John Paris Arraigned On Charge of Murder

Says "Not Guilty" When Accused of Murdering Sadie McAuley—Thirty-three Called Before Jury Secured—Case Against William and Frank O'Brien Dismissed—Norris Case to Grand Jury.

Charged with the murder of Sarah Jane McAuley, nine years old, in this city on August 2, John Paris, a mulatto, was arraigned before Judge Barry in the circuit court this morning and in a clear, unflinching voice pleaded "Not guilty, Your Honor."

Called a panel of fifty-one, thirty-three names were called before a jury of twelve was selected. Seven were absent, seven were objected to by the lawyer for the defendant and seven were excused for various reasons.

The services of Ralph G. Dykeman, Herbert Nice, George Bishop, William J. Jenkins, John Collins, Wilfred M. Barlow, and William Dykeman were objected to by the defence. The following were excused: John J. Irvine, who said he could not answer their names; Beverly T. Vincent, over age limit of 65; David J. Hamilton, pleaded bad hearing; John L. Cambridge and Henry Crawford, over age.

The charge against the prisoner was made to 2.30 o'clock. The prisoner was asked to stand and the clerk read the charge over to him. Paris with his head inclined to one side listened intently, and when the charge was asked to plead replied, "Not Guilty your Honor."

When the jury was selected and sworn, he showed a keen interest in the proceedings, scrutinizing closely the face of every man brought forward. At times he leaned his head on one hand, the elbow resting on the table; at others he placed both arms on the table and held his chin up rigidly.

Both the New York team and the Indians are idle today and tomorrow they will begin their four final games, which will decide the issue in the American League. Shocker shut them out two to nothing, holding them to five singles. He made Ruth go hitless in three times at bat.

NINE-DAY POKER GAME ON OCEAN

Record - Smashing Contest—12 Started, Only 1 Winner When Harbor Reached.

New York, Sept. 28.—The Goddess of Chance appears to have been a most industrious though unbooked passenger on the French liner Lafayette on its latest voyage from Havre to this port. The game of poker as never seen before, details of the record-smashing quiet game of poker are not easy to get at, but it is no secret that a little contest was begun at the moment the liner left its French moorings and that it was continued without interruption, except for meals and brief rests, all the way across the celebrated pond. Twelve good men and true are said to have sat in when the first hand was dealt—enough for two tables—but by the time the vessel reached mid-Atlantic the number had been sufficiently reduced to permit of a combination of forces round one table. Hurricanes and high seas failed to break up the little gathering. For nine days they played, one by one dropping out, cleared out. There were just two left when the Lafayette nosed her way into New York harbor. The stakes—well, they are not telling. One report has it that the runner-up set foot on soil as late as the tune of $1,400. The winner, well, he apparently walked down the gangplank with the aggregate cash resources of all his eleven playmates.

POLITICAL NEWS

IN DESPATCHES Pictou, N. S., Sept. 28.—(By Canadian Press Staff Correspondent)—Right Hon. Arthur Meighen's proposal to create a grain board, similar to the new defunct Canada wheat board, which operated from James Stewart of Winnipeg was received with interest by members of the federal house who, with Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, came here today to speak at the Pictou county exhibition. Details of Mr. Meighen's plan had not been received by the time the party reached here and for that reason the Liberal leader and members of his party declared that they would reserve comment until full details were available. "However, from what we have heard," said Hon. Mr. King, "it seems that the board now proposed by prime minister is almost the same board which the government last year, with no immediate election in sight, refused to the farmers of western Canada. Since the Meighen government's ground on the reins of office is about to end that looks more like a political promise which Mr. Meighen and his colleagues do not expect to carry out."

OVER THE WIRES

Opinion in Ottawa during the last few days has veered to December 5 as the date of the coming Dominion election and there is even talk that the date may be a week later. Hon. C. C. Ballantyne's statement in Montreal, when he said it would be "some months" before an election is held is causing considerable debate at the capital. To the surprise of his London friends the wealthy Sir Ernest Cassel died

To the Protestants of N. B.:
Greetings:—
The campaign is beginning to open up. Several members of our committee visited St. Martin's on Monday evening, where a public appeal was made in interest of the orphanage work. Later a visit was made to one of the local lodges, where a further appeal was put forth. A number of season tickets were left for hear from next! Do not wait for a visit from the committee; get busy at once—one good volunteer is worth a dozen pressed men. Those willing to assist, drop us a line at once. Donations of any kind will be welcomed.
Season tickets at $1 each, six for $5; good for admission, also chance to win an automobile (1922 Chevrolet), or a sleigh. Buy one or more books and resell. A splendid means of contributing to a worthy cause at no expense.

RELIGION IN EVERY DAY WORK

Address by Rev. C. W. Gordon—Liquor Supplanting Drug in China.

