Germans Preparing for Desperate Resistance

Additional Defences Along Hindenburg Line

General Debeny's Men Already in Contact With New System But Continue to Advance--Making Progress South of St. Quentin--Violent Efforts of Enemy Prove of No Avail--Desperate Hand-to-Hand Fighting by Gas-Masked Troops

With the French Army in France, Sept. 22--(By the Associated Press)--General Debeny's troops continued to advance toward the La Fere road, south of St. Quentin today. They reached La Bay, the Capone and Lemoutin farms the Vandeuil Forest, which is only 1,000 yards from the road and about a mile from the Oise River.

As the French draw nearer the Hindenburg line around St. Quentin, the Germans multiply their efforts to keep them from it. North of the Somme they are organizing a defensive system on the line of heights which runs parallel to the Hindenburg positions from east of Holnon to Hill 123, south of Holnon and thence through Hill 138, east of Savy Wood, to the Dallon Heights, on the front Ham to St. Quentin.

This line is being feverishly fortified against tanks with mine fields. All eastern slopes of these heights are utilized to shelter troops which appear quite dense there. A system of communicating trenches has been dug to permit their circulation and the bringing up of supplies.

General Debeny's men are now in contact with this line of resistance and continue to advance, notwithstanding the formidable fortifications and the active resistance of the enemy's infantry.

German forces in this region, according to evidence worthy of credit, do not take to the commission acts of desecration in preparing traps for French soldiers, taking in Christian cemetery was thrown to the ground and connected by wire a detonating device that caused the explosion of a grenade when a soldier tried to lift it.

FINLAND OPENS HER DOORS TO THE REFUGEES

But Asks Neighbors To Help in Good Work

ARRANGING EXCHANGE

Russian Peoples' Commissary at Valogda Urges Ruthless Persecution of British, French and Americans--Japan's Position Stated

Helingsfors, Finland, Sept. 22--(By the Associated Press)--"In view of the condition of anarchy and murder at Petrograd and the defenceless situation of a great part of the population," says an official statement issued here, "Finland's government feels that purely humanitarian grounds it cannot refuse to permit Russian, English, American and Italian refugees to come to Finland."

The Finnish government, however, the statement says, is compelled by the scarcity of provisions to beg the three Scandinavian countries--Norway, Sweden and Denmark--to help in harboring a portion of the refugees.

London, Sept. 22--It is understood in official circles here that arrangements are progressing for the mutual repatriation of British subjects in Russia and Russians in Great Britain. Information is said to have been received from M. Tchaketeria, Russian foreign minister, which leads to the belief that British subjects will be got out of Russia safely.

Amsterdam, Sept. 22--The Russian peoples' commissary at Valogda, according to the Petrograd correspondent of the Hamburg Nachrichten, has urged on the people of the entire Volga province the most ruthless persecution of British subjects and French and American citizens.

Rioting against Entente nationals has taken place in various towns, the correspondent says, and some Frenchmen and Americans are being murdered.

Archangel, Sept. 11--(By the Associated Press)--Colonel Tchepkin, leader of the recent attempt to overturn the provisional government headed by M. Tchaketeria in northwestern Russia, has resigned as commander of the Russian forces and has been succeeded by Colonel Ivanoff.

The labor disputes in Archangel are being rapidly settled.

Harbin, Sept. 19--(By the Associated Press)--A proclamation has been issued by the Japanese saying that only because of its friendly feeling for Russia and a desire to gain, Japan wishes to help restore order here.

Hun Idea of Proper Plan for League of Nations

Undisturbed Possession of Territory and Colonies and Division of Surplus of Raw Materials Seem to Be Vital Points

Amsterdam, Sept. 23--A draft of a constitution for a league of nations, worked out in detail by Mathias Erbenberger, clerical member of the German Reichstag, is published in the Vossische Zeitung of Berlin. It is taken from a book entitled "The League of Nations--The Way to Peace," which Erbenberger will publish soon.

The first section of this constitution, dealing with the organization of such a league, says: "Any sovereign state can enter the league, which shall be considered to have been formed when the following powers are among those who have announced adherence: Germany, Great Britain, France, the United States and Russia."

The Hague would be the seat of the league and there the international bureau would conduct its business. Each state, with the approval of its parliament, would appoint one delegate.

The international bureau would be controlled by a permanent administrative council consisting of the representatives of the United States, France, Great Britain, Germany, Italy, Japan, and Russia.

London, Sept. 23--Serbian troops have cut the main railway line between Utsuk and Salomik and are on the western bank of the Vardar River, according to the Serbian official statement of Sunday.

West of the Vardar the Serbians have cut the railway line to Pripic which is the main line of German communication in this region.

Serbian infantry units are now in the mountainous regions and advanced 24 miles in one day. The number of prisoners and the amount of war material captured increases daily.

The neighboring German and Bulgarian sectors are now sending the loss of their communication lines. Enemy reinforcements have been forced to retreat.

