HEAVY GERMAN ATTACK SOUTH AND SOUTHWEST OF YPRES
Violent Infantry Efforts Follow Bombardment

Entire Front Between Meteren and Voormezele Was Subjected to Bombardment With High Explosive and Gas Shells--Enemy Attempts Against the French Lines Vain

By Courier Leased Wire
London, April 29.—The Germans this morning opened a heavy bombardment with high explosive and gas shells on the entire front between Meteren and Voormezele, south and southwest of Ypres, the war office announced to-day. Infantry attacks developed shortly afterwards.
An enemy attack which developed yesterday afternoon in the vicinity of Loere west of Mont Kemmel, was repulsed.
There was great activity by the hostile artillery during last night from the River Scarpe, opposite Arras, north of Lens, and between Givenchy and Nieppe wood, on the south side of the Lys battle front.
The post near Festubert, north of Givenchy, taken by the Germans last week, was recaptured by British last night. More than 50 prisoners were taken here and other prisoners and machine guns were brought in as a result of raiding operations in sectors

The statement reads:
"The hostile attack developed yesterday afternoon in the neighborhood of Loere, was repulsed by rifle and machine gun fire.
"A heavy bombardment with high explosive and gas shells was opened by the enemy this morning on the whole front from Meteren to Voormezele and infantry attacks are now developing.
"The hostile artillery has also shown great activity during the night from the River Scarpe to Lens and between Givenchy and the forest of Nieppe.
"By a successful operation carried out by us last night, the post in the neighborhood of Festubert, captured by the enemy on the night of April 26-27, was re-taken by us, together with over fifty prisoners.

"A number of prisoners and four machine guns were also secured by us in several raids south of Albert and in the neighborhood of Nenville Vitisse.
"REPULED IN WOOD.
"Bulletins, Paris, April 29.—The Germans made several attempts last night to advance on French positions in Hangard wood, on the front before Amiens, but were checked by the French fire, the war office announced.
"The statement follows:
"During the night the Germans attempted several times to attack the French positions in Hangard wood. Our fire checked all their efforts. There was great activity of the artillery on both sides between Villers-Bretonneux and the Luce River and in the region between Lassigny and Noyon.

"A German raid north of Grivecourt, without result, French detachments penetrated the German lines in the vicinity of Corbeny, near Courcy, on the right bank of the Meuse and in Upper Alsace, bringing back prisoners. There was very heavy artillery fighting at Fossez wood, and Carrières wood (Verdun front).
"On the remainder of the front the night passed in quiet.

AMERICANS IN FIGHTING

By Courier Leased Wire
With the American army in France, Sunday, April 28.—(By the Associated Press)—There was intense fighting activity on the Toul sector to-day. At dawn the Germans began a heavy bombardment against part of our line. This was accompanied by intermittent machine gun and rifle fire.
The enemy's activity is taken to mean that he is striving to keep the Americans busy so they cannot be sent north.
Washington, April 29.—Formal announcement that American troops, sent to reinforce the Allied armies, have taken part in the fighting, is made to-day by the department in its weekly review of the situation.
The review, in emphasizing the immediate need of fresh men to withstand the German onslaught, adds that America's imperative duty is to provide replacement units for the French front.

er efforts to drive the British from Ypres and westward toward the British channel. Only local fighting has been in progress, but indications are not lacking that the Germans have not yet given up hope of striking a crushing blow on the northern battlefield.
Northeast and east of Ypres, Field Marshal Haig has withdrawn his lines to Verlorenhoek and Hooge and has given up famous Hill 60, south of Ypres. On the south the British hold Voormezele after two days of German bitter fighting, so that the Germans are still two miles from ruined Ypres, which is being bombarded vigorously especially with gas shells.
From Verlorenhoek westward there has been no fighting as was witnessed in the past week, except around Loere, where the French have been fighting withstanding the enemy. A foothold was gained in Loere Saturday by the enemy and they are reported making ready for another effort to drive the French northward separate Scharpenburg from Mont Rouge. These two heights are links in the chain of hills running westward from Mont Kemmel and the German purpose evidently is to drive the French before them and take the elevations by flank movements.

In Picardy there has been no activity except by the artillery, the German cannon being very active on the front east of Arras from Villers-Bretonneux to the Luce River.
The French official announcement last Wednesday that American troops were now in the line, the British and French in holding up the German advance toward Amiens is confirmed in an Associated Press dispatch direct from the new American positions.
It is believed the Germans hope by this show of activity to prevent the movement of American troops to the Northern part of the western front.

Struggle For Two Villages is Waged With Bitterness

Loere and Voormezele the Scene of Tremendous Battle, British Hanging to Latter and Holding Along Canal

With the British Army in France, April 28.—Hard fighting continued about Loere and Voormezele, but elsewhere thus far to-day has been a day of rest for the infantry as a whole. The battle for Loere and Voormezele has been most desperate. Both places have changed hands several times in the past twenty-four hours, and at the latest reports it was an "even break," for the British were in possession of Voormezele, while the enemy seems to have succeeded early in the day in getting a foothold in Loere again.
An engagement north of the Ypres-Gomains Canal was in progress throughout most of the night, with the British holding doggedly and inflicting heavy losses on the attacking troops. The German casualties in this part of the front have been very severe.
The German artillery was to-day smothering the ruins of Ypres in gas and there was considerable artillery firing all along the line. Loere has changed hands at least five times since Friday. The Germans forced their way into the village after a sanguinary battle Friday, but were thrust out by a French counter-attack that night. Yesterday in the forenoon the enemy again attacked heavily and recovered the village, only to lose it when the French countered in the afternoon. This morning's assault was delivered about 4 o'clock, and while the Germans had apparently gained entrance to the place their tenure of

WEKERELE UNDERTAKES TO FORM NEW CABINET

By Courier Leased Wire
Amsterdam, April 28.—Dr. Alexander Wekerle, according to a Budapest despatch to the Lokal Anzeiger of Berlin, has accepted the invitation of Emperor Charles to form a cabinet in succession to the one under his premiership, which he resigned recently. He conferred for two hours Saturday with Count Tisza, former premier. Dr. Wekerle plans a coalition cabinet on the basis of a compromise regarding the suffrage reform bill.
A split in the cabinet over the suffrage reform bill caused the resignation of the Wekerle ministry on April 17. Efforts to form a new cabinet failed owing to the demands of the Karolyi and Socialist parties. A despatch from Amsterdam on April 26 indicated that Dr. Wekerle again would be asked to take the helm.

