Commissioners Say County Bill Will Hit Interests of City MEIGHEN WOULD AMENDMENT

FRANK AND WIGMORE ASK BILL STUDY

Legislation Proposed by the Parish of Lancaster Faces Committee Tomorrow

OBJECTION IS MADE

City Commissioners Say the Present Bill Should Not Go to Capital.

The legislation proposed by the Parish of Lancaster, with regard to permanent highways, will be discussed by the bills and by-laws committee of the Municipal Council tomorrow morning. The opinion was expressed this morning by Commissioners Frink and Wigmore that the city members of the committee had better study this bill carefully before voting on it, as one or two sections, they said, were not in the interests of the city.

The second section was objected to by Commissioner Wigmore as being directly opposed to the water and sewerage act, and he stated his intention to oppose it. This section provides that no section of a permanent highway in the area shall be opened without the sanction, in writing, of the councillors of the parish, and then only upon the terms the councillors imposed at the time the opening was made.

Commissioner Frink called attention to section three, which provided that the lieutenant-governor in council should appoint to the City of St. John, the New Brunswick Telephone Company, the New Brunswick Power Company, the New Brunswick Electric Power Commission, the Western Union and the C. P. R., what portion of the cost, if any, they should severally bear of the cost of any permanent highway.

The opinion was expressed by city commissioners today that neither of these sections as drafted should be allowed to go to the Legislature, and (Continued on page 2, fourth column)

Montreal, March 2.—The automobile he saw a priest driving opposite the gate to Cote des Neiges cemetery at 2 o'clock on the morning Raoul Delorme's body was found at Snowden, was of the same type as a Franklin brought shown to him as Abbe Delorme's car, Edward Depocas, a new crown witness, whose evidence last Thursday caused a sensation, declared when recalled today, in the trial of Abbe Delorme for the murder of his half-brother.

Alban Germain, K. C., associate counsel for the prisoner, seized the opportunity to get the witness to correct evidence he had given Thursday relating to a conversation he had had with a lawyer outside the court room. Depocas admitted he had given wrong testimony, but insisted that he had acted honestly, his memory having failed him.

"Your memory should be better for a fact one or two days old than for a fact two years old," commented Mr. Germain.

EXCHANGE OF PREMIERS IS PLEASING

London Press Hails Publication of Letters Between Two Leaders.

CONGRATULATIONS

Communication of Premier MacDonald Couched in Generous Terms.

BY HARRY N. MOORE (British United Press.)

London, March 3.—Without reserve the London press hails the publication of the letters which recently passed between MacDonald and Poincare with gratification and in some quarters with positive delight. Even the Daily Mail congratulates Labor's foreign ministers on their tone. It is generally admitted that MacDonald has advanced further during the few weeks he has been in office towards a settlement of the Franco-British difficulties than the late Government by its methods did in more than a year.

The chief and most noticeable feature of the letters which are now made public is the absence of the acrimonious tone which was such a prominent feature in the previous correspondence. Undoubtedly the fault of the Belgian Government and the rising opposition to Poincare's Government, as well as the French general elections have contributed to the change of tone on the French side.

It is pointed out, however, that the opening communication from MacDonald is couched in such frank and generous terms that it left little opportunity for the framing of a bitter reply.

Marked by frankness. (By Canadian Press.)

London, March 3.—Premier Ramsay MacDonald's second letter to M. Poincare, published today, is marked by the same frankness and cordiality as his first exchange with the French premier. Continuing that "courageous discussion" which he deems necessary to clear away misunderstandings, the Labor Premier sets forth some of the apprehensions regarding France's policy held by numerous Britishers and these fears the French premier in his reply endeavors to allay.

While the correspondence is not regarded by the commentators as materially advancing the chances of ultimate settlement, they greet it cordially as showing, in the language of the Morning Post, generally ultra conservative and hostile to the government, "that the two statesmen have got a stage further on the road leading to a durable understanding."

The daily chronicle remarks that M. Poincare's response "is perhaps the most conciliatory document we can recall from his pen."

Editorial comment generally is remarkably cordial. Makes Frank Statements.

Premier MacDonald's letter, dated Feb. 21, declared it was "widely felt in England that, contrary to the provisions of the Versailles treaty, France is endeavoring to create a situation which gains for it what it failed to get during the allied peace negotiations."

It had come to pass that the people of Great Britain "regard with anxiety what appears to them to be the determination of France to ruin Germany and dominate the continent" (Continued on page 2, sixth column)

THIRD OF FAMILY IS SENT TO JAIL

Wife Follows Husband and Daughter in For Boot-legging.

Springfield, Mass., March 3.—Mrs. Arnie Levy, sentenced to three months in jail for bootlegging, is the third of her family to receive such a sentence. Her husband, Jacob Levy, died in the Rutland prison camp in October, 1921, while serving a sentence for liquor sales, and the daughter, Sarah, who took over the family business following his death, is now serving a retroratory sentence on a second conviction.

The mother was jailed on a former suspended sentence which admits of no appeal. Provision was made by the court for the care of her two young children, and it is believed that ample funds are available for their support during the mother's absence. Her daughter when she was first brought to court she exhibited a bank book showing deposits of $2,000, said to have been the profits of bootlegging. The husband and father is said by the police to have been penniless before the advent of prohibition and to have amassed a small competency by liquor dealing.

Cow Stops Express And London Traffic

London, March 3.—About 99 years ago, when Stephenson gave a trial trip on the earliest of British railways, he was asked what would happen should a cow get on the permanent way. "Well," he said, after reflection, "it would be bad for the cow." But would it read this:— A wild cow, chased by eight railwaymen along the permanent way for nearly two miles, held up traffic on the London, Midland and Scottish main line here recently. Both up and down train mail trains were stopped and ordered to proceed cautiously.

MACHINE GUN USED IN YACHT PURSUIT

Chase Ends in Capture of Speed Craft and Lot of Liquor at N. Y.

New York, March 3.—After a nine mile stern chase yesterday, during which the craft was the target of machine gun fire from police boats, the power yacht Monon was abandoned by her crew at an East River pier and was captured by marine police, who said they found a large cargo of liquor aboard. The yacht, valued at approximately $100,000 was said to carry liquor papers issued to Edward L. Smallwood of Great Neck, N. Y. The police said they regarded the capture of the Monon as the most important of the year.

MAKE QUICK SHIFT TO NEW QUARTERS

Associated Press and Canadian Press Change Locale in New York.

New York, March 3.—The hum of new activity in the general offices of the Associated Press at Chambers street, was hushed at four o'clock yesterday morning. There was a switchboard and in the twinkling of an eye there was a crackling of resounding telegraph instruments in the association's new home, 383 Madison avenue.

The transfer involved hundreds of thousands of words of news are daily distributed on 120 circuits among more than 1,200 newspaper members of the world's largest news gathering agencies. The change to quarters that afford double the floor space was necessary to keep pace with the constant expansion of the service.

With the Associated Press went the New York branch of the Canadian Press, which taps the news resources of the A. P. for the benefit of Canadian newspapers from Sydney to Victoria and which is the outlet for Canadian news to the Associated Press.

