FRUIT
JARS!

The careful housekeeper will buy Fruit Jars early. Prices are at a point now where they can't stay long. The market is rapidly rising and already the wholesalers have had two advances with promises of more to follow. Last season's great scarcity in jars and advances in price should be remembered now, when these goods are here at a price made only possible by a big deal. We placed our order early, and placed heavily. We bought six hundred dozens and secured a special discount for taking this quantity. They're here now, and anyone who wants jars will do well to buy while this lot lasts.

The warrant against Morris Reid charged with absconding with books and certain papers of the Holland cheese factory, has been withdrawn, a settlement having been arrived at between the parties.

Each infant robin, it is estimated, requires for its proper maintenance about fourteen inches of tender angle worm every day. As a robin family averages four, the mother is obliged to provide fifty-six inches of worm daily. People who have doubts of the value of birds as grub destroyers will please make a note of this.

A Record in Blood.

The record of Hood's Sarsaparilla is literally written in the blood of millions of people to whom it has given good health. It is all the time curing diseases of the stomach, nerves, kidneys and blood, and it is doing good every day to thousands who are taking it for poor appetite, tired feeling and general debility. It is the best medicine money can buy.
Hood's Pills are non-irritating. Price 25 cents.

TYE—DEWOLFE.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Brock DeWolfe was the scene of a very pleasant event last Wednesday evening when two more young persons launched forth their bark on the ocean of wedded life. The contracting parties on this occasion were their eldest daughter, Miss Zella, and Mr. John R. Tye, one of our promising young business men. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Rural Dean Wright in the presence of only the intimate friends and relatives. Miss Mary Wright presided at the organ and played a beautiful wedding march.

The bride was becomingly attired in a dress of cream serge and carried a beautiful bouquet of white roses. Miss Ethel DeWolfe, sister of the bride, acted the part of bridesmaid, and the groom was ably supported by his brother, Mr. Frank Tye, of Lyndhurst. The parlor was artistically decorated for the occasion with June roses.

The ceremony over, the bridal party sat down to a daintily decorated, but well furnished table and did ample justice to the good things. Later in the evening, the Citizens' Band favored the young couple with a lively serenade.

The esteem in which the bride is held was well shown by the numerous presents she received. With the best wishes of their friends, the young couple left for their new home at Mr. Tye's grocery, and we join in extending to the happy pair, whose future is so auspiciously begun, our best wishes for a prosperous and happy wedded life.

Opened the Safe.

From Saturdays' Evening Citizen—The man whose no lock can defy or withstand, Mr. Arthur Gravelle, of the Renfrew Journal, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Gravelle's trip was made at the request of the Merchants' bank, who called on him to open one of the safes in the Hull branch, situated on Main street, in the fire swept district. The bankers' appeal was not made in vain, as, after an hour's work, Mr. Gravelle succeeded in exposing the interior to daylight and the anxious gaze of the officials once more. The contents were found to have escaped the flames. The combination was a 4-wheel one, the safe being built by the Taylor company of Toronto. In his 24 years' study of safe combinations, Mr. Gravelle has never had one to fool him.

CHARLESTON NOTES

Mr. Banta's cottage on Beattie Island is nearing completion, the painters being now at work putting on the finishing touches.
W. G. Parish is making several improvements to his properties on and around the lake. He has added a couple of rooms to his cottage and painted the building. He has also erected a neat little horse barn on his lot on the Main Shore.
Dr. C. M. B. Cornell's family will occupy their cottage on Point Geraldine next week. The carpenters, who have been engaged since early spring in making improvements, are about through with their work.
Lewis King is busily engaged in putting his two cottages on Bertha Island in shape for the party of Americans who occupied them last season. He is adding a long veranda to each and fitting the cottages up in first class style. The party to occupy them will be along in a couple of weeks.
R. D. Judson & Son have made several improvements to their cottage during the past winter, including new floors and a liberal use of the paint brush.
H. C. Phillips and wife moved to the lake for the summer on Monday last. They were accompanied by S. H. Laughlin, who spent the summer with them last year.
The editor of the Reporter has also been making improvements during the spring. He has erected a stable near the boathouse in Warren's Bay, cleaned up the grounds and made a good buggy road from the Cedar Park grounds to the water's edge. He has also dug out and planked up a beautiful spring of clear cold water and will enclose about two acres of the point, called the "Picnic ground," with a wire fence and fit it up for picnic and camping purposes. As this is the most charming point on the main shore for picnics, and as parties can be accommodated with tables, stove, clear spring water and ice, it will no doubt be well patronized by parties wishing to spend a pleasant outing on the lake. The houseboat, La-ne-o-fah, will be anchored in the bay and on pleasant days, picnic and private parties occupying the grounds will be given a free ride on the houseboat in tow of the steam launch, Sport, which has been thoroughly overhauled and put in first class condition for the purpose. The Cedar Park and Harbor View hotels will accommodate teams of picnickers at reasonable charges.
Wm. Crozier and Sons have just completed a novel catamaran for the pleasure of parties coming to the lake. They have built a platform 13 by 26 feet on a couple of skiffs, enclosed with a railing and seats. It is designed for dancing parties and will be propelled from place to place with sail and oars.

to take such comfort as few old people have the privilege to enjoy. The example he set through life is well worthy of imitation. By his death, Mrs. Loverin has lost a kind husband and the community an obliging neighbor. His funeral took place yesterday. The Rev. Mr. Lawson of Addison conducted the religious services. The esteem in which the deceased was held was shown by the very large number of friends that assembled from far and near to pay their last tribute of respect to the departed. The pall bearers were W. W. Millar, Alex. Blanchard, Almeron Blanchard, Richard Kerr, George Langdon, Daniel Blanchard.

MONDAY, July 2.—A large number from here attended the social at Lyndhurst on Thursday night last, which was a decided success.
Miss Belle Johnson is making an extended visit at her sister's, Mrs. F. Warren, Rockfield.
Mr. G. E. Godkin is recovering from a relapse of appendicitis.
The Masonic celebration of St. John's day at Delta was largely attended by residents from here. Rev. L. A. Batts of Brockville conducted the service.
Our school has closed for the summer holidays. Mrs. Sexton, our teacher, is spending the vacation at her home, Elgin.
Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Godkin spent Thursday in visiting their daughter, Mrs. P. F. Yates of Newboro.
Trinity church is undergoing repairs. Mr. Reynolds of Westport has the contract for the painting.
Mr. R. J. Green has returned from Brockville after attending counties council.
Mrs. (Rev.) Moore of Smith's Falls and Mrs. Berney of Lyndhurst, visited Mrs. R. J. Green recently.
While Mrs. Wm. Godkin was preparing to milk on Sunday morning she was greatly alarmed by a form in the manger, and on investigation found it was a person who had lodged there.
Among the visitors at Mr. W. H. Godkin's on Sunday last were Mr. S. Whaley, Soperton, and Mr. Wm. Sturgeon of Newboro.
Wedding bells are supposed to ring in this neighborhood in the near future.
In conversation with Mr. A. E. Donovan of Halifax, N. S., your correspondent was informed that Mr. Donovan would oppose Mr. Taylor in South Leeds. This would make it hot for George.

Professor Robertson, Dominion Dairy Commissioner, addressed the Brockville Cheese Board recently and among other things said this: "In 1885, when the government began to assist the dairymen, the cheese exports from this country amounted to about $6,000,000. Last year they were over $16,000,000 and by improving the methods of making, curing and transporting, this can be increased $10,000,000 during the next ten years."

GREENBUSH.

SATURDAY, June 30.—The down-pour of rain on Thursday night has caused all nature to rejoice in this section.
Miss Ellen Wallace is entertaining her sister of Cape Vincent.
Farmers in this section are wearing a broad smile. Their milk for the month of May brought the handsome sum of $15.64 per ton.
The pork market touched the high-water mark of $6 per cwt. at Bellamy's on Thursday.
The grim monster, Death, has again entered our neighborhood and taken one of the oldest and most respected residents in the person of Mr. Norris Loverin, who had reached the ripe old age of 83 years. In religion he was a Methodist; in politics, a Liberal. By honesty and industry in their youthful days, he and his estimable wife had secured one of the most pleasant homes in this part of the country, which enabled him in his old age

MASSACRE STORIES WERE ALL UNTRUE.

