

TEMPERANCE COLUMN. By the Women's Christian Temperance Union of St. John.

Trust the people—the wise and the ignorant—the good and the bad—with the gravest questions, and in the end you educate the race.

The past winter has been an unusually long and severe one, and the cry of "hard times," though not quite as loud in the dominion as in the neighboring republic,

A request has recently been sent us to give an insight into the method and success of this particular department of work, and in reply we can only say, upon reference to our minute reports, that we are ashamed to say that we have expended in aiding numerous cases sought out and investigated by different members of our order.

From McCarthy came this message: Cordial greeting to the Massachusetts convention. "Heard of you at a most critical time, and for example and advice."

Officers for the ensuing year were chosen as follows: Hon. T. J. Gargas, re-elected president; Hon. John J. Ryan, Hon. M. J. Griffin of Toronto, Capt. P. S. Curry of Lynn, and D. P. Sullivan of Boston, vice-presidents.

OTTAWA GOSSIP. Interesting Notes About Some Well Known People. (Faith Penster in Toronto Empire)

Hon. Mr. Foster has lately chosen for himself a roomy cosy residence, with big trees in front and a delightful bit of lawn about it, and here the clever minister of finance and Mrs. Foster entertain in quiet, but altogether delightful way.

Madam Angers, the pretty winsome wife of the minister of agriculture, is a great favorite in Ottawa society circles, and upon recreation days her drawing room is always well filled.

One of the most interesting of Ottawa women is Mrs. Froehette, wife of the well-known Canadian poet, and sister of the famous novelist, Mr. Howells. Being in somewhat delicate health, she lives quietly in her pretty little home at New Edinburgh, surrounded by books and flowers; yet always in touch with the world's ways and in sympathy with its needs.

Mrs. Cameron, the member for Inverness, Nova Scotia, is one of the "blue bloods" of the house. He is one of its oldest members too, and can tell of the stormy days of Fenianism, when right here on Sparks St., Ottawa, on that memorable night, D'Arcy McGee fell a martyr to fanaticism.

A horse-breed without tails has been invented. It is held by the hook by clamps, and can be put on and taken off in less than a minute. The horsebreeder's union says it will never come into practical use.

In the western desert a spot of ground becomes exorbitantly heated, causing the above to descend. This produces an influx of the atmosphere from all sides, but unequally, the result being a gyratory motion and a sand storm.

SENATOR PERLEY IN TOWN. The Northwest Territories Representative in the City.

Home of the former New Brunswick a Great Farmer Country. (From THE DAILY SUN of the 26th.)

I would sooner stop off the train any where in the territory of Assiniboia with $1,000 in my pocket and with my present means to live on, than to live in New Brunswick town with twice that sum in my possession.

Senator Perley has been in the northwest for upwards of twelve years, and it is safe to say there is not a man living in the territory of the Northwest north of the latitude of the Canadian Northwest who has not heard of the senator.

The senator arrived in the city Tuesday. He is well known in St. John; his old friends will be glad to hear that he is as well as he ever was in his life, and feeling as young as many men only half his age.

There is a mill which turns out a hundred barrels of flour a day; there is a saw-mill which saws lumber which cost in the vicinity of $25,000; there is a number of handsome churches, and they are now engaged in erecting a fine court house. I tell you the town is lively.

MARBLE MOUNTAIN. A Company Organized to Operate the Bras d'Or Deposits.

It is a matter of congratulation that a company has been organized with sufficient capital to develop the extensive deposits of marble at Marble Mountain, on the Bras d'Or Lake, on the coast of Nova Scotia.

The capital required to develop the property and carry on the work of quarrying with its accessories and work to be carried on under the supervision of D. MacLachlan, manager.

The marble which is to be worked may be classified as follows: Pure white, variegated blue and white, pink, blue, dappled and water white.

Nature has made it possible to produce this marble very cheaply. Its location near a good place of shipment, while no power but its own weight is necessary to move the marble from the quarries to the wharf; its proximity to the Cape Breton coal fields; its perfect nature, its abundance and the abundance of sand for sawing in the immediate neighborhood are advantages seldom combined.

Active operations have been commenced. A steam churning machine, mill machinery and castings for derricks are on the ground, and the erection of a mill, blacksmith shop, a boarding house for the laborers and other necessary buildings will be carried forward as energetically as possible.

THE DAIRY. Instructions at the Sussex Dairy Station.

Lectures by Instructor Zafels, Mr. Hopkins, Mr. Hubbard, etc.

The course of instruction in cheese-making and milk testing arranged by the dairy commissioner for the Maritime Provinces opened on Monday, 16th April, at Sussex, with a good attendance. Jas. B. Hopkins, of the dairy commission staff, from Nappan, N. S., is in charge, with L. A. Zafels, of Westbrookville, Ont., as instructor in milk testing.

After the practical work of the day Mr. Hopkins briefly outlined to the assembled cheesemakers the scope and interest of the addresses to be delivered during the term.

A cheesemaker should be a good judge of cheese and know when he is right. He should be conversant with the markets of the world, the kind of cheese that will command the highest price and how to make the kind wanted; how to make a cheese that will ripen early and one that has more keeping qualities.

In addition to the foregoing Mr. Hopkins gave lectures during the course as follows: April 17th on "The Care and Composition of Milk."

April 19th on "The Manufacture of Cheese under Various Circumstances and at Different Seasons."

April 23rd.—"The Manufacture of Cheese for the English Market."

April 25th.—"A synopsis of the different points on cheese-making that have been taken up during the course."

Lectures were given by L. A. Zafels as follows: April 18th.—"The importance of milk testing; its commercial and moral value. The methods to be pursued in performing accurate tests."

1. It was all important that he should have a good share of common sense. 2. He must be honest and give fair and just weights and impartial treatment all through.

