Polish Council of State Tenders its Resignation

COUNCIL OF STATE OUT IN POLAND

Entire Body Resigns, Declining to Form Government Under Hun Yoke
SENTIMENT CHANGED
Polish Attitude Has Been Altered Since the Russian Revolution

By Courier Leased Wire.
Copenhagen, Aug. 30.—The Berlin Lokai Anzeiger reports that the entire Polish council of state has resigned. The great underlying cause responsible for the council's decision to abandon its attempt to organize a government under the proposed German protectorate is the change in the Polish attitude resulting from the Russian revolution, according to the newspaper.

The direct reasons to be sought however, are in the great hesitation and delay of the Austro-German powers in entrusting to the Polish authorities the conflict over the Polish army, in which the Germans wish to incorporate their own forces, and the German determination to exclude Lithuania from the new kingdom. The Poles insist that the kingdom be proclaimed and have telegraphed Emperor William, asking that Vilna be included in the protectorate.

The German main reichstag committee yesterday put its seal on the German government's decision by unanimously approving its plans for separate administrations in Lithuania and Courland. The Socialists, Radicals and Centrists, notwithstanding the reichstag resolution against annexations, all voted in favor of taking these districts from Russia and establishing them as German protectorates.

The Tageblatt, commenting on this situation, says the residents of Courland and Lithuania must be led to recognize German occupation as liberation from the Muscovite yoke. The Lokai Anzeiger says that further developments of the conditions of occupation can lead only to an autonomous self-administration under a German protectorate. It tells the disappointed Poles that Germany did not undertake the war to establish a Polish empire from sea to sea and that she must first look out for her own security in the east.

Maximalist Effort?
Copenhagen, Aug. 30.—Another attempt at revolt by the Maximalist faction in Russia, which will bring them into power is prophesied by M. Kirko, a Bulgarian Socialist, in an interview in The Vossische Zeitung of Berlin. Kirko recently returned to Berlin from Stockholm, where he had been associated closely with the Russian Maximalists there. The signal for the revolt, he says, will be given from Kronstadt, which, as well as the Russian fleet in the Baltic, is under the influence of Nikolai Lenin and his adherents.

Huns Honor Hindy
Amsterdam, Aug. 30.—German newspapers print long commemorative articles on the battle of Tannenberg, in which the Russians were defeated on August 29, 1914. They praise Field Marshal von Hindenburg and General von Ludendorff, the German commanders in the battle, and hail their appointment to power as the "decisive turning point in the military leadership of the Central powers."

WEATHER BULLETIN
Toronto, Aug. 30.—This extensive rain area which has for some days covered the middle states with its northern boundary just reaching southern Ontario is now passing eastward and rain is falling in the St. Lawrence valley and New Brunswick. The weather has become unsettled and showery in the western provinces.

Forecasts.
Light winds, fine to-day and on Friday with a little higher temperature.

USE ARTILLERYMEN

By Courier Leased Wire.
Paris, Aug. 30.—The number of artillerymen employed in the recent operations in the Verdun region was greater than the number of infantrymen put into battle line. This surprising fact is explained by the correspondent of The Temps at Verdun as being due to the difficulty of the gunners tasks in addition to the immense number of cannon. Heavy shells had to be carried to the guns for hours at a stretch by men who were compelled to wear masks which rendered breathing difficult and obstructed their vision.

The correspondent adds that the object of the artillery now is less directed to destroying enemy guns than to forcing the German gunners to suspend service and seek shelter. For this purpose he says gas shells are employed largely.

A.O.F. ELECT NEW OFFICERS

Election Completed This Morning; Albert Webber Chief Ranger
OTHER OFFICIALS
W. Williams, Permanent Secretary, Resigns After 33 Years

Yesterday's afternoon session of the High Court of the Ancient Order of Foresters, as well as the majority of this morning's session, was given over to the election of officers for the ensuing year. Albert Webber of Winnipeg is Chief Ranger, succeeding Archie Martin, who becomes permanent secretary, in place of W. Williams of Toronto, who this year tendered his resignation after thirty three years of faithful service in the position. At the request of the delegates, Mr. Williams will accept a post as advisory secretary to the High Office in Toronto. He is superannuated at $1000.00 per year.

A grant of $300.00 was made to the retiring chief ranger, Archie Martin; $250.00 to the High Court treasurer, $250.00 to the Supreme Conclave, Knights of Sherwood Forest, and $100.00 to W. J. Vale chairman of the laws committee. Dr. E. R. Secord of this city, High Court Head Office in Toronto, was elected High Examiner, Hugh McPherson, London, High Court treasurer, H. C. Wilson, Toronto, (by acclamation), High Court Medical Examiner, E. R. Secord, Brantford (by acclamation).

Permanent secretary, Archie Martin, Hamilton.
Senior Woodward, A. R. Wickett, Toronto.
High Court Junior Woodward—W. H. Goddard, Toronto.
The Morning Session
Chiefly routine business was transacted at this morning's session. Three possibilities have been mentioned for the next meeting of the high court of the A. O. F. that will assemble in 1919. Hamilton, St. Catharines and Trenton, are the cities that have been proposed and the selection will be made either this afternoon or to-morrow morning.

The report on the state of the Order complimented Dr. E. R. Secord, High Court Medical Examiner, on the excellent report presented by him. The number of members of the Laws Committee which consider requests for changes in the constitution and investigate their legality, has been changed from five to three.

Peace Question
Amsterdam, Aug. 30.—The commission appointed by the German chancellor to consider a reply to the peace note of Pope Benedict, held its first session on Tuesday. Chancellor Michaelis presided at the meeting, which lasted about two hours and a half. The session adjourned until the results of the discussions over the note are available from Vienna, Constantinople and Sofia.

Wilson's Reply to Pope's Proposals Affirm Determination of Entente; Sound Advice Given to the German People, Which May be Taken Advantage of

By Courier Leased Wire.
London, Aug. 30.—The Times describes President Wilson's reply to the Pope as the answer of a practical statesman to a peace dream of the Vatican, and may be of other courts as well, and suggests that it possibly will discourage similar proposals in the future. While wholly endorsing the substance of the reply. The Times renews the exception it previously had taken to the President's distinction between the German people and the German rulers. It says the distinction is sound theoretically, but that up to the present it has proved quite negligible in practice.

"It is true," says The Times, "that they (the German people) did not choose the war, because the Bismarckian constitution gave them no voice in the matter. But they accepted it with enthusiasm and have supported it throughout, while their press have exulted in its worst atrocities."

"The reply is precisely such a document as we knew we could expect from the strong-minded, clear sighted leader of Democracy, secure in the knowledge that the great nation and its limitless resources are at his back on the clear cut issue of right and wrong," says The Daily Telegraph.

"Nowhere in the note is there any echo of the sophistries with which a few perverted minds and feeble hearts seek to commend a policy of compromise to the European allies. It comes like an invigorating wind to blow away the cobwebs which pacifism and its dupes have been spinning about the central things in the great quarrel."

The Daily News says:
"If the President's reply is a merciless indictment of the infamies of Prussian militarism, it is equally a passionate appeal to the German people to repudiate the evil system that has enslaved them and uses them to enslave the world. The distinction which Mr. Wilson has insisted on throughout between the people and the system is now stated with matchless force. Acceptance of the plan proposed by the Pope would, says the President, be a triumph of reaction. It would stereotype the hostilities of the past in more bitter terms."

Paris, Aug. 30.—Only an eighty word summary of President Wilson's reply to Pope Benedict had reached Paris this morning, and consequently the newspapers withhold extensive comment. The Petit Parisien, however, says:
"As far as it is possible to judge from the indications received, President Wilson does not discuss the Pope's suggestions in themselves. His reply is a re-reading of the thesis familiar to those who have read his messages, that as long as German imperial institutions are not modified, as long as democratic spirit has not penetrated beyond the Rhine, as absolutism, based on oligarchy, persists, so long nations cannot have confidence in Germany's word. President Wilson thus brings up just as France and England have done before him, the question of Prussian militarism, which is the safeguard of this absolutism and oligarchy."

"In rejecting the Vatican's offer, the President indicates the conditions under which a useful conversation might be taken up. Once more he gives important advice to the German people. Will he be heard?"
Italian Comment.
Rome, Tuesday, Aug. 28.—(Delayed)—The Osservatore Romano, the organ of the Vatican, prints a long article embodying a discussion of the objections made to the Pope's peace proposals from which it would appear evident that the pontiff hoped to obtain a favorable answer from the United States. It is intimated by the paper that any step taken by the pope is persistently misinterpreted and subjected to unfair criticism and that the present proposal is no exception.

Regarding the pope's silence on the Balkan problem, it is pointed out that the pope cannot offer an immediate concrete solution of a question which has long troubled the statesmen of Europe. The pope, however, in his note, the paper adds, specifically invites the powers to meet and arrive at an equitable agreement.

ITALIANS AND FRENCH GAIN ON TWO FRONTS
Heavy Enemy Attacks on Gorizia and Verdun Beaten Off

Rome, Aug. 30.—Austrian counter-attacks in force were made yesterday against the new Italian positions on the front above Gorizia, the war office reports. Everywhere the Austrians were driven back, and at some points the Italians made further gains.

Paris, Aug. 30.—German attacks on the Verdun front last night were repulsed completely the war office announces. The French penetrated German positions in the Champagne, taking prisoners and a machine gun.
ARTILLERY FIRE VIOLENT
Bern, Aug. 30.—via London.—The artillery fighting in the Verdun sector reached a point of greater violence yesterday evening, says to-day's official communication.
The French statement follows: "There was pronounced activity by the artillery in the region of Bray-en-Laonnois and in the sector of Craonne. An attack by the enemy on our small posts south of Chevreaux was repulsed."
"In the Champagne east of Tonnay we succeeded, without sustaining any losses in a detailed action in the course of which our troops penetrated the enemy line and brought back eleven prisoners and a machine gun. Two German attacks in the same region were repulsed after spirited fighting."

HUN INTRIGUE.

By Courier Leased Wire.
Petrograd, Aug. 30.—Germany's military preparation was known to the Russian war ministry and it was also aware that Germany contemplated a declaration of war in 1909 and again in 1913, according to testimony given yesterday by General Michaelsson at the trial of General Soukhomlinoff, former minister of war, for high treason. The witness was the military attaché of the Russian embassy in Berlin from 1906 to 1911. He swore that he had reported Germany's military activity to the Russian war office.
The president of the court asked General Michaelsson what power Germany proposed to ally herself in 1913 against Russia. The witness asked permission to reply the president only and the request was granted.

