Obituary

There passed peacefully away on August 3rd, Mary Jane Neil, wife of Capt. Richard Neil, of Spaniard's Bay, at the age of 64 years. The deceased lady was one of our most respected and beloved citizens. Being of a quiet and unassuming disposition she endeared herself to all she came in contact with, and her demise is greatly deplored by inhabitants of this and adjacent settlements. Up to a year or two ago she possessed the best of health—being of splendid physique, and cheery countenance. She had two sons, Ralph and Edward, in the R. N. R., who, when the war began, were at the Labrador, and were called home to report on board H. M. S. "Calyso," but their services not then being required they were granted leave until their services were required. Ralph shipped on board the schooner Antoinette, Capt. Webber, which was lost with all hands somewhere in the Mediterranean about November 22, 1915.

The blow was so great to the fond mother that she never recovered from its effects, and although everything possible was done for her, she gradually sank away until death relieved her of her suffering on the above date. She was laid to rest in the C. of E. Cemetery. Her son Edward is still serving his King and Country on one of His Majesty's Ships somewhere in the North Sea, and on many occasions has shown his ability and daring as a British sailor.

Mrs. Neil leaves a husband, five sons and one daughter, for whom much sympathy is felt.—COM.
Spaniard's Bay, Aug. 7, 1916.

Death of Mrs Patience Mercer

There passed peacefully away, at her late residence, Wednesday night, August 2nd, Mrs. Patience Mercer, widow of the late Charles Mercer, at the ripe old age of 87 1/2 years. She enjoyed fairly good health up to February last, when she began to fail, and gradually grew worse until the final message came. She leaves to mourn their loss three sons, Eli, Charles and Nathan; also three daughters, Mrs. Jonathan Bradbury, Mrs. Azariah Dawe, of Coley's Point, and Mrs. John Mercer, of Beachy Cove. Deceased was a daughter of the late Solomon and Bridget Kearley, of Bay Roberts. Interment took place on Friday, August 4th, at 2:30 p. m. in the C. of E. cemetery. Rev. D. R. Bailey officiating.

Heaven retaineth now our treasure,
Earth the lowly casket keeps,
Sunbeams love to linger where
Our sainted mother sleeps.

Note of Thanks

Mr. Nathan Mercer and family wish to thank all those who in any way assisted them in their sad bereavement. While some may not desire these names mentioned in public for deeds of kindness, we believe their deeds will never go unappreciated; but without their consent we make special mention of Mrs. A. J. Wood and Mrs. Lizzy Mercer who performed the offices of the dead; Mr. Zebadiah Earle, Mr. Abram Kearley, and William Kearley, who so willingly gave their time to prepare the grave, and to those who sent wreaths or assisted in any way. From a full heart we say, "Thank you."

James Caravan Killed

The great conflict across the sea still goes on. It takes in its grasp many of our dear friends. Not England, nor France, nor Russia alone, nor all together, pay the complete price of this great fight for humanity. Canada also plays her part and pays its price.

Among those dear friends recently listed among the Canadian casualties we find the name of James Caravan, who was a member of the 62nd Battalion and who was killed during last September.

Mr. Caravan was born in Newfoundland and came to Vancouver about seven years ago. He made friends by the score. It was hard for him to part from them by leaving for the front, and all made to feel the meaning of his loss. But Mr. Caravan was a man to sit idle when he left the call of duty. He placed country and freedom and liberty above self. It is this that causes us to bear his loss with the realization that such sacrifices are necessary in the present great crisis.

WILLIAM R. CARAVAN,
Vancouver, B. C.

Getting Sense.

There comes a clear day when one realizes that clothes are to keep the weather off you; that food is to give health; home is shelter and inspiration that, aside from being clean and inoffensive, one's personal appearance does not signify much; that the main thing in life is to be going toward the goal of your ideals. That isn't getting old; it's getting sense. From then on time is not master, but friend.—Collier's

How doth the gentle laundress search out the weakest joints, And always scrape the buttons off At the most strategic points?

Weedy-looking Youth (to well-known pugilist): "I want to learn the art of self-defence. It's very difficult, isn't it?"
Pugilist: "Oh, no; quite easy to a man of your physique. All you have to do is to keep a civil tongue in your head."

A retail dealer in leather goods, doing business in Ireland, wrote to a firm in London ordering a carload of the merchandise. The firm wired him: "Cannot ship your order until the last consignment is paid for."

The Cranky Crank
Is Always Anticipating Some Great Calamity or Misfortune.

