. The increase was from

Noted Track Closed
Salt Lake City, July 7.—The salt palace bicycle track, which has been open since 1899, was closed last night, after the riders refused to make an appearance, and no attempt will be made to re-open the resort. The salt palace track has been in operation longer than any other bicycle track in the country and many of the present world's records have been made there.
The riders made a demand for an increase in pay, which the management refused to grant. As a result of their refusal to ride, Ivor Lawson and Paddy Hehir have been suspended indefinitely. It is said that the riders who have been competing here, will go to Newark, N. J., to join the outlaw riders there.

The Masters at Play
New York, July 6.—The second round of the masters' chess tourney concluded late last night and furnished a surprise when Adair overcame Chajes in a protracted sitting of sixty moves. Marder easily beat Biehoff; Kupchik outplayed Grommer; Bernstein defeated Phillips; and Black won from Benyon in fifty-four moves.

FALSE ALARMS

One might almost doubt the press report that a thriving little western city was panic-stricken upon discovering that it contained a leper, if it were not for the fact that a few months ago another paper was hailed from place to place as though he were a dynamite bomb on the point of exploding.

Experts on the disease have repeatedly explained that leprosy in a civilized country is one of the least dangerous of diseases. Probably a leper could walk down King street at midday with less danger to public health than occurs every time a consumptive spits in a street car.

Some silly persons trampled on an American flag at Winnipeg the other day, and some other silly persons in Vancouver have trampled on the Union Jack. That sort of patriotism wins no laurels.

The Standard informs us that Mr. H. W. Woods showed the people of Gardiner's Creek that the Borden government was for a united Empire, and the late government for "a staid pat policy."

So far as civilized countries are concerned the total danger from leprosy is to that from tuberculosis about as one to a billion.

CITY AND RIVER

Not less than two hundred people came down the river in the steamer Oceano this morning, practically all of them being city folk who had spent the week end at points between Sand Point and Dak Point. If a daily express service along the lower portion of the river were guaranteed, enabling people to get into town every morning at eight o'clock or thereabouts, the number of families spending the summer at river points would be trebled and quadrupled within two years.

It is really surprising that some effort is not made to meet the demand of this traffic as it should be met. There is a great opportunity to develop suburban traffic along the river.

Those who know the charms of river life are willing to bear some discomfort in the security in going down and coming, for the sake of the benefit derived by the family, especially the children, during the summer months; but there would be no discomfort if a satisfactory evening and morning service by boat were provided.

It has been suggested that a motor boat service from Bushy Camp or thereabouts to Westfield, to connect with the C. P. R. for St. John, would probably prove a successful venture. Possibly it would. Whatever course is pursued, there should be the assurance that the service would not fail, and with that assurance there would be a magical increase in the number of summer homes at points farther up the river than Westfield or Woodman's Point.

The St. John Railway Company could do a service to the river people by having more cars on hand on the arrival of steamers, which should not be a difficult task. When at the least two hundred people came ashore this morning, there was no car at Indiantown. The first that arrived was quickly filled, and some passengers walking leisurely toward the city had passed Douglas Avenue before the second car from Indiantown overtook them.

The Conservative orators at Gardiner's Creek on Saturday night did not tell their hearers anything about the route of the St. John Valley Railway from Glasgow to St. John. And yet Mr. H. W. Woods was to become the silent partner of the St. John terminals for the Grand Trunk Pacific. So far as the published report goes, there was no reference to an emergency.

A national convention is to be held in Boston early in August to promote a forward to the land movement. An American exchange says that an effort is to be made to people the sparsely settled states with desirable settlers, and that it is really the beginning of a new

Take a pint of hot water, squeeze in to it the juice of one lemon and season with half a teaspoonful of salt. Drink slowly half an hour before breakfast. This will clear a coated tongue, tone the stomach, and act directly upon a sluggish liver. This tonic, if kept up for three months, every alternate two weeks, will wonderfully clear the complexion.