3. He must be truthful. 4. He must be diligent. 5. He must be watchful. 6. He must be respectful.

DISSEASE GERMS IN THE COMMUNION CUP.

(London Free Press.) Dr. Forbes is professor of chemistry in the Rochester University; he is also a prominent member of the Central Society, a Unitarian church of that city.

Dr. Forbes is a member of the Rochester University; he is also a prominent member of the Central Society, a Unitarian church of that city. He is an enthusiast in his profession and devotes his time to hygienic reforms on the most approved modern principles.

The doctor was very positive in his assertion and offered to prove it by a practical illustration. The result was startling. He asked that after the next communion Sunday the sacramental cup be handed over to him for analysis and he would demonstrate the truth of his contention. The elders hesitated, many of them bitterly opposed the proposition, but finally a majority consented and the communion cup was subjected to the doctor's examination.

QUESTION AND ANSWER. Pregnant Paragraphs That Have a Universal Application.

Why do people wear out their lives and become miserable when there is no need of it? That is just what thousands, tens of thousands are doing. They know, too, that something is wrong, and yet, perhaps, cannot tell what it is.

They complain that they are tired; they have a headache; they are not feeling just right; they cannot sleep, or sleep falls off from them; they find themselves devoid of energy, and all work is a task.

The simple fact is in cases like this is the hurry and worry of this restless modern life nature has been overworked and overstrained and is unable to recover itself.

One of the most frequent and distressing results of a life of "rush" is the impairment of the digestive organs. There is in fact no ailment so common among the people as indigestion, and it is the fruitful source of a host of greater ills unless prompt action is taken to effect a cure.

To effect a cure the aid of some invigorating agency must be sought, for the weakened system cannot assimilate food and restore its own vitality. It needs help. Something is needed that will stimulate the organs, aid digestion, and give immediate strength and tone to the system. Nature, having been overworked and weakened, must be assisted.

As to what form the assistance should take there need be no hesitation. There is a remedy, the result of years and years of patient and intelligent study and experiment, which never fails to do the work needed in all such cases. Hawker's Nerve and Stomach Tonic will assimilate and assist the debilitated organs of digestion and restore their full functional activity. It will revitalize the blood and invigorate the nerve system as no other agency is able to do. A course of this unrivaled remedy will speedily restore health and energy and hopefulness to even the most despairing victim of indigestion or dyspepsia. It is sold by all druggists and dealers; fifty cents a bottle, six bottles $2.50.

How Was Crucel. (Texas Writings.) "Your quiet, easy indifference," said Mrs. Walkingbeam to her spouse, "aggravates me to such a degree that I am half dead with anger." "Ah, my dear," replied Mr. W., "let me give you a pleasant shock."

"What is it?" snapped Mrs. W. "No one should ever do things by halves."

West Virginia has 16,000 square miles of coal fields, an area greater than the coal regions of Great Britain.

The Chan-San-Chin-Orin Indians in Yuatan have never been conquered. No white has ever seen their city, which is defended by a swamp.

"Where is the bearded lady?" asked the manager. "It is time for the show to begin." "He went out to vote," exclaimed the certified man. (Indianapolis Journal.)

always continued. His literary career began as a contributor to Stewart's Quarterly, which frequently contained poems and stories from his pen.

Odell, Hon. and Rev. Jonathon, M. A., poet, priest and politician of the revolution and one of the founders of the Province of New Brunswick.

He was born at Newark, N. J., September 25th, 1787, and died at Fredericton, N. B., November 25th, 1818. He obtained a good education, receiving the degree of master of arts from Nassau Hall.

In the disturbances caused by the revolution he espoused the cause of the King, and in 1775 was charged with writing letters to England.

He was appointed to Burlington, N. J., where he arrived on July 25, 1787, and was inducted into the pastorate of St. Ann's by His Excellency William Franklin, Governor of New Jersey.

He accompanied Sir Guy Carleton to England, Nov. 5, 1788, and returned to accept positions of honor in the government of New Brunswick. He was called to a seat in the Executive Council, and was first Provincial Secretary.

He was called to a seat in the Executive Council, and was first Provincial Secretary. The inscription upon the flat stone which covers his grave in the Fredericton burying grounds records, as was the custom in the old days, the facts of his whole life, and ends as follows: "The duties thus developing upon him he unremittently and faithfully discharged for upward of thirty years, assisting also in emergency in the church. After the relinquishment of his appointment he kept his wonted course to the end, religious, loyal, upright, charitable, prompt in friendship, persevering in good offices, he is now mourned in proportion as he was cherished and respected by his family, by his friends, by the public, by the poor."

It will thus be seen that the Hon. and Rev. Dr. Odell was a man of many parts. He was a physician, a clergyman, a soldier, a statesman and a poet. It is of his poetic attainments that this article would speak and of the book which brought together his fugitive verses. This volume, of which the edition was only one hundred, is one in which bibliophiles delight. It is a square octavo volume of 200 pages, handsomely bound in half morocco. It is a monument of typographic and book making art, with bold type, variegated inks, stiff paper and wide margin. The verses are quaint in style, while the effect is heightened by retaining the old peculiarities of printing. His work carries a peculiar interest, for he was a poet of the revolution, and his remains are of considerable value on account of their bearing upon the war and because of their portrayal of the sentiment which prevailed among the loyal spirits of this war time. The following pieces appear in this collection: Inscription for Franklin's Stone; Song for a Fishing Party near Burlington on the Delaware in 1778; A Birthday Song composed in honor of the Anniversary of the King's Birthday, June 4th, 1777, and printed in the Gentleman's Magazine for that year; Birthday Ode, on Occasion of the King's Birthday, June 4th, 1776, and sung by a number of British officers who were prisoners at Burlington, N. J.; Ode for the New Year, written at New York, Jan. 1st, 1780; The Congratulation and The Feu de Joie, published in Rivington's Royal Gazette of Nov. 6 and 24, 1779, in celebration of the repulse of D'Estaing; A Welcome Home to the Twenty-third Regiment after the Peace of 1763; On my 39th Wedding Day; Molly Odell on her Birthday, by her father; On Pope's Garden at Twickenham, 1765. Two poems, "The Word of Congress" and "The American Times," the latter under the pseudonym of Camillo Querno, appear in "The Loyalist Poetry of the Revolution."