Robbers Stab Senator At His Roman Villa

Rome, March 3.—Senator Alberto Bergamini, editor for many years of the Giornale d'Italia and President of the Press Association, was attacked and stabbed in the back by a party of masked robbers who stabbed the Senator, beat him about the face with steel gloves and took from his pockets 3,000 lire and his gold presentation medals. His chauffeur, coming in soon afterward, found the Senator's hat on the stairway, rushed up and fired a revolver shot at the robbers, who fled.

Carabinieri called by the chauffeur arrested two suspects near the villa and took Senator Bergamini to a hospital.

SPINNERS TO STRIKE

One Hundred and Fifty Thousand May Walk Out Tomorrow.

By HARRY N. MOORE, British United Press.

London, March 3.—Scarcely has Britain recovered from the grave conditions created by the dock and railway strikes than the nation is called upon to face the danger of being plunged even deeper into the anxieties of an industrial upheaval. The Federation of Master Cotton Spinners declares its intention this morning of issuing lock-out notices effective tomorrow affecting about 150,000 employees.

The trouble arose over the Royton mill where a strike started there by two women without any arrangement as to extra pay. Unless the strikers return today the entire cotton spinning industry stands a good chance of a total shutdown.

In addition to this a crisis in the shipbuilding trade is approaching according to officials of the shipbuilders' employers' federation. A meeting is scheduled within the next few days to discuss the question of a national lock-out. Meanwhile the miners are formulating their demands preparatory to negotiations with the employers before strike notices are issued. The latter if issued will become effective on April 17.

WILL NOT LET GAME BE AMERICANIZED

Canadian Rugby Union Has Meeting Declared Most Satisfactory Ever.

Toronto, March 3.—The annual meeting of the Canadian Rugby Union held here on Saturday afternoon was one of the most satisfactory in the history of the union. There were indications that the various unions realize at last that Canadian rugby does not mean only senior clubs and that the attempt to Americanize the Canadian game will be defeated. There was a feeling that the present game could be improved by reverting back to the style of ten or twelve years ago again by adopting any number of changes, such as interference, both on the line and in running across the field and the forward pass.

One of the features of the meeting was the adoption of an age limit for the Junior C. R. U. players, stating that all players must be under twenty-one on September 1 of the playing year.

Wife of Viscount Torrington Takes Part in "The Green Goddess"

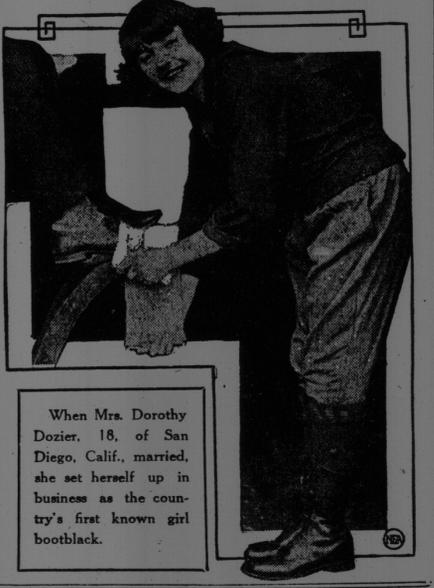

London, March 3.—Viscountess Torrington, second wife of Viscount Torrington, has gone on the stage as Miss Nora Byng. She has been appearing for a week as Ayah in "The Green Goddess" at the St. James Theatre, but her identity became known only last week. Before her marriage she was Mrs. Harold Percus and she was well known as an amateur actress in Dublin. She happened to have taken the country cottage from a sister of George Arliss, who is leading man in the piece, and when Miss Helen Nowell resigned Ayah's part a week or two ago, his sister suggested that he might try out Lady Torrington. William Archer, author of the play, gave a luncheon in honor of the one thousandth appearance of Arliss as the Rajah.

Engineer and Fireman Ride Upside Down For 6 Miles When Brakes Get Out of Order

Paris, March 3.—An experience as thrilling as the most ingenious film producer has depicted has fallen to the lot of the engineer and fireman of a railway engine at Beauvais, in the Oise department.

The engine and tender were about to be attached to a train, when the engineer discovered that the brakes were out of action. He and his fireman crawled beneath the engine to make the necessary repairs, when the heavy locomotive suddenly started to move, and, picking up speed, dashed rapidly down a steep gradient.

The two men had just time to grasp the under framework of the engine and there they clung upside down for dear life. Station employees, realizing the men's peril, sent telephone messages down the line to keep all crossing gates closed.

The engine careened along for more than six miles, until the engineer, still hanging on desperately by one hand, managed with the other to work a rod which made the brakes act a little.

There was another gradient ahead, and perceiving this the engineer shouted to the fireman: "Hang on to the brakes. I am going to take the last chance."

He dropped between the metals, waited an instant until the engine and tender passed over him, and then jumped up quickly, ran after the engine, jumped on the step and stopped the monster.

Australian Apple Export to United Kingdom 1,260,000 Bushels Under Last Year.

Ottawa, March 3.—(Canadian Press.)—Export of Australian apples to the United Kingdom will decrease a million bushels this coming season, according to a report from the Canadian Trade Commissioner in Melbourne to the Commercial Intelligence Journal.

Unfavorable weather will so reduce the apple crop that Australia will have about 1,260,000 bushels of apples for export to the United Kingdom against about 2,250,000 bushels last year.

The prevalence of "black spots" in the Australian orchards will also compel the exporters to mark much of their product "blemished" under a Government order issued to prevent the danger of inferior fruit being regarded as representative of the Australian product.

TARIFF ON HOME BANK SUBJECTS

Conservatives at Ottawa Reported Summoned for Caucus Tomorrow.

DAYS OF DEBATE

Three Speeches This Afternoon and Mackenzie King Tonight.

(By Canadian Press.)

Ottawa, March 3.—The House of Commons gets down to business today with the opening of the debate on the speech from the throne. The length of the debate is yet unsettled, but it is generally expected that it will run into next week. The foreshadowing of tariff reduction contained in the speech from the throne is regarded as likely to arouse considerable discussion, and there are a number of other questions, including banking and credit and labor conditions in Cape Breton that are likely to be brought up in the course of the debate. It has been suggested that the charges made recently against two of the members of the cabinet in connection with the Home Bank may also be aired during the week.

The motion for the adoption of an address in reply to the speech from the throne is to be moved by F. L. Kelly, Liberal, who was recently elected from Cape Breton North on the appointment of Hon. D. D. MacKenzie to the Supreme Court bench of Nova Scotia, and will be seconded by E. A. Lapierre, Liberal, of Nipissing.

May Be Amendment

After these formal speeches have been delivered, the leader of the opposition, Right Hon. Arthur Meighen, will give the keynote for the Conservatives. These three speeches are expected to occupy most of the afternoon and the Premier, Right Hon. MacKenzie King is scheduled to reply in the evening.

There has been no official announcement as to whether Mr. Meighen will move an amendment to the address, but it is reported unofficially that such action is probable. Two subjects have been mentioned as likely to provide material for an amendment, one being the tariff, and the other the allegations against Hon. J. J. McMurray and Hon. Jas. Murdock in connection with the Home Bank.

A Conservative caucus is said to have been summoned for tomorrow, and the opposition amendment, if one is moved, may be postponed until after it has been discussed by all the members of the party in the two houses.

