

"NORMAL CALF"

CARRIES off perspiration naturally as created. Tanned so the pores are left open as in deerskin. Acts on your foot, as the sleeve does on your arm—cool, clean, sanitary. Soft, light, and will shine like patent leather. Made by Heyl of Germany. "Normal Calf" is controlled in Canada solely by the makers of

"The Slater Shoe"

$3.50 Goodyear Welted $5.00

MONTREAL TORONTO OTTAWA LONDON

STORES: 89 King St. West, 128 Yonge St.

THAT $10,000 SENATORSHIP

Analysis of the Evidence Taken Before the Senate Committee—The Charge Still Seems to Lie Against Sir Richard Cartwright.

The Special Committee appointed by the Senate, March 23 and 24, 1901, to inquire into the statements and allegations contained in certain telegrams and letters and in an affidavit made by Mr. Herman Henry Cook, which reflect upon the privileges and dignity of the Senate, in that he had been offered a seat in the Senate, provided he would pay therefor the sum of $10,000, has made a report to the Senate that, in obedience to the said orders of reference, they had examined witnesses under oath, which evidence, oral and documentary, together with the addresses of counsel heard by the committee, they submitted to the Senate, not having had "instructions to make a finding." It will be observed that the committee has kept strictly within the instructions and made no finding, thus leaving the evidence and arguments of counsel to the verdict of the people; and, as judging from the action of the Senate in simply accepting the report without remark, that no motion will be made or discussion invited, it may be well, in order to assist the public in arriving at an intelligent conclusion, and render a verdict in accordance with the facts, that an analysis of the evidence, and exhibit as they appear in the report, will be made before the Senate, should be made.

In doing so, considering the voluminous character of the evidence, various members of the committee, and in order to assist the public in arriving at an intelligent conclusion, and render a verdict in accordance with the facts, that an analysis of the evidence, and exhibit as they appear in the report, will be made before the Senate, should be made.

Mr. Cook's own evidence shows that he was in 1898 seeking to be appointed to a seat in the Senate, and thereafter until 1900, and that in August, 1898, Mr. M. Cameron, a prominent member of the House of Commons, in the confidence of the Government, and subsequently appointed Lieutenant-Governor of the Northwest Territories, was using his influence to get Mr. Cook appointed. (See exhibit 1, 2 and 3, page 187.)

It also appears from a letter of Mr. Cameron to Mr. Cook, of date Aug. 29, 1898 (exhibit 4, page 190), that Cameron was then interviewing various members of the Government in Cook's interest, but that he found difficulty in furthering that interest, because another applicant stood in the way, who, in the language of one of the letters, was declared to be "wealthy."

It will be observed that the word "wealthy" was underlined with black ink, thus giving it a special prominence, which, under other circumstances, it might not convey (exhibit 5). After mentioning this fact, Cameron proceeds to say: "There is one way by which the matter can be put sure, I won't mention the way till I see you."

Mr. Cameron's evidence is that he did meet Mr. Cameron on the following day at the Union Station in Toronto, and that they had an interview while Mr. Cameron was waiting for his train to go to his home in Guelph, which interview, Cook says, lasted about an hour, and that during that

FAT AND LEAN That is, babies; fat, they are happy and safe; lean, they are neither happy nor safe. Apart from being entirely healthy or not quite well, a fat one has much reserve of vital strength to resist any sudden attack, while the lean one has little or no reserve.

The way to be fat and well is Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil. A little; only a little. Not any, if healthy and plump already; "let well enough alone."

Write The Ozone Co. of Toronto, Limited, 48 Colborne Street, for information.

ambition did not cause him to vary from his statement in any material respect. Sir Richard Cartwright denies that any such conversation took place between him and Mr. Cook, but Mr. Cook, upon re-examination, says with reference thereto: "I adhere to every word I say. I had one particular thought in my mind, and I suppose he (referring to Sir Richard Cartwright) had multitudinous duties, and it might have escaped him, but I would not like to say that Sir Richard deliberately told an untruth, but I put it in that way." (See pages 6 and 7.)

On March 9, 1898, Sir Richard Cartwright wrote a letter to Mr. Cook (ex. 17), in which he says: "I am in hopes of being able to close up this matter now, but I may want to see you first." Sir Richard Cartwright was asked what was his object in wanting to see Mr. Cook first, and he gives an explanation thereof, which explanation cannot be said to be an entirely satisfactory one. (See pages 64 and 65.)