DUTCH YIELD TO DEMANDS OF GERMANY

Agree to Allow Transport of Sand and Gravel Through Holland

By Courier Leased Wire
The controversy between Holland and Germany, it is reported unofficially in despatch to London, has been settled by Holland agreeing to the transport of sand and gravel through Dutch territory from Germany to Belgium. In yielding to Berlin's demands the Dutch government is understood to have stipulated that the amount of sand and gravel, used in making concrete, must be limited and cannot be used for military purposes. Rumors in The Hague are that Foreign Minister Louren van der Sijpe will resign as a result of the passing of the diplomatic crisis.

LEGAL STEPS TO BE TAKEN

In Connection with the Condition of the Body Of the Late Alfred Isaacs Buried on Reserve

The Courier some time ago referred to the fact that before the burial of the late Alfred Isaacs, done last night by ex-Constable Poycan, the head was removed from the body. Major Smith, Superintendent of the Six Nations Indians, authorized the exhuming of the remains in the Scar Spring cemetery where he was interred, and on examination it was found that the body was naked and the arms tied together, although they had not been in that condition when the relatives last saw the body.
The Major reported these facts to the Department at Ottawa, and he has received word, authorizing him to enter upon legal proceedings in connection with the matter. In this regard the services of Mr. W. S. Brewster, K.C., have been retained. It is not known yet whether civil or criminal action will be entered.

NOVA SCOTIA MINERS Will Return to Work Temporarily Pending a Settlement of Grievances

By Courier Leased Wire.
Sydney, N.S., April 28.—For three days at least, commencing to-day the mines of the Nova Scotia Steel and Coal Company in Sydney Mines, will be again operating, the men having decided to return to work temporarily. The decision to return to work was made at a meeting held yesterday afternoon in St. Mary's Hall, Sydney Mines. It was then decided that if no further attempts are made by the company to adjust the grievances the men will discontinue working on Wednesday.

INDEPENDENT LABOR PARTY Is Not Favored by Gompers Exception Taken to His View

By Courier Leased Wire.
Ottawa, April 28.—Speaking at a meeting of local labor men Saturday night Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, strongly advised against the formation of an independent Labor Party and its entering into the political arena. He stated he believed that the workers should be left free to vote for any party or candidate and

Overthrow of Bolsheviki Rule in Russia Reported

Rumors of Revolution by Which Grand Duke Alexis Was Placed on Throne, are Prevalent; New Government Will Not Recognize Germano-Bolshevik Peace Treaty

Despatches from Petrograd and Moscow, dated Tuesday last, give no indications of the reported revolt in Petrograd on behalf of the former Grand Duke Alexis Nikolaevich. Swedish newspapers continue to report that Alexis has been proclaimed Emperor and that the new Government will not be bound by the Germano-Bolshevik peace treaty. It is declared disorders were reported in Russia Thursday.
Meanwhile the Germans and White Guards are rapidly approaching the Russian border north of Petrograd and the dissolution of the Red Guard revolt is not to be far off.
The two largest Red Guard forces have been cut off from each other and the capture of Viborg, 75 miles northwest of Petrograd, by the Germans is expected shortly. Communication between Viborg and Petrograd has been severed.
In Transcaucasia the Turks continue their forced occupation of territory ceded in the Brest-Litovsk treaty and report the capture of Kars. Guns to the number of 800 were taken, Constantinople says.

TREATY DENOUNCED

London, April 29.—The latest Russian Government in Petrograd, according to The Aftonbladet of Copenhagen, says in Exchange Telegraph despatch, has denounced the Brest-Litovsk treaty with Germany. It calls for a new treaty with Estonia under Russian rule.
An Associated Press despatch from Stockholm Saturday reporting rumors that former Grand Duke Alexis has been declared Emperor of Russia in a counter-revolution, added that the new Government would refuse to recognize the new treaty with Germany. Estonia borders on the southern coast of the Gulf of Finland and extends from the Gulf of Riga to near Petrograd. It has been reported that Emperor William was to become Duke of Estonia and that Estonia was to be closely allied to Germany.

SITUATION BETTER ON WEST FRONT

Week-end Reports are Encouraging; Foe Advance Once More Halted

By Courier Leased Wire
London, April 29.—(Via Reuters' Ottawa Agency)—Week-end reports from the front are distinctly encouraging, showing that the Germans have been prevented from exploiting the Kimmel success, thanks to the stout Anglo-French resistance. On the whole, indeed, the Germans have been pushed back somewhat, losing even heavier than they did in the storming of Mont Kemmel. The French at Loere and the British at Voormezele, two local points of fighting, fought with the most furious tenacity. Though neither place can be called vital to any line of defence, yet the resistance has hampered progress of the enveloping movement which the enemy now seems to be directing against the next chain of heights. Little doubt is entertained that the enemy, having failed to roll up the British army from Givenchy to Arras, has decided to strike northward for the coast with all his weight.

Reuter correspondent at British headquarters says if the enemy attempts to carry the strongly defended hills by frontal attack or reduce them by a converging movement, he will find the operation of the costliest kind. There is abundance of evidence that the hardest struggle is in prospect in this area. The Germans are bringing up new divisions, while the enormous gunpower accumulated on both sides is shelling the roads, towns and hills in the rear continuously and Ypres has been drenched with gas shells.
Writers in London discuss the regrettable possibility of the abandonment of Ypres, so long the northern buttress of the Allied line, drenched with British blood as no battlefield, but they emphasize that it is for Foch to decide whether it is too costly to hold or so vital that every effort must be made to recover the positions whence the Germans are now threatening it. The conclusion drawn from the course of events is that Germany is far from achieving a quick decision and that we must expect heavy and continuous fighting all summer.

