LAZARUS, MORRIS & CO'S. Perfected Spectacles! AND EYE GLASSES.

The large and increasing sales of these PERFECTED GLASSES is a sure proof of their superiority. We were satisfied that they would be appreciated here as elsewhere, and that the reality of the advantages offered to wearers of our beautiful lenses, viz: the ease and comfort, the assured and readily ascertained improvement of the sight, and the brilliant assistance they give in all cases, were in themselves so apparent on trial, that the result could not be otherwise than it has, in the almost general adoption of our Celebrated Perfected Spectacles by the residents of this locality.

Evening Mercury. THURSDAY EV'NG, JUNE 10, 1869.

The World Over. A fellow in Detroit hanged himself to his bed-post from despondency at being left an orphan at the tender age of 28.

The city of Tortosa, in Spain, with only 25,000 inhabitants, contains property belonging to the Roman Catholic Church valued at forty-six millions of reals.

It will only take about 40,000,000 francs to carry out the benevolent wish of Napoleon to increase the pensions of the surviving soldiers of the Republic and First Empire.

THROWN OUT.—The House of Commons has thrown the Bill authorizing the Great Western Railway to construct a tunnel under the bed of the river between Windsor and Detroit.

The boy who, when asked to what trade he would wish to be brought up, replied, "I will be a trustee, because ever since papa has been a trustee, we have had pudding for dinner," was a wise child in his generation.

The foundation stone of the new Knox Church, Galt, will be laid on Friday, 18th, at 2 p.m. The Rev. Donald Fraser, of Inverness, Scotland, will be present, and the Guelph Presbytery and all the ministers of Galt are to be invited.

Work has now fairly commenced on the site of the Lunatic Asylum in London, and it is to be pushed on with vigor; the excavations for the foundation of the structure are now being made, and the first stone, it is expected, will be laid in a short time.

A stranger recently went into a hotel in Hartford for a bath, and as he did not emerge from his retirement for an hour, the proprietor entered with fears of suicide in his heart, to see what was the matter. The stranger had only been washing his shirt, and was waiting for it to dry.

The merchants of Owen Sound have lately had occasion to catch some one of their number for receiving silver at par in contravention of an agreement to receive it only at a discount. After an ineffectual attempt to beside the high horse he yielded with the best grace he could, apologized, and promised to observe the terms of the bond.

A traveller from the coast of Gaspe informs the Ottawa Times that, so late as the 27th of last month, snow still covered the mountains and lay thickly as in the month of January down to the water's edge, between Rimouski and Ste. Anne des Monts. He also states that a violent northerly storm has raged along the coast since the Queen's birthday.

NOMINATION.—A convention of delegates to select a Liberal Candidate to the Ontario Assembly, for the West Riding of Elgin, was held on Tuesday at Wallacetown. Two candidates were proposed—Mr. Thos. Hodgins, barrister, Toronto; and Dr. Cascarden of Iona. Mr. Hodgins received the nomination of the Convention, but he has not yet accepted it.

PERSONAL.—The Hamilton Times says: Hon. W. H. Seward, ex Secretary of State, for the neighboring republic, passed through by the Great Western Railway last evening, bound westward for a trip out on the Pacific Railroad. He alighted for a few minutes at the station, but did not condescend any special expression of his views on the Alabama question, having gone out of the business.

BURNED TO DEATH.—On Thursday last, a little four year old lad, son of Mrs. Lewis, residing in the first concession of Beverly, got hold of some friction matches to play with, and set fire to a new house. The straw within was immediately in a blaze, and the retreat of the child being cut off, he was burned to death in a few moments. A charred and shapeless form was all that remained after the fire had subsided.

IMPORTANT TO WATER GARDENERS.—CATERPILLARS on GOOSEBERRY BUSHES—Hebebor, either as dry powder, or mixed with water, is effectual for the destruction of these pests, if dusted or watered over the leaves, and some other things are equally successful. Perhaps the best and simplest of all is strong soap suds, applied liberally over the bushes in the evening, with a watering pot. The caterpillars fall to the ground and die at once, and the bush is greatly refreshed by the suds. Most houses have suds for nothing one day in the week, which should be applied as above, even when there are no caterpillars.

