THE PHILIPPINE WAR.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Jan. 21.—W. H. Taft, civil governor of the Philippine Islands, who arrived here on the transport Grant, is quite ill, the Philippine climate and the arduous duties he has performed having told on his constitution. He says the war is confined to two provinces, Batangas and Samar and the operations in Batangas occasionally range into the neighboring provinces of Tayabas and Laguna. The Filipinos are very anxious to secure a legislature as a step toward the permanent establishment of a civil government.

The present civil government has been working with great zeal and has far exceeded expectations, the governor says. The chief difficulty at present is the lack of police protection in the provinces. Small bands will infect the back districts. They favorize the natives and until the strong arm of the law is able to suppress them, absolute peace in the islands will not be obtained. The native Filipino police have proved a success. They were appointed by the civil government and officered by Americans and they did good service.

IN THE BRITISH PARLIAMENT.

LONDON, Jan. 20.—The first important debate of the session occurred tonight on the amendment to the address in reply to the speech from the throne. Mr. Chamberlain vigorously took the field in defence of the war. He stated that if the Boer believed that they could at any time secure a repetition of Lord Kitchener's terms they were mistaken. They had already been offered exceedingly liberal terms, and having rejected these, the government did not propose to embarrass itself with a further specific offer. Justice would be meted out for military offences and other crimes, but there would be large amnesty, and the government expected to extend to the conquered people full political rights as soon as practicable.

The government would not be deaf to any reasonable peace overtures it might receive. The amendment to the address was not supported by any of the front benches on the opposition side and Mr. Labouchere, in declining to support the amendment, described Lord Rosebery as "the serpent of the liberal Eden."

SHE WANTS TO COME.

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—If the Princess Henry does not accompany her husband, the admiral, to the United States, it will not be because that she wishes to remain at home, says the Berlin correspondent of the Journal and American. On the contrary, the Princess is making every effort, social and political, to be allowed to form one of the launching party that has now become of international interest. Should the princess succeed in obtaining the Kaiser's royal permission to make the trip, she will be accompanied by an entourage of court ladies.

BOXING TOURNAMENT.

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—"Tommy" West, the Brooklyn boxer, who has just returned to this country from London, brings with him the formal invitation from the management of the National Sporting Club of London, to the boxers of this country to take part in a mammoth tournament during the coronation services of King Edward VII. The idea of the National Club is to hold six round bouts as a sort of trial heats, and then bring the winners together in 20 round contests for big purses, belts and titles of "Champion of the world."

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 21.—General James R. Carhartman, commanding the uniform rank, Knights of Pythias, announces that the trans-continental lines have agreed to make a rate of $50 for the round trip from Chicago to San Francisco for the bi-annual of Knights of Pythias, which opens here on August 12 next.

Stopovers will be permitted. It is considered probable that not less than 10,000 people will cross the continent on this occasion.

FATAL EXPLOSION.

WALSLEBURG, Colo., Jan. 21.—Three men were killed and three others badly injured by an explosion in one of the Colorado Fuel and Iron companies' properties at Pitou, three miles from here. Among the killed are a colored laborer named Johnson and Frank Macgregor, a brother of Supt. Cripps of the mine was badly injured. The property was not extensively damaged.

AN AUTHOR DEAD.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 21.—Word has just been received here of the death Saturday in North Carolina of Daniel R. Goodloe, in the 89th year of his age. Mr. Goodloe passed the greater portion of his life in Washington, where he served for many years as correspondent of New York papers. He was also the author of valuable literary works, including those of a historical character.

HAVE NO FUNDS.

DUBLIN, Jan. 21.—The recent and prospective retirements of nationalist members of the house of commons are attributed in some quarters to the depleted condition of the nationalist treasury. It is said that the preliminary fund for 1902 thus far holds only 1,100 pounds, over half of which came from the United States.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

HOW MR. DAVIS ACHIEVED GREATNESS.

To the Editor of the Star:

Sir,—Apropos of your editorial this evening concerning Mr. Webster Davis and his big petition it may not be amiss to remind your readers of the steps by which that smart but rather unscrupulous individual first gained his notoriety. When the Boer war broke out, Mr. D. was a sort of cabinet understrapper at Washington. A deputy at two or three removes, if I remember rightly, from the secretary of the interior, having no very tight hold upon his office which he did not occupy very long. During the interval between the dark days of December, 1899 and the sudden turning of the tables by Lord Roberts, in February, 1900, when the Boer cause looked at its best to themselves and their foreign admirers, Mr. Davis saw his way to a clever stroke of business. He hurried to Pretoria via Cape Town, ostensibly affecting the character of a neutral with no particular object in view, and when he reached his destination he struck up a hearty friendship with President Kruger, passing himself off upon the strength of his "cabinet position" for a personage almost equal in power and influence to President McKinley himself. Queer stories have since been told (e. g. in the London Daily Mail) of the hauls that were then made upon both Mr. Kruger's credulity and his pocket by Mr. Davis in co-partnership with a couple of U. S. newspaper men who happened to be in Pretoria at the time and found their account in assisting him to play his little game. Not to make too long a story, the general opinion of those upon the spot was that when the three returned home, as they all did shortly afterwards, each brought away with him some very valuable tokens of Mr. Kruger's lively sense of gratitude for favors to come. Be this so, or not; all that Mr. Kruger has got out of the trio in return for his confidence are a couple of very worthless articles by Mr. E. in U. S. magazine and some public performances by Mr. D. of a sort to disgust even a well-informed and reasonable pro-Boer—if there be such a character in existence.

