SMOKERS

199 Yonge St

10c per ounce. Alive

Bollard

Perfection Smoking Mixture

Positively Cool and Fragrant.

VOL XI. No. 3

TORONTO, THURSDAY, JANUARY 15, 1903

WONDERFUL POPE LEO

Approaching the End of his 93rd Year He Proves His Marvellous Strength.

Rome, Jan. 4.-Replying yesterday democratic idea as the Church understands it and was as follows:

failing assistance. "The Jubilee year, the theme of not a sincere love of public prosperi- to Christian civilization. ty or of civil advantages which moves "In affectionate exchange of good the midst of such bitterness, We will come crown around Us." close Our weary eyes in resignation, est persuasion in Our heart that, the hour of mercy having dawned, He Himself will arise for the salvation of Heart Orphanage gratefully acknowlthe nations, signed for the heritage of edge the following Christmas gifts: the only begotten Son of God.

"Your final words, Lord Cardinal, Rev. P. Whitney, $5; Rev. E. Murallude to the Christian Democratic ac- ray, $2; A Friend, $1; L. J. Costion, which is from this day forward, grave, $10; T. Long, $10; A Friend, as you will understand, a fact of no | $50; Mrs. John Foy, $10; Mr. Elmslight importance. To this action, ac- ley, $5; Mr. Walbridge, $2; Mr. Lang- Western Canada Mortgage Corporation of the League of the Sacred medal. She has a bright future, and cordant with the tendency of the ley, $1; A Friend, $10; Mr. McManus, time and the needs which excite it, $10; Mrs. Coffee, $5; Mr. Sansone We gave Our sanction and impulse, marking out of it, however, sufficient-Santa Claus, $5; J. H., $25; J. G. ly clearly the scope, the manner and Brown, $12.50; Mr. Gannon, $10; Mrs. the limits; so that if in this matter Halley, $3; A Friend, $1; Dr. A. J. it should happen to any one to go astray, it would not assuredly happen Driscoll, $2; Mrs. Hammall, $5; Mrs. for want of authoritative guidance. Sloan, 50 cents; P. Burns & Co., $10; But speaking in general for those who Mr. W. O'Connor, $4; Mr. Langlois, have set themselves to do this work, $2; Mr. P. Henry, $2; Mr. Myers, $1; Italians and strangers, it is undoubt- Mrs. Lamb, $5; Mr. Barry, $2; A. ed that they are laboring with good Friend, $1; A Friend, $3; Miss zeal and notable fruit. Nor should O'Brien, $1; A Friend, $1; Mrs. Lock- at three and one-half per cent is paid the uses of drink, yet we know, at three and one-half per cent is paid the uses of drink, yet we know, at three and one-half per cent is paid the uses of drink, yet we know, at three and one-half per cent is paid the uses of drink, yet we know, at three and one-half per cent is paid the uses of drink, yet we know, at three and one-half per cent is paid the uses of drink, yet we know, at three and one-half per cent is paid to the uses of drink, yet we know, at three and one-half per cent is paid to the uses of drink, yet we know, at three and one-half per cent is paid to the uses of drink, yet we know, at three and one-half per cent is paid to the uses of drink, yet we know, at three and one-half per cent is paid to the uses of drink, yet we know, at the uses of drink three is more joy over the conhundreds of valorous young men bring tective Murray, $2; A Friend, $1; the depositor, is added to the account ninety-nine just who need not penbe passed by without observation. We Jno. F. Connolly, $5; Very Rev. J. have also urged the clergy to enter J. McCann, three pairs of chickens: with certain regard into this same Rev. Jas. Walsh, a turkey; Rev. F camp of action, for to say the truth, Rohleder, a turkey; Rev. J. P. there is no undertaking of sincere, Treacy, candy; Rev. L. Minehan, nuts, trained and courteous staff of officers, many members there were in the St.

Fifty Dollar Coats The greatest value on the continent. Good beaver cloth, cut to the newest designs, lined with selected muskrat and with wide otter collars and lapels-finished by experts. $50 priesthood is toreign is it not a true and most opport ty to apply oneself with diligent interestedness to ameliorate interestedness itual conditions and the material des-tiny of the multitude? The maternal Mrs. Ingles, sleds, games and toys: love of the Church towards mankind pupils of Loretta Abbey, dolls, toys, is universal as is the paternity of to the congratulatory address read by God; but, nevertheless, faithful to land, books; Mr. A. Cottam, two His Eminence Cardinal di Sante Ste- its origins and mindful of the Divine turkeys; United Factories, brooms and fano, Dean of the Sacred College, examples, it was at all times habitu- whisks; Mrs. Jas. McLaughlin, Pope Leo XIII., who is now ap ated to approach the humble with a crate of oranges; Mrs. J. Stock, proaching the end of his 93rd year, sense of predilection-those who suf- sheep, H. T. Kelly, a crate or oranas well as the completion of his Pon- fer, and who are rejected by fortune. ges; Mrs. Hoar, a goose, cocoanuts tifical Jubilee, showed how well he re- Christian Democracy when it is sin- and wearing apparel; Gallagher Co., a tains his vigorous and marvellously cerely and continuously informed by case of oranges; Mrs. Jas. Carolin, clear intellect and physical strength. the spirit of this universal Mother of oranges; Mrs. Bruce McDonald, candy, The Pontiff's discourse dealt with the the nations, may well be trusted not oranges and toys; Mrs. Ross, a turkey to fail in its scope; and no one will and toys; Mr. P. McQuillan, a turkey, take offence at the name when it is dates, nuts and candy; Mr. Frank "We will not use many words, Ven- known that the thing is itself so Lee, two pails of candy; Mrs. L. V erable Brethren, in expressing to you good. Understood as the Church un- McBrady, hair ribbon and caps; Our grateful feeling for the affection- derstands it, the Democratic idea not Friend, a foot ball; Tait-Bredin Co. ate words expressed in the name of only accords marvellously with the 100 loaves of currant bread; Mr. W all by the venerated Cardinal Dean revealed word and the religious be- Henry, apples; Park & Davis, sauof your College. We will not, how- lief, but also sprung forth in and was sages; Mrs. McDonald; candy; Mrs. ever, pass over in silence that to- educated by Christianity, and it is the O'Neil, candy; Mr. B. McQuillan, day, more than ever. We rest with confidence on your unanimous devotit amongst the nations. It was unedness. Meritorious co-operators for known to Athens and Rome, until long, oranges, candy and games; so long a time, you will accompany they had heard the Divine Voice, Christie, Brown & Co., two barrels us still, even amidst the increasing which had said to mankind, 'Be ye all of fancy biscuits; Mrs. Laxton, candy roughness of the road, with your un- brethren, and your common Father nuts and raisins; Mrs. Nolan, a turis in Heaven.

R. YONGE & TEMPERANCE

"Outside of this Democracy, which your courseous congratutations, and is denominated Christian and which is of the uninterrupted demonstrations so, there advances, with other ideals, of the affection of the Catholic world, and by other paths, the seditious and is passing away embittered, as you Godless Democratic movement. Bitter Children's Aid Society was held see, by social contingencies too sor- are the days that it is preparing for rowful for the heart of the Pope. The the civil States, for they are even rights of the Church and of the Cath- hatching it and caressing it in their olic name have been violated in a bosoms. Now, the popular Christian hundred ways, and now behold furth- action, applying itself to the same er advancement is made in the same theme, is a rival force which is inpath, even to the legal subversion of terposed against the success of the sacred Christian institutions. But former, and prevails in many cases to are not they a portion, and the pre-occupy its fields of operations. If choicest, of the inheritance left by it should achieve nothing else than magistrate in the police court; four Christ to the nations redeemed, and to dispute the ground with the Soordained expressly for the custody and cialistic Democracy and circumscribe safeguarding of supreme moral bene- its pernicious influences, it will by fits—the primary root of all well—that alone have rendered a very con-being for human Society? Ah, it is siderable service to civil order and the artificers of such woeful deeds. wishes, We implore from Heaven the What is desired and sought after is choicest blessings on the Sacred Colthe upsetting of the Christian order lege, and as a pledge We from the and the reconstruction of States up-fulness of Our heart impart them to the horizontal as indicating that on the basis of Pagan naturalism. If this College, extending them to the there are more cases requiring atit be written in Heaven that Our Bishops, to the various Prelates and tention than formerly, but it is last days should be extinguished in to all who form, as it were, a wel-

The Sisters in charge of the Sacred

judicious and of worthy charity, to candy and oranges; Dr. C. McKenna, and depositors who visit the office in Gabriel's Total Abstinence Society, books, toys, oranges; Miss Teefy, person are assured of having their and he told me forty-five out of neartoys; John McDonald & Co., three business transacted expeditiously and ly nine hundred families. I ask, have bolts of ribbon; Wm. Croft & Son, a to their entire satisfaction. For the you been faithful to the call of Grace? quantity of notions; Miss R. Wilson, convenience of its lady customers a You walk in the shadow of death, and a carving set; Miss Moran, three special writing room has been com- yet you are satisfied. "Let your light boxes of candy; Miss Gillespie, one fortably fitted up for their sole use. shine before men that they may gloribox of candy; Elliot & Co., perfume; Every facility is also afforded those by God Who is in Heaven. A Friend, a doll and cart; Mrs. John at a distance from the office for mak- The priest and the people must Ryan, dolls and toys; Mrs. J. J. ing deposits or withdrawing either in- one. Have you done your duty in Foy, toys; Miss Smith, a case of terest or principa by mail. The comoranges; John Sloan & Co., raisins, pany has a paid-up capital of $6,000,- ands who saw the Star of Bethlehem, figs, nuts, pickles and olives; Mrs. O'Toole, books and toys; Richard 500,000 and assets exceeding $23,000,-Simpson & Co., a sled; Miss Foy, 25 000. It stands, therefore, in the pounds of candy; F. Robertson & Co., front roak of our strong financial in pounds of candy; F. Robertson & Co., front rank of our strong financial infancy goods; V. Russil, toys; J, H. Hutty, perfume, combs, etc.; E. G. Lemaitre, two boxes of candy; Watson & Co., three boxes of candy; Copp, Clark & Co., books and games; Rice, Lewis & Son, 12 pairs of skates and one dozen hockey sticks; Mrs. P. Hughes, white sugar; Miss O'Connell, candy; Mrs. Falconbridge, a turkey; The Russil Co., sleds and carts; Mrs. G. J. Foy, a turkey, candy and toys; Mrs. Roach, sleds; Wm. Ryan Co., three turkesy, three geese and one barrel of porkers; the Misses Mallon, candy; A Friend, oranges; Mrs. Brown dolls; Mr. Manson, one box of candy; Mr. Bradsshaw, popcorn; Mrs. S. Halligan, books; T. Eaton Co., a case of toys: E. O'Keefe, a quarter of beef; Mr. Magann, a barrel of apples; Mrs. C. Flannagan, two turkeys; L. Coffee & Co., 10 bags of flour; Mrs. M. E. Kelly, a turkey; Mr. and Mrs.

W. T. Lee, a turkey; Mrs. Sullivan, candy, nuts and oranges; Mr. S. Halligan, a quarter of beef; Mrs. Jas.

the Catholic Hendry, a goose; Mr. Algie, Alton, and oranges; Mrs. J. P. Hynes, dolls; candy and wearing apparel; Mrs. Bo-

St. Vincent de Paul Children's Aid

key, J. G. Brown, a quarter of beef.

A meeting of St. Vincent de Paul Monday evening, the president, M O'Connor, occupying the chair and quite a number of members being in attendance. It was snown by ing the quarter past 118 cases had were made words of the society and the condition of the remainder had offices of the society."

Dr. Miller, treasurer, read the financial statement showing a fair balance on hand. The cases attended to by the society number somewhat more than during the corresponding period thought to be due to the good work of the society being more generally

facilitating Savings

Permanent's New Offices. .

and bears interest at the same rate. ance." Temperance is good, but total In its thoroughly modern and well- abstinence is better. equipped offices on Toronto street is a evening I asked your Rev. Pastor how 000, a reserve fund amounting to $1,stitutions.

SPOONER'S "PHENYLE" POWDER

A Good Germicide Disin-

It is not expensive. It holds Prof. Ellis' Certificate and two World's Fair Gold Medals.

ALONZO W. SPGONER

Laboratory, Port Hope, Ont.

The < Advantages

of our Savings Department are not confined to residents of Toronto. W. have every facility for taking charge of either large or small accounts of persons anywhere in the Dominion.

WRITE FOR ALL INFORMATION The Canada Permanent and Western Canada Mortgage Corporation, Toronto St., Toronto

THE ANNIVERSARY SERVICE OF THE ST. GABRIEL'S T.A.S.

(Written for The Register.) The annual celebration of the St. Gabriel's Total Abstinence and Benefit Society took place on Tuesday evening, the Feast of the Epiphany, at St. Gabriel's Church, and was one of the Society. The church was well filled with a devout congregation, many being there from other parishes. At 7.30 the officers and mem- middle-aged and the old before bers of the St. Gabriel's and St. make it a parochial duty, and been attended, of which 49 were pri- Thos. Heffernan, of St. Anthony's God and man. vate cases and 49 had come before the Church, ascended the pulpit and delivered an eloquent sermon. He took parted. The high altar was resplendfor his text the following: "Woe to ent with lights, the electric lights the proprietorship or direction, you that rise up early in the morning above the altar shedding their lustre been materially improved by the good to follow drunkenness, and to drink around the Sanctuaey. The Crib also till the evening, to be inflamed with was a blaze of colored lights, and wine" (Isaiah, chap. v., 11 verse.) added greatly to the scene. The music The reverend gentleman's discourse was of high order. The choir, under may be divided into four points:

(1) The Apostleship of the Laity. (2) The cowardice of many men. (3) The abuse of Grace.

(4) The co-operation with Grace.

year, dear friends, it is the custom zetti, trio, Messrs, J. J, Shea, sr., religious celebration. This year in Sortie, march, Boellman. giving response to address you hastied, and deposits may now be made time, a strong and urgent work for remembered by the officers and memand money withdrawn as may be de- us all. Let us take in the first place bers of the St. Gabriel's Total Ab- ma. sired according to the most modern the abuse of alcoholism. We know that stinence and Benefit Society. methods. To enable all classes to the old theme is, that the drunkard avail themselves of these facilities false to his country. In the vast comand to encourage the saving of small munity of a large city, if there were sums, the company receives deposits one hundred out of every ten thousof one dollar and upwards. Interest and, who would have fallen a prey to the uses of drink, vet we know.

Before I came in this pulpit this

of all kinds

Accountants' Standing Desks. Roll Top Desks.
Fat Top Desks.
Office Tables and Chairs, Letter Filing Systems Card Inpex Systems.

The Office Specialty Mfg. Co. Limited 77 BAY STREET, TORONTO, CANADA actories: - - Newmarket, Ont.

only three were able to follow its signification. Pride and a false conyou forgetful of our Saviour's words, you to fill a drunkard's grave? We are children of Adam, children of corto the Kingdom of Heaven." It is ple honoreth me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me.'

Guardian Angel, the devil would not have led me astray." By taste the devil leads many astray. There are rise up in your way. It is no use to condemn the men who sell intoxiif there were no persons to buy them. God to encourage the cause of temof the most successful in the nistory perance by joining the St. Gabriel's Total Abstinence and Benefit Society. Let the wives and mothers encourage their husbands and children to join the good cause. Let the young, Ann's Temperance Societties, marched will bless them, and the Star you folin procession from the Sacristy to the lowed will be the gold of a pure middle aisle of the church, where spe- heart, the frankincense of a sweet dereport of P. Hynes, agent, that durfew moments afterwards, Rev. Father at all times done your duty before > Solemn benediction was then the direction of Prof. J. J. Shea, jr., rendered the following programme: (1) "Entre Hosanna," Wachs; (2)

'Cor Jesu," Plain Chant; (3) "Adeste Fidelis," Novello., soloists. Here are a few extracts from his Messrs. W. Cox, J. Deegan and John timely discourse; "Each recurring Holland; (4) Ave Maris Stella, Doni-

St. Gabriel's Church has the young-

Montreal, Jan. 9, 1903.

Branch No. 15 C. M. B. A.

At a regular meeting of Branch 15, solutions were unanimously adopted:

Mass offered for the happy repose of of circumstances. his soul in St. Patrick's Church on In the then approaching struggle, the 14th of January, 1903.

YE OLD FIRM OF HEINTZMAN & CO.

Peer of Pianos Canada's Favorite Piano

Anyone who has attended the many great musical concerts given by world-famed artists visiting Toronto and cities in Canada will be impressed with the fact that on all these occasions a piano of this old-established and well-known piano firm was used.

—It has been endorsed and eulogized
 —by leading musicians both foreign —and those at home.

HEINTZMAN & CO.

A JOURNALISTIC ENIGMA

ception of things lead you astray. Are (Written for The Catholic Register.) especially as it was manifestly out of They tell us that Sphinx of Egypt, sympathy with those it had engaged 'He that thinketh himself to stand the great one that stands near the to support. let him take heed lest he fall." Are Pyramid of Gizeh, is becoming the worse for the wear," that the change ruption. Young men, the bone and in climate is affecting that monu- or to the Party that claims to have sinew of the Catholic Church cannot ment; which has looked silently out advanced the money for its purchase. join such a society. It is not all those on the desert, for over four thousand On this it is not my province to dewho say "Lord, Lord," will enter inour common interest to work for such the Sphinx-which the famed and una good cause. The sound of warning happy Aedipus solved: "What creature number goes out, it comes to us. "This peo- is it that walks on four legs in the Firstly, he stated in the House morning, on two at noon, and on some years ago that the paper was three in evening?" The poor, old bought by the Party, and was not his It is human to err, for we are children of Adam, children of corrup- King, sightless and at the mercy of personal organ. tion. Often does a man say: "If I the elements, discovered that this had listened to the voice of my creature was man—he creeps on all committee of the Party appointed to more temptations by the taste than day of manhood, and he uses a cane, political director of the paper. by any other sense. Christian Catholic as a third leg, in the decline of old Thirdly, he asserted, in a speech degentlemen make for yourselves a level road, break down the mountains which be forgotten, modern journalism in political party in Canada. Canada has produced as mysterious a Now, here is the enigma; or rather cants, for they would not sell them being as ever was the carved figure the dilemma. Let us take either horn. of the days of Cheops. And this jour- If the claim of the Liberal Party, Make it a point of business before nalistic Sphinx is, in the domain of regarding the ownership and purchase politics, as unsolveable to the gen- of the paper, be not well founded, Mr.

legs; in the zenith of his public life the paper. in political circles, especially in the organ.

both, of La Patrie. There seems that he would not sacrifice his inde- son to expen pendence, alleging, at the same time, from the paper which I direct. all the services that he had rendered In the days of Le Canadien, our

Whereas, it has pleased God to call would adopt such methods. Therefore, to his eternal reward our highly es- it is a matter of no passing importteemed last Recording Secretary Bro. ance to properly solve that mystery. James Callaghan, who during his I believe that I have been placed in membership of eighteen years was a possession of the real facts of the Hon. Edward Blake, M. P., has regular attendant at our meetings, al- case. In laying them before the read- made a contribution of $50 to the ways taking an active part in pro-moting the best interests of the Asso-mifficult it sometimes is to arrive at tenants, started at the recent Assoa just conclusion and how prone we ciation Hall meeting. Resolved, That we have a Requiem are, at other times, to judge rashly which ended in the return of Sir Wil-Resolved, That we tender our most frid Laurier's Government to power; sincere sympathy to Mrs, Callaghan the Liberal Party, in the large disand family in their sad bereavement, trict of Montreal, felt the need of an and be it further resolved that our organ. By that we understand a recharter be draped in mourning for liable organ, one in perfect sympathy thirty days, and a copy of these reso- with the party, its traditions, princilutions be sent to The Catholic Re- ples, aims and policy. Mr. Beaugister, Catholic Record and Canadian. grand owned La Patrie, and (as he declared the other day in an interview in the United States! he sold his paper to the Liberal Party - retiring himself, principally on account of his health, from active journalism. Shortly afterwards, on the floor of the House of Commons, Mr. Tarte declared that he was not the owner of the paper in question, but that it had been purchased by the Party, to which he was then giving his initial support. Being called to the Ministry very naturally he continued to exereise his influence over a paper that was published and edited by members of his own family; and very naturally the Government to which he belonged and the Party that had acquired the paper, felt entire confidence in it, as a representative party organ.

Subsequently came the retirment of Mr. Tarte from the Ministry, after a long series of clashings with the principles and the policy that he was sup-posed to support. With his passing from the Cabinet went out the confidence of the Party in that organ -

PRICE FIVE CENTS

Soffar, it is a mere question of fact that is to be decided. Did the organ belong to Mr. Tarte, as an individual,

Secondly, he declared in his letter, fours in the morning of youth, he ascertain his views and intentions, walks erection two legs at the mid- that he was not the owner, but the erality of men, as was the enigma of Tarte must have been mistaken when old-or rather does his career illus- he denied the ownership thereof, and trate that ancient puzzle.. In the asserted that it was the Party's ormorning of his life-during the earlier gan, and equally mistaken when he years of his career-he crept on four again disclaimed the proprietorship of

he moved solidly on two; and in the If the claim of the Liberal Party be evening he totters with the aid of a well founded, then it has a right to receive some guarantee of the co-op-No end of interest has been created eration of the political director of the Province of Quebec, by the recent mis- Now, the self-declared political diunderstanding between the leaders of rector states that he belongs to no the Liberal Party in Montreal, and political party. Consequently he the ex-Minister of Public Works, over must constitute a third party in himor self, in other words, he must be out to of harmony with both parties. Then have been a tremendous amount of the paper, if he is its political dimystery about the whole affair. All rector, must be a personal organ. As the correspondence that has been publa personal organ, unless he has some lished was calculated to confuse the financial interest therein, he cannot public mind, and to leave those in- be very well justified in making use terested in such matters in a state of of it. In other words, he says what doubt or uncertainty in regard to the amounts to this: "I did not purchase whole matter. On the one hand Mr. the paper (the Liberal Party did so); Tarte had been requested to state I have still no financial interest in whether or not he would leave the it; I am not its editor nor propriecontrol, or rather political direction, tor; I am the director of its political of the paper to the Liberal Party; on course; and I belong to no political the other hand he made reply that he party, yet I decline to admit the of the church to immonstrate her J. J. Shea, jr., and J. Roussell; (5) the other hand he made reply that he party, yet I decline to admit the love for her children by calling them Tantum Ergo, Remis, choir; (6) Lau-that he would not easilize his indecline of a Party that has every rea-

ly, I was at a loss to know what est organist in the city in the person that party. There the matter stood; journalistic enigma strained every Many Conveniences at the Canada subject to choose, but the subject of of Miss Kathleen O'Byrne, being only what was the public to think? At nerve in supporting the Conservative temperance has been ably dealt with eighteen years old, but by no means first sight it would appear that the Party; at a given moment he turned Under new regulations recently by orators, lecturers, great writers, the least among the musicians of the Party, from whose Government the around and tore down, with his own and spiritual guides, it will not be great city of Montreal. Lately she ex-Minister had recently withdrawn, hands, that which he had spent the adopted to govern the Savings Deout of place to say a few words on passed a brilliant examination at the was attempting to coerce him and to third of a lifetime in assisting to conpartment of the Canada Permanent & the same subject. The great inten- College of Music, and won a gold fetter his freedom of thought and ac- struct. In the days of La Patrie, the tion the facilities afforded its deposi- Heart blessed by His Holiness the will add laurels I hope in the ranks vail amongst a few; others did not Liberal Party, at a given moment, tors have been very greatly increasof the Laity, calls forth at this The celebration of 1903 will long be it became a politico-journalistic enig-sceptre of power from the hand into which he had helped placing it. And If it were true that the Liberal in the end he very properly declares Party, or any other party, were at- that he is neither in sympathy with tempting to deprive a free-born jour- his first political love, which he had nalist of his inalienable right to hold jilted, nor yet with his second one. and express whatever views he thought which he would apparently serve in proper and most beneficial for the the same fashion. Now, what is the country, that party would deserve to public to conclude from all this? be castigated without mercy. No po- Simply that the Nile of politics will C. M. B. A., Toronto, held on Fri- litical party has the right to enforce continue to rise and fall, while the the useful contribution to it which hart, $5; F. X. Cousineau, $5; De- twice a year, or, if not withdrawn by version of one sinner, than that of day, Dec. 19th, 1902, the following re- its principles upon any citizen by Sphinx will be left alone to undergo such means, and no party could ever the wearing-out process that the expect success or confidence that hand of time has visibly commenced.

