CREDIT RATES OF PREMIUM.

THE great and decided enecess which has attended this Institution, has induced the Directors to REDUCE, the RATES originally required in British North America, to the ordinary European Rates. The result of such Reduction is to enable parties to avail themselves of the important benefits to Life Assurance at such lower Rates of Premium them these of one other Assurance Company t ensacting business in Canada.

The Directors have also resolved to extend to British North America the advantages afforded by the HALF CREDIT RATES of PREMIUM which have been so highly approved, and are so British North America the advantages afforded for a country.

description, including sheep and swine, while at of cattle is generally used in a far more festricted sense, as all the world knows.

With respect to the sacers at the Editor's too frequent repetition of the name words, as pointed out by your corresponders; I am willing to admit, that in late editorial articles there is an evident carelessum of composition, which it would be well to avoid in future;—but we should, at the same time, bear in mind that the worthy Editor is addressing the plain pains-taking farmer, and not his potent, grave, and learned seniors; and that he may, therefore, see no great necessity for attempting tie castier choice flowers of fiterature along his path.

Trusting that these few hurried lines, in defence of an old and faithful laborer in the broad field of agriculture, will not prove unacceptable, I remain,
