NEW RECORDS IN PRODUCE PRICES

Every farmer bears a smile these days, except a few chronic whiners who, because hay was a light crop, are like the natural born pessimist who cannot see the doughnut but only the vacant hole therein. Prices all around have never been better. In potatoes the country is literally saved, for another year of low prices, as was last year, would mean the entire ruin of many. During the past two weeks farmers have come in with 20 barrels and received $35 therefor. All last season the same loads brought only $8. Some difference—eh?

In sheep and lambs the season has been remarkable. The other day one farmer was paid $13.80 for a pair of twin lambs. The price per pound is 6 cents live weight. One man set a new place for sheep-raising in Carleton county. This was Wm. Kimball of Armand who drove in 112 sheep and lambs and filled a car full. He embarked in the business only last year and made more than 100 per cent profit on his outlay.

On Saturday Harry Gillin, left for Montreal with a bunch of swine for which he had paid the farmers $3300. The price paid was 8 cents live weight. Compare with this the fact that a few years ago—17 years, to be exact—dressed pork sold at 34 cents!

Throughout the country there is an immense crop of oats, so the price is not what had been looked for, 35 cents being the rate per bushel this week.

Hay is going at $12 to $14 and is not likely to be higher. While the crop in Carleton county is light, the chief hay-raising counties, Kings and Westmoreland, never had a bigger yield, so the market will be well supplied. Farmers are advised that there is no prospect of either hay or oats going higher.

While during the past week as high as $2.00 was paid for potatoes the market did not warrant anything like the figure. Prices eased down to $1.60 this week, but what a price, even at that! Toronto markets are decidedly easier and the Cuban market is adversely affected. But potato prices are pretty sure to be high just the same.

Packed butter, good quality, brings 25 to 26 cents. Eggs bring 26 cents.

Dressed pork is bringing 10 cents, and chickens 14.

GADSBY ON ROYAL COMMISSIONS

Ottawa, October 19.—At a time when the average Canadian is squeezing every cent and cutting out the frills to keep down expenses the Borden Government is going in for extra hired help in a generous, not to say lavish, fashion.

Without much strain on the mind, it is possible to recall at least half a dozen Royal Commissions—which is the big name they give their hired help—who are now being paid to do what is really the Government's work.

Just a few off the top. There is the Davidson Commission whose duty is to follow up, amplify and extend the revelations made before the Public Accounts Committee. The Purchasing Commission which is to cleanse and elevate the business of buying army supplies, and free it from the breath of scandal. The Shell Commission which is to play the shell game for Canada in an honest and efficient manner. The unemployment Commission, which tells the working man that God moves in a mysterious way, but mostly in alternate cycles of seven fat and seven lean years. The Marketing Commission which aims to provide the wheat farmer with kind words in lieu of transportation facilities. The High Cost of Living Commission, which drew up a report but never printed it because it was overshadowed by the high cost of dying in Europe. The Better Terms for British Columbia Indians Commission, whose function is to prevent the red man being skinned alive unless the B. C. Government gets its share. The Ferguson Commission, whose mission was to unearth dead Grit sins, ransacking the cemetery, as it were, for the gold fillings. The Georgian Bay Canal Commission, which serves its chief purpose when it links up that amiable philosopher Sanford Evans with a Government job. The—but what's the use of stringing out the list of those present? Suffice it is to say that Royal Commissions are almost as prevalent as sausages.

All these Royal Commissions are at work but there is some doubt as to whether they are earning their money. Take the Davidson Commission for example. It consists of one man, a Quebec Judge, Sir Chas. Peers Davidson. An opinion grows that for a gentleman whose middle name is Peers he might peer more deeply and widely than the facts appear to indicate. The Davidson Commission is following up the scandal all right, but that is about all. It keeps strictly in the footsteps of the Public Accounts Committee, covers the same ground, and doesn't budge from the middle of the road to see what is behind the hedge. A good and faithful Royal Commission, that won't hurt anybody that hasn't been hurt before.

