CURLING CLUB HELD MEETING

A special meeting of the Newcastle Curling Club was held in the Town Hall, October 31, to discuss plans for the coming season. After considerable discussion it was decided that the club carry on the same this year as last, if satisfactory arrangements could be made with the rink management. It was moved by D.S. Creaghan, seconded by C.M. Dickison and carried, that this meeting be considered the annual meeting of the Club and that the curlers elect their officers for the coming season. It was moved by D.S. Creaghan, seconded by R.W. Crocker, that a committee of five be appointed to nominate officers. The following members were nominated and duly selected as officers for the year: Pres.—John Russell Vice. Pres.—H.B. Cassidy Sec'y—A.M. McMurray Treasurer—J.E.T. Lindon Chaplain—Rev. P.W. Brideau. The managing committee, consisting of R.W. Crocker, Chairman; A.H. Cole and D.S. Creaghan was authorized to proceed at once to make the necessary arrangements with the rink committee for the coming year.

After a lengthy discussion it was decided to raise the membership fee to $7.00 as it was impossible to conduct the business of the club under the present fee of $5.00. It was also decided that the schedule for this year be the same as drawn up by J.R. McKnight, J.E.T. Lindon and R.W. Crocker some four years ago, as this schedule had given the best satisfaction to the club of all schedules yet conducted. The Club was given an interesting address by Mr. Thomas Clarke, manager of the local branch of the Royal Bank of Canada, on the management of the Club in order that more interest would be taken in the roarin game by members. Mr. Clarke was listened to attentively and his remarks were greatly appreciated and will have a most beneficial result.

PARTRIDGE SEASON ENDED

The open season for the shooting of partridge closed Friday. According to reports from hunters generally, there has been a scarcity of the birds this season, although of late they have been reported to be more plentiful. If more birds have been found at the close of the season this fact would bear out the contention of some hunters that the partridge are only now coming out of the deep woods.

TO BE SWORN IN ATTORNEY GENERAL THIS WEEK

That Mr. Ivan C. Rand barrister of Moncton, would be Attorney General of the Province succeeding Hon. J. P. Byrne, who was recently appointed Judge of the Supreme Court of N. B., was the statement made by Premier Veniot, following a lengthy meeting with leading liberals of Moncton in the Brunswick Hotel.

Mr. Rand, the Premier stated, would be sworn in this week, but as to whether there would be a by-election held at an early date, he said there was nothing to announce.

Asked as to the possibility of a general provincial election, Premier Veniot said this was not contemplated and he had no further announcement to make on this question.

With regard to the much talked of liquor plebiscite, as to whether the province would take a vote on the question of continuing the present act or not, the Premier said this was entirely a matter for the legislature to pass upon and that any move towards the taking of a plebiscite would be required to be brought down in legislation by the House.

Premier Veniot arrived in Moncton, Thursday afternoon on the Ocean Limited from Bathurst and went direct to the Brunswick where he had a short consultation with some of the party leaders. The Premier despite his recent illness is looking remarkably well and says that he is continuing to improve daily.

While it was stated that the meeting dealt chiefly with organization, it is understood that several questions as to the future policy of the party were also discussed at length.

C.N.R. RADIO STATION AT MONCTON

On November 7th at 8 p.m. the formal opening of the Canadian National Railways new radio broadcasting station at Moncton, New Brunswick will take place. This station will come on the air with the call letters CNRA. It has been the practice of the Canadian Railways to give each station the initials of the railway plus the initial letter of the city in which the station is located, but in this instance Montreal having laid claim to the letter "M" it was decided to give the Moncton station the letter "A" which stands for Atlantic, Moncton being the headquarters for the Atlantic Region of the Canadian National Railways.

A wave length of 315 metres has been assigned to this station, which it is predicted, will be one of the most powerful on the continent. The new station is broadly modelled upon the lines of the original Canadian National radio station at Ottawa, duplicating in many details the Ottawa installation and improving others to permit better efficiency and more perfect radiation. The aerial on the new station is supported by two steel towers of the Eiffel Tower type, 150 feet in height and 200 feet apart. These immense towers are on a base 34 foot square and they gradually taper to 3 feet square at the top.

The actual alignment of the aerial is 60 1/2 degrees west by 30 1/2 degrees east, this being considered the best for transmitting from this territory. The maximum radiation is given from the western aerial for the reason that it points towards the greatest receiving zone extending through the New England states and the populous territory along the St. Lawrence and the Atlantic seaboard.

Boys Were Captured At Prince William

Two boys, aged 16 and 12 years, who had escaped on October 3rd from the Industrial Home, St. John were taken into custody Friday night, at Prince William, by Chief of Police Nathaniel Jones and Officer Harry McNeill for the Home authorities.

The boys were secured as a result of information received from A.J. Parker Superintendent of the Boys' Industrial Home. Following their escape, in company with another lad, the boys made their way to Prince William where they were taken care of by W.E. ... One of the boys is a native of ... while the younger ...

Practical Annihilation Of Historic Liberal Party One Of Features of Election

Election Regarded as Most Sensational Political Contest Since "Khaki Election" of War Times—Lloyd George Expected to Lead Weakened Liberal Group—Baldwin May be Foreign Minister as Well as Premier.

