MILLIONAIRE SLUM WORKER NOW A SOCIALIST

Rev. J. G. Phelps Stokes Gives Reasons for His Conversion

Feels That Working People Are Not Getting a Fair Share of Their Product, and That They Are Oppressed by the Capitalists—Has Little Use for the Idle Rich—Will Band All His Efforts to Help His New Friends.

New York, July 12.—J. G. Phelps Stokes, the young millionaire who for several years has devoted himself to work in the slums of this city, has formally announced that he will cast his lot with the Socialist party. The announcement was made in a letter to the executive committee of the Independence League...

I have been long in perceiving clearly that there are two chief economic classes in America as elsewhere—those whose poverty compels them to produce more than they require for their own maintenance, and those whose wealth enables them to control and consume more than they produce and more than they render proportionate service in exchange for...

Capitalists' Injustice. I have learned but gradually the injustice of the situation which confronts the average worker. Hence and earnest men and women by hundreds of thousands suffer privation and want although surrounded by prosperity and plenty, and owe their sufferings chiefly to the monopolization of the land and of the machinery of production by the few exclusively for the purpose of private gain...

Long Believed in Socialism. I have long been a believer in the philosophy of socialism. Hitherto I have refrained from co-operating with the Socialist party, owing to the intense bitterness and ill-will manifested by many Socialists toward nearly all persons who approve and support the capitalist system...

SYNOD DEADLOCK OVER COADJUTOR'S ELECTION

Narrowed Down to Two Men

Archdeacon Neales and Canon Richardson Practically the Only Candidates in the Race—Eight Ballots Taken—St. John Rector Had the Necessary Majority of Laity—Will Try Again in October.

(Special to The Telegraph.)

Fredonction, N. B., July 12.—The appointment of coadjutor bishop for the diocese of Fredonction is still a question for the future, the synod this evening having adopted a resolution postponing action until the first Tuesday in October. Although eight ballots were taken during the day, the deadlock which resulted over the names of Ven. Archdeacon Neales and Canon Richardson could not be broken.

The effect of the decision is a complete vindication of Dreyfus, existing him to restoration to his rank in the army as though he had never been accused. Maitre Mornard, counsel for Dreyfus, arguing before the supreme court against a further trial, said many of the witnesses were dead or had disappeared. Dreyfus, he added, did not ask for damages. He desired only the vindication of his honor and the restoration of his name to the list of officers of the French army.

Canon Richardson. The results of the first and last ballots were as follows: Neales, first, 19-7; second, 27-12. Tucker, first, 2-2; second, 0-0. Coyne, first, 1-1; second, 0-0. Pentreath, first, 4-1; second, 1-0. Williams, first, 6-0; second, 1-0. Montgomery, first, 1-0; second, 1-1. Newnam, first, 1-0; second, 0-0. Bryan, first, 1-0; second, 0-0. Armitage, first, 2-3; second, 0-0. Richardson, first, 29; second, 25-31. Davenport, first, 0-0; second, 0-0.

Complete Vindication. Maitre Mornard, counsel for Dreyfus, arguing against a further trial, said many of the witnesses were dead or had disappeared. Dreyfus, he added, did not ask for damages. He desired only the vindication of his honor and the restoration of his name to the list of officers of the French army.

McCall's Estate Small. New York, July 12.—The net value of the estate left by the late John A. McCall, former president of the New York Life Insurance Company, was only $40,835, according to the report of the appraiser of the estate, which was filed in the surrogate's office today.

Discovered Forgeries. Colonel Piquart, when he became chief of the intelligence department of the French army in 1894, examined the documents in the proceedings against Dreyfus and formed the opinion that the evidence pointed to Major Count Esterhazy as being the guilty man. He discovered, however, that the documents were forgeries for which he was arrested and degraded, and that the friends of Dreyfus, who were in the habit of visiting him in his prison, had forged one of the incriminating documents and later committed suicide in prison.

Convicted Second Time. In the meanwhile the press throughout the world had been filled with stories of the barbarities to which Dreyfus had been subjected during his solitary confinement furthering his favor. The second court martial of Dreyfus was held at Rennes, France, Aug. 7, 1899, and he was sentenced to ten years' imprisonment in a fortress. Later he obtained a full pardon from President Loubet and was set free. The friends of the unfortunate captain, however, were not contented. They obtained fresh evidence in his behalf and finally got the case before the supreme court.

Everything Points to a Great Wheat Crop. Bull Clique Busy Sending Out False Reports of Rust in Northwest in Order to Market Their Large Holdings. (Special to The Telegraph.)

Winnipeg, July 12.—It has been known in grain circles here for some time past that powerful interests in wheat have formed a bull ring anxious to receive last night in order that they may unload their heavy holdings of wheat at a long profit. Every scrap of information of an unfavorable nature has been magnified and used to indicate that the rust was a widespread and ruinous stage was sent out. Vigorous measures were taken to at once properly inform the public on this matter and reports received last night from thirty-eight representative points throughout Manitoba and Saskatchewan indicate that the rust is a widespread and ruinous stage was sent out.

New York, July 12.—That a widow is entitled to be the beneficiary of her husband, although her husband's father may be named as beneficiary prior to the son's marriage, was today decided by the appellate division of the supreme court. The case was that of Catherine Davin, the widow, vs. Patrick Davin, the father, and the Knights of Columbus. The deceased, James Davin, was insured for $1,000 by the Knights of Columbus. STRUGGLE TO HOLD UP PENSION BILL USELESS

Conservative Senator's Obstructive Tactics Squelched by Speaker

Hon. R. W. Scott, in Moving Concurrence in Repeal, Declared That Canada Had Sanctioned the Principle of Retiring Allowances to Public Officials—Cites the Cases of Sir John Macdonald and Other Ministers Dying Poor—Senator Ellis Favors Paying Till Act Comes in Force.

(Special to The Telegraph.)

Ottawa, July 12.—At the afternoon sitting of the senate, Sir Richard Cartwright moved for the suspension of rules so that the pension bill might be proceeded with on second reading. In moving the second reading of the pension bill, Senator Landry objected that such a motion required twenty-four hours' notice in writing. The government had only in the morning given notice of the suspension of the rules, and then not in writing. The notice was insufficient, and could not be entertained until tomorrow.

Many Ministers Died Poor. Most of the men who had served Canada as ministers had retired from office poor. Sir John A. Macdonald, Sir George Carter and Hon. William McDougall owed the comfort of their last days to the bounty of their friends. That these and many similar cases had occurred was not to the credit of Canada. It would not be creditable if such cases were allowed to occur in the future.

Senator Landry denied this charge. He wanted the bill amended so the beneficiaries would get the pension they were entitled to from July 1 until the act came into force. Senator Gibson said there had been no money voted for such a purpose.

Senator Ellis expressed the opinion that the government had contracted an obligation and should respect it by paying the beneficiaries the pension they were entitled to from the date of the cancellation of the act. He was opposed to the pension, but thought this was only an honorable matter.

The senate adjourned until tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock.

TO STUDY TRADE CONDITIONS OF CANADA

British Commissioner Will Spend a Year in This Country. Mr. Grigg Non-committal About His Mission, But Intimates His Visit Is to See How Business Can Be Increased Between Britain and the Dominion. (Special to The Telegraph.)

Ottawa, July 12.—Richard Grigg, who has been commissioned by the British government to study trade conditions in Canada, reached Ottawa today. Mr. Grigg will spend from eight months to a year in this country. The chief purpose of his visit is to ascertain the best means of establishing British commercial agencies in Canada. Mr. Grigg himself throws no light on his mission; he is extremely courteous, but a reserved man. "I have just arrived enroute," he said, to a reporter, "and I cannot tell yet what course my work will take."

Mr. Grigg says the British government is always on the alert with regard to building up trade with Canada. Administration lies with the board of trade, the department over which David Lloyd George presides. Asked if it was the policy of the new government to pay more attention to Canadian trade, Mr. Grigg smiled and declined to give an opinion. "Ah, that's thin ice," he said.

Metcalfe, the Dramatic Critic, Loses His Suit for Being Denied Admission. New York, July 12.—That the manager and proprietor of a theatre has a right to say who shall enter his place of amusement and who shall not, his playhouse being a private and not a public place, is the gist of a decision handed down today in the appellate division of the supreme court.

The decision dismisses the complaint of James S. Metcalfe, the dramatic critic, against Charles Burnham, a member of the Theatre Managers' Association, for excluding Metcalfe from Burnham's theatre. Metcalfe charged that Burnham and other theatrical managers had entered into a conspiracy to prevent him from exercising his lawful calling.