It is not thought likely that Robert Forke, Progressive leader, will speak today. This will depend to a large extent on how much time is taken by the speeches of the official opposition and Government leaders. If Mr. King should finish early, it is possible that Mr. Forke would follow him; but this is regarded as doubtful. J. S. Woodsworth, leader of the Labor group, is expected to speak early in the debate and he may follow the Progressive leader.

Senate Tomorrow

In the Senate the debate on the address will open when the Upper House resumes its sessions tomorrow. The debate in the second chamber is not expected to be of long duration.

H. R. McLELLAN, OUT FOR MAJORITY, IS FOR CHANGE IN CIVIC GOVERNMENT FORM

Candidate Issues Statement of Platform—Reform and Taxation Discussed.

H. R. McLellan when interviewed today and questioned as to the platform he would present at public support at the coming election, stated that while he originally intended to submit a much larger one, he had finally decided to submit the following:—

"The platform which I present for the consideration of the taxpayers may not appear to have been worthy of much study on my part, and thereby cause any delay in publishing it, but it has required some familiarity with the several forms of civic governments which have been operating, and the experiences of the different communities in which they operated. It has also been necessary to study the present assessment act in order to determine whether it was within the range of possibility to effect any amendments to the act relative to the system of assessing and the collection of taxes as might be more equitable and meet with the approval of the taxpayers.

Commission Government. "After accumulating such information as was available regarding commission form of government, I find that St. John is not the only city which, having operated under a commission form, has felt the necessity for a change, there being over 200 cities in the United States and Canada now operating under a city manager plan.

"So far as St. John is concerned, I am satisfied that after twelve years' experience with commission form of government, it has not proven satisfactory to the taxpayers. The expectations that it would be an economical and business-like form of government and would eliminate inefficiency and misrule have not been realized. Instead of closing the way to extravagance, wastefulness and inefficiency, it provides an opportunity to exploit the public interests through a division of the administrative powers and responsibilities.

It will doubtless not be long before the experts present their reports. The Reparation Commission and the Allied Governments will in accordance with their respective competence, examine the claims given by the experts. We shall then be able, I hope, to arrive rapidly at a comprehensive settlement and to insure that Germany carries it out.

BISHOP LEBLANC ISSUES PASTORAL

Urges Fostering Vocations For Priesthood—Scarcity, He Says

The annual Lenten pastoral letter of Rt. Rev. E. A. LeBlanc, Bishop of St. John, was read in all the Catholic churches of the city and diocese yesterday. In the pastoral Bishop LeBlanc dealt particularly with the priesthood. He stressed the need for priests and said that the church could not fulfill the mission which had been entrusted to it by its Divine Founder, if it had not priests. He termed the priests, "physicians of souls," and traced the work of the priest in the life of a man from his birth, when he was baptized until at the end extreme unction was administered and the last solemn requiem high mass celebrated. To the priest, he said, was given the highest power possessed by any man that of changing bread and wine into the Body and Blood of Christ. At this time there was no higher power than this calling to the priesthood was the highest vocation for a man to embrace.

The pastoral letter in part follows: "Endowed, by the Grace of God and Favor of the Apostolic See, Bishop of Saint John, to the Clergy, Religious Orders and Laity of the Diocese: Health and Benediction in the Lord. "Dear Brethren,—Last year, at the beginning of the holy season of Lent, we invited you in our pastoral letter to meditate on the origin of the mass, its nature and effects; this year we deem it appropriate to address you on a subject very closely related to it, namely the dignity and power of those sacred ministers chosen by our divine Lord to offer daily on our altars the sacrifice which he consummated on Calvary. . . .

"Without the priest the church could not fulfill the mission confided to her by her Divine Founder when he said to the apostles: Going therefore, teach ye all nations; and wherever you bind on earth, shall be bound in heaven, and wherever you loose on earth, shall be loosed in heaven. . . .

"The regulations for Lent will be the same as those of last year. The time for fulfilling the Easter duty will begin on the first Sunday in Lent and will end on Trinity Sunday. "The reverend clergy will read this letter to their congregation on the first Sunday after the reception. "Given at St. John on the Feast of Saint Matthias, Feb. 23, 1924. "E. A. LEBLANC, Bishop of St. John. "RAYMOND MCCARTHY, Priest, Secretary."

HOLD JAPANESE TEA ON THE WEST SIDE

The Mission Band of the Carleton Methodist church under the direction of Miss Mary Belle Owens, its leader, and Mrs. W. H. Rowley held a very delightful Japanese tea and sale Saturday afternoon in the school room. The decorations were entirely the work of the children. The pillars and all available spaces were daintily trimmed with what appeared to be branches of fruit blossom. The table at which Mrs. F. T. Bertram presided and poured tea was attractive with a silver service and decorated with yellow and white chrysanthemums made by the children. Pink candles in silver candlesticks gave a pleasing additional touch of color. The Mission Band children were all costumed to represent Japanese girls and served the tea tables efficiently and courteously as the little girls they represented. The girls presiding at the candy table were Doris Thorne, Emily and Mrs. B. Holder. Miss Rose Hopkins, W. M. S. district superintendent, was present. The tea was well patronized and the proceeds will be used for mission funds.

Poor Scholars, Poor Sight!

Tuesday's Times quotes this from the Eyesight Conservation Council of America: "Millions of school children are handicapped in their studies by defective eyes. Large numbers are forced to discontinue their efforts to acquire an education because of this same physical defect. Poor eyesight is conclusively proven to be an important associate with backwardness, stupidity, apparent laziness and truancy. 60 per cent. of school children have substantial eye defects."

Girl Bandits Keep Police on the Jump As They Vie With Men in Many Crimes

INVESTIGATES INVESTIGATED

(By Josephine Van De Grift.) Brooklyn, N. Y.—This freedom-is-it leading woman to outdo man in crime as she has already sought to surpass him in business, art and politics? "Crimes among women are increasing in number and daring," declares Mrs. Mary Hamilton, New York's first policewoman and now special investigator with Police Commissioner Enright. "And not only that, but they're getting away with it. As witness the bobbed-haired girl bandit who has Brooklyn shopkeepers so nervous that they shake—just like that—whenever a customer tinkles the bell on the front door. Police thought they had the trouble solved when they clapped Helen Quigley in jail. Helen is 23 and pretty and her bobbed hair has a natural wave to it. How Flapper Bandit Operates. A girl of the flapper type would go into a store, ask for some face powder or a tooth brush and then, just as the shopkeeper was turning around—"Stick 'em up," she'd say, and while she wagged a gun under the proprietor's nose her gentleman friend would enter by the front door and remove everything from the cash register. Then they'd dash into a taxi and stage a couple of similar hold-ups before proceeding on their way to the movies. The only trouble was that after the police had Helen all nicely tucked away in jail the bobbed-haired-girl-bandit hold-ups kept right on. The girl bandit left a note behind her. "The police," said the note, "are a bunch of huckum. The girl they have arrested is the wrong one." It was signed The Bobbed-Haired Girl Bandit, just like a movie thriller. "Existing between the gangsters and their girls is a very remarkable devotion. A girl will carry a gangster's gun with more pride than a sub ever wore a fraternity pin. "It may be that certain of the gangs are now disguising themselves as girls in order to divert the suspicions of the police. "But crime among women is increasing. Cheap movies have glorified the girl bandit. There is many a girl today whose one ambition is to be queen of the underworld. "Sometimes dope to blame. Sometimes it's something more insidious than dope—the lure of stock markets and finery."

