FRENCH PEOPLE FREELY ACCEPT BONDS FOR WAR

Government Authorized to Raise Limit of Treasury Issue Thirty Per Cent.
OUTLAY ON INCREASE
German Methods of Finance by Penal Code Contrasted With Allies' Methods.

Canadian Press Despatch.
PARIS, March 18, 4.40 p.m.—In the course of an speech in the chamber of deputies today on the proposal to authorize the government to raise the limit for the issue of treasury bonds from 3,500,000,000 francs ($500,000,000) to 4,500,000,000 francs ($600,000,000), Alexandre Ribot, minister of finance, said today:

"The way in which the people of France have taken these bonds surpasses expectations. Great difficulties beset the French treasury at the beginning of the war. The treasury is recovering today. At the end of last year the monthly expenses were 1,100,000,000 francs ($220,000,000). The expenditures during the first months of 1915 have been from 1,250,000,000 francs to 1,500,000,000 francs—rather nearer the latter figure. Expenditures are increasing owing to fresh necessities; for example, the military expedition to the Dardanelles, for which no one would reproach us. We shall have to manufacture increased quantities of war munitions, buy material and necessary provisions, and, lastly, our expenses certainly will be augmented on the day we take possession of the invaded departments."

Mr. Ribot sketched the methods of German finance, which, he said, consisted of "an exchange of paper for paper; a process encouraged by recourse to the penal code."

"It is possible to administer wisely the finances of the country," said the finance minister. "The merit is that of the enterprise. It is little seen in the woolen stockings which have come to the aid of the country; the profit has come in the beginning not from the large cash boxes, but from pocketbooks."

"Those whom I have wanted to attract to the treasury have come to us."

It is learned that the effect of the resolution will be to insure that no province will have fewer members of the commons than senators. There are four senators from Prince Edward Island.

COMBAT AT CARNOY COSTLY TO ENEMY

German Offensive Was Repulsed After Four Days' Bloody Encounter.

GAIN MADE BY FRENCH
Foe Started Hostilities by Exploding Heavily Charged Mine.

Canadian Press Despatch.
PARIS, March 18.—The combat at Carnoy, which began the evening of March 14 by the explosion of a heavily charged mine in one of the French advanced trenches, was vain and costly for the Germans, according to an official note issued by the war office today.

"The battle lasted until the 17th," the note adds "and was marked by sharp fighting and numerous counter-attacks and systematic bombardments. The German offensive was finally repulsed and the French succeeded in making a slight gain on this part of the front."

Canadian Press Despatch.
REGINA, Sask., March 18.—Four years ago Theodor Sandys-Wensch came to Canada and joined the R. N. W. M. P. as a bugler. Of Belgian parentage, but British birth, his ambition had been to join the British army, but he was turned down at Sandhurst on defective eyesight. GERMANS INCITE PERSIAN TRIBES TO REVOLUTION

HOLY WAR ALSO URGED
Indian Office Discovers Shipment of German Arms to Bushire.

Canadian Press Despatch.
LONDON, March 18, 7.10 p.m.—The India office announces that documents have reached the government showing that German consular officers in Persia and agents of German firms have been engaged in intrigues with the object of inciting a Turkish invasion of Persia and promoting a rising of the tribes against Great Britain.

The former German consul at Bushire, on the Persian Gulf, who is now stationed at Chiraz, aided by Germans and Indians from Berlin, says the India office, has been circulating pamphlets addressed to the Indian army, calling upon the soldiers to "throw off the hated yoke and rise and kill your officers."

A long appeal to the Mesopotamian soldiers was also found, urging them to join in a "holy war" (jihad) "in the name of Allah."

Telegrams are made up by the India office, which, it says, show that arms and ammunition consigned to the German legation at Teheran, were received there by the consular agent, who were to be used to arm the tribesmen who were to attack Bushire.

BLOCKADE NOTICE NOT GIVEN TO U.S.

Washington Hence Contends Seizure of Ships Not Lawful.

PREPARING PROTESTS
Right to "Visit and Search" is Alone Admitted by United States.

Special to The Toronto World.
WASHINGTON, March 18.—The sole right of a belligerent in dealing with neutral ships on the high seas is limited to visit and search, unless a blockade is proclaimed and effectively maintained. This doctrine of policy on the part of the American Government was contained in the recent note to Germany protesting against the seizure of ships and it is understood will form the underlying principle of a vigorous protest that will be sent to Great Britain and France against the enforcement of the recent order-in-council.

"While the word 'blockade' is mentioned in the explanatory notes of the order-in-council, it is not mentioned in the declaration of enforcement. Therefore, it is the contention of the American Government according to a high official in the State Department, that the United States cannot have been served upon this country by either Great Britain or France and that consequently the United States cannot consistently agree to the enforcement of the order-in-council."

ITALY WILL NOT TOLERATE DELAY

Events Are Being Very Closely Watched, Especially in the East.

CONFERENCES ARE HELD
Important Developments Are Looked for Daily in the Capital.

Special to The Toronto World.
ROME, March 18.—The premier yesterday announced that parliament would be adjourned for a few days. It is plausibly conjectured that diplomatic negotiations are expected to be concluded shortly. Important developments are imminent. Von Buelow, contrary to expectations, did not confer with the premier and foreign minister, but paid daily visits every morning to the Austrian ambassador, who returned the visits regularly every evening. Special messengers were sent to Berlin and Vienna almost daily. Besides the so-called embassy bags they conveyed boxes filled with documents, evidently of a confidential nature. Von Buelow recently conferred with a prominent senator who is an intimate friend of the premier. It is supposed he was acting as the medium of communication between Von Buelow and the government.

