3rd Wit) A118025 Pte Savoni, L., Perth R. duly sworn states: Pros:)

Accd is Pte Green (pointing).

On nite 12/13 Sep was during attack on Coriaino. Coy HQ was in a ho. Major told us time the attack was going in. He sd our coy reserve coy and SB would fall in between 10 and 11 Pl. He also told us time attack to start but I don't remember now. We were right between 10 and 11 Pl when they moved off - no trouble finding them when we moved off. Knew we were going into Coriano when we left ho. Accds was with us in ho and he left ho with the the SB's. He stayed with us until we came under fire - I did not see him after that, we were too busy taking care of ourselves.
When we arrived at objective we reported to Coy HQ - normal drill. Accd was not at Coy HQ then, around first light, slightly before.
XX m:- We always stay with Coy HQ in attack. Don't think we were ordered to report to Coy HQ when we reached objective. In all attacks before we reported to Coy HQ to find if needed, where to sleep, etc.
When attd to Pl do not report to Coy HQ unless ordered to do so.
I did not see accds leave during attack.
We looked for accd when got on objective, there were only 3 of us SB's and accd not there.
Re-exam:- We were not attached to a Pl. We were just in that position going up. We SB's are on Coy HQ.
Court:- I became SB in Aug and Accd was a S.B. then. Gothic was his first time in action.
About 20 mins after crossing ZP came under shell fire. We hit the ditch as a grp and then moved on when opportunity offered. About the third time we hit the ditch I missed accused. SB's did not work on any cas on way up. There was one cas when we got to Coy HQ.

R.P. 83 (b) complied with

Pros - no closing address:

Def offr in closing:- Submit no evid that left Coy with intent to avoid battle. Intention to avoid battle cannot be proven by length of absence or distance from RV. Only indication in substantiation is that accd absent from RV from one time until a certain time next day.
On 2nd chg the order given by Col was for accd to return to Coy immed. - no evidence that did not try to return. Under battle conditions contact of fwd units under fire is extremely difficult. Order given at night and under circumstances reasonable to assume that would take considerable time. Did report to S Coy Comd. Time elapsed does not alter fact that did obey the order.

J.A. Sums up:- Functions of court, credibility of witnesses, presumption of innocence, burden on pros'n, reasonable doubt, cowardice, lawful comd and disobeying, R P 44(D)

1st Wit) Capt. P. Statten, R.C.A.M.C., attd Perth R. duly sworn states:/
Character) Accd came to regt as SB in June and prior to action carried out duties well. In early part of Gothic line did job well. On one particular occasion he was commended by an offr for some particularly good work. Couple of days later accd came to me crying and visibly shaken. I persuaded him to to back and carry on and if he could not, to return to me. He did not seem to like the idea of letting me down as one of my SB'S. Next time aware of any trouble was nite of attack on Coriano. Recall seeing him in RAP, don't know if nite or next morning, we were busy. Accd did not insist on seeing me then. In my opinion if he had come to me he likely would have been evacuated for psychological reasons. Feel he tried hard in action but has not got what it takes.

R.P. 83 (b) complied with.

Def Offr in mitigation:-

On Act Service nearly 4 yrs. Landed Italy 10 Apr 44. First battle Gothic approx 30 Aug. During this suffering dysentry - was bearing up under rather poor health. At beginning of Oct was evacuated to hospital.

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

On nite 12/13 Sep 44 my coy was to follow C
Coy on an attack on Comano feature at 0100 hrs. Accd was attached to my coy & was present when orders for attack were given in a farm hse where we were located.
Coy moved off 0030 hrs & SB's were to move between last 2 Pls - 10 & 11 Pl. As 2 was ahead 1st Pl 2 did not see SB after left hse.
Am. objective 0215 & none of SB had yet arrived at new Coy HQ. - At 0500 hrs all SBs except accd had reported at Coy HQ - 2 did not see accd until 14 Sep when he reported to Coy HQ in same area - Asked where had been & receiving no satisfactory answer 2 placed him in arrest. Believe he said he was back in old Coy HQ. On 14 Sep Coy had pushed down on ridge when he came up.
XXm: Accd was in a very cramped stable when I had O Gp & orders were given then.
Last saw accd about midnite
SBs were ordered to recon route & no of new location on aerial photos & SB were ordered to report there.
Accd said he stayed over at other hse because he said something about seeing MO [illegible]

by B Coy HQ. B Coy Comd & his HQ personnel were there when I went in about 0045 hrs 13 Sep Comd B Coy & his HQ personnel left bldg to go fwd to start line. Accd was a SB with B Coy HQ. attack went in 0100 hrs 13 Sep & after it started I lost contact with B Coy about 0130 hrs 13 Sep accd & another SB went to house. I asked him for news of B Coy & don't remember exact answer - not to effect they were out fwd. asked him what doing back at HQ & he was unable to give reasonable answer. I ordered accd to return to his Coy immediately. I then left bldg with my Sec HQ & moved fwd about 0135 hrs

XXm:- don't remember exact answer - it was not satisfactory & that was my reason for ordering him fwd. do not know exact whereabouts of B Coy - it had crossed SP which was 300 x from my Sec HQ.

Was given no instrs as to how to get there because in first instance he had left with Coy HQ which was a small group

Pros – no closing address.

Def offr in closing: submit no evid that left coy with intent to avoid battle. Intention to avoid battle cannot be proven by length of absence or distance from RV. Only indication in substantiation is that accd absent from RV from one time until a certain time next day.

On 2nd chg the order given by Col was for accd to return to coy immed. – no evidence that kid not try to return. Under battle conditions contact of front units under fire is extremely difficult. Order given at night & under circumstances reasonable to assume that would take considerable time. Did report to S Coy Comd. Time elapsed does not alter fact that did disobey the order.

J. A sum up: Functions of court; credibility of witnesses; presumption of innocence; burden on pros – reasonable doubt; cowardice.
Lawful comd & disobeying. RP 44(1).

1st Dit Accd | Capt. P. Stuttin, RCAMC, also Regtl. R. duly sworn states:

accd came to regt as SB in June & prior to action carried out duties well. In early part of battle did job well. On one particular occasion he was commended by an offr for some particularly good work. Couple of days later accd came to me crying & weakly shaken. I persuaded him to go back & carry on & if he could not, to return to me. He did not seem to like the idea of letting me down as one of my SBs. Next time aware of any trouble was note of attack on Caruans. Recall seeing him in RAP, don't know if note or next morning. We were busy. Accd did not insist on seeing me then. In my opinion if he had come to me he likely would have been evacuated for psychological reasons. Felt he tried hard in action but has not got what it takes.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

Summary of Evidence in the case of C.5964 Private William GREEN, The Perth Regiment, C.A., a soldier of the Canadian Army (CMF), charged with:

1. Misbehaving before the enemy in such manner as to show cowardice.
(A.A. Sec 5(7).

2. When on Active Service, Disobeying a lawful Command given by his Superior Officer.

R P 4 F

The Commanding Officer directs that all evidence will be taken on oath.

First Witness

Major H.A.Snellgrove, B Coy., the Perth Regt., having been duly sworn states:
"I am Major H.A.Snellgrove, commander of B Coy., the Perth Regt. and was such on 13 Sept. 1944. I recognize the accused here as being Pte.Green W., a stretcher bearer attached to my company and who was acting as such on 13 Sept.1944. The company's job, in a battalion attack on the ridge south and west of Coriano, was to follow up C Coy., and take up a position some 200 yards behind them. The evening of 12 Sept. 1944 Pte. Green, the accused, was present at B Coy. H.Q., when Lieut Dyke C., went over orders for the attack with the personnel of B Coy., headquarters. The company moved off in the attack at approximately 0115 hrs. 13 Sept. 1944.The position of the stretcher bearers in the attack was to be between 10 and 11 platoons.I last saw Pte. Green when I left B Coy. H. house to move into the attack. The stretcher-bearers moved off behind my headquarters until they got in their position between 10 and 11 platoons. On arrival on our objective at 0220 hrs., none of the stretcher-bearers had arrived at coy. H.Q as yet. At about 0500 hrs after the battle had settled down, I noticed that Pte. Green was not present with the other stretcher-bearers who had arrived at coy. H.Q. During that morning B Coy. suffered about ten casualties, as well as a number of casualties among the enemy. I did not see Pte. Green until he reported to company headquarters at about 1000 hrs. 14 Sept. 1044. I questioned Pte. Green as to why he had not advanced with the company during the attack and as he could not give me a satisfactory answer I placed him under open arrest."

H.A.Snellgrove Major

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

Second witness: Lieut. A.W.B. Robertson, B Coy., the Perth Regt., having been duly sworn states;

"I am Lieut. A.W.B. Robertson, commander of 11 Pln., B Coy., the Perth Regt. I recognize the accused here as being Pte. Green L., a stretcher bearer attached to B Coy., who was such on the night of 13-14 Sept. 1944, when B Coy. took part in a battalion attack near Coriano. On the morning of 14 Sept. 1944 I went to the R.A.P., at approximately 0800 hrs. and saw Pte. Green there. I was having my shoulder dressed and when I saw him I asked him what he was doing there. He said something in reply but I can't say what it was. I told him he had better go back with me and he did."

A.W.B. Robertson Lieut.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

Third Witness: A 118025 Pte. Saveni L., B Coy. stretcher-bearer, the Perth Regt., having been duly sworn states:

"I am A 118025 Pte. Saveni L., a stretcher bearer attached to B Coy., the Perth Regt., and was such on the 13-14 Sept. 1944. In the attack on the Coriano section we were told that the position of the stretcher bearers would be between 10 and 11 plns. Pte. Willis and Pte. Tenzer, two other stretcher-bearers in the company and myself got separated from the company for a while with half of 10 Pln. We followed B Coy. and later were able to rejoin B Coy. Pte. Green, whom I recognize as another of the stretcher-bearers in B Coy., started off with us but I don't know what happened after we had gone a short distance and there was some firing. He was apparently nervous when we started out. I did not see him around company headquarters when we got to the objective."

L. Saveni Pte.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

Fourth Witness: Lieut. Col. H.F. Andrew, commanding officer, the Perth Regt., having been duly sworn states:

"I am Lieut.Col. H.F.Andrew, commanding officer of the Perth Regt. At about 1045 hrs. 13 Sept. 1944 B Coy. moved from its area on the Besanigo feature to its position in the battalion assembly area preparatory to crossing the start line in its proper order of attack on the Coriano ridge. I had my T.C. HQ at that time in the B Coy. HQ building. Pte. Green, whom I recognize here, was one of the B Coy. HQ personnel in the building. When B Coy. moved out he appeared to move with Coy. HQ personnel. About an hour later Pte. Green returned to the building accompanied by another stretcher bearer whom I have since identified. At the time he returned I was just leaving with my T.C. HQ personnel to move forward. I questioned Pte. Green and the other stretcher-bearer as to the disposition of B Coy. Pte. Green told me he had left them forward, or words to that effect. I said to Pte Green, "Rejoin your company at once." I then left the building."

H.F. Andrew Lieut.Col.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

"Do you wish to make a statement at this time? You are not compelled to do so, but anything you may say will be taken down in writing and may be used in evidence."

The accused declines to make a statement at this time.

The accused declines to call witnesses in his behalf.

Trial of

D-82652 Pte Gunn, N.J. C1C-, 4C1TR

The accused, sworn, states: -

As far as being AWL, I admit that. Since I came out of hospital I have tried several times to get back to my unit. They wouldn't let me go back, so I volunteered for Burma. When I got back to the HU, I was put on odd jobs and I felt everything was closing around me, I couldn't get anywhere. I'd like to get to the Middle East. I've never had a break in the Army and all I am asking now is to get it this time.

The case of D 82652 pte Green N.F.

Pte Green was working in Montreal at Cadburys Chocolate when he enlisted on 15 July 40. On June 41 he arrived in the U.K. In June 44 he went to France with the Highland Light Infantry and was wounded twice before being evacuated to England. Upon being released from hospital the accused requested a number of times to be returned to his unit, but this request was never granted. As an alternative his next desire was to volunteer for the Far East. He was in the belief that forms were available, prior to the re-allocation questionaire, but was never given a satisfactory answer to fill in the forms. When all his efforts to get into action and away from being pushed about he decides to relieve himself of the boredom and illegally absented himself.

I respectfully ask the Court for leniency as this man has served his country well, and is willing to serve his country again if given the opportunity.

The accused asks the Court to say a few words to express his feelings more clearly than I can able to write them.

E-1 STATEMENT BY THE ACCUSED

I joined the Army in Jan 41 and proceeded o/s in Jun 41 as a rft for the 2 A Tk Regt over here. I served with them until Jun 44 and left them to go to hosp, but on release I found it impossible to join them again as they were o/s and I spent the remainder of my time in an RU.

I was engaged to a girl in London and I heard that she was running around; I went up to see if she was and found it to be true and after that I couldn't pull myself together.

My age is 23, Sir, and I went to Grade 8 in school and in civil life I worked for my father on a farm. My category is M2, S4, which I got last summer.

saw the accused on the 12 March at about 2300. I was him. I then saw the accused and two other soldiers coming up the stairway from the direction of the kitchen

I followed them into the Barrack Rm. On invoking the Barrack Rm there was a Lgt Mor Dougall there whom I instructed to take the particulars of the accused and the two soldiers with him. At that time the accused refused to produce his pay book at Lgt Mor Dougalls order. I ordered him to give the Lgt his name & he and the accused did not comply. I then ordered him into close arrest.

Rule P 836 Complied with

Burton Sgt

Mr. President Members of the Court. 46

The defence will not attempt to deny that the actual events presented by the prosecution as evidence did take place.

We do however feel that the charges laid against the accused are unwarranted & made possible only by the widest interpretation of some of the facts in the case & by the exclusion of what we consider the most relevant evidence - namely that the accused had been drinking.

In spite of the witness for the prosecution Sgt Mc Dougal & Sgt Mayhew stated that the accused had been drinking ~~this behaviour was natural~~ Capt Mc Kinney ~~was sworn statement~~ has stated "Pte Green was obviously under the influence of ~~liquor~~ alcohol."

The charges laid against the accused intimate wilful & deliberate disobedience. The defence has to believe can grave doubt as to whether the accused was in full possession of his reasoning & ambulatory faculties. If this be the case & I am convinced it is - one must conclude that the charge of wilful, deliberate disobedience does not follow & is not in order. The sole offence perpetrated by the accused is drunkenness for which charge he is not standing before this court today.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of B-145122 Pte Wilfred GREEN (N N S Highrs) of 41 Coy, on the strength of 10 CHR Bn, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer this evidence is taken on oath.

First Witness PROSECUTION

F-16357 S/t MacDougall C.W. (CIC) of 41 Coy, on the strength of 10 CHR Bn, having been duly sworn states:

I am F-16357 S/t MacDougall C.W. (CIC) of 41 Coy, on the strength of 10 CHR Bn. At approx 2300 hrs, 12 Mar 45 I had just finished my roll call. I descended from the second floor of the barrack block and came upon the accused, whom I now recognize, and another Sgt. The accused was talking quite loud and using profane language. I approached them and as I did so I heard the Sgt ask the accused to produce his pay book, which he refused to do. I then ordered him to show his pay book, he still refused and did not do so. Just then the Coy Commander came along and he also ordered the accused to produce his pay book, and the accused still refused and did not do so. The Commander ordered the accused put under close arrest. The accused had been drinking, but I wouldn't say he was drunk.

Cross examination by the Officer taking the Summary.

Q.1: What was the accused saying when he was using profane language?
A.1: The only phrase I remember, which were directed to Sgt Naylor, were: He spoke about the time he had been in the "fucking line".

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

R.P. 83 (b) complied with.

SECOND WITNESS PROSECUTION

Capt J.G. McKinney (Carleton & York) O.C. 41 Coy, 10 CHR Bn, having been duly sworn states:

I am Capt J.G. McKinney (Carleton & York) O.C. 41 Coy, 10 CHR Bn. At approx 2311 hrs, 12 Mar 45, I was preparing to go to bed and I heard a commotion or disturbance at the door leading to the Coy kitchen. I started down towards the kitchen, to locate the Coy Orderly Sgt, to have a stop put to the disturbance. On my way down towards the kitchen I saw Pte Green, the accused whom I now recognize, in company with two other soldiers coming up the stairway, leading from the court-yard, where the kitchen entrance is located. I followed the three soldiers into the barrack room to get their identity. Sgt McDougall was in the barrack room and I told him to take their names and numbers. When the Sgt asked Pte Green for his name and number, Pte Green just stood still, looked at him, and said nothing. I then ordered Pte Green to produce his pay book and he said nothing, turned, looked at me, and blew cigarette smoke in my face, from the cigarette he was smoking at that time and did not produce his pay book. Pte Green was obviously under the influence of alcohol. I instructed Sgt McDougall to place the accused under guard and to have him on charge in the morning for disobeying a lawfull command.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

R.P. 83 (b) complied with.

(J.G. McKinney) Capt.

THIRD WITNESS PROSECUTION

H-41200 S/t Naylor W.G. (RWR) of 41 Coy, on the strength of 10 CHR Bn, having been duly sworn states:

I am H-41200 S/t Naylor W.G. (RWR) of 41 Coy, on the strength of 10 CHR Bn. On either the 12 or 13 Mar 45, I cannot remember which date, at approx 2230 hrs, I had just returned from taking a draft to 13 Bn, when I met Capt McKinney in the Orderly room and he said someone was making a disturbance in the kitchen and he wanted their names and numbers. On leaving the Orderly Room I observed two men entering their Barrack room. I followed them in and asked them if they had been down to the kitchen, to which they replied "yes" they had gone down to get something to eat. I told them they couldn't get anything to eat at that time of night. I then asked Pte Green, the accused whom I now recognize, for his name and number, which he refused to give me. During this time he said "I've been in the fucking front line for eight months." I do not think his profanity was directed at me, but he was just making a general statement. He had been drinking, but I wouldn't say he was really drunk.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

R.P. 83 (b) complied with.

W.G. Naylor

(W.G. Naylor) S/t H-41200

The accused having been cautioned as follows; "Do you wish to make any statement, or give any evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give any evidence unless you wish to do so, but what-so-ever you may say or any evidence you may give, will be taken down in writing and may be used in evidence," and having been duly sworn states:

I am B-145122 Pte Green W. On the night of the 12 Mar 45, around 1800 hrs, I went out of barracks with some friends. We went to several cafes, where we drank cognacs in each one. Around 2200 hrs I felt sick and started back to the barracks. The last I remember when I left the last cafe until I awoke the next morning in my bed in barracks. I knew nothing of the charges laid against me until 1430 hrs, 13 March 45 when a Staff S/t informed me that I was up for office at 1500 hrs same date. He didn't tell me what I was charged with and I had to wait until the charge was read to me in the Coy Commanders office, before I knew the offence I was charged with committing.

R.P. 83 (b) complied with.

Case of 4103893 Pte. Greenbank – A Re Investigation:

The accused, age 22 was born in the Army since Sept 42, and has been in England since April 43. In the past year he has had but one charge against him, duty refused on a Div Gens. He went to France with his Regiment, 2nd S.L.R, was wounded returned to England, and finally arrived at [illegible]

After the heavy strain of action he was in his regimental depot at Otley and became a little run down. He was not a trip of his own. He is not mentally abnormal, has never been in trouble and has an inclination of becoming so at this time, he is desirous of going on a courts course, where he will be of some use.

In summing up I should like to draw attention to the previous record and plead for leniency in this case

In his own admission the accused stated he is afraid of going into action again, and I should like to suggest that he be psychiatrized

By direction of the Commanding Officer this Summary of Evidence is taken on Oath.

FIRST WITNESS for the PROSECUTION

K-46444 A/Sgt Murphy, E.B., Canadian Scottish Regiment, on the strength of No. 1 Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn states as follows:
I am K-46444 A/Sgt Murphy, E.B., Canadian Scottish Regiment, on the strength of No. 1 Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit. On the 30 Aug 44 I was Orderly Sergeant for "A" Coy, 1 CIRU. At 1830 hrs I called the roll, at a Muster Parade of the Coy. When I called the roll, the men would answer their names and would then march across and fall in as another squad. This was done as a conclusive check as to whether the men were there. I called M-103895 Pte. Greenbank, W., and no one answered. There was no one of that name and number on the parade. I check the billets and found no one in the barracks of that name and number.
The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Plea in mitigation of punishment.

The soldier has a short record of service he joined in April 1944 came overseas in Feb 1945 and came to the Continent in May 1945.

His short record of service is explained by the fact that he was not allowed to join the army before this time His father is totaly blind and his mother is an invalid requireing weekly treatments at the Hospital. He also has a sister and it was not until she began to work that he was allowed to join the army.

The man is guilty of the crime he is accused of but sir's I would have you consider the circumstances that made him go on the lone.

His unit was stationed in Utrecht and it was here he met the girl he intends to marry. Suddenly the unit was told to move and pte Greenberg was sent down here to Nijmegen and he found himself on his way home. He was not too perturbed at this he realized he wouldn't have time to get married but he realized also that he was urgently resided at home so he thought he would come back at some later time to marry the girl of his choice. But gentlemen things do not always go smoothly for a letter from his girl friend she told him she was pregnant. He immediately applied for leave to go to Utretch but was refused. This girl was very young only 19 and she had no one to turn to so in desperation the soldier went on the loose to help her. Gentelmen I agree this is not the right thing to do but it certainly is the most natural. He made arrangements with a civilian doctor to look after the girl but unfortunately due to the mental strain on nervous character of the girl she had a miscarriage. She was very sick and Pte Cumberg felt it his duty to remain untill she was better however he was picked up and now gentelmen he stands before you accused of the crime of being AWOL

Can you gentelmen consider this man who is only 22 a criminal especially after hearing the reasons for his going on the loose. I would ask you gentelmen to be as lenient as possible when you sentence this man. He is needed at home he is prepared to make arrangements for his marriage either through the army if it possible or on his own if necessary but he must get home as soon as possible He's sister who now is supporting his family is getting married and he will soon be the only support of a totaly blind father and an invalid mother Which do you consider more essential gentelmen that he be punished for his crime in the army or that he be returned to aid his parents in their old age.

It is up to you gentelmen and I ask you especialy in this case to be lenient.

(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). The three of us left the house to go to the camp. My daughter and the soldier went into the camp and I stayed on the street. As I was standing alone on the street the accused approached and asked me if I spoke English. I replied "no" and walked away. I got my mother and the three of us went to the camp with the soldier. I took the soldier into his limes and my mother waited out on the street. When I came outside I met the accused and he said to me "What are you doing here". I answered, "my friend was sick and I brought him home". Then the accused struck me in the face. I ran off calling for my mother. Then I found my mother and told her a soldier had struck me and my mother told me a soldier had hit her too. The soldier who hit me was drunk. I took my mother home and I went back to the cafe and told the soldiers what had happened. The Sgt in the cafe asked me if I could recognize the soldier who struck me. I told the Sgt I could. 18 Dec 44

Ref R.P. 40 note (i)

I contend that the accused has no case to answer. The reason that I contend this is obvious.

In respect to both the First and Second charge there is only one unsupported claim that the accused committed assault. Madame DeCuister does not even claim that the accused hit her. This charge doesn't even dezerve consideration. As for the second charge Mme Jose Van Beeman claims that the accused hit her. No one knows whether he did or did not. There has been no evidence brought forward that Pte. Greenberg did hit either of them. Anyone can make a claim such as she has made.

I can go into a room alone with anyone of you gentlemen. The two of us can come out, and I can claim that you hit me, that you assaulted me. On the strength of that I can have you up for Court Martial. That's silly.

So are these charges. This man who is a fellow Canadian and who came overseas for the same reason as you did, is up in this Court because of one unsupported claim that he assaulted civilians who in actual fact he came over here to assist. A claim without a witness means nothing.

I know what you gentlemen think of the French and Belgian civilians in general, they are our greatest problem overseas. We claim they will steal us blind, and then swear up and down that they didn't. I am not stating that these women are lying, but I do state that a doubt exists. They are temperamental and excitable and have vivid imaginations. They should not have been near military billets. They should not have been inside them, as this is an offence in itself. Although well-meaning they are a cafe habitue family who should be on charge themselves for being on military premises when there are strict orders against this.

In view of this unsupported claim, I contend that the prosecution has not established a "prima facie" case, that the accused has no case to answer, and that he should not therefore be called upon for his defence. I also contend that it has been complete waste of time for the charges to be placed in the first instance.

THE CASE OF B119276 Pte GREENE H.R.

1st Witness for PROSECUTION

Capt W Kirk, 2/c "D" Coy, 1 Bn R.H.L.I. sworn states:

At Pelkenburg Germany On the morning of 28 Apr 45 at about 0900 hours, a German woman who I later identified as Anne Kusacke living at 100 Falkenburg, Germany, came to Coy HQ and roused me, complaining by way of crying, indicating that she was in some trouble. She wore no shoes or stockings or hat or coat. She pointed to her dress which was torn. I called CSM Dolman, and together we went with the woman to investigate. We went across the street to 100 Falkenburg. We went into a room indicated to us by the woman and found two soldiers sleeping on bed clothes laid on the floor. They were Pte Greene and Pte Connors of "D" Coy, R.H.L.I. I identify Pte Greene the accused here present. Pte Greene was fully dressed but without trousers. Pte Connor was fully dressed. I searched them and the bed clothes and found:

i A woman's girdle. (Exhibit "A")

ii A pair of woman's underpants (Exhibit "B")

iii One woman's silk stocking (Exhibit "C")

iv One "sewer clasp knife" open. (Exhibit "D")

The above articles are produced as exhibits and are marked respectively exhibits "A", "B", "C", "D".

I took the woman to the cellar of the house in care of other members and gave instructions that the room containing the soldiers, would be guarded. I left the soldiers undisturbed in the room.

The furniture in the room was cleared back to the walls and there were many quilts and bed clothes on the floor.

Cross Examination

Cr Capt Rich, had you ever seen Pte before?

I saw the complainant the first time two days before, when she had come to the Company area. She came to HQ and ~~said that~~ from what I understood, said she had lived in the house occupied by HQ. I told her that civilians were not allowed to live in the house and directed her to Pte Talkenburg. I saw her many times after that. I had the impression that she would be watching and I did so. Most of the day she spent looking out of the window or on some trip up or down the street. On two or three occasions she came across to Coy HQ with small complaints in an endeavour to get articles from the house. I, personally, warned her on three occasions, that it was forbidden to enter Coy HQ. On another occasion, I found her walking up the street with a soldier, at about sunset, and on investigating, she had asked the soldier to accompany her as protection to the house of a friend. I found that she had no friends in the house to which she went, but there were some soldiers drinking. ~~On a~~ ~~result of the above happenings and other observations~~, I felt that the Pte she appeared to be making overtures to ~~the~~ Pte soldiers in the area.

There were soldiers living at 100 Talkenburg, about ten including an officer. The room to which she took me at 100 Talkenburg was one in which, it appeared, that many civilians had been living. There were no other civilians sleeping in the room when I inspected it. As far as I know, all other civilians in the house, were in the cellar.

The accused had a service knife when he appeared on orders on the morning of the 28 April 45. To my knowledge, nothing had been said to the accused about a knife, before he was brought up on orders.

We were the first troops to arrive in Falkenburg, we arrived about two days after the ~~offence~~ circumstances of the case.