Reports from British Columbia tend to show that the interesting transaction of the two submarines purchased in a moment of inspiration by Sir Richard McBride, and billed to Canada at $1,150,000 is being scrutinized as between gentlemen. Suspicion cannot live in that genial atmosphere. Sir Richard appears and handsomely denies everything. Nobody seems to wish to bring that dignified and beautiful head of early grey hair in sorrow to the grave.

So far, as can be seen at this distance, the chief facts remain unexplained, and no satisfactory answer is given to questions like these. Why did Sir Richard telegraph to Ottawa first that the price was to be $1,050,000, and then send a second telegram raising the ante another hundred thousand? Why was the check split two ways? Why, moreover, was $1,150,000 for two bargain counter submarines that Chili turned down at $750,000? To all these questions, echo answers, why?

At all events only faint replies are made, as for example when Manager Patterson, of the Seattle Drydock and Construction Co., explains that Chili didn't get the boats, because Chili was broke, which is probably news to Chili. Chili declares that she refused the boats because they were better divers than swimmers—that is to say when they went down they wanted to stay down, and couldn't be coaxed up short of wrecking tugs and steel cables. But now that Sir Chas. Davidson has been down in one of them and has come to the top again, the Chilian contention may be held to have been disproved. When a High Court Judge consents to act as Jonah to a tin whale he must be pretty sure of

LEADERS IN THE PRODUCE BUSINESS

If there is any idea among farmers that the produce dealers are making an undue profit off them, it must be remembered that these produce dealers are not only paying out great sums to the farmers but their operating expenses amount to great sums.

The buyers along the St. John valley give employment to hundreds of men and thereby support scores of families. And all this makes business.

Hatfield & Scott of Hartland are probably the largest dealers in Canada. They have buyers located at 40 points on the C.P.R., N.T.R. and the Valley Railway.

They have 20 store houses, and altogether employ from 60 to 75 men. They have a weekly wage bill amounting upwards to $600.

Besides potatoes Hatfield & Scott do also a large business in hay, oats and butter.

At Hartland, alone, eight people are employed. Three of these comprise the office staff, A. W. Kyle, Miss Lide Reid and Miss Robinson. The office is splendidly equipped with modern devices and through it is handled business aggregating upwards of a million dollars a year.

This firm is not the only one doing big business. Prominent among others may be mentioned Porter, Manzer Co. of Perth, McCain Produce Co. and B. F. Smith of East Florenceville, Bohan Bros. of Bath, and many other buyers. In this district the buying of produce has every other industry beaten for annual cash turn-over.

Canadian Pictorial

This elegant magazine delights the eye while it instructs the mind concerning the picturesque doings of an interesting and highly entertaining world.

Its war pictures are well worth the money.

Each issue is literally crowded with highest quality of photographs, many of them worth framing.

It is the "most popular" "Pick-me-up" on the waiting room tables of the leading doctors throughout the Dominion, and in the big public libraries it is literally "used up" by the many who are attracted by its entertaining and beautiful pages.

It's a "love at sight" publication and it has departmental features of great interest to the young woman and the homemaker.

Of it—just to quote one man's praise from among thousands—the late Rt. Hon. Lord Strathcona, wrote:

"The 'Canadian Pictorial' is a publication which, if I may be permitted to say so, is a credit to Canada." (Signed) STRATHCONA.

RHEUMATISM ARRESTED

Many people suffer the tortures of lame muscles and stiffened joints because of impurities in the blood, and each succeeding attack seems more acute until rheumatism has invaded the whole system.

To arrest rheumatism it is quite as important to improve your general health as to purify your blood, and the cod liver oil in Scott's Emulsion is nature's great blood-maker, while its medicinal nourishment strengthens the organs to expel the impurities and rebuild your strength.

Scott's Emulsion is helping thousands every day who could not find other relief. Refuse the alcoholic substitutes.