Subsequently Sir Richard Cartwright wrote to Mr. Cook a letter of June 23, 1898 (ex. 20), in which he says: "I have been fighting your battle last week, but I am not sure that I have done it as well as I expected, in certain quarters," showing conclusively that Sir Richard was constantly in communication with Mr. Cook on the subject of the Senatorship, notwithstanding his denial.

With regard to the contradictory evidence of these two witnesses upon this subject, it is to be noted that there is a difference of opinion, as to what occurred on that and other occasions, but the statements and admissions made by Sir Richard Cartwright show his memory to be singularly accurate.

On referring to the letter said to have been shown to Mr. Cook by Sir Richard Cartwright, it is to be noted that the letter, in reply to a question put by the chairman, among other things, says: "There is no such letter." (See page 77.) And in reply to Mr. Sir Richard Cartwright's question, "Do you have any letter which you would not like to show to me?" he answered, "I am quite sure that no such letter was written by me to Mr. Cook." (See page 78.)

On referring to the letter said to have been shown to Mr. Cook by Sir Richard Cartwright, it is to be noted that the letter, in reply to a question put by the chairman, among other things, says: "There is no such letter." (See page 77.) And in reply to Mr. Sir Richard Cartwright's question, "Do you have any letter which you would not like to show to me?" he answered, "I am quite sure that no such letter was written by me to Mr. Cook." (See page 78.)

On referring to the letter said to have been shown to Mr. Cook by Sir Richard Cartwright, it is to be noted that the letter, in reply to a question put by the chairman, among other things, says: "There is no such letter." (See page 77.) And in reply to Mr. Sir Richard Cartwright's question, "Do you have any letter which you would not like to show to me?" he answered, "I am quite sure that no such letter was written by me to Mr. Cook." (See page 78.)

On referring to the letter said to have been shown to Mr. Cook by Sir Richard Cartwright, it is to be noted that the letter, in reply to a question put by the chairman, among other things, says: "There is no such letter." (See page 77.) And in reply to Mr. Sir Richard Cartwright's question, "Do you have any letter which you would not like to show to me?" he answered, "I am quite sure that no such letter was written by me to Mr. Cook." (See page 78.)

On referring to the letter said to have been shown to Mr. Cook by Sir Richard Cartwright, it is to be noted that the letter, in reply to a question put by the chairman, among other things, says: "There is no such letter." (See page 77.) And in reply to Mr. Sir Richard Cartwright's question, "Do you have any letter which you would not like to show to me?" he answered, "I am quite sure that no such letter was written by me to Mr. Cook." (See page 78.)

On referring to the letter said to have been shown to Mr. Cook by Sir Richard Cartwright, it is to be noted that the letter, in reply to a question put by the chairman, among other things, says: "There is no such letter." (See page 77.) And in reply to Mr. Sir Richard Cartwright's question, "Do you have any letter which you would not like to show to me?" he answered, "I am quite sure that no such letter was written by me to Mr. Cook." (See page 78.)

On referring to the letter said to have been shown to Mr. Cook by Sir Richard Cartwright, it is to be noted that the letter, in reply to a question put by the chairman, among other things, says: "There is no such letter." (See page 77.) And in reply to Mr. Sir Richard Cartwright's question, "Do you have any letter which you would not like to show to me?" he answered, "I am quite sure that no such letter was written by me to Mr. Cook." (See page 78.)

On referring to the letter said to have been shown to Mr. Cook by Sir Richard Cartwright, it is to be noted that the letter, in reply to a question put by the chairman, among other things, says: "There is no such letter." (See page 77.) And in reply to Mr. Sir Richard Cartwright's question, "Do you have any letter which you would not like to show to me?" he answered, "I am quite sure that no such letter was written by me to Mr. Cook." (See page 78.)

On referring to the letter said to have been shown to Mr. Cook by Sir Richard Cartwright, it is to be noted that the letter, in reply to a question put by the chairman, among other things, says: "There is no such letter." (See page 77.) And in reply to Mr. Sir Richard Cartwright's question, "Do you have any letter which you would not like to show to me?" he answered, "I am quite sure that no such letter was written by me to Mr. Cook." (See page 78.)