What are well called "Monster" petitions can be very easily got up now-a-days by almost anybody and for almost any conceivable purpose. A lively friend of mine assures me of his belief in the existence of a class of people so fond of signing petitions that they would eagerly endorse one for releasing ancient Nicholas from Pandemonium. Perhaps he is rather an exaggerative man, but I myself have known the same person within a few hours to sign both a petition and a counter-petition referring to the same matter—whether from willingness to oblige, inability to say "no," or a wish to make sure of being upon the right side, I cannot tell. A wise ruler in considering the prayer of a petition will not be guided so much by the number as by the weight of the names attached to it.

Annual Meeting Was Held Today—Encouraging Report.

The annual meeting of the St. John W. C. T. U. was held this afternoon in the Orange Hall, Germain street. Reports were submitted by the secretary and other officers. During the year 45 meetings have been held, of which 22 were devotional and 23 business meetings. 54 mothers' meetings have been held, and five public meetings. The evangelistic superintendent reports visits to the Hospital, Home for incurables, 52 meetings for the men and 22 for women in the jail, a number of services in the Seamen's Mission and four in the shelter. Flowers have been taken to the place, 123 letters have had 700 leaflets have been distributed. Leaflets have also been distributed by the superintendent of literature.

All of Miss Willard's books, nine in number, have been contributed by the Union to the Public Library. Nine of Charles Sheldon's have been procured as a nucleus to a library for the society itself.

Mrs. Bullock presented an interesting report of Sunday-school work.

The Union contribution to charities amounts to $115. Besides this, provisions and clothing have been distributed, and a large number of families have received coal, which is the largest contribution of the Union to the relief of the poor. The coffee room report, presented by Mrs. Scott, shows that the room has been well patronized and has only supported itself but has supplied some $250 to the relief fund.

THE PRESBYTERY.

Approve of the Name Columbia for The Halifax College.

The St. John Presbytery met in regular quarterly session this morning.

Rev. Dr. Macrae presided.

Rev. A. Macrae and Rev. T. F. Fotheringham were appointed a committee to prepare a resolution of condolence to the relatives of the late Dr. Robertson.

The resignation of Rev. R. G. Vans of Buctouche was accepted and Rev. James Ross was appointed moderator to declare the pulpit vacant.

The report of the Century Fund was presented by Rev. F. W. Murray. It showed that over $9,000 had been paid of the $10,000 asked for, but that some congregations had not yet made their return.

The committee appointed to inquire into the state of fire insurances reported. It was decided to investigate the matter further and urge congregations to insure all property and inquire into the titles by which church properties are held.

Revs. Jas. Burgess, J. Ross, A. H. Foster, Dr. Fraser, Judge Forbes and John Willet were appointed a committee to make the additional inquiry.

The meeting approved of giving the name Columbia to the Halifax Presbyterian college.

Rev. James Ross submitted the report of the Home Mission board. Among other things it recommended that D. M. McKenzie be certified and continue as catechist at Hampton and Norton during the winter.

Permission was given to Richmond to put a temporary mortgage of $500 on the manse.

Notice was received from the Home Mission Board that the salary of the superintendent had been increased from $1,200 to $1,400 per annum.

THE MCLEOD WHARF.

A title of the McLeod wharf property satisfactory to the recorder, has been prepared and is ready to be delivered to the city as soon as the authorized issue of bonds for the purchase has been prepared.

With the addition of this wharf and the improvements contemplated to it and adjoining property owned by the city, there will be a straight dock frontage of 700 feet running from Duke street south.

OTTAWA, Jan. 21.—A mail for South Africa, in which will be included parcels addressed to British forces, will be despatched from Halifax per S. S. ST. JOHN'S, N. F., Jan. 20.—Reliable news received here indicates that Wm. Marconi may yet establish his trans-oceanic wireless telegraphy station here, instead of at Cape Breton. He certainly will establish a station at Cape Race for reporting ocean shipping.

NEW LINE OF STEAMERS.

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—According to a Boston despatch to the Times there has been going on very quietly a movement toward the establishment of a steamship line between Boston and St. John's, N. F., and it has resulted in the formation and incorporation of the Boston and Newfoundland Steamship company. It is the intention of this company to establish and operate a line of steamers with two sailings a week from Boston to St. John's, with a stop at Halifax.

OPPOSED TO ANY CHANGE.

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—Franz Von Jessup, commissioner from the Danish government to the Danish West Indies, sailed for Bremen today. He has been ascertaining the sentiment in St. Thomas, St. Croix and St. John on the proposed sale of the islands to the United States. The Danish commissioner says when he arrives in Copenhagen he will suggest that the question of selling the islands be submitted to a vote of the people of Denmark. Nine-tenths of the people in the West Indies, he claims, are opposed to any change in rule.