SCROFULA CURED BY B.B.B.

Worst Kind of Scrofula. Dear Sirs.—I had an abscess on my breast and scrofula of the very worst kind, the doctor said I got so weak that I could not walk around the house without taking hold of chairs to support me. The doctors treated me for three years and at last said there was no hope for me. I asked if I might take B.B.B. and they said it would do me no harm, so I began to take it, and before three bottles were used I felt great benefit. I have now taken six bottles and am nearly well. I find Burdock Blood Bitters a grand blood purifier and very good for children as a spring medicine.

CHURCH OF ENGLAND NOTES.

(FOR THE SUN.)

The discussion at the recent meeting of Convocation on the proposal of an authorized Hymnal, elicited some interesting information. It appears that, twenty-two years ago, when a similar discussion took place, no fewer than 269 different hymnals were in use in public worship in the parishes of the rural deaneries from which answers had been received.

Another interesting fact is the comparative identity of the selection of hymns in the three collections which now monopolize the choirs of the Church of England. About 220 hymns are common to all three books, and 285 are to be found in "Hymns Ancient and Modern" and in the "Hymnal Companion."

An effort was made by Canon Lucas, a very distinguished member of Convocation, to induce the assembly to adopt "Hymns Ancient and Modern" as an authorized hymnal of the Church of England.

In the course of the speech, Canon Lucas, displaying that combination of logical ignorance and presumption peculiar to the inferior members of his party, alluded to the "old ladies of both sexes, who would shut up their mouths if they saw a hymn containing the words 'Jesus, Son of Mary,' was sung."

The proposed disestablishment of the Welsh Church is meeting with a strong and well-natural opposition in the different sections of the Church of England.

The Welsh bill now before the House of Commons will probably not pass.

The Two Thousand Guineas, 1865—A Reminiscence of Gladstone.

"I see you have Gladstone's picture there, and a very good one too," said I to Tom Artindale, the landlord and owner of a large roadside hotel a few miles out of London, pointing as I spoke to a picture of the pale chieftain.

"Yes," replied he, "the horse is rather a favorite of mine, especially as it is to him owe the means of purchasing this hotel and grounds; while the circumstances under which I came to back him were most singular."

"Pray give us the story," said I, "and for the good of the house I will stand cigars and a bottle of port."

"To begin then," said Artindale, "I was brought up on a mercantile clerk, and after remaining with one firm for ten years found myself out of work through the death of my old employer."

"That old man was fearful for the safety of something which he kept there was evident from his repeatedly and almost unaccountably as it were, placing his hand there as though to protect some concealed object. Tired of seeing the old man ill treated, I told the obtrusive coxster to let him alone, thereby drawing upon myself his wrath and a fight, in which the coxster was worsted."

"Monster Idler, for such he told me was his name, was very grateful for my interference on his behalf, and telling me that he had come from Chantilly (the French Newmarket) on business, was particular in arranging for a meeting between us the following evening, saying also that the service I had rendered him was of more value than I knew, and that by next evening the business he had come about would be over and he hoped to be able to reward me handsomely. He and I occupied adjoining cubicles, as the wooden boxes with the sack of straw and blanket used in these places are named, and we went to sleep as far as the horrible black insects which infested the room and came down in swarms to feast upon us would permit; but from which I was suddenly aroused by the cries of my new friend, 'Ah! mon, ang moi, je meurt!—Vite! vite! Ah! misericordia, je meurt! Turning to him I found him in terrible pain, which I did my best to alleviate by a little brandy. After the paroxysms had ceased, M. Idler told me that he had had a grandson, the only relation left him, who had been a stable boy where Gladstone was trained; that the boy had been killed by

SPORTING MATTERS.

Interesting Events on the Queen's Birthday.

Horse Racing in Many Places in the Maritime Provinces.

The races at Moosepath park on the afternoon of the 24th attracted a large crowd, and the sport was fairly good. It is safe to say, however, that there would have been more fun for the spectators if the management had taken right hold of all whose actions seemed to be in the direction of keeping things back.

The judges were A. W. Vanvar, Thos. Clark and John McLaughlin, with C. J. Ward as starter and Fred Young and Hugh Stevens as timers.

Moosepath park, May 24, special meeting—Gentlemen's driving race, purse $75, divided: Little Rocket, b. g. Peter Carroll, 1 1 1; Hall, Columbia, 1 1 2; W. D. Miller, 2 3 3; Lady Laurier, b. m. Geo. Carroll, 2 3 3; ...

The named race had seven nominations, and all hands came up when the bell sounded. Lady D. won, although four heats had to be trotted. Frank E. was responsible for the additional heat. The pacer Nestle G. was almost a sure winner if she had been kept on her feet, but this her driver, W. M. Gordon, could not do, despite the fact that she weighs 190 lbs. Lady D. got the first heat easily in 2:47. Johnny Dick was second, Frank E. third and the pacer fourth.

The second heat saw the break, Frank E. winning a well contested heat. Lady D. was second and the pacer third. The time was 2:45.

Three horses having been shut out, there were only four starters in the third heat. Lady D. won handsly, with Frank E. second and the pacer third. The time was 2:46.

Summary: The match race between Helena and Deceiver resulted in two heats in favor of the roan mare, her time being 2:39 and 2:36. Helena shows the still wish to put her up quarters in better time than 40 seconds.

