

THE BIRTH IN THE MANGER

Was Most Befittingly Commemorated at St. Mary's Church as Christmas Crossed the Threshold of Time at Midnight—Unsurpassed Music—Angel-Clad Children.

From Thursday's Daily. With lights lowered and a hushed expectancy animating the immense church assembled at St. Mary's Christmas evening another Christmas was ushered in, another celebration of the birth of a new-born King. It was midnight and every inch of space from the altar to the choir-loft was filled, the pews and aisles being one compact mass of pulpit-humming humanity, and as the organ pealed forth the first notes of the Prelate's beautiful Kyrie-Eleison the vast crowd as of one accord knelt or bowed their heads, regardless of denominational affiliation, in humble supplication, mutely pleading for the intercession of Him whose forgiveness is limitless. Kyrie Eleison, the choir, and presently other voices filled every nook of the large edifice, was heard above the others, and it, too, in bewitching tones sang Kyrie Eleison. A moment later there was a subdued silence and then from a distance were heard the youthful voices of little children, their childish trebles giving forth the joyous notes of the Gloria in Excelsis. Nearer and nearer they approached, finally entering from the vestry room to the right of the altar. There were sixteen of the little misses gowned in spotless white, wearing pink crowns and bearing flowers in their hands. Slowly and with their voices lifted to the utmost they marched the breadth of the church to the life-like scene depicting the stable wherein lay the Child receiving the adoration of the wise men of the east. The entrance of the procession, the altar being fairly ablaze with myriads of many-colored incandescents. As the children passed her flowers each little girl cast her flowers about the altar, returning to seats immediately in front of the altar. Then the choir took up the Gloria in a grand burst of song proclaiming the birth of a new King, the bass solo being exquisitely rendered by Corporal Cobb. The priests, clad in their rich golden vestments and attended by nine altar boys, had entered in the meantime and at the conclusion of the Gloria the service was intoned by the Rev. Father Eichelsbacher. A moment later Rev. Father Gendreau entered the pulpit and delivered the discourse of the evening.

"Never before have I seen in the Church of St. Mary's such a goodly gathering, composed of citizens of all nationalities, to unite with us in celebrating the anniversary of the birth of our Saviour. When our Lord was born in Bethlehem angels came down from heaven not to preach, but to sing praises to God Almighty, and to glorify Him, and to offer to all men of good will and peace on earth that which their souls most craved. It seems that tonight the best way of rendering our thanks to the Almighty would be to listen to the beautiful music and singing, to some of which you have already listened with admiration. I do not feel disposed to talk to you at length. I feel nervous from fatigue, and to confess the truth to you that fatigue is due to having heard this night the confessions and distributed the absolution which denounce the peace with God which would enable them to approach the altar this evening. For that reason I will not address you at length. Still, it is my duty to give you a translation of the lesson just read by the deacon in the language of our church. The use of the Latin language is employed because it provides a unity of language throughout the entire world. The lesson taken is taken from the chapter of St. Luke, beginning at the 14th verse.

Father Gendreau then read that portion of the scripture in English which refers to the birth of Christ ending with the words, "Peace on earth, good will toward men." He continued: "Is it not beautiful, my friends? You have heard the voices of the angels singing, 'Peace on earth, good will toward men.' I might preach a sermon to you on that subject, but I aim to never preach sermons; merely give instructions, but I must stop. If I am looking at this stable and listening to the lesson of the humble birth and poverty of our Saviour, I might be induced to say words not pleasing to you and thus preach a sermon not to your liking. Upon the question of poverty, I would say there is no other place on earth like Dawson where the people are so afraid of poverty. Why are we here? This is not our home. We were not born here nor do we speak of this city as a place of permanent residence. None of us when we came expected to remain any great length of time. Why did you come? Why are you in Dawson tonight? It is because you are fighting against the lesson of poverty and humility that our dear Lord has given us. You are afraid of poverty and are here looking for the means to ensure you the comforts of life and conse-

CHRONOLOGY OF DEAD QUEEN

What Took Place in Her Reign of 63 Years.

Brief But Accurate Details of English History Many Attempts on the Queen's Life.

