TWELVE PERSONS DROWNED IN NEW YORK YESTERDAY

Most of the Victims Were Holiday Makers Seeking to Escape the Intense Heat—The Majority Lost Their Lives While Swimming.

NEW YORK, June 22.—Twelve deaths by drowning were recorded in New York and vicinity in the past twenty-four hours, the intense heat drawing thousands to the beaches to seek relief in or on the water. John Milton lost his life rescuing three men who had capsized in a light boat in the East river. Frank Kris strangled in the East side Y. M. C. A. pool after he had broken his neck by a dive. August Taunman, captain of a New York city steam lighter fell from a pier into the North River and was drowned. Robert Roper, fourteen years old, and Jos. Biesano, 17, went down while bathing in the Harlem River. George Williamson, 21, succumbed to cramps at North Beach. David Griffin, met a similar fate at Sheepshead Bay. Chester Hart and John Gentel sank in a bathing pool near Trenton, N. J. An unknown man was drowned in the North River and an unknown boy in Lake Hopakong, N. J. Frank Donahoe was drowned in Staten Island Sound.

MANY CRIMES DUE TO EXCESSIVE HEAT

Murders and Murderous Assaults Follow Climbing of the Mercury in Paris.

PARIS, June 20.—The excessive heat which is being experienced in Paris has been responsible for an extraordinary number of crimes during the last three days. Yesterday thirteen serious crimes were reported in Paris alone, and the list is by no means complete. A wine merchant was almost cut to pieces by two customers in Montmartre this morning because his wife was sour. A rag-picker went mad and half killed a woman, whose brother shot him dead. A hotel servant was suddenly attacked by the occupant of a room which did not please him, and was killed by a blow with a chair. An "Apeche," for no apparent reason, stabbed two women who were bitten so badly in the face that he is in the hospital. Two rapistries came to blows, and one drawing a revolver shot the other dead. A furious crowd attempted to lynch the father and mother of two little children, whom they cared for ineffectively, and nearly killed the father. When the police took them prisoners the crowd fell on the police and wounded six of them in their efforts to get at the couple again. A cab driver was garroted and robbed in broad daylight by a customer this afternoon and left for dead in a secluded street. Four suicides are reported. The first was a young soldier who poisoned himself because his leave ended this morning. The second, a man of 53, suffocated himself because he had lost his position as a clerk. The third was the suicide of a young woman who shot herself dead in the courtyard of her husband in the Place Violet because a fireman who was engaged to her broke off his engagement. The fourth suicide was that of a young German painter named Wiegels. He tried to shoot himself on Sunday because it was too hot. The revolver missed fire. Yesterday he all but hanged himself in his studio in the Latin quarter, but was rescued by his friend, and spent a happy evening in Montmartre distributing, for luck, pieces of the rope with which he had hanged himself. Today he hanged himself again from the nail that he used yesterday, and this time he succeeded.

TWO ARRESTED FOR MURDER AT GLACE BAY

D. J. McKinnon and Maurice Guthro Locked Up

Charged With Having Killed Clifford Murphy in February—Action Follows Coroner's Inquest.

GLACE BAY, June 22.—The chief of police arrested Donald John McKinnon and Maurice Guthro, on Saturday evening charging them with the murder of Clifford Murphy of this town, formerly of Halifax, on the night of February 28th, 1906. Murphy was found drowned in the harbor about two weeks ago, and the arrests were the result of the coroner's inquiry which intimated his work on Saturday last. The information was laid by the chief of police. When arrested the men had nothing to say. Their preliminary hearing will take place here today. The Crown prosecutors will now very likely assume charge of the case.

MONTREAL, Q., June 22.—J. H. Plummer arrived from Toronto Saturday, and F. P. Jones from Sydney, and they have been in conference ever since in regard to the Steel Co. annual meeting which takes place Thursday. There is a rumor that there is something further doing in the Coal-Steel settlement, but Mr. Plummer says that there is nothing to give to the public as yet, and Mr. Jones was simply talking over the business of the annual meeting.

BOY OF FIFTEEN SLAYS HIS GIRL-LOVE

MILAN, June 20.—Light has been shed on the recent murder of the young girl, Carolina Fiovano, aged 14, in the San Vito forest, near Turin, in the confession of a lad of 15, named Domenico Villa. In the course of his investigations the police deemed it necessary to ransack the dwelling of the girl's family, where they lighted upon a quantity of letters addressed to Carolina by the boy Villa, whose parents are guardians of a palatial summer residence in the vicinity. The 15-year-old brother of the murdered girl then admitted having acted as the bearer of messages between the two lovers. On visiting Villa's home the police had their suspicions further aroused by the fact that the boy had been hurriedly sent away by his parents to the care of relatives living in the mountains at Valsalice. There the detectives discovered the youth, who at first brazenly denied the slightest acquaintance with the victim. He was closely protected by a gathering of fourteen relatives, and it was only after many hours' impatient discussion that the detectives were able, through a clever ruse, to bring Villa to bay. He confessed his guilt, but asserted that Carolina, in running away from him, fell over the rocks and so perished by her death. The medical evidence, however, quite excludes this explanation of the fatal wound. Carolina's girl's body, while it equally demonstrates gross allegations made by Villa against his sweetheart's character to be cruel calumnies. Villa says that when he had assured himself that Carolina was lifeless he started to flee, but, encountering the middle-aged man, who has since been sought for and wide as the real assassin, told him there was a girl taken ill down in the glade. This man went and informed the maid at an adjacent villa and continued his journey. Almost incredible to relate, the boy Villa returned later to the scene of the outrage and mixed freely with doctors and carabinieri around the corpse without betraying the least personal concern. Next day he unburied himself to his mother, who cleverly dissimulated to his own state of mind and sent away her son on the following evening on his return from the parish church to San Vito, where he actually told the death knell during an impromptu funeral in memory of the beautiful child he had slain.

In the Circuit Court today the case of R. Gibson vs. L. McGrath was continued. The plaintiff claims $1,000 for assault and battery. Edward Quirk, son of Mrs. McGrath, was the first witness for the defence, and he narrated some incidents affecting the assault. Mrs. McGrath denied having used abusive language to the plaintiff and said that she had during the fight between her husband and the plaintiff, tried to effect peace and good will. On being cross-examined she stated that she could prove that the plaintiff had stolen a saw from her. After the case of Gibson vs. McGrath is finished the prisoners in goal awaiting sentence will be dealt with.

CONFERENCE TAKES STRONG STAND FOR SOCIAL REFORM

MUCH INTEREST TAKEN IN FIRST GAMBLING CASE

Hearing Begins Today Against Race Track Man Who Violated New York's Latest Law.