Calls For Reform SPEAKS STRONGLY ON EVILS OF DAY

Bishop LeBlanc Calls on Mothers to Bring Back Old Conditions.

In an exhortation of marked strength His Lordship Bishop LeBlanc at the 9.15 o'clock mass in the Cathedral yesterday pronounced against some social customs of the day and made a powerful appeal to his people, and especially to the mothers, to bring about a reaction to conditions that formerly obtained. The word, he said, had gone mad in giving itself up to pleasure that was forbidden as well as pleasure that was legitimate. At the beginning of the holy season of Lent and at the close of a most successful retreat, he said, he felt it his duty to appeal to the people for a reaction to conditions of the present time. Was it not a fact, he asked, in addressing the mothers in particular, that a young man could enter the home and take the daughter out for an automobile drive in the daytime or in the evening and do so with the girl unchaperoned and without question? Did the mother ever think that she should be a third party at that theatre performance or on that automobile drive? His Lordship spoke of immodesty in dress that marked the fashion of the times and pronounced strongly against it and particularly emphasized the part of the mothers in permitting their girls to dress and even in encouraging them in the course that was being followed. His Lordship said that even in Ireland, which was noted for the modesty and chastity of her daughters, Cardinal Logue, in his Lenten pastoral had felt constrained to speak against these evils of the day. Bishop LeBlanc spoke of Catholic societies giving dances and said they should set an example. On the matter of lascivious dances he said that he endorsed the stand taken by Cardinal Begin in his pastoral letter issued some time ago and he stated that what was forbidden in Quebec by the pronouncement of the cardinal was forbidden in the Diocese of St. John. He closed with the renewal of his appeal to the fathers and mothers, particularly the mothers, to see that a reaction was brought about in these matters. Minister Condemns Them.

A PLEASANT WINTER

The winter now drawing to a close has been one of the most agreeable in the matter of weather conditions this province has enjoyed for very many years.

figure, but they are so nearly so that they give the people a clear knowledge regarding the matters with which they deal.

PARLIAMENT

The contents of the Speech from the Throne at Ottawa has given rise to interesting speculations.

THE FIGURES SPEAK

A study of the vital statistics compiled by the New Brunswick Department of Health reveals some very interesting facts.

Table with 3 columns: Location, Births, Deaths. Rows include Albert, Charlottetown, St. John, etc.

Taking the towns separately, we find the number of births for the two months as follows:—St. John, 141; Moncton, 91; Campbellton, 38; Fredericton, 36; Chatham, 24; Edmundston, 20; St. Stephen, 18; Sackville, 15; Marysville, 14; Woodstock and Newcastle, 13 each; Bathurst, 12; Sussex, 8; Devon, 7; Dalhousie, Grand Falls and Shediac, 6 each; Milltown, 5; St. George, 3; Hartland and Sunny Brae, 2 each; St. Andrews, none.

It is well that the province has a system of vital statistics, which is recognised at Ottawa as the most carefully compiled in Canada.

A SELF-CONTAINED EMPIRE

(Auckland, N. Z., Weekly News.) When Mr. Baldwin contends that the Empire should be independent of outside sources for raw cotton, sugar and tobacco, he enters a phase of development where all the Empire can join hands in enthusiastic advocacy.

WHY ECONOMY SHOULD BEGIN

(La Presse.) "It is, of course, an excellent thing to preach strict economy at Ottawa. The need is manifest."

THE ARTFUL DODGER

(Brandon Sun.) The late Sir William Mackenzie used to tell a story of the method he and his partner devised to stay an epidemic of expenses for damages to cows on their railroads.

THRIFT AND PLEASURE

(Thrift Magazine.) The practice of consistent thrift does not mean the elimination of all pleasure. This would indeed be a dreary world if it were necessary to forego all pleasure in order to go ahead.

COOLIDGE ENDORSED

(New York Herald.) The Senate resolution demanding that Secretary Denby be ousted met at the White House the quick and severe chastisement of Coolidge's endorsement.

(Vancouver Sun.) Vancouver medical men are taking considerable interest in the question of public health insurance.

MEDICAL COOKERY

(New York Times.) The University of Paris has set up an Institute of Alimentary Hygiene, and in it professors from the Pasteur Institute lecture to students who have already taken medical degrees.

FOUND VULTURE WHICH BARKS Many Curious Animals and Fish Discovered in Brazil.

A vulture that barks like a dog, a flat fish something like the placid but equipped with a nasty poison spike, and vampire bats galore are among the attractions reported by Captain S. C. Bullock, M. C., in a paper which he read before the Royal Geographical Society in London.

"At one camp in this district," said Denby Bullock, "a large bird, quite new to us, was encountered, like a vulture, having five talons on each foot and one talon or spike on the middle joint of the wings, which measure nearly six feet from tip to tip.

"Locally it is called 'juma' and it makes a noise very much like a dog barking. It is generally found near a lake and when frightened it takes refuge in a tree."

Captain Bullock told of an incident at one place where some waterhogs were encountered at a lagoon a short distance from the river.

THE BRITISH SAILOR

No. 247 St. George St., West St. John, N. B., March 20, 1924.

To the Editor of The Times-Star: Sir,—Recently I saw in your paper some comment on the sailors who were in the city, and to my regret, it was not of the best nature, so if you will publish this small item taken from the paper which is known all over the British Empire, "The Sailors and Firemen," it may enlighten a few of the landlubbers.

"The Sailor and the Cop." "On the evening of Jan. 20, 1922, a child fell in a fit in Market street, at a time when the street was crowded with traffic."

"That is a British sailor all over, he will always do his duty, whether he is appreciated or not is no concern of his."

"I wish to draw to the attention of the landlubbers that some of these sailors who have been up against hard times are the very men who in 1914-1918 helped to escort the Canadian troops over to the Old Country for the sum of $1 per day to $60, so you cannot put a stop to misfortune. MOST OF CHANGES WERE DOWNWARD

Movements in Wall Street Prices This Morning Were Mixed.

New York, March 3.—Mixed movements prevailed at the opening of today's stock market, with the larger proportion of the changes tending downward. Some of the speculative favorites including Baldwin, Studebaker, Cuban Cane Sugar, Pfd., and Houston Oil were off around a point.

New York, March 3.—Taking advantage of the irregularity of the general level in the announcement of the Virginia Carolina Chemical recovery, bear operators subjected a number of shares to renewed pressure this forenoon. Various oil and equipment were pushed lower, all of the Virginia Carolina Chemical issues breaking to new lows, and that company's bonds also exhibiting weakness. Diverse chemicals, rubbers and equipments were local lost 1/4 and several other industrial and railroad stocks to two points.

New York, Feb. 3.—Sterling exchange steady. Great Britain, 12 1/2; France, 4 1/2; Italy, 4 3/8; Germany, 0.000000022; Canadian dollars 33-18 per cent. discount.