The practical annihilation of the historic Liberal party and the creation of a fierce resentment in the Labor ranks, based on the belief that the Zinoviev bombshell was a fraud and a forgery are the two outstanding features of the most sensational political contest since "Khaki election" just after the Great War. Before the publication of the Zinoviev document it was regarded as a certainty all around that Labor and Conservatives would both gain at the expense of the Liberals. Labor did not expect a majority over all and was reconciled to the prospect of a defeat by combined Liberal and Conservative forces in the new house. The Conservatives triumph and the actual loss of seats by Labor was due almost entirely to the last minute issue, and if Labor can prove its present suspicions that the Zinoviev letter was a deliberately conceived Conservative ruse there will be much trouble—real trouble.

The smouldering anger that now possess the Labor ranks would undoubtedly flame into strikes and other industrial troubles.

As the British United Press indicated recently the Red issue was principally effective in the three cornered contests where many Liberal votes were swung from Liberal to Labor candidates. It also had a strong effect upon the vote of the women, who were largely responsible for sweeping the industrial north into the arms of the Conservatives.

While the Liberals are dismayed over their dissemination and particularly over the defeat of their leader H.H. Asquith who fell in Paisley to the lance of Doelin Mitchell, Beau Brummel of the Labor party—a lawyer, exquisitely intellectual—they by no means accept the popular opinion that Liberalism has passed into tradition.

Lloyd George to Lead Party

Lloyd George will probably automatically become leader of the party in the Commons and he has lost none of his aggressiveness, though his reconciliations with the Asquith Liberals did away with the apparent usefulness of the north Liberal organization which he created. It is significant that he has kept the nucleus of that organization together, and it is still able to function as required.

One of his active associates said to the British United Press:

"We regard the result of this election as proof that the great majority of the British electorate are people of moderate mind. They defeated Labor by voting Conservative because they were alarmed at the extreme measure from the other angle; the results at the next election will be similar and will be for the benefit of the Liberal."

The Effect on Preference

Just how the Conservatives succeed will help imperial preference is dubious but undoubtedly steps will be made in that direction and in the direction of protection in general. The Conservative victories in the industrial centres of the north which have been the strongholds of free trade, is a notable indication of a change in opinion there. The Liberals, at the last moment on the basis of some speeches of Baldwin during the campaign raised the important cry that the Conservatives were "food taxers" but it failed to affect everywhere.

Conservative headquarters are already busy building cabinets and the indication is that Stanley Baldwin will not only be Premier of the next ministry but probably will be foreign Minister as well.

Labor is able to extract some crumbs of comfort from unexpected features of the result. One of these is their invasion of the Tory stronghold of Birmingham where Neville Chamberlain nearly lost his seat to Oswald Mosley, the Labor candidate who is the son-in-law of the Marquis of Curzon. All Conservative majorities in the Birmingham area were reduced and Labor actually won King's-Dorton against Sir P. Austin the well known automobile manufacturer. On the other hand, both of Arthur Henderson's sons were defeated. Sir Hamar Greenwood's election and the defeat of Rt. Hon. T.J. Mac Damar, were notable incidents of the fight.

The victory of Col. McDonnell in Dartford is very welcome at Conservative headquarters.

SHIPPING POTATOES

Potatoes are being shipped at the rate of 5,000 barrels weekly to England from the sheds of Guy G. Porter Company, Limited, Perth, Victoria county, and will be increased to 10,000 by November 1. The prospects are that 1,000,000 barrels will be shipped before the season closes. The shipments are sent over the C.N.R. to Halifax and carried on the Furness, Withy and Manchester steamships. They will go through St. John during the winter months. Farmers are not getting a large price, but owing to the quantity raised this year, and the yield per acre, they are making a small profit. The prospects are bright for an advanced price with this large market awaiting Canadian products.

ASTHMA NEVER CAME BACK

Since Taking The Fruit Treatment in "Fruit-a-tives"

Read this letter from Mrs. J. M. Pennington of New Rockland, P.Q. "In 1919, I was taken with Bronchial Asthma and no one knows what I suffered during the winter. I began having choking spells and would just gasp for breath and could not speak. The doctor said he could do nothing for me.

In the spring of 1920, I started taking "Fruit-a-tives" and soon the choking spells became easier and I have not had one since May 7th, 1920. It is such a relief to be able to go to bed and have no thought of having to get up in the night for an hour or more as I did all that winter, but never have to now, all because I take a "Fruit-a-tives" tablet every night, 25c. and 50c. a box—at all dealers or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa, Ont.

Molson's And Montreal Are Now Combined

Montreal, Oct. 19—Official announcement has been made that the Bank of Montreal had taken over Molson's Bank.

The absorption of the Molson's Bank by the Bank of Montreal combines two of the oldest banking houses in Canada. The Bank of Montreal was founded in 1817 and Molson's Bank in 1855. Both have their head offices in Montreal. The directors of Molson's are all Montreal men with the exception of one, who resides in Quebec.

The Molson's Bank had an authorized capital of $5,000,000 and a subscribed capital of $4,000,000, all paid up. It had a reserve fund of $5,000,000.

The Bank of Montreal has an authorized capital of $31,175,000 and a subscribed capital of $27,250,000 all paid up. Its rest and undivided profits at the last annual statement were $28,228,567.