NEW YORK, June 22.—Racing interests in this vicinity are profoundly interested in the case of Melvin Collins, who was selected by counsel for the Jockey club to be arrested at the Sheepshead Bay track last week, in order that a judicial interpretation of the new anti-gambling laws may be obtained. The case against Collins was expected to take form today when he was scheduled to appear before Justice Bischoff of the supreme court in New York County on a writ of habeas corpus. Counsel for the Jockey club and Assistant District Attorney Elder of Kings county, seem to be agreed that the Collins case will afford a fair basis for an interpretation of the new laws upon which the fate of horse racing in New York appears to depend. The legal question in the Collins case is whether a verbal bet, accompanied by the passage of money won or lost, but without the making of a memorandum of the bet constitutes a violation of the law. Collins had made such a bet when he was arrested by the private detectives in the employ of the Coney Island Jockey Club, under whose auspices the races were being held. He was taken to a magistrate's court, where he was held for hearing today, but counsel for the Jockey club quickly brought the case before the supreme court by securing a writ of habeas corpus. Mr. Elder, who at first asserted that he would not make any agreement upon the case with the racing interests, declares he will prosecute Collins. In other respects this promise to be a momentous day for the racing interests. The injunction secured by the Coney Island Jockey Club restricting the police from interfering with the orderly collection of patrons about the racetrack grounds, was returned before Justice Bischoff today, when the question whether or not it shall be made permanent might be argued. The cases of a number of bookmakers arrested by the New York police at the Gravesend and Sheepshead Bay tracks, charged with making a writ of habeas corpus, are to come up in the magistrate's court in Coney Island today. In addition it is reported that the Kings County grand jury will begin today an investigation of conduct of all the race tracks in that county, which comprises those at Sheepshead Bay, Gravesend and Brighton Beach.

The hearing in the case of the nineteen bookmakers arrested at the Gravesend and Sheepshead Bay tracks, were set for June 23 by Magistrate Voorhees in the Coney Island court today. The action was taken at the request of both the District Attorney and counsel for the defendants in order to await the disposal of the Collins case before the Supreme Court.

ASSASSIN IN REMORSE BETRAYS ACCOMPLICES

Murder by Boy of Seventeen Leads to Capture of Mafia Gang.

ROME, June 20.—Twenty members of the Sicilian Mafia were arrested by the police yesterday at a seminary near Santarano in the following circumstances: Before the trial grade brethren, a certain Vincenzo Polito, was suspected of treachery. Since he was suspected of many delicate secrets of the dread organization its death council terminated a three nights' debauch of his case with the unanimous vote for his assassination. Alfonso Campanella, a youthful novice of 17, was chosen by lot to deal the death blow. Least he should waver at the supreme moment three associates were assigned him, one who was to deliver him a dagger, and the other two to see that the vendetta was thoroughly carried out and at the hour fixed by the tribunal. The quartet supped together and toward midnight while the companions watched the development of the tragedy from a hiding place, young Campanella knocked at Polito's residence, and the wicklowed and bade him deliver him. Polito obeyed, and after the couple had passed on, Campanella swiftly turned his dagger in the breast of the traitor. A clever cross-examination drew from him the names of his three accomplices, who in their turn denounced the tribunal with the result above described.

ARTIST COMMITS SUICIDE IN STUDIO

Wiegels was something of a mystic and painted pictures of the ultra-impressionist style. For some days he had shown many signs of mental agitation, and on Sunday morning went out into the courtyard and hanged to an itinerant female singer a 25 cent which he had received that morning from his family in Berlin. In the afternoon he invited a few friends to call at his studio to give their opinion of a new impressionist canvas he had just painted. The picture is behind the curtain, he said, after inviting them to sit down. "I will go behind and arrange it, and in two or three minutes you shall see a very remarkable piece of work." He then disappeared behind a black curtain. One of the guests out of curiosity looked behind the curtain and discovered Wiegels hanging from a rope. The curtain was pulled aside and the artist was discovered in a contorted position hanging to a large hook which had been driven into the top of a gable cast down by his friends and revived with cold water and cordials. "Well," he said, "I brought you here to witness my suicide, but as you have not done me down I suppose I am not to die yet." He then became very gay, and cutting up the cord with which he had tried to hang himself, distributed pieces of it among his friends "for luck." In order to prevent a renewal of his attempt his friends would not leave him for the remainder of the evening. This morning, however, he was found dead in his studio by a charwoman, hanging to the same painted gable.

YALE AND HARVARD CREWS

IN SPLENDID SHAPE

Both Eight's Said to be the Best That Have Carried the University Colors for Years

NEW LONDON, Conn., June 21.—The hard work of the Yale and Harvard rowing squad, which are in quarters up river four miles ended last night, and the warm wave which is passing over this section will give the prospect of a fine race for the men until Thursday can take matters easily. There will be short daily rows when conditions are favorable but no grueling spins for long distances. The variety eights are in excellent condition physically and full of courage over the prospect. There is little choice between the two eights, in spite of the change made last week in the Harvard boat when Cutler was moved from the four oared boat to take the place of the Fish, recalled to Cambridge. Individually both eights are made up of the biggest men who have filled seats in crews sent to the Thames in recent years.

Scrutiny of the rival eights covering the period of practice here, shows that Yale has a very strong, smooth rowing boat. Expert oarsmen say that beyond question this year the crew looks to be the best in a good many years.

The Harvard eight is recognized as the best seen on the river for years, and it rows with strength, keeps the boat going all the time and has greater smoothness in its blade work than any crewmen ever seen here. The Yale crew finds its stroke cleaner, but aside from the both crews seem at their best row very much alike. Cutler's absence in the boat has not made any noticeable difference.

ANNUAL COMMUNION

Smallness of the Head Church the Reason Given for Communion—Branch Churches Will Continue

BOSTON, June 20.—The annual communion of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, which for some years have been the occasion of the gathering in Boston of the members of the Christian Scientists from all parts of the world, bringing over 5,000 to Boston last Sunday, are to be discontinued.

The great membership of the Boston church and its limited seating capacity given as the principal reason for abolishing the communion season in the mother church in a communication sent out today by Mrs. Mary Baker Eddy, head of the church, which provides, however, that the branch churches still continue the custom of the communion season.

HEAT RESULTS IN

MANY DEATHS

BOSTON, June 21.—One death and a number of prostrations was the result of a hot Sunday in Boston today. Edward Brown, aged 72 years, was overpowered and died in church.

NEW YORK, June 21.—The warm weather around this city today drove numbers to the beaches for relief and as a result eight deaths were reported. It is believed that there were several others, but the police simply state that they are missing. Five of the deaths were reported by the maximum temperature for the day was 87.0.

NEED AND NEEDS.

Perhaps many persons have wondered why we are taught to say "I'll need to do that," instead of "I'll need no that," as the singular pronoun, he, requires under ordinary conditions the singular form of the verb. The reason is that in a sentence of that kind, a negative sentence, expressing requirement or obligation, "need" becomes auxiliary and takes no change of termination in the third person singular. This exception is laid down in the grammar.

TWO PAIN STORIES.