Many German residents here who were known as agents and emissaries of their government feared expulsion, and already are leaving. They are closely watched by the police, and often shadowed until they reach the frontier. The government is likely to prohibit the publication of news of military character, as empowered by the new law now before the senate. It may be enforced within a couple of days.

No Procrastination.
Altho it is practically impossible to ascertain from official sources whether Von Buelow's negotiations are definitely broken off, I am informed that the government is determined not to tolerate any attempt at procrastination, irrespective of offers and proposals based on Italy's interests and national aspirations. Events are being closely watched, especially in the near east, where they will undoubtedly influence and probably hasten future action.

SASKATCHEWAN TO BASH BAR ON JULY FIRST

Government Will Have Monopoly of Wholesale Liquor Trade.

TO OPEN DISPENSARIES
Measures to Continue After War if People So Vote.

REGINA, Sask., March 18.—Saskatchewan will be the first province in Canada to completely abolish the bar. On July 1 next, not only will the retail sale of all intoxicating liquors come to an end, but the whole sale trade will be taken over by the government and operated as a government monopoly, under a system of dispensaries. Later even these dispensaries may be abolished by a referendum vote of the people of the province so decided.

This in brief is the effect of an announcement made by Premier Scott, in addressing a meeting at Osbox this afternoon, in company with J. G. Turritt, M.P. Premier Scott announced the policy by which his government was prepared to stand or fall in the following words:

A. War Measure.
"To at once issue a proclamation curtailing the honors of retail liquor sale to 7 o'clock in the evening, beginning April 1.
"To convert the legislative assembly into a board of control, to be in effect from the date of the proclamation, and to submit to the house a bill to give effect to the above measures."

NEWSPAPERS CONCEAL LOSSES OF BRITISH
Lord Claude Hamilton Says the Grenadier Guards Lost Eight Hundred Men

Special Cable to The Toronto World.
LONDON, March 18.—Lord Claude Hamilton said tonight that the newspapers are concealing British losses. He said that his own regiment, the Grenadier Guards, had lost 800 out of 1,200 men in the first in the army. He said that the Camerounians seemed to have been totally wiped out, he said, was most ridiculous and might prolong the war.

DARING ATTACK ENDED IN LOSS OF SUBMARINE

French Craft Tried to Torpedo Turkish Cruiser in Dardanelles.

SUNK BY ENEMY'S GUNS
Submarine Struck Shore and Was Compelled to Offer Mark.

Canadian Press Despatch.
LONDON, March 18, 2.10 a.m.—The loss of a French submarine boat in an attempt to run through the Dardanelles, is described by Rear Admiral Guepratte of the French Dardanelles fleet, in an interview with The Daily Telegraph's Tenedos correspondent. "The attempt apparently was made some time ago, altho no announcement has been made of it heretofore. The attempt had as its object the sinking of the Turkish cruiser Sultan Selim (formerly the German cruiser Goeben)."

"The correspondent says Rear Admiral Guepratte told him the submarine was submerged, and successfully navigated the straits up to the corner where the Asiatic coast juts out at Navarin."

"Sunk by Batteries."
"Through some miscalculation, which is quite natural when a submarine is trying to strand a tortuous channel without the aid of a periscope, the hull struck the rock shore, compelling the boat to rise to the surface. Immediate action was taken, and the submarine was sunk. The boat was damaged, and the crew escaped, and these were made prisoners."

"Regarding the present situation in the Dardanelles, Rear-Admiral Guepratte said the waters of the straits are clear as far as Keres Berru, to the extent of a general election. It was agreed that the difficulties of registering the votes of the men at the front would probably be too great to overcome, and as a compromise it was decided that the soldiers who are in camp in Canada should be given an opportunity to record their votes."

"In sealed envelopes."
"It is probable that the voting will be done in sealed envelopes upon which a certificate from the commanding officer has been made out. These envelopes will be opened in the presence of representatives of the candidates by the returning officer on polling day and the result dropped in the box unexamined."

"The committee will open again on Tuesday next to perfect the plans already drawn up and a draft bill will probably be submitted for consideration."

OTTAWA, March 18.—An informal meeting of the commons committee on elections was held today, the question of votes for the soldiers in the event of a general election. DESTROYED BOOTS SENT TO TORONTO

Staff-Sergt. Holmdon Says Twelve Hundred Pairs Were Condemned.

AN ORDER RESCINDED
Burning Was Stopped Presumably on Instructions From Ottawa.

By a Staff Reporter.
OTTAWA, March 18.—Lieutenants, colonels, majors, captains, sergeants and privates were examined under oath before the parliamentary boot committee this afternoon and evening, and all joined in condemning the general quality of the boots supplied the troops.

"Perhaps the most interesting witness was Staff-Sergt. Holmdon of the ordnance staff, Toronto. He told the committee that 1200 pairs of shoes issued to the men in Toronto were condemned as absolutely useless. He received an order from the commanding officer, Col. Panet, to burn them. He received this order on February 20. Between that date and the 24th of the same month he burned 320 pairs, when he received a second order that no more boots were to be burned. It was a verbal order, and he understood that it came from headquarters at Ottawa. In the course of his seven years' experience he had never before heard of boots being ordered to be burned. The sole cracked in two, and his toe protruded thru the top. They had not been subjected to undue strain. He had been working inside practically all the time."