CHEAPER PAPER MAY BEAT HAND

Wilson Fixes Price On Supply of Newsprint For Government Use
MAY MEAN REDUCTION
Publishers Hopeful That President's Action May Bring Results

By Courier Leased Wire.
Washington, Aug. 30.—In an order which newspaper publishers declare will serve as an important precedent, President Wilson has fixed a price of 2 1-2 cents on newsprint paper for use in publishing the government's daily official Bulletin. The order fixing the price was issued by Secretary of War Baker, at the President's direction, under the National Defense Act, which empowers the government to commandeer supplies needed for war purposes. It was directed to the International Paper Company, which has declined to furnish newsprint for the bulletin at less than three cents a pound.

Newspaper publishers who learned of the order to-day voiced the hope that it might open the way for cheaper newsprint paper to publishers generally. They called attention to statements by the president that the administration's price policy will be one that provides the same prices for the public as for the government.

The President's action was taken at the instance of the joint congressional committee on printing, of which Senator Fletcher is chairman. When the Bulletin first began publication the committee offered bids for newsprint and the cheapest price named was three cents. This, the committee decided was too high and appealed to the International Paper Company on patriotic grounds, to sell its product to the Public Printing Office at 2 1-2 cents. The company complied, and for a time furnished the paper, but declared increasing production costs compelled it to raise the price to three cents.

Senator Fletcher went to the Federal Trade Committee for its cost of production figures, and the committee decided the International could sell at 2 1-2 cents and still make a fair profit.
Conserve Coal
Washington, Aug. 30.—An appeal to coal users to endeavor to reduce consumption as a war-time measure, was issued to-day by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, through its committee which is co-operating with the Council of National Defence.

"To-day coal is a sinew of war," says the appeal, "and he who unnecessarily reduces the country's available stock of coal may curtail the nation's energy in the great industrial conflict. In the great concentration of natural energy toward prosecuting the war, men are not able to open up coal mines to meet extravagant needs. Transportation facilities are burdened to the limit of capacity."
The 141 savings banks in New York state show a gain of over one hundred million dollars in resources during the past year.

HUN OFFER WAS MADE TO RUSSIA

German Denial of Overtures For Separate Peace Bare Equivocation
KERENSKY DEFENDED
German Socialists Establish Beyond Doubt Truth of His Words

By Courier Leased Wire.
Copenhagen, Aug. 30.—The statement that an offer of a separate peace was made to Russia recently, by the German Government is published in the Socialist newspaper Vorwaerts, of Berlin. It is brought out by the assertion of Premier Kerensky, of Russia, in his speech, at the Moscow conference, that Russia "a little time ago," replied indignantly to a proposal to conclude a separate peace, and that a few days ago, "we witnessed another attempt, equally base, directed against our allies."

In this connection, the semi-official Norddeutsche Allgemeine Zeitung is again detected by the German press in an attempt to throw dust in the eyes of the world, and the German public, by ostensibly denying Premier Kerensky's account of the overtures to Russia and its allies, which is characterized as being, in reality, no denial at all.

The Tageblatt, the Vorwaerts and Vossische Zeitung call attention to a trick of the semi-official organ in denying that such overtures were made by Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg, whereas M. Kerensky did not mention the former chancellor, (specifying that the proposal of Russia's allies was made a few days ago. The Vorwaerts adds that such an offer was actually made to Russia, although not by Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg. It says the organ of Chancellor Michaelis would be right in claiming that Germany had done what it could to open a path to peace by adoption of the reichstag's peace resolutions, if Dr. Michaelis had acted from the standpoint of the resolution without conditions, wabbling and reservations. Unfortunately he had not done this, the Vorwaerts asserts, but has permitted the opponents of the resolution to claim him for their own.

The latest achievement of the Norddeutsche Allgemeine Zeitung in verbal manipulation is similar to the "denial" of the authenticity of Emperor William's communication to President Wilson at the outbreak of the war, recently made public by former Ambassador Gerard. It probably will lead to renewed criticism in the reichstag.

Reichstag Adjourns
Berlin, Aug. 29, via London, Aug. 30.—The reichstag main committee concluded its mid-summer session this afternoon and adjourned until the assembling of the full session of the reichstag late next month. The committee was engaged to-day in discussion of the censorship and martial law. A motion by the Social Democrats and Independent Socialists recommending abolition of martial law failed of acceptance.

Resolutions presented by the majority parties, calling for abrogation of the political censorship and containing recommendations for modifications of the present censorial restrictions were adopted as a recommendation of the coalition parties for nullification of an order of the Federal Council, dated August 18rd, subjecting moving pictures to rigid censorship.

Air Attack
Amsterdam, Aug. 30.—An Entente aerial squadron attempted to attack Frankfurt-on-the-Maine last Sunday, the Berlin German Tageblatt reports. The squadron which came from the west is said to have been forced to return when half way between Mainz and Frankfurt, because of the activity of anti-aircraft guns.

THREE KILLED.
By Courier Leased Wire.
Richmond, Va., Aug. 30.—Overton Howard, a prominent lawyer, his brother, Thomas P. Howard, a federal bank examiner, and his brother-in-law, a Mr. Bagby, were killed to-day when their automobile was struck by an electric car near Ashland, early to-day.

NEWS OF NORFOLK REVOLUTION IN GERMANY

Second Son of Patriotic Woodhouse Family Makes Supreme Sacrifice
PRODUCTION CLUB No Further Steps Taken To Carry On Work of The Organization

Write Simcoe Agency Box 311 or 'phone 356-3 all matters regarding delivery or subscriptions; News items or advertisements.

Simcoe, Aug. 30.—(From our own correspondent.)—Mr. and Mrs. Chris. Quamby of Lynn Valley, Woodhouse township, were advised on Monday of the death of their second son, Pte. Ernest Christian Quamby, who fell in action on Aug. 17th. He was 21 years of age and a most excellent young man. He enlisted with the former 133rd Battalion and was transferred to the machine gun section of the 4th.

On Aug. 14th, 1916, his brother, Pte. John Henry, who had enlisted shortly after the outbreak of the war, died in England of wounds received at the front, and while his father was approaching England on a trip to see him.

The parents, young son, and two daughters remaining, have the sympathy of the town and district in the loss of these clean, scholarly, well set up and noble young men.

Production Club Metamorphosing?
 The War Production Club, organized at the close of a mass meeting addressed last spring by members of the Hamilton Board of Trade, and the members of which were appointed by volunteering from the meeting, seems to have been a cipher as to results.

Nothing was done to bring employer and labourer together, or to stimulate effort for greater production of foodstuffs. At the present time some of the members are suggesting that if some two or three were to resign, the Chairman might be inclined to call his first meeting. One can hardly guess just what Chairman Groff is developing, and it may be that the organization is just in a quiescent stage of development.

Meanwhile, without urging, farmers are getting the land ready for wheat and rye. The recent rain has been a boon in every way, to pasture, potatoes, corn and roots, and as aid to the filling of the soil.

An Expensive Guest.
 Dr. Wm. Burt, game warden, operating anywhere between Sarnia and Montreal, has been putting up the lines in sympathy with other inflated war prices, and transgressors on the shores of both Ontario and Erie have been paying cheques of three digit denominations for the honour of a call from him.

Odd Ends of News.
 W. A. Smith is tax collector for Woodhouse at a salary of $80.

Bert Kellum will collect the rates in Townsend for the sum of $125.

Woodhouse township has used considerable broken stone on the roads this year.

The Windham township, killed sheep bill for last month was only $20.

It has been observed that there is a possibility that every pulpit in Simcoe will on Sunday be occupied by the regular pastor; something not common here for more than a year.

The 1917 Rate in Woodhouse is 10 mills, and in Windham 13.4 mills. Stacey's little station, which has a label on it, printed neatly and conspicuously. The L. E. and N. folk have not yet apparently decided upon a name for the station at the eastern end of the skew bridge, but Simcoians are not worrying about the sign Simcoe—they will ave one at the depot—well, along one side and one end at least.

If a station designation is put up at Simcoe, let us hope that it will be set for passengers in the coaches to read, not for bird-men as the sign-board at the Air-line station seems to have been placed.

IF ALLIES ADVANCE CONTINUES

Important Military Victory At Present Time Would Precipitate Crisis Within Teuton Empire; Berlin Greatly Concerned Over Conditions; Urges Naval Battle

London, Aug. 30.—"If we can gain a big and important military victory this Autumn it promptly will precipitate a serious political crisis in Germany," a high British official told the correspondent. "Germany is tearing at the seams from the fact that a great number of the prisoners now being captured are under 17-12 years old. I personally have received a letter from a German boy of this age who said that he was called last Spring, but exempted then because the medical examiners found he was not strong enough for service. Otherwise he would have been taken then indicating that the Germans months ago were taking all the boys of 17 who possibly could be used at the front. Conditions latterly are more serious than they were then."

Germany Sealing Frontiers
 That German authorities are greatly concerned over internal conditions is shown in the recent tightening of the frontiers. It now is almost impossible for Germans to get permission to enter adjacent States or for citizens of neutral States to pass into Germany. During the first year of the war 200 Germans arrived daily in Denmark; now four arrive daily. It recently was reported, according to Copenhagen, that Germany is attributed to the determination to prevent untoward news of opinions from reaching the outside world.

German concern to keep news from the allies is shown in the announcement that German superintendents have been placed in complete charge of operation of the railroad between Berlin and Constantinople. German guards even are placed at all stations en route. This and other demonstrations of intense concern in Turkey, Turkey has heard that Germany and Austria have decided to abandon her when the peace conference meets and to permit the allies to partition the Turkish empire among themselves as the price of immunity of Turkey's allies. Constantinople is convinced this is true because Austria and Germany are believed to have inspired the Pope's note, which suggests an autonomous Armenia, and ignores Syria and Mesopotamia.

Chancellor Controls Majority.
 The new committee includes seven members of the Bundesrat, or Federal Council, absolutely controlled by the Chancellor. Besides these the representatives of the Right and Centre parties are almost certainly put out, on examination, to be a thoroughly undemocratic and reactionary move.

This body is not allowed to give publicity to its proceedings, even in party Parliamentary conferences. Its establishment really means the taking away of a shadow authority which has been vested in the Reichstag of fifteen to twenty members to a new committee, thus leaving the Government freer than ever to follow its own course regardless of the Reichstag.