THE OPTIMISM OF ADVERTISING

Two things make advertising almost a synonym for "optimism." One is that the advertiser would be successful must be an optimist. The other is that when an advertiser loses his optimism he generally cancels his advertising.

"Business is rotten" exclaims the manufacturer, and forthwith orders all his advertising to be stopped, little realizing that his own action is one of the causes which makes business "rotten." Cancelling advertising is so easy that it is nearly always the first step toward retrenchment. This matter is seldom decided on its merits. It is impulse. Advertising must be "an expense," the advertiser reasons. Therefore, to cut it off effects a saving.

The stopping of advertising during times of stress and change has two bad effects upon the business involved. It turns off immediately a method of securing and holding old business. In addition to that, it advertises the pessimistic views of the advertiser, and therefore spreads his own lack of faith in himself, his goods, his country, and the future, to other business men who are, perhaps, also on the verge of doing the same thing.

The point is that the war will either end everything in the world or it will not. If it does not, business, among other things must go on. It cannot wait until the war is over.

There are very few articles that we cannot make or produce. We have now an opportunity to find out what we can do. All of these new resources will develop business. —Contract Record.

CANADA MUST DO MORE

In order that the war may be brought to a speedy and successful conclusion Canada must do more, far more than she yet has done. A despatch from Ottawa says: "Lord Kitchener's call for 3,000,000 men and the urgent necessity of recruiting in order to bring the war to a speedy and successful conclusion is taken as involving the need of Canada contributing a more effective quota than at present."

"It is reasonable to anticipate that in the course of a few weeks or at any event before long, authority will be issued for raising additional troops in this country. By spring it is probable that upwards of 200,000 will have been enlisted or will be in process of recruiting."

"At the present time about 140,000 men have been enlisted. There are 60,000 at the front, 30,000 in England, 32,000 training in Canada, about 10,000 doing guard duty in different parts of the dominion, while to this should be added 10,000 casualties, probably half of the victims having been able to return to the front."

REMARKABLE NEW AUTO

The auto sensation the coming season will be the new Chevrolet Six-Ninety, made in Toronto, and obtainable in Hartland for $695. This car at low price has all its competitors beaten to a standstill. Of 102 inch wheel base, and with the beautiful streamline body, it has all the appearance and grace of the higher-priced car of the 1916 model which have been seen here. Its engine is the valve-in-head type, of 26 horse-power, and is exactly the same as in the Buick. The car is fully equipped with electric starter, lights and horn, mohair top, cantilever springs, three speeds forward and reverse, and in fact all the good features of the higher-priced cars, which it simulates in appearance.

This beautiful car is to be sold in Hartland by H. N. Dickinson and A. W. Glass, who will have one on exhibition early in the new year. The local dealers will instruct purchasers in the running of the car and will also give the service of the Glass garage when needed.

The Chevrolet (pronounced shev-ro-lay) is fully the equivalent of many of the cars costing more than $1000—it is a high-grade car sold at the right price. The Chevrolet is bound to be the talk of motorists next season. That it is made in Canada by Canadians is a good point.

Rev. Dr. Heine at Glassville

On Monday evening Dr. Roscoe Heine, representative of the Canadian Branch of the British and Foreign Bible Society, visited the Glassville district on his annual tour. A large number assembled in the Presbyterian church to hear his statement. After singing, reading of Scripture and prayer, in which the Rev. James Colhoun led, Dr. Heine was introduced to the audience and proceeded to give very interesting account of the work of the Bible Society in the Maritime Provinces. He also referred to the distribution of the New Testament to the soldiers from Canada; and pointed out the fact that through this present war is so terrible in its wastage of life and property, it is means of spreading the gospel amongst the nations affected by the war. An offering was taken up and collectors appointed, after which the meeting concluded with praise, prayer and the benediction.

Produce Prices

Local dealers on Wednesday were paying the following prices for county produce:

A. L. Baird, Scott Sipprell, H. A. Sipprell and A. B. Curtis left on Thursday last for a hunting expedition, making their headquarters at the club-house at Miramichi. A report that came in last night stated they had secured a deer apiece and smaller game. They intend returning on Saturday.

