MAY NOT ENGAGE FOR SOME DAYS.

Doubt Expressed as to Whether the Rival Fleets Will Meet Before Three Weeks--Comment of St. Petersburg and Tokio.

NEW YORK, April 10.—A St. Petersburg despatch to the Times says that naval experts consider that Admiral Rojestvensky's fleet must forthwith proceed toward Vladivostok, as any stoppage, even within territorial waters, would greatly increase the danger of torpedo attacks, and that it is thought that Admiral Togo will probably not choose to give battle until near the coast of Japan, and a great engagement is therefore not likely to take place for three weeks.

theory that the whole squadron has reached the China Sea. The Novoe Vremya highly commends the admiral for having safely accomplished the difficult task of bringing the squadron through, declaring the die is now cast. The House Gazette manifests undisguised pleasure at the scare in British shipping circles, and the flurry in insurance rates, produced by the sudden appearance of the Russian squadron of Singapore, after the British had convinced themselves that the squadron would never go to the Far East.

A Foolish Boast. "Japan" says the House Gazette, "now stands to lose the mastery of the sea, together with the fruits of her successes on land." Other papers express doubt as to whether a sea fight is imminent, expressing the opinion that Rojestvensky is likely to wait Rear Admiral Nebogoroff, and that Admiral Togo will retire closer to his base before accepting a battle. Strict orders have been issued to the officers on duty at the admiralty not to make public any portion of the long report which arrived here yesterday from Singapore. Nothing is procurable in regard to the whereabouts of the battleship Kniaz Souvaroff and other Russian warships reported to be missing from the squadron which passed Singapore. It is said they may be following as a second division.

Tokio, April 10.—Vice Admiral Rojestvensky's second Pacific squadron has not been reported here since it passed Singapore. Its whereabouts and the plans of Vice Admiral Rojestvensky are subjects of the keenest general speculation.

It is generally assumed that Vice Admiral Rojestvensky does not desire an immediate battle, and that he will attempt to reach Vladivostok, where there are docks and shops, or some base. The latter course is deemed unsatisfactory on account of poor facilities and the danger of political complications. Many believe that the Russian naval commander has a second rendezvous in the Pacific ocean and that he will speedily quit the China Sea, and go eastward of the Philippines, if Vladivostok is his objective, the Pacific is considered to be more favorable for the accomplishment of his purpose, although it largely depends on Vice Admiral Rojestvensky himself. The Japanese newspapers and public express relief and pleasure over the approach of the Russian second Pacific squadron, as well as confidence in the ability of Admiral Togo's fleet to vanquish it.

Sighted at Anchor. Singapore, Straits Settlements, April 10.—The latest information in regard to the Russian squadron, commanded by Rear Admiral Enquistok, which passed here Saturday afternoon, was brought here today by the British steamer Gregory Apar. The latter yesterday sighted the Russians twenty miles northeast of Manki, one of the Anambas group, about 150 miles northeast of Singapore. The Russians were at anchor when the Gregory Apar passed.

Information has also been received here to the effect that four warships, apparently Japanese, were off Cape St. James, near Saigon, April 9.

St. Petersburg Comment. St. Petersburg, April 10.—The outburst of enthusiasm aroused in military and naval circles at the prospect of a sea fight, which may change the whole complexion of the war, finds no echo in the liberal press, which views with something akin to alarm, even the remote possibility of a turn of fortune, which would strengthen the government at home. The Chauvinistic organs, however, are filled with long articles discussing Admiral Rojestvensky's chances, but they are all based on the

A Cordial Welcome. St. Petersburg, April 10.—12.40 a. m.—V. L. Meyer, the new American Ambassador to St. Petersburg made his first call yesterday on Foreign Minister Lamsdorf, who extended an unusually cordial greeting. Emperor Nicholas probably will receive Mr. Meyer on Wednesday.

"Peace With Honor." St. Petersburg, April 10.—12.40 a. m.—It is reported that between Captain Clado, (formerly Rojestvensky's chief tactician), and Captain Ziliotti, aide to Admiral Togo, head of the Russian Admiralty Department, has failed to take place, Captain Clado having satisfied himself by investigation that he had wrongly accused Captain Ziliotti of responsibility for the publication of a letter from Vice Admiral Rojestvensky severely reflecting upon him.

A Quiet Sunday. Warsaw, April 9.—11 p. m.—The AMSTERDAM, Holland, April 10.—A despatch to the Handelsblad from Batavia, island of Java, says that a Russian squadron is near Muntok and that it is expected to arrive at Batavia today.

MINISTERS IN SESSION.

Methodist, Baptists and Presbyterians Held Their Weekly Meetings This Morning--The Work of the Week.

At the Methodist ministers' meeting this morning, Rev. C. W. Hamilton presided. Rev. T. Marshall conducted the devotional exercises. There was a good attendance and routine business was transacted. Interesting addresses were delivered by Rev. Mr. Shaver, who is conducting evangelistic services at the Portland Methodist church, and Rev. A. J. Hickey Bell, who is conducting meetings in Carleton. They spoke encouragingly of the work and expressed their pleasure at being present at the meeting this morning. Rev. Dr. Wilson was at the meeting after an absence of two or three weeks' illness. Benediction was pronounced by Rev. Mr. Chawer.

The Baptists. The Baptist ministers met in weekly session this morning. There was a good attendance and reports were read from the different churches.

A discussion on young people's work was led by Rev. Mr. Colpitts. Reports from the Tabernacle and Brunswick St. churches showed that the meetings were largely attended and was expected much good would be done.

The Presbyterians. The regular meeting of the St. John Presbyterian ministers was held in St. Andrew's church this morning. There were present, Revs. J. W. A. Nicholson, chairman, Dr. Potheringham, A. M. Hill, H. R. Read, A. A. Graham, A. H. Foster, W. S. Pritchard, and D. Lang. It was agreed that the Presbyterian ministers would lead Sunday services in the reformatory, for the next three months. Rev. Mr. Nicholson will officiate next Sunday, and Rev. A. A. Graham the Sunday following. It was agreed to present an address to Rev. J. W. A. Nicholson, before he leaves the city.

HUMORS OF HISTORY--8.

Hadrian's Walls. A.D. 120.

"Irritated and inconvenienced by the repeated ravages of the Picts and Scots, the Roman general Hadrian built his celebrated wall from the Solway to the North Sea, as a means for checking their forages."

THE CITY'S CLAIM SET FORTH.

Ald. Macrae Replies to the Contention of H. H. McLean, Relative to the Question of Street Railway Exemption, and Declares that the Company Claims More Than the Legislature Intended to Grant.