Hamilton, Ont., Sept. 28—Rev. C. W. Gordon (Ralph Connor) moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of Canada in a speech last night declared that the work of the Lord and church work were different things. The church must find a way to close the chasm between the one religious day and the six days which are spent in ordinary work. The church should bring religion into every day

Five Roses Cook Book

Complete Information on Pastry

The famous FIVE ROSES Cook Book strips pastry making of its mystery—indispensable to the housewife eager to excel. Tells all about pastry, tarts, puffs, patties, whole pages of pie recipes, etc. Brings you the FIVE ROSES experience of over a quarter century plus the best selected recipes of thousands of successful FIVE ROSES users. Full of notes, pointers, useful wrinkles. So essential to good housekeeping that already over 500,000 women have written for this 144-page manual. Sent for 40c. in stamps.

WRAP your favourite filling in a FIVE ROSES crust. Serve a pie that solidly satisfies without taxing the digestion.

In the lively, close-grained flakiness that melts away on the tongue tip, the presence of FIVE ROSES flour is readily perceived.

Over 32 years' experience attests its value in pie crust, puff paste and the so-called difficult things.

You who have so successfully used FIVE ROSES flour in bread, cakes, puddings and other culinary triumphs, try it now in pies and pastry.

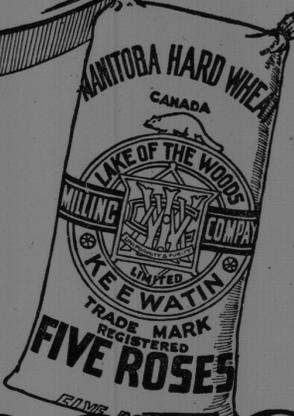

FIVE ROSES BRINGS ECONOMY

With the same amount of shortening and water, simply because of its uncommon strength, you use at least one-fifth less flour.

A GRAVE RESPONSIBILITY.

Choosing a house of commons is not merely a test of party strength. It is a solemn duty imposed upon the people by laws of their own making, for the safety and welfare of the state. The duty is universal. There is always a danger that in the eagerness for a party triumph the larger significance of an election may be overlooked.

THE PREMIER'S SPEECH

The country was led to expect that Premier Meighen would deliver an epoch-making speech to his constituents in Portage la Prairie yesterday. The country today learns that the speech reasserted the tariff as the issue, pictured the Liberals and Farmers as a menace to the welfare of Canada, and omitted altogether any reply to the charges of extravagance, incompetence and autocratic methods made against the government.

Even the Children's Clothes Cost Less With the Deltor

LITTLE clothes as quaint as those in picture-books—as smart as the frocks we Parisiennes are wearing—so becoming that they will make your children look their very sweetest.

You can make them yourself and they will actually cost you less than any clothes you have ever bought or made! Even if you have never attempted a little garment, you can now create with your own fingers the smartest of school dresses, the most picturesque of party frocks. All because of a wonderful new invention accompanying every new Butterick pattern; an invention that guides you in three steps to sewing ease, to success, to wonderful economy.

The DELTOR
Saves 50c to $10
On a Gown for Yourself

First the Deltor gives you an individual layout chart (yes, an individual chart—not just a general chart, but one for your exact size and for each suitable width of material.) You lay out your pattern—the expert's way. You buy ¼ to 1½ yards less material on every garment, a saving that amounts to from 50c to $10 on a gown for yourself!

Then the Deltor saves time. Following the Parisian professional's picture-and-word putting together explanations, you sew swiftly and accurately. Whether you are making a pair of bloomers or a frock, the Deltor for that particular garment guides every stitch.

And finally as the little garment nears completion, precious secrets of finish are revealed to you—how to bind the buttonholes, how to finish the neck, how to work the scallops—important touches evolved for the garment you are making. The little garment reveals all the "artful artlessness" of childhood as interpreted by Paris!

BUTTERICK
Style Leaders of the World

Just get The Delineator

GO to the Butterick pattern counter. And whether you select a child's pattern or one for yourself remember that the Deltor specifies ¼ to 1½ yards less than would otherwise be possible—a saving of 50c to $10 on every frock for yourself.

FOR FASHIONS
Paris clothes for every winter occasion—style that the Deltor will interpret for you.

TAR ROOF TRAPS BIG BIRD.
Policeman Kills Captive Held Three Days, Which He Calls "Eagle"

With both feet firmly embedded in the tar roof of the house at 2324 Mermaid avenue, Coney Island, New York, a large bird, thought to be of the heron family, could not be extracted and had to be killed by a policeman. The bird had been held as a prisoner for about three days, according to people in the neighborhood. Food offered it was not touched.

Policeman Joseph Willey of the Coney Island station was notified of the presence of the bird, thought at first to be an eagle because of its size. The bird was as permanently attached as a fly that lights on a "fly paper," and the policeman decided it best to use his nightstick to end the bird's misery. He then reported to Acting Lieutenant O'Connor at the police station that he had killed an "eagle."

(Halifax Chronicle.) Is Portland, Maine, again to become the winter port of Canada? Are the people of the maritime provinces, particularly of the cities of Halifax and St. John, content to see the export trade of the dominion carried through foreign channels and handled at foreign ports? Are they aware of the fact that over three-quarters of the grain shipped from Canada last year was sent overseas through the ports of New York, Boston and Portland?