On Tuesday a party of fourteen ladies and two gentlemen came up from Woodstock to make an ante-nuptial call on Rev. and Mrs. Franchette. They were entertained at lunch by Mrs. P. Graham. A dainty lunch was also served by Mrs. Franchette before the party left on the evening express.

Wednesday evening, at the residence of the officiating clergyman, Rev. N. Franchette, the marriage took place of Louis Paul of Moniac and Miss Violet Butterfield of Holmesville. The couple were unattended. They will reside at Holmesville.

Coldstream Ripples

Rev. I. E. Vanwart is at Truro at present where he went to attend a convention.

Mrs. Enoch Estabrooks has returned from Sussex where she attended the missionary convention. She also visited the camp grounds where her son Claude is stationed in the 64th Battalion.

Mrs. I. E. Vanwart also attended the missionary convention. Her two sons are stationed there in the 88th.

Sandy Hayward enlisted in the 88th last week. We were all sorry to see him go as he was a great favorite in the community.

Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Hagerman of Hartland visited at the home of Enoch Estabrooks last Sunday.

The work on the church is progressing under the skilful hands of Geo. Nicholson and his helpers. Miss Sarah Stephenson was visiting friends in this place recently.

Miss Helen Estabrooks of this place, who teaches school at Clarkville, spent Thanksgiving at home.

Robert Derrah and Miss Ella Vanwart, teachers of the school here, attended the Teachers' Institute at Grand Falls last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Page and party came by auto from Williamstown on Sunday and visited at the home of S. S. Page.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hayward, sr., are visiting at the home of their son W. A. Hayward, jr., at Long Settlement.

Sad Death of Edith McCain

Her friends at Florenceville were pained to hear last week of the death at Calgary of Miss Edith McCain, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allison McCain who went west a few months ago. Her death was caused directly by pneumonia but she never had fully recovered from an attack of measles some time previously. She was about 24 years of age and much beloved by a large circle of friends.

The saddened parents brought the remains to Florenceville, arriving there on Monday, and the funeral was held that afternoon, and was very largely attended.

Address and Presentation

On Wednesday evening of last week a number of the members of the Reformed Baptist church and Sunday school gathered at the home of George Tedlie, Lower Brighton, to pay respects to his daughter Miss Jessie H., who on the following day left for a visit with friends and relatives in Boston and Lowell. A very pleasant evening was spent with music, etc., at the close of which Mrs. B. W. Brown, on behalf of those assembled, presented Miss Tedlie with an address and a purse of money. This was in appreciation of her services as organist in church and Sunday school and her earnest work therein. The event came to Miss Tedlie as a complete surprise.

AKES OFF DANDRUFF, HAIR STOPS FALLING

Save your Hair! Get a 25 cent bottle of Danderine right now—Also stops itching scalp.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store. You surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine. Save your hair! Try it!

NEWS OF BATH

Mrs. J. R. Tracy left on Saturday to visit her niece, Mrs. Lang, nee Miss Wheeler, of Lowell.

Mrs. Geo. Stevens also left on Saturday for her home in Lynn, Mass., and Mrs. Archie Knowles for her home in Boston.

Among the teachers of Bath and vicinity who attended the Teachers' Institute in Grand Falls last week were Thos. Pickard and Misses Pickard, McSheffry and Whalen.

F. C. Squiers, Woodstock, called at Bath on Friday on his return from Teachers' Institute.

Bert Hartsgrove left for Sussex on Saturday, and J. W. Wilcox of Woodstock passed through Bath on his way to Valcartier.

James Peters of Florenceville was a caller in Bath on Saturday.

Guy Barker, of Easton, Me., spent Sunday in Bath.

Rev. V. M. Purdy spoke in the Baptist church on Sunday evening on behalf of the Maritime Home for girls.

Mrs. McLaughlin and little daughter and Miss Sylvia Cronkite were visiting Miss Kathleen Boban last week.