CAPTAIN CAREY OF C.P.R. FIFTY YEARS AT SEA

Was Pioneer of Winter Port Steamship Business Here

DECK BOY TO COMMODORE

Now in Command of the Tyrolia, at Montreal From Mediterranean—Veteran Recalls Stirring Incidents of Danger and Daring

The following from the Montreal Witness will interest many St. John friends of the sketch—Captain Frank Carey, of the C. P. R., the pioneer captain in St. John's business as a winter port. The Witness says:—

A half century ago, the years crowded with thrilling experiences, has just been completed by Captain Frank Carey, of the C. P. R. liner Tyrolia, which ports between Montreal and Trieste and Naples. Capt. Carey came into port here this morning, with his big ship, and on the deck of his vessel today, he told a 'Witness' reporter the story of his long career at sea.

From deck boy to commodore of the Atlantic fleet of the C. P. R. is a big rise, but that is the one that Captain Carey has taken since he sailed from his first port as a deck boy in 1868. That was in the days of sailing vessels, the big steamers of the century being then but vague dreams.

He was the first of the Carey family to choose the sea as a life calling and so, when he cleared on the old sailing bark 'Catherine' for Quebec, his parents feared for his future. But for half a century since then he has sailed the seas of the wide world, with honor to himself and deep satisfaction to his employers.

From deck boy he rose until he became mate of the sailing vessels. Then he transferred to the steam ships, sailing for a time in the tramp vessels. Then he served two years and a half with the Allans, then he entered the service of the old Beaver Line and with it he was transferred to the C. P. R. fleet. He has been with the Beaver and C. P. R. Company since 1880, being commodore of the Atlantic fleet, now, and the oldest captain in years of service with the company.

Saved Sailors in a Wild Sea

The captain has had an adventurous career. When he was second officer of the 'Lake Winnipeg', one terrible February day he fought with the waves in mid-Atlantic to save six sailors who were almost frozen to death in the rigging of a Norwegian bark. It was a Thursday when the waves were so high the sea was wild, great waves washing clear over the decks. On the Monday preceding the waves were so high that the crew climbed upon the upturned bottom of the wreck and waited for rescue. One by one the hungry sea claimed them, until only six remained out of the seven who had been aboard the bark. A strange freak of the wild waves, the bark was turned back to its proper position. The six benighted sailors climbed into the rigging and waited for rescue or death.

Captain Carey, then chief officer of the 'Lake Winnipeg', went to their aid, and after heroic efforts succeeded in getting a line aboard and saving the six. One of them had broken his leg on the Monday, and was in a serious state when brought to medical aid.

For this act of conspicuous bravery at sea he was awarded a medal by the Norwegian government and a certificate from the Shipwreck and Humane Society, and a third by the Mercantile Marine Association.

Salvaged the Kate Can

Later he picked up the Canadian ship 'Kate Cann', bound for Yarmouth, N. S. For a week it had been swept from stem to stern, her masts were gone, her boats were crushed in, and she was full of water. Captain Carey was then on the 'Lake Huron'. She, too, had lost all her boats but one, in the terrible gale that had been lashing the sea into mountainous waves. The boat had to be patched up with tallow before the rescue could be attempted. But the entire crew of the 'Kate Cann' was saved.

The Canadian government presented to the heroic skipper a pair of binoculars, and the Humane Society added a clasp to his former medals.

In 1898, in December, he found the German liner 'Spree' in a sinking condition in mid ocean. He picked up the survivors on board the crippled ship, while his own, the 'Lake Huron', was crowded. It was his last trip out from Montreal that fall. For a week he struggled with his unwieldy tow, finally docking her in her port and saving every life. J. Richie Bell, of Montreal, was on the 'Lake Huron' at the time, while D. L. Moody and Major-General Howard were passengers on the 'Spree'.