"Major Inketter, who was in charge of a board of enquiry which investigated the boots supplied the troops of the Ottawa division said that 25 per cent of the boots issued his command were bad. They soaked, water the soles were badly worn, cracked, the uppers shrank and the men's feet were injured. All this happened in December before there was any snow. During the winter boots were saved at the expense of overhauls, but with the coming of spring when overhauls were discarded complaints were coming in again."

"Quarter-master Capt. Theriault of the Ottawa division said that 25 per cent of the boots issued by him were returned in less than six weeks as unfit for use. Some came back in two weeks."

"Sapper Singleton and Sapper Shaver swore that their boots went to pieces in a few weeks, the not subjected to undue hardship."

AUSTRIANS READY FOR AN INVASION

TO RESUME OFFENSIVE
Entire Army Corps Soon Will Advance Against the Serbians.

Special Cable to The Toronto World.
ROME, March 18.—I learn from Trieste that squads of Russian prisoners and Galician refugees have been sent to Trentino, where they are working on defensive fortifications, in digging trenches along the frontier and clearing away snow from the mountain passes. Heavy guns are being mounted in the passes on specially-erected concrete platforms. Masked batteries are being extensively placed close to the frontier, for the Austrians do not rely on permanent fortifications which are well known to the Italians. The Austrian plan is to set up secret defences against the invasion which they consider inevitable.

Canadian Press Despatch.
LONDON, March 18, 9.35 p.m.—The British steamer Glenartney of Glasgow was torpedoed this morning off Beachy Head by a German submarine, which gave no notice of her intentions. In the scramble for boats, one of the crew was drowned; the others, numbering 46, several of whom were injured, were picked up by a steamer and landed at Newhaven.

"The Glenartney, which was of 3339 tons register, was bound from Bangkok, Siam, for London, loaded with 8000 tons of rice."

KAMER'S COUSIN AMONG KILLED?
These German Princes Reported Slain at Neuve Chapelle.

TERRIBLE SHAMBLES
"You Do Not Fight, You Murder," Said Prussian Officer.

Canadian Press Despatch.
LONDON, March 18.—The Village of Neuve Chapelle, converted into a shambles by the bombardment of the British, now is a heap of ruins thick with bodies, according to the report of the British commander in that region written by an "eye-witness," and given out today by the press bureau. Although the Germans were inferior to their antagonists, both in numbers and in artillery, the eye-witness declares they offered heroic resistance, using machine guns effectively.

Thousands of Bodies.
At the end of March 16, the bodies of 200 German soldiers had been found in the section south of the village. In front of one British battery east of the village, the slain soldiers' remains, 500 more were counted, which did not include the large number buried in the ruins of the village.

Prisoners who have been all through the war declare that never have they experienced such a bombardment as that which preceded the assault upon Neuve Chapelle. One wounded Prussian officer declared indignantly: "You do not fight, you murder. My regiment never had a chance from the first. Nothing could live under such a fire."

German Prisoners Slain?
In spite of their exhaustion, the aspect of the prisoners spoke highly of German discipline. Their persons were extraordinarily clean and most of them were fresh shaven. They were unanimously optimistic, believing they soon would finish with the Austrians and the British, and would crush France and Great Britain. One officer stated that three German princes, including Prince Leopold of Hohenzollern, were serving in one of the battalions at Neuve Chapelle. This prisoner expressed the belief that all three princes had been killed.

In conclusion the eye-witness says he believes the Germans lost 15,000 men at Neuve Chapelle. There is a Prince Frederick Leopold of Hohenzollern, who is a cousin of Emperor William. He was born in 1855, and has had a commission as first lieutenant in an infantry regiment.

Wounded Reach England.
The full import of the British victory at Neuve Chapelle is only now beginning to be grasped by the public. It has greatly cheered both troops and civilians as confirming the belief that the German line can be broken if the allies strike in the price.

Several thousand wounded men from this battle already have arrived in England. The King's troops reached Brighton during the 24 hours ended last evening.

KAISER AT LILLE FOR A COUNCIL OF WAR?
Emperor and General Von Falkenhayn at Army Headquarters.

Canadian Press Despatch.
LONDON, March 18.—The Evening News prints a despatch from Copenhagen to the effect that Emperor William and Gen. Von Falkenhayn, chief of the German general staff, arrived today at the German army headquarters at Saverin. Their visit, The News states, is for the purpose of participating in a council of war.

The despatch adds that Emperor William and Gen. Falkenhayn already have had conferences with Prince Frederick William, the German Crown Prince, and Rupprecht, Crown Prince of Bavaria. The King's of Saxony and Wurtemberg are on the way to join the council of war.

NEW STOCKYARDS COMPANY FORMED
Edmonton Cattle Business Will Be Modeled on Toronto Lines.

STOCK NOW IS OFFERED
First Issue of Five Thousand Shares Placed on the Market.

In today's issue of The World will be found an exceptional offering of interest to investors. The Edmonton Stockyards, Limited, recently incorporated, is making its first issue of 5000 shares, at par, $100 a share. This company is formed for the purpose of conducting a stock yards in the City of Edmonton, Alberta, a western point of offering special facilities for conducting business of this nature. It is the intention of the company to conform as nearly as possible to the Union Stock Yards at West Toronto, which has proved an unequalled success, and now is practically irremovable by the public. The Edmonton stock has secured 135 acres as a site between the transcontinental lines of the Grand Trunk Pacific and the Canadian Northern Railways, with about half a mile of trackage frontage along the first named railway. This trackage is expected to prove highly valuable as sites for packing plants and other allied business. The Edmonton stock yards adjoins the Swift packing plant, the largest of its kind in Edmonton, while the Burns packing plant is within a mile of the new stock yards. Edmonton is eminently situated as a live stock centre, owing to the tremendous development of the live stock industry in the Province of Alberta. Government statistics show that in 1913, in hoags alone, this province increased 30 per cent. over the previous year. By creating an adequate market, such as is proposed in Edmonton, it is believed that a further stimulus to live stock production will be given to the province. Enormous crops of feed are being raised in Alberta, and the establishment of the stock yards will provide a means whereby the farmers can be readily supplied with stockers and feeders to render its use profitable.