REFLECTS SENATE

House Will Not Stand for Evasulation of Sunday Act

BILL SENT BACK

Clauses Respecting Express Companies, Lake and River Sunday Traffic Put Into Original Form—Will Not Permit Measure to Be Called Lord's Day Bill.

Ottawa, July 11.—When the Sunday observance bill was received back by the commons at 8 o'clock, Mr. Aylesworth moved that the amendment by the senate changing "Lord's day" to "Sunday," be not accepted. This was carried.

Mr. Aylesworth also moved that the striking out of "public," in the definitions of a provincial act, be not concurred in without being accompanied by the words "the charter of a municipality."

Mr. Aylesworth also asked the house not to concur in the amendment which permitted all kinds of "express matter" being carried, handled and dealt with on Sunday. He moved that "express matter" be struck out. If the amendment proposed the making up and dispatching of freight trains on Sunday. This was adopted.

Some of the minor amendments by the senate were concurred in. The words inserted in section 87 giving power to a territorial railway, was refused by Mr. Aylesworth, as it amended a principle of the statute.

As to the use of the word "require" instead of "permit" by the senate for a Sunday law, Mr. Aylesworth moved, because it might endanger the bill to strike out and send back to the senate.

The clause twelve, referring to the liability of a corporation which "directs or permits" its employees to carry on any part of its business on Sunday in violation of the statute, the senate struck out "or permits," weakening the clause. This was restored.

Mr. Aylesworth asked the house to concur in the amendment leaving the commencement of proceedings to the attorney-general of the province. The amendment carried in this, and returned the bill to the commons.

Senators May Kill Pension Relief.

The repeal of the pension act may be killed in the senate. Senator Landry opposed the bill on Sunday. He is not certain that the house will be able to pass the bill if it comes back to the commons.

ASSASSIN FATALLY WOUNDS CHOUKNIN, RUSSIAN TYRANT.

Admiral Had Been Sentenced to Death Twice for His Cruelty to His Sailors.

Sebastopol, July 11.—An attempt was made at 1 o'clock this afternoon to assassinate the Russian admiral, Chouknin, commander of the Black Sea fleet. The admiral was wounded and taken to a hospital.

Admiral Chouknin's condition is extremely serious. The bullet lodged in his lung, making breathing difficult. The doctors hold out no hope of his recovery.

The admiral's assailant is thought to be one of the crew of the battleship Orskoff and his act is supposed to be in revenge for the execution of Lieut. Schmidt, the revolutionary leader, Admiral Chouknin held himself captive by his sailors and at the time of the execution of Schmidt the revolutionists condemned him to death, 100 of them signed the death sentence.

This is the second attempt since Schmidt's execution March 19 of this year. The first attempt was made by a woman, and after her effort had failed, Admiral Chouknin ordered her to be killed on the spot and his orders were carried out. For this she was originally condemned to death by the revolutionists. His name was never mentioned among his crew on account of his overbearing and severe manner.

The tender of W. A. Oathorn for the restaurant privileges at the exhibition has been accepted.

REMARKABLE ESCAPE OF GEORGE WATSON, A NORTH END BOY

RESCUED WITH AID OF PIKE POLE

Hard Work Revives Lard After John Currie Gets Him To Surface, and He Was Sleeping Last Night Apparently Recovered—Fell Into Mud a Few Weeks Ago.

"Another minute and he'd have been all in."

So said John Currie, a man who saved George Watson, a North End boy, from drowning near Long wharf yesterday afternoon. The lad was under water at least ten minutes and when brought to the surface by a pike pole in the hands of Mr. Currie, he was to all appearances without life.

Late last night in his father's home in Moore street he was sleeping tranquilly, but earlier in the evening had occasioned his parents much anxiety. "I had one of the priests from St. Peter's church here, named Mr. Watson, for the boy was pretty sick. He was on the bottom for ten minutes."

Young Watson is fond of fishing and loves to roam around the timber pond and jetty of the wharf and wharf, when the tide was out, he fell off a wharf into the six feet limit of mud. The drop was about fifteen feet and, coughing up black mud encased with mud, he sculled home, and the following day was as hearty a youngster as ever.

About 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, with few clouds, he was perched upon Long wharf fishing. There was perhaps twelve feet of water beneath. Different stories as to how he lost his surface and how he got back have been told, but at all events he got above the surface and did not reappear.

His chumlike so many monkeys, clamored to see him, but he was not to be seen for a few minutes. The neighborhood knew that a tragedy was possibly impending.

To the Lad's Rescue.

Mr. Currie is employed in Sayre's mill at the head of the wharf. He seized his longest pike pole and sprinted for the place where the boy was last seen. He was not certain that Watson was directly beneath the spot where he had vanished. The boys had just seen him whirl down, heard a prodigious splash and then the water was as calm as before.

Mr. Currie commenced to feel around with the pole. A few guarded prows and presently something soft and yielding was touched. A desperate swim or so and whatever it was had been securely grasped.

The burden from the depths was the boy and to those who watched it looked like a bundle of straw. He was ashen and still. Gathering him up in his arms Mr. Currie carried him to the engine room and meanwhile Dr. J. P. McInerney was telephoned for, also the ambulance. The boy was stripped, rolled on a barrel and placed on a stretcher.

Mr. Currie has saved boys before and at his home in Main street Wednesday discussed his recent act of rescuing the boy. "One should take the trouble to refer to his exploits. 'Did I get the Watson boy? I saved him in the mud. 'Well how did you get him out? What did you do? 'Me? Oh, I just took the pole and fished him out. Why take all that trouble? He'd be another minute and he'd have been all in.'"

THREE ST. JOHN MACHINISTS WILL NOT BE DEPORTED.

Men Who Went to Work with Nail Company in Illinois are Exempt as Their Places Couldn't be Filled.

Washington, July 11.—Secretary McCall today rendered a decision in favor of three alien machinists who were imported from St. John (N. B.) to the Illinois Nail Company, who were held by the immigration authorities (Ill.) holding that they come under the exemption where labor of like kind unemployed cannot be found in the country. It was held that mechanics with requisite knowledge of the machines could not be found in this country.

FAMOUS INDIAN BLOWN INTO FRAGMENTS.

Washington, Pa., July 9.—Indignation has been aroused in Washington county by the destruction of the "Painted Rock" near Hillsboro. On the top of a hill rose a large stone, carved by Indians with figure of men, bears, wolves, snakes and all manner of animals. The rock was visited by thousands from all parts of the county. It stood on land owned by Joseph Horner, who became angered by the conduct of visitors Saturday and blew the historic altar into fragments with dynamite. Horner says he did it in self-protection, as his farm was being ruined.

Hundreds of learned men in the United States, England and France have examined the rock and have written about it in books designed to solve the origin of the North American Indians. For more than a century it has been considered one of the most important remains of the written characters of the Indians.

The Ladies Auxiliary, A. O. U., has elected the following delegates to the convention in Halifax: Mrs. George McArthur, Mrs. M. J. Cavanaugh, Mrs. E. Bacon, Mrs. J. H. MacArthur and Miss Kate Henshaw and Ella Neil.

ANGLICAN SYNOD MET TUESDAY

Standing Committee Recommends Appointment of Coadjutor Bishop

DEBATE ON IT WEDNESDAY

Salary to Be $2,500 a Year and Present Incumbent to Get $4,000—Reports from Different Parishes Encouraging—Resolution Carries to Aid Divinity Students at Denominational Colleges.

FredERICTON, N. B., July 10.—The thirty-eighth annual meeting of the diocesan synod convened in Church Hall with about one hundred delegates present. In the absence of Bishop Kingdon, through illness, Archdeacon Neales, of Woodstock, presided. Secretary Canon Newnam, in calling roll of the delegates gave out the information that Rev. L. A. Hoyt of St. John had been appointed a canon of the cathedral, which announcement was heartily applauded. The minutes of last meeting were read and the nominating committee appointed. The chairman delivered a brief address in which he referred feelingly to the severe illness of Bishop Kingdon and expressed the hope that he would be speedily restored to health. He stated that the Bishop had absolute confidence in the judgment of the synod to deal with matters coming before them.

Archdeacon Forsythe and Neales were appointed a committee to present an address to the bishop congratulating him on the twenty-fifth anniversary of his consecration as bishop, and this took place at four o'clock this afternoon.

At this stage members of the press were excluded and the standing committee presented a resolution which provided for the appointment of a coadjutor bishop at a salary of $2,500 per year. It recommended the salary of the coadjutor be $4,000 per year. The salary of $1,500 paid to the dean of Fredericton will be made up in other ways. The synod decided to deal with the report in open session tomorrow and the resolution was postponed. The report of the standing committee was taken up with hearing reports from various parishes and parishes.

Parish Reports.