SMASHING BLOW TO TURKS IN PALESTINE

Enemy Retreating Fast as Legs Will Carry Them

Capture of 18,000 Prisoners Means Virtual Annihilation of Ottoman Forces in This Region--Details Received Confirm Completeness of Surprise and Magnitude of Success by General Allenby's Forces

London, Sept. 23--(By British Wireless Service)--Further information received concerning the dramatic advance of the British army in Palestine, begun during the night of Sept. 19, serves to confirm the completeness of the surprise and the magnitude of the success. A special correspondent at General Allenby's headquarters wires:

"The victory is much more important than the number of prisoners at present reported indicates, for the Turk has had a smashing blow, retiring into the hills as fast as his weary legs will permit. The British are pressing him with splendid energy, delivering overpowering blows in every attempt to resist."

"The situation is most promising." General Allenby's forces in Palestine have taken 18,000 Turkish prisoners and have captured 120 guns. This means the virtual annihilation of the Ottoman forces in this region.

With the British army in Palestine, Sept. 23--(Reuter's)--One incident showed the nature of the surprise attack made by the British.

A staff car with Turkish officers, in turning a corner in one town, met a British armored car, and all the Turks were captured.

The roads converging at Nabulus and beyond are jammed with retreating transports and fugitive troops, affording easy targets for our airmen, who are raiding them with bombs with terrible effect, and are also machine-gunning the roads and doing great execution.

ALLANBY'S VICTORY MEANS LIBERATION OF THE HOLY-LAND FROM TURKS; MOST COMPLETE SUCCESS OF THE WAR

London, Sept. 23--(Canadian Press despatch from Reuter's, Limited)--The victory of General Allenby is hailed as a model in conception and execution. It is the most complete of any hitherto attained by the Allies in any theatre. General Allenby's consummate use of cavalry is especially praised by military critics here.

The immediate effect of the victory is the liberation of the Holy Land, for it is anticipated that General Allenby will have little difficulty in entirely clearing Northern Palestine and be able to relieve his communications by establishing a sea base at Haifa, whence the railway runs to Beisan and Damascus. Thus, French forces in Palestine.

The Turkish disaster is bound to have the most profound reaction in Constantinople and Sofia and compromise the situation of the Turks in Mesopotamia. It will likely terminate the Turkish adventures in Persia and the Caucasus.

"CRISIS" IN GERMANY MERELY A STRATAGEM

Body of Sailor Washed Ashore

London, Sept. 23--Although reports of a German political crisis arising from the supposed movement for parliamentarization of the government are printed at greater or less length in the papers here and the situation is watched with mild interest for any possibilities it may contain, the whole thing is mostly regarded as merely an integral part of the German "peace offensive."

It is recalled that the reassembling of the Reichstag has frequently since the war broke out been preceded by an outbreak of excited talking in German political circles. This has created a temporary "thunder" atmosphere, during which some revolutionary bomb has been predicted, but which has never fallen.

The Telegraph discussing the rumors, says that this is the eighth political "crisis" in the course of the war and adds: "All of them have left things very much as they were before."

The papers generally ignore reports editorially that the view widely taken is expressed by the Graphic, which describes the discussion now filling German papers as a stratagem to lure the Allies into making peace by depicting Germany as a democracy.

Amsterdam, Sept. 23--Three hundred and eighty-two persons have been killed and many others injured in an explosion in an ammunition factory at Woollersdorf, near the Austrian capital, according to the Vienna newspapers. Fire broke out in the powder room and the terrific heat quickly overcame those in the flame-wrapped building. The victims were mostly girls.

SERBIANS ON WESTERN BANK OF VARDAR RIVER

Have Cut Main Railway Line of German Communication--Advanced Twenty-five Miles in One Day--Enemy Reinforcements Retreat

London, Sept. 23--Serbian troops have cut the main railway line between Utsuk and Salomik and are on the western bank of the Vardar River, according to the Serbian official statement of Sunday.

West of the Vardar the Serbians have cut the railway line to Pripic which is the main line of German communication in this region.

Serbian infantry units are now in the mountainous regions and advanced 24 miles in one day. The number of prisoners and the amount of war material captured increases daily.

The neighboring German and Bulgarian sectors are now sending the loss of their communication lines. Enemy reinforcements have been forced to retreat.

Since Sept. 19 the Serbians have advanced forty miles.

Paris, Sept. 22--The official statement issued tonight reads: "Eastern theatre, Sept. 21--During the day of Sept. 21 the French and Serbian armies have broken across the Massif de Drachevishko. Serious resistance is being offered by Bulgarian rear guards reinforced by German troops."

"Allied troops have progressed to the north of Vezurel and Kavadar and reached the Vardar in the direction of Negotin and Domirkapu."

"The enemy has destroyed much property near Gradsko and in the region of the Vardar and Lake Doiran and where he has burned railway depots, munition parks and aviation supplies. The number of prisoners and cannon captured has not been ascertained. Serbian troops have taken one group of mountain artillery complete and one battery of 105's."