The directors of the company are men thoroughly experienced in the live stock business. H. P. Kennedy, the vice-president, is a well known and respected as a live stock dealer, and is the principal of one of the leading firms doing business at the Union Stock Yards, Toronto. A careful estimate has been made of the financial side of the company's operations and created 30 per cent. over the previous year. After paying management and other operating charges a 10 per cent. dividend would be left over $20,000, to be carried to reserve account. Subscriptions for the stock are being made to the Dominion Bank at Toronto or Edmonton, and further particulars can be had at the company's office, 155 Bay Street, Toronto.

TORONTO WILL PAY WHILE GEARY'S AWAY
Corporation Counsel Has Enlisted But Will Employ Two Assistants.

GRADE TOO STEEP
Railway Interests Differ From Those of Teamsters on Yonge St. Hill.

Corporation Counsel G. R. Geary, at present a lieutenant in the Queen's Own Regiment, has asked for his immediate release from civic service. He is going to the front as assistant adjutant in the 10th Battalion of the Canadian Expeditionary Force.

Although the city council decided some time ago not to pay over $100 to civic employees enlisting, the board of control consented to the proposal of Mr. Geary, that his full salary ($9000) be paid if he supply two assistants to cover his work in the city legal department.

The Canadian Pacific Railway is desirous of providing for the Dominion Railway Board to ask for a 5 per cent. grade to the south approach of the Yonge street subway, instead of the proposed 3 1/2 per cent. grade. They yesterday asked the board of control to co-operate with them in this matter, but the board declined, and they did not care to do so. The making of a 5 per cent. grade would mean a saving of over $400,000 in land damages, and the board is naturally interested, but as there is a heavy traffic on Yonge street it is desired to make the grade as light as possible.

Limit is Reached.
The board of control yesterday was a little upset by a letter from City Treasurer Patterson, which was, in part, as follows: "Notwithstanding the increase in the assessment for 1915, I may say our borrowing limit now appears to be exhausted." Controller O'Neill states that the city's borrowing power is $75,000,000, and $75,500,000 has now been borrowed.

Referring to the case of E. G. Neil, the reservist from Toronto, who was killed in action and whose family will not likely get the city's insurance because he lived a short distance beyond the limit, Mayor Church said yesterday that he would pay for the men living just outside the city. He may negotiate with the Metropolitan Company in an effort to have the money paid over.

On motion of Mayor Church, the board of control yesterday decided to give a banquet to the officers of the second contingent before they depart for the front.

Mayor Church Criticizes Spirit of Meeting and Nominated Smith.

On motion of Controller O'Neill, Col. Joseph G. Langton of the militia department was yesterday recommended for the position of fire commissioner at a salary of $6000 a year, Mayor Church and Controller Foster dissenting.

Controller Foster wanted to have the nomination held over until the investigation into the whole department had been completed. "We haven't the final report and cannot consider applicants now on the department without having a full report. I think we should urge the judge to go on and get the report and then we can give consideration to the men on the inside," said the controller.

MOTOR TRUCKS FOR SECOND CONTINGENT
By a Staff Reporter.
OTTAWA, March 18.—The minister of militia informed Edmonton Proult to the house today that the meat for the Petawawa Detention Camp was supplied by the Harris Abattoir Co. of Toronto, and D. Brash of Pembroke.

Gen. Hughes stated that the government had purchased 150 motor trucks for the second Canadian contingent. The price is $2550, less $250 for tires and tools, which are being purchased in England. The price includes the complete chassis without body, tires and tools, but with side and tail lamps.

APPORTION EXPENSE.
The expense in connection with the operation of the waterworks has at last been apportioned; 35 per cent. will be for fire protection purposes, and 65 per cent. for other purposes.

In other years the amount charged for fire protection has varied, being at the rate of $80 per hydrant. This division will mean that the waterworks department will this year show a profit, which will go toward the relief of the city's taxation.

BRITISH BLOCKADE PERFECTLY LEGAL
United States Has No Ground for Objecting to Reprisal Measures.

marque should be given to private vessels to prey on the commerce of a belligerent, should be abolished. To this restriction the United States refused to accede and did not sign or ratify this Paris declaration. The refusal of the United States was hence concurred in by some other powers, hence the declaration has never had the force of international law. As the declaration was therefore merely a contract to which Germany was a party, it falls to the ground as soon as one of the parties to it violates its provisions, so far at least as that party is concerned. Neutrals strictly speaking, have no rights. Theirs are more the rights of individual traders and as Britain has provided full compensation for them in cases where they would suffer, international jurists would have no hesitation in declaring the rights of individual traders, and

SEVERAL DISEASES ARE EPIDEMIC IN SERBIA
Canadian Press Despatch.
LONDON, March 18, 6:50 p.m.—An appalling story of conditions in Serbia was related today by Ernest Bicknell and Henry James, Jr., of the war relief committee of the Rockefeller Foundation, on their return to London after a tour of inspection thru that country. They said that several diseases were epidemic in Serbia. Typhus, the most deadly of these, already had caused the death of 60 out of 400 native doctors of the country.