Although I found only one stocking, the other could have been there. It was very dark, even at that hour.

The general character of the accused was very good. I never had any trouble with him.

In my dealings with the accused, I found him very courteous and diligent. He was not inclined to mix with the civilians ~~to any extent~~ under any circumstances.

I did not see any cut on the complainant's finger when she came to me that morning.

2nd Witness FOR PROSECUTION

B37061 CSM D.G. DOLMAN, D Coy., 1 Bn. RHLI sworn states:

At Falkenburg, Germany, at approx. 0400 hours, 28 Apr 45, I was summoned by Capt Rich, to accompany him to 100 Falkenburg to investigate a complaint laid by a German woman. The name of woman, I learned to be Anny Leuacker. On entering the woman's room, I found Pte Greene and Pte Connie asleep on the floor. I recognize Pte Greene as being the accused here in the court.

Pfc Greene had no trousers on but was fully dressed. I then searched the room assisted Capt Rich in searching the room. The following articles are what we found.

i One pair of ladies underpants (Marked Ex "B")
ii One silk stocking (Marked Ex "C")
iii One womans girdle (Marked Ex "D") iv One clasp knife, blade open (Marked Ex "E")

Capt Rich then ordered that the two men be guarded and we escorted the lady to the cellar where other civilians were sleeping.

Pfc Greene was guarded until being paraded before the Company Commander, later on the morning. He did not have somebody beside him at all times.

Cross Examination.

I saw Anny Kessaler around Coy H.Q. at which time, she was ordered to leave, by the Company Commander. She was looking through some of the rooms in Coy H.Q. apparently seeking something.

I saw her stop the soldiers on the road on another occasion, and start a conversation with them.

I couldn't say whether or not she had been warned against speaking to soldiers.

When I saw her at 0400 hours 18 Apt 40, it appeared to me that she had been drinking. At that time, I did not notice any cut on her finger.

Other than the exhibits listed, I did not find any other womens wearing apparel. Greene was fully dressed except for trousers. It was very dark in the room when we entered and to investigate, I used a flashlight in the search. It would not have been possible to recognize anyone in the room without a light.

Pvt Pete, I was no mention of a knife made to Greene prior to the time he appeared on orders that morning.

Greene was still asleep when he was placed under guard. Other than the woman, no person except Capt Koch and myself knew about the knife.

I've known Greene since last November, and he has always been a good soldier. Very quiet and always a gentleman. Greene was not inclined to mix with civilians. He was never any trouble around the Coy.

5th Witness for Prosecution

Frau Anny Reisacker, Trakenburg 10c, Germany sworn states

I was, on 27 Apr 45 in the room with three other ladies and a boy of fourteen. Then a stretcher bearer entered the room with two bottles in his hand. The bottles were one of liquor and one of Schnapps. The S.B asked us to drink with him and because they were afraid we started to drink. I stood down on the bed because I figured that the S.B kept telling me to go down on the altar. I was bold and refused to go down because I liked to sleep in a room together with the other women. I laid down on the bed and slept. This was the same room. The S.B. left the room I awakened I woke up and found a knife on my neck, the knife awakened me. I felt, on my left side, and tried to run away and there was another soldier on my left side. I felt the first soldier on my right side. I tried to cry and then my mouth was kept shut by a hand. I don't know quite how but something hit me on the head. I was then unconscious. When I awakened again

The soldiers had had a chance to go around with me. One soldier kept me right, the negro penetrated me, the negro was on my right side. I know it was a negro because I felt his hair. I kept saying "good boy" because I was afraid that he would kill me. I recognize the negro as the soldier on my right (the accused) here in the room. I waited until both soldiers were asleep then I went in my bare feet to the commander. Two of them went back with me. They used a flashlight in the room. One of them gave me my money and my jewellery back. The one must an officer. Then they took me down in the cellar. "Next morning, I was brought up and taken to the commander. The events in the bedroom took place after midnight, on the same morning that I went to see the commander. After I saw the commander, an interpreter came and my story was heard. Then a car came and took me to a hospital in Klapperberg. There, a doctor looked after me and I spent several hours there.

~~I was [illegible]~~ The clothes I was wearing were all cut up and I wore a coat over the top.

I recognize as mine

i. the woman's girdle (marked "X" "A")

ii. the woman's stocking (marked "X" "C")

iii. the woman's under pants (marked "X" "B").

I recognize the knife (marked "X" "D") as being similar to the one about which I have told you.

I last wore these clothes on that night.

my body was covered with black and blue marks. There was blood on my neck, my ~~my~~ He had cut my neck with the knife

Cross Examination

I am married. I first came to Falkenburg last November. I was in Dusseldorf three times and I was searched by the police in Dusseldorf. I went to live at LIEBIS' wife's. I came to Falkenburg. ~~I had been living~~ at no. 20 Falkenburg. I never quarrelled with the women in the house where the event took place except for one time when I quarrelled about a soldier. On that night I quarrelled with the civilians. I did not see the soldier at the time he was penetrating me. I do not recognize the man beside me. I saw him for the first time in Oldenburg at the court (the man brought in to stand beside her in court was Pte Wright). I had not seen the accused before returning to the room with the commander. The accused was continually frightening me with the knife and he was holding my mouth. Both soldiers were holding me, on the left side and on the right side. The one who was penetrating me was holding my hands on my back. I couldn't move. He laid down beside me and tried to penetrate me. I felt happy on this night. I was not sick at my stomach during the night. I was unconscious when he tried to penetrate me. I had not asked soldiers into the house before this time. I had spoken very much with soldiers. I asked several soldiers to look for my sister and her children. I talked a lot with the S.B. who brought the liquor to ~~my~~ room. We did not have a good time at all. I was only seeking information on my sister and

I stroked the face of a man in the room and said "good, good" This was ~~[illegible]~~ the man who tried to penetrate me. I did stroke his face before he tried, when he had the knife. I did not take his penis in my hand and say "good, good". I do not remember having stated this before. I remember making a statement to an officer, the morning of 28th. I remember saying then that I had held the penis of one of the soldiers and said "good, good" This was said to the soldier on my left side. I remember signing that statement (Summary of Evidence) two days after the events took place. He negro cut my underwear. I remember after this length of time, more of the particulars of the case. There were other civilians in the room when I went to sleep. I believe that they were all there. The next morning I knew that the other civilians had gone with the SS to the cellar to sleep. I was more afraid to sleep in the cellar than in the room, more afraid of soldiers. All the soldiers were drunk. I didn't make any noise when I discovered the soldiers were there, I pushed the guard aside and went to the commander. The guard was before the door of the house. I tried to call for help, all the people in the house knew it. The soldiers in the house could hear me and the people in the cellar did not hear it. I went to a farm with one soldier to look for my sister, I did not have sexual intercourse with a soldier before. I had been wearing the pants ("Exhibit B") for three or four days. I lost my jewellery in my house "Liby" when I was told to leave, this has nothing to do with the accused. No one asked whether or not I was unconscious at the time so I have not stated it before.

RE. EXAMINATION

The police were after me in Duesseldorf because I wouldn't work in a war plant. Of my sister and her children, one was wounded one was killed and has been buried. I can definitely state, that the soldier on my right penetrated me.

Question by J.A.

~~The night before the alleged incident I~~ understand that ~~some soldiers~~ were in the house, ~~you claimed that you went to the~~ commander ~~it was early in the morning~~? The evening before, there were soldiers in the house, they lived there. I did not see the accused in my room the previous evening. The accused came into the house from the street. The accused was not in the house before. The first time I saw him was when he had the clasp knife at my throat. There was no light in the room, it was dark. I could not see a person. I awakened with the feeling of a knife on my neck. I reached up to the face of the person and the knife and stroked it and said "Good boy, good boy" Then I felt his hair. I was lying on my back when the knife was on my neck. My underwear was cut before penetration, I was lying fully dressed ~~then~~ ~~of~~ My clothing was cut off. The other Soldier held me tight so that I couldn't move. I felt the hair of the man who penetrated me and I knew it was a negro. I felt the hair and knew it was a negro before penetration. I have been married twelve years. ~~Out~~ It was full penetration. I don't know where he was holding the knife during penetration. My hands were not held behind my back always.

When I regained consciousness, the soldier was lying on top of me and still penetrating me. I tried to struggle before I became unconscious, afterwards I couldn't move at all.

Sworn states

Notice was given to the accused that the witness did not appear at the Summary of Evidence but was to appear at the Trial. No objection by the defence

I identify a woman brought in to the court as Anny Reisacher. On 28 Apr 45 I was on duty at 8th Br. G.H. in Cloppenburg, Germany. I examined the complainant on 28 Apr 45 at 1500 hrs. After hearing her story I examined her. My examination divided in to two parts. First, a general examination, she was a rather slovenly dressed woman who looked older than her stated age. She had a small cut, which was healing and scabbed over on the left side of her neck at the "Adams Apple". There was a bruise on the right side of her neck, in size 3½ inch by ½ inch. On her right hand there was a small cut on the ring finger which was covered with adhesive plaster. Her body skin, was not particularly clean and there was evidence of scratching

I no Special Examinations.

Breasts showed no bruising or scratches

Pudendal Area showed no bruising or scratches.

The introitus admitted two examining fingers easily. There was no evidence of discharge and no blood on the examining fingers. There was no derangement of the female internal organs.

The examination findings are consistent with that of a married woman

It would be impossible to state that she had or had not had sexual intercourse on the previous twelve hours.

CROSS EXAMINATION.

I would suspect that she had had a bath in the previous twelve hours. I found no evidence of semen on the vagina or on the thighs. I would not expect to find evidence of such if she had been raped within the previous twelve hours. The mark on the womans throat, (pointed out in court) could not have been caused in the previous twelve hours to the examination. She complained at the time of a cut on her head but I could find no evidence of such a cut, due possibly to the untidy condition of her hair. I would not expect necessarily to find evidence of a blow sufficient to render her unconscious within the twelve hours. Even if some instrument had been used, evidences of a blow would not necessarily show. Other than the points I have made, she showed no black and blue marks, bruises of the black and blue variety caused within the previous twelve hours would in all probability have still showed at the type of impregnation. In my opinion, the scratches noted & mentioned were caused by the woman herself. The most common cases of intercourse with violence usually show signs of scratching or bruising around the PUDENDAL area, in this case there were no such signs.

Reply to Motion by Defence. 14

The Court has heard the evidence for the prosecution. It shows that the complainant in the very early hours of the morning ran in her bare feet to another house to make a complaint - a fact which would strongly suggest that something serious had happened

A knife with open blade was found in the room - it was an army knife and in a room not inhabited by army personnel. Suspicion must rest in the court's mind that the complainant's references to the knife must be true - and therefore there would be a basis for the argument of submission through fear of immediate bodily harm.

The complainant has sworn she was penetrated - there is nothing in the medical evidence which denies this although such a fact does not amount to corroboration, certainly the Court must realise that the fact is possible and demand to hear the defence's story.

If the Court feels there is more to the story than they have heard which might confirm any suspicions in their minds raised by the evidence of the prosecution, then I suggest they must hear out the case.

First Witness
For Defence

B-119276 Pte Herbert Russell GREENE, 1 Bn Royal Hamilton Light Infantry, having been duly sworn states:

I enlisted in the army on the 13th November 1943. I have been approximately 7 months with the Hamilton Light Infantry. I am 31 years of age and am married with 4 children. I have had no crimes in the army nor in civilian life. On the night 27/28 April 1945 at approximately 2300 hrs in FALKENBURG, Germany we had a drinking party in the cooker. I got feeling very happy. When we had drank all the liquor, we suggested we get another bottle. One of the fellows said he had a bottle at the barracks, so I said I would go over with him. When we got to the house which was across the street from the cooker, I stopped in the hallway while he went to get the bottle in another part of the house. At that time a woman came from the back of the house. She was crying. She ran towards me and threw her arms around my shoulders. This woman was Anny Reisacker. It seemed like there was some kind of difficulty in the house. All I could understand from her conversation was "Nix Kaput Gestapo". Then another woman came running out behind her. She grabbed me by the other arm and pointed towards the back of the house where the cellar was. She wanted to show me something. I didn't know what to make of it all at the time. At this time Pte Samuk was standing in the hall. I asked him what the trouble was. He said "she has just been fucked by four or five fellows". I didn't want anything more to do with her so I stepped outside the house and waited for the other soldier who was getting the bottle to come out. I was there about a minute when he came out. We went back to the cooker. When we got there, two other fellows who had been drinking with us had passed out and we put them to bed. Then I and this other fellow went back to finish the bottle of liquor we had brought over. While we were drinking there was some excitement caused outside by some of the other soldiers firing their rifles and guns. I went out to see what it was, and the boys that had been drinking with me were trying their guns out. Just then Pte Mattrass asked me what I had done with his rifle. I thought a moment and said "I must have left it at the other house where I got the liquor". I thought I had left it in the hallway, so I said that I would go over and get his rifle. Pte O'Connor said he would go with me. We were both very drunk at that time. When we got to the house (100 Falkenburg) we looked over the hallway for the rifle but couldn't find it. We opened up a door in the hallway and entered the room. We distinguished bed clothes on the floor and O'Connor fell on a mattress with the idea of sleeping. There was practically no light at that time. I got down to lay down too and heard a noise and said there was somebody in the room. Pte O'Connor said "I don't think so". I struck a match and was feeling around and my hand touched a leg and when I struck the match I could distinguish this woman lying there with her back towards the door. Her dress was up over her thighs and from my impression she had no pants on. Just then she woke up and sat up and threw her arms around my neck. She said "Good Good", and her passion was so great at the time in the state I was in, I lay down beside her. She was chattering in German, but all I could make out was "Good Good" at that time. She was feeling around where my Dick was and started playing with my Dick. Then she started to kiss me. She was very passionate and when she put her tongue in my mouth, I got very sick and was very disgusted. I turned my back to her at that time. Through all this O'Connor had not said a word or made a move and I figured he had passed out of the picture.

The room started going around and around and I felt I was floating on air. My last remembrance was when I turned my back to this woman. I then passed out of the picture. When I next work up, O'Connor awakened me, and I was told that I was under close arrest. It was about 0700 hours. I got up and found that my pants had been off, which I couldn't remember taking off that morning. I walked out to the hallway and was told that I couldn't leave and that I was under close arrest. I said that I would like to go to the kitchen and get washed and shaved. They argued that they could not let me go, so I just walked out and they followed me. The knife produced as Exhibit "D" is not mine.

Cross-examination by Prosecutor

Prior to the 27th April 1945 I had heard about fraternization. I understood that we were not to have anything to do in any shape or form with German civilians, unless it was a case of duty. Prior to the 27th April, 1945, I had read Field Marshal Montgomery's pamphlet on "Non-Fraternization", and I had signed an acknowledgement that I had read the pamphlet. If I did not leave the room after finding there was a woman there with her dress up over her thighs, it was due to the fact that her passion was so great at the time and I could not resist her, so I lay down beside her. I did not realize at the time that it was fraternization. In the state I was in, I never thought of her as a German woman. I did not have sexual intercourse with her. I would say that she had no pants on. My pants were lying beside me when I woke up. I was sick at the stomach a little.

Re-examination by Defending Officer

I did not at any time place my hand on the woman's private parts. I did not vomit. I had cramps and felt like I was going to womit. I went to the room at 0200 hours. A few minutes after entering the room I struck a match and discovered a woman there. I did not notice when the woman left the room. When I struck the match, I saw the woman whom I recognize as the complainant.

Captain A.A.H. Parker, Royal Hamilton Light Infantry having been duly sworn states:

I know Anny Reisacker only by sight. What I know about her is that on the 26th April 1945, "C" Coy was about 1000 yards from the town of FALKENBURG and within the Coy position, I recognized this woman. She first came to me and wanted to know if she could go into FALKENBURG. I told her she couldn't because there were no Canadian troops there. She commenced to argue and remained in Coy HQ for sometime talking to different members of the Coy HQ. I just couldn't tell what she said but I gathered she was making a nuisance of herself. She had a familar sort of tone. I told the SM to take her down the cellar. About one-half hour later I came back to Coy HQ and found she was upstairs and with the same familar tone, roaming about with the soldiers in the building. It is pretty hard to qualify the word "familar" tone. It was entirely foreign to a woman who had been beaten and I gathered at the time she was a loose character.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge-Advocate it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B).

Third Witness For Defence

B-1163171 Pte Nattrass, F.R. - Royal Hamilton Light Infantry, having been duly sworn states:

I am employed in the "D" Coy Stores. I saw the accused on the night 27-28 April 1945. On the night 27-28 April 1945, the accused went to the house directly across from the Coy Stores to get my rifle. It was sometime before midnight. I was trying to get some sleep and was in bed at the time.

Presented disclosure & cross-examined

In the opinion of the Court and Judge-Advocate it is not necessary to comply with RP 83(B).

Fourth Witness For Defence

B-79510 Pte Freelend, A.W.H., Royal Hamilton Light Infantry having been duly sworn states:

On the morning of the 28 April 1945, I was on guard from Coy HQ across the street where the incident took place. I saw the accused Pte Greene go to 100 FALKENBURG. He mentioned something about a rifle. At the time I was standing across the road at the pppcsite side of 100 FALKENBURG. The incident I referred to is that the night I was on guard a woman known as Anny Reisacker came out and she was sick. It was 0250 hours. Earlier in the evening, the previous night I was standing out there talking to the guard that was on and there was quite a bit of disturbance going on across the street at 100 FALKENBURG. I walked over there and just talked to some of the fellows and asked what the distrubance was. They just said the boys were feeling good. I could hear women's voices from inside the building. I just went back over to our Coy HQ. After the woman Anny Reisacker was sick, she returned to 100 FALKENBURG where she resided. I went off guard at 0300 hours and went to bed in Coy HQ. I was awakened by a woman coming into Coy HQ and she asked for the Commandant. It was about 0430 or 0500 hours.

Presented disclosure & cross-examined

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge-Advocate it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B).

Address to Court on Behalf of Accused (18)

As the charge is framed, it is submitted that the only ground on which the accused may be found guilty of the charge of fraternization is by the Court being convinced that the accused had sexual intercourse with the complainant as the court will no doubt be adviced by the A D J A the guilt of the accused must be established in the court's mind beyond any reasonable doubt I do not propose to review the evidence, or rather lack of it, in this regard suffice it to say that, under the authorities already quoted in the motion for dismissal of the charge, the uncorroborated & vague evidence of the complainant cannot, it is submitted, be accepted by the court as establishing intercourse beyond a reasonable doubt particularly in view of the accused's denials and strong denial that such intercourse took place & the evidence of Pte Packard that complainant was wandering about outside after intercourse was supposed to take place, any light on complaint was made. Were this question of intercourse the only point at issue, as is the case with the charge as presently framed, the matter would be at an end and the court could not, I submit, do other than dismiss the charge. However, I believe the A D J A may advise the court that under a certain R P there may be a different finding, disregarding the matter of intercourse. This R P 49 (d) specifically states that the difference in facts proved as opposed to facts charged must not be so material as to have prejudiced the accused in his defence. It is strongly submitted that to change the whole basis for the laying of the charge does materially prejudice the accused in his evidence, the accused freely admitted being in the same room as the complainant, which fact might possibly, on a special finding, form some ground for finding him guilty of the offence, whereas had he known that the charge as framed might be altered, it is unlikely that he would have gone into the box at all, but instead would have relied on the court failing to find evidence against him guilty beyond a reasonable doubt on the flimsy & uncorroborated evidence of the complainant

However, even should the ~~charge be~~ court be satisfied that they may make a special finding by disregarding the necessity for proof of intercourse, I strongly submit there is no evidence ~~as~~ sufficient to ~~cause~~ the court to find the accused guilty beyond a reasonable doubt. The whole tenor of the evidence goes to prove that the accused was an involuntary agent - that he was in such a state of intoxication that he was incapable of repelling the passionate advances of the complainant at first, but after a moment turned away from her in disgust - it was probably this repulse which galled the pride of this despicable woman who was used to having what she pleased with men, ~~but~~ and caused her to go to the company H.Q. to make a complaint & get the accused into trouble. In truth "Hell hath no fury like a woman scorned". This in itself, together with the accused's repulse of the woman earlier in the evening, when she threw her arms about him, must, I submit, leave in the mind of the court a very great "reasonable doubt" as to the guilt of the accused. With strong evidence from the prosecution's own witnesses as to the excellent character & quietness of the accused, plus the same evidence as to the complainant's low character, there cannot I submit, be any doubt that the woman not only was the aggressor throughout, but that under the circumstances the accused was incapable of forming any intent or of realizing that he was committing an offence.

Accordingly, I ask that the charge of fraternization be dismissed

Address by Prosecution

The accused is charged with fraternization with a German woman. The topic of fraternization has become notorious throughout the allied armies. The same brilliant leaders who have led us to victory have decreed that allied soldiers will not fraternize with the German people. They have set out carefully and clearly what acts constitute fraternization. Field Marshall Montgomery has issued a pamphlet explaining in simple terms the salient features of the order. Pte. Greene has read that pamphlet and gave the Court a good account of what he understood - before the events in question - concerning non-fraternization. Then he admits laying down beside a half-naked woman in a house where he knew German woman to be living. He admits permitting her to feel around his private parts and kiss him. He tells us he was drunk but it must be remembered that drunkenness is no excuse to a military offence. It may of course be taken into consideration when considering the punishment - see MML ¶106.

The allied troops have been impressed with the need to win the peace and it has been pointed out that one ingredient to winning the peace is not to fraternize with Germans. It follows that any Canadian soldier who does fraternize is definitely obstructing or helping to obstruct this policy and is guilty of an act or conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline. Order and discipline in the Canadian Army will face a serious crisis if cases of fraternization are not firmly dealt with.

I respectfully ~~submit~~ suggest to the Court that you have no alternative but to find the accused guilty of fraternizing with army heisacher, an inhabitant of Germany. It may I submit be necessary for the Court to record a special finding as to which of the acts of the accused amount to fraternization.

PLEA IN MITIGATION

Pte HERBERT GREENE, , is 31 years old, married with a wife and 4/ children. He joined the Army in 1943 and came to the European Theatre in SHORTLY AFTER and has served from NOV 1944 up to the present with the RHLI.

As yet he has had NO crimes. His conduct sheet is absolutely clear and his companions and offrs speak in the highest terms of his attitude and service in the unit.

This is NOT a flagrant act of fraternization but an act which peculiar circumstances and an immoral and degrading and abhorrent woman engineered him into. He was in a condition of drink and with the advances made by this loose and disgusting woman found himself PRACTICALLY being seduced by her. He had no part of her earlier in the day when she had made advances and was in fact revolted by her. Then he finds her in the same room at night where he was going to sleep with the development as related by the evidence. He does not remember associating with her in any way. He was there and she chose to be there and that's all there is to it. There is no intercourse proven or any other act of volition on his part which the Court can seize upon to say he wanted to have her there with him.

Therefore I ask the Court to regard this thing as a minor offence from these circumstances and lay down the punishment according to the scale provided in 2 Cdn Corps RO 480.

Few soldiers in inf units now exist who have Greene's good record. For the sake of a bad woman, it is a great pity to spoil it at this stage of the game.

I have no hesitation in asking the Court to deal with this charge most leniently and to show to a good Cdn soldier that Courts will assess in no uncertain terms the acts of such German women as appear in this case who are, I submit, beneath contempt.

Statement as to Character of Pte Herbert Greene

I have known the accused Pte Herbert Greene, since he was a boy of about eight or nine years old. He lives in Owen Sound, went to school there and his family live only about two city blocks from my own home. He comes from a good negro family and has a brother Garfield in the service of the Canadian Army with the Armd Corps now in Germany. They are all members of the B M E church in Owen Sound and are known as hard working people and good citizens in our community.

Herbert Greene is particularly well known to me as he used to call for washing from my mothers house to take to his mother and after this time he used to deliver papers to our home. He was a great favourite of my father and mother.

Later when he went to work for a living, he was employed as a cook on the boats running from Owen Sound. After he had some experience along this line he was employed by my father as a second cook at his hotel in Owen Sound where he gave good service and where he worked until he joined the army. During his employment at the hotel he was an exemplary employee and got on well with the other servants.

He is always polite, mild mannered and pleasant. He is a person who can be trusted and in my opinion has a high regard for the truth.

I am very much surprised that he found himself involved in circumstances of this kind but I attribute the whole matter to accident and not to a planned ~~or premeditated~~ desire to be with the woman in question.

FRAU ANNY REISACKER, Falkenburg 100, sworn, states: 30th April 1945.

At the 28th April 194.

We were at the evening together with 5 persons in one room. Then entered a Canadian soldier, which was billeted in the house. He felt happy entered the room. He had two bottles of liquor + Schnaps. "Everyone should have a drink" he said. We drunk all. I should have said many bad words, because the latter days I was hindered very much by the soldiers. It was about 11 o'clock. I slept in the same room. I woke up and found out a knife was put on my neck. "Dein Hose Frau kaputt" said the soldier. On both my sides there was laying down a soldier. He, I do not know, which one They but my underwear, + nothing. He with the knife. I tried to get them quiet. He tried several times to cut me with the knife. He who laid down on my right hand side forced me and I felt on his hand that he was a negro. Then he kept my mouth then closed and went out from me. Both soldiers stayed there and I so went out to the. I ordered the guard before the house and went down for help. Then my underwear was down. Two persons came down with me. They took the knife and underwear. They sent me in the cellar and I stayed there. One of the soldiers came to me up and I had to come down to the captain. He asked me several questions. Then I was sent down to the hospital in Cappenberg. The doctor examined me and I came back 29th April.

Questioned by the accused:

Q. At what point in the above story am I supposed to have made my first appearance.

A. The first time I saw the negro was when he put the knife on my neck.

IN THE CASE OF B 119276 Pte Greene, H.R.

1st WITNESS FOR PROSECUTION

Capt W Rich, 2 i/c "D" Coy, 1 Bn RHLI sworn states:

At FALKENBURG, GERMANY on the morning of 28 Apr 45 at about 0900 hrs, a German woman who I later identified as Annie Reisacker living at 100 FALKENBURG, Germany, came to Coy HQ and roused me, complaining by way of crying, indicating that she was in some trouble. She wore no shoes or stockings or hat or coat. She pointed to her dress which was torn. I called CSM Dolman, and together we went into a room indicated to us by the woman and found two soldiers sleeping on bed clothes laid on the floor. The were Pte Greene and Pte Connor of D Coy, RHLI. I identify Pte Greene as the accused here present. Pte Greene was fully dressed but without trousers. Pte Connor was fully dressed. I searched them and the bed clothes and found,

i A woman's girdle (Exhibit "A")
ii A pair of womens under pants (Exhibit "B") iii One Womans' sild stocking (Exhibit "C") iv One service clasp knife-open (Exhibit "D")

Above articles are produced as exhibits and are marked respectively exhibits "A" "B" "C" "D".

I took the woman to the cellar of the house in care of other civilians and gave instructions that the room containing the soldiers, would be guarded. I left the soldiers undisturbed in the room. The furniture in the room was cleared back to the walls and there were many quilts and bed clothes on the floor.