Captain Carey commanded the 'Empress of Ireland' on her first four trips to Quebec. At the end of the first voyage he was presented with a silver cup, a rose bowl and an album, suitably inscribed, by the passengers.

The skipper knows what shipwreck at sea is like, for he has had to take to the open boats in furious storms. Once in awful weather he was compelled to abandon the ship. It was a sailing vessel, and the anchors were dragging, while the waves were sweeping the full length of the craft. A boat was got out after great difficulty, and Mr. Carey dropped down into it. It was terribly cold, so he called to some one to throw him some clothes. A bundle of his possessions was tossed to him. The clothes went wide and fell into the sea, but an old fiddle that he had in his cabin dropped into the boat. So he was in a wild sea with few clothes, but an old fiddle to console himself with.

Hot? Well, Here's a Message From a Land Where it is 25 Degrees Below Zero Today!

Dr. Douglas Mawson and the antarctic photograph was taken while Captain J. K. Davis was trying in vain to rescue the Mawson party.

(By Douglas Mawson.)

Commonwealth Bay, July 4, via Hobart, Tasmania, by wireless. While you in America are suffering with the summer heat, I am writing this message in the Antarctic circle, with the thermometer from 25 to 40 degrees below zero and with six months of solid night before me and my five companions.

We are in the depths of winter, for the seasons are reversed here.

The last penguin left us today. We have had an addition to our family, Hester, one of the dogs, presented to us by Amundsen, gave birth to five puppies, but four of them died with the cold.

Some of our instruments have been carried away by the wind, but Hodgeman has set our house in order for the winter and we shall be more comfortable than we were.

Take to the boats. Ten minutes later the abandoned ship went down. A schooner picked up the drifting boat and saved them.

Once Captain Carey had a full cargo of salt on board the bark. He was chief officer. An awful gale came up. The masts went overboard, the wheel was smashed, the captain was washed overboard, the ship's stern was crushed in, so that some planks fell out and floated away. The great gap was only a foot above the water line in clear weather. It was a horrible experience, but Captain Carey, who assumed command when the skipper was lost, got the brig to port safely. The water, however, washed away a foot of salt from the cargo through the gaps in the hull.

"It was a miracle that we escaped that trip," said the old captain today.

Captain Carey is hale and hearty in spite of his strenuous career, and this morning he berthed his big ship here after her trip from Trieste and Naples.

than we were last winter. Sledding is dangerous, owing to the heavy snowfall. It is very unfortunate that Captain Davis has our wireless tower re-erected. Jeffries, the wireless man, anticipates being able to keep it standing in spite of the hurricanes, and he thinks that communication is better, now that the 24-hour night has set in.

A terrific whirlwind was experienced last night and almost took the roof off the hut, but the wireless tower stood it. We are assailed nightly by wireless signals from far and wide, so much so that it is difficult to pick out one particular message. Jeffries gets messages and news from all the world, so, though we are imprisoned by the intense cold, nearly 2,000 miles from a human habitation, we know everything that is going on and we communicate daily with the world.

(By W. G. Shepherd.)

London, July 4.—Capt. J. K. Davis, who has just arrived in London from the antarctic circle, has secured this message, from Dr. Douglas Mawson.

It is the latest marvel of the wireless that you may sit sweltering in St. John's city and read a message just written by a man in a snow-bound hut, amid eternal ice, during the six months' night.

Tall, lanky Captain Davis, the chief of the steamship Aurora of the Mawson expedition, told me about Dr. Mawson's plight.

"He's a prisoner, of course, but he has plenty to eat and he has five good companions. I'm going back next November to rescue him."

"I almost rescued him last February. It was like this:

"In the summer of 1910 I put Dr. Mawson and his party on the antarctic shore at Commonwealth Bay and then I steamed 1,500 miles westward and put another party of six men on to an ice field where they were to make scientific investigations.

"I sailed back to Hobart, with the understanding that in December, 1911, I was to go back for them.