Uncle Sam who is depicted by his admirers as an astute old negotiator, is to be shown shortly, where he has been backing the wrong horse. President Wilson's promised protest against the British blockade of Germany and the return of German goods found on neutral vessels on the ground that they are not in accordance with international law, will have to be modified, in honesty, to an admission that the British order-in-council putting these measures into effect are consonant with that code. Certain New York papers have delivered some broadsides against the British decree on the ground that it is in contravention of the Declaration of Paris and therefore should not be put in force against the United States. In this they are very much mistaken. As to the Declaration of Paris itself, the United States is not a party to it. This document was a treaty or a contract between several high-contracting powers to abolish certain war measures permissible under international maritime law. One of these was the seizure of an enemy's goods in neutral bottoms, and another was that a blockade, to be binding, must be enforced by an adequate fleet of vessels so as to prevent access to the port or coast blockaded. Another was that privateering, a sort of legalized piracy, whereby letters of

With the nerves properly nourished headaches and neuralgic pains disappear, appetite improves, digestion is good, you sleep and rest well, and gain in strength and weight.

Mrs. H. Lake, Cannington Manor, Sask. writes:—"You will remember me writing you last spring. Well, I gave up my doctor and began using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. This treatment cured me rapidly and I was soon myself again. I was pale, thin and troubled and liver complaint, and frequently had sick, nervous headaches. I was surprised to find that in a few weeks' time I had gained 30 pounds in weight. I never felt so strong and well in all my life. Headaches never bother me any more, and I am grateful for the cure. If people would only give this medicine a fair trial they would certainly be cured." Municipalities Compelled to Put Levy Upon Everything But Schools and Churches

Clashing far from them all semblance of agreement and hurling denunciations and insinuations of disloyalty across the floor, the two parties in the legislature yesterday witnessed their last attempts at a truce, dissolved in fierce party strife. The occasion was the introduction of a Liberal amendment to the war tax bill.

One suggestion of N. W. Rowell that influenced the government members was that Ontario should send a brigade of 5000 soldiers and send them to the front to teach the federal government how to do their duty.

Make it Compulsory.

In committee, Hon. T. W. McGarry explained that on further consideration the government had decided to make it compulsory for municipalities to tax all property, even that exempted for industrial reasons.

The premier's reference to "imperial advice" in connection with the throwing out of the dreadnought bill was almost lost in the clamor of the house.

Mr. Rowell asked if the war tax would be filed at the close of the war, and was answered in the affirmative.

MUSIC LOVERS HEAR EXCELLENT PROGRAM

Three Hamburg Brothers Gave Splendid Concert to Appreciative Audience.

ORCHESTRA WAS GOOD

Notable Control Under Which Players Responded With Precision and Taste.

Except perhaps in point of attendance nothing could have been more successful than the splendid concert given by the Three Hamburg Brothers last night in Massey Hall.

The first number was evidently for the purpose of introducing the three brothers together. It was the Trio in minor for piano, violin and cello, and this fine piece of chamber music suffered somewhat from the size of the hall.

The fourth number brought Mark Hamburg once more on the platform to combine with the orchestra in the artistry practice of the opening section to the mine explosions of the final passages of the concerto.

Mr. Hamburg has gained in poise and mastery since his appearance here some years ago, and there is no sense of effort in the dynamic side of his art.

The orchestra was remarkably good, on Luigi Von Kunitz showed that from a temporary organization he could obtain masterly results.

GALICIAN FIASCO RUINS GERMANS' CAMPAIGN PLAN

BIG ADVANCE HALTED

Russians Continue to Make Captures of German Guns in Fighting.

PETROGRAD, March 18.—The most northern part of Poland is now clear of Germans. Their outposts among the villages are frequently demoralized for the cry of "The Cossacks are coming" is enough to make them vanish. Many German guns recently taken in North Poland date from the early seventies. They are moving their best artillery into western Poland.

Russians Clear Out Germans.

PETROGRAD, March 18.—Fighting in the Skwa-Orzyz front continued today to turn in favor of the Russians as well as the fighting in the region north of Przasnysz. The occupation of several more villages in eastern Galicia. This scheme is believed to have been the really central purpose of the strategy since the new year and to have been dictated by Hungary's political designs.

WISCONSIN WOULD STOP FIGHT GAME

MADISON, Wis., March 18.—The efforts of the radical reformers to abolish boxing in Wisconsin came before a joint legislative committee with a field day for both opponents and friends of boxing.

The bill chiefly under discussion was that of Assemblyman Hansen, who proposed bill makes attendance at a boxing bout a crime, punishable by imprisonment for a year, with the alternative of a fine, and a two-year sentence and a fine, either or both, for participation.

Only ministers who have never seen a boxing bout appeared in favor of making boxing or attendance at a fight a felony, and their claims that boxing is brutal were quickly nullified by their admission that they had never been spectators.

While in Montreal Mr. Mack personally selected a stock from new clothes just arrived from Britain for suits to be tailored to the new spring designs; the Semi-ready Company are prompt in their replies.

PARIS, March 18.—Baron Pierre De Courberin, president of the International Olympic Committee, now in Lausanne, Switzerland, has written a letter to the Associated Press concerning the Olympic games of 1916 in which he says:

INDOOR BASEBALL AT MOSS PARK. The gymnasium at Moss Park is kept tight on the hum these days. Classes in all divisions are being well attended by the boys and everybody is working hard to make a place in the spring circus.

A BILLIARD MATCH. The supervisors of Moss Park Recreation Centre met the supervisors of the McCormick Centre, yesterday afternoon in a game of English billiards.

