Mrs. BURN, St. John's College, Qu'Appelle Station, Assa., Canada.

Directions for Lady Correspondents and Local Secretaries.

Lady Correspondents should make their return to the Treasurer yearly. All remittances for any current year should be made to Messrs. Couatts before the 20th December at the latest, and the return sent in to the Treasurer, V. A. Williamson, Esq., 32, Lower Belgrave Street, S.W., as soon after as convenient. Any Lady Correspondent wanting the printed forms for making the return can be supplied on application to the Treasurer.

N.B.—All money should be paid to Messrs. Couatts, to account of "The Qu'Appelle Diocesan Fund."

NOTICES.

CHURCH NEEDLEWORK.—Workers, and subscriptions towards purchase of materials, are greatly needed.

It is requested that anyone who will undertake to do some needlework for any of the Churches, or who will contribute towards the purchase of materials, &c., will write to Mrs. Wasbrough, 13, Philbeach Gardens, S.W., who has undertaken to organise and direct the work, so that the needs of the various parishes may be, as far as possible, met systematically. Pieces of silk, velvet, &c., can be utilised if sent to Mrs. Wasbrough.

Size of all Altars in the Diocese: length 7 feet, width 2 feet 3 inches, height 3 feet 3 inches.

Correspondence about Altar linen or surplices should be addressed to Miss M. E. Hamilton, Lis Esgol, Worcester.

DIRECTIONS FOR WORKING PARTIES.—Useful and inexpensive clothing of all kinds is very acceptable. Wall pockets are much liked, also sofa cushions and pin-cushions, not stuffed. Knitted things of every description (except "helmets"), especially long comforters and mitts. A receipt for the last-named can be had on application to Mrs. Wasbrough, 13, Philbeach Gardens, S.W. Children's vests, &c., should be made with long sleeves. All woollen materials can be bought of far better quality and at a lower price in England than in Canada. If working parties would with their kind contributions also (as some have already done) send a few shillings towards the cost of shipping, &c., they would relieve the Mission funds of a considerable burden. All gifts of Church work, articles for sale, &c., will be acknowledged in the OCCASIONAL PAPER.

PARCELS.—All parcels for the Mission should be sent to Miss Mountain, who will be glad to receive contributions, however small, towards the expenses of freight. The name and address of the sender should be written on the outside of each parcel, and a letter should be sent by post at the same time, stating the contents of the parcel, the value at cost price, and the name of the person for whom it is intended (unless it is for the general use of the Mission). Articles for bazaars should not have prices affixed, as this increases the duty charged on entering Canada. Miss Mountain will be glad if each article sent is ticketed with the name of the sender. This will ensure each gift to the Mission being acknowledged on its arrival at Qu'Appelle. The kind senders of parcels are earnestly begged to pay attention to these directions, as by so doing they will save a great deal of unnecessary trouble and correspondence.

COLLECTING BOXES FOR THE MISSION, price 4d. and 6d., may be had on application to Miss Mary Garnier, Cranworth Rectory, Shipdham, Thetford.

BOOKS.—Books of all kinds are very welcome to the Clergy and others working in the Diocese. They are needed for Sunday Schools, for Parochial Libraries, and for the personal use of the Clergy, and therefore stories, biographies, travels, books of theology, &c., are equally useful. Light reading for the long winter evenings is frequently asked for. The book postage to Canada is the same as to any part of England, viz., a halfpenny for two oz. Anyone who has old books or magazines to give away, or who is willing to send new books from time to time, is asked to write in the first instance to Miss Hope, 47, Montagu Square, W., who will send the address of the parish or Clergyman to whom they will be most useful. The titles of the books should be given, and it should be stated whether they are old or new.

Contributions towards a small fund for purchasing second-hand books and cheap editions of standard works, and also towards their postage, will be gratefully received by Miss Hope.

NEWSPAPERS AND MAGAZINES.—Rev. W. E. Hobbes, Ocle Pychard Vicarage, Hereford, keeps a Register of the periodicals posted to the Qu'Appelle clergy by friends of the Mission. He will gladly send a name and address to anyone wishing to forward a newspaper or magazine.

