NOTE AND COMMENT

If you buy your coal now you put the price up now, and if you buy it next winter you will put the price up then. It seems that you have your free choice about the time when you put the price up.—Boston Transcript

Louisville Courier-Journal: Screen your open grate fires in winter, swat the flies in summer, stop, look and listen at grade crossings, don't start the kitchen range fire with the kerosene can, keep your nose out of other folks' business and maybe you will live to be run over by a drunken joy-rider.

Carleton Place Canadian:—Although the political pot has commenced to boil let us not forget that the keeman is making his daily rounds. Let us be charitable enough to respect our friend's opinion even if it should differ from our own. He will still be our neighbor after the fire has spent itself.

St. John Telegraph. Lord Robert Cecil's statement that there are more armed men in Europe today than before the war is disquieting to say the least. His appeal to the nations to erect a barrier against the scourge of war should rouse the thoughtful people of the world and bring the United States into the League of Nations.

Montreal Gazette: The "Society for Pure English" has done a bold deed in publishing a list of dead metaphors for the guidance of those who write. Here are a few old friends which we are asked to bid adieu to, though we shall do so with a pang, so useful have they been: "Part and parcel," "beyond the pale," "the scrolls of fame," "a place in the sun," "a silver lining," "stemming the tide," "the fruits of victory," and that almost indispensable phrase, "square pegs in round holes." But we shall have to bear our losses with resignation.

To get men on farms who can produce food at prices that the consumer can afford to pay is the greatest problem of the nation, according to D. H. Otis, agricultural director, American Bankers' Association. If this is the greatest problem of the United States it is even more emphatically a great problem in Canada. Mr. Otis argues, on the other hand, that the man on the farm should work hard and produce at the lowest possible cost, while on the other hand, he should be protected from profiteering in the prices he pays for his land and for the necessities of production.

Ailsa Craig Banner: Every newspaper knows full well how many people shirk responsibility in public affairs. People come to a newspaper time after time and want the editor to fire some hot shot which they dare not do. The editor asks them to sign their names to certain charges or statements, and it is surprising how quickly they crawl back in their shells. Plenty of ardent men want the newspaper to criticize this, that or the other person or thing, but they will not do it themselves less they might "lose business." Has the newspaper no business to lose?

We were under the impression that Amherstburg was a nice, quiet place to live in, but judging from the following item in last week's Echo the O.T.A. does not seem to demand much respect or the people there are lacking the means to enforce it. The Echo says "If the C.O.P. has even a slight conception of his duty, he could pick up and prosecute enough drunks found on the public streets these days to pay his own salary. From that low point alone it would be worth while, apart from the fact that that kind of immorality should not be allowed under any circumstances. The spectacle of women sloshing around in various stages of inebriety Wednesday ought to be enough to arouse any policeman to action." Sad.

COUNTY COUNCIL

The Lambton county council had a busy week and completed a great deal of business.

The resignation of high county constable W. A. Scott was accepted and a committee of two named to draft a resolution expressing appreciation of the efficient service rendered to the county by that officer who is now a member of the provincial force.

The report of the treasurer for the period extending from December 31, 1922 to May 31, 1923, showed total receipts amounting to $388,817.64, including a balance carried forward and total expenditure of $309,721.40. The outlay for the county road system included in the expenditures was $29,930.54 for that period. A further report from the advisory board in connection with certain roads and bridges in the county, work on which has since been completed, was received.

By-laws were passed granting $50 to the Lambton Poultry and Pet Stock Association, $25 to each of the school fairs of the county, $150 to the Corn Growers' Association, $25 to the Queen Mary Hospital for Consumptive Children. Provision for the sum of $2,441 for the payment of debentures falling due this year, $500 granted to the Ontario Board of Agriculture for the county, and $50 to the Bee-Keepers' Association. Provision to the extent of $110,000 was made for current expenses, and $97,554 voted for expenditure under the highway improvement.

Dr. Y. H. Smith was appointed to fill the vacancy on the Petrolea board of education following the acceptance of the resignation of H. Gilroy. Aid for continuation classes was granted as follows: Alvinston, $250; Oil Springs, $250; Arkona, $150.