"I did this, but when I reached Commonwealth Bay I found Dr. Mawson was not there. He had gone 300 miles into the interior and, as I learned later, had had a terrible experience. One companion fell into a crevasse and was killed, and the other died of cold and hunger. For twenty-two days he struggled on alone, while I waited for him at Commonwealth Bay.

"At last he returned, nearly dead. But a terrible wind was blowing from off shore and we could see the hut, the wireless tower and a man waving a flag. But we could not reach them.

"I decided to disobey orders and go for the six men 1,800 miles away on the ice field.

"Dr. Mawson and his men stood on the shore and watched us sail away. They knew that it meant they would be prisoners for a whole year in the huts, but I knew that it did not mean death to them if I left them and it did mean death to the six on the ice field if I did not get there.

"We found them alive and well, though almost at the end of their resources. We loaded them on the Aurora and got them back to Hobart, Tasmania.

"Imagine my delight at Hobart to find wireless messages awaiting me from Dr. Mawson himself telling me that he and the five men with him were well and that I had done the right thing in leaving as I did."

MC 2035 POOR DOCUMENT

YOUR MOTHER AND GRANDMOTHER SWUNG IN ONE OF THESE OLD-FASHIONED BARREL STAVE HAMMOCKS

How about the hammock for the porch or lawn? Want to know how to make the most durable and safest hammock in the world that will give the service of a few months' labor and a dime or two? Get a couple of old barrels that have stout staves. Sugar barrels are the best. Cut a notch on each side of the end of the staff, just where the groove in them comes. Then get some good fire or good strong, insulated wire. You'll want two perfect pieces for each side. Hope will do if you can't get the wire and a common clothes line will serve the purpose. The objection to the rope is that if the hammock is exposed to rain very much it means that every season it will have to be renewed. The materials all at hand, fasten your wire or rope together in two lengths so that each length will consist of two long pieces. And this fastening will be done securely. Take your first barrel staff and slip it between the pieces of rope in each stand so that the rope will fit in the notches you have made in each end. Then give the rope a twist and put in another staff, the twist bringing the top rope on the bottom and the bottom rope on the top. Do this with each staff until you have your hammock long enough. Fasten the rope or wire together securely over the top. These can be fastened to the last staves by holes bored in them or to the ropes or wires with which you have woven your hammock. It is really best and safest to fasten the hangers to the top of your wire rather than to the staves. Then all you have to do is to find a place to hang the hammock and hang it.

There's a string attached to everything you buy here, and if your purchase proves unsatisfactory, pull the string and get your money back. We take all the chances. You run no risks. On this understanding, how would you like one of our new Summer Suits in one of the talking brown at $20, or a Honespun, cool and durable, at $5, or a Blue Serge at $22. Everything new is here and just as you want it.

C. P. R. Earnings
C. P. R. made a good showing in the annual weekly statement for the fiscal year which ended on Monday last, the return showing a gain of $174,000, or 5.3 per cent for the last nine days of June. This is one of the best increases reported in some weeks and brought the cumulative increase for the month up to $889,000.

Taking weekly statements for June and monthly statements for the first eleven months of the year, the earnings for 1912-13 total $188,908,268. There are usually some small adjustments to be noted in the monthly statements, but $188,000,000 can be taken as fairly close to what the complete figures for the year will show.

The figures for the last nine days of June are:
1912 .. $8,467,000
1913 .. $3,288,000
Increase .. $5,179,000

Grand Trunk reports for the same period show a gain of $71,181, the figures being:
1912 .. $1,623,828
1913 .. 1,652,647
Increase .. 28,819

Canadian Failures
Statistics compiled by R. G. Dun & Co. indicate a large increase in the commercial mortality in the Dominion of Canada during the first half of 1913 as compared with the corresponding six months last year, a total of 817 failures exceeding the 696 reported in the earlier period, while the aggregate liabilities were $9,804,498, against $5,112,819.

