Ago-News Came Today. James H. Gosline, of the West Side, today received word of the death of his brother. Samuel H. Gosline, which oc-CIVIC PAY DAY.

This was pay day at City Hall and Chamberlan Samuel H. Gosine, which occurred almost a year ago at Winona, Miss. The delay in receiving the information was due to the fact that meither of the two families knew just where the other was, and the letter re-ceived here came indirectly. The late Mr. Gosline was a native of Havelock, and a carpenter by trade. He was married to Miss Holman, of Sussex, and had been residing in the United States for upwards of twenty-fivé years. Y. M. C. A. AFFAIRS.

The meeting of the board of direcevening, at which the question of a renewal of the lease of the Victoria Athletic grounds for the coming season was discussed. As the board desired some further information on the subject, it was decided to refer the matter to a special committee with the request that a report be made as soon possible. The committee consists of Frank White, G. E. Barbour and Give politics a rest and take a night off and attend the Conductors' and Mo-tormen's ice sports at Victoria Rink Monday next, Feb. 8th. There will be a whole field of fast skaters and an army of would-be-skaters entered in the several events. If you are fond of the several events. If you are fond of speed skating, you will see the records lowered. If you are fond of fun, you will see amateurs struggling to become fast ones, and if you can stand genuine surprises look out for the lightning skaters of the Railway Company. The programme is a long one, and is made to the stands of the sports. The enter of all kinds of the sports. tries embrace skaters who can skate, Don't forget the date, nor neglect the
