

New Advertisements.

A. V. Rand
H. E. Born
D. B. Shaw
Opera House
C. H. Borden
Edson Graham
Columbia Records
R. E. Harris & Sons
Hilsley & Harvey Co., Ltd.
Koppel's 5, 10, 15 and 20c. Store
Boston & Yarmouth Steamship Co.
N. S. Board of Commissioners of Public Utilities

Local Happenings

Miss Minnie Fitch left last week for Boston, where she will visit her cousins, Dr. and Mrs. Austen deBlais.
The business meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held at the home of Mrs. H. Pisco at 4 o'clock on Friday, Nov. 4th.
Get your Xmas photos at REDDEN'S. They're up to date.

No one should miss seeing the Academy Players at the Opera House next Monday evening. Give the favorites a grand welcome.

Mrs. Sexton, of Halifax, will deliver an address on Red Cross work in the Baptist church this (Friday) evening, beginning at 7:30 o'clock.

Reduced prices on all photographs for a few weeks at REDDEN'S STUDIO.
STOCK TO RENT.—Next to T. L. Harvey's Grocery Store newly painted and is now in first-class shape.—Apply at R. E. HARRIS & SONS.

The annual meeting of the Kings County Fowl Club will be held in Pastime Building, Kentville, on Monday evening, Nov. 1st, at 8 o'clock.

DRESSMAKING required by experienced worker. Apply to F. Cate of T. E. Hutchinson.

FURNISHED HOUSE TO LET in convenient locality. All modern improvements including hot water heating. Possession at once. Apply to THE ACADIAN.

Mrs. R. O. Chisholm will receive at her home on Gasperus avenue, Wolfville, on Thursday and Friday afternoons and Friday evening, November 11th and 12th, 1915.

AUTO PARTIES desiring driving in new cars by experienced and careful drivers at reasonable prices should call up the WOLFVILLER GARAGE phone 29-11 for prices, etc.

A welcome service will be given to the new pastor, Rev. N. A. Harkness, on Thursday evening, Nov. 4th, at 8 o'clock in the Baptist church. A most cordial invitation is extended to all.

3000 bundles of kindling wood must be sold. Offer early. A. M. WILKINSON.

The annual meeting of the Children's Aid Society of Kings County will be held on Tuesday evening, Nov. 2nd, at 8 o'clock, at the Town Hall, Wolfville. It is hoped there may be a full attendance of all interested in the important work being carried on by the society.

The studio of Edson Graham, already one of the most convenient and up-to-date in the province, is being further improved by having a hot air furnace installed. From two days a week proposition, Mr. Graham's business has grown so that he is on the job six days a week and requires the help of two assistants. His display of men's photographs this week would do credit to any city studio.

Notice!

DEAR PEOPLE—If you don't watch out and come to the Halloween Supper and Sale, to be held in the vestry of the Methodist church, Wolfville, Friday evening, October 30th, the Gobblins will surely get you. Men all right. Admission, five cents. Supper, twenty-five.

One of the most attractive show windows of the town is that of Mr. Wm. Regan's store in which photographs from the Redden studio are displayed. The pictures are interestingly arranged, are splendid likenesses, and show the artistic finish of unexcelled photography. Mr. Redden has been in Wolfville only a short time but his reputation as a photographer of superior excellence is firmly established.

To LET.—Bright room dwelling over my store, all conveniences.—F. J. HARRIS.

Announcement is made by management of the D. A. R. that Mr. Percy Giffkins, who for the past fifteen years has occupied the position of manager, and who has been associated with the service of the company for a full period of forty-four years, having expressed a desire to relinquish the arduous duties connected with the important position now held by him, will on Nov. 1st, be placed on the retired list. Mr. George R. Graham is appointed General Manager, with headquarters at Kentville.

FOR SALE.—Wood Furnace in good condition, at a bargain. Apply, P. O. Box 377, Wolfville, N. S.

Last Sunday's services in the Baptist church were especially pleasing and helpful. The text of the pastor's morning sermon was from Lamentations 1:12, 'Is it nothing to you, all that pass by, behold, and see if there be any sorrow like unto my sorrow.' The subject for the evening was 'The man who feared the perils of a prayerless life more than he dreaded the dangers of the dead.' The morning anthem was 'Prepare ye the way of the Lord,' and the solo, 'Abide with me.' The evening anthem was, 'Hear Thou our prayer, and 'Sons of my Sion.'

Winter Overcoats
We are showing a range of Winter Overcoats that cannot be beaten for STYLE FIT QUALITY PRICE

Men's Heavy Tweed Coats, convertible collar, belted back—the best style for winter. Prices: $7.50, $8.50, $10.00, $12.00, $15.00, $18.00, $20.00 and $22.50. Also Grey and Black Meltons at $15.00, $18.00 and $20.00.
We are also showing the best range of Sheep Lined Coats this year we have shown for years. Call and look them over before buying elsewhere.

C. H. BORDEN
WOLFVILLE.

Canadian Artists Charmed Hearers.

CANADIAN MUSICAL FESTIVAL AT MASSEY HALL PRONOUNCED SUCCESS.

The first of the two concerts of the concert of the Canadian Musical given at Massey Hall last night, which had the unique distinction of being the only concert ever held in Canada, of notable artists, all of whom are native Canadians, was a marked success and the program last night compared favorably with any of a similar kind that has ever been given in Toronto.

The festival has been organized under the patronage of their Royal Highnesses, the Duke and Duchess of Connaught, for the United Empire Loyalists.

The artists who contributed to the program were: Pauline Donalda, soprano of the Covent Garden Opera; Diane Lavoie—Hers, a distinguished pianist of Toronto; Evelyn Starr, who is in the front rank of Canadian violinists, a student of Prof. Aner, of St. Petersburg, and who comes to Toronto with an enviable reputation won in London and the cities of Europe; Winifred Bambrick, harpist; and Paul Defaut, late tenor of Mme. Nordica's Concert Company.

The studio of Edson Graham, already one of the most convenient and up-to-date in the province, is being further improved by having a hot air furnace installed. From two days a week proposition, Mr. Graham's business has grown so that he is on the job six days a week and requires the help of two assistants. His display of men's photographs this week would do credit to any city studio.

The studio of Edson Graham, already one of the most convenient and up-to-date in the province, is being further improved by having a hot air furnace installed. From two days a week proposition, Mr. Graham's business has grown so that he is on the job six days a week and requires the help of two assistants. His display of men's photographs this week would do credit to any city studio.

The studio of Edson Graham, already one of the most convenient and up-to-date in the province, is being further improved by having a hot air furnace installed. From two days a week proposition, Mr. Graham's business has grown so that he is on the job six days a week and requires the help of two assistants. His display of men's photographs this week would do credit to any city studio.

The studio of Edson Graham, already one of the most convenient and up-to-date in the province, is being further improved by having a hot air furnace installed. From two days a week proposition, Mr. Graham's business has grown so that he is on the job six days a week and requires the help of two assistants. His display of men's photographs this week would do credit to any city studio.