The official announcement of the deal is as follows:

"It is announced that with the consent of the Hon. J.A. Robb, acting Minister of Finance, an agreement has been entered into between the Molson's Bank and the Bank of Montreal whereby, subject to the approval of the shareholders of both banks and the Governor General in Council, the Bank of Montreal is to purchase the assets and assume the liabilities of the Molson's Bank on terms which it is believed will be satisfactory to the shareholders of both institutions.

"The basis of the agreement is that the Molson's Bank shareholders will receive two shares of Bank of Montreal stock for three shares of Molson's Bank stock, and in addition, a cash bonus of $10 each for each Molson's Bank share.

"The Molson's Bank shareholders will receive their regular quarterly dividend on January next, and the shares received from the Bank of Montreal for distribution to the Molson's Bank shareholders rank for regular dividend as and from December 1, 1924.

"It is unnecessary to add that the taking over of the assets and liabilities of the Molson's Bank by the Bank of Montreal will conserve and extend the facilities formerly given by the Molson's Bank."

TROUBLE MAY BE SETTLED

If an agreement with Japan is reached in the near future the paramount of Russia's foreign relations will be accomplished, Premier Rykoff has declared.

"After that, only the United States remains and even if the pending elections do not bring a change, the United States government can hardly persist in its isolated attitude toward the Russian question," he added.

Rykoff ascribed French recognition of Russia to two motives:

First—A general desire on the part of the European nations to secure peace; Second—On account of France's economic interests and the pressure exerted by business men on the government.

PLANNING A MEMORIAL CHAPTER

Church of England authorities have completed plans for the erection in or near Ypres of a memorial church to be used by the many thousands of persons who annually make pilgrimages to the graves of the British dead who fell during the four year's fighting in the Ypres salient.

The church will be designed by one of the foremost British architects and will be erected in the form of a cross, with belfry, chancel and nave.

Declares One Man Voted 106 Times

Speaking at a Conservative executive meeting in Calgary, Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen leader of the Opposition, termed the Liberal campaign in Rimouski and St. Antoine the "basest, vilest racial appeal ever known." He said, a minister of the crown had appealed to the women of Rimouski asking if they were going to vote for "this man Meighen, whose hands are red with the blood of your sons."

Hon. K. B. Bennett, K.C. one time Minister of Justice, in a supporting address, said that in Rimouski one woman had voted 47 times and one man in the New England states had voted 106 times.

ECZEMA OF HANDS.—Mr. J. E. Casick, of 349, Wilson St., Hamilton (Ont.), says:—"Every winter eczema appeared on the back of my hands. The intense itching and pain was most severe, and the disease got so bad, I was unable to work. Even a sample box of Zam-Buk proved its worth, and I at once bought a supply. I never could have believed if I had not experienced it, how quickly Zam-Buk completely healed my hands."

BURNS & SCALDS.—Mr. E. Webster, of 519, Seigneurs St., Montreal, says:—"As I was lifting a pan of boiling water off the stove, my son Eddie ran towards me, and knocked the pan upwards, severely scalding his neck. We tried several so-called remedies, but they all failed to give him relief. We then applied Zam-Buk and this acted like a charm. It drew away the pain and soon healed Eddie's terrible scald."

POISONED HAND.—Mrs. Geo. Boorman, of 906, Selkirk Avenue, Winnipeg, says:—"I cut my left hand while using a pair of scissors. The deep gash bled so profusely, and so long, I was afraid an artery had been severed. Inflammation set in, and my thumb turned black with poison. Zam-Buk soothed the acute pain directly, drew out all inflammation and discoloration, and soon healed the wound."

Father Delorme

Acquitted

Rev. J. Adelard Delorme, who for nearly three years has been in the hands of the police, and who in that time has undergone three trials on the charge of murder of his half brother, Raoul, on the night of January 6th, 1922 was acquitted Friday afternoon after the jury had deliberated for over four hours. At 4:45 p.m. the jury returned to the courtroom and pronounced their verdict of "Not guilty." Father Delorme was immediately freed and left the building with Lucien Gendron, one of the defense counsel, by a door which had not been opened for half a century. In this way, the liberated priest, escaped the thousands who were waiting outside the courtroom for a glimpse of him.

Expect Coolidge

Will be Elected

Calvin Coolidge will probably be elected President of the United States at the polls today according to the consensus of independent opinion. While an extraordinary complicated political situation has arisen since the advent of the "Third Party" captained by Senator Robert LaFollette, the growth of the Ku Klux Klan issue and the recent oil scandal, in which prominent Republicans were involved, those observers of feeling through out the country give Coolidge the edge over John W. Davis, Democratic nominee and LaFollette.

Coolidge has to get 226 votes out of 531 in the electoral college to win the election. If he does not do so—that is if Davis and LaFollette get more than half the votes of the college—the election will be thrown out of the House of Representatives and the possibility is not overlooked by the prophets. A despatch from Washington to the Canadian Press says that the most important forecasts at the Capitol are to the effect that Coolidge will be elected, but that there is a bare possibility LaFollette showing such unexpected strength in the west that the election will be thrown to the House. The complexion of the House and Senate is extremely uncertain, although Coolidge would undoubtedly carry the House for the Republicans. The result of the British elections encouraged the conservative Republican element beyond a doubt, the correspondent says and the Republican forces seem more likely to win because their opposition is split in much the same way as it was split for the Conservatives in Great Britain.