Whether the mass of the German people or even the politicians recognized that they were being humiliated is uncertain, but specialists in German affairs believe that in the present ferment this shortly will be realized.

SUDDEN DEATH OF MARTIN N. TODD

General Manager of L. E. & N. Passed Away At His Home in Galt

Galt, Aug. 30.—Martin N. Todd, president of the G. P. and H. Railway and general manager of the L. E. and N. Railway, died suddenly at his home, "Caverhill," yesterday.

He had been ill for some time, but lately his condition had shown improvement and it was hoped he would recover. He was in his 59th year, and had lived here all his life, being a native of Galt. With his father, the late Thomas Todd, he was interested in milling and commission business. His father was the principal owner of the G. P. and H., and on his death his son succeeded to the presidency in 1900. His death is a great loss to the city, as he was interested in many progressive movements. He had held office in the Galt Horse Show Association, Board of Trade and Hospital Trust and was interested in a number of local institutions. A widow, four sons and one daughter survive. His eldest son, Leut. Thomas Todd, is in France. The funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

POOR, GERMANY.
 Old Kaiser Bill is bad enough; you must admit it's pretty tough to have a King like that; a man so arrogant and vain, with egotism so insane his head outgrows his hat. It must be tough to have a King who always says a crazy thing when wisdom's in request, who was, before he took his lance and started trespassing in France, the universal jest. But Kaiser Bill with all his whims, his withered arm and shriveled shins has points one may admire; his heart is not entirely stone, and people say they've heard him groan o'er all this blood and fire. The load he carries is so great he'll sink beneath it soon or late, and he will cash his string; then, if the Hohenzollern line be not uprooted, stalk and vine, the kronprinz will be King. The kronprinz, with the weasel face, the face of a decaying race, the war's prize also ran! When he is monarch, Germans will with yearning think of Kaiser Bill, who is at least a man. Poor Germany! To look ahead and think that when your Wilhelm's dead, this prize will be on deck! It will be punishment severe for all the woe you're causing

This is the playground of the land, where I have pitched my tent; and tourists throng on every hand, on wholesome pleasure bent. They climb the hills and fish the streams and in the taverns play, and I can hear their whoops and screams throughout the livelong day. There lives near me a sad eyed seer, who views the joyous throng, and wipes away a bitter tear, and sighs both loud and long. "Have they no hearts?" the seer exclaims; "what brine of giddy men and dames forgotten we?—at war? They balance on a moon—this cliff."

THE SITUATION

The victorious Italians are now storming Monte San Gabriele, which is the last great stronghold barring the way to Trieste. Gen. Cardona has manifested made it a point to generalize in his reports and his despatches and purposes certainly do not need any censorship for he keeps details to himself. In this regard it will be remembered that there was no inking whatever of preparations for the offensive now so effectively under way.

The news with regard to Russian troops is still bad. As reported in the Courier leased wire service of last evening, an entire division yesterday abandoned their positions without offering any opposition to the Teutons, and it is very plain that the canker of insubordination continues to be rampant, and will require a very drastic operation, indeed, for removal.

A continuance of rough weather on the Western front serves to still hamper activities but Haig reports the taking of a strong point south east of Langemarck. A special despatch to the London Times asserts that Germany is now rushing large numbers of troops to the Belgium frontier.

The official report shows that during last week fifteen British vessels of over 1,600 tons were sunk by submarines and five under that figure. This is an increase, over the previous week, of three in the first named class and two in the latter. The menace is still a very real one but it has not in any sense lived up to the schedule, which was that the undersea craft would place Great Britain hors de combat in the matter of food supplies by July.

A high British official is reported as saying that if a big and important military victory can be achieved this autumn that fact will precipitate a serious political crisis in Germany. It is certainly to be hoped that both will occur.

TWO DESPATCHES

A couple of despatches are worthy of more than passing comment.

One quotes from an article in a Berlin paper during which the statement is made:

"The Russian peasant has to bleed at the government's command without knowing the government's aims. This is the freedom which the revolution has given the country."

Talk about Satan reproving sin! Of all people in the world it is the Germans who are bleeding without either knowing the aims of the Government, or having been consulted in the smallest shape in the matter. As for freedom they do not have and have not for years known what the word means.

The other despatch states that the Austrian Minister of Public Works started the Chamber of Deputies when, in announcing that miners had been brought from the front to help relieve the coal crisis, he added that they were so under-nourished that they were unable to do hard work and that they must be "accorded extra rations even at the expense of other classes of the population." This is an official all-round admission of the desperate condition of affairs in the dual kingdom.

THE LATE MR. TODD.

It is parting with an old friend to record the death of Mr. Martin Todd, of Galt. He had been well and favorably known to many Brantfordites for years, and still more generally so since he became Manager of the Lake Erie and Northern Railway. He was a man who measured up splendidly in all relationship and under all circumstances. His was one of those cheery personalities which count for so much in this workaday world, allied to keen business acumen he was the possessor of large hearted generosity both in thought and deed. His activities were many and the responsibilities which devolved upon him were throughout most efficiently discharged. In his home he was a prince among hosts and as a citizen most loyal.

The Courier begs to join in the many expressions of sympathy which will be extended to the bereaved wife and family in the passing of such a true-hearted man.

BORDEN THE MAN

It is difficult to imagine how anybody who has carefully and dispassionately watched the course of Sir Robert Borden during these trying war times, can fail to realize that Canada has indeed had devout cause for thankfulness that he should have been at the head of affairs during the existing ordeal. The responsibilities and the duties of the first minister are always exceedingly heavy and multifarious and when on top of these there has come the war burden, the task has assumed proportions of tremendous scope. Moreover, he has not had, as Asquith and then Lloyd George have enjoyed in England, the hearty co-operation of political opponents and there has been much heckling and unworthy effort to thwart his purposes. Throughout it all he has steered a clear and unwavering course on behalf of the cause of Empire and human liberty, and in no one instance since hostilities started has he indulged in recrimination, although greatly provoked, or made one political appeal. For the Dominion to do her share in the most effective way has manifested been his one desire and aim and the extent to which he has gone in this regard with reference to the formation of a Union Government is now a matter of common knowledge.

At the caucus of Conservative members held yesterday in Ottawa, it transpired that in negotiations with Western Liberals there had stipulated that in the matter of if they joined forces on a "win-the-war" basis, with the name of Sir George Foster as the first on the list. True to his previous course, Borden offered to make way for another if that should be thought best, but Foster at once declared that in his opinion the present Prime Minister was the one man of all others to be continued in that post, and all those present unreservedly concurred in this view. It is an opinion, too, which will be heartily shared by Canadians generally.

Meanwhile Sir Robert has asked Sir Wilfrid Laurier to name half of the twenty-four members of the Board of Selection with regard to the appointment of local tribunals under the Military Service Act and the Liberal leader has accepted. In doing so he told the House that the principle of the bill was one of which he did not approve but added:

"I consider that whether we approve or do not approve of its principle, it having become law and having just received the sanction of the Governor-General, it behoves us all as loyal British subjects, to do our part to see that it is carried out as harmoniously as possible."

It is certainly to be hoped that Sir Wilfrid will implement this pledge to the full extent of which he is capable with regard to Quebec.

ITALIANS AND

"There was active artillery fighting on both banks of the Meuse (Verdun front). German attempts north of Caullieres wood and against our small posts north of Vaux-les-Palameix met with a complete check."

Italian Official
The Italian official announcement follows:
"On the Balzussa plateau and east of Gorizia, the enemy attempted by counter-attacks in force to retake positions recently captured. He was driven back everywhere. Our lines were held firmly and advanced at some points. We captured 560 prisoners."

British Official
London, Aug. 30.—The enemy artillery was active during the night in the Nicourt sector," says today's war office statement. "The weather was stormy and wet."

WILSON'S REPLY

cussing the moral basis of the note, says that the Holy Father, like President Wilson in his notes, suggests the substitute of the moral force of right for by counter-attacks in force to retake positions recently captured. He was driven back everywhere. Our lines were held firmly and advanced at some points. We captured 560 prisoners."

Rabbi Stephen Wise, of the Free Synagogue, New York, a well-known pacifist, has declared his opposition to any German peace movement.
Dr. Hovey, who returned with the Crocker Land expedition yesterday, says that valuable mineral finds have been located in the Arctic regions.
Stanley Menken, president of the National Security League, declares that officials are deliberately concealing the gravity of the war situation.
Infant mortality in New York State last month reached its lowest level for a quarter of a century, only 430 deaths being reported.

SLACKERS' STRIKE IS A FAILURE

Called In Montreal By Anti-Conscription Organization Today

OBSERVED BY FEW
Mass Meeting Attended By Not More Than a Hundred Persons

By Courier Leased Wire.
Montreal, Aug. 30.—The general strike called today by the anti-conscription organization here as a protest against the signing of the military service act was a failure. A mass meeting which was to have been held in Lacombe Park this morning was attended by only a hundred people, a number of speakers announced to attend, not putting in an appearance. It was raining hard which dampened the ardour of those few who approved of the strike proclamation.

A Labor Day message issued today by J. P. Foster, president of the Montreal Trades and Labor Council, urges union men here to "agitate, organize and prepare" against capitalism. Mr. Foster says that the year just past has been fraught with many events of momentous and deeply significant interest to organized labor on this continent. Overtaken by the forces of the present, he said, the message continues, principles violated and measures introduced that are incompatible with the ideals of a liberty-loving and free people. Truly has autocracy apparently supplanted democracy at present political schemers, war profiteers and other exploiters are profuse with promises in order that they may make capital out of patriotism, but for these promises will be forgotten when the needs of the day are gone. Union men must therefore organize themselves.

LIBEL SUIT DISMISSED

By Courier Leased Wire.
Montreal, Aug. 30.—A charge of criminal libel against Louis Joseph Tarte, president of La Patrie publishing company, and Charles Robillard, editor, was dismissed at the preliminary hearing before Lanctot in police court yesterday. It was decided by the judge that the complaint, the owner of an abattoir named Sekyer, should have sought relief, if he desired it, through the criminal courts by arresting the company owning the newspaper, instead of the president of the company or the paper's editor.

La Patrie, plaintiff claimed, alleged he was a German, which he was not, and had bought stolen horses which had been killed in his establishment, but which he knew nothing about.