"Aviation forces continue to harass the retreating columns of the enemy."

"On the eastern side of the Cerma bend the region the enemy has begun to retreat and Allied troops have taken Chianiste and Drie."

"In the region north and northeast of the Derna Massif French and Greek troops continue to progress with the Serbian armies."

BUYING WAS SPIRITED

New York, Sept. 23--(Wall Street)--The strength exhibited in the closing transactions last week was in evidence again at the opening of the stock market today. Buying was spirited in spots with a large demand for the oils and United States Steel, the latter being purchased in lots ranging up to $200,000 shares. Most of the well known issues ruled at gains of half to one point, with increased absorption of the investment railroads.

NEUCERA MUST HANG. Ottawa, Sept. 23--The government has declined to intervene in the death sentence passed on Jos. Neucera, found guilty of murder. Neucera is to be hanged at Montreal on September 27.

WILLING TO LET CITIZENS SETTLE IT

Commissioner McLellan Welcomes Recall Plan

MR. HILYARD RETRACTS

Police Situation Discussed By The Council--No Change and Union Men Say They Will Proceed With Recall

Contrary to expectations there was no labor delegation present at a meeting of the council this morning. After transacting some business a discussion regarding the situation was indulged in and both Commissioner Hilyard and Commissioner McLellan made statements. The latter said that he would not recede one-sixteenth of an inch from the stand he had taken in the matter and said that he favored a recall as it would be a means of securing a decision from the citizens. He also produced a telegram saying that the minister of labor was not in favor of police organizations affiliating with labor unions.

Commissioner Hilyard said that his remarks regarding German money being behind strike movements had been meant in a general way. He said he was not aware that there were returned soldiers on the police force and that if they considered his remarks applied to them he would retract his statement and apologize to the matter today.

At the meeting this morning Mayor Hayes said that he had given authority to Captain Blanchard on Saturday, in the absence from the city of the commissioner of public safety, to place contractors at work this morning making alterations and repairs to the exhibition building for the housing of troops during the winter months. He explained that they were anxious to get the work underway and he felt that no obstacle should be put in their way.

Commissioner McLellan, who was present at the meeting, said that he would look after the matter today.

PRESENTATION TO LT.-COL. POWELL

The esteem in which Lieutenant-Colonel A. H. Powell is held in the city was evidenced this afternoon when the citizens' reception committee for soldiers assembled at the LaTour Apartments and made his presentation.

There were present His Worship Mayor Hayes, Commissioners Fisher and McLellan, A. O. Skinner, Colonel Sturdee, Captain Mulcahy, S. H. Hayes, Collector Lockhart, E. L. Rising, R. E. Armstrong, Major S. S. Wetmore of headquarters staff, and Major Heron, staff officer. The presentation was made by His Worship Mayor Hayes. The mayor was very brief in his remarks but to the point.

His remarks were very eulogistic in reference to the colonel and on behalf of the citizens of St. John he wished him good fortune for the future and trusted that when he returned from the battle line he would become a resident of the city. The citizens, he felt sure, as well as the military authorities, appreciated Colonel Powell's citizenship while he was in the city, and they would all follow him overseas in his new duties with the deepest of interest and join in the hope that he would return safely to his native land while not a native of New Brunswick, he felt sure that Colonel Powell's departure would be as keenly regretted as though he were.

The article presented to Colonel Powell was a military toilet set. The case was of black leather and contained all the main toilet articles that would be required by a military officer. Following the presentation, A. O. Skinner, mayor, said a few words relative to Colonel Powell's keen interest in the welfare of the soldiers and in those societies which are constantly working for his khaki-clad boys.

BIG MONEY IN CLAMS
Iowans Get $50 a Ton for Shells to Be Made Into Buttons.

Clamming along the Cedar has developed into quite a paying industry in the last few years. It was not so many years ago that the sorted shells were worth only about $16 a ton, but the price has steadily advanced until now they are worth $50 a ton. Several carloads have been shipped from Nashua this summer. A recent issue of the Charles City Press contained the following article on the industry:

"A carload of mussel shells shipped from here yesterday brought the highest price ($50 a ton) ever received for clam shells, although the Cedar River in this vicinity has for a number of years furnished a large amount of shells for the button factories of Iowa and the east."

"The shells shipped yesterday were 'run of the river' ones, and only two years ago all shells shipped had to be carefully culled as to kinds and sizes. A very few years ago they were only $16 a ton and were culled. The lowest they have ever been was about eight cents a hundred, and just before this they had reached their highest point at $18 to $20 a ton."

"Many valuable pearls used to be found in the mussel shells in the Cedar River in this vicinity, especially by the 'pearlers' at Nashua, but in the carload shipped yesterday from here not one pearl of value had been found, although there were a few good slugs."

