EMPRESS PROBE IS NOW TO BEGIN

First Session in Quebec Tomorrow Morning

LIKELY LONG DRAWN OUT

So Far About Sixty Witnesses and Each of Them May Have to Stand Questioning by Four Lawyers, Representing Various Interests

Quebec, June 15.—Preparations were completed today for the enquiry into the Empress disaster. The enquiry will take place in the court house. This morning that building was crowded with newspaper men, telegraph operators and government officials, making arrangements for handling of the various details. Lord Moresy was this morning on his way to Quebec on the Montreal harbor commissioners' steamer Sir Hugh Allan.

Officials of the marine department, are still serving subpoenas on witnesses and it is thought that when the commission opens more than sixty of the officers and crew of the Empress and Stordal and survivors will be in attendance. As each of these witnesses is liable to examination at least four times, once by Edmund L. Newcombe, deputy minister of justice, who acts for the government; once by Butler Spence, K. C., who represents the British Seaman's union; once by the British Seaman's union; and once by a legal representative of the British Seaman's union, the proceedings are likely to be protracted.

PRINCE WILLIAM LEADS ALBANIANS AND THEY REPULSE ATTACK

Durazzo, Albania, June 15.—The Albanian government troops under the personal leadership of Prince William today repulsed a strong attack on the Albanian capital by Mussulman insurgents. At the outset of the fighting the insurgents gained an advantageous position, but Colonel Thomson, Dutch commander of the gendarmes had been killed, Prince William placed himself at the head of the defenders, who succeeded in silencing the rifle and artillery fire of the attacking force after three hours of fighting.

Berry in Boston; Subpoena Served on Him by Special Man Sent There by Dugal Counsel

Investigation by Royal Commission to be Opened Tomorrow—A Conference Held Last Week in Montreal

Counsel for L. A. Dugal, M. P., the accused in the charges against Premier Fleming and members of his government, have been successful in locating H. H. Berry, chief secretary for the local government, and a subpoena has been served upon him. The uncertainty regarding his appearance to testify, when the commission commences the inquiry tomorrow, is the chief point of interest at the moment in connection with the proceedings.

On the day when the commission first met for organization Mr. Berry left his home in St. Stephen and crossed the border into the United States, leaving no definite information regarding his destination or the probable date of his return. When an agent of Mr. Dugal's counsel arrived at his home to serve the subpoena upon him his departure was learned. Mrs. Berry seemed much disturbed over the matter and promised to endeavor to locate her husband and to try to induce him to return. Soon afterwards an announcement was made, through newspapers friendly to the administration, that Mr. Berry was ill and had gone to the United States to seek the advice of specialists, with the possibility that he might find it necessary to enter a sanitarium for a prolonged stay.

While in the United States Mr. Berry was sent to Boston to locate him and succeed in doing so, an agent on Saturday Mr. Berry was found and the papers served upon him. While in the United States Mr. Berry is beyond the jurisdiction of the Canadian authorities and cannot be compelled to return by legal process. Those who have brought the charges are still hopeful that he may be on hand, however. Mr. Berry is expected to return to Montreal in the matters charged against him it would be to his own interests to return. If the charges are proved, he will be the fullest investigation and is anxious that all possible light shall be thrown upon the matter. He is expected to return to Montreal in the matters charged against him it would be to his own interests to return.

TODAY'S COUNCIL

The resolution proposed by Commissioner McLellan, providing for a change in the city charter to make a unanimous vote of the common council necessary for the sale, purchase or transfer of any lands by the city, notice of which was given last week, will be before the council for discussion at their weekly meeting this afternoon.

COMMISSIONER PATE'S APPLICATION

Commissioner Pate's application for authority to purchase a second motor truck for his department, which was laid over from the last meeting, was taken up this afternoon, when additional information regarding the comparative cost of the use of motor and horse drawn vehicles will be submitted.

GOVERNMENT'S ORDER AGAINST BRIBING IN OFF ARMS VALID

Dublin, June 15.—By a majority of two to one judges of the King's Bench court today decided that the government's proclamation prohibiting imposition of arms into Ireland was valid. This judgment reverses the decision of the assize court of Belfast.

SIXTY-FIVE CHURCHES IN ITALY DAMAGED

Rome, June 15.—Sixty-five churches have been damaged or looted by rioting strikers during the reign of terror which still exists in some parts of the kingdom. The cathedral, the Church of Peace and the Church of the Holy Cross in Senigallia, near Bologna, were attacked today. The cathedral was saved, but the other two edifices were burned.

WHO PAYS?

W. A. Stejper is looking for some one to pay the cost of a new plate glass window for his shop door in Mill street. On Saturday afternoon a passing automobile caught a stone with its tire and hurled it through the glass. Mr. Stejper believes the stone was part of the material placed in the street for civic concrete work and he is looking to the city to make good the damage.

MAIN STREET

In preparation for the laying of the permanent pavement in Main street, the water and sewerage department is removing all the service pipes and service stop-cocks in the section which is to be paved. When this work is completed the department expects that they will have no occasion to tear up the new pavement for any work connected with their services for some years at least.

Off for Few Weeks

Washington, D. C., June 15.—Congress succeeded in putting off the spectre of a vote on the Hobson prohibition of the resolution until about the end of June.