Dublin, Ontario.—"I was weak and irregular, with pains and headaches, and could not sleep nights. I learned about Lydia E. U.S.A. ELECTION

The Presidential election in the United States is being held today. It is predicted that President Coolidge will be elected by a safe plurality.

New Brunswick Apples In Demand

New Brunswick apples are creating a favorable impression in the Montreal market this season. Already some forty carload lots have been shipped from the St. John Valley fruit districts by orchardists; many of whom have contracted for the purchase of their consignments prior to shipment, chiefly to the Montreal market and to points in Eastern Ontario.

Eighty per cent of the crop was the estimate made today by Provincial Horticulturist A.G. Turney, of the amount which has already been shipped. Total shipments for the season of winter and early varieties are expected to run over sixty carloads. Prices are being received by the growers, were said to be good. All shipments are being made individually, although the growers are co-operating in the matter of forwarding their crops. In connection with New Brunswick's success at the Imperial Fruit Show two years ago, Mr. Turney said today that there was not much encouragement for Provincial competition, especially in view of the action of the Dominion authorities in improving a $14.50 sales tax on the medals won by the provincial exhibit at that time. This matter has been taken up with Ottawa and a ruling made under which the province was required to pay the sales tax on the medals won at the fruit show where New Brunswick, Mackintosh Reds excelled.

Blue Louse Sucks Blood Of Partridge

Dr. Philip Cox of the faculty of the University of New Brunswick who was given the so-called blue louse found upon a partridge which was shot along the New Maryland Road near Fredericton stated that he had been unable positively to identify the insect beyond the fact that it was one of several insects of the kind which infest birds and animals. It is bluish in color and corresponds to the general appearance of the louse found on partridge all over the province. The insect is unlike the louse which infests domestic fowl. The latter bite, but the blue louse obtains a hold near the eye or ear of the bird and penetrating the skin burrows into the flesh and sucks the blood. In time the loss of blood becomes so great that the bird is seriously weakened or dies. A larger insect of the same type infests rabbits and causes similar destruction in the same way. It is when particularly numerous that these are destructive.

ANXIOUS TO GET BUSY

The uppermost matter in the minds of the people of the county of Northumberland at the present time, is whether or not this county is going to be given representation in the provincial government and if the county is also to receive representation in the Red Chamber.

This county is deserving of both and unless it receives its just consideration, those who are in a position to know that there will be no end of trouble. Many people in this county are anxious to know what Premiers King and Veniot intend doing about these matters, as they want to get at their job of raising trouble at once unless the county is given its proper recognition. They want no more procrastination.

SMOKING CIGARETTES

In some sections of the province, public school pupils caught smoking cigarettes on the streets are handed over to the Chief of Police who ascertains from the pupil, the source of his supply of tags, and the man who sold the cigarettes is then prosecuted. This might be a good method to pursue in Newcastle and other cities. Pupils have the habit under consideration, it might be suggested that young girls who resort to such practices be treated in a like manner. This procedure might be a means of putting a stop to such unseemly habits which so many of the younger generation both boys and girls, are developing. To say the least, it is neither manly or ladylike.

Motor Fees Total Exceeds The Estimate

The Motor Vehicles Branch of the Provincial Department of Public Works, has announced that collections of Motor Vehicle Fees resulted in a total of $452,000 in the fiscal year. What slight additions may be made will not make any great difference in the total.

The estimate for the collections of Motor Vehicle Fees for the year was $405,000. The amount has been exceeded in collections by $47,000 which is about 12% in excess of estimate.

In 1923 the amount collected from the same source was $376,901.57 which was considerably in excess of the estimated amount.

During the present year there has been a substantial increase in the number of motor vehicles in New Brunswick, the increase taking place in both trucks and cars. At the present time there is every indication that the purchase of 1925 models will be at a similar rate of increase.

MASONS CELEBRATE AT HARTLAND

Constitution, Consecration and Dedication of Hartland Lodge No 46 of Free and Accepted Masons.

Last Tuesday evening was a red letter night in Hartland for the Masonic Fraternity. The occasion was the visit of the Grand Lodge officers for the purpose of constituting the lodge with full powers to work and the presentation of the Charter.

For the past year the lodge has been working under the dispensation of Grand Lodge and their work has proved so acceptable that a Charter has been awarded. The following were the Grand Officers present: Grand Master G.D. Ellis, Past Grand LeBaron Wilson Past Deputy Grand Donald Munroe, Grand High Priest, W.H. Smith; Senior Grand Warden, S.M. Webmore; Junior Grand Warden, P. Burchill; Grand Secretary, J. Twinling Hart; Deputy District Grand Master, K.M. Gabel and Acting Grand Chaplain, Rev. H.F. Rigby.

After the consecration of the lodge, the officers were installed as follows: W.M.—J.E. MacCollum; S.W.—Anthony Baker; J.W. Frank; A. Alton; Chaplain—J.M. Mallory, S.D.—R. Dewk, J.D.—Herbert Alton; Treasurer—Fred Allen; Secretary—W.P. Tedlie; Stewards—W.T. White and R. Holyoke; Inner Guard—E.W. Lackey; Tyler—K.W. Keith.