Summary: The local races at the Park Association grounds this afternoon were well attended. The events and winners are as follows: Two-year-old colt race: Bay Billy Eva S. 1 1 1; ...

In the running race there were only two competitors, May Day and James Morris, both entered by Walter McMonagle of Sussex. Morris won in two straight heats; purse $25.

Woodstock, May 24.—There were races in the park this afternoon. N. Lister's mare won the three minute race; W. B. Baly's horse second and Gallagher Bros.' horse third.

THE BRIG NEPTUNE.

With 175 Passengers from the Port of Kinsale, Ireland.

Arrived at St. John Just 75 Years Ago Saturday—Recollections of a Passenger.

(From THE DAILY SUN of the 25th.)

Seventy five years ago today the brig Neptune sailed up the harbor and dropped anchor off the Market Slip. As I was one of the passengers...

The Neptune had probably been detained by unfavorable weather for it was on Easter Sunday, April 11th, 1819, that she got under-way with a fair wind. Our home was at dinner as my uncle's early in the afternoon...

As a future time I may have something to say about life in Ireland before the invention of home rail.

had got over their sea-sickness and wanted to get an appetite for dinner, made plenty of fun. The singing of some of the passengers was very good, and the moon light on the ocean on deck were a cheerful diversion.

On Sunday morning, May 23rd, we sailed round Cape Sable, close in to the land, with a pleasant breeze and smooth water, and I remember resting the seaward on the deck. Lines were put out that morning and two halibut were caught which were so heavy that they had to rig a tackle to hoist them on board.

On White Sunday, which was the first Sunday after our arrival in St. John, we went to morning service at Trinity church. I remember our walk there well. We went up Chipman's hill, where one house was to Union street; then down Charlotte, where there were but one or two houses...

Among the passengers were Captain Danbar who was coming to St. John for a vessel which had been here all winter undergoing repairs, and William Riddock, who belonged to Kinsale, but had been in the city before.

DR. J. H. MORRISON has purchased the Boxtwick property on Germain street. It is a very fine stone structure.

SALMONS are none too plentiful here at present. Capt. Kennedy of the Grenadiers had to pay some of his $30 for the run.

NOT IN IT.—A. S. CURRIE of Fredericton writes to THE WEEKLY SUN correcting the statement published in the Margerville correspondence in our issue of April 11th that he was one of the parties who killed a dog in mistake for a bear. Mr. Currie says he was present at the first hunt, but was not in at the death.

THE UNITARIAN CHURCH.—The Unitarian church which is to be erected on Chipman's hill will have a seating capacity of more than 300. The work of construction will begin in a week or two. It will be neatly furnished and well and conveniently arranged.

METAL SCARCE.—Metal is so scarce in St. John and Halifax that the bark Bessie Markham will not be shipped here. There is only enough copper here to metal the Carler. It is understood that the Markham will bring the material out here with which to cover her bottom.

THE FLYING BOATS.—The Charley Troop, owned by pilot Rodgers, is generally, is receiving a thorough overhauling at Lower Cove. She will be ready to go outside in a few days. The name of the Howard D. The new boat, the David Lynch, and the Minnie Cline are now cruing in the bay.

HANDSOME GUIDE BOOK.—The International Steamship company have got out some handsome guide books, but the one just issued is far in advance of any yet got. The book contains brief, well written descriptions of the leading cities, towns and resorts, together with many beautiful views of the northern portion of New Brunswick, including the famous Restigouche fishing grounds. St. John river is also represented in the book with several excellent views, and altogether the work is one which should be the means of attracting a large number of tourists to the province.

BOARD OF WORKS ON ITS METTLE.—Just after the rain had got nearly over, Friday a city waterer cart dashed up to the hydrant at Breeze's corner, the driver leaped from his place, adjusted the hose with lightning rapidity, filled up and dashed off again. This was repeated between the watering carts and rain storms is rather funny; but if there were less work done by the carts on wet days and more on fine and dusty days, the citizens would enjoy it much more. The man who "doesn't know enough to go in when it rains" is often spoken of, and there is now a possibility that he may be located.

PROVINCIAL SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION.—A meeting of the St. John members of the executive committee was held in the Y. M. C. A. on the 25th. The secretary, Rev. A. Lucas, laid before them important correspondence on matters having reference to the next provincial convention at Fredericton. It is now expected that Rev. Dr. Hurlbut, normal instructor of New York, and Wm. Reynolds, superintendent of International Sunday school work, will both be here. Arrangements will be made for Dr. Hurlbut to spend a Sunday in this city.

THE FIRMEN'S TOURNAMENT.—At a meeting of the firmen's tournament executive committee held in the Salvage corps room on the 25th the following officers were elected: T. W. Peters, chairman; W. H. Bowman, treasurer; J. I. Robinson, secretary. The meeting decided to adopt blue serge suits for the firmen's uniform. The dates fixed for the tournament are Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, the 14th, 15th and 16th of August. The secretary was instructed to correspond with the general and acquaint him with the dates chosen. As has already been stated Lord Aberdeen has indicated that he was prepared to visit this city at any date named by the firmen.

YOUNG LADS ON THE TRAMP.—Two twelve year old lads named Frederick Bailey and Percy Johnson applied at the central police station Friday evening for protection. They left Boston last night for Halifax by steamer, intending to spend some time with their grandfather in the sister city. On their arrival at Halifax they found that the old gentleman had left for P. E. Island, and as they did not have any money they started to walk back to Boston. St. John being reached, they saw the authorities, who arranged for their being cared for at the Wiggins Orphan asylum till arrangements can be made for sending them on to Boston.

SHAD are being taken in small numbers up in the Kennebec basin.

AN ELEVATOR FALLS.—The elevator in the Welcome Soap works on Union street fell through three floors Monday. William Little was killed at the time and was seriously injured internally. He had to be removed to his home.