Potato Products Company Operating Soon

About 20 men are engaged in the building of the Potato Products Company at Woodstock, putting in the necessary fixtures for the handling of potatoes, and the machinery for running the plant. The building is a large one, and the company is making these alterations at a heavy expense. It has already a large quantity of potatoes on hand and expects to start manufacturing potato flour in about a week.

Hatfield & Scott are the chief promoters of this industry.

GIVE "SYRUP OF FIGS" TO CONSTIPATED CHILD

Delicious "Fruit Laxative" can't harm tender little stomach, liver and bowels.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing at once. When peevish, cross, listless, doesn't sleep, eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad, has sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the food, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups.

BRINGING UP CHILDREN.

There Are Some Curious Customs in This Queer World.

There has been much discussion over the proper bringing up of children, but ideas continue to differ. And the farther you get away from home the stranger the ideas seem.

The Filipino father cries out with proud delight as his three-year-old girl baby takes her first step.

Among the Seri Indians of the Gulf of California the father is the last one expected to have any influence on the children. The mother rules the younger members of the family, and when she must enforce her authority by physical force she calls, not on the father, but on one of her brothers or some other male adult of her family. The father must never chastise his children.

A Navajo father administers punishment to his children very much as any other father does, but the Navajo boy has a means of protection denied to white boys. He has only to catch a rat by his own unaided efforts. From the moment he has accomplished this feat, no matter how young he may be, his father may not lay hands on him.

The children of the Point Barrow Eskimos have special training in politeness to foreigners. In conversing with strangers who make mistakes in the native dialect children must carefully note those mistakes and repeat them, even to imitating the wrong pronunciation of words. To speak correctly in such a case is likely to bring punishment from the parent of the child. —New York Sun.

Bright youngster.

"I've been a good boy today, haven't I, mamma?" asked the pride of the household.

"Yes, Richard. You've been a very good boy indeed."

"Aren't you going to call papa up on the phone and tell him about it?"

"Why, no; I haven't thought of it," replied his mother. "Don't you think it will be time enough to tell him when he comes home?"

"Well," said the youngster, "he might want to buy me some candy, or something for being good, and I thought we might save him the trouble of going out for it after he gets in the house." —St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

The First "Lady in Trade."

Perhaps the most notable instance on record of the feminine street trader is that of the "white widow," otherwise the Duchess of Tyconholl, the Frances Jennings of the De Grammont memoirs, who at the time of the revolution in 1688, according to Horace Walpole, "being reduced to absolute want on her arrival in England and unable for some time to procure secret access to her family, hired one of the stalls under the Royal Exchange and maintained herself by the sale of small articles of haberdashery." She wore a white dress wrapping her whole person and a white mask, which she never removed, and excited much interest and curiosity. —London Chronicle.

Rocket Camera.

The military camera of a Saxon named Maul is carried by a rocket over the landscape to be photographed. The rocket, twenty feet long and weighing fifty pounds, is mounted on a special support, which is raised to the degree necessary and aimed by means of sights, and the electrically ignited powder charge carries the rocket to a height of about 2,000 feet. As it turns to fall, exposure is made by an electromagnetic shutter worked by a small battery. Directly afterward a parachute opens, holds the camera thirty feet above the rocket, and the whole apparatus falls gently to the ground. Very distinct pictures seven inches square are obtained.

Deadly Chemical Bombs.

Hydrocyanic acid, known as prussic acid, is so poisonous that a mere breath of it means instant death. Sulphuric anhydride, when brought into contact with the air combines rapidly with moisture absorbed from the air, producing sulphuric acid. Thrown in a bomb with just explosive charge enough to disrupt the bomb and scatter the sulphuric anhydride, the air for a large space about the explosion would be at once converted into a dense fog of sulphuric acid. Liquid ammonia, similarly employed, would instantly so impregnate the atmosphere with ammonia as to strangle all persons in the immediate vicinity. Ammonia is absolutely irrespirable.