GRACE CHURCH CRICKET CLUB. The annual meeting of the Grace Church Cricket Club will be held on Monday evening next, March 22nd at Mr. Paris' house, 37 Amelia street, at 8 o'clock.

Wolfe's Schnapps

Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps

For sharpening the appetite and stimulating the digestive organs generally, you will find nothing to equal Wolfe's Schnapps. Take it as a "toddy" with hot water, sugar, lemon and a wipe-glass of Wolfe's; with ginger beer, aerated waters; the result is the same; you will always find Wolfe's Schnapps the greatest tonic energizer for the vital organs.

"Soul-Mates" and Criminals are Alike in Their Egotism

By WINIFRED BLACK
Copyright, 1935, by Newspaper Feature Service, Inc.

So they're living together now, the man and his wife and the "soul mate."
This time the "soul mate" is a man. It's usually a woman.

And they wear, all three of them, corduroy knickerbockers and peg-top shoes and corduroy coats and flowing ties and little, round corduroy hats.

They've gone to live together on a farm in the outskirts of a little New England village. They've told everybody that the "soul mate" is no relation to either of them, and that he's there because he loves the other man's wife so devotedly that he can't stay away from her.

And when they all three go out together for a platonic walk over the hills and far away, in their queer clothes, they whisper that the villagers stare at them and whisper as they go by.

Oh, isn't it that the villagers should stare?

Now if they were ordinary clothes and did ordinary things, of course you'd expect the villagers to do that, wouldn't you? But under the circumstances—

And the woman in the case is grieved—not angry, not indignant, not even vexed, but grieved—to think that the soul mate's wife divorced him for being a "soul mate."

Are They Hypocrites?

"Isn't it a pity," says the woman in the case, "that women should be so narrow? Now if dear Mary were only reasonable," she says, "how happy we should all be living so cozily here together, with all our children, under one roof. We have two, you know, my husband and I, and Mary has two, but I'm afraid she's a little selfish about hers.

"The won't let them even come to visit us, and that's so hard on their father. Sometimes, when I see how it irks him, I almost am vexed with dear Mary.

"Dear Mary takes such a narrow point of view, but we hope she will change some day."

Dear Mary, being interviewed, says she does not think she will change, either some day or any other time. She says that she and her husband lived very happily until the other woman came between them, and now she is making a home for her children and herself. She has nothing to say about the "soul mate" establishment.

The queer thing about it all is that those three people actually seem to be aggrieved to think that any one should so "misunderstand" them as to disapprove of their domestic arrangements.

"They call the whole world 'evil-minded,'" because the world wants them to behave themselves.

No, I don't believe they are hypocrites. Most people who do wrong are not. They make themselves believe that they are doing right.

The same moral kink that makes it possible for them to do outrageous things makes it possible for them to twist facts into fancies and never know that they are doing it.

I know a murderer once—a rosy, blue-eyed young man he was—who needed some money. So he went to a bank and asked the cashier for $10,000. "If you don't give me the money," he said, "I will kill you."

The cashier did not give him the money and the man killed him.

"Thine" and "Mine."

And on the day the murderer was to be hanged he told me that he was not at all sorry for what he had done.

"I gave him his chance," he said, "why didn't he give me the money? Why, it wasn't even his money. If he wanted to give up his life just to save somebody else's money for them, why, that was his business. I gave him his chance."

He wasn't crazy, and he wasn't perverted. There was no dent in his soul that might have been removed by a simple operation, which might have transformed him into an angel of sweetness and light. He was just a selfish scoundrel, that's all.

That is what most people are who go to the penitentiary.

And that is what nine out of ten "soul mates" are apt to be.

If Me! Mine! I want. I must have. I desire. That is ever the burden of the song of this sort of person.

An expert criminologist says that the difference between an honest man and a thief is simply a difference in egotism.

"An honest man wants $10,000, but it belongs to some one else, so he goes without it."

"A criminal fancies the brass buttons on somebody's waistcoat, so he kills the man who wears the waistcoat to get the buttons, and there you are."

I wonder, after he has killed the man, if he really likes the buttons so very much, after all.

As to the three persons in corduroy knickerbockers and hats to which, who stride lustily over the New England hills, I hope they won't get their toes cold and find the fire out in the kitchen stove when they go home to warm them.

I'm afraid none of the neighbors will offer to drop in and start the fire again.

Diary of a Well-Dressed Girl

By SYLVIA GERARD

Solving the Summer Dress Problem in Cold Days

This morning a box came from the millinery which fits smoothly over the hips and falls full about the feet.

It opens at one side, and is trimmed with buttons and braid to correspond with the bodice.

I did not like the effect of a plain belt or girdle, so I made a vest-like belt which means pens, hairbrush and forget-me-nots. In her arm she held an old-fashioned bouquet in a lace paper holder, and to it was attached Ted Martin's card.

Will wonders never cease? Who would have thought that that old Ted would ever send such a frivolous bit of prettiness to any girl? And when I turned over the card and read: "I am sending this to you, Robin, because you once sang some old, old songs in this costume, and I have never forgotten," I could scarcely believe my eyes. Three years ago we gave "A Masque at Versailles" for the benefit of the hospital, and every one wore Louis XV. costumes. Ted seems to have an excellent memory.

The flowered skirt of the china lady made me long for a frock made of silk, flowered in exactly the same colors, and I determined, then and there, to go downtown tomorrow and try to buy the material.