BACK FROM THE BOOMS.—Tug Dirigo has returned from Fredericton, where she has been hanging the booms and doing other work in connection with them. Capt. Johnson reports that the water is about six feet higher than it is at ordinary times during the summer.

Commissioner Booth, who has command of the Salvation Army in Canada and Newfoundland, was in St. John Sunday, and the army had a grand day of it. The street parades attracted even greater crowds than usual, and the barracks were thronged all the meetings. Commandant Booth was on his way to Halifax, where a Food and Shelter Home is to be opened on Tuesday.

The St. Croix cotton mill has recently been taking up American machines and breaking them up for old iron and substituting English machines. It now requires only three-fourths of the number of hands for the particular work the machines are required to do.—[Courier.]

CAMPBELL.—A correspondent, writing on the 25th, says the Queen's birthday was joyously celebrated by the young folk of Campbell, who were abundantly supplied with giant snap guns, drums and fireworks.

THE MAINE SHORE LINE.—Col. Greene, the well-known railway man, told a SUN reporter the other day that the Maine Shore Line railway would be built as soon as the money market showed any improvement. Col. Greene is very confident that he will soon be able to carry out this scheme.

METAL IN HALIFAX.—Wm. Shair, Son & Morrow of Halifax writes THE SUN to contradict the statement in a recent issue of this paper to the effect that metal is scarce in St. John and Halifax. The firm says: "We hold in Halifax over 15,000 sheets of malleable iron, which we are prepared to supply immediately."

DEATH OF MRS. STANTON.—The death is announced in this issue of Mrs. Stanton, wife of Alfred Stanton of this city. The deceased lady was before marriage a Miss Downing of Summerside, P. E. I., but has resided in St. John for nearly thirty years. Of the children, one daughter, Mrs. F. D. Gillies, resides in Newington, Mass. Another daughter is the wife of P. A. Smith, the well known Sydney street fish merchant. The other daughter, Bessie, and the son, Thomas, also reside in this city. Mrs. Stanton has been in ill-health for some months past.

ST. STEPHEN TELEPHONE SERVICE.—Attorney General Blair and K. P. Thompson, representing the New Brunswick Telephone company, were in St. John on Tuesday for the purpose of discussing the introduction here of the company's system. They had a conference with members of the board of trade and submitted a proposition under which the company would be willing to place its system here and guarantee a connection with Canada. The price mentioned was $25 for a telephone at a place of business and $40 for two instruments.—[Courier.]

THE ABERDEEN DOING A BIG BUSINESS.—The new steamer Aberdeen, which is running between Fredericton and Woodstock, is loaded every trip, and so far has been able to overtake the quantity of freight awaiting shipment. Her passenger freight is also good. The Aberdeen is much faster than the old Plover, and is in every respect admirably adapted to run between these two towns.

HIS LEG BROKEN.—Sunday afternoon, while playing in Marble Cove, Herbert Morgan, aged about nine years, son of Conductor Morgan of the I. C. E., had his right leg broken below the knee. The lad was playing about some logs, when one rolled on his right leg, with the result as above stated. Some men who were in the vicinity immediately came to the rescue and carried the lad to his parents' home on Douglas avenue. Dr. McIntyre was called and rendered the necessary surgical aid.

CHESELY BROS. ASSIGN.—An arrangement could be made with certain creditors, Chesely Bros. on the 23rd made an assignment to J. Fred Watson and L. A. Curry, with no preference. In addition to the announcements already made, a bill sale has been given by J. A. and W. A. Chesely to W. H. Thorne for $275, and deeds as follows: John A. Chesely to Arthur B. Small for $141; land on Breeze street. John A. Chesely to James S. May, $150; land on Britain street. The real liabilities of the firm are about ten thousand dollars, and the assets at least double that amount.

AFRAYS AT RIO JANEIRO.—Capt. Hayes, of the ship Mabel Taylor, which is loading deals up the bay, is in the city. He was in Rio Janeiro when his fever was at its worst. He says hardly any shipmaster would have his vessel. They all went up into the mountains to escape the dread disease. He stayed on board the Taylor all through the fever, and although a number of his men took the disease, he nursed them through it and brought his entire crew away with him. Capt. Kinsman of the Arctic lived only 24 hours after he took the fever. He went to the mountains, but the fever came and he had to go back to the city and enter a hospital. The body was hauled out to the burial ground, and Capt. Hayes, Capt. Livingstone, and Capt. E. J. Sibcomb lowered it into the grave. Capt. Hayes says the last man he saw leaving Rio was Capt. Geo. Kiffin. He was on board his vessel. The death rate was, during the Taylor's stay in Rio, between 145 and 150 a day.

HANS HANSEN TO HANG.—Monday afternoon's associated press despatches brought a piece of news from San Francisco, which has more or less interest in this city. The despatch says: "The decision of the Supreme court at Washington sustaining the decision of the United States circuit court in the case of Thomas St. Clair, probably means a triple hanging in California. St. Clair's appeal was a test case for three convicts who have been sentenced to death. They are the sailors who murdered mate Fitzgerald on the bark Hesper, on the high seas." One of the three men referred to is Hans Hansen, whom the late Governor Boyd and Miss Hutchinson of the Salter's Home worked so hard to save.

OBTAINED OATS UNDER FALSE PRETEXTS.—Charles Sterlings, who recently came here from Nova Scotia, and opened up a feed store in the Magee building in Water street, is in trouble. F. Parker Carvell of Charlottetown arrived here the other night, and Monday he made information against Sterlings for obtaining under false pretences from Lewis Carvell, Wm. H. Atken, John A. Messervy and himself, 600 bushels of oats valued at $240. Chief Clark looked Sterling up.

He wants brave men who are not afraid to come to the front and face the battle. Be brave, be true, Down looking eyes are upon you. Don't be afraid to stand.