On referring to the letter said to have been shown to Mr. Cook by Sir Richard Cartwright, it is to be noted that the letter, in reply to a question put by the chairman, among other things, says: "There is no such letter." (See page 77.) And in reply to Mr. Sir Richard Cartwright's question, "Do you have any letter which you would not like to show to me?" he answered, "I am quite sure that no such letter was written by me to Mr. Cook." (See page 78.)

On referring to the letter said to have been shown to Mr. Cook by Sir Richard Cartwright, it is to be noted that the letter, in reply to a question put by the chairman, among other things, says: "There is no such letter." (See page 77.) And in reply to Mr. Sir Richard Cartwright's question, "Do you have any letter which you would not like to show to me?" he answered, "I am quite sure that no such letter was written by me to Mr. Cook." (See page 78.)

On referring to the letter said to have been shown to Mr. Cook by Sir Richard Cartwright, it is to be noted that the letter, in reply to a question put by the chairman, among other things, says: "There is no such letter." (See page 77.) And in reply to Mr. Sir Richard Cartwright's question, "Do you have any letter which you would not like to show to me?" he answered, "I am quite sure that no such letter was written by me to Mr. Cook." (See page 78.)

On referring to the letter said to have been shown to Mr. Cook by Sir Richard Cartwright, it is to be noted that the letter, in reply to a question put by the chairman, among other things, says: "There is no such letter." (See page 77.) And in reply to Mr. Sir Richard Cartwright's question, "Do you have any letter which you would not like to show to me?" he answered, "I am quite sure that no such letter was written by me to Mr. Cook." (See page 78.)

On referring to the letter said to have been shown to Mr. Cook by Sir Richard Cartwright, it is to be noted that the letter, in reply to a question put by the chairman, among other things, says: "There is no such letter." (See page 77.) And in reply to Mr. Sir Richard Cartwright's question, "Do you have any letter which you would not like to show to me?" he answered, "I am quite sure that no such letter was written by me to Mr. Cook." (See page 78.)

On referring to the letter said to have been shown to Mr. Cook by Sir Richard Cartwright, it is to be noted that the letter, in reply to a question put by the chairman, among other things, says: "There is no such letter." (See page 77.) And in reply to Mr. Sir Richard Cartwright's question, "Do you have any letter which you would not like to show to me?" he answered, "I am quite sure that no such letter was written by me to Mr. Cook." (See page 78.)

On referring to the letter said to have been shown to Mr. Cook by Sir Richard Cartwright, it is to be noted that the letter, in reply to a question put by the chairman, among other things, says: "There is no such letter." (See page 77.) And in reply to Mr. Sir Richard Cartwright's question, "Do you have any letter which you would not like to show to me?" he answered, "I am quite sure that no such letter was written by me to Mr. Cook." (See page 78.)

On referring to the letter said to have been shown to Mr. Cook by Sir Richard Cartwright, it is to be noted that the letter, in reply to a question put by the chairman, among other things, says: "There is no such letter." (See page 77.) And in reply to Mr. Sir Richard Cartwright's question, "Do you have any letter which you would not like to show to me?" he answered, "I am quite sure that no such letter was written by me to Mr. Cook." (See page 78.)

On referring to the letter said to have been shown to Mr. Cook by Sir Richard Cartwright, it is to be noted that the letter, in reply to a question put by the chairman, among other things, says: "There is no such letter." (See page 77.) And in reply to Mr. Sir Richard Cartwright's question, "Do you have any letter which you would not like to show to me?" he answered, "I am quite sure that no such letter was written by me to Mr. Cook." (See page 78.)

Long Hair for Sale!

The girls of Brittany and the lower Pyrenees still gather at the annual fairs for the purpose of selling their hair. The city of Paris alone uses over 100,000 pounds of human hair each year.

Perhaps you find it necessary to wear some of this sale hair! There's much more satisfaction in wearing your own. And there's just as much satisfaction from using Ayer's Hair Vigor. It makes the hair grow, keeps it soft and glossy, and prevents it from falling out.

If your hair is turning gray and you begin to look a little old, Ayer's Hair Vigor will surely bring back all the dark, rich color it had ten or twenty years ago.

One dollar a bottle. All druggists.

Ask your druggist first. If he cannot supply you, send us one dollar and we will express a bottle to you. Be sure and give the name of your nearest express office.

