FAILS TO POISON EMPLOYER, SO SUICIDES

Startling Theory to Account for Death of Farm Hand in Stamford Township, Following Illness of Ben. Thompson—Men Had Quarrelled.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., May 4.—(Special)—Mystery deep and perplexing surrounds the death of John Baldwin and the poisoning of Benjamin Thompson. The body of Baldwin was found in Thompson's cow shed to-day. Suicide is believed to be the cause of death traces of carbolic acid being found in the dead man's mouth. Thompson is seriously ill at his home as a result of Paris given taken in a glass of cider Saturday night.

It is believed that Baldwin, who was a farm laborer, employed by Thompson, a wealthy Stamford Township farmer, attempted to murder his employer by secreting poison in the cider. It is Thompson's habit to drink a glass of cider each night before retiring. The cider for each night's use is drawn off and left in a pitcher in the cellar. Saturday night, after drinking the cider, Thompson was taken violently ill. When Dr. Tremble of Queenston arrived he declared the man had been poisoned.

Because Thompson's family was opposed to the matter becoming public, nothing was said of the occurrence. The farmer has been near death's door ever since the poisoning, but the family looked upon it as a case of accident.

To-day Baldwin said he was going to the barn to milk cows. When he did not return within two hours, Mrs. Thompson, becoming alarmed, went to learn the cause. On the floor of the cow shed Baldwin's body lay. Inspector Maines assigned Detectives Kelly and McNamara to the case. The officers and corner found traces of carbolic acid in the mouth of the dead man. The lips were badly burned by the acid. A search for the bottle which contained the poison revealed a small vial in a pile of straw a few feet from the body. It smelled strongly of its former contents, and the mode of the death of Baldwin became self-evident.

Further investigations on the part of the officers revealed the startling information that Thompson had been poisoned Saturday. Belief is expressed to-night that Baldwin attempted to murder Thompson and committed suicide to prevent his apprehension and arrest. The police say the two men have quarrelled recently several times. Another theory is that Thompson's life was attempted by an outsider and Baldwin was murdered by the same hand. This theory, however, is not generally accepted.

PAINTERS' STRIKE IS ON INCLUDES NON-UNIONISTS

Masters' Association Declare They Have Plenty of Men at Work, —800 "Out" Claimed.

Fully 800 painters responded to the call of the district council to attend the meeting in the Labor Temple yesterday morning, when a strike was declared. Included were nearly 400 non-union men.

According to J. G. Merrick, secretary of the Employers' Association, it was reported at the meeting of the master painters, of which about 40 were represented, that only 185 men were on strike and 400 at work, and that so far as the Master Painters' Association is concerned, it had not been affected. "If the men want to go on strike," said Mr. Merrick, "of course it is their privilege to do so."

The mass meeting of the morning was continued in the afternoon, but since the district council, which was in session all day, was not ready to report, the meeting was adjourned till this morning at 10 o'clock. Henry Woodrow presided, and those who spoke strongly supported the demand for an increase. It is understood that some of the bosses have already signified their intention of signing the agreement.

ONTARIO PROBLEMS

It really began to look yesterday as if the soaking rains had ceased and that at last the farmers would see an improvement in their crops and the water begin to disappear, even for those who had no tiles in their fields. The story that we've told for some days now is a story that ought to give the greatest concern to the people, the legislature and the government of Ontario. It is a story of thousands of people dying off in this country by reason of consumption, fever and other preventable diseases; and of thousands and thousands of people having left our country parts in order to go to other places because of their inability to survive the struggle against nature. Our people are dying off and leaving the country not because of lack of university education, but they are dying off and leaving it because of lack of drainage, lack of good roads and traction facilities, lack of water supply, and things of that kind. We are losing quite a number because we have given them a college education! Ontario is going back in a hundred places, it may be progressing in comparatively few; it is the duty of the government, of the legislature to find out the cause. We claim progressive government, yet it is time that the legislature sit down and try to ascertain what this province is up against; why are these abandoned farms in Ontario, why do our people go to the west, why do they go to British Columbia, WHY DO THEY WANT TO LIVE IN CITIES AND LEAVE THE COUNTRY, why are they looking for something easy to do, or why are they prepared to be satisfied with a dollar when enterprise and forethought would let them get two dollars?

Traction transportation is of the greatest concern to the people of Ontario. We have been led to imagine that traction is the concern of the federal power. So it is in a way; the federal power has taken control of the steam railway, but that doesn't let the provincial legislature out of doing traction duty for its own people. The provincial government can discipline, by reason of its sovereign power, any railway under federal jurisdiction that refuses to do justice to the people. If any man knows, Sir James, Whitney and his colleagues who came from the counties along the Grand Trunk east of Toronto know, that the treatment accorded in the way of passenger rates and freight rates by the Grand Trunk to the towns and country traversed by the line has been of the most shameful kind. The highest passenger rates that prevailed in Ontario were charged on the Grand Trunk between Toronto and Kingston until one man made the fight at Ottawa and got equality of treatment.

The people down east are all clamoring for the Canadian Northern and the Canadian Pacific to make competition. We don't know that this will accomplish much, but we do know that if any province and any government of progressive men were to say that by reason of the sovereign powers vested in the province, by reason of its control of taxation, by reason of the control of the administration of the laws of this province and the laws of the Dominion, that they were in a position to compel just treatment, and would enforce just treatment, the railways would come down from their haughty perch and give better service and cheaper service and every-day-in-the-year service to the farmers and the people in these small towns.

The attorney-general of this province can make it so hot for the railways by enforcing the railway law, and the legislature itself can make it so hot for them by putting them to a just system of taxation, or making them bear what they do not now bear, their fair share of taxation, that even an overbearing man like Mr. Hays would be compelled to give better service, cheaper service and a service that will suit the farmer and suit the small town. To think that Mr. Hays can, from his office in Montreal, give a commutation service on the Grand Trunk to all the towns within forty miles of Montreal and defy the people of Ontario and refuse them a similar service of Toronto, impresses one as most arrogant and discourteous, and ought not to be submitted to by Sir James Whitney as representing this province, for one minute. Sir James Whitney would be justified in putting the matter up to Mr. Hays, saying: "If this is not cured there will be a meeting of the legislature in six weeks to settle the taxation to be imposed upon the railways in this province on more equitable lines."