HON. EDWARD BLAKE'S SUB-

6000000000000000000 "A TRIUMPH OF THE PIANO MAKER'S ART"

Such is the unqualified verdict of tistic beauty. You will enjoy examining and trying these beautiful in struments, and our invitation is cordial and urgent. Prices right, Terms satisfactory.

Manfs. Planos, Reed Organs, Pipe Organs and Planautes

WOODSTOCK, ONT.

CHRISTMAS CARD FROM KIL-MAINHAM.

month's term in Kilmainham jail, ernatural being.

A CHRISTMAS CARD. 1902. FROM PRISON.

Merry Christmas and a bright New

To you and everyone that you hold dear;

Greetings you'll get galore from far and wide, But this one comes to you from right inside The prison, and from this my little cell, I wish you all the good that words can tell,

Christmas in prison-well it's not so Don't for a moment think that I am

God bless you, no! I'm very well in-

With lots to think about and lots to read. and friendly faces too, when I de-I see by simply looking in the fire.

M visit too, I had from Santa Claus! The dear old fellow broke the prison How he got in I never could make there was without a single doubt wreath of berries on his head he

And in his hand a silver goblet bore; Some drops he sprinkled on my head and hair!

not to drink!

went. What do you think? The essence of Content.

would share

WILLIE REDMOND.

THE CATHOLIC YOUNG MAN OF THE TWENTIETH CENTURY

The Rev. J. F. X. O'Conor, S. J. phia Cathedral, spoke first of the no- his life is not solved. ble young manhood of David, and the purity and devotion.

Then he went on to say: The world around about you is sucto God. It has vast possessions, but ambition of his life, such a life is a evil around you. to flatter the senses. It has unlimit- something better-something higher will have to make against the unbe- Sbarretti applied to the American ed bestowal of power-but with it and something nobler. this irreligion, its corruptions, its nation, the hope of the people, the the Philistine will be struck down. to all the best and greatest good. David struck him down.

If you fail or falter, your mighty strength will be taken from you like another Samson and your hair shorn go beneath the surafce, and find what the Fifteenth Century. It is written from real estate in various parts of by the temptress, you will regain it are the needs of the day. In the home by a priest, it is called a morality the island. The actual occupants only to pull down about you the ruins life life there is needed fidelity, in play, and has met with great success. claimed that the Spanish war, which To the Editor of The Register: of the world's temple to your own description of lit comes in our day as a stranger in disumited Church and State, had shorn It has often occurred to me that work and triumphs in the Sacred sanctity of marriage. Divorce is in- live, and yet it strikes into the hearts ly force no claims. Mgr. Sbarretti, many things in which this is appar-Scriptures, your victories are inscrib- creasing with powerful rapidity, that of men because it has the stamp of after certain lower courts had decided on the scroll of the saints, your means moral disorder, in social life eternal truth and touches upon man's ed the case against him, triumphed at them here. Numerous Protestant memory is enshrined in the history of what laws are respected under the highest interest. It is called "Every-last in the Secretariate of Justice; hymns contain allusions to the cross, the world, your deeds are numbered polished surface of politeness and ur- man." Everyone is summoned by God and Governor-General Wood approved the emblem of their supposed faith. in the events of the Church, at the banity when there is the contest be to meet death. He is afraid to go the decision, which was that the For instance: beginning of the Twentieth Century tween passion and right. Are all alone, and invites fellowship to go Church still held her legal status and the people of God cry to you as Na- those engaged in public life animated with him. Fellowship would go to could legally claim her revenues. poleon at the pyramid to his soldiers. purely by love of patriotism and the any sport—a game, but not to death. It would be necessary personally to of Jesus going on before." Young men-twenty centuries look good of the nation, without a view Cousin and kindred are invited. They, know Havana in order to understand "Safely to Thy cross I cling," down upon you—the years of the fu- to personal advantage or gain? Young too, refuse to go. He turns to good- the troubles that Mgr. Sharretti had "Hold Thou Thy cross before my ture place their hope in you.

Alexander was a young man—at twen- ligations of the sacraments. It recalls version and absolution free good deeds was made up of employes of various supporteth me. ty years he resigned—and died at the young atheist on his return from from misdeeds, and he goes with good kinds, but particularly of the under and many others of a like nature. thirty-two having conquered the an infidel education abroad. He parad- deeds. Beauty, wisdom and five wits officials of the late Spanish Govern- Now, the inconsistency of the matter live forever.

self to God, and he conquered kingdoms by his love for Christ.

unfailing courage.

his soul, and courageously accepting hope of our nation. the trials placed upon him, became You young men must keep sound larities which should long since have chaplains for their respective hospiliable to blind the heart and make again pronounce themselves openly for and clean. Try them, and there will two or three cases houses were closed the young man believe that when all Hedonism or a pagan existence. * * * be another witness to their ex- and the Sisters banished. But Havana is so bright and fascinating in the Where will you find the man who is cellence.

wrong in the moral and spiritual or- teaching of the Catholic Church. Not Mr. D'Arcy Scott, Ottawa, has reder, That way, danger lies. What to one but all its doctrines, its teachceived the following Christmas card the world proposes as a career for a ing of faith and of morals, of what from Mr. W. K. Redmond, M.P., con- young man-though noble at times - he must believe and what he must do. sisting of a few verses written by is not all that God demands or ac- A man like Ozanam in France. A man Mr. Redmond while serving a six cording to his high destiny as a sup-like Garcia Moreno in South Ameri-Such a thought is placed before I see before me the men who will be young men, at first it seems admira- the leaders in thought, the leaders in ble-then he finds it does not go far action, the leaders in patriotism. enough, is incomplete, or unsound. The president of a Western univer- against his race, and bigotry against sity speaking of young men and the his religion-the young man smote the problem of life, says: Every young giant, and won, the religious emanciman of normal temperament and nat- pation of his people. Ozanam, a young ural ambition finds his thoughts and man, faced infidelity, and founded the desires running out along these lines. grandest monument to religious char-First, naturally he desires to live. ity and zeal, the Conferences of St. You wish to be well and comfortably Vincent de Paul, García Moreno was settled, in what deserves the name of opposed by the hatred of anti-religiyour home-with lesiure for reading, friendship and the enjoyment of trav- ously in the service of God and relig-

worthy citizen, to be not inferior to courage and skill, and faith, and peryour fellows, to have your advice and severing toil conquered the iron chancouncil sought for, and ready for pub- cellor, Bismarck, who had subdued all lic service when the nation may need other foes, but the young man, by You do not wish to be un- the stone of truth, brought him to his known, a nonentity, a cipher in exist- knees and the great Bismarck on his Cuba never by any chance strikes fire.

affectionate interest; when your hand must not fail, you cannot fail, you and of the parish priest, or at least is marble cold that there is no hand will not fail. In the word of the a priest substituted by him or his And from his goblet with the utmost which still feels the warmth of your great Richelieu "in the lexicon of Bishop. and then he gave me such a knowing there is no heart throbbing with high place and you will not fail. Like the of its revocation 36,000 signatures of "This stuff is good," he said, "but it as a friend to a friend; that no the power of the Saracen in Europe, them formally to Governor-General He told me what it was before he better, or the stars of God shining cry upon your lips of the knights in seded General Brooke, and as Bishop This gift dear friend with you I fain remembrance of his fellows, and you. Young men of the Twentieth enacted by his predecessor. strives so to live that many will keep Century, in the cause of God, and of However, during the existence of "Content" I wish you, for I've lots his memory green." This is good as truth and of the right will you fail- the Brooke law not a few Cubans recently addressing the Young Men's be forgotten by men, but to be re- grander and nobler, that you Catholic granted. There still remained as bar-Archdiocesan Union, in the Philadel- membered by his God-the problem of young men have lived in this Twen- riers to marriage certain enactments

His living in life, his position of victories which he won by his faith, importance his casual doing good to great work of your life: his fellowmen in natural well-doing, pernatural life of the soul, for which in an unbelieving world.

tieth Century.

But with these resolves in your made for the life to come: you; Look at the world around you, week upon the stage that comes from many years ago the right to revenue Young men—we read of your great is broken up by the violation of the apart from the century in which we consequence of which she could legal inconsistent Christians. There are What hope there is in the young religion; they look lightly on the ob- but is tied down by misdeeds. Con- lards. One society, Los Dependientes, greater than Alexander. He conquered hostess and her friends as advanced and angel and death he goes to meet gos, got their names from the pro- all Protestant places of worship. bimself and died at twenty-two, to views were not favorably received. He the judgment of God. Keep faith in vinces in Spain from which their why is this? Do they ignore the emcried out; "Do you still keep your- your soul, purity in your heart, cour- members had sprung. Paris University when he gave him- and its priesthood?" The lady replied: success of Eternal Life. "There are but two beings in this house who share such sentiments, my the chastity of Joseph, and the cour- had brought the nation to impending "What's that big round thing there, Unfortunately, Free-Thinkers and our friends may be able to explain ruin, a philosopher before the assem- standing on end?" The man scratched Freemasons managed to become the this strange state of affairs. One alone is not enough; you must bled elders took in his hand a rotten his head, and replied: "A dinna ken." president of these societies. Of course have all three, for Samson was drawn apple. "Here," he said, "is the condi- "Get out with you," said the Irish- the consequence was that either they into snares, where his courage avail- tion of our nation." He cut the ap- man "you never saw a dinner can as never had a chaplain in their hospied him not; Solomon allowed himsel. ple and seeing the seed there intact, big as that in your life." to be carried away by the desires of he cried out, "it is not all rotten, his heart, but Joseph, by guarding the the seeds are sound." Our young men THEY DROVE PIMPLES AWAY .- without the ministrations of a priest. ourity of his heart, keeping faith in are still incontaminated, they are the A face covered with pimples is un- Not long after Mgr. Sbarretti's adthe ruler of Egypt and of his people. in the midst of the tainting influence been corrected. The liver and the tals, but the matter cost the Bishop The great material prosperity of of irreligion about you. You will kidneys are not performing their func- not a few sleepless nights. the world, its inventions, and its hear of men adopting all forms of re- tions in the healthy way they should, Next, the enemies of the Church got wealth, its progress and its comforts, ligion, indifference. atheism, material- and these pimples are to let you up a movement to dismiss from all the wonderful successes of individuals ism and Budd ism. They say they be-know that the blood protests. Parme-public institutions the various Siswho in a few short years rise from lieve in Theosophy or Christian lee's Vegetable Pills will drive them terhoods that ministered to every meed to the possession of millions, is Science, in ethical culture, and others all away, and will leave the skin clear want of our-poor human nature. In material world, it cannot be far found in the man faithful to the MGR. SBARRETTI'S CAREER-HIS

Mgr. Sbarretti was born at Monte Franco, in the central part of Italy. and comes from an illustrious family. His uncle, Cardinal Sharretti, died a ca. A man like Windhurst in Germany. Mgr. Sharretti was appointed professor of ethics in the University of the Propaganda. His former students are now all over the world. While professor of ethics he was also secretary of the Congregation of the Propaganda for American Affairs, and later on discharged similar duties in regard to the Oriental affairs of the Church. On account of his profound legal learning, as well as his fitness otherwise, he was appointed consultor to opposed by the hatred of anti-religious societies. He gave his life gloriin that capacity aided both Mgr. Satolli and Mgr. Martinelli. At a critious freedom. Windhurst single handcal juncture in the affairs of Cuba ed fought against the united power man among men, to prove yourself a of Protestant Germany, and by his following the Spanish war he was selected by the Holy Father as Bishop of Havana. Few Catholics have an adequate

O'Connell had to face prejudice idea of the triumphs achieved by Mgr. Sbarretti on behalf of the Church in

ence, a minus quantity; you are not knees went to Canossa. You are call- The first difficulty that stared him willing to remain a human flint which ed upon in the spirit of these men to in the face on his arrival in Havana battle against prejudices religious and was the unjust marriage law which Lastly, you wish to accomplish racial prejudices like O'Connell, had been promulgated by General something which will endure; vague it against irreligion like Ozanam, Prooke. This law recognized no marmay now be, but it will grow with against the hate of God like Garcia riage save the merely civil marriage. The saddest Moreno, against the opposition to All marriages contracted before a thought imaginable is that with death Catholic truth and justice like Wind- priest were, in the eyes of the Brooke omes oblivion-that all you have done hurst. You will say it is a great legislation, null and void. No greatand your very self will come to an work. I say to you, that you are er blow could be struck at the Church end when you close your eyes in young men, that you are Catholic in Cuba, for in that island there was last sleep; that when your eyes lose men, that you are Catholic young and is still in existence a law of the their lustre no other eyes are shining men of the Twentieth Century. With Council of Trent, according to which brighter because you have looked in- God in your hearts, and right in your no marriage is valid unless contractto them with human sympathy and lives, and courage in your souls, you ed in the presence of two witnesses grasp in that hour when you brought youth there is no such word as fail. Mgr. Sbarretti immediately undernew here to one in despair; that In a better cause than Macbeth's took to obtain the repeal of Brooke's when your heart has ceased to beat screw your courage to the sticking iniquitous law. He procured in favor courage, because your heart beat with knights of Rhodes-who broke forever representative . Cubans, presented being has found the world brighter, in such a cause as yours, with the Wood, who had shortly before superwith a clearer light because you have their last great battle "God wills it" of Havana he urged with great force lived and loved and served in your there is no such thought as fail; for many just reasons for a repeal. Govday. Rather than such a fate, every you are the David of the Christian man desires the grateful and living people and the God of arrives is with ments set forth and abolished the law far as it goes, but it does not go far no! the courage and the grandeur of had been married in presence of the All this is beautiful and your youth, and the faith of your God priest only and of the two witnesses true. But is this all to live for? If within you, sets your heart beating required by the Council of Trent. this is the object of life-if a man has faster and higher and your answer Their marriages, therefore, were lenot done more than this; if his life is "with God with us we shall never gally null and void. But Mgr. Sharhas not been lived in the life of God; fail." The world will be better-his- retti petitioned General Wood to leif he has not labored, not merely to tory will be purer, the nation will be galize them, and the petition was handed down from the days of the And here my dear young men is the Spanish regime. There also he prevailed upon Governor-General Wood to

To be faithful to your God, in liv- abrogate. rights of the Church in spiritual matcessful and well-to-do materially, but God holds each human being respon- To be pure in your lives, in spite ters, he was confronted with the quesit is without religion and obedience sible, and if this is all the aim and of the corruption and immortality and tion of the Church's temporal goods. In 1842 the Spanish Government had it uses them to indulge passions and disastrous failure. It must rise to To be courageous in the fight you seized certain church properties. Mgr.

lief and the wickedness that would Governor-General for their restora- PAIN.-For pains in the joints and crushes out right and justice, Against With these natural virtues let the steal from you your faith and your tion. The question was hedged about limbs and for rheumatic pains, neusupernatural grace of God be a light virtue and make your life a wreck. by manifold difficulties tiresome to re- ralgia and lumbago, Dr. Thomas' Ecinjustices you need faith, purity and to guide your steps, a fire to warm For without God, without integrity late. Suffice it to say that once more lectric Oil is without a peer. Well courage. Young men, the hope of the your soul, a strength to bear you and it and it ward and upward. Be true to Him, lions, were you the greatest inventor Havana's Bishop prevailed. The quickly and permanently relieves the hope of the Church lies in you. If you and to yourself, and you cannot then of the century, had you greater pow-wreck and a failure, for you were year to win the fight. Meanwhile another struggle was is prized. heart the great battle is still before There is a play introduced this on. The Church had duly acquired purpose in public life. The home life time and thought, it is so much the Church of all judicial standing, in the majority of Protestants are very men boast of their emancipation from deeds; good-deeds will go with him, with its various societies of Span-closing eyes."

tals, or, if they had, they managed to get rid of him; so the patients died sightly. It tells of internal irregu- vent in Havana all three societies had Maithful, sincere, honest? He will be

E. SEAGRAM St. Michael's

LIQUORS and MALT and FAMILY PROOF

Whiskies, Old Rye, Etc.

"OLD TIMES" and "WHITE WHEAT"

J. E. SEAGRAM, WATERLOO, ONT.

had the good fortune of having for its | Bishop a man as courageous as he is gentle. He raised up his voice, and the spoilers of the Cuban Church have not been heard of since.

Not content, however, with saving the Sisterhoods which he found on his coming to the island, he introduced from Baltimore the Colored Sisters of Providence to teach the Negro children. From Albany he introduced the Dominican Sisters to establish among the rich a school intended to offset the activity of a Protestant minister who, under pretext of teaching English, had set up a proselytizing centre of the wealthy quarter of Havana called Vedado. Hardly had the Dominican Sisters opened their school when the minister saw his institution entirely deserted. Then, learning that there were no Sunday schools for boys, the Bishop organizcommittees all through the diocese, who, in conjunction with the parish priests, instituted catechism classes conducted every Saturday for both boys and girls.

Many orphans whose parents had perished in Cuba's war with Spain he sent to the United States and made provision for them. He placed aspirants for the priesthood in seminaries of the United States, and the most promising he sent to Rome. When he was about to establish a preparatory seminary the Holy Father promoted him to a higher position.

He was Bsihop of Havana for twenty months, and into that short space of time he crowded the above-mentioned works and many more besides.

When he arrived at Havana he received a chilling reception because of his nationality; when he departed he left few or no enemies behind him. Thousands accompanied him to the boat and expressed their sorrow at losing a benefactor and father.

It is pleasing to add that Catholics should be grateful to General Wood for his fair-mindedness. In conjunction or working for someone else, with Canada's new Apostolic Delegate he worked for the good of Cuba. why not get a farm of your Before leaving Washington for Can- own in ada Mgr. Sharretti, accompanied oby General Wood, was received by President Roosevelt, who expressed to him his satisfaction with the work he did will never fill the measure of the su- ing up with teachings of your Church, Whilst he was thus battling for the in Cuba and thanked him cordially for co-operating with Governor Wood in whatever concerned the good of that island.

IT LAYS, A STILLING HAND ON are faithful—great is the triumph— and to yoursell, and you cannot then of the century, had you greatly, had you greatly had greatl the body and for that good quality it

> THE INCONSISTENCIES OF SOME PROTESTANTS.

ent, but I will only refer to one of Christian soldiers, "Onward marching as to war; with the cross

"E'en though it be a cross that ed his independence of the trammels accompany him to the door of death, ment in the island. Another, Los consists in the fact that the cross is Aloysius was a young man, and of religion when he saw that by his and there leave him. With good-deeds, Asturianos, and a third, Los Galle- a forbidden emblem in all or nearly blem of the Christian religion? and if Xavier was a young man in the selves under the influence of religion age in your life. It will win you the All three societies were very rich; so, why? It looks as if they did, and the members contributed monthly it is for them to explain the reason. dues, and built costly hospitals. On The sight of a cross in a Presbyter-An Irish harvester found himself in account of their contributions to hos- ian "Church" or Kirk would make horse and my dog, but they have the a small Scottish town. At the gas-pital purposes they enjoyed the right the congregation simply frantic, and need strong faith, a sinless heart and modesty not to boast of such feel- works he saw a gasometer for the to burial lots at a low price. In their the unfortunate emblem would be torn first time in his life, and stopped a charters it was stipulated that there down and no doubt seriously damag-Again when the corruption of Greece countryman, who was passing, to ask: should be a chaplain in each hospital. ed if not destroyed. Perhaps some of

Jan. 7, 1903.

EXPOSURE

to the cold and wet is the first step to Pneumonia. Take a dose of PERRY DAVIS' and the danger can be averted.

It has no equal as a preventive and cure for Colds, Sore Throat, Quinsy and Rheumatism. Always keep it handy.

ALSO MANUFACTURERS OF THOSE RENOWNED BRANDS

Conceded by Connoisseurs to be the Choicest Flavored Whiskies in the Market.

Highest of Excellence in Musical Instrumens is Exemplified

BELL PIANOS

ORCAN AND PIANO CO.

GUELPH, ONTARIO Toronto Warerooms 146 Yonge Street Catalog No. 164 for the asking?

if you are

Qenting

Ontario

For particulars write to

HON. E. J. DAVIS. Commissioner of Crown Lands,

Toronto, Ont.

Motels

Corner of Yonge and Gould Streets TORONTO

--- Terms: $1.50 per day .-Sectric Cars from the Union Station every The Minner, OHARO DISSETTE .

MERCHANT

31'JORDAN ST.

TAILOR ORONTO.

50 YEARS' EXPERIENCE

TRADE MARKS Anyone sending a sketch and description may nively ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is prohably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Handbook on Patents cent free. Oldest agency for securing patents. Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive pecial notice, without charge, in the Scientific American. handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest cir-dation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a ear: four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers. Branch Office. 625 F St., Washington, D. C.

MCCABE & CO. UNDERTAKERS one Main 222 QUEEN STREET

IN AFFILIATION WITH College nder the special patronage of His Grace the Archbishop of Toronto, and directed by the Basilian Fathers.

Full'Classical, Scientific and Commercial Courses

Special courses for students preparing for University Matriculation and Non-

Professional Certificates. TERMS, WHEN PAID IN ADVANCE : loard and Tuition, per year .....$160 Day Pupils..... 30

For further particulars apply to REV. J. R. TEEFY, President.

oretto Abbey... WELLINGTON PLACE, TORONTO, ONT.

study.

The course of instruction comprises every branch itable to the education of young ladies.

Circular with full information as to uniform. rms, &c., may be had by addressing LADY SUPERIOR,

TORONTO

ESTABLISHED School of Practical Science

Affiliated to the University of Toronto. Toronto.

This School is equipped and supported entirely the Province of Onsario, and gives instruction in i—Civil Engineering. 2—Mining Engineering. 3—Mechanical and Electrical Engineer-ing. 4—Architecture, 5—Analyti-cal and Applied Chemistry.

Special attention is directed to the facilities pos-sessed by the School for giving instructions in Mining Engineering. Practical instruction is given in Drawing and Surveying, and in the following -Chemical, 2—Assaying, 8—Milling, 4—Steam 5—Metrological, 6—Electrical, 7—Testing, The school has good collections of Minerals, Rocks and Fossils. Special Students will be received, as well as those taking regular courses,

For full information see Calendar,

L. B. STEWART, See'v,

Academy St. Alban Street, TORONTO...

paid to MODERE LANGUAGES, FINE ARTS, PLAIN and PANOT NEEDLEWORK, Pupils on completing the MUSICAL COURSE and pass, sing a successful examination, conducted by prieseors, are awarded Teachers' Certificate and Diplomase in this Department pupils are prepared for the Degree of Bachelor of Music of Toronto Univessity.

The Studio is affiliated with the Government Ar-School and awards Teachers' Certificates.
In the COLLEGIATE DEPARTMENT pupils are prepared for the University, also for Senior and Junior Leaving, Primary and Commercial Certificates.
Diplomas awarded for proficiency in Phonography and Typewriting. For Prospectus, address.

MOTHER SUPERIOR.

St. Jerome's College BERLIN, ONTARIO.

CANADA. Thorough instruction in the Classical, Philos and Commercial Courses. Special attention to the German and Polish Languages. A annum pays all necessary expenses except be Write to

REVEREND JOHN FEHRENBACH, C.R.D.D. President

Loretto Academy

The usual High School studies are continued at BOND STREET, in addition to a Special course for Office Work, including Bookkeeping, Business Correspondence, Shorthand and Typewriting. There is also an Academy for Boys under twelve years of age.

NCORPORATED TORONTO SIRJ. A. BOYD.

COLLEGE STREET. DR. EDWARD FISHER, Musical Director THE BEST EQUIPMENT AND FACILITIES AND STRONGEST FACULTY IN CANADA School of Literature and Expression ? MRS. INEZ NICHOLSON-CUTTER, Principal. Elecution, Pedagogy, Ph. sical Culture.