These are questions which should arrest the attention and stimulate the interest of the people of the maritime provinces, in fact of all maritime communities who are directly or indirectly interested therein. It is high time for the people of the maritime provinces to recognize that they will get neither right nor justice, much less generous treatment, without standing up and fighting for it.

We quoted the other day the Portland Herald's forecast of the unprecedented shipping activity expected at that port during the coming winter. This prospective huge volume of business will be largely of Canadian origin. It will provide cargoes for many steamers; it will furnish employment for dock workers and longshoremen, and will contribute to the development and prosperity of a foreign port. We are raising no cry against Portland. It is entitled to capture all the business it can. What we claim and should demand, not as a matter of favor, but of right, is that the trade of Canada shall be conducted through Canadian channels and handled at Canadian ports. And yet, so far as we can learn, not a hand is being turned to make special arrangements for bringing to our seaports any considerable volume of this trade.

What has happened during the past season? A huge volume of grain for export was carried down to Montreal, causing unprecedented congestion in that port. Its facilities, great as they are, were absolutely inadequate to handle it. Ocean steamers by the score were kept waiting for days in the harbor, at great cost to their owners and greater economic loss to the country. What did the government do, what did the railway management do to relieve the situation? Did they ever even think of utilizing the facilities of Halifax and St. John to save the situation? If they did nobody outside of their own circle ever heard about it. "The long railway haul" will be the answer, but that is an old story.

The money lost by the tying up of ocean steamers waiting for cargoes and by the delay in the shipments overseas might well have been applied in helping to pay the freight rates to the seaboard. The ports of Halifax and St. John would then get a share of the export trade of the dominion, steamers would be attracted to our harbors seeking cargoes, the unemployment situation would be ameliorated, and the whole of the maritime provinces would feel the benefit of the increased trade.

Look at the situation here in Halifax today! When in the memory of men engaged in business in Halifax, has the waterfront been so deserted by shipping as it has been during the past season? The arrival of a first-class steamer has become a notable event, and the list of ships in port has dwindled down to a few government and cable vessels. The great port of Halifax has lost its "forests of masts," and there is scarcely a sign of life about the terminal docks.

As for the much-vaunted ocean terminals, which we were told, were to make "a new heaven and a new earth" in Halifax, they remain an unsightly blot upon land and seascape—the monument

CANON TROOP SPOKE AT ST. GILES' CHURCH

Anglican Rector Conducted Evangelical Conference in Presbyterian Pulpit.

(Montreal Gazette.) Inaugurating a conference which is to consist of a series of talks on evangelical doctrine and faith at St. Giles' Presbyterian Church, Outremont, the Rev. Canon Osborne Troop, formerly rector of St. Martin's Church, and now of Halifax, was the preacher at yesterday's services.

The fact that an Anglican rector should occupy the pulpit both on Sunday and at week-day services was commented upon by the pastor, the Rev. Dr. J. R. Dolson, who, in introducing Canon Troop, pointed out that he had been invited some years ago, but the engagement had fallen through. Since that time the pulpit of St. Giles had been occupied by the late Rev. Dr. Symonds, and it would be taken in a fortnight's time by Canon Stratford for anniversary services.

Dr. Dolson referred to the successful efforts of the joint committee on union between the Anglican and the Presbyterian churches of this diocese, which, while it could not have any actual effect in bringing about organic union, had nevertheless outlined a system under which the ministers of the respective churches could be commissioned by the ordaining authorities.

Canon Troop's topic yesterday morning was "I Have the Keys," the words being taken from the first chapter of the Revelation of St. John. That book, he said, was rather a system under which the ministers of the respective churches could be commissioned by the ordaining authorities.

TEN THOUSAND SAW HANGING.

Public Admitted to Double Execution in Florida.

Crestview, Florida, Sept. 28.—A double execution took place here when Putnam Ponsell and Jake Martin paid the death penalty for the murder of John Tuggle.

A crowd estimated at 10,000 witnessed the hanging, which was public.

Both men admitted their guilt just before the execution, and a letter from the mother of Tuggle was read in which she said she had forgiven them. More than $1,000 was subscribed by the crowd for the wife and two children of Ponsell, and the wife and one child of Martin, who are destitute.

CHINESE EXPERTS STUDY RAILROADS OF THE DOMINION

Investigate Systems in Canada in Preference to Those of Other Countries.

(Ottawa Journal.)

With a view of perfecting the railroad system in China, the Chinese Minister of Communications, Yeh Kunt Cho, has sent six prominent railroad officials of the Chinese government to Ottawa to investigate the systems used in Canada in preference to all other countries of the world. These officials are staying in Canada for eighteen months, after which they will pay a short visit to the United States, England and the Continent, and expect to inspect the railroad systems of those countries.