The reports from several parishes were then read. Rev. E. Dobbie presented a report of the report for the parishes of Burton, Blissville, Gladstone, Maudslayi and Lincoln. He dwelt especially upon the condition of the parishes, which has been most encouraging of late. In this parish services have been held regularly, a class prepared for confirmation, a number of improvements made to the church property; $87 has been pledged by the church for missionary work, and $30 by the ladies. In the parish of St. George's, Mr. Duggan reported the condition of church work in general satisfactory.

Rev. J. E. Frawley told of a year of satisfactory work at Canterbury. All the church services have been well attended.

Archdeacon Forsythe reported an unfavorable year at Chatham, a year marked, however, by steady work. The various guilds have aided materially in the parish work. Archdeacon Forsythe felt keenly the death of Mrs. S. Hookton, daughter of George Burchill, jr. The parish, he said, also will meet the assessment of $203 placed upon it for missionary work, $164 for diocesan missions, $80 for Canadian and foreign missions.

Rev. T. W. Street, in reporting the year's work at the cathedral parish, made appropriate reference to the death of Dean Hartbridge. He spoke encouragingly of the state of the church work in the parish.

The report from Gasqueton was given by Rev. J. Spencer. It told of no events especially noteworthy in connection with the church work during the past year, but reported twelve months of steady activity.

Rev. Mansel Shewen, reporting for Greenwood, acknowledged generous gifts from friends of the work in St. John, Colchester and elsewhere.

Boils and Pimples

Red Rash, Eczema, in fact any skin disease, disfigures the complexion because the bowels are constipated—or because the kidneys do not rid the system of waste—or because the skin itself is unhealthy.

Ointments, salves and soaps are useless. Because the trouble is with the blood.

Owing to defective action of bowels, kidneys or skin, the blood becomes laden with impurities. It is these impurities—deposited by the blood—that make boils, pimples, and painful, disfiguring skin diseases, or because the trouble is with the bowels, kidneys or skin, that FRUIT-A-TIVES cure these diseases.

Will Record Spouses, Too.

Canon Newnam presented a resolution altering section 3 of canon XIX. It provides that canon may be changed in one month's notice instead of one year's notice, and that the resolution must be approved. On motion of Rev. Mr. McNeill it was decided that records of baptism in future should include names of sponsors.

Rev. Mr. Cowie presented a resolution to permit the board of education to grant financial assistance to divinity students attending collegiate institutions approved of the resolution. It provided for a young man who had been in the University of New Brunswick. He contended that his passage would be an injury to King's College and would establish a bad precedent.

Judge Hanington took strong ground against the resolution. He contended that it was designed to assist Fredericton young men who were students at the University of New Brunswick. He contended that his passage would be an injury to King's College and would establish a bad precedent.

Canon Richardson and Rev. Mr. Cowie pointed out that candidates for the ministry were more plentiful and it was only right that the church should assist deserving young men, even if they were students of an undenominational institution.

The resolution was carried by a vote of 34 to 17.

Rev. Canon Forsythe presented the report of the nominating committee, which was adopted.

This evening a very successful public meeting was held in the interests of the church missions. The speakers were Miss Elizabeth Scoville, who dwelt upon the work being done in the foreign mission fields; Miss A. K. A. who spoke on Canadian Missions, and Rev. Mr. Smithers, who spoke of the needs of New Brunswick mission fields. The speaker was listened to with the greatest interest.

MOTHER SURVIVED DAUGHTER ONLY A FEW HOURS.

Mrs. Clinton Cook Died Saturday and Parent Sunday—Daughter Who Nursed Latter Collapsed and is in a Critical State.

Dorchester, N. B., July 10.—The death of Mrs. Cook, wife of Capt. Clinton Cook, commander of the steam tug "Springhill," of Parrabrook (N. S.), for many years an honored resident of Dorchester, occurred Saturday. An absence of two or three days preceded two operations from which the patient did not rally. The funeral took place yesterday, interment occurring in the family lot in Parrabrook. Rev. F. M. Young, the pastor of the family, officiated, assisted by Rev. B. H. Thomas of Dorchester. Among those attending the funeral in Dorchester were Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Palmer, Robert Cook, Chas. Cole and others.

Since the demise of Mrs. Cook her aged mother, Mrs. Cole, wife of the late Wm. Cole, died at Capt. Clinton Cook's residence Sunday, where she had been living with her daughter. The body was brought to Sackville today and interment was made in the family lot in Parrabrook. What made the case especially sad, was the fact that she had nursed her daughter, who faithfully waited upon her mother until death came, collapsed and is now in the hands of two physicians and small hopes of her recovery are entertained.

Capt. Cook has the sympathy of hosts of friends in St. John, where he is a familiar figure in shipping circles, and in Dorchester, as well as in Parrabrook. Capt. Herbert Chambers has taken temporary command of the Springhill during the absence of Capt. Cook.

FOUR CANNED MEAT PRODUCTS PRETTY BAD

Massachusetts Board of Health Examines 150 Different Kinds

Potted Ham Samples Contained Some Tough Ingredients and Devilled Ham Was Similar—Famous Brand of Boned Chicken Wrongly Named—Western Manufacturers Worse Than Eastern—Smaller Slaughter Houses Need Many Reforms.

Boston, July 11.—In order that the general public of Massachusetts may know the truth with regard to the nature of the canned meat products which are sold in this state, the state board of health today made public the result of an investigation which it has been conducting into this matter. The board caused to be collected and examined nearly 150 different kinds of canned meat, from every possible source. The examinations included tests not only as to the presence of chemical preservatives, but also as to the actual materials used in "potted" and "devilled" meats and "loaf." In a general way the results of the investigation are favorable to the manufacturers, both in the east and in the west, but it was found that many of the preparations contained a large amount of foreign matter. Of one brand of potted ham, prepared by a western firm, the report states:

law enacted by congress March 3, 1891, relating to the inspection of meats." The board says: "Most of the specimens of canned chicken examined proved to be of excellent quality; some were fair, and some were distinctly inferior, both in appearance and color." Of one brand of boned chicken which has been widely advertised as of the highest quality the report says:

"The large establishments were found to be conducted in all particulars in a sanitary and clean manner. One establishment, for example, there is a force of sixty to seventy men who begin cleaning the establishment from top to bottom as soon as the day's work is done. Of twenty-five smaller establishments, only five were found to be entitled to grade 'excellent.' Judging from the returns submitted, the great majority of slaughter houses in the small towns would be found to be conducted without regard to ordinary cleanliness. In the small establishments (the offal and blood are thrown below to the swine. When one considers the susceptibility of swine to infection through tubercular matter, one may easily question the advisability of feeding swine on whatever entrails, whether from healthy or diseased animals, are dumped at hand, and then killing them later for human food and selling without proper inspection."

"In most of the smaller establishments in the country, the chief business is the slaughtering of calves, many of which are diseased and make 'hot' veal." "Several brands of prepared meats were found to contain either borax or borax as a preservative. One western 'chicken loaf' contained a sharp taste of either borax or borax. The label states that it is 'made with the best quality of meat,' but is carefully selected and inspected according to the standard of excellence."

Cattle and Perishable Freight Can be Unloaded—Lake Vessels Can Carry Grain But Not Ore—Can Hire Horses, and Many Other Things Permitted.

Ottawa, July 10.—At the afternoon sitting of the senate, Hon. Mr. Scott said that Senator Gibson's amendment providing for unloading perishable freight and live stock at points of destination belonged to agriculture and was suggested by the amendment was heard. On motion of Senator Watson an amendment was made to the words 'railway' and 'road' in the clause 'necessary to keep its lines and tracks open.' This amendment is explained by the fact that it is intended to keep trains moving during a snow storm. This was often necessary to prevent a tie-up. Senator David protested against the limits of the clause allowing ocean-going vessels to load and discharge on Sunday in case of emergency. The permission should be extended to the 'ocean-going vessels' and 'lake vessels' carrying grain. Otherwise (Canadian) would send their grain out by Buffalo. Canadian shippers would not run the risk of a day's delay by using the Canadian route. The senator moved that the words 'ocean-going vessels' be dropped. This would permit all 'ocean-going vessels' to load and discharge on Sunday in case of emergency. Hon. Mr. Scott thought this would open the door too wide for inland craft on Sunday. He moved that the exception be made for 'ocean-going or grain-carrying vessels' only. The amendment was adopted.

TERRIFIC ELECTRICAL STORM IN BOSTON

Deluge of Rain and Hail Stones—One Man Killed—Many Buildings Struck

Boston, July 10.—A sultry and oppressive summer afternoon was brought to a close by a terrific electrical storm. For more than an hour Boston and the surrounding cities and towns were the centre of a most disastrous deluge of rain, and in some cases, a high wind, and in some cases, a fall of hailstones. The storm broke shortly after 4 o'clock. In the city two buildings were struck by lightning, and one man was killed by lightning, and one man was killed by lightning.

