MARCH BY DUKE LIKE BRITISH GRENADEERS

Toronto Police Force Warmly Praised for Splendid Appearance at Review by Governor-General—Parade Precision and Deportment Earned Applause of Spectators.

In physique second to no other body of uniformed men, military or civil, in department and parade precision the equals of a long-service battalion of British infantry, 425 of the rank and file of the Toronto Police Department marched past the Duke of Connaught at the University Stadium yesterday afternoon and earned the hearty commendation of his royal highness and the plaudits of three thousand spectators.

It was a notable occasion, and but for the lowering clouds which threatened a heavy downpour, would have drawn a notable crowd. As it was the spectators who occupied the grand stand made ample amends for the paucity of attendance by breaking time and again into rounds of cheers. They had much to cheer for. Apart from the fact that it is 27 years since the Toronto police force was inspected, and that this time no less a personage than a royal duke was to do the inspecting, the fine appearance of the men and the precision of their movements was enough to stir the most phlegmatic temperament.

It was shortly after 4 o'clock when the head of the column, 23 mounted men under Inspector Gilke, marched on to the field. Behind them came the band of the 10th Royal Grenadiers, who, in turn, were followed by eight companies of patrolmen, each captained by an inspector.

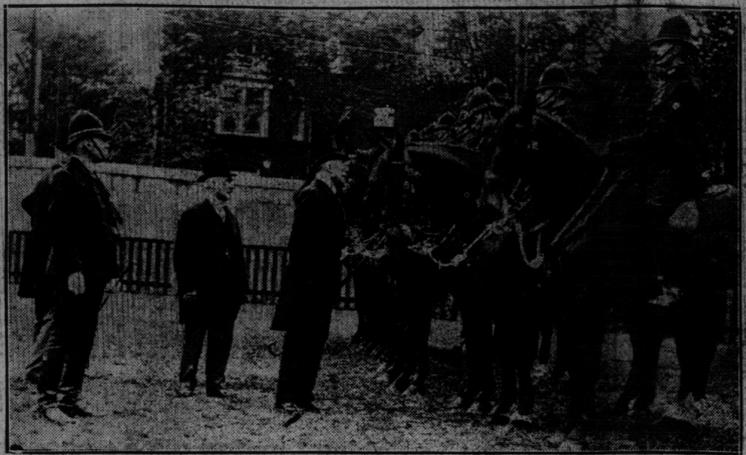

Col. Grassett, who was mounted, formed up the force in line on the east side of the stadium, to await the duke's arrival. Punctually at 4.30 the duke arrived in his motor car, and the parade sprang to attention; the band struck up the national anthem, and the royal standard was run up from the pavilion.

Accompanied by Chief Grassett, Col. G. T. Denton, Mayor Hocken and an aide, the duke made a minute inspection of the long line of men in blue. Now and then attracted by the sight of a war decoration—and there were not a few who wore them—he stopped and questioned the wearer as to his past services. When the inspection was concluded, the force was massed in quarter column, and the governor-general took up his position at the saluting base.

Then the men marched past. First in column and then in quarter column. It is an exaggeration to say that they swung past the duke like walls of blue. In many cases one could have drawn a ruler along the line and touched every man. They marched past to the "British Grenadiers," and the crowd roared its applause as the bluecoats swept by in the stirring tune.

Duke Was Pleased.
The duke was visibly pleased at the splendid showing of the men, and at the conclusion of the advance in review order directed that they be formed up in column of fours to permit of his address being heard. He praised the men for their fine appearance, good work and moral character.

By a Staff Reporter.
OTTAWA, May 22.—A British company with a Canadian connection, the "Oil Processes Limited," is going to spend a sum in excess of two million dollars in a systematic and exhaustive search for petroleum in Northern Alberta. Hon. Louis Coderre, minister of mines, has received a cablegram from the firm's head office in England stating that their representative is on his way to Canada, and that he is the bearer of an important undertaking from this oil corporation, which holds the largest concessions and contracts under the crown.

The body was recovered two hours afterwards.

HOME RULE NOT PRESENT ISSUE

Lloyd George Charges Plot of Unionists to Destroy Representative Character of Lower House.

Canadian Associated Press Cable.
LONDON, Saturday Morning, May 22.—Finishing the campaign for the government candidate, Mr. Masterman, in the Ipswich by-election last night, Lloyd George, chancellor of the exchequer, said that this contest was one of the most critical in the history of this country.

"Read the story of the case in the house of commons yesterday," he said. "Do you appreciate what it means and that it is a blow to free and representative government?" If it had been the case of an outburst of temper on the part of the opposition, he would not have said a word, but he knew that it was deliberate and part of a plan to destroy the representative character of the lower house. "Home rule is not the cause of the trouble," he declared. "I am a Protestant home ruler, just as good a Protestant as any covenanter. Why, even the Tory candidate has ceased to treat it as if it were a home rule election. On his polling card he places home rule last. It is not Welsh disestablishment. It is not plural voting, it is representative government in this land. They attempted to destroy it. So long as the house of commons was filled with squires and sons of the nobility, so long as it took the commons away from the people so long as it imposed taxes on their food in order to raise the rents for the landlords, the house of commons was all right. You had no young Tory lordlings trying to break it by that rowdiness then. It was a mere drudge, a mere appendage to the house of lords."

IPSWICH BY-ELECTION CONSIDERED CRITICAL

Lloyd George So Tells Electors in Bringing Campaign to Close.

Canadian Associated Press Cable.
LONDON, Saturday Morning, May 22.—The chancellor of the exchequer, Lloyd George, brought the Ipswich by-election campaign to a close last night with a stirring speech on behalf of Mr. Masterman, the Liberal candidate. Among the reasons that had induced him to participate in this contest, he said, was the fact that he considered today's election the most critical in the history of the country.

LARGEST CAMP FOR 25 YEARS

Mobilization of Troops at Petawawa Will Be on Bigger Scale Than Ever Before.