Two members of the commission arrived in Ottawa Friday to study the general administrative end of the different systems. These are Messrs. Y. L. Kwan, chief of the transportation division, traffic department, Peking-Mukden line, and Ke Fung, translator of the general department of the same railroad. They will stay in the capital for two weeks, during which time they will be shown over the different manufacturing plants in the vicinity and their accompanying transportation systems. During their stay in the Dominion the members of the commission are guests of the Canadian Pacific Railway.

The C. P. R. is the finest system in the world, with its up-to-date equipment, management and splendid co-operation, according to Y. L. Kwan. Realizing this, the Chinese government chose Canada for a model on which to revise its railroad system. The systems in China are mostly all government-owned and are very up-to-date in their own way, but they failed in management.

While accompanying the members of the C. P. R. and other Canadian railroads are the main features being investigated by the visiting party.

Yeh Kunt Cho, Chinese minister of communications, and other similar officials are to be seen in Ottawa. The rails are mostly all of an 85-pound gauge similar to those used in Canada.

While in Canada, the commissioners may investigate the management of the C. P. O. system with a view of establishing a future ocean line. Trade with Canada was especially desirable to China.

The visiting commissioners are acting under the orders of Yeh Kunt Cho, Chinese minister of Communications, and High Commissioner of Industry. Yeh Kunt Cho has taken a keen interest in the different railroad systems of the Dominion and has circled the globe more than once. He chose the Canadian railroads as a standard ahead of other countries with England and the United States next in line.

The party of commissioners besides Y. L. Kwan and Ke Fung, are H. W. Wang, member of the ministry of communications and chief of the Land Division, General Department of the Peking Mukden Railroad line; James H. Tong, chief of the States Superintendent on the same line; C. H. Kwo, assistant to traffic inspector on the line; and Edward T. Y. Chin, assistant secretary of the same department.

One at Smiths Falls, two are in the railroad accounting department of the railroad shops in Montreal and one is at the Montreal terminal.

During their stay in Ottawa, the two members of the party are staying at the Y. M. C. A. They are frequent visitors at the Chinese Embassy.

SING SING WARDEN DENIES CODDLING

Ostling, N. Y., Sept. 28.—Major Lewis E. Warden of Sing Sing, has made public a letter sent to Albany in which he defended the present honor system and denied many assertions by Mal H. Pierce, State Prison Commissioner, who attacked self-government among prisoners on the ground that it was coddling.

"The term 'coddling' the men inside the walls is uncalled for and in my judgment unwarranted," said Warden Ostling in his letter sent to Charles F. Rattigan, Superintendent of Prisons.

"If punishment is the treatment for the prisoner's redemption, then why not give him hell?" asked the Warden.

The Warden answered assertions by some critics that the present methods of treating prisoners in Sing Sing encouraged crime in New York City, by asking:

"Does the Commissioner realize that the large volume of crime now rampant, because of unemployment and other causes, is being committed in the main by men who have never been in prison? Certainly no prison system can be condemned for not curing a man it never treated."

Disagreeing with Pierce's suggestion that keepers again be placed over inmates in the prison workshops, as they were up to six years ago, Warden Ostling and Superintendent of Industries John P. Boyce both said that the inmates have produced more work and behaved better without the old style of supervision.

Warden Ostling, who has made a record in production in the last three years, challenged Pierce's denunciations that the industrial output had shown a slump under the present system.

"The disciplinary records of the prison show that there were 400 per cent more assaults in the prison ten years ago than at present," wrote the Warden.

"There have been only two serious assaults in the last ten months, and this seems remarkable, when it is understood that in this period over 2,000 men have been confined here, many of them of rival gangs on the outside. We are not kidding ourselves that we are running a kindergarten, and do not hesitate to punish offenders by segregation, reduction of food, forfeiture of privileges and transfer."

"I firmly believe in giving the first offender a chance, and I believe that conditions should be made more irksome for the old offender. There are many men who are here who will be released and never again revert to crime, and

THE POLICE FORCE

Montreal Gazette.—Richard E. Enright, head of the New York police force, has admitted receiving money payments and an automobile from men whose appointment he controlled.

The incident occurred in connection with an enquiry by a committee of the legislature into allegations of grave irregularities in the administration and conduct of the force. A police force of all those that most strictly governed of all should serve the community. It is a curious reversal of proper conditions that so often, in large centres, it falls under control of men with whom personal benefit looms larger than public duty.

PLUNGES 100 FEET FROM A TORN BALLOON

Aeronaut's Back is Broken When He is Forced to Leap at Park Near Newark.

(New York Times.)

When a balloon bearing John Karnshitz, a professional balloonist at fairs and amusement parks, swayed aloft yesterday at Hillside Park, in Velleville, near Newark, he discovered when about 100 feet from the ground that there was a hole in the side of the big bag. He dropped with his parachute, but it did not open in time and he struck the ground so hard that his back was broken.

Karnshitz, who is thirty-three years old and lives at 413 Gardner street, Union Hill, was a substitute for Henry Wineg, who has been making regular ascents at the park, but who was ill yesterday. There was a strong wind before the ascent and the balloon tugged hard at its fastenings. Karnshitz, who has made many ascents, was not at all troubled by the wind, and calmly overhauled his parachute and made sure that everything was in readiness.