THIEVES AT WORK

Robbery in T. J. Phillips' North End Store—Cash Register Rifled

The fruit and confectionary store of T. J. Phillips in Main street was broken into on Saturday night or Sunday morning and all the cash left in the cash register from Saturday night's sales was taken. When the store was opened this morning it was found that an entrance had been made through the back door. A padlock was broken and the bolt with which an inner door had been secured had also been forced. It is not known how much money had been left in the cash register, as most of it had been reported to have been taken by the proprietor, and what was taken would be from late sales. It has not been the custom at Phillips' to keep the cash register over night, but the proprietor left early on Saturday evening and some money was there.

COMING TO ST. JOHN

'Practice Boys' 1915 Convention Here—Local Delegates Home

Delegates to the grand lodge session of the F. A. F. B. which was held last week in Napasoo, Ont., who have returned to St. John, report that this was one of the most successful gatherings in the history of the organization. The local men are especially well pleased over their success in securing the promise of the convention for St. John next year. This will be the first time for the grand lodge to meet anywhere but in Ontario, and it required vigorous fighting by the center, the grand lodge and the 1915 convention will open in St. John on June 6.

A Conference in Montreal

During the interval since the opening of the session the commission the defence has not been idle and it is reported that a conference, which may be of some significance, was held in Montreal on Friday evening last. George Clarke, acting premier of New Brunswick; Hon. J. K. Fleming, premier of New Brunswick; Hon. H. H. Berry, chief secretary for the local government, and A. B. Gould, head of the St. John and district branch of the company, were in the Windsor Station in Montreal and held a long conference. After they concluded the business of the conference may be indicated by the inquiry commences.

GREECE AND TURKEY

London, June 15.—A despatch to the Times from Athens says Greece is actively making naval preparations for war today when Premier Venizelos sent to the Porte a note insisting that a reply be returned at once to his previous communication demanding that persecution of Greeks in Turkish dominions cease at once. National sentiment is strongly in favor of war.

TO ORGANIZE BAKERS

Boston, June 15.—A special effort to extend the union movement among bakers in Canada and along the Pacific coast, is to be undertaken by the Bakers' union. Joseph T. Walsh, general organizer, today received orders to start next week for Toronto and to conduct a year's campaign.

OUTDOES ST. JOHN

There is at least one place in the world where the climate sometimes changes more suddenly and with greater extremes than in St. John, and that place is Coburn, Ont. In a letter to a St. John friend, a former St. John boy, who is now in Coburn, says that on last Friday the official maximum temperature registered was 98 degrees above, with some glasses going as high as the century mark. In comparison with this he says that the Friday previous the weather was so cool that the water in a pipe supplying a steam shovel on the railway work there was frozen. No thanks, St. John is good enough for us.

CONDENSED DESPATCHES

The Montreal board of control is cutting 100 full-time work employees and saving about $84,000 a year. In the assessment department, however, some salaries are being increased. A column of French troops lost five men killed and seventeen wounded in a desperate fight with Moroccan tribesmen. The London Daily Express says the militant suffragettes pay a regular price for acts of violence. The stained glass windows damaged in St. George's church last night were made in the year 1500 by Belgian workmen.

Montreal, N. B., June 15.—Four marriages were solemnized in St. Bernard's church this morning by Rev. Father Cormier. Joseph LeBlanc was married to Miss Perina Legere; Anthony LeBlanc to Miss Olive Henri; Edward Babinette to Eleanor Arsenault; and Clifford Williams to Ellen Conklin.

Two More Murders By New York's Gangs of Gunmen

Revenge Declared to Be Motive in Both Cases—Stray Shots Hit Children Playing in Street

New York, N. Y., June 15.—Gunmen killed two men in the East Side yesterday, seriously wounded a third, and stray bullets from their revolvers struck two children and caused superficial wounds. Revenge is assigned as the cause for both murders. Salvatore Pelligrino, aged thirty-two, a former inmate of Sing Sing, shot William, aged twenty-two, who was shot down by a gang of gunmen after being lured from their home by acquaintances. Salvatore died in an hour. Several shots fired by the gunmen at brothers went wild and two children playing the street were hit, each in the left leg. The second murder was that of James Costello, who was killed by two gunmen at a birthday party at which he was a guest. The murderers, after seeing their victim fall mortally wounded, ran through the house threatening the other guests, and escaped.

KILLS WIFE AND CHILD AND SELF

Only Babe of Two Weeks Left Alive at Home of Galician in Toronto

Kewatit, Ont., June 15.—Last evening, a Galician named Frank Mest murdered his wife and two year old child, and then committed suicide by drowning. The tragedy took place within a stone's throw of his home and was witnessed by two men, who did not realize what was happening until it was too late to take any action. Mest worked on the road which is being built to the Manitoba boundary. No explanation for the terrible deed can be given. A two weeks' old infant was left in the house and is totally unprovided for. It is as present being taken care of by friends of the parents.

They will support Dr. Spink's independent. Durham, Doctor Jamieson former member by Conservatives of South Gray.

POLICE COURT

The case against Charles McRoberts, charged with an attack on Alexander George, a Syrian boy, was continued in court this morning. Millidge Marsh gave evidence. He said a crowd of twenty or thirty men gathered and mobbed the prisoner, who was forced to the ground by the mob. A policeman came and placed the man under arrest. The case was adjourned until tomorrow afternoon. Frederick DeForest was arrested on Saturday afternoon on a charge of wilfully breaking two panes of glass in William Baxter's bar-room in Water street and also with using obscene language. Mr. O'Brien, bartender, said that the man was not allowed to be served in his saloon. He said that when he refused to serve him the man made himself objectionable and had to be taken forcibly out. He called the bartender names and set about to break the windows when he was arrested by Sergeant Scott and Policeman Kane. He was sentenced to 20 or two months in jail for breaking the windows, and $8 or two months for obscene language.