WON'T MARRY MARCONI.

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—Mrs. H. B. Holman of this city announced today that her daughter Josephine had asked Guglielmo Marconi, the developer of wireless telegraphy, to release her from her engagement to marry him, and that Marconi had complied with her request.

THE WEATHER.

TORONTO, Jan. 21.—Easterly winds, increasing to gales during the night, fair today, followed by snow and rain, chiefly the latter, rising temperature.

LORD KITCHENER'S REPORT.

LONDON, Jan. 21.—Lord Kitchener reports that since January 13th thirty-one Boers were killed, thirteen wounded, 170 were made prisoners and 41 surrendered.

THISTLES MAY COMPETE.

The Thistle Curling Club may send two rinks to play in the international bonspiel at Quebec early next month. There is the material in the club for the composition of two great rinks, and if the players can be got together St. John will probably be represented in the big tournament, which will be played during the winter carnival in the ancient city.

John Thomson and J. Fred Shaw are the skips mentioned to lead the rinks.

THE "BISHOP'S" BRACELET.

Regarding the ingenious modes of theft practised by professional thieves the following good story is told:

After inspecting various specimens he agreed to take a bracelet that cost $500.

The bishop paid for his purchase with a bank note, which, at his own suggestion, the jewellers sent across to their bank to have verified. The note being found correct, the bishop took the bracelet and was just about to step into his carriage when a policeman tapped him on the shoulder and said: "Hello! So you're up to your old tricks again, are you? You come along with me." And he brought him back to the shop.

The jewellers said there was some mistake, that the gentleman was a bishop, that he had just bought a bracelet and paid for it with a perfectly good five hundred dollar note.

The officer replied that, so far from being a bishop, the man was a notorious thief and forger, and he had no doubt the note was an exceedingly clever counterfeit.

"We will go off to the police station at once," he said. "I will take the note and go on with the prisoner in the carriage, and you must send your man in a cab to meet us, and support the charge."

So the policeman took the "bishop's" bracelet and the note, but when the jewellers' men reached the police station the prisoner and his escort had not arrived, and they have not been heard of since.

RAILWAYS AND BUSINESS.

The winter is passing, and the volume of export trade from this port, not including hay and horses, will exceed for the season that of any previous winter. The Canadian Pacific Railway company has to put forth special effort to handle the traffic over its line. Thus far the I. C. R. terminus and elevator have not figured in the business. Apparently there is plenty of freight to handle, for if that were not so the C. P. R. would not be quicker than the others. The citizens had hoped that the elevator, which was built in expectation of grain shipments over the government railway, would be busy this winter, and that the I. C. R. would play an important part in the winter trade. They were led to indulge this hope because of what Mr. Blair and other leaders, who denounced the C. P. R., had to say on the subject.
Those papers which ventured to speak in favor of the C. P. R. were rather sharply criticised. Today, however, it is to the C. P. R. we look for the freight that fills the steamers. The I.
C. R. elevator is not a factor in the business this year, whatever it may be in the future.

HAS IT COME TO THIS?

At a session of the Women's Suffragist Society in Paris recently a resolution was adopted to the effect that it is prejudicial to a woman's interest to lose her name by marriage and to be obliged to adopt that of her husband.
The ladies present accepted the resolution with unanimity. A question, however may arise, that will be with difficulty settled. Granted that the wife retained her name and the husband also was obdurate which one would be borne by the children of the union. With some slight concession from one side or the other as to precedence there would be little difficulty in the first generation. The child could bear the combined names of its parents, but thereafter there would be trouble. Besides the ordinary woes which this flesh is heir to, the innocent infant would have placed on its shoulders a load of names, a burden too heavy for it to bear. The entire stock of hyphen in a printing office would be needed in presenting to the public the name of a child of the tenth generation. And in regular progression the difficulty would move forward until in the course of time, a child would require the constant study of the first fifteen years of its life to learn its own name. A newspaper would have to be used for a visiting card and a directory would be a thing of beauty and a joy forever. The woes of a census taker would be increased, and a school teacher would require days to call the class roll. The person who said, "What's in a name?" would be accused, for there would be much. Should this latest phase in the women's movement gain ground it would be better for man to give way, or failing in that, call the children simply by the good primitive names, such as Adam and Eve, Ananias and Sapphira or the like. Otherwise in a few years this world will be no fit place for a person with a short memory and abbreviated temper to live in.

ADDITIONS TO THE NAVY.

While the resources of the empire have been considerably taxed by the present war in South Africa the navy has not been neglected. According to a writer in an English paper, during the last twelve months 13 vessels, of a total displacement tonnage of 72,730 tons, and with engines aggregating 109,100-h.p., have been commissioned for his majesty's navy, excluding torpedo craft; 23 vessels of 143,911 tons displacement and 310,000-h. h.p. have passed successfully through their steam trials, including torpedo craft; 33 ships, which collectively displace 209,100 tons and are endowed with machinery power equal to 389,200 horses, have been set afloat, while the keels of twelve vessels of 102,700 tons displacement and of 189,800-h.p. machinery have been laid. The first few months of the year are certain to witness great activity in the initial stage of warship building, because the admiralty are now making shipbuilders to tender for the construction of two of the largest battleships that have ever been designed in this country, while a third of the same displacement tonnage of 16,500 tons is to be laid down in one of the royal dockyards.