“LOVE FOR THE CHURCH,” a sermon preached in Woolwich church by Bishop Anson, can be had on application to Mrs. Knight. Price 3d.

OCCASIONAL PAPER.—Application for copies should be made to Mrs. Knight, who can supply back numbers, if required, and to whom notice of change of address should be given.

AGENTS.

IMPORTANT NOTICES.

It is requested that all remittances to Messrs. Coutts and Co. may be paid to the "QU'APPELLE DIOCESAN FUND," before Dec. 20th, in each year.

V. A. WILLIAMSON, Treasurer.

The Editor asks to be allowed to assume that, unless a special intimation reaches her to the contrary, all those who receive this OCCASIONAL PAPER desire to continue to receive each number as it is issued ; and further, that they will undertake to contribute, in the way most convenient to themselves, a sum of NOT LESS than One Shilling a year, either as payment for this paper, or to some other fund of the Mission.

Contributions in money to any of the objects named in the OCCASIONAL PAPER may be sent at any time to Mrs. Knight, Eastnor House, Malvern Link.

Working parties and individual workers are asked to remember that knitted "helmets" are of no use in a Canadian winter. Long wide "comforters," mitts or gloves, knitted waistcoats and long stockings are all acceptable.

The Rev. L. Dawson, 3, Allerton Terrace, Chapel Allerton, Leeds, will be glad to speak at meetings for Qu'Appelle within a few hours' distance from Leeds. His freest days are Monday and Friday.

Mr. E. Passingham, South Audley Street, has platinotype photographs of the Bishop in various sizes, which it is thought that some of those interested in the Diocese may care to possess.

A letter has been received from Mrs. Burn for Mrs. Stanhope, but with no further address. Bishop Anson, who now has the letter, will forward it on receipt of the address.

THE ANNIVERSARY will be held this year (D.V.) on Wednesday, June 26th. There will be a Celebration of Holy Communion in the North-West Chapel of St. Paul's (by kind permission of the Dean and Chapter), at 8.45 a.m. Breakfast will be provided at Messrs. Evans, 75, St. Paul's Churchyard; it is requested that all who wish to be at the breakfast will inform Rev. Canon Liddell, Welton Vicarage, Daventry, before June 23rd.

The Annual Meeting will be held at the Church House, at 3 p.m. Lord Northbourne will take the chair.

Canon Liddell will be very glad if any of the Clergy who will have a Celebration for the Diocese on St. John Baptist's Day, or during the octave, will kindly let him know the date and hour of the Service.

ASSOCIATION NEWS.

Quite a new idea is a Reading Society which is to benefit Qu'Appelle. Half the money accruing from subscriptions and fines is to be given to the Mission. For rules apply to Miss L. G. Turner, Ellfield, Merlin Haven, Wotton-under-Edge, Gloucestershire.

BOURNEMOUTH LOCAL BRANCH.—A Drawing-room Meeting was held at St. Peter's Vicarage on March 5th, in aid of the Diocese of Qu'Appelle, and was well attended. After a few introductory remarks by the Vicar, Canon Fisher, the Rev. Welbury T. Mitton gave a most graphic and interesting account of the Diocese, and the nature of the work. His address was not only interesting, but earnest and spiritual, and must have gone home to the hearts of all who heard him. The Rev. J. W. Gregory, of Parkstone, who formerly worked at Regina, proposed a vote of thanks to Mr. Mitton, which was seconded by the Rev. P. M. Johnstone, one of the Assistant Clergy of St. Peter's, Bournemouth. One feature of the meeting was the exhibition of a large quantity of needlework which had been done (a great deal of it by invalids) during the previous three months. Many of these articles were not only exceedingly useful, but really valuable. We trust they will realise a good sum for the Mission when they reach their destination. We are glad to say, that since the meeting seven new Associates have been enrolled and we have reason to hope a few more are ready to join us.

LETTER FROM MRS. BURN.

*St. John's College,
Qu'Appelle Station.*

March 26, 1895.