By a Staff Reporter.
OTTAWA, May 22.—The mobilization of troops at Petawawa this year will be the largest that has been carried out in Canada during any training season for many years. It is expected that during the latter part of June about 12,000 cavalry, artillery and infantry, will be mobilized for a few days of combined training. Colonel Hughes has decided this year to carry out a mobilization scheme of combined training that has not been attempted in Canada for 25 years and Petawawa has been selected as the point of mobilization. One of the features will be the test of transportation facilities and of staff work. During the last twelve miles of the run only a single track is available. The mobilization will be on July 15. What will be known as the secondary mobilization will take place on June 20 when 4,000 city corps from an area extending from Hamilton, Ont., to Sherbrooke, Que., will be brought to Petawawa for their five days' training, during which two days will be spent in the combined training of a splendid body consisting of seven regiments of cavalry, three or more brigades of artillery and three brigades of infantry.

POSSE IN CHASE OF MURDERERS

Cashier at Calgary Killed by Thugs Who Escaped With Cash—Big Force in Pursuit.

Canadian Press Despatch.
CALGARY, May 22.—John Wilson, cashier of the Canada Cement Company at Exshaw, had his head blown off by thugs this morning at 10 o'clock as he was about to enter the works with the sum of $2314 in cash to pay the hands.

The robbers opened fire without warning, and the bullets entered the unfortunate man's head. They then grabbed the bag and escaped across the Bow River on a raft, making for the bush, where it is reported they are surrounded by a force of one hundred men who started on their trail within a short time. Mounted police and C.P.R. detectives left here for the scene on track motors just before noon.

The robbers cannot get away without coming into the open country, and it is believed that their capture is only a matter of hours.

A man believed to be one of the three bandits was captured in the bush about a mile east of the town, this afternoon. The prisoner, who is a Russian, was shot in the groin by an employee of the company.

The pursuers were reported to be close behind the fugitives in a mountain ravine, two or three miles east of the town. Their capture is likely to be reported at any moment. They are heavily armed and there may be shooting.

DR. MILLS TO BE GIVEN POST

Retiring Member of Dominion Railway Board Will Be Appointed Librarian—Successor Not Named.

By a Staff Reporter.
OTTAWA, May 22.—In the house tonight when the railway estimates were under consideration, Mr. Lemieux enquired about the vacancies on the board of railway commissioners. Did the government intend to appoint successors to Dr. Mills and Mr. Bernier, whose term had expired some months ago? He had heard that the minister of inland revenue was to be appointed and Mr. Bergeron's name had also been mentioned.

Hon. Dr. Reid said the appointments would be made in the future, but the recommendations would be made by the government by the Hon. Mr. Cochrane. He thought there was no foundation for the report that Hon. Mr. Nantel would be appointed to the board. Mr. Lemieux asked if any provision had been made for Dr. Mills, and was told that he had been appointed librarian to the board at a salary of $3600 per annum.

BECKER IS AGAIN FOUND GUILTY OF MURDER

"Don't Worry, They Will Free Me," He Told Wife as He Went to Hear Verdict—Another Appeal Will Be Made by Counsel.

Canadian Press Despatch.
NEW YORK, May 22.—Twelve men decided today for the second time that Charles Becker was the architect responsible for the Rosenthal murder, which nearly two years ago awoke New York to a realization of corruption in the police department and opened a new era of police reform.

Becker, once a police lieutenant, was found guilty of murder in the first degree. Only a pardon or interference again by the court of appeals can save him from following to the electric chair the four gunmen who shot Herman Rosenthal, the gambler, early on the morning of July 16, 1912. The jury today decided that the gunmen were Becker's agents.

Juryman in Tears.
One ballot decided Becker's fate. It was taken almost immediately after the jurors returned from lunch on at an uptown hotel, where they went as soon as Supreme Court Justice Samuel Seabury finished his charge. It was unanimous for conviction. Tears streamed down the foreman's face as he announced the decision, and tears stood in the eyes of several other jurymen, but sympathy did not warp their judgment.

Becker's counsel announced that he would appeal, and gained a week's stay for the preparation of his future campaign. The defendant was granted a short meeting with his wife and his brothers and then taken back to his cell in the Tombs.

Confident of Acquittal.
Becker and his wife were talking shortly before 5 o'clock in a room adjoining the sheriff's office, when a court attendant from the judge's chambers announced that the jury had reached a verdict. Mrs. Becker was (Continued on Page 7, Column 1.)

REBELS STILL HOLD ALOOF

Vasconcelos, Agent of Carranza, Says He Does Not Expect to Attend Conference.

Canadian Press Despatch.
NEW YORK, May 22.—Jose Vasconcelos, the special agent of Carranza, who, it had been reported, had been chosen as a constitutionalist representative to the Niagara conference, emphatically denied in a statement tonight that he was to receive such an appointment or that Carranza would ever consider mediation as a solution of Mexico's internal affairs.

"As long as the Huertistas are at Niagara we shall not be represented there," said Mr. Vasconcelos. "The only way my party meets Huerta is on the battlefield. I will accept any mission that the chief of the constitutional party may confer upon me. But I have no idea I will be named as delegate to the A.B.C. conference."

"Personally as a Mexican I think the A.B.C. powers for their efforts to settle a conflict that has been brought in my country by some of its bad citizens. But the A.B.C. powers have no more right than the United States to interfere or advise in our internal questions."

THE SPRING RACES—KING'S PLATE TODAY

Of all the society functions held in Toronto any season, the spring races are the most important. This year the added attraction of the visit of royalty to the Woodbine is going to make it the banner meet of Canadian turf history.

It was during the reign of Victoria the Good in 1860 that the very first race was run for the Queen's Plate, and in 1914 His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught will be present at this historic event. The object of this item, apart from calling attention to the spring race meet, is to suggest to those attending the races to call into Dineen's, 140 Yonge street, today. The proper hats to wear are now in view—Silks, Felts, Straw, Panama and the other stylish headwear for this occasion.

The civilians accused were employees of the firm of Lipton's, Limited. The military had been going on for years. Sentence was deferred by the judge until May 25.