BRIGHT AFFECTIONS.—An accomplished and beautiful young lady of Hamilton, daughter of a prominent merchant, left here some time since to visit a married sister who resided in Chicago. The sad intelligence has now been received that during last week she deliberately committed suicide by taking a portion of prussic acid, having previously prepared letters to various friends, characterized by perfect composure. Before retiring to rest on the night of her death, she bid her sister and family an affectionate "good night," and immediately swallowed the fatal drug. It is intimated that a disappointment of the affections incited the unnatural act.

COAL MINING ACCIDENTS.—The Government Inspector of mines in England, has reported on the recent frequent and serious accidents in the mines of the Lancashire and Welsh colliery districts. He attributes the series of deplorable accidents therein, in some degree to the previous temporary stoppage of the mines on account of strikes, which stoppage caused the mines to get out of order. The miners also from the same cause, and from the excitement attending the elections, had become somewhat demoralized and careless, and their hand had partially forgot its cunning. They were reckless, in the manner of lighting their pipes in the mines which they were forbidden to do, and also careless and rough, to say nothing of ignorant; and the presence of beer shops in the neighborhood of the coal-pits was especially injurious and to be deplored.

Dominion Parliament. HOUSE OF COMMONS. OTTAWA, June 9.

Hon. Mr. Rose gave notice of resolutions to authorize the Government to raise a loan of £300,000 on the Imperial guarantee to pay the Hudson's Bay Company, and a further loan not exceeding £300,000 sterling, for the purpose of opening up communication with the North West Territory, organizing a government therein, and promoting its settlement.

The House went into committee of the whole on the Insolvency Act. On the first clause, Mr. Rose of Prince Edward moved that the word "non-trader" be struck out. Carried. Mr. Boswell's amendment to the amendment, that the latter portion of the clause prohibiting voluntary assignments in the case of non-traders be struck out, was lost.

On the second clause, Mr. Blake moved to strike out the portion of the clause requiring the consent of a certain portion of the creditors to a voluntary assignment. The amendment was agreed to. A lengthy debate ensued on the 14th clause, excepting the Province of Quebec as regards the trial by jury under the Act. The committee reported the Bill as amended.

Wesleyan Conference. TORONTO, June 9th.

The Conference was constituted in the usual manner. Rev. Thos. Hurlburt introduced a resolution, seconded by Rev. Wm. Griffin, to abolish the Children's College. The question evoked a short and good natured discussion, and the resolution was rejected by Conference.

Rev. John Borland read the Address to the Wesleyan Methodist Conference of Eastern British America. The following extract is perhaps as important a passage as occurs in it:—"The endowment of our Colleges now made a stern necessity by the faithlessness, we ought to say, of our public men, we are laboring to complete. In the face of formidable difficulties, arising from great and wide-spread commercial embarrassments, we are pressing onwards. We are thankful in saying more than half of the minimum sum of $100,000, we have put before us for that object, has been reached. A return of more prosperous times, which we think we are justified in regarding as at hand, encourages the hope that ere long the whole amount will be obtained, and our connection thereby saved from a dependence seldom other than uncertain or unsatisfactory. Our mission to the Red River has been so successful that we have felt constrained to listen to appeals from thence, and to send an additional laborer to strengthen the hands of our brethren in that quarter. A young brother, of glowing piety and zeal, volunteering for the work, is being sent; and yet more encouraging results are looked for."

Gov. Mr. Willoughby read the report of the Committee on Memorials. In reply to the petition from the Hamilton City Circuit, asking for the prolongation of a minister's stay on a station beyond the usual period of three years, they did not deem it necessary to recommend any change in the existing law.

Rev. Dr. Rice submitted a brief but very clear and comprehensive statement of the condition of the Wesleyan Female College, in Hamilton, showing the highly prosperous condition of that excellent institution. The lady pupils in attendance, representing almost all the Evangelical denominations, numbered 276 during the year—the largest attendance since the institution was opened. The cost per session for the ordinary branches including music, board, &c., was stated to average $140. The income now averages $20,000 a year; the Board of Managers have already paid in interest $14,000, and the net profits during the past year, after providing for wear and tear, as well as interest, is about $3,000.