"The finest pearl found in the Cedar at Nashua was sold for $1,000 and weighed thirty-eight grains. When conditions are favorable the clam shell workers can 'clean out' a bed of several hundred clams in a day and even a ton in three days' time. The season lasts until late in the fall."

"There are more than 200 species of fresh water mussels in the United States and a large majority of them yield pearls of greater or less value. The finest pearls in the Cedar River have been found in the mucket shells. The 'blue point' shells always have colored pearls."

"In 1890 there was not a single fresh water pearl button factory in the United States, and in 1900 it was the second most important branch of the button industry in the United States with Iowa leading all the States, and a total of more than 4,000,000 gross made in that city throughout the United States."—Nashua (Ia.) WM. J. GODSOE DIES SUDDENLY

William J. Godsoe, fifty-six years of age, contractor in stone and bricklaying, died at his home in Nashua, N. H., on Sunday, Sept. 22, at 10 o'clock this afternoon at his home. Excavation was made at his home on Sunday morning and his body was buried on Monday morning in the Catholic cemetery at Nashua, N. H.

Mr. Godsoe was seemingly improving in health, and it was his hope to be about again in a few days. A little after 10 o'clock he was fatally stricken and passed away quickly. It was a severe shock to his little household.

Mr. Godsoe was a son of the late Henry Godsoe, warden of the old penitentiary at Crochubville, and it was his father who effected the transfer of the prisoners from this old jail to the new sector at Dorchester. In building trades and in general contracting, Mr. Godsoe was well known in the city and had several notable fine structures as monuments to his efficiency. Among these are Dr. W. W. White's residence, corner of Sydney and Princess streets, built under Mr. Godsoe's direction, and Manchester, Robertson, Allison's, in Germain street, in which the Knights of Pythias have their Castle Hall.

Mr. Godsoe was a member of the C. M. B. A. and the Y. M. C. I. He was a willing and constant worker in all good movements connected with his church, and was highly esteemed for his upright living and exemplary habits. He has three surviving brothers and one sister, all of Halifax, and two married sisters elsewhere.

WILLING TO LET THE CITIZENS SETTLE IT

(Continued from page 1) ago and upon his investigation found that the statement of the driver was just opposite to the charges made. He said that the matter would give a hearing.

An invitation was read from John Willet, secretary of the New Brunswick Historical Society, asking the mayor and commissioners to be present in the auditorium of the court house Tuesday afternoon at 8 o'clock at the unveiling of a tablet in memory of Elias Hardy, the second common law of the city who held office from 1790 to 1799. On motion, the commissioners decided to attend the unveiling.

Commissioner Bullock asked for authority to purchase, by contract or otherwise, 30,000 feet of Douglas fir and 25,000 feet of spruce deals for repair work to the McLeod, Pettigrew and new pier wharves off Water street. On motion the necessary permission was granted.

The Police Matter. At this point Commissioner Bullock moved to adjourn, but Commissioner McLellan asked if a delegation from the labor unions in the city was not expected to be present. He said he thought they should wait for a few minutes to give them an opportunity to arrive.

Commissioner Hillyard said that when he made a statement regarding German money being behind strikes he had made it as a general assertion and he had not meant it with regard to the local situation. He said he had been unaware that there were returned soldiers on the police force and he would certainly refer to them in the statement and apologize. With regard to his statement at the council meeting he said that he would stand by it as he felt that he was doing his duty.

Commissioner Hillyard said that he had taken Commissioner Hillyard too quickly that it was a general expression. He said that he would not recede one-tenth of an inch from the position he had taken in the past. He said that he had had the taxpayers of the city decided that the policemen should have a union and he would support them in their fight for a union. He said that he would be glad to see the labor unions and the police force united in their fight for a union.

For the first decade after the foundation of the league each state's surplus of war materials would be divided between the other federated states, according to a standard to be agreed upon. This would be irrespective of the imports of the year, the output and the special needs of individual states due to the war.

Each state would be independent in the conduct of internal and foreign affairs within the limits of the league's constitution. The neutrals. States whose governments, with the assent of their parliaments, declare their permanent neutralization, would be recognized by all members of the league as permanently neutral, and would enjoy the league's protection. All available means would be used against any federal state outside of the league, which attacks a federal state or takes up arms without having applied to the arbitration court or awaited its judgment, or which takes up arms instead of accepting his judgment.

Members of the league would mutually undertake to cut down and steadily reduce their land, naval and aerial forces, according to a fixed standard to be agreed upon. They would further undertake not to use their forces for any other objects than the maintenance of internal order, defence of their territory and for joint execution of the league's mandates.

Figures showing the annual expenditure for armament, the number of troops under arms, war materials in hand and the number of warships in commission in the various countries, would be published in the league's official gazette. The constitution provides for the settlement of disputes by the principle of the open door, all members of the league granting each other most-favored nation treatment.