HELD BACK BY DEADLY ANAEMIA

Thousands of Growing Girls Yearly Fall Into a Hopeless Decline

Anaemia—the doctor's name for bloodlessness—holds back many girls from the path to bright, healthy womanhood. At that all-important time when their veins should be full of rich red blood, anaemia, creeping on them stealthily, robs them of sparkling eyes and a clear skin. They become languid and exhausted at the least exertion, their backs ache, their hearts palpitate violently, appetite fails, and their complexion changes to a pasty yellow, or they become deadly white. No medicine ever offered the public has bestowed such important benefits upon anaemic girls as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They build up the body anew by making the rich red blood that gives splendid health, bright eyes, a clear complexion and womanly brightness. Here is an instance out of many recorded thousands. Miss Delina Arsenault, Urbenville, P. E. I., says: "I suffered from an attack of anaemia which my friends feared at one time would prove fatal. I grew thinner every day, had dark circles round my eyes, could not sleep well at night and got up in the morning feeling tired and depressed. I suffered severely from headaches and pains in the back and limbs. I had to leave school, and was unable to do any work around the house. I had no appetite and frequently vomited what I did eat. I was under a doctor's care for eight months, but was growing worse and worse, and was almost in despair, when a friend advised me to give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a trial. Anxious to get well, I decided to do so. After taking a few boxes I found a good improvement, and I continued taking the Pills until I had used nine boxes, when I was again enjoying perfect health, and I found on weighing myself that I had gained seventeen pounds. I have since enjoyed perfect health, for which I have to thank Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I strongly advise all other ailing girls to give this medicine a fair trial. Every girl afflicted with anaemia, every woman who suffers from back aches and sideaches, and the other maladies that afflict her sex can secure new health and strength through a fair use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

HEAVY DAMAGES FOR FALSE ARREST

George Blair Awarded Two Thousand in Suit Against Ex-Detective Grigg.

George Blair, telephone inspector, was awarded $2000 damages in his suit for malicious arrest brought against Detective E. Grigg in the jury assize court yesterday. Blair was arrested by Detective Grigg last July 5 and charged with entering the house of R. MacAuley and stealing $85. He was kept in jail until July 7 and then sent to the police court to a jury. The grand jury brought in a "no bill" on Sept. 15, and meanwhile Mr. Blair had been given other work by the telephone company owing to the charge resting over his head. Grigg put in a defence, which was struck out by the master in chambers, and in summing up the case yesterday Mr. Justice Sutherland urged the jury to award a substantial sum as compensation, with the hope that the news would be announced and the character of Mr. Blair be cleared from all shadow of stain. Grigg is no longer on the police department.

ITALIAN HANGED FOR MURDER.

MONTREAL, May 22.—Tomasso Bernardi was hanged at six minutes to eight at Bordeaux jail this morning for the murder of Luigi Scrolli, committed over a year ago. As Ellis, the executioner, pulled down the black cap the condemned man shouted three words in Italian, interpreted as meaning "Grace, grace, pardon." Rev. Father Garceau, the priest of the jail, who had been with Bernardi all night, stood by him on the scaffold. Just as Ellis was adjusting the noose, the priest murmured in the ear of the condemned man, "Courage, brother."

FIRST TEN-MEN GAME ON MONDAY

Quebec and Toronto Open Lacrosse Season at Scarborough Beach on Holiday.

Admirers of the national game will have their first glimpse of ten men lacrosse on Monday afternoon at Scarborough Beach Park, when the Quebec team hooks up with the Toronto. It is believed that by dropping a couple of men and shortening the length of the playing field the game will be faster and more easily followed by the public. The Blue Shirts are expected to trot out the fastest team ever seen in these quarters, and there will be great curiosity to see Clifford, Spring, and Len Turnbull perform. The defence is not as strong as it ought to be, there being a lack of steady, experienced men close to the nets. Buck Marshall may arrive in time for the game against Quebec, and if so will prove a tower of strength. If not, some of the defence players will be backed in front of Davy Gibbons, and from Stagg, Somerville, Harrison and Barry a pretty fair defence ought to be organized. Then there is Eddy Longfellow, who can play defence remarkably well when he can be spared from the home. With Davy Gibbons in the score will be run up on the Blue Shirts, and the new Toronto home is going to get thru any defence that ever stepped on the field for three or four goals at worst.

Try Skin Absorption Instead of Cosmetics

The constant use of rouge and powder brings a coarsened, roughened condition of the skin, eruptions, enlarged pores and wrinkles. If you've learned this from experience, suppose you quit cosmetics and try the following: Ask your druggist for an ounce of ordinary vasoline and begin using this tonight. Apply this cold cream, washing off in the morning. Keep this up for a week or two. The vasoline will gradually absorb the coarse, colorless or bluishish top skin, so that the skin is not so commonly you at all. Just as gradually the clear, velvety, naturally tinted under-skin comes to the surface. And mercifully, your face becomes your everlasting friend. For those who have large pores, make a face bath by dissolving an ounce of powdered aluminate in a half pint with water. This has remarkable astringent and tonic properties, and beneficial results come quickly.

SHIELDED MORGAN FROM INDICTMENT

Mellen Said Great Financier Promoted Deal With Grand Trunk.

ARRANGED A TRUCE

Conferences With Chamberlin and Smithers Described by Witness.

Canadian Press Dispatch. WASHINGTON, May 22.—A dramatic climax marked the close of the sensational testimony of Charles S. Mellen, former president of the New Haven Railroad, before the Interstate Commerce Commission today, when with evidence of deep emotion Mr. Mellen declared that the late J. Pierpont Morgan was co-sponsor of the Grand Trunk negotiations, on which he (Mellen) was criminally indicted for violation of the Anti-Sherman Trust Act and that "took the indictment that belonged to him" (Morgan), believing it would have killed the aged financier if he had been indicted.

Mr. Mellen spoke with intense feeling as he related his efforts to shield the ailed Morgan. This turned quickly to a show of resentment, however, as he told how the present J. P. Morgan had suggested "changes in the presidency of the New Haven," at which suggestion Mr. Mellen declared, with emphasis: "I called his attention to the fact that I had been suffering under the humiliation of an undeserved indictment to protect his father."

The crowded courtroom listened with intense interest as this closing recital was given. Taking up the Grand Trunk transaction, on which Mr. Mellen's indictment was returned by the grand jury at New York, Governor Folk, chief counsel of the commission, asked: "Did Mr. Morgan have anything to do with this negotiation for the exchange of the Ontario and Western with the Grand Trunk?" "He did." "What?" "He took a very active part in the negotiations."