The studio of Edson Graham, already one of the most convenient and up-to-date in the province, is being further improved by having a hot air furnace installed. From two days a week proposition, Mr. Graham's business has grown so that he is on the job six days a week and requires the help of two assistants. His display of men's photographs this week would do credit to any city studio.

The studio of Edson Graham, already one of the most convenient and up-to-date in the province, is being further improved by having a hot air furnace installed. From two days a week proposition, Mr. Graham's business has grown so that he is on the job six days a week and requires the help of two assistants. His display of men's photographs this week would do credit to any city studio.

The studio of Edson Graham, already one of the most convenient and up-to-date in the province, is being further improved by having a hot air furnace installed. From two days a week proposition, Mr. Graham's business has grown so that he is on the job six days a week and requires the help of two assistants. His display of men's photographs this week would do credit to any city studio.

The studio of Edson Graham, already one of the most convenient and up-to-date in the province, is being further improved by having a hot air furnace installed. From two days a week proposition, Mr. Graham's business has grown so that he is on the job six days a week and requires the help of two assistants. His display of men's photographs this week would do credit to any city studio.

The studio of Edson Graham, already one of the most convenient and up-to-date in the province, is being further improved by having a hot air furnace installed. From two days a week proposition, Mr. Graham's business has grown so that he is on the job six days a week and requires the help of two assistants. His display of men's photographs this week would do credit to any city studio.

The studio of Edson Graham, already one of the most convenient and up-to-date in the province, is being further improved by having a hot air furnace installed. From two days a week proposition, Mr. Graham's business has grown so that he is on the job six days a week and requires the help of two assistants. His display of men's photographs this week would do credit to any city studio.

The studio of Edson Graham, already one of the most convenient and up-to-date in the province, is being further improved by having a hot air furnace installed. From two days a week proposition, Mr. Graham's business has grown so that he is on the job six days a week and requires the help of two assistants. His display of men's photographs this week would do credit to any city studio.

The studio of Edson Graham, already one of the most convenient and up-to-date in the province, is being further improved by having a hot air furnace installed. From two days a week proposition, Mr. Graham's business has grown so that he is on the job six days a week and requires the help of two assistants. His display of men's photographs this week would do credit to any city studio.

The studio of Edson Graham, already one of the most convenient and up-to-date in the province, is being further improved by having a hot air furnace installed. From two days a week proposition, Mr. Graham's business has grown so that he is on the job six days a week and requires the help of two assistants. His display of men's photographs this week would do credit to any city studio.

The studio of Edson Graham, already one of the most convenient and up-to-date in the province, is being further improved by having a hot air furnace installed. From two days a week proposition, Mr. Graham's business has grown so that he is on the job six days a week and requires the help of two assistants. His display of men's photographs this week would do credit to any city studio.

The studio of Edson Graham, already one of the most convenient and up-to-date in the province, is being further improved by having a hot air furnace installed. From two days a week proposition, Mr. Graham's business has grown so that he is on the job six days a week and requires the help of two assistants. His display of men's photographs this week would do credit to any city studio.

The studio of Edson Graham, already one of the most convenient and up-to-date in the province, is being further improved by having a hot air furnace installed. From two days a week proposition, Mr. Graham's business has grown so that he is on the job six days a week and requires the help of two assistants. His display of men's photographs this week would do credit to any city studio.

Letters to the Editor.
To the Editor of THE ACADIAN:
DEAR SIR:—It was my privilege recently to meet with our Premier, Sir R. L. Borden, in his old home in Grand Pre. It was good to look into the eyes that had rested on the faces of our dear Nova Scotia boys at the No. 2, Canadian General Hospital of Le Treport, France; to listen to the voice that had spoken to them and with them; to grasp the hand that met theirs in good comradeship, which had also shaken the hands of our Canadian Nurses giving their brave services in making care of the wounded, broken men back from the firing line—among them Miss Annie Strong, of Canning, Miss Marian Sharpe and Miss Marie MacLeod, daughter of the late Judge MacLeod, both of P. H. I.—and to hear from him such a good account of them all.
Sir Robert says that the tents where our boys are housed are made comfortable against cold and are in every respect well equipped. Although he did not enter into details regarding the commissariat yet he assures me that the preserves that are being sent to this Hospital will be most acceptable gift, and that the Red Cross Depot there for dispensing such luxuries and presided over by Miss Strong, of Canning, is the only one of its kind in any of the hospitals he visited.
He repeats what he has so often stated, that he is proud of our Canadian boys and has felt it a great privilege to be able to meet them in the great centre of action, on the fields of training, and in the hospitals.
To emphasize what our boys think of him let me quote from a letter from one of them on the occasion of the Premier's visit to Le Treport: 'It was good to hear from such a man that our Country thought well of us.'
Since writing the above, it is learned that Mrs. Rachel de Wolfe Archibald has received word from her son, who had assisted in hospital duty while recuperating at Le Treport, that he has been pronounced fit for active service, and at his urgent request has been returned to the firing line.

Wedding at Pereau.
HOVER—WEAVER.
An event of interest to a large circle of friends took place at the Baptist church, Pereau, when at one o'clock Saturday, October 6th, Viola Bertrics, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David A. Weaver, formerly of this town, now residing in Pereau, was united in marriage to Amos Arnold Hovey. The church was tastefully decorated for the occasion by Acadia University friends of the contracting parties. A color scheme of green and white was carried out in evergreens, ferns and white carnations, and a beautiful arch arranged before the altar. As a solo, 'Because You Came to Me,' was sweetly sung by Miss Evelyn Kelly, of Aylesford, the groom, with the minister of the church, Rev. Rupert S. Meadows, who officiated, entered the room and stood beneath the arch. Immediately afterward the bride on the arm of her father, and preceded by four young ladies acting as ushers, came up the main aisle and took her place beside the groom. At the close of the impressive ceremony the wedded couple passed out of the church to the music of a wedding march most skillfully rendered by Miss Ethel Frost, of the faculty of music of Acadia Seminary. Following the marriage a large number of invited guests were received at the home of the bride's parents.
The bride was gowned in white satin with beautiful lace and pearl trimming. She wore the conventional veil, fastened with pearls, and the groom's gift—an exquisite pearl set pendant. The ushers, Misses Dora Lewis, Elizabeth MacPhee, Ethel Mitchell and George Balcom, were gowned in pink and white.
The bride received many handsome and valuable presents, including a cut glass bowl and silver ladle from pupils, and a lunch set of Haviland china from members of the faculty of Acadia Seminary, a cheque from her parents, etc.
After the reception the young couple started on their wedding journey, through the various parts of the province. They will reside in Newcastle Bridge, New Brunswick, where Mr Hovey is the minister of the Baptist church.
Both Mr. and Mrs. Hovey are well and favorably known, and their many friends and acquaintances wish them a most happy life.