The Grand Master spoke of the importance of these offices and hoped that all would strive to become thoroughly efficient in their respective offices. Speeches of congratulations were also given by the various Grand Lodge Officers after which W.M. MacCollum replied in a few well chosen words and thanked the officers for the visit.

A well served banquet proved to be a stimulant to the spirits of all and much credit is due to the committee in charge of his part of the proceedings.

Addresses Have Been Cancelled Owing To Illness

Mrs. J. Gotfrich, missionary on furlough from North China whose addresses in the congregations of Miramichi Presbytery have been so highly appreciated has had to cancel further appointments on account of illness. Though unable to fulfill Sundays' engagements in Black River, Lower Napan and Loggville, she has taken the advice of a physician and left Newcastle on the Ocean Limited Monday for Toronto where she will place herself under medical care. She has, with much regret, cancelled all appointments in the Presbyteries of Prince Edward Island and Truro which extended throughout the month of November.

EXPECT TO HAVE LEAD OF 200 IN NEW PARLIAMENT

When the counting of all the election returns, with the exception of a few outstanding returns from the universities and Scotland, was concluded, the composition of the new British House of Commons was as follows:—

- Conservatives 398
- Labor 149
- Liberals 40
- Independents 4
- Co-operatives 5
- Constitutionalists 3
- Communists 1

Total 600
Membership of the House 615
The Conservatives will have more than 400 members out of a total membership of 615 in the new House of Commons. That is the startling outcome of the third appeal to the country within two yrs. The exact figures cannot yet be given because in the Universities and some outlying Scottish islands the counting will not be completed for another week.

Because of this astounding Conservative victory it is expected that Premier MacDonald will order an immediate Cabinet Council to consider the Government's position. This may quite possibly prove to be the last meeting of a Labor Cabinet in England for the next five or more years.

The expectation is that the MacDonald Cabinet will decide to resign forthwith, thus making way for the Baldwin Ministry.

There is another alternative, to follow the precedent set by the Baldwin Ministry after the general elections, meet Parliament and wait for defeat on the address from the Throne. One strong motive for following this course would be that Premier MacDonald has declared his intention to probe to the roots of the Zinovieff affair, and this he would be in a position to do effectively only while he retained the Foreign Secretaryship with access to all departmental documents.

In the face of such a stunning defeat as the Government suffered at the polls, it is generally thought that even the investigation of this affair would not justify the Cabinet in carrying on until Parliament meets. When J.H. Thomas, Secretary of Colonies, recently declared that the Government would await defeat in the House, he had in mind undoubtedly a position in which it would require the combined vote of the Conservatives and Liberals to overthrow the Ministry; and not a position where the Conservatives would command an absolute majority over all parties. Under the circumstances the chances strongly favor the immediate resignation of the Ministry.

Next to the tremendous success of the Conservatives, who gained approximately 150 seats and lost something under ten to the other parties; the most striking thing is the submergence of the Liberal party. When H. H. Asquith, the Liberal leader, announced a bare two months ago his intention to move a censure motion on the Government's Russian policy; he could not possibly have envisaged the fate which has overtaken his old and respected party; that now sees itself faced with extinction; its leaders, including himself, routed; and its members in the new House reduced to one-tenth those of the Conservatives.

Largest Moose Head Of Year On The Restigouche

Fifty-nine Inch Antler Spread Secured by an American Sportsman.

Chief Game Warden L.A. Gagnon has received a report from Restigouche county stating that an American sportsman, whose name was not given, has secured a moose on the south branch of the Kedgewick with antlers spreading 59 inches.

This is the record for a head taken in the province this season as far as is definitely known. A few days ago it was reported that a head with an antler spread of 64 inches had been secured on Green River by a former New Brunswick guide named Joseph Dube of Edmundston now employed with an American sporting syndicate with headquarters in the province of Quebec. New Brunswick is still the holder of the Dominion record with respect to moose heads with that secured a few years ago with an antler spread measuring 72 inches.

Six parties in Restigouche county have been implicated in the killing of a calf moose and are due to appear before Police Magistrate Melanien at Campbellton for a hearing. The animal was killed along the International Division of the C.N.R. A recent conviction has been reported from Victoria county, where a resident was fined $25 for killing deer on Sunday in violation of the game regulations.

A Grateful Letter

From a Lady Made Well by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

"I wish from my heart I could persuade every person who is run down in health to give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a trial. Thus writes Mrs. Louie Mitchell, Oak Point, Man., who further says:—"About a year ago I was a weak woman, suffering from a run down system and impoverished blood. Any little exertion would cause my legs to tremble and my heart to throb violently. I could not sweep a room or walk fifty feet without being exhausted. Then I began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and after taking only six boxes I am as well and strong as ever. I can walk and run without stopping every few seconds gasping for breath as previously. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will be my standard in the future if ever my blood needs building up again, and I shall always find pleasure in recommending them to anyone needing a tonic."