Last year was a singularly healthy one in London, yet there were deaths enough, 79,601 in all, to almost populate St. John twice. This is 9,873 fewer than the average for the last ten years, and makes a rate of 17.4 in every one thousand.

Nothing in Hon. Joseph Chamberlain's public career has more endeared him to the average Briton than his recent declaration of the purpose of Great Britain to pursue her own policy regardless of the gibes of the con-tingental press and politicians. Mr.
Chamberlain has a less winning personality than some other British statesmen, both conservative and liberal, but he is manifestly the man for an emergency.

Smallpox has been practically stamped out in St. John, but is not yet out of business in other cities with which St. John has close business relations.
There is still, therefore, good reason why no person should overlook or evade the precaution of being vaccinated. Whenever a case of smallpox occurs we learn of some persons who had not been vaccinated. It is in the public interest that all should submit to vaccination.

As a steam heater for the sheds and offices Mr. Blair's elevator is said to be a pronounced success. As a factor in the "sharp competition with Portland" its value has not been so apparent. But it cost only $160,000.

SAM JONES EXCITED.

Declares that Bishop Potter Does Not Understand Georgia.

(New York Herald.)
The Rev. Sam Jones, in a letter to the Atlanta Journal, says:— "Bishop Potter, of New York City, is a great man; he is a broad man; he is all sorts of a man; he is everybody's man. It is not because he is a bishop, nor because he is an Episcopalian that makes me say what I say, but it is because of his views so widely circulated, which I am sure the devil himself approves.

"Bishop Potter, of New York, knows as little about us poor white people in Georgia as we care about him in New York. He runs with a different crowd and trains with a different gang to what we run with and train with.
The good, God fearing people of Georgia are for prohibition, and we don't like the names he calls us and the names he calls our pet theory, such as 'an impudent fraud,' and such like."

"The business of a minister of God in this world is to champion and fight for everything that's wrong. There is not a good man in Georgia who in-dorses the sentiment of Bishop Potter, of New York. Bishop Potter may vaporize about education and transformation, and so on, but what the good people of Georgia want is prohibition.

"I tell you in New York when they take a Bishop around with them and dine him and wine him and stuff him and toast him, it doesn't take him long to imbibe the views of wine bibbers and gluttons and to preach the doctrine of voluntarism from the platform.
How long before the bishop and his gang will be broadening the ten commandments and liberalizing the moral law so they would have it read:

"Thou shalt not steal less than a million dollars."
"Thou shalt not break the Sabbath, but intend it double if there is money in it."

"Thou shalt not commit adultery by having more than one wife at your home."
"Thou shalt not covet, but get all you can to keep all you get."
"Thou shalt not kill a single man but, like John Bull, kill them by the thousands and it is all O. K."

"Thou shalt not be guilty of idolatry worship the true and the living dollar, etc."

"I mingle and mix much with preachers and people. I don't know a false and true minister of God today who is not a prohibitionist in sentiment and heart, nor do I know a God fearing member of the Church who is not anti-whiskey from bottom to top. You may take Jerry McAulay's work in New York city among the bums and thugs, a man whose life was consecrated to the salvation of the poor and humble. His sentiments were as much at antipodes with Bishop Potter's as heaven is from hell."

"Bishop Potter when dining with his millionaire friends with their flow of wine and glow of spirit, is in a poor position and attitude to talk to us poor Georgia people, or to advise and counsel anybody but the four hundred of New York. You can't high tell what gang a fellow is running and listen to his views."

"It is a shame that a man like him, a preacher to say anything that will wound a brother in his church that is worth a million dollars, or comment scripturally upon the conduct of the rich and the great he runs with socialism."

"I am satisfied that Bishop Potter's views on the question at issue are well pleasing to the devil, and he has done that old gentleman a service that he will remember him kindly for, no doubt, in the days to come, and when I look upon the faithful, tried and true men of Georgia, who have seen the wrecks along the shores of intemperance and the vile work of the saloons, and see their tears and prayers as they struggle to rid our state of this the worst enemy we have, and then have them ridiculed and calumniated and grieved by a pampered priest, I feel like praying for such a man like Paul prayed for Alexander, the copper-smith:—'Oh, Lord, reward him according to his works.'"

"Give us ministers of God who are true to the right, and who look not with the least allowance upon sin and crime, and then I have hopes for the triumph of right and the defeat of

THE MENACE OF THE AGE.

Strong Speech by Bishop Potter Against Institutional Charity.

NEW YORK, Jan. 18.—Stirring invective against the institutional charity, "the menace of the age," was the burden of a vigorous speech delivered by Bishop Henry C. Potter, before 300 members of the Columbia University Graduate club at the university Wednesday night. Cudgels were taken up against the view of assigning all sufferers from illness and poverty to the care of cold, damp, impersonal, charitable organizations, where the inmates lacked the mantle of individual care.
"A dozen or score of years ago," he said, the Astors and Belmonts maintained private art galleries, to which the public was invited once a week.
Today 'get out of my house, go to the museums' is the institutional note.
Society helps the wage earner spasmodically and then considers its duty done." In the course of his speech, the bishop said:
"The menace of modern life is in the growth of the surrender of the care of the sick, the maimed, the imbecile, to institutional vigilance. When men come to be the care of the state in such vast numbers it is impossible that there can be that note of personality considered the best medicine for the sick man and the insane man."