"What part can you tell, if you know?" asked Mr. Folk. "I did not know that Mr. Morgan knew there were negotiations until he came into my office, when I had an appointment with Mr. Smithers and Mr. Chamberlin, and he told them what he thought they ought to do in order to have peace between the New Haven and the Grand Trunk interests. He told of previous negotiations, which he said extended over a period of twenty years that is the term he used; I suppose it was a general term and that he had bought a steamship line of them on the understanding he was to have the New London Northern for the New Haven road, and that they never had carried out their agreement."

Alleged Bad Faith.

"These negotiations," he said, were with Mr. Smithers, president of the St. Charles Rivers Wilson. He thought it was a great mistake that they had not kept faith with him, and he was quite emphatic in thinking they had not done as they should do; had not kept faith with him. And he told them that they should give up the New London Northern road; he did not care for anything further, and that would be the only understanding he was to have between the two properties. Then he retired from the room. I think E. C. Smith was present during part of that interview."

THE IMPORTANCE OF MAKING A WILL

Too Many Neglect This Important Matter

It is now made surprisingly simple and safe by the use of the Bax Legal Will Forms, which can be obtained from any good stationery store. Bax Legal Will Forms are registered at Ottawa. # MONTREAL'S NEW EVENING PAPER

WILL BE PUBLISHED MAY 27th

The Evening News is being issued in response to a widespread and insistent public demand. It has been obliged to contend with great obstacles—obstacles not ordinarily placed in the path of a public journal.

The public will be pleased to learn that these obstacles have been overcome.

The fight for the privilege of providing the people of Montreal with an independent evening newspaper is over. The people and The Evening News have won.

Publication will commence on Wednesday, May 27th.

The struggle The Evening News has had has not been without its compensations. The publishers have realized that they were supported by a militant public opinion and by a popular good-will rarely witnessed in the launching of a new newspaper.

This good-will the publishers will do their utmost to deserve. In no circumstances will it be abused.

The Evening News from the day of its first publication will be a finished newspaper, strong in features which will give it a welcome place in the home. Before all other things a clean newspaper, it will require no parental censorship before reading by the junior members of the family circle.

Politically, The Evening News will be independent. It will have no entanglement, political or corporate, to restrict the free exercise of its duty to the public.

Head and Arms Missing, But Search is Being Made for Them.

Canadian Press Despatch.
ROME, May 22.—A life-size statue of Venus has been found by excavators near Cyrene, North Africa, which in the early centuries was the seat of Greek culture. The statue which dates back to the 6th century B.C.—the time of Praxiteles, the celebrated Greek sculptor—was of Parian marble and once stood in the Temple of Apollo. The head and arms are missing, and the excavators are continuing their search in the hope that they will be found. The Venus, which is considered a masterpiece of Greek sculpture, will be brought to Rome in June and placed in the National Museum.

get the pancakes which he knew she would have ready for him. She told the police of his placing the children where they could hear the slightest noise, and of his desperate break for liberty. He has a rifle, she said, and plenty of ammunition, purchased in Barkway, the day before the murder and claims he will never be taken alive. Rutttan told her again last night not to worry if he did not come back, because he might decide to make an end of himself in the bush. Mrs. Rutttan believes that her husband's hope is to kill Alfred, his son-in-law, before he is captured. She stated that he told her if he could get one shot at him he didn't care what happened. According to her he will succeed or surrender as soon as he kills Coutermache. A threat made by Rutttan to the effect that he would appear at the funeral ceremonies today at Barkway and shoot down Alfred Coutermache and all the latter's friends put the neighborhood in a state of terror. When the funeral of the two victims did pass it was closely followed by a dozen armed men who kept close watch on the bush at each side of the road. Coutermache's hearing of Rutttan's threat, was afraid to venture out, and remained in Fryer's home with two white men, his wife was being buried two miles away.

The funeral of George Coutermache and the outlaw's daughter was attended by about forty neighbors today. Rev. Findley Crowther of the Free Methodist Church, conducted the burial service.

Rutttan's wild declarations of shooting down enemies have caused consternation among the people. The public school has had to close since the day of the murder because the children and later the teacher were afraid to attend.

Two armed men are watching Rutttan's house and a posse of nearly 40 men is scouring the woods southeast, to which he is thought to have gone.

Mrs. Walker of Housay Rapids drove past a bluff in these woods yesterday morning and reported to the police that she saw a man whom she took to be Rutttan working his way around the scrub. All morning the men had searched thru the woods to the west, and on the strength of this new information the forty men were dispatched to these woods. In this shelter, police officials admit, Rutttan, if he wished to do so, could possibly evade the law for weeks. He knows every foot of the way thru them. They extend two and a half miles to Buck Lake and are about six miles in length. Now that an attempt has been made to get him in his own home, the police think the outlaw may attempt to get out of the country. So far as is known he has had but one meal since the murder, and tonight it is thought he will make one more effort to get food and then go north. The idea has been set forth to remove his wife and family from the home, so that he will no longer be able to get food there.

Till late tonight the men will search for the murderer and another watch be kept on the house for him, in the hope that he will return for food. The posse have orders to shoot Rutttan down if necessary.

Mrs. Rutttan has not slept since the murder and is evidently on the verge of a collapse.

An hour after the escape of Rutttan last night she was seen going out with a lantern, and the belief is that in the few minutes husband and wife had together, arrangements for future communication and placing food for Rutttan were made. Today's search was carried on in a rain, which drenched the searchers to the skin.

EMPIRE DAY CONCERT

Young Songsters Delighted Large Audience at Massey Hall.

For the seventh year in succession Dovercourt School won the Double Trio Competition for W. W. Hiltz's Shield at the Empire Day school concert, held at Massey Hall last night. The competitions for the medals and shields were very keen and the judges had considerable difficulty in making their selections. In the recitation competition Violet Dunn of Howard school carried off the honors with "My Wish," a humorous piece, which was rendered in a charming manner. Hazel Bulmer of Perth avenue school won the silver medal.