Winston Churchill Coming

Montreal, July 10.—Winston Churchill is arranging to spend the summer recess visiting Canada. His call during the last week in July. It is hoped that Lord Elgin, the colonial secretary, will soon follow suit for though born at Monklands, Montreal, he knows nothing of modern Canada. He is not likely, however, to arrange to be in Canada for autumn. Winston Churchill will probably have the stage all to himself, as the late autumn in Canada in the late autumn, as is hoped, Lord Elgin will probably accompany him, also Lord Strathcona. Court circles are keeping the several relations as always and respecting the king's intentions.

To Organize Canadian Labor Party

The plans for a full British labor delegation to Canada this autumn have been frustrated by the autumn session of the British parliament but it is probable that Henry Macdonald, one of the most influential of labor members who is the originator of the labor victories here, will visit Canada in August on his own account. It was the intention of the British labor party to organize a full British labor party in Canada in the late autumn, as is hoped, Lord Elgin will probably accompany him, also Lord Strathcona. ST. JOHN N. B., JULY 14, 1906

ON THE WEST SIDE
The west side of the harbor is at present a greater centre of interest than for a long time past, owing to the important developments pending or in progress.

There is first the new steamship berth, which is not making as rapid progress, for various reasons, as the citizens would like to see. As yet the dredging for the berth is not completed, and no tenders have been asked for the construction of the warehouses. The question of an additional berth has been entirely set aside for the present, but must be long before taken up again.

Then there are the improvements which the C. P. R. desire to make out of its elevator, including a depot and other facilities for handling immigration business; and which are awaiting the word of the city, which in turn awaits word from Ottawa.

There is also the street railway extension, which is now practically in progress, and awaits the determination of the route of further extension.
There is also the dry dock to be considered, and the relation of it to the other works in progress or now contemplated.
Along with all these is the concern felt for the safety of North Rodney wharf and part of Union street, in connection with the dredging operations.
These are busy days, and no doubt somewhat anxious ones for the mayor and aldermen, for responsibilities and the need of prompt decision press upon them and demand their most thoughtful attention and carefully-considered action.

tionery and postage, $25; total, $285. Subtracting this from his salary of $700, there is $415 left. Note his comment: "My family consists of self, wife and five daughters. One is being trained as nurse in one of the American hospitals, costing me $35 per annum, leaving me a balance of $380 to clothe, feed, etc., a family of six. The clergyman is expected to subscribe to Sunday offerings and to all things going in the parish; expected to make a decent appearance, to exercise hospitality, and, sir, all on $380 per annum. What chances have men like myself to educate children, or to clothe the family in any way decently? Consequently my wife and grown-up daughters are judges—washing, scrubbing, sewing, mending, turning old clothes into wearable things; never a change from home, hardly ever a day's pleasure. As for myself I have to be Jack of all trades—sawing and splitting wood, attending to furniture, to stable, helping indoors, mending boots, cultivating a few vegetables, etc. My Sunday work consists of four services and three sermons, and driving some miles."

Such a statement gives force to the comment of the News, which says: "It is, perhaps, true to say that the teachers, the preachers, the philosophers—those who disseminate learning and religion—have seldom been handicapped by too great worldly prosperity. And it is just as true that most of them have led lives of small pinches and small savings; obscure lives, harassed by debt and straitened by the painful response of a constituency intent mainly on the material things of time and place. This is as true today as ever."

The conditions in Ontario do not differ from those in this province. A comparatively small number of clergymen receive fair salaries; the majority do not. The remedy lies with the people.

THE LATE JUDGE MORSE
In the death of Judge Morse, of Amherst, the province of Nova Scotia has lost a man who possessed much valuable knowledge of the early history of the province. Born at Amherst, of Lowell parents, and spending much of his life near the site of ancient Beau Sejour, his natural bent was stimulated by his surroundings and associations. It was very interesting on an occasion some years ago when excursions from Moncton and Amherst met at the site of the old French and later English fort to hear Judge Morse's address on historic incidents associated with the grassy mounds where the people had met to enjoy a summer holiday.
Judge Morse was educated at Horton and Seckville Academy, and studied law under the late Sir William Young. He was called to the bar in 1850, and practiced in Halifax, in partnership with the late Hon. S. L. Shannon. In 1868 he was appointed judge of probate for Cumberland and in 1876 was made county court judge of Cumberland and Pictou. In 1872 he unsuccessfully contested Cumberland for a seat in the house of commons, as a supporter of Hon. Joseph Howe. Judge Morse was descended from two of the oldest families in Nova Scotia.

THE DOUMA'S PROBLEM
There is an international significance in the present struggle in Russia over the question of the ownership of the land.
"It may seem," says the New York Journal of Commerce, "to be a matter which concerns Russia alone whether the land still in the hands of the nobles, the church and the crown shall be divided among the land-hungry peasants, with or without compensation to its present owners; but it happens that the ability of the Russian government to meet its obligations depends on the annual yield of the soil, and that if peasant ownership worked no better than it has done, Russia would be quickly reduced to bankruptcy with all the direful results to the rest of the world which a financial default of its government would imply."
It is pointed out that even if an equitable expropriation and distribution of lands were possible, the new owners would be without working capital, and the present agricultural system would be utterly disorganized. A mere addition to the number of peasant farms would not solve the problem. Moreover, it is asserted the bulk of the farming population is rude, unskilled, and too indolent to take immediate advantage of its opportunities. What the landlords now have done would not, in other words, be done, at the outset, by the peasants themselves, and the result would be a reduction in the export trade, and the financial embarrassment of the country. We quote again:—"It would seem, therefore, that the first step toward an intelligent solution of the agrarian problem would be the improvement of the peasants' methods of agriculture. These must be raised at least to the level of the landlords, since if the estates of the latter are to be lowered to the level of the peasants, Russia must become insolvent. That the yield of the Russian soil is an extremely poor one has been demonstrated time and again by competent investigators on the spot. For example, it has been found that the average yield of wheat per acre for the five years previous to 1900 was 8.20 bushels in European Russia, against 31.31 in the United Kingdom, 24.17 in Germany, 24.3 in Sweden. In rye the showing was 10.12 bushels for Russia, 21.36 for Sweden, and 18.34 for Germany. In barley the Russian yield was 11.90 bushels, against 24.01 for the United Kingdom, 26.70 for Germany, and 21.98 for Sweden, while in oats Russia shows 15.16 bushels per acre, against 39.66 for the United Kingdom, 31.71 for Germany and 29.49 for Sweden. It thus appears that the yield of the Russian soil is less than half that of the soil of her neighboring states, and equal to only about one-third that of English farms. Unfortunately the Russian peasants possess the worst part of the methods that their slovenly and shiftless methods combined with the pressure of a grinding taxation fully account for their constant struggle with famine. It is only a few years ago that the St. Petersburg Woodmen, edited by Prince Uchomskiy, the friend of the Czar, brought the following indictment against the existing system: "Russia is chronically starving. . . . The people in the country, young and old, labor with all their force, but all their exertions do not suffice to satisfy the requirements of the state and of those who live on the labor of the peasants. . . . There is but one way toward a brighter future, and that is the delivery of the people from the yoke of the bureaucracy. . . . The statement last quoted shows the need of reform, but if the peasant is incompetent, a mere division of the land would not make him a progressive and economical producer. He must be taught to make the land yield larger returns, by more intelligent and energetic labor, or his possession will be of no value to him or the country. . . . The land problem facing the Douma is therefore a most complex and serious one. Naturally the peasants, finding their present state unendurable, seek the apparent remedy of an immediate division of the land, and one can readily sympathize with their feelings; but the real test lies in their ability to do more with the land than has been done under the existing system."

CIVIC SQUABBLES
It is most unfortunate that there should be any friction between the mayor and any of the aldermen at a time when matters of vital importance to the city are under consideration, as at the present time.
Without discussing the merits of the controversy it is fair to offer some remarks on the manner of it, as illustrated by the board of works Wednesday. The mayor believed it would be in the interests of the city for himself and Ald. Leckhart to proceed to Ottawa. He sent a communication to that effect to the board of works. The board ordered the communication filed, without suggestion of comment or reply. Such gross discourtesy to the chief magistrate of the city is surely rare. Indeed the board itself must have come round to this view, for later it amended its previous action. Later in the meeting a communication was read, asking that certain work be done. The mayor wrote on the margin that he had visited the place, and thought the work asked for should be done. Thereupon a member asked what the mayor had to do with it. Surely, if the mayor takes enough interest in civic affairs to go around and inform himself personally regarding any proposition, he ought to be granted the privilege of saying what he thinks, and the courtesy of a fair hearing. The board is not competent to accept his views, but it should surely treat them with respect. The mayor's activity is not with harmful intent, even if at times ill-judged. Let us have peace.