DEAR FRIENDS,—I am very anxious to write and thank all the Associates and others who have been good enough to send out so many useful and ornamental things for the use of this Diocese. You can hardly imagine the help it is to us. Most of the parishes have a sale once a year for some Church purpose, and we make up a parcel of $50 or $60 worth of things for any parish wishing for it, as they are not able to get enough things made for a sale. Each parish has a "Ladies' Guild," which meets every week, except in the summer, and gets orders for work, or works for the annual sale. A great many of the clothes are sold privately, and of course in this case the money goes to the Diocesan Fund.

There is a great excitement when a box arrives from England; people are very anxious to look it over. Anything that is nice and a good pattern gets bought at once. Last year was the first year that I had seen the contents of the boxes, and I thought the things most beautiful and so well made. A lady told me they were the best boxes that had ever been sent out. Everything was sold off by Christmas. One of the Clergy was having a sale of work lately, the proceeds to go towards enlarging the Vicarage, which at present has only one room; it is to have one more. Also for providing a bell for the Church Services. It is a large ranching country, and people live three and four miles from the Church, so it is very necessary to have a bell. I was very sorry only to be able to send $25 worth of things, as that was all I had left.

I hear there are two boxes on their way out, which we shall be most thankful to receive, and I am hoping to get more in the course of the year. We always try to hear of some one coming out who will be good enough to bring them, then of course there is nothing to pay on them; but this cannot always be done. We are glad of anything at all; the underclothes should be made of flannelette and not of unbleached calico, if they are for the poorer people; very little calico is worn here. We can do with any amount of flannel petticoats of all sizes, and other petticoats. Children's things are always useful, and it is well to make two alike, as they buy them in pairs. All vests and children's knitted petticoats ought to have long sleeves. Pinafores in all shapes, particularly anything new and pretty, are sure to sell. Children's aprons are not much worn. There is a great demand for stockings and socks of all sizes, and comforters for children, as well as large ones. Flannel, and also strong flannelette shirts are always bought. There is a quick sale for aprons; the cooking ones ought to be to the bottom of the dress, and should nearly meet at the back, the dressy muslin aprons they like nearly to the bottom of the dress.

We should very much like some fancy things that would do for Christmas presents; anything that comes from the "Old Country" people are sure to buy. I am quite ashamed to write all this about our many wants, but people so often ask what sort of things we want that I am glad to have the opportunity of letting them know; and some one who has not already helped us might be induced to give a little time to this Diocese. If they saw how the things are appreciated they would feel more than repaid for any trouble they had taken. Another time I shall hope to send a list of the different parishes which have received parcels towards their summer sales, also the objects to which the proceeds have been devoted. I think it would be of interest to the workers.

Believe me, yours faithfully,
M. MAUD F. BURN.

FIRST IMPRESSIONS OF QU'APPELLE.

We are allowed to make extracts from a paper contributed by the Rev. W. Watson to the "All Saints' and St. Columba's Parish Magazine" (Middlesbrough).

I could not even attempt to describe the whole Diocese, it is too extensive. The little district that I travel over you will probably think is big enough when I tell you that it extends for over 200 miles east and west, and at the east end we drive twenty-three miles north to take a Service, and at the west end we have Church people living thirty-five miles south. The district is a rolling prairie, treeless, waterless, barren and uncultivated, and for the most part destitute of population. It has beauties all its own; the sky is usually clear, we have glorious sunsets, and at night time the stars shine out with a brilliancy that is almost dazzling in splendour. Withal the climate is healthy and bracing, so that we get used to the lack of pretty scenery.