There are many troubles due to weak, watery blood which can easily be overcome by a fair use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. The sole mission of this medicine is to enrich and purify the blood and when that is done all the varied symptoms of anaemia disappear and good health returns. You can get these pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail at 50 cents a box by writing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

London To Be Able To Talk To Berlin Over Telephone

Although Berlin is less than 600 miles from London a telephone conversation between the British and German capitals will be made possible soon for the first time. At present Paris and Brussels with occasional service to a few Swiss towns represent the extreme Continental limits to which one may telephone from London.

Two years ago a telephone cable was laid from the Suffolk coast to Holland but this as well as the additional cable laid last year was insufficient to cope with the traffic. Now a third cable is expected to handle all direct conversations with Holland and leave some circuits free to connect with Berlin.

Inasmuch as the German capital already has telephonic connection with the Scandinavian countries before many months London should be able to get Copenhagen, Stockholm and Christiania on the line. Service between London and Constantinople is the ultimate dream of British post office engineers but although this distance is much less than that from New York to San Francisco no attempt ever has been made to bridge it by telephone.

Canada To Retain German Property

A misunderstanding seems to have arisen in Canada regarding the effect of the settlement reached by the Canadian and German Governments concerning enemy debts. While Germany will prefer no more claims on behalf of its Nationals against Canadians who were their debtors, this does not imply that these Canadians are relieved from the obligation of paying such debts, which were of course, legitimately incurred in the course of business before the war.

The agreement with Germany is only a bookkeeping transaction which affects the clearing office for enemy claims but not individual claimants or debtors. Inquiries have recently been made by the Canadian authorities concerning the extent, if any, to which Canada might expect to benefit under the Dawes report. Senator Belcourt looked into the matter as far as was then possible, while he was here as the Canadian delegate to the London conference.

The general conclusion reached by those interested in the matter is that Canada has little hope of benefiting, in the way of actual cash, under the experts' scheme, certainly not until so many years that alterations in world conditions may have wiped out this whole plan of doing things.

The probability now is that Canada will retain $20,000,000 worth of German property which she sequestered and that this will be all that she will get out of the war in this manner. It is understood that the United States is considering similar action in regard to $300,000,000 worth of Canadian property that she holds.

Old People Need a Tonic Now

They Should Take Father John's Medicine

It is not uncommon for old people to feel frail and weak and unable to resist the cold as the chill of winter comes on. Their body energy is often at a low ebb. They have not been getting quite the proper amount of nourishment from their food.

When this is so, they should at once begin to take a food medicine to strengthen the body and enrich their blood. Father John's Medicine is the best food tonic and is perfectly safe. It nourishes nerve and body tissue and builds up the resisting power so that the system is able to throw off poisonous, waste matter. It acts as a very mild laxative. All pure food. Guaranteed free from dangerous drugs.

FATTENING POULTRY FOR THANKSGIVING

There is no bird for the family table that equals a turkey. With the Canadian Thanksgiving so early, however, few turkeys are ready for that festival and yet some of the early birds might better be prepared for this market than held until Christmas and New Year's, jacking out the largest ones, and giving them a week or two's special feed. Confine the birds for fattening in yards (not in crates) and give a mash of ground grains mixed with milk, twice a day. Feed just as much as will be cleaned up. If it not convenient to confine the largest birds it will do no harm to feed the whole flock the same feed and take out those that are fit for the Thanksgiving trade, leaving the others for later marketing.

Geese and ducks also will be used to a certain extent for Thanksgiving but in all probability wellgrown cockerels will be used more than anything else, and there are not many delicacies more appreciated than a wellfleshed cockerel. But it must be fished. It also costs less to have a plump juicy and tender bird than it does to have a thin, dry and tough one. Crate feeding puts on the flesh and now is the time to see about it. Two or three weeks' feeding make a big difference though a longer time is better.

It costs much more per pound to grow the frame than it does to put the flesh on the frame after. To grow the frame costs anywhere from 10 to 20 cents per pound depending upon the birds and the way they are fed, but by crate-feeding the bird for a few weeks before killing, a pound of flesh can be added for from 6 to 12 cents.

In experiments conducted at the Experimental Farm at Ottawa it took but 12 1/2 pounds of dry mash mixed with buttermilk to make a pound of meat, and the cheapest combination of feed was equal parts oats, corn and buckwheat, all finely ground. This was fed twice a day, just enough for the birds to quickly clean up.

Good, strong healthy birds, weighing 4 to 6 pounds are suitable and best returns come from the American breeds. Care must be taken that the birds are healthy and free from lice—a good dusting of insect powder should be applied before putting into crates. They also should have a 24 hour fast before the first feed. This is essential if the birds are to be kept in condition throughout the feeding period. Another necessary precaution is to restrict the feed for the first two or three days, until the birds become accustomed to the confinement, after which they may have all they will eat twice a day. A dose of Epsom salts in the first feed, 1 lb to 100 birds, helps to keep them in good condition during the feeding period.

A slatted crate is best, but a packing box may be made over to do. Even an empty stall in the stable is better than nothing. But keep the birds clean and give them plenty of fresh air without draughts. It never pays to market birds without the finishing, but it does pay to get any birds that are ready off your hands early. Usually there is a better price for a limited number, at Thanksgiving than at Christmas, and to put some on the market then helps to keep up the price later in the season.