Jean Rowe, the 11-year-old scholar of Strathcona school, carried off the gold medal in the soloist competition. Jean is a pupil of Atherton Furlong and it was not until the last minute, after her teacher had made several applications for her to be included, that she was permitted to compete. The song selected was to be sung in "C," which was considered too low for the child's voice, but the judges would not make any concessions on her behalf by allowing her to sing in a higher key. Ethel Anderson of Earl Grey school was second, and a special silver medal was added for the other competitor, Flossie Collins of Dovercourt.

Dovercourt school was also successful in the choir competition, Perth avenue school being second.

Velma Vetter, the child who won the gold medal in 1913 in the recitation competition, gave a further exhibition of her skill. The combined choir were in splendid condition, rendering all their pieces without a single hitch. In their last number, "Song National," which was composed by Gordon V. Thompson of Toronto, they scored their biggest triumph.

Taking the concert all round, it was one of the best held.

Secrets of Health and Happiness

How Errors in Your Diet Cause So-called "Heartburn"

By DR. LEONARD KEENE HIRSHBERG

HEARTBURN is so called because it neither burns nor has anything to do with the heart. Actually this phrase, like Topsy, just "grew."

Heartburn has to do with the stomach and not any vital organs. It is not a serious condition by any manner of means, but is often more distressing than actual organic troubles.

Strangely to relate, it is not only an excess of hydrochloric acid that may cause these volcanic and eruptive eruptions from the stomach. Nor is it gas plus acid that does so.

Almost any sort of disturbance, such as muscular spasms, irritating seasonings, liquors, fermenting foods, a redundancy of organic acid, herculean quantities of even the plainest, most wholesome food, and anything not wholly in accord with the peculiar weakness and strength of your particular digestive bag, may cause this condition.

The current idiom, "It goes against my stomach," has much philosophy in it, as well as medical knowledge. For as Bobby Burns put it:

Some has most and some eat. And some would eat that what it. But he has next, and we can eat. See let the Lord be thankit.

Really, Athenaeus, some thousands of years ago, was filled with wisdom when he expressed the truth that every investigation which is guided by principles of nature, fixes its ultimate aim upon the stomach.

Whenever the mistaken "heartburn" makes itself felt or otherwise apparent, look to it that something is done in the way of correcting errors in diet, muscular activity, habits of rest, bathing and outdoor life.

Never make the mistake to seek comfort from the flowing bowl. Avoid the ways of Gammer Gurton, who could eat but little meat, his stomach was no good, "but sure," he thought, "that he could drink with a man who wears a bonnet."

Heartburn is not the consequence of eating to live, but the outcome of living to eat. Those who run after strange gods and worship the false idols of good cheer affect this annoying alimentary ailment.

Walk but a block along the highways of hotels and restaurants upon any night of summer or winter, and you will find almost a medley of staccato, pianissimo and fortissimo eruptions from the dining and winning habitues.

Peter's Adventures in Matrimony

By LEONA DAIRYMPLÉ

Author of the new novel, "Diane of the Green Van," awarded a prize of $10,000 by Ida M. Tarbell and S. S. McClure as judges.

The truth about "the girl in the ash" distinguishes this new series of Miss Dairymplé. Her character studies do not appear unfamiliar to the majority of readers, who will follow the fortunes of "Peter" with interest.

NO. 82 A Real Vacation. On the 14th of August I departed for the lake with considerable misgivings. To spend my vacation there was not particularly desirable.

Experience should be particularly dear to the other fellow. The good that comes from evil is as questionable as the evil that comes from good.

The fellow who sells them is the only commendable sort of a practical joker. Samson was the original strong-headed man. Statues of bronze and granite are hard characters never bothered by the police department.

When a woman—and particularly a vice-grows polite and distant with her family and begins to make smooth, languid conversation, watch out or squalls. "What is the trouble?" I insisted. Have the rocking chair brigade gotten on your nerves?

"Peter" exclaimed Mary disdainfully. That sort of remark is awfully bad and you know it! "Has the grouchy old gentleman with the teeth been telling you what he thinks of women who go away for the summer and leave their husbands at home?"

"He's a frightful old pest!" said Mary, shrugging. "Nobody pays any attention to him. He thumps his cane dreadfully at the children and sticks out his chin if you happen to go near him."

"Well, what is the trouble then?" I repeated. "There's something on your mind," "Oh, no," said Mary, arching her pretty brows listlessly. "Nothing at all."

There was a beautiful pensiveness in Mary's voice, hearing which I was more persuaded than ever that there was something wrong, and I was the guilty cause of it.

"Oh, come, Mary!" I exclaimed impatiently. "Don't let's begin my vacation this way. We've two weeks ahead."

"It's your own fault," said Mary flushing. "In heaven's name," I exclaimed "what have I done?"

"Well," said Mary indignantly. "It was that last letter you wrote, if you must know."

"There wasn't enough of that," said I, "to fuss anybody."

"That's just it," said Mary tragically. "And everybody waiting to find out what you say."

"My goodness!" I exclaimed in dismay. "Was I writing to the whole brig ade?"

"Another girl and I were talking of how careless men are in their attention, and an old lady said that you couldn't always blame the boys, that sometimes the wives grew indifferent and careless first. Then she said: 'Each one of you write your husbands a good old-fashioned love letter, such as you would have written to him in sweeter days, and see if you don't get an answer that will bring the color to your cheeks! And I—I wrote, Peter, I wrote you the most wonderful letter.'"

"And look at the answer you sent. It's pretty hot here. I'm well. How are you? That's every word there was of it."

"Hum!" said I with a horrible sense of guilt. It was clear, I thought, "I shadowed all the rest of it!"

"What was it?" asked Mary defiantly. "I'll leave tonight," I said, "send me some more money. I'm broke!"

There was utter silence, then Mary held out her hand.

"She said with a hint of tears in her voice, 'It's a horrid place any way, and the women are catfish.'"

"And so on a trip. Dad gave me $200 for a birthday present, and we'll use that."

THE good woman has married the bad man, and everybody's wondering about it. What in the world made her do it, and why has he picked out this particular kind of woman?