WINTER TERM AT THE NORTHERN

Calendars and Syllabus Free

Nusinessxottege OWEN SOUND, ONT., -BEG1NS JAN, 2, 1903,

Our courses in both Business and Shorthand de artments are up-to-date, thorout h and complete. The demand for young men as office assistants is not greater than the supply. Circulars and full information free. Address C.A.

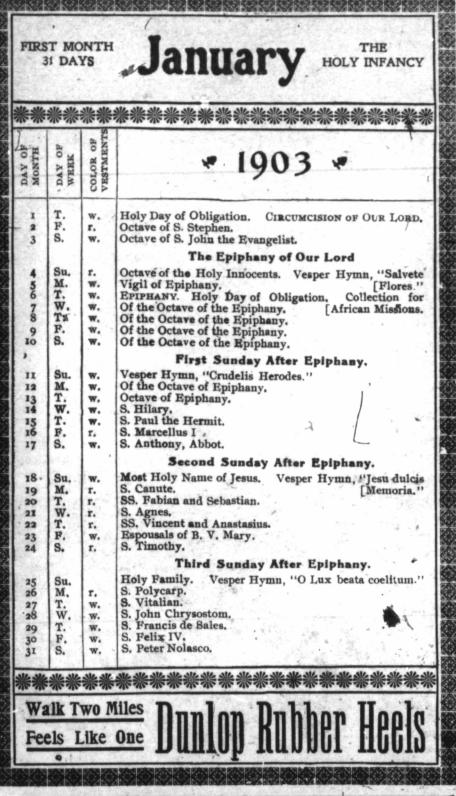

An English Classical College. Conducted by the Jesuit Fathers.

There is a Preparatory Department for junior boy and a Special English Course for such as may not wish to follow the ordinary curriculum. Prospects may be obtained on application to THE PRESIDENT.

BERNARD CAIRNS Leader in

RUBBER STAMPS. SEALS, ETC.

10 King St. W., Toronto Awarded Diploma Toronto Exp. 1901

SPEAK THE GOOD WORD.

For the kindness of friends come to bless Our sorrow or loss

'Neath the weight of the Cross; It is telling our gratefulness.

It isn't the love that they have in their hearts, And neglect or forget to reveal, That brightens the lives Of husbands and wives;

It is telling the love that they feel. It isn't the thinking of good to mankind That comes as a cooling drink To the famishing ones

Of Earth's daughters and soms; It is telling the good that we think.

It isn't the music, asleep in the strings

Of the lute, that entrances the ear. And brings to the breast The spirit of rest; It is only the music we hear.

It isn't the lilies we hide from the world. Nor the roses we keep as our own,

That are strewn at our feet By the angels we meet On our way to the Great White

It isn't the silence of hope unexpress-That heartens and strengthens the weak

To triumph through strife For the great things of life;

speak.

train of other ills; while sitting in come. Good blood is a prime factor in ward- thinking of when they are contemplat- deeds placed to the account! ing off colds. Upon it good health ing marriage? They are thinking of The giving of ourselves because we ed about in the carriage. But now he nerve centres and the blood in a surdepends, and it is impossible to pos- love-of "love in a cottage;" per- can no more help giving than the was a big boy and wore trousers. sess it without plenty of fresh air. haps, and indulging in vague dreams flower can help unfolding its petals, The carriage stood on the terrace is almost immediately seen. Therefore, it behooves the delicate of happiness without any definite pur- or the rose exhaling its fragrance, The terrace was steep, and beyond it woman who cuddles herself by the pose or plan or any serious under- that is Christliness indeed. It is the the lawn sloped all the way to the fireside to get into the habit of going standing of the duties and responsi- most potent of all levers for bringing orchard. Down in the orchard Davy all very nice to have plenty of money out every day and inhaling deep bilities of married life. breaths. In a short while whe will Of course, they are doomed to dis- the whole creation moves." - Weekly a tree by a piece of rope. should strive for it. Longevity, dreams of courtship vanish and then fering-be prepared.

beauty, sweetness of disposition, strength, cheerfulness, all come from It isn't the thinking how grateful we health, which is the greatest blessing and the one on which success pends. To have lots of fresh air, have sufficient sleep, to eat well, elevate the soul and brossion these are what make a woman lovely and lovable.

HOME CIRCLE

"LOVE IN A COTTAGE."

A happy home is a little heaven to her companion. upon earth; an unhappy home a hell upon earth. There is no song more universally popular than "Home, speaker was the angel of the stamp. Sweet Home." Every honest, human I was very much interested in the heart at once responds to the senti- young woman by this time, and enment:

'Be it ever so humble there's no place like home."

Yet how sad is the reflection that liness and consideration. there are so many unhappy homes in the world. The old adage, "There pudding," said one of the waiters to graphic statement of a fact too com- down a steaming plate before her really melancholy fact the question, was observing. "How to make home happy," is in- "Oh, dear!" murmured the girl, disvested with a degree of importance appointedly.

only second to that which attaches and principal requisite is to have a pudding was transferred. Nothing is more lamentable than to weight in gold," I said to myself as witness the ignorance, the careless- I rose to go. "I wonder when I shall less and frivolity with which young ever see her again." persons too often enter upon the holy It was months before I did see her For the great things of file;

God for high and holy purposes. a formal gathering, and observed her cious candy into his companion's dir
They have no conception that the closely. It was not ten minutes be-WILLIAM J. LAMPTON family, and, therefore, the home, are fore I saw her talking to a shy, un-

The woman who catches cold easily that the object of the family is to was, "You tell me that you have enagin, and I'll pity him as does—that is a skin game. should live out of doors all she possitrain up children for heaven. What joyed my singing. I want to tell you age, "Billy Reilly knows it"—Select bly can. She should go out in all wonder, then, if they fail to realize how much I have appreciated your kinds of weather, taking care, of the awful responsibility, as well as telling me so." The sparkling eyes ed. course, to clothe herself properly. the high privilege of having young and animated face attested the ap-More bad colds are gotten indoors immortal souls committed to their preciation. than outdoors. The reason is obvious, care, to be trained to a virtuous life Damp, cold poorly ventilated rooms here as a preparation for a life of upon which I ever saw "the angel of ing-just the time for a ride, Davy tive organs, is their efficacy in reducbe a transformed creature, having a appointment. It could not be other- Bouquet. courage heretofore unknown. Bad wise. When the honeymoon is passcomplexion, weak nerves, headaches ed, they begin to discover that marcome from a lack of fresh air as well ried life is a very serious thing and diarrhoea come euddenly. Promptly Il spread out on a sheet to dry. Judy all the necessaries of life have gone as from improper diet. The reward that to be truly happy requires some give a dose of Perry Davis' Painkiller had just gone into the house for up? Wickler-No; they haven't all for living a healthful, well-regulated thing more than billing and cooing and the pains will go immediately. A something when Davy started out for gone up. "Well, I should like to have life is so great that every woman and "love in a cottage." The unreal bottle at hand will save hours of suf- his ride.

come the real test and trial of married life.

one disappoint-Ten chances to ment ends in strife and mutual rethings that require mutual concession and mutual forbearance in order to make the domestic machinery run smoothly, and to avoid friction, misunderstanding and hard feeling.

The husband, perhaps, is disappointed in finding that his wife, whom he thought perfection, is not a skill- She threw a glance upon the shelf. ed housekeeper, and he becomes exacting and fault-finding. The wife is disappointed in finding that the huswhom she had imagined clothed with all noble and praiseworthy qualities, is testy, so disagreeable and fault-finding. She resents his unkind criticisms, and the dove of domestic peace and happiness takes its flight, and that home which, at a distance, seemed to promise so much real pleasure and happiness becomes a scene of domestic broils, But what was this? In sudden fear which too often end in all the untold evils of separation. The man takes to drink, neglects his work, loses his position and becomes a vagabond; while the wife and children are left to struggle with poverty and too often become charges upon the town. This is no fancy picture. Would to God there were not so many melancholy instances of its reality! Need we discuss the remedy? evil itself is the best suggestion of the appropriate and only efficient remedy. In the first place, our young people must be instructed and made to realize more than they do the serious and sacred nature of marriage. They must be made to understand that it is not mere "love in a cottage," and all that—the realization of pleasant dreams of the imaginationbut the fulfilling of a great, divine purpose, the accomplishment of which is necessarily attended with more or less trial and trouble, involving the necessity of frequent self-sacrifice and elf-dental. Mutual giving way and mutual forbearance—there is the whole secret of domestic happiness.

SCATTERING "DEEDS OF KIND-NESS."

"That's a Canadian dime. I can't take that," said the post office clerk. The child looke 1 at the rejected coin and then at the unstamped letter perplexedly.

"Here's a dime-I'll change with ou," said a young woman standing

"Oh, thank you!" said the child, gratefully. "I ran all the way to get mamma's mail in in time-and it would have been too late if I had to

"How thoughtful that was." I said to myself. "How few people, comit costs, and how much it often threw a whole lot at me.

was at a restaurant at the noon hour, in a hurried, crowded throng.

"Dear me! isn't it warm?" sighed a flushed, nervous-looking girl near me, ing Ned to ponder over the question, lections of a game he witnessed while

"Won't you take this fan?" said a sconcing myself comfortably in my corner took more time to my meal than was necessary, in order to observe her. I did not have long to wait to see another proof of her kind-

"This is the last order of Indian is a skeleton in every closet," is a a pale, poorly-dressed girl, as she set mon to be denied. In view of this neighbor, the young woman whom I "Won't you take this? I would ex-to winning the happy life hereafter. actly as soon have something else for To make a happy home the first dessert." Quick as a flash the dish of realizing sense of what home is for. "That young woman is worth her state of matrimony. They seem to again. This time I was at a recephave no thought of its sacredness - tion. I wondered whether she would that it is a sacrament instituted by be able to do any kindly act in such divine institutions. They are the attractive girl in a corner, and intro-

These three brief occasions were all 'Twas such a warm, windy mornbreed pneumonia, bronchitis and a eternal blessedness in the world to the stamp," and yet how fraught they thought. So he harnessed his rock- ing inflammation of the eyes. It has were with acts of friendliness and ing-horse to Baby's carriage and care- ealled forth many letters of rerooms that are too warm makes one Alas! what are the silly, thought- consideration! At the end of such a fully climbed up on the seat. susceptible to the very same ailments. less, sometimes giddy young people life how manifold must be the good 'Twasn't so long since he had been afflicted with this complaint and found about that blessed day "to which could see the pet calf, Clover, tied to not have to work, don'tcherknow, but

CHILDREN'S

THE STRANGE MOUSE.

As in the nursery Mrs. Puss Was looking out for mice, And there saw something nice.

A little mouse among the toys Was standing very still, "I'll catch that mouse," Puss,

"Most certainly I will." Then crouching down-behind the shelf

Her instinct to obey, She made a sudden upward spring, And pounced upon her prey,

Her claws let go their hold, At coming into contact with A substance hard and cold

Then frightened Mrs. Puss turned taif, And fled from out the house. While still her prey remained

He was a clockwork mouse! E.M.W., in Cassels' Little Folks.

WOULDN'T SAY "PLEASE." There was once a small child would never say "please," believe, if you went down on your knees But, her arms on the table, would eat at her ease,

And call out to her mother in words such as these: 'I want some potatoes!" "Give me some peas!"

'Hand 'me the butter!" "Cut 'me some cheese!" So the fairies, this very rude daughter to tease,

Once blew her away in a powerful Over the mountains and over the seas.

But down with the ants, the wasps and the bees, In the woods she must live till she learns to say "please."

STONES OR CANDY?

on the road.

you too, my son,"

sweet voice. I looked, and lo! the wistfully at both. At the stones le-gifts, no confirmation of this report striking the enemy; and at the caudy maker.

> had wronged him. and thereby gained a greater victory mare, was also a convert.

and said, "Jokin', ain't yer?" some." And Ned put half of the pre-shorten his course.

DAVY'S RIDE.

Just beyond Clover was Judy, Judy mind." "But, fortunately," replied had been washing the feathers from liss Peppery, "you don't need much." LIKE OTHER EVILS cramps and an old feather bed. Now they were Mrs. Wickler-Did you ever see how Davy didn't mean to go very far. gone up." "Certainly. My salary."

Monkey Brand Scap cleans kitchen utensils, steel, iron and tinware, knives and forks, and all kinds of cutlery.

gently. It was great fun. "Get up, there!" he called, leaning forward. Then the carriage started. How it did go-faster-faster-faster-toward the edge of the terrace. Davy had time only for one scream when the carriage went over the terrace. But that was such a big one that it lasted all the way down the slope toward the orchard.

For, strange to say, the carriage stayed right side up and Davy stayed in. The rocking-horse fell over and was left behind. Poor mamma, with baby in her arms, ran out of the house, screaming after the flying carriage. The twins raced along behind her, and Fritz, the old yellow dog, came behind them. Bump, bump, bang! went the carriage. Davy didn't know what had happended. But mamma did, and twins, and old Fritz. And they all ran faster than ever. Fritz barked wildly and baby cried, though about she hadn't the least idea.

Davy had run into the pet calf. The rope had broken, and the calf was off, like a shot, down the road. carriage lay in a heap on the ground. Davy had gone up into the air and was coming down, but nobody knew

Straight into the wet feathers, which Judy had spread on the sheet, plunged Davy. When mamma and the twins and baby and Fritz and Judy all reached the spot, he was picking himself up.

Mamma dropped baby into Judy's arms and caught him up. "Oh, oh! screamed Mabel, "he looks like a wild Indian-Davy does.

And he did. There were feathers sticking in his pretty pink waist and new trousers. There were feathers in his mouth and ears. They clung to his soft yellow curls. And one stuck fast to his fat little nose.

But he wasn't hurt. So, away they all went up the lawn, laughing in To a valley, where never a dinner she stead of crying, this time. And Davy's ride was over .- Primary Education.

> DR. DE COSTA WILL ENTER PRIESTHOOD.

Right Rev. Monsignor Thomas F Kennedy, D. D., rector of the American College, Rome, sailed on Tues-"Well, my little fellow, what are day from New York by the Kaiser you going to do with these?" asked Wildhelm der Grosse. With him are old Mr. Crossley, after watching a Dr. Benjamin F. De Costa and Mr. small boy pick up three or four of Alvah W. Doran, both converts from the largest stones that he could find the Protestant Episcopal ministry, who will pursue theological studies at "I'm going to throw them at Bill Rome with the purpose of being orparatively, would have bothered to do Reilly when he comes back this dained to the priesthood. Mgr. Kenne way," answered the boy, readily. "He dy succeeded in his task of raising $50,000 to pay off the debt on the to A little later in the day it so the chanced that I met again the young woman of whom I have spoken, It was the old man's next question. was the old man's next question. vessel upon which the rector sailed "That would do him more good, and carries a complete base ball oufit for the students, also the gift of Mr. Then Mr. Crossley passed on, leav- Wanamaker, who has pleasant recol-"Which should he throw-stones or visiting the American College. In accandy?" The little fellow looked cordance with his custom regarding cause he longed to show his skill in could be obtained from Mr. Wana-> because he longed to eat it all lim- The desire to become a priest on the self. He cared not to use even one part of Dr. De Costa, who is sixtybit for making peace with a boy who five years old and a widower, his wife having died two years ago, re-But Ned was a reasonable lad, and, calls the fact that Lord Thynne, an after thinking over the matter care- English peer and a clergyman of the fully, he could not help seeing that Church of England, and also a widow-Mr. Crossley was right. But it was er, became a Catholic at the age of very hard for him to let go of the seventy years, and afterwards a stones and make a determination to priest, dying a few years ago as recshare his candy with rough Bill tor of a Catholic church. His daugh-Reilly. But he did this very thing, ter, who married the Earl of Ken-than he who conquers a vast army. Dr. De Costa was rector of the Pro-By and by Bill Reilly came skulking testant Episcopal Church of St. John around the corner, looking in this the Evangelist at Eleventh street and way and that, to discover what had Waverly place, New York, up to four become of Ned. Suddenly, from a years ago, when he embraced the place of concealment, out popped the Catholic faith. He has studied a little fellow. "Have some candy, great deal since and it is quite likely Bill?" he asked. But Bill appeared in- that it will be necessary for him to credulous, and, after assuring him- take only a very short course before self that Ned's other hand contained being ordained a priest. His return is no stones, he walked up closer to him looked for in little more than a year. Mr. Doran's attainments are also of "No, indeed, I want you to have a character that will materially

The lecturers are always telling For a moment both were silent, about the early bird getting the divine institutions. They are the attractive girl in a corner, and introfarthest possible from appreciating ducing her to her friends. Nor was farthest possible from appreciating ducing her to her friends. Nor was but the dignity, the sacredness and the this all I noticed. As I left I heard her saying something to the soloist really sublime honor and privilege of her saying something to the soloist sech. Why didn't yer chuck stuns back at me? Never mind, I'll never do it worm or the early bird? Philosophy

> FOR INFLAMMATION OF THE EYES .- Among the many good qualities which Parmelee's Vegetable Pills possess, besides regulating the diges-356 Main Street. commendation from those who were the baby himself, and had been push- a cure in the pills. They affect the prisingly active way, and the result

> > "Yaas," said Cholly Nuritch, "it's I don't find much to occupy my you mention one thing that hasn't

The O'Keefe Brewery Go.

PERSONAL TO SUBSCRIBERS

WE WILL SEND to every subscriber or reader of THE CATHOLIC BEGISTER a full-sized ONE DOLLAR package of VITE-ORE, by mail, POSTPALD, sufficient for one month's treatment, to be paid for within one month's time after receipt, if the receiver can truthfully say that its use has done him or her more good than all the drugs and dopes of quacks or good dectors or pasent medicines he or she has ever used. Read this over again carefully, and understand that we ask our pay only when it has done you good, and not before. We take all the risk; you have nothing to lose. If it does not benefit you, you pay us nothing. Vitse-Ore is a natural, hard, adamantine rock-like sub stance—mineral—ore—mined from the ground like gold and silver, and requires about twenty years for oxidization. It contains free iron, free sulphur and magnesium, and or e package will equal in medicines strength and curative value 800 gallons of the most powerful, efficacious mineral water, drunk fresh at the vprings, It is a geological discovery, to which there is nothing added or taken from. It is the marvel of the century for curit g such diseases as Rheumatism, Brights Disease, Blood Poisoning, Hears Trouble, Dipitheria, Catarrh and Throat Affections, Liver, Kidney and Bladder Ailments, Stomach and Female Disorders, La Grippe, Mala-tal Fever, Nervous Prostration and General Debility, as thousands testify, and as no one, answering this, writing for a package, will capy after using. Give age, ills and sex.

This offer will challenge the attention and consideration, and afterward the gratitude of every living person who desires better health, or who suffers pains, ills and diseases which have defied the medical world and grown worse with age We care not for your skepticism, but ask only your investigation, and at our expense regardless of what ills you have, by sending to us for a package. You must not write on a p-teard. In answer to this, address, THEO. NOEL, Geologist, Dept. A.L., 101 York St., I or onto.

Established 1856

Office and Yard FRONT ST., NEAR BATHURST Talephone No. 449

Office and Yard PRINCESS STREET DOCK Telephone No. 190

P. BURNS & CO

Wholesale and Retail Dealers in Coal and Wood 38 King St. East Head Office

PHONE MAIN 131.

PARLOR MATCHES EDDA CO.

Hull,

Canada

"HEADLIGHT

"EAGLE" 100 s and 200 "VICTORIA" "LITTLE COMET"

OUR BRANDS

"KING EDWARD"

DON'T Experiment with other

aferior brands. USE EDDY'S

THE DOMINION BREWERY CO., Limited

Their other brands, which are very fine, are:

> INDIA SPECIAL, AMBER, JUBILEE, CROWN SPECIAL, XXX PORTER and HALF-AND-HALF.

The above brands can be had at all first-class dealers.

sweetest thing is

COWAN'S Swiss Milk

Use an Oxydonor, Absorb Oxygen and LIVE Write for Pamphlet to J. E. BRIGHT, Druggist Phone Main 2842 35 King St. W.

CHOCOLATE It is nice indeed.

8 Co., Limited WHALEY, POYCE 158 Yonge Street, WINNIPEG, MAN. TORONTO, ONT.

FOUNTAIN THE TAILOR.

Adelaide St. W. Phone Mair 3074 DRESS SUITS TO RENT

THE MOST NUTRITIOUS

An admirable food, with all its natural qualities intact, fitted to build up and main-tain robust health, and to resist winter's extreme cold.
Sold in 4 lb. tins,
'abelled JAMES EPPS &
CO. Ltd., Homeopathic
Chemists, London, England.

The Catholic Register

PUBLISHED EVERY TAURSDAY BY THE CATHOLIC REGISTER PUBLISHING CO PATRICK F. CRONIN, Business Manager and Editor.

SUBSCRIPTION OFFICES-9 JOPDAN ST., TORONTO.

ADVERTISING RATES nt advertisements, 10 cents a line. Postal Order, Express Money or by Regis-When changing address, the name of former Post Office should be given.

Telephone, Main 489.

THURSDAY, JAN. 15, 1902.

TRISH CATHOLICS OF MONTREAL ▲ Montreal correspondent in anto His Grace Archbishop Bruchesi upon his return from Europe. The spirit of this petition recognizes the generous energy and breath of sympathy which Catholics all over Canada have

The movers in this Montreal petition are actuated only by the most erty are superadded two other power- Reception Committee of the Chairimplicit trust in their French-Cana- ful motives. The first is that I feel manship of that body, which he filled Archbishop Bruchesi all Irish Catho- and character are admired and cher- guished groups of visitors. The repre- formed, but there are need of two or hics recognize an ideal Churchman, ished in remote lands. The second is sentatives of the British Board of three more such parishes. and from him there is to be expected that my son may be enabled to form Trade and Lord Dundonald, on his pears to stand as the greatest necesa just and sympathetic consideration one link in that kindly chain which first visit to Toronto, may be men-sity, an Irish Community for men and of any claim which a large body of will, I hope, ever bind in mutual aftioned. Ald. Ward discharged the the same for women. An Englishhis people advance for their own wel-fection the free people of Columbia, duties of his position with dignity, There are many vocations lost on actare and that of the general Catholic and the gallant but unhappy natives and the citizens and their elected recount of not having the proper place

POPE LEO'S STRENGTH.

took part in the public welcome that proud to serve. awaited him. Replying to a number "That you, illustrious sir, will imi- of America. of addresses the Cardinal touched up- tate the virtues of Washington, may, said, seems to promise many more your country confounded and defeated years of glorious achievement." This and to enjoy the heartiest gratificahappy statement is in perfect accord tion of beholding your country perwith the words of congratulation ad- feetly free, that in your life you may dressed to His Holiness on Dec. 22 be honored and revered like Washby the members of the Sacred Colington, your great prototype, and lege of Cardinals, the Archbishops, that after a long, useful, and glori-Bishops and Prelates in Rome. Fol- ous career upon earth your fame and lowing are the terms of this ad- your memory may be embalmed in flourishing health of Your Holiness, nations is the fervent prayer of we pray that the Lord may preserve you for the benefit of society and of the Church, for which you have never ceased to show your paternal solicitude. Recent proofs of this are furnished by the latest acts of Your Holiness, the one directed to protect the sound interpretation of the Sacred Scriptures against the daring ideas of some followers of a system summoned by the circumstances of popular Catholic action.

Your Holiness may be fulfilled, and are impending. nothing for the genuine good of the people, and making display of a false anything but Christian .

Bergdiction to the Sacred College."

OF VENEZUELA.

of Britain, Germany and Italy, which contemporary says: has now been relaxed upon the agree- "Father Gnam, of Wyoming, is the trade of Australia.