FAREWELL TO SAMMIES

By Courier Leased Wire.
New York, Aug. 30.—The spectacle of 25,000 fighting men marching down Fifth Avenue stirred the great city to the depths to-day. Pride, patriotic fervor and the emotions that go with farewells to a soldier seemed to grip with a common intensity the two million people who watched the rank upon rank of khaki swing by.

The troops, New York States former National Guard, now the 27th division of the United States army, marched, before leaving for their preliminary training at Spartanburg, S.C., so that the city might give them a "send-off" worthy of their ultimate mission in France. The soldiers called forth roars of cheers that were almost continuous for the more than six hours that it took the division to march from 110th street to Washington Square.

Unless it may be the unpublished number already in France, this division formed the largest number of American troops yet mobilized since the United States entered the war.

Russ Troops Occupy Parliament Building At Helsingfors

By Courier Leased Wire.
Helsingfors, Finland, Wednesday, August 29.—Russian troops occupied the parliament buildings at an early hour to-day to prevent the reassembling of the diet in defiance of the decision of the Russian Government. The city is calm. The Helsingfors council of workmen's and soldiers' deputies has ordered the crews of the warships to return to their vessels.

During the afternoon 100 deputies endeavored to enter the parliament building, but were kept out by the troops. No disorders occurred.
Senator Manners, who sent out the call for the assembling of the diet made a protest to Governor-General Stakovich against his refusal to permit the diet to meet. The government promised to call this protest for a quarter of the provisional government.

CONSERVATIVES WILL HAVE NO PREMIER SAVE BORDEN

His Continuance At Helm Essential To Nation—Proposal of Western Liberals Unanimously Rejected

Ottawa, Aug. 30.—Declaring that the continuance of Sir Robert Borden in the office of Prime Minister of Canada is indispensable to the nation, especially at such a time as the present, the caucus of Conservative members of the Senate and House of Commons yesterday dismissed the amazing proposal of Premier A. L. Sifton, Hon. A. Calder, and other Western Liberals associated with them in the recent negotiations that there should be a change in leadership as a condition of their entry into a union Government. The caucus expressed approval of Sir Robert's efforts to bring about a union of the war parties in the Dominion in support of national war Government. Indeed it gave him a free hand to proceed with the reconstruction of his cabinet. The members, however could not acquiesce in a proposition which involved his retirement from his place as leader of the Government and the party. The caucus was, it is stated, remarkable for the depth of devotion shown by its members to their chief. It came to a close with the unanimous adoption of the following resolution:

Pledge Support to Sir Robert
"We, the supporters of Sir Robert Borden's Government in the Parliament of Canada, record our emphatic approval of that Government's policy and achievements during these three years of war."

"We endorse the earnest and patient efforts of the Prime Minister to bring about a union of all the war forces of Canada and to give to this Dominion in these days of ever-increasing stress, suffering and peril, the advantage of an Administration which would typify that union and speak to the world the answering resolution of our people to see this war through to victory."

"For the purpose of such union we are, one and all, prepared to make any personal or party sacrifice that the occasion may demand."

"We record unanimously our profound admiration of the great work and splendid leadership of Sir Robert Borden. We sincerely believe that no other man can discharge with like capacity the tremendous task of the Prime Minister during this crisis, and that now, of all times, his continuance in the Premiership is indispensable to the nation, and to his leadership we pledge our unalterable support."

Premier's Statement
When the caucus had assembled, Sir Robert Borden reviewed his negotiations for the formation of a union Government and emphasized his earnestness of purpose in those endeavors. He had proposed to Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the leader of the Liberal party, an equal division of portfolios, with the exception of the Premiership, between the parties. When that offer was rejected, the Prime Minister continued, he made it plain that the same terms were open for acceptance by that section of the Liberal party which supported compulsory military service, and which was prepared to sustain all efforts for the winning of the war. Negotiations had subsequently taken place with prominent Eastern Liberals and also with Liberals from the West. More recently he had had an interview with four gentlemen from Western Canada, Premier A. L. Sifton, of Alberta; Hon. J. A. Calder, of Saskatchewan; T. A. Cresser, president of the Grain Growers' Federation; and President Woods, of the United Farmers of Alberta. The whole situation was fully and frankly discussed with these gentlemen, and no divergence of opinion on questions of policy or administration, had arisen. They had returned to Winnipeg, arriving there on Thursday last, and conferred with their friends. Following that conference three of them and another prominent Liberal had detached a message to the Prime Minister. In that message they declared they favored the formation of a national Government with a war council of six members, of whom Sir Robert should be one! They stated, however, that they thought a change of leadership essential. They, therefore, named four gentlemen, any one of whom would be acceptable to them as leader of a national war Government. Sir George Foster's was the first name mentioned, and he perfectly sincere. The question of forming a union Government based upon the support of all elements in the population prepared to join in an earnest effort to win the war, Sir Robert declared, above all personal or party considerations. Any question as to the personal status or political fortunes of any individual was utterly insignificant. The governing purpose of the Prime Minister asserted, should be to support the gallant men at the front, to emulate their devotion and self-sacrifice and to win the war. Feeling as he did on that subject, Sir Robert Borden expressed his willingness to retire from the Government altogether, or to serve under Sir George Foster, if the latter would undertake the formation of a Government, which result would be to unite all elements of the population. Sir Robert closed with a warm tribute to Sir George Foster's splendid ability, wide experience and personal qualities.

Sir Robert Borden Must Lead
Sir George Foster spoke of the close friendship and co-operation there had been between himself and Sir Robert Borden, and voted his appreciation of the immensity of the task which had confronted the Prime Minister since the outbreak of the war and the untiring patience and devotion which had held Sir Robert to the performance of his duties. The Minister of Trade and Commerce said that the Prime Minister had acquired vast knowledge of conditions and requirements not only in Canada, but overseas as well. Sir Robert Borden held an outstanding position among the statesmen of the Empire and as the representative of the Liberal-Conservative element in Canada.

Hot OR SOFT OR ANY KIND OF CORN
You reckless men and women who have pestered with corns and who have at least once a week invited an awful death from lockjaw or blood poison are now told by a Cincinnati authority to use a drug called freezone, which the moment a few drops are applied to any corn, the soreness is relieved and soon the entire corn, root and all, lifts out with the fingers.
It is a sticky substance which dries the moment it is applied and is said to simply shrivel the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin. It is claimed that a quarter of an ounce will cost very little at any of the drug stores, but is sufficient to rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or callus.
You are further warned that cutting at a corn is a suicidal habit.

Gunner Jack Hately Has Made The Supreme Sacrifice

Mr. and Mrs. George Hately received the sad intelligence to-day from Ottawa that their second son, Jack Hately, had been killed in action on Aug. 21st.

The young hero was a student at Trinity University when he felt that it was his duty to answer the call of Empire. At the time he was studying for the ministry, and would have been shortly ordained.

He was a young man of very fine character, and a devoted son. The bereaved parents and family, together with his grandmother, Mrs. Cummings Nelles, will be in the heartfelt thoughts of a large circle of friends in this time of sore trial.

ENEMY VANQUISHED Germany Despairs Of Military Victory, and Flees To Other Weapons

By Courier Leased Wire. Verdun, Aug. 30.—President Poincare personally presented to-day to General Petain, the French Commander-in-chief, the Grand Cross of the Legion of Honor, awarded to him several days ago...

"Our enemies try in vain to disguise history and spread among neutrals fables made to order. They try desperately to shake off the responsibilities that crush them. In vain do the false news mongers, established in imperial cities, spread clouds of black smoke for a propitious wind to blow across the frontiers. These are dissipated one after the other by the rays of truth."

"Convinced herself that she cannot obtain a military victory on our front, Germany takes refuge in a last illusion. She imagines she can overcome us through an international intrigue."

Neither such puerile manoeuvres, nor the infamous propaganda that accompanies them will succeed in troubling public opinion which will remain worthy of our cause and the admirable soldiers that defend it."

JAPANESE MISSION TO U.S. HAILED

Washington, Aug. 30.—Japan's mission, headed by Viscount Ishii, was received to-day by the Senate, a ceremony in which Senator Saulsbury, president pro tem, welcomed the visitors in the absence of Vice-President Marshall and Viscount Ishii made an address bearing a message of friendship and good will between the nations.

Applause by senators and spectators frequently interrupted Viscount Ishii as he read his address in English and prolonged applause followed his declaration that Japan declares war upon Germany because a solemn treaty was not to be considered a scrap of paper by Japan.

The visitors were received with great ceremony. They entered the main door and were escorted down the centre aisle while the entire audience rose. The audience also rose as the mission left the chamber after shaking hands with senators and representatives.

FORESTERS HAD A HUNT

An impromptu number that added greatly to the enjoyment of the A. O. F. banquet at the Kerby House last evening, was a skit which occurred in the foyer when the guests were departing. The handsome and jovial countenances of the delegates doubtless tempted a huge muskrat to enter the doorway. The creature was soon espied, and the riot was on. There was a united and concerted rush for the scurrying quadruped in which everyone participated. Dignified delegates of mature years, arrayed in conventional fashion forgot themselves and entered as heartily into the sport as the youngest man present. The slippery floor was not an ideal hunting ground, and the large and corpulent hunters were the first to succumb. Had the occasion not been so festive, the muskrat would have been a tragedy. The brilliant idea was finally conceived of trapping the fugitive in a waste paper basket and after unsuccessful attempts this was done. The ferocious animal bared its teeth and looked really peeved and annoyed. It was liberated again and chased out the door like a guest with an unpaid board bill. Undecided whether to return or not the muskrat paused in the middle of the road. It did not pause long. One ardent hunter decided to perform a notable feat that would be related with pride to succeeding generations, and taking a good run attempted to kick the rat. But alas—the pavements were slippery! He missed! The result need not be recounted, for he did not slide more than a hundred yards. As for the muskrat it was overcome with fright and was laid tenderly(?) to rest in the gutter.

FORESTERS' BANQUET MOST SUCCESSFUL OF ITS KIND

Three Hundred Guests Sat Round Festive Board at Kerby House Last Night; Progress Made by A. O. F.

Eloquent and pointed addresses by orators of no mean order, interspersed with musical numbers of exceptionally high calibre featured the annual banquet given at Kerby House last evening by the City of Brantford to the visiting A. O. F. delegates assembled in convention in the Telephone City. About three hundred guests sat around the festive board, and with one accord by their hearty participation in the function, deemed it one of the best and most successful in the history of the Order.

