DR. PRESTON IS ARRESTED ON GRAVE CHARGE

Funeral of Edith Clark is Postponed; Autopsy is Made

Howard D. Camp Locked Up on Suspicion in Connection With Alleged Malpractice Case—Coroner Berryman Orders Disinterment of Laura Jennings of Carleton, Whose Death was Certified by Dr. Preston as Due to Septicæmia.

The charges against Dr. Preston appeared on the police books as follows:—

"Arrested on suspicion of having at the city of St. John, in the county of St. John, unlawfully used certain instruments or instruments upon the person of one Edith Clark with intent and there to cause the miscarriage of the said Edith Clark."

The charge against Camp on the police books reads: "Arrested on suspicion of having at the city of St. John, in the county of St. John, counselled and procured the unlawful use of a certain instrument or instruments upon the person of one Edith Clark with intent and there to cause miscarriage of the said Edith Clark."

Miss Clark was 24 years old and daughter of Robert Clark, of Adelaide street. Her funeral was postponed on Coroner Berryman's orders because of the developments and in order that an inquest might be held. Another circumstance in connection with the death of Miss Clark is the fact that no death certificate was filed and that there was no inquest held.

Rev. Mr. McKim Talks of the Case

Rev. Mr. McKim, who was called by the coroner to attend the funeral of Miss Clark, said that he had been consulted by the coroner in connection with the death of Miss Clark. He said that he had been asked to perform a post-mortem examination on the body of Miss Clark, but that he had declined to do so because of the suspicion that she had been unlawfully aborted.

McCully in regard to his knowledge in connection with signature on the recognizances. The recognizances had been taken by the defendant in the barroom of the Kings County Hotel in St. John, N. B., on April 19, 1904.

The Girl's Stepmother Inter-Viewed

Mrs. Robert Clark is the stepmother of deceased girl. She informed a Telegraph reporter yesterday that her daughter had been ill about a fortnight ago. She said she was led to believe that the girl was suffering from congestion of the lungs.

Dr. Preston's Arrest

Dr. Preston was arrested at his office about 2:30 o'clock by Deputy Chief Jenkins and Detective Killen. He had nothing to say when arrested and went quietly along with the officers. Camp was arrested about 3 o'clock by Sergeant Patrick. During the afternoon a man called at central station and handed to Deputy Chief Jenkins a bottle of rye whiskey, with the request that it be given to Dr. Preston. The request was refused. About 6 o'clock Burton L. Gerow, of the law firm of Morrill & Gerow, by permission of Chief Clark, advised street clerk, and had a short talk with Messrs. Morrill & Gerow will act for Dr. Preston.

Camp Arrested at Funeral House

The funeral was to have been held yesterday afternoon, and there was quite an assembly of mourners, among them Howard D. Camp, who is now under arrest. A little after noon, Police Sergeant Kilpatrick received instructions to arrest Camp, and he proceeded at once to the Clark house.

Autopsy Performed

Between the hours of 4 and 6 o'clock Friday afternoon an autopsy was performed on the body of Miss Clark by Dr. G. A. Addy. It took place at the home of the deceased girl in Adelaide street, and Dr. J. H. Scammell assisted.

If any wonder that people leave St. John, take the case of a man worth $50,000 well secured income. On that, which would amount to say $2,000, he would pay in rent $400, and taxes about $800 or $1,200, leaving to say the least, an excess of $700. Or, a man dying leaves his widow the same amount. She cannot possibly remain in St. John, but must move away and premises occupied by them become vacant.

Now take a case of the same kind in the city of Montreal; the probable rent of the place there would be about $400; he pays in rental tax $30, and water tax $30, a total of $60, which leaves out of his income of $2,000, say $1,540, to live upon. Now there is a different law of assessment in St. John, Fredericton, St. Stephen, Woodstock and other places, and no two alike, and it alike applied differently, why should not the government of the province frame a general law the same as they have done in Ontario, so that when a man gets old and retires from business he can remain where he has always lived? He would not have to pay for his property, and his property would be paid for by the government of the province when taken together. HAVE BEEN TAXPAYER BUT GONE. Somerville (Mass.), Dec. 1.