1819—Future Queen born May 24. 1837—Accession to throne, June 20. 1838—Coronation, Westminster Abbey, June 28. Transatlantic steam navigation inaugurated. 1839—Madman arrested trying to enter Buckingham Palace. Anti-Church Law League formed. British forces occupy Cabul. British took possession of Aden. 1840—Queen married to Prince Albert, February 10. Insane pithy tries to shoot King and Queen, June 10. Cheap postage introduced in England. Princess Royal born, later Empress Frederick, November 21. British, and Austrian expedition to Syria. Mehemet Ali sues for peace. 1841—Sir Robert Peel succeeds Lord Melbourne as Premier. Prince of Wales born November 9. Successful insurrection in Cabul. British take Canton and Amoy. 1842—John Francis tried to shoot Queen May 30. John William Bean pointed pistol at Queen, July 3. Hahn Kong ceded to England. Chinese ports opened. British took Boer republic in Natal. 1843—Princess Alice Maud Mary born, April 25. Seinde annexed to British India. Queen and Prince Albert visit King and Queen of France. Louis Philippe visits Queen. 1845—Seals of Colonial Office given to Mr. Gladstone. England and France made war on dictator of Argentine Republic. Outbreak first Sikh war. 1846—Princess Helena born May 25. Anglo-American treaty settling northwest boundary of United States. Great famine in Ireland. Corn laws repealed. Sikhs defeated, ceded territory to East India Company. 1847—Queen headed Irish famine relief. 1848—Princess Louise born, March 18. Queen and Prince Albert visit fugitive French royal family at Claremont. Great Chartist demonstration in London. Insurrection in Ireland attempted. Outbreak second Sikh war. Orange River sovereignty occupied. Boers transferred Transvaal Republic. 1849—Hamilton fired at Queen. Queen first visited Ireland. Sikhs defeated. Punjab annexed to British India. 1850—Prince Arthur born May 1. Robert Peel attacked Queen with stick. Clayton-Bulwer treaty concluded. Taiping rebellion, China. 1851—Queen opened great Exposition. Burmah provoked British hostilities. Gold found in Australia. 1852—First Derby Ministry succeeded Russell administration. Ateiden succeeded Derby. London protocol on succession in Denmark and Schleswig-Holstein. British victories in Burmah. Pegu captured. 1853—Prince Leopold born, April 7. Royal family visited Ireland. 1854—Crimean War formally begun by declaration of England and France against Russia. In the Sanctus Missa of 1854—British-Japanese treaty. British permitted Orange River Republic. Commander McClure accomplished northwest passage. 1855—French Emperor and Empress visited Queen at Windsor and visit returned in Paris. Palmerston succeeded Aberdeen as Premier. Livingstone discovered Victoria Falls. 1856—Treaty of Paris ended Crimean War. Qude annexed to British India. Outbreak second war, England against China. Persians occupied Herat, involved in war with Government of India, successfully ended by British next year. 1857—Outbreak of Indian mutiny and French occupied by British and French. Princess Beatrice born, April 11. 1858—Second Derby ministry succeeded Palmerston. Hebrew disability in Britain removed. Indian mutiny virtually suppressed and government transferred from East India Company to Crown. Treaty with China. Queen congratulated the American president over new transatlantic cable, Aug. 22. 1859—Queen's first grandchild, now Emperor William II, born Jan 27. Palmerston succeeded Derby as Premier. 1860—Invitation of President Buchanan for Prince of Wales to visit America accepted by Queen. Anglo-French expedition occupied Pequin. 1861—Duchess of Kent, Queen's mother, died. Queen's third visit to Ireland. Prince Consort died, December 14. England, France and Spain send fleets to Mexico. 1862—United States granted British demand for release of Mason and Slidell. 1863—Prince of Wales married Mar. 10. France declared war on Mexico. England and Spain withdrew forces. Britain renounced renunciation of protectorate over Ionian Islands. 1864—Baker discovered Lake Albert Nyanza. 1865—Measures taken to suppress Fenians in Ireland. Palmerston died. Russell Premier for second time. 1866—Queen thanked Mr. Geo. Peabody, American philanthropist, for gifts of $1,250,000 to London poor. Fenians attempted invasion of Canada. Russell, resigned. Third, Derby Ministry. Successful establishment of telegraph between Europe and America. 1867—Fenian insurrection in Ireland. Dominion of Canada constituted. Reform act passed. Outbreak of Abyssinian war, ended next year, 1868—Disraeli succeeded Derby as Premier. Reform act for Scotland and Ireland. Gladstone succeeded Disraeli. 1869—Irish Church disestablished, to take effect 1871. Pacific Railway and Suez Canal completed. 1870—Empress Eugenie visited Queen. Irish Land Act. Elementary Education Act for England and Wales. Baker led expedition up the Nile. 1871—Former Emperor Louis Napoleon visited Queen. Treaty of Washington to settle the Alabama question. Stanley found Livingstone. Grave condition of the Queen's health announced, and Prince of Wales has typhoid fever. 1872—Queen present at thanksgiving for Prince of Wales' recovery. America obtains the Alabama award. Ballot bill passed. 1874—Disraeli succeeded Gladstone as Premier. Britain annexed Fiji Islands. Ashantee war ended. 1875—Britain bought Sultan's share in Suez Canal. 1876—Queen proclaimed Empress of India, in London. Constantinople Conference opened; closed next year. 1877—Queen received General Grant. British took Transvaal Republic. 1878—Britain occupied Cyprus. Treaty of Berlin. War against Afghanistan. 1879—War against Zulus. Queen's first grandchild born, Princess Charlotte of Saxe-Meiningen, May 12. Gladstone succeeded Beaconsfield as Premier. Active Agrarian movement in Ireland. Roberts entered Kandahar. Transvaal uprising. 1881—Queen telegraphed sympathy on President Garfield's death, and court went into mourning. British defeated by Boers at Wajama Hill, autonomy granted. Irish land bill passed. Parnell imprisoned. Land League manifestation. British evacuated Kandahar. Mahdi revolt in Soudan. 1882—Roderic Maclean shot at Queen. Europeans massacred in Alexandria. War against Arabi Pasha, who was defeated. Parnell released. Lord Cavendish murdered in Dublin Irish national league formed. 1883—Queen injured by slipping on stairs. 1884—Gordon shot up in Khartoum. Franchise bill passed. 1885—Irish dynamite outrages in London. Mahdi captured Khartoum. Gordon killed. British force withdrawn from Soudan. Death of Mahdi. British prepare to meet Russian advance. Lord Lytton, settlement affected. Heretofore in Canada. Salisbury succeeded Gladstone as Premier. Contest of Burmah. Canadian Pacific Railway completed. 1886—Queen opened Colonial and Indian Exhibition. Burmah annexed. Gladstone succeeded Salisbury, proposed home rule and was succeeded by Salisbury. 1887—Queen's Jubilee celebrated. Queen sent Duke of Norfolk to congratulate the Pope on his ecclesiastical jubilee. 1888—Queen present at celebration of Prince of Wales silver wedding. Fisheries treaty with United States revised by Senate. Osman Digna defeated near Suakin. 1889—British collision with Portugal in Southeast Africa. Samoan conference with United States and Germany. 1890—Portugal yielded to British demands. Treaty with Germany defining spheres in Africa and ceding Heratopol to Germany. Protectorate of Zanzibar assumed. 1891—Queen reviewed French fleet. Osman Digna completely defeated. 1892—House of Clarence died. Agreement with United States to arbitrate. Being sea seal industry dispute. Gladstone succeeded Salisbury as Premier. 1893—Queen opened Imperial Institute. Home Rule bill introduced. Being New arbitration award against Venezuela. British East Africa Company defeated King of Matabeland. 1894—Queen formally inaugurated Manchester ship canal. Prince Edward of York born, June 23. Rosebery succeeded Gladstone as Premier. 1895—Salisbury succeeded Rosebery. President Cleveland sent message to Queen regarding Venezuela boundary dispute. 1896—Queen received Lu-Hung Chang. Queen on September 23 had reigned longer than any former British sovereign. Britain granted arbitration demand for Liberia arbitration. Janssen raid. Ashanians compelled to accept British sovereignty. Kitchener occupied Dongola. 1897—Queen's Diamond Jubilee celebrated. Senate rejected Anglo-American general arbitration treaty. Autonomy of Crete declared by Powers. Grand Duchess Tatiana of Russia, Queen's thirtieth great grandchild, born. Revolt of Indian hill tribes on Afghan frontier. 1898—Two-cent postage went into effect between Britain and colonies. 1899—Dervish force surrendered. Venezuelan arbitration award a compromise. Transvaal declared war October 11. Colonies rallied to support Agreement with America, and Germany for partition of Samoa. 1900—Queen welcomed in Ireland. International expeditions occupied Pequin. Punitive expedition against Ashanians. Australian colonies formed.