I have to take a Service at the Church of St. John the Evangelist, English Village, in the Qu'Appelle Valley, twenty-three miles from Moose Jaw. After Matins I spend Saturday morning in making preparations. As it is 10° below zero, I dress, in view of a possible blizzard, in three pairs of socks inside slippers and overshoes, and three pairs of everything else, and over all a 'coon skin fur coat and cap—for further details consult a picture of an Esquimaux. At "13 o'clock" my "rig" arrives. It is a one-horse sleigh, a "jumper," driven by a corporal of the N.W. Mounted Police. The drive is very exhilarating, the trail across the snow is almost invisible for the greater part of the journey, and how my semi-military friend manages to keep to the trail is to me almost a mystery. We arrive at the settlers' a little after dark, we receive a hearty welcome, and they prepare a substantial supper. Then we have Evensong with the family, and they retire to rest, and we prepare our shakedown. My red-coated friend laughs heartily at my bed-making. He rolls himself in his blankets on the floor, but I try to make use of a couch about 5 feet long by 15 inches wide, covered with the hide and ribs of a cow, and with the aid of two or three chairs I manage to stretch myself in my blankets and snatch a little sleep. It is very similar to attempting to sleep on the top rails of a couple of five-barred gates; however, it is better than nothing. Sunday morning arrives, we put on our mocassins and trudge a mile through the snow to the little Church. Most of the congregation have already arrived in sleighs, from distances of two to six miles. In summer people come ten miles to Church. The congregation on this occasion numbers ten men and four young women, and that is about the proportion of N.W. congregations. They are all of English origin, and they join in the responses and sing heartily. As there is no organist I have to play as well as take the Service. They are very attentive. It is ten weeks since their last Service, and it will be another five before they have a Celebration, if weather permits. I ask them to stay a little while after the Service, and we have a talk about the affairs of the Church. I remarked to the churchwarden (a Cornish man), that they did not have an offertory this morning. He confessed he was ashamed to collect from them, he thought he knew what was in everybody's pocket, and he did not think there was a five-cent piece among the congregation. Notwithstanding their poverty they undertook to collect and send a sum of money to the Diocesan treasurer, and one man offered to give us a load of firewood.

I arrived back in Moose Jaw in time for Evensong. Here we have what we consider a large congregation, nearly 100 people. Last Sunday we had five Chinese and four negroes in the congregation.

Our congregations in the district which I travel over are principally composed of Canadians, English and Irish, and at Moose Jaw we also have occasionally negroes and Chinese. As I have at present five different congregations to minister to, some over 209 miles apart, it will be understood that a general description hardly applies to all alike. Moose Jaw is a C.P.R. town, with about 1,600 inhabitants. The majority of the people being C.P.R. officials have regular wages and are consequently fairly well to do, and here our people are nearly all Canadians. I have never yet been able to discover a N.W. Canadian boy with a voice to sing, so we have a few girls and men (principally English) in our Canadian choirs.

At English Village and Buffalo Lake our congregations are of English people. It is pitiable to see the struggles they make in order to induce crops to grow without rain. They are all good Churchmen, and heartily welcome and support our efforts to bring the Services of the Church near to them.

Swift Current is a little place with perhaps 150 inhabitants, 113 miles from Moose Jaw; here there are three families of English, the rest are Irish, Scotch, Canadians, and half-breeds. I hold Services in the "Knox Presbyterian Church."

But my most hopeful and cheering places are Chaplin, 56 miles from Moose Jaw, where I hold a Service in the Section House, and all the congregation are English ; and Maple Creek, a little town of about 200 inhabitants, 201 miles from Moose Jaw. At the latter we have a little Church which is seated for forty people, and it is usually well filled, and sometimes overflowing. Our organist is an English lady, wife of an officer of the N.W. Mounted Police. We have a choir of these red-coated policemen with some ladies. We have a Ladies' Guild. There is a one-roomed Clergy House, and next year we hope there will be a bell on the Church to call the worshippers together, and an additional wing to the Clergy House, so that the Clergyman may be able to offer a room to a visitor at any time if such a one should come this way to the Canadian North West.

ST. JOHN'S COLLEGE FARM.

Those of our friends who have been interested for many years in the "Church Farm" founded by Bishop Anson, will be glad to know that although the farm has ceased to exist as a Diocesan Institution, it is still a "going concern" under Messrs. H. F. Boyce, and F. A. S. Evans, both farmers of some experience in the North West. They hope to provide "a home and practical instruction for young men, to prepare them for the life of a farmer," and they will train their pupils thoroughly in farming, cooking, carpentry, &c. The terms are £70 for the first year, £60 the second, and £50 for any further period, payable quarterly in advance to the Secretary, F. Hasiegrove, Esq., Ladore, Riggindale Road, Streatham, S.E. The Bishop of the Diocese is visitor, and Bishop Anson's name heads the list of those to whom reference may be made. We heartily wish success to the new enterprise.