One day I met a man who told me he did not think he would ever get to heaven, he approached to be looking straight every day. "Well," I said to him "I would sooner be able just to crawl there and then roll through the gates than not get there at all, without any looking."

"Well then," I said, "just wiggle on and you'll get there by and by." The man who severs his connection with the world, and places his hand on that of the eternal God, He will never leave him. But you must have God's help. No human arm is strong enough to battle against the uncurbed sin.

Some time ago a man tried to swim the whitened near Niagara falls. He was plucked up all bruised and broken. Another man said, "I can do it." He did. He got into a barrel, the water being about 100 feet deep. The Englishmen were punctilious, however, and never an answering report was heard. A vast crowd lined the wharves and gave the warships prolonged cheers as they swung slowly and were hidden in the evening mist that surrounded Boston light.

The visit of the warships has been a most happy one. More than twenty thousand Bostonians went about the ships. Official courtesies have been constant. Vice Admiral Sir John Hopkins, whose ability has won the admiration of all whose fortune it has been to meet him, in parting with the newspaper man to whom he has been so uniformly generous, said: "There have been misunderstandings in the past between England and America, but blood is pretty thick in the Anglo-Saxon veins; and while with you I have tried to show in my small way, that we are your brothers, who come from the land where your fathers were born. From the hour of American independence the life of the English people has flowed not in one course, but in two, and while the other has shown little signs of lessening, the younger branch has risen to a greatness which has changed the face of the world. It is already the main branch of the English people, and its history must run along the channel of the Thames or the Mersey, but of Hudson and the Mississippi. But distant as the currents are, every year proves more clearly that the English people is one."

Continuing Vice Admiral Hopkins said: "It is possible that the two branches of the English people will remain forever separate political existences. It is likely enough that the oldest of them may again break in twain, and that the English people on the Pacific may assert as distinct a national life as the two English people on either side of the Atlantic."

But three despatches from her majesty's service are reported, and it is thought that three more have probably been neglected to return to their ships on account of inability to do so, and will no doubt turn up at Halifax. This statement is remarkable from the fact that last year while the Blake was participating in the naval parade in New York, 38 men deserted. Of these, however, 34 worked their way to London and gave themselves up for court martial, and after their sentences had expired, rejoined the service.

THE CROP PROSPECTS.

The Outlook Rather Encouraging in Aroostook and Other Maine Counties.

Boston, May 29.—The New England weather bureau in its weather bulletin for the week ending May 28 says: Cold cloudy weather for the week just passed until the last two days, when it has been warmer with considerable sunshine. Except in the southern portion of Maine, the rain has not been heavy enough to damage the crops or hinder work to any extent, and nearly all reports say the crops have made rapid advancement. H. M. S. BLAKE AND TARTAR

Leave Boston, the Former for Bar Harbor, and the Latter for St. John.

Sir John Hopkins' Speech in Parting with the Hub's Newspaper Man.

Boston, May 28.—H. M. S. Blake left the harbor at 4:30 this afternoon, followed by her consort, H. M. S. Tartar, the latter for St. John, N. B., and the Blake for Bar Harbor, the Blake joining the Tartar later at St. John. Although it is not so written in the book of naval etiquette, the battery of the navy yard boomed twenty-one guns, the national salute, to speed the departing vessels. The Englishmen were punctilious, however, and never an answering report was heard. A vast crowd lined the wharves and gave the warships prolonged cheers as they swung slowly and were hidden in the evening mist that surrounded Boston light.

SPRINGHILL

The Mines Still Running, but Things are in an Unsettled State.

Extension of the I. C. R. to the Town—New Scott Act Inspector—Some Good House Flesh.

SPRINGHILL, May 28.—The mines are still at work, but the flag floats almost daily over the union building summoning the men to meeting and indicating a very unsettled state of things. On Saturday evening the Hon. B. Drummond, the grand secretary of the lodge, and Arthur Drysdale, the company's solicitor, had a conference with the men, the result of which has not yet become public. The men stoutly deny the allegations charging them with misrepresentation, and they affirm that the new order from the management asking that all grievances be written in writing, and will be answered in writing, is simply a subterfuge to provoke and prolong discussion on matters which should be immediately remedied. Confidence on both sides has been more seriously shaken, and until it is once more regained there will be unsettlement and trouble among the men.

A McMillan has been appointed Scott act prospector of the town. The position has been unfilled for the past month or more. The committee having in charge the railway petition asking the government to give people of Springhill direct communication with the I. C. E., have reorganized and deputed the Rev. W. Chas. Wilson to accompany the petition to Ottawa and present the claims of the same. Mr. Wilson left on his mission yesterday.

Leading Military and Other Officials of Massachusetts Attend the Banquet.

The Big Cruiser Delights Bostonians by a Brilliant Illumination.

BOSTON, May 25.—The Commonwealth of Massachusetts entertained the British naval officers tonight at an informal dinner at the Parker house. There was no speech making and only three toasts were proposed, viz: The President of the United States, The Queen, and the Governor.

On the governor's left were the following in the order named: Hon Winslow Warren, collector of the port of Boston; Lieut Gov Roger Walcott, Hon Wm E Russell, ex-governor of Massachusetts; Capt W D V Hamilton, H M S Blake; Hon Geo Von L Meyer, speaker of the Massachusetts house of representatives; Hon W M Olin, secretary of state; Chief Engineer Edward Farmer, U S N; Lieut Com John F Merry, U S S Enterprise; Hon Joseph F Lawson, governor's council; Hon Henry M Phelps, state treasurer; Hon Chas G Stevens, governor's council; Hon Henry A Thompson, private secretary to Gov Greenhalge; Col Geo E Billings, governor's staff; Capt John Weeks, Massachusetts naval brigade; Col James L Carver, governor's staff; Lieut Col Thomas F Edmands, M M; Brig Gen Albert Davidson, governor's staff; Brig Gen Benjamin F Pesch, M V M; Lieut Wm H Rowe, H M S Tartar; Maj Gen Saml Dalton, governor's staff.