The Times, which has not been unduly optimistic, says there is a growing conviction that the first swift German advances went recurrent. "This is to be a very long battle and it is not going quite as Hindenburg and Ludendorff planned, and expected."
Information to the American Labor delegation now visiting England, says The Daily Mail, emphasized the effect of common suffering and solidarity in the struggle for freedom against tyranny. In bringing the British and American nations closer together, it adds:
"This is, as Sir Campbell Stuart said, the God given hour for learning to know and understand each other better. On each nation in the Alliance has come in turn the bitter burden of this war. On France first, then upon Italy and now upon Great Britain, whose efforts in so many fields, naval, shipping, industrial, and military we hope we may say without boasting, have not fallen below the standard of our ally. "The Americans," he said, "have not yet struck except in small detachments, but they are crossing the Atlantic as fast as ships can move them."

THE SITUATION.

The British have evacuated other portions of Flanders and the evident intention is an effort to force through this territory to the Channel ports. The Times and other British newspapers have given the intimation that this design may succeed, but that even so the incident will not mark an absolute German triumph. It is the general anticipation that somewhat of a lull in the fighting is merely the prelude to another Teuton attack in force. An unconfirmed report has been received of another revolution in Petrograd with the son of the former Czar proclaimed as Emperor and Grand Duke, Michael as Regent. Washington is of opinion that the news has been disseminated by Germany as an excuse for a still more vigorous exercise of the iron hand in the new Republic. Apprehension is said to be growing in Germany over the tremendous price which the Fatherland has had to pay in men in connection with recent operations.

In the Transcaucasia the Turks have scored a notable success in capturing the fortress of Kars, and over eight hundred guns. The total casualties in the Zebrugge, Ostend attack were 588. Of these 188 were killed or died of wounds.

HOLLAND'S CASE.

Holland has been placed in a very difficult position since the commencement of hostilities. There can be no doubt at all about that. Back of her runs Germany, and to the side Belgium, with only imaginary lines between that cruelly devastated country, and the region of the lustful war lords. She has an area of little less than thirteen thousand square miles and a population of some five millions. Her canal systems rendered necessary by the low-lying lands, are of a most notable nature and she also has excellent railway communications. Add to these things a very fertile soil and important ports on the North Sea the fact that the Huns would very much like to get hold of her territory becomes readily understood. That she has not remained strictly neutral in the matter of the forwarding of goods is generally known, but taken all in all her conduct has been about as good as might have been expected. To throw in her lot with the Allies at the present time of crisis would be to invite an experience similar to that of Belgium; to hide with Germany would be to have her considerable shipping and colonial interests placed at the mercy of the Allies. It will readily be seen that a decision either way is a most difficult problem for her rulers and yet the Hohenzollern outfit seem to have made up their minds to force the country out of even the neutral content which has been maintained. In this connection it is satisfactory to note that the Telegraaf, a leading paper of Amsterdam, says during the course of an article:

"If Holland is now to be placed at the same cross-roads as Belgium, then the Government may be certain that the nation will rally around it in the hour of danger. Everyone will ardently hope that this coup may be spared us and it is almost unthinkable that the crime which has branded Cain's mark on the forehead of the violator should be repeated against us. But if it must be our motto will be 'They shall not pass.' Neither they nor their necessities. We want peace, but we fear dishonor more than war. Holland will remain herself."

Bravely spoken and it is to be sincerely hoped that the words represent the feeling of the entire people. (Since the above was written a despatch announces that Holland has given way to the extent of allowing sand and gravel to be transported through her territory. Berlin is said to have agreed that this shall not be used in the making of concrete for military purposes, but everyone knows how little that pledge will mean in the case of the scrap of paper brigades.)

THE MARKET QUESTION.

For a good many years the matter of improving the Brantford market has been brought to the fore only to occupy attention for a short while and then to fall back again into a condition of collapse. That many radical and up-to-date changes could be introduced to the all-round advantage is admitted and there is no earthly reason why a comprehensive plan should not be aduced and then pushed forward to a successful conclusion.

In the first place it is admitted that there should be some sort of cover in the interests of vendors and purchasers alike. Canada is a country of extremes with regard to both heat and cold and it is not a right or proper thing that those having stuff for sale should be forced to stand out on the open square during all kinds of weather. Apart from the humanitarian point of view there is also the undoubted fact that it is a most unhealthy and undesirable thing to have produce exposed to dust and other flying particles. With suitable covered accommodation all these things would be avoided and no matter what the condition of the weather there would be a stability about this centre of trading now altogether lacking during inclement and stormy periods. In this respect the fact should be remembered that where a farmer disposes of his offerings there he does his trading. With sheltered quarters and spaces regularly rented the leaving of goods on the square Friday night in order to ensure positions for Saturday would become obliterated, and the farmers themselves have asked that restrictions with reference to hours of selling be removed, so that they can return earlier to their farms. In these war days when production is one of the prime essentials anything which saves the time of agriculturists is in itself well worth considering. Under the present fee system the receipts last year were $4,110, with expenses of $1,000, or a balance on the right side of the ledger of over three thousand dollars. With such a revenue under the present inadequate and exceedingly faulty surroundings there cannot be any question that the cost of proper equipment would be fully met, as to yearly sinking fund and interest, with in all likelihood a balance in hand. That is the material aspect. The advantages from a health and trading standpoint cannot be computed.