WHY LONDON JUDGES GO TO LINKS ON SUNDAYS

London, June 15.—Judges of the criminal court who have been criticised for playing golf on Sundays have found the excuse that noxious odors and gases of the New Bailey, as the court buildings are called, drive them to get all the fresh air possible in the time they have free from court. A century ago the Old Bailey was notorious for its odors. The poor ventilation has caused many a judge's headache and probably many prisoners have suffered an extra heavy sentence because of judicial irritation.

Germany, Italy, Russia and other nations follow proportionately.

STRENGTHENING THE POLO TEAM

Americans Spurred on By Defeat of Saturday

BETTING ODDS CHANGE

Now Three and Even Four To One in Favor of England—English Derby Winner Fails To Capture French Classic

New York, June 15.—A radical change in the line-up of the American polo camp defenders because of Saturday's defeat by the British team seems assured, judging from talk heard in the polo colony at Meadowbrook today. The second game will be on Tuesday. The committee of the polo association is to meet today, and at its conclusion a new line-up of the American team will be announced. The new line-up, it is expected, will be Lawrence Waterbury, No. 1; J. M. Waterbury, No. 2; Malcolm Stevenson, No. 3, and Dewey Milburn back. This, it is said, is the strongest combination of players that the committee can bring forward at this time. It means that three members of the "Big Four" will be in their old positions. H. P. Whitney cannot resume his place on the team because of lack of condition, as he has not played polo for nearly a year. Hempstead, L. I. June 15.—Owing to the downpour of rain all night, indications this afternoon were that the second game, set for Tuesday, might have to be postponed, owing to slippery condition of the field. However, if the weather clears by evening, the game may be played.

Reducing the Rent

Mr. Storekeeper, did you ever figure out that you can utilize advertising to reduce your fixed charge for rent?

How? By the very greatly increased business it will bring you.

Just figure your advertising cost as part of the rent and figure your new percentage on the greater volume. If it does not work out you have not given the public what they want. The results of advertising in good newspapers like The Telegraph and Times are as certain as anything can be if you have voiced your appeal properly.

St. John, N. B., June 15, 1914. Times—Regarding the freedom of dogs, I like to ask the commissioner if a dog is enforced why should dogs be used? I cannot understand what a licensed dog does. As a rule, well taken care of, I notice that they are not licensed as the dogs that cause the trouble; and are seldom bothered, perhaps never bothered.

FOUND A FRIEND IN DR. CHASE

His Medicines Proven Effective, and Always Kept at Hand in This Home. Mrs. Chas. Lovell, Agassiz, B. C., writes: "I feel it my duty to tell you what a great friend Dr. Chase's medicines have been to myself and family. I cannot praise his medicines too highly, and Dr. Chase's name is a household word in our home. Well, quite a number of years ago I sent you for a sample box of Dr. Chase's Ointment for protruding piles, and, having used the sample and found relief, I sent to a neighboring town for four boxes, and I am completely cured.
"I have also used Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills for constipation, and, after using them, I am completely cured of this dreadful disease. I am the mother of ten children, of whom nine are living, and when seven of my children were all very bad with whooping cough, caught in the middle of a severe winter, I used Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linsaid and Turpentine, and they were all cured before the winter was over, and now we are never without Dr. Chase's medicines in our home, and I recommend them to all."

ELOQUENT TRIBUTE TO LATE MRS. McLEAN

Rev. Dr. MacVicar's Oration at Funeral Service in St. Andrew's Church—Many Attended Last Rites

A large number attended the funeral of the late Mrs. H. H. McLean on Saturday afternoon. After a short, private service, held at her late residence, and conducted by Rev. Dr. J. H. MacVicar, the body was taken to St. Andrew's church, of which Mrs. McLean had been a faithful member for several years.

Rev. Dr. MacVicar said in his address at the church: "Sudden death, even though it comes with the force of a shock to those who survive, has its bright side, for sudden death is sudden glory. When my way back from the general assembly of the Presbyterian church in Canada, I learned at noon yesterday, in Montreal, that Mrs. Hugh H. McLean had passed away, my thought was that she had gone to join the General Assembly and Church of the first-born, which are written in heaven. The gain and joy of the great gathering are here; the sorrow is ours; yet even we mourn not as those without hope. If the world, through her going, is emptier, it is also fuller of Divine and human love; for no one can say adequately what love has been awakened both by her presence and absence.

"When I saw her last, shortly before I left a fortnight ago for Ontario, she was apparently in the best of health, with the characteristic sunny smile upon her face, and lightness in her tread, and it seems impossible to realize that she has been called so quickly hence. It is equally impossible to try in a few words, to estimate the extent of our individual and collective loss.

"Mrs. McLean was the centre of so many delightful social gatherings, the heart of so many kindly performances, the motive power in so many philanthropic and religious movements in our city, that she cannot be missed. Her administrative ability was particularly felt in institutions like the Protestant Orphan Home. She was conspicuous in the performance of kindly private offices associated with her husband's public life, and in the exhibition of her social graces that gave her a warm place in the hearts of many, and that will always keep her memory fragrant.

"In St. Andrew's church she has been a particularly esteemed worker in connection with various organizations and most cheerfully put her gifts and powers at the service of others and strove in every way possible to promote the common good. I question if there is any greater social power in the world than kindness; and in that Mrs. McLean excelled. As the minister of St. Andrew's church I shall always gratefully cherish bright recollections of repeated acts of goodness on her part in the direction of providing needed forms of church equipment and aids to congregational efficiency. The emotions of the hour would not permit me freely to speak of personal remembrances that, on a short acquaintance, made so rapidly for ripening friendship.