Mr. James Payne was one of the kindest-hearted of men, yet he was somewhat cruel in his remarks. One night he had been playing whist at his club having as one of his opponents, a man he had never met before. He was sitting at the table with his hand on his forehead and said to the other player, "You laugh like a cannibal." "Well, if I do," said the novelist, "at least I can't swallow you."

Upon another occasion he was met by a man of his acquaintance, at whose rough and uncouth manner he often joked. "It's all very well, Payne," said the personage, "but I don't run about like you. I live all my life on one floor" (meaning thereby that he stayed in his office all day). "Really," said Mr. Payne, "and not the first floor either, I should imagine!" The late H. OTHELLO ENACTS

A BLOODLESS ROLE

PARIS, June 21.—An Othello of Passy has turned out less tragic than he seemed. He is an honest publican of middle age, and his young wife last too willing an ear to a dashing book-keeper of 24. He swore that he would be horribly revenged, and compelled her to assign an appointment to her lover which he lay in wait behind a curtain. When the barometer was there the husband revealed himself with a large revolver in his hand. He fired off six chambers, three at the lover, who bolted, and three at the wife, who screamed "murder" and fell back, not dead, but in a faint.

The jealous husband had shot all six times with blank cartridges. Why, under the circumstances, he took the trouble to fire at all is an interesting problem in psychology. At any rate, having blazed away, he seemed satisfied. All the neighbors rushed in, "I give myself in charge," said the wronged husband, and he insisted that his wife, who was upset but unharmed, and wondered how it was, should follow him to the police station, to complete the dramatic ensemble, with all the neighbors. There he declared that he had fired with blank cartridges, and this having been proved correct, as no trace of a bullet could be found anywhere, he was discharged.

The erring wife was repentant, and he forgave her. But the sequel was equally curious. When husband and wife got home again, she seems to have suddenly thought herself that she had been deceived. She was so demonstrative in her general drama, she thereupon took up a carrying knife and stabbed herself repeatedly in the left side over the heart. But luckily, she had had the foresight to keep her knife in a tin, so that she did not stab herself. She was taken to the hospital, and it is believed that she will be discharged.

MANY DEATHS

BOSTON, June 21.—One death and a number of prostrations was the result of a hot Sunday in Boston today. Edward Brown, aged 72 years, was overpowered and died in church.

NEW YORK, June 21.—The warm weather around this city today drove numbers to the beaches for relief and as a result eight deaths were reported. It is believed that there were several others, but the police simply state that they are missing. Five of the deaths were reported by the maximum temperature for the day was 87.0.

NEED AND NEEDS.

Perhaps many persons have wondered why we are taught to say "I'll need to do that," instead of "I'll need no that," as the singular pronoun, he, requires under ordinary conditions the singular form of the verb. The reason is that in a sentence of that kind, a negative sentence, expressing requirement or obligation, "need" becomes auxiliary and takes no change of termination in the third person singular. This exception is laid down in the grammar.

TWO PAIN STORIES.

Mr. James Payne was one of the kindest-hearted of men, yet he was somewhat cruel in his remarks. One night he had been playing whist at his club having as one of his opponents, a man he had never met before. He was sitting at the table with his hand on his forehead and said to the other player, "You laugh like a cannibal." "Well, if I do," said the novelist, "at least I can't swallow you."

MAN SHOT BECAUSE HIS

NOSE WAS LONG

Troubles of an Everyday Cyrano Culminate in Astonishing Attack

PARIS, June 21.—Charles Bertrand, a mechanic, aged 25 years, yesterday lost an eye and is now lying in a hospital because nature has bestowed on him a nose of phenomenal dimensions.

He was walking along the Rue Croix-Nivert when a man approached him, and, walking by his side, continued to take an offensive interest in his facial appearance. Bertrand is accustomed to annoyance of this sort, but in this case it was so pronounced that he turned into a cafe to escape it.

But the man followed him, and, accosting him presumptuously, demanded what he was so interested in. Bertrand replied sadly that he was irascible, but the man declared that he was an artist, and would not stand by. He thereupon drew a revolver and aimed at the object of his hatred, the eyes. He was at once arrested, and his victim was removed to the hospital.

A TEMPERANCE TATTOO.
Kim Kyong Gyo, a big, strapping fellow energetic in body and zealous in spirit, who is engaged in selling the scriptures in Korea, was worshipping evil spirits, says a missionary who sends home the story to the British and Foreign Bible Society. For three years he sacrificed a cow to them each year. When Kim became a Christian he cleared out of his house and premises twenty-seven "devil nests," made of paper and old rags.

On the hall of each thumb Kim has a black spot and the missionary asked him if they were tattoos.

"Yes," said Kim, "I did that when I vowed to give up strong drink, so that if ever again I raised a glass of liquor to my mouth in silver, I should see that spot and remember my vow."—London Quiver.

AS GOOD AS A PORTER.

It is curious how many people are in ignorance of simple little facts in connection with every day life, which would save them a large amount of unnecessary labor and fatigue. Take the case of carrying a heavy bag of portmanteau for instance. We all know that the wrong way in which it is carried against our legs and the almost intolerable ache in the arm that is supporting the burden. Few people are aware, however, that by folding a couple of newspapers and putting them under one's armpit a large amount of the strain and inconvenience is immediately removed. Try it next time you are hurrying to catch a train.

THE LOCH LOMOND SERVICE.
There is, at least, some slight ground for the hope that in the near future, insurance rates in St. John may be reduced. The demands of the underwriters are being met, and in a very few days the city should be able to prove that the new service from Loch Lomond is worth the time that has been spent on it.

THE KNOCKING PROPENSITY.
If you have a little hammer in your fist, and you start a gentle motion with your wrist, there will come a lot of knocks that will give somebody shocks which will last until you're ready to die.

SUNDAY OUT OF TOWN.
At the present time and indeed during almost the whole of our short summer, the attendance at St. John churches is small. The tendency among those who find it necessary to work for a living is to get away to the country for a day, and as many others have acquired the suburban habit, living out of town during the whole of the warm season, that those who remain behind are scarcely numerous enough to maintain the Amen corners. Gradually the more faithful workers are coming to the opinion that it is in the interests of people and churches that congregations should unite during this season.

A COMING CONFERENCE.
The Imperial Government has through its foreign secretary Sir Edward Grey, invited representatives of the other principal maritime powers to meet in London in the autumn to discuss certain matters before ratifying the Prize Court Convention drafted at the little Hague Conference last summer.

NEW CRUISER SAILED.
QUINCY, Mass., June 20.—The scout cruiser Salem, built for the United States Government by the Fore River Shipbuilding Company, sailed from the Fore River yards today for Rockland, Maine. She will undergo her acceptance trials over the Rockland course.

deal to create an International Prize Court survived as a kind of compromise between the British and German schemes, neither of which was accepted in its integrity. That the British Admiralty would ever consent to abandon the unfettered right of search and capture at sea was quite unexpected by the foreign diplomatists, who were greatly surprised at the attitude adopted by the eminent Chancery lawyer, the senior British delegate, and his colleagues. As the result there is now an agreement in principle that any prizes captured by British ships for alleged breaches of neutrality will be adjudicated upon by an International Court of fifteen judges, sitting at The Hague.

