LITTLE THEATRE
GROUP TO STAGE
O'NEIL DRAMA

By Pacific Coast News Bureau.

San Francisco, Calif., July—In the first move on the Coast to increase co-operation between the various California Little Theatre organizations, The Potboiler Little Theatre group of Los Angeles, Sigurd Russell, President, are in San Francisco making arrangements for the presentation in San Francisco and Carmel-By-The-Sea of Eugene O'Neill's "All God's Chillun Got Wings."

Jas. B. Lowe the colored movie actor of Hollywood whose wonderful portrayal of the "Brutus Jones" part in the Pot Boilers presentation of "Emperor Jones" at the Gamut Theatre, April 7—11 in Los Angeles proved a sensation, will more than likely be given the part of Jim Harris in the new production.

Lowe a Real Discovery

Speaking of Lowe's performance in Los Angeles, Monroe Lathrop, dramatic critic of the Los Angeles Daily Express wrote, "The performance revealed a real discovery in Jas. B. Lowe, who is a Negro of practically no experience, yet so potentially rich in temperament, quick intelligence, passion, nervous mobility and magnetism was his portrayal, despite its shortcomings in the finer points in technic, that on the whole it outshines the depiction by Charles Gilpin, who brought the piece to this city some three years ago."

"Gilpin's work was by no means of the first order. There was a steady recession of power in it and a lack of inner fire as it moved to its climax. Lowe's, on the other hand crescendoes with the degrees of agony as the maniacal fear of the shattered braggart destroys him."

"Lowe's achievement consists in a fine revelation of the soul of Brutus Jones and his manifest instinct for histrionic effects plainly needs only opportunity to acquire the solidity and detail of finished workmanship."

COLORED MANUFACTURING
PLANT ASTOUNDS VISITORS

Chicago, Ill., (A.N.P.)—Dr. W. E. B. DuBois, Bishop A. J. Carey, Albon L. Holsey, secretary of the National Negro Business League, Walter White, of the N.A.A.C.P., and Lester A. Walton of the New York World were among the visitors who, during the past week have visited the plant of the Johnston Therapeutic Light Company here, the remarkable institution headed by Paul Johnston, a young colored man who by quiet application and unusual ability has built up an amazing manufacturing business. In a large plant where colored men and white men, all mechanics are turning out the highest and most intricate type of work under his direction. Mr. Johnston is engaged in the manufacture of therapeutic lights used by many of the medical profession throughout the entire country. The visitors in every instance were astonished and gratified at the splendid progress the institution is making.

White Capital To Build Another Theatre
For Colored Patrons

By Pacific Coast News Bureau.

Los Angeles, Calif., July —Regardless of the fact that colored movie fans have entree to practically every motion picture theatre in Southern California without discrimination, business along Central Ave., the South State Street of the West" seems to warrant the financing of the seventh movie house on the Avenue that must depend almost entirely upon colored patronage to succeed.

To Build 1700 Seat House.

With five theatres, the Hub, 10th and Central; the Rosebud, 19th and Central; the Galety, 24th and Central; the Amusu, 34th and Central and the Casino, 43rd and Central depending entirely upon colored patronage; and the Tivoli, at 42nd and Central with 50 per cent. colored patronage; Adolph Ramish, a heavy stockholder in the West Coast Theatres Inc., will erect a 1700 seat second run theatre at 23rd and Central Ave.

SEVENTEEN COLORED DELEGATES TO WORLD'S
Y.M.C.A. CONFERENCE

New York, July 7th—Ten colored men, seven boys and two Negro college students will be among the American delegation to the World's Conference of the Y.M.C.A. which meets at Helsingfors, Finland, August 1 to 6. Most of these men and boys will sail from New York on July 16. The boys will be members of one of the "world friendship tours," conducted every year under the auspices of the National Council of the Y.M.C.A. here.

Max Yergan, a graduate of Shaw University, who has achieved an international reputation by reason of his work for the Young Men's Christian Association in South Africa will be one of the speakers at a night session of the conference on August the 2nd. At the close of the meetings there, Mr. Yergan will go to Denmark, where he will attend a meeting of the General Committee of the World Student Christian Federation. Members of the colored delegation will also serve as discussion leaders of devotional exercises at Helsingfors where fifty-two countries will be represented.

Channing H. Tobias, senior secretary of the Colored Work Department of the National Council, and Ralph W. Bullock, national secretary for work among the Negroes are to be at the Conference also.