British Red Cross Contributions.
The contributions for the British Red Cross from our town was a creditable amount in view of the demands that have been made during the past year, the total amount being $558.97, including the Thanksgiving service collection. The amounts handed in by the collectors are as follows:
Mary Black $62.88
F. C. Churchill 10.90
A. G. Cowie 15.95
Acadia Seminary 45.00
F. P. Brown 60.00
Mrs. A. V. Rand 8.10
Margaret Murray 23.25
J. D. Chambers 37.25
Mrs. J. E. Smith 30.30
M. Chambers and others 30.65
R. W. Ford 52.80
H. Stairs 15.85
R. Bauld 36.00
Acadia Seminary help 3.50
Acadia University men 25.00
Acadia University men 26.90
Horton Academy 13.00
Thanksgiving collection 22.27
A. B. Stairs 39.75
$558.97

REDDEN'S
Best Quality Aluminum Given Away!
Save your coupons and secure some of the beautiful Aluminum Ware we are offering free.
Any of our customers settling their account in full, to date on Sept. 1st will receive ten coupons for every $1.00 to the amount of their bill.
G. W. STRONG.
Wolfville, Aug. 25, 1915.

Yarmouth Line
Steamship Prince George
Leaves Yarmouth Wednesday and Saturday at 7 P. M. Returns, leaves Central Wharf, Boston, Tuesday and Friday, at 7 P. M.
Tickets and Staterooms at Wharf Office.
A. E. Williams, Agent.
Yarmouth, N. S.
BOSTON & YARMOUTH STEAMSHIP CO., Ltd.

McKenna Block
WOLFVILLE
Is the place to get your SHAMPOOING MANICURING CHIROPODY MASSAGE
Sole and Face Treatment a specialty. All promptly attended to.
MRS. B. MELANSON
E. B. SHAW
Repairing of Boots and Shoes of all Kinds
Has resumed business at the old stand in his new building.
Orders Solicited and Carefully Executed

For Sale.
A fine brown Mare, formerly owned by the late W. A. Chipman. Sound and kind. An excellent roadster, a splendid saddle horse. 8 years old. Apply to Mrs. W. A. CHIPMAN, Prospect street, Wolfville.

WANTED.
Beef Hides, Horse Hides, Lamb Pelts, Veal Skins.
Highest possible Cash Prices paid.
Apply to D. B. SHAW, Willow Vale Tannery.

PUBLIC NOTICE.
The public are hereby forbidden the use of my property as a thoroughfare for teams between Main and Front Streets. Persons persisting in this trespassing will be prosecuted without further notice.
EVANGELINE D. BOWLES.
Wolfville, Sept 10th, 1915.
Minera's Lintment Cures Garget Cows.

NEW FALL COATS
We are showing the advanced styles of Ladies', Misses' and Children's Coats Made of the Newest Cloths
No Two Garments the Same Style
Prices Ranging from $5.75 to $25.00
Don't miss to see these Garments
J. E. Hales & Co., Ltd., - Wolfville
Dry Goods Mens' Furnishings

JAPANESE GRASS MATS
Most attractive and inexpensive Floor Coverings.
MATS
Size 27 x 54 inches 27.50
36 x 72 inches 45.00
SQUARES
6 x 6 feet $1.00
6 x 9 feet 1.50
9 x 9 feet 2.25
9 x 10 feet 2.50
9 x 12 feet 3.00
Japanese Matting, 36 inches wide.
Five qualities, closely woven with cotton warp.
Checks and stripes per yd. 15c.
New art designs 22 1/2c.
Fine, plain matting 22 1/2c.
Write for our big CATALOGUE.
We pay freight on orders amounting to $10.

VERNON & CO.
Furniture and Carpets.
TRURO, N. S.

Furness Sailings.
FROM LONDON. FROM HALIFAX.
Kanawha, Oct. 28th
Oct. 24 Rappahannock, Nov. 13th
Nov. 7 Shenandoah, Nov. 27th
From Liverpool From Halifax via Nfld. Nfld.
Tabasco Oct. 26th
Oct. 23rd Graciana
Nov. 3rd Durango Nov. 20th
Above sailings are not guaranteed and are subject to change without notice.

Furness Withy & Co., LTD.
HALIFAX.
Receivers and Sellers of all kinds of Farm-Products.
Consignments Solicited.
Prompt Returns.

DON'T WAIT!
I HAVE IT FOR YOU.
A WRIST WATCH
Guaranteed, $5.00.
Waltham Gold, sterling, $10 and $12. Military filled expansion bracelet fine movement watch from $12 to $30.
Let me make over your old style watch into a wrist watch with bracelet, from $3 to $10.

J. F. HERBIN
Watchmaker and Optician.
Wolfville.

THE ENTERPRISE
'MONARCH' STEEL RANGE
The "Monarch" Range has every practical time and labor saving improvement yet invented, is made of the finest steel plate, asbestos lined, and is GUARANTEED absolutely by ourselves.

We have placed a large number of these Ranges with our people and have yet to find a dissatisfied user.
If interested kindly write, phone or see us.

Satisfaction Guaranteed or Money Refunded at the
BIG FAMILY CLOTHING STORE!
Men's Fall Weight Overcoats, satin faced, $12 to $15.
Men's Waterproof Light Driving Top Coats, $6 to $10.
Men's Rain Coats (direct from England) $6 to $12.

Men's and Young Men's Suits.
Try us for the Latest Nobby, Classy Styles.
Tweed and Worsted Suits from $10 to $18.
Young Men's Suits, newest patterns, from $8 to $15.
Youths' Suits, with Long Pants from $6 to $12.
Boys' and Children's Suits.
We can fit out the little chaps with smart, sturdy Suits from $3 to $8 per Suit.

Acadia Seminary Conservatory of Music and Fine Arts
Under the Efficient Director MR. CARROLL C. McKEE
and an able corps of assistants, including Miss Madeline Bryant, L. R. A. M., Violin; Miss Minnie Caudie Newey, Voice; Miss Zaida Gaines and Miss Maydel Campbell, Oratory; will reopen Wednesday, Sept. 8, 1915, at 9 o'clock.

ATTRACTIVE OFFER:
To those who have never taken Vocal or Violin Lessons before a very attractive rate is being offered at Acadia Seminary Conservatory. This offer will be good only through October or until Miss Gilbert's and Miss Bryant's time is filled up. It will pay to investigate. Apply to Mrs. McKee or Principal DeWolfe.