Does she see something in him no one else can even guess at, and is she going to sacrifice her life trying to bring that something out and make something worth while out of the bad man?

In the man really not so dreadfully bad after all, has he wanted to be good all the time, and wouldn't anybody let him?

BUSINESS AND CIVIC POLITICS.

In continuing that the cases of Stratford and St. Thomas are on a par with Toronto in respect to the cutting of hydro-electric rates, we fear the fact has been overlooked that the element of competition in those places and in Toronto makes all the difference on the question, and that in fact to adduce Stratford and St. Thomas as examples of successful rate-cutting is merely to beg the whole question.

But in Toronto there is no guarantee that new business of a profitable nature will be gained from lower rates. Toronto has an active competitor for business in the Toronto Electric Light Co. It was believed at first that the Hydro-Electric Commission could gather all the business from its competitor by the formidable cut at first made. The Toronto Electric Light Co. encouraged this view and declared that ruin would follow the widow and the orphan on account of the unfair and unjust rate-cutting.

In the sequel, however, the T. E. L. Co. reduced its rates to meet the hydro rates, and not being prevented from discriminating in the treatment of customers or classes of customers, the company secured the greater part of the business yielding any profit, and by furnishing a steam-reserve, guaranteed continuous service, appeals to a large class of profitable power users which the hydro cannot touch.

In order to get more business the provincial commission orders the reduction of rates. It is quite clear, however, that the T. E. L. Co. can and will meet any reduction that cuts into any class of business which it desires to retain. It can make discriminating and attractive offers to power users which the hydro under the circumstances cannot do. The city hydro commission appears to regard the situation from another point of view, and before entering upon a reckless rate war would first of all establish its unit of cost. It is practically impossible for the commission at present to say what any particular class of business is costing. An order to reduce rates indiscriminately by something like 15 per cent. by no means solves the problem. If there had been no competition from a company which has unlimited power at as low, or lower, cost than the hydro has, the cut in rates would have been an intelligible move. But with a deficit to face, and ignorant of present unit costs, it might have been prudent to wait until the local commission had figured out just what was necessary to be done to put the business in the best shape. After all, the local commissions are responsible for having things right, and if the reduction should turn out to be a mistake and involve the city or the province in loss, those who are now objecting to their caution would be the first to turn round and rend them in pieces for not showing more backbone. All this would be obvious enough, and in no need of exposition if the matter had been treated as a business question, and not turned into an issue in civic politics.

FAILURE OF THE FORD PLAN.

Henry Ford's division of profits with his employees, resulting in the practical doubling of their wages, has been largely discounted by the recent announcement that two hundred men a day are to be retired until six thousand are in that somewhat unpleasant position. True, the reduction in the staff is characterized as "leave of absence without pay." This of course is a mere euphemism, for the actual fact that they are, or will be, laid off and therefore are in no better position than were their employees of a company adhering closely to the old principle that labor is as much a matter of supply and demand as any other commodity.

Mr. Ford would have been better advised had he carried his theory a step further and made his employees participants in losses as well as profits, with at least a minimum wage sufficient to ensure a reasonable standard of living. As it stands now many workers are threatened with the temporary, or possibly permanent, loss of wages while the fortunate member retained will, it is presumed, continue to receive abnormally high remuneration. This procedure is open to the Ten Committees Preparing for Record Celebration on Dominion Day.

Special to The Toronto World. PORT HOPE, May 22.—The noble grand of Durham Bodge, I.O.O.F. No. 76, has great confidence in the future of the lake shore towns. He gave an especial remark. He pointed out that an excellent feeling of inter-municipal interest exists. While this was manifested at the inception of the movement for a lake shore line of the C.P.R., it has also been continuously shown in connection with the work of the various fraternal societies. This was exemplified in the recent visit of the Port Hope I.O.O.F. Lodge to the sister lodge at Cobourg. The two lodges at Cobourg, the Cobourg Baptist Church, Rev. J. W. H. Foster, presided at the assembly on the basis of fraternity work, "friendship and truth." He congratulated the members of the two lodges on the service of the people of Port Hope and Cobourg. After the service the members of the two lodges marched to the L.O.G.F. Hall, where Mr. Brown presented Bro. Arthur Mine of Cobourg who has been an I.O.O.F. member for over a quarter of a century, with a veteran's jewel.

Frost Killed Wheat. Secretary R. S. Duncan of the Port Hope Agricultural Society has issued a bulletin announcing that owing to the damage to fall wheat thru the phenomenal frosts of the past week, the field crop competition will be for oats in minimum fields of five acres, and mangels in minimum fields of one acre. There will be seven prizes ranging from $20 down to $4. The credit of winning a prize rating is regarded as the most important feature of the competitions.

Lieut. Gilbert Edwards, commanding "A" Company, 46th Regiment, has issued an invitation to ex-militiamen of the Port Hope district to attend drill next Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings in preparation for the parade on the occasion of the visit of H.R.H. the Duke of Connaught and party on June 1.

Two other important coming events, in addition to the visit of the governor-general, are attracting considerable public interest. The first will be the celebration of the opening of the Canadian Pacific railway which is being arranged by the Transportation Committee of the town council. The other will be the celebration of Dominion Day which is to be on a more ambitious scale than ever before owing to the energy which is being put into the preparations by Mayor Bush and the committee.

Several Others Anxious to Secure the Conservative Nomination Next Week.

PORT HOPE, May 22.—The Liberal-Conservative Association of East Durham will meet in Millbrook on Thursday, May 28, to nominate a candidate for a seat in the Ontario legislature. Should J. J. Preston, M.L.A., retire, as he has intimated he may do, the fight for the nomination will probably be among the following: John Kennedy, Pontypool; T. B. Collins and Norman McGill, Millbrook; and Charles McNell, Waterloo. It is expected that the following would gladly accept the nomination: Robert Grady, Charles Perry, R. A. Mulholland and T. B. Chalmers. It is not probable that the Liberals will put a man in the field.

A PHYSICIAN'S FIRST STEP

When you are ill a physician's first step is to give a laxative, no matter what the trouble may be, because no medicine will take proper effect while waste is in the Lower Intestine.