Admiral Seymour Relieved and the Foreign Ministers Safe.

TROOPS MET LITTLE RESISTANCE.

Although Chinese Flocks Harassed them on the Way—Will the Consuls be Taken Back to Peking and Reinstalled there?—Feeling that the Crisis is Past, and that Rumor-Tongers Have Greatly Exaggerated it—Boxers May Yet Cause Much Trouble—Shanghai the Fountain of Fake Stories.

The Foo, June 29, via Shanghai, noon.—Admiral Seymour's expedition has been relieved, having failed to connect with Peking. There is no news from Peking. Russian Colonel Schelle, commanding the combined forces of ten thousand men, is supposed to be proceeding to Tien Tsin. Admiral Seymour's expedition is returning to Tien Tsin. His force has suffered greatly. It is estimated that from 40,000 to 50,000 Chinese troops are now before Peking. The Boer side in all sections are swarming through.

Following cablegram was received this morning by the Navy Department from Admiral Kempff: Chefoo, June 28.—Secretary Navy, Washington: About 12,000 foreign troops now ashore. Soldiers ordered should report Taku instead of Chefoo. Substituted Nashville for Yorktown at Chefoo. Yorktown used as despatch boat being more suitable. (Signed) Kempff.

Russia Informed. St. Petersburg, June 29.—The Minister of War has received the following despatch from Admiral Alexejeff: "Port Arthur, June 27.—During the night of June 25th a detachment of four companies of Russians, Colonel Schivinsky commanding, and the same number of foreigners relieved Admiral Seymour and brought 200 of his wounded to Tien Tsin."

Germans Safe. Hamburg, June 29.—Commercial firms here have received telegrams from Shanghai saying that all the Germans at Tien Tsin are uninjured.

U. S. Troops Start. Washington, June 29.—The War Department received the following undated cablegram from Gen. MacArthur this morning: "Adjutant General, Washington: Transport left Manila at 8:30 morning, June 27th, with Colonel Liacum in command, 39 officers, 1,271 men. (Signed) MacArthur."

Russia's Financial Troubles. London, June 29.—A despatch from Moscow to the Westminister Gazette says: "The Boer troubles and the death of Count Murfitt have greatly accentuated the difficulties of the financial situation in Russia, which is in such a critical state as to arouse the gravest anxiety. The black list of good firms falling lengthens, and the Stories of Horrors Sent Out From Shanghai False. New York, June 29.—The situation in China is clearing slowly but surely. The losses and dangers of foreigners in Tien Tsin are known to have been grossly exaggerated by the rumor-mongers. There has been no massacre of foreigners. The casualties have been few and the damages to property have not been great.

Met Little Resistance. The relief column which entered Tien Tsin on Saturday night met with little resistance. The Russian losses are reported as four killed, and twenty wounded, and the casualties of the other detachments were light.

Harassed by Mobs. The safety of the foreign legations is assured. The foreigners, with their own guards, were conducted out of the capital and placed under the protection of Seymour's force, which retired slowly towards Tien Tsin with its sick and wounded. The column was harassed by Chinese mobs and compelled to move slowly, but apart from the difficulty of securing supplies, it does not appear to have been in serious danger, much less in great extremity.

Will Ministers Return to Peking? It now seems probable that with the 10,000 troops, including the Japanese, between Taku and Tien Tsin, Peking can be approached with little difficulty within a few days, and members of the legations reinstated in their quarters. This may be an optimistic view, but the situation has improved so rapidly during the last 48 hours that the collapse of the entire Boer movement within a few days is now forecasted by well informed men.

Information was not definite at midnight, but there was a general feeling among those watching events in the far east that there had been no catastrophe, and that the crisis had passed. When Seymour's force is rescued diplomacy will come in. Russia and Japan will have troops on the ground, and it will not be easy to bring about their exit, but there will be a diplomatic situation in place of a crisis in Asia affairs, with China at war with Christiandom.

It is stated that the total allied force landed exceeds 14,000 men. A despatch to the Times from Yokohama says the Chinese residents of Japan have petitioned the Japanese Government to use its influence to induce the powers to restore the Emperor of China to the throne, and to remove the capital south. They declare that this is the only means of restoring order or of effecting reforms.

15 Days' Hard Fighting. London, June 29.—Col. Dore Ward (British) commanded the column that relieved Admiral Seymour. Several German marines participated in the achievement. The admiral was found entrenched and surrounded by immense masses of Chinese, who were driven off by the presence of a single rifle. His men had made a brilliant resistance, never falling in courage for 15 days' of continuous fighting. During ten days the men were on quarter rations. They started with provisions for ten days, and they could have held out a day or two longer. The column was a few miles beyond Loh.

boat Zenta has sent to the Austrian Ministry of Marine a despatch to the effect that Chefoo, which has hitherto been quiet, now threatens. He adds that he left 15 men to protect the Consulate on Monday, and went with all speed to Taku with Consul despatches.

The Paris correspondent of the Daily Express says: "Four Russian Ambassadors are here by accident—Count Cassini, Ambassador to the United States; Count De Nelhoff, Ambassador to Italy; Count Kapust, Ambassador to Austria-Hungary; and Prince Orousoff, Ambassador to France. It is said that Count Muravloff will be one of these, and I am informed that Count Cassini stands best chance."

The Shanghai correspondent of the Daily Telegraph, writing at 9:05 p. m. yesterday, says: "It is reported on good Chinese authority, that the Government, alarmed by foreign military preparations, has issued an edict ordering peremptory suppression of the Boxers, and announcing a decision to support and reinforce the Peking relieving column. Twenty thousand troops of all arms, largely Japanese, have now been landed."

"Foreign officers' opinions here," says a despatch from Shanghai to the Daily Express, dated yesterday, "inclined to believe that the worst has happened to the Legations at Peking, and to Admiral Seymour as well. Even if the Legations were safe on June 19th, this is no guarantee that they are now safe. The situation, in fact, grows more and more gloomy. The entire absence of reliable news from the capital seems to justify the worst construction which can be put upon it."

Gen. Ma's army," says a correspondent at Shan-Hsi-Wai, "consisting of 4,000 men, left a week ago for Peking, and General Sung-Ching's force, numbering 2,500, left for the same place on June 19th."

A careful estimate of the number and armament of the Chinese troops around Peking puts the total at 360,000, and it is calculated that these troops possess 220,710 Crescent guns, 18 Krupps, and 15 Maxims. Their supply of ammunition is practically inexhaustible. It has been mainly supplied by a German firm at Carlowitz. Fully three-fourths of the Chinese forces are badly drilled, wholly undisciplined, and quite unfamiliar with modern weapons."

allied squadron at Shanghai. The southern provinces are sending troops towards Peking, and the exodus of Chinese from Shanghai continues at the rate of from 10,000 to 15,000 a day.

British in the Van. London, June 28.—A despatch to the Central News from Chefoo, dated June 27th, says that an American newspaper correspondent named Fenton and an American sailor and Shanghai regarding the operations at Tien-Tsin, but none of them can be authenticated, nor can their source be traced. One asserts that the Chinese, under General Nieh, fiercely attacked the foreign settlement after the force started to relieve Admiral Seymour, subjecting it to a terrific bombardment. The garrison of three thousand men, mostly Russians, had only small artillery, as the 4.7-inch guns from the British ship Terrible had been left at the rail-head, eight miles from Tien-Tsin, owing to the break in the line.

Killed Wounded. British ... 2 United States ... 2 Germans ... 15 27 Russians ... 10 37

The British Losses. London, June 28.—The Admiralty issues a list of the British casualties at Tien Tsin up to the morning of June 23rd, showing that four sailors were killed, a lieutenant and two midshipmen dangerously wounded, two lieutenants, a midshipman, and 11 men seriously wounded, and Commander Betty, of the Barleur, two midshipmen and 25 men slightly wounded.

