The Black Field Spaniel—"MOONSTONE."

Devoted to Canadian Canines.

Vol. I.

TORONTO, ONTARIO, FEBRUARY, 1889.

No. 1.

"THE KENNEL GAZETTE."

So much pressure has been brought to bear on the publisher of the Canadian Poultry Review by those interested in the dog fancy, to afford space in that Journal to matters appertaining to canine affairs in Canada, that, with the news of the formation of a Canadian Kennel Club, we have decided to accede to their wishes. To meet this request we have decided to issue every month a supplementary paper with the Canadian Poultry Review called the KENNEL GAZETTE and devoted entirely to dogs and items of news and interest attached to this branch of the fancy.

To our "doggy" friends we may say that the Review has an extensive and influential standing amongst the poultry men of Canada, being no new thing, now in its twelfth year with a large and rapidly growing circulation.

The KENNEL GAZETTE will thus reach the hands of about 8,000 already interested in fancy stock, a great number of whom are, from time to time, sure to swell the ranks of the dog fancy. It will not be like a newly started venture compelled to crawl by slow and tedious stages to a moderate circulation. We propose making it a necessity to every one in Canada who owns even one dog and trust to meet with a hearty response from those to whom this is particularly addressed. We want your aid not alone in the shape of subscriptions and advertising patronage, but by items of news and interest and articles of practical worth, to those interested in kennel matters.

We trust in conclusion that any efforts we may put forth may be appreciated and sustained and thus lead to our mutual advancement and profit.

MR. J. M. MACPHERSON.

Of the Dudley kennels Chatham expected to leave England, where he has been sojourning for the past two months, on the 3rd inst., with several dogs. We have not yet learned of his arrival.

THE STOCK-KEEPER.

of Jan. 4th says:

A whole batch of dogs will leave Glasgow to day by the State liner for New York. Mr. David Baillie, or "Scottish Baillie" as he is known by the "boys" in the States, has been over making purchases. Mr. Baillie went out in the spring to take the management of the Medowthorpe Kennels Lexington, Kentucky, and has met with exceptional success at all the American shows he visited. He wanted some fresh stock and sought for and found it in the old country.

From Mr. Charles Cunningham of Kensington, he purchased the Saint Bernard bitch, Lady Abbots, which was bred by Dr. Savage, of Bedlam Hospital. She is a grand-daughter of Champion Monk. This bitch is in whelp to Glencairn, the Hamburg Peoples Palace, and Woodstock winner, and should turn out something good. She has the shape and make of a brood bitch.

Another St. Bernard that will be on the road—or rather water—Kentucky wards is Lily, an eleven and a half months one by St. Gothard—Saffron. This bitch is from Mr W. Shearer Clark's kennel. Mr. Terry, the Hampstead Kennels, Long Island, N. Y., is importing two Collie bitches, one in whelp to Napoleon, the other to Young Squire. These bitches come from Mr. Robert Chapman's kennels, and are picked as suitable matches for Bendigo—now in the States.

Another important American purchase that has been made this week will perhaps give a fillip to the present lack of go in the black-and-tan Terrier world: Dr. E. B. Foote, of New York, has obtained three good ones from Messrs. Hill and Ashton. These are Meersbrook Maiden, Meersbrook Girl, and Meersbrook Billy. The first named is one of the best bitches we have had of late. Girl, has done some winning, but Billy, although a good young dog, has not yet been benched. From what Dr. Foote writes us, we gather that he means to give black-and-tan Terriers a good start in America.

These imports should prove of value to fanciers on this side of the Atlantic.

ST. BERNARDS.

We are pleased to see that Mr. H.C. Charlesworth, of this city, who is so well known as a breeder of Cockers, has taken up the rough coated St. Bernards. He is breeding some good ones, and informs us the demand is greater than he can supply.

THE CANADIAN KENNEL CLUB.

A full report of the formation of the above will be found in another column. That it was much needed is a fact no "doggy" man can deny, and we trust it may meet with the support it deserves and the success to which its promoters are entitled.

A few words of criticism from us may not come amiss. We have had considerable experience in kindred societies, and trust any remarks we make may be taken in the spirit in which they are uttered, namely, a friendly one. In article 6 of the Constitution we find, in our opinion, the first error, no member of any board should be elected at any time but at a full (annual or other) meeting of the Club. It is always a safe rule to give every member a voice in all matters of importance. If needs were a vote on any particular subject could be taken by mail. Articles 8 and 9 are certainly wise, though that point in Article 8 referring to notice at previous meeting may result in the delay for a year of any desirable change, if no meeting other than annual meeting be held.