The Conference Special Committee was appointed, and a resolution passed that the next meeting of the Conference should take place at Belleville on the first Wednesday in June, 1870.

Words for the Wise. To the Editor of the Mercury. Sir,—We should think that every law-abiding citizen is pleased that in the "appeal" case of Heffernan vs. Kelly, the decision of the Police Magistrate, in inflicting a fine for selling liquor after 7 o'clock on Saturday night, has been confirmed.

We believe a petition signed by a large number of influential ratepayers and inhabitants is to be presented to the Council, requesting them to strictly enforce the Saturday night and Sabbath provisions of the Tavern and Shop License Act. And we hope that the Council, and especially the License Committee, will see to it that the law shall not be violated by the liquor sellers, and our sons made drunkards, for the sake of gain.

Let the Inspector visit the inside as well as the outside of the places where liquors are sold, and he will soon see how the game is carried on.

If the License Committee cannot, or will not do their duty in this matter, let all those ratepayers who are desirous of the real prosperity of Guelph, organize themselves against the time of the next municipal elections, and put men in the Council who will do it. A RATEPAYER. Guelph, June 9th, 1869.

Book Notices. THE VIRGINIANS.—This is a tale of the last century by Thackeray. It is in the great author's best vein, and contains numerous illustrations by him which are as appropriate as well as comical. The book is highly interesting, and is for sale at Thornton's.

EUROPEAN VINEYARDS.—This is a work issued by the Harpers. The author is J. W. Flagg. It is a well written and useful treatise on vine culture; vine-disease and its cure; wine making and wine drinking, as affecting health and morals. As the cultivation of the vine is on the increase in Canada, this book containing, as it does, much necessary information on the subject, by one who has travelled over the principal European vineyards and gives his experience lucidly, will very likely find a rapid sale. Mr. Thornton has a number on hand.

It is reported that, at the close of the session, the Governor General will make a trip to the Provinces of Quebec, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick. His tour will occupy a period of three months.

BY TELEGRAPH. Despatches to the Evening Mercury. GREAT BRITAIN.

LONDON, June 9.—Despatches from Cork, received to-day, mention that one Johnson, a printer, was arrested in that city last evening on a charge of being connected with the Fenian organization. His particular offence consisted in circulating documents of a treasonable character among the soldiers of the British army.

LIVERPOOL, June 9.—Emigration to America is setting in very strongly this season. No less than 8,000 people left this port last week, in the different steamers and sailing vessels, for New York, Boston, Baltimore, &c.

LONDON, June 9.—The Archbishop of Canterbury has counselled the Bishops in the House of Lords not to oppose the Irish Church Bill. A banquet was given to-night to the deputation from Ireland, now in this city bearing petition against the Irish Church Bill. Many Tory Peers and clergymen of the Established Church were present. It is said that 25 Conservative Peers will declare to follow the policy of rejection announced by the majority at their meeting last Saturday and a defalcation of others is probable.

The Post-Office Department has completed the arrangements for the purchase of the lines of telegraph in the United Kingdom, in accordance with the Bill passed by Parliament last year.

LONDON, June 9.—Messieurs Thiers, Tirg, Jules Favre, and Garnier Pages, have been declared elected by ballot. There were tumultuous scenes at Montmartre, and arrests were made by the police. It is reported that some persons were wounded during the disturbances.

LONDON, June 9.—Election riots at Nantes were more serious than first despatches from Paris to-day represented. The troops were called out and were obliged to use the bayonets in dispersing the mob. Many of the rioters were wounded and a large number arrested. At last advice order had been restored and the city was quiet.

A telegram from Paris to-night, states that large and tumultuous crowds assembled again in the Montmartre district to-day, and that the troops were called out to suppress the disturbance.

FROM FRANCE. PARIS, June 8.—The result of the elections where the ballot was necessary to decide, is as follows: official candidates, 21; unofficial 1; independent, 1; opposition, 15; unknown 17. Among the opposition candidates elected is Henri, Alphonse, and Quiros, author and philosopher.