Paris, April 29.—(From Our Own Correspondent).—A unique service was held in the Methodist Church yesterday morning, conducted almost entirely by returned soldiers, and there being in the auditorium of the church some 50 returned soldiers from Paris, in addition to the members of the 2nd C.O.R. band of Brantford, who kindly came up and played their comrades to and from church. The musical portion of the service was hearty and excellent, the choir rendering "Oh, God, Our Help," and a quartette "Lead Kindly Light" by Mrs. J. Scott, Mrs. H. Cross, Messrs. E. W. Kinsey and H. Hill, was much appreciated. A responsive reading was taken by Sgt. C. Barker, while Sgt. Alf. Scott gave a very pointed and frank address. The services were along the same lines as conducted in France, the regimental drums covered with the Union Jack, serving as the pulpit. During his remarks Sgt. Scott pointed out that the soldiers at the front are religious, they have thought out a simple and personal creed, and that embraces "the Fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man" in its most simple sense. The soldier makes sacrifices daily and is ever ready to aid or rescue a wounded comrade or to help another. Paris, April 29.—(From our own correspondent).—Another fair daughter of Paris has left to grace the parts, when Miss Jessie A. Silverthorn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Silverthorn, Walnut street, became the bride of Mr. Edward H. Martin of Brantford. Rev. W. H. Langton officiated. The bride was attended by Miss M. Straughton of town, while the groom was supported by Mr. Jas. E. Harris of Brantford. At the close of the ceremony all adjourned to the diningroom, where a dainty repast was served. All that was mortal of the late Miss Maggie Mae Robinson, was laid to rest in Princeton cemetery this afternoon. Deceased had been ailing for some two years, but only took to her bed three weeks ago, but throughout her trying illness she never murmured, but was always cheerful. She was a daughter of the late A. E. Robinson, and was born at Gobles in 1878. Some eleven years ago, with her mother, she removed to Paris, where by her amiable disposition, she made many friends, who learned of her demise with deep regret. She was a member of the Baptist Church, and until prevented by failing health, always took a deep interest in church work. Besides her mother, five sisters are left to mourn her loss: Mrs. J. G. Reid and Mrs. Theresa Grigg of Woodstock; Mrs. Wesley White of Paris; Mrs. J. D. Richardson of Gretna, Manitoba; and Miss Pearl of the Brantford General Hospital staff, and one brother, Arthur E., of Kitchener. The funeral took place from the residence of her mother, Charlotte Street. The services at the house and grave were conducted by Rev. W. F. Langton.

An old and highly esteemed resident of Blenheim Twp. in the person of Mr. Thos. C. Brand, passed away on Saturday afternoon, in the 90th year of his age. He was born in the city of Albany, N.Y., in 1828, and came to Canada 70 years ago, first settling at Fort Hope, where he engaged in ship building. About 1878 he moved to the farm whereon he died, Lot 5, Con 1, Blenheim Twp., and was known as a successful farmer and a man who held the esteem of all who knew him. He was for some years a member of the School Board and always took an active interest in municipal affairs. His wife died some 15 years ago. Two sons, Elba of Scotland, and Sylvester of Ithica, Michigan, and one daughter, Mrs. Wm. A. Kennedy, of Etonia, are left. The funeral took place from his daughter's residence this afternoon to Paris Cemetery, the services being conducted by Rev. Monsignor of Princeton.

On Saturday afternoon the little two-year-old son of Mr. A. Kuhlmann, Washington street, was very seriously burned by falling into a bonfire that some children had made near his parents' home. Fortunately the child's father was near and he might have been burned to death. As it was the little one's hands, arms, face and neck are badly burned.

Last evening the members of Grand River Lodge, I.O.O.F., observed the 90th anniversary of their order by attending divine service in St. James' Church. There was a good attendance of the brethren, the church being well filled, and the services throughout most heartily taken. Rev. Mr. Adamson delivered a very appropriate and inspiring sermon from St. Luke X, 36-37, that was followed with the closest attention from all.

On Saturday a local merchant was fined $10 and costs for selling cigarettes to a minor. The accused produced orders from men for the purchase of cigarettes, which he thought entitled him to sell the same. Chief Rutherford wishes it understood that no person is authorized to sell tobacco or cigarettes to minors unless on a written order from their parents.

ADDITION TO GRACE CHURCH

New Sunday School and Parish Hall Soon to be Erected

Officials of Grace Church state that all is now virtually in readiness for the erection of the new Sunday School and Parish Hall to replace the present buildings, which have been in use since 1853 and which have long been insufficient to accommodate the number of children attending the Sunday School. The new structure is to be of Gothic architecture and built of brick and stone, inasmuch as far as possible, with the design of the church. It will cost $35,000, of this sum approximately $20,000.00 has already been subscribed in preliminary offerings of the parish, and a special canvass is to be undertaken this week to raise the balance. The new buildings will consist of a basement, a ground floor and a clerical story. In the basement, which will be commodious and well lighted, will be found a kitchen, and the club rooms, gymnasium and social hall, with a seating capacity of over four hundred. The ground floor will be divided into fourteen classrooms by rolling curtains, while in the centre will be the assembly hall. A room will also be provided for the Women's Auxiliary and the men's and boys' choirs, as well as offices for the librarian and the secretary. A gallery erected at the back will provide additional seating accommodation for 150 persons, as well as room for Bible classes. The plans for the building are now in the possession of the rector, the Rev. J. B. Fotheringham and from them may be gleaned an accurate conception of the great acquisition which the structure will constitute to the church when completed.