Division of Surplus. For the first decade after the foundation of the league each state's surplus of war materials would be divided between the other federated states, according to a standard to be agreed upon. This would be irrespective of the imports of the year, the output and the special needs of individual states due to the war.

Members of the league would recognize freedom of the seas. Straits, canals and connecting seas, both banks of which are not in possession of the same federal state, would be internationalized and their fortifications retained, guarded by a command consisting of contingents from all the federated states and commanded in rotation every three years by a delegate of the states.

UNIQUE RECITAL AT IMPERIAL THEATRE TOMORROW AFTERNOON

MARIE MORRISSEY, CONTRALTO.

The Imperial Theatre will be the scene of a unique recital tomorrow afternoon when Messrs. W. H. Thorne & Co., Ltd., will introduce Marie Morrissey, the popular contralto, and Joel Belov, violinist, to a specially invited audience of music lovers.

Wherever Marie Morrissey has been heard she has been pressed to sing recital engagements. Her popularity is countrywide, particularly so with the soldier boys for whom she has sung on numerous occasions.

Miss Morrissey is American born and trained and is a convincing refutation of the statement that a foreign reputation is essential for musical success. Her singing is invariably the feature of whatever programme she may appear on. Her rich, clear contralto is a pleasure to listen to. Her songs create a longing to hear her and her magnetic personality endears her to everybody she meets. She ranks among the finest artists before the American public.

Music lovers should derive solid satisfaction from the programme that will be rendered by Miss Morrissey and Joel Belov, who is perhaps no less popular. He is an artist of unusual ability and will receive a hearty welcome.

TELL OF SOLDIERS' NEEDS

Knights of Columbus Find Big Demand Near the Front.

(New York Times).

The Knights of Columbus War Service Committee yesterday gave out a report from five of its secretaries attached to an American division in battle in France telling of the needs of the soldiers for stationery, cigarettes and other supplies. Two days after this group of secretaries joined their divisions their supplies were exhausted, and they had to go back to Paris for more.

"We estimated that at least 1,500 men passed through our unit in the first two hours we were open," the report says. "They were so eager to get the stationery, cigarettes and tobacco that the military police had to line them up and make them pass through the front door and out through the window at the side."

Mrs. John McCormack has presented her London home to the Knights of Columbus for a social centre for men wearing the American uniform. The house is in Netherland Gardens, Hampstead, and has about thirty rooms. Mrs. McCormack's sister, Miss Josephine Foley, will be there as hostess until the end of the war.

Sun Burned Skin

You want a healthy summer tan. But sometimes you get it too quickly and then there is a few days of suffering.

The application of Dr. Chase's Ointment takes out the stinging and burning and leaves the skin delightfully soft and smooth.

Because it is equally effective in relieving stings of insects and ivy poisoning as well as chafing and skin irritations it is invaluable in the summer camp.

RESULTS OF POUNDING OF GERMANS IN LAST TWO MONTHS

Paris, Sept. 22.—In a review of the battles in France during the last six months, the Havas Agency credits to the American troops the re-establishment of the balance on the western front and points out the entire change that has taken place in the last two months.

"In the last two months alone," it says, "the Allies took 180,000 prisoners. The losses in men who will never be able to return to the ranks are estimated at 600,000, a gap which the 1920 class will not suffice to fill."

The Plain Truth about Shoe Prices
LEATHER is scarce and is growing scarcer. A large part of the available supply must be used for soldiers' boots. Importations have practically ceased and we are forced to depend upon the limited quantity of materials produced in Canada.
The cost of everything which goes into a pair of shoes is high, and is going higher. Workmen by the thousands have joined the colors, and labor is increasingly hard to get. It is not merely a matter of high prices, but of producing enough good quality shoes to go around.
These conditions are beyond the control of any man, or any group of men. They fall on all alike. No one is exempt—neither the manufacturer, the dealer, nor the consumer.
You must pay more today for shoes of the same quality than you did a year ago. Next Spring, prices will be higher still.
These are hard facts. They will not yield to argument. They cannot be glossed over. We cannot change them, much as we would wish to do so.
But you,

Resolutions By Labor Congress

Refuses to Ask Liberty for Conscientious Objectors—Want Old Age Pensions and Compulsory School Attendance

Quebec, Sept. 22.—The Trades and Labor Congress went on record on Saturday as opposed to petitioning the government to release those sent to prison under the Military Service act who claim that they are conscientious objectors.

At this point Mr. Rees was asked by the chairman to make a presentation to Mr. Watters on behalf of the convention of a souvenir of his seven years' connection with the office of president of the congress.

Resolutions passed recommended: that the law grading stationary engineers in Ontario be suspended until the soldiers came home; that the label of the allied printing trades be placed on all printing done by the dominion labor department; that the dominion government be petitioned to grant old age pensions; that the provincial governments be petitioned to introduce a law making it compulsory on children to attend school until the age of sixteen; that laws should be introduced by parliament to stop the practice of manufacturing clothes in the home of workers; that sympathetic aid be accorded to a scheme for the political education of the workers; that the creation of provincial and federal departments of health is favored; that the forthcoming Victory loan be placed upon the same tax bearing basis as other securities; that a licensing board be established for Ontario electrical engineers; that a $12 weekly minimum wage be established in Canada for women; that equal pensions be granted to all ranks of soldiers in proportion to their disabilities; and the prohibition of private employment agencies.