When the flowers came I was sewing my new pink linen frock. Mother and I are trying to have our spring and summer clothes made together, so when warm weather comes there will be no fussing about clothes.

The linen I bought last week at a sale, and it is a lovely pale rose color. Made the bodice perfectly plain, with a high, rolling collar of white net. It buttons down the front with flat lion-covered buttons, and the large button-holes are bordered with white braid.

The long, modified bishop sleeves are gathered into wide cuffs of white net with frills at the top and bottom. Two narrow bands of pink linen trim each cuff.

To wear over the bodice I made a loose, Eton jacket of the linen with very large armholes. From the front it has the appearance of straps over the shoulders, but from the back it is very jacket-like.

The skirt is one of the latest models, which fits smoothly over the hips and falls full about the feet.

Aunt Minerva on Women.

MARY had fattered vaguely, and ready to begin over again. "Heaven's shake of a lamb's tail!"

"I'm so sorry I forgot the coffee and eggs," said Mary, proving that the lesson was taking wholesome effect, "but I began to talk to Peter."

"Of course, you did," said Aunt Minerva. "Women are always beginning to talk and forgetting to stop. I do myself. A woman's chance thought is like a grab-bag. Heaven alone knows what utterly unrelated words may come pouring forth with the first sentence. All women, Mary, have grasshopper minds."

Laying the Foundations.

"Grasshopper minds!" I exclaimed with a chuckle. "What on earth, Aunt Minerva, is a grasshopper mind?"

"A mind that can leap from thing to thing," said Aunt Minerva, "and keep going until the last leap comes back again, and there you are, back again and ready to begin over again. Haven't you heard a woman's irrelevance before now set a room in an uproar?"

"Don't a neighbor of mine come in this morning and begin in this fashion: 'Tell me, did you honestly like the sermon Sunday?' When did you can pineapples, Minerva?" and my grasshopper mind accepted the two queries, instantly tickled them and answered them. I didn't see the humor of it until afterward."

"You spoke of plans," I hinted.

"Hum!" said Aunt Minerva, "Peter's not going to have any further grasshopping if he can help it. Very well. To the plans then. Now, children, I realize perfectly well that simply because I've seen fit to give you this little lesson to impress upon my wife the value of concentration in all things, including cooking. And it was like Aunt Minerva glancing at her. I suspected, and she said to me, 'You're preaching—though she could preach, too, in her brick, keen way, the Lord knows. And surely there was an object lesson in the contrast between Mary's breakfast and the one Aunt Minerva had prepared in what she termed "the shake of a lamb's tail!"

Advice to Girls

By ANNIE LAURIE

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE: I have been going with a young man for nearly two years. When we first went together he seemed to love me very much, and right up to a few months ago.

He came to board at our house, so we saw each other every day, but only had one evening a week together. Lately he has told me that he did not know how much he loved me, but he knew that his love was not near the same as it was at first. Now he is expecting to go away soon, and says that this will bring his love back again. Do you think it will? I know I love him, and he does not want me to quit him. Now, ought I to give him up before he goes away or wait and see how he feels later?

WORRIED.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE: I love a dear boy, and he is deeply in love with me, but he has gone to the war, and has asked me to wait for him, but he may never return.

Now there is another boy that says that he loves me dearly, and that if I don't marry him he will commit suicide. I don't know what to do, for I love both boys. Please tell me what to do.

DISCONSOLATE.

DISCONSOLATE, he will probably do so on anything so very desperate if you do not marry him. Wait awhile. You may hear from your first lover. You would regret not being true to him if he should soon come home, and if he dies you will regret, and then will be time enough for another.

Secrets of Health and Happiness

Avoid Amateur Remedies If You Have "Pink Eye"

By DR. LEONARD KEENE HIRSHBERG
A. B., M. A., M. D., (Johns Hopkins)

NEARLY thirty different types of bacteria have been recognized as responsible for serious eye ailments. Those of trachoma, diphtheria, gonorrhoea, pneumonia, tuberculosis, leprosy, erysipelas, styes, and even of typhoid fever, are but a few of them. These germs do not always yield the same, coherent type of malady as might be expected. There is no distinctive manifestation that will permit physicians or others to say that if this or that occurs in the eyes, such and such a bacillus is present.

Not only do several germs appear side by side, but an ulcer of the eyeball, for example, may be begun by a tonsillitic or "cold" germ, a pneumonia microbe, one of a dozen different varieties. Even under normal conditions the tears and fluids of the eyes may teem with bacteria and in this way confuse the guilt.

Types of "Pink Eye."

The inner surface of the eyelids and the margins of the eyeball are rough and given to collecting all the dirt and dust roundabout. Moreover, the ridges and grooves of the eyelids within easily become swollen and turgid. They are easily incited to granulate. Beneath the surface layer are little "cells" or units of lymph-like tissue. Deeper still in the rubbery cartilage, when irritated, inflamed or swollen, the lymphoid tissue pushes to the surface and shows through the eyelid.

Almost any of the multitude of eye maladies causes this frog spawn appearance. Even a piece of dust or other "foreign body," as the pundits say, which enters the eye, will give rise to these most granulations within the eyelid lining. It appears first in the upper lids and in the corners. It is often associated with adenoids, large tonsils and frequent "colds." This frog spawn condition is soft, unless chronic or due to some serious affection such as trachoma. In any case, it is not a disease, but a symptom of several different diseases.

There is an early spring or a late winter malady of the eyelids which goes by the name of vernal conjunctivitis, or "spring fever" of the eyes. In this the eyelids become thick with heavy, scar-like bumps and fissures in the lining. This "spring fever" of the eyes is a chronic, about eight weeks, returns each spring, but does no ultimate injury to the eyelids. It may recur this season or the next, but it leaves the eyelids unharmed.