G.F.S. LODGE AT INDIAN HEAD.

It is proposed to start a Lodge at Indian Head where girls from England can find a home till they are suited with places. Although under the sanction and supervision of the Bishop, this Lodge will be quite independent of the Diocesan Fund, and it is hoped will in time be self-supporting. It will be managed by a local committee over which Mrs. Burn will preside, and a corresponding English committee. Any further particulars will gladly be given by Mrs. Knight, Eastnor House, Malvern Link, who is a member of the committee in England.

DEDICATION OF ST. PAUL'S CHURCH, REGINA.

On Thursday, January 24th, an event of unusual interest took place in this parish, when a new and permanent Church was dedicated to the glory of God and the use of His people by the Lord Bishop of the Diocese. A new and suitable Church had for some few years before been felt by many of the parishioners as a real need, and at times various efforts were made towards supplying the want. Meetings were held, plans were drawn, and estimates provided, but owing to several causes the work was never started. Possibly the fluctuations which from time to time happen in these western towns may in some degree account for the delay, because every Church family that leaves the town makes a difference, especially from the financial point of view, and this view has to be taken into serious consideration when the important object of erecting a Church has to be undertaken. However, all felt that the temporary wooden structure which for twelve years had made a shelter for the Altar of God and the House of Prayer in this town, was unsuitable for these sacred purposes the very day it was possible to supply in its place a more substantial and fitting building to be set apart for the worship of God. Brave efforts towards this end were made by the Rev. Leonard Dawson a few years ago, while he was Rector of the parish, and although there has been a longer delay than at one time was expected would be, yet it must be stated that the substantial and ornamental edifice which was opened on the Dedication Day, was in a very great measure but the result of his labour; and the considerable sum of money he collected both in Canada and in England is now expended on an object so dear to himself; the initial attempt he made is now an accomplished fact, and success has really crowned the work he so earnestly began.

The Church is built of a yellow brick that is manufactured at Pilot Butte, eight miles east of this town. The length of the interior of the nave is about sixty two feet, the width thirty-two feet. The windows are Gothic in design. The roof is of a good pitch. A round window is in the west end. A tower and spire at the south-west corner form a porch, and also a really ornamental feature in the appearance of the building, and give it an unmistakable Church-like look. When the Chancel is built, a Church of which many will be proud will stand amongst the dwellings of men in Regina, and as many of those dwellings are now both commodious and handsome, it is a cause of thankfulness that the House of God is a building worthy of standing in the midst of other houses, silently witnessing to the Christian faith, as the cross on its eastern gable is seen from the neighbourhood around. One of the most pleasing features of the interior is the lofty roof, made of British Columbian cedar. It may be said this has its influence, for after the low and flat roof in the old temporary Church, the loftiness of the present building brings visions of Churches in other parishes wherein many have worshipped in days before they came to dwell in this western town.

A temporary Chancel has been made by raising the floor two steps higher than the floor of the Church, for the space of seventeen feet from the east wall. Screens have been placed about five feet distant from the north and south walls the whole length of the seventeen feet. The portions partitioned off answer the purpose of vestries. Between these screens the choir seats are placed, two on either side. A handsomely-carved front and book rail stands before the seats. The Altar is raised three steps above the choir, and makes the most striking object in view from every part of the Church. The pulpit stands at the north corner just outside the Chancel, while the lectern, the gift and work of one of the parishioners, stands on the opposite side. At the step a Litany Desk, that has also been carved by an old and well-known resident in the district, has been placed. The seats are made of oak and ash, and are certainly equal to any that may be found in any other Church in this part of the world. They were the gift of the Churchwomen's Guild, who also provided the carpet in the Chancel, and the matting in the aisles. The window over the Altar is filled with tinted glass, and also the rose window in the west end. The Font stands beneath the west window, at the bottom of the centre aisle. The Church is heated with hot air by a furnace in the basement. This, and the brass standards for the electric light, are gifts of another Association of Churchwomen in the parish. The entire appearance both of the exterior and interior is striking and ecclesiastical, and it is hoped the above slight sketch may enable the reader to form some picture of it.