Montreal Market. Montreal, March 3.—The opening of the local stock market today was a quiet affair, although the tone was steady to a shade stronger. Bell rights was the most active stock and started the week with an advance of 1/4 to 1/2. The common sold up a point at 121. Other price changes included—Albitol 10 1/2; Power, 15; and Provincial Paper 10 1/2.

POLICE WATCHING CALIPH CLOSELY

Report Says He Plans Flight From Constantinople—Guard Palace Riches.

Constantinople, March 3.—The police here have received instructions from the Ankara Government to supervise the household of the Caliph and the imperial princes resident here, especially with a view to preventing the removal of the precious objects, as the Caliph is reported to be intending to flee to Egypt.

The ladies of the harem are greatly disturbed over impending events, and Sultan Mohammed VI into exile, if a bill now before the National Assembly becomes law. The measure not only abolishes the religious head of the Moslem world, but it provides for the eternal expulsion of all members of the Caliph's family, male and female, from Turkish territory within ten days as well as forfeiture by them of Turkish citizenship.

Constantinople, March 3.—Advices received here from Ankara say that a meeting of the peoples party yesterday accepted almost unanimously a bill for the deposition of the Caliph and the abolition of the Caliphate. The Conservatives raised slight opposition and suggested voting the Caliphate either in the present or the National Assembly but the proposal was rejected.

THE COAL TRADE.

To the Editor of the Times-Star: Sir,—Nova Scotia has been mining and shipping coal for the last 80 years, and all this part of Ontario has been using some coal for a similar period, the quantity constantly becoming greater, until today we use about 10,000,000 tons annually.

Much as Ontario would like to have used all-Canadian fuel for many years past, no private enterprise has been organized to transport, via water, Nova Scotia coal to Ontario.

So if the Government undertook this now it could not be said that it was interfering with private enterprise; and if it did, personally, I don't regard that as any crime, or even a sin, but in case of necessity or emergency rather a blessing.

W. O. SEALEY, Hamilton, Ont., March 1, 1924.

SOON TO HAVE ELECTRICITY.

The stations at Hampton and Norton will soon be lighted by electricity. Men are engaged at the present time in laying the lines. When this is completed they will be hooked up with the electric system of the New Brunswick Hydro Power Commission and the lights will become a thing of the past.

YOU CAN BUY THEM FOR $150 A PAIR

Boston, March 3.—The most expensive slipper in Boston is not like Cinderella's magic slipper, made of glass, but it is just as dainty with its soft suede line and adorned with the very best cut steel buckle. And $160 will bring this most expensive shoe into milady's boudoir.

The costliest shoe can be had by itself for $25 a pair, but it's the buckles that come high, according to exclusive shoe dealers. A rhinestone buckle for evening wear is only $60 for the best and most expensive, while the brocaded cloth of gold slipper to go with it is $30. A very nice walking shoe, ready made, can be had for $15, and that's the top notch price to pay.

Of course, the made to order shoes come from $40 up to $500 a pair, all depending upon the workmanship. An evening slipper, the heel of which was studded with diamonds, was recently sold here for $500. But these evening slippers, whether ready or custom made, last only an evening or two.

Purchasing ten pairs of shoes at one time at an expenditure of $200 is nothing unusual for Boston's busy society.

Constantinople, March 3.—Advices received here from Ankara say that a meeting of the peoples party yesterday accepted almost unanimously a bill for the deposition of the Caliph and the abolition of the Caliphate.

Respective of what may be the correct reason for this illness, I suggest turning them into coal fires (however degrading that might seem); that their boilers, engines and machinery be removed, which would lighten their draft from four to six feet, and the non-requirement of power fuel would lighten their draft a couple of feet more, so they would carry a 2,000-ton cargo of coal from Nova Scotia to Hamilton and all other Ontario and Quebec ports; and a steamer flagship would tow half a dozen of these, at most, and I believe eventually for $1.

Whether the Government convert the life marine or not, it certainly seems to me their duty, in the interests of Canada, to immediately inaugurate a lake-carrying fleet of coal barges for the Nova Scotia and Alberta coal now that the Nova Scotia coal has proven so excellent for coking, and I believe Alberta coal is just as good.

Yours truly, W. O. SEALEY, Hamilton, Ont., March 1, 1924.

Contracts looking to the expansion of this power provide well for the Common Stock. Come and examine the Bond itself and the 25% bonus of Common.

CANADIANS ENTER GOLF TOURNAMENT

Weathering a Storm which Every Business must Eventually Face

In certain circles the story is not new. The firm, a prosperous hardware partnership, had been developed from small beginnings by the two partners, Matthew Taylor and John Mann.

Taylor was a hard-headed practical man, wise with years of wholesale and selling experience. Mann, on the other hand, knew little about hardware, but was an expert all round business man and accountant.

The two, each an expert in his own line, had combined almost perfectly to build up the business. "Indispensable" was the word they used in describing each other.

And then, just when they were on the threshold of greater things, Matthew Taylor fell ill and died. Money was "tight." The future of the business hung in the balance. And, but for one thing, the prospect of a bad failure would have stared John Mann in the face.

Years before, John Mann had insisted that they provide for an emergency of this nature by a $25,000 North American Life Business Policy. The receipt of this substantial sum turned the tide.

John Mann was able to maintain the firm's credit standing; he engaged a capable executive to take over his deceased partner's duties; and what would otherwise have been a disastrous storm was weathered successfully.

Every man who approaches the "indispensable" class in your business, should be insured. Not until this has been done is your business safeguarded.

Let us know the facts about your business. Our advice as to the amount necessary to properly insure one of your valuable partners will be governed by wide experience and expert knowledge.

World Champions Land at West St. John From Metagama.

The Granites of Toronto, amateur champion hockeyists of the world, arrived here Saturday night on the Metagama. Both H. A. Hewitt, manager of the team, and Dunlop, captain, spoke in glowing terms of the reception tendered the Canadians everywhere they went. The boys from the land of the Maple Leaf were great favorites. Manager Hewitt said, and in the last game against the United States the other six nations which had been eliminated all rooted for the Canadians. He said that the final game was not as rough as many of the American papers had pictured it. The Canadians were faster skaters and just as good or better body-checkers. They were in better condition than their rivals and the clashes were due to the sticks high. Mr. Hewitt was loud in his praise of the manner in which the Canadian team adhered to the training regulations.

SACKVILLE CO-EDS WIN

Dalhousie Co-eds were defeated at Sackville by Mount Allison Co-eds on Saturday afternoon by the narrow margin of 14-12. MONCKON DEFEATED
BY LOCAL TEAM

St. John Hockey Crew Victorious After Closely Contested Game.

The St. John hockey team moved up another notch in their season's activities when they defeated the young and fast Moncton team on Saturday night, the score ending 2-1. Only a few hundred fans turned out to witness the game which was indeed disappointing to the management of the team and the players themselves. The ice for the first two periods of the game was rather sticky but seemed to get harder as the game progressed. Things livened up during the final stage but the best Moncton could do was to get a goal in the second period. Hallesley and Mountain netted the honors for St. John. Kiley was the outstanding man on the local line-up while Nicholson in goal played his usual fine game.

The game was marked by many penalties and referees Patterson of St. John, and McLeod of Moncton, had their hands full.

