C. HUMPHREY TAYLOR.

IT WAS A SUCCESS.

THE BOARD OF TRADE MEETING WELL ATTENDED AND GOOD PROGRESS MADE.

The Board of Trade meeting was largely attended and among the gathering were seen many of the prosperous and enterprising farmers and business men from Peel, Mount Pleasant, Coldstream, Lower Brighton, Wakefield; Victoria, Somerville and Simonds. C. L. Smith, M. P. P. of Woodstock was also present. John Barnett was elected chairman and S. S. Miler, secretary, of the meeting. The minutes of the previous meeting was read.

Motion to the effect that they seek incorporation was unanimously passed. The question was discussed by many, and much enthusiasm was shown by all. C. L. Smith was not a member of the Woodstock Board, but knew it had accomplished many desirable objects, and was sure similar benefits could be derived here by concerted action. J. K. Flemming had been a member of the Woodstock Board and corroborated Mr. Smith's statements; and believed this Board capable of obtaining a lower freight rate on farm products shipped to St. John and other points. B. N. Shaw believed that this corporation might be the means of bringing pressure to bear upon the powers that be, and be instrumental in getting us the long promised bridge. Chas. McCormac said B. N. Shaw expressed his sentiments that the people on the Hartland side did not realize how much a bridge is needed, but to fully appreciate this must be set down within sight of the railway and the necessities of life, for five weeks at a time as the people on the West side of the river were this fall, and be compelled to do a twenty-five mile drive and then not be able to dispose of produce and procure provisions so advantageously as could be done at Hartland. S. N. Estabrooks said this organization would do as much to benefit the farmer as any other class. Among other speakers were Messrs. Connolly, Phillips, Shaw, Miller and Barnett.

The following gentlemen subscribed their names to an application for incorporation under the Act.

Henry Bradley.

The following were elected a provisional council: John Barnett, pres.; J. T. G. Carr, vice; and S. S. Miller (secretary) J. McGee, G. Phillips, J. K. Flemming, H. Tedlie, H. P. Birmingham, C. H. Taylor, G. M. Shaw, D. Munroe, B. N. Shaw, C. McCormack.

A subscription of 30 cents per capita was taken to defray expenses of organization.

The meeting was excellent. Harmony and oneness of opinion was a bright feature.

COUNTY LINE.

One who has visited the bark-hauling operations at County Line reports as follows: D. W. Gray, has gone into the bark business again this winter. He has five teams and nine men, they go two turn a day on a seven mile road and average one cord and three-quarters to a load. Mr. Gray has over six hundred cords to put to the siding this winter.

"Herb," who proved himself the champion bark piler last winter is back again at his post, ready with his cheery smile as "Will's" team appears at the top of the hill, announcing his approach with an (Indian War Whoop.) They are all a stirring lot of men, especially "Page" who is very energetic for a man of his years. They have a nice warm camp and a good cook.

HON. C. H. LABILLOIS.

Next Saturday evening Hon. C. H. Labillois will address a public meeting in Burt's Hall, under the auspices of the People's Union Agricultural Society. There will be present our county members and leading citizens of the county. Every farmer and business man should attend.

UNION MEETINGS.

The arrangements referred to in our last issue which were being made by the churches for entering upon a series of special union meetings, were completed at a meeting of the ministers and representative laity held in the Baptist church last evening. The services will begin under the leadership of Evangelist Corbett in the Methodist church on Sunday morning, Jan. 30. at 10.30. Services being held also on the evening of that day in the same church.

SENSE AND NONSENSE.

Fuddy—No. Jim Parlew isn't much to brag of; but there's one thing I will say of him—he's a true philosopher.

Duddy—And for what reason?

Fuddy—When he lost his hand in a hay cutter he merely remarked, 'Well, there's one hand less to keep clean, anyhow.'

Fresh cod for sale at Carr's—only 4 cents a pound.

The Fierce One—I do wish the Lord had made me a man.