DEMOCRACY MUST HAVE ARISTOCRACY

Democracy must have its aristocracy if the common good is to be served. This, in substance was the argument put forward by Prof. Wm. Tait of McGill University when he lectured before the North End and Outremont Women's Club at Fairmont Methodist Church Hall on "Psychology, Leadership and Democracy."

"At present men elected to the legislative assemblies do not consider themselves as leaders, nor do the people view them as such," Prof. Tait declared. "They consider they are there to do the will of the people. The politician today follows the people rather than leads them. This attitude prevents democracy coming into its own; it prevents the producing of aristocrats in the true sense of the word. The state is therefore left without proper guidance. The fact that democracy elects its own leaders should not mean that the chosen should consider themselves only agents."

That so few men of vision and high ideals were elected to direct the affairs of state was a serious indictment of the present system the speaker said. It was due to the low state of intelligence and enlightenment existing. In order that democracy might move forward to aristocracy, some system of exclusion should be used to prevent the intelligently unfit from voting. A country was great because of its great men—not because of its great masses.

Following out his argument, Prof. Tait declared that means to discourage the mentally, morally, and physically unfit should be taken if the nation was to make true progress. Life was not meant to be easy; the old doctrine of the survival of the fittest was a sound one. Nature had little mercy on the people who were failures. There was much good psychology in the Parable of the Talents; some soft minded reformers had forgotten the sterner aspect of Christianity.

In incidentally referring to the recent Loeb-Leopold murder trial in Chicago, Prof. Tait vehemently remarked, "The only thing for them was a rope around their necks." There was vigorous applause.

WORK OF SALVAGING TREASURE TO BEGIN

The Ward liner Merida, which sank off the Virginia Capes in 1911 with a fortune in gold, silver and jewels aboard has been located by trawlers and the work of salvaging the treasure will be started soon. The finding of the Merida came after ten days of dragging by the trawlers. Foam and Spray, with an iron sweep a mile long. The operations were shrouded in secrecy and plans for the salvage of the ship were not disclosed because of fear of Hijackers. The location of the Merida will also remain a secret.

A group of well known New Yorkers, including Anthony J. Drexel Biddle Jr., Franklin L. Mallory and others are behind the project. The exact value of the fortune lying in the holds of the Merida is not known, but is believed to be between $2,000,000 and $5,000,000.

The Merida was sunk when rammed in the dead of night by the Admiral Farragut of the American Mail Line. The crew and passengers, including many refugees from Mexico, then in the midst of the Madero revolt, were removed without loss of life, but the vessel sank too quickly to save the large fortune aboard. Two previous attempts to locate the Merida had failed.

OPPOSITION SHOULD GET READY

(Moncton Times)
Premier Veniot states that a general election in the province is not contemplated and he has no information to give as to holding a bye-election in the City of Moncton. Past experience should teach the opposition that when Mr. Veniot intimates that an election is in the dim and distant future, it is a good time to prepare for a contest with all possible haste. Four years ago, just prior to the general provincial election, Mr. Foster, the then Premier, scouted the idea of an election and what happened? The election was sprung almost immediately after the statement was made, the shortest possible time being allowed. The consequence was that the opposition were quite unprepared and were taken at a great disadvantage.

The Times is in receipt of information from a source believed to be fairly reliable, that a general provincial election is to be held this fall and in the very near future. In fact, it is more than possible that an appeal to the people will be decided upon at the meeting of the Government in Fredericton this week.

BUYING AT HOME

LaPresse, Montreal, in directing attention to a recent meeting of the Trades and Labor Council, at which certain members denounced some Montreal houses for giving printing contracts to outsiders, make some observations of interest in Newcastle where the buy-at-home campaign is receiving attention;

"And those who denounced production pamphlets, circulars, brochures, bearing the name of foreign firms, in workmanship not better than that to be obtained in Montreal, and even inferior.

The reproach is serious and appears justified. Delegate Brunet remarked, rightly remarked, that Canadian establishments who are guilty of such practices are the first to demand protection of industries and local commerce from the Federal authorities. "They refuse," said he "the entry into Canada of all foreign merchandise which our markets might hurt what they manufacture and offer for sale, but they do not hesitate to go to the U. S. England or France, or even farther, to Germany, to procure their printing."

That is a situation which assuredly is doing a considerable wrong to the workmen of the Dominion and must be corrected as soon as possible. We are going through a crucial period. Everyone admits that co-operation between the manufacturers, merchants and the public is necessary. But the mass of the public is made up of the families of workmen, whose buying power is commensurate to the opportunities of gain offered to artisans of different trades. It is evident that orders given to the stranger

FAVOR RAND FOR ATTORNEY-GENERAL

Irwan C. Rand, a prominent Moncton barrister, was recommended by Moncton Liberals to the favorable consideration of Premier Veniot for admission into the Provincial Cabinet as Attorney-General. A resolution submitted at a largely attended and enthusiastic meeting in the Provincial Bank building was unanimously adopted.

A committee appointed to convey the terms of the resolution to Premier Veniot announced shortly afterwards that they had been informed by the Premier that the recommendation had been accepted.