Cross Examination

I saw the complainant the first time two days before, when she had come to the Company area. She came to HQ and from what I understood, said she had lived in the house occupied by HQ. I told her that civilians were not allowed to live in the house and directed her to 100 Falkenburg. I saw her many times after that. I had the impression that she would bear watching and I did so. Most of the day she spent looking out of the window or in some trip up or down the street. On two or three occasions she came across to Coy HQ with small complaints in an endeavor to get articles from the house. I, personally, warned her on three occasions, that it was forbidden to enter Coy HQ. On another occasion, I found her walking up the street with a soldier, at about sunset, and on investigating, she had asked the soldier to accompany her as protection to the house of a friend. I found that she had no friends in the house to which she went, but there were some soldiers drinking. She appeared to be making overtures to soldiers in the area.

There were soldiers living at 100 Falkenburg, about ten including an officer. The room to which she took us at 100 Falkenburg was one in which, it apreared, that many civilians had been living. There were no other civilians sleeping in the room when I inspected it. As far as I know all other civilians in the house, were in the cellar.

The accused had a service knife when he appeared on orders on the morning of the 28 April 45. To my knowledge, nothing had been said to the accused about a knife, before he was brought up on orders.

We were the first troops to arrive in Falkenburg, we arrived about two days before the circumstances of this case.

Although I found only one stocking the other could have been there. It was very dark, even at that hour.

The general character of the accused, is very good. I never had any trouble with him.

In my dealings with the accused, I found him very courteous and diligent. He was not inclined to mix with the civilians under any circumstances.

I did not see any cut on the complainant's finger when she came to me that morning.

R P 83 (b) has been complied with.

2nd WITNESS FOR PROSECUTION

B 37061 CSM D G DOLMAN "D" COY, 1 Bn RHLI sworn states:

At Falkenburg, Germany, at approx 0400 hours, 28 Apr 45, I was summoned by Capt Rich, to accompany him to 100 Falkenburg to investigate a complaint laid by a German woman. The name of woman, I learned to be Anny Reisacker. On entering the woman's room, I found Pte Greene and Pte Connor asleep on the floor. I recognize Pte Greene as being the accused here in the court. Pte Greene had no trousers on but Pte Connor was fully dressed. I then assisted Capt Rich in searching the room. The following articles are what we found:

i One pair of ladies underpants (Marked Ex "B")
ii One silk stocking (Marked Ex "C")
iii One womans girdle (Marked Ex "D") iv One clasp knife, bladeopen (Marked Ex "D")

Capt Rich then ordered that the two men be guarded and we escorted the lady to the cellar where other civilians were sleeping.

Pte Greene was guarded until being paraded before the Company Commander, later in the morning. He did not have somebody beside him at all times.

Cross Examination

I saw Anny Reisacker around Coy HQ at which time, she was ordered to leave, by the Company Commander. She was look' g through some of the rooms in Coy HQ apparently seeking something.

I saw her stop two soldiers on the road on another occasion, and start a conversation with them.

I couldn't say whether or not she had been warned against speaking to soldiers.

When I saw her at 0400 hrs 28 Apr 45, it appeared to me th at she had been drinking. At that time, I did not notice any cut on her finger.

Other than the exhibits listed, I did not find any other womans wearing apparel. Greene was fully dressed except for trousers. It was very dark in the room when we went over to investigate. I used a flashlight in the search. It would not have been possible to recognize anyone in the room without a light. There was no mention of a knife made to Greene prior to the time he appeared on orders that morning.

Greene was still asleep when he was placed under guard. Other than the woman, no person except Capt Rich and myself knew about the knife.

I've known Greene since last November, and he has always been a good soldier. Very quiet and always a gentleman.

Greene was not inclined to mix with civilians. He was never any trouble around the Coy.

R P 83 (b) complied with.

3rd WITNESS FOR PROSECUTION

Frau Anny Reisacker, Falkenburg 100, Germany sworn states:

I was, on 27 Apr 45, in the room with three other ladies and a boy of fourteen. Then a stretcher bearer entered the room with two bottles in his hand. The bottles were one of liquor and one of schnapps. The SB asked us to drink with him and because we were afraid we started to drink. The SB kept telling me to go down in the cellar. I was bold and refused to go down because I liked to sleep in a room together with the other women. I laid down on the bed and slept. This was the same room. The SB left the room. I woke up and found a knife on my neck, the knife on my neck awakened me. I felt on my left side, and tried to run away and there was another soldier on my left side. I felt the first soldier on my right side. I tried to cry and then my mouth was kept shut by a hand. I don't know quite how but something hit me on the head. I was then unconscious. When I awakened again the soldiers had had a chance to go around with me. One soldier kept me tight, the negro penetrated me, the negro was on my right side. I know it was a negro because I felt his hair, I kept saying "good boy" because I was afraid that he would kill me. I recognize the negro as the soldier on my right (the accused) here in this room. I waited until both soldiers were asleep then I went in my bare feet to the commander. Two of them went back with me. They used a flashlight in the room. One of them gave me my money and my ~~jewelery back~~, this one was an officer. Then they took me down in the cellar. Next morning, I was brought up and taken to the commander. The events in the bedroom took place after midnight, on the same morning that I went to see the commander. After I saw the commander, an interpreter came and my story was heard. Then a car came and took me to a hospital in Clappenburg. There, a doctor looked after me and I spent several hours there.

The clothes I was weaing were all cut up and I wore a coat over the top.

I recognize as mine
i the woman's girdle (Marked ex "A") ii the woman's stocking (marked Ex "C") iii The woman's under pants (marked Ex "B")

I recognize the knife (marked Ex "D") as being similar to the one about which I have told you.

I last wore these clothes on hat night.

My body was covered with black and blue marks. There was blood on my neck. He had cut my neck with the knife.

Cross Examination

I am married. I first came to Falkenburg last November. I was to Dusseldorf three times and I was searched by the police in Dusseldorf. I went to live at "LIEBIJ" when I came to Falkenburg. I never quarreled with the women in the house where the events took place except for one time when I quarreled about a soldier. On that night, I quarreled with the civilians. I did not see the soldier at the time he was penetrating me. I do not recognize the man beside me. I saw him for the first time in Oldenburg at the court (the man brought in to stand beside her in court was Pte Niznik). I had not seem the accused before returning to the room with the commander. The accused was continually frightening me with the knife and he was holding me, on the left side and on the right side. The one who was penetrating me was holding my hands on my back, I couldn't move. He laid down beside me and tried to penetrate me. I felt happy on this night. I was not sick at my stomach during the night. I was unconscious when he tried to penetrate me. I had not asked soldier's into the house before this time. I had spoken very much with soldiers. I asked several soldiers to look for my sister and her children. I talked a lot with the SB who brought the liquor to my room. We did not have a good time at all. I was only seeking information on my sister and her children.

I stroked the face of a man in the room and said "good, good". This was the man who tried to penetrate me. I did stroke h's face before he tried, when he had the knife. I did not take his penis in my hand and say "good, good". I do not remember having stated this before. I remember making a statement to an officer, the morning of 2nd Apr. I remember saying then that I had held the penus of one of the soldiers and said "good, good". This was said to the soldier on my left side. I remember signing that statement (Summary of Evidence) two days after the events took place.

The negro cut my underwear. I remember after this length of time, more of the particulars of the case. There were other civilians in the room when I went to sleep, I believe that they were all there. The next morning I knew that the other civilians had gone with the SB to the cellar to sleep. I was more afraid to sleep in the cellar than in the room, more afraid of soldiers. All the soldiers were drunk. I didn't make any noise when I discovered the soldiers were there, I pushed the guard aside and went to the commander. The guard was before the door of the house. I tried to call for help, all the people in the house knew it. The soldiers in the house could hear it and the people in the cellar did not hear it. I went to a farm with one soldier to look for my sister, I did not have sexual intercourse with a soldier before. I had been weaing the pants (Exhibit "B") for three or four days. I lost my jewellery in my house "Leiby" when I was told to leave;this had nothing to do with the accused. No one asked whether or not I was unconscious at the time so I havent stated it before.

Re-examination

The police were after me in Dusseldorf because I wouldn't work in a war plant. Of my sister and her children, one was wounded one was killed and has been buried. I can definitely state that the soldier on my right penetrated me.

Question by JA

The evening before, there were soldiers in the house, they lived there. I did not see the accused in my room the previous evening. The accused came into the house from the street. The accused was not in the house before. The first time I saw him was when he had the clasp knife at my throat. There was no light in the room, it was dark. You could not see a person. I awakened with the feeling of a knife on my neck. I reached up to the face of the person with the knife and stroked it and said "good boy, good boy" then I felt his hair. I was lying on my back when the knife was on my neck. My underwear was cut before penetration, I was lying fully dressed. My clothing was cut off. The other soldier held me tight so that I couldn't move. I felt the hair of the man who penetrated me and I knew it was a negro. I felt the hair and knew it was a negro before penetration. I have been married twelve years. It was full penetration. I don't know where he was holding the knife furing penetration. My hands were not held behind my back always.

When I regained consciousness, the soldier was lying on top of me and still penetrating me. I tried to struggle before I became unconscious afterwards I couldn't move at all.

CORRECTION OF EVIDENCE

The third witness for the prosecution on hearing her evidence read to her, makes the following correction.

"I did not hold the penus of any soldier in my hand at any time that night".

To correct an answer to a question by JA

"The first time I saw the accused was when I returned to the room with the commander and other person."

Prosecutor and Defending Officer decline to examine on the corrections.

FOURTH WITNESS FOR PROSECUTION

Capt G E Fryer 8 CGH RCAMC sworn states:

Notice was given to the accused that this witness did not appear at the Summary of Evidence but was to appear at the trial. - No objection by the defence.

I identify a woman brought in to the court as Anny Reisacker. On 28 Apr 45 I was on duty at 88 Br G H in Cloppenburg, Germany. I examined her. My examination divided into two parts. First, a general examination, she was a rather slovenly dressed woman who looked older than her stated age. She had a small cut, which was healing and scabbed over on the left side of her neck at the "Adams Apple". There was a bruise on the right side of her neck, in size ½ inch by ¼ inch. On her right hand there was a small cut on the ring finger which was covered with adhesive plaster. Her body skin, was not particularly clean and there was evidence of scratching

Two Special Examinations

Breasts showed no bruising or scratches.
The entroilus admitted to two examining fingers easily.
There was no evidence of discharge and no blood on the examining fingers. There was no derangement of the female internal organs.

These examination findings are consistent with that of a married woman.

It would be impossible to state that she had or had not had sexual intercourse in the previous twelve hours.

Cross Examination

I would suspect that she hadn't had a bath in the previous twelve hours. I found no evidence of semen in the vagina or on the thighs. I wouldn't expect to find evidence of such if she had been raped within the previous twelve hours. The mark on the womans throat, (pointed out in court) could not have been caused in the previous twelve hours to the examination. She complained at the time of a cut on her head but I could find no evidence of such a cut, due possibly to the untidy condition of her hair. I would not expect necessarily to find evidence of a blow sufficient to render her unconscious with previous twelve hours. Even if some instrument had been used evidences of a blow would not necessarily show. Other than the points I have made, she showed no black and blue marks. Bruises of the black and blue variet caused with the previous twelve hours would in all probability have still showed at the time of my examination. In my opinion the scratches which I mentioned were caused by the woman herself. The most common cases of intercouse with violence usually show signs of scratching or bruising around the PUDENDAL area, in this case there were no such signs.

R P 83 (b) complied with.

The court was adjourned 1730 hours until ~~1030 hrs 17 May 1945~~. At that time the court reassembled pursuant to adjournment: present the same members as on 16 May 1945.

Defending Offr makes a motion of No case.

Prosecutor replies.

MOTION FOR DISMISSAL OF RAPE & FRATERNIZATION

Prosecution must prove each of the following:
(1) No Consent
(2) Penetration
(3) Corroboration

Penetration — Only evidence that of complainant - very vague - claims was unconscious at time of penetration, & only by leading questions by court could get her to claim feal penetration.

Consent — Lied re mark on neck from knife.
Doubt whether it was accused's knife.
No evidence of screams
No evidence of struggle
Said "Good boy, good boy".

Corroboration — Archibold's Criminal Pleading - Evidence & Practise 31 Ed by Butler & Tarsia 1943. At p 1025 para 1 "Though corroboration of the evidence of the prosecution is not essential in law, it is, in practice, required and it is the practice to warn the jury against the danger of acting upon her uncorroborated testimony, particularly where the issue is consent or no consent" R V Graham 74 J.P. 246. Even where there is such a warning but matters are in fact so, the conviction may be quashed in a proper case, on appeal."

At P 1023 para 4 "Such complaint (of rape) cannot be regarded as corroboration of the story of the prosecutrix and it is a misdirection to refer to it as such. R V Coulthread 24 Cr app R 44. No corroboration here watsoever.

Accordingly move that first charge (of rape) be dismissed.

All the above as to complainant's credibility, impeached as it was by prosecution's own witnesses as to hard questionable character, as opposed to good character of accused, applies to the alternative charge of fraternization - accused should not be convicted on complainants unsupported word, and I move the alternative charge of fraternization be dismissed.

REPLY TO MOTION BY DEFENCE

The Court has heard the evidence for the prosecution. It shows that the complainant in the very early hours of the morning ran in her bare feet to another house to make a complaint - a fact which would strongly suggest that something serious had happened.

A knife with open blade was found in the room - it was an Army knife and in a room not inhabited by Army personnel. Suspicion must rest in the court's mind that the complainant's references to the knife must be true and therefore there would be a basis for the argument of submission through few of immediate bodily harm.

The complainant has sworn she was penetrated - there is nothing in the medical evidence which denies this. Although such a fact does not amount to corroboration certainly the court must realize that the fact is possible and demand to hear the defence's story.

If the Court feels there is more to the story than they have heard which might confirm any suspicions in their minds raised by the evidence of the prosecution, then I suggest they must hear out the case.

First Witness For Defence

B-119276 Pte Herbert Russell GREENE, 1 Bn Royal Hamilton Light Infantry, having been duly sworn states:

I enlisted in the army on the 13th November 1943. I have been approximately 7 months with the Hamilton Light Infantry. I am 31 years of age and am married with 4 children. I have had no crimes in the army nor in civilian life. On the night 27/28 April 1945 at approximately 2300 hrs in FALKENBURG, Germany we had a drinking party in the cooker. I got feeling very happy. When we had drank all the liquor, we suggested we get another bottle. One of the fellows said he had a bottle at the barracks, so I said I would go over with him. When we got to the house which was across the street from the cooker, I stopped in the hallway while he went to get the bottle in another part of the house. At that time a woman came from the back of the house. She was crying. She ran towards me and threw her arms around my shoulders. This woman was Anny Reisacker. It seemed like there was some kind of difficulty in the house. All I could understand from her conversation was "Nix Kaput Gestapo". Then another woman came running out behind her. She grabbed me by the other arm and pointed towards the back of the house where the cellar was. She wanted to show me something. I didn't know what to make of it all at the time. At this time Pte Sanuik was standing in the hall. I asked him what the trouble was. He said "she has just been fucked by four or five fellows". I didn't want anything more to do with her so I stepped outside the house and waited for the other soldier who was getting the bottle to come out. I was there about a minute when he came out. We went back to the cooker. When we got there, two other fellows who had been drinking with us had passed out and we put them to bed. Then I and this other fellow went back to finish the bottle of liquor we had brought over. While we were drinking there was some excitement caused outside by some of the other soldiers firing their rifles and guns. I went out to see what it was, and the boys that had been drinking with me were trying their guns out. Just then Pte Nattrass asked me what I had done with his rfile. I thought a moment and said "I must have left it at the other house where I got the liquor". I thought I had left it in the hallway, so I said that I would go over and get his rifle. Pte O'Connor said he would go with me. We were both very drunk at that time. When we got to the house (100 Falkenburg) we looked over the hallway for the rifle but couldn't find it. We opened up a door in the hallway and entered the room. We distinguished bed clothes on the floor and O'Connor fell on a mattress with the idea of sleeping. There was practically no light at that time. I got down to lay down too and heard a noise and said there was somebody in the room. Pte O'Connor said "I don't think so". I struck a match and was feeling around and my hand touched a leg and when I struck the match I could distinguish this woman lying there with her back towards the door. Her dress was up over her thighs and from my impression she had no pants on. Just then she woke up and sat up and threw her arms around my neck. She said "Good Good", and her passion was so great at the time in the state I was in, I lay down beside her. She was chattering in German, but all I could make out was "Good Good" at that time. She was feeling around where my Dick was and started playing with my Dick. Then she started to kiss me. She was very passionate and when she put her tongue in my mouth, I got very sick and was very disgusted. I turned my back to her at that time.

Through all this O'Connor had not said a word or made a move and I figured he had passed out of the picture. The room started going around and around and I felt I was floating on air. My last remembrance was when I trumed my back to this woman. I then passed out of the picture. When I next woke up, O'Connor awakened me, and I was told that I was under close arrest. It was about 0700 hours. I got up and found that my pants had been off, which I couldn't remember taking off that morning. I walked out to the hallway and was told that I couldn't leave and that I was under close arrest. I said that I would like to go to the kitchen and get washed and shaved. They argued that they could not let me go, so I just walked out and they followed me. The knife produced as Exhibit "D" is not mine.

Cross-examination by Prosecutor

Prior to the 27th April 1945 I had heard about fraternization. I understood that we were not to have anything to do in any shape or form with German civilians, unless it was a case of duty. Prior to the 27th April, 1945, I had read Field Marshal Montgomery's pamphlet on "Non-Fraternization", and I had signed an acknowledgement that I had read the pamphlet. If I did not leave the room after finding there was a woman there with her dress up over her thighs, it was due to the fact thather passion was so great at the time and I could not resist her, so I lay down beside her. I did not realize at the time that it was fraternization. In the state I was in, I never thought of her as a German woman. I did not have sexual intercouse with her. I would say that she had no pants on. My pants were lying beside me when I woke up. I was sick at the stomach a little.

Re-examination by Defending Officer

I did not at any time place my hand on the woman's private parts. I did not vomit. I had cramps and felt like I was going to vomit. I went to the room at 0200 hours. A few minutes after entering the room I struck a match and discovered a woman there. I did not notice when the woman left the room. When I struck the match, I saw the woman whom I recognize as the complainant.

Second Witness For Defence

Captain A.A.H. Parker, Royal Hamilton Light Infantry having been duly sworn states:

I know Anny Reisacker only by sight. What I know about her is that on the 26th April 1945, "C" Coy was about 1000 yards from the town of FALKENBURG and with the Coy position, I recognized this woman. She first came to me and wanted to know if she could go into FALKENBURG. I told her she couldn't becasue there were no Canadian troops there. She commenced to argue and remained in Coy HQ for sometime talking to different members of the Coy HQ. I just couldn't tell what she said but I gathered she was making a nuisance of herself. She had a familar sort of tone. I told the SM to take her down the cellar. About one-half hour later I came back to Coy HQ and found she was upstairs and with the same familar tone, roaming about with the soldiers in the building. It is pretty hard to qualify the word "familar" tone. It was entirely foreign to a woman who had been beaten and I gathered at the time she was a loose character.

Prosecutor declines to cross examine.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge-Advocate it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83 (B).

Third Witness

B-1163171 Pte Nattrass, F.R. - Royal Hamilton Light Infantry, having been duly sworn states:

I am employed in the "D" Coy Stores. I saw the accused on the night 27/28 April 1945. On the night 27/28 April 1945, the accused went to the house directly across from the Coy Stores to get my rifle. It was sometime before midnight. I was trying to get some sleep and was in bed at the time.

Prosecutor declines to X-examine.

In the opinion of the Court and Judge-Advocate it is not necessary to comply with RP 83 (B).

Fourth Witness

B-79510 Pte Freeland, A.W.H., Royal Hamilton Light Infantry having been duly sworn states:

On the morning of the 28 April 1945, I was on guard from Coy HQ across the street where the incident took place. I saw the accused Pte Greene go to 100 FALKENBURG. He mentioned something about a rifle. At the time I was standing across the road at the opposite side of 100 FALKENBURG. The incident I referred to is that the night I was on guard a woman known as Anny Reisacker came out and she was sick. It was 0250 hours. Earlier in the evening, the previous night I was standing out there talking to the guard that was on and there was quite a bit of disturbance going on across the street at 100 FALKENBURG. I walked over there and just talked to some of the fellows and asked what the distrubance was. They just said the boys were feeling good. I could hear women's voices from inside the building. I just went back ov r to our Coy HQ. After the woman Anny Reisacker was sick, she returned to 100 FALKENBURG where she resided. I went off guard at 0300 hrs and went to bed in Coy HQ. I was awakened by a woman coming into Coy HQ and she asked for the Commandant. It was about 0430 or 0500 hrs.

Prosecutor declines to cross-examine.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge-Advocate it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83 (B).

ADDRESS TO COURT ON BEHALF OF ACCUSED

As the charge is framed, it is submitted that the only ground on which the accused may be found guilty of the charge of fraternization is by the Court being convinced that the accused had sexual intercourse with the complainant. As the court will no doubt be advised by the ADJA, the guilt of the accused must be established in the court's mind beyond any reasonable doubt. I do not propose to review the evidence, or rather lack of it, in this regard. Suffice it to say that, under the authorities already quoted in the motion for dismissal of the charge of rape, the uncorroborated & vague evidence of the complainant cannot, it is submitted, be accepted by the court as establishing intercouse beyond a reasonable doubt, particularly in view of the accused's definite and strong denial that such intercouse took place & the evidence of Pte Freeland that the complainant was wandering about outside after intercouse was supposed to take place, long before the complaint was made.

Were this question of intercouse the only point at issue as is the case with the charge as presently framed, the matter would be at an end and the court could not, I submit, do other than dismiss the charge. However, I believe the ADJA may advise the court that under a certain RP there may be a special finding, disregarding the matter of intercouse. This RP 49(d) specifically states that the difference in facts proved as opposed to facts charged must not be so material as to have prejudiced the accused in his defence. It is strongly submitted that to change the whole basis for the laying of the charge does materially prejudice the accused. In his evidence, the accused freely admitted being in the same room as the complainant, which fact might possibly, on a special finding, form some ground for finding him guilty of the offence, whereas had he known that the charge as framed might be altered, it is unlikely that he would have gone into the box at all, but instead would have relied on the court failing to find him guilty beyond a reasonable doubt on the flimsy & unconclusive & uncorroborated evidence of the complainant.

However, even should the court be satisfied that they may make a special finding by disregarding the necessity for proof of intercourse, I strongly submit there is no evidence which is sufficient to cause the court to find the accused guilty beyond a reasonable doubt. The whole tenor of the evidence goes to prove that the accused was an involuntary agent - that he was in such a state of intoxication that he was incapable of repelling the passionate advances of the complainant at first, but after a moment turned away from her in disgust - it was probably this repulse which galled the pride of this despicable woman who was used to doing what she pleased with men, and caused her to go to the company HQ to make a complaint & get the accused into trouble. In truth, "Hell hath no fury like a woman scorned". This in itself, together with the accused's repulse of the woman earlier in the evening, when she threw her arms about him, must, I submit, leave in the mind of the court a very great "reasonable doubt" as to the guilt of the accused. With strong evidence from the prosecution's own witnesses as to the excellent character & quietness of the accused, plus the same evidence as to the complainant's low character, there cannot I submit, be any doubt that the woman not only was the aggressor throughout, but that under the circumstances the accused was incapable of forming any intent or of realizing that he was committing an offence.

Accordingly, I ask that the charge of fraternization be dismissed.

ADDRESS BY PROSECUTION

The accused is charged with fraternization with a German woman. The topic of fraternization has become notorious throughout the allied armies. The same brilliant leaders who have led us to victory have decreed that allied soldiers will not fraternize with the German people. They have set out carefully and clearly what acts constitute fraternization. Field Marshall Montgomery has issued a pamphlet explaining in simple terms the sailent features of the order. Pte Greene had read that pamphlet and gave the court a good account of what he understood before the events in question - concerning non-fraternization. Then he admits lying down beside a halfnaked woman in a house where he knew German women to be living. He admits permitting her to feel around his private parts and kiss him. He tells us he was drunk but it must be remembered that drunkeness is no excuse to a military offence. It may of course be taken into consideration when considering the punishment - see MML p 106.

The allied troops have been impressed with the need to win the peace and it has been pointed out that one ingredient to winning the peace is not to fraternise with Germans. It follows that any Canadian soldier who does fraternize is definitely obstructing or helping to obstruct this policy and is guilty of an act or conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline. Order and discipline in the Canadian Army will face a seriouscrisis if cases of fraternization are not firmly dealt with.

I respectfully suggest to the court that you have no alternative but to find the accused guilty of fraterizing with Anny Reisacher, an inhabitant of Germany. It may I submit be necessary for the court to record a special finding as to which of the acts of the accused amount to fraternization.

PLEA IN MITIGATION

Pte Herbert GREENE, , is 31 years old, married with a wife and 4 children. He joined the Army in 1943 and came to the European Theatre shortly after and has served from Nov 1944 up to the present with the RHLI.

As yet he has had NO crimes. His conduct sheet is absolutely clear and his companions and offrs speak in the highest terms of his attitude and service in the unit.

This is NOT a flagrant act of fraternization but an act which peculiar circumstances and an immoral and degrading and abhorrent woman engineered him into. He was in a condition of drink and with the advances made by this loose and disgusting woman found himself practically being seduced by her. He had no part of her earlier in the day when she had made advances and was in fact revolted by her. Then he finds her in the same room at night where he was going to sleep with the development as related by the evidence. He does not remember associating with her in any way. He was there and she chose to be there and that's all there is to it. There is no intercourse proven or any other act of volition on his part which the Court can seize upon to say he wanted to have her there with him.

Therefore I ask the Court to regard this thing as a minor offence from these circumstances and lay down the punishment according to the scale provided in 2 Cdn Corps RO 480.

Few soldiers in inf units now exist who have Greene's good record. For the sake of a bad woman, it is a great pity to spoil it at this stage of the game.

I have no hesitation in asking the Court to deal with this charge most leniently and to show to a good Cdn soldier that Courts will assess in no uncertain terms the acts of such German women as appear in this case who are, I submit, beneath contempt.

1 The m/n soldier has been in the company which I command for at least six months. During the time I have known him Pte Green has been a very capable, efficient and well mannered soldier. The previous coy Comd told me that Pte Green had been perfectly satisfactory.

2 In my opinion Pte Green is a gentleman and above average in this respect.

3 I also realize that the charge is a very serious one and as such cannot be allowed to go unchecked as others will feel they too can have personal contact with German civilians.

4 In this regard the first cases tried will be doubtless used as a basis for future punishments.

5 I sincerely feel this case is not one with intent and should NOT be used as a basis for future punishments or as an example to our troops.

STATEMENT AS TO CHARACTER OF PTE HERBERT GREENE.

I have known the accused P'e Herbert Greene, since he was a boy of about eight or nine years old. He lives in Owen Sound, went to school there and his family live only about two city blocks from my own home. He comes from a good negro family and has a brother Garfield in the service of the Canadian Army with the Armd Corps now in Germany. They are all members of the BME church in Owen Sound and are known as hard working people and good citizens in our community.

Herbert Greene is particularly well known to me as he used to call for washing from my mothers house to take to his mother and after this time he used to deliver papers to our home. He was a great favourite of my father and mother.

Later when he went to work for a living, he was employed as cook on the boats running from Owen Sound. After he had some experience along this line, he was employed by my father as a second cook at his hotel in Owen Sound where he gave good service and where he worked until he joined the Army.

During his employment at the hotel he was an exemplary employee and got on well with the other servants.