The Dedication Service took place in the afternoon. In addition to the Bishop of the Diocese, the following Clergy were present:—The Rev. F. V. Baker, Rector of All Saints' Church, Winnipeg, and formerly one of the Clergy of the Diocese. From the Diocese were the Revs. J. P. Sargent, Qu'Appelle Station; F. H. Tatham, Broadview; T. G. Beal, Grenfell; F. W. Johnson, Fort Qu'Appelle; T. W. Cunliffe and W. Watson, Moose Jaw; D. Munro, Craven; H. A. Holmes and W. E. Brown, Rector, Regina. Unfortunately, the Rev. W. Nicolls, Medicine Hat, and Rev. G. Nelson Dobie, Cannington Manor, were unable to come from their distant parishes.

Long before the bell ceased its call the Church was crowded. The Clergy, having vested in the Rectory, entered the porch of the Church in procession, the Pastoral Staff being carried in front of the Bishop by the Chaplain, Rev. J. P. Sargent. At the porch the procession halted, and prayer was offered by the Bishop. The Church was then entered, the Bishop saying "Peace be to this House," which was followed by a special prayer. The Clergy then walked slowly up the aisle to the Chancel steps, chanting Psalms xxiv. and cxxii. Here the Clergy all knelt at the Chancel steps, the Bishop kneeling before them, and the Veni Creator was sung. The Litany was then intoned by the Rev. F. H. Tatham, the Bishop rising from his knees and presenting special suffrages that "God would be pleased to bless and hallow this House and give His angels charge over it." Hymn 395 was then sung after special Collects had been said at the end of the Litany. While the Bishop ascended the Altar steps Psalm xliii. was sung. Standing before the Altar, the Bishop in a prayer of Benediction consecrated the Altar and its ornaments to the service of God. The procession, followed by the Bishop, then proceeded to the Font, chanting Psalm xli. After special prayers at the Font, the Clergy returned to the Chancel steps, singing suitable verses of Psalm cxix. Then the Bishop prayed for all who should worship, or be Confirmed or united in Marriage within the Church. The final antiphon prayed "Stablish the thing, O Lord, that Thou hast wrought in us, for Thy Temple's sake at Jerusalem."

Hymn 242 was most heartily sung by the whole of the large congregation. The Bishop's text was Rev. xxi., 24, "The nations of them which are saved shall walk in the light of it, and the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honour into it." After the sermon the hymn was No. 240. During the offertory an anthem was sung by the choir. The final Blessing was given at the Altar by the Bishop, and then after a few moments of silent prayer, the Clergy left the Church while the hymn "For all the Saints, who from their labours rest" was sung. It was the Eve of the Feast of the Conversion of St. Paul, to whose honour the Church was dedicated. On the next morning, the Feast itself, the Holy Eucharist was celebrated, the Bishop being Celebrant, the Epistoler, Rev. F. W. Johnson, and Gospeller, the Rev. F. H. Tatham.

The Church is seated, including the choir, for about 190. Good congregations have gathered within its walls since the Dedication, and the prayers and continued interest of the many friends in England are asked, that a real work may be the result of the worship in this Church. New hope seems to have taken possession of many, and much interest and energy is being exhibited. Boys are being trained by the choirmaster and organist with view to a surpliced choir ere long. Among our needs are better Altar Frontals than at present are in use. Excepting the red Frontal new ones are required. It is trusted that all who have watched the work of the Church, and contributed to the erection of the new building, may feel some joy in the joy of the Church people as they now regularly worship within its gates, and from many lips far distant this Church and parish may be remembered by fellow Church people, as they kneel in the old Churches of the dear old Motherland.

A BEGGING TOUR IN ENGLAND.