With the exception of Newfoundland and Prince Edward Island every province showed increase compared with the first half of 1912 in aggregate commercial failures, while aside from Newfoundland, New Brunswick and Saskatchewan, there was some growth in the number of failures, which was not unusual in view of the rapid development of the Dominion, especially in the far north-west.

REVIVE STORY THAT C.P.R. MAY BUY PROPERTY

Official Inspected Site at Corner of King and Germain Last Week

A representative of the architectural department of the C. P. R. from Montreal was in the city for the purpose of a careful inspection of the Lawrence property on the southwest corner of King and Germain streets. This fact lends color to the often repeated report that the C. P. R. is considering the purchase of the property for use for their general offices and other departments.

When asked about the matter this morning the agent in charge of the site said there was nothing definite to announce at present.

It is believed that if the property was purchased by the railway company the present building might be removed and replaced by a handsome structure more suited to their needs.

CONFIRMATION
In the Church of the Assumption, Montreal, last evening, Rev. W. H. Bishop LeBlanc administered the sacrament of confirmation to sixty-five candidates in the parish of St. John, St. Denis, St. O'Keefe, and Rev. J. O'Donovan, a large congregation attended.

COURT JUDGMENT OF INTEREST IN REAL ESTATE BUSINESS

(Montreal Gazette)

A ruling of interest to real estate agents and property owners has been handed down by Chief Justice Sir Charles Peers Davidson, in a case wherein an agent claimed commission on a transfer by holes bored in them or to the ropes or wire together securely over the top. These can be fastened to the last staves by holes bored in them or to the ropes or wires with which you have woven your hammock. It is really best and safest to fasten the hangers to the top of your wire rather than to the staves. Then all you have to do is to find a place to hang the hammock and hang it.

The case was that of Samuel Simoniuk vs. J. Desmarais.

Yemeni Army Will be Completed

The Yemeni army will be completed by Thursday or Friday, according to despatches from Bucharest. The Roumanian troops are expected to enter Danube into Bulgaria immediately and as a result of this step, it is assumed that Bulgaria will be compelled either to permit the Roumanian demands and agree to occupy the territory she desires, or to engage in war.

BANGOR TEAM GIVEN A NEW LEAGUE START

The league executive in deference to the change of management, the reorganization of the players, and for the general interest of the sport have decided to give Bangor a start of an even 500 in the standing. This seems reasonable, since a team for the first year in the league has serious difficulties to contend with, and anyway it does not seem fair that they should be held to account for the shortcomings of their predecessors. They are playing fine ball now and this will make the race more interesting.

Bangor Commercial, Saturday.—As the result of the exhibitions of Friday new pitching material is being hurried on to reinforce the Bangor team in its weakest spot. Pitcher McLellan has been released and others may follow.

Bangor went to Calais Saturday morning and two new men have been ordered to report there for a tryout. Phinney, the Bates' pitcher, who played with Bidde Lot's Bangor team, is one of them and the other the management has not announced. Stormstedt has also been ordered to report there.

Manager Doyle has left the St. Croix team and has returned to Biddeford. A local association in Calais and St. Stephen has taken over the team.

Lamoney and Mayo, formerly with Bangor, will play with the Easterns in two games at Belfast, today. Hammond, formerly with Bangor, is playing with Battledore in the Vermont-New Hampshire league, where he played last year.

KEEPING BABY WELL DURING HOT WEATHER

A pamphlet is being issued by the Montreal City Health Bureau for distribution among mothers, telling how to keep a baby well during the hot spell. The following rules are the most important embodied in the pamphlet:

Give it pure air day and night.

Give it no food but mother's milk, milk from the bottle, or food directed by a physician.

A MISUNDERSTANDING

The incident arising over the intimation of Archbishop Bruchesi which resulted in the non-appearance of Desaulniers, K. C., at the recent Soiree de la Pensée Française, has now closed, correspondence between His Grace the Archbishop, and Mr. Desaulniers having brought out the fact that the whole affair arose over a misunderstanding. Mutual regrets are expressed and both the Archbishop and Mr. Desaulniers intimate that they hope the incident will be considered as closed.