Can't Be Done.

"Mrs. Giddy has invited all the members of the sewing circle to a luncheon and matinee party."

"Doesn't she know they have been gossiping about her something awful?"

"If course she does. That's the reason she's trying to square the circle." —New York World.

Practice Makes Perfect.

Hobson—I never in all my life saw a man who could so readily guess riddles and conundrums as that Henry Peck. Dobson—No wonder! Just think of the practice he has. His wife keeps him guessing all the time. —Fuck.

The Treadmill.

The first use of the treadmill was in China, where it did service in remote times in irrigating the land. It was introduced into English prisons in 1817 as a means of punishment.

Failure after much perseverance is better than never to have had a striving worth calling a failure.

Successful Hunting Trip.

Perley Shaw, Fred Thornton and James Dickinson returned on Friday from a successful hunting trip on the headwaters of the Becaguimac. They brought with them the biggest moose that has been taken from that region this year. The animal, which attracted much attention on its arrival here, bore the marks of three rifle shots.

James Lindsay of Cloverdale acted as guide for the party. The boys speak very highly in his favor and say that he sure did give them some good time. Besides the moose there was bagged an average of five partridge a day, a porcupine, and a big owl. It is presumed the latter was served "biled."

SOUR, ACID STOMACHS, CASES OF INDIGESTION

Each "Pape's Diaphepsin" digests 3000 grains of food, ending all stomach misery in five minutes.

Time it! In five minutes all stomach distress will go. No indigestion, heartburn, sourness or belching of gas, acid, or cructations of undigested food, no dizziness, bloating, foul breath or headache.

Pape's Diaphepsin is noted for its speed in regulating upset stomachs. It is the surest, quickest stomach remedy in the whole world and besides it is harmless. Put an end to stomach trouble forever by getting a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diaphepsin from any drug store. You realize in five minutes how needless it is to suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia or any stomach disorder. It's the quickest, surest and most harmless stomach doctor in the world.

Free Until 1916

Have you subscribed yet for The Youth's Companion for 1916? Now is the time to do it, if you are not already a subscriber, for you will get all the issues for the remaining weeks for 1915 free from the time your subscription with $2.25 is received.

The fifty-two issues of 1916 will be crowded with good reading for young and old. Reading that is entertaining, but not "wishy-washy." Reading that leaves you when you lay the paper down, better informed, with keener aspirations, with a broader outlook on life. The Companion is a good paper to tie to if you have a growing family—and for general reading, as Justice Brewer once said, no other is necessary.

If you wish to know more of the brilliant list of contributors, British as well as American, who will write for the new volume in 1916, and if you wish to know something of the new stories for 1916, let us send you free the Forecast for 1916.

Every new subscriber who sends $2.25 for 1916 will receive, in addition to this year's free issues, The Companion Home Calendar for 1916.

THE YOUTH'S COMPANION, Boston, Mass.

10 CENT "CASCARETS" IF BILIOUS OR COSTIVE

For Sick Headaches, Sour Stomach, Sluggish Liver and Bowels—They work while you sleep.

Furred Tongue, Bad Taste, Indigestion, Sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a swill barrel. That's the first step to unkind misery—indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascaret to-night will give your constipated bowels a thorough cleansing and straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist will keep you feeling good for months.

To Return West Soon

Mrs. Annie Billings of Butte City, Montana is visiting in Woodstock, having returned from visiting relatives in Central Hainesville and Cloverdale. After visiting in Woodstock and Bridgewater she expects to start for Butte, taking her mother, Mrs. Geo. McCrae of Bannock, with her. On the way they will visit in Lowell and Worcester, Mass., also in New York City.

Justice of Peace Praises Dr. Chase's Ointment

After Nine Years of Agony He Escaped an Operation by Using This Great Healing Agent.