THE MARITIME BOARD
Doubtless the St. John board of trade will be well represented at the annual meeting of the maritime board, which will open its session in Amherst on Aug. 15. Amherst is easy of access, and is, because of the extent of its manufacturing industries and its general growth, an exceptionally interesting place to visit.
There is always a stimulus in the contact with active, progressive and successful men—the men who do things. Amherst has many citizens of that class, or she would not today occupy so proud a position among the industrial centres of these provinces.
Then there are topics of general interest to be considered at those meetings, as well as some that relate to localities. It is profitable for business men to come together, get each other's point of view, and establish a friendly relationship between localities.
The great interest in the west at the present time makes it all the more necessary for maritime men to get together and deliberate on measures calculated to be of joint benefit to these provinces.
For many reasons, there should be a largely attended and representative meeting of the board, and St. John should send a large delegation.

MINISTERS' SALARIES
The Baptist convention will do well if it is able to fix a minimum salary for ministers that will ensure them a comfortable living, without constant worry about meeting necessary expenses. The scale of salaries especially for preachers on the smaller circuits, is too low. Much is expected of a minister. He should at least be provided in return with a fair stipend. The following editorial in the Ottawa Journal is right to the point:—"Rev. J. A. Shaw, Anglican minister at Penagville in the Ottawa diocese, has notified the bishop of the diocese that he has decided to retire from the priesthood because he cannot support his family fairly on $800 a year. . . . We congratulate Mr. Shaw. He has been getting more money than most clergymen. But he has not been getting half what any clergyman should. It is a disgrace to the members of any Christian denomination that any of their clergy should lack means to maintain a comfortable household, and to do justice to the physical and intellectual needs of a family fit so responsible a position. . . . There never was a time when Christian ministers were, on the whole, properly paid. Of late years, the cost of living has increased out of all proportion to the increase in the scale of ministerial stipends, and it is high time that a new idea of this question took hold of Protestant congregations of all denominations."

A GREAT CHANGE
Referring to the fact that over a million immigrants arrived in the United States last year, the largest record for twelve months in the country's history, the New York American early observes:—"Many will be disappointed in the outcome of their venture—pitifully so—for the United States is no longer the industrial Aroclia it once was, and the conditions of life for working people fall far short of the glowing word-pictures of the steamship agents. Time was that this nation could offer to almost every new citizen a homestead—a chance to make it a future means of livelihood for all his family. That time is past!"

Possibly the American, which goes on to denounce the trusts and land-grabbers, takes too gloomy a view of the situation, but the contrast between the opportunities of home seekers years ago in the United States and those of today is undoubtedly very great. As Sir Wilfrid Laurier has observed, this is Canada's century.

IRON AND STEEL
In parliament the other day Hon. Mr. Paterson gave figures of bounties paid on iron, steel and steel rods in recent years. Figures for iron and steel were:

	Iron	Steel
1897	$1,222,222	$1,236,000
1898	1,200,000	1,250,000
1899	1,250,000	1,250,000
1900	1,250,000	1,250,000
1901	1,250,000	1,250,000
1902	1,250,000	1,250,000
1903	1,250,000	1,250,000
1904	1,250,000	1,250,000
1905	1,250,000	1,250,000
1906 (11 months)	1,250,000	1,250,000

The bounties on steel rods have only been granted for a few years, and are as follows:

	Steel rods
1904	$5,573,000
1905	5,573,000
1906 (11 months)	2,734,400

These figures are eloquent of growth in the production in Canada of the articles named. With the great development in progress along other lines there will of course be a continuous increase in the production of iron and steel.

THE PUBLIC DOMAIN
The successful prosecution of the western land thieves has been described as one of the notable achievements of the Roosevelt administration. It cost some high officials their positions, led to the arrest and conviction of hundreds of persons who were deliberately swindling the United States government, and landed not a few of them in jail. Several of the interior department were prosecuted, the case with unending delay. The following despatch of July 5 shows how severe was the punishment meted out to the guilty:—"Peter Melrum, former United States surveyor general for the district of Oregon, was today sentenced to pay a fine of $250 on each of twenty-one counts and to serve sixty days imprisonment at hard labor on each of eighteen counts in the Federal penitentiary at McNeil's Island (Wash.), for conspiracy to defraud the United States government in connection with land deals in this State."
Canada may learn some useful lessons from her neighbor. This country has entered upon an era of enormous expansion. There will be legitimate opportunities to acquire great wealth, but there will also be opportunities and temptations to acquire it by methods not legitimate. Therein lies the danger.

NOTE AND COMMENT
Vacation days for men; busy season for fish—New York American.
Amherst will have better streets. It is one of the most enterprising of Canadian towns.
The acquittal of Admiral Rojostevsky by the court martial is in line with public sentiment abroad, regarding the personal conduct of that officer.
Justice, long delayed, has at last been done in the Dreyfus case. The famous because so much injured soldier has been fully vindicated, and his rank restored.
A despatch states that a German financial house has secured the controlling interest in a large woolen mill in Ontario. Canada is becoming an attractive field for foreign capital.
A New York paper explains the fact that congress had nearly 4,000 laws to the number on the statute books in this way:—"It's so much easier to pass new laws than to enforce the old."

The pension act has been repealed by the parliament at Ottawa. Mr. Redding agreed with Mr. Foster in defending the principle of the bill, but contended that it was in advance of public opinion.
With the prices that have ruled for cheese thus far this season the Canadian factories and farmers must have been doing a good business. Twelve cents for Ontario cheese in Montreal in July is a remarkably good price.
The task of choosing a coadjutor bishop has proved too much for the synd. It was not that there were no available candidates, but that opinion was divided as to their merits, and each party held tenaciously to its preference.
Some Armenian outrages perpetrated by Turkish troops are reported. The announcement does not arouse as much indignation as similar statements did some years ago. Not that the world owes a Turk more, but it knows the Armenian better.
"New Zealand's premier," says the New York American, "visited President Roosevelt, although it is unlikely that he can help us in any way. In New Zealand the country is run for the people, not for the monopolies, and consequently it can never, according to our wise men, be truly prosperous."
It is really unkind that toward the close of a strenuous session of parliament the Hamilton Times should make those uncalled-for observations:—"The Torrey-Alexander revival campaign in Ottawa is over. The results have been figured up, and the evangelists have received their hire and departed. Among the conversions reported are those of many young men and one pugilist. But we look in vain for the returns from the House of Senate. Perhaps the evangelists made no effort to reach these. They may have thought that they did not need conversion. We hope they did not consider them beyond redemption."

The New York American of Tuesday says: "First day registration for the vacation schools showed surprising gains over last year. It was found yesterday that 12,493 children had registered for the summer classes of the fifteen institutions in Manhattan, and 8,818 for the thirteen of Brooklyn and Queens."
If there existed anywhere a feeling that Mr. Joseph Chamberlain had passed into the background in British or imperial politics to remain there, there is food for reflection in his speech of Wednesday, in the course of the Congress of Chambers of Commerce, and in the statement of Lord Northcliffe in Montreal this week.
Senator McMillan told the senate on Wednesday evening that the Intercolonial Railway should be controlled and managed by a commission. The senator has doubtless been doing in the east what he has not done in the west, statement of the minister of railways relative to the finances of the railway.
The west declares that it will require more harvest hands this year than last. As the acreage in wheat is larger, the statement is doubtless true. Of those who go from the east, some remain in the west, a considerable number of able-bodied and intelligent young men.

The old-age pension commission appointed by the Australian government have made their report, and recommend that such pensions be provided throughout the commonwealth, the maximum to be $2.43 per week, which, it is estimated, will require $7,290,750 per annum. The commission recommended that an old-age pension bill be introduced into parliament carrying out their plans.
It is perhaps significant that the first resolution presented to the Congress of Chamber of Commerce of the Empire should be that of the Montreal board of trade in favor of preferential trade within the empire. In offering reciprocity to the United States, the premier of New Zealand has provided one text for the advocates of the resolution.

A committee of English clergy at Morecambe recently organized the Church Socialist League, to bring the church into closer touch with the working people, "recognizing the value of men's bodies and bodily needs, as well as their souls and spiritual needs." It is stated that sympathetic letters from the Bishops of Manchester and Birmingham were read. The tendency of the movement is, as the same implies, socialistic.