After leaving the shed the guests were taken over the balloon factories, and shown the methods of balloon construction and preparing the compressed hydrogen for the rapid filling of field balloons.

JAMIE KNEW HER.
"Now, Jamie," said a school teacher, "if there was only one pie for dessert, and there were five of you children and your mother and father to divide it among, how large a piece would you get?"

THEY ARE INDEPENDENT.
A training school can be called independent when it is able to place students as salary earners as soon as they reach the standard.

THEY ARE INDEPENDENT.
This while many graduates of other schools are content to take positions at two and three dollars a week, the Currie Business University graduates turn down all such propositions for the reason that they are averaging a dollar a day and over exerting work in the public typewriting and auditing offices of this school, besides enhancing their value by public service.

THEY ARE INDEPENDENT.
Over five thousand dollars have been spent by this school in order to give the city this service. This feature alone has placed the Currie Business University years in advance of any commercial school in Canada; hence the reason why the amount required for entrance fee will advance.

MARYSVILLE, N. Noel Robertson and Ert. Boyce were the battery for Marysville, while Boone and Denison were between the points for the Stars. Robertson had 5 strikeouts to his credit while Boone had 7. St. Mary's with hits at the right time and errors by Marysville won the game for the visitors.

NOBODY KNOWS ABOUT A TORNADO IN SPAIN
PARIS, June 22.—Special despatches received here from Madrid say that nothing is known there of the reported tornado with loss of life in Spain. A despatch from Lisbon to a news agency there says: "The reports of a cyclone in Portugal are absolutely false."

THE DANDELION.
A good time to exterminate the dandelion is in the autumn. It cannot be done by digging up the plant, for it is impossible to extract all of the roots, and later on twice as many plants will spring up. The best way is to pour gasoline all around and into the center of the plant and in a few days it will shrivel up and die.

PREPARING FOR SUMMER.
All woollen garments should be thoroughly brushed, aired and cleaned before packing away, for spots of any sort are seized up by moths as specially detectable. An excellent cleaning fluid that should always be kept on hand for spotting spots comes in wall at this time and may be made in quantity to last through the year. Shave fine one-quarter pound white castile soap, pour one quart of soft water over it and let it soak over night. In the morning let it set on the back of the stove, where it will dissolve, but not boil. Then take four or five quarts of soft rain water or distilled water, put in the soap and stir through it, then add one ounce of liquid ammonia, one-quarter ounce of spirits of wine, and one ounce of ether. Shake the bottle, shake each time before using.

ASTONISHING VALUES IN FANCY VESTS THIS WEEK.

Our unusually large stock of Fancy Vests, combined with the cool season, are to us sufficient reason for reducing the price. So we have taken a liberal line of the most pleasing patterns, all sizes, values up to $1.50, and marked all at the uniform figure of 75c.

In the higher grades, also, we are prepared to give you the greatest real bargain you have seen—vests that are almost unique in design—fabrics that please the most critical—a discount of 25 per cent. off all prices above $1.50.

SEPARATE TROUSERS.
You probably need at least one pair for summer wear—something that will "go well" with that dark coat. We offer an exceptional line—exceptional in quality of fabric, in cut, in fit—and in price.

$2.50 to $4.50 are the price limitations on a line that should be marked considerably higher.

Trousers that are built to wear—built to more firmly cement the friendship between our customers and ourselves—trousers you can positively depend upon for the good service and retention of original shape and freshness which only high grade cloth and skillful tailoring can insure.

Calley Arrested for Shooting Night Watchman, Tried to Hang Himself in Cell—Witnesses Held.

PAWTUCKET, R. I., June 20.—William Calley, the blacksmith of this city, who last night shot and fatally wounded Night Watchman Elmer West, and seriously wounded Special Officer William Gammell, an Patrolman Frank E. Rutman, was not brought into court today, the police authorities feeling to hold him until the ultimate result of West's wound was known. West was still alive at the Twin City Hospital late this afternoon, but his death was expected hourly. Special Officer Gammell was in a serious condition, while Patrolman Rutman was said to be improving.

It developed during the day that Calley tried to commit suicide after his arrest, by hanging himself to the bars of his cell door with his belt.

James McNally and his sister, Mary LeGan, were arrested today and held as witnesses. It is alleged that Calley shot Gammell because he refused to arrest McNally upon the representations of Calley who objected to McNally's attentions to his sister.

VILLAGES WIPED OUT BY IMMENSE FOREST FIRES

Thousands of Acres of Timber Lands Swept by Fire—Hundreds Rendered Homeless—Big Area Threatened

DETROIT, Mich., June 20.—Fires in Northern Michigan forests in the last two days, have destroyed at least three villages, rendered hundreds homeless, swept over thousands of acres of timber land and caused damages estimated at about $200,000.

The village of Calais in Presque Isle County was destroyed today, and Le Grande, a little town in Cheboygan County was abandoned to the flames tonight.

While a big fire at Wolverine was being fought a call for aid was received from Rondo, three miles north. The firemen could not leave Wolverine throughout the morning Rondo was at the mercy of the flames.

The village of Kentucky near Boyne City has been wiped out while a special fire fought threatens the entire south part of Cheboygan.

HITCHCOCK WILL NOT ACT AS NATIONAL CHAIRMAN

CINCINNATI, Ohio, June 20.—Secretary Taft's visit to his home city, so far as concerned the selection of a Republican National chairman was a fruitless mission.

Frank H. Hitchcock, who managed the preliminary campaign of the war secretary at Washington, might have had the chairmanship but at the last moment he declined to permit the use of his name because of the condition of his health.

CHICAGO, June 20.—Republican leaders from all sections of the country who have remained here for a few days after the convention refused to accept as final the destination of Frank Hitchcock to accept the chairmanship of the National Committee which carries with it the management of the campaign for the election of the Taft and Sherman ticket.

WORLD'S TEMPERANCE CONGRESS IN SESSION

BARATOGA, N. Y., June 21.—The theme of the liquor traffic and the progress of the wave of prohibition were discussed in detail by John G. Weller, of Chicago, candidate for President on the Prohibition ticket in 1908. In a speech today before a meeting of the world's Temperance Congress, many of the local churches gave over their pulpits today to temperance workers.

The important event in the two concluding days of the congress will be a discussion of the army of contention and the annual contest of the intercollegiate oratorical society of the eastern states, with contestants from New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan and Louisiana.