Recommendations adopted dealing with Quebec called for an enquiry into compensation law by the province and the establishment of free and compulsory education, uniform text books to be sold at cost price pending free distribution, free courses in technical education in the government's schools; the enforcement of a law that all workers under twenty-one must be able to read and write either French or English, the appointment of a minister of education, and the fixing of a minimum salary for teachers, who must have a university diploma. A resolution was also adopted urging the government to change the annual leasing system of the province to a monthly system so that a tenant could vacate a house on giving thirty days' notice.

EVERY mother is interested in Carnation Milk "from Contented Cows"; because every mother is interested in pure milk; in safe milk; in milk that is rich in body-building butterfat; in milk that is always the same.

Carnation Milk comes to you in air-tight cans, sealed safe from contamination. It is pure, whole milk—richer than the Dominion authorities' standard; and it is sterilized.

This fresh, clean, sweet, pure milk is evaporated to the consistency of cream. Nothing is taken away but water. Nothing whatever is added; no artificial sweetening, no preservatives. It is always of the same standard, uniform quality.

Use Carnation Milk for baby's bottle, diluted as your physician prescribes. Always have three or four cans handy—Carnation Milk will "keep" for months. And it will serve you in every way you now use ordinary milk and cream—it is the only milk supply your home needs.

QUEEN DIDN'T HICCOUGH.

She Was Merely Correcting Sergeant's Pronunciation of Ypres.

Queen Mary is very precise in giving the correct pronunciation to the names of towns in the war zone in France and insists upon others doing the same. WOMAN'S ATTRACTIVENESS

The Power That Moves the World WOMEN play a most important role in the affairs of the world. It is not only their privilege to represent the highest type of beauty—it is their duty to do so. Men admire women who are attractive mentally as well as physically. Sweetness and amiability are attractive. Add beauty to these and a woman is irresistible.

How to acquire and retain beautiful features, a fine complexion, how to be chic, to smile entrancingly, to walk or dance gracefully, to appear generally to advantage—all of these are worthy of every woman's sincere attention.

No matter how well built, teeth and complexion are cared for, a womanly figure spells age every time. No one is deceived. And yet, with intelligent care any type of figure can be made to regain its youthful lines and maintain them even into late life.

To keep the figure youthful your corset must have youthful lines. This depends upon its designer, for no corset is better than its designer's personal conception of beauty. On his sense of beauty depend the figures of the women who wear the corsets he conceives.

MODART Front-Laced Corsets All Modart Corsets are front-laced. They are conceived by the highest paid corset designer in the world. They have ease of adjustment. They are put on and off readily. There are no heavy steels in the back to mar gowns or suit lines. Instead of the heavy steels used by most makers, a light flexible steel that will not take a permanent bend is used. The finest fabrics are also employed, so that every Modart Corset retains its shape until worn out. Remember that the corset that won't keep its shape, won't keep yours. Modarts keep their shape. There is a Modart for every type of figure.

All Modarts are front-laced, but all front-laced corsets are not Modarts. The Modart label is worn in every genuine Modart Corset.

DANIEL London House, Head of King St.

How to Get a Properly Fitted Corset THE only real way to get a properly fitted corset is to get the advice of a trained corsetiere in a department or woman's specialty store. These corsetieres will advise and fit you with a Modart Corset free of charge. When you consult them you place yourself under no obligation other than that of your own inclination to purchase. Do this today and see with your own eyes the wonderful improvement a Modart Corset will make in your figure.

WHEN WAR IS OVER

Saskatoon, Sask., Sept. 22 - Lord Shaughnessy and his party arrived in Saskatoon yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. He was met by Mayor Young and a delegation of prominent citizens and after a few minutes spent in exchanging greetings, his lordship and his guests were taken for an automobile tour of the city.

Lord Shaughnessy was looking particularly well, much better than he appeared to be two years ago when he last visited western Canada. He was troubled at that time with one of his eyes, but an entirely successful operation remedied that and he now gives evidence of ample vigor of body as well as of mind.

He said that he had enjoyed his visit to western Canada very much indeed. He was satisfied that when the war was over there should be another great movement into the west.

WHAT THE BUSINESS MEN OF GERMANY FACE

When the day of downfall for Germany's military power draws near, will it be the business men of Germany who will step in to negotiate peace?

Next to the military caste, which includes the Junkers, of course, the commercial influences are strongest in Germany, as they are in other countries.

It is the business men of Germany who will suffer most from the insane obstinacy of the war lords, and who must seek the best terms possible from the Allies on Germany's account.