First Period. It was just three minutes after Miss St. John threw the puck in for the face-off that Hallesley stuck handily through the visitors and shot low from outside the defence. Wilson in goal failed to stop the shot and St. John drew first blood. About 12 minutes later Mountain repeated on a pass by Rathburn from the corner. Play went up and down with St. John playing their defensive game with Moncton trying hard to score. Richard and A. Wilson each took a turn in the "cooler" for being naughty.

Second Period. The second period was marked by several penalties. Moncton started out strong and were evidently trying hard to try to score. Richard and Lane on the wing were working hard but failed to come through. Nicholson making some beautiful saves. Kiley later Mountain repeated on a pass by Rathburn from the corner. Play went up and down with St. John playing their defensive game with Moncton trying hard to score. Richard and A. Wilson each took a turn in the "cooler" for being naughty.

Third Period. Moncton speeded up in the last period and tried again and again to score. The local defence was covering up well but just about 10 minutes after play started Lane circled the home net and poked in Moncton's saving center. Hallesley and J. Gilbert each spent a short time in the penalty box, the former for holding and the latter for tripping. Kiley also drew another tripping. Kiley also drew another tripping. Kiley also drew another tripping.

NEWS NOTES GATHERED FROM THE WORLD OF STAGE AND SCREEN

OFFERS OF AID CAME TOO LATE TO SAVE LIFE OF SUICIDE ACTRESS

In Note to Mother She Says Act Inspired by Nietzsche.

New York, March 3.—Discouraged because she had been unable to find stage work and because her fiction stories were not selling, Miss Vallie Belasco Martin, actress and author, a distant relative of David Belasco, killed herself by drinking shoe polish in her mother's apartment at 200 Riverside Drive.

When it was too late, fortune turned for the girl. There were a score of telephone calls to the apartment from persons who said they would have found a part for Miss Martin "if they had known." And the family said that representatives of a publisher had opened negotiations for a book the girl had just finished.

Miss Martin, 25 years old, a brunette who was chosen three years ago as one of the five leading American beauties, returned to the apartment of her mother, Mrs. Ruth Martin, on the seventh floor of the tall building. For a time Miss Martin paced restlessly about the eight-room suite.

"Mother," she finally called, "is everything all right?"

Mrs. Martin, who knew the inquiry referred to financial trouble she had recently experienced, assured the girl that everything was going well. Her mother then dozed and in about ten minutes was awakened by groans. She hurried into the girl's room and found her suffering. She called a lodger who summoned Dr. Gertrude Nicholson, a physician in the apartment house. A nurse was also called. When the woman physician arrived Miss Martin was dead. Under her pillow the police found an empty bottle which had contained polish for silver slippers. The police found that the polish contained cyanide of potassium in small quantity. Inspired by Nietzsche.

On a table the girl had left a hastily pencilled note. It was addressed to her mother, and read as follows:

Mother Dear: As you know, things have gone from bad to worse. At the beginning of the week I had several good prospects, but they have all gone by. I wish that theatrical managers and agents would realize that a girl's time is worth something. I hope they will realize it after this and not keep girls waiting. After reading Nietzsche's book I agree with his idea of the superfluity of life and so I am going to practice what he preaches. Good-bye and forgive me.

VALLIE. Miss Martin was born in Milwaukee and came here seeking fame on the stage, in 1916. She went to the office of Mr. Belasco, whom she called "David," and from there was sent to see Morris Gest. Through F. Ray Constock she obtained a good part in "Very Good, Eddie," appearing as "Elsie Darling." Mr. Gest said yesterday that she had displayed exceptional ability and had seemed destined to go far in her chosen profession. She followed her debut in this play with engagements in "My Lady Friends," appearing as Eva Johns in the play during June, 1920 at the Comedy theatre. She also appeared in "Watch Your Step," "A Mask of Old Loves" and several other vaudeville skits. Her last engagement was in a road company of "Abie's Irish Rose." She succeeded in that show at Toronto and was scheduled for transfer to the Chicago company, but this fell through.

Attributes Fall to "Hard Luck." Friends said that Miss Martin's failure to get engagements was due simply to "hard luck." She had been unable to get past the barriers in managers' offices and in to see the principals. Failure also was coming in too great measure to her efforts to write. When she was only 12 years old she wrote a fairy story which attracted considerable attention in the Middle West, and all through her life when on the road she kept her typewriter busy. A short time ago she finished the manuscript of a book. She called it "The Evolution of a Poetess, or, the Amusing Musings of a Mindless Maid." She sent the manuscript to Boni & Liveright. On Wednesday morning she received notice that the publishers had not found the book acceptable and yesterday, after her death, the manuscript was returned. In addition to a fantastic playlet which was produced under her mother's supervision at the Little Theatre in Milwaukee, Miss Martin incorporated some of her own life in a novel, as yet unpublished, called "Flora D. Lee."

Throughout all of Miss Martin's writings there ran a strong note of surrender. She dwelt on the unpleasantness of life, on its stern light and the absence on the lucky breaks," as she called them. She spoke often and in melancholy vein of the hardships of life back of the footlights, especially on tour.

"There's no such thing as luck," she wrote, in telling of her hard struggle, "when you can't even win your own contest." Inquiry at Mr. Belasco's office established that he was out of town, but the girl's visit there was recalled. When Miss Martin first called Mr. Belasco had no openings which his distant kinswoman could fill, but he asked Mr. Gest to find a chance for her. "I remember," said Mr. Gest, "she applied for a chance and after a trial I thought well enough of her ability to give her a very good part in 'Very Good, Eddie.' She was very well paid and I regarded her as having exceptional talent. After that engagement she came into the office occasionally, not for engagements but merely to see friends or to get tickets to see a show. We have not seen her lately, but on the last occasions she did not seem to be downhearted."

Denies Wife's Charges

Rosemary Cooper, movie beauty, is fighting to clear her name. Mrs. Albert G. Kenyon, wife of a scenario writer, named the actress co-respondent in divorce action instituted in Los Angeles. Miss Cooper denies the allegations.

Another Charlot Revue. Arch Selwyn Promotes New York New English Show in November.

Arch Selwyn, accompanied by Mrs. Selwyn, has sailed for Europe on the Olympic. While abroad he will complete arrangements for the appearance of Raquel Meller in this country next season. The Spanish singer was to have come to New York this year, but was prevented by illness.

Mr. Selwyn announced also that another Charlot revue, with an all-English cast, will be produced here around November, at which time the current follow-up show will go on tour until spring, when it will return to London.

Mr. Selwyn will reach London in time for the opening of the new Lonsdale play, "The Fake," which he is presenting in association with Walter Wanger. The same combination will produce Lonsdale's "Spring Cleaning" in London in April. In Paris Mr. Selwyn will again endeavor to persuade the three Guitrys to come to America next season.

DRAMATISTS TO GIVE DANCE. A dinner and dance will be given by the American Dramatists to the "Stars of the Stage" at the Hotel Astor, New York, Sunday evening, March 16.