When he finally gave the word and grasped the trapeze, to which his parachute was attached, the fastenings were released and the balloon went up with a bound. The wind blew it to one side as it rose, and a pulley on a pole alongside the bag caught in the cloth and ripped a large hole. Those who saw it realized the danger and yelled excitedly to Karnshitz, who apparently thought it was merely the applause of the crowd and paid little attention.

But when he had risen a little more than 100 feet he noticed that something was wrong because the balloon rapidly lost bouancy. He had the alternative of clinging to the bag and being dashed against the trees, or of dropping with his parachute before he had reached a height at which it could be done with assurance that it would open. He cut the parachute.

As he cut it away and started his swift drop those on the ground below cried in horror, for the parachute did not open until just before he struck the ground. The instant's check was not enough to save him from serious injury. He landed on his back, and when those nearby ran up to him he was unconscious, still clinging to his trapeze.

Karnshitz was taken to St. Michael's Hospital, where it was found that his spine was fractured. He may not recover.

CURRENT POLITICS

Logan for Cumberland. (Montreal Herald.)

Hance J. Logan will be the Liberal candidate in Cumberland, N. S. The seat is held by Speaker Rhodes, but he informed a friend last session that he would not stand again, as no one could defeat Mr. Logan in that county. Mr. Logan carried the county at three general elections, in one of them defeating C. H. Cahan. He is president of the Maritime Board of Trade, and at the annual meeting the other day noted that when he entered parliament there were thirty-nine representatives from the maritime provinces and thirty-five west of Lake Superior. At the next redistribution it is expected there will only be twenty-eight from the provinces by the sea and 115 west of Lake Superior.

The New Cabinet. (Toronto Globe.)

The new men are, therefore, untried so far as administration is concerned, nor can any of them be described as distinguished parliamentarians, rising above the ordinary level of debate. The Quebec ministers are unknown outside of that province, and none of them was strong enough even there to stand the test of an election.

None of the new ministers has given any evidence that he is competent to deal with the national problems that are up for solution, the tariff, finance, the railways, immigration or unemployment.

There was a "Who? Who?" cabinet in English history. The story is that the names of the ministers were given to the Duke of Wellington, who, being somewhat deaf, kept asking, "Who? Who?" as each unknown name was repeated. The new ministers belong to the same class, or if known have not struck the public as stars of the first or second magnitude. The position is not attractive to men of first-class capacity.

Dr. Clark's Gesture.

La Patrie: "Dr. Michael Clark, member of parliament for Red Deer, has abandoned the agrarian movement by separating himself from the Hon. Mr. Creer. Those who recall his separation from Sir Wilfrid Laurier in the difficult times of conscription and afterwards the breaking of his bonds with the Unionist government of which he at one time showed himself to be one of the most fervent partisans, will not be inclined to feel any surprise at his latest gesture. Manifestly, Dr. Clark is not constant in his affections."

Fighting Joe Martin.

The Victoria Colonist makes the announcement that politics on the Pacific coast may be enlivened by the re-appearance of Hon. "Joe" Martin in the present campaign, as a Farmer candidate. Mr. Martin has had a varied political career. He was a minister in a Manitoba government, promoter of British Columbia, and member of the parliament of Canada and of the United Kingdom. He started from the platform of a country school teacher.

Divided Labor Party.

In Winnipeg, where organized workers are specially strong, the situation, as it exists, is described as "instead of one general Labor party, which the working people regard as representing their interests, there are three Labor groups, each with a different programme, and each at loggerheads with the others."

There is the Dominion Labor party, which is the political wing of the International Trade Unions represented in the Winnipeg Trades Council. Second, there is the Independent Labor party, which is a split from the Dominion Labor party; and third, there is the One Big Union, which, politically, appears to be linked up with the Socialist party of Canada. The Winnipeg Free Press puts the situation, in its view, thus: "There is really no Labor party in Winnipeg."

EIGHT PEOPLE DROWN IN LAKE SUPERIOR

Small Sloopboat Swamped in Storm Forthright Ago.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Sept. 28.—Eight persons lost their lives in a squall that swept over Lake Superior two weeks ago. The disappearance of a party of berry pickers was reported to authorities here by Adam Lewis, a nephew of whose relatives set out in a sloop from Shell Drake, north of here, Sault Ste. Marie, Ont. Investigation revealed that the sloop capsized about 10 miles off the beach between here and "Drake." The victims were Mr. and Mrs. John Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Simon Lewis, George Field, and three children. Harry Brooks, a lumber camp worker, declared that he saw the craft in trouble about five miles north of here. It labored for some time in the heavy seas, he said, and finally turned over.

Adam Lewis, in reporting the disappearance of his relatives, who lived on the Indian reservation at Garden River, 10 miles from Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., said that he had not worried about their continued absence until a few days ago.