If there were no waste there you probably would not have been ill at all, because physicians agree that 95 per cent. of all human ills is due to the accumulation of waste matter in the Lower Intestine.

Enlightened physicians are now recommending Internal Baths by means of the "J. B. L. Cascade," and hundreds of thousands are already using it to keep their intestines free from waste always, and with correspondingly better health, strength and efficiency.

Mr. Henry J. Cain of Kenora, Ont., Canada, writes under date of June 5, 1911: "I wouldn't be without the J. B. L. Cascade for anything in the world. The excellent soothing results and restful sleep that both my wife and I received immediately after the first application of the 'Cascade' are beyond expression. Before purchasing it my wife argued that I would become dependent upon it, but such is absolutely not the case, it having made my digestive organs very much stronger; the philosophy of which any can at once see. Very truly yours."

DEPUTY CHIEF NOBLE IS STILL ON RIGHT SIDE OF 60.

In his report to the board of control, Fire Chief Thompson by error classes Deputy Chief Noble with himself as being past 60 years of age. DEPUTY CHIEF NOBLE IS STILL ON RIGHT SIDE OF 60.

In his report to the board of control, Fire Chief Thompson by error classes Deputy Chief Noble with himself as being past 60 years of age. "I greatly regret that such a mistake was made," said the chief last night, "as it naturally does the deputy an injustice, which was far from my thoughts. Unfortunately, I was not before the board when the report was taken up and could not correct it there."

JURY DECLARED BECKER GUILTY
Fate Decided on Single Ballot—Counsel to Make Appeal.

 Not permitted to accompany her husband to the courtroom. Newspaper men, court attendants, counsel for the defence, and District Attorney Whitlock, and his staff were the only other persons allowed admission.
 Becker in the room overhead was still talking to his wife when Justice Seabury took his seat. Clerk Penny called "Charles Becker to the bar," and a bailiff went for the defendant. Becker kissed his wife and left her.
 "It's all right," he told her. "Don't worry, they will free me."
 Becker entered by the same door the jury had passed through but a minute before. He walked briskly to the rail facing Justice Seabury and gripped it with both hands.
 Clerk Penny asked the jury to rise. "Foreman," he said, "have you reached a verdict?"
 Blagden, a young man, blonde and slim, brushed his eyes with a handkerchief, already damp. "We have," he said softly. "We find the defendant guilty as charged in the indictment; guilty of murder in the first degree."
 Becker's face was gray as he gripped the bar in front of him with all his strength. The big muscles of his neck jumped out in heavy rolls. His veins at his temples swelled. His great frame swayed and drooped, then with quick control he became himself again.
 The whole proceeding from the time Becker was pronounced guilty until recess was declared, occupied scarcely four minutes.
 Mrs. Becker, learning the verdict, threw her arms around his neck and buried her face on his shoulder.
 "Oh," she cried, "Charlie, I'm so sorry, so sorry, I didn't expect it."
 She could say no more.
 Becker stood, looking down at her as she wept.
 Handcuffs were then locked around his wrists. He was taken from the room and around the marble corridors, quite the other side of the building, across the "Bridge of Sighs," and into the Tombs.
 Another appeal.
 Immediately after the court was adjourned Mr. Mantou said: "I fall to see how the jury managed to convict Becker in view of the conflicting evidence that was presented by the witnesses for the state and the testimony that our witnesses gave. However, it has been done. I will immediately set to work to prepare an appeal. We will fight, and fight hard to have Becker cleared of the charge."
 District Attorney Whitman expressed himself as highly gratified with the verdict. "It speaks for itself," he said. "Becker is guilty. It was proved. He must pay the penalty of his crime."

The Late Chub Collins

Charlie Collins of Dundas is dead. He was a fluent speaker and a big factor in municipal politics in Westworth County, reeve of the town and a member of the county council at the time of his death. That was his hobby after cutting baseball, but he was a skillful and successful currier and bowler. Old-time ball players were frequently adorned with the heavy mustaches, but Chub is the only well-known ball topper in the last 25 years who went thru a big portion of a season with a full beard. Winning a game for Hamilton wearing a stubby growth he vowed that he would not shave till the game was over, and as they kept up the winning streak a month or more the star second baseman soon sported a luxuriant growth. Chub was always manager and captain, and never failed to fight for his point.

Official Opening Motordrome Tonight

The official opening of the quarter-mile motordrome on Greenwood Avenue takes place tonight when Hon. J. J. Foy will press the button, turning on the lights for the first race.

Last night's final workout under the artificial illumination was staged before a crowd that thronged both the stands and the infield. Leonard of Cleveland, Harding of Birmingham and Costie of Dallas, Texas, the ex-owboy, furnished some real thrills when he hooked up in a practice race. About seventy-five bicycle riders were out, including Scotty Wilson, who rode quarters behind motor pace in 25 seconds.

The program for both tonight and Monday night's meet includes nine motorcycle and two bicycle events. Cole and Tommy Smith will be featured in a match sprint.

H. J. P. Good Improving

The many friends of Mr. H. J. P. Good, who has been seriously ill in the Western Hospital, will be pleased to hear of the improvement noted yesterday. Pop is not only the oldest writer of sports in Toronto and Canada, but must get credit for turning out the first regular sporting department on a daily paper on this continent. He now holds the sporting editorship of the Montreal Daily Mail, and it is to be hoped that he will be still spared many years to keep up the good work.

FOREST ON FIRE NEAR VANCOUVER

Loss Estimated at Hundred Thousand Dollars and Widespread Damage is Feared.

Canadian Press Despatch.

VANCOUVER, May 22.—Estimates today show that during last night and this morning damage of not less than $100,000 had been done by bush fires within 20 miles of Vancouver. Dry weather for weeks has made the forests like tinder, and so numerous are the outbreaks that a great pall of smoke hangs over the city this morning. This is the hottest day of the season so far and there is no rain in sight.

The most serious blaze appears to be at North Vancouver, where there is a great blaze running up Lynn Valley and sweeping along the sides of Grouse Mountain. Besides a shingle mill, eight cottages have been burned, and there are forty more in the path of the blaze. A special steamer, with government fire-fighters aboard, this morning left for Sillamou, a short distance up the coast to backfire a blaze that has got into the timber.