Vincent Lopez and his orchestra will appear. Eugene Buck is chairman of the committee, which includes Mrs. Arnold W. Brunner, Edward Childs Carpenter, Owen Davis, William Carey Duncan, Anne Crawford, Fleener, James Forbes, Otto Haarbach, Rol Cooper Megraw, William Anthony McGuire, Arthur Richman, Edgar Selden, Augustus Thomas.

$35,000 Suit Against Marcus Loew. White Plains, N. Y., March 3.—Supreme Court Justice Morschauer has signed an order giving preference on the April calendar to the $35,000 damage action filed against Marcus Loew, the theatre owner, by William Hinckman. The plaintiff alleges that he was thrown from his automobile and sustained permanent injuries April 6 last when his machine was struck by Loew's car at the intersection of Dyckman street and Nagle avenue, New York.

Honeymooning in Honolulu. Corinne Griffith and her new husband, Walter Morosco, are on a short honeymoon in Honolulu. On their return next week Miss Griffith will begin work on a new production, "For Sale." When her scheduled programme of three pictures is completed, the lovely star declares she intends to retire to private life and have a family.

A Few Moments In The Studio Crucible

Whenever an oil strike is made, no matter where, the word seems to travel by magic to the innermost corners of the earth, and the pilgrimage trails toward the elusive rainbow's end. Immediately there inevitably gathers a conglomerate horde, all eager to taste of the nectar of intoxicating wealth—or at least, to take advantage of the profligacy of the more fortunate. Adventurer and adventurer, gambler and spectator, crook and profiteer, rub elbows with the legitimate promoter, capitalist, engineer and laborer, all magnetized by the lodestone of flowing gold.

No more cosmopolitan and heterogeneous is the seething population of the oil fields than the assemblage of players and extra people employed in the making of such a scene for motion pictures. They hail from every walk in life, and tucked away in the vivid memory of each there is usually a fascinating story. Let us step for a moment onto the set where Richard Walton Tully is producing the famous Rex Beach story of the Texas oil rush, "Flowing Gold," for First National. The scene is a gorgeous representation of the leading hotel in Dallas. Hundreds of players are passing in and out. We'll not have time to speak to all of them, but suppose we stop for a moment's chat. Here is Jack Radke, one of the most famous stunt men of motion pictures. He makes a business of doubling for higher salaried artists in hazardous scenes. It's all in the day's work for him to ride a motorcycle over a precipice, to leap from a speeding train to a rope trailing from a plane overhead, or to turn over in a spinning automobile.

Then there is Adelaide Hallock, a handsome matron of aristocratic bearing, the daughter of ex-Governor Ross of Texas, and for many years a part of the social life of Washington, D. C. We learn that she has been working in pictures for the past five years.

We find that the girl attending the cigar counter in the hotel is none other than May Cruise, sister of James, who directed "The Covered Wagon" and many other successes.

Frances Tait, proud of her title, "The Swanee River Girl of the Golden West," next claims our attention. She is a singer of renown, and has a war record as surgical nurse with the British army and American marines which will long be remembered. She is the niece of ex-Governor Warner of Michigan.

The Hays Office Boy. Will H. Hays has been doing a little personal censorship of late. He has been keeping a very close watch on the screen material which is being acquired by the producers, and recently banned the filming of "The Brothers' schedule for 1924. This novel, by Hubert Wales, created a sensation when it was published at public libraries, and was banned from public libraries.

Mr. Hays also refused to pass on the advertisement matter on "Three Weeks," which necessitated the Goldwyn Company mapping out an entirely new advertising campaign.

Dorothy Dalton. Many of the fans have been inquiring about Dorothy Dalton. They missed her on the screen of their favorite theatre of late.

Miss Dalton has not made any pictures since last spring, when she completed "Leah Kleschna," not yet released. She spent the summer in Europe, has been playing the vaudeville circuit since her return, and may appear in a new play soon. Her return to the screen is as yet indefinite.

JACK NORWORTH IS DIVORCED BY WIFE

Comedian—Accused of Desertion—Decree Granted is Jersey.

New York, March 3.—Mrs. Jack Norworth obtained an interlocutory decree of divorce from the singer and comedian before Vice-Chancellor John Bentley in Jersey City last week. The divorce, which was granted on the grounds of desertion, will become absolute in six months.

Mrs. Norworth is 29 years old. He is between 45 and 50. She met Norworth at a party given by her stepfather in Oakland, Cal., in 1911, when she was 16. They were married March 17, 1913, and she accompanied him to London, where, she said, Norworth was named co-respondent in a divorce suit. Mrs. Norworth returned to New York, where she started a suit for divorce. Norworth returned and they became reconciled. But in April, 1919, he went West alone and she has not seen him since. This is the third time the actor has been divorced.

gans; of Admiral Tait of the British navy, and of Archbishop of Canterbury Tait.

H. B. McDonald, formerly a drummer in Texas, laughingly informs us that he feels strictly at home looting about the hotel lobby.

And here is a charming lady, Lynn Houston, an ex-opera singer, who has also played with Duse and Sothern. She has steel gray hair—caused in one night by a terrible experience in a wreck. During the war, she worked in a cannery, helping to feed the soldiers, wearing a man's clothing and doing a man's work. She has a marvelous collection of cameo, all family heirlooms and all antique carvings. She is a member of the Gamma Phi Beta sorority at Wisconsin and Northwestern Universities, and has a master's degree from Drake.

Next, we come to Charles Meakin, who just finished his fifty-ninth comedy for one concern. He is known as the official daddy of short subjects. He remembers that he was with Richard Walton Tully upon the occasion of the first opening of Tully's "Bird of Paradise" in New York.

Who is the alert gentleman of distinctly military bearing? Why, it's Col. J. S. Bonner, veteran of both the Spanish and World wars; a lieutenant-colonel of infantry and staff in the late unpleasantness, who was severely wounded at Verdun.

Well, here is Werner J. Genot, soldier, stage manager, director, parachute jumper, and actor, who has doubled for Tully Marshall. A Belgian by birth, he directed motion pictures in Europe for Gaumont and other concerns, and was a noted stage manager in Brussels and Paris. During the war he fought for both French and Belgians, and was three times captured by the Germans. Once he was sentenced to be shot, but escaped just five hours before the sentence was to be executed. After the war, he became a stunt aviator for Belgian motion pictures, then came to America and did some parachute jumping.

This dapper young man is Jack Cliff, Milton Sills' valet, who enjoys working in the picture when possible. He has three sisters, Molly, Nellie and Dorothy, all on the stage.

Who's that playing the part of the hotel detective? Why, it is Tom Figue, a native of the Yukon, who has spent five years as a member of the Royal Northwest Mounted Police and who later was a deputy sheriff in the Mohave Desert. He specializes on rugged, northern parts, and laughingly confides that they never have considered him handsome enough to play a mounted policeman.

Yes, and here is a Choctaw Indian, Vincent Howard, who has played for the screen 14 years. He was the Indian secretary in "Abraham Lincoln."

MAYOR OPENS TALK ON BUILDING LAW

Paving Plans Announced, and Ferry Building Work Discussed.

The building law was under discussion at a committee meeting in City Hall this morning.

Commissioner Frink asked the Mayor if he would communicate with the Attorney-General and ask if it was the intention to appeal to the Supreme Court of Canada from the finding of the Supreme Court of New Brunswick in the C. P. R. bridge case matter, as he wanted to make some arrangements for the completion of Douglas avenue if appeal was intended.