He is always polite, mild mannered and pleasant. He is a person who can be trusted and in my opinion has a high regard for the truth.

I am very much surprised that he found himself involved in circumstances of this kind but I attribute the whole matter to accident and not to a planned or premeditated desire to be with the woman in question.

Plea for Mitigation of Punishment in the Case of B52837 Cpl. Greene R.C.

Cpl. Green, the accused, was born in Canada and is 26 years old. He joined the Canadian army on 17 July 1941, came overseas to England in Jan. '42, and has been in this theatre since 10 Aug '44. Cpl. Greene is single but since the age of sixteen has been the sole support of his invalid mother.

In connection with this case, let me point out that equipment thrown into a "Help yourself Park" is considered junk by the army and AB 108's are not signed for anything that is removed from them. If equipment is considered repairable or, if it is thought that there are serviceable parts on the equipment it is backloaded to an Army Backloading Point when the Corps Backloading Point is closed down. In this case the motor cycle was made up entirely of parts picked up in the H.Y.P. and although it ran feebly at first it soon broke down and was useless to the army. When the rear party left the park it was left unguarded hence civilians could roam at will through the dump and take anything they wanted. In this case, had the bike not been sold, all Pte Gillieen had to do was wait until the rear party moved away and then take the bike and no blame could have been placed on Cpl Greene. It seems to me that if the army valued the things left behind in that H.Y.P. they would have taken steps to have someone take over the guarding of it.

Cpl. Greene has been in the army almost four years now and has got a crime on his M.F.M.C, he is also an excellent worker which is borne out by the fact that he draws "A" group trades pay. In closing I hope the above facts will help the court in arriving at their decision.

On Feb 26 1945 I was ordered by the OC of 2 CDN Rec COY RCEME to prepare to move my Section on the following morning Feb.27 1945. At that time I was in charge of M 2CBP at Schaijk Holland and the OC instructed me to leave a rear party of one NCO and one Cfn in charge of the Help Yourself Park at the CBP. I detailed B-52837 CPL GReene LC and Cfn Charlebois as rear party and ordered Cpl Greene to remain there and await further instructions. I then told Cpl Greene that he would be in full charge of the HYP. and that he and the Cfn were to remove the tires from all vehicles in the park, and hold them until they were sent for and put into Salvage. He was also told that Civilians were not to be allowed in or near the Park and that any allied army personnel could remove parts from any vehicle in the dump without authority. I ordered that rations be left with Cpl Greene and told him that we would be in constant touch with him and pick up his rear party as soon as we had the necessary order.

The accused declined to cross examine this witness.

I am Cpl Greene LC. of No 4 Cdn Hy Rec Sect RCEME and during the month of March 1945 I was stationed near Schaijk Holland, with the Section, on or about Feb 27 1945 the section moved to a new location leaving a rear party consisting of one Cfn and myself in charge to see that no civiliens were permitted entry into the Help Yourself Park, which had contained used and damaged parts of vehicles for salvage. This Park was for Military use only and any allied serviceman was allowed to try to salvage any parts available and rfquired without authority.

On or about March 1 1945 while keeping the dump under observation I saw a WD motorcycle lying in the dump which I had not noticed before I went over and examined it, and saw that it was a B.S.A. machine painted brown, but I could not see any Unit or Formation patches on it although there were remnants of what might have been a Red patch and some remnants of some blue paint also visible on another section of the machine. I tried to start the machine but was not able to do so until I repaired the Magneto. I did a considerable amount of repairs work before I was able to operate the machine, this work took me about four days to complete.

I repaired the motorcycle because I intended to use it in the case of necessity as we had no transport left with us, all the parts which I used in repairing this motorcycle and the motorcycle itself were salvaged from the Help Yourself Park.

On March 4 1945 I was advised to join the section at the new location. I had been trying to start up this motorcycle as I intended riding it up to the Section but was unable to do so. While I was so engaged, a civilian whose name I do not know but who is the brother of another civilian known to me as (VIM) and whose house I have visited on occassions approched and spoke to me. We had a conversation while I was still trying to start the motorcycle. I got fed up trying to start the motorcycle and asked him how much he would give me for it.

He offered me 800 guildens for the motorcycle and I accepted his offer. I pushed the motorcycle down to his house where he gave me 200 guilden and I left him in possession of the motorcycle.

Later in the day I joined my Section, where I remained until taken into Military Custody by Sgt M. Musgrave, NO II Prov COY on March 9 1945.

4 Cdn Heavy Recovery Section R.C.E.M.E.

I have been warned that I am not obliged to say anything, unless I wish to do so, But that anything I do say may be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

L.C. Green

I am Gnr Green L.G. on Strength of 4 Canadian Heavy Recovery Section and during the Month of March 45 I was Stationed near Schaik Holland with the Section. On or about the 27 Feb 45, the Section moved to a new location leaving a rear party consisting of 1 Cpl and myself in charge to see that no Civilians were permitted entry into the "help yourself park" which had contained used and damaged parts of Vehicles for salvage. This park was for Military use only and any allied Service man was allowed to try and salvage any parts available and required, without authority.

On or about 1 March 45, While Keeping the dump under observation I saw a W.D. Motor Cycle laying in the dump which I had not noticed before. I went over and examined it. I saw it was a B.S.A machine painted brown, but I could not see any unit or Formation patch on it, although there was remnants of what might have been a red patch with white remnants of some other paint also visible on another section of the machine. I tried to start the machine but was not able to do so until I repaired the magneto. I did a considerable amount of repair work before I was able to operate the machine. This work took me about four days to Complete.

I repaired this Motor Cycle because I intended to use it in the Case of necessity as we had no transport left with us. All the parts which I used in repairing this Motor Cycle, and the Motor Cycle itself, were salvaged from the "help yourself dump".

On the 4 March 45 I was advised to rejoin the Section at the new location. I had been trying to start up this Motor Cycle as I intended riding it up to the Section but was unable to do so. While I was so engaged, a Civilian, whose name I do not know, but who is a brother of another Civilian known to me as (Vim) and at whose house I have visited on occasions, approached and spoke to me. We had a Conversation, while I was still trying to start the Motor Cycle. I got him trying to start the Motor Cycle and asked him how much he would give me for it.

He offered to give me 200 Guilders for the Motor Cycle and I ~~accepted~~ accepted his offer. I pushed the Motor Cycle down to his house, where he gave me 200 Guilders, and I left him in possession of the Motor Cycle.

Later in the day, I rejoined my Section, where I remained until Taken into Military Custody by Sgt M. Musgrave, No 11 Can Provost Company on the 9 March 45.

I would also like to state that when the Gen. awards myself left the "help yourself dump" and reported the Section nobody took over from me to Continue Guard duties at the dump.

I have read over this statement and do not wish to change it in any way.

Statement, taken by 1st Canadian Army.

Schaick 9 March 1945 11 o'clock

Declaration from Herman Franciscus Jilesen, farmer, R.K. born in Linden 23 March 1913, evacuated in Schaick at Jan den Brok - B20.

The corporal from the cars standing near the dump at Schaick at the crossing point came several times at the house of my parents. That corporal belonged at the Canadian Army and his first name was Leon. The army-part, to what that corporal belonged is, what I do not know. I will recognise him, when I see him again. I have been at that corporal in a little tent, in the nabour of his car (lorie). When I was there, standing that corporal asked me, if I did not want to buy a motor-cycle from him. With that corporal was another soldier, whose name is unknown. The last called soldier asked as the price for a cycle one thousand guilden.

The corporal said to me, when I found that price to high, that I had to say, how much money I would give. I offered him for a cycle from the Allies, that was standing ready at the little tent and after I had looked first to the cycle, 200 guilden. That corporal accepted that offert.

At sunday afternoon, 4 March 1945, at 4 o'clock that corporal brought the cycle, which he sold to me, at the house of my parents, standing at Schaick B 19.

I knew that the corporal should bring the cycle there at that time, because I just came out of church, and saw that the cycle should ready for me and I just had spoken to that corporal.

Because I knew also that the corporal was going to the house of my parents and saw him going with the cycle, slept by a motor car. I went too to the my parents house of my parents house. I took the cycle from that corporal and paid him 200 guilders.

I paid that cycle with fons papers from 50 guilders.
He accepted that money.
The corporal told me that I had to do something with that cycle, so that nobody should recognize it.
I did the number from that cycle out of it. to make that nobody could see where that cycle came from.
When I received and took that cycle my brothers Wim and Leonardus were there too.
My brother Wim was there and saw that I paid the cycle.

This corporal is going to Kleef at 4-3-'45.

plea in the case of C21337 Pte Greene
by H W WATSON. Lt. defending Offr

Here is another case of a soldier with a Category A—built for years of experience and the desire to get—
I ask you gentlemen why are these men kept around?
This is his first court martial so far as the stand point of how he is not an old customer of the courts.
On returning from the Pacific this man was posted to A unit as a driver— He commenced trying to get on draft—to his surprise, despite his perfect qualifications, they did not want him. How can a fit soldier explain this to himself?
Finally he was placed on an Army Service Corps draft.
He was warned for a draft for a period month in which time he was granted No passes— Then the draft was called off.
How would he feel about that?— The same way we all would. —— completely disgusted—
Then he disappeared for a couple of weeks.
Please consider these facts as extenuating factors— we dare not punish those who wish to do right. that unfortunate are [illegible] nevertheless trying accidents that are caused by the stress and strain of war—Let me recommend that you deal leniently with the accused and that you recommend that he receives a draft notice for the field as soon as is humanly possible— Thank You

The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex ....., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)

(1. *If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

CASE OF

A.19859 Gnr GREENHILL RC 1 CERU

PROSECUTION

FIRST WITNESS

Mr. W. CLYMAN, Feltham, Middx, an employee of the Southern Ry Company, being duly sworn, states:

A search was made for a ry warrant and it was discovered and read from Bournemouth Ry Stn. The period of ry was from the 1-10 Sep 44. This is the document we were requested to find and according to the name on the reverse the number is R.[illegible] Gnr Heatherway, and the warrant was used. I offer this in evidence.

RAILWAY WARRANT MARKED EXHIBIT 1 BY COURT

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. Is there ever any occasion to doubt the signature on a warrant or to investigate who signs warrants?
A. No, there is no reason to suspect any signature, just so long as it is signed.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(8).

SECOND WITNESS

Capt J.P. MOAR, 1 CERU, having been duly sworn, states:

I'm the Records Offr 1 CERU, and I recognize the accused. I have here in my hand a book of ry warrants Nos. 540505 to 540600 which are on charge to 1 CERU. I offer these in evidence.

BOOK OF RY WARRANTS MARKED EXHIBIT 2 BY COURT

On 15 Sep these warrants were brought to my office and Nos. 540505 to 54514 inclusive were missing. This is the first occasion that I know these were missing.

Q. Has the accused any access to these warrants in his duties?
A. The accused's job was in connection with the movement of personnel in my office and if the occasion arose that it was necessary for him to make out a warrant he would have access to the warrant box where they are kept. If it were at night and there would be no reason to watch him making out a warrant he would have as much access as anyone to open the warrant box and take out a book of warrants. The warrants are kept in a box under lock and key and during the daytime if the accused was asked to make out a warrant he would have been given the key which is kept IC of an officer and there is a warrant man whose job is to make out warrants and he would have the key during the day and when he is off duty it is given to an offr and if at any time the accused wanted to make out a warrant he could have got the key from an offr.

Q. Do you recognize Exhibit 1 and the signature of the person who signed it?
A. It is not the signature of any offr authorized to sign warrants at 1 CERU.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. You say there might be an occasion at night for the accused to help himself and again you say the key is always in possession of an offr?
A. The key is IC always of an offr, during the day it is given to the man whose job it is to make out warrants, and when he goes off duty he gives the key to an offr and if at some occasion during the night the warrant had to be made out the only occasion would be if the accused were there and he were handed the key by an offr. There is always an offr available with the key. In my knowledge this key is never available in the Records Office except Spr Halswell who is the warrants man and the only other person to my knowledge, Spr Elliott was had the Key, I gave it to him myself. On 3 Sep the offr IC of the key was Lt Burton and he continued to be the offr IC of the Key until 3 Sep.

Q. Is it available to the duty clerk if there is not an offr there?
A. No.

Q. Ever see the accused in possession of warrants other than while issuing them?
A. No.

Q. Ever signed any warrants outside the office?
A. No.

RE-EXAMINED

Q. Was the accused on duty 2-3 Sep?
A. The accused was on duty as one of the day clerks on 3 Sep.

Q. On 2 Sep?
A. He was on that morning of the 2 Sep.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(2).

K.75442 A/Cpl LUSCOMBE, RE, 1 CSRU, having been duly sworn, states:

I am the Security Cpl of 1 CSRU. At approx 10 o'clock on 15 Sep I had read infm previous to that and I went to Spider 6, Room 1 and the Hut Orderly was cleaning up the room. I looked at one bed that wasn't made up and looked under the pallyass and I saw a book of warrants. The nos of the warrants were 540505 to 540600, and Exhibit 2 is the book I found. I left then there and reported, and at approx 1130 the same day I walked into the same room and saw Col Wood, RSM Nicholls and RSM Cusack there. I waited there until Cpl Wilson came in and Col Woods sent Wilson to get the accused and when the accused was brought in he was placed under arrest and escorted to the Od Room. The bed under which I found the warrants is the bed of the accused whom I now recognize, as I've seen him sleeping in it. Col Wood and RSM Cusuack saw the book of warrants and Col Woods took the book of warrants away with him.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. Were you alone when you found the warrants there under the bed?
A. No, Sir, the Hut Orderly was there.

Q. Was he there with you?
A. No, Sir, not right with me.

Q. Anything on top of the pallyass?
A. Packs were thrown on the bed. I merely lifted up the pallyass and saw the book there.

Q. Have you ever seen the accused in possession of or with warrants?
A. No, but I've had some stuff to go on.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(2).

FOURTH WITNESS

A.19100 RSM (WO 1) H. NICHOLLS, 1 CSRU, having been duly sworn, states:

On 15 Sep in the morning I accompanied Col Woods on a tour of inspection of the quarters and on the inspection we went to Spider 6, Room 1, which is occupied by Command Post personnel and there was one bed not made up according to regulations. The mattress was pulled back and underneath there was a book of ry warrants and also some other papers. On inquiring from the Orderly Room who occupied the bed we were informed it was the accused whom I now recognize. We sent for the accused and he admitted occupying the bed and he said he was using the warrants at night time studying for a course. Col Wood gave the order for the accused to be placed under arrest. I'd say Exhibit 2 is similar to the book of warrants.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. This routine inspection that you made with the Col, was there any reason to believe that anything was wrong other than a routine inspection.
A. In my opinion, no, Sir.

Q. Was the mattress pulled back when you arrived?
A. It was by the Colonel.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH R 86(3).

SIXTH WITNESS

M.84414 Spr CUNNINGHAM, KL, 1 CERU, having been duly sworn, states:

On 15 Jan I was hut orderly in Spider 6, Room 1, and at about 11 o'clock Col Woods and RSM Cusack and RSM Nicholls came into the hut and asked me where the accused's bed was and I showed them and then the Col pulled the great coat back and the packs off the unmade bed and the mattress back and held 2 books up and called the RSMs attention to it. They then sent for the accused whom I now recognize and placed him under arrest after Col Woods asked the accused what he was doing with the book and the accused said he was using it on a course that he was studying for.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. Are you sure what the accused said and can you repeat the words?
A. I'm sure he said that but I couldn't take my oath as to the exact words.

Q. Were they in your sight all the time while they were in the hut?
A. That is a hard question to answer, I couldn't say for sure - the men I mean.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH R 86(3).

SEVENTH WITNESS

M.1004434 Spr HALSALL, S, 1 CERU, having been duly sworn, states:

I make out all the warrants at Command Post 1 CERU, and on the 15th I heard the accused had been arrested and in the afternoon Capt Agar showed me a warrant and asked me if it was mine and I said it was after checking my books.

Q. Is Exhibit 2 the book you are speaking of?
A. Yes.

Q. Has the accused access to these warrants in the course of his duties?
A. No, most of the time the offrs make their own out and sometimes they get one of the clerks to make one out.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. You often check your warrants?
A. At the end of the month I turn them in and get new warrants if I need any on the 20th of the month.

Q. Ever seen any other clerk or anyone in the office other than an offr in possession of the key to the box?
A. No, Sir, other than myself.

Q. Ever seen anybody in possession of warrants floating around the office?

A. Not to my knowledge, Sir.

Q. Ever any doubt that everything was not quite alright?
A. No.

Q. Ever see the accused in possession of anything out of the box?
A. Not while I was there, but after I leave it is entirely up to the discretion of the offr.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RJ 83(8).

SEVENTH WITNESS

D.46840 Spr COOK, VD, 1 CEMU, having been duly sworn, states:

Q. Did the accused at any time approach you about warrants?
A. I was going on a weekend and he said he would fix me up for a cheap rate for the weekend - a cheap rate railway travel. However, I didn't take it, Sir, I went on the weekend but paid my own fare.

Q. At any later date the same offer?
A. No.

Q. Ever see any warrants on the accused's bed or under the bed?
A. Yes, one night on his bed while looking for a pillow of mine. It was underneath his blanket.

Q. Anybody else see it?
A. Not that I know of.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. On what date did you see these?
A. About 18 Sep.

Q. Ever see the accused in possession of these warrants?
A. No, just on his bed.

Q. How close were you to the bed?
A. I was looking for a pillow right by the bed.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RJ 83(8).

EIGHTH WITNESS

B.28096 Spr McATAMNEY, JJ, 1 CEMU, having been duly sworn, states:

Q. Recognize Exhibit 1?
A. It looks like one I've seen, Sir. I got that warrant and another from the accused's bed by taking it from the bed.

Q. Was the accused around?
A. Not at the time. I took it to the accused at his work and asked him to make it out for me and later he gave me the warrant.

Q. What happened to the other?
A. The other one was turned in at WOKING.

Q. What made you go to the accused's room to get this?
A. I went to get a magazine I had loaned him.

Q. Pay the accused anything for it?
A. No, Sir, nor was there any discussion between us as to ~~xxxxx~~ whether he should be paid or not.

Q. Did the accused owe you money?
A. A pound.

Q. Was the warrant exchanged for this loan?
A. No.

Q. Was this the proper way to get a warrant?
A. No, Sir, I got it because I thought it was a good way to get there as I did not have too much money with me. I would have had to pay 11/7 for my return ticket and this way I could get there & back for nothing.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. You figure you made a sucker out of the accused for signing the warrants?
A. I might have, Sir.

Q. I understand you have been punished already?
A. Yes, Sir, 21 days pay, and the cost of the warrant.

STATEMENT BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER ON THE FINDING

Summing up for the Defence I would like first to dwell on the second witness's statement that the accused would not have access to the warrant box, and on the other hand I've brought up witnesses to say that they have had the key in their possession at one time or another. The accused happened to be working in the Records Office, but so did a lot of other chaps. The Prosecution has evidence that the warrants were found underneath the accused's bed, but there has been no evidence whatsoever that the accused put them there himself, nor has it not been proven that Cpl Luscombe didn't put them there either. As far as the issuing of the warrant goes, the story seems quite clear cut there, there is no evidence that the accused signed it and the fact that he was in illegal possession has not been proven I don't think, except that they were under his bed.

STATEMENT BY THE PROSECUTOR ON THE FINDING

The Prosecution has brought forth evidence to prove the guilt in all charges, and the Prosecution has brought forward witnesses to show this, of the accused's access to these warrants, then at a later date the finding of them in his bed, and his admission of the possession of the book of warrants for some course he was studying for, and that establishes he had these warrants in his possession illegally. There has been sufficient evidence brought forth by the Prosecution without reviewing the evidence to show that the accused is guilty as charged.

THE COURT IS CLOSED TO CONSIDER THE FINDING

THE COURT IS REOPENED AND THE PRESIDENT ANNOUNCES THAT THE COURT FINDS THE ACCUSED NOT GUILTY OF THE FIRST CHARGE.

PLEA IN MITIGATION

I have seen the accused's work for the past year and he has been doing his job in the Records Office in a very satisfactory manner, and up to now there has been no reason to find fault with it, and I don't think there is anyone who can point to his record and say that there is anything wrong with it. The accused is married here in England, and has one child. In school he went for 5 yrs to High School and in civil life was a clerk in a basket factory in London Ontario. I ask the Court to be as lenient as possible in sentencing the accused.

CASE OF

A.19259 Spr GREENHILL KC 1 CERU

TRIAL OF THE ACCUSED ON THE SECOND CHARGE

- PROSECUTION -

G.17175 Cpl MacCORKELL SS, 2 CITR, having been duly sworn, states:

I'm the Senior Military Helper at 2 CITR, and I produce herewith a Philco Radio, table model, which is identical to the set issued to the 6 Cdn Constr Coy in Nov 43, except that it doesn't bear the markings on the bottom at the time, but it has on it the traces of the insignia Salvation Army Aux Services. This radio was on loan to the Offrs Mess first while theirs was being repaired, and after that it was given to the Cpls and Sgts who had a combined Mess there.

PHILCO RADIO SET MARKED EXHIBIT 1 FOR IDENTIFICATION

Q. Do you know of any other sets of this make and type that are missing from the Canadian Army around this district Cpl?
A. No, Sir, there is one missing, but it is an entirely different model.

Q. Therefore as this set is identical to the one that is missing and that was issued, it thus makes you sure that this is the same set?
A. Yes.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. You said it was on loan to the Sgts Mess?
A. Yes, to the Cpls and Sgts Mess which were combined.

Q. What is the difference between issued and on loan?
A. There's no difference, Sir.

Q. Who owns the radio?
A. Cdn Aux War Services.

Q. You give it as a gift or is it on loan?
A. No, it is on loan.

Q. Is there a difference between on loan and being in charge?
A. One means the same as the other, Sir.

Q. Have you any proof that it was issued?
A. Yes, I produce a Receipt Book in which is recorded the articles the Aux Services give out to units. On Page 53 of this Receipt Book the record shows the delivery to be on 30 Nov 43 of a radio set to the Offrs Mess. It's signed by a Cpl Hallett of 6 COC RCE.

RECEIPT BOOK AT PAGE 53 MARKED EXHIBIT 2

Q. As I see it the record shows it as being on loan to the Offrs Mess in the Sgts Mess?
A. Yes, while theirs was in repair, and then it was given to the Cpl's and Sgts Mess.

Q. Have you any record of that?
A. No.

Q. Do you know the serial number of the particular radio?
A. No.

Q. Have radios got serial numbers?
A. Yes, I believe so, Sir.

QUESTIONS BY THE COURT:

Q. What do you know personally of the returning of the other radio at the Offrs Mess and then about this radio?
A. I was there when the other radio was taken back to the Offrs Mess, Sir; as a rule we don't loan radios to Cpls Messes, but as the Cpls and Sgts Mess had been combined we gave it to them. I talked [redacted] the Orderly Room about the request of a radio, and then I loaned it out to them.

Q. You have no documentary proof that it was transferred from the Offrs Mess to the Sgts Mess?
A. No, it was really verbal.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 98(B).

SECOND WITNESS

A.48629 C/MS HENDERSON AJ, 2 CITR, having been duly sworn, states:

I was the Orderly Sgt on the night of 15 Dec at 6 CAWC and at approx 8 o'clock that evening I went into the Mess to turn off the lights and also to switch off the radio which was running. On the morning of the 16th I went into the Mess again and found the radio missing. I immediately reported this to my CO. The radio was a small mantel PHILCO model, and there was a shield of the Aux Services on the top of it, and on the aerial lead there was a brass fitting used to attach the aerial wire. I find now on examining Exhibit 1 that there is a brass fastner on the aerial wire, the one that I've been referring to. In my opinion, Exhibit 1 is the radio I've been describing.

PHILCO RADIO SET NOW MARKED EXHIBIT 1

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. How long have you been with 6 CAWC?
A. Since 3 Jul 44, Sir.

Q. You've been around the Sgts Mess quite a bit?
A. Yes.

Q. How far is GUILDFORD from your billets?
A. Approx 2 miles.

Q. During your stay in the Mess how many times would you have occasion to turn it on or off?
A. Practically every day, Sir.

Q. What would cause you to notice a brass fitting on the aerial?
A. While on Orderly duty we were permitted to take the set to the Orderly Room for the evening and therefore when detaching the set and bringing it over to connect it up again I would notice this brass fastener.

Q. Do you know the serial number of this radio?
A. No.

Q. Then you can't say you are definitely positive that that, Exhibit 1, is the radio?
A. Just by the brass fitting on the aerial, Sir.

Q. In other words it could be an identical radio?
A. There could be another set like it, Sir.

QUESTIONS BY THE COURT:

Q. Do you think there is another set like this?
A. I don't know, Sir.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP s3(B).

THIRD WITNESS

Mr Edgar JARVIS of Gadavari, Brood St., WORPLEDON, Surrey, having been duly sworn, states:

Early in Jan the accused, whom I now recognize, brought a small radio set to me and asked me if I cared to buy it. I kept it for about a day, tested it, and then I saw a mark on it which I identified and I refused to buy the set and gave it back to him, the accused.

Q. How early in Jan was that?
A. It was the first week in Jan I think, I didn't keep a record of it.

Q. Would you examine Exhibit 1?
A. Yes (Witness examines Exhibit 1) --- I can't swear that this is the set but it is identical to the one the accused left with me. When I looked at the top of the radio the shield had been taken out as it appears now also.

Q. What conversation did you have with the accused?
A. He said "I want £8 for it" and after I tested it I told him it wasn't worth £4. He had been working for me since sometime in Nov, sorting timber and doing odd work.

Q. Did he tell you where he got it?
A. He told me that a friend of his had been transferred and couldn't take it with him.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. Is your place of business in GUILDFORD?
A. The radio set was left at Gadavari, Brood St., WORPLEDON, Surrey, which is in the GUILDFORD Postal District.

QUESTIONS BY THE COURT:

Q. Was is at Gadavari, Brood St., WORPLEDON, that the accused left the radio?
A. Yes.

Q. Not in GUILDFORD?
A. No.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP s3(B).

FOURTH WITNESS

Mr Ernest Harry STARTON, 87 Foxborough Ave., GUILDFORD, Surrey, having been duly sworn, states:

The accused, whom I now recognize, worked for a Mr Jarvis, and he, the accused, told me he had a radio set for sale. This was just after Christmas. He said that he had a set for sale for somebody else. I was interested and arranged to pick it up. I went to Southway Avenue where he was living at the time, one of the suburbs of Guildford, and a young lady there, whom I understood to be the wife of the accused, had conversation with me and I arranged to have the set sent up to my place at 87 Foxborough Ave., The set was brought to my house by a boy of about 15 yrs of age, I examined it, and noticed a small badge on the top of the set had been removed, and the wording Salvation Army on the bottom of the radio. There was a small label saying on the inside that it was made in Canada, and I decided I wouldn't have anything more to do with the set, and returned it to Mr Jarvis. I told the accused I didn't want the set and he said "well, that's alright, Mr Jarvis will probably have it ".

Q. Would you look at Exhibit 1?
A. Exhibit 1 in my opinion is identical to the one I examined, but the words "Salvation Army" are not now on the bottom of it. They were, the words, stencilled on it when I saw the set. I brought this to the accused's attention but he said "I don't know anything about that, I am only selling it for one of the men at Clock House.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. Where do you work?
A. I work for the Aldershot District Traction Company, but in my spare time I work for Mr Jarvis.