Championship Battle Lost Through a Referee's Mistake

By TOM ANDREWS

It is not often that championship battle is awarded to the wrong man, but from all accounts received on this side of the big pond, the British bantam-weight champion—Digger Stanley—was unjustly deprived of his title when he fought Bill Benyon recently before the National Sporting Club of London. It was not a case of the referee doing any wrong act purposely, but simply a case where the official made a serious mistake, due to lack of judgment and old age, but it was handing the champion a pretty severe penalty.

It means that Stanley will have to fight his way back to the top again, and he is no youngster at the business. A well-known sporting man of London, in commenting upon the matter, writes me as follows: "Referee Douglas has been mercilessly criticized by the press for his rank decision in the recent title battle between Bill Benyon and Digger Stanley, though no one in the uncharitable crowd has thought and circulated unpleasant stories which it would be to the credit of the club to deny. On no grounds could Benyon be made out a winner, for his boxing in the match was away below that shown by Stanley, and in the matter of clinching and unfair tactics, Benyon was as much to blame as the referee. Benyon will probably rest on his laurels until next October, when the National Sporting Club starts a new season. He is at present matched with Charles Ledoux for the European title, but I am told that Stanley will be given first chance."

RECORD FOR RANGE BY LIEUT. ARCHIBALD

Saturday's shooting resulted in a new record for the St. John range of 104 points made by Lieut. Archibald. A. H. Chandler, of the City Club, was a close second with 108 out of a possible 108. The former record of 101 is held by Sergt. J. T. Downey, of the 62nd regiment.

Mr. Chandler and Lieut. Archibald both shot the Ross rifle with the B. S. A. No. 9 C. rear aperture sight, attached to the rifle by a special plate designed by Lieut. Archibald, which has been approved by the D. R. A. and is allowed in all matches.

GAMES THIS WEEK; GREEKS ARE CONFIDENT

The Marathons face this week in better position than they have occupied since the season opened, they have a good lead, are batting in fine style and playing the game every minute. The board of baseball this year far exceeds that of last season and naturally the patrons are well pleased. Charles, the new pitcher, has made a fine impression. The management have a string on Harrington and propose to keep the team at the winning speed, so that the rest of the season, with the other teams strengthening, should make sensational baseball.

The following is the programme for the week:

Monday—Bangor at Fredericton.
Tuesday—Bangor at St. John; Fredericton at Calais.
Wednesday—Bangor at St. John; Fredericton at St. Stephen.
Thursday—St. John at Fredericton; Bangor at Calais.
Friday—St. Croix at St. John; Fredericton at Bangor.
Saturday—St. Croix at St. John; Fredericton at Bangor.

In addition to the school children, those of the orphanages will be welcomed to the game with Bangor tomorrow on the local diamond. G. A. Reicker is providing a band and the youngsters should have a great afternoon. There will likely be others for the management plan on doing this now and again and on each occasion a band likely will be provided.

Mr. Tiffin and the I. C. R.

A Halifax despatch says:—At a recent meeting of the council of the Halifax Board of Trade regrets were expressed at Mr. Tiffin's retirement from the position of general traffic manager of the Intercolonial Railway, a position he has held since his appointment twelve years ago. During Mr. Tiffin's term of office his visits to Halifax were looked forward to, and at a number of conferences the board of trade has held with him he has always shown a disposition to meet any reasonable demand and to have had the interests of the maritime provinces at heart. It is understood that Mr. Tiffin has been appointed general freight agent at Toronto, and good wishes were generally expressed for him in his new office.

McGraw's Review of the Big Leagues

By JOHN J. MCGRAW, Manager of the Champion Giants. (Copyright, 1913, by John J. McGraw)

It is my duty to report that the Giants climbed to the top of the heap last week as a result of our four day battle with the Phillies, and that because of this fans have stormed me with this question: "Have you got the bug checked now?"