In a letter to the Sun this morning, H. H. McLean, stating "the street railway company's objections to the bill set up by the city claimed— (1) That it would take away from the company a valuable asset without compensation. (2) It would put on the company the Kniaz Souvaroff and that the division which passed Singapore Saturday, is in command of a rear admiral. (3) The legislature is asked to cancel a bargain and contract, on strength of which the present street railway was built. Such a course would be looked upon by investors and financial men, as a repudiation and would damage the credit of the city and province, and enterprises which may have to be financed in the future. Ald. Macrae said to the Times that the contention of the city is that the legislature in 1892 did not intend to give any exemption from taxation. The words are: "company shall only be exempted from taxation in respect of its property used exclusively for railway purposes." "A decision of the supreme court of New Brunswick, had decided that the property of the street railway was exempt from taxes under the act of 1870, relieving the European and north American Railway Company and the property used in the running of trains, of all railway companies. "The gist of the decision was that street railways was included in the word "railway" in this act, and the act of 1892, was intended to limit what was believed to be the existing exemption and nothing was further from the minds of the members of the house, than that they were creating an exemption. Recent decisions of the higher courts would make it appear that the decision of the supreme court of New Brunswick would not be held to be good law today. "In short the legislation of 1892 professed to be for the protection of the city against the street railway, and not for the benefit of the street railway. "The act of 1897 provided that the company should make, establish, alter and amend, with the sanction of the common council, rules and regulations for the good government of the railway and the cars and trains running thereon. "This section has been altogether ignored by the company and it is a question whether failure to comply with the statutory requirements in this and other respects would not give the legislature the repeal of their franchise. "There has been no contract and agreement entered into by the city for the use of its streets by the company. "We contend that the vested rights of the citizens have been interfered with and appeal to the legislature for protection."

THE RIVER RISING.

Ice at Fredericton Rapidly Going to Pieces.

Fredericton, April 10.—(Special)—Harold McLennan, son of Wm. McLennan, janitor of the York Street school, has been appointed to a clerkship in the Fredericton Post Office, and went on duty this morning. Thomas Morris dispatched a crew of forty men to Lepreau, River this morning, to work on Dunn and Gregory's Drive. The ice here has moved since yesterday afternoon, but is going to pieces rapidly. The river is said to be clear from the railway bridge to Gagetown. It has been raining some here, this morning, and the river is rising. Lady Tilley returned this morning from Ottawa. Lady Tilley has been spending the past four months in the upper provinces, the greater part of the time in Toronto.

Revolutionists Active.

New York, April 10.—A St. Petersburg despatch to the Herald says—"One of the women recently arrested on suspicion of being connected with the revolutionary movement, formerly inhabited a villa at the (Baskov) Zelo, and there lived a luxurious life, keeping several horses and carriages. A quantity of explosives were found in her house. Among them was a bomb which, according to documents discovered by the police, was to be thrown at the Dowager Empress when she went to the hospital, which she constantly visits. This bomb was to be thrown from a carriage. A resident of Warsaw, who is visiting St. Petersburg, says vigorous preparations are being made in that city for the revolution." (Continued on page 4.)

VILLAINY EXPOSED.

For some time past suspicious looking characters have been seen lurking around the street railway offices at the foot of Union street. They wore masks, and were only abroad at night. The street railway officials had their suspicions aroused, and have been on their guard. They also notified the police, and asked that an additional "cor" be placed on that beat. Chief Clark assured them that he would do the best he could, but on careful consideration of the number of beats and the number of men available for patrol duty, he found he could not spare more than half of an additional officer for the beat, in question. Last evening three men were seen slouching along Smythe street, and lurking in dark places, and they were pounced upon by two street railway watchmen and a policeman and a half until tomorrow. It is expected that an example will be made of these miscreants, who keep law-abiding citizens in a state of terror. It is said that the directors of the street railway company have not enjoyed a night's rest for weeks past, being in constant dread that during the darkness the railway plant would be seized by masked aldermen and thrown into the harbor. It is even hinted that leading citizens are being taken out and thrown into a swamp. The directors of the street railway company are public benefactors, and if the city is saved from the ravages of unscrupulous aldermen and other persons it will be entirely due to the fact that there are in it a few noble and philanthropic street railway souls, who cheerfully lay aside their masks and bonds and rush to its defence.

TO ENCOURAGE N. B. ORCHARDS.

Hon. Mr. Farris Outlines Government Policy and Secretary Peters Makes a Statement--Hon. Mr. Labilloy Urges Progressive Wheat Policy.

Fredericton, N. B., April 10.—The Agricultural Committee met this morning and discussed apple growing pretty thoroughly. The matter was introduced by Hon. Mr. Farris, who spoke of the illustration orchards. These orchards comprise two acres in some instances in others two orchards of one acre each are planted in a county. Last year orchards were started at Bouchette, Sussex, Jubilee, St. John, Waverly, Florenceville, New Jerusalem and Upper Sheffield. This spring it is the intention to set out orchards at Clair Station, St. Leonard's and New Brunswick, Queensbury, North Yetaquoche, Chatham, Doaktown, Golden Grove and Chipman. Varieties of apples that have proven successful in this province are grown in the early years of the orchard, and while the apple trees are maturing plum trees are grown on the same ground. It is intended also to plant half an acre as an orchard in connection with the consolidated school at Kingston. Secretary Peters gave information in detail as to the methods pursued in setting out the orchards and caring for them afterwards. The ownership of the ground enters into an agreement with the department for ten years and at the end of that time the orchard becomes his property, and he had whatever fruit is raised meantime. Hon. Mr. Farris also read a letter from John Doherty, proprietor of the Campbellton grist mill, in which Mr. Doherty stated that the statements made about his not catering to the public and not serving his customers right were not true. Hon. Mr. Labilloy said that the question of wheat growing was an important one on the north shore, where little is done in the dairying line. He moved a resolution that during recess the department of agriculture take into consideration some system of furnishing seed wheat to the farmers through the agricultural societies, which resolution was unanimously adopted. The Chief Commissioner also thought it would be a wise thing if the department would start an illustration orchard on Heron Island, in Gloucester county.

IN SECRET SESSION

The City Council Met This Morning to Consider Water Extension Matters.

A special and private meeting of the common council was held this morning. There were present Ald. Macrae, Christie, Holder, Lewis, McGoldrick and Tilly. There were also present Mr. Barbour, Recorder Skinner and others. A Times reporter casually dropped in, but was informed that the meeting was private and he retired. The meeting commenced from 11 o'clock until 1.15 when they dispersed. A worship was asked by The Times as to what business was transacted. He replied that the meeting was exclusively in connection with the waterworks extension. He said it was strictly private and he could not give any information as to anything that had transpired. It is, however, understood that the council was called together to consider the question of a possible settlement with regard to certain claims on the Mispec.

A LIQUOR CASE.

Leo Smith Reported by Inspector Jones For Selling Without a License.