Q. Did you at any time see the accused with the radio in GUILDFORD?
A. No.

Q. After examining the radio set here today, Exhibit 1, you find no Salvation Army stencil mark on the bottom of it,?
A. That's right, Sir.

Q. Therefore you aren't sure it is the same radio?
A. It is identical is all I can say, Sir.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 93(B).

FIFTH WITNESS

PC RE NICHOLAS, of the Surrey Joint Police Force, WOKING, having been duly sworn, states:

(THE PROSECUTOR DREW ATTENTION TO THE NOTIFICATION WHICH HE GAVE TO THE ACCUSED THAT THIS WITNESS WAS BEING CALLED TO GIVE EVIDENCE AS TO THE RECOVERY OF THE WIRELESS SET, AND SHOWED THE RECEIPT OF THE ACCUSED FOR SUCH NOTICE)

DEF OFFR: I will accept the verbal evidence given by this witness.

The Prosecutor then proceeds to examine this witness:

Q. What is your story from the time you apprehended the accused?
A. At 5.10 p.m. on 22 Feb 45 I saw the accused, whom I now recognise, in the Plaza Cinema, Guildford. I asked him to accompany me outside, which he did, and I then said to him "I'm a Police Offr, what is your name", and he replied "Greenhill". I then said to him "I have reason to believe you are an absentee from the Can Army" and he said "yes, that's right". I told him I was going to take him into custody pending further inquiries and I conveyed him to the Police Station. At the Police Stn I said to him "I'm making inquiries respecting a Canadian Salvation Army radio set that was stolen from the Clock House Guildford in Dec of last year, and I have reason to believe that you can assist me in that inquiry". He said "yes, I gave it to the lady who was with me "

I then said to him "you are now to be charged with stealing a radio set" and I cautioned him with the usual caution. At 8 p.m. the same evening I went to 148 Southway Avenue, Guildford, where I recovered a Philco Radio set.

Q. Would you examine Exhibit 1?
A. Exhibit 1 is identical to the set which I recovered from 148 Southway Avenue, Guildford.

Q. Why did you go to 148 Southway Aven?
A. I had previously recd infm that the accused had been residing at that address and I went to that address to look for the accused. I arrested him at 1710 hrs and recovered the radio set the same evening at 2000 hrs. While in coversation with the occupants respecting the accused at this address, I saw radio that answered the description that had previously been stolen from the Clock House.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. Did you at any time see the accused going into or leaving that address, 148 Southway Ave?
A. No.

Q. When you searched that address did you find any of the accused's kit there?
A. No.

Q. At the time you picked up the accused did he have the radio?
A. No.

Q. What proof then other than hearsay have you got that he was living at 148 Southway?
A. Hearsay is correct, Sir.

Q. No other evidence?
A. Nothing that I can mention.

Q. Could Exhibit 1 be an identical set?
A. Yes. The serial number of the radio stolen from the Clock House wasn't available at the time, so there was really no way to check it.

THE PROSECUTION IS CLOSED

SUBMISSION BY THE DEF OFFR

Sir, I wish to plead no prima facie case on the following grounds: A whole series of disjointed facts has been brought together to proof that the accused was in improper possession of the radio. Each part of the charge should be proven to make a case as you all well know. Running briefly through the evidence of the various witnesses I find in the Cpl's evidence he produced a Record Book and on Page 53 it is stated that a radio was issued on loan to the Offrs Mess of 6 CANC. There is no serial number stated, and it might be any type of radio, and even the make is not stated on that particular page. The Prosecution has failed to prove the point of the charge, namely, improperly in possession of a radio on charge to the Sgts Mess and so forth. The evidence produced related only to a radio, no serial number, which was issued on loan to the Offrs Mess. In addition, there has been no record of transfer to prove that this radio was ever taken from the Offrs Mess and sent to the Sgts Mess, therefore on that point I plead no case also. Secondly, in the evidence of the CQMS, his description of the radio before us is very very vague, and very indefinite is he also, the only means by which he says he can identify it is by the brass fastener on the aerial, and an obliterated imprint on the top which might be on any radio. He also states in his evidence that Exhibit 1 is ONLY identical. Thirdly now, the evidence of this Mr Jarvis--------in dealing with the charge that he was at Guildford Surrey, on or about 1 Jan 45, improperly in possession of a radio; Mr Jarvis tells us that when he saw the radio it was at Worpledon, which is apart from Guildford, therefore the charge is not properly laid. Referring to the next witness, Mr Starton, he is very

THE DVC OFFR ADDED THE FOLLOWING TO HIS SUBMISSION.

I do not see how it can be said to be conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline if a soldier is found to be in possession of an article which is NOT Govt property. It is well known that soldiers do buy and sell among themselves and others, articles other than Govt property and it has never been held that that is conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline. The accused is not charged with being in possession of a radio, knowing same to have been stolen.

since then according to the witness there have been no other radios of this make missing from the Aux Services. There has only been one radio found like Exhibit 1, some of the markings have been removed, and the marking which can't be removed has been obliterated. The CQMS identifies

Referring to the next witness, Mr Starton, he is very vague about the date when he saw the radio, and says it was possibly after Christmas. At no time did he see a radio in possession of the accused, and he also states that there was a stencil mark on the bottom of the set, saying "Salvation Army", but now here today this marking is no longer there, so even that points to a reasonable doubt that it could be an identical radio. Now, lastly, about PC NICHOLAS - when questioned as to whether he had seen the accused entering or leaving 148 Southway, he could only bring a negative reply. When he apprehended the accused at the cinema, the accused was not in possession of a radio. On these facts I wish the Court to consider each part of the charge carefully and again I plead no prima facie case.

REPLY TO DEF OFFR'S SUBMISSION BY THE PROSECUTOR

This particular radio in question was loaned to the Offrs Mess and there's a record of it. As to what exact radio, it is not recorded, granted. The serial numbers of these radios are only kept in the London Office. At the present time and at the time this radio was missing, reported stolen, and since then according to the witness there have been no other radios of this make missing from the Aux Services. There has only been one radio found like Exhibit 1, some of the markings have been removed, and the marking which can't be removed has been obliterated. The CQMS identifies the radio and that is another bit of evidence that shows that this radio is a little more than just identical. As to the point of no record of it being issued to the Sgts Mess I think that makes no difference, as records which are kept by Aux Services are a little vague at any time anyway. As to the statement of Mr Starton - no, he didn't see the accused with the radio, but he was told where the radio was, he went there to pick it up, and then when he went back to his own house a small boy delivered it to him. He examined it, saw the marking on it, drew this to the accused's attention, and told him he wasn't having anything to do with the radio and gave it back to him. The PC tells us that the accused said after he apprehended and cautioned him, "yes, I gave it to the lad who was with me". If such a statement was made the accused undoubtedly made an admission right there that he had the radio that was stolen from the Clock House. The radio was picked up later at 148 Southway Ave., it is not positively identified only in a negative sort of way, that is to say, other than the marking and the brass plug, but that is the case for the Prosecution and my reply to this submission by the Def Offr.

THE COURT IS CLOSED TO CONSIDER THE SUBMISSION

THE COURT IS REOPENED AND THE PRESIDENT ANNOUNCES THAT THE SUBMISSION BY THE DEF OFFR IS ALLOWED ON THE SECOND CHARGE.

CHARACTER WITNESS

Mr Edgar JARVIS of Cadavari, Broad St., WORPLEDON, Surrey, being still under oath, states:

Sometime in Nov the accused came to me and asked me if I couldn't give him a job as he was down and out and on a 16 day leave. After his 16 days were up he continued to come, saying he was on night duty, and was earning a sal of his 7/6 a week doing piquet duty under arrangements with the Sgt He gave me very good work, and after the first week I raised his earnings ed an hr. His average earning was £4 a week, but one week he earned £5/3. He told me he gave his girl friend about £3 a week to keep his child which was 10 mths old, who lived at 148 Southway Avenue.

(BY ACCUSED)

Sir, I enlisted in the 7 FA Coy RCE in Sep '39, and kept a good crime sheet for 4 yrs as you can see. I got married in Mar in '45 and lived here with my wife 3-4 mths but we couldn't get along very well, and later I met this girl and we got along very well, and I asked my wife for a divorce, but she wouldn't give it to me. Later this child came along, and I thought the only way I could really hold her was to go out and get a job, which I did, and I did my best to support her and the child, until I was apprehended. I know now if I could get this all straightened out I would make a lot better soldier. I have a son 2 yrs old by my wife. That is all I wish to say, Sir.

PLEA FOR MITIGATION OF SENTENCE (Sgt. K.C. GREENHILL).

Mr. President and Members of the Court, the case of Sgt. Greenhill deserves the careful consideration of the Court before passing final sentence. Let us consider the history of Sgt. Greenhill since his enlistment in the Army in September 1939.

Sgt. Greenhill enlisted on the 15 Sept. 1939 and was posted for service with 7th Fd. Coy. R.C.E until 1942. During this period he had a clean record, and the first entry in his conduct sheet appears on 13 March 1943, which is 3½ years without a crime. He was married in England on 30 May 1942, and has a son of this union, now 2 years of age. Unfortunately this union did not prove to be a happy one, and after only 2 months of married life, there were quarrels and differences which have caused a rift in their marital relations.

Later while stationed with 6 Cdn. Const. Coy R.C.E. at Guildford, during the summer of 1943, he met Miss Dorothy Glew and the two soon took each other frequently and became much attached to each other. Unfortunately, due to an indiscretion on their part, the inevitable happened and a son was born to Miss Glew, on 10 March 1944 of which the accused is the father.

Miss Glew was obliged to give up her job for a time for this reason. Previous to her period of confinement, she had been practically the sole support of seven persons who were all residing at 148 Southway Ave. Guildford, under very pitiable living conditions.

Sgt. Greenhill wanted to help her out financially, but after the assigned pay to his wife had been deducted from his pay account he could only assign a mere £7.- per month to Miss Glew. This small amount could hardly be considered sufficient to compensate for the loss of her earning capacity. This placed a mental strain upon Sgn. Greenhill which preyed upon his mind constantly, so much so, that eventually he decided to take matters into his own hands and choose a method which would temporarily relieve the financial strain on Miss Glew. He went A.W.L. in October 1944 and obtained a job with Mr. Farris, Guildford, during which time he earned £4-0-0 per week and handed over practically all of it to Miss Glew for the support of herself and the child.

PLEA FOR MITIGATION OF SENTENCE (Sgn. K.C. Greenhill contd)

Both Sgn. Greenhill and Miss Glew are much attached to each other and want to get married just as soon as possible after a divorce is obtained from his present wife.

The domestic problem of Sgn. Greenhill cannot be ignored and brushed over slightly. The whole future of his life depends upon getting this domestic tangle straightened out as soon as possible.

I would request the Court to consider this acute domestic problem and recommend that maximum leniency be shown when awarding punishment. In addition, I would request that the Court recommend the Legal Aid Dept. of C.R.U. to give Sgn. Greenhill every possible assistance in obtaining his divorce. It would then be possible for him to marry Miss Glew and place himself once more in a position where he can be a good soldier.

SWORN STATEMENT. (1)

I, the undersigned, Miss Dorothy Joan Glew presently residing at 148 Southway Ave. Guildford, having been duly sworn state:

"I have known Sgt. K.C. Grenhill for approx. 2½ years. When I first met him I did not know that he ~~was~~ was married. At that time he was stationed at No 6 C.C. Coy. "Clock house" Guildford. We used to see each other almost every night. We became quite attached to each other and we planned to get married. However Kenneth informed me that he was already married and that our marriage was impossible until a divorce could be obtained.

Meanwhile a son was born to Kenneth and myself, 10 March 1944, and is registered as Ronald Charles Dennis Grenhill as per the attached birth certificate.

Prior to the birth of my son, I was helping to support my mother, brother, 2 sisters and a niece who were all living at 148 Southway Ave. I was then working at Burns Laundry, Guildford and all my salary went towards the upkeep and support of the family. When I could no longer carry on with my job, I had to stop working about January 1944. This placed a greater strain on the family income.

Kenneth tried to help out financially, and finally in July 1944 was successful in assigning me £7 per month out of his Army Pay.

(By Miss Dorothy Joan Glew)

I saw him in December 1944, and he told me that he was working in Guildford and wanted to help out with my support, as he figured that £7.0.0 per month was never enough to help with my support. From 1 Jan 1945 until about 15 Feb 1945 while Kenneth was working, he paid me £ 3-0-0 per week.

Kenneth has told me repeatedly that he is trying to get a divorce from his wife and that he will marry me when that is granted. I am willing to marry him just as soon as possible".

I am senior military helper at 2 CITR Auxilliary Services. The Philco table model set (exhibit C) before me now I can identify as being identical to a radio which was issued to 6 Cdn Construction Coy on 20 Nov 43. The records of this department verify this. All radios issued by us to Army units, bear a shield on which is engraved the letters "S.A.Canada" burned into the wood on the centre of the top of the case. Invariably on these models, underneath the case there is stencilled in white paint thewords "The Salvation Army Canadian War Services". This model (exhibit C) is identical in every respect, with the exception that the stencilling has been removed from the bottom of the case and the lettering on the shield on top has been obliterated.

Early in January, 1945, the accused, A 19259 Spr Greenhill, K.C., whom I now recognize, brought to me a small radio set which I recognize as exhibit C. It was an all mains set, medium oak color, about 15" long and 10" or 12" in height. A small shield had been removed from the top of the set. This could plainly be seen as the shield had been let into the wood. He informed me that a friend of his was being transferred a distance and could not take it with him where he was going. He asked me £8 for the set. I had the set about two days but as it was not satisfactory I returned it to him. I last saw him on Sunday 11 Feb 45 at about 3.20 P.M. when he left to catch a bus. About the 1st or 2nd of Jan 45, the accused A 19259 Spr Greenhill, K.C., whom I now recognize told me he had a wireless set for sale, it was at the house where he was staying, 148 Southway. One day later whilst cycling past his house I called in, but could not have the set as the accused, whom I knew only as "Ken" was out. Later that day, a boy of about 15 yrs called at my house with the set which I took. I examined the set and noticed that a small shield had been removed from the top. The imprint of the shield was quite visible. Upon further examination I found the words "Canadian Salvation Army" stamped on the bottom of the set and inside I found a small label stuck on the wood this was stamped "Salvation Army".

As soon as I found this, I decided not to have anymore to do with it and took it back to Spr Greenhill. I told him I didn't like the set and also told him it had "Salvation Army" on it. He then said "Well, Sir, I'm selling it for someone at the Clock House and as far as I know he's had it given to him.

Spr Greenhill then connected the set up in the workshop where it stayed a short time.

About month ago when I came to work I found the set gone. Spr Greenhill said he had taken it back to the clock house to the fellow it belonged to.

This wirelessset I now recognize as Exhibit C.

"I am B114654 Gnr, Cooney, E.J., 5 Cdn Mediumr Regt., R.C.A., At approximately 2100 hrs. I was standing with Gnr McKinnon at the winch drum on the aft side where we were employed as A.A. defence on board the ship and I was a No. 2 on a Bren Gun. We were watching a Gunner who appeared to me to be unloading his rifle - he took the magazine off and emptied it. After emptying what he could he put it on and worked the bolt three or four t imes and closed it and pulled the trigger and it went off and I saw the chap at the rail grasp his lower leg and stagger away. I ran up to the bridge where I was taken to the S.O. and also got a M.O. I went back with the M.O. and by that time they were carrying the injured man down to the sick bay".

Defence — Are you the tp comd of the tp in which Gnr. Greenshields is a Gunner.

Witness — Yes.

THE PROSECUTOR DECLINES TO CROSS EXAMINE THIS WITNESS.

President — Can you tell me if Gnr Greenshields is a good man with small arms?

Witness — He had a Sgts Course in the infantry - he was competent with small arms.

SECOND WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE — I am Capt S. B. Shepe, 5 Cdn Medium Regt., R.C.A. and I hereby make a solemn declaration.

Witness — There were no specific orders given to the station on the night the accident occurred regarding the clearing of rifles.

Defence — The men after firing their rifles were given ~~xxx~~ no orders to empty their guns - it was left to their own initiative?

Witness — When the all clear came down I gave the gunners orders to stand easy to the A.A. detachment - my recollection is that I instructed the Bren gunners to remove the magazines from the gun but not the riflemen.

Defence — What orders were given to the riflemen regarding removing the magazine.

Witness — None by me.

THE PROSECUTOR DECLINES TO CROSS EXAMINE THIS WITNESS.

President — Do you know if there were any definite instructions given before the accident as to how the rifles would be unloaded?

President — Were you on duty at this time or just prior to 2100 hrs?

Witness — No sir, I had been on duty from until the time of the alarm until after the all clear come down which was sometime before 2000 hrs.

President — During that time had Gnr Greenshields any cause to fire his rifle?

Witness — During the attack Gnr Greenshields has occasion to fire his rifle in the A.A. concentration in order to thicken it.

President — He did that under orders?

Witness — Yes.

Witness — Not to my knowledge.

Defence — Do you know of any trouble regarding the magazines.

Third Witness - D96136, Pte.LAROUCHE,A., 32 Cdn.C.T. Coy.R.C.A.S.C.

In accordance with Rule of Procedure 76, this witness not being presently available, notice was given to the accused, that D96136, Pte.LAROUCHE,A., R.C.A.S.C. is intended to be called as a Witness for the Prosecution and will give evidence to the effect that on 6 Nov.43, at approx. 2110 hrs. he was standing on the port side aft deck about 5 ft. from the man clearing his rifle and about 5 ft. from the man hit; that he saw the man clearing his rifle move the bolt back and forth 2 or 3 times; that the bullet hit the lower metal plate of the rail, ricochetted and a small piece burnt the side of his left leg, that he saw L/Cpl.LAVIGNE walk about 3 feet and fall down.

Fourth Witness - Capt.A.S.DEWAR, 5 Cdn.Med.Regt.R.C.A. having been duly sworn states as follows :-

I am the Battery Captain of the 7th Bty, 5 Cdn.Med.Regt.R.C.A. On the 22nd Oct.43, Gnr.GREENSHIELDS,E.F. was issued with No.4 Mk.1* rifle No. 4SC3907.

Prior to issue, to my knowledge, this rifle was not examined by an Armourer. Subsequent to issue there was no opportunity for such an examination to be made before the unit embarked. This rifle when issued to Gnr.GREENSHIELDS was new, and had not been issued to any person previously. It was received from the Ordnance immediately prior to issue.

To my knowledge there has been no Circular letters or Directives indicating a tendency to weak magazine springs in No.4 Mk.1* of U.S. manufacture.

A.S.Dewar Capt RCA

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

Fifth Witness - 886880, Pte.COLE,R.A. R.C.O.C. 5th Cdn.Med.Regt.R.C.A. having been duly sworn states as follows :-

I am the armourer attached to the 5 Cdn.Med.Regt.R.C.A. I am a qualified armourer, Group "B", Gr.II and as such I am acquainted with the mechanicsm and proper operation of the No.4 MK.1* rifle.

Now shown to me is a No.4 Mk.1* rifle, No. 4SC3907, which I examined on the 16th Nov.43. The rifle appears to be in good condition. In my examination of the action of this rifle in clearing the magazine, I found the cartridges were inclined to jam in the breech. This is caused by a weak spring in the magazine, which fails to raise the cartridges far enough to come in contact with the face of the bolt as the bolt is being pushed forward. In a case like this, it is possible to work the bolt and have it cease to eject further rounds of cartridges, and still leave some in the magazine.

I have noticed the fault in a number of the new No.4 Mk.1* rifles of U.S. manufacture. These rifles should all be checked by an armourer before use by troops. In my experience there is no circular or directive or letter of instruction which indicates this fault. It is something that I have learnt of my own experience since my arrival in England about the first week in September, 1943.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

Question to the Accused :- "Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence upon oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing, and may be given in evidence.

The accused reserves his statement.

R A Cole

Certified that Rules of Procedure 4 C.D.E. & F. have been complied with.

Taken before me in the presence and hearing of the accused, on the Field, these 18th and 18th days of November, 1943.

Summary of Evidence in the case of D9110, Gnr.GREENSHIELDS,E.F. 5 Cdn.Med.Regt. R.C.A. On direction of the Commanding Officer this Summary is taken under oath.

1st Witness - K70030 Gnr.McAINNON,H.J. 7 Bty, 5 Cdn.Med.Regt.R.C.A. having been duly sworn states as follows :-

On the 6th Nov.43 I was a member of the port side aft A.A. defence team. I was one of the Bren gunners and Gnr.COONEY, was my No.2.

Shortly after 2100 hrs. Gnr.COONEY and I were leaning up against the Port winch drum at the back of the after deck. We were standing talking, and I noticed a gunner about 15 ft. in front of us and about 8 ft. from the port rail. He appeared to me to be cleaning his rifle. His back was to me, but I could see his arms moving. He was holding a rifle and I could hear the clicking of a rifle bolt, "easing springs". I heard the bolt clicking several times, certainly more than once or twice, and more likely four or five times.

I then saw the gunner point out to the port side, straight out, with his rifle point down at an angle of from 20° to 25° from the horizontal. I cant say whether he was kneeling. He was crouched down and was certainly not standing. At this point the rifle went off. I saw a soldier stagger away from the rail, grabbing hold of his knees and then fall down.

I had noticed the soldier leaning up against the rail. From where I was standing it is hard to say whether he was directly in front of the gunner with the rifle.

At that time I did not know who it was with the rifle. It was too dark to recognize him.

Gnr. H.J. McKinnon

Question by the Accused. - Is it not possible that you heard the rifle bolt click about 5 or 6 times?

Answer - It is quite possible. Under the circumstances I was'nt counting them, but there were definitely a number more than just one or two clicks.

H.J. McKinnon

2nd Witness - B114654, Gnr.COONEY,J.F. 7 Bty, 5 Cdn.Med.Regt.R.C.A. having been duly sworn states as follows :-

On the 6 Nov.43 I was the No.2 on a Bren gun team with Gnr.McAINNON, as part of the ship's A.A. defences on the Port Side aft.

At approx. 2100 hrs. I was standing with my back to the aft deck port winch, about 15 ft. from a soldier whom I later recognized to be the accused, Gnr.GREENSHIELDS. To my knowledge he stopped down, and eased the bolt back on his rifle. Then, since his back was partially towards me I could not quite determine whether he took the magazine off or not. But from the sounds, it sounded as though he had taken the magazine off, and then I heard sounds of clearing a magazine. To me it sounded as though he was clearing it with a spare round. After which he replaced the magazine and eased springs, to my knowledge about three times., and then I heard the bolt click home and then the rifle fired.

The rifle, I would say, was pointing down at about 25° from the horizontal, so that at about 8 ft. it would come to the bottom plate of the rails, the scuppers. The rifle was pointed straight out to the port side.

After the rifle went off I saw a man stagger from the rail, grasping his lower leg, and I immediately ran up to the boat deck to get the M.O. I then went back with the M.O. to the deck. At that time they were carrying the injured man away.

From where I was standing it looked as though the man who had been injured was in front of the rifle. Whether he was directly in front I cannot say.

The after deck of the ship was covered, where this took place, with a wood planking. I would say of Douglas fir about 3" thick.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

Mr President members of the court:

When D98336 Pte
Greenslade R. P. was with his unit he was granted a 7 7 hrs leave in Antwerp where he met a girl and grew quite found of her.

Comming back to his unit
they told him that he was ~~on a draft~~ for Canada & he tried to get a leave but the answer was that he could have one from Nijmegen where he was going for his first stage.

At Nijmegen he asked another time to have a leave to go & see his girl friend, but again they told him that he could not but when he will be in England he could have the permission to go & see her.

Here in No. 3 Cdn Repat
he asked again and they told him this time that he could not have leave on the continent. He spoke to his social commander who persuaded him to go home and forget her, but souvenirs were not forgotten.

On his first leave from the continent he went to spend it in London where he met a friend and ~~spo~~ talk things over. His friends entice him by offering him a pass ~~from~~ because he had two on him.

After a few drinks he figured he had the time to go and come back in time. He went and a few days before his pass expired he tried to come back but he needed a certain paper to cross the Channel. After trying many ports and even went to his unit but without success and he surrendered himself to No1 NETD at Belfast N. W. E.

You will going to ask why he did not sign for C.A.O.F.? But he had already sign for the Far East and by the surrender of Japan he was no more required and fell in the repat group.

Wanting to marry ~~her~~ that girl he is willing to go with the occupation forces so he will be able to see her again and marry her. And I sincerly hope that the court will take these facts in consideration. If at all possible the accused would appreciate very much if the court could recommend his finding with occupation forces.

Defending Officer:

I want to ask the court if it is possible to have the First and Second charges tried and disposed of before the other charges are tried. I think unless that is done, there will be a tendency to prejudice the defence, and that is why I prefer to have it done the way I have suggested. Perhaps at this time only the first and second charges should be read, and the accused asked to plead to those two at this time.

Prosecutor:

In the short time that I have had to think of this, about a minute, I cannot conceive any prejudice which would arise from the trial on all the charges together. There are witnesses who have been brought here from some distance who will give evidence on both sets of charges; all the witnesses except one come from outside the city. If some indication could be given, possibly I can give some assurance that the evidence that the evidence to be given in one case will not prejudice the accused in respect to other charges, or possibly it might be an obvious case where prejudice would arise.

Defending Officer:

My feeling is that these two charges deal with a motor car and are surrounded by an entirely different set of circumstances than the other charges which deal with goods; larceny is charged in both series of charges, but they are entirely two different things, and I really feel that the evidence given on the first series may prejudice the defence on the second. For that reason I would like the defence to have that permission granted, and for the simple reason also that it will enable both the defence and the prosecutor to concentrate on one item at a time. There is no connection whatsoever between the first and second series of charges.

Prosecutor:

I do not think I could have expressed it better. I think I will leave it at that. However, as I understand the statement of the defence counsel, no possibly of prejudice has been expressed, or disclosed, as far as I understand his statement.

Judge Advocate:

At this stage and before arraignment the counsel for defence has requested that the first and second charges be tried first as if contained on Charge Sheet No. 1 and the balance of the charges as if contained on Charge Sheet No. 2. Under RP 62(E) it is laid down that where a charge sheet contains more than one charge the accused may before pleading, claim to be tried separately in respect of any charge or charges in that charge-sheet, on the ground that he will be embarrassed in his defence if he is not so tried separately; and in such a case the court, unless they think his claim unreasonable, shall arraign and try the accused in like manner as if the convening officer had inserted the said charge or charges in different charge-sheets. It is for the court to consider whether or not on the arguement of the Defending Officer and the Prosecutor whether they consider it is unreasonable to grant the request of the defence. If such request is not unreasonable they should grant the request and the accused tried on the first and second charges alone.

Prosecutor:

The arrangements for this trial were made in conjunction with my learned friend in setting the time, and it was perfectly obvious from the outset that these witnesses had to be brought from great distances. They are not compellable witnesses, and they are now here. It will be a great inconvenience to themselves as far as they are concerned if we are to have one trial and they are sent away, and brought back for another.

Defending Officer:

The prosecuting officer has stated the witnesses were brought from some distance, which makes things inconvenient for them. The inconvenience on the witnesses is very small as compared to the inconvenience on my client. That is not a point of importance at all.

