More Than $40,000,000 Decline in First Four Months of Year.

Canadian Press Despatch. Ottawa, Aug. 19. — A decrease of more than $40,000,000 in the value of goods imported into Canada for con sumption in the Dominion during the first four months of the fiscal year, as compared with the same period in 1923-24, is shown in the trade state-ment issued through the customs department this morning.

Total importations during the four months ending July 31 were to the value of $271,288,585, while a year ago they amounted to $314,153,440 Despite this decline the decrease in the grand total of Canadian trade for the four-month period as compared governor of Nebraska, who has for with the same period a year ago, is but $22,579,852. Bylaw Urged To Prevent Young Girls Going to Dances Alone.

WRITE TO TORONTO

That London has the necessary power and authority to regulate dance pavilions as her council may see fit, is the opinion of the attorney general's department expressed in a letter received today by the city clerk.

In this letter it is stated that the city of Toronto has already under the act taken the matter into its own hands, and that there is nothing

SHOW NEW LIFE

Muskegon took the first game of the series yesterday, 3-2, before some 60 odd fans-odd mostly, because they braved almost certain rain, leaden skies and a hint of November chill in the air, and were rewarded with the best game of the present long string of home games.

London was literally within a foot -Connolly's No. 11E width foot-of tleing it up in the ninth, when Mike Baker doubled, and as Stutz shot the sacrifice bunt, dashed madly for home, only to be the second victim of the dual slaying. Connolly's foot had the plate blocked perfectly.

O'Brien shot a short single to centre, and scored when Connolly's hit to right, instead of bouncing as it should have done, sizzled along on the grass and through Tice's legs for a double. Myers was put out of the game by Umpire Legg in the fifth frame, after decision made at second, and in the sixth the Muskies rioted again with

New Standards of Tire Performance Proclaimed By Car

Just one thing is responsible for the remarkable public acceptance of Firestone full-size Gum-Dipped Balloons-the wonderful performance of these tires on the cars of users. Everywhere, from Victoria to Halifax, come reports of new and exhilirating experiences-of trips made over all kinds of roads in wonderful comfort and without fatigue, of perfect safety and of new mileage. Follow the example of motorists of long experience and make the changeover on your car. Insist on Balloon Gum-Dipped Cords mounted on small diameter wheels, applied anywhere at low cost by Firestone service dealers.

Or, if you are buying a new car, make cer tain of superlative ease, sure road grip and car conservation by demanding full-size balloon

It is the combination of Firestone gumdipping, Firestone design, construction and Steam-Welded Tubes that assure you the full measure of balloon tire superiority.

"Fynacts More Effectively"

Since February last we have been using Firestone Balloon Tires on our Bluebird Shaw Taxi No. 40. We have also found that these Tires do not skid so readily and brake much more effectively than the high pressure Tires. The mileage to date of these Tires approximates 12,000, and from their present appearance they would seem to be good for at least another 12,000 miles. We have had no trouble from punctures.

ALEX. McGARR, Sightseeing Autos, Taxis, Montreal, Que.

d appear to me as though one might reaoly expect considerably more mileage from tires than from the ordinary cord tire.

WM. STEWART, Ottawa, Ont.

"No More Rumbles" I have had excellent results with these tires, they have eliminated the rumbling noise in my car, and make riding a real pleasure. Crossing car tracks and going over bad spots in the road is now like driving on a pavement. HUGH E. MACNAB, Halifax, N.S.

"Riding Qualities Improved"

By equipping my car with Firestone Balloon Tires I found that the riding qualities were considerably improved, for they seem to absorb the shocks from the numerous bumps which are so noticeable with ordinary tires.

L. PARROTT, Saskatoon, Sask.

"Thorough Satisfaction" One of our demonstrating cars has travelled over 10,000 miles with very little apparent tire wear which precludes any doubt as to the ultimate mileage expectancy. This is so unusual that we tale pleasure in letting you know of the thorough satisfaction we are having with Firestone Balloon Tires.

W. F. DONLIN, Sales Manager,
Reo Motor Sales Company, Toronto, Ont.

"All Vibration Disappeared"

As to riding qualities, in my opinion there is as much difference between ordinary pneumatic tires and full size Balloon Tires as there is between ordinary pneumatic tires and solid tires. All vibration and the continual annoying chassis rattle has disappeared, due to the tires absorbing the small holes and bumps in the road.