PARIS, June 9.—The result in fifteen additional elections by ballot have been declared. Seven official and eight opposition candidates were elected. Among the successful candidates are M. M. Picard, LaTour and Dumoulin. Last night at about 12 o'clock great crowds of people gathered in the Montmartre District, the policemen were obliged to interfere in dispersing them. Some citizens were injured. A number of arrests were also made. The people finally retired to their homes and quiet was restored. Scenes of disorder also occurred during the night in front of the Hotel De Ville. Many persons were injured, and large numbers arrested.

The total number of arrests made last night in consequence of these disturbances were 140.

PARIS, June 9.—The following is published as the official returns of the recent election by ballot: Government candidates, 80; Opposition 28; unknown 1. The general result throughout the country is now, therefore, pretty accurately known. The next Corps Legislatif will be composed as follows:—Government, 213; Independent, 43; Radical, 85.

Items by Telegraph to-day. Belligerent rights to the Cuban Insurgents have been granted by the Chilean Government.

The Episcopal Convention, Diocese of Pittsburg, by a vote of 48 to 9, refused to admit to the Union the All Saint's Ritualistic Church.

The inhabitants of a portion of the United States known as the Pacific Slope want to be enlightened on the Alabama question and other important political affairs. Mr. Sumner and the Ways and Means Committee are going over next week to do it.

Canada Presbyterian Church Synod. The Synod met at 11 o'clock and was constituted. After some formal business, applications were received from the Presbyteries of Cobourg, Toronto and Ontario, for leave to retain on their Rolls the names of Rev. James Douglas, Prof. Geo. Paxton Young, and John McLachlan, respectively. Synod granted leave asked.

Certain returns to remit to Presbyteries and Sessions sent down last year, were referred to committee.

The protest and appeal of Mr. William Silver against decision of Paris Presbytery was ordered to be referred to a special committee.

A memorial from some families of French Canadians at Muskegon, State of Michigan, was presented and referred to Standing Committee on the Kanakee Mission.

There was taken up an overture from the Presbytery of Hamilton on representation of Kirk sessions, setting forth that where two or more congregations have separate sessions, representation was accorded to each of such congregations, and praying that all may be brought into conformity to the general laws and practice of the Church. A discussion ensued, which was continued at the afternoon session.

Mazzini has published a manifesto addressed "To my enemies," in which he frankly accuses them of immorality, cowardice, and stupidity. They must be beaten to have accomplished all the evil of which he accuses them. His tribute to the republican virtue and simplicity of Switzerland is generous, when we consider what treatment he has recently experienced in that quarter. He thinks that a republic in Italy is inevitable, and leaves it to time and the errors of his enemies to accomplish the work.

SUICIDE.—John Talbot, ex-member of the Legislature for Halifax, shot himself on Wednesday morning with a pistol.—The cause is supposed to be insanity.

CHAPTER XXXI.
A NIGHT OF PERIL—THE CRUEL FATE OF MOSES
SEVI—UNLOOKED-FOR AID—A BANGUINARY
BATTLE—HOMEWARD BOUND.

By this time the dusky Indians had descended the ravine and clustered among the bushes at its base, ready to swoop forward on the brigands the moment their allies were prepared to lead the attack. Most ferocious savages they looked, with their bare limbs and painted faces, and the dreadful tomahawk grasped in their right hand. Critical as were the circumstances, Waty could not forbear gazing in astonishment at their singular appearance, so different from anything human he had ever seen, and William, by whose side he lay, heard him utter in amazement—

"Guid keep us! they are devils, and no men are."
"There was no time, however, for indulging in wonder or any other mental sensation.—Life and death hung upon the moment. The poor Jew was hurriedly wounded—his face and the upper part of his body being covered with blood—while at any moment a knife might be sent flying into his heart. To save him, therefore, as well as to overcome and put the robbers to flight, instant action was required.

By instinct, as it were, William was looked to as leader in the emergency, and in low tones he directed them to creep forward and regain their arms, telling Josh to acquaint the Indian Chief with their intention, and let him understand that, the moment these were secured, the attack would be made simultaneously, and with vehemence.

To Josh's communication Eagle Heart returned an expressive and approving "Ugh," and gave the Mexican to understand that he and his followers were ready.