STOVES
In styles, sizes and prices to suit everyone. If it is the CHEAPEST of the cheap, a Moderate Priced or a High Class Stove, we have it.
Ranges—Sask-Alta; Pandora, Kootenay, Capital Favorite, etc.
Hall Stoves—New Silver Moon, Hot Blast, Scorcher (down draft), Modest and Tortoise.
Parlor Stoves—The famous Queen Heaters for wood, and numerous small Coal Stoves.
Pipes, Elbows, Stove Boards, etc.
SHELF AND HEAVY HARDWARE.
Plumbing and Stove repair work given prompt attention.
WOLFVILLE HARDWARE AND STOVE STORE
L. W. SLEEP

HER DREAMS CAME TRUE

Life Unbearable from Indigestion
Health Restored by "Fruit-a-tives"

MELIE C. GAUDREAU
Kochon P.Q., Jan. 14th, 1915.
"I suffered for many years with terrible indigestion and constipation. I became thin and miserable. I had frequent dizzy spells and became so run down that I never thought I would get well again.
A neighbor advised me to try 'Fruit-a-tives'. I did so and to the surprise of my doctor, I began to improve and he advised me to go on with 'Fruit-a-tives'. I continued this medicine and all my indigestion and constipation was relieved. I consider that I owe my life to 'Fruit-a-tives' and I want to say to those who suffer from indigestion, constipation or headaches, try 'Fruit-a-tives'. Give this lovely fruit medicine a fair chance and you will get well the same as I did."
CORINE GAUDREAU.
60c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At all dealers or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

White Ribbon News.
Woman's Christian Temperance Union first organized in 1874.
Anti.—The protection of the home, the abolition of the liquor traffic and the triumph of Christ's Golden Rule in custom and in law.
Motto.—For God and Home and Native Land.
BADGE—A knot of White Ribbon.
WATCHWORD—Agiolate, educate, or gainze.
OFFICERS OF WOLFVILLE UNION.
President—Mrs. L. W. Sleep.
1st Vice President—Mrs. G. Cutten.
2nd Vice President—Mrs. R. Reid.
3rd Vice President—Mrs. Geo. Finch.
Recording Secy.—Mrs. W. O. Taylor.
Cor. Secretary—Mrs. L. E. Duncan.
TREASURER—Mrs. H. Pinn.
SUPERSTENDENTS.
Lubricator Work—Mrs. Fielding.
Lumbermen—Mrs. J. Kempton.
Willard Home—Mrs. M. Freeman.
Temperance in Sabbath-schools—Mrs. (Dr.) Brown.
Evangelistic—Mrs. Purves Smith.

The Only Son.
"Who'll love and comfort you, mother of mine."
Should I never return and be killed in the war?"
"If you've died like a man, as your father before,
Then you'll live in my heart, son of mine."
"Who'll build my shell for me, mother of mine."
"The shipwrights have driven the rivets to seal
A wonderful coffin of armor-plate steel;
Your shell will be strong, son of mine."
"Who'll sing the hymns for me, mother of mine?"
"A white-surplised choir of sea-birds overhead
Will hover and sing for you hymns for the dead;
Your choir will sing well, son of mine."
"Who'll drag the hearse for me, mother of mine?"
"Near ten thousand horses will drive in your team,
For the boilers will quiver with well-harnessed steam;
Your team will be strong, son of mine."

Britain's Deadliest Foe.
One of the surprises of the present conflict has been the virulent hatred with which Britain and all things British have been regarded in Germany. It is scarcely surprising, though greatly to be regretted, that this hatred has awakened something of a similar feeling in Britain toward her great antagonist. But the war is revealing the fact that the Empire's greatest loss is not due to German hatred, nor is the greatest obstacle to a speedy victory to be found in German militarism. The chief anxiety of the military leaders is not now caused by lack of men, but through fear of a lack of ammunition. And that causes such fear? The output of the British factories, supplemented by the orders placed in Canada and the United States, would be sufficient for those factories could be run at full capacity. And the one thing which makes that impossible is the drink habit on the part of the workmen. In a recent speech Lord Kitchener called attention to this, and urged abstinence upon the workmen as a patriotic duty.
Lloyd George in his great speech at Bangor a few weeks ago was even more outspoken—"Drinks," he declared, "is doing us more damage than all the German submarines put together." He intimated that the Government was prepared to use fearless ly the powers they possess in dealing with the drink peril. The marvellous results achieved in Russia by the prohibition of vodka has opened the eyes of many to the great loss caused by the drink traffic. Russia lost a year's revenue of $125,000,000 by prohibition, but the Russian Minister of Finance told Mr. Lloyd George that even directly much of this would be made up by the increased productivity of labor and the decrease of poverty and crime. Indirectly, by the added ability of the people to bear taxation the loss has been far more than made good. Mr. Arthur Hunter, secretary with the New York Life Insurance Company, estimates that in ten years the loss of half a million men in war will be more than made good in Russia by the saving of life due to prohibition. The conclusion is inescapable, that now as always the saloon is Britain's deadliest foe.

Two Women Saved from Operations.
By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—Their Own Stories Here Told.
Edmonton, Alberta, Can.—"I think it is no more than right for me to thank you for what your kind advice and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound have done for me.
"When I wrote to you some time ago I was a very sick woman suffering from female troubles. I had organic inflammation and could not stand or walk any distance. At last I was confined to my bed, and the doctor said I would have to go through an operation, but this I refused to do. A friend advised Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and now, after using three bottles of it, I feel like a new woman. I most heartily recommend your medicine to all women who suffer with female troubles. I have also taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Liver Pills, and think they are fine. I will never be without the medicine in the house."—Mrs. FRANK EMBLEY, 908 Columbia Avenue, Edmonton, Alberta.
The Other Case.
Beatrice, Neb.—"Just after my marriage my left side began to pain me and the pain got so severe at times that I suffered terribly with it. I visited three doctors and each one wanted to operate on me but I would not consent to an operation. I heard of the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and was doing for others and I used several bottles of it with the result that I haven't been bothered with my side since then. I am in good health and I have two little girls."—Mrs. R. B. CHILD, Beatrice, Neb.
Minnard's Liniment Cures Diphtheria

Who'll toll the bell for me, mother of mine?
"An invisible hand will be tolling the bell;
As your sinking ship rocks in the long, oily swell,
Your bell will be rung, son of mine."
"Who'll dig my grave for me, mother of mine?"
"Your grave will be dug in the soil, shingly sand
By the waves that are moved by the silver moon's hand;
Your grave will be deep, son of mine."
"Who'll place the wreaths for me, mother of mine?"
"The shells and sea plants of the cold ocean bed
Will fashion a garland to cover your head;
Your wreaths will be there, son of mine."
"Who'll weep and mourn for me, mother of mine?"
"No one will mourn for you, no one will weep;
When the waves of the ocean have rocked you to sleep,
I'll be proud that you died, son of mine."—T. B. D., in the London Spectator.