"Before I became a citizen of St. John I had heard that there were many exceptionally kind people amongst its residents, and I can only say that in my own experience there were none kinder than Mrs. Hugh H. McLean. In times of joy and congratulation her face was a benediction. In times of trouble her sympathetic nature and practical thoughtfulness invariably found uplifting and soothing channels for their ready and adequate expression. At the circumstances through which eagerly anticipated scenes of festivity have been suddenly turned into a season of mourning move us to the deepest sympathy with the bereaved husband and each member of the family and relatives whom we tenderly confide to the God of all grace that He may comfort them with consolations only to be found in Him who is the Resurrection and the Life. Our Master has taught us that kind deeds are great deeds; and that they are greatest who are kindest. We can, in consequence, view the sudden closing of this so kindly life in the certitude that its "Great deeds cannot die; They with the sun and moon renew their light Forever, blessing those that look on them."

CANADA'S CROPS

Ottawa, June 15.—In a bulletin issued by the Census and Statistics Office on last Friday, preliminary estimates are given of the areas sown to the principal grain crops in Canada as well as reports on their condition according to returns made by crop-reporting correspondents on June 1. The reports show that throughout the maritime provinces seeding was delayed through the lateness of the spring. In Ontario and Quebec the condition of grain is generally satisfactory, notwithstanding a long spell of dry weather; in many places, however, the meadows were beginning to suffer from the effects of drought. Conditions throughout the west were reported as generally favorable, though rains would be welcome especially in Manitoba and southern Alberta.

The total area under wheat in Canada is provisionally estimated at 11,203,800 acres, or 188,800 acres more than in 1913. The area under spring wheat is reported as 10,200,000 acres, or 185,000 acres more than in 1913, and the area expected to be harvested of fall wheat is 978,800 acres, or 8,800 acres more than last year. The acreage of oats is placed at 10,481,000 acres, as compared with 10,484,000 acres last year, an increase of 377,000 acres. Barley occupies 1,604,000 acres, or 8,000 acres less than last year, and rye 1,107,000 acres, as compared with 1,193,000 acres last year. The estimated area under hay and clover is 8,206,000 acres, or 8,000 acres more than last year.

DODGING THE NEW OYD GEORGE TAX

Insurance Boom Caused By Latest Budget

SOME WAYS IT IS DONE

Wealthy Men Make Provision To Protect Estates From Heavy Death Duties — Prosperous Income Tax Experts

(Times Special Correspondence)

London, June 4.—At least two classes of business men in England are delighted with the new taxation introduced by Lloyd George's latest budget which has caused almost universal grumbling. They are the insurance men and those astute individuals who describe themselves variously as "income tax experts," "income tax recovery agents," and "income tax adjusters."

Lloyd George has set himself the task of raising $1,011,010,000 this year to meet the growing cost of armaments. There is a proverb that nothing is so unavoidable as taxes—except death—but the latest budget has set a lot of clever men to thinking ways to avoid the taxes and it is a good bet that when the end of the year comes Lloyd George will be a good many hundreds of thousands of dollars short on his estimate. Inevitably the insurance companies will be a good many more thousands ahead. The reason for this is that under the income tax law money paid for life insurance premiums is exempt from income tax up to one-sixth of the taxpayer's total income. Hitherto few Englishmen have taken full advantage of this, for after all the income tax did not bear very heavily on the small man, but now that full advantage of the situation and are doing all they can to exploit it. They are along by an unprecedented campaign of advertising, circularizing and canvassing.

"How to Cut Down Your Income Tax" is the title of a pamphlet which is being widely circulated by one of the biggest English insurance companies and it shows by typical examples how one can reduce his income tax altogether. Thus a man earning $800 would in the ordinary way pay income tax at eighteen cents in the $5, or $168, $800 of earned income being exempt from tax. If, however, he spent that $160 which is just one-sixth of his total income, on insurance he would escape the income tax altogether and at the same time lay up a tidy estate for his heirs, or, if he took out an endowment policy, for his own old age. The man earning $200 a year on insurance would get off with $7.50 income tax instead of $18 and so on.

The income tax saving becomes even more important to the man with a large income, for the rate of tax on the large income is proportionately much heavier than on the small one. For instance, a man with an income of $6000 is liable for a tax of $652,000 which is an increase of $28,600 over last year's rate. If, however, he spends one-sixth of his income—roughly $800,000—on life insurance he saves income tax on that to the tune of about $11,000.

Companies, too

But the insurance companies stand to gain almost as much by the new Lloyd George death duties as by the income tax. On large estates these new and above 20 per cent of the total, and it is easy to see that in the event of two or three deaths occurring in rapid succession a great estate might be practically swallowed up by the crown or a great deal of the duties to which their estates are liable on their death, and I am told that the necessity of making investments on the most favorable market, for the death duties must be paid before the will is admitted to probate and the heirs may take possession. Holders of great estates, therefore, have made a rush to take out special policies covering the amount of the duties to which their estates are liable on their death, and I am told that many millions of dollars have been written in this class alone in the last month.