Information has been laid against Leo Smith of Duke street, for selling liquor without a license. Inspector J. B. Jones visited Smith's premises about a week ago, and found sufficient evidence to arouse his suspicions. Smith and several others were playing cards, and had "something" in a bottle. The inspector warned him that the next time he visited the place he would have a policeman with him. Smith failed to take the hint, and on Saturday night, Police Sergeant Cuples paid a visit to the premises and seized a gallon jug half full of whiskey, and a barrel half full of the same liquor. The case comes up tomorrow morning. Smith is a South African veteran, having lost both legs during the Boer war, and moves about with the aid of artificial limbs and crutches. On returning to St. John he had about $1,000 in cash, and bought out the Union bar, opposite the E. S. Co's pier. He was not there very long before he was obliged to shift his quarters to Water street, where he kept a eating house and swiftpapers' lodge. From there he removed to his present quarters on Duke street, opposite the American hotel.

ST. JOHN BILLS AGAIN.

Civic Election Bill Recommended by Municipalities Committee--Telephone Bill Stands Over--Other Bills.

Fredericton, April 10.—(Special)—The committee on Municipalities met this morning and dealt with a number of bills. The bill to amend the act relating to the Town of Sackville was agreed to with amendments. The second, third and fourth sections of the bill were struck out. The named section was intended to exempt the bonus of the town from taxation in that town. This was held to be contrary to the policy of the legislature with respect to similar bills. With respect to the bill to authorize the City of Fredericton to issue debentures to pay off the floating debt, Mr. Barry appeared representing a number of taxpayers for the purpose of showing that such legislation was not necessary, there being enough uncollected taxes and rentals to pay off this debt. The bill was not recommended. The bill in amendment of the act relating to the Water Supply of Fredericton was recommended. The bill relating to civic elections in St. John was recommended. It provides for a plebiscite in 1906 to decide whether the mayor and aldermen shall have a one or two years' term. The bill to empower the city of St. John to establish and maintain telephone lines, stands over until tomorrow. The bill relating to the assessment commissioners, giving them authority to inquire into property was recommended, additional schedules be ing provided to enable them to inquire into personal property, and incomes, as well as real estates. The bill to remove doubts with regard to the extent of St. John harbor stands over, there being no plan to show exactly what was asked. Both the premier and attorney general were favorable to giving St. John control of Courthouse Bay, but it was thought that this bill should emanate from the government. The St. John Street Railway Company bill also stands over. Mr. Tweedie thought if the street railway was not being properly run there ought to be some redress and perhaps the best way to ascertain the facts would be to appoint a commission. Hon. Mr. Pugsley would not favor a commission unless it was agreed to by both the city and the company. Hon. Mr. Tweedie vented the attacks which were being made by certain St. John newspapers on the members of the house with regard to the St. John bills. When the city council came up to ask for this bill they ought to have been in a position to supply full information as to the obligations that would be likely to be imposed on the Street Railway Company by making them responsible for the repair of the streets, but they had not been able to tell even the mileage of the street railway or the width of the streets. He also thought that the St. John members had not been treated fairly in not being consulted with respect to these bills.

The Crimson Slipper.

BY DORA LANGLOIS, Author of "A Wife From the Blue," "The Red-headed Woman," "The Secretary's Daughter," "Victoria's Dream," etc.

(Continued.) Having now no smoke I passed without asking him for a light. Quarter of a mile further on I came to another cross-track, and there, like a sentinel also, stood another mackintosh individual. "They're waiting for each other," I said to myself, "and one of them has mistaken the rendezvous. If both obstinately stick to their own opinion they'll be some time before they meet."

and painful, and I came to the conclusion that I had better cease such wrangling, as was possible and give them time to think of the advisability of turning me before I smothered. The discretion was almost immediately rewarded. The man on my back who was compressing my chest so painfully got up, someone appeared to come to his assistance, and my hands were tied behind me. Then as I showed myself amenable to reason the other brute got off my head, and I was allowed a little fresh air while they tied my legs.

I had lost a certain amount of interest in the proceedings, but not because I was bored. I enjoyed the change of position. Then the elder of this mackintosh crew of brigands whom I now recognized as the man who had spent such a long time at the inn—leaned over me and began my mouth with the sand out of consideration did not even stop there. He had some scent upon him, it seemed, and he poured it on to his own handkerchief and held it to my nostrils.

I thought him a very obliging highwayman, experienced a sense of irresponsibility very pleasing after my late exertions and so went placidly off to sleep with my head on my late assailant's knee. CHAPTER V. I woke up again under the impression that Minting was snoring very loudly, and that his conduct in the matter did not show a due respect for me.

A LESSON LEARNED.

The outspoken remark of Mr. James Lowell, M. P. P., in the house on Friday evening, has aroused a great deal of comment. Mr. Lowell was one of very few men who could have carried St. John county for the government in the by-election. He is not a frequent speaker, but he is respected by political opponents as well as by his party friends. He does not speak unless he feels that there is something which should be said. Hence his expression of amazement at the sudden change of opinion in the house, in regard to the St. John street railway bill, has made a deep impression on the public mind, which the compliments paid to him by members of the government do not affect in the least. The fact of the matter is that the house went too far and was too eager in its zeal for the welfare of a corporation, as opposed to the rights and the interests of the people whom the legislature is assumed in theory to represent. The triumph of the company is, however, but temporary. The citizens now realize more clearly than ever the magnitude of the task before them, and the magnitude of the obstacles to be overcome.

The knowledge is useful. The next time their case is presented it will be more strongly fortified by facts and arguments, in the face of which even the potent influence of the lobby will not be so effective as it was last week.

UNFOUNDED PREJUDICE.

The legislature has still some St. John matters to deal with, and there will be a keen anxiety to learn whether they are to receive sympathetic consideration. A St. John member states that he is unable to understand the apparent hostility to St. John bills in the St. John city delegation. "What? You fellows here again? Do you think we have nothing else to do but listen to your demands?" These queries appear to express the feeling of the house. Why should it be so? St. John contains about one-sixth of the population of the province. It contributes largely through indirect taxation to the public revenues. Its prosperity is of importance to the whole province. Surely it is not too much to ask that a few days or even a week—about one-sixth of the ordinary session—should be given up to consideration in a sympathetic way of the legislative needs of this city. There is no real antagonism between St. John and other parts of the province. It may be that the city sometimes asks more than should be granted. That is characteristic of most communities. But it may at least be fairly asked that any proposition, from any section, be considered without prejudice, and sent to its merits. St. John certainly has reason to feel that there is a degree of prejudice in the house, and that there is a disposition to regard with undue suspicion any bill emanating from this quarter. It is the policy of any politician to play country against city or city against country, he is pursuing a narrow and short-sighted policy, which injures instead of benefiting the province as a whole. The parish politician is of no great value—even in a parish.

THE STREET RAILWAY.