Parliament for the County of Meath. O'Connel wrote: 'To General Bolivar:

Dublin, Ireland,

18th April, 1820. Illustrious Sir-A stranger and unknown, I take the liberty of address-Approved and recommended by the Arch ter, and by my attachments to that lour, and virtue have gloriously sus-Remittances should be made by Post Office tained—the cause of Liberty and Na-

"Hitherto I have been able to beand, I trust, under your orders and other column, deals with the subject auspices, to contribute his humble of a petition which will be presented but strenuous exertions for the suc-vond their order the services which in these gentlemen. In the press also, the preparations. identified with the character of Arch- are now officed to you. But even I the highest compliments have been bishop Bruchesi from the day of his may be permitted to say that these paid them. But it is in the respect of THE GRIEVANCES OF THE IRISH appointment to the high place he oc- services are disinterested and pure, their confreres in Council once more cupies with so much dignity in the and that they originate in sentiments made evident on Monday last, that Canadian hierarchy. There is no room of which you would not but approve, Messrs. Burns and Ward should find a among the Irish Catholics of Canada because they are congenial to those still more signal honor. Alderman present a petition to His Grace the wife, who has crossed to join him, ers tarry the nation dies. The people for any opinion detrimental to the which have actuated your high and Burns as a former Controller, was Archbishop on his return from Eu- to undertake the journey back; and I are rightly convinced that, short of a mutual confidence and unity existing mighty soul in all your exertions and one of the four elected to the new rope. The petition asks for three between them and the great French- sacrifices for the independence of your Board on the first ballot. Ald. Ward of Ireland.

"Actuated by these views, my son appreciate it. tenders to you his services. Deign to Ald. Burns and Ward are the only for this is a distinct School Board Exchanges report the arrival in accept them in the spirit in which Catholics in the Council, and The ueate their children properly, and be Australia of His Eminence, Cardinal they are offered. He accompanies to Register marks the confidence reposed able to give decent salaries to the indomitable spirit, untiring energy, Moran, after his recent prolonged your shores my gallant and honorable in them as an unmistakable sign of Irish teachers, a thing which they are high courage, and large powers of convisit to Europe. The Government, as friend, General Devereux (of Tagh- that liberality and broad public spir- not receiving under the Catholic Comwell as the hierarchy of the 'Colony, mon), under whom he will always be it which must enhance the reputation missioners' Board. The petition finish-health of Pope Leo which, he like him, live to see the enemies of the tears and affections of the wise, "Rejoicing at the sight of the ever- the good, and the patriotic of

> 'Yours most obediently, "DANIEL O'CONNELL."

JUDICIAL CHANGES.

The Register regards as a quite diocese alone. conspicuous diminution of Catholic representation in the Judiciary the re-"For our part we can only unite point of view of Catholic representation and Catholic family. in wishing that the aspirations of tion. It may be that further changes zeal, aim only at satisfying their fort many incidents of danger on land conciliatory plans towards the Eoers. own ambitions by bringing about the and sea in which Catholic priests The suggestion was received in no triumph of a democracy which is have distinguished themselves by conciliatory spirit whatever by the their heroism and devotion to others. Canadian press, and no more was of climate. Mr. Whelan was a tele- League? "May Your Holiness accept with One more instance of this kind has heard of it. The rumor is now re- graph operator and has been station- MR. BLAKE AN IRISH-AMERICAN popular attention, yet it is on some- depleted population, even an excesbenignity this expression of our been mentioned in connection with the vived, but this time it is for Aus- ed at different times at Parkdale, Tosentiment, and impart the Apostolic recent terrible railway wreck at tralia Lord Milner is said to be de-Wanstead, near London. The Toronto signed. They are having some intering the last 9 months and while there World, whose reports of the accident esting developments in the new Com- he was appointed Secretary of the AN INCIDENT IN THE HISTORY were graphically written, describes monwealth. The latest measure Weston School Board, which position the noble figure of Father Gnam in which has been prepared for the con-Many believed the independence of the scene of terror and disorder sideration of Parliament proposes to morning to St. Mary's Church, and ment all round, at the suggestion of name of the man whom many wound-President Roosevelt, to have the mat- ed in the wreck will remember in All Canadian Catholics have a good WHELAN-At his father's residence, ters in dispute submitted to The spite of the horror and the agony of knowledge and profound respect for Hague Tribunal of Arbitration. One their surroundings; and he ministered the Eudist Fathers," whose colleges incident in history connects Venezue- to the last wants of several victims, and schools in the diocese of Halifax Ian independence by an intimate link Several of the dying consigned to his have long been participants in the eduwith Irish and Catholic sympathy. In care valuable papers, messages to Cational reputation of our Dollinson.

OF DANGER.

This Congregation is to feel the ef-1820 the Irish Catholic "Liberator," their families and friends. He was fects of the French Associations Law Daniel O'Connell, made a signal ex- working until the last mangled body very keenly. The Eudist Fathers are pression of his confidence in the Lib- was taken out, and then was covered also called the Congregation of Jesus erator of Venezuela, when seraing to with blood. He was seen in the and Mary, and were founded in 1643 at the instance of Cardinal Richelieu, ed in the death row and saved the them in his own arms to the sleeping munity of Priests of St. Nicolas. cars. Many of the bodies of the dead were frozen stiff before they could be sacred cause which your talents, valuation while kneeling in a pool of a minister. I heard one man say he was a Protestant, but wanted the priest to pray for him, and I heard a

ALDERMEN WM. BURNS AND

before it was finished."

WARD "The delusions of paternal affection cil of 1903 proves, if proof were ne- C.SS.R., the present pastor of St. received the unanimous nomination of "To such sentiments of love of lib- the members of the Legislation and and women distinctly Irish.

EDITORIAL NOTES

of many Catholic friends in New the temporal betterment of our peo- The reunion accomplished, I took York. Among others who said fare- ple in Montreal; and keep alive am- the sole responsibility of proposing well was Mrs. Crawford, of Montreal, ongst them the priceless legacy of our Mr. John Redmond for the chair.

Among the Irish priests who have is Dr. Tynan, of Manchester, who Season:'

County Judgeship of Antigonish, Terriss' secession has come as an the times to labor in the field of Guysborough and Inverness. The lat- entire surprise to her friends, for her ter position is not a change from the husband, Mr. Seymour Hicks, belongs dozen ginger ale; A Friend, a turkey; Ireland and Britain do him justice, phatically state to-night, any pros-vinced, than to preach to the con-

A little while ago a rumor was set afloat, probably as a feeler, to the not those of these men who, caring THE CATHOLIC PRIEST IN TIME effect that Mr. Chamberlain intended to send his friend Lord Milner from Our readers will recall without ef- the Cape to Canada as a part of his Mr. Whelan had been suffering with League himself; such as the object, Venezuela threatened by the action which followed the collision Our prevent British and other "foreign" thence to Mount Hope Cemetery. A cational reputation of our Dominion. Bolivar's service his second son, Mor-gan O'Connell, afterwards member of certain those laid out were really er was Father Eudes, who, as Sainte-board.

dead. In this manner he found, life Beauve shows in his history of Port in several bodies that had been plac- Royal, followed in the footsteps of St. Vincent de Paul, M. de Berulle, founder of the French Oratorians, and lives of those victims by removing M. Bourdoise, who founded the Com-

Pressure on our space to-day obliges us to hold over two interesting re removed from the death row. The ports from Peterborough, one of the cold was something frightful. I saw celebration of the third anniversary C., by the Hon. Edward Blake, M.P., not so open and palpable in form and right and title to self-government, so this priest giving a dying man abso- of the St. Peter's Total Abstinence the occasion being a demonstration does not so obviously strike each in thoroughly applied the principles of Society, at which an eloquent address on Catholic Emancipation was delivblood. I saw that man several ered by Father Frank O'Sullivan, and times working in the thick and an- in the second place an account of the swering calls where any one asked for Douro T. A. S. entertainment on the the careful attention of our readers: dress. But again there is no relief, justice. And, lastly, because this evening of the 7th,

ST. PATRICK'S NEW CHURCH.

Preparations have been going forpart of the prayer. The man died ward for some time looking to the though beautiful in its interior. is inadequate to the demands of the congregation. The pressing need for in-The magnificent majorities by which creased accommodation can no longer cess of the army of the youthful but Ald. William Burns in the Fourth be neglected, and the new building already renowned Republic of Colum- Ward, and Ald. Ward in the Sixth plans have been definitely decided up-Vard, have been returned to the Coun- on. Mr. A. W. Holmes will be the architect. Very Rev. Father Barrett,

CATHOLICS OF MONTREAL. The Irish Catholics of Montreal, who at present number one-fifth of things:

(1) More Irish Parishes. (2) Religious Communities for men

(3) A Separate School Board. The petition states that it is not with a spirit of antagonism this work

The next thing is the one which appresentatives have not been slow to to go. The school system is very defective also, and the only remedy in which the Irish Catholics could edes with the following words: "We canof Toronto among the foremost cities not bring ourselves to think that And, when the time was ripe, he proof the Rome of America to be closed on national lines. While we do not presume to dictate to Your Grace. Dr. De Costa, who has gone to we beg that you will see fit to con- of reunion, the first chairman of the tome, had a sympathetic leave-taking sider our suggestions. They have party should be chosen from the been prompted by a desire to promote ranks, not of the 71, but of the 9. Holy Faith."

A CARD OF THANKS.

The Sisters of St. Joseph, St. expressed their hearty appeciation Michael's Hospital, return their sinof the action of the Irish Party with cere thanks for the following donaregard to the British Education Bill tions received during the "Festive AN EXAMPLE WORTHY OF A rison; insisting on strong coercion by rope.

Mr. Wm. Fitzgerald, $25; Mr. Corpoints out that the Repairs Clause nue, $25; Dr. Ross, $10; Mr. Coleman, means a saving of $25,000 per annum $10; Mr. Cosgrave, $10; Dr. Wren, his great part in accomplishing reants; contemptaously refusing (like are less familiar with its actual to the Catholic schools of Salford $5; Mr. Windever, $5; A Friend, $5; Rev. F. Rohleder, a turkey; Rev. J. The conversion to the Catholic case of oranges, also figs, grapes and tirement of Chief Justice MacGuire Faith is announced of the actress, candy; Miss Doyle, 4 turkeys; the in the Northwest Territories and his Miss Ellalaine Terriss. She has been Wm. Ryan Co., 3 turkeys, a ham and replacement by Mr. Sifton's brother. received into the Church by Father a brace of partridges; Miss Coffee, a purely human and rationalistic; the At the same time comes the an-Bernard Vaughan, at the Jesuit case of oranges; Kelly Bros., a lamb; mrs. Cosgrave, a turkey; the Misses case of oranges; Kelly Bros., a lamb; other to ensure the spiritual educa-nouncement of Judge MacGillivray's Church, Farm street, London, the Smith, a case of oranges, a case of tion of the young clergy who are appointment in Nova Scotia to the ceremony being entirely private. Miss lemons and 3 turkeys; J. Sloan & Hynes, a turkey; Mr. Ferrier, a case of oranges; Mr. J. J. McLaughlin, one

> DEATH OF JOS. M. WHELAN. ronto Junction, Streetsville and at Weston. In Weston he had lived dursteamers from handling the coast very large crowd of representative citizens attended the funeral.

> > Jan. 12, Jos. M. Whelan, late C.P. R. agent at Weston. Funeral from the above address higher education. Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock, to LAND, TAXATION AND HIGHER St. Mary's Church, thence to Mount

Hope Cemetery

MR. HEARN RE-ELECTED Mr. E. J. Hearn, B.L. has been reelected by the Separate school Board GOVERNMENT BY FORCE

Hon. Edward Blake's Thorough Exposure of Tthe Tyranny Under Which Ireland Is Greaning-The Policeman's Baton the Only Law

We herwith print the magnificent organized by the Michael Davitt men: I must not seem to address you under false pretences, so let me at once disclaim the honor of sharing in erection of a new church for St. Pat- the embassy of my friends and com- questions of laborers and town tenrick's Parish. The present edifice, rades from the United Irish League of ants, as requiring attention, and turn mainly, the real condition of things Ireland. My credentials are but the to the overwhelming topic of the aginvitation of the league of this coun- ject of widest national interest, com- IRELAND HAS NEVER SURRENtry and the request of the delegates. ing home most directly to the whole the deep regret of Mr. Davitt and my- sential to the continued life of the self that you are prevented by Mr. been done upon it, which I leave to story; I recount no details of her his-Dillon's illness from hearing him to- Mr. Davitt. But after all, its present torical claims. You know that she may well cause me to appreciate be cessary, the confidence of the electors Patrick's is energetically forwarding night. He has, as I know, this meet state is agreed to be intolerable. Its has never freely surrendered her right ing much at heart. It was to have remedy is universally agreed to be to a national existence; that the unfittingly closed the campaign of the toils of which his strength has for the in congested districts, with consoli- of corruption and intrigue; that it that city's population, are about to be able, with the care of his devoted will, at best, take long. All the more am sure all here ask for him and her measure for compulsory sale, no efand their little children a happy meeting and a glad Christmas at

I do wish you could have heard him. I have known him long, and for ten dian co-religionists, whose unflagging I owe to the cause of liberty to give with great credit to himself in 1902, is undertaken, but with a view of years intimately. We have generally interest in the progress of religion you the best proof in my power of when he received and entertained on bettering the Irish people. Last year closely agreed in Irish politics, and I and education is well known. In the devotion with which your fame behalf of the citizens several distin- a new Irish parish, St. Michael's, was say with knowledge that he always Minister offers, so far, only legisla- have declined, while British have imrecognized the absolute need of reunion and wrought to that end.

A TRUE PORTRAIT OF JOHN DILLON

When time brought the possibility in sight he had achieved the honorajority party, of 71 out of 80 Nationble distinction of chairman of the maalist members. He had no real compolitical instinct, unflagging industry, ciliating confidence and attachment.

Your Grace will ever allow the gates posed and induced his friends to offer, and will of the nation avail not, and THE PER CAPITA TAX OF IREas the best proof of sincerity and that agitation, trouble and necessity LAND TO-DAY DOUBLE WHAT

That choice, then thought by some experimental, has been amply vindi-

GREAT MAN INSPIRED BY A GREAT CAUSE.

advice and cordial support; he is la- insuperable objection to the principle and to political students everywhere, boring incessantly for the success of of compulsion. the Chair, and he has thus shown an But wiser yiews seem at last to whom I address, part of what I am example worthy of a great man in- have dawned upon a number of the going to say is trite. But I own I spired by a great cause. I have seiz- landlords; these do not insist on the want to include such American citied the chance given by his absence to- ultimatum; they favor a conference. zens as have not had time or inclinanight to ease my heart of thoughts And thus there open, unexpectedly, tion for detailed study of the Irish which in his presence I must have great possibilies of good. But, in my question. I want rather to talk to suppressed. I know that the Irish in judgment, which I cannot too em- the man of open mind not yet conand I am sure the Irish in America pect of their realization depends on verted. I shall attempt no rhetoric; share their opinions.

We regret to chronicle the death of luctantly precede him this evening, abroad. a young man well known and highly but I shall not abuse my position by respected, Mr. Jos. M. Whelan by elaborating some great topics which name, who died on Monday, Jan. 12. obviously are for the delegate of the throat trouble for about sixtenn work and claims of the organization,

BORN.

Now, Ireland has by slow degrees, after long agitation, and dreadful sufinjustice. But there yet remain in gathering for the audience. Why? 51 Robinson street, on Monday, the category of specific wrongs unre-

EDUCATION.

I shall say but a few words.

vancement of the nation. But there countries where they are found.

The two other questions touch directly our material existence.

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentle- rather an aggravation.

THE LAND THE SUBJECT OF WIDEST NATIONAL INTEREST.

As to the land, I just name the ricultural holdings. This is the sub-My first word must be to express population. Its speedy solution is esthe conversion of the occupying ten- ion under which she suffers to-day ancy into a proprietary right; coupled was accomplished by the basest means dation of some holdings and migra- has never been truly accepted by the Gladly do we all learn that he will tion to others. This consummation nation, and can show no moral sancworse off than they are.

of the last, the fateful lesson that of lunatics. one-third larger. reason, argument and the judgment

The question I have thus sketched summarizes and illustrates in a condifficulty and its one solution.

IRISH LAND LORDS AND AMERI-

CAN COAL BARONS. I rejoice, however, to add that with- they were 48 shillings, and in 1894 cated by events, and Mr. Redmond in a brief space some hope has sprung they 24 shillings; they were justly commands the undivided confi- up in Ireland herself. True, the land- halved; so that, resources considered, dence and support of the party and lord organization has been acting in Britain is the lightest while Ireland the old and haughty spirit of the gar- is the heaviest taxed country in Eu-Government and Parliament; raising But notwithstanding these results, half a million with which to crush un- which seem to me of themselves to der the engines of the law Irish lead- condemn the system of government And so honest John Dillon played ers, organizers, and recalcitrant ten- under which they occur, those who union; to that end stepping down and some coal barons lately in the United working are sometimes puzzled, and out from his well-won official seat, States) to accept the proposal, even deceived by the claim that after Walsh, a turkey; St. Vincent de Paul but mounting to a place higher and though made from their own ranks; all the union is an arrangement posmore enviable far in the hearts and of a conference with the tenants' re- sersing the elements of fairness and affections of the Irish people. He is presentatives; laying down an impos- freedom. giving Mr. Redmond his invaluable sible ultimatum, and reiterating their Now, to Irishmen on the ground, > the continued firmness, determination, I must deal with some dry details; I At the desire of Mr. Davitt, I re- and activity of the Irish at home and have not time to enliven and enforce months and during that time he trav- and the vital subject of the land. On land no more to-night. Vital though hope to create or confirm that same elled out west, living in Calgary, Re- that, who else should speak in the it is, and sound as are the tactics faith in you. gina and Winnipeg, seeking a change presence of the father of the Land which at this time bring the land to the front and concentrate upon it that Ireland has a full, or, with her thing greater even than these-some-sive, representation in the British But I may perhaps venture, as an thing the acquisition of which would Parliament; and thus obtains her ade-Irishman, American born, whose high- involve all these, but the want of quate share of control, both legislaest ambition is to be a marching sol- which would leave Ireland, though all tive and administrative, in the local dier in the army of freedom and pro- else were won, still poor, degraded, as well as the imperial concerns of perative need of Irish self-government right. You remember the old couplet: that I would speak.

> > ALONE SOLVE THE IRISH QUESTION.

fering, wrung from Britain's unwill- and of listeners for such a topic, out ling hands, during the last hundred of all the world, I would choose Whate'er is best administrated. is years, several great alleviations of Washington for the place, and this Because this is the political capital I do not agree; because I think dressed some capital items, notably of a mighty republic, embracing half forms, especially in the direction of those touching land, taxation and the area of the Nothern Conti- securities for freedom, are often abso-their hearts beat high for Ireland.

On these topics, however, I repeat, shall say but a few words.

Because, among those who cannot tration of a law, may make it either beneficial or intolerable; that a seem-The lack of provision for university more are yet warm in sympathy with ing show of freedom, either in legislaeducation, available on a liberal and our cause, and unable to discern any tion or in administration, may be so equal basis to such of the children of reason why the Irish should be de- managed as to result in slavery. representative on the high school the majority as can profit by it, is a prived of those rights of government board. - great grievance, the redress of which at home which they so freely exer-

is essentail to the intellectual, moral, cise over themselves (and some say literary, industrial and political ad- over everybody else) in all other

Because this Continent, through whose wide expanse, from Atlantic to Pacific, from Pole to Gulf, the very The over-taxation is second only to winds of heaven seem to waft the the land. Ireland is yearly drained of breath of freedom; whose people have a wholly undue proportion of her tax- in each of the great divisions-yours address delivered in Washington, D. able resources. Though the wrong is and mine-so abundantly proved their dividual as the land wrong, yet it is State rights and Federal relations, Branch of the United Irish League of both the terms of the union and the which should be most responsive to plain, as has been established; and this Continent is, naturally, that America. We commend the speech to justice of the case demand early re- the claims of others for liberty and country is, again, of all the countries in the world, that whose clear and settled opinion on the Irish question ought most to weigh with England.

Now, my effort will be limited to bringing before your minds one point, as to freedom in Ireland under the ex-

DERED HER RIGHT TO NAtion for its continuance.

THE "UNION" OF THE SHARK AND ITS PREY

fective progress can be made, and strong partner has grown stronger, this is their demand. On this, even the weak partner weaker, the rich the majority of the Unionist constitu- richer, the poor poorer; that the popencies in the North agree; about nine- ulation of Ireland, which was onetenths of Ireland is agreed. But Eng- third of the whole, is now but oneland refuses. The Minister declares eighth; having actually decreased onethat "no government can settle the half, while that of Britain has in-Irish land question-it must be set-creased nearly twenty-five millions; tion including impossible and omit- measurably multiplied; that the inting essential provisions, which would, comes of Irish wage-earners average on the whole, leave the tenants much little more than half of those of British; that the scale of living of the Meantime, though the former abom- masses in Ireland is far lower, and inable system has been enormously the margin so narrow that in great modified, yet imperfections in the re- areas a single bad crop tends to famform have left some old and develop- ine, requiring state aid; while in ed some new evils; the tenant's in-Britain there is a steady improvement terest is in peril on each revaluation; in the standard of living, and in the there is no proper security for the reserve for emergencies. You know petitor. He had shown his qualities- fruits of industry; sale is declined; ex- that emigration has drained Ireland cessive rents are levied; more and of those in the prime of life, and the more the country is depopulated and relatively inferior conditions of the turned into cattle ranches instead of people have produced painful results; homes for men; coercion is in full for example, the proportion of deaf swing; once again Ireland is being mutes is near one-third larger than He had devoted his life to Ireland, taught in the new century the lesson in England; of blind, two-fifths larger;

IT WAS BEFORE THE UN-

You know that in this gloomy situcrete form the real nature of the Irish ation there is only one other relative increase; the taxes on commodities were, per head, in Ireland, in 1820, 11 shillings; in 1894, 22 shillings; they were doubled; in Britain in 1820 and accordingly to many of those abstract reasoning by anecdote or IRISH SELF-GOVERNMENT CAN example, or even adequately to sketch, still less to fill in, the details of the argument. But I wish to give you some reasons at any rate for the I speak of education, taxation and faith that is in me. So may I best

Some are caught by the statement

Were I given the choice of a place "For forms of government let fools conest: best."

lutely vital. But it is true that forms, Because of the population many however excellent they may be, are millions are of Irish descent, and often evaded or perverted; that the working of a system, or the adminis-

And this we say is, both legislative-(Contined on page 5.)

ENGLAND, "THE PREDOMINANT PARTNER," GOVERNS IRE-LAND AS A SUBJECT COUN-

The truth is, that Ireland lives un- and more unto the perfect day. der a pretended, but not a real system of liberty and equal rights; and the union under a common Parlia- their administration? ment lacks the essential securities of partner, the power, habitually used, of imposing her legislative and execuand of governing her in all local matters as a subject people.

What, after all, is the essential element of political freedom? It is this: That a people should be ruled under both legisfature and executive being peasant. responsible to the people whom they

But the Parliament which legisargument, and has in the end been forced, not through conviction of its consequences of longer refusal, to conof the Irish people pressed, while it has imposed on her legislation to which four-fifths objected. We are 80 out of 100 representatives of Ireland; cutors of their own will. but there are 570 representatives of Britain. They do with us what they so great is the danger of executive will; and the voice of the twenty Ireighty Nationalists.

NO CONCESSION TO IRELAND EVER GRANTED VOLUN-TARILY.

As to the making of laws, judge by the course of events: It took a generation, a tremendous agitation, and the imminence of civil war, to obtain Catholic emancipation; and then it In England herself, at any rate for measure of disfranchisement.

the abuse under which the Catholic tablished. And these securities are majority were forced, out of their maintained against a constantly prespoverty, to pay for the luxurious sup- ent danger inherent in human nature, port of the church of the minority, it- and demanding even to-day continued self rich in all save congregations.

of the minority.

It took nearly three generations, built. with the most tragic national history DANIEL WEBSTER ON THE WITin the world-with a sad, but yet not surprising record of violence and crime, to accomplish a great, but yet dress of the killing land system.

destructible vitality of the Irish claim day. Webster said: for self-government. And even now, "The first object of a free people is law. the allowance of that claim.

contrary, the brightest gleam of hope saults of ambtion and passion, from legislative actions springs out * * * * * tional government.

mind of a large proportian of the Bri-

A GOOD COMPLEXION

Who does not wish to

Who does not delight to see it?

It is the beauty of good health. It is the evidence of rich blood.