FIVE GREAT ACTS AT OPERA HOUSE

An Extraordinary Splendid Variety of Talent on Mid-Week Bill.

Rarely has St. John housed at one time as many stars of the vaudeville stage as are here today playing at the Opera House.

Jean McCoy and Ralph Walton with their mirth-producing skill, "A Few Minutes With Gaiety" top the bill. Mr. Oulja is now making his presence felt in vaudeville and has come to the aid of McCoy and Walton and assists them in providing a quarter of an hour of jollity and songs that delighted large audiences at all performances.

You have heard of laughing trapezists. Eckhoff and Gordon have one. They make it the merriest musical instrument that has ever discoursed mirth and melody. Eckhoff and Gordon play a variety of musical instruments and between numbers carry on a cross-fire conversation that sends the crowd into convulsions with their wit and humor.

Other sterling attractions on the bill include Brown and Spencer, in a piano and novelty singing offering; Manning and Lee, in a comedy singing and talking skit entitled "After the Matinee"; Paul Perry, in a sensational cannon ball juggling act. Another chapter of the popular serial "The Avenging Arrow,"

BATTLE AGAINST SKUNKS IN MEDFORD

Medford, Mass., Sept. 28.-A battle of skunks and humans is now in progress in the Pasture Hill district of this city. The reports given out state that two of the "scented" animals are no more, while the only damage to the human so far as known is the disagreeable odors. For several weeks past men and women, young and old, have seen the unwelcome visitors emerging from the woods near the Lawrence estate on Summit road. The breeze carried the scent of the animals far and wide. No matter who the people were, they were subjected to this unwelcome nuisance. Even the mayor's office at the city hall was affected. Frederick A. Hall, a local dairyman, who has a pasture near the woods and whose home is at 57 Powderhouse road, killed a skunk several months ago and has kept watch ever since. He noticed three new arrivals and was very careful lest they become too familiar with his chickens. It was bad enough to know that they were near by, but when they started to steal, Mr. Hall demanded vengeance. Finally Mr. Hall decided that he would tempt the skunks and then fill 'em full of lead. Saturday he placed several traps and yesterday morning his attention was attracted by a large skunk who was caught in one of the traps. Mr. Hall, his son Norman and Earl James approached the skunk, and started to fire from their rifles and revolvers. As they did, the polecat counteracted, and as a result it became an unpleasant fight. After five shots the skunk was dead. The traps were left set, and another "scent" was picked up by Mr. Hall, and he found a smaller one of the species in the trap. The second animal had more fight than the first, and it took eight bullets to kill it. Mr. Hall hopes to catch the other large skunk that is still roaming around. Two more beautiful specimens of handcraft, both fine examples of weaving, had been donated to the Natural History Society. Miss Sarah Pickett, of Andover, has presented a woven quilt which was made by one of her ancestors. The second specimen is a soft and beautiful blanket woven by Pueblo Indians and done in geometric design. This latter is the gift of the late Mrs. R. B. Humphrey

BUTTER CHEAPER. (Montreal Gazette, Monday.) The total butter receipts since May 1st, 1921, to date are 37,451 packages larger than the same period in 1920. A weaker feeling has prevailed in the market for butter during the past week and prices closed 1 7/8c. per lb. lower than the previous week. At the lower level, there was a little more business done with the United States in spite of the duty, and, in addition to this, local buyers were also operating, but there was no improvement in the demand from foreign buyers, and the market was by no means active. The wholesale jobbing trade on Saturday announced a decline of 1c. per lb. in prices, with sales of finest creamery at 37c. per lb. in solid packages, and at 38c. per lb. in 1-lb. blocks.

THE FLOUR MARKET. (Montreal Gazette, Monday.) The undertone to the market is still easy even at the late decline in prices announced, and there is an impression in some quarters of the trade that they have got to go still lower in order to stimulate the demand. Sales of car lots of first patents were made at $9.20, second patents at $8.70 and strong bakers at $8.50 per barrel in jute bags, ex-track, less 10c. per barrel for spot cash. It was reported that the demand from United States buyers for the above grades of flour was steadily increasing and that sales of some fair-sized lots had been made of late in spite of the duty that has been imposed on it. A steady trade was done in winter wheat flour for domestic account and prices were unchanged, with sales of car lots of choice grades at $6.30 to $6.60 per barrel in second-hand jute bags, ex-track, while smaller quantities sold at $7 to $7.25 per barrel, ex-store, and winter wheat patents at $7.75 to $8 per barrel in new cotton bags, ex-store. It was also stated that Ontario millers were receiving considerable enquiry from American buyers for these grades of flour, which may result in a fair amount of business being done in that direction in the near future.

WHY EGGS ARE HIGH. (Montreal Gazette.) The receipts of eggs in Montreal on Saturday were 1,104 cases, as against 704 cases for the same day last week, and 5,976 cases for the corresponding date a year ago. The receipts for the week ending September 24th, 1921, were 6,228 cases, as compared with 7,176 cases for the previous week and 17,912 cases for the same week last year. The total receipts from May 1st, 1921, to date were 279,414 cases, as against 348,696 cases for the same period in 1920. The receipts for the past week show a decrease of 553 cases as compared with the previous one, and a decrease of 11,298 cases with the same week last week, while the total receipts for the season to date are 69,282 cases smaller than the same period in 1920.