The council selected Robert J. Whiting of Alvinston to fill the post of high county constable in place of Wm. Scott, resigned. Whiting was the choice from sixteen applicants, after six ballots had been taken.

Increases in the assessment of the Township of Sarnia and Moore, and the village of Point Edward were recommended in the report of the equalization committee, which was only adopted after considerable opposition.

The assessment of Sarnia township is raised to $48 an acre, Moore township to $45 an acre, and Point Edward assessment to $25,000. The amount to be levied on the rate-payers of Lambton to meet expenses for 1923 will be $100,000 according to the recommendation contained in the report of the finance committee.

COUNTY ROADS

Superintendent McCallum Talks to County Council About Them. County road superintendent John McCallum told the Lambton county council that during the years 1921-1922 a great deal of time had been devoted to improving the roads in the county system and this year the money would be largely expended for bridges and hill cutting. He said that the most difficult piece of road on the whole system to maintain as passable, was a mile or more in Sarnia township on the lake road.

This section was hard to keep in shape for several reasons. One was because sand from the beach drifted over it like snow during the stormy seasons of the year and during the summer there was almost continuous automobile traffic and parking along the sides, and it was impossible to do any lasting work then.

The question had been asked why the road was not dragged. In Mr. McCallum's opinion that would be the best way to spoil it. Dragging a sand road was of no avail, he said. There had been a hint that an indictment was to be sought against the county for maintaining a nuisance in this road, but he could not see where there was any fault on the part of the county and he hoped by working on it in the winter to eventually get it in shape.

Regarding the Hillsboro hill in Plympton, the superintendent asserted that it would be necessary to make a survey of that section and purchase some property before any further work could be done.

Turning to road work in the south end of the county he said that the stone road for which a special grant had been made last year had been constructed and Kent had lived up to the agreement to build a similar stretch in that county to link up. Kent officials would spend $6,000 more this year on the same project and would go fifty-fifty with Lambton on linking roads.

Mr. McCallum also stressed the need for a filing system for documents and papers appertaining to the county system. During 1922 the county had spent nearly one quarter of a million dollars and he earnestly felt that the responsibility for keeping in act the records should not be placed on one individual.

In dealing with the system of keeping accounts, Mr. McCallum said that he had heard that suggestions had been made to the department, and he had letters in his possession which had been sent in, that money was being pocketed and such a claim had been made in the face of the fact that all payrolls and accounts were audited and had always been approved by the department.

If he heard anything further of this nature the time was not far distant when he would demand an investigation. Reeve Sproule of Oil Springs was applauded when he arose and remarked that he felt that the council had every confidence in the superintendent and the clerk and treasurer, and he felt that everybody should be harmonious. If things came to a vote and the majority was but one, those opposing should fall in line with the majority.

Before concluding, Mr. McCallum tendered a resolution to the council for adoption reverting a portion of road 18 extending from Warwick to Theford from the status of a provincial county road to that of a county road and substituting as a provincial county road, the road extending from Reece's corner's to Rutherford.

REEVE CONNOLLY WAS ALL READY FOR THE MOTION

A jocular fling at the Drury government was taken at Friday afternoon's session of the Lambton county council during a discussion, in committee of the whole, of a by-law to provide for current expenses. Mention was made that provision should be made for the county's share of the outlay for the provincial highway and inquiry was made as to the total cost with a view to determining the county's quota. Reeve Fred Jennings of Theford said it had been reported that the cost was between $200,000 and $25,000, Reeve G. A. Annett asked the extent of mileage and when Mr. Jennings replied that it was a 7 mile stretch, Mr. Annett remarked that there must be some mistake or they would have to turn the government out. Reeve Connolly of Watford, who was in the chair at the time, suggested that a "motion" to that effect might be in order.—Sarnia Observer.

W. G. CONNOLLY

To the Electors of East Lambton:
As I shall not be able to meet many of you who are the electors of this riding, I wish to take this opportunity to solicit your support. Although I am the Liberal candidate in this riding I want it understood that I am not bound by party prejudices. I firmly hold to the principle of service to all, irrespective of party—service not only to a portion of the community nor to one political party but to the whole community. We find ourselves to-day in a precarious condition. This banner province of the Dominion is burdened with a heavy debt. We have been travelling too fast and it is time to call a halt and substitute rigid economy in place of the present methods. If elected I will do all in my power to accomplish this end and will give my whole time to a study of the needs of this riding and to the enactment of sound legislation.