In the house of commons yesterday Dr. Daniel called attention to the overcrowded state of the St. John post office, and Hon. Mr. Lemaire stated that he would look into the matter at the very earliest opportunity. This is good news. The St. John post office is overcrowded, ill-lighted, and ill-ventilated, and its sanitary condition is not all that could be desired. The minister will find on careful inquiry that there is great room for improvement.

ZION CHURCH MATTERS
The following with regard to Zion church matters has been handed The Telegraph:—"A few words concerning a certain petition that was presented to the recent conference, the prayer of which was not complied with, may not be deemed out of place. We have declined saying anything for the press, but in view of the efforts which have been made to induce persons to leave the church, justice demands our silence should be broken. Of the 96 names on said petition, 67 are either connected with our city church, or of their church affiliations we know nothing. . . . None of these are either members of the church, or contributors, and of the balance only four contribute weekly by envelope. It is true five or six have given up their pews, but this is not a matter of church concern. By others. Of one fact special note should be taken, some of the names on the petition are not genuine. Thanking you for your space, I remain, as ever, yours truly,
"ARTHUR C. POWERS,"
"Recording Secretary."

Sabbath Observance
The question of Sabbath observance is attracting the greatest attention throughout Scotland. David Dewar, the chief constable of Dundee, has just given some interesting details as to Sunday observance in Scotland during his examination before the joint committee of the lords and commons, which is considering the Sunday closing bills of Lord Avebury and of Cameron Corbett. The first startling piece of testimony offered by Chief Constable Dewar, who favors Cameron Corbett's bill, was that out of the total inhabitants of Dundee, 161,173, no fewer than 83,363 live in houses of two apartments; the second, that the female excess of the male population is annually taking from the west, which is annually taking from the west, a considerable number of able-bodied and intelligent young men.

CASE DEVELOPED
INTERESTING POINTS
Why Mr. Tufts Registered Assumed Name in Amherst Hotel—Matter Before Judge Landry.
The application of Leonard B. Tufts for a subpoenaed in the matter of James E. Humphreys, of Petkofcaud, vs. Leonard B. Tufts, was heard yesterday afternoon before Mr. Justice Landry, and adjournment made until Friday morning at 10 o'clock.
Mr. Humphreys had, some days ago, on application to Mr. Justice Landry, secured a warrant under the aliasing district one act against Mr. Tufts, and this warrant Mr. Tufts now seeks to have superseded, claiming that he was not an absconding or a concealed debtor.
J. A. Curry, K. C., and E. T. C. Knowles appeared for Mr. Tufts; M. G. Ford, K. C., represented Mr. Humphreys; C. N. Skinner, K. C., and H. H. Pickett watched the proceedings for the Bank of New Brunswick, and Weldon & McLean for a Nova Scotia creditor.
Mr. Curry read to the court the affidavit of C. S. Hannington, barrister; Sheriff Preece, of Kings county, and Sheriff Ritchie, of St. John county, and of James E. Humphreys, the petitioning creditor, all sworn to on June 20, and contended that the affidavit of Mr. Hannington, which was defective in that it did not show sufficient facts for his belief that Mr. Tufts had departed from the province with intent to defraud his creditors.
Mr. Tufts was then called and swore that he had not been in Boston, as alleged in the affidavit, but that he had gone to Amherst on Monday, June 11, by the 11:30 train, on business; that he had not concealed himself in Amherst, but had attended at his office there; that he left Amherst on Thursday, July 21, at 2:15 a. m., and left the train at Hampton on account of very serious illness in his family; that he stayed at home all day Thursday; that Sheriff Preece called on him Thursday night and then was the first time he was aware of process having been taken out against him.
Cross-examined by Mr. Ford, the witness said that on his arrival at Amherst he had gone to the Excelsior hotel, where he registered under the name of L. H. or L. B. Smith, St. Andrews (N. B.). He had not attempted to disguise his hand writing in the register, and his reason for registering under an assumed name, he said, was that he wished to conceal his identity from a person stopping at the hotel, whom he had had trouble over a contract. His reason for staying in his room until noon was that he needed sleep after his journey. His assent, he stated, to the present time balance his liabilities, but he admitted that at the time of his departure from St. John, there was at least $2,700 of overdue paper which he was unable to pay. His trip to Amherst was for the express purpose of making arrangements to take him over the crisis. He had, he said, hypothesized some of the Willett lumber to the Bank of New Brunswick soon before his departure from the city, but had done so chiefly for the purpose of loading some schooners, the proceeds of which he accounted to the bank.
On Friday morning the bank will produce the hypothecation orders.

WANT FRENCH PRIESTS AND BISHOPS
French Catholics of New England Reported as Planning Movement.
Worcester, July 10.—At a convention of the Denier de St. Pierre Society, which will be held at Woonsocket (R. I.) Sept. 25, an aggressive movement will be set in motion by French Roman Catholics throughout New England for the purpose of securing for that race French priests and bishops in the Catholic dioceses of New England.
The society, the membership of which is confined to French Roman Catholics, is particularly strong throughout New England. A prominent member of the society was quoted today as saying that, although the French-speaking people are in the majority in many parishes and in some dioceses in New England, there are few French priests. The claim is made that, although these French Catholics are responsible for the religious transformation of New England, they have been ignored in the question of representation in church councils.
A further move to support their demand, and to show the strength of the French Catholics will be made, it is said, when the annual Peter's Pence collection is taken up. Instead of contributing their funds through the ordinary channels to be forwarded to Rome, it has been proposed to have agents of the society make an independent collection for the Pope's fund, and to forward it to Rome as a contribution from the French Catholics. Such action, it is said, would materially diminish the size of the French fund which is annually collected in New England, and would demonstrate to the papal authorities the necessity of French bishops and priests throughout New England.

How Her Voice Returned
The Castoroth Banner tells a good story:—"During a stay of some weeks in Port Eglis, Miss Norma Simpson gradually lost the power of speech, and when she returned to Castoroth a few days ago she could speak only in a very faint and indistinct whisper. The loss of her voice, without apparent cause, was rather remarkable, but the return of speech and the means used to that end are perhaps more remarkable. On the return home of the young lady she consulted Dr. McCullough. The doctor, without giving any intimation of his method, gave the patient a stipend and unexpected job with a pin. The result was a loud exclamation, and the return of the voice, which has been first case ever known."

UNITED BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

Father Nobles Here, Venerable Clergyman Speaks of His Coming to the Association Meeting—Women's Societies Hold Meeting and Decide in Favor of Uniting.

A ministers' conference Tuesday afternoon and an evangelistic service in the evening marked the opening of the United Baptist Association meetings in Brussels street church.

At the ministerial conference in the afternoon in Brussels street church the services were mostly devotional. Rev. H. A. Grant, of Petitois, who was elected moderator, presided. Rev. J. W. LeFlore, of Woodstock, was chosen secretary of the association for the ensuing year.

There was a large congregation at the evangelistic service in the evening. On the platform, besides the leader, Rev. H. A. Grant, were Rev. J. W. LeFlore, Rev. J. B. Daggott, and Rev. J. W. LeFlore, of Woodstock, who was elected moderator, presided.

The speaker exhorted his hearers to hold and narrowly contend for the faith which they have once professed. He said, "There is no man going in." These words are from Paul's first Epistle to the Corinthians—a prophetic utterance, who put too much stress on outward appearance. They were disputing over the merits of the different apostles who had preached the gospel to them.

Paul in this message emphasized the fact that all things belong to the believer in Christ. The apostles are there and instead of disputing over their several gifts and graces they ought to thank God for the death they were the means of preaching to them. The word belongs to the Christian as well as life and all the manifestations of life in the world are the result of the work of Christ.

Rev. Dr. Joseph McLeod, Moderator. The reverend gentleman said that extremes meet and when it is inferred that the interpretation of scripture is left to the individual, we are verging near the position of the Romanist.

The preacher made further reference to the truth of the gospel as set forth by St. Paul, touching on many of the important doctrines of the faith, stating that there were so-called churches today who denied the virgin birth.

Rev. J. B. Daggott, assistant recording secretary. James Patterson, St. John, treasurer. E. M. Sippell, St. John, auditor. Rev. Dr. McLeod called the meeting to order at 2:30. After roll call of the ministers, it was decided that the election of officers should be conducted by ballot without nomination.

At this stage of the proceedings, Rev. F. M. Young, of Paris, and Rev. W. L. Archibald, of Acadia, Rev. G. M. Campbell, of Queen square Methodist church; Prof. C. C. Jones, of Acadia, and Colonel J. Melrose, of Truro, were invited to take seats in the association.