If insurance companies have been doing a flourishing business what can be said of the ingenious gentlemen whose business it is to show the taxpayer how to pay as little as possible? It is true that they have not taken as much money as they would like, but there are fewer of them, and all they take is clear gain. There are no troublers about them, and if the tax collector's bill is not too stiff, pay it with a grin. Now that it threatens to be stiffer than ever, however, they are flocking to the experts who are reaping a golden harvest, their charges being usually five or ten per cent of the amount which they are able to save their clients.

One newspaper writer of my acquaintance who went to one of these experts was so confident that he had produced "a work of art" in his income tax return that he promised the expert an additional 25 cents over and above his fee for every $5 he could save him. The expert looked at the "work of art" and smiled.

"I am nothing here for evening dress," he said.

"Of course not. Why should there be?" was the reply.

Well, you occasionally go to the theatre or a public dinner in the course of your work," said the expert. "We will put down $100 for two dress suits a year—expenses of your business you know—and another $100 for dress shirts, ties, gloves, extra laundry. You take taxis, too, don't you?—Several times a week, you say—that's good for another $100. Did you buy a typewriter this year? Yes, $100. You sometimes engage a stenographer to take down your articles—call that $75. Now how about your house? Ever write at home? You are entitled to the rent of the room you write in. When you took your holiday last summer you went in search of local color for that new novel. We will put down the cost of that holiday. My boy, the government will owe you money before we are done with it!"

The result of it all was that instead of paying the government about $100 this year my friend will pay the agent $15 and send along all his friends.

One ingenious agent, however, has discovered a truly Napoleonic scheme for evading the payment of the super tax of ten per cent on the income of companies. Under the English company law only two shareholders are required and one of them need hold only one share. The person who becomes a company will be chairman and managing director of himself and he can declare what dividend he pleases. It is proposed that he declare as dividend only the amount which he requires for living expenses and that all the rest of the company's—or his—income shall go back into the "business" and shall therefore escape the tax altogether. The scheme looks good on paper and may succeed, although the English judges have a way of ignoring the strict letter of the law in favor of equity, but if it does it is safe to say that parliament will stop up this loophole before the next budget comes due.

Arguing It With the Collector

Given an easy-going tax collector and an ingenious payer, or rather non-payer, it is fairly easy to postpone the evil day when taxes must be paid even for years in some cases. One man at least has managed to pay no taxes for four years by the simple method of raising money for discussion with the collector. These points were raised and discussed by letter, one by one, and as fast as one was settled after months of correspondence, a fresh one was raised. The collector may have seen through the game but he apparently enjoyed the discussion and consoled himself with the reflection that in the end he would win. Luck was with the non-payer, however, for the collector died a few months ago and he has begun the game again from the start with his successor.

BABY ECZEMA BECOMES CHRONIC

Causing Great Suffering and Anxiety—Prompt Relief and Cure by Dr. Chase's Ointment.

This is one reason why every mother should know about Dr. Chase's Ointment, since it is an unerring cure for all itching skin diseases.

Mrs. F. Clarke, Belmont, Mass., writes: "My baby had eczema on her ear. The sore was very bad, and nothing seemed to do her much good. Hearing of the remarkable cures Dr. Chase's Ointment was making, we sent for some, and after the third application the sore began to heal. I am glad to say that it is quite well now, and we give the credit to Dr. Chase's Ointment. We cannot recommend this preparation too highly."

Here is another letter, which tells of the cure of a five-weeks-old baby:

Mrs. Wallace Mignon, River John Road, Colchester County, N. S., writes: "My little girl took eczema when she was five weeks old. Though we doctored her until she was nearly a year old, she got no better. It was advised to use Dr. Chase's Ointment, and this treatment completely cured her."

"Well, sonny," said the patient druggist to the small boy who had been hanging about the store for half an hour, eagerly eyeing the candy counter, "do you want to buy some candy?"

"Course I want, but I can't—mother sent me ter buy soap."

LOCAL DISCONTENT RAISES A QUESTION

Scranton Boosters Set The Pace For American Cities—"Scranton Plan" Revolutionizes Methods of City Promotion

Scranton, Pa., June 12.—When a town is not particularly hard up, but wanting simply to be still better off, passes the hat around and the citizens in eight days dump a million and a quarter dollars into the hat, that is, as they say in sporting circles, is some town—Scranton, Lackawanna county, the "huckle" of the hard-coal belt of Northeastern Pennsylvania...

The Germ. Ten years before H. G. Dunham, a banker, had an idea. He talked about it casually from time to time, but until Messrs. Weeks and Edgar in their search for a city stimulus, took it up, Dunham's idea only floated ineffectually in air.

One important feature of the plan was the payment on stock would be called for in any one year, making it possible for a purchaser to distribute his outlay over a period of five years. The money secured from the plan was designed for two purposes, both of an effect first, to furnish financial assistance to worthy local industries already going, and second, to afford financial assistance to worthy industries that wanted to get established in the city.

That, in brief, is "The Scranton Plan." And the idea was not a question of simply shutting the door and inviting everybody to the company, but rather that the board of trade people and men went to the company and invited every one to dig up his business. It was in the manner of the doing, in fact, that the interesting story lies. It meant not only the success of the particular business in hand, but what is more, it served to raise and give confidence, an asset of whose importance is being estimated by the mere dollar standard.

Where You Buy Glasses. That is much more important to you than the price you pay. There is only one way to get satisfactory glasses. It is to have your eyes tested by a thoroughly reliable optometrist or oculist and buy lenses specially ground to his prescription.

GUEST AT DINNER ON EVE OF HIS WEDDING

Ward of Ward & Cronin, at Bond's restaurant, when about twenty friends assembled and honored him upon the eve of his joining the ranks of the benedicts, Charles A. Owens, who presided, presented to the guest of honor a handsome dining room set, and Mr. Ward made a graceful reply of appreciation.

