Bombers' Advance. French bomb throwers for a fortnight past, in anticipation of the present offensive, had been creeping forward by the Vignes ravine west of Froide Terre with the object of getting near Thiaumont work by working round Hill 365.

The bombers first reached the Fleury road. They then separated into two parties, one going to the eastward toward Thiaumont work and the second pushing northward toward Vacherauville and Pepper

Last week the first party stormed a redoubt west of Thiaumont, and after a stiff fight, went beyond that position. The second party reached the little wood of Vacherauville. French Bayonets Prevail.

The whole section from Vacherau-ville to the approaches of Souville thus were in the hands of the French, and the higher command judged the time ripe to attack from all sides at once. Attacked from the northwest and the southeast, the Germans in Fleury offered desperate resistance, but the French bayonets finally prevailed. Germans managed to escape to the Vaux-Le-Chapitre wood, but a majority were taken prisoner.

To sum up, the French in their three days' offensive regained all the ground that the Germans had taken several weeks to conquer. They took all the positions for depth of about a mile from the slopes of Souville Fort to the approaches of Hill No. 320, as well as in the woods east of Vacherauville and in the Vignes ravine, which borders to the west of Froide Terre Hill. The French also installed themselves in positions southwest, south and southeast of the famous Thiaumont

Turning Point of War, According to Balfour.

HUN FLEET IS IMPOTENT

German Effort to Break the Blockade Has Failed Completely.

LONDON, Aug. 3.—11:95 p.m.—The first lord of the admiralty, A. J. Balfour, has issued a statement for publication, in the course of which he says:
"The second anniversary of the British declaration of war provides a fitting opportunity for a brief survey of the present naval situation. The consequences, material and moral, of the Jutland battle cannot be easily overlooked; an Allied diplomatist assured me that he considered it the turning point of the war.

"The tide which has long ceased to MOOSE JAW, Aug. 3 .- Reports that black rust had infected the crops of Moose Jaw district are entirely without foundation, according to Hugh Mc-Kellar, editor of the Saskatchewan Farmer, who says: "I have made personal investigation of all crops within a radius of twenty miles of Moose Jaw and have been unable to find any indication of black rust or any signs that it will come here.

"Even if rust were in evidence here present conditions would serve to check it. There is but one drawback to the crops here and that is that the heads are not filling out as well as last year and in other cases grain is ripening a little too early on the light soil."

CASEMENT TRIED TO INDUCE IRISH TO HELP ENEMY

Brigade Was To Be Used In Egypt Against the British.

LONDON, Aug. 3 .- An official statement issued from the press bureau to-eatedly considered all the circumstances in the Casement case before eaching a decision not to interfere with

"He was convicted and punished for treachery of the worst kind to the Empire. He had scrved as a willing agent

After declaring that Casement had rganized German assistance for the rish rebellion the statement continues: Conclusive evidence has come into the hands of the Government since the rial that he had entered into an agreement with the German Govern which explicitly provided that the brigade which he was trying to raise among Irish soldiers held as prisoners might be employed in Egypt against the British crown. Those among the rish soldiers who resisted Casement's solicitations of disloyalty were subjected treatment of exceptional cruelty by e Germans. Some of them since have exchanged as invalids, and have ied in this country, regarding Casenent as their murderer." In conclusion, the statement points out that the suggestion, which has been "conclusively disproved" that Casement went to Ireland to try to stop the rising, was not alsed at the trial, nor was the plea of