The cold drizzling rain did not prevent the British cruiser Blake from displaying thousands of electric lights from her masts, funnels and hull tonight. The wharves and streets along the water front were alive with people all the evening who took advantage of a rare opportunity to see a British cruiser illuminated. An unbroken row of lights extended along the Blake's waterline from stern to bow, on both sides of the vessel. Another row, higher up, lighted the upper decks. The outlines of the vessel from the water to the mast-head were clearly shown, and the big funnels were encircled with incandescents.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., May 25.—The storage warehouse of B. E. Latham, 201-203 Atlantic avenue, collapsed at 2 25 p.m. today, killing one man and injuring two others. During the morning of April a fire took place among the goods stored in No. 203, which burned for some hours, doing heavy damage to the goods stored therein, and almost destroying many of the beams on the lower floors. Men were at work today repairing the lower portion of the building, while the upper part was still packed full of goods, and many of the old beams were removed in order to insert new ones. The building department made no objection to the work. Inspector Gilmartin looked at the building yesterday, and he told the police commissioner today, when questioned at the scene of the disaster, that he considered it perfectly safe for the workmen to proceed. The contractor had several men in the cellar concreting it when he heard the walls crack and several bricks fall. He gave the signal to his men and they all got out in safety. The men of Martin Peterson, the framer, were not so fortunate. One of them, Emilie Rickson, was on the fourth floor and he, coming down with the front wall, was instantly killed.

Charles Swensen was caught on the side wall under the debris and his legs were badly crushed. He was released by members of truck 10, which responded to the first alarm sent out. A moment later cries for help were heard beneath the debris and the firemen went to work with a will, and through the hole in the wall, which was quickly uncovered, they rescued three men, who ran into the cellar from the first floor.

Shortly after cries for help from the rear of the structure were reported and work was commenced, but as the excavation from the side of the wreck seemed to threaten further disaster, it was stopped. The firemen then decided to work from the top, and were cheered from time to time by the voice of the man imprisoned below.

AMERICAN FLAG HAULED DOWN

Militiamen Belonging to the Queen's Own of Toronto in Trouble.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—United States Consul Willis at St. Thomas, a Canadian town on the north side of Lake Erie, today reported to the state department by telegraph, through U. S. consul Riley at Ottawa, that the United States flag flying over his consulate was hauled down yesterday by Canadians. Consul Willis hung out the flag in honor of the Queen's birthday. Some soldiers belonging to the Queen's Own Rifles of Toronto came along and tore it down. Mr. Willis asked for instructions. The consul general said that the matter had been brought to the attention of the dominion government and that it had immediately ordered a rigid investigation to learn all the facts and locate the responsibility of the guilty individuals. Inasmuch as the Canadian officials and the United States consul general are pursuing the proper course in investigating into the outrage upon the American flag, the state department felt that it was unnecessary to send any instructions to Mr. Willis pending the conclusion of the inquiry. It is believed here that the matter will admit of easy explanation and adjustment.

To Pay Election Expenses Out of Public Funds—Created Field Marshals—Mills Burned.

LONDON, May 25.—The house of commons this evening, by a vote of 166 to 89, adopted a resolution, introduced by Mr. Rowlands, affirming the principle of defraying the expenses of political elections out of the public funds. General Sir Donald Stewart and General Lord Wolseley have been created field marshals. This is an exceptional honor. There have only been five such appointments previously, two of the appointees being the Prince of Wales and the Duke of Cambridge. The Rookery mills at Waldgreen, one of the finest cotton mills in the Huddersfield district, was destroyed by fire today. The loss was £40,000. Several employes in the upper floors had to descend by means of ropes and had their hands badly lacerated.

BRIBERY IN THE UNITED STATES

The Work of the Senate Investigating Committee Proceeding at a Slow Pace.

A Newspaper Man, Summoned as a Witness, Declines to Answer Certain Questions.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—Judge Dittmer, counsel for correspondent "Holland" Edwards, complained the attention of the bribery investigating committee for more than an hour today, and then he and Mr. Edwards were excused to allow the committee an opportunity for private consultation. Outside of the legal argument which he presented, Mr. Dittmer said there were only three exceptions to the rule laid down that a man could not be compelled to reveal a confidence. These exceptions he declared to be in case of knowledge of treason against a man's own country, to save a human life, and to protect a woman's honor. Judge Dittmer further argued that as the information concerning the facts alleged in the article can be obtained elsewhere, it would be unjust, even if the committee has the legal power, to compel Mr. Edwards to violate the confidence reposed in him in a case which does not fall within this category. All these gentlemen, he said, have been manipulated (if any have been) have ample remedy in a criminal court for criminal libel and in a civil court in an action for damages, and in such a case there can be an orderly investigation, guided by the rules of evidence.

THE IMPRESSIONS MADE ON THE MIND OF W. S. FISHER WHILE AWAY FROM HOME.

Victoria, Vancouver and Winnipeg—People Coming in from the States.

"After a trip that occupied about six weeks I came from the Pacific coast of North America and our own little city by the sea, and possessing a far greater degree of confidence in the future of the eastern provinces than when I left home. It was in the course of the trip that I saw the international line and settled in Edmonton and when I finished the firm of Emerson & Fisher of this city told a SUN reporter Saturday.

PROF. SMITH'S CASE.

He Speaks in His Own Defence Before the Presbyterian General Assembly.