Dies At Age of 122,
Family Bible Reveals

Gettysburg, Pa., July 7th—Family Bible records revealed that Mrs. Keziah Elizabeth Kuff, who died here Thursday, was 122 years of age. Mrs. Kuff is said to have been born on December 8th, 1803, and persons more than ninety years of age here assert that she was well advanced in years when they were young.

She was a native of Adams county, and her parents built a log cabin here many years before the Civil War. Mrs. Kuff was unusually active for one of her great number of years.

One daughter, Miss Elizabeth Kuff of Philadelphia, survives her.

JUDGE KISSES
CHILDHOOD NURSE
AT CEREMONIES

Media, Pa., July 7th—Hearts were touched here Thursday in the Common Pleas Court of Delaware County by the scene of the newly elected judge of the court, John M. Broomall, who took his oath of office, caressing and kissing an aged colored woman as tears streamed down her wrinkled cheeks. All she said was, "God bless you my boy, and make you a great judge."

The woman was the new judge's old nurse, Mrs. Margaret O. Hilton, who had looked after him until his sixth year. She came all the way from Cambridge, Mass., to see him induced into office. The courtroom was crowded on the occasion as it never was before, and in front of the bench reserved for lawyers was a great floral bower. Judge Broomall, who stands more than six feet tall and is massively built, held the aged woman and gave her a kiss that echoed in the courtroom. Spectators realized what fond affection he holds for the good woman who cared for him during his early childhood days.

Race Athletes Shine
In National Events

Philadelphia, June 7—Colored athletes figured prominently in the National Junior track and field Championships held in the vast Municipal Stadium at the Sesquicentennial Exposition.

Wesley Foster of Washington State College was first and William Butler of Geneva, second in the 100 yard dash. Wesley scored a clean victory in 10 flat.

In the mile run, Gus Moore, who was graduated from Brooklyn Boys' High School this Spring, came close to winning a national title before he has been a month out of school. He came close to George C. Ashton of Pittsburgh, who won in the good time of 4: 23 1-5, just a fifth of a second over the record set three years ago by Lloyd Hahn.

THE CASE OF THE COLORED WAITERS

Since our last publication we have received a letter from the authorities to whom we wrote concerning the removal of colored waiters from the International Limited. While the League deems it inexpedient to publish the letter at present we may say that the reason given for removing the colored waiters from the government railway is entirely unsatisfactory to The Executive. In the first place the letter begs the question. In the next place it argues by circumlocution. In the third place it reveals very clearly (although it does not so state) that it was a matter of color prejudice pure and simple which caused the boys to be replaced by white boys.

The authority states in his letter that they have tried hard to bring the colored dining car crews up to the standard set by the white crews. A lot of apple sauce! The verdict of the travelling public is that the efficiency and courtesy lie on the balance for the colored crews. We are prepared to present this official with an elaborate list signed by the best people in Canada, testifying to the excellent service of the colored waiters.

The official also states that he intends to take care of all the removed waiters who are ENTITLED to be taken care of and who can be made to "fit in." More and more apple sauce! They have placed some of these boys on summer runs as porters and waiters. What will be done with them when these runs are closed? Where can they then be made "to fit in?" But even though these jobs were permanent ones the fact remains that no new avenues of employment have been opened while thirty jobs have been closed to colored men. The fact is all the more deplorable since colored men in Canada have so few avenues open to them.

The standard service of ALL dining cars on the American continent has been set by colored men. What a travesty upon justice and truth it is to say that colored men can not keep up to the standard they have set themselves. It is a coincidence that as Canada's government road was taking off its colored help for inefficiency, the New York Central was removing the last vestige of its white crew—cooks on the 20th Century—and were putting on colored cooks. It is a well known fact that Canadian diners have copied the standards set by the New York Central and other big roads in the States. Why claim then that Colored boys cannot keep up to this standard?

In an interview with the Advisory Board in Toronto we were told to carry the fight to the last ditch. From the general manager of the dining cars to the president of the road, from the president to the commissioner of railways; from the commissioner to the Premier of Canada. This is the determined stand of the whole Executive. We do not claim that our efforts will have the effect of replacing the colored waiters on the International Limited but we cannot see an injustice done our people without using every means at our disposal to to have any wrongs righted.

THE DEATH OF R. F. FIELDING

He never dreamed death could so cruel be,
 Life seemed so full of promise, hopes were bright,
 A brilliant future only could he see,
 In such deep loved surrounding, all was light.