CAPE COLONY NOW QUIET.

Orange River Colony Rebels Breaking Up.

PTE. ROBSON VERY ILL.

Private Larne Dead—Private Craig Home—Canadians at Mafeking—Quiet Around Pretoria—Roberts Tells de Villiers' Men Surrendering—Will De Wet be Captured?

London, June 29.—The Boer commandos in the eastern part of the Orange River Colony appear to have been broken up by their leaders for the time into small parties that harass large columns of the British incessantly, cutting off scouts, sniping pickets, and making a show of force here and there. Commandant Christian de Wet, Gen. Steyn's principal commander, is the genius of these guerrilla operations. He is the hero on the Boer side in these last days of hostilities.

Lord Roberts' columns are steadily contracting the circle of their advance. Transvaal officials who were interviewed yesterday at Mafeking by a correspondent of the Daily Express asserted an intention to hold out to the last. President Kruger will probably retire to Waterval or Nelspruit. His physician thinks his condition of health will not allow him to go to the high veldt.

The British prisoners at Noot Gedacht are now more comfortable. Large quantities of food and blankets have been forwarded to them, and their enclosure is lighted by electricity.

Pretoria telegrams say that supplies of warm clothing are reaching Lord Roberts' infantry, who had been ragged and had suffered from the cold.

Commandant-General Botha is un-

Where Interest Centres. News was received to-day of an engagement between the forces of Gen. Buller and Gen. Prinsloo at Heidelberg.

All interest is centring upon the operations of Gen. De Wet. Gen. Botha is resident at the head quarters at Bronkhorstspuit, keeping an occasional touch with the British mounted patrols across the Donkersloot hills.

Rev. Mr. Van Broekhuizen, minister of the principal Dutch church here, in the pulpit yesterday, called upon the congregation to send additional food supplies to the Boer prisoners in the city. He also declared that the latest reports from all the laagers were satisfactory.

The Boer judges, Curlews, Gregorow'ski and Morics, and two ex-judges, Amerikoff and De Korte, remain here. Lord Roberts has written to the surgeons of the Swiss Red Cross who were here before his entry, thanking them on behalf of his army for their valuable work.

Cable From Roberts. London, June 29.—The War Office has received the following despatch from Lord Roberts: "The rebellion in the Orange River is now over. The last formidable body, under Commandant de Villiers, surrendered on June 20th, consisting of about 220 men, 280 horses, 18 wagons, 260 rifles, and 100,000 rounds of ammunition."

Private Larne Dead. Ottawa, Ont., June 29.—The following cablegram has been received from Cape Town: "June 25th.—Report to report that 7,818, Pte. L. Larne, Canadian Regiment Infantry, died of enteric fever at Winburg hospital on the 24th June."

Larne was an officer in the 87th Battalion and resigned his commission to enlist in the first contingent. He was wounded on the 18th of February at Paardeberg. He was a son of Dr. Larne, of Quebec.

One Captured, One Ill. London, June 29.—The latest casualties in South Africa include Lord Kensington, of the Life Guards, who has died at Bloemfontein from the effects of wounds: Capt. J. J. Macdonald, of the Canadian Infantry, captured; and Pte. A. Robson, of the Canadian Infantry, dangerously ill.

Pte. Craig Returns Home. Windsor, June 29.—Private Craig, of the 21st Regiment, resident of this city, and a member of the first Canadian contingent, who was wounded at Paardeberg, has arrived home. He tells many interesting stories regarding the campaign.

Canadians at Mafeking. The Toronto Evening News has the following special yesterday: Montreal, June 29.—The following letter, received from Lieut. Leslie, of C Battery, Canadian Artillery, dated Mafeking, May 18th, is the first communication from a Canadian taking part in the memorable relief of the heroic garrison of Mafeking.

The letter says: "I wish you have heard ere this that Mafeking is relieved, and we, the Canadians of C Battery, were in it—very much in it."

"Wednesday at 1 o'clock in the afternoon found us under fire; our force was made up of fifteen guns, infantry and mounted rifles, about 1,800 men all told."

"I had the honor of being Brigadier Major for the artillery when we fought about 8,000 Boers. The fight lasted from midday until sundown, about 6 o'clock. The Boer losses are not known, but they spent all yesterday and part of last night burying their dead. Our losses amount to about 60 killed and wounded. We were called out yesterday morning to shell the Boers, who had taken refuge in the trenches behind the town, but I can hardly call it a fight. As soon as the guns opened upon them, they went so fast that one could not see them at dusk. We were moving out to-morrow morning to try and open the railway, which has been closed for the last seven months."

Buller's Praise. Montreal, Que., June 26.—The Star publishes the following special cable from Pretoria: Pretoria, June 25.—Strathcona's Horse have done one of the great deeds of the war.

Leaving Cape Town a month ago, they went to Durban by water, and then proceeded up the country, reaching Gen. Buller's force in time to do splendid service in the advance from Newcastel towards Standerton and Pretoria, service for which they received special mention in Gen. Buller's despatches to the War Office, approved by Lord Roberts.

Now they have done a deed which will live in history. They have blown up the railway bridge at Komatiport, on the railway between Pretoria and Komatiport, and have cut off all communication of the Boers with the sea.

All the Delagoa Bay Railway rolling stock, the Boer artillery and the whole Boer army, including the gold taken by President Kruger from the mint here, are west of that break, and must now inevitably fall into our hands.

Strathcona's Horse has effectually bottled up the Boers.

Praise for Strathcona. London, June 29.—General Steyn's force in the Orange River Colony are for the time drawing most of the attention of Lord Roberts rather than the neglect of Commandant General Louis Botha and President Kruger.

The severance between the Transvaal and the Orange River Colony was completed yesterday, as Lord Roberts said it would be by the arrival of General Buller's advance under Lord Buller at Standerton. The wide net around the 6,000 or 8,000 men under Steyn will now contract. Adroit manoeuvres and brisk fighting are likely to take place south of the Vaal.

The British line of communication will not be safe. President Kruger's sons, who surrendered to Gen. Baden-Powell, are back on their farms working peacefully. Gen. Baden-Powell's force, with only 300 men from Mafeking, and he made the last section of the ride to Pretoria with only 35. Lord Roberts met him in the outskirts of the town and escorted him to the Presidency.

Gen. De Wet's farm-houses have been burned by the British. Gen. Buller has issued a special order curtailing the services of the Strathcona Horse. Capt. Jones and the brigade from H. M. S. Forte have been ordered back to the ship at the admiral's request.

Canadian Rifles Suffer. Kroonstad, June 27.—The Canadian Rifles are scattered along the railways in the northern section of Orange River Colony, where General Dewet is causing some trouble. A Cossack post of D Squadron was attacked on June 22nd by a superior number, at a point four miles from their camp at Heuning Spruit. The Canadians took to their horses, but suffered severely. Privates T. E. Paterson (of MacLeod), J. F. Morison (Pincher Creek), and Kerr were killed. Lieut. W. M. Inglis (late Berkley Regiment), Pte. T. R. Miles (Pincher Creek), and Pte. A. Aspinall, N. W. M. F., were wounded. Privates Bell and C. P. Ermatinger, N. W. M. F., were made prisoners. The Boers pushed the party to within rifle shot of the camp, when Pte. Ed. F. Waddy, N. W. M. F., not caring to be shot or captured without making a good fight for it, jumped from his horse and killed two Boers. Another was shot from the camp. Their friends dared not attempt to remove the bodies, and the Canadians buried them. John A. Ewan.

There are two Kerrs in the Canadian Mounted Rifles. Pte. S. and Pte. R. J. of Moosomin, and Pincher Creek, respectively. Mr. Ewan does not give the initials of the one who was killed. There are also two Bells. Pte. W. and Pte. C. of Calgary, and Maple Creek, respectively. Pte. Ermatinger is a son of Judge Ermatinger, of St. Thomas, Ont. In Moscow despatches within two months, it is stated on good authority, $2,000,000 roubles, most of which was previously in currency, has been lodged in the Imperial Bank, without interest, for safety."