In a letter to this morning's Sun, Mr. H. H. McLean argues that the city has been trying to deprive the street railway company of its rights. Manager Earle quotes figures to prove that St. John is the poorest street railway town in the country, and that the company's net earnings are small while its expenditures are large. Mr. R. B. Emerson writes to assert that no undue influence was brought to bear at Fredericton, and that the company's vested rights had been attacked by the city. Everybody would expect these three gentlemen to write precisely as they have done. It is needless to say that the contention of the company with regard to exemptions is disputed by the city, and that instead of attempting to rob the company the council simply sought to secure what it regards as its rights. As to the evidence adduced to prove that the street railway does not pay, it will be probably remembered that the company holding the railway franchises also holds franchises to supply electricity and gas to the city. The same plant that generates electricity for railway purposes also generates the current for street lighting and, as every one knows, the company nets large dividends from its light franchise. Should not some account be taken of this?

The figures submitted by Manager Earle shows the gross earnings of the railway to be $106,890.88 and the net earnings $29,268.29. Probably many of the dollars represented by the difference in these two sums have been devoted to improving the company's plant. Every dollar so spent would be an investment that would return a good dividend in time. The St. John Railway Company is not a philanthropic institution. Its directors are shrewd men who are not in business for their health, and if they did not see an opportunity of a large return they would not make the investment. With regard to the suggestion that no undue influences are used by the company to promote its interests it may be asked in what class the company would place disreputable and wrong and railway passes. Again it may be said that the directors of the railway company are not philanthropists, neither are they in business for their health.

THE COMING BATTLE.

The universal opinion is that Admiral Togo will make rather short of the Russian fleet. The latter is said to have heavier guns, but the vessels are slower and unable to manoeuvre as quickly as those of the Japanese. The personnel of the Japanese officers and crews is regarded as superior to the Russian, and they are flushed with victory and confident of further success. Much depends on this fight. The destruction of the Russian fleet would make the case of Russia hopeless on the sea, and enormously increase the power and prestige of Japan. The despatches today indicate that the battle is not likely to occur two or three weeks, or until the Russian fleet is nearer to the coasts of Japan.

Ontario prohibitionists do not propose to let the Whitney government get away from the question nearest their hearts. A Toronto despatch says: "In view of the government's announcement of changes in the Ontario Liquor Act this session, the officers of the Temperance Legislation League state that the petition movement for a new prohibition referendum will be spread over the next twelve months for presentation early in the session of 1906. The preparations for the circulation of the petitions are going steadily forward."

It is good news for lumbermen who point to the American market that this is to be a great building year. The Construction News of Chicago says it is doubtful if building has ever shown the activity that now prevails all over the country. During March, permits were taken out in 28 of the principal cities of the country, for construction of 12,505 buildings, involving a total cost of $55,160,744, an increase of 68 percent over the corresponding month a year ago.

It is stated that at the next session of the Quebec legislature Montreal parties interested in theatres and other means of entertainment will ask for the enactment of a general Sunday law, wide enough in its scope to legalize the opening of all theatres, parks, concert halls, beer gardens and similar resorts for public entertainment on that day.

It is stated that the chief difficulty in the way of establishing a rural free mail delivery service in Canada is that the rural districts, except in comparatively few instances, are so sparsely populated that the returns from the service would not be proportionate to the expense of maintenance.

Premier Whitney of Ontario announced last week that the government would give a grant to the Muskoka Free Hospital for Consumptives. When will New Brunswick have such a hospital?

LOCAL ART EXHIBITION.

There Will Be Many Fine Pictures on View at Tomorrow's Function.

The eighth annual sketch exhibition of the St. John branch of the Woman's Art Association will be held this week in their rooms in the McLaughlin Carriage Co's building on Union street. Invitations have been issued for a "private view" tonight, and tomorrow the exhibition will be open to the general public. A visit to the rooms this morning showed that there will be an excellent collection of pictures, both local and foreign, and although all the sketches have not yet been hung there was a goodly array on the walls. One of the features of this year's exhibition is a collection of paintings which includes sketches by upper Canadian artists and a number of very fine pictures by Dutch artists. Among the foreign artists who contribute are—Mrs. Dignan, president of the Toronto association, who exhibits her beautiful sea scene entitled, "Boat North Sea." Mrs. Emily Elliott, Toronto, has eleven in all, covering a variety of subjects, among which is one titled, "Motherhood." Mr. W. H. C. Tully, Miss Rose A. Bata has three pictures in all, one showing a bunch of Petunias in very soft and of just the correct tone, the other two are landscapes. Among the others are works by Mrs. A. Juliet Burdon, Cleveland; Miss Edmonstone, Edinburgh; Mrs. J. Van Heemskerck, Van Beest, Holland; entitled—Vroum, Aid Van, and Interior; Mrs. J. Van Heemskerck, Van Beest, Holland; Van Hogendorp and Lady Wuytlers have floral sketches which are excellent. There are many pictures by local artists which are remarkably good, among them being, three sketches by Miss Marion Holly, entitled, "The Birch," "at Westfield and Wooded Land; two miniatures by Mrs. Silas Alward; and a number of sketches by Mrs. H. C. Tully, among them being "A dropped stitch," "Chums," "The Vigil" and others, all showing great care and excellent workmanship. A winter scene by Lady Tiley, the honorary president, is particularly fine. This view was painted during the past winter. Miss Woodburn has a number of landscapes including one of Grand Bay, and two of Jemseg; Mrs. C. O. McGovern has a very fine collection in which many different subjects are treated, one entitled "A Country Road" is very fine, while some of the Canadian fish houses and scenes are true to life. Taken in all the exhibition is a most creditable one and no one should miss seeing these works of art.

REPAIRS TO THE PARISIAN.

Halifax, N. S., April 10.—(Special)—Allan Stanger Parisian who was into dry dock on Saturday was great centre of attraction yesterday, hundreds going down to see the extent of the injuries which she sustained in the collision. The hatch was stripped on Saturday and showed an immense hole about twenty feet in one place. It has been decided to make permanent repairs here and the Dry Dock company have the contract. Work was begun this morning. Besides new plates several pieces of framing will need to be put in.

TROUBLE EXPECTED.

Montreal, April 10.—(Special)—There are rumors another strike on the Montreal Street Railway. The chief cause of trouble is the spare men who claim that the company is running such a slow service that they get practically no work. Their claim is that the service is only every five minutes instead of every two and a half minutes as required by the franchise. Complaint is also made against the low rate of wages, 17 cents per hour. The men demand the same rate of pay as is in vogue in Toronto, which is about 20 cents per hour higher. The payment of 50 cents per month into the benefit fund is also a grievance, as men claim they do not stay with the company long enough to get any benefit from this fund.

High Hopes of Victory.

St. Petersburg, April 10.—There is reason to believe that Vice-Admiral Rojevskiy's entrance into the China sea has been followed by orders for the cruisers Gromoboi, Rossia and Bagatyr, which have been ready for some time at Vladivostok, to put to sea. Whether it is the intention to send them south immediately or to hold them in the vicinity of Vladivostok, is not known. Their appearance outside the roadstead of Vladivostok would constitute a potential threat against Admiral Togo's rear, which will compel the retention in or despatch of the Vice-Admiral Nekhopoff with his division of the squadron, who could arrive there in about three weeks. Some naval officers express the opinion that Rojevskiy, having now safely navigated the Straits, instead of sailing north to meet the Japanese, can afford to calmly await the battle time at Vladivostok, which has left its former anchorage under secret orders and is now steaming north.