JAMES H. LUCAS, Vancouver, B.C. "Rides 50 Per Cent Smoother"

This spring I equipped my Star Touring Car with a set of Firestone Balloon Tires. They have given me perfect satisfaction, and make the car ride at least fifty per cent. smoother. I cannot detect any loss of power, and I can make much better time on the country roads, as they make the ordinary rough road like pavement, not necessitating slowing up for rough going. I certainly would not like to change back to high pressure tires. M. H. TESKEY, Killarney, Man.

"The Greatest Improvement That Could be Added"

Could be Added"

I have given them a very fair test, having driven them 1275 miles within so short a time, and at a season when test was quite varied, having used them on icey rutted roads, also on pavements coated with fresh snow, without the slightest tendency of skidding. They respond excellently to use of brakes and have fine steering qualities, all of which goes to make motoring a pleasure. This is my seventh car and believe that Balloon Tires are the greatest improvement that could be added to make safe and pleasant motoring.

W. R. TURNBULL, Brantford, Ont. "The Ultimate Equipment"

I wish to say that the comfort is totally different than any car I have ever ridden in. Might also add that the braking is simply wonderful. I believe that the balloon tire is the ultimate equipment for a motor car.

Mysterious Planet Is Seven Million Miles Nearer the Earth This Week.

THEORIES MANY

Giant Telescopes of Six Coast Observatories Have Swung Into Action.

> By L. C. OWEN. Special to The Advertiser. Copyright.

Lick Observatory, Mount Hamilton Aug. 20.—Although giant telescopes of six Pacific Coast observatories have swung into action and a small army of astronomical savants is sleeping by day and scanning the heavens by night, it is improbable that Mars, in its trip to a point seven million miles nearer the earth this week, will divulge the momentous secret of whether it is inhabited.
Furthermore, if the learned as tronomers who, through long study know more about the war god planet than any other humans, are to be quoted strictly according to their viewpoints, it is probable that mankind will never be able to learn that ecret definitely. Because of the clearer atmospheric enditions prevailing here, more than hree score astronomers, some of them famous the world over, and most of whom believe that Mars may be inhabited either by animal or human life, started the most intimate studies they ever have been able to make of

At that time the mystery planet started moving in what scientists term "opposition" to the earth, and during the trip will narrow down the usual forty-two million mile away orbit on which it travels to a more studies of Mars, however, will continue for almost ten days thereafter more distant forty-two million mile pathway. most powerful telescopes yet invented by men, among them the famous hundred-inch reflecting mirror telescope at Carnegie Solar Observatory Mount Wilson, Southern California. The principal studies, however, will be made from Lowell Observatory, Arizona, where Dr. Percival Lowell, famous astronomer, recently completed his epochal photographic study of Mars, and from Lick Obpains in his abdomen. The Sunday study of Mars, and from Lick Obfollowing he was forced to take to servatory here. consensus of opinion among astronomers is that Wednesday night's opportunity to study the red planet at the closest range possible in more than half a century, will not be productive of anything particular-ly startling from the layman's view-From the scientific standpoint, however, the observations expected to have an important bearing, for the star-gazing savants hope to verify in a measure their belief that Mars has atmospheric condi-tions like mother earth, that she has a north and a south pole, and that there apparently are different zones temperature just like those that gird this world. Such successful observations as may be made, however, are expected to be largely cumulative in their effect, and merely to strengthen the theory already in existence that the planet has atmospheric conditions somewhat similar to this world, and herefore must be inhabited by some orm of animal life. Astronomers gathered here, but who have been unable to make observations for the past two nights because of the etheral haze which has cause of the etheral haze which has intruded itself between the earth and Mars, are united in the opinion that no telescope yet has been invented that will permit them to determine whether forms of vegetation exist on the distant planet, or whether it has any forms of life.

Noted Savant Speaks.

Anropos this belief. Dr. R. A. Tucker, director of Lick Observatory here, and internationally known as an astronomic savant says:
"While most scientific men who have been studying Mars believe it possibly is inhabited by some form of animal or human life—conditions there appropriately an internal states." here apparently making such forms of life possible—we probably never will be able to determine such a fact definitely. Montreal, Aug. 20.—Signor Guiseppe Mauiro, Neapolitan owner of a house in the east end of this city is also the proprietor of a unique sub-terranean farm. Inventory of the furred and feathered inhabitants of the "farm yard" taken by Fire Com-missioner Ritchie revealed the fact that the original population comprised three pigs, two goats, about 40 chickens, all of which were fiank-ed in the cellar by a large barrel, a pile of coal and a stack of wood. Over the farm yard live Guiseppe, his wife, their nine children, the hus-band of one of the girls and a newly out in the Mauiro house on August finished yesterday, when all the roads to the only casualties in the blaze were oiled. This gives the oil plenty

NOTED ARMY BAND TO PLAY IN CITY

Winnipeg Musicians Will Visit London on August 27.