But that is not all; if the Dominion has a railway policy the province ought to have a traction policy looking to the encouragement of the building of trolley lines all over this province, beginning of course in the front where there is the best basis of support. The province must be Ontario has been neglecting for years now this proposition of local traction. The private companies that want to control our traction are pretending that because they cannot get long franchises they will not build local roads. Then the provinces and municipalities must build these local roads or get them built. Ontario should not let her people succumb when she has her own resources and her own government she could get relief. We have the money or can get it.

The province must as a whole and thru its legislature become seized of the fact that the people of this province are not

N.Y. WHITE SLAVES KEPT IN THREE STOCKADES

"Specialist" Tells of His Share in the Infamous Traffic—A Regular Business Arrangement—Girls, Enticed by Women, Sold by Men.

NEW YORK, May 4.—Harry Levenson, under indictment for selling young girls into lives of shame, told the district attorney this afternoon that there are at least three "stockades" in New York, in each of which from five to ten such girls are kept ready night and day for instant delivery wherever they may be wanted.

Little effort, said Levenson, is made to recruit women from the street. The stockades are filled from the host of young girls who are unhappy at home, or who live narrow lives on their own earnings, and long for leisure, good clothes, gaiety and freedom from restraint. Well-dressed women made it a business to frequent cheap restaurants, moving picture theatres and bargain counters to single out such cases, and first winning attention with an invitation to dinner, then describe the ease and pleasure of the alternative they propose.

Confessor a Specialist. The girl delivered to the stockade, it then becomes the business of the proprietor to place his merchandise. It was in this end of the traffic Levenson told the district attorney that he was a specialist. His business was to find a house where a girl was wanted. The house paid the stockade-keeper a lump sum and allowed Levenson a ten per cent commission on the girl's earnings. He and others like him kept in touch with their charges, he said, and often transferred them from house to house. He had little to do with recruiting. That was almost wholly in the hands of women, who found it easier to get hearing.

Levenson said he began as a salesman of women's raincoats. It happened that most of his customers were inmates of respectable houses, and he learned more of the life, he dropped selling clothes and took to trading in the humanity of the women.

How He Was Trapped. He first met Geo. A. Miller, the government agent in the case, he said, about three weeks ago in a tenderloin cafe. Miller, who had been told that he was in the same line of work as a "Mrs. Miller" from the west, was introduced, who complained of the scarcity of seals. Levenson introduced two of his own, that he had picked up as a side line. Mrs. Miller looked the girl over, accepted, then, paid for them, and both were subsequently delivered in Atlantic City. Then Levenson was arrested.

There was no further word to-night of the little Hastings girls, 11 years old, who is missing, and who, it is feared, may have been murdered.

EARL GREY PROPHECIES CANADA WILL BECOME HEART OF EMPIRE

In Saying Farewell to Parliament and Senate His Excellency Speaks in Glowing Terms of This Country's Prospects.

REGRETS ARE MUTUAL AT COMING DEPARTURE

OTTAWA, May 4.—(Special).—The Parliament of Canada this afternoon assembled in the senate chamber and bade a formal farewell to-day to Earl Grey as governor-general. However, it is not likely that his excellency will return to England before next October, as he contemplates visiting the west during the coming summer.

The floor of the senate was well filled with senators, members of the house of commons, their wives and lady friends, while the galleries were also crowded. Earl Grey was evidently moved when he responded to the address from the members of parliament, which was read in English by Senator Kerr of the senate and in French by Speaker Marcell of the commons. He thanked Sir Wilfrid Laurier, R. L. Borden, Sir Richard Cartwright and Senator Loughheed for the kind sentiments expressed towards himself and his family in their speeches in parliament yesterday.

Parliament's Address. The parliamentary address read as follows: "We, his majesty's dutiful and loyal parliament assembled, beg leave to convey to your excellency an expression of the general feeling of regret with which all classes in this country have learned that your official connection with Canada is soon to cease."

"It must be a source of gratification to your excellency on your retirement, from the high office of governor-general to realize that the period of your administration has been characterized by general and increasing prosperity in every portion of the Dominion."

"The zeal with which your excellency has sought by personal observation to gain an intimate knowledge of the character, possibilities, and requirements of every section of the country has been highly appreciated by the people of Canada."

Laymen's Movement in Chicago. CHICAGO, May 4.—Two enthusiastic general meetings, with an attendance of more than 4000 each, and seven lively section conferences, marked the progress of the national laymen's missionary convention to-day. "I have had abundant opportunity, probably more abundant than has ever been vouchsafed to man, to make myself closely acquainted with the high hopes and confident beliefs of the Canadian people, and to form a more or less adequate estimate of your tremendous potentialities. When I reflect on the vastness of your area, the fertility of your soil, the unlimited wealth of your natural resources, the invigorating nature of your climate, and on the strenuous character of your people, I feel as convinced as I am that to-morrow's sun will rise that nothing can prevent you from becoming, perhaps before the close of the present century, not only the granary but the heart and soul and rudder of the empire."

"We recommend that the Toronto Street Railway adopt some appliance whereby the vestibule doors of their cars cannot be opened until the car comes to a full stop."

"Paris has sent out this year some stunning wraps for wear over spring and summer costumes. Beautiful, soft and fluffy, very light in weight, they fall gracefully over the shoulders and are extremely dainty. Muffs of feathery lightness accompany them. They are positively ultra-stylish. The Dixon Company have been fortunate enough to secure from an importer of these goods an overstock due to the duplicating of orders in France. These will be sold by the Dixon Company at a great reduction. Some splendid wraps are marked as low as four dollars, and the others run to ten, with a few special designs at twenty dollars."