Preparating Salt for Domestic Use.
Most of the Product is Taken From Underground—In Both Rock and Brine Form.
There are three principal sources from which salt is obtained, that is, salt lakes, the sea, and salt mines. The great Salt Lake in Utah, provides a very good quality of salt, but it has to be purified before it is suitable for the table. The world depends for its chief supply on the beds of salt rock underground. The biggest salt mines are in Poland and Austria-Hungary, some of which have been worked for hundreds of years, and contain dining rooms, ball rooms, and chapels hewn out of the solid rock salt.
Within the last generation a new method has been found of mining salt. Instead of, as formerly, making shafts down which the men are swung, and up which the salt is raised after being hewn or blasted, the following method is adopted. Holes are bored in the ground, sometimes from 500 feet to 1,200 feet in depth, until the salt beds are reached. Tubes are then inserted from 9 inches to 12 inches in diameter, and water is sent down to the bottom, where it dissolves the salt rock, forming strong brine. This eventually rises up the tube, whence it is pumped to the surface. If quite saturated it then contains 25 per cent of salt, the remainder being water generally colored with clay or other impurity. The brine is then run into salt pans for evaporation.
For 200 years at least, until quite recently, only one method was employed for this evaporation. The iron salt pans are from 60 feet to 80 feet long, 30 feet broad, and 2½ feet deep. Huge fires are lighted at one end of the pans, and flues brought underneath. The brine is boiled, and the water evaporated until the salt falls down to the bottom of the pan. It is then raked out and laid in heaps to drain, and is then, for many purposes, ready for the market.
The temperature at which the brine is evaporated determines the quality of the salt crystals. When fine table salt is wanted the boiling is conducted more rapidly, and this makes a finer crystal.
A second type of evaporation pan is what is known as the vacuum pan. The brine, instead of being poured into pans, is run through pipes into large closed boxes, from which the air is, in a great measure, removed by pumps. By this means the water is removed much more cheaply.

Alcohol and Insurance.
Total Abstainers Have More Favorable Expectations of Life.
The value of abstinence from alcohol as a life-preserver was exemplified in one aspect of an address which Dr. Eugene L. Plank of New York, delivered to the members of the Insurance Institute of Toronto. Quoting the experience of the United Kingdom Temperance and General Provident Institution, he stated that the general class in that company showed a very low mortality, but the abstaining class, about equal numbers and homogeneous to the general class in all respects, except for the non-use of liquor showed a mortality of 27 per cent. below that of the general class over a period of 44 years. Applying the mortality rate of the abstainers to a company where the average age is 35, the distribution of policy forms normal, and the mortality 9 points below the Irish experience, a reduction in the net premium required of $3.03 would result.
The Horse on the Farm.
Every farm should have at least one trusty horse that the women can harness and drive whenever necessary. Every farm team should be matched with care as to temperament and size. Good work can never be done where one horse is quick and nervous, and the other slow and lagging.
A horse which is worked hard every day should be fed with a view to producing muscle rather than fat. When idle, a horse's ration should be reduced considerably.
A Useless Climb.
Peter Thompson went to visit his son in Montreal. It was his first visit to the city and the young man showed him all the sights, concluding with an ascent of Mount Royal. In a burst of enthusiasm young Thompson said: "See, father, isn't it wonderful down there?"
"Well," said his father, "if it's so wonderful down there, what did you drag me up here for?"—Everybody's Magazine.

Piles.
Do not suffer another day with itching, bleeding, or protruding piles. No surgical operation. No artificial opiates. Dr. Chas. O'Neil will relieve you at once. An original cure. See, a pair of letters of endorsement, 100 St. Andrew St., Toronto. Stamp box free if you mention this paper and enclose 10c stamp to pay postage.

Grates are extra durable. Coal grate is duplex. Wood grate is the most modern type.
McClary's Kootenay Range will take extra large pieces of wood—just remove back end lining. Ask the McClary dealer to show you.
Sold by L. W. SLEEP, Wolfville, N. S.

Advertisement in "THE ACADIAN"

Who'll toll the bell for me, mother of mine?
"An invisible hand will be tolling the bell;
As your sinking ship rocks in the long, oily swell,
Your bell will be rung, son of mine."
"Who'll dig my grave for me, mother of mine?"
"Your grave will be dug in the soil, shingly sand
By the waves that are moved by the silver moon's hand;
Your grave will be deep, son of mine."
"Who'll place the wreaths for me, mother of mine?"
"The shells and sea plants of the cold ocean bed
Will fashion a garland to cover your head;
Your wreaths will be there, son of mine."
"Who'll weep and mourn for me, mother of mine?"
"No one will mourn for you, no one will weep;
When the waves of the ocean have rocked you to sleep,
I'll be proud that you died, son of mine."—T. B. D., in the London Spectator.

Who'll toll the bell for me, mother of mine?
"An invisible hand will be tolling the bell;
As your sinking ship rocks in the long, oily swell,
Your bell will be rung, son of mine."
"Who'll dig my grave for me, mother of mine?"
"Your grave will be dug in the soil, shingly sand
By the waves that are moved by the silver moon's hand;
Your grave will be deep, son of mine."
"Who'll place the wreaths for me, mother of mine?"
"The shells and sea plants of the cold ocean bed
Will fashion a garland to cover your head;
Your wreaths will be there, son of mine."
"Who'll weep and mourn for me, mother of mine?"
"No one will mourn for you, no one will weep;
When the waves of the ocean have rocked you to sleep,
I'll be proud that you died, son of mine."—T. B. D., in the London Spectator.

Who'll toll the bell for me, mother of mine?
"An invisible hand will be tolling the bell;
As your sinking ship rocks in the long, oily swell,
Your bell will be rung, son of mine."
"Who'll dig my grave for me, mother of mine?"
"Your grave will be dug in the soil, shingly sand
By the waves that are moved by the silver moon's hand;
Your grave will be deep, son of mine."
"Who'll place the wreaths for me, mother of mine?"
"The shells and sea plants of the cold ocean bed
Will fashion a garland to cover your head;
Your wreaths will be there, son of mine."
"Who'll weep and mourn for me, mother of mine?"
"No one will mourn for you, no one will weep;
When the waves of the ocean have rocked you to sleep,
I'll be proud that you died, son of mine."—T. B. D., in the London Spectator.

Who'll toll the bell for me, mother of mine?
"An invisible hand will be tolling the bell;
As your sinking ship rocks in the long, oily swell,
Your bell will be rung, son of mine."
"Who'll dig my grave for me, mother of mine?"
"Your grave will be dug in the soil, shingly sand
By the waves that are moved by the silver moon's hand;
Your grave will be deep, son of mine."
"Who'll place the wreaths for me, mother of mine?"
"The shells and sea plants of the cold ocean bed
Will fashion a garland to cover your head;
Your wreaths will be there, son of mine."
"Who'll weep and mourn for me, mother of mine?"
"No one will mourn for you, no one will weep;
When the waves of the ocean have rocked you to sleep,
I'll be proud that you died, son of mine."—T. B. D., in the London Spectator.

Who'll toll the bell for me, mother of mine?
"An invisible hand will be tolling the bell;
As your sinking ship rocks in the long, oily swell,
Your bell will be rung, son of mine."
"Who'll dig my grave for me, mother of mine?"
"Your grave will be dug in the soil, shingly sand
By the waves that are moved by the silver moon's hand;
Your grave will be deep, son of mine."
"Who'll place the wreaths for me, mother of mine?"
"The shells and sea plants of the cold ocean bed
Will fashion a garland to cover your head;
Your wreaths will be there, son of mine."
"Who'll weep and mourn for me, mother of mine?"
"No one will mourn for you, no one will weep;
When the waves of the ocean have rocked you to sleep,
I'll be proud that you died, son of mine."—T. B. D., in the London Spectator.

