At the Antigonish Casket: "There died at Antigonish, P. E. I., on January 10, 1895, in the 44th year of her age, Harriet Elizabeth daughter of the late Donald Macdonald, Limerick, and relict of the late Dr. Macgregor, P. E. I., aged 31 years and 3 months. She was a very kind, loved and respected for rare qualities of mind, kindness of heart, and the possession of mental powers of much more capacity and higher culture than is usual among the women of her time and place. Her death leaves a conspicuous blank in a circle which embraces an unusually large number of friends. Her funeral, notwithstanding the inclemency of a severe winter and the almost impossible condition of the roads, was attended by five priests and a large congregation, half of which belong to her own faith. It was a consolation in her last days on earth that her son, Rev. Dr. Macgregor, P. E. I., of Bridgewater, C. B., was with her all the time, and recited the prayer for the departing at the moment of death. To him, to her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren The Casket tender its sympathy in this hour of their sorrow. May her soul rest in peace. Amen.

A TELEGRAM was received yesterday from Philadelphia, N. Y., by Messrs. Blake & Kenna, formerly of Charlottetown, had died at that place on Monday. Father McKenna was a native of Charlottetown, and son of the late John Arnold McKenna, whose death he chronicled last week. After being ordained priest he served several missions in this diocese, and left the island about nineteen years ago, since which time he had been affiliated to the diocese of Ogdensburg, in New York State. He was one of the most prominent and successful missionaries of the A. O. H. Presided.

On last Friday evening a large and enthusiastic audience assembled in the room of the Caledonian Club for the purpose of celebrating the anniversary of the Scottish Bard, Robbie Burns. The evening was presided over by James Paton, Esq., president of the Club. A very select programme was prepared for the occasion, and carried out most satisfactorily.

The oration of the evening on Robbie Burns, was prepared and delivered by Rev. T. F. Fullerton, who was very eloquent and well substantiated by the audience. The Rev. gentleman's choice language, referred to many incidents of the bard's life, in which he displayed his sympathetic nature, his aversion to everything unreal, and his generosity to his fellow-men. Rev. Mr. Campbell also made an address referring to the Bard of Ayr and his noble traits of character. Both addresses were attentively listened to and frequently interrupted by applause.

Two Scotch songs, "My Nannie's Awa" and "Jessie's Dream" were sung by Mrs. R. C. Macdonald in an excellent manner. "Will You Nae Come Back Aye" was splendidly rendered by Mrs. Byrne, and the "Swallowtail" by Miss Stewart, and were capably given. "Burns and Scotland Aye" was sung by Mr. McKay in a very creditable manner. This is the first time that so large an audience in Charlottetown had the pleasure of listening to this song. The vocal solo by Mr. Charles Horner was well received, and Mr. McLean recited the "Bard of Ayr" in a most interesting manner. Miss Brown, and Mr. Blanchard, presided at the piano. The singing of "Auld Lang Syne" closed the evening. The Queen closed the entertainment.

Local and Special News.

K. D. C. restores the stomach to healthy action.

For Croupy children—MINARD'S HONEY BALSAM.

POPULAR EVERYWHERE.

Beginning with a small local sale in a retail drug store, the business of Hood's SARSAPARILLA has steadily increased until there is scarcely a village or hamlet in the United States where it is unknown. To-day Hood's SARSAPARILLA stands at the head in the medicine world, admired in the American public, and probably greater than all other SARSAPARILLA and blood purifiers combined.

Such success proves merit. If you are sick, it is not the medicine for you to try! Hood's SARSAPARILLA is the cure.

For Spasmodic Coughs—MINARD'S HONEY BALSAM.

SKIN DISEASES. Skin diseases are more or less occasioned by bad blood. B. B. C. cures the following Skin Diseases: Shingles, Eruptions, Itch, Rash, Salt Sores, Scald Head, Eruptions, Pimples, and Itches, by removing all impurities from the blood, and restoring to it the purity of the blood.

For Biliousness—MINARD'S FAMILY PILLS.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral cures colds and coughs; an unequalled anodyne expectorant.

THE PAIN TRUTH TALKS.

Constitutional or scrofulous catarrh, sore eyes, etc., cured by Ayer's SARSAPARILLA.

Obstinate Coughs yield to the grateful soothing action of Norway Pine Syrup. The racking, persistent cough of consumption is relieved by this unrivalled throat and lung remedy. Price 50c and 60c.

For Worms in children—CHEBEKE VERMIFUGE.

Hood's SARSAPARILLA, acting through the blood, reaches every part of the system, and in this way positively cures catarrh.

BEYOND DISPUTE.

There is no better, safer or more pleasant remedy than Hood's Pectoral Balsam. It cures coughs, sore throats, croup, colds, bronchitis and all throat and lung troubles.

Do not wear impermeable and tight-fitting hats that impede the blood-circulation of the scalp. Use Hall's Hair Renewer occasionally, and you will not be bald.

After Labriette's catarrh coughs lung troubles, etc., frequently follow. There is no remedy so prompt, and at the same time effective and pleasant, as Millard's Cough Lozenges with Wild Cherry and Hypophosphites, which is the latest and best combination of anti-consumptive remedies. Price 50c and $1.00 per bottle.