IRON-OX

TABLETS

MAKE THE BLOOD RICH AND PURE 50 Tablets 25 Cents

tish democracy; and it makes plain connected with political freedom? the true direction of our Parliamentary efforts, encouraging us, so long as we are firmly backed by the Irish people, in whom is our strength, to continue our exposure of misgovernment and our demand for freedom.

overcast, that gleam is brightening was administered in the Colonies by now, and will in due time shine more ing of the laws; and now what as to prominent grievance among those

The whole Executive system in Irefreedom. For how does it work? It land is excessively centralized, and clares, had made judges dependent on gives to England, the predominant worked without any responsibility to his own will alone for the tenure of Ireland, by the Chief Secretary, act- their offices. ing through his office, and through tive pleasure on the weaker island, various boards, and largely by the agency of the Royal Irish Con- confirm great principles, but the latstabulary, an army in the guise of a police force, playing an arbitrary er. The Habeas Corpus Act, the Bill party and exercising a despotic au- of Rights, the Trial by Jury, are thority over Ireland, wholly inconlaws which are made by their own sistent with the dignity and freedom than written constitutions. The eselected representatives, and adminis- of the people. Too often the con- tablishment of our free institutions is tered by their own chosen officers; stable's baton is the only law for the

I add that the laws, made as I have written instrument." described, have been administered in the spirit of their makers by officers tell you of Irish juries presently. ministration of justice consists in the lates for Ireland has for generations of those English statesmen who imsystematically refused to listen to pose them—officers mainly drawn from the ranks of the Irish minority.

soundness, but only from fear of the the laws are the expression of the settled popular will, their enforcement croachments of power. Why call a Ireland. The jury panel is struck. cede legislation for which four-fifths is generally a safe and easy operation. The people aid in the administration of the laws they themselves decide. But no! Let the judge give as often happens, there is a great mahave made. They are the ready exe-

But, even in these happy conditions, oppression, so imminent the risk of ish anti-Nationalist members is with the individual suffering when at issue than the people brought together in As each man is called, the Crown them more powerful than that of the with the State, so grave the need of the jury box, under the solemn sancof those laws to which the people instructions of enlightened judges. In have assented, and of preventing their what a vast majority of cases do they another name is drawn. This goes on perversion to tyrannical uses, that decide right! I am attached to this objects of free governments. "ETERNAL VIGILANCE IS

PRICE OF LIBERTY.

was accompanied by an extensive herself, in this great Republic, in the Dominion of Canada, in the Common-It took near two generations, great wealth of Australia, constitutional violence, and a tithe war, to remedy securities have accordingly been esvigilance against aggression.

It took over two generations, with Let no man say that the risk exists the same accompaniments-and with no longer, or that the old securities dynamite and Fenianism-to disestab- may now be abandoned. Do not in lish and partly disendow the church the heyday of freedom vacate the old fortresses of liberty your fathers

NESS STAND.

I am tempted in this city - the only partial and unsatisfactory re- scene of his most splendid triumphsinstead of any real words of mine, It took near four generations, with to adopt those of one of the very all the dreadful accompaniments to greatest expository reasoners your which I have alluded, to convince a Republic has produced, I mean Daniel great man (who, after all, failed to Webster. Let me quote some frag- by jury, the trial must take place part of the last hundreds years Ireconvert the whole of his political par- ments, which I pray you to contrast under high-class, independent and ty) of the fundamental justice and in- presently with the sad facts of the impartial judges permanently engaged der the form of freedom, but by after his heroic efforts, great and the preservation of their liberty; and lasting as have been their effect, a liberty is only to be preserved by England for England, are by England eighty-seven such monuments to freemajority in Britain as yet remains maintaining constitutional restraints almost habitually wrested from Ireunconvinced, and pronounces against and just divisions of political power. land. Nothing is more deceptive or more First, as to the condition, even un-I have told you how we stand legis- dangerous than the pretense of a de- der the ordinary law, while that is latively as to higher education, taxa- sire to simplify government. * * * The allowed to prevail. Instead of an inspirit of liberty is, indeed, a bold and dependent Bar, which may cherish permanent law, the "Crimes Act," Where, then, upon this survey of a fearless spirit, but it is also a cau- honorable aspirations to the Bench of was passed, which enables the Execu- proclaimed, long century, where in the legislative tious, sagacious, discriminating, far- Justice, to be realized by the proof tive, by proclamation, to suspend department does there shine one ray seeing intelligence; it is jealous of of capacity and public spirit, and by whenever and wherever it pleases the of real freedom, of that freedom which encroachmnet, jealous of power, jeal- the acquisition of public confidence, engenders loyalty to the constitution ous of man. It demands check; it you find a system under which the of the ordinary law; which provides created. as it stands, which should justify the seeks for guards; it insists on securi- Bar is bribed by the establishment of (even when a jury trial is still alabandonment of our claim for Home ties, it entrenches itself behind There shines no such ray. On the with all possible care against the as- fession dignity, light work, secure by the Crown, and by a special jury, of the great movement of Parnell and "The contest for ages has been to Gladstone, which gave us two gov- rescue liberty from the grasp of ernments and one House of Commons executive power. Whoever has enfavorable to Home Rule; and a bygaged in her sacred cause, from the product of which was the grant of days of the downfall of those great at the Bar, the fruit of great exercounty and rural government to Ire- aristocracies which have stood beland, a tremendous gain, the reluceween the king and the people to the ion might any day destroy. But in of itself, at once and without protant result of pledges made by the time of our own independence, has Ireland all these things are given, Tories to avert that worse thing, na- struggled for the accomplishment of that single object. On the long list is, I believe, generally double or That splendid gleam still lightens of the champions of human freedom treble their earnings at the Bar. the vista which these leaders cleared; there is not one name dimmed by the it reveals a great and cheering ele- reproach of advocating the extension ment of sympathy, acknowledgment, of executive authority; on the conand resolution at last evoked in the trary, the uniform and steady purpose of all such champions has been TO BE A GOOD IRISHMAN IS to limit and restrain it.

"I know not whether a greater improvement has been made in govern- tion of the Nationalist element, and quote Scroggs, or Saunders, or Jeffreys, on a question concerning the right of the habeas corpus, or the 'PACKING THE JURY' A STEADY right of suffrage, or the liberty of the Please remember this when I tell you of (Anglo) Irish judges presently: "In our country," Webster adds, speaking of the United States, "i was for years a topic of complaint I believe that, though for a while before the Revolution, that justice judges dependent on the British crown. The Declaration of Inde-I have dealt so far with the mak- pendence itself puts forth this as a grievances which justified the Revolution. The British King, it de-

> "Written constitutions sanctify and ter are prior in existence to the formsurer bulwarks of right and liberty the gradual work of time and experience, not the immediate result of any

Webster continues:

"The trial by jury is the popular Now, in a country truly free, where protection to individual rights, the is in agrarian and such like cases shield and defense against the enadjudge the facts of the case.

securing justice in the administration tion of an oath, and acting under the without cause shown or reason given these points have long been primary mode of trial, and will never consent view of the Crown are drawn, and to give it up.

> boast of England that she first develthem in Ireland to-day.

> Now let me summarize some main elements of the securities for freedom. There is the invaluable writ of Habeas Corpus. There is the protection of a great, free, and independent bar, on whose importance in the serpermit, once more to quote Webster. And there is the security of the recognized function, as a minister of justice, of the prosecutor for the State, whose duty it is to see that > the accused gets fair play. Other leading features are these: First, there must be a clear, plain and precise written charge, disclosing the alleged offense.

Next, and chiefly, the question of

But all these securities, sacred in a scandalously overpaid and overtenure, and large pensions. Now, barthe dignity, security, ease and pention, and which illness or loss of fash-

National road.

BAR TO ADVANCEMENT IN IRELAND. The result is substantial proscrip-

ment than to separate the judiciary a practical choice of almost the enfrom the executive and legislative tire Bench out of the ranks of the branches, and to provide for the decision of private rights in a manner has a grave effect on the condition of wholly uninfluenced by reasons of things at the Bar and on the Bench. state, or consideration of party or of How different is the condition from policy. It is the glory of the British the days when the overwhelming maconstitution to have led in the es- jority of the whole Irish Bar, headed tablishment of this most important by its greatest leaders, protested principle. It did not exist in England against the Union! Do not misunderbefore the Revolution in 1688, and its stand me. There are, thank God, introduction has seemed to give a new able and brilliant Nationalists at the character to the tribunals. It is not Irish Bar, but they are practically unnecessary to state the evils which had der a ban. There are just and wellbeen experienced in that country from intentioned judges on the Irish High dependent and time-serving judges. Court Bench; but they are, as a rule, In matters of mere property, in causes of one political complexion, and that of no political or public bearing, they the anti-Nationalist complexion; and might perhaps be safely trusted; but they live, move, and have their begreat questions concerning public ing in that element alone. Everyone liberty or the rights of the subject must see, without more words, the they were in too many cases not fit injurious results of the system I have to be trusted at all. Who would now described, on Bar and Bench and prosecuting officers alike.

BUSINESS IN IRELAND.

ress, or any other subject closely But the greatest interference, under

CHILD WEAKNESS.

You can worry for months about your weak child and not succeed in doing it a fraction of the good that comes from little daily doses of Scott's Emulsion.

The cure of child weakness is not the matter of a day but of steady common-sense treat-

Children like Scott's Emulsion and thrive on it.

Perfectly harmless yet powerful for good.

Send for Free Sample SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemista,

Again, please remember this when I the ordinary law, with the fair adpacking of the jury. This practice, which public opinion would not allow teacher of our system; the aegis of to be pursued for a day in England, systematically adopted by England in jury? say some. Let a judge, a Let us presume it is fairly struck. learned, virtuous, impartial judge, Take the case of a county in which, the charge to the jury on the law, jority-running sometimes to 90 per but let the people in the jury-box cent. or more-of Catholics. Naturally, a fair panel will contain a vast preponderance of Catholics. The names "There can be no better tribunal in each case tried are drawn by lot. Thereupon the man is set aside and till twelve names suitable in the these twelve form the jury. And (not, It is, as Webster remarks, the just of course, by design, oh, no! they say they never inquire, and do not know oped and applied these principles; it the religion) by some miraculous is her shame that she repudiates chance it turns out that the fifty or sixty men set aside were Catholics. and the twelve men left are Protestants. So the jury is struck; so the prisoner is tried; and so convictions are obtained. So justice is administered; and Englishmen wonder that the masses of the Irish people have vice of liberty I would like did time profound distrust, a deep contempt, a burning hatred of such administra-

IRELAND, UNDER ENGLAND, AL-MOST ALWAYS GOVERNED BY COERCION ACTS.

But this is not enough. More, much more, has to be done in order to accomplish the purposes of the English Government. There is, even so, an occasional mistake on the event of the control of the end of the event of the end of the event of occasional mistake on the part of the guilt or innocence, upon the facts, crown; an occasional disagreement of the jury. How are these evils, in jury of the people view of England, to be remedied? Lastly, and only second to the trial This is her way. During the greater land has been governed, not even unin the general administration of the means of Coercion Acts, Acts suspending the Habeas Corpus, and such like devices. There are, I believe, dom recorded in the statute books, an average of one a year. A PERPETUAL COERCION ACT.

But latterly, in the year 1887, a operation of the cardinal provisions ceased; and new crimes have been lowed) that it shall, at the instance strong defences, and fortifies itself staffed Judiciary, offering to the pro- of the Crown, be at a place selected meaning in Ireland a jury of the minristers anywhere in the rest of the ority party; which creates also some world, would, of course,, and do, for new crimes, and provides for the trial is yet good enough to convict the acand punishment of these and other cused under the Crimes Act. sio, gladly accept a much lower in- crimes under a very summary proced-clamation has permanently deprived and to them is added a salary which all Ireland of the ordinary securities, resolve.

ABOLISHED.

It is by a review of the actual working of this system that one can more in administration than in legis-

The Doctor's ORDERS: Fresh Air Good Food

For all those threatened with Consumption.

Heretofore it has only been the rich who could enjoy the luxury of Solid Silver Tableware, and no doubt it will be a pleasure to users of plated ware to learn that it may now be discarded, as the following astounding prosition places Solid Silverware within the reach of all. In order to popularize Standard Electine Remedies we have decided to give away 5,000 Nine-piece Sets of Solid Arizona Silver Tableware, consisting of 1 Butter Knife, 1 Sugar Shell, 1 Pickle Fork and 6 Teaspoons, all full size. This entire set will be given Free for selling for us only Eight 25 cent Boxes of Electine Medicines. Remember these Premiums are not plated, they are Solid Arizona Silver right through, and every set will assay plump 83½ Pennyweights, and are warranted to wear for 50 years. This beautiful metal is fast superseding Sterling Silver for Tableware—it is the same color, will wear longer and not tarnish so quickly. Regarding the intrinsic value of Arizona Silver it is only necessary to state that the metal from which it is made is now being used by the United States Government for Coin Metal, Millions of Dollars being coined into money yearly at the U. S. Government Mints. Those who have already received a set wonder how it is possible to give such valuable Premiums, but we are not looking for a profit on this transaction; we rely for our profit on future sales, induced by the beneficial results that always follow the use of our remedies. You can easily earn a set of this excellent Solid Silverware, as our Remedies are so well and favorably known that they meet with ready sale everywhere. This is a straightforward business proposition, by a Company of high financial standing, for grown persons with honest intentions. Send us your address plainly written on a Postal Card, say that you will make an earnest effort to sell the medicine, and we will send you 8 Boxes postpaid. Sell them, return us the money, and we will send you, postage paid, the full 9-Picce Set of Solid Arizona Silverware Absolutely Free. Sensible people will FIVE PER CENT. IN

> By means of a 5% GOLD BOND POLICY you can secure guaranteed investment and protect your family. in case of your death.

> > WRITE FOR PAMPHLETS. POLICIES ISSUED ON ALL APPROVED PLANS.

Confederation I ife

ASSOCIATION-HEAD OFFICE, TORONTO.

W. H. BEATTY ESQ.,

W. D. MATTHEWS, Esc. PREDERICK WYLD, Esc. MACDONALD.

What, then is the system under young. One of the many remarkab's sures is that of J. R. Ketcheson, Esq., J.P., of Madoc. Ont., whose portrait herewith appears. He was

OIL--SMELTER--MINES.

Dividend-Paying Minirg, Oil am Smelter Stocks, Listed and Unlisted, our Specialty.

DOUGLAS, LACEY & CO.

66 BROADWAY & 17 NEW ST., NEW YORK,

Rockiets g ving our successful plan for realizing the large interest and profits of legitimate min-ing, or land smelter investments, sub. blanks. ful-partieu ars, etc., sent free on application.

RUPTURE

SURE CURE

tion, pain, danger, or detention from work. No return of supture or further use for Trusses. Radical cure which, in matters pertaining to public justice, Ireland, is, at the will of the Executive, being ruled to-day? For two years past frequent use has been made of the permanent sectionthat is, the standing Coercion clause, and scores of summary prosecutions have taken place under its arbitrary provisions. Under the powers of the same act great districts, comprising nearly half of Ireland, have been recently

Thus the constitutional protections THE POLICE IN IRELAND PRACof the subject in vital matters have

Thus it is no longer necessary that there should be a clearly framed charge against the accused. The proceedings being summary, it is decided that a charge lacking the distinctness necessary for a good indictment

Thus no longer is the question guilt or innocence to be decided on the evidence by a jury of fellow citizens. Packing is not a sufficient weapon for the Crown.

The people, it is said, will not convict. And what is to follow on the trespass, or an ordinary contract? cutive action, to provide that senand applies these obnoxious provis- refusal to convict? A remedy of the ions in charges of unlawful assembly grievance? Reluctance to prosecute law, at once of the greatest diffior riot; charges, I need not tell this meanwhile? Adequate reform of the culty, and of the highest importance tions has been, with the rarest ex- audience, which may touch cloest the law? No! But take away the right of to a free people; the right of public tions has been, with the rarest exception, one road alone. It is not the Notional and alone. It is not the Notional and alone and subject to the law? No! But take away the right of public to a free people; the right of public meeting; the right of free speech; the law? No! But take away the right of public meeting; the right of free speech; the law? No! But take away the right of public meeting; the right of free speech; the law? No! But take away the right of public meeting; the right of free speech; the law? No! But take away the right of public meeting; the right of free speech; the law? No! But take away the right of public meeting; the right of free speech; the law? No! But take away the right of public meeting; the right of free speech; the law? No! But take away the right of public meeting; the right of free speech; the law? No! But take away the right of public meeting; the right of free speech; the law? No! But take away the right of public meeting; the right of free speech; the law? No! But take away the right of public meeting; the right of free speech; the law? No! But take away the right of public meeting; the right of free speech; the law? No! But take away the right of public meeting; the right of free speech; the law? No! But take away the right of public meeting; the right of free speech; the law? No! But take away the right of public meeting; the right of free speech; the law? No! But take away the right of public meeting in the law? No! But take away the right of public meeting in the law? No! But take away the right of public meeting in the law? No! But take away the right of public meeting in the law? No! But take away the right of public meeting in the law? No! But take away the right of public meeting in the law? No! But take away the right of public meeting in the law? No! But take away the right of public meeting in the law? No! But take away the right of public meeting in the law? No! But take away the right of public meeting in the law? No! But take away the right of public meeting in free and public meeting, speech and hands of one or two magistrates both right of a free press; most delicate facts and law, the whole question of points as to motive and intent, as to ALL SECURITIES FOR JUSTICE guilt or innocence; and so fix the fate malice, as to the nature of admissi- Graining in all its variety. Paper hangof the accused!

> THE SORT OF MEN ENGLAND APPOINTS TO JUDGE IRE-LAND. To the hands of what matter of missible line, cease to be political magistrates? To those of judges of and become criminal, the point at the rank, learning and independence of which one man's rights become anteaure which, with whatever draw- other's wrongs. backs, yet relatively mark the high All these are to be decided on the courts of the land? No! To the hands facts and the laws by these gentry. I of inferior men, called resident mag- say there is no class of cases which. istrates, not generally chosen from the in the interest of the State and of ranks of the Bar, mainly taken from the individual, more urgently require that very constabularly on whose than these-the maintenance of those practices and evidence they are call- very securities which have been aboled to decide, and from the military ished and naval services—with about the They suggest that there may be an very worst kinds of training for just appeal. We are entitled to a fair and conclusions on such issues!

salary, and they are besides liable to less satisfactory, in the conditions of by transfer at pleasure to less or court. more eligible districts.

charge of any particular case? Not on a general plan or rota in And then, a system of torture is

But the Executive in each case in six or twelve months or more m judge and jury rolled into one.

TICALLY A BRITISH MILI-TARY FORCE.

police are practically a military convict on the main charge they may force, drilled to arms, and accustom- sometimes give a short unappealable ed to arbitrary action and the free sentence for the crime, to which they use of violence toward the people-in tack on this further penalty for a country in which we know from sad longer term. And all this is a matter experience that there is such a thing so far in the discretion of the magisthey police court questions? Ques- ble. No. They involve points of fact and ble evidence, as to lawful or unlawful assembly, as to criminal conspiracy, as to the limits permissible in political agitation, the point at which words or conduct transgress the per-constitutional trial, not such a trial What is their tenure of office? They as this, even were the finding subject are absolutely dependent. They are to appeal. But such appeal as exremovable at the will of the Execu- ists is taken, not to the high court, tive on payment of three months' but only to an inferior judiciary, far punishment and amenable to reward the country, than would be the bigh

Nor does the right exist in all And how do they come to take cases. On sentences up to a month there is no appeal.

the discharge of their usual duty. now applied, under which sentences of which it directs a Crimes Act prose- be added. How is this managed? cution, chooses and sends down the There is an old law of King Edward particular magistrate it thinks most III., directed against rogues and suitable for the work in hand. And vagabonds and such disorderly perso this ex-constable, thus chosen, sons, which authorizes a magistrate takes the evidence, often that of con- to order such persons to give bail stables, mayhap of old comrades in to be of good behavior for a term, the force, and decides the facts and and, in default, to be imprisoned. the law, and gives the sentence; he is This antiquated law, introduced inte Ireland by Poyning's Act, is now being brought into play for uses dreamed of when it was passed. Even if the main charge fails, the magistrates frequently use this law And this is a country where the to inflict this penalty. And when they as police-manufactured crime and per- trates as to be practically almost jury, culminating in the conviction of final. By this device there may be a sentence of a month, unappealable, Now, what kinds of issues are and a second sentence of six or these which are to be so decided? Are twelve months more, also unappeala-tions of a petty debt, or a common And, after having managed, by exce (Continued on page 8.)

House and Sign Painting

ing etc., etc.

SOLICITS A TRIAL OFFICES: RESIDENCE 161 QUEEN ST. WEST 3 D'ARCY Opposite Osgoode Hall Te'ephone Main 2677.

READY IN JANUARY

The CANADIAN CATHOLIC DIRECTORY

PRICE 50c. a Copy.

ORDER NOW OFFICES: 9 JORDAN STREET. something appealing, something sad, in their gaze, that had made her symship many a time.

her lot to call for sympathy; bless you, no. stateliest, noblest gentleman imaginher Ladyship doted on him. And as even in the closest human relation- been of Heaven. for him no one could doubt, watching his proud fond gaze upon her, that head for him

She was quite as stately as he was, if it were not for the appeal in her eyes. A tall pale girl-not in least lily-like; indeed her soft warm it had seemed a little difficult for her pallor was rather like the tint of a to run away. He supposed that in white rose which has a golden pink at its heart, than that of the cold-

But for the appealing eyes, the pride of her air had matched her Lord's. She was proud indeed, by right, being the grand-daughter of old Lady Warrender, the proudest and most exclusive woman in England. A horriby the fact that her tender girlhood had been spent under the shadow of those insolent and frowning glances.

The old woman had driven her son, poor Archie, away from her, said the Countess' father, and remembered his ed all it held to the sky. winning ways, his sunny curls, his Irank and gentle eyes. Poor Archie! Some time on the threshold of mangood, when the rest of them ' were paving their fling at all the gaieties His Lordship himself dismissed Elliof dife, Archie threw off his mother's son, having noticed his wife's shrinkyoke, and disappeared.