William now looked anxiously at the wild and brutal scene that was going on below.—The robbers were still engaged in their devilish sport. Half drunk as most of them were, they were throwing their knives almost at random at the Jew's body, and though several had struck him no fatal wound had yet been given. But, tired apparently of throwing in turn, they were now whirling their blades in twos and threes, and the wilder spirits of them were shortening the distance, as if bent on despatching their victim at once. Their mad mirth and excitement had increased in proportion, and the captain and those beside him, who only witnessed the scene, were fully absorbed in its contemplation.

Making a signal to the rest to follow, William crawled noiselessly towards the weapons, fearful lest a stray eye might be upon them, and alarm given. But safe at once in the darkness in which they lay, and in the brutal work which was occupying the attention of the brigands, they accomplished their work safely, and each had his arms securely in his grasp. The moment Shagar was free, and had seized his knife and pistols, he was away like a tiger towards the stake to which Moses was bound. This action on his part made it imperative that the attack should not be delayed for a moment, and William, with a rapid wave of the hand, dashed forward with Robert at his side, and Jonathan and Josh close to their rear.

Then burst out with a startling yell the indistinguishable war-whoop of the Indians, paralyzing in a moment the brigands with consternation, so that, when their late prisoners and the redskins leapt in amongst them, they were standing like dumb statues, incapable alike of thought and motion.

The Captain was the first to understand the desperate state of matters, and recover his presence of mind.

"Hold, men, rally!" he shouted, leaping to his feet and drawing pistol and sabre from his belt, he and those surrounding him dashed into the melee.
Stupefied, bewildered, and taken utterly by surprise, the robbers were for some moments panic stricken, and rushed about in frantic confusion. Many of them were unarmed, and most had only the long Spanish knife with which they had been engaged in their hellish sport. Despite the command of their leader, they were for some moments terror-stricken, and then it was that the terrible, swift descending power of the Indians was felt, as they wielded their tomahawks with deadly effect. The darkness made only more bewildering by the blazing torches; and soon in their madness, rage and despair, the brigands were slashing with their knives in blind fury.

The thick of the fight was where the Captain and those who stuck closely to him encountered their late prisoners, and here the fray was terrible. The combatants selected their antagonists, and William Denman found himself especially attacked by the infuriated Captain.

The youth did not shrink from the combat. His soul was on fire. Knowing the terrible issue that depended, he fought with the courage of a lion.

Robert Douglas fought with unmatched valor. He fought for more than life—for life's dearest hope and sweetest experience—for Cloverlea and Helen.

Waty kept close to William and Robert through the whole bloody struggle. Like the others he knew no fear. One thought alone animated him—to vanquish the robbers and recover their property. But even in that time of danger and excitement he did not forget the purpose for which he was in that strange land, and he watched as well as fought. He watched the danger that came nigh the two youths, and more than once he intercepted blows that, if not mortal, would yet have inflicted serious wounds.

Eagle Heart and his Indians fought with savage ferocity—their yells also striking terror into the souls of the brigands, and their numbers making it soon apparent that the latter was doomed to be defeated. Their Captain was among the first to see this; and gathering around him those of his gang who manifested the nautical air we spoke of before, he addressed to them a few rapid words in a clear, commanding voice—

"Lads, we are overpowered!" he cried.—
"To fight is useless. Keep together, and let us make good our escape. Follow me."

TO BE CONTINUED.

THE LAST MASSACRE IN KANSAS.—The Leavenworth Times and Conservative has received the following particulars of the Indian massacre: The tongues and hearts were cut out of the dead bodies. The calves of their legs were slit down and tied under their shoes; pieces of telegraph wire stuck into the bodies; the ears cut off, and heads scalped. The Indians boiled the hearts of their victims for medicine. The Swedish settlers who were attacked all lived in one house.—Only those were killed who left the house and attempted to reach a place of great security. Those who remained in the house were not molested. This occurred in two instances. The calamity is mainly attributable to the lack of arms. Wherever a gun was fired the savages made no fight.