THE PROVINCIAL FLOWING MATCH

It has been definitely announced that the provincial flowing match will be held October 17, 18 and 19, near Sarnia. The site has been decided, a hundred acres of land having been procured on the London road one and a half miles from the city limits, on the south side. Mr. Wilson, director of Fairs for Ontario, stated that in view of the fact that the contest this year will assume an international complexion with farmers of Michigan competing, the attendance for the three days should be easily 50,000, and break all previous records. A made-in-Lambton exhibition is being organized in connection with the plowing match.

FARMER KILLED WHILE HUNTING

John Henry Prior, aged 62, farmer on lot 5, concession 1, Delaware, accidentally shot and killed himself with a shotgun early Wednesday of last week while hunting for a ground hog which had been seen at the edge of a bush on his farm by neighbors earlier in the day. In the morning Mr. Prior, with the assistance of two neighbors, James Turnbull and Russel K. Higman, had been planting potatoes on his farm. At noon hour the neighbors told Prior that they had seen a ground hog at the edge of the bush and Prior said he would go out and shoot it while they were resting before resuming the planting of the potatoes. He took the gun and went to the vicinity in which the animal had been seen. A short time elapsed before Messrs. Turnbull and Higman heard the report of the gun and they presumed that Prior had caught sight of the ground hog and had shot it. He did not return from the trip, however, and half an hour later the two men went to the bush to see if they could locate him. His body was found lying beside a fence with a gaping wound in his neck and his skull fractured.

THE DEVIL'S FUNERAL

The London Free Press recently recorded an amusing incident that happened in connection with the disastrous fire in Ailsa Craig on May 7. The undertaker from Ailsa Craig happened to be in Parkhill that day after a funeral from the country. He was refreshing himself with a dish of ice cream when he received a sudden shock that upset his usual peace of mind: "Ailsa Craig is on fire and the whole town is burning." Our friend possesses a fine motor hearse and immediately he and his man jumped into the seat and stepped on the gas and went through the old town at a disgraceful speed for a hearse, and a great many other cars followed as if they were trying to reduce the world's record. There is an old lady living on the highway, the story goes, who, knowing nothing of the fire heard the roar of the approaching automobiles many of them sounded their horns. Car after car passed in a cloud of dust and then the hearse came in view, rocking like a train of empty freight cars, and followed by a score of others, all doing 50 miles an hour or more. She was puzzled until she saw the hearse and she said: "It must be a funeral, but it is the strangest funeral I ever saw; I never saw a funeral go so fast before; I wonder who it can be but, judging by the speed at which they are going, it must be the devil and they are hurrying to bury him before he wakes up. Apparently they are going to bury him in Ailsa Craig, but all the mourners seem to come from Parkhill."

Melville and others re culverts on B. con road. Mr. Fraleigh applied to have the Elliot Drain repaired. W. R. DAWSON

To the Electors of Lambton East: The Oldest Political Game Known to Man—"Mud Throwing"

In going into the political field in this riding, I did so with one firm resolve, that I would conduct a clean campaign, and that I would rather suffer defeat than resort to unfair means of obtaining publicity. This resolve still stands, and will to the end of the campaign. My opponents, however, have circulated in the north end of the riding during the past few days several reports which are untrue in every particular, which those who have circulated them know to be untrue, and which my friends have asked me to refute; hence this letter, which is departing somewhat from my laid down plan of campaign.

Story number one, that some time in my career as a business man I had made an assignment and had defrauded the public out of a large sum of money. The answer—I have been in business for myself during my lifetime in only one spot, the village of Inwood, where I conducted a general store business for twenty-five years. This business, while starting in a small way, grew until it became one of the best in Lambton county and was an unqualified success. My creditors have in every instance been paid one hundred cents on the dollar and I still have sufficient funds to fight this campaign and to fight it hard.

Story number two, That I am financing my friend Mr. Connolly, the Liberal candidate in this campaign. It seems hardly necessary for me to refute this report. Mr. Connolly will probably deal with it at the proper time. It is a base and unfair slander against both myself, Mr. Connolly and the Liberal party and an effective answer will probably be given on June 25th.