The economic outlook for Germany is now so blue, with defeat fast approaching, that the industrial bosses are quaking over the prospect in store for them.

They had to be sure, an important part in bringing down France, and extracting what they Herr Muehlen, formerly a Krupp director, have shown, the Kaiser obtained the personal pledge of the leading industrial magnates of Germany that they would assist him in the war with every energy.

In return they were promised vast concessions in lands, mineral fields and trading possessions in French, British and Belgian colonies and in Russia.

As the war of 1870-71 brought Alsace-Lorraine to Germany, and gave the steel interests the great iron deposits at Briey, so they were led to view as the best prospect for their future the power of all-conquering Prussia might.

Now these steel, coal and other barons and the lesser commercial classes are the crushing of Germany in slight and the masses, these men are far too stupid not to understand what is coming.

The military caste and Junkers lose power and prestige, they, as the controlling factor in Germany's industrial life, will rise. Will their vote be cast for a prolonged resistance to the Allies?

At the best, Germany will be cut off from most of its overseas trade for years to come.

It will be short of raw materials for recovery. Victory now is out of the question - no one in Germany professes belief in it, and it is a question of getting the best terms.

What is the financial position of Germany? It has a national debt of at least $65,000,000,000.

It is now preparing for its ninth annual revenue, with war taxes, amounts only to about $1,200,000,000.

After a crushing defeat, with no foreign trade, without raw materials, such as wool, cotton, copper, rubber, etc., how can Germany raise each year the amount required for its national revenue?

Even before the war Germany was taxed to the bone, and in 1918 a capital levy had to be levied for special armaments.

Six patriotic Americans, members of the coast guard, miles above Nome, Alaska, are taking a long distance course in navigation to fit themselves for active service in the merchant marine through the extension department of the University of Washington. To accommodate the men the university devised a system whereby the lessons could be sent from Seattle, enclosed in cylindrical tubes, to Nome by boat, and then on a dog-drawn sled to the little group of students. After completing one lesson the men advised the university by cable that they were ready for the next.

Have You Tried an Adjusted Gillette Shave?

This is an exclusive extra-comfort feature of the Gillette Safety Razor. Have you taken advantage of it? Some Gillette users never do, because even without it they get so good a shave they never think of looking for a better one.

Others, though, get still greater comfort, by adjusting the blade to suit the skin, and the closeness of the shave they want. So can you.

If the beard is soft or the skin tender, screw the handle up tight, drawing the edge of the blade close to the guard, so that it slips lightly over the face.

For closer work on a heavy beard loosen the handle an eighth of a turn. The blade gets more hold and shaves extra clean, leaving the face as smooth as can be.

You'll quickly find the adjustment that just suits you - and then you'll enjoy your Gillette more than ever.

Whatever adjustment you like best, be sure to use the Angle Stroke, drawing the edge of the blade across the beard. This is a very simple feature, and one that makes the adjustable Gillette shave really perfect.

SIR DOUGLAS HAIG Notable Tribute by Great American Paper—Among the Great Commanders of Greatest War (New York Times). One of the ablest soldiers the war has produced does not speak for himself, or about himself. He praises others, and is slow to censure. Sometimes his government has failed to send him reinforcements when his need of them was sore; but he has not complained. In more than four years of war he has always been at the front, engaged with rare respite in what may be called intensive fighting, often of the most desperate character. The wonder is that he has gone through the ordeal with sound brain and strength apparently unimpaired. There have been three commanders of the French armies since mid-December, 1916, but only one commander of the British. Has any other soldier in history been exposed to a greater strain upon his faculties than Sir Douglas Haig in an order of the day thanked it for its valor and devotion. "The capture of 75,000 prisoners and 750 guns in the course of four weeks' fighting speaks for the magnitude of your efforts and the magnitude of your achievement." For once D. Haig, so he signs his name, showed more emotion than was ever wrung from him before by success or failure. "We have passed through many dark days," he said in the address to his troops, "Please God, these never will return." This great soldier, for such he is, goes to a little Presbyterian church behind the lines every Sunday morning and when he speaks the name of God, which is seldom, lest his piety seem ostentatious it is with reverence. One of those dark days was April 12 of the present year, when the British army for the army to fall back, when a courier rode up to say that the Germans were retreating. Sir Charles Fitzclarence, an Irish soldier, had thrown a Norfolk battalion into a breach in the enemy's line and turned the tide of battle. So critical was all the Ypres fighting, so suddenly did shafts of success pierce the pall of defeat. Haig was Sir John French's right arm, and when the veteran retired the government, in naming the Scotchman for supreme command, reflected the hope of the army. Upon the battle of the Somme, which he fought himself with tried and with green troops, Sir Douglas Haig's fame will mainly rest. It was the hardest and the longest battle ever recorded. The enemy had to be pried out of one Gibraltar after another, driven from one Plevna after another, but ever the British army, under the tireless and patient Haig, moved relentlessly forward. The British losses were 500,000, the German losses much greater. If the commanding general ever showed a trace of the tremendous strain nobly has made mention of the fact. The whole year of 1917, up to November, when Haig was in front of Cambrai, pressed his advantage. Then came a loss of ground in a surprise attack, and in March of this year began the German offensive which was to end the war. There were more dark days for a British army overwhelmed by numbers. The "Back to the Wall" order held its ranks inviolable. This Scotch gentleman, son of John Haig of Ramornie, in Fifeshire, who commands 200,000 British and colonial troops, is in the prime of life at 57, "tall, lithe, well knit," a consummate horseman, fair of complexion, blue eyes, in manner gracious, reserved but kindly. "I have rarely seen a masculine face so handsome and yet so strong," says one who tried to interview him. He shuns publicity. An industrious student of the profession of arms, it is said that he never commanded a larger body of men than a regiment in battle before the great war. The influence of the genial Duke of Cambridge secured him a commission after he had been rejected for ineffective eyesight. Sir John French saved him from drowning in the Modder river in the Boer war. "Lucky" Haig he has always been called. He presented Field Marshal Sir Evelyn Wood years ago. He has refused a peerage, but is a knight of the prized Order of the Thistle. He has owned much of his aristocratic connections, but infinitely more to the virtues of his race and to interested soldierly qualities. He has a keen sense of humor. He is never visibly angry. Born in the purple and a favorite at court and in Mayfair, he is a "soldier's soldier." There are many Haigs on the British army list, but only one Sir Douglas. Modest and indifferent to fame, he