Three more appeared before the magistrate this morning and much to the surprise of the magistrate one of them was among the number who had been released after the bars were closed on Saturday. He was arrested on drunkenness charges.

ATTEMPT TO MURDER HIS WIFE IS CHARGE. Montreal, June 15.—Henry H. Bell, colored, charged with attempting to murder his wife, pleaded not guilty this morning and was remanded until the 17th. This morning Detective O'Donnell searched Bell's house and found an unloaded revolver. Bell's arrest was the result of jealousy. On Saturday night he followed the woman to St. Catherine street west, and threatened her life. The revolver snapped fire. In January, 1913, Bell was up before Judge Choquet for extradition proceedings in connection with the murder of Mrs. Beatrice De Hart, a colored woman of Chicago, who was found with her throat cut.

THE CUP RACES

(Associated Press Correspondence) New York, June 15.—With the three America's cup defense yachts, Resolute, Vanitie and Defiance, engaged in almost daily test races and Sir Thomas Lipton's challenger Shamrock IV preparing to sail for America, interest in the coming international races for the famous yacht trophy is increasing rapidly.

The same question is agitating English yachting circles and there is much discussion in both clubs and public prints regarding this important angle of the cup contest. The impression prevails abroad that the New York Yacht Club committee is opposed to granting permission to tow and while the matter is under discussion neither the challenging nor defending clubs will state their official attitude in the matter.

Mr. Nicholson, speaking on the subject, said the question of towing had not troubled him at all. Any vessel so weakly constructed as to be unable to make the passage under sail would stand a poor chance of arriving on the other side in tow.

Another feature of the cup rules which does not appeal to the average Englishman is that which permits the defender to increase the waterline but does not extend the same privilege to the challenger.

Mr. Nicholson, speaking on the subject, said the question of towing had not troubled him at all. Any vessel so weakly constructed as to be unable to make the passage under sail would stand a poor chance of arriving on the other side in tow.

62ND REGIMENT IN AMATEUR WARFARE

Shamfight and Bivouac—A Night in the Open Under Service Conditions—Made Fine Showing

A sharp decisive conflict of brief duration occurred on Saturday afternoon near Crescent Lake on the Sandy Point road when an attack was made on a small force under Captain H. E. C. Sturdee, of the 62nd Regiment, St. John, Basiliens, by a larger body of an invading force, under Major Harold Perley, determined on capturing the supposed arsenal being protected before the arrival of reinforcements.

This is, very briefly, the result of the tactical manoeuvres, conducted on Saturday afternoon and night by the officers and men of the 62nd Regiment. About 225 were mustered and marched out of the city in service attire, carrying their haversacks, greatcoats, rifles, etc., each being provided with 150 rounds of blank ammunition.

While digging a well at his home in Brown's Valley, Marysville, Cal., a few days ago, Thomas Trenberth discovered a gold ledge at a depth of about 40 feet. An assay of ore showed that it will run about $8 to the ton, and the owner is now considering the advisability of erecting a small stamp mill on the place to work the ore.

H. E. Haines of Livermore Falls, Me., got his garden all planted in fine shape and was waiting patiently for nature to do the rest, when John Adkins sent a man up to barrow his garden, which adjoins Mr. Haines'. As luck would have it, the man made a mistake and barrowed Mr. Haines' garden.

Thought She Would Go Mad WITH HEADACHE.

In all cases of headache the treatment should be directed to remove the cause, for with the cause removed the headache vanishes for all time. Headache powders just relieve for the time being, but what is necessary for a permanent cure is something that will go right to the seat of the trouble. For this purpose it is impossible to find a better remedy for headaches of all descriptions than Burdock Blood Bitters, acting as it does on every organ of the body to strengthen, purify and regulate the whole system.

Mrs. Althea Bowman, Hamilton, Ont., writes—"I have suffered terribly with my head for weeks at a time till I thought I would go mad. A friend advised me to give Burdock Blood Bitters a trial, so I got a bottle and found relief. I have used four bottles in all and I am glad to say that I have had no more headaches since. I would advise all sufferers to give it a fair trial."

THE EMPRESS OF IRELAND

In spite of the awful lesson of the Titanic, in spite of the board of trade's committee followed by the international convention, another liner, surveyed and passed in Liverpool, under the new rules, has foundered (again in smooth water) and only a meagre handful has been saved from her. What, now, is to be done? Can matters be allowed to proceed as if nothing had happened? We think not. Boats under davits have failed again. Is not the true solution of the problem all boats to be launchable on either side, large deck rafts, which will float clear of a foundering ship, and cranes or derricks with single wires, instead of davits and four fold purchases?

In this case as in the Titanic case, unfortunate people were hurtled into the water and found nothing to assist them, except pieces of wreckage. Had there been some deck-rafts and boats floating about more people would have been saved.

We turn back to our issues for July and August, 1912, and find Captain Whall's scheme in detail. Had the Empress of Ireland been fitted with the apparatus referred to in the diagram on p. 168 of the August (1912) number of the Nautical Magazine, shows this clearly, and there are no systems. No vessel carrying the large number of persons which modern liners carry can possibly have "boats for all" which could be launched in less time than an hour. Ships with such numbers as 8,000 cannot carry enough ordinary boats in launchable positions.