On August 27 Londoners who have heard the city bands of the Salvation Army playing the stirring marches and sweet music of the hymn on the city squares will be treated to a musical festival by the Winnipeg Citadel band.

The band will visit London for one day. It will go to Toronto and other cities before returning to the west. The Winnipeg Citadel Band of Winnipeg. Canada, was established in the year 1886. Being conceived on truly Salvation Army lines at its inception, its aim has been to give the citizens of Winnipeg music of the highest order, with the one aim, to highest order, with the one aim, to bring blessing and cheer to the human heart through turning the thought toward the Creator. Just how well this has been accomplished can be realized, when the organization is now recognized as a splendic factor in the musical, spiritual and artistic life of Winnipeg.

The band has passed through many changes and vicissitudes, not the least being the enlistment of over thirty members of the total personnel of forty during the world war, but with the return of many of the members after the cessation of hostilities, the band has gone through a period of recontruction, and today, under the leadership of Bandmaster Henry G. Merritt stands out as a typical and representative Salvation Army

In addition to playing a fundamental part in the forwarding of music of a religious character in Winnipeg and district, the band has toured Western Canada on three occasions. Visits are made to jails, and visits paid to the Stony Mountain Peni-tentiary are always looked forward to by the government officials and prisoners alike. The organization has played at the Government House at the request of the lieutenant-gover-nor, Sir James Aikens.

GOOD FRIENDS WORTH MUCH TO ERRING LAD

Sentence Suspended on Barnardo Home Boy Who Stole Bicycle.

The value of good friends was strikingly illustrated in court this morning, when William Nichol, a Barnardo Home boy, was released on appropriate stress was released on the court of the c suspended sentence by Deputy Mag-suspended sentence by Deputy Mag-istrate Gladman. Nichol had prev-iously pleaded guilty to stealing a bicycle from Mayor Wenige. He was remanded for sentence some days ago. In the interval the police received letters from Barnardo Home, authorities, testifying to Home authorities testifying to Nichol's good character, and friends of the boy put a good word in for him to Magistrate Graydon. The ourt pointed out that but for the ctivities of these friends Nichol ould ordinarily be sentenced to the

He indicated that South Africa, with a complicated native problem, had an Asiatic population far outnumbering the combined Asiatics of returned to their own countries. He also mentioned that of the 161,000 Asiatics of the Union of South Africa, 102,000 were born in it.

NOW HANGS IN BALANCE

The domino championship of London East is still hanging in mid-air. The battle for the championship was scheduled to take place at No. 2 fire hall yesterday afternoon between W. H. Heard and Dave Tindall. One game was played and another started, but Mr. Heard declared that Dave was trying to beat him by not sticking to the set rules of dominoes Heard had already won the firs game, and Dave explained that all he wanted to do was to win one of the games and then he would give the other one to him. This did not atisfy both parties, so it was decided to hold the match some other time.

New York Expects To Absorb Part of Federal Loan.

Associated Press Despatch.

New York, Aug. 20. - The New

New York, Aug. 20. — The New York Times, with reference to the coming flotation of a Canadian loan, says this morning:

Latest advices from Canada indicate that the refunding loan which the Dominion government will float that the load in the case that the divided between Canada in the case of the will be divided between Canada in the case of the will be divided between Canada in the case of the case next fall will be divided between Canadian and New York banking interests. The understanding is that a decision has been reached to limit the loan to an amount not in excess of $200,000,000. The funds raised will be reached to refund the victory law of the loan to an amount not in excess of $200,000,000. The funds raised will be used to refund the victory loan of 1919 and treasury bills which together aggregate $199,270,650.

Any amount raised here and not required in Canada will, it is understood, probably be invested in the New York Market, in which case it is believed that the Canadian dollar, instead of being at a discount, may go to a premium, as it did undersimilar circrumstances in October and November, 1922. The Canadian loan looms as one of the major financial operations due this fall.