The various speakers indulged in reminiscences of the last visit paid to the city thirty years ago, reviewed the progress that had been made by the Order and the city of Brantford during the intervening time and with high optimism based on the judicious legislation that has been effected at the 1917 convention, prophesied even greater success and development in the years that are to come. The 3000 members of the A. O. F. who have upheld the traditions of the organization by crossing the seas to battle for liberty, were not forgotten and many and sincere were the words of respect that were spoken of them.

The chairman of the evening Dr. Secord, commented on the harmony that had thus far prevailed in the councils that had been held and complimented the delegates on the calm and dignified manner in which they had transacted business of vast importance to the administration of the society. The patriotic sentiment that pervaded the gathering was evident at the outset of the program and the full throated manner in which the national anthem was sung was a splendid tribute to the men who thus honored their sovereign.

"The A. O. F."
"Gentlemen, I ask you to charge your glasses and drink to the great order that ever was. Thus was the first toast, that to the A. O. F. proposed and was followed by cheers and the singing of "For they are Jolly Good Fellows." The toast was capably proposed by the permanent secretary W. Williams of Toronto, who has long been identified with the order. He contrasted the conditions that had prevailed prior to 1790 when all societies of fraternal character were frowned upon, with the present flourishing and popular condition in which they now exist. Referring to the new measures that have been introduced at the 1917 session, the speaker said:

"I am pleased with the legislation put through thus far, wise legislation, I may state—whereby you present the executive with the necessary machinery to broad and widen the scope of work of the order. I hope that you will be as careful in your deliberations during the balance of the session as you have been thus far."

In reply the retiring High Chief Ranger, A. Martin of Hamilton, another veteran who has seen long years of faithful service very effectively traced the development that had occurred since the A. O. F. last convened in Brantford. I was with you boys at that time, and we had a glorious time. That is thirty years ago but it seems like but a short time. Thirty years ago I was hired, and to-day I am fired and retired. You have shown your appreciation of my services and I can only state that I thank you for your kindly consideration," he concluded.

"Visiting Delegates."
This toast was proposed by Bro. Thompson and replied very effectively by Bro. Webber of Winnipeg and Bro. Vale of Toronto. Speaking of their stay in Brantford the last speaker said, "I am sure that we will all go away with a kindly appreciation of the hospitality of the Telephone City."

"The City of Brantford."
The many virtues of our fair city were competently pointed out to the delegates by Acting Mayor John S. Dowling, who represented the city council in the unavoidable absence of Mayor Bowley.

"You are going to your homes in all sections of the country, and while here if your impressions of Brantford were those of manufacture turning city, an industrial center, well managed and one of the good cities of a good province, those impressions were correct. War broke out three years ago, and when the call came Brantford stood second to none, and Brant county, one of the smallest in numbers in Canada, stands second in the Dominion in the enlistment of men. There is a large number abroad, many of whom will never return. We, in Brantford, have not forgotten this, and while our soldiers are fighting, nothing is being left undone at home to look after the dependent ones left behind. The city of Brantford is vitally interested in the outcome of this war, and is doing everything possible to assist in winning it. There is nothing that will require your attention in the future so much as the reception of the returned men, whether wounded or not. We take pride in doing all possible for their welfare."

"Brethren on Active Service."
Characterized by the chairman as the most important toast of the evening, the brethren on active service were fittingly remembered in the midst of the festivities. In the absence of Ex-Mayor J. H. Spence, the toast was appropriately proposed by Dr. Wiley.

"Those of our members who are on active service are among the fighters from the Colonies who have fought on the fields of Flanders. It is the privilege of any soldier fighting under the British flag to rise from the ranks regardless of rank or wealth and it is to one of our own Canadian soldiers, a friend of mine, who has achieved great distinction to whom I wish to allude to-night." The speaker traced the rise through the ranks that had been made by Sir General Thomas Currie, commander of the Canadian troops overseas, and related how through sheer pluck and merit this famous commander had accomplished success.

"It was one of the regrets of my life that, through the misfortunes of war I was compelled to leave twenty-five members of your order with whom I was associated overseas, and if those twenty-five are a sample of your members who have gone abroad, you can be justly proud of them. One of these enlisted declared Capt. A. H. Boddy.

Speaking of the charges that were frequently heard concerning the morals of our men who have returned to Europe, Capt. Boddy came out in a clear cut manner and strongly defended the Canadian troops.

"Contented the statements whenever you hear it. Don't listen to it, for when they return they will be just as good as when they left. I only hope the day will soon be here when you can welcome them back home again."

W. M. MARTIN Premier of Saskatchewan. (International Press Service.)

Hamilton spoke a few words of appreciation for the assistance given by the press in making the convention a success.

The willing manner in which the press committee of the convention had co-operated with the ladies of Canada, said T. O'Neill in replying to the toast. The committee had been most considerate and was always willing to assist in any way possible.

"The Ladies."
Very capable to perform or rather the privilege, Bro. Farnsworth, chairman of the entertainment committee, proposed the toast to "The Ladies," in a gracious and in this connection said:

"I am one of those peculiar fellows who do not believe that the Almighty placed the oil and minerals in the bowels of the earth, and the timber on the hillsides for the benefit of the few. Extravagance and poverty are not the work of the Almighty, but result because the mass of the people do not understand the principles of economics."

The glory that would always hereafter be associated with the name of Canada, because of the gallantry that Canadian boys had played in the battle line in France, was referred to by the speaker, and in closing he said that he would justly proud of a country that could turn out such an excellent type of manhood.

Humorous, anecdotal, pulsating with patriotism, the reply of Mr. W. G. Raymond was well worthy of being put through thus far, wise legislation, I may state—whereby you present the executive with the necessary machinery to broad and widen the scope of work of the order. I hope that you will be as careful in your deliberations during the balance of the session as you have been thus far."

"There are men in every land who fall to understand the genius of their country. But if this has in any way been the case with us, it is the genius of this Dominion, the many types of character to be found among its citizens were impressions that could be gathered from the assembly gathered around the tables from the Atlantic provinces to the Rocky Mountains."

"Companions of the Forest and Juvveniles."
A strong plea for interest in these two branches of the order was made by Bro. T. P. Wood of Toronto, who was present at the convention thirty years ago.

Bro. W. Richards London made a suitable and brief reply.

"Sister Benevolent Societies."
An eloquent tribute to fraternalism was made by G. Strong O. P. of this city, who outlined the many ways in which they performed and provided succor in time of trouble. He extended a hearty welcome to the visiting delegates and complimented them on being members of the pioneer fraternal society that had blazed the trail in which others had followed.

"Brethren on Active Service."
Characterized by the chairman as the most important toast of the evening, the brethren on active service were fittingly remembered in the midst of the festivities. In the absence of Ex-Mayor J. H. Spence, the toast was appropriately proposed by Dr. Wiley.

"Those of our members who are on active service are among the fighters from the Colonies who have fought on the fields of Flanders. It is the privilege of any soldier fighting under the British flag to rise from the ranks regardless of rank or wealth and it is to one of our own Canadian soldiers, a friend of mine, who has achieved great distinction to whom I wish to allude to-night." The speaker traced the rise through the ranks that had been made by Sir General Thomas Currie, commander of the Canadian troops overseas, and related how through sheer pluck and merit this famous commander had accomplished success.

"It was one of the regrets of my life that, through the misfortunes of war I was compelled to leave twenty-five members of your order with whom I was associated overseas, and if those twenty-five are a sample of your members who have gone abroad, you can be justly proud of them. One of these enlisted declared Capt. A. H. Boddy.

Speaking of the charges that were frequently heard concerning the morals of our men who have returned to Europe, Capt. Boddy came out in a clear cut manner and strongly defended the Canadian troops.

"Contented the statements whenever you hear it. Don't listen to it, for when they return they will be just as good as when they left. I only hope the day will soon be here when you can welcome them back home again."

Austrians Being Driven Back North of Gorizia in Direction of Vienna

UNABLE TO HALT Possession of Monte Santo Gives Cadorna Advantage Of Position

BRING UP ARTILLERY Great Battle is Continuing With Desperate and Increasing Intensity

London, Aug. 28.—Fighting desperately, the Austrian forces steadily are being driven back north of Gorizia in the direction of Vienna. Even Vienna admits a retirement on the Isonzo front, according to a Central News despatch from Amsterdam. The Italian advance is taken as a logical consequence of the capture of Mount Santo, the peak which guarded the entrance to the Bainsizza Plateau from the west.

SOLDIERS OPTIMISTIC
The taking of the almost impregnable height has added greatly to the optimism of Gen. Cadorna's men. For the first time in this sector the Austrians have the advantage. Scattered peaks were held over the mountain range which runs north and south-east from Mount Santo this day. The Austrians were in possession of the heights which he Italians are advancing, but the opinion of military experts is that the most difficult part of the fighting is over for the present.

At the same time the official communication from Rome reports the battle on the plateau as of desperate and increasing intensity, but adds that the resistance of the enemy is being overcome at various points.

RUSSIANS LEFT LINES
Large Proportion of Two Regiments Deserted Positions Yesterday
By Courier Leased Wire
Petrograd, Aug. 30.—A large proportion of two Russian regiments on the Rumanian front, left their trenches and retired yesterday. The desertion was a statement of the disposal of one of the regiments followed, and measures have been taken, it is stated, to restore the positions affected in the battle now in progress.

FEW FRENCH SHIPS SUNK
Campaign
Paris, Aug. 30.—Out of the 920 French ships entered, and the 1,013 returned from French ports during the week ending August 26, only 180 of more than 1,600 tons were sunk by submarines or mines. Four vessels were attacked unsuccessfully by submarines in the same period.

SUSPECT ARRESTED
By Courier Leased Wire
Paris, Aug. 30.—The Lyons police have arrested Raymond Robillot, 17 years old, on the charge of having attacked O. L. McLellan, formerly a Louisiana senator, who was shot at Lyons on Tuesday. Robillot is said by The Figaro, to have left Paris because he was wanted by the police for theft. Under the pretext of showing Mr. McLellan about Lyons, he took him to a lonely spot, the newspaper says, demanded money and, meeting with a refusal, fired six shots.

INCENDIARIES AT WORK.
By Courier Leased Wire.
Petrograd, Aug. 30.—After the destruction by fire yesterday of an important factory in the Ohta quarter fire started in another great establishment. The damage is estimated at several million rubles. It is suspected that the fire was started deliberately.