INDIAN GIRL CHARGED WITH INFANTICIDE

Body of New-Born Babe Found in Telescope Vial in Her Room.

BRANTFORD, May 4.—(Special).—Lizzie Hill, an Indian girl, aged 18 years, was detained here to-day pending an investigation into a case of alleged infanticide, which was discovered this afternoon at the home of a well-to-do resident of Hawarden-avenue, this city.

Last evening the girl, who is unmarried, was engaged as a domestic and early in the evening retired to her room, complaining that she was not feeling well. In the morning she commenced her household duties and no suspicion was held by her mistress.

However, on a visit to her room later blood was discovered on the floor and the search being continued the gruesome find of a baby girl hidden in an old telescope vial, which the girl brought with her, was made. In the telescope were other evidences of the birth.

The girl admitted giving birth to the child at 9 o'clock last night, but stated that it was dead. The results of the autopsy, however, do not confirm this story. The child's neck bore marks of discoloration and it was the decided opinion of Coroner Cotton that strangulation had caused death.

MOTORMAN EXONERATED DOOR SHOULDN'T OPEN

Coroner's Jury, Enquiring Into Death of Mrs. Wilkes, Favor Appliance to Keep Vestibule Doors Shut.

"We recommend that the Toronto Street Railway adopt some appliance whereby the vestibule doors of their cars cannot be opened until the car comes to a full stop."

"The above is a rider attached to the verdict of the jury investigating the death of Mrs. Theresa Wilkes, wife of W. H. Wilkes of 28 Gibson-street, who was killed at Crescent-road and Yonge-street on April 25 at 3.25 p.m. The verdict was that death was accidental. The motorman was exonerated."

John Brown of 22 Berryman-street, the motorman, said that he saw the reflection of the two ladies in the front window when they opened the inside vestibule door. He said to them: "Wait until the car stops." Mrs. Wilkes stepped out, opened the outside door and disappeared before he finished the sentence. He applied the air-brake and showed the other woman back. "I find continually passengers stepping out into the vestibule before the car stops," he said.

David Stevenson, conductor; William A. Clarke, John Deegan, Ernest Forsythe, William Bain, Dr. Wallace A. Scott, Dr. Herbert E. Clutterbuck and Dr. F. C. Harrison also gave evidence. Dr. George W. Graham was the coroner and Crown Attorney Baird appeared for the crown.

HAMILTON HAPPENINGS

DO NOT APPROVE OF THE SUFFRAGE RESOLUTION

Hamilton Local Council of Women Instructs Delegates to National Council to Vote Against It.

HAMILTON, May 4.—(Special.)—The local council of women, at its quarterly meeting this afternoon, placed itself on record as opposed to votes for women for the time being at least, the agenda of the meeting being the suffrage resolution on suffrage.

The resolution on suffrage, which is to meet in Halifax shortly, was discussed at length, and it contained a resolution on suffrage. The local council did not think it wise to endorse the resolution, and instructed its delegates to vote against it.

There was a prolonged discussion on a paper read by Mrs. (Catherine) Sutherland on religious instruction in the schools. Mrs. Sutherland moved a resolution that the department of education be asked to set aside one hour a week for this purpose, but it was not approved.

The question was referred to a committee to investigate. The following delegates at the meeting of the national council: Mrs. Sanford, president of the local council; Lady Taylor, provincial vice-president of the national council; Mrs. McLagan, Mrs. Woolvort and Mrs. (Dr.) Lyle, Miss Harris and Miss Bennett.

The board of control, at a private meeting with the board of health, and twelve apostles gazing upward with veneration mixed with wonderment. The window, which is fifteen feet in height by eight feet in width, is illuminated by arc lights outside, giving a striking effect.

The speaker could not express all that he had to say about the work of his parish as a strong preacher and faithful pastor and shepherd of the flock. He had also been a member of the executive committee of the diocese of Toronto, and had succeeded the late Archdeacon Boddy as Archdeacon of York.

At the next meeting of the board of education applications from every school teacher in the city, and probably from the principals, for increases in salaries, will be received. Arrangements were being made for Rev. Dr. W. J. Dawson, the English evangelist, to come to Hamilton for a series of five days' services under the auspices of the Methodist Churches of this city, but this morning he wired Rev. Dr. S. A. D. from Vancouver that he would have to cancel the engagement as he was returning home to London on account of the death of his youngest child.

Acting on advice from Crown Attorney Washington, Chief Twiss of Dundas did not take Thomas Finlon, held on a charge of vagrancy, out to the valley town for a hearing, but charge this morning. He was remanded a week.

Five Hundred Dollars for Shelter. Acting on the belief that a local children's shelter would be but a branch of the provincial industrial home, the board of control this morning turned down a request of the Children's Aid Society that the city advance sufficient money to cover the cost of purchasing a house suitable for a shelter. Instead, a grant of $500 was made.

MEMORIAL IS UNVEILED TO ARCHDEACON LANGTRY

Archdeacon Cody and Rev. Hamilton Dicker Pay Tribute to the Late Rector of St. Luke's.

In the presence of a large congregation in St. Luke's Church last night Bishop Sweny dedicated a beautiful stained glass window as a memorial by the parish to the late Rev. Archdeacon John Langtry, for 25 years the rector. The services, conducted by the present rector, Rev. A. G. Hamilton Dicker, were fully choral.

The window, which overlooks the chancel, has as its subject the ascension of Christ and pictures also the twelve apostles gazing upward with veneration mixed with wonderment. The window, which is fifteen feet in height by eight feet in width, is illuminated by arc lights outside, giving a striking effect.