The Gentle One—Perhaps he has, Amelia, dear, but you haven't been able to find him yet.

Keith & Plummer just received a lot of white and colored dress shirts, also a large variety of gent's cuffs and collars in all sizes and very latest styles.

Judge—Witness, you are 40 years of age?

Female Witness—Yes, alas! One gets older every day. And yet I was young once (heaving a sigh). Ah, your lordship would hardly believe how young I was.

R. P. & Co. are headquarters for wood (green and dry) 16 in, 18 in, 2 ft, and 4 ft, prices right.

'I am thinking of tendering my resignation,' remarked one official. 'I envy you,' was the reply. 'I wish I dared.' 'Why?' 'It's a free country.' 'Yes; but mine would as likely as not be accepted.'

Keith & Plummer are open to buy 500 cords hemlock bark and will pay highest market price in cash or trade.

'Thirteen is an unlucky number in all cases,' said Jarley. 'I don't know,' said Butler. 'I'd rather have $13 than $12.' 'I wouldn't,' said Jarley. 'If I had $12 I'd spend only $12; but if I had $13 I spend $13.'

Bring your own bottles to the Drug Store and have them filled with essences perfumes, oils, &c. When buying small quantities you get twice the quantity for the money. Estey & Curtis.

Said Miss Susie Sillygirl to her mother at the breakfast table. 'Mamma, you are getting meaner and meaner every day.' 'What have I done now?' 'What have you done? Didn't I dream last night that you went to the matinee and didn't take me with you?'

For a nice Parlour lamp go to Keswick's.

Verifiers—'Lemme see,' asked the the boarder who is always wanting to know things of no use, 'what is it they call those red, green and blue lights that a skyrocket throws off?' 'Verifies' said the Cheerful Idiot. 'Really?' asked the inquisitive boarder. 'Yes. They give color to the report.'

Mr Briggs—'Tom Rider handed me some tickets for the circus. It'll be an awful bore, but I suppose on Johnny's account we ought to go. He'll be pleased.'

Mrs Briggs—'Why, there are only two here!'

Mr Briggs—'Well, then, that's all he gave us. Ump! Johnny'll have to stay at home, then. Too bad!'

CIVILIZED WAR.

Mr. Rene Bull, the special artist of 'Black and White,' sends the following to his paper:—'I was rather amused at the tale of Tommy I met in the rear guard returning from a foraging expedition. I came across a couple of men who were bubbling over with laughter, and asked them what they had been up to. One of them replied: 'The General told us to burn everything we could find, so Gunner Green and me went down the 'ill and found a little 'ouse. When we went inside we found a poor old bloke, who said his son had gone an' left 'im. 'I said, 'I hope you did'nt hurt him?' 'Lor' bless you, sir, why 'urt him? he said. Why, we carried 'im outside, put 'im under a tree, put a chattie of water by 'is side and a choopattie in 'is 'and, and then we burnt 'is blooming 'ouse.'

'No, Molly,' said the old man. 'I won't send John ter school. I've got a better scheme than that fer him. I'm goin' ter take the schoolbook money an start him in business!'

R.I.P.A.N.S

Packed Without Glass. TEN FOR FIVE CENTS.

This special form of Ripans Tabules is prepared from the original prescription, but more economically put up for the purpose of meeting the universal modern demand for a low price. DIRECTIONS.—Take one at meal or bedtime or whenever you feel poorly. Swallow it whole, with or without a mouthful of water. They cure all stomach troubles; banish pain; induce sleep; prolong life. An invaluable tonic. Best Spring Medicine. No matter what the matter, one will do you good. One gives relief—a cure will result if directions are followed. The five-cent packages are not yet to be had of all dealers, although it is probable that almost any druggist will obtain a supply when requested by a customer to do so; but in any case a single carton, containing ten tabules, will be sent, postage paid, to any address for five cents in stamps, forwarded to the Ripans Chemical Co., No. 10 Spruce St., New York. Until the goods are thoroughly introduced to the trade, agents and peddlers will be supplied at a price which will allow them a fair margin of profit, viz.: 1 dozen cartons for 40 cents—by mail 45 cents. 12 dozen (144 cartons) for $4.50—by mail for $4.85. 5 gross (720 cartons) for $20.50. 25 gross (3,000 cartons) for $100. Cash with the order in every case, and freight or express charges at the buyer's cost.