PROBLEM PRESSES GOVERNMENT HARD

British Cabinet Sessions on Unemployment.

Million and Half Idle Workmen—Meeting With Captains of Commerce and Probably Union Leaders on Friday.

London, Sept. 28.—Various proposals for relieving the unemployment situation in Great Britain were discussed by a committee of the British cabinet yesterday. Three sessions were held.

question is gaining momentum every day. A plan to revive home export trade by the extension of credits was one of the matters taken up.

Unofficial reports assert that antagonism has developed between certain departments of the government and the representatives of the treasury, who are striving to cut down expenses.

Lloyd George contended the government already had gone to unprecedented lengths in subsidizing the unemployed for the relief of whom the government had since the war provided more than one hundred million pounds.

Lloyd George plans to consult leaders in commerce and industry at Galway on Friday, and he will probably hear the views of union leaders, who have asked for an interview. He is expected to return to London on next Tuesday.

Among the anxious questions on the situation there are frequent references to the influence upon the situation of international exchange and the inter-Allied war debt.

Mayor Schofield and C. C. Kirby, C. P. R. engineers, yesterday morning visited Musquash and Clinch's Mills to inspect the property and the railway siding to see if it would be feasible to cut cordwood on the crown lands there.

Do you discriminate at the dining table—or are you thoughtless?

In thousands of homes, a "line" is drawn at the breakfast table. Tea or coffee is served for "grown-ups" and Postum for children.

Consequently, instead of rich, satisfying Postum, children are overstimulated by the drugs in tea and coffee; and so may grow up irritable and nervous.

Although some parents feel a certain justification for the personal indulgence in tea and coffee, yet the harm to them may be equally serious.

Postum is the well-known, meal-time beverage. Like thousands of others you will like it because, in flavor, it is delightful and satisfying.

Do away with the distinction at the table. Serve delicious Postum, piping hot, to all the family. One week's trial and it is likely that you'll never return to tea and coffee.

Postum comes in two forms: Instant Postum (in tins) made instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water.

A New Champion.
Another national amateur golf tournament has found its way into the record books and a new champion crowned. P. Guilford of Boston, who has topped into the front ranks of golf, secured his victory by a richly deserved, "best" play, defeating in turn the champion of Francis Oulmet, the champion, Chick Evans and then Bob Gardner, who had downed the British champion after the latter had blocked off brilliant Atlanta youngster, Bobby Nes.

Do emerge victorious in such a fine and is an achievement and on the close day, pitted against a two-time holder of the title as well as a finalist in the British amateur a year ago, the Massachusetts star rose to heights that ooked no resistance. ATHLETIC.
Junior Records Broken.
(Montreal Gazette.)
Seven records went by the boards at the 13th annual junior city championships held under the auspices of the M. A. A. in conjunction with the annual fall handicaps at the club's grounds at Westmount, Saturday afternoon. The new marks were all set in the junior events and were indicative of the spectacular features that marked the most successful meet of this kind held by the association. More than 3,000 witnessed the various events during the afternoon and watched a record number of entrants participate with keenest rivalry throughout the entire programme. Over 400 competitors took part and altogether there were more than 900 entries.

D. O'Connor, of St. Ann's, broke the mark for seventy-five yards for boys twelve to fourteen years, winning in nine seconds, and clipping three-fifths of a second off the old record. T. M. Bannon ran the same distance for the boys, fourteen to sixteen years, in 8-5 seconds, lowering the former record by one-fifth second. L. Sutton, of the Montreal High School, cleared 4 ft. 5 1/2 inches in the high jump for boys ten to fourteen years, adding one half inch to the old mark, while in the 300 yards race for boys between ten and twelve years, C. George, of St. Ann's, covered the distance in forty-one seconds, four seconds faster than the previous record. C. A. Brook, of Aberdeen school, Montreal West, equalled the 600 yard run mark of 1 min. 25-4-5 seconds and D. O'Connor made his second record of the afternoon when he covered the 440 yards run for boys twelve to fourteen years in the record time of 1 min. 31-3 seconds.

The seventh record went to E. Brooker in the twelve pound shot put, the field athlete heaving the shot 38 feet 3/4 inches, more than two feet further than the old distance. J. Riley, of the N. B. Y. M. C. A. won the 100 yards dash for seniors in 10-2-5 seconds.