ZAM-BUK. At this season, scores of people, girls and women especially, find dark spots, eruptions, etc. The skin needs attention, needs renovating after the trying winter season. Just think what it has had to go through! You have been out in rain and sleet and snow. You have been perspiring from skating, or some other exertion. Then you have stood to "cool off." You have spent hours of the day indoors at a temperature equal to summer heat. Then you have covered up your skin, except your face, and gone out into a temperature away below zero! No wonder that the skin of the face and neck shows signs of needing attention. Zam-Buk is a skin food. Smear it lightly over the spots, the eruptions, the dark spots, at night, and notice how quickly your appearance improves. As the rich, refined, herbal essences sink deep into the tissue, the hard scurf-like patches are removed. The outside is softened. The cells beneath are stimulated to healthy operation. The pores resume their work properly. Better color results. The cells of the skin being purified by Zam-Buk's stimulating balm, become transparent to the proper coloring of the tissue, and the delicate bloom of health replaces the sallowness and pallor of disease. A few days of Zam-Buk treatment will transform a "muddy," speckled, splotchy complexion into one of attractiveness and prettiness. Use Zam-Buk for more serious skin troubles, such as eczema, pustules, boils, ulcers, festering sores, etc. Zam-Buk is unequalled for babies. Use Zam-Buk.

MIMICO. Corner Godfrey Opens Inquest Into Death of Little Girl. WEST TORONTO. Building Outlook for Season is Said to be Excellent. WEST TORONTO, May 4.—At the annual conference held here to-night in the High Park Methodist Church, a resolution was passed granting the use of part of their church to fraternal organizations for morning sabbath service. The adult Bible class has this last year increased 50 per cent; their balance in hand is $461, as compared with $18 two years ago, and their membership has increased by 32. The death occurred May 3 of Ross Armstrong Wilson, only child of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wilson, 158 Evelyn-avenue. The funeral will take place to-day at 10.30, to Prospect Cemetery. Evidence is not lacking that West Toronto, whilst not heaving, is enjoying a natural and strong growth of prosperity. The real estate market is good, and buildings are in process of construction on many streets. On Evelyn-avenue there are nine residences building.

"Not for Mine!"

says the wine smoker, when asked by the tobaccoist to try cigarettes of questionable merit.

There's a kind he knows is good—

Tuckett's CIGARETTES

That same insistence on purity and real value that has made Tuckett's cigars and tobaccos famous, is steadily building up a similar reputation for the Tuckett cigarette brands.

Tell the man behind the counter nothing but Tuckett's is good enough for you.

TUCKETT'S "CLUB" CIGARETTES—made from an exclusive blend of Virginia leaf.

TUCKETT'S "SPECIALS"—made from a mild Turkish leaf, rich in flavor and aroma.

TUCKETT'S "T & B" CIGARETTES—for the man who likes a full-flavored Virginia.

THURSDAY MORNING, MAY 5, 1910. NIGHT WATCH IN HOTELS AND SCHOOLS.

The World wishes to repeat what it has often said before in regard to the loss of life by fire in hotels and public and educational institutions. It is this: That no public concern, and we regard a hotel, a school, a convent, an asylum, prisons and other such buildings as coming under this class, should be allowed to go without a night watch. From many points of view it is the most economic thing any hotel or public institution can maintain. A night watch looks after the fire, does a lot of work that can be done at night, has the fire in the institution going in the morning, so that cooks and servants and others who have work to do can get at it in the first thing, and is the one thing in connection with institutions of this kind that keeps them a going concern all the time. Any hotel that has ten guests in it at night can afford to maintain one servant as a night watch. It does not cost a cent more for wages, but the night watch, whether man or woman, does some kind of work thru the night and keeps an eye on the safety of the guests and inmates, and can prevent an outbreak of fire. With such a night watch a time clock system or some other check must be maintained.

The legislature should pass an act requiring this provision at its fortifying session, and make it part of the license law as far as hotels are concerned. There are scores of hotels in this country where you have to kick at the door before 12 o'clock at night in order to get in, and people traveling along the roads at 2 or 3 in the morning can not get in at all because there does not happen to be anybody on night duty. Just one thing in connection with fire in these public institutions: The great bulk of them are of the most inflammable kind of construction, and this is especially true of educational institutions where children and women are found in large numbers, and where there is great danger of fire and loss of life. It is just as easy in convents or schools to have one of the staff of servants on duty all night as to have them on duty in the day time, with the advantage, as we pointed out above, that when someone is on duty at night the concern is kept going all the time.

SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA'S RECIPROCIETY.

To-night at Massey Hall the first of two in a series of "pop" concerts will be given by the Toronto Symphony Orchestra. This season has been the most successful since the establishment of a permanent orchestra in the city under the management of H. C. Cox. In fact, at every concert given by the band Massey Hall was crowded from ground floor to second gallery, not only by the cultured, but also by those who are usually accused of caring solely for the so-called "music of the masses."

The management of the orchestra feel so greatly the generous support given the band that they are tendering two extra concerts at the popular price of 25 cents for any seat in the house, each seat reserved, by way of returning thanks to the public. This is human reciprocity of the right kind. The Toronto Symphony Orchestra has made good. For the people have said so with cold cash and genuine appreciation.

LAND NATURALIZATION IN AUSTRALIA.

Land naturalization was one of the main planks in the platform of the Labor party who now command a majority in both houses of the Australian parliament. Its electoral manifesto was very explicit on this point, and opened by declaring that the foundation of all national greatness and prosperity must rest on some form of agricultural or pastoral pursuits. It described the conditions in the commonwealth as unnatural and as making healthy progress impossible. In Australia nearly 80 per cent. of its population of 5,000,000 live in the towns and over 50 per cent. are crowded into the six capital cities. Yet, with immense areas of fertile land within reasonable distance of these centres the creation of large estates and their constant extension, in the opinion of the party now in power, retards the development of the country and threatens its very existence.

Australia, like Canada, wants settlers on the land, and the means by which it proposes to encourage settlement and to break up large estates is a graduated tax upon unimproved land values. The Labor party undertook a tax upon a majority, to impose a tax upon estates of the unimproved value of twenty-five thousand dollars and over, without exemption in the case of absentees, beginning at a penny in the pound and rising by graduations necessary to make it effective. The manifesto concluded by the emphatic statement that to ensure the development of Australia's great resources, the speedy peopling of its vacant lands, the effective defence of the country, land monopolies must be destroyed. The electorate having decisively endorsed this policy the Laborists are in a position to carry out their pledge. It is noteworthy also that the Labor party in Australia stands for greater centralization of power in the federal parliament, an attitude very different from that it adopted against federation.