Rev. J. W. LeFlore then called the roll of delegates and balloting for moderator and assistant moderator was held. The choice of the association for moderator was Rev. Dr. Joseph McLeod, of Fredericton; Rev. Wellington Camp, of LeFlore street church, was assistant moderator. The other officers were then elected by nomination.

The moderator announced that the terms of three members of the executive—Rev. G. O. Gats, Rev. D. Long and Rev. D. Hutchinson—will expire this year. It was decided by ballot to re-nominate them.

The following resolution was adopted: "Resolved, That the United Baptist Association now in session, having heard the report of the executive committee, do hereby resolve to re-nominate them."

A discussion on the manner of appointment of the members of the home mission board was precipitated by the introduction of a resolution by Rev. Mr. Prosser. This provided that the members of the board should be appointed by the committee of three, the chairman of which committee, shall be a member of the provincial synod.

As an amendment Rev. Dr. W. E. McIntyre moved that the nominating committee of the association be authorized to appoint a committee of three from each district and five more from the district adjacent to St. John. This will make the membership of the home mission board fifteen.

The report of the United Baptist home mission committee of New Brunswick was read and approved. The committee on arrangements reported this morning's programme as follows: From 7:30 to 8:30, devotion, address, and reports by Rev. E. A. Allaby, of Fredericton; Rev. J. W. LeFlore, of Woodstock, and Rev. Dr. Joseph McLeod, Moderator.

which proved very satisfactory, was read and approved. This showed that in the district of New Brunswick there are 302 churches, with a membership of 28,998. A few churches have not reported. The increase during the year is 1,067 by baptism, 222 on experience and 383 by letter.

Much Business in Afternoon. Yesterday afternoon's session of the association was marked by the dispatch of a great deal of business. A resolution expressing the sympathy of the body with the cause of temperance and provincial prohibition was passed without a dissenting voice. A great many reports were also received during the session.

Perry, No. 7, Rev. W. H. Perry, No. 8, L. E. Goddard; No. 9, Rev. A. E. Wall; No. 10, John Moran; additional five members of the committee to be elected from the vicinity of St. John, Rev. W. E. McIntyre, F. R. Emmons, Rev. P. E. Smith, Rev. A. J. Prosser and Rev. J. W. LeFlore.

Advocacy Committee. Rev. Dr. McLeod, Rev. Dr. McIntyre, Rev. D. Long, Rev. David Hutchinson and Rev. C. T. Phillips. Temperance Committee. Rev. E. J. Weiman, Rev. Mr. Addison, Rev. C. H. Weyman.

School Committee. T. S. Simms, J. J. Wallace, J. E. Sillp, J. Branscombe, Rev. W. C. Goucher. Finance Committee. Read by F. R. Emmons, and that of the committee on arrangements, which was read by Rev. J. B. Daggott, was adopted. Rev. Dr. McLeod, Rev. Dr. McIntyre, it was decided to resolve in office this committee on union appointed by the late Free Baptist body.

After some discussion on the boundaries of districts, James Patterson, secretary of the provincial synod, read his report, which was adopted as a whole. It showed receipts $1,183.33; expenditures, $1,012.49; balance on hand $170.84.

Ordinations. A platform meeting opened the evening session. Principal DeWolf and Prof. C. C. Jones, of Acadia, gave addresses appealing powerfully for help for that institution. G. J. C. White, of Albert, followed. He outlined the work being done and contemplated by the Baptist denomination in the Northwest.

This was followed by the ordination of W. H. Ledford, who is destined for mission work in India, and J. H. Copeland, Rev. Mr. Brown, of Truro, Rev. C. T. Phillips delivered an earnest and eloquent sermon on the words: "If thou knowest that thou shalt be a good minister of Christ." In this place Paul, he said, is charging Timothy to work against false doctrine which was beginning to creep into the church. Everyizing divine law God's stamp upon it. Every man is called to his appointed work. This is true of the hebrews of wood and the draught of water.

The good minister of Jesus Christ must also be a studious man. No matter where he goes he is always learning from books and hills and woods and streams. The man who goes to his work with a ready and help. The good minister of Jesus Christ must have a great joy in his work. The man who feels that he has made a mistake every day doubt has call to the ministry. There is no higher calling in the world than the ministry of Jesus Christ. He congratulated the candidates and exhorted them to be faithful and true in the prosecution of Christ.

The prayer of ordination was then offered by Rev. Dr. Manning, Rev. E. H. Simpson, on behalf of the association welcomed the two candidates into the ministry of the church, and Rev. A. J. Prosser briefly addressed the congregation.

Business Resumed. The business of the association was then resumed. It was decided that the sermon preached by Rev. C. T. Townsend be printed and a vote of thanks be tendered him. It was then moved and seconded that the candidates for ordination be given to Rev. Mr. Ledford and Rev. Mr. Copeland.

Women's Societies. The Woman's Missionary Society of the United Baptists held their fine annual meeting Wednesday afternoon in Waterloo street church. On motion of Mrs. A. B. Ochoe, seconded by Mrs. W. Weyman, and after much discussion, it was decided to organize all the aid societies of the former Baptist and Free Baptist churches into one society.

Other Provincial Ministers Also Named - Spirited Debate Over Method of Raising Salary - Election Likely This Morning.

Federicton, N. B., July 11.—At this afternoon's session of the Church of England Synod satisfactory reports were submitted from Grand Manan, Addington, Elgin, Prince William and New Denmark. G. O. D. Oty moved, seconded by Mr. Knowlton, "that at the request of the lord bishop it is expedient to proceed with the election of a coadjutor bishop."

Mr. Jarvis said he was opposed to the proposal of raising the coadjutor's salary. It was evidently the intention of the bishop that the coadjutor should do part of the dean's work, but he held that this plan could not be carried out. He thought the committee should make some further effort to provide the salary.

Mr. Wallace said he was not opposed to the proposal to sidetrack the question, and he would support the amendment proposed by Mr. Knowlton. Mr. Knowlton then moved that the standing committee be authorized to get any further information this session.

Mr. Knowlton said that the standing committee did not propose to put a ministerial salary on the table. The committee had given the question careful consideration, and had proposed the only arrangement that would be feasible.

Mr. Jarvis favored accepting the information furnished by the standing committee without further inquiry. He thought the synod had the key of the whole situation in their own hands.

Wrote New York District Attorney and Wife Slayer Was Placed on Trial, Plead Guilty to Manslaughter, and Got Maximum Penalty—How the Game Was Worked—Punch's Fun With the Longworths Angers Americans—Packer Cries Ruin.

New York, July 11.—That a man whose mind is perfectly sound, if he possesses a talent for acting and a few assistants to help him make up the parts, can deceive the most expert alibi into procuring his means, was shown in General Sessions yesterday, when Martin J. Tighe was tried for the murder of his wife on June 13, 1901. Tighe was entirely innocent.

Tighe was confined in the Matteawan asylum for the criminal insane for the last five years, but a witness for the prosecution told how the murderer had successfully fooled the lunacy commission into sending him there, the prisoner at once threw him the latter was in the asylum, a month ago he wrote to Tighe himself to manage his case. The testimony which caused this sensational climax to the trial came as a surprise to the defense, which was entirely unprepared for it. It was furnished by an Italian named Andrea Guoco, who was Tighe's cell mate while the latter was in the Tombs in 1901. Guoco himself is serving a life term in Sing Sing, having been sentenced soon after Tighe was committed to the asylum. A month ago he wrote to Tighe himself to manage his case.

Mr. Tighe was in the same cell with me the time he was in the Tombs, and made his confession to me in all the best work. From the very first day of his arrival he seemed to have a plan of campaign ready to hand. He was doing the right thing to make people think he was sane. He was perfecting some how to act, because he was perfectly sane. He was doing the right thing to make people think he was sane. He was perfecting some how to act, because he was perfectly sane. teachings of Christ, saying that what primitive Christians surely believed was in the world wide mission of Christianity. The gospel, he said, still remained, and Christ was and would always remain with us. After the service a social conference was held.

The most important business transacted at the afternoon session of the association was the election of officers. The voting resulted as follows: Rev. Dr. Joseph McLeod, Fredericton, Moderator. Rev. Wellington Camp, LeFlore street church, St. John, assistant moderator. F. R. Emmons, Moncton, secretary. Rev. A. J. Prosser, Waterloo street church, St. John, corresponding secretary.

Comment on Insanity Pleas. Commenting on this in its relation to the Thaw case, the Times says: "A man who, with probed deliberation and planning, had slain a fellow being, ought to be put to death by the executioner. But insanity is probably never really convincing evidence of a crime of lowest degree. It is a scandal to which the courts should put an end. The insanity plea is merely a technical device to avoid conviction. The plea of insanity is probably never really convincing evidence of a crime of lowest degree. CHAPTER I.
The Face at the Window.
Like a clay of shudder, the north wind...