LAI D AT REST

A HARD ROW TO HOE
 Chapter XII.
 I was perfectly astonished by Elsie's confession. Tom appeared to be so fond of her; that he should have cared for someone else before he married her seemed wrong in some way. When I said something to that effect Elsie answered, "Better before than after, Margaret?"
 "But why either?"
 "It's just a little way men have!" she laughed.
 I often wondered how Elsie could joke about such things. I couldn't although I often had to laugh at her quaint speeches.
 "Not at all," I replied.
 "Most of them dear. A man feels he's been cheated unless he has made love to more than one woman. They are all Mormons at heart. But I did not come over to talk of the ethics of the marriage question; but to tell you that Henry Creedmore is giving a party and has asked me to play hostess. Isn't it dear of him? I just love to be hostess at a bachelor party; especially a rich bachelor. They do things up so splendidly; are so reckless about money. We poor married folks have to count the cost of our affairs. I want to see it!"
 "Why yes," I answered to please Elsie, not that I cared to know who was invited.
 She started to read the names aloud. "Mr. and Mrs. Garrett," she called out gaily.
 "Please do not count us, Elsie." "Not count you and Bob! why not?"
 "Because I'm not going."
 "Are you going to be out of town?" I asked.
 "No! But I am not going to start the winter by going to any affairs of that sort."
 "But Bob—he will want to go you know better; intimate he and Henry Creedmore always have been. Don't do such a foolish thing, Margaret. I feel sure Bob will go with you, and you'll only punish yourself and miss a good time. Be a good sport, Margaret, and give up these notions of yours."
 "Bob will not go either. Please do not urge me, Elsie, it will do no good."
 Elsie said no more, but went on reading the list of guests. I was delighted that I had declined when I saw that it was the crowd of which I so disapproved; that Bohemian crowd whose influence over Bob I felt sure was bad.
 "The Roots are back. They will help me make things interesting," she said as she finished the list.
 "I don't approve of Mrs. Root! she is entirely too unconventional and a little too much of a show-off. I prefer not to know her and the rest of that set any better than I do at present."
 "Well Margaret, it's your funeral not mine! but I'd like to bet a box of gloves that Bob will go."
 "He'll not go! you'll see."
 "For the first time I had known Elsie Langley Barton I was glad to see her go."
 "Hello, Margaret! where are you Bob called when he came in that afternoon."
 "Here in the kitchen making something good for a hungry man!"
 "Well, dear, there's going to be a real party in a few days; Creedmore is going to spread himself; and when Henry does, it is some spreading believe me!" Then, "My but that steak looks good! I am hungry, although I didn't know it until just now. You surely can cook, Margaret," and he gave me a kiss then hurried to tidy a little and play with the baby until called to dinner.
 "How did you know about the party?" I asked.
 "We have received no invitation."
 "We will though! they haven't been sent out yet. Henry told me about it to-day. He's going to have all the old crowd, and it's sure to be a jolly affair; and Margaret, he ran on never giving me a chance to speak, we'll have to do something pretty soon! we can't accept so

LOTS OF WOOD ON HARLEY LOT

Mayor MacBride and a party of aldermen and others paid a visit yesterday to the Biggar tract at Harley, recently purchased by the city for the use of the firewood growing upon it. Plans are being under way for the cutting of the wood, the contract for which will be awarded this week, and it is estimated that over four thousand cords of stove wood will be obtained from the tract. In addition, there are about twenty-five acres clear, which will be sown in beans and potatoes by the city. "There is certainly a fine lot of wood there," observed Mayor MacBride to The Courier this morning. "There are a lot of young trees there, not yet ready to be cut, and to my mind, with proper husbanding, cutting only the older trees first, and allowing the others to mature, the tract would supply the city with wood for five years or more. I am not in favor of the proposal to cut all the wood at once, and then to re-sell the land." The men engaged in clearing the tract will be housed upon the scene, as accommodation is already obtainable. The party from the city which visited the tract yesterday included the Mayor and Ald. Balrd Hurley Hill, Burrows, Clement, C. H. Hartman, who is in charge of the civic wood yard, and Fred Unger, city overseer.

Regulations are Placed on Confectionery

By Courier Leased Wire Ottawa, Ont., April 28.—Drastic war-time restrictions on the use of sugar and shortening in the manufacture of biscuits, cakes or sweet dough products, entire prohibition of the manufacture of certain of these products; curtailment of the sugar consumption of candy manufacturers to one-half the monthly average used by them last year; limitation of the amount of fats and sugar which may be used in the manufacture of ice cream, such are the principal provisions of an order just issued by the Canada Food Board.

YOUTHS ORDERED TO JOIN COLORS

Notices Are Being Sent Out to Men From 20 to 22 Years

TO JOIN BY MAY 15TH

According to the plans of the registrar, all the men in this military district affected by the recent order-in-council from Ottawa, that is, those aged 20, 21 or 22, will be in the uniform by May 15th, with the exception of a few hundred. Notices are already being sent to these men to report with the various depot units, and each man is allowed a clear week to close up his business. No distinction is being made with regard to farmers, or any other class of workmen, the instruction upon which the Registrar is acting being that all must report for service. As a large proportion of the youths of the above ages have not yet heard the medical examination, many of them being farmers who were previously granted exemption on occupational grounds, all are to be given a medical examination immediately after reporting. Those found in grade A will be used at once, while B and C men will have a chance to go before an appeal court for an exemption hearing. These hearings, however will be considerably shorter than those granted the A men last Fall, as the preliminary step of the exemption tribunals has been cut out. The only men of the above ages to be discharged are those who come in category E.

Notices to 'B' Men Judging from the notices which have already gone out to some "B" men, the exemption hearings may not be decided in the man's presence as the notice states that each man will be notified within a week as to the disposition of his case. Owing to the fact that the authorities now have the questionnaires of these men to help them in making their decisions, it will not be necessary for the "B" men to appear before the court, the notice stating that they may do so if they wish. The status of the boy of 19 appears to be occasioning considerable doubt in the minds of those who come within this age, some being under the impression that they will merely be asked to register. This however, is not the case, they must regard themselves as a part of Class One. While the new machinery is being put into operation, the old machinery for hearing the cases of Class One men other than the ages of 20, 21 and 22, remains as before. That is, the boy of 19 who must register shortly will have a chance of appearing before a tribunal to claim exemption, but if granted a temporary exemption, will automatically lose it as soon as they reach the age of 20. They may claim exemption on the same grounds as all men were making claims on some months ago, but within the ages of 20, 21 and 22, the only ones entitled to freedom from service will be those who have relatives fighting overseas. This freedom from service will not take the form of an exemption, but will be a leave of absence granted by their commanding officer after they have reported for service. This applies to men of any category, while bona fide farmers lower than Category "A" may be granted a leave of absence under a special conditions, if it can be shown that they are essential to the production on some piece of land.

supply and to prepare for the requirements of the canning and preserving season. The use of fats is curtailed because of the increasing need for edible fats overseas. Further restrictions are made on the use of wheat flour in the manufacture of candy and sweet dough products.