Story number three, That in a certain business deal, in which I sold my business stand in Inwood to certain farmers for the purpose of conducting a Co-operative store, I took advantage of them in the deal. The answer again,—I have never made it a practice of making my business deals public property, in this instance I am forced to state that the negotiations between myself and those who purchased the building were open and above the table, that the agreement was signed by the parties interested at their own suggestion, and that as far as I know not one word of complaint has ever been made by either the parties themselves or myself as a result of that deal.

In conclusion, not a word of these reports is heard in the south portion of the riding where the people know better. They are put out in the remote parts in the hope that some small advantage may be gained by discrediting both Mr. Connolly and myself in the eyes of those who do not know the truth. Wake up, both Liberals and Conservatives, and on the 25th of June, stamp out once and for all these very unfair campaign tactics. The weapon is in your hands; use it.

Yours truly,
W. R. DAWSON.

FELT I WOULD CHOKE AT TIMES

So Says Mrs. Armstrong, Who Was Overpowered by Nausea After Every Meal—Dreco, by Its Toning and Regulating Properties, Restored her to Health and Vigor.

Many women needlessly go along for years, suffering the miseries of gastritis, nausea, pains in the back and other distressing symptoms of an ailing digestive system. This was the case with Mrs. W. J. Armstrong, of 89 Horton street, London, Ont., until she discovered Dreco. This famous herbal remedy speedily stimulated her sluggish liver, regulated the digestive processes of her stomach and bowels and restored them to their normal functions.

"No medicine I have ever taken gave such quick relief as Dreco," says Mrs. Armstrong. "I had been troubled by gas in the stomach after meals, causing heartburn and nausea so bad that I felt that I would choke at times. I often felt very dizzy and spots floated before my eyes. I was constipated and had pains in my back over my kidneys. Two bottles of Dreco have done wonders for me. Now I never feel dizzy, am free of backaches and have a good appetite. My constipation has been relieved. Dreco gets my hearty approval."

You too, can enjoy the same relief that Mrs. Armstrong found in Dreco. It is a natural remedy and acts in a natural way, being compounded of herbs, roots, bark and leaves under the most careful supervision. Dreco has proved itself the greatest of all health builders for thousands of men and women. Let its undoubted corrective properties help you. Dreco is pleasant to take and contains no mercury, potash or habit forming drugs.

Dreco is being specially introduced in Watford by Suddall's Drug Co. and is sold by a good druggist everywhere.

A Pest!
The European Corn Borer

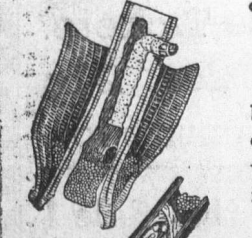

Great damage to corn crops in certain sections of Ontario has been caused in recent years by the European Corn Borer. To check this pest, follow closely recommendations of the Department.

Its Life History
The moth appears about the middle of June and lasts until about the last week in July.

Egg Laying
In this period the female lays its eggs on the undersides of the corn leaves, preferably on the most advanced corn.

The Borer
The damage is done by the borer stage. The "worm" develops from the egg, eating into the stalks and ears. It winters in the stubble or stalks.

The Pupa
The worm changes to the pupa, which in turn develops into the moth about the second week of June or later.

CARR—SIMPSON

A pretty wedding occurred Wednesday evening, June 6th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Laird B. Simpson, 4th line, Enniskillen east, when the marriage of their eldest daughter, Bessie Isabel to Harold Armstrong Carr, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. William Carr, took place. Promptly at 6 o'clock the bride entered the parlor on the arm of her father and took her place, while Lohengrin's march was played, beside the groom, amid an embankment of flowers. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Hall Woods, Presbyterian minister. Immediately after the ceremony a dainty luncheon was served to the large number of guests. The bride wore white satin trimmed with georgette crepe, the bridal veil being caught up with lilies of the valley, and carried a bouquet of white carnations. The bridesmaid was Miss Annie Carr, sister of the groom, who wore Velpha blue and carried pink carnations. Cecil Simpson, cousin of the bride, acted as best man. The groom's gift to the bride was pearl earrings and a string of pearls, to the bridesmaid pearl earrings and to the best man a tie pin, to the pianist a brilliant pin. The decorations were in pink and white carnations. Those from a distance were Mrs. F. Young and Mrs. Simler of Bowling Green, Ohio; Mrs. Mary Snoxell, Galt; and Miss Isobell Simpson of London. There were seventy guests in attendance at the wedding. The travelling dress was navy blue with hat to match. The happy couple left amid showers of confetti for Cario, Mich., and after their honeymoon will reside on the groom's farm, 4th line, Enniskillen.