London, June 29.—Beyond the main fact of the rescue of Admiral Seymour's force, which is most briefly reported, there is no news of importance from China. The British Government indeed is without any news from Admiral Seymour, as Lord Salisbury admitted in the House of Lords, but St. Petersburg and Berlin supply the official statements which are supplemented by press telegrams.

Details, however, are most scanty and the accounts differ as to whether Admiral Seymour himself returned to Tien-Tsin. The Russian despatch says that only the wounded were taken there, while the German despatch intimates that the whole force is there. One unofficial report says that Admiral Seymour's troops joined a strong force, which is now supposed to be marching on Peking.

There is still complete ignorance here concerning the members of the Legations, and there is the most curious discrepancy regarding them in the reports purporting to be official.

The actual composition of Admiral Seymour's deliverers is not known. Various reports come from Chefoo and Shanghai regarding the operations at Tien-Tsin, but none of them can be authenticated, nor can their source be traced. One asserts that the Chinese, under General Nieh, fiercely attacked the foreign settlement after the force started to relieve Admiral Seymour, subjecting it to a terrific bombardment. The garrison of three thousand men, mostly Russians, had only small artillery, as the 4.7-inch guns from the British ship Terrible had been left at the rail-head, eight miles from Tien-Tsin, owing to the break in the line.

The Oestasietsch Lloyd, a newspaper published in Shanghai, declares that the losses at Tien-Tsin have been greatly exaggerated, and says probably not one foreign resident was killed.

It is stated that the total allied force landed exceeds 14,000 men. A despatch to the Times from Yokohama says the Chinese residents of Japan have petitioned the Japanese Government to use its influence to induce the powers to restore the Emperor of China to the throne, and to remove the capital south. They declare that this is the only means of restoring order or of effecting reforms.

15 Days' Hard Fighting. London, June 29.—Col. Dore Ward (British) commanded the column that relieved Admiral Seymour. Several German marines participated in the achievement. The admiral was found entrenched and surrounded by immense masses of Chinese, who were driven off by the presence of a single rifle. His men had made a brilliant resistance, never falling in courage for 15 days' of continuous fighting. During ten days the men were on quarter rations. They started with provisions for ten days, and they could have held out a day or two longer. The column was a few miles beyond Loh.

Provincial Detective Rogers is touring Eastern Ontario and is rounding up all the tramps he runs across.

The detective is acting under instructions from the Ontario government. The intention is to make it so hot for the Weary Willies that they will quit either the province or the business.

As a result of the good work there is a noticeable shrinking in the tramp supply.

Notwithstanding the high wind and low temperature that prevailed, the pupils and friends of the Baptist Sabbath school spent a very enjoyable time at their annual picnic held on Saturday last.

The dense grove and clusters of cedars on the picnic ground at Charleston formed an effective wind-break and in their shelter the tables were spread and the whole day was passed very pleasantly.

A few ventured on the water, but it was too rough for comfort or safety.

Death of Jonathan Simes. After a lingering illness, Mr. Jonathan Simes departed this life at his home in Athens on Tuesday last, aged 45 years.

Deceased had for many years been troubled with asthma, and a season he spent making cheese in one of the maritime provinces greatly aggravated this complaint.

About seven months ago, bronchitis developed and finally consumption ended his life. During his long illness he had every care and attention that his wife and children could bestow, and for a few days before his demise his father, mother and brother of Lansdowne were at his bedside. In their deep sorrow, the family have the sympathy of all.

The funeral takes place at 10 a. m. to-morrow (Thursday) at the church of the Holiness Movement and the interment will be made in the Athens cemetery.

A Good Record. At the last regular meeting of the Athens high school board, the reports of the principal and inspector were presented.

The report of the inspector was highly favorable as to the character and efficiency of the work being done, giving the organization, teaching, and discipline the highest grading possible.

All the members of the board expressed themselves as being greatly pleased with the report, and on motion of Mr. Lewis, seconded by Mr. Coon, a resolution was unanimously passed congratulating Principal Massey and his staff on their very creditable record and expressing appreciation of the meritorious work accomplished during the year.

All the members of the teaching staff were re-engaged for the ensuing year.

An Illustration in Point. "Right ahead of us," resumed the traveler who was narrating his experiences, "I saw the mountain pass!"

"Do you know," artlessly interrupted one of the younger women in the company, "that seems very queer to me? How can a mountain pass?"

"Did you never see Cumberland Gap, miss?" he asked.

And there were no more interruptions. —Chicago Tribune.

THE HOSPITAL DOCTOR.

Why He Did Not Visit the Patient Who Was Dying.

Hospital doctors were under discussion. Every man in the party had had hospital experience at some time or another, and each had a good word for his particular doctor.

"I tell you what it is," said he; "there are some mighty cold blooded men among them. I was in one of the big hospitals not long ago, visiting a doctor friend of mine. It was night and there was not much going on. There were four or five doctors besides my friend around, and some one suggested a game of poker."

"We hadn't been playing long when a nurse knocked at the door and said, 'Doctor, I think the patient in No. 8 is dying; won't you come down?' 'Yes, right away,' said the doctor. 'I'll draw three cards.' He filled his hand and played it, and he kept right on playing for about 15 minutes, when there came another knock at the door and the nurse said: 'Really, doctor, that man's condition is very serious. I know he's dying; won't you come?' The doctor said: 'Yes, yes; oh, I forgot. I'll be there in just a minute—I'll raise you a quarter, doc.'

"Well, he played that hand out and the next one, and then he said he guessed he'd go see the patient. The nurse met him half way down the stairs and told him the man was dead. Now, what do you think of that?"

"Well, they get hardened, they see so much suffering," said one of the party apologetically.

"If he'd gone when he was first called, he probably couldn't have done anything to save the man's life," said the second.

"Yes," said the discordant man, "but just as a matter of form he might have quit after he filled that first hand."

"He might," assented all the party. "But the man was going to die anyway."

A QUEER OCCUPATION.

Gathering the Downs of Cattails in the Jersey Meadows.

One of the queerest industries has grown up on the Hackensack meadows, an otherwise apparently useless bog upon which it is unsafe for man or beast to venture.

In the summer certain parts of the meadows are covered with a dense growth of cattails. They grow particularly rank and large. Sometimes the tall, or furry part, is a foot or more long and thick in proportion. The light, furry down is long and soft, bearing a close resemblance to down when first taken from the stalk.

Certain people always more or less quick to see the advantages of a waste product have begun gathering the seed down from cattails and are making it a considerable business. Just before the ice is gone in the spring is the time selected. Provided with a large sack in which to store the feathery products, the gatherer goes about among the tall flags, pulls off the down, deposits it in his sack and takes it home. It is not a particularly pleasant piece of work, because the little bits of eyes, the nose, the mouth and ears, and completely cover one's clothing. But it furnishes work, and men and women do it.

It is taken from the sack, carefully spread where it will dry thoroughly, and it is then ready to be used in pillows or wherever else genuine animal down is advisable. It doesn't last long, because its fibers lack elasticity, but for a time the pillow will be as soft as any.

Those who gather it make reasonably fair pay at it, though hardly enough when the danger and the disagreeable character of the work are considered.—New York Commercial Advertiser.

FOUR PHYSICIANS FAILED.

One who speaks in terms of the highest praise of Dr. Hall's Rheumatic Cure is Mr. J. P. H. Ferris, Kingston, Ont. It cured him when all other remedies failed, and after four physicians had exhausted their skill upon him. He suffered with rheumatism in the legs and shoulders for over a year, and for six months the pain he endured was excruciating. For three weeks it confined him to his room. Happening to read of some of the remarkable cures effected by Dr. Hall's Rheumatic Cure, he was induced to give it a trial. Almost from the time he began taking the first bottle he was relieved, and after using seven bottles, he found himself as well and free from pain as ever he was. He declares the medicine is a wonderful remedy, and recommends all rheumatic sufferers to give it a trial. He says if the directions are carried out faithfully, a cure is sure to follow.

AN OPEN LETTER

To All Sufferers From Anaemia and Kindred Troubles.

Mr. Wm. Wilson, of Sarina, Tells How He Regained Health After an Illness of Over Two Years.