The regulations follow (the announcement that by June 1st, all persons manufacturing ice cream, candy, cake, crackers, biscuits, pastry confectionery etc. will be brought under the license system of the Canada food board. The new order provides that on and after that date, no person in Canada shall use in manufacturing for sale, biscuits, cakes or sweet dough products, more than 80 per cent standard wheat flour. A single exception is made in the case of soda biscuits, in which the proportion may be as high as 90 per cent.

On and after May 1st it will be illegal to use more than 100 pounds of cane sugar and 40 pounds of shortening to 200 pounds of flour and substitutes in the manufacture of any biscuit product. Similarly not more than 100 pounds of flour and substitutes in the manufacture of fruitcake, pound cake, layer cake, wine sponges or any other kind of cake not expressly prohibited by the order.

Not more than 25 pounds of cane sugar and fifteen pounds of shortening may be used with 200 pounds of flour and substitutes, in the manufacture of any sweet dough products.

Regulations Three On and after June 1st it will be illegal for any manufacturer in Canada to offer for sale any of the products enumerated above, if they contain a larger proportion of standard flour, cane sugar or shortening than the amount prescribed.

The manufacture for sale of the following products will be illegal on and after May 1st: French or puff pastry, doughnuts or crullers, Scotch shortbread or cake, fancy almond macaroons or like products containing more than fifty per cent of cane sugar, marshmallow containing more than 20 per cent cane sugar to a 80 pound batch of marshmallow cakes or biscuits having on the exterior products made wholly or in part of cane sugar, or with shortening, except jam, jellies or pure or evaporated fruit

Told of Allied Conference at Washington

Major Kirby, Former Pastor of Brant Ave. Church, Spoke Here

A message potent at any time, and especially forceful and appropriate in the present situation, was that delivered in Brant avenue church yesterday morning by Major the Rev. G. W. Kirby, who has just returned from Washington, where he represented Western Canada at a conference on war problems, called by President Wilson and attended by delegates from all the states of the American union, as well as by Canadian representatives. The conference met the Ambassadors of the allied nations at Washington, and heard also representatives from Serbia and Belgium. Major Kirby gave a brief, yet graphic account of the conference to his hearers, telling from first hand information, of the consolation prevalent in Belgium, Serbia and Poland. He told of the urgent message delivered by Herbert Hoover, American food controller, emphasizing the need for greater conservation and production. Major Kirby expressed his opinion that Hoover was "one of the most wonderful men in the United States," and his department probably the best organized. He said an office staff of over 650 clerks.

The conference was called, President Wilson explained, with three purposes in view: to review the mental aspect of the war; to clarify its issues, and to combat insidious and unpatriotic errors spread by enemy agents; and thirdly, to emphasize democracy's bleeding and imperative need. As an oratorical of the German spirit, Major Kirby cited the testimony of F. D. Walcott, who had been sent by Rockefeller into Poland after the German occupation. The Teuton authorities openly admitted that there were three and one-half million people starving, and on the point of death. When negotiations had been completed by the United States to send food supplies, Germany finally refused to admit them. Von Hindenburg stating "by refusing we can accomplish what it would take a hundred years to achieve, on any other front." As a result, the roads taken by the refugees from their homes, were littered with dead, the last shreds of flesh picked from the skeletons by the crows, after which the Germans gathered the bones and pulverized them for fertilizing and other uses.

HE FEELS FINE IN MORNINGS NOW

Alfred Kemp Gains Twelve Pounds Taking Tanlac, Troubles Overcome

"Tanlac has not only fixed me up all right so that I haven't a thing to complain of, but I have actually gained twelve pounds on two bottles," said Alfred Kemp, of 82 Campbell avenue, Toronto, the other day. "For several months," he continues, "my system was in such a badly rundown condition that in spite of everything I could do I seemed to get worse instead of better. My blood was bad and I was troubled with boils and a rash that broke out all over my body. My liver was inactive and sluggish, my head ached constantly and at times I would get so sick at the stomach that I could hardly eat. I had no life nor energy at all, and when I would get up in the mornings I had an awful mean taste in my mouth and felt so tired and worn out that I didn't want to do a thing and my work felt like the worst kind of arduous to me. I had been reading so much about Tanlac that I decided to try it, and by the time I had finished my second bottle I was feeling in first class shape. My skin soon cleared up and I got rid of those eruptions and boils that had worried me so much, my food is building me up every day and giving me the strength and ambition I need for my work, and I get up in the mornings feeling fine and full of life and energy and I feel good all day long. Tanlac has been such a wonderful benefit to me that I am recommending it to all my friends to take it."

Tanlac is sold in Brantford by Robertson Drug Store, in Paris by Apps Ltd., in Mt. Vernon by A. Yocmans, in Middleport by William Peddie, in Onondaga by Neil McPhadden.