The spiral stairway leading up to the old hall has been done away with and a new entrance has been made from the northern side of the building. It is of cord pine and is brilliantly illuminated. A concrete walk has also been laid to the entrance and a large electric light opened last evening, when a most enjoyable social was held. During the evening solos were sung by Mrs. Curran Owens, Mrs. Charles Morris and William Lanyon, and all three were obliged to respond to encores. Refreshments were served by a committee of ladies from the Church of the Assumption parish.

placed over the door. The old partition work in the hall has been removed and the auditorium completely renovated. A new hardwood floor has been laid and a large brick chimney and open fireplace set in the wall near one end. A new lighting system has been installed, the stage enlarged and equipped with foot-lights and other essentials, while dressing and washing rooms have been made on either side for the convenience of those participating in entertainments. A room has also been made in the rear of the building to house a motion picture machine and spot light. To the right of the stage has been erected a canteen, where refreshments will be served, while in the rear a kitchen modernly equipped has been placed, and a telephone installed for the convenience of the workers and others. Lavatories have been installed and drinking fountain placed in the rear of the main hall and to one side of the stage.

The building has been in the hands of painters, and sections completed present an attractive appearance. A hanging partition has been arranged towards the rear of the main auditorium, and by this the hall can be converted into two separate rooms, one of which can be utilized for meetings and other purposes and the other left open for social or entertainments. Many complimentary remarks were heard last evening from the visitors regarding the marked improvements.

The trail rangers of the Ludlow Street Baptist church were officially notified from Toronto yesterday that they had won the beautiful New Brunswick shield, representing the championship of this province in the Canadian national athletic contests held last April. Those of the successful group were Gray Belyea, Carl Hanson, William Waring, Alfred Belyea, Harry Walton, Donald Creyke, George Cameron, Harry Burnett, Roland Hamilton, Harry Toole, Arthur Reid, Edward Craft, Harold McKinney, George Alton and Gregory Hammond. BIG BRUSH—POWERFUL SUCTION

How you can save the money for a vacuum cleaner

If in addition to your regular housework, you have a "clearing woman" come in once a week to help you, a Torrington Electric Vacuum Cleaner would actually pay for itself by saving this added expense.

The Torrington, with its carpet-sweeper brush and powerful suction, will cut in half your need for outside help, and the money you would pay a maid for these one or two days each month would easily take care of the payments on a Torrington.

Let us demonstrate to you that a Torrington Cleaner means cleaner cleaning and less fatigue.

WARNING IN POLICE COURT

Comment of the Magistrate About Street Happenings in Dealing With Case.

Andrew McCourt was fined $8 or two months for drunkenness in the police court and was told that he was liable to a fine of $20 or two months for making cutting remarks to Earl McKay, a motorman with the street railway.

McKay told the court that yesterday afternoon he had stopped his car at the corner of Douglas avenue and Main street, and saw McCourt standing at the corner and noticed him directing some remarks at him. He asked the defendant what he wanted, to which he said he replied, "You're no good." McKay then asked him to move on, and at this McCourt invited the motorman out to the street. McKay then called Policeman Howard and had the man arrested.

Policeman Howard testified. He told the court what McKay had said to him relative to his conversation with the prisoner.

To E. S. Ritchie, who appeared for the defendant, McKay said that he did not notice that he man has been drinking.

The magistrate asked the policeman why he did not arrest McCourt when he first saw him. To this the policeman replied that he was busy directing traffic at the corner. Later the magistrate, in reviewing happenings of the last few months about the public streets, said that the fact an officer was on traffic duty did not relieve him of police duties.

"Unless there is a change about the streets there will be something terrible to go before the grand jury some of these days," remarked the magistrate.

One man was fined $8 or two months in jail this morning by Magistrate Ritchie for being drunk in Union Alley.

Asked where he got his liquor, he said that he had met a friend from Montreal with a bottle.

CONFERENCE OVER RECENT TROUBLE

Power Company Officers Meet Mayor and Others.

P. W. Thomson, manager of the New Brunswick Power Company, and Directors L. R. Ross, Howard P. Robinson, R. B. Emerson, A. O. Skinner and Dr. Fred. R. Taylor, E. C. held a conference at city hall this morning with Mayor Schofield, Commissioner Thornton, Duncan G. Lingie, city chamberlain, and Chief of Police Smith.

The discussion had to do with the recent trouble, police protection, and a statement which was given out by an official of the company.

The conference was held in Mayor Schofield's office and was private, although at times the conversation could be heard in other sections of the building.

At the conclusion of the meeting, Mayor Schofield said that there was nothing he could give out for publication, as the meeting had been of a private nature. However, he said, he did not like the statement appearing in an article published through an official of the N. B. Power Company, and he said they had come to an understanding concerning it. He said that he had decided to address the members of the police force regarding the matter, but had not definitely decided on the time.

With reference to a published statement that 1,000 cases of violations had been reported in two weeks and no action taken, Mayor Schofield said that there had been a large amount of business holding the attention of the court during the last couple of weeks, including murder preliminary trials, etc., and that if the reported violations had been dealt with what would become of the other business. With regard to police protection, he said if anyone was getting special attention it was the Power Company. He said that the union members were protesting because so many of the policemen were placed on duty at the power house and in consequence some districts practically left unprotected. The mayor said that there were statements being made broadcast concerning the situation which were absolutely wrong.