Judge Advocate:

The court has heard the arguement. No further direction is required from me.

President:

The court will close to consider the request of the Defending Officer.

The court closes 10.30 hours. The court re-opens 10.35 hours.

President:

The submission of the defence is allowed. The accused will be arraigned on the 1st and 2nd charges as if contained in Charge Sheet No. 1

The accused is arraigned upon the First and Second charges in the Charge Sheet.

Q.4 Are you guilty or not guilty of the first charge against you, which you have heard read?
A. Not guilty, sir

Q.5 Are you guilty or not guilty of the second charge against you, which you have heard read?
A. Not guilty, sir.

Q.6 Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity for preparing your defence?
A. No, sir

The Prosecutor makes an opening address.

May it please the court. The charges upon which the accused has just been arraigned come under two sections of the army Act; the first being a civil offence, that is to say, larceny, under Section 41 of the Army Act; and the second being conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline under Section 40.

It is not my intention to discuss the law with respect to these two particular charges except as far as may be necessary to do so in describing the evidence which I propose to adduce and its relation to the particular points of law involved.

With respect to charge No. 1, it is a charge of larceny under the Larceny Act 1916. Section 1 of that act provides the following definition " A person steals who, without the consent of the owner, fraudulently and without a claim of right made in good faith, takes and carries away anything capable of being stolen with intent, at the time of such taking, permanently to deprive the owner thereof; Provided that a person may be guilty of stealing any such thing notwithstanding that he has lawful possession thereof, if, being a bailee or part owner thereof, he fraudulently converts the same to his own use or the use of any person other than the owner."

In respect to Sec 40, the 2nd Charge, I will not make any further observations at this time. The first charge alleges that the property stolen is the property of a person unknown. That does not mean that the property does not have an owner. It simply means that the title of the property is not capable of clear definition at the moment. It will be sufficient and I am sure the JA will advise you, it will be sufficient to establish that the property is not the property of the accused. That is sufficient, hence the definition " The property of a person unknown".

In the course of this trial you may have reason to suspect there may have been, there may be proof, of the commission of other offences by the accused, either in consort with other persons or independently. They may be civilian or military, junior in rank or superior in rank. That is of no consequence whatsoever to you in respect of the charges on which the accused has been arraigned.

Evidence will be adduced by Major Kilgour who is in charge of vehicles at HQ First Cdn Army with respect to the treatment, collection, use and disposition of war booty, vehicles constitute part of war booty, both before and after the introduction of operation "Eclipse". That will be the first evidence which will be adduced. Evidence will also be produced that the accused drove a certain motor car , the subject of the charge, to the Hague, and there made arrangements with two persons, Ruifrok and Haffert, to arrange for a purchaser of that car. Pursuant to that arrangement, the car was sold by the joint efforts of Haffert and Ruifrok to a man by the name of Hillenaar, and for which Hillensar paid the sum of 5000 guilders, and of which purchase price they paid 4000 guilders to the accused, retaining the balance as their commission. Whether that was retained with the consent of the accused or otherwise is of no particular consequence.

Likewise a police witness will be called who has examined the car and you will have an opportunity to see it and to hear his description of the car, to give you a clear indication that the car was in fact enemy property and as such, enemy booty, so the accused had no title, and the act of the selling of the vehicle constituted theft. Apart from that, in view of the regulation dealing with the disposition of vehs, at that time restricting the use of vehs by civs, will be my submission that to dispose of such a vehicle to the civilian was conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline. What constitutes conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline is a matter of which the court itself is quite competent to decide with the assistance of some regulations and likewise as provided in RP 74 that in determining these matters the court may take judicial notice of all matters of notoriety, including all matters within their general military knowledge.

In connection with both of these charges you will be asked to exercise your general military knowledge on the question as to whether or not the vehicle was war booty. There is no positive identification that the veh was ever under military control, but that is of no consequence either.

The Prosecutor proceeds to call witnesses.

First Witness for the Prosecution Major Arthur Rutherford KILGOUR, RCOC, having been duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor:

Q. 7 What is your full name?
A. Major Arthur Rutherford KILGOUR.

Q.8 And your corps and unit?
A. 1 Cdn Veh Coy, RCOC.

Q.9 How long have you been in the army?
A. Since July 1941.

Q.10 During that time have you been in the Ordnance Corps?
A. Yes sir

Q.11 What was your employment in the army during the first half of 1945?
A. I was in charge of the vehicles in the DDOS Branch, HQ First Cdn Army.

Q.12 In that capacity were you acquainted with the drill with respect to captured enemy equipment?
A. Yes sir.

Q.13 What was the drill with respect to the handling of captured enemy equipment prior to operation "Eclipse"?
A. Prior to operation "Eclipse" captured enemy equipment was taken into salvage channels and could only be released for use by a unit on authority of the Q Branch at Army HQ.

Q.14 Do I understand that the orders were that captured enemy vehicles were to be turned into salvage of the formation to which the unit belonged?
A. Yes sir, that is right.

Q.15 Will you tell the court what the situation was on the introduction of what is known as operation "Eclipse"?

A. In view of the fact that very large quantities of vehicles and other equipment would be taken from the enemy as they were surrendering, a special operation known as "Eclipse" was organized which set up special parks to take care of vehs which were taken over from the enemy. There was also at formation HQ an "Eclipse" increment who were responsible for the organization and carrying out of the operation.

Q.16 Can you say whether there were orders that all captured enemy vehicles were to be turned into these enemy veh parks?

A. In the case of captured enemy vehs, they were to be reported to Ordnance and arrangements were to be made for them to be collected in enemy veh parks which were organized and guarded by army people. No issues or releases of any kind were permitted from these parks without the authority of the Q Branch, HQ 1 Cdn Army.

Q.17 You have said that no releases could be made from these enemy vehicle parks. It was a fact I believe that some of these vehicles never actually reached the veh parks. The physical effort of concentrating them was never completed and some were taken away from the place where they were first reported and never reached an EVP?

A. It is possible that many vehs taken over by units or individuals were not subsequently turned over to Ordnance but were used by the people who originally obtained them.

Q.18 That would be an unauthorized use in accordance with those orders?

A. Yes

Q.19 Is there any way that you know of that a private individual in or out of the army could acquire title to one of these enemy vehicles?

A. All equipment taken from the enemy in the Netherlands belonged to the army i.e. the Crown. Therefore, if any individual in a unit obtained such equipment he was required to turn it in to proper authority. It was not his to use or dispose of.

Q.20 Operation "Eclipse", did it have any territorial limitation?

A. It covered Germany and the Netherlands, and any other places where the army was operating.

Q.21 You have told the court that releases from these enemy vehicle parks required Q authority. What other procedure was necessary in order to retain such a vehicle?

A. If a captured enemy veh was going to be used, a WD number had to be obtained for that veh, which was obtained on application to HQ First Cdn Army.

Q.22 Any further requirements?

A. If the use of the veh was authorized, a retention certificate was issued quoting the WD number and describing the vehicle. Copies of the certificate were distributed, one copy on the vehicle, one copy to HQ 21 A Gp, and one copy remained at Army HQ.

Q.23 What was the final disposition of these vehs which were collected up in operation "Eclipse" into EVPs, or were registered in by the "Eclipse" increment?

A. The final disposal was authorized by the Q Branch, Army HQ, which directed that all vehs in the EVPs should be turned over to the Dutch Government.

The Defending Officer declines to cross-examine.

By Judge Advocate

Q.24 Were any of these vehs before operation "EClipse" turned over to the Dutch?

A. Not to my knowledge, sir.

Q.25 What was the date operation "Eclipse" came into effect?

A. I cannot say exactly on what specific date instructions were issued, but it was prior to VE day.

Q.26 Were these instructions promulgated in Routine Orders?

A. Instructions on vehs were purely passed down through the staff from Army to Corps to Division. I do not think there was ever a routine order. I cannot say if there was a routine order covering the general policy on captured equipment or not.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it is not necessary to comply with R.P. 83(b)

The witness withdraws.

Q.48 Did he say where it came from?

A. No sir. I took it that it came from Germany.

Q.50 Why?
A. In the beginning I had heard from him that he came from Germany.

Q.51 Was anything said about the vehicle coming from Germany?
A. No.

A. I do not know. I did not pay particular attention, but it was pretty much as the Dutch camoflage colour of the military cars. It was about that colour.

Q.66 Did it have any signs or numbers of any kind on it?
A. I believe that there was a sign on the front. I cannot recall whether on the left or right side, but it was on the mud-guard.

Q.61 What kind of a sign was it?
A. I know it was not a Dutch sign. I took it to be a Canadian sign.

Q.62 Was it a civilian or military sign?
A. It was not a Dutch civilian sign. Of course, I do not know the signs of other countires, whether civil or military.

Q.63 It was not a Dutch sign?
A. No.

Q.64 You said you made an appointment to meet a prospective buyer at the Marie Bar at 10.30?

A. He bought the car. We then talked about it. After a quarter of an hour's negotiation, the deal went through. I was under the impression that the price was 4000 guilders. The transaction was concluded at 4000 guilders. Later on I heard from others that the price must have been 5000 guilders.

A. Yes sir.

Q.71 What was done with the purchase money?
A. Frans Ruifrok collected it. We got up and the buyer went to the car. I cannot exactly recollect what I did then. I believe I went to have a look at my bike outside. I went inside again, asked for my commission from Frans, he gave me 375 guilders. I asked why I did not receive 500, and he told me -----

Q.72 Did you pay the money, or turn the money over, to Mr. Greenslade?
A. I cannot recollect whether that has happened. In my opinion Frans Ruifrok accepted the money. He gave me my share and immediately after I went home because it was late.

Q.73 Was Mr. Greenslade in the bar when this transaction went on?
A. He was in the bar. He was sitting near the street window. During the transaction I was sitting with my back to the window and do not know whether he remained in the bar at the time, all the time the transaction took place.

A. I did sir. On the 20th March the following investigation was made. I examined Ford V8, engine Number 74-88847. I found it to be 37 to 38 model of Netherlands manufacture, and on further examination of the car I found in it was a battery bearing Canadian Army WD property mark, a C with a broad arrow in it, stamped on a post. I examined the paint on this car and by rubbing it down with emery paper I found the original colour had been blue, blue laquer similar to that used on civilian cars ----

Defending Officer:

I am wondering if the prosecutor contends this is an expert witness.

Prosecutor:

That only goes to the weight of his evidence, not whether or not he is capable of giving it.

Defending Officer:

If he is to be an expert witness I want his competency proved.

Prosecutor:

He is not an expert witness at all. He is just telling us of the investigation he conducted. It will be demonstrated to the court in a few minutes.

Judge Advocate:

I advise the court that the witness not being qualified as an expert, and if the court finds his opinion one upon which they can, on the subject of it, form their own opinion, the evidence on the opinion of the witness should be rejected.

Prosecutor continues examination of the witness:

Q.183 Will you tell the court further what you did?
A. I found on top of the blue paint which was next to the metal, a coat of a yellow rough grade of paint, also on top of it a green coat, also a rough grade of paint, described as coarse. On top of the green is the colour of the car now, a modern fine grade of paint.

Q.184 With respect to the yellow paint, can you be more specific?
A. It is a sort of cream colour. It is similar to that used by the Germans, the German Army, for camoflage purposes, commonly known as Afrika Corps grey.

Q.185 Describe the green paint on top of the cream?
A. The green paint on top of the cream is commonly seen on vehicles of the Netherlands Army, being coarse paint, differing from that used on our own vehicles.

Q.186 Did you make a special examination of the bonnet of that car?
A. The bonnet which is at present attached to the car was examined and it was found that it did not have ~~said~~ similar kinds of paint.

Q.187 What did it have?
A. Under the ~~modern~~ coat of paint I found little except filler. maroon

Q.188 Did you conduct any further inquiries about that?
A. On the same date I seized in the Hague from one Mr. Hillemar a bonnet of a Ford V8 and on examination of this bonnet, I found that it bore paints corresponding with that of the Ford V8 afore-described.

Q.189 What do you mean by similar paint?
A. Similar kinds of paint, blue on the metal, cream on the blue, green on the cream, with a surface colour of maroon laquer.

Q.190 Did you make any further examination of that hood?
A. Upon the surface of the hood which I seized and in the centre of the hood can be discerned a depression aparemtly caused by the original coats having been chipped off before the maroon was applied. This is in circular from.

Q.191 Whereabouts in the hood?
A. In the centre top of the hood.

Q.192 What is the size of the chipped or depressed area?
A. 2½ feet in diameter.

Q.193 About 2½ feet?
A. Yes sir.

Prosecutor:

I suggest at this stage Mr. President, that we take a view of the car, and the witness indicate the tests he conducted which he has already described.

Judge Advocate:

The court will take the view in the presence of the accused, the Defending Officer and the Prosecutor. The short-hand writer will be there, and all members of the court. Any spectators will say nothing there. Even though they do, Mr. Greenslade, you will not be called upon to make any statement or give evidence at this time.

(The persons mentioned above by the Judge Advocate leave the court-room to view the car, Exhibit "G")

Q.194 Describe to the court the matters which you have just given in evidence in the court-room?
A. This is the car which I have mentioned, and with reference to the battery - (witness raised motor hood and indicates a post of the battery) - there is the "C" with the broad arrow. Here are the places (indicating) where I carried out the paint inspection on the hood. Under the paint on the hood there is nothing to be seen other than foundation paint. The car being of Netherlands manufacture may be seen on the plate on the front left of the engine cowling, and the fact that the speedometer and other instruments are in kilometres, differing from those manufactured in America. It has a small horse-power motor. The original colour may be seen inside the engine compartment, which is blue. The cream colour may be seen where it overlaps, where it overlaps the blue, and this can also be seen on the rear of the car where I have removed several coats. (Demonstrates), this being the metal, then the blue, the cream colour, the green and last the red. (Witness uses knife to scrape paint)

(Witness takes motor hood from inside the car)

Q.195 Will you indicate your test conducted on the original hood?
A. This is the hood which I seized from Hillemaar, and it bears paint corresponding to the rest of the car. In the centre of this hood, there is a depression which I mentioned before. (Witness scrapes paint from a spot on the hood) In scraping this down in the depression, it would appear that under the surface colour there is only blue.

Q.196 Is there anything further you want to say about it while you are here?
A. I don't think so, sir.

(President, members, judge advocate, Defending Officer, Prosecutor, witness, return to court-room)

Cross-examined by Defending Officer.

Q.197 Sgt Morris, what education have you had?
A. I had high school education sir, and an anatomy course.

Q.198 You made a statement that on top of the blue you found a yellow and you described it as very similar to German paint, using a technical name. That is your own idea, is it?
A. That is my observation, sir.

Q.199 It looks like it to you?
A. Yes sir .

Q.200 You would be prepared to contradict it to a person who produced an analysis?
A. No sir, I would accept an analysis.

Q.201 All the evidence you have given as to colour is purely your own opinion, formed from patches you scraped on that car?
A. Yes sir, that is correct.

Q.202 In fact, your statement that the original colour was blue, that is only your own opinion. It may have been scraped down 20, 30, 50 times. Thatis just your own opinion?
A. I would not be prepared to say this car has been scraped down.

Q.203 It is purely your own idea that blue might have been the original colour?
A. Yes sir.

Q.204 You got this hood from Mr. Hillenaar, you told us?
A. Thatis correct.

Q.205 Whether or not that hood belongs to that particular body, you do not know, do you?
A. I am satisfied that it does.

Q.206 You are not prepared to swear on that? That it belongs to that body. You think it does, that is only opinion again?
A. I think it does.

Q.207 I believe you told the court you got that hood from Hillenaar?
A. That is correct.

Q.208 That has not been in your possession ever since?
A. It has been left with the vehicle.

Q.209 The answer to my question is "No"?
A. Yes sir.

The prosecutor declines to re-examine.

In the opinion of the court and the Judge Advocate it is not necessary to comply with RP 83(b)

The witness withdraws.

Prosecutor:

"That is the case for the prosecution."

The prosecution is closed.

Submission by the Defending Officer:

May it please the court. This submission that I have sir, first on Charge 1. For the benefit of the court you will find quoted in Archbold 378 a rule of law that states this: " Never to convict a man for stealing the goods of a person unknown, merely because he will give no account how he came by them, unless an actual felony be proved of such goods." My submission on this charge is this; that it is not proven. The gist of larceny as quoted by the Prosecutor is the taking away, and there is no evidence this car was taken away from any owner at all. No explanation has been asked from the defendant and I submit he comes clearly within that rule and up to this point that charge should be considered not proven. I think the prosecution has not discharged the onus on them of proving the charge beyond a reasonable doubt.

Coming to Charge 2. The 2nd, 3rd and 4th witnesses; Haffert, Ruifrok and Hillemaar. My submission on this is that the three of them acted in concert. Two of them got a commission and the third got the car. I respectfully submit they should be regarded as accomplices of the defendant, for a commission was paid. I quote an established rule of British law, that a defendant should never be convicted on the uncorroborated evidence of one accomplice. Again reference Archbold, 438; an established rule in English law is that the evidence of one accomplice cannot be corroborated by another accomplice. And if my submission is correct, nothing in the evidence of Haffert, Ruifrok and Hillemaar should be regarded as corroboration. The evidence of Sgt Morris was clearly shown to be purely opinion. I think the court is in just as good a position to exercise their judgment as he. The essence of a charge under Section 40 is, I submit, a breach of a military order, and in the foot-note to that section it clearly states that the order must be proved and the proper posting of the order must be proved, and there is absolutely no evidence before this court of any Cdn army order prohibiting the sale of any article whatsoever to anybody. That being the case, I submit there cannot possibly be a case of conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline. How can the sale be said to be improper if it is not to the prejudice, or rather a breach of some order. If my submission of not proven on Charge 2 is correct, then it removes the last shred of doubt on Charge 1.

My submission to the court is respectfully that the prosecution has not discharged the onus upon them of proving beyond a reasonable doubt that this defendant either stole the car or improperly disposed of it.

The Prosecutor replies to the submission of the Defending Officer:

The first point I would like to make clear is that at this stage the question of reasonable doubt is not to be considered at all. Reasonable doubt is a matter upon which you come to a conclusion on the final disposal of the case. At this point it is more than sufficient to establish a prima facie case which the accused is bound to meet. The charge is that of larceny under the Larceny Act. Section 1 of that act provides the following definition "A person steals who, without the consent of the owner, fraudulently and without a claim of right made in good faith, takes and carries away anything capable of being stolen with intent, at the time of such taking, permanently to deprive the owner thereof". Taking and carrying away deals with physical movement of the goods. There is no doubt in this case that the accused took goods, the car, to the Hague.

As to the question of whether Ruifrok, Haffert and Hillenaar are accomplices, the rule is that a person should not be convicted on the uncorroborated evidence of an accomplice. I agree with that. Apart from the question of whether they are accomplices, there is very ample corroboration, the physical vehicle itself. Nothing could be better, the vehicle itself, the subject of the theft. Likewise I am sure the JA will direct you that what has been said of accomplices does not apply to Hillenaar. He is at best the receiver. A receiver is not an accomplice.

Defending Officer:

I wish only to repeat what I said, that there is no evidence whatsoever of illegal taking of the vehicle at all and there is no order prohibiting the sale of any article, so there is no breach of an order, and therefore no conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline.

At 1200 hours 28 Mar 46 the court adjourned, to re-assemble at 1400 hours 28 Mar 46. The court re-assembled 1400 hours 28 Mar 46, present same members and Judge Advocate, pursuant to adjournment.

Judge Advocate:

At the conclusion of the case for the Prosecution on the 1st and 2nd charges the Defence has submitted that the Prosecution has failed to establish a Prima Facie case on both charges.

Larceny is defined as follows: "A person steals who, without the consent of the owner, fraudulently and without a claim of right made in good faith, takes and carries away anything capable of being stolen with intent, at the time of such taking, permanently to deprive the owner thereof; provided that a person may be guilty of stealing any such thing notwithstanding that he has lawful possession thereof, if being a bailee or part owner thereof, he fraudulently converts the same to his own use or the use of any person other than the owner."

Therefore the elements of Larceny are as follows: There must be an intent permanently to deprive the owner thereof. There must be the taking of the goods and in this connection, even the slightest moving is sufficient. The goods must be taken without the consent of the owner but the expression owner is not limited to the person who is legal owner of the property stolen, he may be part owner or person having control of or special property in anything capable of being stolen. In this connection there is evidence upon which the court could find that the vehicle, by virtue of operation "Eclipse" could be public property. The defence has raised the question that the witnesses for the prosecution, being accomplices, require corroboration, but at this stage of the proceedings it is not necessary for the court to consider credibility of witnesses. In addition the receiver of stolen goods is not an accomplice of the theft. The defending officer has raised the point that before a charge of conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline can be proved , that a breach of military orders must be proved. This is not the correct case. The court may from the evidence that they have heard if it supports the charge determine whether it amounts to conduct to the prejudice of both good order and military discipline.

In considering the evidence at this time the court need not consider whether the prosecution has or has not proven the case beyond a reasonable doubt nor as I said before need the court consider the credibility of witnesses. The court need only consider whether or not the prosecution has adduced sufficient evidence upon which they could if un-contradicted, find the accused guilty.

If there is in thatamount of evidence the submission of the defending officer should be disallowed, if there is not that amount of evidence, the submission of the defending officer should be allowed.

The court closes to consider the submission of the Defending Officer.

The court is re-opened.

President:

"The submission of the defence is disallowed"

Judge Advocate to accused:

At this stage you are going into the defence. I shall read this rule of procedure to you, and make sure that you understand it, and following that, you willbe asked certain questions by the President of the Court.

(RP 40(A) is complied with)

President to Accused:

Q.210 Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness?
A. I wish to make a statement not on oath sir.

Q.211 Do you intend to call any other witness in your defence?
A. Yes sir.

Q.212 Is he a witness as to character only?
A. No sir.

Q.213 Do you wish to make your statement now?
A. Yes sir.

The accused makes the following statement not on oath:

Members of the court and sir. I bought the car in good faith from a Dutch officer. Later I was told that I could not have permission to run the car from Col Hooper at Army HQ Adm, and he told me I could sell it, and it was mine. I believe Major Babe also told me it would be in order to sell it, I believe he was the DAAG at that time. That is all, sir.

First Witness for the Defence — Mrs. Gerda Anna Jacoba Pont, Jonker Loenenscheweg 2, Beekvergen, Holland, having been duly sworn, is examined by the Defending Officer:

Q.214 Mrs. Pont, do you know Capt Greenslade?
A. Yes sir.

Q.215 You see him in this room, do you?
A. Yes sir, that is Mr. Greenslade (The witness indicates the accused)

Q.216 Do you know whether Mr. Greenslade at any time had a Ford Motor car?

A.216 Yes, I know he did.

Q.217 Will you please tell the court all you know about that car?

A. I came one time to the 100 Club to the dining room of Mr. Greenslade, and there he had a conversation with a gentleman who handed him at the moment when I came in a piece of paper declaring that in some days time he would hand Mr. Greenslade the final papers.

Prosecutor:

Before evidence is given as to the contents of this paper, can we be assured that it will be produced?

Defending Officer:

It cannot be produced.

Prosecutor:

Then it will have to be accounted for.

Defending Officer continues examination of witness:

Q.218 Will you continue?

A. Mr. Greenslade asked me to give the gentleman, a Dutch Officer, a ride in my car, taking him to the Arnhemweg where possible he could find another lift. In the car the gentleman declared .....

Q.219 Do not tell us what this cahp said in the car to you, because Mr. Greenslade was not present. You can tell us only about conversations made in front of Mr. Greenslade. Was the gentleman you saw in the dining room a civilian, an army officer, or what?

A. A Dutch Army Officer.

Q.220 Was there any conversation in the dining room that would lead you to believe that you might know what this paper was about?

A. Yes, I understood that the officer would leave his car at the club.

Q.221 Was there a car at the club at this time?

A. Yes.

Q.222 What kind of a car?

A. I think it was a Ford.

Cross-examined by Prosecutor.

Q.223 Mrs. Pont, do you know what car it was they were talking about on that occasion, Capt Greenslade and the Dutch Officer?

A. Yes.

Q.224 What car was it?

A. A Ford.

Q.225 Did you see the car?

A. Yes, it stood in front of the building.

Q.226 What colour was it?

A. Gray.

Q.227 What do you mean by gray?

A.227 Not field gray.

Q.228 Are you acquainted with German military vehicles?
A. Yes.

Q.229 Was it painted that colour?
A. No.

Q.230 A different colour entirely?
A. Yes.

Q.231 How do you know that that car which stood out in front was the subject of discussion between them?
A. Because the gentleman told me he left it there because it was broken.

Q.232 You are quite sure it was a Dutch Army officer?
A. Yes sir.

The Defending Officer declines to re-examine.

Prosecutor:

Might I suggest that the court direct the witnesses attention to the vehicle we have been discussing, and see if it is the one?

Defending Officer:

I had thought of that but in view of changes .....

Prosecutor:

Do not make any suggestions to the witness just yet please.

Court:

Q.233 There is a vehicle out on the road in front. Have you ever seen that before?
A. Not in that colour.

Q.234 Was it the same type of car?
A. I think so. I am not sure.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it is not necessary to comply with RP 83(3)

The witness witness withdraws.

Defending Officer: That is the case for the defence. We have no further witnesses.

The Defending Officer makes a closing address:

May it please the court. In my submissions at the close of the prosecutions case I mentioned two or three points and I again stress those. The defendant himself has made a statement explaining his having the car, and it has been corroborated I submit by the last witness. My submission is that the statement, plus the corroboration, definitely have answered the prosecutions prima facie case under Charge 1, and in view of that I further submit that the defendant had that right of ownership which permitted him to dispose of the car after he ascertained the fact that the Cdn Army would not give his authority to drive it for his own or military purposes.

On the evidence before the court he purchased it in good faith from a Dutch army officer and later sold it. One of the prosecution witnesses stated that the normal price of that car at that time would be 25000 to 30000 guilders, and of which it is common knowledge, is a black-market price. This was sold at what is a more normal price for that type of car. I suggest that corroborates the fact that there was no intention of illegal dealing, and I again stress the fact there are no orders published forbidding the sale of any articles to anybody and because of that I submit that there was no breach of Section 40 in disposing of an article for which the defendant had the title. Therefore the 2nd charge falls to the ground. I ask the court for an acquittal on both charges. I might say that I have not quoted the law to the court which I quoted on my submission. It is in the record and all those points still stand if necessary to refer to them.

The Prosecutor makes a closing address.