Have I actually done anything that could count as NATIONAL SERVICE for my country during the Forty bloody months of her sufferings? Put down in hours the actual time that you have worked. Then, if before your conscience you can say, fearlessly, that you have done a man's service to your country, well and good—we know that you will do even more. But if there is the thought drumming through your mind that all—everything—that you have done, is a mere nothing, just a sop to conscience, then, as you are worthy of your manhood, make a speedy decision to devote the next few months of your life to National Service. Outside of our armed forces, only one kind of civilian labor ranks as National Service for Men, Women and Boys. That is Service on a Farm The Allies have appealed to Canada to supply More Food, and Brant County must do its share. But the labor must come from the city. It is YOUR Opportunity! The Pay will be ample together with your Board. The Ontario Government, which has the problem of increasing production in hand, has turned over to the local committees, the work in Brant County, so that volunteers may be assured that they will not be sent far from home, and they will be dealing with committees who have personally investigated each case, and know what the requirements are and can arrange all the details of wages, etc. The call comes to every Man, Woman and Boy in Brantford, and whether you can volunteer for the whole Summer or just a few weeks, your work is needed just the same. The farmers cannot produce more food unless the people of this city are willing to help, and Premier Lloyd George says; "Danger of starvation is the Allies greatest danger." Volunteers are asked for. What is YOUR answer? Send your application in To-day. Full information will be gladly supplied. High School Boys Apply to MR. GEDES, Y. M. C. A. Men and Women Apply to T. Y. FREAK PLAY Sergeant by Ladi Saturday football match of the Women was played by the C.O.R. soldiers who were seen, who for the consolation of the freak plays, came out of the score by the one o'clock. Later in the afternoon, the cultural Park having sworn themselves, gave a game away with costumes and Charlie Chaplin and many other factors along with the game. In the game made, but in was somewhat got away with the sergeants play. FREAK FOOTBALL PLAYED SATURDAY

Sergeants of C.O.R. Beaten by Ladies' Team in Burlesque Game

Thursday afternoon a comedy ball match under the auspices of the Women's Patriotic League played by the Kitchen Girls and C.O.R. sergeants' teams. The girls, who from the first, it could be seen, were anxiously clamoring for the consolation prize, made the more amusing with their freak plays. As it was the soldiers came out of the game second best, the score being 5-2.

At one o'clock in the afternoon a big street parade was held. Headed by the well known regimental brass band, the men brightly clad in exaggerated "city" costumes, interspersed with "representatives" of the London Theatrical Club in clown costumes, and as impersonators of Charlie Chaplin, Huckleberry Finn, and many others delighted the spectators along the principal streets.

Later in the afternoon at Agricultural Park, the sergeants having sworn to misbehave, themselves, gave some laughable performances which all added to the attractiveness of the game.

In the game, the sergeants were made, but in this regard the referee was somewhat lenient. The girls got away with three points before the sergeants attempted any serious play. Of the soldiers, perhaps the most noticeable player was their goalie, becomingly clad as "Weary Willie," of whom it may truly be said, he was "some" goalkeeper. One of the players well made up as a middle-aged Scotch mother with a go-cart and baby, provoked applause when he ran away with the ball in the go-cart, causing a lively scramble for the "leatherberry" pin, the excitement the baby, himself a sergeant, was mistaken for the ball and manhandled considerably.

A slight rain tempted to dampen the aspects of the success of the afternoon, but through this the game progressed "as usual."

The attendance was some 400. The Women's Patriotic League will benefit to the extent of over $250 as a result of the game.

Some of the characters represented were: "Arry and Arriet, Red Cross Nurse, Mutt and Jeff, Weary Willie and Tired Tim, Stretcher Bearers, The Village Schoolmaster, Mother and Child (Morden), The Clown Band, The Dragon (Miss Walters), The Boy and Girl Clowns (Miss and Master Jenkins), and various other characters.

The committee to whom credit is due in the arrangements: R. S. M. Jenkins, D.C.M., C. S. M. Tippler, C. S. M. Sharratt. The thanks of the committee is extended to the citizens for their interest in the event, and for the assistance, financial and otherwise, also to Messrs. Mosley and Thompson of the Y.M.C.A., for their assistance in the make-up, and to Mrs. Jenkins, who contributed a hard week of work.

Connie Mack may not have a cinch on the dollar after all if Ty Cobb really is thinking about enlisting in the army.

ORGANIZED LABOR BACKING THE WAR

Mr. Gompers Emphasizes Distrust of Socialist Party

Ottawa, April 28.—"Men of Canada, fight on! Carry on and victory will be yours and ours for the whole world and for generations yet unborn," declared Samuel Gompers, president of the A.F. of L., at the conclusion of a magnificent speech to the members of the Canadian Club at the Chateau Laurier yesterday. Throughout the course of an inspiring oration he was repeatedly applauded, when he told of the untidiness of the organized workers of America in the common cause, when he exposed the Socialist propaganda, and when he denounced any peace conference with representatives of enemy countries until the German hordes have withdrawn from France and Belgium or Kaiserism has been smashed.

"The philosophy of human brotherhood is an alluring one," Mr. Gompers said. "I have been a devotee of it in America and here known friends in America and here known I have never been fooled by the sophistry and pretences of the Socialists." Mr. Gompers then declared the Socialist party of America to be German-inspired.

British Newspaper Prepares Public for Disagreeable News

SAY YPRES IN PERIL

Loss of Kemmel Hill is Tactical Success for Enemy

London, April 28.—Some of the newspapers appear to be preparing the public for the loss of the Channel ports. The Times to-day says: "It is denying that the loss of Kemmel Hill is a considerable tactical success for the enemy, and it will be well therefore to prepare for the receipt of other disagreeable news. If the enemy is able to extend his grip on Kemmel we may be compelled to evacuate Ypres. Such evacuation would not inevitably entail the abandonment of Dunkirk, Calais and Boulogne, but it is well to realize that these contingencies might ensue. We must remember that the Germans cannot be driven from the Channel ports."

The Evening News said last night: "The capture of Kemmel Hill undoubtedly is a useful step in the direction of Calais and Boulogne, and it is frankly admitted that its loss gravely imperils Ypres. We hope and believe the channel ports will be saved. Yet we must face the fact that their loss comes within the range of contingencies to be reckoned with, and we have already made up our minds that even if the worst should come to the worst it will make no difference to our vigorous prosecution of the war."