STANDARD STEAMER.
By Courier Leased Wire.
London, Aug. 30.—The first of the British Government's standardized merchant steamers to replace tonnage lost through submarines, it is announced has been commissioned after completing most successful trials. The keel was laid down in February and the hull was launched in June. It is understood that six different types of vessels, varying in size from 8,000 tons downward, are being built. Many hundreds of such ships will be constructed.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Paint acts as a wood preservative because it closes openings in the wood and prevents the entrance of decay producing organisms. A thoroughly well seasoned piece of wood will last indefinitely if well painted.

To get results from painting it is essential that good paint be used, that is, paint that is made from pure linseed oil and white lead, and scientifically mixed.

Moore's Paint
fulfills all these requirements; that's why it pays to use Moore's—it preserves.

Let US Settle the Furniture Question For You

PUT your trust in men who know. You cannot become an expert on furniture, but you can deal with a house that sells on honor, as we do, and feel that what you buy is the kind you want. Also, that the price is as low as shrewd buying and careful business judgment can devise.

You should not judge furniture by the price. If price were the criterion by which furniture should be judged, then quality would be a matter of figures. The furniture we sell is the kind in which the quality is put in before the price goes on.

We will be glad to help you settle the furniture question any day. Come in.

REBELS STOPPED LEAFS IN THE 16TH

When Hearne Had Game Safe He Suddenly Wavered and Lost Lead

YOUNG IS A MYSTERY
Beat Toronto for Second Time After Many Displays and Chances

Toronto, Aug. 30.—Otto Knabe and his meek tail-enders, but mighty scrappy fighters, when against the Rebels, left Toronto last night, and the Leafs do not care very much where they go, for they outlucked us and captured the last game and the rubber of a three game series by pushing a run over in the sixteenth inning, making the score 6 to 5. And that is the kind of baseball that Richmond plays against the Leafs, and Toronto plays against the Leafs, for early in the game the Leafs had a good lead, and then after the score had been tied up on two occasions Toronto scattered precious opportunities to the four winds. Meanwhile the Rebels kept battling like a team fighting from second place, and their battling was not to be denied, as Gould found when Eibel stepped up to bat in the sixteenth.

And the whole thing hinges upon Bunny Hearne's crash in the seventh, when the Rebels took the lead, Hearne being charitable enough to award Knabe a base on balls, making walks in succession, and forced in Eibel. Up to that time Bunny had not been showing very much that warranted his retention upon the mound; in fact our best southpaw has either gone stale or there is something radically wrong, and this contention is not based upon yesterday's game so much as upon his showings in his two or three starts. Six innings seems to be about his limit now and he lacks pep in his delivery, which was so characteristic of his work earlier in the season. The Toronto's need another good pitcher in a hurry or the Baltimore series will be a frost.

AT ROCHESTER. Rochester and Newark broke even in a double header yesterday, the home team winning the first game by 6 to 5, and the visitors taking the second by 1 to 0. JAP TROOPS TO RUSSIA

Strong Forces Concentrating in Manchuria May Be For Galicia

By Courier Leased Wire. Zurich, Switzerland, Aug. 30.—Reports that strong Japanese forces have been concentrated in Manchuria are given currency in Bavaria by the Neueste Nachrichten, of Munich, which also speculates on the possibility of transporting such troops to the Russian front. If the railway facilities were the same as before the war, it says such an operation would require a long time, but the situation has been changed greatly and the Japanese having laid new tracks and made great improvements in the rolling stock.

JOHN MCGRAW FINED $1,000

Manager of Giants Censured and Reprimanded By The National League

New York, Aug. 30.—John J. McGraw, manager of the New York Baseball Club, was yesterday fined $1,000, censured and reprimanded by the board of directors of the National League for approving an interview, subsequently published, containing an attack upon John K. Tener, president of the league.

This action was taken as the result of the demand for an investigation of the case by the New York Chapter of the Baseball Writers' Association of America, after McGraw had signed a statement repudiating the interview when brought before the league upon charges filed by President Tener.

The finding of the board as announced after yesterday's session, states that witnesses in the room with McGraw at the time of the alleged interview did not hear the remarks attributed to him. McGraw is held responsible, however, upon the grounds that he authorized and endorsed statements contained in the interview when he accepted the original manuscript for his approval and returned it with the remark that it was "all right."

The meeting, which was in session for over five hours, was attended by Presidents, P. D. Haughton, Boston Club; Barney Dreyfus, Pittsburg Club; C. H. Ebbets, Brooklyn Club; Branch Rickey of St. Louis Club; W. F. Baker, Philadelphia Club, and H. J. Hempstead, New York Club. The latter did not vote, as his club was involved.

A lengthy resume of the case, with a report of the findings of the board, was immediately sent to the baseball writers' association.

TO COLLECT TAX FOR CURRENT YEAR

Change in Assessment System Favored by City Clerk H. F. Leonard

At Municipal Convention Urges Assessment of Bell Telephone Co.

Toronto, Aug. 30.—At the convention of the Ontario Municipal Association yesterday afternoon City Clerk Leonard of Brantford, introduced a resolution favoring the collection of income and business taxes the same year the assessment is made. Mr. Leonard said that while municipalities made their assessments one year they were not permitted to collect the taxes on income and business that year, and therefore lost considerable revenue.

"We are met with many statements from business men that they should not pay business taxes because they have been out of business six months before the collection was made," said Mr. Leonard. The men who escape paying their taxes because collections are made one year after the assessment, are given police and fire protection and enjoy all the advantages provided by the community," said Mr. Leonard.

The resolution was referred to the committee on resolutions. Mayor J. W. Bowly of Brantford introduced a resolution asking for legislation from the Dominion Government, empowering municipalities to assess the Bell Telephone Company for rental for use of the city streets. The resolution went on to the committee.

WHITE SOX TOOK TWO FROM BROWNS

Chicago is Four and One-Half Games in Front of Boston Red Sox

COBB, VEACH FANNED
Torkleson, a Recruit Pitcher Did It, But Tigers Had Hammered Bagby

Chicago, Aug. 30.—Chicago won both games of a double-header from St. Louis yesterday, 6 to 0, and 11 to 1, and gained a full game on Boston, who had no game scheduled. Chicago now leads Boston by four and a half games. In the first game Russell pitched in fine form, twirling his best ball in the pinches. In the second game the visitors began an assault upon Benz, who was taken out with men on second and third and one out. Danforth retired the side in one, two, three order in each inning except one, when his own wild throw to first enabled Sloan to reach third. The scores:

First game—	R. H. E.
St. Louis	000000000—0 7 1
Chicago	01000041x—6 8 0

Batteries, Koob, Wright and Severoid; Russell and Schalk.

Second game—	R. H. E.
St. Louis	100000000—1 3 3
Chicago	01006004x—11 12 3

Batteries, Wright, Rogers and Hale; Benz, Danforth and Schalk, Lynn.

At Cleveland. Detroit wore its batting clothes yesterday, making 18 hits and winning 15 to 1. Bagby yielded nine earned runs in the third and fourth innings. Torkleson, a recruit, who replaced Bagby, pitched good ball, striking out Cobb and Veach. Daus was effective throughout. Score: R. H. E. Detroit . . . 004500420—15 18 1 Cleveland . . . 000010000—1 6 1 Batteries, Daus, Cunningham and Stanga; Yelle; Bagby, Torkleson and O'Neill, Deberry.

A GREAT BARGAIN

The war map issued by The Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal is now ready for distribution. It is certainly a great map and great help in following war news. It is greatly praised by returned officers and men. The price of The Family Herald is now $1.25 a year, a smaller increase than was expected and with the map given with each subscription it is cheaper than ever. The map alone would cost as much. The paper and map are given to both new and renewal subscriptions at $1.25 a year, but the map cannot be secured otherwise. The Family Herald is the greatest family and farm paper on the Continent and a great credit to Canada.

NORWEGIAN SHIPS SUNK

Steamers Kongslil and Friga Destroyed By Hun Submarines

By Courier Leased Wire. London, Aug. 29.—The Norwegian Steamer Kongslil, from St. Nazaire, France, for the United States, has been sunk off the Spanish coast, according to a telegram received in Christiania from Santander and forwarded by The Morning Post's correspondent.

The Maritime Register reports the Norwegian Steamer Kongslil as a Belgian relief ship. She measured 3,633 tons net and is last reported as arriving at Amsterdam on June 6. The Kongslil was attacked by a submarine late last April. She was at first reported sunk, but was able to reach a British port. One-fourth of her cargo of relief supplies was lost and the second mate was killed.

Sinking by a German submarine of the Norwegian Steamship Friga, 1,046 tons gross, is reported by the Norwegian foreign office, on Exchange Telegraph Company dispatch from Copenhagen says. The crew was saved.

BELGIANS SENTENCED

Huns Shoot Burgomaster And Imprison Other Officials

By Courier Leased Wire. Amsterdam, Aug. 30.—The burgomaster of Hamont, province of Limbourg, Belgium, has been sentenced to death by the German authorities on a charge of helping Belgians to escape into Holland. The Prior of Hamont monastery and Professor Ballings, of Hamont, have been sentenced to life imprisonment on the same charge, according to The Echo Belge.

Madame Errera, wife of the director of the University of Brussels, this dispatch adds, has been arrested by Germans on a charge of espionage. She is accused of having forged identification cards.

Pay Your Debt To Your Defenders

Turn Your Luxuries Into Comforts For Those Who Have Sacrificed Most.

"Self-sacrifice, self-denial and service lie at the basis of the highest personal and national development." — Sir Thomas White, Minister of Finance.

Is it nothing to you that men from all round you have sacrificed home and salary, safety and life, to defend your home as well as their own? Is it nothing to you that their wives and families tremblingly scan each casualty list, and pale at the step of the postman or telegraph messenger? Can you see others giving their dearest, without feeling that you must do something yourself? Do you wonder what to do? You can at least save—and lend your savings to the nation. Canada needs every dollar her loyal sons and daughters can spare, to meet the growing expenses of the struggle.

Every dollar you invest in Canadian War Savings Certificates helps the nation to deal generously with those who are defending you. Certificates in denominations of $25, $50 and $100, repayable in three years, may be purchased at any Bank or Money Order Post Office at $21.50, $43 and $86 respectively. This means over 5% interest—making them a profitable as well as a patriotic investment.

