speech at Norwich is to Tory minds a political acrostic. They do not pretend to have found a solution, but they dwell on two things as the most puzzling of all. He proposes a committee of eminent jurists and civil servants to get the next Home Rule bill into workable shape before it is presented to Parliament. Did he, ask our Tory friends, take Gladstone's opinion before putting forward that suggestion? There is no answer, but they insist that it is tantamount to an admission that the difficulties in framing a measure cannot be removed by ordinary means. More important sill, perhaps, is this declaration: "Home Rule in our sense." said Rosebery, "is distinct from the national and historical" in framing a measure cannot be removed by ordinary means. More important still, perhaps, is this declaration: "Home Rule in our sense," said Rosebery, "is distinct from the national and historical "is distinct from the national and historical argument. It is simply a question of devolution and decentralization." What does that mean, and, whatever it means, does it come direct from Gladstone? Lord Rosebery praises this Government for having gone far toward his "devolution" policy in England by their local government bill. They have gone not less far in Scotland, and they are known to be considering a similar measure for Ireland. Parnell has said that Home Rule is an open question. Rosebery measure for Ireland. Parnell has said that Home Rule is an open question. Rosebery says that the historical argument may be neglected. Is this another approach to a new departure? Is Home Rule to mean after all only one more large county council?

The M.P. FOR CARLETON DENOUNCED AT BELL'S CORNERS.

We Attempts to Explain His Vote on the C'Brien Resolution but is Heeted Down — The Grange Sentinel Repudiated by Ottawa Grangemen.

Ottawa, April 17.—Over 1500 people, principally Orangemen, attended the Protestant mass meeting at Bell's Corners, Carleston County, to-day, to protest against the action of the Government in regard to the Jesuit question. Rev. Dr. Hunter and others spoke. A resolution was adopted condemning the Goervinent and denouncing Mr. George Dickinson, M.P., the county's representative, and pledging the support of all present to the Evangelical Alliance or any other organization in testing the constitutionality of the act.

Mr. Dickinson, M.P., rose and tried to speak, but the yells and hooting made him inaudible. He tried to defend his conduct and said as a party man he had to support the Government.

At the Grand Opera House meeting tonight the principal speakers were Rev. Dr. Hunter and Mr. John Charlton, M.P. At the DEATH OF BAMSLEY'S BABY.

The readers of The World will recollect that carly in Jahuary last John Clarke, a jeweler doing business on the corner of Esther and Queen-streets, suddenly disappeared, leaving the city wholesale jewelers to mourn the loss of some $5000 worth of goods with which they had been foolish enough to trust him. Clarke had been foolish enough to trust him. Clarke had made a clean sweep of everything of any value, and when the creditors took possession they found a comparatively empty store. Strong speeches were made by leading city members and Orange members of Parliament, after which the following resolution was put and carried amid great enthusiasm.

That this Orange District Lodge do repudiate and denounce the whole course of The Orange Sentinel on the Jesuits estates question, more particularly the article which appeared on April 4.

The speeches all pointed out that The Sentinel having, ceased to represent the condition of Orangemen was no longer worthy of support or recognition as organ of the order.

MACFARRANE, McKinlay & Co. been at three consecutive general elections affirmed by a majority of the people of Can-ada. It is a startling fact that now, ten years fter the revelution of 1878-79—the flour manuure is the only one of anything like similar portance in Canada which is practically left protection. Don't tell us about that erable 50 cents per barrel, for practically it amounts to just nothing at all. It does not prevent American operators from dump-ing their surplus upon this market, and so causing Canadian flour to remain unsold. We believe it quite within the truth to say that not within the experience of the present generation has there been time when our own flour was so difficult of sale in our own markets, and all from the heavy over-plus of low grade American flour ed in upon us—as there has been during the last six or eight months.

The World has recently drawn attention to the complaint of a Nova Scotia coal miner, who affirms that, owing chiefly to high freights who affirms that, owing chiefly to high freights on the St. Lawrence water route, the present duty of 75 cents on American soft coal is not enough to give Nova Scotia coal a chance. He thinks, however, that 20 cents more (or 95 cents per ton) would turn the balance in favor of the home product. Whereupon we have ventured to say that if the East would agree to the even dollar per barrel on flour, the West might be depended upon to agree to the even dollar on soft coal. By the West here, we mean Ontario, Manitoba and the Territories.

Messrs. Suckling & Sons have just published a couple of instrumental pieces and a song that ought to be popular. The song is "Forget Me Not," by Theo. Bonheur, who has set to most appropriate music the words of a poem by H. L. D'Arcy Jaxone. The others are a polka-march, "The Grenadiers," also by Theo. Bonheur, and a polka by Oharles Bohnen; both are easy to play and are pleasing to the ear. Some New Music.

The racing in Eagland.

The racing in Eagland this week is confined to two days at "free thinking" Nottingham, with two days for the cockneys at Croydon to-day and to-merrow, and ene day at Windsor on Saturday. No really important fixtures will be run during the week. The more important are the Spring Handleap at Nottingham, and the Great Welcomes at Croydon to-day. The week will not be an idle one in any sense of the word with trainers, and if the weather continues as good as during the nast week, many important questions will be asked. Horses intended to run next week at Newcastle, Four Oska, (Birmingham), Kempton Park, Epsom and Sandown Park will be tried, especially those intended to run in the Great Metropolitan, Great Surrey and the City and Suburban handicaps on April 23 and 24.

Privisure, April 17.—The game to-day with Toronto was dull and listless and turnished little entertainment to the five hundred odd spectators. The home team got onto Serad in the third innings, but before and after that he kept the local players gnessing. Serad was much annoyed by the umpire's decisions on balls and strikes, which, while they did not affect the score, were manifestly against the visitors. There were no brilliaht plays but two horribly bad throws, one by Serad and one by Swift, which gave two base runners an opportunity to get around to third safely when they should have been out af first. Toronio's only run was earned by slashing singles made by McGuire, Rickley and McLaughifn. The score:

our citizens are becoming more and more alive.

CREEN WOOD PARK.

This is one of the most beautiful tracts within reach. It is situated in the village of Eglinton and runs east from Yongo. The village postoffice and a large public school building are on the property. A number of handsome houses have been erected and are in course of crection. The survey of the Belt Lime Railway crosses the property. The lots are 100 feet front by an average of 200 feet deep. When North Toronto comes, as it will come in the near future, to be incorporated as a town, the seat of government and the centre of population will doubless be at Egilioton. This property, therefore, has a residence value independent of its situation as a suburb of Toronto, and many sales are now being made.

Prices range as follows:

Woodward-avenue..... 14 to 84 Erskine-avenue...... 14 to 84 These prices are not one-third of those manded for property situated at an equal stance along Dundas, Queen and other oroughfares of less real importance than size-street.

GLEN GROVE PARK. This property, situated at Eginton at the terminus of the Metropolitus] Street Railway, has all the requirements of a first-class regidential suburb which it is intended here to create. A large part of it has been sold and several handsome houses are in course of erection. Prices range from $30 per foot downward. Glen Grove-avenue being 80 feet wide and already lined with a quadruple saw of well grown trees will take rank at once with our eading residential streets.