MORE BANKS FOR BERLIN.

BERLIN, Ont., May 22.—The Montreal and Royal Banks have had representatives here the past few days endeavoring to secure quarters for branches.

FARMER'S SKULL FRACTURED.

KINGSTON, May 22.—Joseph Orr, a farmer living at Sydenham, was the victim of a runaway horse. He sustained a fractured skull and other injuries and lies in a critical condition.

NEW OSLER WING OPENED BY DUKE

Addition to Georgina House Earns Commendation of Governor-General.

RECEPTION WAS HELD

Institution Will Now Give Homes to Eighty-Five Working Girls.

A function that attracted large numbers at noon yesterday was the opening of the new Osler wing of the Georgina House, Beverley street, by His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught. Long before the scheduled hour the halls, corridors and stairways were lined with friends of the establishment, amongst whom was a large representation of the ministerial profession.

On the arrival of the duke a passage was opened by the officers on duty, and his royal highness was at once escorted to the main hall, where an address was read by Mr. A. J. Kammerer, chairman of the board of directors. In his reply the duke said the objects of the institution were such as to commend themselves, for they meant a comfortable, respectable home, where the girls would receive the care and sympathy of the ladies in charge.

A short address was also read to Mr. Kammerer by Provost Macklem on behalf of the directors, for the work and personal care he had bestowed upon the new addition. In reply Mr. Kammerer stated that what he had done was thru the support he had received from the other members of the board, who had been his backbone in the work.

A reception was then held in the superintendent's room, the directors, Mrs. Broughall, founder of the institution, and Canon Broughall being presented to his royal highness. Afterwards Canon Dixon, carrying a crozier, preceded Bishop Sweeney, accompanied by Archdeacon Ingles, to the chapel, which was then dedicated. The duke was afterwards shown thru the new parts, the rest-room, infirmary, gymnasium and dining-room all coming in for inspection.

The plant of Georgina House represents an outlay of $75,000. About two-thirds of this is cleared, but an overdraft of $25,000 is waiting for the benefaction of some friend or friends of the home. At first there was accommodation for 33 girls only, now there is every comfort and convenience for 85 boarders, with a working staff of 100. The house is clean and commodious, with the artistic touches which mean so much to the girl inmates. The infirmary and rest-room are particularly attractive and the roof garden affords one of the finest views of the city. The institution prides itself on being one of the best

LOCAL CUSTOMS HOUSE IN POOR CONDITION?

Government Inspector of Public
Buildings in Court and Case
Was Adjudged a Week.

Magistrate Cohen remanded for a week the case against Thomas Hastings, inspector of government buildings in Ontario, who was charged in the afternoon police court yesterday with allowing the customs house at the corner of Yonge street and Beplands to be kept in a dirty and badly ventilated condition. Considerable evidence was given in defence of the conditions existing at the customs house. The value of expert evidence health officers' knowledge and efficiency of modern appliances for ventilation were emphasized by Mr. Hastings. T. A. Enright, janitor, and H. E. Hamilton, superintendent of public works.

GLEBE MANOR

THE MAGNET THAT ATTRACTS THE BUILDER AND THE INVESTOR TO-DAY WHY?

Because Glebe Manor is selling at less than half the price of other districts, farther away from the centre of the city. For instance, High Park district is a mile and a half further away from Bloor and Yonge than Glebe Manor, and it is hard to find building land out there for less than $100 per foot, while Glebe Manor is selling at

$32.00 per Foot Up

Builders and Investors Have Bought Over 80,000 Dollars Worth During This Month

This is surely convincing proof that Glebe Manor is of exceptional value. The buyers satisfied themselves that no land in the city was as good or as cheap as Glebe Manor. Already about thirty houses are erected, and a number of others will be started within the next few weeks. Glebe Manor has all improvements; deep brick wide streets, broad sidewalks, etc., etc. Our automobiles are at your service. See Glebe Manor on Saturday or on Monday, the holiday. You will find the builders and the investors who have already bought were wise in their choice.

PRICE OF WHEAT IS PULLED DOWN

Close is Unsteady - Corn Climbs on Weather Report - Oats Advanced.

CHICAGO, May 22.—Heavy selling by an interest that was conspicuous on the buying side during the recent advance, pulled down prices today in wheat. The close was unsteady, 9-32 wheat, 1-4c under last week, corn wound up 1-4c to 7-8c net higher, and oats with a gain of 1-4c to 3-4c. In provisions the result was 5c to 10c decline.

Fighting Market. Big concentrated offerings proved altogether too much of a burden for the nearly exhausted wheat bulls. There was a fighting market early but eventually the bears ruled the pit. The remarkably forced condition that Kansas notwithstanding the Heisterly, would raise the price of wheat, the late news development, with which the friends of higher prices had to struggle, it was asserted also that Kansas, Oklahoma and Oklahoma would harvest nearly 4,000,000 acres more than in 1913.

Corn Climbed High. Corn climbed to within easy halting distance of the oft-wished-for 70 cent mark. Continued wet weather in Argentina was mainly responsible, but there was in addition a prospect that the Chicago stock would show a reduction for the week. So far, there have been no such shipments as expected in the market.

Oats advanced with corn and as a result of dry weather talk. There were numerous reports of oats being plowed up owing to excessive backwardness of growth. Provisions eased off in sympathy with a decline in the hog market. Apparently the decline would have been greater but for the strength of coarse grain.

ST. LAWRENCE MARKET. Receipts of farm produce were 18 loads of hay, and one load of rye straw. May—Eighteen loads sold at $18 to $20 for No. 1, and $16 to $17 for No. 2 or mixed. One load of rye straw sold at $12 per ton.

COUNTRY RICH AND BOUND TO PROSPER

WE are going to have an abundance of crops this year, and they will have their influence upon business conditions of the country. The country is rich and bound to prosper, depressions are temporary. If we are careful of our business and husband our resources, if we have courage and persistence, we will come out all right. As I read signs of things there is a well developed sentiment (through this country) in favor of giving big business a fair chance," said Judge Gary, yesterday, in New York, at the session of the American Iron and Steel Institute, of which he is chairman.