Of all the cranks the crankiest is the chronic pessimist. He is always whining like a half starved dog with a tin can tied to his tail. When the sky is beautifully clear he is positively certain that everything will dry up and there will be a scarcity. When the gentle rain begins to fall, he laments and is afraid the crops will be spoiled. He is always expecting some kind of illness, or of being laid up with rheumatism. No matter how rosy the apples look, or how juicy the pears, he is afraid they are wormy at the core and can't be kept until Christmas. The country is going to the bow-wows, and everybody is a dirty and dishonest rascal. His own peaceful and progressive town is all right, but he is convinced that it will never improve so very much. The high church spire is a notable landmark, but it might fall down some day and do great damage. He himself enjoys excellent health at present, but he is sure that he won't live long—and he shouldn't. The world would be much happier without such cranky pessimists.

No Shirkers in France
A French government return shows the whole nation, men and women virtually given up to the war. Out of every 20 Frenchmen six or seven are actually under arms or engaged in manufacturing munitions. The unit of 20 is composed of the following:
1 Aged or infirm.
2 Small children.
2 Boys at school.
2 Young men under military age either studying or working.
4 to 5 soldiers mobilized.
1 to 2 men working in munition factories.
3 Engaged in agriculture.
3 Uncalled working men or clerks.

Paris, Aug. 6.—At French headquarters, Joffre, in an interview with an Associated Press correspondent, says that the turning point in the war is now reached, and that the Germans' collapse is now a certainty.

Petrograd, Aug. 6.—Russian attacks along the Sereth and Graberka Rivers, south of Brody, in Northern Galicia, have broken the Teutonic resistance and resulted in the capture by the Russians of six villages and the entire ridge along which they are located, according to a War Office announcement today. More than 3,000 prisoners were taken.

London, Aug. 7.—The Admiralty announced today that the British mine sweeper Clacton was torpedoed and sunk in the Levant on August 3rd. Five members of the crew are missing and five wounded.

London, Aug. 7.—Premier Morris, of Newfoundland, received a cheque for a thousand pounds from Lord Rothmere, Chairman of the Anglo-Nfld. Dev. Co., for war contingent comforts.

London, Aug. 7.—A description of how the Turks were drawn into a trap at Romani by the British cavalry is given in a Cairo despatch. The despatch says the cavalry was sent out to entice the enemy, who had shown a disposition to assume the offensive. British horse men fought an admirable rear guard action, says the despatch, drawing the Turks until their flank was turned by a mounted division. A whole brigade was compelled to surrender. Among the prisoners were 70 Germans, including 36 officers. A complete battery of German guns was also taken.

TRY Arctic Indigestion Cure For Indigestion "Imperial" Engines

The first cost of a motor engine is important. The life of the engine is also important. Some engines wear only a short time; others go on doing duty for years; The cooling or water circulation has a lot to do with it. This "Imperial" has. You can run the "Imperial" at the highest speed and yet keep it as cool as you wish.

Noblesse Oblige
In the privacy of his home the village butcher was telling his wife of the arrival of a new resident. "She came in to-day," he said, with enthusiasm, "and I can tell you she's a real lady, brought up select and exclusive. She don't know one cut of meat from another, nor a real from mutton."

Studies in Censoring
"Cannop to the left of them, can you to the right of them, cannot be hind them volleyed and thundered." So quoted the enthusiastic war correspondent. But the censor cut out the passage. "Can't be giving away the positions of our artillery," commented he sagely.

The Unwelcome Suitor
"Now, Willie, let's be frank with each other. What must I give you so that you will leave me alone with your sister this evening?"
"I'm sorry I can't take anything. You see, sister has already made me an offer to hang around!"

Two Mehods
A small boy went up to another boy in the street and said:
"Can you tell a fellow how to teach a girl to swim."
"Oh," said the other kiddie, you goes up to her gentle like, takes her hand gentle, leads her gentle down to the water, puts yer arm gentle round her waist."
"Oh, garrn!" interrupted the boy. "What's the matter wid yer? She's my sister!"
"Yet sister? Oh, shove her in!"

Died
At Coley Point on July 30th, of measles, William Arthur, son of William and Jane Russell, aged 3 years.—For of such is the Kingdom of Heaven.

Killed in action, somewhere in France, July 1, 1916, Joe, aged 19 years and 7 months, youngest son of Maude and the late Leonard Barrett, leaving to mourn mother, one brother, and three sisters in New York. Deceased was a former member of the M. G. B., left with the first contingent, and was a veteran of the Gallipoli campaign.

HOW MRS. BEAN MET THE CRISIS
Carried Safely Through Change of Life by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Nashville, Tenn.—"When I was going through the Change of Life I had a tumor as large as a child's head. The doctor said it was three years coming and gave me medicine for it until I was called away from the city for some time. Of course I could not go to him then, so my sister-in-law told me that she thought Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound would cure it. It helped both when I got home I did not need the doctor. I took the Pinkham remedies until the tumor was gone, the doctor said, and I have not felt it since. I tell every one how I was cured. If this letter will help others you are welcome to use it."
—Mrs. E. H. BEAN, 525 Joseph Avenue, Nashville, Tenn.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a pure remedy containing the extractive properties of good old-fashioned roots and herbs, meets the needs of woman's system at this critical period of her life. Try it.