As a means of healing sores and wounds that defy ordinary treatment Dr. Chase's Ointment has long stood supreme. It is known far and wide as a positive cure for eczema and piles. Whatever uncertainty there may be about the results obtained by the use of medicines taken internally there can be no question of the healing of the skin when Dr. Chase's Ointment is applied. You can actually see with your own eyes just what takes place. The sore parts are cleansed, and gradually the new skin is formed and the sore becomes smaller and smaller, until it finally disappears. It is often wonderful the results which are accomplished in a single night by the use of this great healing ointment. Mr. N. A. Heath, J.P., Fitch Bay, Que., writes:—"Nine years ago I was taken with an abscess, and cannot begin to describe what I have suffered as a result. I was examined by two doctors, both of whom said I would have to undergo an operation to cure it. Thanks to Dr. Chase's Ointment, it has rendered an operation unnecessary, and has completely cured me. I cannot say enough in praise of this wonderful ointment which cured me after nine years of agony."

MR. HEATH.

Dr. Chase's Ointment, 60c. a box, all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

A Remarkable New Hay Press

Glass Bros. have received their new International hay-press and yesterday it was set up at S. R. Hayden's barn at Somerville by an erector who came from the factory for the purpose.

This new press is unlike any other seen here before, and its chief improvement is in its speed. It is guaranteed to handle 20 to 25 tons per day, while others hitherto in use pressed 8 to 10 tons. Five men are required to operate the machine: two to pitch off the mow, one to feed, and two to tie. The plunger makes nine movements a minute and the capacity of the machine rests upon the ability of the feeder. His work is easier than on the old press for he has not to tramp the hay down, an automatic feeder doing this work. The two tyers work one on each side of the press.

A six-horsepower Mogul Kerosene engine drives the mechanism.

The machine on arriving at a barn is immediately ready for operation, and in case a farmer has only six or eight tons to press the whole operation can often be done without his having to give the men a single meal.

The advantage to the farmer is in the fact that he gets his hay pressed in less than half the time ordinarily required. The cost of having hay pressed by this machine is $1.25 per ton, the usual charge.

Glass Bros., whose address is Hartland, have already contracted for pressing 1000 tons, and are open to fill any orders.

Many are watching the demonstration of the press with high interest.

Gadsby on Royal Commissions

Talking of British Columbia and Royal Commissions, reminds one of the Joint India Commission, approved by the Dominion and the British Columbia Governments. It is built largely on a sense of humor, is now in its third year, and has already cost the country over $200,000. One of its members once told me that if it were necessary in the pursuit of better terms for the British Columbia Indians, the Commissions would not hesitate to cross the ocean to England and remain at the Savoy Hotel in London, for six months while it looked up estate documents, treaties, crown grants from George the Third and similar matters.

Some men are like that—they go where duty calls and to hell with the expense.

The alleged business of the Commissions is to make a valuation of the various Indian reserves, so that the Indians will get as fair a price as they can expect from the white man in event of a sale being made. On this basis the McBride Government purchased the Kitsilano Vancouver reserve for $350,000, a fraction of its true value. Incidentally, Lawyer Read, one of Attorney General Bowser's friends, picked up $80,000 by way of commission on the deal. The Kitsilano purchase was subsequently disallowed by the Dominion Government because it had been made without consent from Ottawa, but history says nothing about Lawyer Read's commission. It probably held good. Such work as there was for a lawyer in skinning the guileless red man he did, and it's up to him to hang onto the money. The wages of skin is $80,000.

At present the Joint Commission for Better Terms for the British Columbia Indians, is working the northern part of the province. Better terms for the Indians do not necessarily interfere with high old times for the Commissioners.

During the last six months they have "conferred" with the Indian chiefs in the north, three times—a five hundred mile journey each way. The first and second times the commissioners went north they used the ordinary palace steamers of the C.P.R. and G.T.R. which ply in the Inside Passage, but on the last visit they make the trip from Victoria on the Union S.S. Co's steamer, "Cheloshin," which they chartered for $3.50 a day. This charter with side trips, and picnic interludes, will probably run three weeks. Some Charter—H. F. G.