(Nautical Magazine) In the April number of the Nautical Magazine there was described a new fog-signalling and receiving apparatus which, if it had been installed on board the Storstad and Empress of Ireland, would have averted the terrible disaster which is much to be deplored that no machinery exists in this country for testing and reporting on meritorious inventions of saving life at sea. Shipowners cannot be got to interest themselves in an aid to navigation which would be useless until all, or at least very many, vessels are fitted, and the Board of Trade can only inspect apparatus prescribed by statute.

Being nobody's business, little attention has hitherto been taken in the appliance referred to the cost of which is trifling. We understand, however, that all the captains and officers who have examined and inspected it have expressed approval and a recent meeting of the Mercantile Marine Service Association it was demonstrated to a large number of members, who have since signed a recommendation in its favor as mentioned in our last issue. It is to be hoped that any conference or commission which may sit to inquire into remedial measures will make a thorough examination of ever such appliance on the market and take steps to make a feasible fog-signal a compulsory part of the equipment of every sea-going vessel.

NEWS OF THE CHURCHES

In St. Mathew's Presbyterian church, yesterday morning, Rev. J. J. McCaskill said that church union at present would fail to accomplish the purpose for which it is intended. He advocated instead a deepening of the spiritual life.

Rev. Ralph J. Haughton preached an eloquent sermon on the subject of conversion in the Congregational church last evening. He referred to the account recently reported in the newspapers that a man had been in jail 189 times and said that no legislation would change the radically bad into the radically good but that the miracle of changed hearts could only be accomplished by the operation of the Holy Spirit.

At St. Paul's church yesterday morning Rev. Canon Hoyt preached the second of a special course of three sermons on the important subject of Christian Unity. His remarks were listened to with marked interest and much impressed those present.

BOY CONDUCTORS ON LONDON STREET CARS

London, June 15.—Boy conductors will be placed on some of the municipal street cars as an experiment. Much opposition was expected from the union to which the street car men belong, but when it was explained that the boys would only assist the regular conductors and that as far as possible they would be selected from the families of street car employees, no protest was raised.

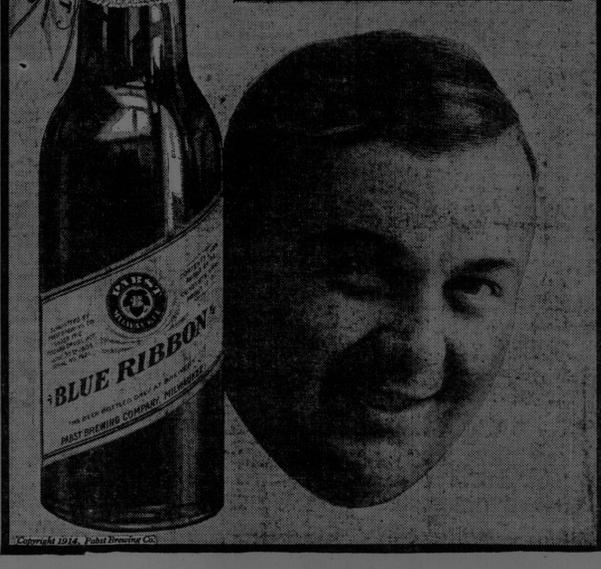

It is almost impossible for the conductor of a double deck street car to collect fares and watch his steps without neglecting one or the other and the boy assistants will be expected to relieve the regular conductor of part of his duties. The boys will be tried out on the Toley street line which runs to Greenwich through one of the most thickly populated districts of London.

Torribly Afflicted With Lame Back. Could Not Sweep The Floor.

When the back aches and pains it is almost impossible for women to do their household work, for every move and every turn means an ache or a pain.

Women are beginning to understand that weak, lame, and aching backs from which they suffer so much are due to wrong action of the kidneys, and should be attended to at once so as to avoid years of suffering from kidney trouble.

On the first sign of anything wrong with the back Doan's Kidney Pills should be taken.

They go right to the seat of the trouble. Mrs. Wilfrid Jolicoeur, Nouvelle, Que., writes—"I take pleasure in writing you stating the benefit I have received by using Doan's Kidney Pills. About three years ago I was terribly afflicted with lame back, and so bad I could not sweep my own floor. I was advised to try Doan's Kidney Pills. I only used three boxes, and I am as well as ever. I highly recommend these pills to any sufferer from lame back or kidney trouble."

PELLETIER TRYING TO SHIFT THE BLAME

Ottawa, June 14.—Hon. L. Pelletier, who sacrificed all his amendments to the Post Office act, in a fit of nervousness, because the senate refused to give him the arbitrary power to fix the postal rates on newspapers and other second class matter, is now trying to shift the blame to the shoulders of the senate. Among the amendments he sacrificed was the provision for increases in pay to the office officials, of which the senate had approved. Mr. Pelletier is now sending circulars to all the men affected telling them that the senate alone is to blame for the killing of the bill and without explaining that he could have passed the salary increase if he had wished to do so.

AMERICAN YACHTSMEN FEAR LIPTON CRAFT

CUP DEFENDERS FAIL TO SHOW CLASS

Launch of SHAMROCK IV (By Hugh S. Fullerton.)

American yachting experts from the entire Atlantic seaboard, studying the construction of the yachts that are to defend America's cup and the tuning-up performance of Shamrock IV, believe that, if America's cup is to remain on this side, it will be due to American seamanship rather than to the construction of the boats.