Another type of "pink eye," as various mild and serious distempers of the eye are carelessly called, causes little polyps or mould-like folds to assert themselves. This is accompanied by fever, swollen eyelids and other general symptoms. Under an oculist's attention no permanent evidence of almost any mild, regrettable damage. Careless or misadvised treatment of almost any mild, obvious disorder may lead soon or late to scars of vision, inflammation of the iris—the little, dark or many-hued curtain which screens the front of the eyeball from the eye—even blindness.

Trachoma and its Symptoms.

Trachoma is the disease which asserts itself in the eyelid with round, firm granules in the lining. Many new arteries and veins are present, and later the granules "break," throw out their contagious fluids, and form little, hard, lumpy scars. Bit by bit scars replace the delicate lining of the eyelids and eyeballs. In the end the eyelids shrink and stare away from the front of the eye. So dangerous to a nation is trachoma that immigrants of any sort of eye trouble must be quarantined. This is due to the fact that in the beginning all such eye inflammations look alike, and one is not distinguishable from another.

Answers to Health Questions

B. F. Q.—What will improve growth of hair and prevent its falling out? Hair is very oily. Has nervous condition anything to do with its unhealthy condition? Will brushing daily improve it?

A.—Try this: Glycerine and salicylic acid, one dram each; ether and alcohol, 5 drams each; citric acid, 2 drams. Rub sulphur and resorcin each a dram. Brushing will benefit the hair. Change all your habits and be outdoors in fresh air and sunlight as much as you can.

Mrs. R. F. Q.—Legs swollen and have varicose veins. Before it rains have severe pains in all bones and even tongue. Once in a few months have severe pain in throat and chest which lasts a few minutes. What can this be? Should have said I have pain in whole body instead of bones. Are cold baths good for me? Do you advise that I take the following: "Satura Janioli et Hygingia comp. Giffitts."

A.—No doubt a sedentary, indoor life has something to do with your ailments. Internal nervous disorders often are responsible for varicose veins. Until a thorough examination is made to find out the cause, no specific or other advice is given. Such a course of treatment is not possible, and Tom, Dick or Harry's mixture, even at best, are only shots in the dark.

M. J. D. Q.—Will you please print cure for the cigarette habit.

A.—When you feel the craving, eat as many chocolates as you can; take a glass of milk and a couple of crackers, eat lots of meat, and chew a piece of chewing gum.

Exercises to Conserve the Complexion

By LUCREZIA BORI
Prima Donna of the Metropolitan Opera Company, New York.

BALMY air and spring showers seem to be the general signal for every one to begin the madly common-sense known as "spring fever."

This is a deadly enemy to beauty, for a clear, healthy complexion will perish before it spontaneously while "spring fever" rages your energy.

The only effective weapon to use when combating "that tired feeling" is exercise. Your circulation must be increased so that the muscles and tissues will receive a new supply of vitality to counteract its harmful effects.

A pale complexion and listless eyes are among the first symptoms, and only systematic exercise can restore them to their normal condition.

Always bear in mind that exercise in the open air is a hundred per cent more beneficial than gymnasium exercises taken indoors.

I would suggest that you exercise in the yard or on the veranda if you are fortunate enough to have either. Apartment dwellers should stand before an open window while exercising or they should take long walks daily.

Arm and Chest Exercises.

Whenever it is possible you should wear special clothing when exercising. Serge or flannel bloomers and a "riding" blouse will permit perfect freedom in the use of the body.

Always follow active exercise with a warm bath, finishing with a cold shower and a good rubdown with a coarse towel. This will be conducive to comfort, health and beauty.

One of the best exercises to bring into use all the muscles of the arms, back and waist is to stand erect with the arms extended upward over the shoulders. Bend the body forward at the waist and cross the arms over as far as possible as the body is bent. This movement should be repeated at least 10 times.

To exercise the muscles of the chest, arms and legs, begin with an erect position with the arms outstretched in front of the body. Now swing the arms up-

The Good-Night Story

THE THREE TREES :: :: By Vernon Merry

ONE day a very poor woman was walking along the road on her way to market. In a basket she carried a loaf of bread and a cake of butter which she intended to sell.

Just outside the town gate she met a beggar who was faint from hunger. Scouting the fresh bread, he said:

"My good dame, I pray of you to give me but a piece of bread, for it has been three days since I have tasted food.

The poor woman wanted to grant the beggar's request, but she knew that if she cut out the smallest portion from the end of the loaf it would not be salable. She had a kind heart, however, and could not see the beggar die of hunger, so she took the loaf from the basket and cut three large slices from it.

The bread looked so unappetizing without butter that she reasoned: "What I can't sell my bread, and there's no use going all the way to market to dispose of my butter, so I'll just spread some of it over the bread."

This she did, and the beggar ate it with a relish.

When he had finished it—even down to the last crumb—he rose and said to the woman: "Because you have been so generous, giving me all that you have, I'll give you all that I own."

He reached in his ragged pocket and took from it three seeds—an apple, a peach and a plum seed—and handing them to the woman, said: "Plant these when you get home, and tomorrow there will be three trees in your yard which will bear enough fruit to keep you in comfort the balance of your life."

The poor woman did as the beggar told her, and when she looked out of the window the next morning there were the three trees laden with wonderful apples, plums and peaches.

The fruit soon became famous, and as the trees never ceased bearing, the poor woman soon became comfortably provided for.