Commonwealth of Australia. Transvaal and Orange Free State annexed. Any judge has the power to let every prisoner out of the penitentiaries, but they have not the right, nor does anybody expect that they will. IS STILL IN DISPUTE Nothing Been Done in Matter for a Year. Washington, Dec. 5.—Apparently the negotiations to accomplish a permanent settlement of the Alaska boundary dispute are as far, off as ever. President Roosevelt has given no attention to the subject since his elevation and the state department has taken no steps in the matter for more than a year. No communication on the subject of the boundary has passed between the United States government and the government of Great Britain and it cannot be learned that there are any plans for an early reopening of the subject. The state department is unofficially informed from time to time of the bitter feeling engendered by the boundary dispute in the vicinity of Skagway, but the officials are resting on the ground that the modern rivalry established between the two governments subsequent to the meetings of the joint high commission forms a definite settlement of the question for the present, and that there is no legitimate basis on which disputes can arise along the borders of the disputed territory. President Roosevelt has been so busy with the preparation of his message to congress ever since he has been inducted into office that he has given little attention to matters not closely connected with the document. Now that the opportunity presents itself for the consideration of other matters it is possible that something may be done toward securing permanent settlement of the boundary question. It is believed that the department has not made it known that it can be said that up to this time the Alaska case has been one of the serious thoughts in the subject. The young queen heretofore the pink of active, graceful, robust womanhood, now looks shockingly pale. It is said she shuts herself up alone in her private apartments when it is believed she passes the time crying over her troubles, but no one has ever seen her cry in public. Her pride is overmastering. Those who are acquainted with her character and temperamental details she will never forgive her husband and will not long endure her present position.