CHRISTIANITY AND BUDDHISM.

Rev. Lord William Cecil is reported to have declared while he was in Toronto the other day that Taoism and Buddhism were moribund faiths. The Toronto Globe adds that this opinion is shared by every one who has studied the spiritual life of China. Lord William is stated to have depended for his opinion on the results of a conference with a number of learned men in China. He found no real believer in either cult, and both had become subjects of mirth rather than reverence. One might point out that it would be possible to go to some very learned men in Christendom and be told by them that Christianity was a moribund faith, and it would not be impossible to hear some humorous remarks from them about Jonah and Balaam and Lot's wife and other birth-provoking figures of the Christian cult. But Christianity would be very far from moribund for all that, and for even a great deal more. One might go to men of the intellectual eminence of Dr. Goldwin Smith, and hear things quite as derogatory to Christianity as Lord William Cecil did about Buddhism or Taoism, and still the impression that would be left would be an utterly wrong one.

The truth is that western prejudice and bigotry has blinded Europe and America to the real nature of the religions of the east. In the last thirty years these religions have had a vastly greater modifying influence upon Christianity than all the missionary effort of the west has had upon India, or China, or Persia. The flight of the Dalai Lama from Lhasa which The Globe instances as evidence of the disintegration of Buddhism, has about as much bearing upon such an issue as the confinement of his holiness to the precincts of the Vatican has upon the decay of Christianity.

The fact is that we know very little about the practical religion of the east. The innate reverence of Buddhists and others for their holy things does not lead them willingly to display their faith to unsympathetic hearers, who are waiting, not to find points of agreement, but for an opportunity to find fault and subjects for mirth. There here agreement is found an ordinary explanation has been given by theologians that the devil suggested to the poor heathen these aspects of their religion, so as to forestall Christianity, and prevent them accepting the true religion when it came.

Lord William Cecil and other orthodox scholars are somewhat handicapped in the study of the eastern faiths by their preconceptions, but Christendom, with the help of a more eclectic scholarship, is getting over this difficulty. The author of "The Creed of Christ" and "The Creed of Buddha," has opened another window in the wall between east and west, and a perusal of the latter book, especially, will show how far Lord William and those who share his opinions have missed the spirit of Buddhism. One can hear any day in Toronto scholars who declare that Nirvana means annihilation. That is almost occasion for mirth among those who know better.

The last word from the missionaries of the missionary band declare that they find the best policy they can adopt is to try to help the natives to practice their own religion better, and to live up to the high standards the eastern religions contain, rather than to deprive them of what they have with faith in a system which has permitted drunkenness, licentiousness and dishonesty.

The Buddhist commandments for women, which all devout Buddhists observe faithfully, are five in number, and forbid the taking of life, unchastity, theft, lying, and the use of intoxicating liquors. When all Christians observe these commandments for the sake of the Lord Christ as faithfully as the eastern do for the sake of the Lord Buddha, Christendom may point the finger of depreciation at the east.

as prosperous as they ought to be; also many of our people are leaving and it is the duty of the government to find out what the reason is; and The World is confident that when the investigation is made it will be found that a policy of cheap traction, a policy of the distribution of electric power, and a policy of a policy of good local roads and good main roads, a policy that encourages draining of the farms and a policy that puts public health above university education and things of that kind will be the policy that will effect improvement.

It is also a lamentable fact that ever since the Ross government went out of power we have had an opposition that has been shiftless, worthless and without any policy other than that of being chloroformed by traction and electric interests. It is a shame that the liberals of this province should have nothing to say about what ought to be done to make easier the struggle against nature that is so fierce for so many of our people.

Watch the people of Ontario and you will soon see that they are separated into four classes: those who are efficient, who are in the fighting line and progressive; a second class which has stopped down one end and not at all like those of the first class as far as energy is concerned; the third class of inefficient, fall-down, physically unsound, mentally weak and rapidly approaching the degenerate class; fourth and last, absolute degenerates who are living and dying on the community. These four classes are spread out over three or four generations and it is a surprise and a confession to have to make that so many of our people are stepping down rather than stepping up.

Ontario's Problems.

- 1. Widespread drainage and better farming. 2. Local traction, better roads, steam railways made to give real local service. 3. Distribution of electrical energy all over province. 4. Public hygiene and better water supply.

THE TOMORROWS OF ELECTRICITY AND INVENTION.

Thomas A. Edison in the June issue of "Popular Electricity" says: "Chances for a successful career in the electrical field are better than ever before. Electrical inventions are not all made by any means. Electricity is the only thing that has become cheaper in the last few years. We shall have $50,000,000,000 of money in the electrical service in 1925 and five times as many persons will not be employed in electricity as now.

"There is absolutely no reason why horses should be allowed within the city limits, for between the gasoline and electric car, no room is left for them. A higher public ideal of health and cleanliness is working toward such baseness swiftly; then we shall have decayed streets instead of stables made of cobblestones bordered by sidewalks.

"I believe a family could live the year-around without using anything but electric power. What is needed is to carry that a step further and devise automatic stores where the distributing cost is brought down to a minimum on land underlaid with a few electro-magnets controlling chutes and hoppers and the thing is done. "Homes and rents are much too high. If I could do it, I would have the cheap and most durable building material man has ever had. A brick, could be erected complete with plumbing and heating apparatus for $1200 each and would last for a hundred years. In such a house would cost $50,000."

CHARGED WITH CONTEMPT

Bank Manager Refused to Appear Before Waterways Commission.