A Governor Fired On.

St. Petersburg, April 10.—Nine shots were fired at the governor of the prison at Liban last night as he was returning to his residence outside the town. The governor was not hurt. His assailants escaped.

Officers Disgraced.

Gunshu Pass, April 10.—General Linovitch has pilloried a number of officers who displayed cowardice during the battle of Mukden, publicly disgracing them by posting their names at all the division headquarters while some of them ignominiously drummed out of camp.

Blow Up Czar's Picture.

St. Petersburg, April 10.—During morning prayers today at the high school of Rumly, Governor Nicholas was destroyed by an explosive which was thrown by a pupil. Four pupils were injured.

A LONGFELLOW EVENING.

The entertainment by St. Andrew's church guild in the vestry of the church this evening, promises to be a great success. It will be a "Longfellow evening", and the entertainment will be in charge of Mrs. E. A. Smith, who will give an outline of the life and principal works of the great poet, which will be interspersed with selections from his best poems as follows:—Instrumental duet, Ruy Blas from Mendelssohn, Mrs. Barnes and Mrs. Scovill. THE EVENING TIMES, ST. JOHN, N. B., MONDAY, APRIL 10, 1905.

BISHOP VINCENT Says That the Religious Year Contains 365 Days.

Takes a Business Like View of Religion and Is Not in Favor of Emotionalism.

(Toronto News.) "Generally speaking, I don't believe in spasmodic revival movements in religious rhapsody. My philosophy is 365 days of Christianity in one year, with one day more in leap year. But, of course, there's no harm in Lent."

Bishop Vincent looked his philosophy as he sat in an easy chair at Mr. C. D. Manser's residence this morning, and talked of his work to a News reporter. He is no stranger in Toronto. Church people generally will remember him as the pioneer of the Chautauque movement in 1874. He was born in Alabama, and for generations, far back into the slavery days, his people have been Americans. For the past forty years he has been living in Europe, retired from the episcopacy, but still identified with active Church work. At present he lives in Indianapolis. For the next ten days he will conduct a series of "Studies in Church Life" at the Metropolitan Church, meetings which will doubtless be attended by many from other churches.

A Cautious Man. There is neither pomp nor circumstance about the Bishop, as he talks of his work. Less off-hand than Mr. Moody, who he knew in '57 in Chicago, who the latter sold books. He is quite as much characterized by straight common-sense. Some of these travelling revivalists have a fashion of playing Hamlet when they meet one in a particularly intense with flashes of unusual gaiety. Bishop Vincent is matter-of-fact, normal, and easy-mannered; wants himself clearly understood, but is not handing out deep mysteries. "Are you a church member yourself?" he asked. "For I really have a sort of fear of reporters—they get things twisted if they don't understand. No, I shouldn't call these meetings revivals. They are studies in Church life. The keynote is decision. We want people to decide for themselves, without great emotional display, without rhapsody, quietly, as a matter of business, yet not without feeling. I always have a suspicion of mere rhapsody. There is always a reaction. People have been worked into a state of tremendous excitement by rhapsodical sermons, rapturous prayers and delicious music. They have been saved as by a whirlwind, and have utterance to their feelings in extravagant language, which they afterwards forget in the cold reaction of everyday life. He evidently alluded to backsliders. "For instance," he said, "John Smith got religion by the shouting method. All the neighbors said, 'Oh, yes, John's joined again. He's joined five times now. He's always jolly.' John Jones came to a quiet decision on a business basis, determined to live a straight Christian life because it was best both here and hereafter. The neighbors said of him, 'Well, Jones is all right. He never joined before, but he'll stick to it, and be a great help to the church!'"

The Broad Outlook. "Then you do not make a glaring distinction between saints and sinners?" "No, the sinners are sometimes in the church, and when they are outside the church, while they may not be saints, are so conscientious, that they will not come into the church. All men are Christians in a sense, for every man has religious emotions, and a conscience. The Bishop proceeded to give his views on church work. "Not merely salvation, but the care of people," he said. "The Church touches society at all points. It must take note of facts and relations, and keep men living the Christian life 365 days in the year." "Do you not intend to have demonstrations then?" "No—personal decisions on a business basis are found infinitely more." "But Moody had considerable emotion in his work. Do you believe in his method?" "Yes, but Moody was a man of tremendous reality. Decision was his keynote."

Believes in Good Music. "What sort of music do you employ?" "Good standard hymns, the best in music, the best in thought, and the highest possible dignity in character." "What do you think of some of the evangelistic music, that has been so vogue?" "Superficial—sometimes irrelevant," he said. "Too much jingle, and not enough sincerity. More rhythm is not salvation." "Do you believe in the sub-conscious element—silence in a service, soft music, etc.?" "To some extent, yes; but that, like the shouting revival, is apt to be succeeded by a reaction." "What of the Welsh revival?" "It's Welsh," he said. "Such a movement never could happen here." "Canadians are less responsive than Americans, are they not?" "Yes, but English people still less so." "But how would you conduct a service in case you felt sure there was a large proportion of abandoned characters who need straight salvation, and to whom an emotional appeal is necessary?" "I should advise the service to be held in a hall."

needs. Mr. Adams, who is with me, has made a special study of such work. "Does he sing?" "Not that I know of. No, we don't carry any music, and we are not selling hymn books." "Do you anticipate a general revival in America?" "Concerning the future, I rarely make predictions. The present is more important. The Church, I believe, will be quickened and vitalized. A day at a time and 365 days in the year, and straight decision clear through—that is my working principle. From which it seems evident that Bishop Vincent does not intend to inflict any sensations on the public."

Feared Winter's Storm and Cold But New Strength, Vigor and Power to Resist Disease Came Through PSYCHINE "Pronounced St-Keen" Mr. George Pratt, a farmer, Clark's Cove, Ont., writes a recent letter regarding the recovery of his son, from threatening Lung Trouble, during the winter of 1902. Mr. Pratt spent many anxious months caring for his son, who was then in a very precarious condition. "PSYCHINE is indeed a wonderful tonic. Two years ago my son Wilbert was run down, thin and emaciated. We thought he was going into decline, and we feared for his safety during the winter months. Oh, how I thought he'd never see twenty-one. He suffered much with Coughs and Colds and Pains in the Lungs. Fortunately I procured PSYCHINE for him, and with the usual good results. Today my son works hard with us on the farm, and if anything is more able for it than any of us."

A WOMAN'S ORDEAL DREADS DOCTOR'S QUESTIONS

Thousands Write to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., and Receive Valuable Advice Absolutely Confidential and Free.