Although the Queen, from the time of her accession to the throne, enjoyed to the fullest extent the respect and affection of her subjects, no less than five attempts, all, fortunately, unsuccessful, have been made to assassinate her—the first in June, 1840, by a crazy lad named Oxford; another in May, 1842, by John Francis, who was sentenced to be hanged for the offence, but the sentence was commuted to transportation for life. The third was in July of the same year, by one W. J. Bean, whose only punishment was 18 months in prison; the fourth, in 1849, by William Hamilton an Irishman, who was transported for seven years; the fifth on April, 1852, by Roderick McLean, a Scotchman, who was ordered to be confined during Her Majesty's pleasure.

PRINCE IS UNPOPULAR

With All the Queen's Subjects Throughout Ho-Land.

The Hague, Dec. 7.—Prince Henry has not appeared in public since the recent disclosures in regard to the domestic troubles in the court of the Netherlands. If he did he would certainly be mobbed. His picture has been withdrawn from the cinematograph exhibitions in the music halls throughout Holland owing to the very demonstrations of anger it provoked. The first printed accusations against Prince Henry appeared in the Irish press, bordering the Dutch frontier. He was charged bluntly with neglect and drunkenness. Homeric carousals are still kept up traditional in the German military set of junior officers, with whom Prince Henry graduated, and saw service. They think it adds zest to their method of get helplessly drunk at dinner and the German newspapers accused Queen Wilhelmina's husband of frequently observing this great custom after his marriage. The young queen heretofore the pink of active, graceful, robust womanhood, now looks shockingly pale. It is said she shuts herself up alone in her private apartments when it is believed she passes the time crying over her troubles, but no one has ever seen her cry in public. Her pride is overmastering. Those who are acquainted with her character and temperamental details she will never forgive her husband and will not long endure her present position.

THEY WENT TO JAIL

Chicago Journalists Write Up and Cartoon a Judge.

Chicago, Saturday, Dec. 7.—Andrew M. Lawrence, managing editor of the Hearst Chicago American, and H. S. Cannon, a reporter, who were sentenced recently by Judge Haney to thirty and thirty days respectively in the county jail on contempt of court, were incarcerated from custody by Judge Dunne today. In granting a writ of habeas corpus to the reporter the court said the case hinged on whether the case in which the American commenced had been disposed of by Judge Haney or was still pending. Judge Dunne held that the case in question had been disposed of by Judge Haney, and he gave the reporter's contempt. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted that the article and cartoons which Judge Haney suggested he write were calculated to malignate and vexate the court, but he said he had already written the cartoon. Judge Dunne announced that the reporter in violation of the court's order, had written the cartoon. Lawrence admitted

HAY-PAUNCEFOTE TREATY

Washington, Dec. 5.—The new Hay-Pauncefote treaty providing for the construction of a canal across the isthmus of Panama, which was sent to the senate yesterday, is as follows: The United States of America and His Majesty King Edward the Seventh of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of the British Dominions Beyond the Seas, King and Emperor of India, being desirous to facilitate the construction of a canal to connect the Atlantic and Pacific oceans, by whatever route may be considered expedient, and to aid and to remove any objection which may arise out of the convention of the 19th of April, 1850, commonly called the Clayton-Bulwer treaty, to the construction of such canal under the auspices of the government of the United States without impairing the "general principle" of neutralization established in article 8 of that convention, have for that purpose appointed as their plenipotentiaries: The president of the United States: John Hay, secretary of state of the United States of America, and His Majesty Edward VII. of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of the British Dominions Beyond the Seas, King and Emperor of India, the Right Hon. Lord Pauncefote, G.B.C., G.C.M.G., His Majesty's ambassador extraordinary and plenipotentiary to the United States, who, having communicated to each other their full powers, which were found to be in due and proper form, have agreed upon the following articles:

Article I.—The high contracting parties agree that the present treaty shall supersede the aforementioned convention of the 19th day of April, 1850.

Article II.—It is agreed that the canal may be constructed under the auspices of the government of the United States, either directly at its own cost or by gift or by loan of money to individuals or corporations through subscription or purchase of stock or shares, and that, subject to the provisions of the present treaty, the said government shall have and enjoy all the rights incident to such construction, as well as the exclusive right for providing for the regulation and management of the canal.

Article III.—The United States adopts as the basis of the neutralization of such ship canal the following rules, substantially embodied in the convention of Constantinople, signed the 28th of October, 1858, for the free navigation of the Suez canal, that is to say:

First—The canal shall be free and open to the vessels of commerce and of war of all nations observing these rules, on terms of entire equality, so that there shall be no discrimination against any such nation or its citizens or subject, in respect of the conditions or charges of traffic or otherwise. Such conditions and charges shall be just and equitable.

Second—The canal shall never be blockaded, nor shall any right of war be exercised, nor any act of hostility be committed within it. The United States, however, shall be at liberty to maintain such military police along the canal as may be necessary to protect it against lawlessness and disorder.