Music and Drama

Beginning on Thursday and continuing Friday night and Saturday matinee and night, the classic comedy drama "Little Lord Fauntleroy" will be presented by the Edward Keane dramatic players.

The Earl of Doencourt has three sons. Two are worthless; the other, a soldier, has married an American girl and is cut off by the Earl. The son dies leaving a son in New York with his widow in very moderate circumstances. Reluctant after six years, the Earl sends to New York for the boy, but forbids the mother to see him. Later, a wife of one of the worthless sons comes on the scene and with a child by another marriage, tries to have the child. Lord Fauntleroy, ousted from his place in the Earl's house, has letters and credentials found to be incorrect, and the fact comes out that she is only trying to foil the son of another man on the Earl.

Mr. Keane will play the part of the Earl of Doencourt, who hates the little Lord at first, but cannot live without him after he knows him. Miss Reade will have the role of dearest Fauntleroy's mother, Little Yvette Paul will be Lord Fauntleroy, Cedric Erroll, who comes into the fortune after living in poverty in New York until he was eight years old. Stanley Price will have the strong part of Hiram the attorney. Mr. Patterson will appear as Mr. Hobbs, a grocer childhood friend of Cedric. Miss Leeman, as the adventuress, Miana and Helen Aubrey as "Billy," the new girl.

Lord Fauntleroy will appeal particularly to the younger patrons of the Grand, but it is also a strong play for older ones too, and is sure to be liked by all. There will be a matinee on Saturday at which a full house is expected.

Jack Pickles startled the natives of Hollywood by coming out victor in a boxing match at one of the local boxing clubs recently. Jack had always been reputed as being one of the latest of screen stars, and it was only after his remarkable performance with the gloves that his associates in Paramount pictures would believe his oft repeated claim to having arisen at 6:00 a.m. for several months in order to do a little road work and considerable training.

Vivian Martin eluded the clutches of director Robert Thornby upon the completion of her latest production, and slipped away to Catalina Island for a brief vacation. She will return to the Morocco studio when she has sufficiently rested and will remain under Mr. Thornby's direction.

Julian Eltinge and his supporting company, in the famous feminine impersonator's initial Paramount picture, "The Lasky Studio," during the hottest spell that Hollywood has encountered for many weeks, Eltinge and his company were filming bathing scenes while the rest of the organization was toiling around the studio. Mr. Eltinge is being directed by Donald Crisp.

COAL FAMINE IN AUSTRIA
Shortage of Labor and Material Brings About Serious Crisis
SITUATION IS GRAVE
Minister of Works Delivers Warning; No Ground For Optimism

By Courier Leased Wire. Basel, Switzerland, Aug. 29.—Herr von Hamana, the Austrian minister of public works startled the Austrian chamber of deputies yesterday by giving it as official opinion that the coal crisis had become a vital question for Austria-Hungary according to Vienna advices to-day. The situation declared the minister, was one which must be faced with optimism and with the utmost seriousness. In an effort to remedy matters, continued the minister, 12,000 miners have been brought back to the mines from the front, but during August the authorities had been unable to effect an increase in production because of the under-nourishment of the workers and their consequent inability to work hard or put in long hours. The failure of the men to achieve the desired result was due not to bad faith, but to impotence, he pointed out, and they must be accorded extra rations even at the expense of other classes of the population.

After the ministerial speech had been delivered the economic committee of the chamber introduced a bill creating a government monopoly of coal and empowering the government to forbid heating of all places of amusement except theatres of museums and to close luxuriant hotels.

Word-of-Mouth Advertising and Newspaper Advertising

It will always be true that "we are advertised by our loving friends."

A store is advertising very effectively, within small limits, by the favorable word spoken of it by one person to another.

If a woman tells a friend that a store is offering an attractive line of things in some particular department, and recites to her the excellent values she has secured at that store—That is valuable advertising for that store.

But the store which is most effectively advertised in newspapers is usually the store which secures, as an indirect result of its newspaper advertising, the greatest share of his word-of-mouth advertising.

For, in nine instances out of ten, the woman who is pleased and enthusiastic about a bargain which she has secured, and who tells her friends about it, was influenced to buy that very thing through the store's advertisement in her newspaper. If it had not been advertised she would not have bought it—she would not have learned about it at all—and thus she would not have had it in mind later as something worth while telling to her friends.

The merchant who hopes to get his share of favorable word-of-mouth advertising must establish the basis for it through very aggressive newspaper advertising. The wisest of the merchants understand this.

(By LOUIS JOSEPH VANCE)

AUTHOR OF

(From Wednesday's Daily. "At last!" he hissed in the approved manner of melodrama, "We are alone!")

She wasn't able to rise to his irresponsible humor. The impression of a hand of steel beneath the velvet glove. Thus far her audacity seemed to have earned nothing but his derision. He was not in the least afraid of her—and he was a desperate criminal. Then what was she in his esteem?

Such thoughts drove home a fresh painful realization of her ambiguous personal status. It began to seem that she had been perhaps a little hasty in assuming she was to be spared punishment for her sin, however venial that might in charity be reckoned. Chance had, indeed, offered what was apparently a broad and easy avenue of escape; but her own voluntary folly had chosen the wrong turning.

Her hands were twisted tight together in her lap as she demanded with tense directness. "What have you done with them?"

"The jewels, I saw you steal them—watched you from the dining-room, through the folding doors—"

"The deuce you did!"

"I saw you break open the desk—and everything."

"Well," he admitted fairly, "I'm jiggered!"

"What have you done with them?"

"Oh, the jewels?" he said with curious intonation. "Ah—yes, to be sure, the jewels, of course. You're anxious to know what I've done with them?"

"Oh, no," she countered irritably; "I only ask out of politeness."

"Thoughtful of you!" he laughed. "Why, they're outside, of course—in my bag."

"Outside?"

"Didn't you notice? I checked it with my hat, rather than have a row. I ought to be ashamed of myself, I know, but I'm a moral coward before a coat-room attendant. I remember keeping tabs one summer, and—will you believe me?—a common, ordinary, every-day three-dollar straw lid set me back twenty-two dollars and thirty cents in tips. But I hope I'm not boring you?"

"Oh, how can you?" she protested, lips tremulous with indignation.

"Don't flatter; I hate even myself at times."

"I don't mean that, and you know I don't. How can you sit there joking when you've just—"

"Come off the job?" he caught her up as she faltered. "But why not? I feel anything but sad about it. It was a god job, wasn't it? A clean haul, clear get-away. Thanks, of course, to you."

She responded, not without some difficulty. "Please! I wouldn't have dared if he hadn't tried to get at that sword."

"Just like him, too!" Blue Serge observed with a flash of indignation. "This kind, I mean—less burglars than bunglers, with no professional pride, no decent instincts, no human consideration. They never stop to think it's tough enough for a householder to come home to a cracker-crib without finding a total stranger to boot—a man he's never even seen before, like as not—ah—weltering on the premises—"

"Our active little friend, the yegg? Why, I didn't do anything with him."

"You didn't leave him there?"

"Oh, no; he went away, considerably."

stately enough—upstairs and out through the scuttle—the way, he broke in, you know. Surprisingly spry on his feet for a man of his weight and age—had all I could do to keep up. He did stop once, true, as if he'd forgotten something, but the sword ran into him—I happened thoughtlessly to be carrying it—only a quarter of an inch or so, and he changed his mind, and by the time I got my head through the scuttle he was gone—vanished completely from human ken!"

"He had broken the scuttle open, you say?"

"Pried it up with a jimmy."

"And you left it so? He'll go back."

"No, he won't. I found hammer and nails and made all fast before I left."

"But," she demanded, wide-eyed with wonder, "why did you take that trouble?"

"My silly conceit, I presume. I couldn't bear the thought of having that roughneck return and muss up one of my neatest jobs."

"I don't understand you at all," she murmured, utterly confounded.

"Nor I you, if it matters. Still, I'm sure you won't keep me much longer in suspense, considering how open-faced I've been. But here's that annual of a waiter again."

She was willingly silent, though she exerted herself to seem at ease with indifferent success. The voice of her companion was like a distant, hollow echo in her hearing; her wits were all awl, her nerves as taut and vibrant as banjo-strings; before her vision the face of Blue Serge swam, a flesh-tinted moon now and again traversed by a flash of white when he smiled.

"Come!" the man ralled her sharply, in an undertone, "this will never do. You're as white as a sheet, trembling and staring, as if I were a leper or a relation by marriage or something repulsive!"

She sat forward mechanically, and mustered an uncertain smile. "Forgive me. I'm a little overwrought—the heat and—everything."

"Not another word, then, till you've finished. I'll do the talking, if it's all the same to you. But you needn't answer—needn't listen, for that matter. I've no pride in my conversation, powers, and you mustn't risk losing your appetite."

He seemed to find it easy enough to make talk, but Sally soared his little attention, being at first exclusively preoccupied with the demands of her hunger, and later, as the meal progressed, renewing her physical strength and turning the ebbing tide of her spirits, now thoroughly engaged with the problem of how to extricate herself from this embarrassing association or, if extrication proved impossible, how to turn it to her own advantage. For if the affair went on this way—his way—she were a sorry adventuress indeed.

Small cups of black coffee stood before them, steaming, when a question roused her, and she shook herself across the cloth, once more full mistress of her faculties.

"Very much," she smiled, "and thank you!"

"Don't make me uncomfortable; remember, this is all your fault."

"What?"

"That I'm here alive and while, able to enjoy a most unique situation. Who are you?"

"That she wasn't to be caught by any such simple stratagem as a question plumped suddenly at her with all the weight of a rightful demand; she smiled again and shook her head.

"But if I insist?"

"Why don't you, then?"

"Meaning insistence won't get me anything?"

Sensitive to the hint of a hidden trump, she stiffened slightly. "I haven't asked you to commit yourself. I've got a right to my own privacy."

There fell a small pause. Lounging, an elbow on the table, a cigarette tumbling idly between his fingers, the man favored her with a steady look of speculation whose challenge was modified only by the inextinguishable humor smoldering in his eyes—a look that Sally met squarely, dissembling her excitement. For with all his fears and perplexity she could never quite forget that, whatever its sequel, this was verily an adventure after her own heart, that she was looking her best in a wonderful frock and pitting her wits against those of an engaging rogue, that she who had better hours ago thought herself better dead was now living intensely an hour of vital emergency.

"But," the man said suddenly, and yet deliberately, "surely you won't dispute my right to know who makes free with my own home?"