There can be no more terrible ordeal to a delicate, sensitive, refined woman than to be obliged to answer certain questions in regard to her private life, even when those questions are asked by her family physician, and many of the doctors called physicians, who caused great pain, I kept growing weaker and weaker. I tried several medicines which they claimed would cure my trouble, but nothing was of the least benefit until I used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and this helped me so rapidly that I could hardly believe my good fortune. I would gladly have paid $500 to have been restored to health, and I am most grateful for my splendid, robust health, and the fact that I can now do my own work, and give to my friends all the praise I can give it."

Mountains of proof establish the fact that no medicine in the world equals Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for restoring women's health.

CANADIAN ANNALS. A. P. Cockburn, of Toronto, who represented Muskoka in the House of Commons for twenty years, commencing with Confederation, and afterwards sat for several terms in the Ontario assembly, is engaged in the publication of a historical work on which he has been working for a number of years, entitled "The Annals of Canadian Administrations." It begins with the time of the Marquis de Montcalm, and ends with the Earl of Minto. Mr. Cockburn has gone to great pains in the collection of his material, so as to give a thoroughly reliable history, in one volume, of the rise of Canadian political institutions and the development of the country.

SCHOOL PROBLEM Ralph Connor Says the Desire in the West Is to Avert Racial Strife.

The feature of the Dominion Conference of Young Men's Christian Associations in Montreal, was Thursday night's session, which was in the nature of a banquet in King's Hall. The chief speakers of the evening were the Rev. C. W. Gordon (Ralph Connor), of Winnipeg, and Mr. John R. Nott, of New York. Mr. Gordon in speaking on "The Future of Canada" made important reference to the school question. He approached the subject, he said, with exceeding care. Of the institutions which make for the development of our country's life there was nothing so close to the real development of a nation as the schools in which the children are educated, and he wondered when the school question is touched by the politicians all over the country, from ocean to ocean, more minds were alert, and men's eyes were open, and men wanted to know what was going to happen to the schools. He stated at once that he did not like separate schools, and their present system in the West was not ideal. He hated their Roman Catholic fellow-citizens could see that they were laying upon their own children a very serious handicap when they tried to press them into separate schools. It was for them to give their children the larger opportunities afforded by the adequate and well-equipped public schools. But let them never allow any difference of opinion to break that thing which was vital after all to all national progress—the spirit of unity and harmony. As Christian men they ought to set that high in their ideals. No matter if politicians or if the hierarchy of Quebec, with mistaken zeal and method, desired to put in the constitution of the new provinces a clause which would make separate schools, as they believed for all time, part of their educational system in the West, though that might be true, it was not for them to cherish feelings of wrath, but they should earnestly and steadfastly resist anything that would interfere with the best interests of Canada.

He offered for eight months with what the doctors called phthisis, which caused great weakness over my system, with faint dizziness, I kept growing weaker and weaker. I tried several medicines which they claimed would cure my trouble, but nothing was of the least benefit until I used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and this helped me so rapidly that I could hardly believe my good fortune. I would gladly have paid $500 to have been restored to health, and I am most grateful for my splendid, robust health, and the fact that I can now do my own work, and give to my friends all the praise I can give it."

Why was it, if this was so serious a question in the West, so little talk had been made about it? But at that time there had been comparatively little talk made and little agitation carried on, he wanted to ascertain that it was not because there was not a very deep feeling and a profound conviction on the part of the hearts and minds of the men of the West. But they were afraid of stirring up that which would injure the national life—racial strife. He most earnestly deprecated and regretted that those responsible for this element of discord were those who were trying to place in the constitution of the new provinces a clause which, if it was there by right, it was not necessary to put there; and if it was not there by right, it was unjust to put there. (Applause.) In Winnipeg a strong and representative committee had been formed to consider the matter. Mr. Gordon had been made convener of that committee, and he believed they were wise in doing so. He thought that public sentiment yet we shall do nothing to stir up racial strife on this matter. They were making sacrifices—not only Protestants, but Roman Catholics, were making sacrifices in refraining from making a demand for the repeal of this educational clause.

"About this other thing," added Mr. Gordon, that has happened within the last few days or so, I will say nothing. We do not know enough to speak upon it yet. I cannot think until the evidence is forced upon me that our Premier, whom we all know and respect, and many of the country, could be guilty of the folly of accepting dictation in regard to any department of the policy of the country. From a gentleman who is neither a citizen of Canada nor in sympathy with the highest ideals of our Canadian people, I receive no pleasure if such evidence is forced upon me."

A Straight Talk to Men About the Clothing They Wear.

Like the get-rich-quick concerns, many clothing dealers these days are sending out alluring pictures of broadshouldered manly men dressed in the height of fashion with the insinuation—YOU WILL LOOK AS FINE YOURSELF IF YOU WEAR OUR CLOTHES! Other concerns press out their clothes with hot irons, crease them beautifully and hang them immaculately in exquisite windows. Passers-by say—"AREN'T THEY GREAT!" Everyone in business naturally shows off his wares to the best advantage—and there is nothing wrong in so doing—IF THE GOODS ARE RELIABLE, BUT CLOTHING THAT HAS NOTHING TO RECOMMEND IT BUT A SMILING FACE IS SORRY CLOTHING INDEED. Much of the Ready-to-Wear apparel sold today is "machinery" clothing—put through the mill at top-speed AND THEN PRESSED INTO SHAPE to cover poor workmanship. Some machine work is good, BUT NOT YET GOOD ENOUGH TO TAKE THE PLACE OF HARD WORK IN SHAPING THE FUSSY PARTS OF CLOTHES. To offset this demand for suits, etc., that have been hand-shapen some clever head had hit upon a big-stitching machine, which THEROWS THE UNSUSPECTING TEST HUNTER OFF THE TRACKS when he turns up the collar and finds the stitching invisible, for hand-stitching does not show through the fabric. Whatever other clothing is or may be WE ARE CERTAIN OF OUR OWN. From our famous "Unrivaled $10 Suit for Men" up, it is TAILORED IN THE IMPORTANT PARTS BY HAND, WHICH IS A GUARANTEE OF ITS RETAINING ITS SHAPENESS. Our spring stock is complete now, and if you will come in any day we will be glad to show you, not only all the new patterns and how well the apparel fits, but HOW IT IS MADE INSIDE—which will be rather a new way of "talking" such goods in this town, BUT IT'S WHAT THE PEOPLE WANT TO KNOW.

AFTER HER RIGHTS. Young English Woman Crosses the Ocean on a Pathetic Mission.

Among the passengers on the steamer Bavarian, which arrived at St. John yesterday afternoon, was a young woman from Derbyshire, (Eng.) Her name is Miss Stafford, and she is about 20 years of age. She came to this country for the purpose of finding the father of her child which was born on board ship.