KNIGHTS WELL UP TO SUM AIMED AT IN DRIVE

Amount on Hand $18,000 With Fair Receipts To Be Added and Further Subscriptions That Are Expected

A careful estimate of cash on hand, the possibilities of the big patriotic fair still going on, and a further sum available, it was said today, would bring the Knights of Columbus' drive for $25,000 in this city within easy distance of the required amount.

That the full $25,000 will be reached is confidently expected, but Organizer Charles A. Owens and District Deputy W. P. Broderick say they believe in telling the generous and co-operating public just what the situation is, so that all may be prepared for the grand final dash.

The tag day donations now total more than was first stated; indeed they exceed $4,000, a most gratifying response. Private subscriptions under the personal canvas plan are also creeping up, several large amounts being added to the list from new sources, some of them unsolicited.

Exclusive of the proceeds of the fair, the fund now stands at more than $18,000. In spite of unseasonably bad weather, $100 because of the hold-over for tonight and tomorrow, the fair is expected to contribute another $8,000. Besides this there is the sum of $2,000 "in sight," Secretary Owens said. So totalling these amounts, it will make a sum of $28,000 in the quota aimed at. Doubtless some good souls will furnish this amount before the drive ends, for the knights have faith galore in their staunch old patriotic town.

Tonight the big fair is being resumed with more spirit than ever and plenty of striking novelties. The City Cornet Band will play and with crisp, clear air a great crowd of St. John folk will have a typical return to "exhibition weather" and pleasant surroundings.

Dr. W. P. Broderick says that throughout his jurisdiction the K. of C. drive has been signally successful, even the smallest places making up their quotas quickly and willingly. He is deeply grateful and naturally much satisfied for each succeeding year of war's stern demands makes voluntary giving a greater sacrifice with accompanying uncertainty as to results. The Knights of Columbus as a body share their leader's thankful feelings and are especially delighted with the measure of assistance they have received from city folks on all sides, reciprocating the purpose of their drive for Catholic army boys open to all classes and creeds. In this regard the K. C. drive has accomplished more than a commendable war in Montreal.

Up to Friday night the Montreal total for the fund was $77,788. The amount gathered in on Friday was $20,294. In the Catholic churches in that city a general collection for the fund was taken up yesterday. Father McShane of St. Patrick's, well known here, was $100, and Father Singleton, who also has friends in St. John, $20.

Hon. Charles E. Oak has received in a letter from Hon. Henry F. Puddington of St. John, N. B., an excerpt from a letter written from France by Mr. Puddington's son, who was a student at the U. N. B. when he enlisted in the Canadian forces. Mr. Puddington writes of his very pleasant relations with the American troops and of them he says: "They are wonderful. I forgot to tell you one case where we had been moving all night, no sleep for forty-eight hours and very little to eat. At daybreak we pulled into a village occupied by Yanks. They at once saw our state and the cook gave us hot coffee, bread and butter from the States, porridge and bacon. As a matter of fact, they were kind on their own rations. I have seen a good many thousands and they are all the same way."

INCREASED CONFIDENCE

New York, Sept. 23—(Wall street noon)—Increased confidence in both investment and speculative quarters was encouraged by the upward movement in prices which included all classes of stocks. Prospects of easier money conditions and a continuance of favorable war news were impelling motives for the advance. Indications that the selling of rail stock had ceased created a more general disposition to buy railroads for investment account.