Her bravado was extinguished as suddenly as a candle-flame in a gust of wind.

"Your home?" she parroted witlessly.

"Mine, yes. If you can forgive me."

"It has been amusing to play the part you assigned me of amateur cracksmen, but really, I'm afraid—it can't be done without a better make-up!"

He produced, and placed before her on the cloth a small white card, and as soon as its neat black script ceased to writhe and run together beneath her gaze she comprehended the name of Mr. Walter Arden Savage, with a residence address identical with that of the house where her great adventure had begun.

"You!" she breathed aghast. "You're not really Mr. Savage?"

He smiled indulgently. "I rather think I am."

Sally's voice failed her entirely, and he laughed a tolerant little laugh as he bent forward to explain.

"I don't wonder you are surprised—or at your mistake. The fact is, the circumstances are peculiar. It's my sister's fault, really; she's such a flighty little thing—unardonably careless. Must have warned her a hundred times, if once, never to leave valuables in that silly old tin safe. But she won't listen to reason—never would. And it's her house—her safe. I've got no right to install a better one. And that is why we're here."

He smiled thoughtfully down his nose. "It's really a chapter of accidents to which I'm indebted for this charming adventure," he pursued with a suavely personable nod, "beginning with the blow-out of the taxicab tire that made us five minutes late for this evening's boat. We were bound up the Sound, you understand, to spend a fortnight with a material aunt. And our luggage is well on its way there now. So when we missed the boat there was nothing for it but to go by train. We taxied back here through that bombable storm, booked for Boston by the eleven ten, and ducked across the way to dine at the Billmore. No good going home, of course, with the servants out—and everything. And just as we were finishing dinner this amiable sister of mine gave a whoop and let it out that she'd forgotten her jewels. Well, there was plenty of time. I put her aboard the train as soon as the sleepers were open—ten o'clock, you know—and trotted back home to fetch the loot."

FEUD LOVERS.

"Hatred is the vice of narrow souls; they feed it with their littlenesses."—Balzac.

What silly things feuds are! To take some little offense, some small wound to your vanity or some divergence from your notions of good taste, and to build out of it a barrier of dislike a habit of hatred, is surely as Balzac says "the vice of narrow souls."

And yet how many people there are who really enjoy these petty feuds. I do verily believe that there are people who enjoy meeting someone with whom they have such a feud and passing by on the other side of the street with averted head, more than they enjoy meeting a friend.

The Butcher Who Wouldn't Advertise. In Her Church Paper.

There is one woman in our neighborhood who has not enough to occupy her mind and consequently makes a great deal of such feuds. She has a long list of them tabulated in her mind. There is the butcher who refused to advertise in her Church paper ten years ago. She withdrew her trade from him and never loses a chance to speak slightly of his standing as a butcher and a man. There is the neighbor who she fancies fancies herself above her. There is another neighbor whom she declares once tried to get a maid away from her. And other similar offenders too numerous to mention. To all these people she does not speak. But she more than makes up for it by speaking about them.

One Shouldn't Bother With Her. Now of course it is natural that one should not love a neighbor who tried to get one's maid away from one. But why bother oneself to have a feud with her? She isn't worth it, I say. One lowers oneself too much in entering into such a relationship. One need not go out of one's way to meet her but neither should one go out of one's way to avoid her. That is too much dignifying her position in your life.

As for "not speaking" that is a childish trick which fully matured people leave behind in childhood. We Can't Like Everyone Alike. Every now and then I catch myself chiding a feud and I am ashamed. I cannot like everyone equally (and I don't want to) I do not help hating wrong and injustice and meanness (and I don't want to) but I can keep from descending to petty feuds. And I certainly want to and their little legs soon grew tired. They were glad when the man with the can turned in at a big white gate and, they slowly followed.

"Bow, wow!" came a gruff voice from the side of the house.

Tumble and Fluffy were so frightened that they forgot they were tired, and turned down the path and ran out of the gate and up the road toward home, the big dog barking at their heels.

"Run up that tree!" cried Fluffy. "I never climbed a tree in my life."

Tumble gasped, all out of breath. Fluffy ran up the tree and out on a limb.

Tumble looked at the tree for a second, and just as the dog was about to seize his tail Tumble climbed the tree beside Fluffy.

The big dog sat underneath and barked until he was hoarse, and then when it began to grow dark he wagged his tail and went back home. Tumble and Fluffy waited until they were sure the dog was out of sight, then they ran down the other side of the tree and home as fast as they could.

Mrs. Cat, who had returned before them, was calling them at the top of her voice. She was so happy to have them safely home once more that she never scolded them for running away. She cleaned and smoothed their roughened coats with much care, while they told her about the big dog and the man with the can.

"Had you waited awhile you would have seen a nice saucer of milk on the porch. For just as soon as the milk man brings the milk our mistress fills out plates. You must learn to be patient. One doesn't have to know the source of one's blessings to be able to enjoy them," said Mrs. Cat kindly.

Then she led her two little ones around to the porch where a saucer of good fresh milk waited for them.

Good Night Stories

FLUFFY AND TUMBLE

Fluffy and Tumble were two little black kittens. Old Mrs. Cat was very proud of them both, and when she wasn't hunting food she roughed and tumbled them over the floor until they cried "Stop," then she would lick out their pretty, shiny coats and sing little bug songs until they were asleep.

One day after the bug song was over and Fluffy and Tumble were sound asleep in the corner of the porch Mrs. Cat stole out of the gate in search of food. She hadn't been away long until Tumble awakened and sat up looking around.

"I wonder what lies beyond that gate. Mother always comes back with her mouth full when she returns that way," Tumble said to himself.

Just then a man with a big can stepped on the porch. He set the can down and poured nice fresh milk into a pan that the mistress handed him. Tumble licked a drop that fell on the porch, then he quickly awakened Fluffy.

"There goes the man who brings that good milk. Let's follow him and maybe he'll give us some," cried Tumble.

Fluffy grabbed Tumble by his tail: "No! No!" she cried. "We must never run off the porch."

But Tumble pulled loose and followed the man with the can. There was nothing else for Fluffy to do but run after Tumble.

"I'm going to find out where he gets that milk," said Tumble.

Away the two kittens scampered after the milk man.

The road was dusty and the way was long, for they had never been so far from home before.

Further than the porch steps before, and their little legs soon grew tired.

They were glad when the man with the can turned in at a big white gate and, they slowly followed.

"Bow, wow!" came a gruff voice from the side of the house.

Tumble and Fluffy were so frightened that they forgot they were tired, and turned down the path and ran out of the gate and up the road toward home, the big dog barking at their heels.

"Run up that tree!" cried Fluffy. "I never climbed a tree in my life."

Tumble gasped, all out of breath.

LADIES' SKIRT.

By Anabel Worthington.

For the dressy skirt that is used for any of the semi-formal occasions of midsummer there is nothing more graceful than a draped skirt. The one selected for this purpose, No. 8374, is prettily draped and yet it has straight lines. This effect is gained by the cut of the right gore, which laps over the left and gives the cascade effect. The skirt is gathered all around to the slightly raised waist line. The skirt has three gores. It is a splendid model for materials such as taffeta, charmeuse, satin, silk, poplin, foulard and faille. The skirt pattern, No. 8374, is cut in five sizes—24 to 32 inches waist measure. Width at lower edge of skirt is 2 1/2 yards. The 24 inch size requires 3 3/4 yards 36 inch material, with 4 1/2 yards banding. To obtain this pattern send ten cents to the office of this publication.

FOE DERIDES CONFERENCE

"Comedy of Moscow," Is The Term Applied To Russian State Convention

PEASANTS ARE BLEED

"Autocratic Government Is Exerting People To Further Mad Sacrifices"

Amsterdam, Aug. 30.—German news papers are disposed favorably toward the Moscow conference. The Cologne Gazette describes it as the "comedy of Moscow," adding that it is intended to excite the Russian people to further sacrifices. The Kreuzzeitung says: "Premier Kerensky's speech proves that the Russian Government is acting autocratically. The Russian peasant has to bleed at the Government command without knowing the Government's aims. This is the freedom which the revolution has given the country."

PEACE FOR EVERYONE

Neutral Socialists Have No Desire To See Russia Capitulate

WANT NONE CRUSHED

Socialists Desire A Peace For All Nations Of The World

Copenhagen, Aug. 30.—The Socialists of neutral countries do not wish any nation to be crushed in this war, said M. Stauning, Socialist leader and minister without portfolio, in an address today. "That reason the constantly recurring rumors that we desire a separate peace between Russia and Germany are meaningless and untrue. 'A separate peace would be in complete opposition to the interests of the international working classes. We desire peace, but for all the nations of the world.'"

HUN COAL TO SWEDEN TAXED

Ill Feeling Spreading In Scandinavia; Better Trade Relation With Entente

By Courier Leased Wire. Stockholm, Aug. 29.—Swedish industrial and business circles are stirred greatly over an export of 25,000 tons of coal to Germany which has put on all coal for shipment to Sweden. The tax is effective at once no matter when the order for the coal was given. Germany also imposed a tax on parcel post, payable after August 15.

By Courier Leased Wire.
New York, Aug. 31.—The Sun, from Rome, says: Reports are reaching from diplomatic and economic sources in Austria that the shortage throughout the country is becoming so serious that the government is among the nations causing the most concern. The intellectual depression school children, due to food is rendering it practically impossible for them to continue school, and it is probable that they will have to be closed soon. As an instance of the food shortage, it is said flour costs $40 and a pound of fat is scarce and a pound in fifteen days for each person. Owing to starch nuts are all worn out head-dresses and the remedies so far adopted are useless. All food reserved for the army and famine seems inevitable.

Budget Deficit
Zurich, Aug. 31.—The budget for 1916-17 shows 344,000,000 crowns, compared with a deficit of 49,000,000 crowns in the preceding year. Two out of every three crowns of expenditure—900,000 crowns for interest, and 1,550,000,000 of the support of soldiers' families and direct war expenses not included in the budget—Spies Convicted Christiansburg, Aug. 31.—Man spies have been convicted for supplying information to submarines regarding the time of vessels which late departed. Captain Laven Schwartz, German citizen, Thorsen, a Norwegian, all in terms in the penitentiary was sentenced to three years to four; and Thor years' imprisonment.
Captain Laven admitted worked under instructions German authorities. He German subjects were for such orders.
Norwegian newspapers meeting on the trial, emphasize that the country must take it fact that German subjects orders from their home.