According to her story he informed her that he intended going to Canada, but showed no disposition to have her accompany him, nor gave her any encouragement to follow. She learned, however, that he would pass through St. John, and that there was a possibility of his remaining in this city, and so, chiefly on the strength of such information she procured enough money to purchase a steamer ticket from Liverpool to St. John. After being five days at sea she gave birth to a daughter, but was practically dependent through her illness, on the kindness of the ship's physician, the stewardess and fellow travellers. She acknowledges the attention and care bestowed by them all. Upon reaching Halifax, the Salvation Army officers were acquainted with what had transpired during the voyage. The girl was penniless, but her immediate wants were well looked after by the army, and arrangements were made with the officers in charge of the maternity institution here, to receive and care for her upon the arrival of the Bavarian. The mother and child have been taken to the "Metropole" on Prince Wm. St., where they will be cared for.

RAILWAY FORCED TO REPAIR THE STREETS.

If the Law is Violated a Penalty Has Been Provided—Atty-Gen. Pugsley's Amendment to the Street Railway Bill at Fredericton.

Fredericton, April 8.—The House of Representatives today passed the bill in amendment of the health act, which provides that if the street railway company neglects to repair the streets, a penalty shall be imposed.

Mr. Robertson introduced a bill to amend the act of 1903, relating to the street railway company. The bill provides that if the company neglects to repair the streets, a penalty shall be imposed.

At 4 o'clock the lieutenant-governor came to the house and assented to the following bill: "To authorize the sale of certain real estate in the city of St. John held in trust as a Home for Fallen Women."

To constitute the parishes of Gordon and Lorne in the county of Victoria, a police district, and to appoint a stipendiary police magistrate for said district.

Mr. Pugsley's amendment to the Street Railway Bill provides that if the company neglects to repair the streets, a penalty shall be imposed.

Whereas it has been brought to the attention of the legislature that the street railway company neglects to repair the streets, a penalty shall be imposed.

And whereas, the legislature is satisfied that the enactment of these recommendations would practically destroy the sardine herring fishery and the trade of the province, largely dependent thereon, it is enacted that the street railway company shall be liable to a penalty for every such refusal or neglect.

We Paid $100,000 For Ligozone, Yet We Give You a 50c. Bottle Free.

We paid $100,000 for the American Ligozone, the highest price ever paid for similar rights on any scientific discovery. We did this after testing the product for two years, through physicians and hospitals, in this country and others.

There has been a great deal of talk about Ligozone, but it is not until you have tried it that you will know its value. It is the only way known to kill germs in the body without killing the tissues.

50c. Bottle Free. If you need Ligozone, and have never tried it, please send us this coupon. We will then mail you an order on a local druggist for a full-size bottle, and we will pay the druggist ourselves for it.

Germ Diseases. These are the known germ diseases. All that medicine can do for these troubles is to help Nature overcome the germs, and such results are indirect and uncertain.

Kills Inside Germs. Ligozone is not made by compounding drugs, nor is there alcohol in it. The germs are derived solely from gas—largely oxygen gas—by a process of quiring immense apparatus.

THE EVENING TIMES, ST. JOHN, N. B., MONDAY, APRIL 10, 1905

ALL THE NEWS OF THE SEASON'S SPORTS.

BASEBALL

Intermediate League.

Representatives of the three teams which constitute the intermediate league met in the Y. M. C. A. parlors Saturday night, and completed arrangements for the coming season. It was decided that the league season will open on Monday, May 16, on the Victoria grounds. The first game being between the Y. M. C. A. and Jubilee and during the season each team will play twenty games, Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings being the playing nights. Officers of the league were elected as follows: Frank White, president; B. Gilmore, secretary; J. Roots, treasurer; J. McDonald, last year's treasurer, declined office this year, though still active in the work of getting a Y. M. C. A. team under way. The games will start each night at 7 o'clock and an admission fee of ten cents will be charged, season tickets also being issued. Each team will play in uniform, the rule being strict in this respect. As the league is a strictly amateur organization it should meet with the hearty support of the public. It was decided that four innings would constitute a game. There is now an opportunity for some one to offer a trophy for the winning team.

Tartars Organize.

Fredricton, April 8.—The Tartar baseball club has organized for the coming season and has elected H. F. McLeod president. The club has a better form than ever and hopes to give a good account of itself the coming summer. The club has put itself on record as being in favor of a New Brunswick league, and Arthur McKell, the secretary, has been authorized to correspond with other clubs in the province towards having a meeting to organize such a league.

New York "Nats" vs. Yale.

New York, April 8.—Local baseball enthusiasts braved rather black weather to witness the initial game of the season, at the polo grounds today. The opposing teams were the New Yorks, champions of the National League, and the representatives of Yale University. The story of the game is easily told by the score of 17 to 4, in favor of the champions.

At Washington—Washington-Americans, 1; Boston Nationals, 3. At Philadelphia—Philadelphia-Americans, 1; Philadelphia Nationals, 3. At Baltimore—Baltimore (Eastern), 8; Brooklyn (National), 6. At Newark (N. J.)—Philadelphia (Americans), 8; Newark (Eastern League), 2.

Sunday Games.

New York, April 9.—The baseball scheduled between the New York American club, and the Ridgewood Club's nine, at Brooklyn today, did not take place. While a preliminary game between two amateur teams were in progress, the police interfered and would not permit the American League to play. No arrests were made.

New York, April 9.—In an exhibition game of baseball today, the National League champions defeated the Emerald team, of the Catholic Protectors at Van Ness, by a score of 10 to 5. The first batsman was placed under arrest, on a technical charge of violating the Sabbath.

Notes of the Diamond.

No spitball for Cy Young, who has been pitching winning ball for twenty years with the old style of delivery. "I shall not use any of those new curves next year, but will continue with my old tricks that I mastered long ago," he said. Good work by "Joe" Yeager, who has been the utility man of the New York Americans in the South, shouldn't be overlooked when a running jump is taken at the benefit derived from the spring practice since the team has been away from home. Yeager has been playing better ball than he did for Brooklyn or Detroit. Both clubs thought him too weak and he was finally permitted to drift to minor league company, from which Griffith rescued him—Buffalo Courier. Manager Irwin has a bunch of Eastern League players on his Kansas City team. In the list are: "Bill" Massey, Bonner and "Jimmy" Downey, ex-Toronto players; Fletcher, Felts, which Montreal; Beville, last year with Providence; Third Baseman Sullivan, formerly of the same club; Rickert, from Worcester; and Castro, the ex-Rochester and Baltimore infielder.

THE RING.

With White and Britt.

White and Britt are having an awful bunch of trouble in and about Truro since he landed, says an exchange. Mr. White looks so much like Jimmy Britt, the man he meets this month, that wherever he goes people mistake him for the foxy Brit. Along the line Jubie is stopped and hailed as James Edward. In the theatres they point him out as Britt, and the latter is often mistaken for the Englishman while on his strolls. It will be a hard job for the referee to tell one from the other, the night of the fight. The best way will be to tag each with a big number, then things would go smoothly. The match itself has been knocked unmercifully in Truro, and Battling Nelson is the ringleader in the hammer bridge. He has offered to put White out inside of ten rounds or forfeit $1,000. Up to date the match has not been made, but it would do the Britt-White go a whole lot of good. White will do his training at Lakespur, where Nelson has trained, and he says that there will be no trouble at all in making the weight. He denies that he will work behind closed doors, as was first sent out. He declares that the sports out there are welcome to watch him work and get a line on his punching power. Britt will go to the Seal Rock House, out on the beach, where the salt air will give him an appetite. He will give him an appetite. He will give him an appetite. He will give him an appetite.