HARTLAND, Carleton Co., N. B.
P. O. Box, 17.

C. L. Smith, M. P. P. was in the village last Friday. Interviewed by the ADVERTISER he expressed himself as quite cognizant of the great need of a bridge, and promises to do all that lies in his power to bring the matter before the House and into discussion. He seems earnest in the matter, and, further, realizes the people in and around Hartland are losing, or have already lost faith in the government. The "fake surveys" don't go anymore.

Li Hung Chang pleads for peace for China. China, he says needs reform and reform will be impossible without peace. The Chinese statesman is wiser than some of his European contemporaries and infinitely more civilized.—Ex

It is said that the intention of the Government is to have their officials drawing a salary of $1000 to devote their whole attention to their official duties.

There is considerable significance in the fact that the professional card of Col. D. McLeod Vince appears in the Dispatch this week.

THE NEW HALL.

The Foresters of Debec, Carleton, have a fine hall which cost about $1000 and was dedicated to the order last week. The exercises were of an interesting character, and J. B. Barton, P. C. Ranger, occupied the chair and with him on the platform sat the officers of the Court beside Revs. Thomas Miller, Currie and Stockford. After the opening ode of the order was sung Rev. C. E. Turner of Gibson made the address of evening, taking as the base of his remarks the cardinal principles of the order, Liberty, Benevolence and Concord. He warmly congratulated the court on its fine hall and pointed out the fraternal advantages of the society. He was followed by Wm. Kinghorn, St. Marys, who spoke of the financial aspects of the Foresters. The addresses were well received. It was a most enjoyable evening.—Reporter.

PROFESSOR SIPPRELL.

W. J. Sipprell, B. A., B. D., has been appointed principal of the Columbian Methodist College at New Westminster. He has been pastor of the Methodist church at Woodstock, Ontario, for three years.

Mr. Sipprell is a young man, but 32 years of age. He is the son of Mr. John Sipprell, well known all over the Maritime Provinces as the traveller of the J. J. Mitchell Publishing Company. He is a nephew of the late Rev. Ezekial Sipprell of Somerville.

A PULP MILL.

It is probable that in this Province the manufacture of pulp will soon become one of our chief industries. Frederickton offers advantages not to be obtained in other places; we have the right kind of wood in easy reach and the St. John river to supply water free from salt and other objectionable ingredients. Our St. John neighbors are grappling with the question of concessions to a strong company, and it is said with the assistance of Scotch capitalists a mill with a capacity of fifty tons a day will shortly be erected at Mispec. The plant has been purchased in the United States and plans for construction are completed.—Reporter.

The Rt. Hon. Charles Pelham Villiers, M. P. for South Wolverhampton, and known as the 'Father of the House of Commons,' having sat continuously in the house since 1835, died on Sunday night last.

Last Saturday evening a large gathering of young people met at the residence of J. E. McCollum, Upper Brighton, to celebrate the birthday of his daughter, Miss. Cora. A most enjoyable evening was spent.

Two cars of dogs en route to Klondyke were detained at Moncton to be muzzled, by authority of the S. P. C. A. The dogs had been fighting and many were in a badly lacerated condition, while some had their eyes torn out.

Improvements in bicycle attachments are occupying the minds of Carleton Co. inventors. A S. Estabrooks of this village has his attention occupied by a very neat toe-clip, which is entirely unlike anything hitherto placed on the market.

W. B. Jewett will close up his jewellery store here on the 28th inst. Those who have watches there should call for them before that date. Those who have repairing to do, should leave their order at once. The jewellery store has been a great convenience and that it is to be closed is regrettable.