—Mrs. S. E. G. Allen

The death of Mr. R. F. Fielding came with almost tragic suddenness. He and Mrs. Fielding were returning from Montreal where they had spent a very pleasant vacation. They stopped over at Kingston and it was there he was stricken suddenly and died several days afterwards.

In the death of Mr. Fielding the community has lost one of its most efficient craftsmen, one of its best citizens and a devout Christian. The Canadian League for the Advancement of Colored People and its official organ, "The Dawn of Tomorrow" has sustained a great loss in his untimely death. He has printed The Dawn from its inception. He stood by it in some of its darkest days, and had it not been for his deep and unselfish interest, the paper would have been forced to cease operation long since. He was attached to The Dawn with a genuine heart interest. Its reading matter, appearance, and its general make up was a matter of great concern to him. While not a member of the League he has done much to further its interests. The excellent advice and the material assistance which he gave The League have been equal to that of its executive members, in fact, we looked upon him as an executive. We have often attempted to put these facts in print before, but, modest and retiring as he was, he always discouraged it.

To such a character, to such a friend, we owe a debt of gratitude. The good he did for our cause will live on with the years. And so, as a fitting tribute to one who served us so well The Dawn is asking each Branch of The League to stand with bowed heads and in silent prayer for one minute at the beginning of its next regular meeting.

TORONTO

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Marin and Mrs. E. Smith of Buffalo visited their parents for a week at their home in Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. J. Smith.

Mr. J. Richards, Sullivan St., wishes to express his gratitude and appreciation of the kindness and attention shown him by his many friends while ill in the Western Hospital, where he underwent an operation.

Mr. J. Richards paid a week's visit to St. Catharines, visiting at the home of Mrs. B. Brewster.

A glorious day was enjoyed by all who attended services at the Church on Sunday. In the morning the pastor preached from Deut. 33: 27. Sub. "The Dwelling Place of the Soul." The message was very inspiring as well as encouraging to the weary and heavy laden Christian, man or woman. In the evening the pastor again delivered a masterful sermon from St. Luke 19: 26. Had Jesus left us this one brief story only, we should have had three of life's most important lessons, said the speaker in introducing the subject; "To him that hath." The first lesson. The great possibilities of life, the second lesson. Responsibility, and the third lesson, A Warning. You are consciously or unconsciously choosing your own destiny. Mankind little realizes that a failure to choose the good immediately is of itself a choice of the bad. Postponing a decision is itself a decision. That undeveloped pound determine a destiny.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy, brother and sister-in-law of Mrs. Daniel Graene, worshipped with us on Sunday at the evening service.

The Church and community in general, beg to extend to Mr. and Mrs. James A. Howard of 135 Lindsay Ave. expressions of deepest sympathy, in the decease of their eldest daughter, Edna, who departed this life on Wednesday, July 7th, 1926.

Union Picnic, Pt. Dalhousie, August 5th.

The Annual Picnic to Center Island auspices of Dr. and Mrs. O. A. Brewster, Tuesday, August 10th.

"Go where you wish, but Go Somewhere."

Rev. R. R. Ball of Rochester, N. Y., Mrs. R. A. Ball, Mrs. Edna Parker, and Dawn Sloman of Ponty Pool, Ontario, were in the city last week.

Mr. C. Andie Johnson and his Sunday School staff with a number of the children of the B.M.E. Church School, held their picnic at Center Island on Friday, July 16th. All report a very enjoyable day and plenty of good things to eat.

Hoxter Developing Monster Chorus

Eastern Negro News Agency

Philadelphia, July—The great festival chorus of Colored singers to appear in a musical exhibition August 23rd, at the stadium of the Sesqui-Centennial International Exposition here is being rapidly developed by W. Franklin Hoxter. Hundreds of choral singers are assembling in various sections of the city regularly for the rehearsals. Remarkable voices have been discovered in the response to the general invitation to choir, club and solo voices being built up and harmonized for the great chorus. The Exhibition will include not only the huge chorus of several hundred voices, but also talented instrumental soloists.

Exhibits Unique.

Exhibits of outstanding value are being assembled and many complete in the Palace of Agriculture of the Sesqui-Centennial International Exposition. A valuable historic exhibit covering religious activities is being made. The development in the insurance field is also a prominent part of the composite show. The North Carolina Mutual has a health and a general exhibit that is interesting and instructive.