A few years passed and old Lady Warrender again showed her face in way; but the woman had left the society. Archie was dead, and had house scowling and muttering to herleft her his little girl to bring up, self; and pretty Phyllis had come in. a soft pale child with frightened it was the middle of the season, blazing June weather with hardly a laughter of a Devonshire parson. The breath of air, when her Ladyship had aceld lady was quite frank about it to a longing to be gone to her little reweryone. She had not approved the fuge under the cliffs of Porthoe. She marriage, and she and her son had had been looking white and exhaustwarted. Now that the child's father ed, with purple rings about her eyes, and mother were dead she was re- and it was his Lordship himself who solved to do her duty by Archie's suggested that she should go, and

The child, listening to more or less reiled conversations about herself be take the yacht over to France. ween her grandmother and the world, desire for the sea which besets the mank closer as though she would Londoner when hot weather comes in waide herself up in some invisible cor? was upon him; and he imagined what and her brown eyes fluttered like it was with her. smooths in the twilight.

reamy white — that made her eyes to Southampton about the yacht, sent downy chickens, and the turkey's as a prodigal son in the true Church An' when my lips met hers, avis, kin fairer, and her soft lips redder. dington, and walked down to his club People said that Lady Warrender along a street which was furiously white at one side and deeply black on burn out a beauty, and had the wit the other, he though with a little dress her to enhance her budding trouble of the gratitude in his wife's

However, she had no chance to daz- couldn't she share the trouble with London with the girl's opening him? he thought. The little lad was seauty, for at seventeen Love sent his too, and the sorrow his. his Lordship by accident to the some- couldn't they comfort each other? what forbidding Lodge amid the The blinds were down in St. Auswas hiding away her pearl.

his Lordship. He was indeed al- board. He came in to find a shabby most a brilliant match for even Lady looking letter on his table, marked warrender's grand-daughter. The pair 'Important." were ecstatically in love with each the opened it, expecting to find a begging letter. The thing smelt rankanybody but the fierce, proud old wo- ly of imprudence and imposture. When who abhorred the very name of he had read it, he smiled contemptuhad happened long ago. "You have done very creditably," that moment would have discovered Pothoe, though her letters are receivlear in them. "But remember he is ed there. She is at Greenhurst Farm, Ammensely proud. Yes, I know, the Tremadoc, and passes for a single wo-Rev. Richard Lorimer of Dene-in-Ar- man." den, your maternal grandfather, was As he would have placed the note some one you need not be as named of. on the coals it fluttered from his It was fortunate that he was nothing hand and lay on the floor. He set worse than a scholarly out-at-elbows his heel on it as though it lied before how it has come between us. There country parson. St. Austell is very restoring it to the grate. It had no proud.

tones had actually stung like a whip. Still he was angry that it should be A shadow had fallen over the radiance possible for some creeping, writhing of her beauty, which since his Lord- thing of the darkness to strike at his ship had come had seemed to light wife. It shocked and stung his pride. up as though by a golden light from Perhaps he had been wrong in al-expression in Lady St. Austell's eyes; of her solitude. He would tell her about these who had eyes to see it. about the letter, and they would try other of children who read the ex- If he had seen Ellison's face as she sion for eternal sorrow because passed out of his doors for the last ings had only come to go, and the doubt. St. Austells were childless.

t to the loss of the heir. Anyhow away the secret of his wife's restingmore than he could bear he would He found No. 7 the Beach, easily, and take her Ladyship's face between his asked for Mrs. St. Austell. striking depths, and then with a lit-swer to his knock seared at him. tle sigh would bid her Ladyship pack West Country, which seemed to Then they be off inland. If you're never had sweet sleep except there." of opium in it.

was no reason why she should not is, to be sure." to be conscious of any discomfort.

ships there must be room at times for wanted to get away and think, her and strike across the moore till he proud for that." Ladyship had cried out one day when those lonely places she had the little delicate spirit of the boy more closely a meal. to herself. Anyhow she always returned with her eyes almost satisfied.

him enough for bearing with her. He could trust Phyllis to take care of her lady. Phyllis was West Counexplained the Countess' appealing eyes dog, that followed her Ladyship with dog, that followed her Ladyship with an adoring worship in them. There was a certain resemblance between her Ladyship's eyes and Phyllis', only that her Ladyship's were like deep pools full of shadows and hidden middle-aged men who had been at lights, whereas Phyllis' were like an Eton with Archie Warrender, the open pool in the moorland that show-

> Phyllis had replaced the sour spinster who had been her Ladyship's maid before she was married, and afterwards till old Lady Warrender died. ing aversion for her. He had treated her with lavish generosity, as was his made light of the difficulties. He too would leave the gaieties behind and

After all there was nothing they rowner, her head more russet. her her Ladyship and her maid off to Padeyes when he had bid her go.

thomy woods where Lady Warrender tell House. The yacht was getting up steam at Southampton. In a few She could have nothing to object to hours more his Lordship would be on

Love because of certain things which ously before setting light to it in the grate. "What is the secret between your she said to the shrinking girl. Any wife and your wife's maid?" it ran. one who saw those brown eyes at "She is never at No. 7 the Beach, power to trouble his mind, this The girl winced as though the thin thing of lies and dire suggestions.

lowing Lady St. Austell to lay down All that was over and done with, her rank so entirely when she made Lady Warrender was dead. Lord and these excursions. It gave a chance to Lady St. Austell had been married such creatures as the writer of this more than half a dozen years. They letter was. Anyhow the thing had ere more in love with each other spoilt the pleasure with which he was than ever. Still her Ladyship, uncon- looking forward to the run before the scious of betrayal, revealed to the wind to Cherbourg. Stay! Why not to strike her. She looked at him half sympathetic gaze, some trouble push- take the yacht round to Porthoe? Alice would be glad to see him by dangerous. It was not every one who saw that this time. She had had nearly a week etimes it was a tender-hearted to discover who the writer could be.

The wind veered to the southeast in e never spoke of it; but when the place. He walked over the cliffs, a

It was the Countess' fancy to go in- her letters. The cousin calls for them are breaking my heart. Why do you cognito, so to speak. Otherwise there twice a week. A great bundle there say such things?

Her Ladyship had eyes like the which his Lordship was master of word, and noticed that two or three face. "I have always known that you most velvety brown pansy. There was He, being made of finer stuff than of his own letters were among them. would never forgive me. That is what wife should go away for rest to a turned away, lifting his hat to the the delight of your love." little fishing village where she would old woman, that he had received a pathetic heart go out to her Lady- be known as Mrs. St. Austell even if violent shock-not that he doubted he himself was too much used to his Alice, of course; only that she had have consented to the deceit if I had Not that there could be anything in circumstances of rank and importance secrets from him; that it was all unnot loved you better than honor and He could understand too, though living at another; this passing off her good?" it made him sigh, that his wfie, when maid as her cousin. It was incredible. she made these excursions preferred He had been as sure of his wife's dig- the world had been rolled off his But no, for Rory's gone long since, able. It was plain to be seen that his absence. He said to himself that nity and sense of honor as he had

He left the village behind him starcame to Potwhele and then ask further, he went on, forgetting that he had alteady had ten stiff miles of walking and gone some hours without

As he went on, the tumult of his Alice would have an explanation. He And her manner towards himself was had never really doubted her. The exquisite as though she could not love hurt had gone no further than his pride and his concern for her dignity. He had left Plymouth so early and had walked so quickly that after all smelt of cream. it was still early in the forenoon when he found himself climbing the she said. "Trust Granny for that!" hilly, twisting, green lane that led to Greenhurst Farm. He could see its together. golden ricks and twisted chimneys, its gables covered with ivy and honeysuckle, at the end of the lane now. The lane meandered along the side of a mild hill. There was a little valley below him with a stream sporting in it, so harmless that it might be crossed by stepping-stones. Beyond it, was another mild green hill.

out on the velvety green space in churning at an old-fashioned churn. The figure in its print frock was exquisite. The head-why * * the girl the scared face of his wife.

He shrank from the terror in blow. He had no time to think what a beautiful dairy-maid she was.

so frightened. Come and tell me why you are masquerading here." She dropped the handle of the churn. He took her hand, wet with the milk, brood He felt that his wife was trembling and he made her sit down on a stone apple-trunk.

"Now," he said, still holding her hand.

"You will never forgive me," fear of an animal or a child. "I love you," he said, "and I can forgive you anything except fear of "You will never forgive me,"

you will turn away from me." "As who said?"

into acquiescing in her deceit; and I and led me back to the Church which haps I could have stood out against her. I couldn't lose you. Now, I have by my example those souls who lost you forever."

She covered her face with her hands, and shook from head to foot. "You have not lost me," he putting an arm about her. "I am always yours. Now tell me what was the deceit." She looked at him then, dropping her hands into her lap. She had the expression of one at the stake.

"It is good to tell you, after all," she said drearily. "If you could know was never any Rev. Richard Lorimer, perpetual curate of Dene-in-Arden. My grandfather is the old man there.' She indicated with a movement of had turned their backs on. her head the farmhouse, which they "And Phyllis is your cousin?"

asked. "Yes; she is my cousin. She was always devoted to me in the old days I was so happy. She is the only one here who knows my title."

"Is that all?" The gentleness of his voice seemed as though she thought he must be

"That is all." She thrust out her hands in vague appeal. "All the time I loved them still," she said. "I have never known happiness since I left them. When I came back her all my cares fell e little heir to so many desirable time he would not have had much away from me. Vernon, they have been anything but honorable and respected. They are as old as the hills His Lordship was too good a lover time to give them a good run to the here. My old grandfather, Vernon reliness of the brown eyes became stiff walk of ten miles, to Porthoe. never a rough word. They are God-nosis was right." fearing, self-respecting. How I used to long for them in the old days with two hands, and look down into those The old woman who had come in an- Grandmother Warrender. The smell of the hay-fields, the apple-orchards, the on the chest may not mean consump "She haven't been here for a week cider-making. I have a little bed- tion, but are bad signs. Allen's Lung have a balm for her Ladyship's cares. like to see her you may as well take "Child, child!" he cried out, "you"

"She said you would cast me off," have gone to one of the fine homes He received the bundle without a she went on, looking at his working most men, could understand why his No one would have supposed, as he I had to look forward to through all "You cared?" he said

> "Cared! Oh, Vernon, would I even derhand, this giving one address and honesty and everything that is

He sighed as though the weight of heart. Then he caught her to his breast.

"You will never be afraid of me the soul to be solitary. Not that he ing at its height and appearance, and again?" he said. "You will come and the very sun shone out of her bronze fet the need himself. But he was having received vaguely an impression go here openly, and Phyllis must take ready to be endlessly patient with the of the old woman's instructions to her place as your cousin. What do we subleties of a woman's nature. She him to take the path over the Head care what people say? We are too

She looked at his impassioned face with a wild surmise. "You forgive me?"

"To think that you should have lived between two fears, all your days, except when you stole back here! Now thoughts became quieter. Of course I want to see them. There are to be Ye no more secrets, child. And-I have just discovered I am hungry. I have An' Father Pether laid on your been afoot since eight o'clock.'

Then she believed him, and round his neck a pair of arms "You will have a delicious meal,"

Then they went into the farmhouse

RETURNS TO THE FOLD

At frequent intervals in recent years The Rock and other Protestant papers published in England have held up to Ye were first at heavin' the shouldthe admiration of their readers the Rev. Count Campello, formerly a An' you faytures was well-favored As he closed the last gate and came canon of St. Peter's, Rome, who gave up the faith and lectured in London front of the red-brick, Elizabethan against the Church. The Count has refarm-house, he saw the figure of a girl pented and returned to the fold, and The girls admired Mick Moran when The London Catholic Times invites Up and down went the handle. He its Protestant contemporaries to recaught a glimpse of beautiful arms. produce the following letter address- An' och! how Irish girls have changed to Cardinal Vaughan: "Your Eminence, with a heart full turned and looked at him, and he saw of holy joy I write to inform you They aren't, sure, the same at what has taken place here in Rome this morning, the 8th of December, eves as though she had dealt him a feast of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary, in the beautiful dairy-maid she was.

"Come, child," he said. "Don't look Latino Americano. After having gone with fringes, flounces, bustles; through the holy spiritual exercises in this venerable college, I have had the The sorra diraim of such, girls did, supreme grace to solemnly abjure on this day at the hands of His Grace and led her aside where the gate open- Archbishop Adami, Delegate to His No: Una looked far prettier in sthriped into an overgrown orchard. No one Holiness Leo XIII., the Old Catholic had come out of the farmhouse and sect to which since the year 1881 I She cut no heathen fringes they were alone, excepting for the have had the misfortune to belong. She always wore white — thick need really wait for. He telegraphed fore them, and the hen with her moment, in which I find myself again my arm aroun' her waist, of Jesus Christ, would not be complete if I did not inform Your Emi- She wore a nate white bonneteen, but nence of what has occurred, and seat that had been built about an through you all the English Catholics An' sorra take the bustle, when I whom I have so much scandalized by my unhappy apostasy. Whilst I discharge this agreeable duty I cannot They're talkin' still of Irelan'. she find words strong enough to condemn panted, and her eyes had the helpless my past conduct and to express the An' for redhress they're callin'-praydepth of my sorrow for gaving given pain to all the faithful in England, It seems to me-though I am ould and especially to Your Eminence and your worthy predecessor, Cardinal The rem'dy long ago we used she Manning, when by my presence in repeated. "It will be as she said- London I, as it were, triumphed in my infamy, otherwise my apostasy. God be thanked that by a special act "My grandmother. She terrified me of His mercy He has touched my heart loved you, oh, I loved you. Else per- I should not have abandoned. May He The worl' has grown so mortial wise! grant me grant me grace to lead back through my unhappy work have been induced to wander from the right path, a fact which now causes me inconsolable remorse. I am certain that The lad's that's crammed with larn-Your, Eminence, following the example of our merciful Lord, will pardon me the serious annoyance I formerly gave you, and I hope that this my sincere return to the one true Church of the Saviour may move those distinguished Anglicans whom I have known to embrace the truth, and that my sad conduct may not confirm them in the error in which they were born and which but for me they would perhaps have abandoned owing to their virtuous lives, as did Newman, Faber, Manning and others not a few. I shall be immensely grateful to Your Eminence if you make public this expression of my most sincere feeling. Thus in my great sorrow for the erreneous course I have pursued I shall at least before I was taken away from where have the satisfaction of having done all in my power to make reparation where great scandal was formerly given through my blindness. With a heart overflowing with joy at finding myself reconciled with God and His Church, I pay my homage to Your Eminence's dignity and with profound Christ. "Rev. D. C. Enrico di Campello." The letter is dated Collegio Pio-Latino Americano, 8th December, 1902.

"Why did they operate on that poor not to be aware of that intangible west coast. They put in at Penzance. if you knew him. My dear old grand- man when they knew the moment he mysteriously disappeared when the nething. Probably he too ascribed His Lordship was not inclined to give mother. I belong to it all. Would my was pulled out of the wreck that his rain came on, and rejoined the party father have married my mother if she injuries were fatal?" "I believe they had not been Nature's lady? There is wished to make sure that their diag-

LOSS OF FLESH, cough, and pain sportsmen.

WHEN I WAS TWENTY-WAN.

(By Seumas MacManus.)

It's a stormy night, me pipe's alight and I sit me by the fire, There's divil a soul to disturb me but the cat with kittens by her, I'll hitch me chair-a good oak log-right up ag'in the brace, And cross me legs in comfort-so! an' smoke me pipe in paice. I'd like to have a shanach. * now, with Rory or with Dan,

Or any of the boys I knew when I was twenty-wan.

an' Dan is gone likewise, An' many another-like that puff, started for the skies! Ye're most an ould man now yourself

-come Lammas, seventy-seven, An' the worl' is rowlin' ye quickly to the goolden gates of Heaven. Faix, Mick, me boy, it's quare think what dhroll things filled cacy of Benedictine Salve.

your span-There's changes, troth, an' strange John O'Connor, Esq., Toronto: ones too, since you were twentywith you unto the Althar.

matthermonial halther? Ye mind her sweet wee face, agrah dark hair, an' sloe-black eyes, That murdered many a stout lad's heart ere you bore off the prize? Ye carried a head as high them times as any in the lan'.

For, throg's, ye were consaited, lad, when you were twenty-wan.

An' maybe with some raison, too for ye were strong an' hale, An' tall an' straight as a poplar with a heart that couldn't quail;

er-stone, an' first at caman play; to, the naybors used to say, But howsomiver that may be, as laist

it's thrue, me man, he was twenty-wan

ed in years that have gone since John O'Connor, Esq., Toronto, Ont .:

they used to be, me fren'; But copyin' afther London dames, an' dhressin' up like dolls, With under-skirts, an' over-skirts, an an' gloves an' boots of tan,- when I was twenty-wan. ed petticoats, I vow, her sweet, white brow, shrieking black piglets that fled be- The happiness I experience at this The tightest stays she iver wore was wasn't paint I'd taste: no hat like a pan, twenty-wan. bitther wrongs an' woes:

in' to her foes; an' maybe in the Wrongreadier, an' more sthrongan' rose up till a man; Wrong, wrong!" ye say:-well, blood was hot when I was twenty-wan.

an' wisdom's still the rage! Trath, Mick agrah, I sorely doubt ve're far behin' vour age; Your musty ould worl' notions, iv what is wrong an' right in' now, would just call blather-

But stiff, I say, if larnin' goes with cunnin', han' in han', Give me the honest ignorance I foun at twenty-wan!

Well, God be thankit! ye had cares an' throubles in ver day, But bore them, knowin' thoroughly the Man Above's good pay; An' ye weren't, throg's, mistaken for now ye're ould an' ripe, An' your days glide like the smoke- Mr. John O'Connor: wreaths there, that's curlin' from vour pipe:

An' like that pipe you'll soon go out -to ashes turn, me man, Jist as ye've seen your comrades go since glorious Twenty-wan!

THE DRY PROFESSOR. Under circumstances which The Liverpool Post reports, Professor Blank, J. O'Connor, Esq., City: who was born dry, and is prone to Your Eminence's devoted servant in cently achieved additional dryness for himself.

He was among a large party shootdenly a heavy storm of rain came on. No shelter was at hand, and the sportsmen were drenched. All, at least, but Professor Blank. He had rain came on, and rejoined the party when the sun was shining again. To arm, which entirely disabled me from work, in three days, and I am now completely cured. I suffered greatly from piles for many months and was as dry as one of his own books.

"How did you manage to escape a wetting?" growled one of the dripping

"As soon as the rain came" on up and take Phyllis, her maid, with come Thursday," she said. "She slept room in the roof. The yellow roses Balsam loosens the cough and heals fessor Blank, blandly, "slipped off all r, and be off to the quiet place in one night here, hersefl and her cousin. are all across the window. I have inflamed air passages. Not a grain my clothes, and sat down on them till the shower was over."

The Rheumatic Wonder of the Age

BENEDICTINE SALVE

This Salve Cures Rheumatism, Felons or Blood Poisoning. It is a Sure Remedy for Any of These Diseases.

A FEW TESTIMONIALS

193 King street East, Toronto, Nov. 21, 1902. John O'Connor, Esq., Toronto:

DEAR SIR-I am deeply grateful to the friend that suggested to me. when I was a cripple from Rheumatism, Benedictine Salve. I have at intervals during the last ten years been afflicted with muscular rheumatism. I have experimented with every available remedy and have consulted, I might say, every physician of repute, without perceivable benefit. When I was advised to use your Benedictine Salve, I was a helpless cripple. In less than 48 hours I was in a position to resume my work, that of a tinsmith. A work that requires a certain amount of bodily activity. I am thankful to my friend who advised me and I am more than gratified to be able to furnish you with this testimonial as to the effi-Yours truly, GEO. FOGG.

Tremont House, Yonge street, Nov. 1, 1901.

DEAR SIR-It is with pleasure that I write this unsolicited testimonial, and in doing so I can say that your Benedictine Salve has done more for me in one week than anything I have done for the last five years. My mind the day that Una tripped ailment was muscular rheumatism. I applied the salve as directed, and I got speedy relief. I can assure you that at the present time I am free of pain. I can recommend any person afflicted with Rheumatism to give it a trial. I am, Yours truly, (Signed) S. JOHNSON.

> 288 Victoria Street, Toronto, Oct, 31, 1991. John O'Connor, Esq., Nealon House, City: DEAR SIR-I cannot speak too highly of your Benedictine Salve. It has done for me in three days what doctors and medicines have been trying to do for years. When I first used it I had been confined to my bed with a spell of rheumatism and sciatica for nine weeks; a friend recom> mended your salve. I tried it and it completely knocked rheumatics right out of my system. I can cheerfully recommend it as the best medicine on the market for rheumatics. I believe it has no equal. Yours sincerely.

JOHN McGROGGAN. 475 Gerrard Street East Toronto, Ont., Sept. 18, 1961.

John O'Connor, Esq., Nealon House, Toronto Ont .: DEAR SIR-I have great pleasure in recommending the Benedictine Salve as a sure cure for lumbago. When I was taken down with it I called in my doctor, and he told me it would be a long time before I would be around again. My husband bought a box of the Benedictine Salve, and applied it according to directions. In three hours I got relief, and in four days was able to do my work. I would be pleased to recommend it to any one suffering from Lumbago. I am, your truly, (MRS.) JAS. COSGROVE.

7 Laurier Avenue, Toronto, December 13, 1961.

DEAR SIR-After suffering for over ten years with both forms of Piles, I was asked to try Benedictine Salve. From the first application I got instant relief, and before using one box was thoroughly cured. I can strongly recommend Benedictine Salve to any. one suffering with JOS. WESTMAN. Yours sincerely, piles.

12 Bright Street, Toronto, Jan. 15, 1902.

John O'Connor, Esq., Toronto: DEAR SIR-It is with pleasure I write this word of testimony to the marvellous merits of Benedictine Salve as a certain cure for Rheumatism. There is such a multitude of alleged Rheumatic cures advertised that one is inclined to be skeptical of the merits of any new preparation. I was induced to give Benedictine Salve a trial and must say that after suffering for eight years from Rheumatism it has, I believe, effected an absolute and permanent cure. It is perhaps needless to say that in the last eight years I have consulted a number of doctors and have tried a large number of other medicines advertised, without receiving any benefit.

Yours respectfully, MRS. SIMPSON.

65 Carlton Street, Toronto, Feb. 1, 1902. John O'Connor, Esq., 199 King Street East: I was a sufferer for four months from acute rheumatism in my left arm; my physician called regularly and prescribed for it, but gave me no relief. My brother, who appeared to have faith in your Benedictine Salve, gave enough of it to apply twice to my arm. I used it first on a Thursday night, and applied it again on Friday night. This was in the latter part of November. Since then (over two months) I have not had a trace of rheumatism. I feel that yas to the efficacy of Benedictine Sal ou are entitled to this testimonialve in removing rheumatic pains.

Yours sincerely, M. A. COWAN. Toronto, Dec. 30th, 1901.

John O'Connor, Esq., Toronto: DEAR SIR-It is with pleasure I write this unsolicited testimonial. and in doing so I can say to the world that your Benedictine Salve In my young days, each took a pike thorou, hly cured me of Bleeding Piles. I suffered for nine months. I censulted a physician, one of the best, and he gave me a box of salve and said that if that did not cure me Iwould have to go under an operation. It failed, but a friend of mine learned by chance that I was suffering from Bleeding Piles. He told me he could get me a cure and he was true to his word. He got me a box of Benedictine Salve and it gave me relief at once and cured me in a few days. I am now completely eured. It is worth its weight in gold. I cannot but feel proud after suffering so long. It has given me athorough cure and I am sure it will never return. I can strongly recommend it to anyone afflicted as I was. It will cure without fail. I can be called on for living proof. I am.

Yours, etc., ALLAN J. ARTINGDALE, with the Boston Laundry. 2561 King Street East, Toronto, December 16, 1901.

John O'Connor, Esq., Toronto: DEAR SIR-After trying several doctors and spending forty-five days n the General Hospital, without any benefit, I was induced to try your Benedictine Salve, and sincerely believe that this is the greatest remedy in the world for rheumatism. When I left the hospital I was just able to stand for a few seconds, but after using your Benedictine Salve for three days, I went out on the street again and now, after using it just over a week, I am able to go to work again. If anyone should doubt these facts. send him to me and I will prove it to him.

Yours forever thankful, PETER AUSTEN. Toronto, April 10, 1902.

DEAR SIR-I do heartily recommend your Benedictine Salve as a sure cure for rheumatism, as I was sorely afflicted with that sad disease in my arm, and it was so bad that I could not dress myself. When I heard about your saive, I got a boxof it, and to my surprise I found great relief, and I used what I got and now can attend to my daily household duties, and I heartily recommend it to anyone that is troubled with the same disease. You have this from me with hearty thanks and do with it as you please for the benefit of the afflicted

Yours truly, MRS. JAMES FLEMING. 13 Spruce street, Toronto. Toronto, April 16th, 1902.

DEAR SIR-It gives me the greatest pleasure to be able to testify to reverence have the honor to remain thrust his dryness upon others, rethe curative powers of your Benedictine Salve.

For a month back my hand was so badly swollen that I was unable to work, and the pain was so intense as to be almost unbearable. Three days after using your Salv as directed, I am able to go ing on the moors of Scotland. Sud- work, and I cannot thank you enough. Respectfully yours,

72 Wolseley street, City. J. J. CLARKE. 114 George street, Toronto, June 17th, 1902. John O'Connor, Esq.: DEAR SIR-Your Benedictine Salve cured me of rheumatism in my

Yours sincerely, T. WALKER, Blacksmith Address C. R. JOHN O'CONNOR, 199 KING

FOR SALE BY went by off by myself," returned Pro- WM. J. NICHOL, Druggist, 170 King St. E.

J. A. JOHNSON & CO., 171 King St. E.

THE SAME OF THE PARTY OF THE PA Fate and Marriage Olara

CHAPTER XXVII.

Linton was looking anything but her best. There was a trown upon her brow, an angry light in her blue eyes, that sadly spoilt her beauty. Her tall, well-developed figure was arrayed in one of Worth's latest and most costly creations, her snowy neck was covered with diamonds, and her fair hair was dressed high upon her head in the most becoming fashion. Yet as she swept her handsome drawingroom from end to end the richness of her apparel, the sptendor of her jewelc, gave her little pleasure, for her soul was full of wrath.