WINNIPEG, May 4.—The Alberta Commission this morning authorized I. P. Whittier, K.C., to take action against T. R. Whittier, manager of the Royal Bank, for contempt of court. Whittier was called and refused to attend. In answer he sent a letter which said that he had been advised by the commission that he had no power to serve a subpoena and that he was under the circumstances unable to give evidence in regard to his bank.

Mr. McMahon, superintendent of the western branches of the Traders' Bank, this morning, has been approached by Minty to act as a director, and answered he would be delighted if he were sent the real thing. This Minty however is not the man who has been mentioned in the papers. McMahon said he had known Clarke for five years and that he was a brilliant young promoter with plenty of hot air. He was amazed that an American promoter and a bunch of Tories should so successfully go against a Grit government.

It is expected that the commission will sit in Toronto on Monday.

It is also a lamentable fact that ever since the Ross government went out of power we have had an opposition that has been shiftless, worthless and without any policy other than that of being chloroformed by traction and electric interests. It is a shame that the liberals of this province should have nothing to say about what ought to be done to make easier the struggle against nature that is so fierce for so many of our people.

Watch the people of Ontario and you will soon see that they are separated into four classes: those who are efficient, who are in the fighting line and progressive; a second class which has stopped down one end and not at all like those of the first class as far as energy is concerned; the third class of inefficient, fall-down, physically unsound, mentally weak and rapidly approaching the degenerate class; fourth and last, absolute degenerates who are living and dying on the community. These four classes are spread out over three or four generations and it is a surprise and a confession to have to make that so many of our people are stepping down rather than stepping up.

Ontario's Problems.

- 1. Widespread drainage and better farming. 2. Local traction, better roads, steam railways made to give real local service. 3. Distribution of electrical energy all over province. 4. Public hygiene and better water supply.

THE TOMORROWS OF ELECTRICITY AND INVENTION.

Thomas A. Edison in the June issue of "Popular Electricity" says: "Chances for a successful career in the electrical field are better than ever before. Electrical inventions are not all made by any means. Electricity is the only thing that has become cheaper in the last few years. We shall have $50,000,000,000 of money in the electrical service in 1925 and five times as many persons will not be employed in electricity as now.

"There is absolutely no reason why horses should be allowed within the city limits, for between the gasoline and electric car, no room is left for them. A higher public ideal of health and cleanliness is working toward such baseness swiftly; then we shall have decayed streets instead of stables made of cobblestones bordered by sidewalks.

"I believe a family could live the year-around without using anything but electric power. What is needed is to carry that a step further and devise automatic stores where the distributing cost is brought down to a minimum on land underlaid with a few electro-magnets controlling chutes and hoppers and the thing is done. "Homes and rents are much too high. If I could do it, I would have the cheap and most durable building material man has ever had. A brick, could be erected complete with plumbing and heating apparatus for $1200 each and would last for a hundred years. In such a house would cost $50,000."

Bank Manager Refused to Appear Before Waterways Commission.

WINNIPEG, May 4.—The Alberta Commission this morning authorized I. P. Whittier, K.C., to take action against T. R. Whittier, manager of the Royal Bank, for contempt of court. Whittier was called and refused to attend. In answer he sent a letter which said that he had been advised by the commission that he had no power to serve a subpoena and that he was under the circumstances unable to give evidence in regard to his bank.

Mr. McMahon, superintendent of the western branches of the Traders' Bank, this morning, has been approached by Minty to act as a director, and answered he would be delighted if he were sent the real thing. This Minty however is not the man who has been mentioned in the papers. McMahon said he had known Clarke for five years and that he was a brilliant young promoter with plenty of hot air. He was amazed that an American promoter and a bunch of Tories should so successfully go against a Grit government.

It is expected that the commission will sit in Toronto on Monday.

CITY MEETS OBSTACLES IN FRUIT MARKET PLANS

Growers and Wholesalers Not United The Mostly Favorable—Grand Trunk Makes Threat

The possibility that the city will establish a fruit market was not noticeably increased as a result of the conference of Controller Foster's special committee with representative growers and wholesale men yesterday. While the majority of the growers and wholesalers favored the project, the market cannot be located south of the esplanade tracks, which ruled out Bayview Park as a site, and the other that the Grand Trunk would compete with the market by continuing to offer free accommodation.

W. H. Bunting of St. Catharines, president of the Niagara Fruit Growers' Association, said the present market was insufficient altho the market had been improved within the past two years. He would prefer to have the city say what should be done.

A stronger stand was taken by W. C. McCalla, also of St. Catharines, who declared that the present market was altogether unworthy of the present fruit business, and of its prospects for development. A good market would advance Toronto, McCalla had no fault to find with the Grand Trunk service.

Market "Dirty and Filthy." H. St. C. Fisher of Queenston, another prominent grower, declared that it was injurious to the trade to have the market owned by one railway which could deny access to others. He knew of many other growers who were dissatisfied. The market was a "dirty, filthy place."

J. W. Smith, Winona, declared that the importance of Toronto as a fruit centre warranted it in having the best market in Canada. What was wanted was a big, roomy place where the buyers could see the consignments of fruit displayed together. The people of Toronto were willing to take the best fruit and good prices for it.

H. L. Roberts, a Grimsby grower, was less enthusiastic. The essential things in the fruit business, he said, was to have the product marketed as quickly as possible, and in making any change it should be seen that despatch in handling would not be interfered with. He feared that if the wholesaler men paid rentals the cost would be charged up to the consumer.

H. T. Foster, Burlington, favored a new market. Better accommodation would mean more buyers and a stimulus to trade.

Wholesalers at Odds. When the wholesaler commission men had their say, it became evident that there was division in the ranks. White and Co. sent a letter intimating that they wished no fruit shown over their premises. Better accommodation would mean more buyers and a stimulus to trade.

Harry Thorpe of McWilliam and Everist said that if the city spent $25,000 or $30,000 on a market, it would expect to derive revenue from the wholesalers who now paid nothing for their use of the Grand Trunk market. His company would be satisfied.

Replying to Ald. Hamby's query, he denied that the company received any special favors.