Great Pageant

"Loyalty's Gift" was given great attention. The favorable publicity has exceeded expectations. One of the final rehearsals was broadcast by radio on July 7th and elicited much interest and comment. The choruses were most effective. The pageant under the direction of Dora Cole Norman of the Playground Association of America is the first Negro feature to be staged at the Sesqui-Centennial. Credit is being given the Chairman of Negro Activities, J. C. Asbury, for selecting this vehicle to emphasize the ability and stress the high points in the history of the race.

Poem to Countee Cullen

It matters not if your skin is dark
As the midnight jungle track,
I thrill to the beat of the song you sing
Feeling the torture and rack That Sundered the souls of your brother slaves
For hundreds of dead years back.
Under the march of your musical lines,
Under the tread of their feet,
I hear the wind in the jungle pines
And the drone of the tom-tom's beat,
With ebon savages under the sun
In the shimmering tropic heat.

Chance gave you the soul of a minstrel fair

Housed in a blackamoor's frame,
With your heart tuned high to the upper air

Though a scion of scorn and shame,
Refusing an outcast's usual lot
And turning it into fame!

Angelic Robes

By S. E. G. Allen
 Rugged and steep are the hills I oft climb,
 Turbulent waters I often must cross,
 Yet I take comfort in this truth sublime,
 Divine is my leading, I need fear no loss,

Exquisite, happy hours often were mine,
 Hours when I wanted for ever to live,
 Father in Heaven, such great wealth
 is Thine, Wealth of resources from which Thou canst give.

Though I'm but a traveller here I know,
 Through sunshine and shadows my Father makes,
 My cup of happiness oft overflow,
 Such infinite care over me He now takes.

And there's a country where He's leading me Greater and grander than this is, by far,
 Special my wardrobe for that place must be Wardrobe that nothing on earth could e'er mar.

Angelic the robes that the angels wear
 A purity that nothing on earth could mar,
 Mine I've many long years to prepare For who knows, I yet may shine there as a star.

Tiger Flowers Given Big Welcome

By Pacific Coast News Bureau.
 Los Angeles, Calif., July—The King of the middleweight boxers, "Tiger" Flowers, now basks in the sun on the sands of Venice, beach in the city limits of Los Angeles. The King is resting far away from the "madening crowd" that has trailed him since his arrival in Los Angeles last Tuesday night. And that arrival—The Deacon from Georgia will never forget it—for no King of any kind was ever given a greater reception.

Unannounced and unexpected, a torrent of humanity poured into the railway station and Central Avenue, blocking traffic, endangering life and limb and creating a bedlam of noise and confusion. The ordinary squad of station police was insufficient to handle the crowd that almost became a mob and the 'Tiger' and reception committee were forced to fight off the mob that seemed almost certain to do bodily injury to Mrs. Flowers and baby, who came to Los Angeles with the champion.

Flowers is in Los Angeles for the purpose of boxing Eddie Huffman at the Ascot Arena. Huffman is a white sailor who is coming fast in the light heavyweight ranks. The two will meet next Saturday afternoon, July 24th in a ten round match to a decision.

NORTH BUXTON

All Buxton was shocked on Monday morning to learn of the accidental death of Cecil Shadd, son of Mr. Bill Shadd. He met his death while on his way home late Sunday night on the railroad track, by an East-bound train. The remains were discovered Monday morning, and identified as those of Cecil. Cecil was well liked by all, and it is indeed a severe blow to his young friends with whom he was in company late on Sunday night.

Last Sunday afternoon Rev. Edwards and his choir of Sandwich visited Buxton and rendered a fine programme in the Baptist Church. The Church was packed to capacity, and heard a great sermon from Rev. Edwards. The choir under Rev. Edwards direction made a splendid showing.

In the B.M.E. Church, Rev. Thomas who has been spending the summer with his daughter, Mrs. Perry, preached at the morning service, and was enjoyed by all.

Next Sunday, the 70th anniversary of the founding of the B.M.E. Church will be observed in the local Church. It is expected that Bro. Harrison of Windsor, will preach in the morning, and Rev. Sydney Davidson of the United Church, Merlin, will be the special preacher in the evening. Rev. Perry at the same hour will occupy the pulpit of the Merlin Church for Mr. Davidson.

On Monday evening a supper will be served in the Church. On the same evening an entertainment will be rendered, in which Mrs. (Dr.) Barlow, of Merlin, will contribute several numbers.

Because of the splendid roads for motoring now, there is quite an enticement for those who love to travel, and their presence on this occasion will be gladly welcomed.