The salt used to thaw the ice on the railway platforms along the line is proving a nuisance, as the trainmen, agents, and the public testify. The slush is very cold for the feet of waiting passengers, while the footprints left in the stations and car aisles add anything but neatness to the appearance thereof.

The launching of the Japanese war ship 'Kasage', took place at Philadelphia on Thursday. She is the first foreign war ship launched in this country for 20 years. She is a protected, twin-screw cruiser or commerce destroyer of

The Carnival last Monday night was a decided success, inasmuch as there was a good attendance and excellent order was maintained. The young ladies, in aprons of so greatly varied style and colors, looked pretty; and the young men seemed to have very little difficulty in getting their ties matched.

Judson Kelly, of this town, fell from the Acker Creek bridge where he was working Saturday afternoon, a distance of between thirty and forty feet and was seriously injured. The accident occurred just before the express came down; he was got to the train and brought home, where he was attended by Dr. Hand.—Press.

Guy R. Balloch, son of R. W. Balloch, has invented a patent bicycle attachment for changing the gear of a bicycle from high to low or from low to high, without getting off the wheel. On coming to a hill a man, if he has this attachment on his wheel, can lower the gear and climb the hill with ease. The last issue of the Scientific American has a half column about the invention, with cuts.—Dispatch.

The discussion in the County Council last Thursday on the Scott Act Inspector's salary cost the county $40.00. The salary last year was $300. There was a motion Thursday afternoon that the salary be $400 and an amendment that it be $300. Both the amendment and the motion were negatived and a motion for $350 carried. It was the time spent in discussing these motions that cost the county $40.—Press.

There is to be a stereopticon exhibition at Burt's Hall next Tuesday evening: admission, 10 and 15 cents. A stereopticon with dissolving views should not be confounded with the ordinary magic lantern. It is not like it. W. J. Wilson will deliver the lecture in connection with the exhibition; J. A. Reid will render some solos, with Miss. Z. Hay as accompanist; and Miss. L. Chandler will render the elocutionary part of the program.

The Railway News is a weekly paper published at New Glasgow, N. S., by E. Lawrence, the spectacular adjuster. A late issue speaks thus favourably of our town: "Hartland is a live go ahead town, has a good weekly paper, a bank, good waterworks, good hotels, and now intends forming a Board of Trade. Hartland merchants are alive and are trying to induce people to go into the town to do business. No restrictions are put on trade there and the results can be easily seen by the hustling business the merchants do."

TIM OF CLOVERVALE.

HAS WRITTEN A BOOK—IS INTERVIEWED BY WOODSTOCK MEN.

DEAR TIZER:—The reason you aint hurred from me since the last time is that I've got a "den". You no poets and others alluz have dens. Ma ses I got so absorbed that I didn't eat nor sleep nothin for bout 2 weeks. When I come to I found I'd writ me 1st novel. Ma an me's jest got the gramer corrected and the stops made; and sent it to be reviewed. Ma ses she don't care if the publishers want to buy it or not. If they don't she'll have it printed if it takes all I get out of me sick benefit for the 2 weeks I had the poor apetite. And when ma makes up her mind to publish anything, well you may "consider it published "I'll tell you." Please notis the last 2 remarks is not mine and I don't want to be guilty of plagirism. Its bad enough for newspapers to steal news. I rather admire the ones what makes news but I "got no use" for the ones what cribs, I got nuff of that at college. The feller what set with me alwus got in a better paper than me and didn't no near as much. Why I could spell him down most every time but he cood writ and read upsidedown both at once. My last book's 300 pages. If I get as much per line as Rudyard Kipling gets per word "this ere will be a happy dog." If this last remark seems a little "horsey" excuse it for its a very fashionable remark on the Yankee side now. It "came in" bout the time the big neckties were first seen and "There'll be a Hot Time in the Old Town Tonight" came out. The plot of my book is bout a man and woman what had a large fortune left to their first son and air, which they were never blessed with. But they adopted one that worked just as good and they blowed the little fellows stuff afore he was big enuff to take much part in the fun; but I reconcile the breach of honesty by explaining that the air being "nit" was not injured and the proxy had more fun out of the enheritance then he would have had without it. Then of course I worked a girl into it with golden curls, panzy eyes, grecian nose, waxen ears, ferry feet and who otherwise had faultness lines. I'll show you the proof when it comes to be corrected.