Third—Vessels of war of a belligerent shall not revictual nor take any stores in the canal, except so far as may be strictly necessary, and the transit of such vessels through the canal shall be effected with the least possible delay in accordance with the regulations in force, and with only such intermission as may result from the necessities of the service. Prizes shall be in all cases subject to the same rules as vessels of war of the belligerents.

Fourth—No belligerent shall embark or disembark troops, munitions of war or warlike materials in the canal, except in case of accidental hindrance of the transit, and in such case the transit shall be resumed with all possible dispatch.

Fifth—The provisions of this article shall apply to waters adjacent to the canal within three marine miles of each end. Vessels of war of a belligerent shall not remain in such waters longer than twenty-four hours at any one time, except in case of distress, and in such case shall depart as soon as possible; but a vessel of war of a belligerent shall not depart with-

MR. DOOLEY ON DIPLOMACY

"Be hives," said Mr. Dooley, "I wish I'd been there."

"Where?" asked Mr. Hennessy.

"At the bank of the Ancey an' Hon'able Chamber of Commerce in New York," said Mr. Dooley. "Tis a hard fate that compels me to live out here on th' prairie among th' aboriginal Americans fr'm Poland an' Bohaymyn. Me heart at times is burstin' fr. to jine in th' festivities of me fellow Britons in New York. Fr'm a British subject, Hennessy, I wasn't born wan. I was born in Ireland. But I have a little money put away an' every American that has learned to make wan dollar stick to another is ex-officio, as Hogan says, a 'British subject.' We've adopted a foster father. Some iv usn't anny too kind to th' of gentlem'n. In th' matter of th' Nicaragua Canal we have recently pushed him over an' took about all he had. But our hearts feels th' love iv th' parent country though our hands is rebellious iv' every way. Me fellow merchant gets together in New York an' greets th' cargo iv th' wool an' tallow business in an outburst iv devotion to th' of land fr'm which our fathers sprung or was sprung be th' polis."

"Th' president iv th' bankit was me frind Morse K. Chesepoth, a member iv an' of Yorkshire family, born in th' West Riding iv Long Island before th' Crimean War. At his right sat th' Secretary iv State fr'm th' colony an' at his left me frind th' Ambassador to th' Court iv St. James. Why we should send an Ambassador I don't know, though it may be an' of custom kept up fr'm to play th' people iv Omaha. He's a good man, th' Ambassador, who is an' American. Hogan says th' difference between an' American just as an' English one is th' ye laugh just after th' point if at all, but in an' English one ye laugh ayther before th' point or ayther th' decrease iv th' joke. Th' Ambassador hopes to intrathrope a cross iv th' two that we don't laugh at all that will be suited to th' English market. His experiments so far has been encourage."

"At th' conclusion iv th' evening, th' chairman, Sir Morse Chesepoth, intrathrope th' Society of State in a few well chosen words. 'Follow colonists,' says he, 'I desire to present His Majesty's representative in this country, who is an' more than any other man in th' plasterin' business, he says, 'Glad to see th' numbers iv th' Saint James' hotel iv breaks all on his head recently he has not been able to do much in th' job, he says. 'But he has brought his towel an' mortar here tonight an' if ye will kindly leave off singing, 'Britannia Rules th' Prosperity Wave,' I'll jine in th' give ye an exhibition iv how he warries. Me Lords an' gentlem'n, th' Society of State."

"Fellow Subjects," says th' Secretary of State, 'Diplomacy is a far different business than it used to be. (A voice, 'Good fr' you.' In th' days iv Bismarck, Gladston an' Chas. Francis Adams, 'twas a case iv intrigue an' deceit. Now it is as simple as sellin' a pair iv boots. In fifteen years th' whole nature iv man is so changed that a diplomat has only to be honest, straightforward an' make out an' honest everything an' he will find th' appointments will meet him half way an' ease what he gives. Unfortunately, 'Diplomacy' iv' goes as far as th' dirt. It is possible to give polis protection to th' customer, so when he leaves th' shop th' strong arm men is th' Saint knocks him down an' takes it. Me Lord, anything he got inside an' honest. Diplomacy has become a philanthropic purpose like shop-keeping, but politics, me Lords, is still th' same of sport iv highway robbery. But I done what I did to protect th' interests iv th' mother, father an' brother-in-law country an' between you an' me if I don't denounce th' Victoria cross fr' presigial that th'raty to th' Saint nobody does. I will only say that hopefull th' policy iv th' Government will be as before, not to bully a strong power of wrong a weak, but will remain true to th' principle iv wrong th' strong an' bully th' weak."