James Sherren, former Alderman B. F. Myles, George T. Mitton, R. M. Palmer, A. E. Tremblay, Clement Cormier, Alderman Ernest Doiron, Deputy Mayor Bellevue and F. E. Dennison spoke in favor of recommending the choice of Mr. Rand for the attorney generalship. On motion of Frank Atkinson, seconded by Alderman Goodwin it was decided to recommend to the Premier that an election be held as soon as possible.

Alderman Goodwin, Deputy Mayor Bellevue and Reid McManus, M. L. A., were appointed a committee to convey to Premier Veniot the wish of the meeting regarding the selection of Mr. Rand for a cabinet position. Mr. Rand said: "I am at the service of that party if it wants me. I am willing to act in any capacity for which I may be the choice."

deprives by so much workers in our local factories.

Doubtless each is free to do as he sees fit. But if one desires to look further than his own interest or personal whims he must begin by assisting in the re-establishment of economic prosperity in his own country.

This is practical and sincere patriotism.

Let each one seriously examine his conscience to see if he escapes entirely the reproach of delegates of the Trades and Labor Council. Genuine protection begins with ourselves. Let us keep our work for our workers."

In printing, as in every other business Newcastle establishment are as well able to supply the local requirements as are the outside houses who make no contribution to the community welfare.

COMPARISONS

Diamonds and charcoal are essentially carbon yet their values and usefulness are as far apart as the poles. So, it is with

Scott's Emulsion

Many imagine that all oils are similar, but when the usefulness of cod-liver oil is compared with all other fats, the difference in value is as far apart as common charcoal and diamonds.

Scott's Emulsion is cod-liver oil made pleasantly available to build up those who are rundown or weak.

$1,000,000 SAVED BY RETIREMENTS

It is estimated that the total number of retirements from the civil service under the Calder Act which expires at the end of Oct. after three years of operation, will number in all well over 20,000 and that the saving effected to the public treasury will be over $1,000,000. Out of a total of 1,289 vacancies created by retirements under the act to the end of 1923, there were over 500 which have not been filled, and in the case of many others their duties have been absorbed by other officials in the service. When the Calder act goes out of force its place will be taken by the civil service superannuation act, passed last session. Judging from the present rush to take advantage of the Calder Act before it expires, it is looked on as more favorable than the new act and apparently is in some respects

Sustains Ruling Of Railway Board

There will be no suspension of the order of the Board of Railway Commissioners setting aside the Crow's Nest Pass rates on west-bound commodities. This was the decision reached at a brief meeting of cabinet to consider a petition received from H. J. Symington, counsel for the provinces of Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba asking that the order be rescinded until appeal could be made to the Governor-in-Council.

New Oil Burners For Pacific Coast.

It is a long way from Alaska to the Clyde, but the recent launching of the Canadian Pacific Coastal S.S. "Princess Kathleen" from the Clydebank yards of John Brown and Company illustrates how the increasing business, traffic and industry of the one has affected the industry of the other. The launching of another vessel, the "Princess Marguerite," will further illustrate this, shortly. During the past few years the thousand mile trip to the "land of the Midnight Sun" and return to Vancouver has attracted thousands of tourists from all parts of the world. Many of these, appreciating the industrial and commercial possibilities of this country of vast natural resources, as much as the scenic splendours, have established themselves there and have drawn others round them, each of whom plays a part in the further development of the land. The same thing applies to the Yukon, so that, especially in the Summer, and in the Fall when the big game and fish are fair sport, there is a constant coming and going on the Princess steamers that ply the "Inland Passage."

Next Year there will, it is expected, be a demand for a still more frequent service. In response the Canadian Pacific will recruit from its "Triangular" service, and the new steamers will take up the service thus relieved between Vancouver, Victoria and Seattle. This route is also becoming increasingly popular, the present call being for vessels which are able to transport the automobiles of those hundreds of tourists who are finding the glories of Vancouver Island well worth while.

The new vessels, twin screw and oil-burning, will be, when completed, the largest and fastest ships operating between the three ports, being capable of sustaining a speed of 22 1/2 knots. Altogether there are five decks, four of which are given over to the use of the passengers, while a large space on the main deck has been provided for the transport of motor cars and other freight. Accommodation is arranged for 325 first-class night passengers in two and three berth cabins, and for over one thousand day passengers. A special feature of the accommodation is the provision of 17 large rooms on the promenade and upper decks, having private bathrooms attached and 22 two-berth cabins, on the boat deck, having private shower baths. The accommodation throughout has been arranged with the greatest care for the safety and comfort of the passengers and is of a uniform standard throughout, while the accommodation for the officers and crew is substantially better than is required by regulations. Both vessels will be placed in service early in 1925.

"Child's Eyelids Inflamed Stuck Together and Bled"

Mr. E. P. Kimball, Eotwhistle, Alta., writes: "Our little girl from birth was troubled with inflamed eyelids and in spite of several remedies, grew worse until at the age of sixteen months her eyes could not be opened after sleep without bleeding, a waxy discharge sticking the lids together and adhering with great tenacity. The child's grandmothers were consulted by mail, and both responded with a little sample box of Dr. Chase's Ointment. These were used as directed, and lasted until we could obtain a further supply from Edmonton. Improvement was very marked from the first application. The waxy discharge was easier removed and did not reappear. Inflammation subsided and has not returned."