"Every day he becomes more bearable," she muttered, clenching her fists tightly. "He may bet and play cards and lose money as he pleases, but if I have a bill a little larger than he thinks fit, he grows stingy and mean to an alarming extent, and there is a row. My drawer is now full of unpaid bills, and the creditors are pressing. He laughed scornfully. and flatly refused to pay them, when I ventured to tell him of one or two to-day. So anything may happen unless-yes, my only nope is in Sir Peter Goldsmid. He is rich and generous, and has something to gain by keeping me as a friend.

The frown left her brow, her eves became serene, her tips smiled sweetly as the door opened and Sir Peter Goldsmid was ushered in.

"My dear Sir Peter," she cried, holding out both hands at once and gliding forward softly to meet him, 'how quite too charming! I was afraid, really quite afraid, to dare to send you such a shor invitation. But. knowing what a true friend you are-

"You felt sure I would come, lighted, if only fortunate enough to Mrs. Danvers has foolishly engaged as ing upstairs, Lady Linton, so there his sake you must let Mr. Fairfax here I am. You got my telegram, dear Lady Linton, of course?"

"To my joy, yes-whilst dressing a few moments ago.

His eyes rested for a moment upon the elegant satin gown and rich lace, upon the diamonds on her neck and in her hair.

"A most successful toilette. Your ladyship understands the art of dressing better than any lady I know. You are looking charming to-night.' But as he made this speech with a view to putting his hostess in good humor, he remembered Margaret's simple costume, and smiled. She required but little adornment. She "walked in beauty," but the beauty was all her own, and required neither satin nor lace to set it off. "Base flatterer!" Lady Linton cried, with an arch glance, far from guessing where his thoughts had led

"Not at all. I speak quite truly. The gown is in exquisite taste."

She sighed, and caressed the lace upon the bodice with loving fingers. "If it had not to be paid for, yes. But the day of reckoning always comes, Sir Peter."

He bent towards her. "And it has come to you, Lady Linton, in a not too pleasant way, I suppose?"

vou know?' He laughed, and as she raised her head their eyes met. "I only guessed,

Her eyes fell and her color deepen-thing-says I may sell, or-" "That was his little joke. But menawhile," he pressed her hand, ed resolutely at the carpet. "you/must let your friends help you. I for one am ready to see you through this time." She breathed heavily, and bent might have been a mistake?" down to hide the expression of relief and pleasure that lit up her whole face. "Oh, Sir Peter, you are too, quite too generous. You have no idea row this time."

"I have a shrewd suspicion that it lieved for years, and that Archibald is not small. But I shall want con- Fane had married-" siderable interest for my money." She looked up startled, and he that Linton has no right to-" laughed, highly amused by her horrified expression. "You cannot expect all for nothing." "No," nervously, "of course not.

But, you see-" "Name your sum," he cried, gaily, picion. It is too horrible to think mine. So no fretting, remember." photographs yet?"

"and then I'll tell you the interest I of."

few words in his ear.

laughed. "What an expensive luxury wife?"

at the last moment." what a clumsy, ill-made man he was, said, wondering at her pallor. "Does ing his hand across his brow. "The bounded suddenly up to the couch not lace my right shoe or put my as he stood up and walked over to she suspect her husband?" he thought dullness and gloom, the noise and bus-the mantel-piece. He was not likely quickly, "or is it only terror for the of town; the hurry and rush of be far away, and we must not ask left knee. to attract a good-looking and expen- what might be should my supposition London are not in my line. To leave him impertinent questions about his sive wife, she told herself, so he need prove true?"

You are so generous; you would let > rimony. Now, have you?" Sir Peter grew grave, and went been-am-tempted, Lady Linton. I am madly in love."

> it's not so surprising, after all." "I hope not-I trust not. I am not soul." "Margaret? Margaret Fane? My step-daughter?"

"Your step-daughter. Yes. t-if," his face grew scarlet, "you will help me there."

"Well, really, and," with a little "you will ask for interest laugh, also, Sir Peter?" "Not also. That-your good-will and help with Margaret is the interest I require." She looked at him. "And what if my help prove useless? What if you should fail?" He caught her hand. "I will not blame you, and will ask no further interest-that is, if I feel sure that you have done your best for me." "Oh," laughing lightly, well pleased at his easy conditions, "you may be sure I'll do my best. And now, how shall I begin? Shall I get Margaret up to town again?"

"No. Leave here where she is. saw her to-day. She is happy at Riversdale."

"You saw her to-day? Then you saw my poor Hugo, I suppose?" "Certainly. He too is happy Riversdale.

"But frail and feeble as ever?" "I fear so. And greatly enamored of a young gentleman-a namesake of steward, and seems inclined to treat as a friend."

"Oh!" Lady Linton glanced at him quickly. "And does Margaret favor him too?"

"I scarcely know. But he is a promising young fellow, and fit for something better than acting as steward. I am taking him into my office. am going to make his fortune."

"How kind of you! So he is to come to town, and Margaret is to stay in the country?"

"That is my idea." young gentleman to the Colonies." over, Lady Linton. To ship John artist was. ane to the Colonies would be possible. At least, I could not do

"John Fane? Does he claim any relationship with my husband's fam-

Sir Peter turned aside, that she flitted across his face.

say, is almost extinct.' "Almost, I believe. Failing Hugoand his life is a poor one," with a "Yes; truly, it has. But how did little sigh-"Margaret and Doris will great surprise. He could not imagine inherit everything. The title will then what had prompted the solicitor to then she asked if John was a rela-ly!" she murmurs, presently, and the die with my husband." "Exactly. So I thought. But is able perplexity, to his mother. but my surmises were correct. You Lord Linton quite sure that his cousare at this moment a little hard in, the late Lord Archibald Fane, who have put such an idea into his head." was killed in a railway accident, you Isabel cried delightedly. "And my remember, left no heirs?" so." She walked across the room do well, and it is an immense relief is adamant. He does not care what and turned up the electric light in to me to get you away from Riversmy troubles are, and used most insuf- the centre of the ceiling. "Poor Ar- dale. It is absurd to think of you as ferable language in speaking of them chibald was separated from his wife, a steward on any estate!"

never had any children."

"A mistake." She stared at him. ing."

"What on earth do you mean? No mistake was possible. your husband and his cousin both be- John's behalf.

"Good heavens! Would you suggest "I was putting a case, supposing a thing that might have happened." "That would mean ruin to us all. will have to go to London." Sir Peter, pray do not poison my

He smiled grimly. "It is not a make a man ponder-hesitate, even a question you should ask Linton - looked upon it his eyes grew sudden- of one of John's big albums. not me."

"The girl who married you would there was no doubt about the mat- care? Hugo will lament openly-but the world for a brother or cousin." my shoes.

came home."

ther before or after death."

chibald's wife.

her spend as she pleased. But you way, and were accepted without dis-tion now held by her father, I can-Just before Sir Peter arrived Lady have never, wise man that you are, pute at the time. The papers told the not draw back. I must act in justice been tempted to such a folly as matward to say it was not true."

> She looked at him in speechless am- on a high-standing cabinet. "And I seems will ing to help in this difficult azement. "Really? Well, of course, cannot think why you are so anxious task, which has been the ambition of old, Lady Linton. I am rich, and I Margaret, and are so desirous of be done without beinging an instant's eyes upon her face. "Moon? I don't love sweet Margaret with my whole marrying her.".

> Sir Peter smiled, and went over to her side. "My dear Lady Linton, I Hugo lay upon his couch, which was gan to fold up her work. You are too merely put the case-imagined what strewn with pictures and photographs literal, dear. But here comes Mr. might possibly be true-asked, for a pair of scissors and a paintbox. His Fane. I wonder what he will think you want my help. You shall have the sake of information, whether your little face was white and wan; there about the portrait. I'm sure he'll be husband had any doubts as to the identity of Madeline Delorme."

> > "Had he entertained such doubts. them to me?"-

Sir Peter looked at her closely. "I not, you may be sure, anxious to injure Margaret in any way. And if," he laid great stress on the word, "you help me, and all goes well, I shall never raise the question." "And if you don't succeed?"

"Bah! we'll not think of anything so miserable-I've sworn to win Margaret, and I will. You must urge ervone.

She raised her eyebrows and shrugged her shoulders, then laughed. "I'll won't stay long." tell him-and shall I mention why it is, advisable he should do so?" "I trust you will. He will then understand everything." ious that Margaret should marry wants to have a picture of me?"

Lord Kelmsford." Sir Peter grew suddenly scarlet. Lord Linton's, one John Fane, whom change his mind. Some one is comis no time for more. I'll expect your paint you. little note to-morrow, and you shall not-be kept waiting, I promise you."

> The door opened, and Sir Peter turned away.

"By Jove," he muttered, I'd give all I've got could I but meet the man who could tell me anything definite about this Madeline Delorme."

"Mr. Gerald Fairfax," announced the butler. And forgetting for the moment the subject he had been dis-"It would be wiser to ship the cussing with Lady Linton, Sir Peter started round, full of interest, to "The days of the pressgang are see what manner of man the young terribly, Meg, if he went away."

CHAPTER XVIII.

Sir Peter Goldsmid lost no time in work again, she said quietly: "Who putting into execution his plan of might not see the strange smile that luring John Fane away from Rivers- know?" dale, and a carefully worded letter "It would be folly for him to do indicating that he had been thinking that, I fancy," he answered, evasive- there might be something after all ly. "Lord Linton has no relatives, I in John's claim and offering him a cannot expect to keep Mr. Fane long understand. His family, they do post in his office as an articled clerk, as steward. He is really fit for betwas the first step towards putting it ter things.' in operation.

This letter came upon John as a write it, and carried it, in consider- tion."

"Nothing but pure kindness could dear John, it's the very thing for father." "Quite. He could not have done you. In a good profession you will to-day. He," with set teeth, "anger- Madeline Delorme, for years, and "It's the very opening I have long- no relation." ed me beyond words. He will do no- came home to find her dead. They ed for. And, as you know, I have his breath, "continue my work at a different family." "I am aware of that. But did it Riversdale. But I never for an innever suggest itself to your mind or stant imagined that the person to to that of your husband that there help me out of my difficulties would be Sir Peter Goldsmid. It is amaz-

"And you'll tell Mrs. Danvers of dreamily, "and another a lord." your decision soon?" said Isabel, af-"But supposing that Mdeline De- ter they had exhausted all the possi- ed him. "Don't perplex and bother what a large sum I would gladly bor- lorme had been killed in Italy, as bilities in the way of speculating in your little head trying to fit in puz-

"This very day. I know a man willing and able to take my place at that in life, Hugo." once. So my departure will not inconvenience her."

terribly, John. For of course you without him."

And kissing her again, he went away. ""Yes; they are very interesting. people are looking on Dodd's Kidney Ferry, he stood for a moment gazing and see what you think about it."

ly dim. this and those I love will be hard. relations."

had thought, in Italy, but in London, a fool I am! Why should she? Her After Work or Exercise years later, the day before Archibald aunt's steward! The idea! Hurry on, John Fane, and when you have prov-"But he did not see the woman ei- ed yourself to be your father's rightful heir, when all the world recognize "No," doggedly. "But everything you as Lord Linton, begin to think pointed to the fact that she was Ar- of Margaret Fane. Hadr as it will be to hurt her, as it must do if I "Certainly, the facts pointed that get possession of the title and posithrilling tale, and no one stepped for- to my mother, my sister, myself, and, above all, to my dear father. I preparations represented to be "the same "Because there was no one to do were a traitor to his name did I not as" Pond's Extract, which easily sour and back to his seat by her side. "I have so." Lady Linton's hands trembled a do so-even though it should cost me generally contain "wood alcohol," a deadly little as she took up a small vase of very dear. Now that things look roses from a table, and placed it up- promising, that Sir Peter Goldsmid to raise the question now," with a my life, I could not give up. But reproachful glance, "when you love would that what I wish to do could sorrow upon Margaret.' Under the shadow of a big hay stak were dark circles under his eyes, and pleased." a sad expression of weariness and across the field, he muttered in a and fro with his tremulous hands. "I don't want an artist fellow com-suppose not. And yet- However, ing down here to spy about and make fax?" don't trouble about the matter. I am remarks," he grumbled, after a few to be painted. What do you think, Meg? Isn't it a bore?" Margaret, who was sitting on the grass, her back against the couch busily sewing at a child's frock of dainty lace and muslin, looked round at the boy with a smile.

"I'm afraid to say I do, dear, lest Lord Linton to favor me-before ev- I should add to your discontent. But we must try and make the best of it, and be as patient as we can. He

"That's all very fine. You are somecoming to paint you it would be all right. But poor me, with my crook-"He won't like it. And he is anx- ed back. It's absurd. Who on earth

"Everyone who knows and loves you, Hugo," she said gently: "but "So he has told me. But he may your father most of all. He loves you don't need any help—perhaps you like dearly-more than any of us. So for

"I suppose so. I'd like to please father if I could. But we were so a play of it. It's almost fun now. "Thank you; you are more than happy, Meg. I never want anyone not even father-except you and John. He is a dear. Now, isn't he?" That is the advantage of being ten > bent down suddenly to look for it. "He's very nice, and very good to calls, after tea. In the mornings and you, dear," she replied, after a con- at noons there are lessons, and mamsiderable pause, her eyes searching ma washes them herself. the tumbled hay for the missing reel;

'very nice, indeed." Margaret forgot the object she was begins.

ooking for, and started round with a quick flush. "Went away? My dear Hugo, what nonsence. He's not going away."

"Aunt Miriam. I heard her praising John yesterday to a lady who debt!" was visiting her, and she said: 'I

"That's true," Maragret murmured low; "I often thought it." "That's what the lady said; and

"Oh, people often ask that they hear his name is Fane."

"Well, she declared her reason for saying so was his likeness to my dreaming. Why, John is dark and-" times! "It was expression and a kind of family look. But Aunt Miriam said good to be out of debt!"-Annie H. she couldn't see it, and that he was Donnell.

"Of course not. Those Fanes come been feeling for some time that I from New Zealand. Their father was Sir Peter stroked his chin and look- could not-dare not," he said under a farmer there. They belong to quite

"Yes, but John's a gentleman, Meg. Now, isn't he?" "Yes, to be sure he is."

"It's odd that one gentleman should only be a steward," the child said Margaret turned suddenly and kisszles of that kind," she said, laughing. "There are stranger things than "There are, I suppose. But, Meg.

if John goes away I shall go too.

"Foolish little boy. Now, that's go-

It was a lovely morning. The sky And some of the groups done when Pills as something to swear by. She began to count quickly on her pleasant idea-for you or Lord Lin- was clear and serenely blue; the air John was a child are puzzling. the woman in St. John's Wood, whom a favorite one of John's, and turning father—though handsomer and finer started to work Rheumatism set in.

me most fortunate, dear Sir Peter. ter. Madeline had not died, as he Margaret? Will she miss—Oh! what Margaret smiled and put her fin- "Six boxes cured me completely."

Don't take the weak, watery witch hazel ger to her lip. "Hush, dear; it's foolish to cry for the moon, remember.' Hugo fixed his great dark circled understand. John's not a moon."

Margaret laughed merrily, and be the corners of his mouth drooped with | Hugo pouted and, as John came is it likely that he would confide discontent as he tossed the papers to sulky voice: "If he is I'll be surprised, and-and very angry." "I wonder if he knows Mr. Fair-

> "I'm sure he wouldn't know anyone moments' silence; "and I don't want so stupid. John, John, I am so glad to see you," half-rising in his eagerness to greet his friend. "Do you know an artist fellow called Fair- The MANCHESTER FIRE

John shook hands with Margaret; then turned away kuickly to the impatient boy. His eyes were heavy and his face pale. The news he had to communicate was painful. The child's affectionate greeting and the girl's look of pleasure as she bade him "good morning" made it more diffithing to look at, Meg, and if he were cult, more trying even than it had seemed on the way from Sturry.

(To be Continued.)

OUT OF DEBT. It helps Betty, You might try to wipe dishes! Betty-dear me, how Betty doesn't like to! Although now it isn't nearly as bad, since she made When you are ten years old, you can make a play out of almost anything. Margaret's reel of cotton had roll- years old. You will be surprised how ed away amongst the hay, and she much it helps-ask Betty. "Come, girls-dishes!" mamma

"Dishes! Dishes! Call for Volunteers!" and two volunteers appear. "I should just say he was, and Glory is the older, and washes; Betty much more than nice. We'd miss him wipes. She waits until the drainer is full of glasses and spoons. Then she

"Oh, dear!" she says, "how many debts I owe! I must begin right off and pay 'em up. It will never do to let this go on any longer! There, Then she laughed, and, picking up her there's one debt paid a'ready. I beput that into your head, I'd like to one's paid, and that one, and that in to feel a little relieved. And that's one! I'll work ve-ry hard, and p'r'aps some day," sighing, "I'll be out of

She wipes away busily, a little scowl between her eyes. The tumbler debts, are all paid. the plate and saucer ones come next, and she settles

"Why, I'm getting along beautifulscowl is certainly smoothing out There is a breathless last minute or two, and then a shout of triumph -

"Done!" The towel waves, Betty dances on her toes, the Gray Princess wakes up Margaret laughed gaily. "She was and purrs her congratulations. Great THE TORONTO GENERAL

"Oh," breathes Betty, "it feel so

A Story from the Rainy River District.

Mr. Dixons Sufferings Ended by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Barwick, P. O., Rainy River, Jan. 12.-(Special.)-The hardships endured by the settlers of a new country so interest. often bring on Rheumatism that any well authenticated cure is eagerly discussed and carefully investigated in "That is fortunate. We'll miss you I don't think I could bear Riversdale this neighborhood. For this reason the recent cure of William John Dixon has created a sensation. He was a "Oh! of course, that is inevitable. ing too fat. But don't worry. He's familiar figure limping around with mind with such a preposterous sus- But I'll come home often, mother not going. Have you looked at his his stick, and his cure was so speedy and complete that it is little wonder

"I had an attack of Typhoid Fevingers, then, blushing to the roots of ton. But do you believe that your full of the perfume of new mown hay. There's a man—a tall man constantly er," Mr. Dixon says in telling the or hair, bent forward and whispered husband is honestly convinced that The view from the top of the hill was in them who is like, very like, my story, "and after I got over it and "Good heavens!" He coughed and he sent his cousin to see, was his as he went on his way to Grove looking. I'll show you one or two I had pains in my back and in my right hip so tad that I had to use a a wife is! I declare it's enough to She grew white as death. "That is in delight, and as the young man And he began to turn over the leaves stick to walk and I had no comfort in sleeping. I could no more than "Don't mind now, dear," Margaret dress myself for nearly two months, Lady Linton smiled, and thought "I mean to do so some day," he "I'll miss it all," he sighed, pass-cried quickly, as a large black dog and for three or four months I could

"A brother of mine advised me to try Dodd's Lidney Pills and after taknot be uneasy. Then, aloud, she "Linton has told me often," she But my whole future depends upon it. "I'd love to find he was a relation. ing three boxes I began to walk went on, with labored breath, "that It must be done. I wonder will she I'd like him better than anyone in around and do my work and lace up

Companies. THE ASSURANCE

INCORPORATED

FIRE and MARINE HEAD OFFICE - TORONTO, ONT.

CAPITAL $2,000,000

DIRECTORS VIOR-PRINCIPAL AND MANAGING DIRECTOR J. J. KENNY GEO, A. COX W. R. Brock, Eeq. Geo, R. R. Cockbui

Phone: Office Main 592.

Phone: Residence Main 2075,

WM. A. LEE & SON. GENERAL AGENTS 14 VICTORIA STREET,

C. C. FOSTER, Secretary.

Established 1824

Assurance Co.

Head Office-MANCHESTER, ENG. WILLIAM LEWIS, Manager and Secretary

Canadian Branch Head Office-TORONTO. JAS. BOOMER, Manager. T. D. RICHARDSON, Asst. Manager. W A. LEE & SON, General Agents,

Assets over $13,000,000

THE EXCELSIOR LIFE INSURANCE CO.

HEAD OFFICE. TORONTO Incorporated 1889. Our Annual Report for 1901 shows as th-result of the year's operations the following Substantial Increases in the importan tems shown below : Gross Assets......$769,918 75

Premium Income. .$139,282 45 $24,173 43 Interest Income... 19,721 61 5;690 27 688 YONGE ST.
Net Assets...... 477,302 89 76,959 13 Opposite Isabella St. TORONTO WANTED-General District and Local Agents.

EDWIN MARSHALL, DAVID FASKEN, Secretary, Presiden

THE Loan and Savings Company

Plans suitable for those desiring to own their homes instead of continuing to pay rent. Literature free. Head Office-Confederation Life Buildin Toronto ..... JOSEPH PHILLIPS, Pres

TRUSTS CORPORATION

Established 1882

TORONTO. WINNIPEG. Paid up Capital - $1,000,000. Reserve Fund - $270,000. Executes Trusts of every description.

Acts as Executor, Administrator

Receiver, Guardian, Assignee &c.

Issues of Bonds, Debentures and Stocks registered and countersigned. Trust funds to loan on Mortgages at lowest current rates of OFFICERS:

JOHN HOSKIN, K.C., LL.D. President: Hom, S. C. Wood, W. H. BRATTY, Vice-Presidents;

W. Langmuir, A. D. Langmuir, Managing Director. Assist. Manage James Davey, A. L. Crossin Manager Winnipeg Branch Secrets Corporation's Manual mailed to any address on application.

Land Incueyors

NWIN, MURPHY & ESTEN C. MURPHY, H. L. ESTEN.

ONTARIO LAND SURVEYERS, &c.,
Surveys, Plans and Descriptions of Properties Disputed Boundaries Adjusted. Timber Limits an Mining Claims Located, Offlice: Cor. Richmond an Ray Sts Toront Telephone Main 1236

Mrs. Wall's Business Callege Cor. Toronto and Ade aide Sts. Established 1885 Members of many of the leading Catholic families of Teronto are graduates of our College. Individual instruction Day and Evening.

Enter any time

Legal Anglin & Mallon.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, NOTARIES, &c. Offices: Land Security Chambers, S. W. cor. Ade-laide and Victoria Streets, Foronto.

F. A. ANGLIN, K.C. JAS, W. MALLON, LL. Telephone Main 1988,

FOY & KELLY,

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, &c. Offices: Home Saving, and the Companies of the Companies I. J. FOY, K.C. H. T. KELLY

Telephone Main 798.

HEARN & SLATTERY BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, NOTARIES, &c.

Building, 46 King Street West, Toronto, Ont, Phone Main 1040. I. FRANK SLATTERY, Residence, 285 Sim Res. 'Phone Main 876. EDWARD J. HEARN, Residence, 21 Gra-Res. 'Phone 1058, ATCHFORD, McDOUGALL & DALL BARRISTERS AND SOLICITORS. preme Court and Parliamentary Agen OTTAWA, ONT. F. R. Latchford, K. C. J. Lorn McDoug Edward J. Daly.

T EE & O'DONOGHUE, BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, NOTARIES, Land Security Chambers, 34 Victoria St., Toronte Ont. Offices—Bolton, Ont. Phone, Main 1583. Residence Phone, Main 2070 W. T. J. LEE, B.C.L., JOHN G. O'DONOGHUE, LLEE

Mobrady & O'CONNOR BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, NOTARIES, &c. Proctors in Admiralty. Rooms 67 and Life Building, 46 King St. West, Toronto

L. V McBRADY, K.C.

T. J. W. O'CONNO Telephone Main 900 M ACDONELL BOLAND & PHOMPSON BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, NOTARIES PUBLIC, &c.
Mor ey to loan at lowest rates of interest.
Sank Chambers, 2 Toronto St., Toronto.

S COTT, SCOTT, CURLE & GLER

A. C. MACDONELL,

JOHN T. C. THOMPSON,

Telephone Main 1076.