A RAILWAY MANAGER SAYS: "I reply to your question do my children object to taking Scott's Emulsion, I say no! On the contrary, they are fond of it and it keeps them pictures of health."

NO EQUAL TO IT.

As a cure for Frost Bites, Chills, Bruises, Induced Lice, Sprains, Wounds, Bruises, Hagyard's Yellow Oil is the most reliable remedy on the market.

You would give thousands to get rid of that bad case of Catarrh, and still you are loathe to invest twenty cents in a box of Hawker's Catarrh Cure, which will cure and save your thousands.

BEYOND COMPARISON.

Are the good qualities possessed by Hood's SARSAPARILLA. Above all it purifies the blood, thus strengthening the nerves; it regulates the digestive organs, invigorates the kidneys and liver, tones up the entire system, cures Catarrh, Dyspepsia, Catarrh and Rheumatism. Get Hood's and only Hood's.

Hood's PILLS cure all liver ill, biliousness, jaundice, indigestion, sick headache, etc.

The post Bureau says: "Dyspepsia is the Devil's Own Child. It is a disease which is easily got rid of by K. D. C. Use K. D. C."

THREE CORNER HEARTS. Robert Bruce, the hero of Bannockburn, St. John's Day, 1314, ordered his heart to be removed after death and carried to the Holy Land.

Years full five hundred long gone by, the blessed Baptist's day, stood forth a proud array: The warlike sons of Scottish soil, equipped with spear and shield, stake liberty of fatherland on one decisive field.

From Bannock's brook we shift our view to distant places and times. The northern blasts of Scottish breeze are changed for Grecian clime—For patriot soldiers, mastering fast, by hand or spear or plain, I see a gallant armament, that speeds across the main.

Far by the sinking sun there lay a fair and fruitful vale: The dimpled waters round her shores lapped bright in sunny smile: Also within those sunny walls, the streams of sorrow flow.

Thus heroes off, by burial of the heart, Gave love's last pledge, and sought the better part: We shall his aspirations find a grand and fitting home.

of the subject discussed, a young missionary is equipped for the battlefield. From constantly preaching on a certain curriculum of subjects one's mind becomes thoroughly permeated with the great truths and all the kindred ideas.

A good address, a pleasing presence, may go far to make an acceptable preacher, but to do the whole work of an effective missionary, to infuse a sense of guilt into a man imbued with drunkenness and rotted with immorality, that will impel him to beat himself, and conquer a hell of sin, there is no bloodier task for the physician who is accustomed to the use of the scalpel on the diseased part in the heart is touched every time.

In French Barracks. A part of the diabolical scheme of the present rulers of France for making the entire nation not simply non-Catholic but altogether without religion, has been to have the law compelling the seminarians, young men who are studying for the priesthood, to serve a term in the army as soldiers.

The Inevitable Armada. The volume which has just been presented to the Free Public Library by the Navy Record Society, containing the state papers relating to the defeat of the Spanish Armada, is a most valuable contribution.

Work of this kind, especially when it includes preaching in large crowded churches, night after night, in a most earnest, vigorous way and then preaching in the morning at 5 o'clock, and spending the hours between sitting in the close confessional for ten hours a day, listening to the tales of sin, must of necessity be very wearing on the missionary; but the consolations of the work far outweigh his labors.

To fit a young man to campaign in this spiritual warfare, a discipline is resorted to far more severe than a West Point cadetship involves. It continues through six years after he has taken his degree at college. It means daily rising at five o'clock, with two half-hours of meditation or silent prayer to make the truths of religion more vivid, constant examination of the conscience that the mirror of the soul may be kept bright, weekly confession that the soul may be purified from all sin, a yearly "retreat" of eight days in solitude without any conversation with another, the constant recourse to the literature of ascetic theology and hagiology to stimulate in the service of God by precept and example, three years of metaphysics as a basis of knowledge, three years of dogmatic theology with Holy Scripture and concurrent studies, and along with dogma, three years of moral theology to cultivate one's practical judgment of sin and its remedies—with this training and a repository of thirty well-prepared sermons that grasp the very marrow thing shows what happens when a nation allows itself to be "secularized," that is, to be governed and carried on in its various departments—schools, hospitals, army, navy, and so on—as if there was no God, and as if Christianity were a fable and religion a folly. This is what the people of France have allowed, and they are suffering the consequences.

Martyr of Molokai. A few days ago England took part in a national celebration, when our Ambassador, His Excellency Sir Francis Plunkett, received with enthusiasm in the old Catholic city of Louvain, represented England at the inauguration of Father Damien's statue, which had been erected by national subscription—the Majesties and the government heading the list of subscribers.

That Non-Academical. Emile Zola, the chronic hunter after the honors of a seat in the French Academy, but who will never attain it, has been invited to Paris as an unsuccessful visitor to Rome. Unsuccessful, we say advisedly, for his object in seeing the Seven-Hilled City was to obtain "copy" for his forthcoming book which nobody particularly felt the want of, but it is not so easy to get admittance into the Vatican as into our Institute of Journalists.

Buried Together. Two Fathers of Mercy were recently buried from the same church in New York. The first died in 1872, and the other, who was his successor, died in 1887, when he became pastor of the Fathers of Mercy, in Patterson, N. J. Two years later he returned to St. Vincent de Paul's and was made chaplain of the orphan asylum connected with the church.