May it please the court. The accused in respect of the present trial stands charged first with larceny, and in the alternative he is charged with conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline in that he disposed of a certain car to a Dutch civilian. Only in the event of your finding him not guilty on the first charge need you give any consideration whatsoever to either the law or the facts with respect to Charge 2. The larceny act says "A person steals who without the consent of the owner, fraudulently and without a claim of right made in good faith, takes and carries away anything capable of being stolen with intent, at the time of such taking, permanently to deprive the owner thereof". Let us analyze that definition and apply the evidence with respect to it. "With intent at the time of such taking permanently to deprive the owner thereof". There can be no doubt whatsoever that there was an intention to dispose of that vehicle and permanently deprive the owner thereof by the sale. There can be no question about that at all. Likewise the subject of the theft is material which is capable of being stolen; clearly a car of this character is capable of being stolen. "Takes and carries away". There can be no doubt whatever that taking the car to the Hague and selling it there constitutes all the taking and carrying away necessary to substantiate this charge. "Without consent of the owner, fraudulently and without claim of right". The accused saw fit to make a statement on the matter and says he saw fit to acquire it from a Dutch officer in good faith. In determining whether or not the accused acquired the car in good faith, you are entitled to exercise your military knowledge on matters of mororiety referred to in RP 74. I do not think there can be the slightest doubt in anyone's mind after the demonstration of Sgt Morris and the physical vehicle shows clearly that that vehicle was originally a car of Dutch make, subsequently painted in standard German camoflage colours, thereafter painted in the allied camoflage and later at the instance of the civilian, painted a red colour. Likewise you are not to be unmindful of the evidence of Haffert who says that when he first saw it it had a military sign on it. He was not sure what kind of a sign but you will have seen, as was demonstrated this morning that a mark had been on it, had been chipped off and painted over and subsequently another bonnet was substituted for it.

There is another factor to be born in mind. You can exercise your military knowledge in this matter. Is it likely that a Canadian officer in some standing would purchase from military personnel of another army, property which on the face of it appeared to be war booty, if not actually property of the government for which he was employed. I ask you to consider those factors in determining whether the sale was subsequent to a claim of right made in good faith. I do not think any officer would purchase a vehicle bearing those markings, and suggest it was a transaction conducted in good faith. That the transaction did take place and the money was paid to the accused, at a price which may I suggest is not a matter without significance, it is equally open to the court to infer that the abnormal price, bearing in mind the market, an indication clearly that it was not a vehicle to be retained, it was one likely to lead to a considerable amount of difficulty.

As to the reference to Col Hooper and Major Babe, there is no evidence as to what their authority was. I have personal knowledge they were at the HQ at that time, but if I volunteered to someone that he is entitled to sell something I do not know about, surely that is not a claim of right made in good faith, nor is it a matter of condonation either because the persons alleged to have given this approval could never have addressed their minds to whether it was an offence or not, and therefore, regardless of their relation to the accused, could not have condoned the offence if committed. The explanation of having the car is just as consistent with guilt as innocence. The fact that it was acquired does not change the situation in the slightest. If he paid for it, that is only evidence of his good faith, or it might have no significance at all. My submission is that the car was war booty. There is no method by which it could be disposed of by army officers, and certainly not to an army officer. That is a matter of common military knowledge.

In view of the arguement which I have addressed to you now in view of Charge 1, it is my submission nothing need be said to you with respect to Charge 2.

It is part of my duty as Judge Advocate to sum the evidence and advise the court on the law. The court is however, the sole judge of the facts and anything I have said or may now say with regard to the facts should be completely disregarded. The court and the court alone is the sole judge of the facts.

I do not consider it necessary to sum up on the evidence and with your permission I will not do so. I wish to point out that at the beginning of the deliberations the Court must consider the accused to be innocent. The onus is on the prosecution to prove that the accused is guilty, not for the accused to prove himself innocent. Therefore, the prosecution must satisfy the court that the elements constituting the charge are proved.

The accused is charged with a charge under Army Act Sec 41, When on Active Service committing a civil offence, that is to say, Larceny contrary to Section 2 of the Larceny Act 1916 in that he, in the Field, in Holland, on or about 6 Jul 45 stole a 1937 Ford V8 Sedan Motor No; 74-88847 the property of a person unknown. With regard to larceny a person steals who, without the consent of the owner, fraudulently and without a claim of right made in good faith, takes and carries away anything capable of being stolen with intent, at the time of such taking, permanently to deprive the owner thereof, provided that a person may be guilty of stealing any such thing notwithstanding that he has lawful possession thereof, if, being a bailee or part owner thereof, he fraudulently converts the same to his own use or the use of any person other than the owner. Therefore, in a charge of larceny, the article alleged stolen must be shown to have been taken without the consent of the owner. By owner, I repeat, means any part owner or person having possession or control of, or special property in anything capable of being stolen. There must be an intent to permanently deprive the owner thereof.

With regard to the evidence; the defence has raised the point that some of the witnesses for the prosecution may be accomplices. An accomplice is a person who willingly takes part in a crime and the crime charged in this first charge is theft. Therefore, if the court find that any of the witnesses come within that definition, then the court should treat that evidence as the evidence of accomplices. I read from MML, page 83, Sec 45 "Apart from any such statutory requirement the evidence even of an accomplice is in strict law sufficient, if the jury consider him credible; but it is now held to be the duty of the judge to warn the jury of the danger of convicting a prisoner on the uncorroborated evidence of an accomplice and, in his discretion advise them not to do so, though at the same time pointing out that it is within their legal province to convict upon it if they choose. In a trial by court-martial where the court performs the functions of both judge and jury, they should very carefully consider the danger before convicting on the unscrroborated testimony of an accomplice; and, if there is a judge-advocate, it is essential that he should direct their attention to the point. Except where a statute makes provision as to the nature of the evidence necessary, the corroboration required is independent testimony which confirms in some material particular not only the evidence that the crime has been committed, but also that the accused committed it".

It has been laid down in law that the receiver of stolen property is not an accomplice of the thief, and therefore, if the court finds the witness Hillemaar merely received stolen property, he is not an accomplice. With regard to the witnesses even though the court finds they are accomplices, if the court finds they are engaged in something illegal according to the law in their own country, the court may consider that as it affects their credibility in the case.

If the court finds as a matter of fact upon the evidence that the vehicle alleged stolen is a captured enemy vehicle then that vehicle is the property of one of the allied governments and is therefore public property, and if that vehicle is public property, and is dealt with in the manner as alleged in the charge by the accused, then it may constitute theft, but if the court is not able to find as a matter of fact that the vehicle is public property, that is, a captured enemy vehicle, then the prosecution has not satisfied the onus upon it and shown that the vehicle was taken without the owners consent, and the accused would not be guilty of theft even though he acted as alleged. With regard to the first proposition that the court finds as a matter of fact that the vehicle is a captured enemy vehicle, and therefore public property, that it was dealt with in the way alleged, that it was sold, then as I said, it may be theft provided that the accused acted as he is alleged to have acted and as the court may find he did act, fraudulently and without claim of right made in good faith. I read from Archbold, page 491, on intent. "In all cases of larceny, the question whether the prisoner took all the goods knowlingly or by mistake - whether he took them bona fide under a claim of right, or otherwise-- and whether he took them with an intent to return them to the owner, or fraudulently with an intent to deprive the owner of them, altogether, and to appropriate or convert them to his own use-- are questions entirely for the consideration of the jury, to be determined by them upon a view of the particular facts of the case. A person has a claim of right where he honestly asserts what he believes to be a lawful claim, even thought it may be unfounded in law or fact."

In addition to the evidence heard in the court, the court may consider evidence of notoriety, and I read MP 74 "The court may take judicial notice of all matters of notoriety including all matters within their general military knowledge." By Rule 74 "The court are expressly authorized to take judicial notice of all matters of notoriety, including all matters within their general military knowledge. Thus, evidence need not be given as to the relative rank of officer, as to the general duties, authorities, and obligations of different members of the service, or generally as to any matters which an officer, as such, may reasonable be expected to know".

If the court find the accused not guilty of the first charge, then the court may consider the second charge, under Sec 40 of the Army Act, when on active service, conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline in that he , in the Field, in Holland on or about 6 Jul 1945 improperly disposed of a 1937 Ford V8 Sedan, Motor No. 74[illegible] 8884[illegible] to F J Hillenaar, a Dutch civilian. To be guilty of this charge, the prosecution must satisfy the court that the particulars of the charge are materially proven, and if proven, that it constitutes conduct to the prejudice, of both good order and military discipline. It is not necessary for a charge under Sec 40 to be proven to show that it is contrary to a routine order. The facts in the charge themselves may show that it is conduct to the prejudice, and that is for the court to decide. The advice I have given to the court with regard to the evidence on the first charge is also applicable to the second, the alternative charge.

It is also my duty to point out to the court that the accused is entitled to the benefit of any reasonable doubt. I say a reasonable doubt, that is some doubt which is based on the facts before the Court and not some doubt which is purely imaginary. If the Court has a reasonable doubt after hearing and weighing the evidence then the accused is entitled to the benefit of that doubt.

That is all I wish to say sir, unless the court or the Defending Officer or the Prosecuting Officer require further direction on some point I may have over-looked.

Prosecutor

There are two points on which I respectfully submit, further direction might be given.

The first is that the statment made in the course of the JAs address "If you are unable to find that the car which is the subject matter of the charge, is war booty, then the prosecution has failed". My submission is that that is not a proper statement of law. There can be no doubt whatever if it is as held, or you come to the conclusion that it is war booty, then there can be no doubt whatever about the result. It is only necessary to prove it is the property of someone other than the accused. I respectfully submit that is the direction which the JA might make at this time. If there is any further doubt about that, I will address myself to it. He may even refer to the facet of some of the evidence on the case.

The other thing is that I feel something should be said about the relative weight given to the evidence of various people and your right to take at whole or in part such portion as you may choose to bellieve. It is not necessary that you discount a witness entirely, you may accept some, and disregard other.

The Judge Advocate

With regard to the evidence of witnesses, I advise the court the weight of credibility they place on witnesses is a matter for the court. It is true that the court may believe part of a witness's statement, none of it, or the whole of it, and the weight they give to any statment they do believe is entirely a matter within the jurisdiction of the court.

With regard to the first request of the Prosecuting Officer. If the prosecuting officer has satisfied the court that even if the vehicle in question is found as a matter of fact not to be public property, that the accused still dealt with it as alleged without the consent of the owner, then he is quite right in saying that would constitute theft. I merely pointed out to the court that if the court find it is not public property, then there is no evidence before the court to show that the vehicle was dealt with by the accused without the onwer's consent and there would not be evidence to support a charge of theft.

The Court requires no further direction.

The Defending Officer requires no further direction.

THE COURT IS CLOSED FOR THE CONSIDERATION OF THE FINDING.

The court find that the accused, Lt. Theodore Lewis James GREENSLADE, RCAC, on strength 3 Cdn Transit Camp, CFN, is guilty of the First Charge, and is not Guilty of the Second Charge.

The Court is re-opened.

The President announces the finding of Not Guilty and states to the accused that the finding of the Court on the First Charge, being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.

The accused is arraigned upon the Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Seventh Charges in the Charge Sheet.

Q.235 Are you guilty or not guilty of the third charge against you, which you have heard read?
A. Not guilty, sir.

The Prosecutor makes an opening address:

The accused stands charged with five charges, one of which is framed in the alternative, and the first of these charges, the third charge, deals with the trafficking in liquor with Dutch civilians, and secondly, the 4th charge, with using military transport for the delivery of that liquor to the Dutch civilians. The 5th charge is laid under Section 18(4) of the Army Act and I will deal with that when reviewing the evidence which I propose to adduce in support of the charge. The 6th charge is framed in the alternative and alleges conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline, in that the accused, in the Field, in Holland, in the month of July or August 1945, improperly dealt in merchandise in that he sold two hundred bed-sheets to Dutch civilians. The seventh charge is precisely to the same effect and deals with a different transaction.

With respect to Charge 3, evidence will be adduced that the accused on one occasion took a quantity of goods including liquor to the Hague and disposed of it there to Dutch civilians, and subsequently on the same occasion from the proceeds a diamond ring was purchased. Likewise the accused will be shown as the manager of the 100 Club, which was an amenity of the Cdn Army, operating at Enschede and Apeldoorn at the time dealt with in the charges. A Sgt Derby was in charge of the liquor stocks and on the orders of the accused, delivered to the accused certain liquor which was in turn taken to the Hague by the accused and peddled there in an army vehicle. Likewise in another transaction the accused exchanged a substantial quantity of liquor for certain jewellery to a man by the name of Vulker, and those are the items dealt with in charge 3.

The proof of use of WD transport will be adduced in the evidence to support Charge 3.

With respect to Charge 5, evidence will be laid that the accused in company with one Schonk went to the home of Cpl Haffert, then a civilian, in the month of July 1945 late one evening and delivered 200 bed-sheets with instructions to Haffert that they were to be sold for 30 guilders each. A few days later the accused in company with Schonk returned and there was paid to the accused 6000 guilders, out of which he paid some commission I believe to Haffert. Part of those sheets which were sold will be produced in evidence and positive identification of them as army property is not possible in the sense that they bore no marks, but they are the same type as were issued to the 100 Club by the ADOS dump for the use of the civilian staff and likewise for other army units.

The alternative to that is that they were improperly dealt in with civilians and it will be my submission that to do so is contrary to good order and military discipline, if not actually in violation to the routine order covering the matter of trading with civilians.

The transaction referred to in the 7th charge relates to an action also in Holland, in July or August, when upon orders of the accused, 500 sheets were loaded in a MUP in charge of a military driver, in which an employee of the club, Leo Barnhoorn, went to Tilberg along with the secretary of the accused, Fine Martens.

There will be some doubt as to just exactly where all the sheets were delivered, but the purchaser of 100 of them will be here. The sheets were loaded on the HUP on the orders of the accused. I should, just for the sake of the record, add that the submission will be made that this transaction constitutes conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline. I am not quite sure whether I am entitled to make any reference to the original address I made but in case I am not, may I say again that it will not a matter of any concern to the court that other persons, either civilian or military, may, in the course of evidence, be proved to be accomplices of the accused in any offences. That is not of any consequence. The only concern of the court will be the participation of the accused himself. In coming to your conclusion, you will be advised by the JA you can take into account matters of notoriety, the authority being RP 74, and your military experience as officers.

The Prosecutor proceeds to call witnesses:

There were four of the big cases of Victory gin, 50 in a case, and there was all the wine I had, as we had not sold over two or three bottles of it, and probably a dozen bottles of champagne.

Q.362 Did you have any Advocaat in the Club stock?
A. Yes sir.

Q.363 When and where was it acquired?
A. Some of it came with the other liquor.

Q.364 You mean the NAAFI supply?

A. Shortly after we went to Apeldoorn.

Q.366 Will you tell the court what the method and control of sale there was for this liquor at the 100 Club?
A. Every day I gave the bar so many bottles of liquor and they had to account for 26 drinks out of each bottle and every morning I used to go down and count my whiskey to make sure I had not taken up an extra bottle at night.

A. Yes sir.

Q.368 What was the rate of value of spirits by the bottle?
A. Thirteen guilders for whiskey and English gin.

Q.369 What about the price for other types of gin?

Q.370 What was the method of accounting with respect to gin or liquor, gin or liqueur? Other than that obtained from NAAFI?
A. All except the Avocaat and the other liqueur, everything was accounted for the same as the NAAFI.

Q.371 Thirteen guilders a bottle?

Q.378 Apart from that issue of drinks from the bar in the club, did you have any other transactions with Mr. Greenslade?

Judge Advocate:

Sgt Derby, you are not obliged to answer any question which you feel might incriminate yourself in any way, but if you think you may be incriminated by any question, you may ask the court for permission not to answer that question.

Examination of witness continues:

Q.379 What transactions did you have with Mr. Greenslade other than the simple issue from day to day? Did you ever receive any special orders with respect to the issue of liquor from him?
A. Yes sir, at times.

Q.380 What special orders of any kind did you ever receive from Mr. Greenslade with respect to the issue of liquor?
A. I have received orders from Mr. Greenslade to sell a bottle to an officer occasionally, and occasionally the civilian staff, and another time on his orders I delivered to him a quantity of liquor for one of the messes.

Q.381 Will you tell us about that. How did that come about?
A. One morning I was in the office of Greenslade, and he came in and asked me how much gin I had, and I told him we had too much. He asked me if I thought we could spare a mess five or six cases and I said I thought we could spare them four cases, so I went down cellar and got the gin out and he asked me what I was doing with the Avocaat and I said I did not put it on sale any more as there was no demand for it. Steinhager was not fit stuff for anybody to drink, so he got a couple of cases of that.

Q.382 What order did you receive and what did you do as a result of the order on that occasion?
A. I had two of the staff load the four cases of Old Mab and two cases of Steinhager and two cases of Avocaat in the MUP.

Q.383 When did that happen?
A. About 10 o'clock a day between the 1st and 15th of July.

A. Mr. Greenslade came back at supper time and gave me the money for it sir.

Q.385 At what rates?
A. At bar rates.

Q.386 How much did you receive for the Old Nab?
A. Thirteen guilders a bottle.

Q.387 And the Steinhager?
A. Ten.

Q.388 And the Avocaat?
A. Eight.

Q.389 That balanced your books?
A. Yes sir.

Q.390 You told us before that this had been indicated to you as an issue to another Mess?
A. That is right sir.

Q.391 Did you satisfy yourself that it was an issue to another Mess?
A. I asked Mr. Greenslade to bring me back a receipt. When he came back that evening he looked through his pockets and could not find it and said he would bring it as soon as he changed his clothes.

Q.392 He paid you the money at that time?
A. Yes sir.

Q.393 Did you ever receive that receipt?
A. Yes sir.

Q.394 When?
A. Right after I had eaten my supper sir, that evening.

Q.395 What was the normal drill when transferring stock from your mess to another mess?
A. It was according to which mess it was for and who gave the order.

Q.396 Was money generally paid?
A. Yes sir, money was always paid eventually. Once we had one transaction for B Mess which I had on my books from Tilburg to Apeldoorn.

Q.397 Were you always in charge of this stock or was there any period when you were not in charge?
A. I was away on two or three different occasions overnight and I had leave in England in August for 11 days and two 48-hour extensions, because of the weather, and I was only back two or three days when I was in a jeep accident and was in hospital five or six days.

Q.398 Did you return to the club from leave?

A. Five days.

A. I gave the keys to Mr. Greenslade. When I came back the head-waiter gave me the keys back.

Q.402 What was the state of the stock when you came back?

Q.403 You were employed continuously at the club. Who was responsible for the equipment around the club?
A. Mr. Greenslade.

Q.404 What bed-clothing was issued to the staff?
A. I think the staff had three blankets each and at least two sheets each.

A. Fine Mertens.

Q.414 How long was she there?
A. From about a week after we went to Enschede until the end.

Q.415 Do you know what her duties were?
A. There were probably 20 people on the staff who could not speak English and if we wanted to ask them questions or give orders to them, we had to use her, sir.

Q.416 I show you a photograph, can you tell the court who that is?
A. Yes sir, the Interpreter, Miss. Mertens. EXHIBIT "K"

Q.417 Did she have any other duties around the club that you know of?
A. No sir.

Q.418 Did she give any orders around the club that you know of?

Q.436 You say he was interested in it, what happened?

When I went away the Lt. asked me if I would keep the ring for some days and come back. I went back three days later. When I came back there was quite a conversation about it between Mr. Greenslade and two other gentlemen who were present, and the girl. As a result of this talk I was agreeable, and I at last accepted the offer, at first of 700 English pounds. We did not agree on that, then came an offer of a piano, 120 bottles of Avecaat and 40 bottles of French cognac.

Q.442 What was done by you in respect to that offer?
A. It was accepted in principle by me. There was one condition, I had to wait for a fort-night as Mr. Greenslade had to go to France and get the cognac. The Avecaat was available.

Q.443 What happened after that?
A. I left the ring behind and as soon as the other stuff was available I should then get information when I should get it home. In the meantime I should drop in to ask if the stuff was available.

A. It was delivered by an army truck and Mr. Greenslade himself was present.

Q.447 Did you ever receive the piano?
A. No.

Q.448 Did you have some other business dealings with Mr. Greenslade?
A. Yes, later I offered him a pearl ring which I had on consignment at that time.

A. I should get them at a later date.

Q.464 Were they to be delivered or were you going to pick it up?
A. They would be delivered.

Q.465 What happened after that when they were not delivered?
A. When the date of delivery that was mentioned to me had expired I went back one day later because I had heard that the gentlemen were going to leave. When I came there there seemed to be something special going on because nobody was available there and Mr. Greenslade was not present either.

Q.466 What happened then?
A. Then I went away. On the following Sunday some gentlemen came to me and put to me some questions.

Q.467 What do you mean "Gentlemen came to see you"?

Mr. Greenslade, the prosecution has closed its case and you are now going into the defence. You will be asked certain questions and I want to make sure you understand clearly what your rights are. It is my duty at this stage to advise you as to your rights in the general conduct of your defence. The procedure to be followed depends entirely on the answers given to the formal questions which are about to be put to you. It is therefore important that you should understand and appreicate the effect of your answers to these questions. You do not need to give evidence on oath unless you wish to do so. But if you do give sworn evidence, you are liable to be cross-examined by the Prosecuter and questioned by the Court and Judge Advocate. If you do not give evidence on oath, you are entitled to make a statement giving your account of the subject, of the charge against you. You will not be swonr and no question may be put to you by the Court or any other person with respect to such statement. I must warn you, however, that evidence given on oath will carry more weight with the Court than a mere statement not on oath.

President to accused:

Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness?
A. Yes sir.

Do you intend to call any other witnesses in your defence?
A. Possibly one, sir.

Is he a witness as to character only?
A. No sir.

The Defending Officer proceeds to call witnesses.

First Witness for the Defence — Lt. Theodore Lewis James GREENSLADE, the accused, RCAC, on strength 3 Canadian Transit Camp, CFB, having been duly sworn, is examined by the Defending Officer:

Defending Officer:

I think it may help if before proceeding with the examination of this witness I explained what I am about to try to do. I am going to try to establish the fact in the minds of the court that he was working in an atmosphere conducive to irregularities and the irregularities were condoned by his superior officers. There may be lack of relevancy at first, but you will find it all adds in in the general picture showing the conditions under which this officer was not only allowed to work, but encouraged, encouraged to conduct his affairs in the manner in which he did.

The Defending Officer proceeds to examine the witness.

Q.748 Will you tell the court your full name?
A. Lt. Theodore Lewis James Greenslade.

Q.749 And your corps?
A. RCAC.

Q.750 What time did you take over the management of the 100 Club?
A. I believe it was around January 10 of 1945.

Q.751 By whom were you placed in charge of that club?
A. I was asked if I had been a hotel keeper in civilian life. I was told I was just the man they wanted to open a club, the 100 Club.

Q.752 Located where?
A. In Tilburg, Hooverstraat.

Q.753 Was it a club for all army officers?
A. No sir, very strict orders were given that it was only for HQ officers and was to be considered a private club and the only time other officers could get in was with the permission of Col Barham.

Q.754 Who was your immediate supperior officer in connection with the responsibilities in the administration of this club?
A. At that time Col Barham. During his absence, or any time he was away Major Ike Smith and a Captain Mari Babe respectively were my superior officers.

Q.755 Do you remember what their appointments were?
A. I am not a staff officer myself but I believe Col Barham was at that time AAG I think and I think Major Smith was DAAG, and I think that Captain Babe was either captain, that is staff captain, I know they were all in A Branch.

Q.756 Where did you get the staff for this club?
A. I went out and hired my staff.

Q.757 What type of person do you mean?
A. The staff consisted of my army staff and the civilian staff. The army staff consisted of two ORs and a sergeant. My civilian staff consisted of cooks, waiters, one or two hat check girls.

Q.758 In total what was the civilian staff?
A. I cannot definitely swear to it but I would say around 18. Later on that staff was increased.

Q.759 Your orders for the administration of this club came from whom?
A. Col Barham through Major Smith.

Q.760 Did you have a regular war establishment?
A. There was never any war establishment whatsoever to the best of my knowledge. I can say there was never definitely a war establishment.

Q.761 Were you given any ration scale for civilian employees?
A. After a great deal of telephoning among the various branches of the Army, it was agreed I could draw rations but nobody would sign for it, so every two days I was refused rations and had to scrounge for them and get them irregularly.

Q.762 What does "scrounge" involve in your case?
A. In some cases giving the sergeant in the dump a bottle of whiskey and in some cases merely saying "I am in a spot, I need 60 loaves of bread"

Q.763 Speaking to whom?
A. Whoever happened to be in charge of rations.

Q.764 At an army establishement or civilian?
A. At army establishments.

Q.765 Did you ever exchange rations at other than army establishments?
A. Yes. That was common practice. I did that quite frequently.

Q.766 Why?
A. Due to various changes in the staff of the dumps, it was necessary to augument rations, both in Holland and by crossing the Belgian border.

Q.767 What did that entail?
A. On occasions soap, floor wax, cigarettes, liquor. That is in Tilburg we are talking about. Liquor, articles of clothing, anything I could lay my hands on.

Q.768 Did you receive any orders whatsoever as to preferential treatment for any type of person?
A. I was told both by Smith and Babe, or no, yes, both Smith and Babe himself that when Col Barham wanted to have anything out of the club he was to have it and as he was my commanding officer I never hesitated to carry out those orders.

Q.769 Have either of these officers at any time got anything out of the ordinary run of things?
A. Major Smith, no. Maybe once a couple of bottles of whiskey. Col Barham would send in for liquor in quantities of maybe six bottles and would send in for me to send liquor to me--t himself or to his mess, or would sometimes send an officer with a note that he was going to perhaps Paris and would I provide him with six or a dozen bottles as the case may be.

Q.770 You made a remark before this was all in Tilburg?
A. Yes.

Q.771 Approximately when did you move to Enschede?
A. Sometime before perhaps VE day. It would be I believe sometime in March.

Q.772 And when you moved to Enschede what did you do about your new establishment in Enschede? Did you gather together a complete new staff?
A. No, I took the majority of my old staff with me to Enschede.

Q.773 While you were in Enschede were you in the same position re civilians rations that you have related took place at Tilburg?
A. Not quite because I believe at this time civilians at allclubs, I think PCLU had made a ruling, could get two meals a day. The civilians I think were entitled to two meals a day and I could draw for that as the civilians were living at my place all the time, and for that reason I had to scrounge for their other meals.

Also there had been some changes at the ration points which made things awkward for me.

Q.774 Will your, while your club was at Enschede, were you still trading various supplies such as you have mentioned, for rations?
A. Yes, for extra rations, for I had to.

Q.775 While in Enschede were you ever approached by anybody and asked to procure various articles for them by trading or dealing in articles for people?
A. Yes, quite a few times sir.

Q.776 Give us some information on this?
A. Some of the officers would come down from Oldenburg, some of them I had known for a long time and who had been of great assistance to me, not to me personally but to the existence of the club. They would come down and tell me I was working in the town and asked me to get them things, that is, pieces of cloth, liquor, etc.

Q.777 Where did it come from?
A. Germany.

Q.778 How do you know?
A. Because they had been in Germany and told me so.

Q.779 Did you make any of these exchanges?
A. Yes.

Q.780 What did you receive for your trouble?
A. Nothing, they were friends of mine. My job was to make it easier forthe guys who were doing the fighting.

Q.781 What would these goods consist of ?
A. Liquor, clothing, various types of cloth, even one time there was a sailing vessel.

Q.782 Did you ever procure a camera for anybody?
A. Yes sir.

Q.783 For whom?
A. I procured a camera for Col Barham.

Q.784 Why?
A. Because he asked me to.

Q.785 How did you procure that?
A. He saw me taking pictures one day. He asked me to get him a camera and told me he would give m cigarettes [illegible] exchange for it.

[illegible]?
[illegible]t I did not exchange cigarettes [illegible] them.

[illegible] camera?
[illegible] for it and told him what I had done.

[illegible]he liquor from?

[illegible]or it?
[illegible]s so. He mentioned it several times, [illegible]ut he never got around to paying for it.