Thomas Vance, Charles Kilmington, H. J. Ash, and others spoke in warm advocacy of a city market. Mr. Vance asserted that the lack of room led to serious injury to fruit shown over-crowding, but that the firms which opposed the move were favored with plenty of accommodation. Mr. Kilmington and Mr. Ash suggested that the city should provide a market, stating that it was extremely difficult to get such accommodation near the market.

Edward Clemes said his firm would like to know the cost of the market and how it would affect the trade, as they had a large amount invested in their present premises.

Must Be North of Tracks. Commissioner Harris stated that the idea of locating the market south of the Esplanade tracks would have to be abandoned, as the city would never allow tracks to cross Lake-street. This would mean that the market could not be reached directly by boats, but as 75 per cent. of the fruit came in by railway, this was not an important consideration. Another reason why the market should be north of the tracks was that the radial railways, which were destined to bring in the bulk of the fruit, would not be allowed by the railway commission to cross the steam tracks on the level.

Mr. Macdonald, divisional freight agent of the Grand Trunk, said if the market was unsatisfactory, as alleged, the civic authorities should take action. The charges that any wholesaler got preferential treatment were absolutely unfounded.

Ald. Hamby, who has been reading reports of railway investigations in the United States, asked whether the companies received rebates to the city.

"Absolutely, no. They do not," returned the official, with indignant emphasis.

Grand Trunk's Threat. After the visitors had gone, the committee decided to go slowly about making a recommendation. Controller Foster suggested that a portion of St. Lawrence market might be utilized, but Commissioner Harris said this would involve moving the butchers, who were already crowded, to the north section, which offered even less room. He pointed out that the fruit men were not a unit for the new market and said it had to be made plain to him frankly that if the city erected a market, the railway to retain control of the fruit trade would also erect one and would give free accommodation.

No Rebate on Coal. City Solicitor Johnston reported to the board of control against allowing any rebate to the Milne Coal Co., which was under contract to the city last year to supply 18,000 tons of coal, "more or less," at a fixed price. The city called for 20,000 tons, and owing to the strike at the mines, the company claimed to have lost money on the extra 2,000 tons.

Dr. B. Orr, president of the Sixth Ward Conservative Association, mentioned as the latest candidate for the position of medical health officer. With Controller Church alone objecting, the board approved of the re-

BELLEVILLE, May 4.—The Canadian Mute, published at the institution for the deaf, near this city, has an editorial reference to the survey of the Canadian Northern Railway, which it strongly objects to. The survey, the Canadian Mute says, runs only about ten rods in rear of the main building of the institution. ### The Waterways of Which Fort George is the centre, have a tremendous significance. All over the continent business men are putting forth every effort to utilize the natural waterways for transportation.

Writing in The New York World of November 7, 1909, P. A. O'Farrell said of British Columbia: "The energy of 25,000,000 horses runs to waste in its mighty rivers. Its internal water highways can be formed into the most wonderful system of waterways and power developers."

The Hub

of this magnificent water system is Fort George. Take a map of British Columbia. Locate Fort George, approximately at the centre, at the junction of the Nechaco and Fraser rivers.

Flowing south is the Fraser, joined lower down by the Blackwater River. Reaching to the west are the Nechaco and Fraser Lake. To the northwest are the Stuart River, Stuart Lake and Tada Lake. To the southeast is the south branch of the Fraser; to the east the north branch of the Fraser; to the northeast is the Salmon River, and across a short portage the thousand-mile systems of the Parpan, the Findlay, and the Peace.

A Thousand Miles

of waters now known to be navigable converge from Fort George, and on every trip navigators are making greater distances than on the preceding one. THREE LINES OF STEAMBOATS ARE ALREADY OPERATING FROM FORT GEORGE.

This great water system ranks the richest agricultural, mining and timber country in the world.

There are some 50,000,000 acres of unutilized soil, much of it open, to which settlers are flocking by the thousand.

This country was the scene of the most profitable placer mining of the early days, and only needs the coming of the railway to electrify into activity not only the gold, but also the coal, copper, silver and other potential mining industries of this fabulously rich empire.

The largest undeveloped timber areas of the Province of British Columbia are in this inland empire. Lumbering, too, only awaits railway transportation that will give it a market both at home and abroad.

The Hudson's Bay Co.

located Fort George as the commercial centre of this great region two hundred years ago, just as they did in the case of Winnipeg, Calgary and Edmonton in their respective districts. The logic of facts to-day shows that they looked far into the future.

The Fort George of to-day, of to-morrow, and of all the future, by reason of its command of the waterways, also dominates the railway situation. The railways must follow the river valleys, and must therefore come into Fort George.

It has the advantages of both rail and water transportation. By virtue of this it becomes the commercial centre; the depot for the inland empire's products, the distributing centre for its supplies, the manufacturing centre and the metropolis.

Ask us to send you our paper, "A Bulletin of Facts." Write or call to-day.

WILL HOLD LICENSES DOWN

Government Curtail Distribution of Liquor in Timiskaming District.

A "stand pat" policy is being observed by the government in regard to the granting of licenses in Timiskaming district.

Notwithstanding the virtual recommendation of the license board, Provincial Secretary Hays yesterday announced that it had not been entirely agreed to.

The granting of a license to Kelly at Haliburton, said Mr. Hanna, "is a legal impossibility for the reason that the application is for non-existing premises which the courts have held cannot be granted. I have been unable to concur in the proposition for a shop license for Haliburton. The applicants are very decent men, and I have no doubt they would run a shop as well as any other applicant. But this is necessary in order to curtail, as far as possible, distribution from Haliburton. In view of the many prospecting parties starting from there, it was thought not well to facilitate distribution."

With regard to the Englehart and Haliburton licenses, Mr. Hanna said they would veto the latter, but would grant a license to Kennedy at Englehart, which is really a transfer of the Tomstown license. It is pointed out in this case that the commissioners are not putting a license into an unlicensed territory, but are rather making the Tomstown territory unlicensed, and the present hotel at Englehart is not big enough to meet the public demand.