WORLD'S TEMPERANCE CONGRESS IN SESSION

BARATOGA, N. Y., June 21.—The theme of the liquor traffic and the progress of the wave of prohibition were discussed in detail by John G. Weller, of Chicago, candidate for President on the Prohibition ticket in 1908. In a speech today before a meeting of the world's Temperance Congress, many of the local churches gave over their pulpits today to temperance workers.

The important event in the two concluding days of the congress will be a discussion of the army of contention and the annual contest of the intercollegiate oratorical society of the eastern states, with contestants from New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan and Louisiana.

IS CRIME TO BE TREATED AS DISEASE?

A Review of Dr. Albert Wilson's New Book, by Raymond Blathway in Black and White.

Dr. Albert Wilson has recently published a book in which, to a certain extent, he establishes the physical basis of character, and in which, incidentally, he gives some deeply interesting experiences of his researches into criminology.

No one has a wider or more diversified acquaintance with the underworld of this vast body politic than he, and no one regards the criminal with greater science and sympathy than he does, and his plea that the doctor and the lawyer should consistently and officially work together, hand in hand, will commend itself to every thinking person in the land.

KING OF BURGLARS.
He has many friends in the criminal world, in whom he has made many of his friends, and he has made many of his friends in the world of science, and he has made many of his friends in the world of the Salvation Army, who more than any others, with the exception of a few Roman Catholic and High Anglican priests, have made the submerged tenth their special care.

And one of these friends is Joe Smith, the king of the burglars, who though he was once Charlie Peace's partner and favorite confederate, is now a well-known writer of articles on criminology and a leading novelist.

Of Joe Smith, Dr. Wilson tells the following thrilling story: Smith, who has spent more than twenty years in prison, and who was the strongest man in the United States, was once a cabinet minister, happened once to fall under the displeasure of the Governor of the State.

On his release from this prison, Joe called on help on a well-known missionary, who had been in the State to relate, repulsed him, and advised him to commit another crime and so set a longer sentence. The missionary, who the devil in the newly-released man that, purchasing a revolver, he went off by train to his old prison, to the house of his enemy the Governor and broke his way in.

PSYCHOLOGICAL PROBLEM.
"When a criminal is caught," says Dr. Wilson, "he should not be treated like a haunted animal, but like a diseased organism, or even as a psychological problem. His case should be shifted from before the time he has had fifty convictions, or none, or even if he has been in prison twenty years. The question is not, 'Who are you? Who are you? What are you?' but 'Why are you? What are you?'"

At five-thirty Minnie Hawk's agent, giving a last look round, discovered the trunk and costumes of Marie Rose in the room, and he took them to those of Minnie Hawk should be. Whereupon he instructed the stage hands to exchange the trunk and costumes, and then, locking the door, departed in peace. At six o'clock arrived Marie Rose, to find the trunk and costumes of Marie Rose in the room, and she took them to those of Minnie Hawk should be. Whereupon he instructed the stage hands to exchange the trunk and costumes, and then, locking the door, departed in peace.

LIFE OF CHILDREN.
A terrible, but humorous glimpse is afforded into the life of the children of the criminal class, by the following anecdote which Dr. Wilson relates. A young boy, who had been in the State for a long time, was brought before the court, and the judge, who had been in the State for a long time, was brought before the court, and the judge, who had been in the State for a long time, was brought before the court.

THE DOCTOR'S ARGUMENT.
"Today," as Dr. Wilson puts it, "Joe is a good man, and does much to help his class. He is a fine personality. He would have made a good Prime Minister or General if society had given him the opportunity."

"And this is the main burden of Dr. Wilson's argument. He maintains that the State and the State between them deliberately manufacture the criminal classes. Each year (says he) he sends thousands of men to the State, who, in ten years' time will, in their turn, be 50,000 rotting and worthless subjects."

THE JEALOUSIES OF THOSE ON THE STAGE

In no other profession in the world are the quarrels and jealousies more pronounced and more frequent, than among the shining stars of the operatic stage. The quarrels of prime donnas, impresarios, maestros, and so forth, fill hundreds on hundreds of chapters in the history of music.

One of the innumerable stories still extant, relates to the enthusiasm of an aged American Governor of Missouri in kissing the Diva at a reception. Of course, the newspapers made the most of the Patti kiss, and some of them immediately went on to interview Madame Gerster. At that time Patti rival star in America.

GERSTER'S OPINION.
"I really don't see anything in it to make such a fuss," remarked Madame Gerster. "There is nothing wrong in a man kissing a woman."

At the end of the first act of one of her great performances, before she had hardly sung a note, bouquet after bouquet was passed up to Patti till the audience became restive and instead of applauding relaxed into stony silence. Presently, however, a small basket of flowers was handed on to the stage by Madame Gerster, and the whole audience broke into wild cheering. This so annoyed Patti that at the end of the performance she announced she would never play with Gerster again.

At the Unique

For Monday and Tuesday of this week the pictures that will be shown at the Unique are superior to any that have ever been shown in this city in many a long day. This picture is too well known to require much description; those who have read the book can imagine how interesting this picture is. Every inch of film is full of bright, interesting drama. The next picture is a new one and has never been shown before. It is entitled Grandfather's Pills. An old man reads in a paper about some pills that will restore youth to the most decrepit and feeble. Charmed with the prospect the old man goes to the inventor of the medicine and purchases a box of the pills. He takes one and feeling the effect, starts out for a walk. His grandson discovers the box and decides to try them. He takes a whole handful and goes out on the street. He meets two men who are endeavoring to lift a heavy cabinet into a van; he pushes them away and lifts the heavy piece of furniture himself. He next encounters a policeman and throws him over the fence. On his return home he meets his grandfather, who wants to punish him for the escapade, but the young Hercules takes him across his knees, gives him a sound thrashing and puts him out of the room. Two other new pictures and two new illustrated songs, Walt Till the Roses Leaves Fall, by Wm. Larvay, and June Moon, by Robert Butler.

Happy Half Hour

The new programme at the Happy Half Hour toy will last fifty minutes. For the first time in this city the Pianquette's popular opera, The Chimes of Normandy, will be given, and many of the scenes from this opera will be played while the picture is being shown. Returning God for Evil is a pathetic dramatic story full of heart interest and one that will appeal to everybody. Sunday with the Boss is a laugh from start to finish. A philanthropic boss invites his clerk to spend Sunday with him in the country. The clerk accepts, but before the day is over he wishes he hadn't. It's a laugh from start to finish. Fred, Thus and As Long as the World Rolls On. This song is by the author of Love Me and the World is Mine, and is just as big a hit. Harry LaRoy will sing another hit, I'd Like to Call on You.

On the Bijou Curtain.