Remember last year how you promised the boy a real Bicycle if he made good at school this year? Remember how he's kept thinking of that "Bike" all spring. Perhaps, he's reminded you of it several times, but you've been so busy you paid no attention to him. What does he think of you, Dad? Is he still going to keep on thinking he's lucky enough to have the best old Dad on earth, or is he going to lose confidence in your promises. He trusts you, Dad, and he's depending on you. He needs that Bicycle.

Remember so many years ago when you needed a Bicycle, too. You dreamed about it a good many times before you got it. And then, when you did get it, remember all the hikes and trips and fun you and the other kids had? Remember, the fishing trips on Saturday?

Or, perhaps you didn't have a Bike, Dad. Are you going to deprive your boy of something he can have, but you won't let him, because you had no Bike when you were a boy. You didn't have lots of things your boy has or is going to have today—but that's no reason for saying he can't have them. You want your boy to have a better education than you had, probably; a better chance in life; a few more pleasures and joys.

You're not buying a Bike for this year, Dad. You're buying for next year and the next and the next and so on. And we'll make the price right. You don't need to pay cash—pay it as you wish.

Holiday time is here now, Dad! Holiday time is Bicycle time. Don't say a word about it to him. Slip in tonight when you're down town for the mail and see the brand new Bikes.

We'll wait open for you tonight, Dad!

TWO THINGS THAT HURT THE EYES

A person has been known to say, "I have ruined my eyes by reading too much." Not so—the eyes were made to use. One sure way to permanently injure the eyes is

READING BY INTENSE LIGHT

The light should come through ground glass to soften it. Never use clear glass for either gas or electricity. Oil lamps give out a soft light, therefore clear glass chimneys.

READING BY DIM LIGHT

Take our advice—do not read or sew by a dim light—it will be a direct strain upon the sight centres of the brain. On these two things hang the fundamental laws of sight economy. Never use cheap or pick-up glasses—come to us for advice about things optical. Everything careful here. Take good care of your iiiiii! !

Made from similar materials as Bird's Neponset Twins, but measure 20 ins. by 10 ins., less material, therefore less cost. Slate surfaced, red or green. Drop in and let's get down to figures. We will gladly show you that it is to your advantage to roof with Bird's Twin Shingles.

WOMEN FROM FORTY TO FIFTY

Will Be Interested in Mrs. Thompson's Recovery by Use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Winnipeg, Man.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done me good in every way. I was very weak and run-down and had certain troubles that women of my age are likely to have. I did not like to go to the doctor so I took the Vegetable Compound and am still taking it right along. I recommend it to my friends and to any one I know who is not feeling well."—Mrs. THOMPSON, 303 Lizzie St., Winnipeg, Man.

When women who are between the ages of forty-five and fifty-five are beset with such annoying symptoms as nervousness, irritability, melancholia and heat flashes, which produce headaches, dizziness, or a sense of suffocation, they should take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It is especially adapted to help women through this crisis. It is prepared from roots and herbs and contains no harmful drugs or narcotics. This famous remedy, the medicinal ingredients of which are derived from roots and herbs, has for forty years proved its value in such cases. Women everywhere bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Women who suffer should write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Cobourg, Ontario, for a free copy of Lydia E. Pinkham's Private Text-Book upon "Ailments Peculiar to Women." c

Internal parasites in the shape of worms in the stomach and bowels of children sap their vitality and retard physical development. They keep the child in a constant state of unrest and if not attended to, endanger life. The child can be spared much suffering and the mother much anxiety by using a reliable worm remedy, such as Miller's Worm Powders, which are sure death to worms. m