"I am so sorry, Mr. Duxaine," she exclaimed. "I don't think it is quite wise to continue for I am scarcely making you hear, and I am not at all sure that the place is safe."

"My dear Miss Moyal," I interrupted. "I can only say that I have never been of kindness should have brought you here. With one less in the audience I think I should have ventured to suggest that we all went round to hear Colonel Ray. I should like to have given myself immortality."

Blanche Moyal looked at me doubtfully. "That's all very well," she declared. "I think it's only just mean of the Duke to bring him down here the very night you were giving your lecture."

"I do not suppose he knew anything about that," I answered. "In any case, I can give my lecture any time, and I have no objection to the Duke's coming to hear me."

I opened the door, and a storm of elms and sprays of leaves. Old Pegg, who had been to bed and had collected tickets, had been to bed.

"I don't know what you mean," he said. "I have never seen you before. What do you want?"

"I'm afraid," I said, "that I am out of candle—and oil. I got a little over-zealous walking here, and my foot slipped in the dark. Did I understand that you wished to see me?"

"I did," he answered gravely. "My name is Moyal Ray—but I think that we had better keep it a secret. I am going to get one of your motor lamps."

"If you could call in the morning," I said, "I would be glad to see you. I have a great deal to say to you, and I know very well how busy you are. I am sure you will be glad to see me."

"I'm afraid," he said, "that I am not at all free to do that. I have a great deal to say to you, and I know very well how busy you are. I am sure you will be glad to see me."

"Do not see this," she murmured. "Do not see this," she murmured. "Do not see this," she murmured.

"My love, what luck! I have my flask with me, and I have a spare. There is a glass of brandy in the room. I'll get it for you. I'll get it for you."

Two Babes on Whom Eyes of World Are Turned

The Two Sons and Heir Crown Prince Olaf of Norway

Another baby whom the accident of birth has made heir to a throne is Crown Prince Olaf of Norway. King Haakon's little son is an infant of some months, but his father, as we have seen, was too young to be crowned. The boy is now being brought up in the most modern and progressive way. He is being educated in a public school, and is being taught to play ball and to swim. He is also being taught to play the piano and to sing.

PURSE AND ADDRESS TO REV. MR. PIERCE

FROM FRIENDS HERE

Supporters in Zion Church Hold Farewell Gathering

Meet at John J. Irvine's Home and Make Presentation—Rev. Mr. Pierce and Family to Leave for Florenceville.

Rev. Thomas Pierce, retiring pastor of Zion Methodist church, and Mrs. Pierce were entertained Tuesday evening by the friends of John J. Irvine, Wall street, where a large number of the former pastor's friends, who leave the church with him, were gathered.

The presentation of the purse was made by Mr. Hargreaves, and was as follows: John J. Irvine, Esq., St. John, N. B., July 10, 1906.

The purse was then handed Mr. Pierce by a former prominent lady worker in the church.

The former pastor of Zion, who was taken completely by surprise, made a feeling reply. As it came entirely unexpected, words failed him, he said, to adequately express his feelings.

He said that he had been very glad to hear of the departure of the young people, and that he had been very glad to see them.

"Do not see this," she murmured. "Do not see this," she murmured. "Do not see this," she murmured.

"My love, what luck! I have my flask with me, and I have a spare. There is a glass of brandy in the room. I'll get it for you. I'll get it for you."

HALIFAX ELECTION TRIAL NEXT TUESDAY

Conservatives Subpoena Forty Witnesses Against Roche and Carney—Fielding's Case Up in August.

Halifax, July 10.—The election trials of William Roche and M. Carney began Tuesday. The hall of particulars was filed by the petitioners late this afternoon. It presents a long array of alleged claims of bribery by the Conservatives.

The election trial of Hon. W. S. Fielding, in Shelburne, was set for July 17, but it has been postponed to a date in August.

The solicitors of Messrs. Carney and Roche have filed a bill of particulars in connection with a cross-examination of the witnesses, and have been given a number of persons acting on behalf of R. L. Borden and J. C. O'Malley.

MYSTERIOUS DEATH OF YOUNG GIRL IN WINNIPEG HOTEL

Was Found in the Room of a Brandon Man Who Disappeared Afterwards.

Winnipeg, Man., July 11.—A mystery surrounds the death of George B. Ryan, a young girl who came here recently from Montana, and who was found dead in a room at the Imperial Hotel here today.

There was practically nothing to indicate the cause of death and no marks of violence were discovered. On the table was a glass containing a small quantity of whisky. The glass was broken around the edge as though it had been thrown.

The body was discovered as a result of the clerk of the hotel getting a telephone message to inspect Todd's room, and on visiting it and forcing the door which had been locked, the body was found.

Todd, who is a grain buyer at Brandon and well known, had suddenly left the hotel about that time on Monday. Some believe the girl died in a fit and Todd, becoming alarmed, fled.

TORONTO OFFICIALS SUSPENDED FOR PRACTISING GRAFT

Toronto, July 11.—As a result of a conference today between the mayor, Board of Control and Corporation Counsel Fullerton, the mayor has suspended from the city service Architect E. J. Lennox, of City Hall, and Beaumont Jarvis and J. W. Stark, who had charge of St. Lawrence market contract.

The mayor has also written to Crown Attorney Currier, forwarding him a copy of the evidence and the judge's report on the case, and instructing him to take such criminal action as he may think the evidence warrants. The city's legal department have also been instructed to decide against what parties civil proceedings should be taken for the recovery of money obtained from the city by fraud and at once take the necessary action in the matter.

CHILDREN OF ALL CLASSES MINGE AT SUMMER PLAY GROUNDS AT DETROIT

The Telegraph is indebted to J. Clarke for a copy of the Detroit News of July 9, giving the following account of the opening of the public playgrounds in that city.

Children's summer playgrounds were opened Thursday morning in connection with five of the public schools of the city—the Barstow, Bishop, Cass, Chaney and Russell, and also at the Ducharme playground on Franklin street, near Chase street.

The Ducharme playground is the only play spot under the direction of the board of education that does not lie in the shadow of a school house. For that reason there is grass there—school grounds being sandy.

Franklin street, on the north side, is the back alley of the fine Jefferson avenue residence, and on the south side is the main street of a poorer section. On its north side of Jefferson avenue are more prosperous people. The little children of Franklin street labor, the little children of Jefferson avenue are the happy children of the middle class, all mingle here in the democracy of play.

There is a boy hanging by his toes from a trapeze and twenty youngsters are standing about just screaming with delight. There's another boy with seven others lined up and he's shooting military commands as he leads the seven against an imaginary foe. There's a lot more playing ball and beating the air in professional style.

They go to heights that take the breath away from the tamer adult. The champion of the 120 feet class, one knows her other name—a little, black-haired thing who starts on the rack of eight rings and draws herself hand over hand from one length of the track to the other, time and time again, tiring the boys who pit their strength against her.

The base ball game is no tame affair. There is a regular school league and a regular schedule, and one afternoon the Ducharme goes to some aristocratic west side playground to cross tails with others.

ELDER-DEMPSTER LINER ASHORE NEAR LOUISBURG

The Angola, from Mexico to Montreal, Went Ashore During Dense Fog—Likely a Total Loss.

Sydney, C.B., July 10.—The steamer Angola, of the Elder-Dempster line, commanded by Capt. Thomas, went ashore at Hummock Point, near Baine, and about six miles east of Louisburg, during a thick fog at about 7 o'clock this morning. The Angola was en route from Mexico to Montreal and was laden with a cargo of 600 bales of grass, 400 bags coffee and 165 barrels asphalt. The tug Douglas H. Thomas and E. M. Gates left Louisburg at 10:30 a. m. on July 11 to look for the ship.

The ship was discovered at the entrance to Havana Harbor about six months ago.

Church Union

To the Editor of The Telegraph—Sir:—It would not be worth while replying in any way to the letters of Rev. Mr. Hoy in which he has recently appeared in your columns regarding the above question, were it not for the fact that he is the representative of a large class—perhaps the largest of the church to which he belongs. If these men were really desirous of union with other branches of Christ's church throughout the world, they should have stood up for their own position and shown that they were as ready to give as to receive.

They should have stood up for their own position and shown that they were as ready to give as to receive. They should have stood up for their own position and shown that they were as ready to give as to receive.

There is a shadow of doubt but Elm is one of the best remedies known for all ailments

It would take a tank 500 feet long, 250 wide and over 3,500 feet high to hold last year's world product of coal oil—9,180,000,000 gallons.

In the town of Savor, which is perched over Hoosac mountain and the Hoosac tunnel, the census taken found not a house that had been painted in ten years.