TEAMSTERS' PROTECTIVE UNION.

The St. John Teamsters' Protective Union held a very successful meeting last night in Sutherland's hall, Union street. About 200 members were present and 97 members were enrolled.
Three delegates were appointed to represent the union at the St. John Trade and Labor Council, which will meet on Friday night, 24th inst. in Bowman's hall, Brussels street. It was reported that Alex. Clark is storing 3,000 extra tons of ice and union teams are doing his work, and that Albert Macaulay is also storing 3,000 tons of ice extra, with union teams. The union has secured Sutherland's hall for its meetings, which take place every Monday evening at 8 o'clock. The committee on behalf of the union wish to thank the Ship Laborers for the kindly way in which they allowed them the use of their hall. They also wish to thank Scott E. Morrell for kindly services rendered them upon their organization. The union desires it to be known that Mr. Macaulay and Mr.
Clark have given employment to teams that might have gone to work for the St. John Ice Company had not these offers been open to them.

VICTORIA RINK.

There was another large crowd at the Victoria rink last evening. To-tional amount of skating the last four weeks, a night gang of ice makers has been engaged, and the spray ice is kept on continually from rink closing at night until the next morning. Better ice was never seen in St.

PORT CRAWFORD DISMANTLED.

An Episode of the War of 1812 at Prairie du Chien, Wis.

(From the LaCrosse, Wis. Chronicle.) At Old Fort Crawford, at Prairie du Chien, which is now being torn down stone by stone, occurred the only armed conflict on Wisconsin soil between Americans and British troops during the war of 1812. It was at Port Crawford that for the last time a foreign flag floated on the soil of Wisconsin. The siege and capture of Prairie du Chien by the British redcoats is an interesting story.

The Americans decided some time after the war of 1812 began that Prairie du Chien would be an important place to hold, if the British allies were to be prevented from descending the Mississippi and raiding the American settlements. Accordingly a force comprising about 150 men, well equipped with ammunition and a number of cannon, under Lieut. James Perkins, was dispatched to hold the fort. They went slowly up the river in a gunboat that had been made bullet-proof. Their arrival surprised the inhabitants at the place. British agents had made the place their headquarters, and had boasted that the "big knives" would not dare to venture to that post on the upper Mississippi. The news was carried to the British commanding officer at Michilimackinac.

There were some American sympathizers at the Prairie, who heartily welcomed Lieut. Perkins and his men.
The Americans lost no time in erecting suitable fortifications, in anticipation of an attack. A commanding eminence was selected, and soon the American flag floated in Wisconsin for the first time in its history. The stockade was named Fort Shelby, in honor of Kentucky's first governor, Isaac Shelby. It was afterwards charged by the British that the Americans were guilty of gross treachery toward a party of Winnebagoes on taking possession of Prairie du Chien.

Fort Shelby was placed in good condition for defense, and for additional security the gunboat was anchored in midstream, just in front of the fort.
The ominous roar of half a dozen cannon being visible from shore.

The British were informed of the American occupation of Prairie du Chien by a trader and at once enlisted Indians into their ranks and prepared for an attack. With a party British cheer, the boat containing the attacking expedition left Michilimackinac, June 28, 1814, and soon reached Green Bay. The party that pulled up the Fox in batteau comprised several companies of Canadian volunteers and one of the regulars. There were about 600 painted Indian warriors in the company.

It was a pleasant Sunday morning, about 10 o'clock, July 1, when the red coats of the regulars, the sandy tasseled caps of the Canadians, and the paint-bedaubed savage stragglers were espied from the fort. There was great commotion, for their appearance was unexpected. Having pitched camp, the British prepared for sterner business.
Capt. Thomas Anderson advanced toward the block-house, waving a flag of truce. He stopped in front of the strong oaken pickets, 10 feet high, which encircled the fort, and in a message from Lieut.-Col. McKay, demanded Lieut.
Perkins to surrender. The demand was defiantly answered, and a brass six pounder and the troops opened fire on the gunboat and fort. Two men were wounded in the fort during the afternoon; the American fire did little damage.

After a two days' siege, in which the American soldiers on the gunboats deserted, the British commanding officer decided to send red not shot into the American fort, with a view of setting it on fire. Just before the fire was started, a flag of truce was waved from the fort, and the American officer surrendered to the British. The fort was surrendered to Gen. McKay the following morning. The Americans were given back their guns and ammunition by the British officer and allowed to depart for St. Louis in peace.