Mr. William Wilson, who is well known to the citizens of Sarina, Ont., writes: "It affords me much pleasure to be able to add my testimony to the great benefit that I have derived from your famous Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. It is now a little more than two years since I became afflicted with anaemia. During that time I have received almost continuous treatment from medical men of the highest rank in their profession, yet apparently deriving no benefit. Indeed I continued to grow worse until I became unable to walk. I came to the conclusion that I was deriving no benefit from the treatment and decided to give it up. It then was the question, what shall I try? Having read the testimony of so many who had suffered in a similar manner, and who had received great benefit from your Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, I decided to give them a fair trial.

It is now about three months since I commenced to take your pills and to-day I feel almost completely restored. Two weeks after I began to take the pills I felt a decided improvement. Three months ago when I began to take your pills my face looked like wax, and my face, feet and legs were badly swollen. These conditions have all disappeared and to-day my color is natural and my blood vessels full of good rich blood. It will afford me pleasure to recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to any one suffering from anaemia or kindred ailments.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are praised amongst the highest in the land, as a strengthening and tonic medicine, whether for men, women or children. They are not like other medicines, nor can they be imitated, as is sometimes dishonestly pretended by dealers who sell substitutes. See that the package bears the full name, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, and in case of doubt send direct to Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., which will supply the pills postpaid at 50c a box or $2.50 for six boxes. The pills cure all disorders which arise from impoverished blood, such as muscular weakness, loss of appetite, shortness of breath, pains in the back, nervous headache, early decay, all forms of neuritis, hysteria, paralysis, locomotor ataxia, rheumatism and sciatia.

OUTWITTED ROTHSCHILD.

Shrewd Scheme of an Italian in Selling Antique Articles.

An amusing story, told in the "Memories of an Old Collector," makes clear the tricks in trade with an unscrupulous dealer in antiquities who resort in order to get a large sum for his wares. The two parties were Alessandro Castellani, the clever dealer, and Baron Adolph Rothschild, of Paris. Castellani had managed to get hold of a superbly enamelled ewer, together with the dish on which it stood. He knew that Baron Adolph had a fancy for objects of this kind, but he also knew that as Rothschild was ever so carried away by his fancy as to pay more than was reasonable for anything that pleased him, Castellani, who in trade was what Michael Scott was in politics, devised a bit of strategy. The baron, on arriving in Rome, visited Castellani's shop and was shown the best things the dealer had, except the enamelled dish and ewer. When everything else had been inspected, Castellani drew from a hidden cupboard the dish, but not the ewer. The baron was so pleased with the dish that he agreed to buy the lot of which it was a part, for one of the customs of the shop was not to sell a rare specimen apart from the group of which it formed a part. The baron paid heavily for the whole, lamenting that there was no ewer to stand on the dish, and departed for Florence. There he was visited by an agent, who told him of an old lady who wished to sell several beautiful majolica pieces. He visited her house in the country, and was disappointed, as the majolica was not fine enough to suit his taste. The old lady, seemingly chagrined, left the room to order refreshments, and the baron saw, through the open door of a bedroom, a ewer, covered by a glass shade, on which rested a wreath of immortelles.

When the lady returned the baron asked permission to examine the ewer. It was brought out and the baron saw that the enamel was the same work as that of the dish he had bought, but he wished to be certain that the foot of the ewer would fit into the hollow of the dish. He inquired the price of the ewer, and was told by the lady that it was not for sale, as it was the only souvenir she possessed of her husband. The baron went back to his rooms, had the dish unpacked and found that the foot of the ewer fitted it perfectly. The next day the baron sent the agent to offer the old lady a princely sum for the ewer. He brought back a refusal to sell. But at last the widow's scruples were overcome. Castellani, with his Italian cunning, had planned the whole affair. The agent who called and the old lady who was sentimental were his aids in making the baron pay a much larger sum than he would have given had ewer and dish been sold together. The Italian shopman's scheme had taken in the Jewish hater, and one of the most astute of business men. The story will be appreciated by those collectors who have been taught by experience to distrust so-called "antiques." The Arab, conducting a party among the ruins of an Egyptian temple, suddenly stumbles upon a scarab. He offers it for sale as a genuine antique, 2,000 or 3,000 years old. Some one buys it, for did not the Arab pick it up before the eyes of the whole party? Yes, but two days before they did not see him busy the modern imitation in that very spot.

SCIENCE SEPARATED THEM.

Modern Surgery Divides Twins Nature Had Joined Together.

Rosalina and Marie Zamos, little Brazilian girls, twins, were born joined together like the famous Siamese twins, but have been separated by the skill of modern surgery as recorded recently in this paper. The X-rays played an important part in the examinations which preceded the operation, these modern aids to science showing that the little girls were separate organisms except as to the liver. Now there is no more difficult organ to operate upon than the liver. It is a veritable network of small blood vessels, and its structure is such that it will not hold a stitch. You can't sew up a rent or incision in the substance of the liver.

There was only one way in which this separation could be effected successfully, and that was to cut away just a tiny bit at a time, wait for the place to heal, and then cut again. Such a method of procedure meant for the twins constant pain and discomfort.

Surgery Has Separated These Brazilian Twins.

At this season of the year many persons are subject to this dread malady, but no one need suffer when such a helpful remedy as Polson's Lintiment is to hand. Under Fire. When the Boers retired, and another solid shell burst into fragments, ten feet from the near edge of the great square of horsemen. Again they retired, now satisfied that the Boers have opened a masked battery. It is impossible to locate it. It is a solid shell bursting on impact, coming one after another slowly, tearing up the ground, now in front, now behind the column, but all ways in a line with it. The Boers have a habit, it is said, of using their artillery at longer ranges than are intended, by giving the muzzle extra elevation; hence they cannot use shrapnel, as fuses are cut too short for exploding in the air. The cavalry retire a few hundred yards at a time, until they are finally beneath the next roll in the valley and out of sight.—William Dinwiddie, in Harper's Weekly.

Shopping in Scotland. It has been said that the Scottish dialect is peculiarly powerful in its use of vowels, and the following dialogue between a shopman and a customer has been given as a specimen. The conversation relates to a plaid hanging at the shop door: Customer (inquiring the material)—Oo? (wool?) Shopman—Ay, oo (yes, of wool). Customer—A' oo? (all wool?) Shopman—Ay, a' oo? (yes, all wool). Customer—A' ae oo? (all same wool?) Shopman—Ay, a' ae oo (yes, all same wool).—Weekly Telegraph.

TO CHECK THE NOSEBLEED.

Useful Hints That May be Useful in an Emergency.

Nosebleed is so common in childhood that little account is ordinarily made of it. Where it occurs repeatedly without apparent provocation, however, effort should be made not only to check the immediate attack, but to ascertain the cause of the trouble. It is well known that heart disease, congestion of the liver and other conditions affected by, or affecting the circulation of, the blood predispose to nosebleeds, and considerable anxiety is frequently felt lest the nosebleed of childhood may be the result of serious constitutional causes. Most commonly the cause is local. The best means of checking the immediate attack is pressure with the finger on the upper lip, just beneath the nostrils. A small pad of absorbent cotton or a piece of handkerchief may be placed inside the lip and tightly pressed against the gum from without, thus compressing the two small arteries of the upper lip that supply the nose. These are ordinarily felt pulsating in this locality. If the bleeding is profuse or prolonged the child should be placed in a recumbent position, with the head elevated, while ice may be held to the forehead or to the back of the neck. To decrease still further the blood pressure within the vessels of the nose a mustard footbath is of service. In the meantime blowing the nose must be avoided. Plugging the nostrils both in front and back is a last resort to keep the sufferer from sootial perils.