If you've a few minutes to spare, say three quarters of an hour and want a big five cents worth of pictures—Bijou—That's the place! A good string of great pictures for today and tomorrow's show. The Great Steeple Chase, showing how the beautiful steeds take the high walls and hedges in their eager career to win. Then all of a sudden one horse falls, on top pile three other horses and riders. Get straightened away again, some horses continue riders, but most exciting of all—last horse up from the six wins! A picture all horse lovers that includes nearly everybody will appreciate. Next comes The Wonderful Alban from which pictures of pretty girls of all nations are torn out leaf by leaf, thrown in the air and transformed into the living. Costumes being beautiful colorings of the native dress. Another amazing transformation is The Phantom of the Opera, depicting a company of pretty girls at drill which turns out to be but a dream of a disappointed soldier. Last, but not least, The Witch a picture portraying Britanny's most famous sorceresses' whose name is household in that part of France, and how she befriends a young lover whose sweetheart has been seduced by her parents; the sweetheart's meeting; the young lover's faithfulness to "Carabosse" and the way in which she and even Minnie Hawk's picture is full of interesting and mystifying witchcraft. Mr. David Higgin will sing "Sacramento," a pretty Indian song.

A RARE POSE.

Playful Kittens at the Nickel
It will be doubly interesting to old and young patrons of the Nickel today to watch a litter of the cutest little kittens at play, for to the lover of household pets little felines are always a source of amusement. The picture was taken by Pathe Freres and shows the kittens in an old silk bag, playing in a gutter and in all sorts of funny positions and at innumerable pranks. The Tattletale Moving Picture Machine will be a unique comedy, while A Tormenting Mother-to-Law and Lazy Jim's Luck will make more laughs. The whole show is bright and new; in fact all Nickel shows are fully abreast of the largest and best motion picture theatres in United States. Mr. Cairns opens another show with the sensational selection, Love Is the Light of the World, and Miss Wren's contribution will be No One Can Take Your Place. The Nickel is delightfully cool, with its three new 24-inch air shafts.

CRUELITIES DRIVE
SOLDIER TO SUICIDE

Maltreatment of Privates in German Army by Non-Commissioned Officers.

Berlin, June 26.—Eight non-commissioned officers of the First Regiment of the Field Artillery of the German Army were summoned today before a divisional court-martial, charged with cruelly mistreating their recruits. Not for five years has the German public been shocked by such disgraceful details. One of the ruffians arrested, a sergeant named Thamm, is accused of mistreatment and maltreatment in over 600 cases. The worst case was that of a runner named Knobbe, who recently committed suicide to escape from Thamm and his like. This unfortunate "defender of the Fatherland" was so maltreated that he was obliged to go to a hospital. When he returned to the barracks the torture was renewed, and to escape it he flung himself from a window three stories high. Kicks, outtings, pulling of ears till the blood came, lashing with driving whips were among the brutal means employed by these officers to enforce discipline and "waken up" backward men. When the witnesses today were asked by the court why they did not complain to their superiors, they replied they were afraid that their lot would be in consequence worse instead of better. General surprise is expressed here that this systematic cruelty, which has been proceeding for years, was apparently unknown to the officers of the regiment. In his defense, Thamm said that he beat Knobbe because of his stupidity, but others testified that Knobbe showed weakness of mind only after long ill-treatment. Pieces of heavy iron from gunners' harness were used, they said, in beating the men. The court sentenced Thamm to fifteen months' imprisonment and degradation. The other defendants were sentenced to terms of arrest in barracks varying from three months to three weeks.

ART TREASURES IN OLD LUMBER ROOM

Pictures Worth About $15,000 Found for $75.

London, June 26.—Alec George, an East Ham pawnbroker, is congratulating himself on having lent $75 on seven old pictures to a needy customer. He has recently discovered that the collection, which was unredemmed, contains several old masters, and is valued by experts at about $15,000. The discovery came about owing to the chance visit to his lumber room, a few days ago, of an antique dealer in quest of old furniture. Neither the pawnbroker nor his customer seem to have had any idea of the real value of the canvases.

The pictures were pledged under a three-months' agreement shortly before Christmas," said Mr. George. "The customer, who I understand, was a prosperous business man who had fallen on evil days, was merely aware that the pictures had been in his family for many years. He made no attempt to redeem them. I lent the money mainly on the value of the frames, one of which is so heavily incrustated with gold that it will bring $15 from the melting pot. The agreement expired in March last, and all the canvases became my property. I placed them in the lumber room among unsalable rubbish. A business acquaintance of mine, an antique dealer, happened to see them early in May, and in consequence of his comments I called in two experts, who are city picture dealers in a large way. They agreed that the collection contained old masters, and was very valuable. A Bond street dealer made me an offer of $2,000 for one of the pictures. He told me it represents the 'Martyrdom of St. Agnes,' and is by Edward Borel. The other expert offered me a sum of three figures for a small canvas about 15 by 23 inches—a portrait of Josephus, attributed to Rembrandt. 'I am not willing to break the collection, however, which I was advised not to dispose of for less than $3000. 'The other pictures include a Juno, as well as Rubens and Gainsborough. 'I visited the customer who pledged the pictures, and found him to be nine weeks in arrears with his rent and in danger of dispossession. I have settled his bill for him, and have promised that he shall receive one-half of the proceeds of the sale of the pictures in business.

WOMEN IN LIVELY
FIGHT IN GROCERY

A fistic encounter between two women took place on Saturday night in Day & Crabbe's grocery store. Mill street, and the spectators state that much hair was shaved and that false teeth were sent flying in every direction. It seems that one of the women claimed that the other, a young girl, had insulted her. She flew at her and was making short work of her when the girl's mother happened on the scene. The mother called in and the fight which followed was chieflly between her and her daughter's assailant. They struck at each other and finally clinched in a few minutes. Policeman Totten was called in to separate the pair. This was no easy task, however, for both lay on the floor in a clinch and no heed was paid to the officer's orders to get up. Finally, however, they were parted and left the store looking greatly disheveled.

TWO MORE PRISONERS
LEAVE THE CHAIN GANG

One of Them is Charles Smith, Who Got Off Easily for Escaping Last Time.

Charles Smith, (colored), and Wm. Baker made their escape from the chain gang this morning. The gang were at work in Rockwood Park when suddenly the two prisoners made a bolt for the woods. Smith, it will be remembered, was the colored youth who, on account of his youth, was let off with a three months sentence for escaping from the gang, while three others were sent to Dorchester for two years. At the same time Smith gave out that Baker was arranging to escape. Baker was in for three months for carrying a loan club, but without to this had been out on suspended sentence for breaking into Magee's tin store on Germain St. Smith's old sentence was through today and the new one of three months was to commence up till one o'clock they had not been recaptured.

CONFERENCE TAKES STRONG
STAND FOR SOCIAL REFORM

After passing these amounts the remainder of this report was laid on the table until the report of the conference on the amalgamation of the sustentation and children funds.

Rev. Geo. Ayers presented the report on temperance and moral reform. Receipts by districts: St. John $345.75; Fredericton $65.75; Woodstock $15; Chatham $23.35; Sackville $71.58; St. Stephen $37.35; Charlottetown $51.51; Summerside $28.50. Total $382.69, increase $38.85.