Who'll toll the bell for me, mother of mine?
"An invisible hand will be tolling the bell;
As your sinking ship rocks in the long, oily swell,
Your bell will be rung, son of mine."
"Who'll dig my grave for me, mother of mine?"
"Your grave will be dug in the soil, shingly sand
By the waves that are moved by the silver moon's hand;
Your grave will be deep, son of mine."
"Who'll place the wreaths for me, mother of mine?"
"The shells and sea plants of the cold ocean bed
Will fashion a garland to cover your head;
Your wreaths will be there, son of mine."
"Who'll weep and mourn for me, mother of mine?"
"No one will mourn for you, no one will weep;
When the waves of the ocean have rocked you to sleep,
I'll be proud that you died, son of mine."—T. B. D., in the London Spectator.

Who'll toll the bell for me, mother of mine?
"An invisible hand will be tolling the bell;
As your sinking ship rocks in the long, oily swell,
Your bell will be rung, son of mine."
"Who'll dig my grave for me, mother of mine?"
"Your grave will be dug in the soil, shingly sand
By the waves that are moved by the silver moon's hand;
Your grave will be deep, son of mine."
"Who'll place the wreaths for me, mother of mine?"
"The shells and sea plants of the cold ocean bed
Will fashion a garland to cover your head;
Your wreaths will be there, son of mine."
"Who'll weep and mourn for me, mother of mine?"
"No one will mourn for you, no one will weep;
When the waves of the ocean have rocked you to sleep,
I'll be proud that you died, son of mine."—T. B. D., in the London Spectator.

Who'll toll the bell for me, mother of mine?
"An invisible hand will be tolling the bell;
As your sinking ship rocks in the long, oily swell,
Your bell will be rung, son of mine."
"Who'll dig my grave for me, mother of mine?"
"Your grave will be dug in the soil, shingly sand
By the waves that are moved by the silver moon's hand;
Your grave will be deep, son of mine."
"Who'll place the wreaths for me, mother of mine?"
"The shells and sea plants of the cold ocean bed
Will fashion a garland to cover your head;
Your wreaths will be there, son of mine."
"Who'll weep and mourn for me, mother of mine?"
"No one will mourn for you, no one will weep;
When the waves of the ocean have rocked you to sleep,
I'll be proud that you died, son of mine."—T. B. D., in the London Spectator.

Who'll toll the bell for me, mother of mine?
"An invisible hand will be tolling the bell;
As your sinking ship rocks in the long, oily swell,
Your bell will be rung, son of mine."
"Who'll dig my grave for me, mother of mine?"
"Your grave will be dug in the soil, shingly sand
By the waves that are moved by the silver moon's hand;
Your grave will be deep, son of mine."
"Who'll place the wreaths for me, mother of mine?"
"The shells and sea plants of the cold ocean bed
Will fashion a garland to cover your head;
Your wreaths will be there, son of mine."
"Who'll weep and mourn for me, mother of mine?"
"No one will mourn for you, no one will weep;
When the waves of the ocean have rocked you to sleep,
I'll be proud that you died, son of mine."—T. B. D., in the London Spectator.

Who'll toll the bell for me, mother of mine?
"An invisible hand will be tolling the bell;
As your sinking ship rocks in the long, oily swell,
Your bell will be rung, son of mine."
"Who'll dig my grave for me, mother of mine?"
"Your grave will be dug in the soil, shingly sand
By the waves that are moved by the silver moon's hand;
Your grave will be deep, son of mine."
"Who'll place the wreaths for me, mother of mine?"
"The shells and sea plants of the cold ocean bed
Will fashion a garland to cover your head;
Your wreaths will be there, son of mine."
"Who'll weep and mourn for me, mother of mine?"
"No one will mourn for you, no one will weep;
When the waves of the ocean have rocked you to sleep,
I'll be proud that you died, son of mine."—T. B. D., in the London Spectator.

Who'll toll the bell for me, mother of mine?
"An invisible hand will be tolling the bell;
As your sinking ship rocks in the long, oily swell,
Your bell will be rung, son of mine."
"Who'll dig my grave for me, mother of mine?"
"Your grave will be dug in the soil, shingly sand
By the waves that are moved by the silver moon's hand;
Your grave will be deep, son of mine."
"Who'll place the wreaths for me, mother of mine?"
"The shells and sea plants of the cold ocean bed
Will fashion a garland to cover your head;
Your wreaths will be there, son of mine."
"Who'll weep and mourn for me, mother of mine?"
"No one will mourn for you, no one will weep;
When the waves of the ocean have rocked you to sleep,
I'll be proud that you died, son of mine."—T. B. D., in the London Spectator.

Who'll toll the bell for me, mother of mine?
"An invisible hand will be tolling the bell;
As your sinking ship rocks in the long, oily swell,
Your bell will be rung, son of mine."
"Who'll dig my grave for me, mother of mine?"
"Your grave will be dug in the soil, shingly sand
By the waves that are moved by the silver moon's hand;
Your grave will be deep, son of mine."
"Who'll place the wreaths for me, mother of mine?"
"The shells and sea plants of the cold ocean bed
Will fashion a garland to cover your head;
Your wreaths will be there, son of mine."
"Who'll weep and mourn for me, mother of mine?"
"No one will mourn for you, no one will weep;
When the waves of the ocean have rocked you to sleep,
I'll be proud that you died, son of mine."—T. B. D., in the London Spectator.

Who'll toll the bell for me, mother of mine?
"An invisible hand will be tolling the bell;
As your sinking ship rocks in the long, oily swell,
Your bell will be rung, son of mine."
"Who'll dig my grave for me, mother of mine?"
"Your grave will be dug in the soil, shingly sand
By the waves that are moved by the silver moon's hand;
Your grave will be deep, son of mine."
"Who'll place the wreaths for me, mother of mine?"
"The shells and sea plants of the cold ocean bed
Will fashion a garland to cover your head;
Your wreaths will be there, son of mine."
"Who'll weep and mourn for me, mother of mine?"
"No one will mourn for you, no one will weep;
When the waves of the ocean have rocked you to sleep,
I'll be proud that you died, son of mine."—T. B. D., in the London Spectator.

Who'll toll the bell for me, mother of mine?
"An invisible hand will be tolling the bell;
As your sinking ship rocks in the long, oily swell,
Your bell will be rung, son of mine."
"Who'll dig my grave for me, mother of mine?"
"Your grave will be dug in the soil, shingly sand
By the waves that are moved by the silver moon's hand;
Your grave will be deep, son of mine."
"Who'll place the wreaths for me, mother of mine?"
"The shells and sea plants of the cold ocean bed
Will fashion a garland to cover your head;
Your wreaths will be there, son of mine."
"Who'll weep and mourn for me, mother of mine?"
"No one will mourn for you, no one will weep;
When the waves of the ocean have rocked you to sleep,
I'll be proud that you died, son of mine."—T. B. D., in the London Spectator.