The predisposing causes of nosebleeds are, as has been said, commonly local. Careful examination of the nose by the physician is, therefore, always necessary in recurrent attacks. Dilated areas in the nose are usually found, in which the vessels are spongy and abnormally turgid. The depression of the child's health caused by repeated attacks of nosebleed not infrequently requires attention. If the trouble is due to systematic weakness attention is to be especially directed to an improvement of general condition, while if the lungs are themselves weak repeated attacks of nosebleed are sometimes indications of the need of a change of climate or of protracted rest. The formation of scabs or crusts, often attended in childhood with picking of the nose, must not be overlooked as a cause of nosebleeds. Watchfulness may be required to prevent the formation of an unfortunate habit, but the affected spots must also be treated with ointment or other simple means of healing.—Medical Journal.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in the last few years. That is Catarh. Hall's Catarh Remedy is a simple, safe, and effective cure for this disease. It is a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarh Remedy is a constitutional treatment, directly upon the blood and mucous membrane of the eye, thereby destroying the cause of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Testator Making Use of His Will

A recent will taken into court in an eastern city contains large bequests, but the estate is not believed to be worth a dollar. The lawyer who drew up the will says the testator "was one of the cutest men I ever saw." I had to write that will four times before I got every word to suit him. My own idea was that he was trying to impress a friend of his who, by the way, is mentioned in the will for a bequest, and who had been helping him right along financially. I think he wanted to get more money.

HEALTH THE GREATEST ONION

The Most Desirable Possession of a Womanhood.

Every girl has a desire to be at least pleasant looking. She may not be a great beauty, indeed she may be satisfied with what is known as an agreeable face, but she can achieve nothing unless she possesses one jewel—the jewel that endows her with charm, grace and loveliness—the jewel that is called good health. The girl of the last generation—she of the chignon and crinoline, of tiny waists, of narrow shoulders, and, worst of all, of the head piled with false hair—is a thing of the past. In Hawaii they have a proverb: "If strong be the frame of the mother, her sons will make laws for the nations," and surely every girl can understand as she looks into that future wherein she hopes to be wife and mother how necessary it is for her to have the greatest of all blessings, good health.

The girl who is dyspeptic, bilious and nervous, with her stomach continually fermenting, is not the girl to succeed in any position in life. It is impossible with a splitting headache to manage a set of books correctly, and if a back aches so that it feels as if composed of a thousand shrieking nerves, it is probable that a girl can work or even enjoy herself? Copying many of the follies of England we have also copied one of her virtues—the cultivation of good health. As a result the girl of to-day, especially the girl of good breeding, is upright, well formed, has a finely poised head, while round and about her is a suggestion of physical perfection. Few sports are kept from the English maiden. She begins by swinging the croquet mallet, then learns to play tennis, controls the golf stick, and rides well, but, best of all, she can walk well, and holds herself erect, while she sits or stands.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

SIMPATY FOR THOSE IN DEEP DISTRESS

Are Weighed Down With the World's Woes, Follow the Disciples' Example: Go and Tell Jesus.

A Washington report: Dr. Talmage who has finished his tour in England and Scotland, where thousands thronged to hear him wherever he preached, is now on his way to Norway and Russia, in which countries he is already well known through the publication of translations of his sermons.

In the following discourse which he has sent for publication this week, he gives a prescription for all anxiety and worry and illustrates the divine sympathy for all who are in any kind of struggle. The text is Matthew xiv, 12, and his disciples went and told Jesus.

That the lion should be caught with a trap. You see some man with a cold, phlegmatic temperament, and you say, "I suppose that man has had any temptation." Yes, as much as you have. In his phlegmatic nature he has a temptation to indolence, a temptation to ignore the great work of life, a temptation to lay down over the chest his own heavy load.

Now, what are you to do? Are they really to look at Jesus, and at unyielding sky? Are they to walk a blasted heap of unfeeling stream, unsheltered by overarching trees? Has God turned us out on a barren common to die? Oh, no! no! no! He has not. He comes with sympathy and kindness and love. He understands our grief. He sees the height and the depth and the length and the breadth of it. He is the only one that can sympathize with us, but they do not understand it.

Now, what are you to do? Are they really to look at Jesus, and at unyielding sky? Are they to walk a blasted heap of unfeeling stream, unsheltered by overarching trees? Has God turned us out on a barren common to die? Oh, no! no! no! He has not. He comes with sympathy and kindness and love. He understands our grief. plages have left us at the door, the friends who stayed close by, the days are gone, and the heart sits in dejection listening for the little feet that will never again patter through the hall, looking for the little feet of those who will never come again—sighing into the darkness—ever and anon coming across some book or garment or little shoe or picture that arouses former association, almost killing the heart. Long days and nights of suffering that wear out the spirit and expunge the bright lines of life and give haggardness to the face and draw the flesh tight down over the cheek bones and draw dark lines under the sunken eye, and the hand is tremulous, and the voice is husky and uncertain, and the grief is wearying, grinding, accumulating, exhausting.

Now, what are you to do? Are they really to look at Jesus, and at unyielding sky? Are they to walk a blasted heap of unfeeling stream, unsheltered by overarching trees? Has God turned us out on a barren common to die? Oh, no! no! no! He has not. He comes with sympathy and kindness and love. He understands our grief. Now, what are you to do? Are they really to look at Jesus, and at unyielding sky? Are they to walk a blasted heap of unfeeling stream, unsheltered by overarching trees? Has God turned us out on a barren common to die? Oh, no! no! no! He has not. He comes with sympathy and kindness and love. He understands our grief. He sees the height and the depth and the length and the breadth of it.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

INTERNATIONAL LESSON NO. 11. JULY 8, 1900.

Jesus the Bread of Life.—John 6:22-40.

Supt.—What is the Golden Text? School.—Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life. John vi. 35. What is the Central Truth? All who believe in Christ shall be saved. What is the Text?—The true bread.

What is the Outline?—I. Seeking the true bread to eat. II. A rebuke administered. III. The true bread given. IV. Christ's earthly mission. When was the Time?—April A. D. 29.

Where was the place?—Capernaum. Who were the Persons?—Jesus, His disciples. The people. What is the special reading? John vi. 22-71. Commentary.—The day following—Following the feeding of the five thousand. When the people... on the plain where the five thousand had been fed over night.

23.—Other boats—Which usually carried over wood and other commodities, from the eastern districts, had come from Tiberias. 25. Rabbi—Master, teacher. When camest Thou?—It was a mystery to them how he got across the sea without being seen.

26. Jesus answered them—This address was delivered in the synagogue. V. ix. 22. He said it was either Monday or Thursday, one of the days of the synagogue worship. Truly, verily—The repetition of this word among the Jewish writers was considered of equal import with the most solemn oath.—Clarke. Not because—They were not attracted to Christ by any revelation that they saw in His miracles, of His love, or Messiahship. They comprehended no spiritual meaning. But because we did not believe—They were seeking Him purely from selfish considerations. They were looking at the result of the miracles rather than at the divine agency that had produced them.

27. Which perisheth—Our chief object in life should not be to gain temporal supplies. Every man should be diligent in his business and carefully provide for his bodily wants, but still that is not the principal thing. Which endureth—We are to labor for spiritual and eternal good. Which the Son of man—The Son of man is the Messiah, the one who is to come. He is the one who is to give life to all who believe in Him. He is the one who is to be the light of the world. He is the one who is to be the life of the world. He is the one who is to be the bread of life. He is the one who is to be the water of life. He is the one who is to be the light of the world. He is the one who is to be the life of the world. He is the one who is to be the bread of life. He is the one who is to be the water of life.

28. Unto the world—The manna was given to the Hebrew nation for a short time; it was not for the world. 29. Evermore give us this bread—They did not understand yet that He was speaking of Himself. They had a vague conception of His mission. 30. That ye believe—Faith is the principle which produces good works. Whom He hath sent—If you desire to be great, you must be lowly. He is the one who is to be the light of the world. He is the one who is to be the life of the world. He is the one who is to be the bread of life. He is the one who is to be the water of life.

Higher, and provisions from 17 1/2c to 20c, reduced in ribs to 12 1/2c lower for pork.