"Th' Secretary of State was followed by th' Ambassador. 'I wish to tell ye,' said he, 'what a good time I had in England. Before I went there I was strongly prejudiced agin' England. I thought it was th' noblest country on which, as Dan' Webster says, th' sun never set without halch'n' out a new colony. But I did it a great injustice. It is better than what I thought. It does not care fr' chaff or gush such as goes down in this country. All an' English gentleman demands is that ye shall be ye. Sill, frank, manly, an' sincere. A little cry on th' shoulder, a firm grasp iv th' hand, a brief acknowledged that we owe our language, an' we pay it back, our lithrochour an' our boots to him, an' his heart opens. He cannot conceal his admiration fr' ye. He goes away. Ah, after will I forget th' day I peeked out iv me bedroom window at Windsor Castle an' see many iv th' sturdy liellists here before me bein' received in th' back yard be th' King. I mind well th' wurrds that led fr'm his lips when ye left to take lunch in th' rile woodshed. 'Chole,' he says, 'those were a fine lot iv' Americans,

DYING IN A GARRET

The Once Famous Baroness de Radeu of Paris.

Paris, Dec. 7.—The toast of the Jockey Club, the beautiful woman who queneed it over the beaus of the French nobility with the same dazzling charm that won her fame in spangles an' tights in the ring at the circus, the dark-eyed beauty for whom four men gave up their lives after she had tossed their love away carelessly; the famous Harango Jennie von Radeu, blind and penniless, is slowly dying in a shabby little garret at Neuilly.

Society is shocked over the revelation. Offers of aid, many of them from the men whom she laughed at when life was kinder than now, are pouring in all too late to save her.

The Baroness's stable of thoroughbreds, which she exhibited in Paris and London, has been sold long ago. She lost her balance on the ladder of fame and riches and the fall was abyssmal.

It was as the most dashing pupil at a famous equestrian school that the girl, then the beautiful Jennie Weiss first met the Baron von Radeu. He was a Russian cavalry officer. She loved her madly. Well, they were married. But misfortune came. His riches were swept away and his real wife was forced against his wishes to go upon the stage and exhibit her horses to the society folk with whom she had mingled upon equal terms a few months before. It was heavier, but the sort of bravery that some of the continent did not understand. Then her success on the stage made her husband jealous.

Four men in quick succession, Vienna and Paris, fell before her. He made because of attention paid to the Baroness. After that gentlemen ceased sending her flowers and jewels. He and she never shared a snip of bread except for these tokens. She loved the Baron till the end, three years ago. He died. Last January she appeared at Neuilly. She went to bed at her usual hour, one night, and when she awoke she could not see. She was stone blind. Where were her friends? Gone. They deserted her. Her range and even her beloved horses went to buy her bread which she could no longer earn.

Now the end is near. She is praying for death. And noble Paris, at the moment is sorry.

Anyone having a copy of the Daily Nugget of April 29, 1901, will confer a favor by mailing or bringing same to this office. The paper if postage is required to complete sale.

Gardner's Allegretto, Looney and Hayter candies at Gandolfo's.

Job Printing at Nugget office.

NO LACK OF RECRUITS

Plenty of Fresh Fighting Material for the Philippines.

San Francisco, Dec. 7.—The sight of over a thousand recruits answering to muster call at the Presidio this morning proved that the government will not lack fresh fighting material in the conduct with the Filipinos. As fast as the worn out soldiers retire from the ranks these new men go in to supply their places. In addition to the 1,211 recruits now here, 350 more newly enlisted men with seven officers in command, will start from David's Island, New York, immediately bound for the Philippines, via San Francisco, and small detachments of men from recruiting stations throughout the country report here at the rate of from 20 to 40 a day.

Col. Rawles is anxious to ship as many recruits as are available for transportation on the transports sailing from here early this month. According to the regular schedule, 433 recruits were to go with the Fifteenth Cavalry on the Hancock on the 10th of December with the first squadron of the Eleventh Cavalry and the first battalion, headquarters and band of the Twenty-seventh Infantry. But this schedule will be altered somewhat by the pressing need for hospital corps men, and instead of the regular 400 or 500 hospital corps men will be substituted on the Hancock if they can be secured in time.

The home-coming transports will soon be bringing some more jubilant regiments who have completed their three years' unbroken service in the Philippines. The Fourth, Seventh, Twentieth and Twenty-second Infantry have had orders to hold themselves in readiness to return to the United States, and their advent will be one of the military events of the beginning of the year. The regiments are being returned in the order in which they left for the Philippines, so that no one organization can complain of unfairness in being kept longer than the other in tropical climates. (On the other hand, however, this system works a hardship to some officers and great good back to others. Promotion or change of regiment might keep an individual officer in the Philippines for a number of consecutive years, while another would spend the same time wholly within the confines of the United States.)

The body of the late Major Hugh R. Belknap of the paymaster's department, who died recently in the Philippines, is on the transport Thomas, which is due to arrive here about the 14th of December. If the interment takes place at the Presidio there will be many to do the dead officer honor, as he was on duty here in recent years, and has many friends in San Francisco.

A Prisoner Paralyzed.