Say, I was down to Woodstock thother day and met a number of prominent citizens. When asked where I resided, I said Hartland. One or too what thot they new all about your town thot it strange that they had never met me, but I told them I had been traveling and studying abroad. The most of them seemed like nice fellers and wanted to make me enjoy myself. I hope the folk round home won't mind my saying I was from Hartland. I only did it to save myself trouble explaining where Clovervale is situated.

Woodstockers seemed to have a great interest in Hartland. One gentleman wanted to know if I dident think the Hartland people would help him get a road across a piece of Bark land from Clovervale to the river. I think he said it would help get a Bridge. I said

"Yes" as much so as anything that has been done up to date." "Well" he said "yon tock it up up there. I've got one hard man here on my side and it is got to go." Nother thing I was asked bout was Hartland's Board of Trade. Course I told them it was progressing all O. K. and was going to build a Bridge, erect a shoe factory, tow the river, form a joint stock company to buy country produce so as the honest farmer could sell his chickens and other stuff for cash and send to Eatons for his goods, and put on the market several patents like washboards that could be bot. And also move the court house and jale to Hartland so that the prisoners could brake stone to meadamize the rode from Clovervale.

COREAN MEDICINE MEN.

Among the passengers who arrived on the West Indian steamer Taymouth Castle last evening were three Korean medicine men bound to Montreal. The Koreans closely resemble Chinamen, but they do not come under the immigration law relating to the Chinese. The business conducted by these foreigners consist chiefly supplying medicines to the Chinese.—St. John Gazette

A MOTHER SPEAKS.

Tells how Dr. Chase Saved her Boy.

His Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine a Precious Boon.

MRS. A. T. STEWART, Folgar, Ont., says: "From the 7th of January to the 30th, we were up night and day with our two little boys, employing doctors and trying every kind of patent medicine we ever heard of. At this time we did not know of Dr. Chase's Linseed and Turpentine until after the 30th, when our youngest darling died in spite of all we could do. Sometime in February the doctor told us our other boy couldn't live till spring. We were about discouraged, when I got my eye on an advertisement of Dr. Chase's Syrup.

"I tried a: once to get some, but none of the dealers here had it. A neighbor who was in Kingston managed to purchase two bottles which he brought straight to us, and I believe it was the means of saving our only boy.

"One tea-spoonful of the Syrup stopped the cough so he could sleep till morning. Our boy is perfectly well now, and I would not be without Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine in the house."

To New and Old Subscribers!

a Special Offer

We have made arrangements to get for our subscribers a valuable set of premiums, and are able to offer them almost free of cost.

FARM NEWS.

Regular subscription price, 50 cents. Farm News now reaches more than 80,000 families. It holds this large and loyal following of subscribers because they regard it as one of the chief essentials of their success in farming. It keeps in touch with the most progressive agriculture of the day, it is scientific in its spirit, and at the same time is never obscure in its meaning, nor stilted in its style. It's the kind of a paper the farmer values in his every day work, because in it he finds what other successful farmers are doing, and how they do it. Its 16 pages contain no "dead weight"—no "fillers." Every line counts. If you know anything about the farm and farm life, examine Farm News and you will understand how much its subscribers appreciate it. And how it grows better every number. Compare it with any other farm paper, and it stands ahead in practicability and real value.

WOMANKIND.