Notes About the Crops. Reports Show That Drouth Has Been Hurtful. FAR FROM STARVATION YET. The following crop reports, gathered by agents of the Great Northwest-ern Telegraph Company, and dealing principally with the western part of the Province, show, on the whole, fair prospects. Haidtland. Cayuga.—The wheat crop is the best in this vicinity for years. From present indications it will average 25 bushels to the acre. Oats, peas and barley are in good condition, and promise a good crop. Hay is poor and will not be half a crop. Brant. Brantford.—In regard to small fruits, currants will be good, gooseberries very light, raspberries fair, cherries light, plums light. Hay about average, but short in straw. Corn promises good; potatoes promise good; apples a fair average; oats promise good; barley good; fall wheat promises a good average crop. Very little spring wheat grown here. The late rain appears to have had good effect. Lincoln. St. Catharines.—The extreme drouth that has been prevalent during the season has greatly impaired the crops in the district, especially on the sandy soil. Of the strawberries, which are now fully one-third dried up on the vines. Peaches good, full crop. Pears light; plums good; apples fair; cherries very light. Wheat promises fair crop; corn very backward; oats light; hay very light. Barley only fair crop. Woodstock.—The crops in this section are on the whole very good. The grain crop promises to be good. Hay is fair, being rather short in straw. Of the small fruits plums and cherries are light, while the rest promise a fair crop. Welland. Guelph.—The crops in this section are on the whole looking very well. The fall wheat to the north and east will average about two-thirds of a crop, while to the south and west it will be a fair crop. Corn is looking quite well as well as in former years, and will only be half a crop. All the spring grains are looking exceptionally well. Although perhaps a little early to speculate, they will turn out good crops. Roots are looking well; the prospects for a good yield of potatoes were never brighter. The apples are slightly lighted in this section, and some farmers complain of their apples falling off the trees. The weather has been beautiful all season. Welland. Welland.—Hay, very light; wheat, good, above average; oats promise fair; peas and barley fair but not much corn; corn good; hoe crops fair; fruit promises good yield. All crops are suffering for want of rain. Mrs. Curran's Autographs. Cornwell Standard's. Mrs. James Arthur Curran, Canada's military artist, has an interesting collection of autographs which she has received from many distinguished persons. One is from the Queen's private secretary, Sir Arthur Bigge. Others are from Lord Wolseley, Lord Roberts, Lord Chelmsford, Gen. Hutton, Dan Godfrey. Mrs. Curran has had the great honor of letters from the Queen, having been the military artist for the Queen. Mrs. Curran is a cousin of Mr. Ed. Giles of Sussex, England, who won great fame through his celebrated picture of the Heavy Brigade at Balaklava, which the Queen has, and he is now with Gen. French's army, in South Africa, sketching subjects for future autographs. Mr. and Mrs. Curran are at present, stopping at the Bathurst Hotel.

St. Catharines.—The extreme drouth that has been prevalent during the season has greatly impaired the crops in the district, especially on the sandy soil. Of the strawberries, which are now fully one-third dried up on the vines. Peaches good, full crop. Pears light; plums good; apples fair; cherries very light. FOREPAUGH'S WIDOW WEeps

Husband a Bank Clerk Two Years Her Senior.

OFF ON A BRIDAL TOUR.

New York despatch: Mrs. Adam Forepaugh, widow of the famous showman, is a bride on the broad Atlantic. She sailed for Europe on the Augusta Victoria with her husband, Walter Nagle, a Philadelphia banker, last Thursday. They were after they were secretly married at Grace Church in this city. The Rev. Wilson Fox Carey performed the ceremony. The Rialto was much interested in the news to-day. It was a complete surprise, except to a few intimate friends. They deny that there was any particular secrecy about the affair.

The bride's maiden name was Mary C. Fullam. She is 38 years old. Her family lives in Philadelphia. Mrs. Nagle long was regarded as one of the most chic and best-gowned women in society. All of her gowns were Parisian creations, made by Worth, Felix and other well-known masters in the dress-making art. Mrs. Forepaugh's appearance was striking. She has frequently visited this city, where she has a host of friends. Her marriage with Mr. Nagle is a thing of romance, although their acquaintance has been of several years' duration and for the last two years they have been betrothed. Mrs. Nagle is said to be handsome and a little more than 40 years of age. He is employed at the Girard Bank, one of the oldest financial institutions in the city. At the time of his death Adam Forepaugh was wholly devoted to his young wife, and he left her the bulk of his fortune, besides the controlling interest in the circus, which for years had borne his name. This she afterwards sold to James A. Bailey, representing the Barnum & Bailey interest. Great Britain's oats up to date, wheat crops about 13 weeks.

DRS. K. & K.

The Leading Specialists of America
20 Years in Detroit.
250,000 Cured.

WE CURE STRICTURE

Thousands of young and middle-aged men are troubled with this disease—many unconsciously. They may have a smarting sensation, small, twisting stream, sharp cutting pains at times, slight discharge, difficulty in commencing, weak organs, emissions, and all the symptoms of nervous debility—they have STRICTURE. Don't let doctors experiment on you by cutting, stretching, or tearing you. This will not cure you as it will turn. Our NEW METHOD TREATMENT cures the stricture permanently. It can never return. No pain, no suffering, no detention from business by our method. The sexual organs are strengthened, the nerves are invigorated, and the bliss of marriage returns.

WE CURE GLEET

Thousands of young and middle-aged men are having their sexual vigor and vitality continually sapped by this disease. They are frequently unconscious of the cause of these symptoms. General Weakness, Unnatural Discharges, Failing Manhood, Nervousness, Poor Memory, Irritability, at times Smarting Sensation, Sunken Eyes, with dark circles, Weak Back, General Depression, Lack of Ambition, Varicocele, Stricture, Pain, etc. GLEET and STRICTURE may be the cause. Don't consult family doctors, as they have no experience in these special diseases—doctors allow Quacks to experiment on you. Consult Specialists who have made a life study of Diseases of Men and Women. Our NEW METHOD TREATMENT will positively cure you. One thousand dollars for a case we accept for treatment and cannot cure. Terms moderate for cure.

CURES GUARANTEED

We treat and cure: EMISSIONS, VARIICOLES, SYPHILIS, GLEET, STRICTURE, IMPOTENCY, SEBET, DRAINAGE, UNNATURAL DISCHARGES, KIDNEY and BLADDER Diseases. CONSULTATION FREE. BOOKS FREE. If unable to call, write for QUESTION BLANK for HOME TREATMENT.

Mr. J. H. Mills, M.A., of Watford, paid Athens a brief visit on Saturday and is this week one of the examiners of the Brockville collegiate institute.

While heavy losses are reported by many apirists, Mr. E. T. Tennant has a colony that is attending strictly to business and has already thrown three swarms.

The roof of the Baptist parsonage was ignited by a spark from the Ros enbarker fire on Monday, but the blaze was discovered at an incipient stage and quickly extinguished.

At Brockville on Friday last, Mr. Howard Bishop, one time of Addison, now of Bellamy's, and Miss Addie Church of Brockville were united in marriage. They will reside at Bellamy's.

Elizabethtown council has decided to pay for two days' work with road-grader in each road division where the grader is used; the township will furnish one team and driver and operator the road division to pay all other expenses in connection with the work.

"Didn't you hear the engines play and the fire marshal shouting his commands at the fire engine across the street while we were initiating you?" asked an usher after the ceremony was over. "Yes," said the new member, "but I supposed that was all a part of the initiation."—Ex.

Petty thieving still continues in Athens. Last week the house of Mr. Hilton Moore was entered and a hasty search made for cash. The thief was very moderate in his levy and passed over a larger sum in order to gain possession of a quarter. On Saturday night some person effected an entrance from the rear to the barber shop of Mr. D. R. Reed and rifled the drawers of his shaving cabinet, but failed to find any money.

The Whig says that Alderman Knapp of Kingston returned a few days ago from a trip through Leeds county. He spent several days east of Gananoque looking up suitable horses, which, he says, are very scarce. They have all been picked up. In his opinion, it is to be regretted that the farmers do not breed a better class of horses; there would be more money in it for them. There is always a good demand for first class horses.