There has been an improved team and will make trouble. He has players with the pluck and sagacity of pennant winners outside of the pitching box.

Followers of baseball may think I am foolish to consider the Cubs and Pirates still to be contenders, but my reason for this belief is that they are both fighting ball clubs and better finishers than the Phillies.

It was largely the excellent pitching of the Giants, combined with some terrific hitting that reflected the falling confidence of the Philadelphia pitching staff.

With Mathewson and Marquard as they are at present, we can crowd any pitching that I have seen so far this season in the National League.

It is my opinion that the Philadelphia pitching staff will not be able to hold their own against the Giants in Philadelphia this year.

When he read this morning in the Standard a note to the effect that he had gone to Glace Bay to "make his future home" Dr. G. G. Melvin, medical health officer was very much surprised. STRUCK BY LIGHTNING; WICKHAM BARN SETS OTHER AFIRE
Both Destroyed Last Evening With a Loss of $2,000

Two barns owned by S. E. Golding at Wickham were destroyed by fire last night about 10.30 o'clock. The fire occurred during a terrific storm, during which one of the barns was struck by lightning. The fire quickly spread to the second barn and in spite of efforts to save them both were destroyed.

Fortunately there was time to save the machinery, cattle and horses, but the loss on the buildings will amount to $2,000, and there is no insurance. The fire was witnessed by the officers of the steamer Oconnee which was lying at the wharf and members of the crew lent their assistance in saving the contents of the barns.

Arthur McGuire Promoted By Canada Cement Co.

His many friends about St. John and through the maritime provinces will regret to learn of the removal of Arthur H. McGuire from his home in this city to Calgary, where he will be engaged with the Canada Cement Co. on their travelling staff. Mr. McGuire has been the representative of the company here for some time and has added to his already large number of friends since assuming that position, covering New Brunswick and P. E. Island for them.

His removal west is in the nature of a well deserved promotion, and he will be followed with the very best wishes from his native city, as well as his friends elsewhere.

DAUGHTER DESIGNS THE FRONTISPIECE FOR EDITION OF FATHER'S COMPOSITIONS

The fourth edition of Byron C. Tapley's musical work entitled "Marcia Italiana" has made its appearance. The design of the front space was executed from a pen drawing by his daughter, Miss Margaret Tapley, whose design for a badge for the Art Club of this city won the first prize. The same originality manifested in the badge design is also seen in evidence on the title page of the music, which takes the form of a general title for use for any of the ten works which Mr. Tapley has had accepted abroad in the foreign courts. It represents a statue of Miss Canada, a draped figure standing upon a square base, with a wreath of maple leaves adorning her head. The figure is placed in the foreground of a large scroll of original design. Miss Tapley has received many favorable comments upon the excellence of her work.

FOR FIRST TIME, KOREAN GIRL IS IN ST. JOHN TODAY

Accompanies Mrs. MacRae, Returned Missionary—Good News From St. John Workers in That Field

Probably the first Korean girl to set foot in Canada, certainly the first to visit St. John, passed through the city at noon today on the Montreal train, a nurse girl caring for the baby of Mrs. MacRae, returning missionary for Korea. Mrs. MacRae is the wife of Rev. Dr. Duncan MacRae, and is on furlough after a lengthy period of missionary service in Korea, and is now on her way to Baddeck, C. B., where she will be joined in a few months by her husband. Mrs. MacRae had her little baby with her and it was being carefully cared for today by the Korean maiden, a bright faced, smiling girl, who loves the child almost as if it were her own and who is happy in her charge.

A touch of local interest centres in the fact that Rev. A. E. Robb, of this city, and wife, and Miss Jennie Robb, are also engaged in the same field with Rev. Dr. and Mrs. MacRae, and she reported them today as being in good health and working zealously. She said there was much encouragement in the results being obtained by all. The little Korean girl, who looked not more than seventeen, had been educated by her parents, and made a Christian, and she brought her on this journey, the first and longest she had ever taken from her home in the province of Ham Kyung.