The committee recommended the establishment of men's clubs, brotherhoods or manhood leagues in all our churches for the study of questions of moral and social reform; that the conference asks the Dominion Government to prohibit the importation, manufacture and sale of opium for other than medical purposes; that the conference memorialize the Provincial Government requesting that provision be made in the course of study in all the normal schools for definite instructions in morals and good citizenship; and that Mount Allison, provincial university, be devoted to the education of the students in the science of sociology and receive such instructions in the curriculum as is considered desirable in all the perfectly equipped universities of the continent, that the criminal code be amended so as to suppress the business of negotiating bets on race tracks and in connection with horse races. We endorse the action of the political party campaign in connection with the last election in New Brunswick and hope that such a movement will become general throughout the Dominion. That the conference join the Moral and Social Reform Council of New Brunswick if the object of this council shall be the promotion of the following moral and social reforms: Political purity and the suppression of gambling; the social evil; traffic in liquor; the Dominion Government to be invited to legislate for beverage purposes, and such other reforms as may be adopted by a two-thirds majority of the Dominion Government. That in case a minor is called as witness in any prosecution of the illegal selling of cigarettes or tobacco he should be required to disclose where he obtained his cigarettes or tobacco. That we express our highest gratification at the results of the recent Scott Act election in the city of Fredericton and recommend that the officers be compelled to enforce the law. That we endorse the establishment of a paper by the general board of temperance and moral reform, and moral reform, and social reform. That the conference make an earnest effort to raise for the temperance and moral reform work one per cent. of the assessable funds. That we reaffirm our approval of the prohibition act now in operation in Prince Edward Island and we heartily endorse the policy of the New Brunswick Federation in seeking to bring about a similar law for New Brunswick. We rejoice in the fact that the government has made illegal the carrying of mail of intoxicating liquors. That the militia department be immediately communicated with and requested not to allow any canteen in connection with the annual drill. That we recommend the reappointment of a standing temperance committee for our conference and nominate the following: Rev. J. Stothard, J. J. Colter, G. A. Sellar, L. J. Wason, Chas. Flemington, together with D. A. Pickering, R. Duncan Smith, F. S. Moore, J. J. Weddall, J. R. Woodburn. That the following be appointed as representatives of the conference on the Board of Temperance and Moral Reform: Rev. H. E. Thomas and Chas. Flemington, and Messrs. J. Hunter White and Peter McCullum.

"We rejoice in the progressive and earnest work of Rev. Dr. Chown, General Secretary of Temperance and Moral Reform as related by him in his most eloquent and stirring address before this conference and pledge ourselves to do our utmost in assisting him in this important movement. (Signed) ROBERT WILSON, Chairman.

Rev. J. W. McConnell reported an addition to the last report of the Board of Trustees. During the year the sum of $50.00 was received, being the proceeds of the Hemphill bequest of Northampton. The interest of this amount is to be paid to the minister on the Jacksonville circuit.

"Johnny, why don't you be a good boy, like your brother, Willy?" the mother was sternly admonishing her naughty son. Willy here may be president some day, while you will have to dig in the sewer.

RIFLEMEN MAKE GOOD SCORES IN MILITARY RIFLE LEAGUE SERIES

The St. John City Rifle Club shot the second match in the league series Saturday afternoon on the local range. The attendance was large and good scores were made by the different units competing. Smoke which laid heavily on the range was the only hindrance the marksmen had, as other conditions were normal. The team from the City Club made the following scores in the match:

CARELESSNESS BRINGS
MOTORCYCLE TO ELEVEN

Motorman Was Running Car Without a Head Light When Crash Came

NORTH ADAMS, Mass., June 21.—Two of the eleven persons injured in the collision of two trolley cars on the Hoosac Valley division of the Berkshire street railway at Williamstown late last night were on the dangerous list at the North Adams hospital and were not expected to live through the night. The others were expected to recover.

Motorman Lee tonight was able to give his version of the accident. He said that he was running his car without a headlight, and asserted that he had telephoned to the car barn calling attention to the fact. According to Lee, he was told there was not any headlight there which could be spared and he was to finish out his trip without one. The only lights he had for a guide, he said, were those of the car ahead, and as it was so dark along the route that he could not make out the grade, he was forced to regulate the rate in speed by the lead car. Suddenly the lights ahead disappeared. Lee thinking that the car might have rounded a curve was going at a good rate of speed in order to get to the top of the grade when he struck a down grade and crashed suddenly into the car in front, with the trolley off and all lights out. Both cars were crowded with passengers, and the collision happened about a half mile east of the Boston and Maine railway station. The forward car was telescoped. Only the three forward seats escaped being broken. About ninety persons were on the cars, and all were more or less hurt either by accident or by the force of the impact. No responsibility for the accident has yet been fixed.

The 62nd Rifle Club held their weekly sports match in the Military Rifle League series on the range on Saturday afternoon, there being a large number of riflemen present—the largest number that ever attended a match since the club was formed. OTTAWA, Ont., June 22.—Obstruction was inaugurated this morning by the form of an Indian administration. The finance minister stated that Mr. Foster that supplementary resolutions to give effect to changes in civil service salaries made by the new bill will be brought down today. The bill to amend the Chinese Immigration act was taken up. An amendment was introduced to make it clear that only Chinese who desire to enter higher or technical education institutions shall be regarded as students under the act after a year at a recognized technical institution shall be entitled to refund of the entry tax. On motion to go into supply Mr. Armstrong of Lambton began an attack upon the Indian department.

NEGRO IN WOMAN'S ATTIRE
TRIED TO KILL POLICEMAN

NEW YORK, June 22.—Garbed in women's clothes, an unknown negro was shot and killed early today on West 22nd street, while attempting to escape after he had cut the throat of Patrolman Thompson, who was arresting him. Thompson had no idea that his prisoner was a man. The negro drew a razor and slashed the policeman across the throat and fled. Thompson struggled to his feet and fired three shots, one of which pierced the negro's brain. Thompson's injuries were not serious.

APPOINTMENT OF REV. MR.
MULLIN NOT OPPOSED

A few days ago Rev. J. S. Mullin, of Stanley, formerly a Presbyterian clergyman, was registered to solicit marriages. Rev. Mr. Mullin, some seven or eight years ago, resigned from the Presbyterian ministry, and is not now connected with any denomination. Judge Forbes, speaking to the Star regarding the establishment of a photographer, and after several dispatches about the place, observed, merrily, that the photographer did not seem to have the properties essential to the taking of a picture he desired. "I should like a picture of myself," he said, "but you fix a grave here in the shop for me."

"I am afraid I haven't the necessary accessories," said the photographer. Then with an attempt at facetiousness he suggested, "Couldn't we arrange to have the portrait made at the grave itself?" "Dot in Pennsylvania!" sighed the German. "It would be too expensive to go there. You just fix up some kind of grave there in the shop. I could voodoo on dot. It's no trouble for me to voodoo any grave."