Regular subscription price, 50c. A handsome 20-page magazine containing stories, poems sketches, bits of travel, and such generally literary matter as appeals most strongly to the average reader, who wants pure and wholesome literature of the entertaining kind. Its practical departments devoted to the kitchen, the flower garden, the care to children, dressmaking, home decoration, etc., are greatly valued by every woman who has ever read them. Extensive improvements have been made in Womankind during the past year, and as a result its circulation has been increased from 20,000 to 60,000—a growth that could only possibly be obtained by giving the people what they want. We invite comparison of Womankind with other papers of its kind.

OUR PREMIUM BOOKS

"Butter Making." Womankind Cook Book. Farm News Poultry Book.
A series of prize essays in which farmer's wives and daughters, who are in the habit of getting the top prices in the markets, tell how they feed their cows, how they care for their milk, how they make their butter. It is a most valuable book.
This Cook Book covers the entire range of the culinary art. The recipes in it were selected from the favorite recipes of Womankind readers so that in this you have the best things from several hundred practical housekeepers.
Written to meet the needs and demands of the farm poultry pard, rather than that of the fancier. It tells all about different breeds, their characteristics and what may be expected of them; tells about feeding and hatching, about diseases and their cures, and is, in short, a complete guide to making hens pay.

AMONG THE CAMPS.

Going to the lumber woods on the Mirimachi river, you must pass through Glassville, a large settlement of industrious, well-to-do farmers, chiefly Scotch people. 'Glassville Corner' is the business centre of this community, and the surrounding settlements, and consists of a number of large stores, a Post Office, an Hotel, a blacksmith shop and a church, besides a number of fine looking residences. William Love, sr., owns and manages the hotel here. He came to this place 37 years ago, finding his way by the blazed trees through the dense forest, and started hotel keeping, which has grown to its present large and commodious proportions. Mr Love has a large patronage and is widely known and respected in his profession.

Under the invitations of my old friends, J B Craig, J W Lawson, Belyea Bros and others, I visited some of the camps on the Mirimachi river. On the 5th inst I arrived at J W Lawson's camp on Burnt Hill, and was given the privilege and the responsibility of preaching the gospel to his large crew, including a few toters who were present, 50 men in all.

It is decidedly interesting to the minister to deliver the gospel message to these men, so far away from their own homes, firesides and families. One struggles through a motive of sympathy for the men in their lonely circumstances, and certainly his efforts are not lost upon them, for they gladly receive his message. Any minister must feel urged to dispense as much real soul-food in to his address as his limited amount of time will admit of. Mr Lawson is a successful foreman in his way, has the respect of his men. I was also at Mr John Ward's camp on the Burnt Hill. Both these camps belong to M Welsh, and are depot camps. Being a stranger, personally, to Mr Ward, and having no invitation from himself to call at his camp, I felt somewhat reluctant to visit him. However, upon the advice of J W Lawson I concluded to make Mr Ward a call. Indeed he welcomed me most cordially and invited me to preach to his men, a thing I was not backward about, in my own way of doing it. The men themselves conducted the singing which was strong and spiritual. Altogether it was a most gratifying service to myself, and I trust a profit to all present. The congregation consisted of 47 men. These two camps form the centre of M Welsh's operation, (excluding his contractors.) The cooks here are happy, cheerful going men, who look well after the culinary department. Mr Newton Lindsay of Frederickton is Mr Lawson's cook. Amos, the cookee, here is a fine going boy and is a general favourite among the men. Mr Rutledge, of St John, with Isaac Hunter cookee, are in Mr Ward's camp and supply the inner man with an abundance of good things. These are good cooks and know their business well. In fact all the camps I visited have men, as cooks, who provide healthy, palatable food. These being depot camps. Besides the Bosses, there are men who have charge of the store houses. William Love jun., son of W Love of Glassville, is clerk at Lawson's camp. Sandy Owens is clerk at Ward's camp, and both are young men wide awake to business. No man can form anything like a correct idea of the amount of provision now being stored for the commencement of next year's operation, without being present to witness it for himself. The provisions now being stored and shipped to supply the men and teams about four months, amount to 400 barrels of flour, 8,000,000 bushels of oats, 50 casks mollasses and numberless other things in proportion. I also visited a number of camps run by contractors. Woodford Craig; Belyea Bros; Tompkins Bros; Stickney, Brooks & Co; W A Hayward and J B Craig. J B Craig was at his home in Rockland when I came to his camp, but his sons were there and arranged for the services. I was among them seven days, and as a tangible token of their appreciation for the services given them, I shall soon enjoy the comfort of a new coon coat.