New York, Dec. 7.—Almost at the point of death, with his right side paralyzed and both eyes blind, Great Trowbridge, alias William Keefe, lay upon a cot in the United States court room at Utica, N. Y., when his trial for impersonating a United States officer was commenced, says a special deputy to the World.

When Trowbridge was arrested in Ashland, Ohio, last August, charged with defrauding several pensioners in this vicinity, he was in apparent good health. While in the Utica jail a few weeks ago he received the paralytic stroke and since then he has rapidly failed. Trowbridge was taken from jail to court in an ambulance, demanding "no news" from his physical weakness.

Dr. Knobel sat at his side, and said he would not be surprised if the prisoner did not live throughout the trial, which will end this week.

TO SEEK TREASURE

Strange Expedition of the Old Barkentine Blakely.

Whatcom, Dec. 7.—Fitting out in the port of Victoria, B. C., is an expedition, thousands of the like of which have left the Atlantic ports searching for Kidd's booty. The destination of this expedition is Cocos Island, a little patch of land four miles square, lying out in the broad Pacific, 280 miles north of the equator and about 380 seaward from Callao, Peru. On this island, according to Capt. Fred Hackett, who is to command the expedition, is buried in the neighborhood of $2,000,000. The tales of how so vast an amount of treasure comes to be there takes one back to the days of the struggle of the Spanish South American dependencies for liberty, recalls the dark deeds of the Spanish Main, and brings from out of the shadows of the past, crimes unknown to the living generation.

Capt. Hackett was on the Sound for two weeks looking for a suitable vessel for his expedition, and finally heard of the Blakely. He came and inspected her, and closed for her purchase from Capt. Woodin of this city, immediately.

The Blakely has an interesting history of her own. She was built on the Sound thirty-three years ago for the Port Blakely Mill Company, fitted with machinery, and used as a

OUR DECEMBER DAY

If you listen for a moment, and your kind attention pay, I will tell you of the games, To be seen upon the way, Waiting on our hills and ridges, On a short December day.

Have you seen the Rocky Mountains In the mountains' early days? When our three-hour sun is blank To dispel the clouds of night, With its golden splendour glowing, Their snowy peaks, so wondrously bright?

When a gorgeous flame of yellow Is breaking through the red of the Then changing into gold and purple, Until the heavens are away, With colors of such splendid beauty As a painter's brush did never know.

And the trees upon the hillside All clothed in earth and snow, Looking soft and blue and white, In the morning's tender light, Seeming like some eternal paradise, In the bright days of old.

Though the weather's dull and heavy In this cold and friendless world, I am glad you almost happy, Traveling on my lonely road, (Oh) that I have seen the beauty of our short December day.

—Emil Scherzer, December 25th, 1901.

SCHOOL EXERCISES

Pupils Entertain Many Friends.

Activities Enjoyed Tossing Many Costly and Fun.

Most delightful entertainment glad Christmas season. St. Mary's school from four until 5:30 the excellent little Mary Edith and her friends of the school. A success and their play rewarded. The with a song by the of by an address of tions, essays, songs the various juvenile wing by the almost in which their parts the great care and their teacher in drilling them. Messrs. Boyle discoursed suit- the violin and piano. tion of the literary art as large as Act. Rip Vanwinkle hair appeared and for the say distributing press-school children. The eight several hundred Christmas store to oranges, candy and Starnes heaped it went forward at name by Mr. Claus, came in for a fine black fur overcoat present received from weight costly presents with full arms and upwards of 40 pounds is the pride of the accomplished little Mary Edith, for her in behalf of the children extend until January.

MAIL ARRIVES

Gets in Christmas 300 Pounds.

S. Peaslee arrived of mail from Nome, intermediate points. The mail was sent to Dawson, a miles, in 24 days, December 1st. Mr. Peaslee found when the mail left other carrier be large number of per- the Tanana late-reported rich strike river. He took today at one mail for down river take it on until he from the lower river change consignments, turning to Dawson.

FOR THE HOLIDAY TRADE!

1000 Pounds T. & B. Cut Smoking Tobacco, per Pound	$1.00
" " T. & B. Plug Smoking Tobacco, per Pound	1.00
" " Seal of North Carolina, in 1-2 lb. Tins, per Pound	1.00
" " " " in 1-12 " Pkgs.	1.00
" " Pay Roll Chewing, per Pound	.50
" " Horse Shoe Tobacco, per Pound	1.00
" " T. & B. Chewing, per Pound	1.00

N. B. — We Carry the Best Selected Stock of Pipes in the City at Eastern Prices.

TELEPHONE 137 Townsend & Rose

Hay and Oats For Sale

DAWSON WAREHOUSE CO., Limited.

WARM AND COLD STORAGE

HICKS & THOMPSON.

FLANNERY HOTEL

First Class Accommodations

Warm, Comfortable and Private Parlored Rooms. Wholesome Well Cooked Meals.