"Gracious!" exclaimed Mr. Swellman. "The baby has eaten a lot of that blue!" "Never mind, dear," replied Mrs. Swellman. "It just serves Fido right for he's taken the baby's food many a time. Yes, Fido, naughty, naughty!"

Cotton letter.—While the bulls may be able to mark up the price of the near months on technical market and spot conditions, and while this may prevent an immediate decline in the new crop months, they will find it very difficult to create any bullish enthusiasm while weather conditions remain so encouraging and while trade conditions improve so slowly. The bull position is rendered possible by the disparity at which contract prices are compared with spots, and they are probably strong enough to maintain their ground until there is a readjustment. The near months may work higher nominally, but it is improbable that the difference will completely disappear until the new crop begins to move in volume. If there is no change in crop and trade prospects, spot prices may meet contracts half way. Pending this readjustment the market is at a disadvantage owing to the practical corner in the near months, and the risk he must run of bad weather accounts, but the case is nothing in the present situation that can be regarded as a basis for investment conditions or a serious check to the development of the market. The change the situation, but the latter factor at any rate is one of those uncertainties on which no one has a right to account and the former is not at present indicated. W. W. Price, 15, 12 p. m. Bull Smelting are sold on rallies and bought on dips by the room for small profits. The same may be said of Penna. Ach. Rys. and Great Northern, which continue in a trading position. Information is favorable to the Copper. Reports on Steel are mixed, but leaning to unfavorable because of the cuts and the expression of unfavorable earnings report for the quarter. The Grangers are preferred by investors and are scarce. Reports of attacks are heard on Rum. Iron issues for accumulation.

ST. MARTINS TO HAVE A

NEW HOTEL NEXT YEAR

Seminary Will Not be Opened This Summer—People Expect Big Tourist Business.

St. Martins people are expecting a very heavy tourist season, and, although the rush has not yet started, rooms in the various hotels have been engaged by different people who intend spending part of the summer down there. This resort is very beautiful now and the few visitors already on hand have greatly enjoyed the past couple of weeks. By next summer the old Seminary will be opened as a tourist hotel. The New Brunswick Tourist and Hotel Company, of which J. Harry King is the head, purchased the Seminary a few months ago from the North American Life Insurance Company. It was not the intention to open the hotel this summer as a great deal of work is to be done on the building both inside and out, and improvements must be made to the land. This will be taken up during the autumn and winter, and early next summer the hotel will be started.

WHY THE COACHMAN?

New Brunswick has a genuine sensation in what we take to be high life. The daughter of the Lieutenant Governor has eloped with her father's coachman. He is described as "a fine looking young Scotchman, and we have no doubt the young lady might have done very much worse." A fine looking young coachman is not to be sneezed at nowadays. What interests us in the affair is the fact that it was, as usual, the coachman! Why do they always run away with coachmen? Why are coachmen always the lucky dogs who win the affections of the daughter of the house? No one ever heard of a young girl running away with the gardener or the butler or even the chauffeur whose opportunities for running away are unequalled. If we were a young girl and contemplated an elopement we choose the butler every time. To a young couple starting housekeeping on nothing but love and faith, a runaway coachman is about the poorest imaginable sort of asset, while an ex-butler could be made to turn his hand to almost anything about the house. He hopes, just as soon as Mr. Horden gets into office to have a Royal Commission appointed to inquire into the reasons for the extraordinary and surprising attractions of coachmen with Proposals for Contracting or Diminishing the same.—Halifax Echo.

HOLD UP ATTEMPTED NEAR THE CITY

Highwaymen Make Attack on a Dark Road

A Youth Assaulted by Two Desperados Pulls a Gun and Escapes After a Lively Fracas

A murderous assault was committed by a couple of highwaymen late last night on the Westmorland Road. Fortunately the person they assailed was able to take care of himself, and the assailants got the worst of the attack. George Northrup, aged 18, was returning home about a quarter to eleven last night when the attack took place. A couple of hundred yards from where it branches from the Lock Leonard road the Westmorland Road dips suddenly over a little hill. The hollow at this place is shaded by trees from the city lights and forms one of the darkest spots on the road.

As Northrup reached this point and before his eyes had become accustomed to the darkness, he was without warning struck in the face with a heavy object. Although he was somewhat dazed he jumped back a few paces and recovered himself in time to see a couple of men rushing at him. Northrup remembers a revolver in his pocket, which he happened to be taking home. Although at the time it had nothing more dangerous than blank cartridges in the chambers, he drew the gun thinking its appearance might frighten his assailants. As they continued to approach he discharged the revolver in the direction of the first man. The fellow took fright and turned and ran away. His partner, however, jumped at Northrup, and as the quickest method he saw the man, Northrup fired the revolver almost in his face. Blinded by the flash the man stumbled and fell and Northrup jumped on top of him. A desperate struggle took place on the ground, but Northrup having the advantage of being on top soon pummeled the underneath man into a state of non-resistance. As soon as he considered himself safe from another attack Northrup jumped up and hurried on his way home. He got off with nothing more serious than a bad bruise under his eye where he was first struck.

As it was dark at the time of the incident he was unable to describe the men who attacked him, except to say that one of them was of medium height and the other rather tall and thin. Both wore hard felt hats and appeared to be rather roughly dressed, and wore no collars.

Another resident of the road who passed along the same place about a quarter of an hour later saw nothing of the men.

NO MONEY IN TODAY'S SESSION OF POLICE COURT

Alex. Diggs Pleads Earnestly for Pardon Bushan—Perjury Case Commenced.

Saturday night's and Sunday morning's arrests amounted to three drunks. One of the trio was allowed his liberty on making a deposit of eight dollars yesterday. The two others were Philip Bushan, Jr., and Joseph Dixon. The latter was reprimanded and told he was liable to a term in jail, but as he had employment to take him out of the city he was given the chance and told that if seen in the city during the next two months he would be arrested. Alex. Diggs appeared in court and put up a strong plea for the liberty of Bushan. Alex. said he was in company with Bushan and did not know it was early Sunday morning when they were held up by the police. He said he was quite capable of taking care of Bushan and if he had not been he would have undoubtedly been arrested, as the police always give him a haul when he is incapable. The prisoner's father was in court and the defendant was told to listen to the good words of his parent. He was allowed to go on suspended sentence.

J. J. Davis, who was sent into jail on Friday afternoon on the charge of perjury, was before the court this morning and a preliminary hearing was commenced. He still maintains that he did not remember being in the Ottawa Hotel on Saturday night the last time he was in the city.

Policeman Scott gave evidence of seeing defendant and two others at the door of the hotel. Policeman Lucas is to be called to testify of seeing Davis coming from the hotel, and Joseph McDermott will be called to testify to meeting Davis in the hotel bar. The prisoner was remanded to jail.