His Worship said he would take the matter up.

Paving Plans.

On motion of Commissioner Frink, he was given authority to call for tenders for 350 tons of asphalt for use in the public works department. In answer to the Mayor, the commissioner said it was proposed to pave St. James street, from Reed's Point to Wentworth street; Fanshawe row, Winter street, and King street, West, from Market Place to Union street, these to be paid for by bond issue; and from Appleton street, and Duke street to Wentworth street, and Duke street from Sydney to Carmarthen street.

Market Leases Renewed.

On motion of Commissioner Thornton the leases for stalls and stands in the city market were renewed to the present tenants for the same rentals, for one year from May 1. Commissioner Frink reported that the sign erected by Ashe, Ltd., in Douglas avenue, was on private land and the department of public works had no jurisdiction.

Commissioner Wigmore said the construction of this sign was, in his opinion dangerous, as no foundation had been dug.

Commissioner Thornton said he would look into the matter of an expenditure of $3,000 would have to be made on North Rodney Wharf to make some necessary repairs to the end adjoining the ferry slip, and he was given authority to make the necessary repairs. It was proposed to drive piles and put in some tie rods, payment to be made from harbor revenue.

Harbor Surplus.

Commissioner Frink asked what had become of the surplus of the harbor department, and Commissioner Bullock said it had gone into general revenue. Commissioner Wigmore said he was glad to hear the commissioner was eating a surplus in the departments, as he believed this was the proper system. Commissioner Thornton said he was not in favor of piling up a surplus in any department.

Commissioner Bullock presented plans for the restoration of the ferry building, for an additional story, and he estimated the cost of merely putting a roof on the building as it was at present. He recommended two brick partitions in the roof, and if the additional story was added, to care for the drafting room and provide quarters for the Commissioner of Public Works and Harbors, and engineer staff. It would be necessary to strengthen the foundations somewhat to carry the new story. Should this be done, the Commissioner of Safety and Water and Sewerage could move back to City Hall, and the assessors could have more room.

The report was laid on the table, to be taken up at the committee meeting on next Monday, a copy of the report to be furnished to each commissioner.

Building Law.

Mayor Fisher said he thought the resolution of council of February 28, last, in regard to a new building law should be amended, and he thought this should be changed in three respects—the amount set aside for the work, which he thought was too large; the appointment of an engineer, and that there should be something to call for a report from the commissioner as to whom he had engaged.

Commissioner Frink said in this matter he was out of order, as the motion had been passed in council and could be dealt with only in council after some person had moved for a reconsideration.

Commissioner Thornton said he had provided in the resolution that an engineer or any other person who might be needed could be engaged, and if the council wanted him to report on who was engaged to do the work he was quite willing to do so; in fact he had intended to do this without a request. Commissioner Frink said he understood a legal gentleman had offered his services, and Commissioner Thornton said it was C. E. Sanford who had made the offer.

Commissioner Frink said he was of the opinion that before the work was completed it would be necessary to engage someone from outside the city. He said an attempt had been made once before to frame a new building law, and there were so many private interests involved that it had been found impossible to complete the job.

GODWIN TRIAL TO BEGIN TOMORROW

East St. John Murder Case to be Taken Up Before Chief Justice.

It was announced this morning that the trial of Stewart Godwin, a 16-year-old youth indicted by the grand jury on a charge of murder of Mrs. Clara Whiteside, would be commenced in the circuit court tomorrow morning at 10:30 o'clock before Chief Justice H. A. McKewen. The court has asked that all the petit jury panel be present at that time.

The charge resulted from the finding of the dead body of Mrs. Whiteside in her home at East St. John on Christmas Day last and a statement alleged to have been made by the accused after he was held by the police for examination.

FEBRUARY HARBOR REPORT

DUFFERIN HOTEL NEARING ITS END

Only Small Remnant of Historical Structure is Now Standing.

Nothing but a heap of rubbish and a skeleton of brick walls back of the hotel today marks the spot where the Dufferin Hotel once stood. The demolition of this old landmark has been rapid and progress has been watched with interest by the people of the city. With the destruction of the Dufferin and the surrounding buildings the area to be occupied by the new Admiral Beatty Hotel appears to have assumed larger proportions than when it was covered with the structures that have disappeared.

Although a considerable amount of the building material which was taken from the walls of the Dufferin is still piled in the vicinity of the site, the greater quantity of fixtures and other materials has been carted away. One effect of the tearing down process has been to cause the surrounding structures—the Imperial and the Trinity church rectory to loom up more distinctly, but according to pictures of the new hotel, which have been exhibited, the buildings now in existence will be considerably dwarfed by the new structure. The plans are considered by the citizens as a step toward the interest of the citizens' interests.

IS STRICKEN NEAR DOOR OF HIS HOME

Sudden Death of Edward Haney is Great Shock to Many Friends.

A large circle of friends were shocked and grieved on Sunday to learn that Edward Haney had passed away suddenly on the street near his home, 88 Waterloo street, late on Saturday night. Mr. Haney apparently was in the best of health about 8 o'clock in the evening when he left home. After visiting the market and spending a few hours in the Knights of Columbus home in Coburg street, he started for his home about 11 o'clock, calling into McPherson Bros., in Union street, where he purchased some oranges. Mr. Haney collapsed on the sidewalk near the Central Garage, opposite Faddock street. He was carried to his home and Dr. E. J. Ryan was summoned, but he pronounced the stricken man dead. The cause of death was said to have been the cause of death.

When the sad news was learned about the city yesterday it proved a severe shock to his many friends. Mr. Haney has been in the employ of the Dominion Government for the last 40 years, a faithful employee and a man who was extremely popular with his fellow citizens. In his earlier days he was most prominent in athletics, being one of the promoters of the old Shamrock Grounds in the North End and one of those behind the famous old-time baseball team known as the Shamrocks. He was a great lover of baseball and horse racing and other clean sports, a former member of the Irish Friendly Society, and until the time of his death a staunch member of the Knights of Columbus and the Holy Name Society. A good many years ago Mr. Haney conducted a book store in King street, a store which he leaves to mourn, besides a sorrowing widow, one sister, Miss Elizabeth Haney, and one brother, William Haney, residing in Waterloo street. The funeral will take place from the late residence on Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock to the Cathedral for high mass of requiem.

INSPECTOR SEIZES CAR OF QUEBEC BEER

J. B. Gammon Makes Capture in Railway Yard at Bathurst.

Owing to activities of J. B. Gammon, inspector under the Provincial Prohibition Act at Bathurst, a lot of thirt had to go without being assuaged over the week-end and the "wet goods" destined for that vicinity will now be turned over to the Commission. Early Saturday morning Mr. Gammon made a visit to the railway yard and spotted a car which in his opinion was deserving of a little attention from him and as a result of the examination made he seized the car and its contents. He found that the beer was of a strength over that allowed by the law of this province. The car was addressed to a person who was unknown in Bathurst and came from somewhere in Quebec. It is supposed the goods were to be distributed from Bathurst to the surrounding country.

"How about yourself?" demanded the reporter.
"Me?" said Hiram. "I'm a prophet."