To aid in the cause of greater production, the Peterborough School Board is buying seeds to give to the school children.

Music and Drama

CHAUTAQUA FESTIVAL

The Lyceum Arts Club Orchestra of Chicago has recently completed a tour over the Dominion Chautauqua Festivals in the West, and has come to the Eastern Circuit to repeat their western triumphs.

"What a splendid bunch of girls, and how they seemed to enjoy their own program!" "The best music I have heard in years." "I should like to attend their concerts every night."

The company always swakens this kind of enthusiasm. People can't say enough nice things about them. The orchestra was organized several years ago in Chicago, under the direction of Max Felsch, and they have been in constant demand for concert work ever since.

In appearance, personality and artistry they strive more than do any other orchestra in the world to attain perfection. The company is recognized as one of the best of its kind. Their programs are of rare musical merit, with splendid solo numbers, quartets and complete ensembles.

The Lyceum Arts Club Orchestra is one of the attractions that is making the Dominion Chautauqua Festival movements in Canada. The festival comes to the Grand on May 3, 4 and 6 next.

If a wiseacre warns you that the dance craze is ruining your feet, girls, don't believe it. All this talk about the tango feet is sheer foolishness, according to Miss Helen Delaney of the Watch Your Step Company, which is to be at the Grand Opera House next Tuesday evening, April 30th.

Although she figures that she dances more than 23,000 miles each week, she avers that the new dance strengthens the feet of the devotee, and if painful feet follow continued dancing, it is not the fault of the dance, but the lack of previous exercise of that kind. High heels and improper walking are the cause of all foot troubles.

Lean to left? "Walk with the weight thrown on the outside of the feet—not the inside. When the foot is turned out at an angle, the centre of gravity of the body is not on the foot. Turn the foot straight ahead and the point of equilibrium is then in the centre of the foot."

"The tendency of the fashionable out-door girls to wear shoes built on the lines of the wide-toed man's shoe, is a hopeful sign. What the fashionable girls do others will copy and the first step in banishing the high-heeled pointed-toe horror is on its way."

"Practically all cases of flat feet, broken arches, weak and painful ankles and Morton's Toe (one of the most painful of the wide-toed afflictions) are caused by incorrect shoeing and incorrect walking. In other words, practically no one walks correctly in our modern civilized life. Shoes of today are really made to slip, not to wear. The curse of commercialism has been the cause of most of the bad feet of the city people of to-day."

FILM LETS

In a new Picture Mabel Normand wears a daring bathing suit. She is supposed to be trying to boom the business of a manufacturer of garments which lack the dash and originality of his rival's. Skipping around the studio the star came upon a fountain lately deserted by Madge Kennedy and her company. The sprightly Mabel sprang upon the rim and struck a bewitching attitude. It was the regret of all who saw her that the pose had no part in the play. The studio photographer saved the situation, however, and snapped her.

Beverly Bayne is a popular heroine with many boys of Uncle Sam's army and navy, because of the many worried sweaters, wristlets, and helmut she has distributed among the defenders of the nation. All these articles were made by patriotic people with wool supplied by Miss Bayne. When the articles are made, they are sent to the star and she in turn sends them to Government distribution stations.

Ben Turpin knows what it means to sacrifice himself to art. In a new comedy he is required to make a fall on a hard board floor. In making the picture he took a tumble with such fidelity to his art that he broke the floor. The crash so startled the camera-man that he forgot to grind. Then he told Ben it would all have to be done over again.

"Can't do it," said the comedian laconically. "Why not?" he was asked. "I am all full of splinters," replied Ben and made for his dressing room.

Probably the youngest person to direct scenes for a photoplay is little Tula Belle, who plays an important part in Artcraft's screen version of Maurice Maeterlinck's famous play, "The Blue Bird." Though Tula is but eight years old she has been playing in pictures for several years and has taken many leading roles.

Maurice Tourneur, who is staging "The Blue Bird" for Artcraft, realizes that very often allegorical subjects such as this are not always understandable by the average audience and has established a precedent by making "The Blue Bird" absolutely clear even to a child. In order to do this Mr. Tourneur assures himself that the scenes are understood by little Tula and in a number of instances he permits the child to direct the action in which she and others take part.

Peterboro city teamsters will receive $5 a day. More applications for vacant lots than the number available having been received by Galt Vacant Land Production Association, the Parks Commission has granted the use of about seven acres of Jackson Park.

Oil has been struck in two of the wells near Glencoe. So far more than two hundred barrels per day have been taken from the two wells sunk.

LICENSES FOR CONFECTIONERS Quantity of Sugar Used Must Be Stated Monthly

Ottawa, April 28.—All persons manufacturing ice cream, candy, cake, crackers, biscuits, pastry, confectionery, ice cream cones or chewing gum in Canada for sale must secure a confectioner's license from the Canada Food Board.

On and after June 1, 1918, it will be illegal for any person to manufacture in Canada, for sale, any of these products without having first secured such a license.

A confectioner's license will not be required by persons holding a baker's license or a public eating place license from the Food Board, but the rules and regulations governing the manufacture of the products enumerated will be applicable to and will govern bakers and confectioners.

The annual license fees range from a minimum of $2 when the value sold does not exceed $5,000 per annum to $5 on annual sales up to $10,000, $10 when the amount sold does not exceed $50,000; $10 when the annual sales do not exceed $100,000, and $10 additional for each additional $50,000 or fraction thereof of the annual value sold.

Commencing with June 1, and monthly thereafter, every licensee must file a sworn statement, showing the quantity of sugar used by him in the manufacture of candy. Licensees are forbidden to destroy any food or food product, fit for human consumption, or knowingly permit waste, or wilfully to permit deterioration in connection with the storage or sale of any food or food product.

The license number from the Canada Food Board must appear on every letterhead, contract, acceptance of order, invoice, price list and quotation issued and advertisements.