The casualties on both sides, as shown by the reports of Col. McKay, were ludicrously few, considering the bullets and powder that had been consumed. None of the British were killed, and but few of their red allies were wounded. In the attack on the gun-boat, five Americans lost their lives and ten wounded. Three soldiers within the fort were hit by bullets, but there were no fatalities.
Col. McKay did not remain long at the fort. He christened it Fort McKay in honor of himself, and a month later made his way back to Michilimackinac, leaving Capt. Anderson in command. Then came trouble with the Indians, which continued for years. Peace was at last declared however, and the famous Prairie du Chien and trouble had passed into history.

Later the name of Fort McKay was changed to Fort Crawford, which it still bears. Though this incident ended with the peace treaty between the Indians and the British, history, startling, fierce and glorious was made at the old, now dismantled fort since that time.

C. F. BROWN, 501-505 Main St.DISORDER REIGNED
At Last Night's Meeting in St. Phillip's School Room.

The meeting called by the old trustees of St. Phillip's church last night ended in a most unsatisfactory manner.
During the proceedings the uproar was so great that none of the speakers were able to make themselves heard. Appeals for order were disregarded and the crowd present seemed determined to prevent any definite steps being taken. The chair was occupied by John Jackson and the following report would have been presented by the secretary:

1899.
 To balance $22.00
 " 11 Months Rent 206.25
 " Interest 1.42
 Total receipts $229.67
 Total expenditure $182.15
 Cash on hand 46.61
 229.67

By balance $46.61
 The report was not listened to by the people and R. McIntyre moved that a committee of three be chosen to appoint an auditor. That motion was put to the meeting but never passed, on account of the uproar which broke forth. Rev. J. O. Morley succeeded in restoring comparative quiet for a few minutes, but in a moment or two trouble arose and the audience forsook the serious business of the evening to see who was in the scrap.
 Mr. Morley again tried to secure order but was unsuccessful and Philip Bushman, who became disgusted with the whole show made tracks for home.
 Mr. Richardson borrowing Alex. Diggs' pet phrase, declared the whole thing "a put up job," and just as the trouble threatened to become dangerous Deputy Jenkins and Sgt. Baxter appeared. The hall was soon cleared and the meeting adjourned.

TESLA AND MARCONI.
M. Du Crette a Rival of Both in Wireless Telegraphy.

PARIS, Jan. 18.—M. du Crette, the eminent inventor and savant, has spent the past five years in a special study of wireless telegraphy. It is announced that he has patented a number of inventions relating to the latest mode of signal transmission.

He says that he does not believe that Signor Marconi has solved the problem of wireless telegraphy across the Atlantic, but he feels sure that the feat will be accomplished. He believes that Mr. Tesla is the likeliest to succeed, because he is working at the least perfect end; namely, the transmitter. He regards the receiving apparatus as a combination of the microphone and telephone.

ning of 1900, when a Russian battleship was injured by blocked ice in a rocky headland on the Island of Hohlland, in the Gulf of Finland. He established wireless communication with the town of Kotka, thirty miles away, and sent information, with the result that a number of sailors were carried off an iceberg and the ice ship Yermak was despatched and effected the work of rescue. This receiver has now been introduced into the Russian navy.
 M. du Crette believes that Signor Marconi has employed it in his experiment between the Lizard and Newfoundland.

BRITAIN'S ATTITUDE.

LONDON, Jan. 20.—In the house of commons today the first official statement emanating from the British government in regard to its attitude towards the United States in the war with Spain was made by Lord Cranborne. The matter was brought up in the form of a question asking whether any communication proposing or concerning joint action by the European powers was received from the Austrian or any other government. Lord Cranborne said that no such communication had been received after the outbreak of the war, but before it is communications were received from other powers, suggesting the presentation of a joint note to the president of the United States. The British government first took steps to ascertain what the presentation of the note, as well as its terms, would be acceptable to the president and later declined to associate itself with other proposals which seemed open to objection of putting pressure on the government of the United States and offering an opinion on its action. This statement was received with a burst of cheers.

NEWFOUNDLAND.

TORONTO, Jan. 20.—A special cable from London to the Evening Telegram says: The Times, commenting on the letter of a correspondent dealing with the position of Newfoundland, says: Every Englishman who cares for the welfare and solidarity of the empire must regret the misunderstanding existing between the admiralty at London and the colony concerning the naval reserve which the latter desires, but it is idle to deny that a very large question is involved, that of colonial contributions to imperial defence. Such contributions must be spontaneous, entirely voluntary, and must be an expression of a conviction that the British fleet is maintained as much for their defence as for ours.

NEW GOLD FIELDS.

LONDON, Jan. 18.—It is freely rumored that reports furnished to the British government, as one of many results of a thorough exploration of the hitherto little-known districts of the Transvaal by mobile British columns in pursuit of Botha and De Wet, show that quite a number of new auriferous ranges have been discovered.

Easy for the Thistles.
 Usually the players from the capital are not easily disposed of.
 Skip J. H. Thomson got in the rear, 9 to 1, early in the game, but won out by good playing and support.

The players were not strong in two risks.
 The game which resulted in a failure at Skip Randolph's rink led off with a six end against Percy Robinson's rink.

HOCKEY.

No further entries from church teams having been received by Mr. Prink duly authenticated, the contest for the deoyrea challenge cup will be confined this year to Rother-say and the cup. A Waterloo is predicted for the Toronto club.