Resolute, built close to the old Herreshoff lines, they say is much better under all weather conditions. Vanitie's victory in the first class was due, they say, more to the luck of the weather than to any sailing superiority. Besides, Resolute was faulty in rigging, and the errors were corrected after the race.

though declaring that under certain weather conditions she will be hopeless. One yacht sharp writes me from New York that he believes either of the last two yacht defenders could beat Resolute, and that he is pinning his hopes on Resolute, which has been delayed, by changing rigging, from entering the trials.

TOUGH ON THE FANS

Jim Hart, who recently returned from another trip around the world, grew reminiscent. "One of the funniest things I ever saw in baseball," he remarked, "was on our trip around the world twenty years ago. On our way west we scheduled a lot of exhibition games in towns that never had seen the game. One camp, up in Colorado, was anxious for us to stop, and the promoter wrote, asking what price to charge. I sent word—$1 for the grand stand and fifty cents for the other seats. When we got there we found he had built a grand stand and had built the other seats behind it."

Nearly all the London clubs have their Derby lotteries. One pound (85) is the favorite price for a chance, but in some wealthy clubs there are five pound tickets as well, while in the less opulent club houses chances may be taken, for one dollar. Many of the gamblers are men who know nothing about racing, and in some clubs practically every member has a small investment. Even the king's name is put down at the clubs to which he belongs.

McGovern has a number of Doncaster and the sporting writers are devoting considerable space to the best playing of the team so far as to the individual work of the players. McDavitt, who is a pitcher and outfielder, has five hits in the game with Glace Bay, two doubles being among the lot. "Parker" Hughes led the team with four hits, but Finnamore had one single. He accepted eight chances without an error, but McGovern and Connel pulled off a double steal on him. Hughes accepted his only one.

A FORTUNE IN EACH OF THEM

Here Are Some Wants of the World For Which Large Sum Would Be Paid (London Ideas)

In no field today is there such a great opportunity for the get-rich-quick man as there is in the field of invention. A well-thought out patent will find its way into every market in the world, and the result into the pockets of the lucky inventor. For those persons who have the energy and thinking power, but who lack the necessary ideas to work upon, is appended a list of the world's requirements, together with prizes offered for certain inventions.

A device for pinning-up which will do away with the nose-disfiguring grip at present in use will earn a fortune. Machinery is wanted that will engrave designs on metal.

Improvements are made every year by inventors of new toys, games, etc. An invention on linealings, which shall be less brittle than glass is urgently needed. Means for releasing runaway horses; a transparent substance which will also serve as a powerful reflector, a plough that will guide itself and turn a uniform furrow without aid; a nail joint not requiring the use of fish-tails; a simple attachment for an ordinary sewing machine to work button-holes, are all included in the world's wants. An umbrella which cannot be blown inside out, but an adaptable stick to enable it to fully accommodate a lady's hat is also required.

In the electrical world there are needed a means of protection from lightning for use on buildings, a perfect storage battery, cheaper and of better construction than the one in vogue, an apparatus to produce energy direct from coal without undue waste, an electric welder for joining ends of steel rails, and also a new and harder filament for electric light bulbs with the maximum candle power for the minimum consumption.

In chemistry there is unlimited scope for the inventor. A powdered milk would be a success of a welcome. We also want a process for treating the material of straw hats to prevent discoloration, a method of extracting nicotine from tobacco without injuring its flavor, while infusing it with the taste, and a flavorless, smokeless powder.

In the metal trade improvements in striding are in demand. The present method causes kinks in the metal and necessitates rehandling. Many attempts have been made to harden copper, but without success, yet the ancients possessed the art. Discarded tin cans have been treated to recover the solder, but no effective method has been devised for re-using the tin. Again, there is a commerdial demand for a process for recovering tin from tinned scrap metal.

The automobile fraternity are greatly in need of a valve grinder for the removal of carbon, an effective self-starting device to do away with the arduous cranking of a machine, a means for priming cylinders without having to raise the hood.

Further "wants" are, a machine to open oysters; a tool for cutting ice without wasting it; a substitute for putty; a funnel which stops automatically when the bottle is full; inexpensive means of melting snow in the streets; a penholder from which the pen may be drawn without soiling the fingers; a paint for the hulls of ships to prevent barnacles; an improved and more sanitary school slate; new methods of setting precious stones; artificial mica capable of being produced in sheets of any desired thickness, without the cracking tendency of the real thing; a match that defies ordinary winds, and is odorless; an appliance to remove fuel oil from whiskey and brandy; an economical means for soldering aluminum; an accumulator for aeroplanes with enormous storage capacity; a gasoline tank indicator for automobiles; an improved cooling device for vessels at sea; a parcel tier to take the place of string; a sugar cane mowing machine; a cotton picker to replace the ordinary hand-picking methods. A machine of this class should be made to move between the stands of cotton and take up and pluck the cotton from the bolls.

This list will serve to show what a vast field of invention lies open to the man or woman of a mechanical turn of mind, who can originate new ideas. Even the least of these "Wants" would bring in a fortune enough to last a lifetime without further work to the lucky discoverer.

WOLFE OF QUEBEC. Imperial Theatre. MON 15 TUE 16 WED 17

Said W. Stephen Bush, in reviewing this feature: "I am entranced by the spectacle. . . . Once again two great nations fought on land and water. Once again the daring souls of Wolfe and Montcalm were embodied on the bloody field of battle. Once again the fight raged about the gentle and beautiful falls of Montmorency. . . . At times the realism was overpowering."

The bombardment of Quebec by the British fleet, the battle at Montmorency Falls, and the deadly combat on the Plains of Abraham between the French and English, are a few of the awe-inspiring scenes.