Who'll toll the bell for me, mother of mine?
"An invisible hand will be tolling the bell;
As your sinking ship rocks in the long, oily swell,
Your bell will be rung, son of mine."
"Who'll dig my grave for me, mother of mine?"
"Your grave will be dug in the soil, shingly sand
By the waves that are moved by the silver moon's hand;
Your grave will be deep, son of mine."
"Who'll place the wreaths for me, mother of mine?"
"The shells and sea plants of the cold ocean bed
Will fashion a garland to cover your head;
Your wreaths will be there, son of mine."
"Who'll weep and mourn for me, mother of mine?"
"No one will mourn for you, no one will weep;
When the waves of the ocean have rocked you to sleep,
I'll be proud that you died, son of mine."—T. B. D., in the London Spectator.

Who'll toll the bell for me, mother of mine?
"An invisible hand will be tolling the bell;
As your sinking ship rocks in the long, oily swell,
Your bell will be rung, son of mine."
"Who'll dig my grave for me, mother of mine?"
"Your grave will be dug in the soil, shingly sand
By the waves that are moved by the silver moon's hand;
Your grave will be deep, son of mine."
"Who'll place the wreaths for me, mother of mine?"
"The shells and sea plants of the cold ocean bed
Will fashion a garland to cover your head;
Your wreaths will be there, son of mine."
"Who'll weep and mourn for me, mother of mine?"
"No one will mourn for you, no one will weep;
When the waves of the ocean have rocked you to sleep,
I'll be proud that you died, son of mine."—T. B. D., in the London Spectator.

Who'll toll the bell for me, mother of mine?
"An invisible hand will be tolling the bell;
As your sinking ship rocks in the long, oily swell,
Your bell will be rung, son of mine."
"Who'll dig my grave for me, mother of mine?"
"Your grave will be dug in the soil, shingly sand
By the waves that are moved by the silver moon's hand;
Your grave will be deep, son of mine."
"Who'll place the wreaths for me, mother of mine?"
"The shells and sea plants of the cold ocean bed
Will fashion a garland to cover your head;
Your wreaths will be there, son of mine."
"Who'll weep and mourn for me, mother of mine?"
"No one will mourn for you, no one will weep;
When the waves of the ocean have rocked you to sleep,
I'll be proud that you died, son of mine."—T. B. D., in the London Spectator.

Who'll toll the bell for me, mother of mine?
"An invisible hand will be tolling the bell;
As your sinking ship rocks in the long, oily swell,
Your bell will be rung, son of mine."
"Who'll dig my grave for me, mother of mine?"
"Your grave will be dug in the soil, shingly sand
By the waves that are moved by the silver moon's hand;
Your grave will be deep, son of mine."
"Who'll place the wreaths for me, mother of mine?"
"The shells and sea plants of the cold ocean bed
Will fashion a garland to cover your head;
Your wreaths will be there, son of mine."
"Who'll weep and mourn for me, mother of mine?"
"No one will mourn for you, no one will weep;
When the waves of the ocean have rocked you to sleep,
I'll be proud that you died, son of mine."—T. B. D., in the London Spectator.

Who'll toll the bell for me, mother of mine?
"An invisible hand will be tolling the bell;
As your sinking ship rocks in the long, oily swell,
Your bell will be rung, son of mine."
"Who'll dig my grave for me, mother of mine?"
"Your grave will be dug in the soil, shingly sand
By the waves that are moved by the silver moon's hand;
Your grave will be deep, son of mine."
"Who'll place the wreaths for me, mother of mine?"
"The shells and sea plants of the cold ocean bed
Will fashion a garland to cover your head;
Your wreaths will be there, son of mine."
"Who'll weep and mourn for me, mother of mine?"
"No one will mourn for you, no one will weep;
When the waves of the ocean have rocked you to sleep,
I'll be proud that you died, son of mine."—T. B. D., in the London Spectator.

Who'll toll the bell for me, mother of mine?
"An invisible hand will be tolling the bell;
As your sinking ship rocks in the long, oily swell,
Your bell will be rung, son of mine."
"Who'll dig my grave for me, mother of mine?"
"Your grave will be dug in the soil, shingly sand
By the waves that are moved by the silver moon's hand;
Your grave will be deep, son of mine."
"Who'll place the wreaths for me, mother of mine?"
"The shells and sea plants of the cold ocean bed
Will fashion a garland to cover your head;
Your wreaths will be there, son of mine."
"Who'll weep and mourn for me, mother of mine?"
"No one will mourn for you, no one will weep;
When the waves of the ocean have rocked you to sleep,
I'll be proud that you died, son of mine."—T. B. D., in the London Spectator.

Who'll toll the bell for me, mother of mine?
"An invisible hand will be tolling the bell;
As your sinking ship rocks in the long, oily swell,
Your bell will be rung, son of mine."
"Who'll dig my grave for me, mother of mine?"
"Your grave will be dug in the soil, shingly sand
By the waves that are moved by the silver moon's hand;
Your grave will be deep, son of mine."
"Who'll place the wreaths for me, mother of mine?"
"The shells and sea plants of the cold ocean bed
Will fashion a garland to cover your head;
Your wreaths will be there, son of mine."
"Who'll weep and mourn for me, mother of mine?"
"No one will mourn for you, no one will weep;
When the waves of the ocean have rocked you to sleep,
I'll be proud that you died, son of mine."—T. B. D., in the London Spectator.

Who'll toll the bell for me, mother of mine?
"An invisible hand will be tolling the bell;
As your sinking ship rocks in the long, oily swell,
Your bell will be rung, son of mine."
"Who'll dig my grave for me, mother of mine?"
"Your grave will be dug in the soil, shingly sand
By the waves that are moved by the silver moon's hand;
Your grave will be deep, son of mine."
"Who'll place the wreaths for me, mother of mine?"
"The shells and sea plants of the cold ocean bed
Will fashion a garland to cover your head;
Your wreaths will be there, son of mine."
"Who'll weep and mourn for me, mother of mine?"
"No one will mourn for you, no one will weep;
When the waves of the ocean have rocked you to sleep,
I'll be proud that you died, son of mine."—T. B. D., in the London Spectator.

Who'll toll the bell for me, mother of mine?
"An invisible hand will be tolling the bell;
As your sinking ship rocks in the long, oily swell,
Your bell will be rung, son of mine."
"Who'll dig my grave for me, mother of mine?"
"Your grave will be dug in the soil, shingly sand
By the waves that are moved by the silver moon's hand;
Your grave will be deep, son of mine."
"Who'll place the wreaths for me, mother of mine?"
"The shells and sea plants of the cold ocean bed
Will fashion a garland to cover your head;
Your wreaths will be there, son of mine."
"Who'll weep and mourn for me, mother of mine?"
"No one will mourn for you, no one will weep;
When the waves of the ocean have rocked you to sleep,
I'll be proud that you died, son of mine."—T. B. D., in the London Spectator.