SARATOGA, N. Y., May 25.—Professor Smith began his address in his own defence this afternoon, before the Presbyterian general assembly, following Elder D. H. Stielke for the prosecuting committee. Prof. Smith argued that the address on the original charges were based on certain statements which are not in accordance with the doctrine as stated by the prosecution. He went on to say, however, that he has denied nothing about the original paragraph, because he had no evidence upon the subject. The Bible, as we have it, is evidenced to us by the testimony of the Holy Spirit. But in its present shape it contains admitted errors which, however, do not discredit the book as given by the inspiration of God. The matter of inerrancy of the scripture was next discussed and the opposite views drawn from the fact that the ordinances of early scripture were abrogated by later scriptures. Such inerrancy was declared to be non-dogmatic and quite unknown to the reformers. It was added that if the assembly will restore the account to the military list the originals of scripture are discovered, he will spend the rest of his days without fear.

At 12 o'clock, Prof. Smith closed his argument, and the programme announced yesterday as decided upon by the Synod of Ohio was begun. Dr. Townsend, of Cleveland, opened with seven minutes to his credit. Dr. Townsend, of Cleveland, opened with seven minutes to his credit. A TRIP TO THE COAST.

The Impressions Made on the Mind of W. S. Fisher While Away from Home.

Victoria, Vancouver and Winnipeg—People Coming in from the States.

Mr. Fisher stopped at Toronto, Montreal and Ottawa, and returned home possessed with the idea that there are few countries better than his own. Everywhere, he said, he heard men complaining of hard times. Even in California business appeared to be dull. He heard the same cry in Canada, but not nearly so often. He heard it in British Columbia, in Winnipeg and in Ontario. In Quebec, however, business appeared to be better, and in New Brunswick better still. He would advise the young men to stay at home, and to work as hard as nine-tenths of them are obliged to do in other countries, and they would have little to complain of in the maritime provinces.

NAVAL SCHOOLS FOR CANADA.

Capt. Palliser, in a Letter to the London Times, Advocates Their Establishment.

LONDON, G. B., May 27.—Capt. Edward Palliser suggests, in a letter written to the Times, that Canada has, in passing a patriotic militia act, a splendid chance of forming a navy. She occupies, he says, a most important strategic position in the empire, both on the Atlantic and Pacific coasts, and has 40,000 trained seamen from which reserves of trained men could be formed to maintain that position. A leading Canadian statesman, Capt. Palliser asserts, assured him that the formation of naval schools in Canada would be a most profitable move.

THIRTY-FIVE MILES AN HOUR.

PONDA, N. Y., May 27.—W. J. Arkell, publisher of Judge, has just placed an order for a napha yacht seventy-two feet long and guaranteed to run thirty-five miles an hour. The yacht will contest against all comers in American waters, and the first challenge will be to race Richard K. Fox's new yacht for several thousand dollars, to be paid to some New York charity.

FROM SUFFERING TO HEALTH.

The Experience of a Well Known Bruce County Farmer.

He Tells the Story of the Disease That Afflicted Him, the Sufferings He Endured and How the Famous Remedy of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People Restored His Health.

(From the Toronto News.) Of all the ills that flesh is heir to perhaps none causes the sufferer keener anguish, and few are more persistent and more difficult to eradicate from the system than that nervous disease known as sciatica. The victim of an aggravated form of this malady suffers beyond the power of words to express, and it is with the utmost reluctance that the disorder yields to any course of treatment intended for its cure. Hearing that a rather remarkable cure had been effected in the case of Mr. William Baptist, a respected resident of the township of Oulross, a News reporter called upon that gentleman to ascertain the facts. Mr. Baptist is an intelligent and well-to-do farmer. He is well known in the section in which he resides and is looked upon as a man of unimpeachable integrity. He is in the prime of life, and his present appearance does not indicate that he at one time had been a great sufferer. He received the News representative with the utmost cordiality, and cheerfully told the story of his restoration to health, remarking that he felt it a duty to do so in order that others afflicted as he had been might find relief.

Up to the fall of 1893 he had been a healthy man, but at that time while harvesting the turpentine during a spell of wet, cold and disagreeable weather, he was attacked by sciatica. Only those who have passed through a similar experience can tell what he suffered. He says it was something terrible. The pain was almost unendurable and would at times cause the perspiration to ooze from every pore. Sleep forsook his eyelids. His days were days of anguish and night brought no relief. Responsible physicians were consulted without any appreciable benefit. Remedy after remedy was resorted to and his condition was worse than before. The limb affected began to decrease in size, the flesh appeared to be parting from the bone, and the leg assumed a withered aspect. His power of sensation grew less and less. It appeared as if a dead thing and as it grew more and more helpless it is little wonder that the hope of recovery began to fade away. All through the long winter he continued to suffer, and towards spring he was prevailed upon to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. He commenced using them and soon felt that they were doing him good, and hope began to revive. By the time he had taken three boxes the pain was eased and the diseased limb began to assume a natural condition. He continued the use of the remedy until he had taken twelve boxes. In course of time he was able to resume work and today feels that he is completely cured. He has since recommended Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to others with good result.

An analysis shows that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills contain in a condensed form all the elements necessary to give new life to the blood and restore shattered nerves. They are an unfailing specific for all diseases arising from an impoverished condition of the blood, or from an impairment of the nervous system, such as loss of appetite, depression, anemia, chlorosis or green sickness, general muscular weakness, dizziness, loss of memory, locomotor ataxia, paralysis, sciatica, rheumatism, St. Vitus' dance, the after effects of a grippe, and all diseases depending upon a vitiated condition of the blood, such as scrofula, chronic erysipelas, etc. They are also a specific for the troubles peculiar to the female system, building anew the blood and restoring the glow of health to pale and sorrow cheeks. In the case of men they effect a radical cure in all cases arising from mental worry, overwork, or excessive exertion.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are manufactured by the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont., and Schenectady, N. Y., and are sold only in boxes bearing the firm's trade mark and wrapper, at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50, and may be had of all dealers or direct by mail from the Dr. Williams Medicine Company at either address. Beware of imitations and substitutes.