During the past two years the Diocese of Qu'Appelle has been very sadly crippled both in opening new Missions and keeping existing Missions actually in working order. There are two reasons why this is the case. (1) During the past three seasons the price of wheat and stock has been steadily on the decrease. This has affected the Diocese of Qu'Appelle to a very considerable degree, as the people who reside in the Diocese are to a very large extent engaged in farming. (2) The failure of the Commercial Bank of Manitoba in which various funds of the Diocese were placed, has again been a most disastrous event. It is a matter of great congratulation that the Bishop's endowment fund was not materially affected by this failure. There was about £1,000 worth of money loss by this bank failure, and its loss has seriously hindered what ought to have been an advance and progression throughout.

Last autumn the Rev. Welbury Mitton of Moosomin offered to visit England and try to do something to stir up a greater help and interest in the work of the Diocese. The needs of the Diocese were explained as a whole, namely, £1,000, and the circular was endorsed by the Bishop, who had kindly promised to add to his already great work by taking the parochial duties at Moosomin. The benefit of the Bishop at Moosomin may be readily inferred and the good it will do to the people of the parish is untold.

Since Mr. Mitton arrived in England, January 18th, he has been travelling to various centres and giving lectures on the work in the Diocese.

January 20th, two sermons at Sherburn House. January 27th, morning at St. Oswald's, Durham, evening at St. Margaret's. The Rector of St. Margaret's kindly gave the offerings of the whole day towards Qu'Appelle Diocese. February 3rd, St. Barnabas, Heaton, in the morning, and St. Paul's, Manningham, evening. From February 4th to the 10th Mr. Mitton visited Leeds, Rotherham, and Kimberworth, and on Sunday, February 10th, sermons were preached at Masborough in the morning, and at Greasborough at night. This week the towns of Lincoln and Doncaster were visited. Sunday, February 17th, sermons were preached at Thornton Dale morning and evening, and during the week a meeting was held in St. Andrew's school, at Lincoln; the rest of the week was given to visiting friends of the Diocese at Nottingham and Derby. Sunday, 24th, the cause was pleaded at St. Olave's, York; 26th, a branch of the Qu'Appelle Association was opened at York, Miss Hey acting as Secretary. On the following Sunday, March 3rd, an address was given to men at St. Thomas's, Winchester, and sermon preached at evensong at the same Church. Tuesday, March 5th, the Rev. Canon and Mrs. Fisher had arranged for a drawing-room meeting at St. Peter's Vicarage, Bournemouth, and very kindly had placed all the work for the Diocese out for inspection. Miss Galpin, the Secretary, most kindly allowed this to be sent off at once to the Diocese. Wednesday, March 6th, an address was given to the workers at St. Luke's, Southampton. Sunday, March 10th, sermons were preached morning and evening at Kingsworthy Church. On Wednesday, March 13th, the cause was pleaded at Holy Innocents, Hammersmith. On Thursday, March 14th, Lady Northbourne had very kindly arranged for a meeting at her house. Canon Liddell, the Bishop's Commissary, took the chair. Sunday, March 17th, sermons were preached at Shalford, Surrey, in the morning, and Milford, Surrey, in the evening. The Rev. E. S. Marshall of Milford very kindly gave the day's offertories to the Diocese. On Friday, March 22nd, an address was given at Pickhill Church, Yorkshire, and on Sunday, 24th, sermons were preached at Ramsgill, Yorkshire, morning and evening, and at Middlesmoor in the afternoon. During this week Mr. Mitton visited Liverpool and Manchester. On March 31st sermons were preached at Sherburn Hospital Church, and a bazaar was held by the kindness of the Master and Mrs. Mitton, at Sherburn House. Many friends helped in this bazaar, and it was by the efforts of several patients in the Hospital that the success was gained, as they each collected together £10 worth of work. The bazaar lasted two days, and the sum of £38 was netted. On Sunday, April 7th, Mr. Mitton preached at Coniscliffe, Bishop Burn's old parish, in the morning, and Hurworth on Lees in the evening. On April 14th (Easter Day) the day was spent helping the Vicar of St. Andrew's, Lincoln, and April 21st at S. Martin's, Scarboro', morning, and at Hutton Buscel, evening.

This is a brief account of the work, which of necessity had to be done at lightning speed and with little time to enter into details. It is to be hoped that the effort will be appreciated by those who heard the report of the work, and that the result will be seen by a keener interest in the Diocese and also by a greater number of Associates being enrolled.