MEDUCTIC.

Rev Mr Baker of St John has been holding special meetings in the Reformed Baptist church at Lower Southampton. Rev Mr Sherwood of Gibson has charge of the church there and at Meductic.

Rev Mr Williams has taken charge of the F C Baptist church at this place.

Rev Mr Todd is now holding weekly services in the Baptist church. The L O L of Meductic march to church on Sunday next at three o'clock, when Rev Mr Todd will preach an appropriate sermon.

The old superior school has changed teachers. Mr Girdwood has had charge of the school for nine years. He has gone to the superior school at North Head, Grand Manan. He is succeeded by A E Pearson of Apohaqui, Kings county.

Lack of lumbering caused by low prices is making business dull along the river this winter.

Formerly people of Meductic hauled tan bark to Benton, but prices have been lowered fifty cents per cord and that just eats up the profit, so nothing is being done in tan bark.

Miss Moore is lying dangerously ill. Dr Watson of Houlton is in attendance.

E Moore, who has invented a number of things, has just completed and is now having patented at Ottawa and Washington an electric switch for electric railways. He has had it at Woodstock, and finds it works perfectly when attached to the dynamo. He is now at Washington. He has been offered a good figure by a Woodstock man for a half interest.

Two Mormon elders are holding special meetings in this community.—St John Sun.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

The denominational committee of the Christian Baptists met in the city yesterday afternoon and evening and transacted some routine business. It was decided to ask that their act of incorporation be amended to change the name to Free Baptists dropping the Christian. This will be opposed by a sect known as Orserites who call themselves 'Free Baptists' but then the F C B denomination prevented them from taking that name at a former session of the legislature and who are again applying for incorporation this year under the same name. The Free Christian Baptists are stronger in number and influence but the Orserites are strong in the determination to use the name by which they say they have always been called.—St. John Gazette.

THE SURGEON FOILED.

Wanted to Perform an Operation.

DR. CHASE'S KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS RENDERED IT UNNECESSARY.

Too many doctors are too ready to use the knife. Many a one is sacrificed on the altar of a surgeon's ambition to operate who could be saved by the use of Dr. Chase's K-L Pills. The case of MRS. W. B. AIKEN, of Zephyr, Ont., is one in point. Her husband says that she had been doctoring with several doctors for Inflammation of the Bladder for over a year.

"The last bottle I got from the doctor he said if that did her no good she would be compelled to have an operation performed. I luckily picked up a sample of Dr. Chase's K-L Pills in Mr. Daffoe's store, and my wife took one pill that night and one in the morning, and she has never felt the least sign of pain since. I will always keep Dr. Chase's Pills in my house for all our family complaints."

A Lumberman's Life.

Constantly Exposed to Inclement Weather.

He Falls An Easy Victim to Rheumatism and Kindred Troubles—A Twenty Years' Sufferer Tells How He Found Relief.

From the Richibucto, N. B., Review.