In reporting the Conservative convention, held at Lyndhurst on the 23rd ult., the Gananoque Journal says: Mr. A. E. Donovan, in seconding the resolution condemning the Government of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, briefly referred to its shameful betrayal of public confidence and declared that all the water of the river "Jordan" was insufficient to wash away the stains of the vile oligarchy that occupied the treasury benches at Ottawa. Mr. Donovan informed the electors that the goal of his ambition was to enter public life and stimulate his intention of holding a series of meetings throughout the riding.

The Presbyterian General Assembly will meet next year in St. Andrew's church, Ottawa.

Just received, a new supply of Ladies' Oxford shoes at prices ranging from 75c to $1.75, at Kendrick's.

The fall sittings of the High Court of Justice for Brockville will be held in Brockville on Sept. 17th and Nov. 26th.

Kingston board of works proposes to sprinkle the streets with crude petroleum, and the wheelmen are up in arms, because it would rot their tires, they say.

Handsome white undershirts, with white frilled embroidery, for $1.00, and dainty white night gowns, with insertion, tucks and frilled embroidery, at 50c, 75c and $1.00, at Kendrick's.

A Western New York paper says that barring late frosts, and caterpillars, and bugs, and black knots, and caroulin, and aphid, and codling moth, and blight, and mildew, and scab, and San Jose Scale, and drowth, and hail, and hurricane, etc., the outlook for a large crop of fruit is promising.

The generosity of the people of Canada to the sufferers by the Ottawa-Hull fire has caused almost as much embarrassment as the calamity. The committee have received $608,000, and spent $36,000. How to dispose of the balance is a problem that bids fair to divide the people of the city into two hostile factions. The eye of the Dominion is on Ottawa, and any misapplication of the funds subscribed will bring disgrace upon the whole city.

Among the many gay parties who celebrated Dominion Day at Charleston Lake, there was perhaps none who enjoyed the day more thoroughly than the one composed of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Stewart of Dalmeny, Ont., Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Holmes, and a select party of friends. They spent the day in fishing and rowing, dined at Derbyshire's Point, and aroused the echoes in the early shades of evening by their joyous hilarity. Mr. and Mrs. Stewart, in whose honor the party was given, were very enthusiastic in pronouncing Charleston Lake an ideal spot for an outing.

On Monday last, about 11.30, the home of Mr. Sidney Rosenbarker caught fire and was entirely consumed. A large number of citizens responded to the call of the fire alarm and with the aid of the fire engine good service was done in preventing the fire extending to the residence of Mrs. Freeman. That section of the village has no public tank, but a large cistern in the McLaren block and a well on Delorma Wiltse's premises afforded a limited supply. All the household furniture was safely removed. The house had recently been purchased by Mr. Rosenbarker, whose loss will be considerable.

Promotion examinations are coming in for a good deal of discussion throughout the province, and a strong feeling is being manifested against the present system of written examinations. In Toronto, promotions will be based upon the work done by pupils during the term, health of the pupil; length of time pupil has been in the room; age of the pupil; interest and aptitude shown by the pupil, especially towards the close of the term. In doubtful cases, the principal of the school where they attend will test them in a few subjects before promotion is made. A written examination does not prove a fair, much less a true test, and it may not be long when other schools will follow the example of those in Toronto, and so the present system of written promotion examinations become a thing of the past.

Another sad commentary has been recently made on the dangerous, even criminal practice of taking medicine in the dark. The other night, a Mrs. Curtis, of Kingston, not feeling well, went to the cupboard and took a dose of what she supposed was whiskey, but which proved to be bug poison, with the result that in a short time she was a corpse, the victim of drinking poison by mistake. This sad occurrence, which is only one of many, should serve to emphasize the fact that, if a person is obliged to take medicine during the night, he should not do so until he strikes a light and makes sure that he has the right drug. If we are to think twice before we speak, surely we should look twice—yes half a dozen times—before we drink.

A Renfrew cow (according to an exchange) browsing with a herd on the streets, was in the act of switching a fly off her shoulder. A C.P.R. brakeman, on a wheel, had shut off his steam to pass the danger point, but found to his dismay that the tail of the beast had got braided into the spokes of his wheel. Seeing his peril, he quickly dismounted. The cow found herself in a new and awkward predicament, and sought relief in flight. The story of the dog with the bad boy's tin can at its tail is silent and tame compared with the Flying Cow of Renfrew. It seems absurd to go on and tell what became of the new combination, and what a rush of business they did while the bonds of partnership lasted. All things end at some time, and so did this, even to the final subsidence of the emotions that for a while churned the heart of the brakeman almost to suffocation.

THE BROCKVILLE FIRE.

Brockville, Ont., July 1.—The most disastrous fire in the history of Brockville broke out this morning shortly after 11 o'clock, resulting in the complete destruction of the Cossitt Bros. foundry, one of the largest and oldest manufacturing establishments in the town, also several dwelling houses, lumber yards, etc., entailing a loss in the neighborhood of $175,000. A stiff northwest wind blew the whole time of the conflagration, and the efforts of the firemen to stay the progress of the flames were practically futile. The fire spread with such rapidity that in a short time after its commencement the whole central residential and business portion of the town was threatened with destruction, covering an area of two blocks from the Grand Trunk tracks, on the north of the river, half a mile or so away to the south.

After getting well under way the roofs of houses caught fire, in some places half a mile from the scene, by sparks carried by the gale. Only the closest attention on the part of householders, aided by lawn hose and bucket brigades, manned by willing hands, saved the best part of the town from being reduced to ruins. The fire became so general that the brigade were in a quandary to know where to apply themselves in order to do the most effective work. They were hampered by a shortage of hose and a miserably poor water pressure. After four hours' efforts on the part of the fire brigade and hundreds of citizens, who worked like trojans, the flames were subdued, and all danger of a general conflagration had passed.

In addition to the Cossitt property the following houses were destroyed: three houses belonging to Mr. Muirhead and two to Mr. Ryan on Brock street; a brick residence on Wall street belonging to Mr. Heman Shephard; double dwelling, corner James street and Victoria avenue, owned by Mrs. Cranston, and occupied by herself and Mrs. Geo. Johnston, late of Ormstown and formerly of Elbe Mills. They had just taken possession of the house and unpacked their furniture. Cossitt Bros' loss is placed at $125,000; insurance, $50,000. The losses on the residences destroyed are pretty well covered by insurance.

UNION VALLEY.

MONDAY, July 2.—Miss Annie Hickey is spending a few days at her home here.

Wedding bells will soon ring in our quiet village.

The farmers of this section have completed spring work.

Our teacher, Miss Bulloch, has returned to her home in Lyn, where she will spend her holidays.

Mr. J. Barrington has purchased a new carriage pony.

Mr. Eugene Robinson has returned to his home.

The union school picnic of Temperance Lake and this place proved a grand success. Notwithstanding the unfavorable appearance of the morning, a large crowd assembled and sat down to tables groaning beneath their load of good things. In the afternoon, a very suitable programme was given, with Mr. P. Hollingsworth as chairman. Among those who so kindly contributed were Mrs. B. Algire, Miss Essie Earl, Wiltsetown; Mr. Yates Avery, Temperance Lake; Miss Myrtle Dockrill, Union Valley; and music by Messrs. Hickey and Kavanagh. All returned to their homes after having enjoyed a very pleasant day.

A New Potato Bug

Windsor (Ont.) Record: A new potato bug has made its appearance in city gardens—a more voracious insect than the Colorado importation. Up to date, opportunity has not been afforded for identifying the pest, but growers must readily recognize it by its ash grey color, and its long, thin body. Unlike the fellow so generally known, the new arrival in its adult form, does the mischief, instead of delegating the duty of devouring foliage to its offspring. A few days' neglect of its depredations will suffice to ensure naked stalks, and therefore the wise grower will, on its discovery, promptly administer a dose of paris green.

It's Always Midnight Gloom to the sufferer from stomach disorders and the diseases which can be directly traced there—neglect or ignorance may have produced the darkness, but so sure as night follows day, just so sure will Dr. Von Stan's Pineapple Tablets let in the sunshine and bring back the full noonday brightness of perfect health. This is taking strong ground—but proof is in the fact—one tablet after eating—60 in a box—35 cents. Sold by J. P. Lamb, Son.