SKATING.

In the race last night between Willis and Bart Duffy, Willis finished the seven laps in 1:27.5. At the end of the sixth lap Duffy, who was a few feet in the lead, stopped, claiming that he had a flat tire. Understand that he had finished the last lap.

THE RING.

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—Tom Sharkey and negotiating with the fighters and has already received Sharkey's consent to meet Maher.

Hurst is now waiting to hear from Maher and if the latter accedes to the terms already offered him the contest will be decided in ty of Saint John:

act with the architect in the matter of jail improvements begs leave to report:

That in accordance with a resolution of this council they called for tenders for necessary cell and other documents for the jail and received seven tenders, the lowest of which was for $1,200, being the lowest, was acrates and taxes due by them respectively, and the several highway boards shall in case the amount of any order given by them is to be divided among several persons, then the names of such persons and the several amounts due them shall accompany such order.

And further that the secretary require the several collectors of rates to furnish any information that they may have which would assist him in the collection of said rates and taxes.

They further recommended that the committee on bills for the legislature and by-laws be authorized to prepare a bill to be presented at the next session of the legislature for enactment to authorize the issue of debentures to the amount of seven thousand dollars, for the purpose of paying off the indebtedness incurred in the purchase of the isolation hospital, such debentures to be twenty years, three and one-half per centum per annum and non-assessable.

The committee also report that under the authority of this council a loan of ten thousand dollars was negotiated with the Bank of New Brunswick at four and three-quarters per centum per annum to pay in part the expense incurred by the smallpox epidemic in this city and county such loan to be repaid on the first day of July next.

To the Warden and Council of the Municipality of the City and County of Saint John:

they caused the judge's, sheriff's and grand jury rooms to be newly papered

WHAT SMALLPOX COST.

The Board of Health Makes a Full Statement Concerning the Epidemic.

At the meeting of the municipal council this afternoon the board of health submitted a report of expenditures made in the fight against small-pox.

The council will, it is understood, ask the provincial government to bear a portion of the expense for the reason that the measures taken here served as a protection for other portions of the province.

In the epidemics recently in Resigouche and Westmorland a share of the expense was contributed by the government.

The report submitted this afternoon was as follows:

At the special meeting of the municipal council, held in November last, a committee from such council was appointed to act with this, the local board of health for the city and county of Saint John, with power to acquire an additional epidemic hospital at a cost not to exceed the sum of $10,000.

Subsequently the Morland farm on the Sandy Point road was purchased, the conveyance being made to the municipality for the sum of $7,000, which sum was paid by the municipality.
This property is now designated the "isolation hospital."

At the said meeting further sums were ordered to be paid from time to time to this board, being the estimated expenses to that date, and additional estimated expenses, aggregating in all a sum not to exceed, in addition to the above $10,000, $13,000.

The total expenses to date incurred by this board attributable to the introduction here of the case of small-pox by the Barton sailor, who went to the General Public hospital on the thirtieth day of September last, are as follows:

Vaccinations	$2,940 75
Vaccine	802 80
Total vaccination ex- penses	$3,743 55
Guards	4,556 95
Groceries	1,600 00
Coal and wood	178 25
Medical attendance	771 25
Fitting up "isolation hospi- tal" with cost of running same for 11-2 months	2,376 27
Miscellaneous accounts	1,506 00 $14,732 37

A considerable portion of the above sum has not yet been paid.
The total amount received by this board from the municipality on such special account is $12,000, not including the cost of the "isolation hospital." Deduct from the total expenses as above estimated to date

$14,732 37

Amount of the special grant ordered at the last special meeting

13,000 00

Leaving a balance, being excessive expenditure or liability incurred over anount ordered to be paid

The board are of opinion that the spread of smallpox here has been successfully checked, and that there will be but few cases hereafter. It will be necessary, however, to continue the "isolation hospital" until the disease is entirely stamped out. Probably the average cost for the next three months may be estimated at $1,000 per month, but in order that there may be sufficient funds to enable the board to successfully cope with any fresh outbreak it would be well for the municipal council to give authority to a committee of the council to grant a further sum of $1,000 in addition to the sum of $1,000 per month, making in all the sum of $4,000, in addition to the balance as above stated.

The board of health therefore ask that the sum of $2,732.37 be paid to them, and that in addition a committee of your council may be authorized on the requisition of this board of health to grant this board a further sum not exceeding the said sum of $4,000.

It may be presumed that the lieutenant governor in council will reimburse to this municipality the cost incurred as above for vaccinations, and it is hoped that, as there was danger that the epidemic might have spread so as to endanger the public generally in the province had not such happily been averted, the cost of suppressing the same may be largely assumed by the executive government to be paid for out of the public moneys of the province.

The following is a statement of all the cases of smallpox within this city and county from and including the Barton case to the present time.

Total number of smallpox cases	101
Recovered	72
Died	23
Number having smallpox at pres- ent	6
Treated at isolation hospital	29
Treated at home	23
At epidemic hospital at present	None
At isolation hospital at present	4
At homes at present	2

Besides the four cases of smallpox at the "isolation hospital" there are nine cases ready to be discharged, and three persons suffering with complications.