FREDERICTON'S HEALTH

There has been a great deal of talk in the various centres of the province about the sanitary condition of Fredericton, and the danger incurred by students in attendance at the various institutions of learning. It is a matter of regret that the remedial measures proposed by the corporation of Fredericton, and the removal of the institutions from Fredericton altogether, is not a feasible one, as far as the university at least is concerned. This institution has three large and costly buildings, and it is not possible to remove them; again if the university were moved to another place, it would be a great loss to the city. BLACKWOOD ACQUITTED

MANSLAUGHTER CHARGE

Blackwood took the stand in his own defence and in substance he claimed that he was on his way home when he met the victim on the fatal night. A few moments after coming up to the party they were making inquiries as to game when a man said, "Your gun is cocked." He repeated himself several times, and took it from my arm to examine it, when just at that moment it discharged. "I turned round and saw an awful sight. The boy was lying in the water and I don't know whether he was dead or not. I don't know where Howard is. I would prefer having him here."

ANNOUNCEMENT. Following the receipt and publication of Mr. David Russell's letter condemning Mayor White for his refusal to provide at the public meeting in connection with the electric lighting, the resignation of Mr. John Russell, jr., president of the Telegraph and Times Publishing Company, and Messrs. E. W. McCready and A. M. Belding, editors of the Telegraph and The Times respectively, were placed in Mr. David Russell's hands.

EDINBURGH'S WAY. Concerning Edinburgh's success with its municipal ownership and operation of electric lighting the Toronto World says: Edinburgh, as regards municipal ownership, is the most conservative of British cities. The only public utility entirely in the hands of the city council is the supply of electricity for lighting and power purposes, although the water and gas systems are practically under the control of public boards, consisting of commissioners for the burghs and companies interested.

ELECTRICITY TO SAVE THE FORESTS. A month ago a decision of much importance was given in the checker court by which a Quebec lumberman was awarded $55,000 damages against the Dominion government because sparks from an engine on the Intercolonial railway had set fire to a timber limit. This has been followed during the past few days by the commencement of an action by Gillies Brothers, Ontario lumbermen, against the Ontario government for damages alleged to have been caused to their timber limit in Nipissing district by the Trans-Canada and Northern Ontario Railway, which is owned by the government.

PERJURY EXTRAORDINARY. Everybody knew that many of the prominent men called at witnesses before the New York insurance committee had lied under oath, but it remained for one American newspaper to characterize this lying satisfactorily and offer some explanation of it. The Brooklyn Eagle is the journal referred to. It says in the course of an editorial on "Perjury": "The multiplicity of oaths is intended to secure truth and to prevent perjury. It apparently defies truth and multiplies perjury. The history of test oaths under governments is replete with proof of this. It is the result of any principle carried to excess. When capital punishment in Great Britain was inflicted for a large number of cases, now regarded as relatively petty and as deserving of only minor punishment, the extreme penalty of the law was not a deterrent to offenses, but insured a multiplication of them.

TARIFF FAIR PLAY. That argument against a high tariff is not an attack upon the industries of Canada should be evident enough. In some quarters, however, the matter does not appear to be so understood. The Ottawa Journal (Ind.) quotes the following from the high protectionist Mail and Empire: "With increased violence does the Toronto Globe pursue its campaign against the industries of Canada, and the thousands of people who live by them?"

TEACHERS' SALARIES. Mr. William E. Curtis, in the Chicago Record Herald, gives the following impressive statement on the subject of school teachers' salaries: "The following table, showing the average salaries paid to school teachers in the several States, is taken from the report of the United States Commissioner of Education for 1903. Commissioner Harris calls them 'males' and 'females'; I suppose he means men and women. For some reason unexplained, no returns are given for New York, New Jersey, Maryland and other States."

NOTE AND COMMENT. We are to have a late session of Parliament and a long tariff discussion, evidently. The Tariff Commission has been expected to visit the Maritime Provinces early in the new year.

ILLITERACY IN THE UNITED STATES. According to a bulletin issued last week by the Census Bureau, at Washington, about 106 persons out of 1,000 in the United States, over ten years old, are unable to write, which is equivalent to about one in ten. Of the native white population only forty-six out of every 1,000, or fewer than one in twenty; of the foreign born and Negroes 445 out of every 1,000 are illiterate.