Section 1, Article 1 of the By-laws leaves entirely too much power in the hands of the President. We say this with, of course, no personal feeling. All accounts should be signed or initialed by the President or Secretary and handed to the Treasurer for payment (we don't like the joint position of Sec.-Treas.) and all books at the end of the year placed in the hands of properly-elected Auditors (two) for their examination and approval.

Article 5. Here to our mind lies the gravest error of all. Why! gentlemen, you leave your fate entirely in the hands of the Executive Committee. They have actual power to alter, amend or, in fact, entirely suspend the By-laws of the Club, surely this is not right.

We would respectfully advise the re-consideration of these matters.

KENNEL REGISTRY.

Under this heading we shall be glad to notice visits, births, &c., the only stipulation we make is that the news be of recent date, and that entries be made on proper forms, which will be sent free on receipt of a three cent stamp to cover postage.

ITEMS OF NEWS.

Correspondents are requested to send us any notes of interest to the "doggy" world. We purpose making the KENNEL GAZETTE, bright, spicy, interesting and instructive. To do this we solicit your aid in sending us contributions of items of news, or articles of practical worth. We trust our request may result in a hearty response.

KENNEL ADVERTISEMENTS.

We purpose devoting special columns to stud advertisements, breeders cards, for sale and exchange advertisements, &c. Terms sent on application.

KENNEL CLUBS.

We invite Secretaries to send us full reports immediately after the holding of meetings, which shall gladly be accorded space in the KENNEL GAZETTE.

OUR ILLUSTRATION.

We reproduce this month from the English Stock-Keeper a portrait of the Field Spaniel, Moonstone. Appended are our contemporary's remarks.

The Field Spaniel Moonstone, it will be remembered, at Richmond the other week, won first prize in his class, the Medal for best Spaniel, and a valuable Silver Cup presented by Sir Whittaker Ellis, Bart, M. P., for best dog in the show. Moonstone has only been exhibited on one other occasion, viz., at Burnley; when he was about six months old, where, in a class of forty-five, he won first prize. He was bred by his owner, Mr. Theo. Marples, and is by Sterling, (20,636), out of Moonlight, (22,585); his dam was also bred by Mr. Marples, being by Lord Bute, (14,229); out of Old Midnight, (18,697) Sterling is by a brother of Solus.

Moonstone is now just over a year old, and is probably the longest, the lower, the flattest-coated, and heaviest-boned Field Spaniel on the bench. He is a good-sized dog, and combines in a remarkable degree substance with quality. His head is above an average one, and his ears almost phenomenal in their low carriage and length. He carries his stern low, and for a dog of such length he has great symmetry; and we are informed by Mr. Marples that he is a very active dog in the field.

COCKER SPANIELS.

(COMMUNICATED.)

We have chosen this breed for our illustration in the first issue of the KENNEL GAZETTE for several reasons. First and principally because they are very popular in Canada, and because in the breeding of Cocker and Field Spaniels Canada stands almost a-head, as may be seen by a perusal of the prize lists of the principal Bench Shows both here and in the U. S.

A large number are now bred in Canada, there being at least six prominent extensive breeders we think of in this locality, who breed and sell large numbers every year, many going to the U. S. There are also many amateurs, who have taken up this useful and attractive little dog; the result of which is they are probably the most popular dog in Canada at the present time, and we think deservedly so, for either at his natural work in the field, on the street as a companion and friend, or at home as the favorite house dog, and pet of the children, he is ever the same bright, active, intelligent little fellow, and attracts universal admiration. As a sporting dog for bird shooting in field or cover, we think he stands unrivalled in keen intelligence and untiring energy.

To those who are not sportsmen, either from inclination or want of time, he is a faithful companion, ever active, obedient and sagacious.

We remember many instances of his almost human intelligence, which we may embody in a future article. We direct the attention of our readers to our cut of "Moonstone," which is a good type of the modern Cocker. As will be seen he possesses very strong characteristics, that he differs from the old style Cocker will be apparent to all who have a knowledge of the breed, but as to whether he is superior in all the qualities which the Cocker is supposed to possess, we shall not just now venture an opinion, as this has been a much-vexed question. We shall be pleased to have the view of our Canadian fanciers on the subject, if they are sufficiently interested.