EUROPEAN CORN-BORER GAINING IN MIDDLESEX

Concluded From Page 1. fested districts are usually those in which a broom factory exists. Outlines Action. Mr. Finn has distributed, through the co-operation of cheese factories, creameries and farmers' clubs, about 10,000 pamphlets, explaining how to combat the insidious worm. The advice was prepared by Mr. Finn and

Following is an outline of the con-

"At the present time the northern half of Middlesex County is only lightly infested with the European corn borer, though a few borers can be found in almost every corn field; but the southern half, being nearer to the original source of infestation in Elgin County, has numerous borders, some fields having approximately 50 per cent of the stalks attacked. Almost all this infestation has taken place the last four or five years, for in 1919 scarcely a farmer in the county had seen a borer. When we keep this in mind and also the fact that the borers are now everywhere, and that the total number is up in the millions, is it not logical to conclude that, if the present rate of progress continues and nothing is done to check it, only a few years will elapse until the borers will have become so abundant that corn growing will have to be abandoned? Some farmers in Elgin, in fact, has almost reached the stage where she must act at once or lose her corn jinkstyr. Elective to be abandoned? Remember of the Montreal investment firm of H. B. Robinson & Company, Limited, who are placing a large stock issue for the recently incorporated National Manufacturing Company. This is a consolidation of a number of long established firms, including the Cossitt Company of Brockville, manufacturers of agricultural implements, since, 1835. The Canada Stove Company of Ontario, incorporated 1903, and subsidiaries in Saskatchewan and Alberta. Sales offices have been established in St. Paal, Minnesota, and Morristown, New York, and this market should develop rapidly. It is the intention of the company to concentrate on the manufacture of fire extinguishers and milking machines. 75% to the original source of infestation 61 in Elgin County, has numerous born the stage where she must act at once or lose her corn industry. Fortunately the farmers there now recognize the danger and will practice common control measures henceforth. Middlesex, even though she has suf-fered but little loss yet, should do the same without delay and not wait until control measures are begun now and kept up annually there is no reason why the borer should ever do much damage in the county.

Methods of Control.

"The methods of control are simple, inexpensive and not contrary to good farm practices. To get a clear idea of them it is necessary to keep in mind that the borers winter over and remain until the end of May in any part of the corn plant above ground large enough to conceal them; hence they will be found in the stalks, stubble, cobs or any remnants of the crop left in the field or elsewhere. They will also be to some extent in stout weeds growing among the corn. Control measures, therefore, and both vegetables and fruits were selling fairly well.

The quality of corn offered has not improved a great deal within the past few days, most of the ears appearing small and stunted. The prevailing figure is between 25c and 30c a dozen. Good quality celery was seen today, though the offerings were few. Ten cents a bunch was the usual price.

A few baskets of red cherries were offered at $1 each.

Another fruit was black currants. Growers were asking 20c a box and $1.35 to $1.50 a basket.

Three loads of hay comprised today's grain market. One load sold for $12 a ton, a new high, but the fact that the buyer lived in a remote district was responsible for the top price. The other two loads brought $11 a ton.

Oats are still scarce, with no immediate hopes for an adequate supply.

Live hogs are now quoted at $10.50 to corn. the corn. Control measures, therefore, consist mainly in so treating these that the borers will be destroyed. If there is a silo this is easy for all that is necessary then is to cut the cropp low, ensile it, plow the stubble under completely and not drag it up again when cultivating. The cutting knives diate hopes for an adequate supply.

Grain Markets Canadian Press Despatch.

Winnipeg, Aug. 19.— The wheat market was inclined to be erratic today, with the general tendency downward. After the opening, which was $4c to $4c lower, due to lower Liverpool cables, selling pressure from the "long side" came out, which caused a break of about $1\frac{1}{2}c \text{ during the first hour. Here the market ran into some good buying on orders from the seaboard, which looked like export business, and caused prices to react to the high point of the day, when October touched $1.38\frac{3}{4}$. On this advance the buying power faded away, and prices sank to new levels, and the buying against "puts" was the only thing that saved the market from a drastic break. At the close, which was weak and around the low of the day, October was $3\frac{3}{4}c lower, December 2\frac{3}{4}c lower, and May 2\frac{5}{2}c down.

At times the market was fairly active, but the trade volume was not large. The undertone was showing a decided weakness, and some traders believe the decline may reach loc before the market becomes stabilized.

The coarse grains fluctuated more or less in sympathy with wheat, but oats and barley, after declining about $\frac{3}{2}c$ to 1c, came back strong, and held firm to fractionally lower at the close. The trade volume continues small. Scattered liquidation in flax caused losses of 1\frac{1}{2}c to 2\frac{1}{2}c, while rye sustained a loss of 1c to 2\frac{1}{2}c, while rye sustained a loss of 1c to 2\frac{1}{2}c, while rye sustained a loss of 1c to 2\frac{1}{2}c, while rye sustained a loss of 1c to 2\frac{1}{2}c, while rye sustained a loss of 1c to 2\frac{1}{2}c, while rye sustained a loss of 1c to 2\frac{1}{2}c, while rye sustained a loss of 1c to 2\frac{1}{2}c, while rye sustained a loss of 1c to 2\frac{1}{2}c, while rye sustained a loss of 1c to 2\frac{1}{2}c, while rye sustained a loss of 1c to 2\frac{1}{2}c, while rye sustained a loss of 1c to 2\frac{1}{2}c, while rye sustained a loss of 1c to 2\frac{1}{2}c, while rye sustained a loss of 1c to 2\frac{1}{2}c, while rye sustained a loss Winnipeg, Aug. 19. — The wheat arket was inclined to be erratic today, $1.38%.