To Invade England.

Galt, Ont., April 7.—The officers of the Galt Football Club, champions of the province of Ontario, have practically decided upon an invasion of England by the team next fall. The winning team of last season is still intact, and several famous players have been added to the club roster. Indications point to a stronger combination than that of 1904. The team will play a number of games throughout Canada during the coming season, including one or two contests with the Corinthians of England, who will arrive in the Dominion next August. After these games are finished the squad will sail for England to meet the best teams in the old country.

WHERE IS R. H. PENDRIGH? Yarmouth Man Mysteriously Disappears on the Trip From St. John to Digby.

A mysterious disappearance occurred on the steamer Yarmouth on its outward trip from this city to Digby on Saturday last. Robert H. Pendrigh, who had been visiting in this city for a day or two, left on the Yarmouth to return to his native place. He had been in company with his brother, James Pendrigh, engineer on the Yarmouth, up to within a short distance from the Nova Scotia coast. He had then gone to the saloon, and it was not until 10 o'clock, as the boat was blowing for the Gut, that he was missed. At first there was no suspicion that any fatality had occurred, but as Mr. Pendrigh did not turn up, a systematic search was made before the boat reached Digby wharf, and fears as to Mr. Pendrigh's disappearance were found to be only too well founded, as a thorough examination of all parts of the steamer failed to reveal his whereabouts. It is thought that in some way he fell overboard, though no one actually saw him on the outer decks of the boat. Mr. Pendrigh was partner in the firm of Porter & Pendrigh, well known dry goods dealers in Yarmouth. His father, William Pendrigh, who resided in this city many years ago, and who moved to Yarmouth about forty years back, died in 1886. His mother is still living. Mr. Pendrigh was thirty-nine years of age, and leaves a widow and two small children. His wife was a Yarmouth lady, C. J. Milligan is the nearest relative in this city, being a cousin of the deceased. According to Halifax advices Mr. Pendrigh has not been well for some time, loss of money in Dominion Coal and other troubles having affected his mind. Last summer he was a patient in the Nova Scotia Hospital. During the past winter he disappeared from Yarmouth for a few weeks, but was located in Boston and taken home.

AQUATIC.

Neptunes Annual Meeting.

At the annual meeting of the Neptunes Rowing Club, held in the club rooms, Saturday evening, the following officers and managing committee were elected for the ensuing year: Rowland Frith, president; G. Heber Vroom, first vice-president; K. J. Macrae, second vice-president; J. Alfred Clark, captain; F. E. Hanington, treasurer; H. D. Forbes, secretary; G. Bruce Burpee, F. R. Campbell, E. A. Everett, F. Foster, C. S. Hanington, G. P. Kirk, C. H. Peters, and C. D. Robinson, managing committee. It was decided to place some of the club's racing boats at Rothesay this summer for use of the members. A boat-house will be procured and necessary arrangements made. It was also decided to admit non-resident members for this season for rowing privileges for $5. The managing committee's report shows that the club now offers more advantages to its members than ever. They have a large and well filled boat-house and splendidly equipped billiard, card and reading rooms. The membership now numbers more than 200 and everything points to a prosperous season.

BOWLING

The third game in the five pin contest at Ridley's alleys will be played tonight between teams captained by A. McBeath and C. Nichols. The line up will be as follows: Capt. A. McBeath, A. Niles, H. Wilson, E. Addison, B. Bower, vs. Capt. C. Nichols, F. Appleby, H. Sutton, T. McLean, John Daley.

AT THE OPERA HOUSE.

A play, presented in various parts of the world, in several languages—in short, a universally successful play, is worthy of serious consideration. That "The Mummy and the Humming Bird" which will be presented at the Opera House tonight, is such a play as is an established fact. Its history is its unquestionable witness. In Europe, the success of this play was instantaneous. In America, the same. Truth and human nature, characters who breathe and live, wholesome wit, constant surprises, pure women with that inexplicable charm, which nothing but gentle femininity does, all these are possessed, a man with masculine attributes for its hero, sentiment which draws tears, and with which comedy, laughter and situations which thrill—these are the qualities and characteristics of "The Mummy and the Humming Bird," and they are the logical factors of its emphatic success. W. A. Whitecar and the same cast that was seen here last autumn will interpret the play on this occasion.

NOTES OF SPORT

The Y. M. C. A. will likely have a lacrosse team this season, and have been invited to send delegates to a meeting to be held at Truro, April 17, to form a Provincial league. The meeting to form the league has been called by H. A. Bidde, chairman of the Truro team, and Truro Amherst, Westville, New Glasgow, Pictou and Halifax Y. M. C. A. are expected to have delegates present. There is a possibility that apart from the games among Provincial clubs, a team from the Upper Provinces may visit this section this summer. Chicago, April 8.—Jacob Schaefer has received a challenge from Willie Hoppe, the boy billiardist, to play a match game of billiards in the city of St. Louis at any time within two weeks. The match is for $500 a side, and Hoppe announces that his money has been deposited in St. Louis. The game is to consist of 1500 points at 15-inch balls, two shots in, to be played in three periods of 600 each night. Schaefer promptly accepted, and deposited $500 to bind the match. Dan Littlejohn, who has been in the city for the past ten days, left for Sydney yesterday. He will stay for a few days in the latter city, when he will return to St. John, and says he will be prepared to meet Beth McLeod or Jordan—Halifax Recorder. New Haven, Ct., April 7.—The Yale Gun Club lost to the Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn this afternoon by one bird, 200 to 209. preparatory to a throw when the wire slipped from his hands and the hammer hit the head of Allen, smashing his skull like an eggshell. The Amherst News learns that a manufacturing concern has asked the owners of the Amherst Driving Park for a price on that property. These twenty acres are level and dry, and being near the railway are admirably adapted for a factory site, as a siding can easily be constructed to the grounds. If this sale is made, Amherst will have to look for another site for a track. There is a good place half a mile beyond where it now is, and as land is cheap, there will probably be built a mile ring. Florio Barnett, of the Police Gazette, in a letter to a friend in Montreal, says that Carl Schmidt is trained to the minute for his match with Louis at Sobner Park tomorrow night. The two will be about on a par so far as size and weight goes. Schmidt is 5 ft. 11 in. in height, weighs 180 lb., and is strong and fast. Barnett says that Schmidt is really one of the best in the business. He has defeated, among others, such good men as Leo Parrello, Max Mueller Faust and Miller. Schmidt holds the title of champion of Westphalia, which he won at a wrestling tournament at Prague.