HARRINGTON ON WAY TO JOIN MARATHONS

The Marathons' management received word today that Joe Harrington, another good pitcher left Boston today for St. John to join the local team. The club is handicapped at the receiving end for a day or two. Ben's foot was injured by a ball, and part of one of the nails had to be removed yesterday. Watt's right hand is in bad shape because of injury, but he played a fine game on Saturday. The Greeks played seven games last week and won six of them; pretty good work, that.

FOUR MATTERS BEFORE PROBATE COURT TODAY

In the probate court today the will of Mrs. Eunice Maria Titus, was, was proved. She gives to her daughter, Ada A., wife of Peter McIntyre, $200; to her daughter, Ethel Isadora, wife of Joseph A. Moncton, railway employee, $300; to her daughter, Letitia Blanche, wife of Angus McLean, of St. John, ex capite, $500; to her son, Charles Wilbur Titus, $500; to her daughter, Beulah May, wife of Herbert J. McAvity, of Summersprings, the most-likely of the testatrix on her freehold premises, and to her said daughter the further sum of $800 and the further sum of $100 in trust to be used for the education of her daughter Otto Bernice; to Eunice Gertrude, daughter of her son, Frank Titus, $200; the rest of her estate to her daughter, Beulah May McAvity, and she nominates Letitia Blanche McLean and Charles Wilbur Titus as executors. They were accordingly sworn in as such. There is no real estate; personally $4,400. George H. V. Belyea is proctor.

The court took up the matter of the estate of Thomas James Graham, junior, laborer. He died intestate, leaving his wife, Mary Anne Graham, and two girls and one boy, Bridget Philomena, aged four; Mary Ursula, aged three, and Frederick John, aged one year. On the petition of the widow she was appointed proctor. There is no real estate; personally $100, besides $1,000 life insurance. Fred H. Taylor is proctor.

The matter of the estate of Mrs. Charlotte Ruddock was taken up. She died in 1912, and by her will nominated her husband, Andrew L. Ruddock and Charles A. Stockton, barrister, executors. The latter died before the testatrix; probate was issued to her husband, who died without having fully administered the estate. Administration de bonis non cum testamento annexo is now issued to her two daughters, Lottie B. and Annie E. B. Ruddock, they being the beneficiaries under the will. J. King Kelley, K.C., is proctor.

In the matter of the estate of Annie Eaton Moore, there was return of a citation to pass the accounts of Rev. Dr. Willard E. McIntyre and Peter McIntyre, executors. The accounts were gone into and found to be correct as filed and were accordingly passed and allowed. J. Roy Campbell is proctor.

THE POLICE COURT

Although all the officials and prisoners were on hand at ten o'clock this morning there was no business done until after twelve as Judge Ritchie was out of the city and did not arrive till the noon C. P. R.

Stephen Daley was brought before the Magistrate, charged by Annie O'Brien with using abusive language. From the evidence which was given in court it was apparent that the arrest was the outcome of a domestic quarrel in which complimentary epithets had been used freely on both sides. Daley was remanded.

A clean looking young sailor was also in court charged by Captain Hersey of the schooner C. J. Colwell with absconding himself from the vessel without leave. He was told that he must either return to the vessel or go to jail for eight weeks.

Two drunks were fined $8 or two months and one was remanded.

C. P. R. CHANGES
Winnipeg, July 7.—Though not officially announced, it is understood that General Superintendent, D. C. Coleman, of Winnipeg, will succeed General Superintendent Price of Calgary, and that Charles Murphy, superintendent of transportation of the C. P. R.'s eastern lines, will be offered the position vacated by Mr. Coleman. Should Mr. Murphy not accept, the position will likely be offered to A. E. Stevens, assistant superintendent at Vancouver.