BOARD BY DAY OR MONTH

Hicks & Thompson STAGE LINE

HANKER AND DOMINION

Freighting to All Creeks.

"Hurry-Up Jobs"

Done In a Manner To Surprise The Rush-Job Fiend.

Printing

CLEAN, ORIGINAL, ARTISTIC WORK.

The Right Kind of Paper, Type, Design and Finish.

The Nugget Printery

Growing Like a Snowball Rolling Down Hill!

That is the way the Nugget's circulation has increased since the subscription price was reduced to

$3.00 PER MONTH!

The Nugget has the best telegraph service and the most complete local news gathering system of any Dawson paper.

Don't forget that the Nugget will be delivered at your door for the nominal sum of $3.00 per month.

B. A. DODGE

STAGE LINE

Last Chance, Hanker and Dominion.

DAILY SERVICE

LEAVE DAWSON 9:00 A. M.

LEAVE CARIBOU 8:30 A. M.

OFFICE HOTEL McDONALD

Aurora Chop House.

Sherry & Mills, Props.

50c DINNER A SPECIALTY

Open at All Hours Day and Night

PROFESSIONAL CARDS

LAWYERS

PATTELO & HEDLEY - Advocates, Notaries, Conveyancers, etc. (Hogan, Rogers & W. A. C. Office Bldg., Vancouver B. C.)

M. THORNTON - Barrister, Solicitor, Advocate, Notary Public, Commissioner, Registrar of the Admiralty Court, Office Bank Bldg., Vancouver B. C. Telephone 1111

Bell & Robertson

Barristers, Solicitors and Notaries Public

Rooms 2 and 10 N. C. Office Bldg., Vancouver B. C. Telephone 1111

CAVILL & FIRTH

Surveyors and Mining Engineers

Reports and Valuations given on Quartz and Placer

215 BROADWAY VANCOUVER B. C. Telephone 1111

By Using Long Distance Telephone

Anyone put in immediate communication with Bonanza, Pioneer, Hanker, Dominion, or other long distance lines.

By Subscribing for a Telephone In Town

With long lines at your finger tips, you can speak to any long distance line.

Nitkon Telephone Syn. Co.

Shredded Whole Wheat Biscuit 5c

AT

F. S. DUNHAM'S

THE FAMILY GROCER

Corner 2nd Ave. and 6th St.

FULL LINE CHOICE BRANDS

Wines, Liquors & Cigars

CHISHOLM'S SALOON.

Proprietor

Bay City Market

An supplied with meats which for days and nothing is not equalled by any other market in this country. Try our beef from Bay City.

BOYSUIT & CO. Proprietor

Pacific Coast Steamship Co.

Offers a Complete Coastwise Service, Connecting Alaska, Washington, California, Oregon and Mexico.

Freight and Passengers

Glaze from Gandolfo's

Shredded Whole Wheat Biscuit 5c

AT

F. S. DUNHAM'S

THE FAMILY GROCER

Corner 2nd Ave. and 6th St.

FULL LINE CHOICE BRANDS

Wines, Liquors & Cigars

CHISHOLM'S SALOON.

Proprietor

Bay City Market

An supplied with meats which for days and nothing is not equalled by any other market in this country. Try our beef from Bay City.

BOYSUIT & CO. Proprietor

Pacific Coast Steamship Co.

Offers a Complete Coastwise Service, Connecting Alaska, Washington, California, Oregon and Mexico.

Freight and Passengers

PROFESSIONAL CARDS

LAWYERS

PATTELO & HEDLEY - Advocates, Notaries, Conveyancers, etc. (Hogan, Rogers & W. A. C. Office Bldg., Vancouver B. C.)

M. THORNTON - Barrister, Solicitor, Advocate, Notary Public, Commissioner, Registrar of the Admiralty Court, Office Bank Bldg., Vancouver B. C. Telephone 1111

Bell & Robertson

Barristers, Solicitors and Notaries Public

Rooms 2 and 10 N. C. Office Bldg., Vancouver B. C. Telephone 1111

CAVILL & FIRTH

Surveyors and Mining Engineers

Reports and Valuations given on Quartz and Placer

215 BROADWAY VANCOUVER B. C. Telephone 1111

By Using Long Distance Telephone

Anyone put in immediate communication with Bonanza, Pioneer, Hanker, Dominion, or other long distance lines.

By Subscribing for a Telephone In Town

With long lines at your finger tips, you can speak to any long distance line.

Nitkon Telephone Syn. Co.

Hay and Oats For Sale

DAWSON WAREHOUSE CO., Limited.

WARM AND COLD STORAGE

HICKS & THOMPSON.

FLANNERY HOTEL

First Class Accommodations

Warm, Comfortable and Private Parlored Rooms. Wholesome Well Cooked Meals.

BOARD BY DAY OR MONTH

Hicks & Thompson STAGE LINE

HANKER AND DOMINION

Freighting to All Creeks.