Incredible as it may appear that one compound should be adapted to the treatment of such a variety of diseases, it is nevertheless true that Dr. J. Briggs' Aillevator has proved of incalculable benefit in affording prompt relief in thousands of cases of painful and distressing attack. Its grand mission is to subdue pain and bring glad tidings to the suffering. The capacity of the Aillevator for doing good is unequalled, and no family should be without it, as it may be the means of saving life in those sudden visitations of disease that require prompt measures to prevent a fatal termination. It is conceded to be the most valuable medicine of its class on account of its adaptation to a wider range of diseases than any other preparation, and therefore more convenient as an every day remedy. Sold by druggists and country merchants. Dr. J. Briggs & Co., 208 Broadway, N. Y., and No. 6 King Street, West, Toronto. For sale by E. Harvey & Co., Guelph.

DR. BRIGGS' THROAT AND LUNG HEALER.

Is one of the safest and most reliable Remedies in existence for the speedy cure of Croup, Colds, Influenza, Bronchitis, Hoarseness, Whooping Cough, Croup, Sore Throat, Asthma, Diphtheria, Difficulty of Breathing, Phlegm, Pain in the Side and Breast, Quins, Bleeding of the Lungs, and all diseases of the Throat, Lungs and Chest, including that worst of diseases—Consumption. This remedy is also valuable in Liver Complaint, Inflammation of the Kidneys or Urinary Organs, and all Internal Inflammation. This really superior remedy should be in the possession of every family, as a speedy use of it in case of a recent cold will afford immediate relief, while cases of long standing and of apparently incurable character readily yield to its wonderful soothing and curative properties. Its universal adaptation to the wants of mankind make it an indispensable necessity in every household. The balsamic virtues of the Wild Evergreen as an agent in the cure of the numerous diseases of the Throat, Lungs and Chest, which always in our ever varying climate prevail in a greater or less degree are well known, and the power of relieving, healing and curing these diseases is enhanced when by scientific principles it is combined with other ingredients of equal value as healing agents. Until recently this terrible disease, Consumption, has been considered an affliction beyond the reach of medicine, or the healing art. But a new era in the management of Pulmonary Diseases seems to be dawning upon the scientific medical world, and since many distinguished physicians have acknowledged that CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED, few there are who attempt to controvert their opinion. Price $1.00.

Dr. J. Briggs' Unrivalled Pile Remedy.

Is mild, yet efficacious, and warranted to cure Internal, External, Bleeding and Itching Piles, in the most satisfactory manner, without the least unpleasant sensation. It is well known that thousands upon thousands have been afflicted with this disease, many of whom have sought relief, but have gone to their long homes without it. The number is innumerable who are dragging out a miserable existence at the present day, searching and trying one remedy after another, and to those who suffer, go and get a box of Briggs' Pile Remedy, and the trial will not be in vain.—The relief is immediate, and a cure soon effected. Price $1.00.

Dr. J. Briggs' Modern Curative

Is without doubt the purest, mildest and most efficacious remedy ever discovered for the immediate relief and rapid cure of Corns, Bunions, Ingrowing Nails, Chilblains, Frost-bitten Feet, and also all Flesh Wounds and Skin Diseases, such as Cuts, Bruises, Scalds and Frost Bites, Bites of Insects, Sore Lips, Sore Nose, Chapped Hands, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Ringworms, Lice, Sore Feet, Festers, Chafed Flesh, Sore Nipples, Caked Breasts, Cancerous Sores, White Swellings, Scald Head, Scurvy, Gunshot Wounds, &c. The proprietor in offering this compound to the public has the most undoubted confidence in its success, as it is composed of the most healing and pain-relieving substances known to mankind. The Curative, from the purity of its ingredients, will remain for years as sweet as when first made. Lard, suet, and other animal fat or oily substance have had their day. It is well known that the Sore Salves and Ointments in the market soon become rancid and unfit for use. This Modern Curative is the best household remedy in the world—simple and pleasant in its application, certain and effectual in its results. Price 25c. and $1.

Sold by E. HARVEY & CO., Guelph, and by all respectable druggists and country merchants everywhere. Dr. J. BRIGGS & CO., Proprietors, No. 6 King Street, corner of Yonge, Toronto, and 208 Broadway, N. Y.