COBALT—Mining Shares Active, But Rallies Are Limited ---COBALT

Cobalt Market More Active But Price Changes Are Small

More Activity on the Mining Exchanges and Price Improvement Follows the Increased Buying Demand.

World Office, Wednesday Evening, May 4.

There was a much larger business in the minor mining securities to-day, brought about largely by the incoming public, who regard many of the Cobalt securities at low levels at present prices.

The one bull movement in the market was in Rochester, which advanced from the opening quotation of 19 1/2 to 19 3/4 at the closing, being 30 per cent of considerable interest, although changes in the stock price did not accord with the volume of trade in this security.

On the average most of the mining shares ranged fractionally higher for the day, but there was sufficient stock offering in the market to prevent any further advances, and the fractional rallies at the close were considered to be nothing more than a spasmodic movement on the part of those who are heavily interested.

In the higher priced dividend payers a rally of small dimensions developed, but it was observed in the case of Crown Reserve, Nipissing and 2000 Bars that stock was on offer at every advance.

The Cobalt market to-day was helped by the improvement in sentiment in the minor exchanges, but otherwise this there was nothing to influence sentiment in consideration of higher prices.

Silver Market.

Pliley and Abell's circular of April 27 says: The transactions in silver continue to be large, but as the business has not been so well distributed, less general attention has perhaps been paid to it. The buying has been fairly important and is attributed to Indian speculation as well as to continental orders, but the influence on prices has been small as China has been a ready seller. The market is being supplied out of the last steamer from England and also out of the silver in bond, which is now reduced to 2000 bars. The rupee in the currency department are down 37 cents on the week.

China exchanges are still well below parity and so long as this continues cannot be looked for, but the margin is only large enough to admit of the shipment of bars and is not likely to be present in this margin to narrow.

One Car Shipped, Another Ready.

Black and white ore, weighing 60,350 pounds, left the Beaver on Tuesday for the Detroit-Smelting Co., and a car of second grade ore is also practically ready for shipment to the same smelter. The ore bodies in the mine are being rapidly worked, and further shipments will be forthcoming at short intervals.

PORCUPINE MAKING GOOD.

Porcupine gives every sign of making good. Half a dozen groups of Canadian, British and American capitalists are doing development on claims in this gold camp. They are satisfied with what they have found so far, and declare that if the good results continue Porcupine will be a great gold camp.

Among others interested in Porcupine in a large way are: John McMartin and the Timmins brothers, the McArthur brothers of Scotland, J. B. O'Brien and J. Foley, the International Nickel Company and President Denison of the Buffalo Cobalt Mine, J. A. Jacobs, A. M. Bilyk and D. M. Steindler of Nova Scotia, Peterson Lake and Kerr Lake affiliates.

Porcupine claims have been active. One Toronto broker reports that he has already handled $180,000 in Porcupine claims.

LITTLE NIPISSING VEIN SHOWS GOOD VALUE.

Strike Looking Better Than When First Made—Samples Very Rich.

COBALT, May 4.—The new strike on the Little Nipissing is proving richer and stronger each day. The company have at the office of the company this week and the report as to the richness has not in any way been exaggerated, in fact, the samples were even richer than was at first reported, some of the ore running over 11,000 ounces to the ton.

The vein itself, from which these samples were taken, varies in width from 4 to 12 inches, and on each side the wall rock is heavily shot with silver, giving the company on this vein alone a pay streak of about 38 inches.

THE BONE OF CONTENTION.

The reasons for the attempt to displace the present directors of the Beaver Mining Co. are not quite intelligible to the shareholders of the company, although several letters have been sent out by the opponents of the present management.

The one prominent bone of contention seems to be that the managing director has not seen fit to appoint an expensive mining engineer, and one to the liking of a minority of the directors.

If there was no ulterior purpose in trying to get such an appointment made, it may be hard to prove that the mine has suffered. As a matter of fact the progress of the property to a real shipper would tend to confirm the general opinion that the management, while inexpensive, has been thoroughly efficient and that the shareholders funds have been carefully handled.

The annual meeting of the company will be held on Friday and President Culver says he is satisfied to put the facts before the shareholders and he feels confident that he will be more than sustained in the line of action he has carried out in the development of the company's property.

CHARTER-MONGERS

OTTAWA, May 4.—(Special.)—In the report to-day, on motion by Senator Power to discharge Senator Davis' bill for the incorporation of railway companies by the secretary of state after investigation by the railway commission, instead of the present system of incorporation by parliament, Senator Casgrain said he had previously brought in a bill to the same effect, believing that the charter-mongers should be done away with.

Senator Watson said that, owing to the policy of parliament adopting the plan of granting practically every application for a railway charter, these charters had lost any official value, and the charter-monger had disappeared.

Sir Mackenzie Bowell declared that the present plan involved useless waste of time, because practically no roads were built by these small promoters. They either disposed of their rights to big companies, or, having made some progress, the enterprises were taken over by the big companies.

While writing on his examinations at the Ontario College of Pharmacy yesterday, Albert James of Dorchester, Ont., received a telegram telling him that his mother had died suddenly. He left for home, and a special examination will be granted him next week by the board of the school.

Is Accepted Now.

SIX BUTCHERS CLOSE UP FOR SUMMER MONTHS

Present Margin of Profit is Not Sufficient For Them to Risk the Losses Hot Weather Entails.

High prices have put six butchers out of business, and the prospects are that the hot weather will result in a great many more of them closing up shop. As it is now the prospect is that a large number of shops are either losing money or merely holding their own.

When the heat arrives, with the consequent spoiling of some of the meat all profit will be eliminated and losses will result. Several butchers have decided to close their shops for the summer months. Some will probably be forced to re-open. As prices are now, there is no money in meat, but the margin is plenty high enough for the people, but are not high enough for the retailer to ask and get good prices, but the margin is not high enough for the retailer to ask and get good prices, but the margin is not high enough for the retailer to ask and get good prices.