Address, J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.

SEND FOR OUR HANDSOME BOOK ON THE HAIR.

knowledge of the interview, notwithstanding his repeated denial, was made before Sir Richard Cartwright was confronted with letters, copies of which were shown to him by Mr. Cameron.

It may be fairly asked, what "letter" does Mr. Cameron refer to in his letter of Oct. 5, to Sir Richard Cartwright, when he says he had an interview with the person named in your letter, for an hour at Toronto on my way home?

The letter, unfortunately, has not been produced, and, consequently, it is not among the exhibits. It is unreasonable to infer that "that letter" is the one shown to Cook at the interview which took place between Cameron and Cook at the railway station at Guelph, on Oct. 5, 1898, as it has not been produced.

It is to be noted that Cameron has received a letter from Sir Richard Cartwright, in which Cameron, in reply to a question put by the chairman, among other things, says: "There is no such letter." (See page 77.)

It is to be noted that Cameron has received a letter from Sir Richard Cartwright, in which Cameron, in reply to a question put by the chairman, among other things, says: "There is no such letter." (See page 77.)

It is to be noted that Cameron has received a letter from Sir Richard Cartwright, in which Cameron, in reply to a question put by the chairman, among other things, says: "There is no such letter." (See page 77.)

It is to be noted that Cameron has received a letter from Sir Richard Cartwright, in which Cameron, in reply to a question put by the chairman, among other things, says: "There is no such letter." (See page 77.)

It is to be noted that Cameron has received a letter from Sir Richard Cartwright, in which Cameron, in reply to a question put by the chairman, among other things, says: "There is no such letter." (See page 77.)

It is to be noted that Cameron has received a letter from Sir Richard Cartwright, in which Cameron, in reply to a question put by the chairman, among other things, says: "There is no such letter." (See page 77.)

It is to be noted that Cameron has received a letter from Sir Richard Cartwright, in which Cameron, in reply to a question put by the chairman, among other things, says: "There is no such letter." (See page 77.)

It is to be noted that Cameron has received a letter from Sir Richard Cartwright, in which Cameron, in reply to a question put by the chairman, among other things, says: "There is no such letter." (See page 77.)

It is to be noted that Cameron has received a letter from Sir Richard Cartwright, in which Cameron, in reply to a question put by the chairman, among other things, says: "There is no such letter." (See page 77.)

It is to be noted that Cameron has received a letter from Sir Richard Cartwright, in which Cameron, in reply to a question put by the chairman, among other things, says: "There is no such letter." (See page 77.)

It is to be noted that Cameron has received a letter from Sir Richard Cartwright, in which Cameron, in reply to a question put by the chairman, among other things, says: "There is no such letter." (See page 77.)

It is to be noted that Cameron has received a letter from Sir Richard Cartwright, in which Cameron, in reply to a question put by the chairman, among other things, says: "There is no such letter." (See page 77.)

Fashionable Ladies' and Gents' Hair Goods

MOST PERFECT, NATURAL IN APPEARANCE AND LIGHT IN WEIGHT. BEST QUALITIES AND PRICES CUT AWAY DOWN.

Old Men and Young Men! Why Grow Bald when we can make you the most perfect "VOUPEE" which defies the closest observation? Come and we will try you on free of charge. Catalogue and full particulars sent free on application.

Our Fine Hair Switches are cut away down in price. Ladies, if you want to secure fine Switches at cut prices, then now is the time.

Our cut-away-down prices will be good till June 10th. As we are renovating our premises, we are selling everything at cut-away prices. Our Ad. in THE SATURDAY NIGHT will be found in future in THE TORONTO SUNDAY WORLD.

J. Trancle-Armand & Co., 441 Yonge Street, Corner Carlton, Toronto, Ont. Tel. Main 2498. 7247

Our Bottled Ales are not carbonated—they are brewed from the finest malt and hops only, are fully matured in wood and bottle and are therefore pure and wholesome as well as mellow and delicious.

ALL DEALERS. Toronto Brewing Co. Simcoe St. Toronto

ESTABLISHED 1878.

Half & Half SCOTS WHISKY

'Nuf Sed.

THE BEST COAL & WOOD MARKET RATES.

ROGERS' COAL

THE VERY BEST COAL AND WOOD

ROGERS' COAL