If there is any symptom in your case which puzzles you, write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

British Official
London, Aug. 7.—Australian, Kent, Surrey and Sussex troops, during the week, advanced west and north of Pozieres on a 3,000 yards front, capturing the enemy's main second line system, and several hundred prisoners. In Verdun sector the French captured and held Thiaumont wood and the greater part of the village of Fleury. Many counter attacks here and in the Somme region were repulsed with heavy losses. Turks, estimated at 14,000 strong, attacked our positions near the Suez Canal, and were defeated with very heavy loss. They were pursued 18 miles. Over 3,100 unwounded prisoners were captured. The General highly commends the conduct of the Australian, New Zealand and Territorial troops. South of Brody the Russians have occupied the right bank of the Sereth River, capturing over 6,500 prisoners and numerous machine guns. Heavy fighting continues on the River Stokhod. In Asia Minor the Russian advance continues. General Sauts reports further progress.

BONAR LAW.

The Worst is Yet to Come
"Hell let loose," says Von wearts, the organ of German socialism in describing the food riots in Berlin. It may be exaggeration. Even if true, however, it is nothing compared with what is going to "break loose" when the still deluded German people come to fully realize the extent of the crime committed against them by Prussian Junkerism.—New York Herald.

Till We Meet Again

Many a mother's heart is breaking For the boy she loved so well; But he's gone to be with Jesus, In that fair, bright land to dwell.

So, dear mothers, sooth your anguish, For your boy so far away, Now in yonder grave lies sleeping Till that last great judgment day.

Many a dear, brave Newfoundland leader, Now has answered to the call; But the angels o'er them linger, And will keep them safe from all.

Hush'd the footsteps, low the voices That approach the place of rest, Where God lays his sleeping children Till their spirits shall be blest.

Narrow are the beds, and lowly, Straight are they and made with care, Clouds for curtains; sky for ceiling, Till that bright day doth appear.

Wearied with earth's day of toiling, Calmly bade their last "Good-Night," Closed their tired eyes till morning; God's "Good Morning" dawneth bright.

Green the coverlid God spreadeth, Tenderly, with silent hand; Thick and soft the grass upheaveth, Till they wake, at His command.

Watchful angels stand about them, Sweet voiced birds sing lullaby; While the gleaming stars, for night-lamps, Shine upon them from the sky.

So God's children lie a-sleeping Till the long night shadows break, And, to everlasting morning, God shall bid His children wake.

Mrs. ARTHUR ROACH, Coley's Point.

Many Indians Have Enlisted

Up to the present time over eight hundred Indians have enlisted in the Canadian Overseas forces, while the Indians of Canada have contributed, no less than $24,634 to the patriotic fund. An effort was made to form a complete Indian battalion, and this would have been successful but for the fact that recruiting officers had been busy amongst the tribes on behalf of several regiments. It is said that after the war is over the Indians who have served at the front will demand the white man's privilege of voting, and it will probably be handed to them.

Smashed German Supply Base

A Scotsman, writing of trench experience, relates what he heard from the lips of an aviator: "It was my good fortune to smash up a German supply base, said the aviator, when I pressed him. "I had a risky time of it getting over the spot, where I dropped the bomb, but I was so eager to drop to wreck the Boche depot I quite forgot some of my own dangers. The right moment came and I let her go. I looked down to see what would happen. There was a muffled roar, and a cloud of smoke and dust arose. "As it cleared away I saw the success of my lucky shot. I forgot where I was, jumped up, and shouted and waved my hat, and hardly knew I was being fired at. It was one of the keenest feelings of enjoyment I have ever experienced."

BAY ROBERTS, FRIDAY, AUG. 11, 1916.

Home Again

Private Malcolm Bradbury Returns to Bay Roberts

Private Malcolm Bradbury, one of the brave boys that have enlisted from Bay Roberts, and a Gallipoli veteran, came home Monday night last. The town was astir with interest and eagerness to extend to him a hearty welcome.

The members of the W. P. A., in large numbers walked in procession to the railway station, where they were joined by the citizens generally, each vying with the other to show, by their presence and in other ways, that Bay Roberts loves to honor her noble sons.

It was at first the intention to hold a brief informal reception at the station, but the night being chilly and a strong wind blowing, it was decided to go to the Public Building.

On arrival of the train, Private Bradbury was taken in Mr. R. Dawe's automobile and driven to the building, where a short address of welcome was made by Mr. C. E. Russell, on behalf of the W. P. A. and the citizens.

He was followed by Rev. S. Bennett, Methodist minister, who made a brief but forcible speech. Mr. Russell then called on Mr. Gus Parsons, as a classmate of the returned soldier, to make a few remarks, which he did in a very fitting manner.