JAS REYNOLDS,

Chairman of the Local Board of Health for the City and County of St. John.

POLICE COURT.

Barney Devine's Wild Outbreak—Tristram and the Post.

With his arms firmly clasped about a telephone post on Britain street, from which he found it unwise to separate, John Tristram of Norway—not of "Blent"—was discovered by Officers Sullivan and Scott. John, who is a sailor, was bowing politely and making remarks to the post somewhat after the style of "Shiver my timbers.
Cut away the hull, and throw the main deck overboard." These are not the only things he said, but his other observations do not look nice in print.
He had just finished splicing the main brace. This morning Tristram said in court, "I was drinkin' an' I was shleppy. Dot was de droubles." He was fined four dollars or ten days, and after going downstairs produced $2.50, which was tendered in payment of the fine.

James Almon rejoices in the fact that he has not been arrested since last May. He was working during the forenoon, but finished the job and proceeded to lounge up. Almon is a mason's helper, and line is well known as a producer of thirst. He was gathered into the fold by Sergt. Campbell and Officer Lee on Union street, very drunk and very cold. Two or five.

Daniel Maloney, described by Officer Smith as a "quiet drunk," was arrested on Main street yesterday afternoon and got off for two dollars.

Yesterday afternoon Barney Devine, who was let go after his hilarious outburst at Ada Wilson's house, upon promising to lead a model life, has evidently forgotten both the wild promises made and the fact that others are depending on him. He became suddenly yesterday evening and caused a lot of trouble on Dock street. Devine stole a macintosh from Drucker & Web-ber's store on Dock street. He was caught by Mr. Webber, who, while getting the coat back was struck on the mouth by Devine. Then Barney went to Israel Kaplan's on Mill street and swiped an overcoat. The services of Officer Boyle were requisitioned and the further proceedings are entrusted in a haze of uncertainty. Officer Boyle received several severe kicks, his arm, finger and ear are somewhat mangled, the work of Devine's teeth, his cheek was nearly torn open, but he landed his man. The passage to the central station was made on Ungar's delivery sled, and it bears signs of the prisoner's futile attempts to get away. Devine was brought before the magistrate this morning, charged with stealing two coats, assaulting Mr. Webber, violently resisting the police and damaging the sled. He stated that he had been drunk at the time and could not remember anything about the affair.

Evidence was given by Officer Boyle in the charge of resisting arrest and damaging the sled, by Webber regarding the assault and stealing the macintosh, and by Kaplan on stealing the overcoat. The examination, which was a preliminary one, was postponed till

SOME CHARLOTTE STREET CHANGES.

Quite a number of business changes will be made in the city during the coming spring, and of these Charlotte street has more than a fair share.

It has been rumored that Charles Lang, the restaurant keeper, is going out of business shortly, but this is without foundation.

W. H. Fairall is selling out, and his store is now to let. As yet no one has been in to look at the place with a view to leasing. As the location is a good one it is not probable that the place will be long vacant.

C. B. Robertson will shortly move from his present stand to the building between King and Princess street now occupied by C. S. Everett.

The store at present occupied by C.
B. Robertson has practically been leased, although the names of the lessees are not yet made public. It is, however, understood that a new firm will open in that place, in the same line of business as is carried on by Mr.
Robertson.

S. J. Richey, the tobacconist, has given up the portion of his establishment fronting on Charlotte street and will transfer his shop to the building now occupied by him as a billiard room, fronting on North Market street.
The bowling alley and billiard tables will be run as heretofore.

The rumor that a King street firm have taken the large building on the corner of Charlotte and North Market streets is not correct. The present tenants, with the exception of S. J.
Richey, will remain in possession.

C. S. EVERETT'S NEW BUILDING.

Work has been in rapid progress for a week on the foundation of the new building which Charles S. Everett is to utilize for his furniture business. He has taken the one story building next to his present store on Charlotte street and will extend it back until it reaches 100 feet from the street. He will thus have a one-story building 100x18 feet, and in the rear of this there will be a two-story building 50x50 feet. He will thus have much more room altogether than he has had in the three-story building he now occupies and which is to be occupied by C. B. Robertson, as a dry goods store.

Mooney & Son have the masonry contract on Mr. Everett's building and will complete it by March 1st. John Duffy will do the carpenter work, and finish the contract by April 1st. From the street front the building will not convey any idea of the large floor space Mr. Everett will have for the display and storage of furniture. With his new furniture store and Mr. Robertson's dry goods establishment next door, that part of Charlotte street will be quite a different place, from a business standpoint, by May-day.

age of Red Rose.

Members of No. 2, Scots Company, are requested to meet tonight at headquarters.

We beg to say that it is our intention to continue the following agencies during the year 1902:

"Chickering," "Newcombe," "Gerhard Heintzman," and
"Mason & Hinch" Pianos, and
"Mason & Hamlin" Organs.

Much experience has proved to us that in this collection we have the finest representation of pianos and organs sold in this country, and the fact that our sales during the past year have been far in excess of any previous year, is the strongest assurance of their popularity that the public could give.

Our sales in 1901 were over $30,000 ahead of 1900.