CLUB NOTES.

The managers of the Westminster Kennel Club Show have decided to make a Challenge Class for Irish terriers with two prizes of $10 and $5; also to provide two classes, namely, a dog and bitch class for all breeds where no less than five of each sex are entered. A special prize of $15 cash has been offered by the American Pet Dog Club for the best black and tan terrier. Mr. James Luckwell, of Toronto, will judge all sporting spaniels.

JAS. MORTIMER, Supt.

New York.

I am sorry to announce that the New Jersey Kennel Club will not give a dog show this spring. The club had decided to give a show in Jersey City, and no doubt could have done so successfully, but unfortunately there is not a suitable building in the city. We anticipated giving the show in one of the defunct skating rink buildings, but on investigation found them small, not in a good neighborhood and with a reputation of prize fights, etc. I hope a number of correspondents to whom I failed to give information in regard to above, will accept this as an answer.

GEO. L. WILMS, Secretary.

Jersey City, N. J.

The Indiana Kennel Club's Field Trials this year will begin November 1 with the Members' Stake, to be followed November 4 with the Derby for setters, then a Derby for pointers. Entries close June 1, $5 forfeit, $15 to fill. Three moneys, 50 per cent. to first; 30 per cent. to second; 20 per cent. to third. These stakes will be followed by the All-Ages Setter Stake. Then the All-Age Pointer Stake. Entries close October 1. $10 forfeit, $15 to fill. Four moneys, 40 per cent. to first; 30 per cent. to second; 20 per cent. to third; 10 per cent. to fourth. The trials will wind up with the Champion Stake, $25 entrance. One money. Three to start. The sweepstakes plan, will be adhered to again this year. An entirely new set of rules is now being framed, which we are confident will work a revolution in field trials.

P. T. MADISON, Sec'y.

Indianapolis, Ind.

It is with regret that I relinquish the dates claimed by the Maryland Kennel Club. It was our intention to have our premium list a direct copy of that of the Westminster Kennel Club, both in amount and number of premiums, money being already deposited sufficient to cover the amount. Such a premium list would no doubt attract quite a number of entries, but there not being a building here at present, adequate to the demands, we thought it best to wait until next year when our much-talked-of Exposition Buildings will be finished; then, with a mammoth hall, a premium list in the front row, and Baltimore hospitality, look out for a "corner."

W. STEWART DIFFENDERFFER,
Sec'y Maryland Kennel Club.

Baltimore, Md.

The premium list of the Hudson River Poultry, Dog and Pet Stock Association's first annual exhibition at Newburgh, N. Y., is now ready for distribution. The entry fee for one dog is $2. Where two dogs occupy the same bench the entry fee for two is $3. The dog scoring the highest to receive the president's cup. There is a first premium of $4; second of $2. Entries close January 20. The judges are Messrs. I. K. Felch, Natick, Mass. G. S. Pratt, Bridgeport, Conn., and H. Clay Glover, New York.

VICTORIA (B.C.) DOG AND POULTRY SHOW.

The first exhibition of the Victoria Dog and Poultry Association was declared open to the public by His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Nelson; among the visitors present being Mr. D. M. Eberts, president; and Lieut.-Col. Prior, M. P., treasurer of the society; Chief Justice Sir Matthew B. Begbie, Hon. Judge O'Rielly, Mr. F. S. Barnard, M. P., and a large number of ladies and gentlemen of social prominence.

The delicious music of "C" Battery band was mingled with the occasional howling of the homesick canines and the cackling of the fowls, as the visitors inspected the exhibits and commented on their individual excellencies.

Passing down the right, on entering, a number of splend Setters, of all the peculiar breeds, are first visited. Then come Grey-hounds, Deer-hounds, Retrievers and all the other intelligent friends of the sportsmen; with several sturdy Mastiffs occupying a prominent position at the View street end of the rink. Spaniels and pet dogs of many kinds are found in full force; while "toy" dogs, no bigger than kittens are not fifty feet away from the family of Great Danes, Danish boar hounds, massive creatures, with faultless symmetrical limbs, and almost speaking eyes. These handsome animals are the property of Mr. Meyer of Port Townsend, and are apparently the visitors' favorites. In all, over 150 dogs are exhibited and each and all are splendid specimens of the canine race.