Private Bradbury was then called upon. He spoke but briefly, owing to the lateness of the hour and his anxiety to get home to see his mother. He, however, urged the young men to enlist, saying their right place was with the colors, and they should endeavor to get there.

He also stated that when he had time to collect his thoughts and notes he would address the citizens some evening in the near future, and endeavor to give them some idea of what his experience had been.

After singing "God Save the King" and giving three hearty cheers for the returned soldier, the meeting closed.

From the young soldier, who is very reticent to speak of himself, we gleaned the following facts of his career: He enlisted in E. Co., First Newfoundland Regiment at St. John's, in May, 1914. After the arrival of the regiment in Scotland, he was transferred to A. Co. He sailed from Scotland for the Dardanelles with the First Newfoundland Regiment and spent five months in the trenches of Gallipoli. He was wounded in action. He was sent to a hospital in Malta and thence to England, spending five months in hospital in London.

Private Bradbury is feeling much better now, and hopes that the doctor will pass him again soon, as he is anxious to join his comrades in arms.

The Guardian cordially welcomes Private Bradbury to our midst again and commends his zeal, with the wish that his fondest hopes will be realized.

Mr. Robt. Daws kindly placed his automobile at the disposal of the reception committee on the occasion of the return of Private Malcolm Bradbury Monday night.

The steamer Sam Blanford, formerly the Newfoundland, was lost on St. Mary's Keys during a fog on the night of Thursday, Aug. 3. The ship had been in New York undergoing extensive repairs, and was on the way to St. John's with a cargo of hard coal for Job Bros. & Co. when she met disaster.

Capt. Jas. Ryan, of Spanish Bay, received a message from British Headquarters informing him that his nephew, Private "Dick" Ryan, who was wounded some time ago, was still in hospital at Etaples, France, and hoped to be removed to England in a few days. "Dick" is a son of Mrs. A. Ryan, who once conducted the "Seaview" Hotel here, and was a general favorite with our town-people.

Henry Deering

Naval Reservist Invalided Home

Royal Naval Reservist Henry Deering, of Shearstown, who has been invalided from service, returned home on Friday night last.

Leaving here August 4, 1914, he joined the training ship Calypso at St. John's, and left for England the 6th of November 1914. He joined H. M. S. Hillary at Liverpool on November 28th, and sailed for the North Atlantic on patrol duty, which work he was engaged in during his entire term of service.

On one occasion, as a member of a prize crew taking a captured Danish ship, supposed to be loaded with contraband, to a British port, he was shipwrecked, the vessel being lost on the Faroe Islands. The crew were saved.

In March of this year again, he was one of a prize crew on a Norwegian steamer that had been captured and ordered to be taken to a British port to have her cargo examined. This steamer was torpedoed by a submarine and sunk. Half of the crew were drowned. Deering was one of the survivors, but was in the water three hours before being picked up. As a result he was so severely chilled as to render him unfit for further service and he was invalided home.

We welcome him and assure him that while all regret his hard experience, every one will honor him because he saw his duty and did it faithfully.

From Country Road

The following have enlisted from the Country Road section of Bay Roberts:—

Naval Reserve—Herbert and Walter Russell, of John; Jack S. Parsons, Lorenzo Roberts, Ralph Norman Thomas Copley.

Mild. Regiment—William Mercer, of Henry; Herbert Belbin, George Mercer, John Rourke.

With the Canadian Regiments—Edward and Isaac Bradbury, Harold Russell, of Isaac.

Fish and Oil

If any of our readers have eaten fresh codfish lately, we would be pleased to know what it tasted like. It is a rare delicacy.

We think that there is a good many honest dollars to be made by any man or men, who would put fresh fish on the local market a few times a week.

There was a sign of squid yesterday. Walter and Clifford Winsor jigged half a barrel off Merce's Cove last evening.

The price of new fish in St. John's last week was $6.25 to $6.50, and it is expected that when fish of the best quality begins to come in the price will go to $7.00.

Late last week codlin were rolling in the beach at Bear's Cove, a most unusual occurrence so late in the season.

Common codoil shows a tendency to advance in price. Last week it went to $1.25 per gallon, and in one case, we learn, to $1.50. This is encouraging.

Refined medicinal codoil, which was away down in price, has started to come back. It is now up to $1.50 for good quality, a large number of manufacturers are holding back for a further advance.

It is said there will be large shipment of salt bulk cod made from the Labrador this season, and that already several American schooners are on their way there for cargoes.

Aug. 6th, J. Gossé (Spain's Bay to Upper Island Cove). Owing to the gale and the strong tide running, many of the traps were torn up and all have now been taken in. Sixty-two skiffs are fishing, and the catch is 1910 quils, with 15 for last week. Hook and line and trawl men are doing very little. Squid have made their appearance, but not in sufficient quantity for bait.