SON, BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, &c. Supreme and Exchequer Court Agents. CARLETON CHAMBERS OTTAWA, ONT Hon, R. W. Scott, K. C , L. L. D. W. H. Curle, M. A. D'Arcy South D'Arcy Scott, Departmental Agent and Pari tary Solicitor authorized under the Rules House of Commons of Canada, Thotographers.

Old Pictures or Photos Copied and Enlarged a size. Specialities in Ink, Water Color, Cray Oll. Proofs Given and Perfect Satisfaction

LEMAITRE'S Photographic Studio

N. B.—Special rates to clergy students and educa-tional inst utions.

Dentists Dr. R. J. McCahev

Honor Graduate of Toronto University DENTIST 278 YONGE STREET, opposite Wilton

Tel, Main 300

Architects ARTHUR W. HOLMES. ARCHITECT. 170 Spadina Ave. Telephone Main 3248,

E. J. LENNOX, ARCHITECT. Office: Rooms 8, 9 and 10, S. E. Cor. King Yorge Sts. Residence: 487 Sherbourne St.

Office Phone: Main 1160. Residence Phone: North 693.

ROOFING. COMPANY-SING

and gravel roofing; established forty years, 153 Bay street; telephone 53.

Agational Assurance Company, of Ireland

HEAD OFFICE-8 College Green, Urblin, Canadian

Branch-St. John St. Montreal,

Companies

NCOME (excreds) INVESTED FUNDS (exceed) . . For agencies at unrepresented points, address J. H.

CAPITAL (Authorized) $2,500,000 CAPITAL (Subscribed) $2,000,000

EUGENE O'KEEFE, · President JOHN FOY, . . Vice-President DEPOSITS RECEIVED from 20 cts. apwards; interest at current rates al-owed thereon. MONEY LOANED ON MORTGAGE, small and large sums; convenient terms of repayment and at 1) west current rates of interest. No valuation fee charged. Loans on collaterals of Stocks, Bonds, and JAMES MASON, Manager

ONUMENTS

The McIntesh Granite & Marble Co Telephone North 1949. TORONTO

. . . £1,000,000 W. A. LEE & SON, General Agents, 14 Victoria St., Toron The Home Savings & Loan Co.

Breathing Disease. Infectious diseases - are breathed into the system from those affected with disease or from bad amells; yet how many women breathe daily the offensive steam from common soaps made from raneid fats, and keep their hands for hours in such solutions, and the clothing from such soap suds is worn next the tender skin. No wonder disease and eczema are prevalent! Users of Sunlight Soap -Octagon Bar-know the difference between that and the pure, healthful smell from the vegetable oils and pure edible fats in Sunlight

C. M. B. A.

Branch 49 Holds a Successful union-Election of Officers.

On the evening of Janury 7 Branch 49 C. M. B. A held a most successful and pleasant reunion in Cameron tastefully decorated. The severe weather did not interfere with the attendance to any appreciable extent. and great satisfaction was felt in the presence of Grand Trustee, Rev. Father J. E. Crinion, who came down from Dunville specially for the occa-

Grand Deputy E. J. Hearn occupied the chair, having on his right Very Rev. J. J. McCann. V.-G. Other offigers present were Grand Deputy M. J. Quinn and Bro. Daly of the Enter-Jainment Committee

The first tast of the evening was that of the Pope, which was respondet to by Vicar-General McCann in aneloquent appreciation of the grand life work of Leo XIII. "The King" was honored by the singing of the National Anthem. Grand Deputy Quinn replied to the toast of "Our Guest." He complimented Branch 49 upon the attention which its members bestowed upon the social side of the organization, and hoped that the Branch would continue to show an example of the benefit of such gatherings to sister branches. The speech of the evening, and perhaps the finest address ever listened to in Toronto by members of the C. M. B. A., was delivered by Grand Trustee Rev. J. E. Crinion in response to the toast of the Catholic Mutual Benefit Association. Though practical statement of the benefits and advantages of membership in the Association the remarks of the Grand Trustee laid particular stress upon The religious and brotherly aid in sickness, anxiety and need which the members of the C M. B. A. render meach other. Figures were given of the total membership, insurance in force, and insurance paid. The speech called forth repeatedly the heartiest ap-and Dr. T. F. McMahon, in a witty and happy speech, responded for tion, or in condemning great assem-was: "Resolved, That capital punish-The Ladies.

The musical portion of the programme was contributed by Messrs. Frank Fulton (planist) and Maurice leet the members of the Entertain- remember that there was law-breakment Committee, Bros. Clancy, Ir- ing agitation, there were threats and wine, Grant, McLaughlin and Daly, violence, in England, before the Engalso Bros. P. J. Mulqueen and Landy. lish attained that general representa-Short and well-worded speeches were tion of the people in Parliament delivered by all. The Enertainment which gave them real self-govern-Committee had every reason to feel ment. gratified by the success of their efmnited spirit animating Branch 49.

Syne" it was voted by all present ed, not simply by a stern use of re 39. Apart from the good fellowship al means as I have described, but raship roll.

At the regular meeting of the members of this Branch, held at their corner of Queen and Cameron tion of England to govern Ireland by streets, on Tuesday evening, the 6th force. inst., the officers elected for this year Meantime, under such conditions as were installed by District Deputy President; W. J. Irvine, First Vice-President: T. W. Hahndorf, Second Vice-President; J. J. Landy, Recordant Recording Secretary; Hugh Mc-Caffrey, Financial Secretary; T. J. Cunerty, Treasurer; W. J. Woods, Marshall, and T. J. Ryan, Guard.

Each of the officers on taking his seat returned thanks for the honor conferred by election, pointing out and complete. It is also the only and complete. It is also the only moved that the branch had never experienced remedy. It is to concede to the Irish Mary. more prosperous year than the one the management of Irish affairs. just closed, over $2,000 being promptay sent away for assessments, or Gladstone and Parnell agreed, a than subsisted between the members, and predicted a large accesion of new about 100 members.

St. Helen's Branch No. 111, of the Catholic Benefit Association held its inaugural meeting on Thursday even ing in Mallon's Hall, when the following newly-elected officers were installed by the Grand Deputy, Bro. M.

President, J. W. Mallon (acclama-P. Fayle; A. R. S., W. J. Markle; financial statement of the year, the ion with edifying fervor, before she On account of imitations and sub- she died, fortified by all the rights of den; R. S., J. B. Phelan; F. S., V. treasurer, P. Temple; M., W. L. adoption of which was moved by D. lasped into a weak condition and then stitutions, it is necessary for you to Holy Church, and fully resigned to Pecg; G., Thos. McQuillan.

retiring President, Bro. D. Powers, at cellor Rev. F. F. Rohleder. In mov- friends paid her their kindest atten- box you buy. No imitations are as day morning, December 27th, 1902, to were passed.

GOVERNMENT BY FORCE

(Continued from page 5.) tence of hard labor shall disqualify for five years for all municipal offices. these magistrates are using this other engine by giving hard labor sentences to some of the most respected leaders of municipal life in Ireland, and so turning them and keeping them for five years out of office.

I wish I had time to give you some examples of the administration of law and order in Ireland of late date. They would make you laugh; they might sometimes even make you

But I must press on to a close. All these things are going on to-Many of the most trusted men in Ireland are suffering these penalties. Tremendous issues-national, political and social-are being tried.

A supreme struggle is being made by $82,915.61. a subjugated people, who, while absolutely refraining from those crimes effective the popular decision and to convince the English people of the need of concession.

Now, much can be done in this ditations, new and old-sometimes perplexing and obscure-which are inequitable application of those laws are in some cases vague and indis- and Mr. J. G. Hall, assistant secretinct. They may well be-sometimes unintentionally and sometimes inten- the confidence expressed. The latter for the people's life which is now going on in Ireland.

It may not be the case that everything which has been done in every instance in the course of that struggle is justifiable under the imperfect and next. antiquated man-made English laws, or even accords with every notion of abstract justice or of the higher leder, Rev. Father Hand, Rev. James The question is how and in termined. It is not for you or me to A. Carey. judge of particular cases to-night. It is not for a resident magistrate, such as I have described, to be judge and jury on them.

If an indictment is to be brought practically against a whole people, by hundreds of prosecutions all over the land, then the gravity and exceptional character of the situation calls not for less, but for added solemnity and safeguards in the attempt. But it is admitted that even with the ordinary safeguards the attempt would the deliberate excuse for breaking down the safeguards and applying the Crimes Act!

the Irish people, whom they thus Griffin of the Executive Committee, And mid the hot tears that are fall-The "Press" was replied to by Bro. keep in unwilling subjection, the Eng- to take the chair, and he himself P. F. Cronin and Mr. D. A. Carey, lish ought not to be too nice in laying down the limits of political agitablies, vigorous speeches, strong resolutions, newspaper reports, and arti- O'Connell and Mr. J. Doyle, of St. cles, determinations on the part of James McLaughlin, William Kennedy, those who suffer to have no dealings with those by whom, or by the aid of whom, they are suffering. These Impromptu toasts called to their sticklers for "law and order" should

The English ought, at any rate, to forts in connection with the reunion, leave us the protection of the Engwhich proved the progressive and lish law, such as it is. The truth is, that such conditions as exist in Ire-When the meeting came to a close land are symptoms of some grave with the singing of "Auld Lang wrong in the body politic, to be curone of the most pleasant evenings pression and punishment under ordispent under the auspices of Branch nary law, still less by such exceptioninspired, the meeting must have ther by the passage of reforming laws tended to an increase in the member-rise to the symptoms. The sad truth is that these things spring directly from the determina-exist, conflicts will ensue and suffer-M. J. Quinn, as follows: John Tully, ing will be inflicted. But if the abuse of power in repression, while it is not used for redress, is met by firming Secretary; J. J. Regers, Assist-support, sympathy and encourageness and resolution at home, and by ment abroad, the end is certain.

Sooner or later this attempt of one people to govern against their will another people, determined to be free, must fail. The remedy for England's difficulty is simple and sure,

On that basis, as, sixteen years ago, greater harmony and good feeling treaty can be made under which, justice once done and freedom granted, discontent and disaffection may at no members to the roll now numbering distant day be replaced by concord and mutual respect.

God speed that day!

ing in the De La Salle Institute claimed her as his own. Monday night and cleared off the or- With true Christian resignation she which proves so embarrassing to per- friend of all who had the happy privition); second vice-president, D. Red- der paper. The chief business of the bowed to God's Holy Will. She re- sons appearing on the public platevening was the presentation of the ceived the final consolation of relig- form. Resolutions of sympathy with the Committee, and seconded by Chan- in its most peaceful form. Her many nature of Dr. A. W. Chase on the Her funeral took place on Saturthe recent death of his two children ing the adoption of the report, the tion throughout her illness. It was decided to entertain the with the close of the year 1902 the who knew her, being possessed of a family size (three times as much) 60 Rev. L. Minehan. After the Mass the

Pan-American Exposition BUFFALO

> LCOLD MEDAL Awarded LABATT'S ALE AND PORTER

> > Eurgsseing all Competitors

mittee, and carried unanimously.

Chairman Very Rev. J. J. McCann, V.G., in response, expressed his vered on earth. rection without transcending the real thanks for the uniform kindness of the limits of the laws and their interpre- members, which made the position a have mercy on her soul, and may the voked, if there were only a just and such a high state of efficiency, and he are unknown. hoped that such would continue. Rev to present conditions. Those limits Father Rohleder, secretary-treasurer, tary, also expressed their pleasure for tionally-overpassed in the struggle official gave a history of the finances of the Board since 1877, in which year the taxes only amounted to $6.500 until now they amounted to nearly $85,000. The inaugural meeting for 1903 will be held Tuesday evening

The members present were Very Rev. J. J. McCann, Rev. Father Roh-Walsh, Rev. Dr. Treacy, Rev. Father what spirit the matter shall be de- La Marche, Messrs, M. Webb and D.

ST. BASIL'S DEFEAT ST.

The 6th debate of the Inter-Catholic Club Debating Union took place early Thursday evening, Jan. 8th, at St. Joseph's Club Rooms, Queen street east. In opening the debate, the president, Mr. E. V. O'Sullivan, told the audience that one of the debaters for fail; and this, as I have told you, is St. Basil's (L. Monahan) gave word on that day that he could not attend and Mr. O'Sullivan, who is a member This is no just excuse! Dealing with of St. Basil's, called upon Mr. J. W. ment should be abolished." Joseph's Club, very ably upheld the affirmative, wnile Mr. M. G. Kernahan and Mr. E. V. O'Sullivan, for St. Basil's, successfulfy contested them on the negative. In the interim, while the judges were forming the decision, Mr. Hugh Kelly made a few appropriate remarks. In giving the decision, Mr. E. J. Hearn spoke at some length in complimenting the various speakers on their able presentation of the arguments and also of the advantages of the Debating Union. He explained how the judges based their decision in a most satisfactory manner to all present. Mr. D. A. Carey, another of the judges, also > hearty vote of thanks, moved by Mr. J. H. O'Connell, and seconded by Mr. O'Sullivan, the meeting adjourned. The next debate will be the first one of the second series, and will take place on Friday, Jan. 16th, at the Student's Club rooms, between the Students and St. Clement's. The standing of the Union is as follows:

spoke in a similar strain. After a

Won. Lost St. Basil's St. Joseph's ..... .... St. Marv's ... St. Clement's

OBITUARY

On Monday, Dec. 15, the home of "Tickling in the throat" may hot Mr. Chas. O'Hara, Peabody, was of itself seem serious, but this is the last time on the faces of the dear overshadowed by a cloud of sorrow, critical point at which a cold in the ones he was so soon to leave. But when the merciless hand of death re- head works its way into the bronchial so it was, for on the Blessed Christmoved therefrom his beloved wife She always enjoyed good health until a week previous to her of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and her pure soul to God. death. She contracted a cold which Turpentine will prove sufficient to eventually settled on her lungs. Her bring about a thorough and prompt residence of her father, Mr. Chas. sad demise was not therefore wholly cure. While this great medicine is Custance, 181 Lippincott street, was unexpected by her friends and rela- undoubtedly the most effective treat- a great shock to her many friends; tions, who so sorrowfully watched ment for severe chest colds, bronchitis for though she had been ailing for her succumbing to that dread disease and even asthma, wisdom suggests the some time, her illness did not assume pneumonia, while Death, the stern use of it when the trouble is just be- a serious nature until a few days bedestroyer over who no earthly pow- ginning. er can exercise control, whose ravag- Singers and speakers commend. Dr. earth were spent in prayer, and even FINANCES IN BETTER SHAPE. ing course is impeded by no barrier, Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpen- in the intensity of her suffering, she The trustees of the Separate School however mighty, who knocks impar- tine, because they can rely on it ab- murmured not. Ever the good Chris-Board for 1902 held their final meet-tially at cottage and castle gates, solutely to relieve and cure the tian daughter and a faithful member in a better shape than on previous oc- The funeral took place on Wednesday, Bates & Co., Toronto.

casions. In the past overdrafts 17th Dec., at 9 a.m., to St. Paul's were always found in the annual re- Church, Darnoch, where a solemn past overdrafts 17th Dec., at 9 a.m., to St. Paul's port, while this year they were en- High Mass was celebrated by Rev. tirely absent and a small surplus Father Buckley, after which he renremained in the bank. The receipts dered a touching discourse, suitable for the year from all sources amount- for the occasion. A large concourse of ed to $84,915.61, and the expenditure friends followed the funeral cortege, where, amid subdued tears and ach-Rev. Father J. L. Hand, chairman ing hearts, the body was laid to rest Hall. Covers were laid for over one of violence and outrage, which have ed that the thanks of the Board be when time shall be no more, summon of the management and supplies, mov- to await the solemn call that shall marked some former agitations, are tendered the officers of the Board for it to arise and share with the imyet endeavoring, by combined and con- their services during the year. This mortal soul that has gone forth to certed action, to make manifest and was seconded by Mr. M. Walsh, chair- its eternal reward, and the heartmand of the Sites and Buildings Com- broken husband, parents, brother and sisters and mourning friends bade a final adieu to one they loved and re-

May the Sacred Heart of Jesus pleasure. It was a pleasing fact to light of the Holy Ghost lead her to know that the schools had attained that abode where sorrow and trials

Toll sadly ve bells of our dear

The soul of our loved one has flown. Toll sadly, and echo the sorrow Of hearts that are weary and lone; For Death's darksome shadow is o'er

It shroudeth us all in its gloom, And the form of our dear loving

Is robed for the cold silent tomb.

We gaze on the sweet, pallid fectures, Now stamped with stern Death's icy seal,

And God alone knoweth the sorrow, The anguish her lonely ones feel; But the smile that was light in our darkness

Is still on the pale lovely face, Which ever in life seemed to mirror Her soul's spotless beauty and grace.

Ah, calm be thy rest, dearest Mary, For well was thy life's labor done, And closely thou followed thy Jesus Till Zion's bright glory was won. The works of thy geal shine resplen dant.

More bright that world's proudest fame, And high in the archies of Heaven Have angels recorded they name.

As sadly we breathe our "Farewell"

We raise our dim eyes to the glory Which human tongue never can tell; And angels seem whispering softly When earth's weary exile is o'er, In Heavenly joys never ending

You'll meet your loved Mary once more.

In the early morn the lights blazed forth in our little church and everything whispered "Happy Christmas." But for all this we knew full well that ere the day was spent, many many eyes would be dimmed with tears at sight of the vacant chair of some departed loved one.

Little did we think, however, that one we knew so well was calmly and

Tickling in

Throat Irritation, hoarseness and sore throat as well as the most severe chest colds are promptly relieved and Cured by tubes and develops into bronchitis, mas Morn, Miss Bertha Custance, our pneumonia or consumption.

DR. CHASE'S Syrup LINSEED AND TURPENTINE

This is the point where a few doses with uttered benedictions, breathed

A. Carey, chairman of the Finance calmly awaited the end, which came insist on seeing the portrait and sig- God's Holy Will. good, or why should they not be sold St. Peter's Church, where Mass was chairman of finance pointed out that Deceased was much esteemed by all on their own merits? 25 cents a box, offered for the repose of her soul by

The sales have now reached the enormous output of upwards of eleven million packets per

It's Better Tea than others

Ceylon Tea-Black or Natural Green.

SEALED PACKETS ONLY Never Sold in Bulk.

25c., 30c., 40c., 50c., 60c. Per Pound.

GOOD BREAD

Plain words, but how much meaning is attached to them when they are the spontaneous outbursts of pleased customers.

Your Bread is just lovely," greets the ears of TOMLIN'S DELIVERY MEN daily. This is very nice, and so is the bread.

You Will Say the Same Phone Park 553

"HAPPY THOUGHT RANGES

Save their cost in fuel in a single

Let us show you some of their many improvements. They are made and guaranteed by the Wm. Buck Stove Co. Brantford.

McDonald & Willson. 187 Yonge St., Toronto.

SYMINGTON'S EDINBURCH COFFEE ESSENCE nakes delicious coffee in a moment. No trouble, no waste. In small and large ottles, from all Grocers. GUARANTEED PURE

Late J. Young

MAIN .... 679 359 YOURE STREET

TYPEWRITERS All makes, rented $2.50 to $5.00 pe

CREELMAN BROS. TYPE WRITER CO. Toronto

W. E. A. FANNON Optical Doctor

OFFICE HOURS

219 LANSDOWNE AVE., TORONTO.

Rowley's Art Calendar Mounted on a heavy card 8½ x 7 are three kittens taken from li'e, and at the left hand corner is attached a dainty little calendar for 1908. Rou may come the possessor of one of these by sending 30 cents to the patiently waiting for the daylight that she might fix her gaze for the cherished friend and sister-sodalist,

E. J. ROWLEY PHOTOGRAPHER 435 Spadina Ave., Toronto

Her death, which took place at the fore her death. Her last moments on hoarseness and throat irritation, of Holy Church, she was the trusted was to love her. As she lived, so mbers and their friends early in finances of the Separate Schools were very amiable and loving disposition. cents, at all dealers, or Edmanson, funeral cortege wended its way to

INTERCOLONIAL RAILWAY

Should Travel by the ROYAL MAIL TRAIN

leaving Montreal 12 noon

Sunday, which lands Passengers, Baggage and Mail alongside the Royal Mail Steamships at Halifax the following Monday evening, thus saving 24 hours of a sea voyage.

Write for time tables, fares, etc. to 10 King St. West,

Application to Parliament.

NOTICE is hereby given that at the next Session of the Parliament of Canada application will be made for an Act for the incorporation of a Bank to be called "The Home Savings Bank of Canada" with head office at the City of Toronto, with the usual powers of banks under the Bank Act and its amendments; also with power to acquire the assets and the good will of The Home Savings and Loan Company, Limited; and to take over its deposits; and to allot FYES CAREFULLY EXAMINED shares of the Capital Stock to the shareholders of the said Loan Company in lieu of shares in the Company; and to enter into agreement 7.30 to 9.30 p.m. with said Company for transfer of its assets and good will. Dated at Toronto, this 27th day of November A. D., 1902.

J. J. FOY, 80 Church Street, Toronto, Solicitor for Applicants

F. ROSAR Undertaker.

240 King St. East, Toronto. Telephone Main 1084.

WANTED—FAITHFUL, PERSON TO TRAVEL or well established house in a few counties, calling on re tail merchants and agents. Local territory Salary $1024 a year and expenses, payable $19,70 a week in cash and expenses advanced. Position permanent, Business successful and rushing. Standard House 334 Dearborn St., Chicago.

SINGLE MAN WANTED to act as Sexton for church-Send references. Apply to Very Rev. Joseph Bayard. V.G., St. Thomas, Ont.

WANTED-Teacher for Weston Ser erate School, state salary and ex perience. Address Secretary, Separate School Board, Weston Ont.

body now rests, awaiting a glorious resurrection.

To those who are left to mourn her we, the members of the Sodality, extend our deepest sympathy, and we further pray that the dear departed one has only preceded us to that blissful abode where there is neither pain nor sorrow, but eternal peace. Resquiescat in pace.

Lever's Y-Z(Wise Head) Disinfectant Scap

THE CANADIAN NORTHWEST

HOMESTEAD RECULATIONS

Any even numbered section of Dominion lands in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories, excepting 8 and 26, which has not been homesteaded or reserved to provide wood lots for settlers, or for other purposes, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres, more or less.

ENTRY

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land to be taken is situate, or if the homesteader desires he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa, the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, or the local agent for the district in which the land is situate, receive authority for some one to make entry for him. A fee of $10 is charged for a homestead entry.

HOMESTEAD DUTIES

Under the present law homestead duties must be performed in one of the following ways, namely: (1) By at least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years, or-(2) If the father (or the mother, if the father is deceased) of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of the law as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother, or-(3) If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by himself in the vicinity of his

by residence upon the said land. APPLICATION FOR PATENT

homestead the requirements of the law as to residence may be satisfied

Should be made at the end of the three years before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspector. Before making application for patent the settler must give six months' notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa of his intention to do so

INFORMATION

Newly arrived immigrants will receive at the Immigration Office in Winnipeg, or at the Dominion Lands Office in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories, information as to the lands that are open for entry, and from the officers in charge, free of expense, advice and assistance in securing lands to suit them. Full information respecting the land, timber, coal and mineral laws, as welt as respecting Dominion lands in the railway belt in British Columbia, may be obtained upon application to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, Manitoba, er to any of the Dominion Lands Agents in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories. JAMES A. SMART, Deputy-Minister of the Interior

1.3. -In addition to Freel Gran Lands, to which the Regulations above stated refer, thousands of acres of most desirable lands are available for lease or purchase from Railroad and other Corporations and private firms in Western Canada.

COSGRAVE

BREWERY CO

Maltsters, Brewers and bottlers TORONTO. are supplying the trade with their superior

ALES AND BROWN STOUTS

rewed from the finest Malt and best Pavaris brand of Hops. They are highly recom-mended by the Medical faculty for their purity and strengthen-ing qualities.

Awarded the Highest Prizes at the International Exhibition, Philadelphia, for Rainy of lavor and General Excellence of Oblits. Hos rable Mention, Paris, 1878. Medal and Diploma

Brewing Office, 295 Niagara St

TELEPHONE PARK 140.

We have

stock of the latest patterns in table cutlery. CARVERS in CASES DESSERT SETS a large

Etc. TORONTO

FISHEATERS