King Plans Senate Curb

Dealing with the question of the Senate during a speech at Rondeau Park yesterday, Premier Mackenzie King declared that as the machinery of government became more and more democratic there was possibly a special reason for maintaining a second chamber, but in regard to certain measures that the people as a whole were anxious to see enacted it was essential, when the House of Commons had expressed its approval in no unmistakable manner, that some means should be found of preventing the Senate from blocking the will of the people. "We intend," he said, "to see that the second chamber is not made an instrument for defeating the will of the Commons.

"The government would proceed with all due caution in an effort to secure supremacy of the people's will. Any step taken by the government would be with due regard to what the fathers of confederation had in mind when they established the Senate as one of the bodies to be concerned in legislation. But I do believe the people will expect a Liberal government to see that the machinery of government is so arranged as to make possible that the will of the people will prevail in those great measures which are of such great concern to the people as a whole."

there was no further need. As to the indemnity, he told his questioner that indemnity, he told his questioner that instrument for defeating the will of the Commons." let out were those for whose services the will of the people on the farms and in the homes of the country," so spoke Premier W.

L. Mackenzie King before 3,000 people at Rondeau Park, where a great picnic was held under the auspices of the Kent Liberal Association.

"We so sought to shape our finances in the face of great problems that we would be able to reduce our public debt, get rid of the deficit on the face of great problems that we would be able to reduce the reduce that we would be able to reduce the reduce that we would run for parliament instrument for defeating the will of the Commons."

In this connection he recalled how the House of Lords had been prevent-was not too large. As far as Mr. King was personally concerned he would not mind if the indemnity was cut down. But what he did feel was that in that case only men of wealth and means would run for parliament, the Commons."

I don't believe that any citizen of this country can hold that we have a larger proportion or that we have had during the post-war years a larger per cent of unemployed for the entire population than any other country in the world.

"It is true that we had some un-mployment during the past two or three years. It is true that we have some unemployment at the present time. But there would be a good deal less unemployment in the dominion if many of those who find themselves unemployed were as ready to take that which comes to their hand today as men were ready a number of years

Special to The Advertiser. Aylmer, Aug. 19.-The Aylmer Chautauqua closed four big days of entertainment here last night. This was Aylmer's eighth annual Chautauqua, and Aylmer has established a reputation of being one of the best Chautauqua towns in Ontario. Chautauqua has always been a success here.

The concert companies this year were all clever, and the lectures were exceedingly interesting. The outstanding address, however, was given by Geoffrey F. Morgan of California, "Success With East." Bhaskar Hivale of Bombay, India, and Mr. Salteil of Chicago also gave most interesting addresses On Monday wight addresses. On Monday night the pro gram closed with the Plantation Jubilee Singers, one of the best colored troups which has ever visited Ontario on any Chautauqua circuit.

NAVY FOR CANADA

Hon. E. M. MacDonald Declares Matter Entirely Up To People.

SAYS STORY FALSE

Canadian Press Despatch Ottawa, Aug. 19 .- Hon. E. M. Mac-Donald, minister of national defence, on his return from Quebec this afternoon, denied the correctness of an interview with him on the relationship of the visit of the British special service squadron to the speedy con-struction of a Canadian navy.

Mr. MacDonald said: "My attention has been called to the report of an alleged interview with me appearing in the Montreal Star today, in which I am made to say that it is our hope that the visit to our shores of the British squadron will create such a public sentiment as will in the future enable me to expend the necessary funds to build such a navy as will be a credit to Canada and also in the meantime we will do our best to create a sentiment favorable to the creation of such a navy.

"I did not express any such hope," said Mr. MacDonald. "I expressly pointed out that the expenses regarding naval expenditure was entirely matter. tirely a matter for the Canadian people, and that in view of the present extreme burden of taxation I did think a large expenditure for naval purposes was desired by Can-

"I pointed out that a great many people in this country seem to think that contributions of money by the dominions for the upkeep of the British navy was still the policy of the empire. As a matter of fact, the policy settled by the British authorities and all the dominions was that any action on the part of any of the dominions to provide naval defence should come from the people of the dominions interested and should not be one of contributions."