Mr. William Murray, of Cormiersville, N. B. is an old and respected farmer, and a pioneer settler of the thriving little village he now makes his home. While Mr. Murray was yet a young man, he, together with his father and brother, founded one of the best mill properties to be seen in those early days. The mills consisted of a sawmill and gristmill, and were operated and managed by the two brothers. Labor saving appliances being then comparatively unknown, the young men were exposed to dangers and difficulties almost unknown to the present generation. One of the greatest evils in connection with the business was exposure to the wet and cold, which, though unheeded at the time, have crippled its victims with rheumatism. In a late conversation regarding his disease, Mr. Murray told the following story of his long misery and final cure by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills: "For over twenty years I have been a sufferer from rheumatism. I attribute the cause of the disease to the time when as a young man I worked at our mills. In the winter we would haul logs on the pond where the alternate thaws and frosts of early spring would imbed them in the ice and slush. When the time came for starting up the mill I would go out on the pond sometimes in water up to my knees and work away from morning till night, chopping logs out of the slush and ice. I was generally wet from head to foot, and every second night of the week, I would, without changing my clothes, stay up and run the mill till daybreak. So you see I was for two days at a time in a suit of partially wet clothes, and this would last till the ice had melted in the pond. After a few years rheumatism fastened itself upon me as a reward for this indiscretion, and ever increasing in its malignity it at last became so bad that for weeks in succession I could only go about with crutches. At other times I was able to hobble about the house by the aid of two canes, and again at other times it would ease off a little and I was able to do a little work, but could never stand it for more than a couple of hours at a time. The least bit of walking in damp weather would overcome me and I remember one stormy night when I tried to walk from Cocagne Bridge to my home a distance of five miles, that I had to sit down by the roadside six times to ease the terrible pain that had seized my legs. During all those years of agony I think I tried all the patent medicines I could get hold of, but they did me no good at all. I consulted doctors, but my sufferings remained undiminished. In the fall of 1895 I went to a doctor in Buctouche to see if there were any means by which I might at least be eased of my suffering. The doctor said frankly, "Mr. Murray you cannot be cured, nothing can cure you." I was not satisfied and then I determined to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I procured half a dozen boxes and began taking them at once. I soon felt a change for the better and after my supply had been finished I got another half dozen boxes and continued taking them according to directions. That dozen boxes was all I took and you see me now. I am alive and smart and can do any kind of work. I did my farming this spring and could follow the plough for days without feeling any rheumatic pains. Yes Dr. Williams' Pink Pills did me a world of good and I strongly recommend them for the cure of rheumatism.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills create new blood, build up the nerves, and thus drive disease from the system. In hundreds of cases they have cured after all other medicines had failed, thus establishing the claim that they are a marvel among the triumphs of modern medical science. The genuine Pink Pills are sold only in boxes, bearing the full trade mark, "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People." Protect yourself from imposition by refusing any pill that does not bear the registered trade mark around the box.

GENERAL BOOTH.

General Booth was in St. John on Tuesday and addressed a large concourse of people, many of whom were of course Salvationists. There were a large number of Army Officers in the city. Gen. Booth is beginning a Canadian tour and is accompanied by his daughter, Miss. Eva.

PRIZE FIGHTING

There was fought last night, a few miles out of the city of Montreal a prize fight in which a French-Canadian, a man named Louis Harrell, was pitted against an Irishman named Whalen. There were about sixty persons present, and this disgusting exhibition resulted in Whalen knocking out his antagonist in eight rounds. Both were badly punished.

Professor Charles G D Roberts has retired from the editorial staff of the Illustrated American, New York, and for the next three months he will devote himself to completing the new novel, to be called 'A Sister to Evangeline,' which he now has well under way. It will be a romance of Canadian life and several of the characters in the first work will reappear. Since going to New York Professor Roberts has been joined by two of his young brothers, William Carman and Theodore both of whom have been appearing frequently in the periodicals of late with contributions of prose and verse. Theodore Roberts lately became associated with The Independent.

A Runing Sore Pronounced Incurable by Eight Doctors—Cured by Dr. Chase.

Mr R D Robbins, 148 Cowan Ave, Toronto, says:—"I had a bad leg which was simply unsightly. From below the knee to the ankle was one great sore. Eight doctors treated me without benefit. I was induced to try Dr Chase's Ointment which cured me, and all that remains to be seen are the scars."