Who'll toll the bell for me, mother of mine?
"An invisible hand will be tolling the bell;
As your sinking ship rocks in the long, oily swell,
Your bell will be rung, son of mine."
"Who'll dig my grave for me, mother of mine?"
"Your grave will be dug in the soil, shingly sand
By the waves that are moved by the silver moon's hand;
Your grave will be deep, son of mine."
"Who'll place the wreaths for me, mother of mine?"
"The shells and sea plants of the cold ocean bed
Will fashion a garland to cover your head;
Your wreaths will be there, son of mine."
"Who'll weep and mourn for me, mother of mine?"
"No one will mourn for you, no one will weep;
When the waves of the ocean have rocked you to sleep,
I'll be proud that you died, son of mine."—T. B. D., in the London Spectator.

Who'll toll the bell for me, mother of mine?
"An invisible hand will be tolling the bell;
As your sinking ship rocks in the long, oily swell,
Your bell will be rung, son of mine."
"Who'll dig my grave for me, mother of mine?"
"Your grave will be dug in the soil, shingly sand
By the waves that are moved by the silver moon's hand;
Your grave will be deep, son of mine."
"Who'll place the wreaths for me, mother of mine?"
"The shells and sea plants of the cold ocean bed
Will fashion a garland to cover your head;
Your wreaths will be there, son of mine."
"Who'll weep and mourn for me, mother of mine?"
"No one will mourn for you, no one will weep;
When the waves of the ocean have rocked you to sleep,
I'll be proud that you died, son of mine."—T. B. D., in the London Spectator.

Who'll toll the bell for me, mother of mine?
"An invisible hand will be tolling the bell;
As your sinking ship rocks in the long, oily swell,
Your bell will be rung, son of mine."
"Who'll dig my grave for me, mother of mine?"
"Your grave will be dug in the soil, shingly sand
By the waves that are moved by the silver moon's hand;
Your grave will be deep, son of mine."
"Who'll place the wreaths for me, mother of mine?"
"The shells and sea plants of the cold ocean bed
Will fashion a garland to cover your head;
Your wreaths will be there, son of mine."
"Who'll weep and mourn for me, mother of mine?"
"No one will mourn for you, no one will weep;
When the waves of the ocean have rocked you to sleep,
I'll be proud that you died, son of mine."—T. B. D., in the London Spectator.

Who'll toll the bell for me, mother of mine?
"An invisible hand will be tolling the bell;
As your sinking ship rocks in the long, oily swell,
Your bell will be rung, son of mine."
"Who'll dig my grave for me, mother of mine?"
"Your grave will be dug in the soil, shingly sand
By the waves that are moved by the silver moon's hand;
Your grave will be deep, son of mine."
"Who'll place the wreaths for me, mother of mine?"
"The shells and sea plants of the cold ocean bed
Will fashion a garland to cover your head;
Your wreaths will be there, son of mine."
"Who'll weep and mourn for me, mother of mine?"
"No one will mourn for you, no one will weep;
When the waves of the ocean have rocked you to sleep,
I'll be proud that you died, son of mine."—T. B. D., in the London Spectator.

Who'll toll the bell for me, mother of mine?
"An invisible hand will be tolling the bell;
As your sinking ship rocks in the long, oily swell,
Your bell will be rung, son of mine."
"Who'll dig my grave for me, mother of mine?"
"Your grave will be dug in the soil, shingly sand
By the waves that are moved by the silver moon's hand;
Your grave will be deep, son of mine."
"Who'll place the wreaths for me, mother of mine?"
"The shells and sea plants of the cold ocean bed
Will fashion a garland to cover your head;
Your wreaths will be there, son of mine."
"Who'll weep and mourn for me, mother of mine?"
"No one will mourn for you, no one will weep;
When the waves of the ocean have rocked you to sleep,
I'll be proud that you died, son of mine."—T. B. D., in the London Spectator.

Who'll toll the bell for me, mother of mine?
"An invisible hand will be tolling the bell;
As your sinking ship rocks in the long, oily swell,
Your bell will be rung, son of mine."
"Who'll dig my grave for me, mother of mine?"
"Your grave will be dug in the soil, shingly sand
By the waves that are moved by the silver moon's hand;
Your grave will be deep, son of mine."
"Who'll place the wreaths for me, mother of mine?"
"The shells and sea plants of the cold ocean bed
Will fashion a garland to cover your head;
Your wreaths will be there, son of mine."
"Who'll weep and mourn for me, mother of mine?"
"No one will mourn for you, no one will weep;
When the waves of the ocean have rocked you to sleep,
I'll be proud that you died, son of mine."—T. B. D., in the London Spectator.

Who'll toll the bell for me, mother of mine?
"An invisible hand will be tolling the bell;
As your sinking ship rocks in the long, oily swell,
Your bell will be rung, son of mine."
"Who'll dig my grave for me, mother of mine?"
"Your grave will be dug in the soil, shingly sand
By the waves that are moved by the silver moon's hand;
Your grave will be deep, son of mine."
"Who'll place the wreaths for me, mother of mine?"
"The shells and sea plants of the cold ocean bed
Will fashion a garland to cover your head;
Your wreaths will be there, son of mine."
"Who'll weep and mourn for me, mother of mine?"
"No one will mourn for you, no one will weep;
When the waves of the ocean have rocked you to sleep,
I'll be proud that you died, son of mine."—T. B. D., in the London Spectator.

Who'll toll the bell for me, mother of mine?
"An invisible hand will be tolling the bell;
As your sinking ship rocks in the long, oily swell,
Your bell will be rung, son of mine."
"Who'll dig my grave for me, mother of mine?"
"Your grave will be dug in the soil, shingly sand
By the waves that are moved by the silver moon's hand;
Your grave will be deep, son of mine."
"Who'll place the wreaths for me, mother of mine?"
"The shells and sea plants of the cold ocean bed
Will fashion a garland to cover your head;
Your wreaths will be there, son of mine."
"Who'll weep and mourn for me, mother of mine?"
"No one will mourn for you, no one will weep;
When the waves of the ocean have rocked you to sleep,
I'll be proud that you died, son of mine."—T. B. D., in the London Spectator.

Who'll toll the bell for me, mother of mine?
"An invisible hand will be tolling the bell;
As your sinking ship rocks in the long, oily swell,
Your bell will be rung, son of mine."
"Who'll dig my grave for me, mother of mine?"
"Your grave will be dug in the soil, shingly sand
By the waves that are moved by the silver moon's hand;
Your grave will be deep, son of mine."
"Who'll place the wreaths for me, mother of mine?"
"The shells and sea plants of the cold ocean bed
Will fashion a garland to cover your head;
Your wreaths will be there, son of mine."
"Who'll weep and mourn for me, mother of mine?"
"No one will mourn for you, no one will weep;
When the waves of the ocean have rocked you to sleep,
I'll be proud that you died, son of mine."—T. B. D., in the London Spectator.

Who'll toll the bell for me, mother of mine?
"An invisible hand will be tolling the bell;
As your sinking ship rocks in the long, oily swell,
Your bell will be rung, son of mine."
"Who'll dig my grave for me, mother of mine?"
"Your grave will be dug in the soil, shingly sand
By the waves that are moved by the silver moon's hand;
Your grave will be deep, son of mine."
"Who'll