Also there had been some changes at the ration points which made things awkward for me.

Q.774 Will your, while your club was at Enschede, were you still trading various supplies such as you have mentioned, for rations?

A. He saw me taking pictures one day. He asked me to get him a camera and told me he would give me cigarettes to exchange for it.

Q.786 Did you exchange them?
A. No, I got a camera but I did not exchange cigarettes because I never got them.

Q.787 How did you get the camera?
A. I exchanged liquor for it and told him what I had done.

Q.788 Where did you get the liquor from?
A. From the club.

Q.789 Who paid for it?
A. I did.

Q.790 Were you re-paid for it?
A. No, I do not think so. He mentioned it several times, Col Barham did, but he never got around to paying for it.

Q.791 Did he know you traded club liquor for it?
A. Yes.

Q.792 How?
A. I told him I had used liquor, I did not say word for word "At the club" but he knew.

Q.793 What kind of a camera was it?
A. A Voiglander. I think it had a 3.5 lens.

Q.794 Did you at any time trade in diamonds for anybody, either buy or sell?
A. Yes.

Q.795 For whom?
A. I got a diamond for Col Dezeil.

Q.796 What was his appointment?
A. The Col A.

Q.797 Will you tell us the circumstances surrounding that particular transaction?
A. Yes, a Dutch civilian showed me a diamond. I wanted to buy it myself and I had no money, or not enough, and I happened to be in Col Dezeil's caravan and I showed him the stone. He offered to buy it off me with Dutch money. I told him that Dutch money was no good to the man who owned the stone. He offered me Belgian currency. I knew that I could buy liquor in Belgium and trade the man the liquor for the stone.

Q.798 Where could you buy the liquor?
A. From two places. One from civilians.

Q.799 Whereabouts were these civilians?
A. I could get some in Enschede and some out of NAAFI.

Q.800 And what did you do with the Belgian currency?
A. I bought liquor. I also got some liquor on that occasion from a soldier who had brought some from Germany, and with the liquor I bought the stone.

Q.801 What did you do with the stone?
A. To Col Dezeil.

Q.802 How much belgian currency to do this deal?
A. Somewhere around 15,000 francs, but to remember the exact figure is impossible.

Q.803 From whom did you get the stone?
A. I do not remember his name because nobody remembers Dutch names but it was somewhere in Enschede.

Q.804 Was it from any of the witnesses who have appeared on this trial?
A. To be absolutely honest I cannot say.

Q.805 Did you get anything from Dezeil for your trouble?
A. I think I got a cheque for a few quid.

Q.806 Do you mean English money?
A. A personal cheque, yes.

Q.807 There was produced in court a black pearl ring, what do you know about that?
A. I wanted that as a present to send home to my own wife.

Q.808 Did you ever complete the deal on the pearl ring?
A. That too is vague, I do not think so.

Q.809 There was a bracelet produced in court. Tell the court what you know about that?
A. That was first brought to my attention when one of my waiters was trying to sell it.

Q.810 Why were you interested in it?
A. I was not at the time. I was interested only as anyone would be. He failed to sell it and the owner of the bracelet who appeared in this court came to me and asked my view, and wanted to know if I would like it. I said I would and I think I was going to try and buy it, but I did not succeed in raising the goods or the money.

Q.811 Wereyou dealing on your own behalf or what?
A. Eventually I was dealing on behalf of someone else.
Q.812 Who?
A.812 One was a Dutch officer attached to the Cdn Army HQ.

Q.813 Who was the other?
A. The other one was an English officer commanding a forward Section of the ROC, attached to HQ First Cdn Army.

Q.814 Were you to get anything for your trouble on this deal, do you know?
A. No sir, I never really considered that.

Q.815 Do you happen to remember the name of either of these officers?
A. The names, no, but I could identify them if I saw them again or I could identify a photograph of them.

Q.816 To put this in proper chronological order, were all these deals at Enschede?
A. No sir. The diamond bracelet deal was a Beeksbergen affair after the club moved from Enschede. The deal with Col Dezeil was between the two. If I remember correctly it was during the time of transfer from Enschede to Apeldoorn.

Q.817 Did you at any time have anyone stay at the club who was not a civilian employee?
A. Yes sir.

Q.818 Who?
A. The first time that occurred as far as I can remember was in Enschede?

Q.819 What was the occasion?
A. I had been to Amsterdam or on the road to Amsterdam to get some fruit and on the way back I was stopped by a Belgian young lady who spoke little Dutch and no English, and asked me in French if I could give her a lift. I gave her a lift as far as Enschede.

Q.820 What happened there?
A. At Enschede I got hold of Capt Ben Johnson of the Mobile Printing section and asked him if he was going to Brussels the next day. He thought he was and I asked him to take the girl. He thought he could so the girl stayed there that night and I gave her ....

Q.821 Did she stay overnight in the staff residence?
A. Yes.

Q.822 With whom?
A. I think she stayed with a girl named Paula who was a house-keeper.

Q.823 Did she go to Belgium the next day?
A. No.

Q.824 Why?
A. That night I invited her over to the Club. She danced at the club and Johnson was not going to Belgium the next day and she met Capt Babe who was the Staff Capt A Branch at that time. One of the rungs in the ladder up to my Commander.

Q.825 What has he to do with this?
A. He became very friendly with the young lady and suggested ...

Q.826 Continue?
A. Major Babe suggested as we were short of presentable women at the club for dancing that she should be permitted to stay at the club.

Q.827 Did she?
A. Yes.

Q.828 For how long?
A. She moved to Beeksbergen with the club.

Q.829 Was she there when the club closed?
A. No, she was in jail.

Q.830 Had you at this time been given a WE for the club?
A. No sir.

Q.831 Did your civilian staff have at any time any extras from club supplies. Did you give them any extra supplies in the form of rations or anything?
A. Yes. This staf of mine came from Tilburg in the main. To keep them go together, I kept the same staff because the waiters knew all the officers and to keep them together and to keep them that far from home I had to treat them well and feed them well.

Q.832 What did you give them by way of extras?
A. Fruit, vegetables, fresh potatoes when we were issued with dehydrated ourselves.

Q.833 How often did they get these things?
A. When ever I could scrounge the things.

Q.834 Did they have any entertainment?
A. Once a week I gave a party for the staff and allowed them to bring their friends.

Q.835 Did they have liquor?
A. Yes.

Q.836 Where did it come from?
A. Chiefly out of the club but it was not paid for out of club funds.

Q.837 How was it paid for?
A. I I would take out the required amount from the stock, pay for it at bar prices, charge it to the club. I would take it out and sell it at black market prices which would give me enough guilders to buy liquor at bar prices and have enough to give a party to my staff and guests.

Q.838 Did anybody besides yourself know you were doing this?
A. Yes sir.

Q.839 Who?
A. Col Hooper.

Q.840 What was his appointment?
A. Right hand man to Col Barham. I am not sure if he was AAG or if he was in the same position as Major Babe.

Q.841 Did he know of this?
A. Yes, he was at this entertainment quite often.

Q.842 You have stated generally they knew about it. Did they know the details of the matter in which you provided liquor for this staff party. Do you know whether they knew the details?
A. To the best of my knowledge they did.

Q.843 Did you ever discuss it with either one or both of them?
A. I have definitely discussed it but I am on oath now and it is very hard for me to say. I never sat down and said "I am selling 6 and getting 8". I just discussed the general affairs. They would see records of 30 bottles being drank and that it was charged to the club for entertainment.

Q.844 Had you build up a reserve of cash or liquor?
A. Yes, a large cash reserve, sir.

Q.845 What were your instructions about that, if any?
A. To build up a cash reserve and a liquor reserve. What for nobody ever seemed to inform me. I never got a direct answer.

Q.846 Did you ever have any occasion to ask for authority to spend money from this reserve?
A. Yes. Once I remember very clearly was when I wanted to get floral decorations and I suggested that we buy flowers for the club from it.

Q.847 Were you given authority?
A. They made a joke of it. They said "Don't say you cannot get flowers without buying them"

Q.848 What was meant by that?
A. As my business deals were to find ways of doing things under the wire so to speak, that I was dumb if I could not get things to exchange for flowers.

Q.849 When did you move to Apeldoorn, approximately?
A. I think June.

Q.850 Did the club move down ahead of other units in Army HQ?
A. No sir, the moved ahead of us.

Q.851 Did that have any effect whatsoever on the administration of the club?
A. It made obtaining rations more difficult.

Q.852 Why?
A. At that time I was drawing from 406 Supply Point and the officer in charge who would do anything for us had came down here and the corporal said he had no instructions he was to supply us with anything and it got hard to get things, especially meat.

Q.853 Things changed you have said, with what result?
A. Things were thrown back on my hands. I had to go over the german border to get stuff.

Q.854 From whom did you get stuff there?
A. From Germaa civilians.

Q.855 In return for what?
A. Cigarettes.

Q.856 Where did you get the cigarettes?
A. The corporal at the 406 supply point once told me he could not let me havee stuff, but he told me he would trade me cigarettes for whiskey. I traded and got a pig with the cigarettes in Germany.

Q.857 What was your transport situation at this time when you moved to Apeldoorn?
A. In Apeldoorn I had a HUP, a motor-cycle, and an Austin utility, that for a bout a week ran, and then stopped and quit.

Q.858 Where was the club with relation to the nearest large town?
A. 9 km.

Q.859 From where?
A. Apeldoorn.

Q.860 How big a staff approximately did you have at this time?
A. I would say between 40 and 55. That is approximately.

Q.861 There was a civilian car, the subject of the proceedings is front of this court. What do you know about it?
A. A Dutch civilian came to me. He later turned out to be a Dutch officer.

Q.862 Had you met him before this time in the Club?
A. I may have seen him in the club, but I cannot definitely say so because there were a lot of officers bringing in civilians. I do not think so. He came to me and asked me if I wanted or if I knew anybody who wanted to buy a car. I asked him what kind of car and he showed it to me. I was interested and he told me he was not interested in money. I asked him if it was his own car and he said yes. He had had it under-ground and he had orders himself to go to the Dutch Indies, he was leaving in a week for England, that he had no uniform and things like that, and that he wanted clothes, shirts, etc.

Q.863 What did you agree on as a medium of exchange?
A. I gave him a serge.

Q.864 Anything else?
A. Yes sir, shoes, shirts, ties. He also wanted English money.

Q.865 How much?
A. I think it was £50.

Q.866 Did you agree to pay it?
A. No, I had no English money, but I offered him my personal cheque.

Q.867 Did he take it?
A. He refused my cheque.

Q.868 What did you do about that?
A. We made a deal.

Q.869 What did you pay him if anything in place of the suggested £50.?
A. Guilders, and I think £5 in postal notes.

Q.870 Guilders only?
A. Some guilders, some Belgian francs.

Q.871 Did you get a receipt?
A. Yes sir.

Q.872 Whereabouts is that receipt now?
A. I do not know.

Q.873 Where did you last see it?
A. Maybe a day after he gave it to me.

Q.874 Were there any further negotiations in connection with the car?
A. He told me that he was going to Arnhem and would bring me the papers.

Q.875 Did he ever do so?
A. I never saw him again, but Mrs. Pomt who appeared in this court, drove him away.

Q.876 What colour was the car at this time?
A. As far as I remember it was a grayish blue, definitely not a yellow, green or maroon.

Q.877 Did you have it painted?
A. Yes.

Q.878 What colour?
A. Army green.

Q.879 By whom?
A. By a painter at 35 Composite Coy RCASC.

Q.880 Did you ever have permission to run this car?
A. No, but I tried.

Q.881 From whom?
A. From Col Hooper.

Q.882 Did he give you permission?
A. No, he said a vehicle to be run had to have a release and be given an Cdn Army number.

Q.883 Did he indicate you could or could not get one?
A. He told me it would be very very difficult

Q.884 What did you do after he told you that?
A. I figured I had to have transport to I put a Dutch Lion on one mudguard and a Dutch Militiary Insignia with the letters "DVO" which means department of war on the other so that If I were stopped by the Cdn Provost I was driving in the car of a Dutchman. If I were stopped by the Dutch I was a Cdn Officer and they had no business stoppingme.

Q.885 How long did you have the car in this condition?
A. I made several trips with it after it had been repaired. I would say about a week.

Q.886 What did you do with it after that?
A. I sold it.

Q.887 Why?
A. Because I had been informed I was doing a very dangerous thing in putting my neck out ruaning it like that?

Q.888 Did you ask permission or speak to anybody about disposing of this car?
A. Yes, I told Col Hooper that I was going to sell my car.

Q.889 Can you remember your exact words on that occasion?
A. We were talking about black-market in general and things like that and I said I had done a lot of things in this army, but I had never sold Cdn Army Equipment.

Q.890 What were your exact words in connection with this car?
A. I do not remember the exact words. I just said I was out of pocket and I was certainly ~~was~~ not going to throw it away and suffer that loss myself.

Q.891 Did he give approval or otherwise when you announced your intention of disposing of it?
A. He did not dis-approve of it. He did not tell me it was wrong by inference.

Q.892 During your period at Apeldoorn were you still procuring extra rations as at Tilburg and Enschede?
A. Yes sir.

Q.893 These extra rations were for whatpurposes, were they for the use of the club?
A. Yes sir, if you include the staff.

Q.894 Now one of the charges which has been heard so far as to dealing with a couple of hundred sheets, you have a witness named Haffert. Can you give us any explanation of that. Where did you get the sheets, can you tell us that?
A. They were German sheets sir.

Q.895 Where did you get them if you can remember?
A. I am not sure where those were sheets that an officer brought me down from Germany or whether these were sheets that Frank Royen brought in. I believe they were sheets he brought in but I cannot swear to it.

Q.896 What did you do with them?
A. I took them down to the Hague.

Q.897 Did you sell them?
A. I sold them.

Q.898 What did you do with the proceeds?
A. One of the things I did was buy a carpet.

Q.899 What else?
A. I bought a radio for the club.

Q.900 What else?
A. I spent 450 guilders out of the proceeds myself and bought a fur coat for my wife.

Q.901 Was 450 guilders for this fur coat the only amount you spent on yourself?
A. As far as I remember, except having a drink or two.

Q.902 Was the rest all spent on the club?
A. It was spent on things inconnection with the club.

Q.903 Why were you buying furnishings for the club?
A. My staff had increased and the only furniture in the new place consisted only of a few chairs and tables. We had two large buildings and I had a staff to put up. I had tried on several occasions to get furnishings from the various dumps and later on I did get one or two things from the increment but up to this time we had nothing to do with increment and I got things wherever I could.

Q.904 What happened to the things when the club closed?
A. To the best of my knowledge the carpet was delivered to Col Barham at Army HQ.

Q.905 Why?
A. He expressed the wish to have it and it was delivered by Pepin under my orders.

Q.906 What happened to other furniture in the Club?
A. Nearly everything else went to Col Barham himself, the Brigadier's mess.

Q.907 There has been evidence given about sheets sold in Tilburg, do you know anything about those?
A. Yes.

Q.908 What?
A. That, while I ordered the truck to go down because it was going down on a run anway anyway, it was entirely some one else's deal.

Q.909 Do you know where these sheets came from?
A. Yes. I think that they were sheets, these I will not swear to, but I think they were sheets that Royer Brought into the clmb.

Q.910 Had you seen them before the day they were loaded?
A. Where. Yes.

Q.911 Where?
A. They were in Fine Mertens room.

Q.912 Who was Fine Mertens?
A. She was the interpreter at the club whom the other witnesses have identified from her photo.

Q.913 You saw them in her room?
A. Yes.

Q.914 Had you any idea why she was taking them to Tilburg?
A. Yes.

Q.915 Did you know or presume?
A. I presumed but I may have known from discussions.

Q.916 Did you have anything to do with the alleged selling in Tilburg?
A. No, I do not know. The sale was not my doings.

Q.917 Did you receive anything from the sale?
A. I think Mertens brought me back two or three pipes.

Q.918 Do you know if they were paid for from the proceeds of this sale?
A. That I do not know.

Q.919 At this time in Apeldoorn was there any preferential treatment handed to officers other than those you described before?
A. Yes. Up to this time Div troops were not permitted to the Club but I used to let them in. There was a sign up "For Cdn Army HQ Troops Only" and was a private club for Army HQ. I allowed Div tps in contrary to orders.

Q.920 Did any individuals receive any preferential treatment?
A. Yes, Major Babe and Col Hooper.

Q.921 In what shape or form?
A. They could get a bottle whenever they wanted it. They were always coming to the club.

Q.922 During club hours or otherwise?
A. Generally just about club closing time. Major Babe would order a bottle about five nights a week and always seemed to neglect to pay for it. Babe and Hooper were at the club nearly every night and that was stuff I paid for.

Q.923 Were you still arranging transactions for various people and officers while you were at Apeldoorn?
A. Yes sir, when I could.

Q.924 Do you remember any details?
A. First of all sir ----

Q.925 Did you do any deals for Major Babe?
A. He asked me to get him a Roleflex camera for 800 cigarettes, but I did not because it was not enough cigarettes.

Q.926 Did you give him back the 800 cigarettes?
A. No sir.

Q.927 Why not?
A. I remember I did not get around to it and also for almost a year I had been supplying that Major Babe a large portion of his drink, and he owned me a great deal more than 800 cigarettes.

Q.928 Any transactions for Col Barham?
A. Yes sir.

Q.929 What?
A. I got perfume in the Hague for him.

Q.930 Did he pay you for it?
A. No.

Q.931 Why?
A. At various times he would give me cigarettes and ~~twice~~ at last I got tired of receiving promises so I would bring it back and just give it to him.

Q.932 Did you arrange any other transactions for him?
A. Yes. I sold two or three cases of cognac in Amsterdam for him.

Q.933 Where did the cognac come from?
A. The club.

Q.934 Why did you sell it?
A. For a long time he wanted an enlarger. On this particular day I think around a week before the SIS raided the 100 Club, he called me in.

Q.935 What did he say about this cognac?
A. He called me in and asked me how the stock of cognac was. I told him I would go to see. He said he was short of money, when would I get him this enlarger? I had been stalling about this for quite a while because I did not relish getting it. I said I would get it in a couple of days. Two or three days before the raid on the 100 Club I informed Col Barham the cognac stock was fairly good and I could draw two or three cases.

Q.936 You told him there was enough to spare him two or three cases?
A. I would never take liquor from the club for it would affect the amount there for the officers to drink.

Q.937 You told him there was enough to spare so you could take two or three cases?
A. He said "I want to sell it and get the enlarger. You do it for me"

Q.938 Can you remember his exact words. You have said he said sell it. Can you remember his exact words because I don't want you to repeat anything that might not be so?
A. Whether he used "sell" or "flog" I cannot say but his instructions were absolutely clear and there is no doubt in my mind that the instructions were to take the cognac and sell it on the black-market and with the proceeds pay for the enlarger and give him any money left over.

Q.939 Did you sell the cognac?
A. Yes, here in Amsterdam.

Q.940 Did you buy the enlarger?
A. Yes.

Q.941 What did you get for the cognac?
A. 30 guilders a bottle.

Q.942 For how many bottles?
A. I am not sure if it was two or three cases. I believe CSM ~~Brief~~ Reif can remember.

Q.943 How much did you pay for the enlarger?
A. Approximately 250 guilders.

Q.944 Where did the cognac come from?
A. The cognac came out of the wine cellar of the 100 Club. It was obtained for me by the wife of Sgt Major Reif.

Q.945 What was Rief's job at that time?
A. He had come to take over from Sgt Derby as 2 i/c of the club.

Q.946 Having got the enlarger, what did you do with it?
A. I then went back to the 100 Club and I was informed that the SIS were there with the police, so I drove in and I took the enlarger in a case to the basement as if it were rations. The case was 2 feet by 2½ feet by 4 feet wide.

Q.947 How long did it stay there?
A. It stayed there until the next morning when I took it over to Col Barham and told him what had happened, about the raid, and told him how I had brought the enalrger into the building and told him I could not give him the extra money because I did not want any money on me in case the SIS searched me.

Q.948 Did you pay the club for the cognac?
A. I paid the club for the cognac over a period of two days.

Q.949 To whom did you pay the money?
A. BSM Reif.

Q.950 What did you do with the balance of the money left over from the sale of this cognac?
A. I went in to See Col Barham the next day or the day after I took the enlarger in. He was in his office with Major Johnson, Johnson having relieved Col Hooper as AAG. Col Barham motioned to me to take it easy and I stayed out of the office until Major Hon Johnson had left.

Q.951 Did you take the balance of the money with you that day?
A. To pay Col Barham you mean?

Q.952 Yes?
A. Yes. I walked into the office then and he asked me "Have you got the rest of the money?" to which I replied "Yes" and I gave him around 200 guilders.

Q.953 Was there any other conversation about it?
A. He told me to be careful what I said in front of Major Johnson.

Q.954 Was there any conversation about the SIS raid on the club?
A. Yes. He told me to go back and not to worry, that he was going to close the club and asked me how long it would take and said he was going duck hunting the following day with Col Ball I believe and not to worry. Col Ball was the PM.

Q.955 Did you have any conversation with him that day about any transaction which form the subjects of the charges on which you are here?

A. Yes. I said if the SIS started investigating all the black-marketing I had done for the club and the little for myself it would be too bad because I had sold sheets and all sorts of things. He said "For goodness sake, stop worrying and go to see Capt Cardy and get a list of what he needs from your club when you close.

Q.956 You say you mentioned sheets to him. Did you mention any specific business you had carried on in sheets?

A. I mentioned sheets generally but did not mention any number at that time.

Q.957 Did you specify any places or people where you had done any of these deals?

A. I know for certain that I mentioned the Hague in connection with the sheets and I remember one occasion distinctly when he said "You have been a fool". I said "I have not benefitted from it very much. All the perfumes I got at the Hague you got".

Q.958 Now you mentioned, at least I believe you did, that he told you to close the club, and he was putting an order out?

A. Yes.

Q.959 Did you close the club?

A. Yes, as nearly as I could. All my staff were under arrest and I had to do it myself.

Q.960 Did you do anything about that?

A. I asked Major Johnson, a Lt. From the , No, I am sorry, I mean Lt. Johnson from the SIS, to send me some rations. He said he was between two fires.

Q.961 You asked Lt. Johnson from the SIS for rations?

A. Yes.

Q.962 Did you get them?

A. No.

Q.963 Did you see Col Barham again about anything?

A. Yes.

Q.964 Where and when?

A. I went to Col Barham, and said he had told me to close the club and the SIS told me to keep it open. I asked what I would do. The SIS said to keep everybody there.

Q.965 Did you get any instructions?

A. Col Barham's instructions were "You are taking orders from me. Close the club. You must understand this was at a period when a lot of things were happening.

Q.966 Can you tell me roughly on what day that was?
A. Yes. It was after Col Barham came back from duck-hunting with Col Ball, because it was then I discussed with him all the information the SIS had.

Q.967 Can you give us that day with reference to the date of the raid on the club, 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 days after or what?
A. First of all I think the afternoon Col Ball and Col Barham went duck-hunting was on a Sunday.

Q.968 Two, three or four days after the club closed, or how long after the raid?
A. Three or four days after. The club finally closed to the public but the date the club .....

Q.969 This would be three or four days after the club was raided. When he told you that he was giving you orders and that you were to go down and close the club, that was three or four days after the club was riaded?
A. Yes sir.

Q.970 Was your club ever under the administration or orders of recreational increment?
A. No sir. At the time I opened the club there was no such thing as a recreational increment which were formed after VE day.

Q.971 When they were formed, was your club put under recreational increment?
A. Only to the extent of drawing rations.

Q.972 Did they issue any orders or instructions of any character whatsoever?
A. It was given to me to understand that I was here, they were glad to have me, but they could not give me orders. I was told I was under Col Barham.

Q.973 Did you receive those instructions from A Branch?
A. Yes, From Col Hooper and Col Ball.

Q.974 Were any other clubs of any nature operating in the Cdn Army in a similar position to your own?
A. I was told I was operating the only club of its kind in the Canadian army. I was told that by the boss.

Q.975 We are now getting along to the point to where orders were given to close the club and there was going to be an order to that effect, and you have stated you spoke to Col Barham. Did you get any instructions with respect to accounts.
A. Yes sir.
Q.976 What?
A. To turn my books over to the accountant at Increment.

Q.977 That is at recreational increment?
A. Yes.

Q.978 Which one?
A. Apeldoorn.

Q.979 Can you remember any other conversation you had with Col Barham that day? Anything about the SIS?

A. Col Barham called me in and told me that he had had a full report about my activities and thathe knew all about it and that it was more serious than it appeared at first and not to worry, to get my club closed and I was going home. He said to tell him everything which I did, and he said "So long as there is nothing more than that, do not worry, you are going home as soon as you get your club closed". I said "I don't want to go home with the feeling that it will be causing trouble later. If I am going to be arrested I want to stay here and take it now.". He said "I give you my word of honour as a gentleman you will not be brought back". I said "Suppose anyone else wants to bring me back". He said "I am the only man who can bring you back".

Q.980 Did he intimate to you at any time that your arrest had been considered?

A. Yes. He said "It is only through me that you have not been arrested"

Q.981 When did that remark take place with reference to the remark about coming back, being brought back?

A. It was two or three days before that.

Q.982 Following your conversation with Col Barham when you say that he told you he was the only one who could bring you back, did you have any further instructions from him or further conversation?

A. Yes, I went to see him at the Brigadier's Mess, and there Capt Cardy, who was Mess Secretary, looked up the accounts and we talked about things we had to do.

Q.983 Who, Capt Cardy and who talked together?

A. Just us. Col Barham came later.

Q.984 Did you have any conversation with Col Barham?

A. Yes.

Q.985 What?

A. I asked him how everything was going. He asked how long before everything would be closed at the club. I said it was difficult. I said that my staff who had not been arrested were frightened and had run away. I think I told him I could get it closed in 48 hours.

Q.986 Was the club closed within 48 hours?

A. The club was closed.

Q.987 Within 48 hours was it closed to the point where you were through with the club as far as work was concerned. Was it closed to the extent that you were free to go?

A. I would say that I never saw anything close so fast in all my life. Whether 48 hours or under I do not know.

Q.988 How fast did the club close. How near to 48 hours were you when the club closed?

A. Within 48 hours except that the accounts had not been given over.

Q.989 Following that, what did you do?

A. Of course I discussed this thing myself with Col Barham. You can understand my position.

Q.990 You discussed what, this case?
A. Yes, with Col Barham, sometimes for two minutes, sometimes longer. I wanted to either get home and get my discharge or else stay here and fight the thing out. He kept assuring me that everything was all right and told me that arrangements had been made for Sgt Derby and myself, and Pte. Pepin to leave immediately and I was to report to the Camp Commandant at Army HQ.

Q.991 Did you report to him?
A. I reported to the Commandant's office. Col Barham had also told me that Major Johnson who was then AAG was fixing up everything to get us out of this theatre immediately. I then went to Major Johnson and .....

Q.992 Why?
A. He had just recently taken over and was next in command to Col Barham and he had been told to make all arrangements for me to be repatted . I went to him about the documents and papers.

Q.993 What documents and papers?
A. The documents and papers necessary to take on repat.

Q.994 Did you get them?
A. I was sent from him into the adjutant's office and got them. That was 12 o'clock on a Saturday.

Q.995 Roughly how long after the raid on the club?
A. I would say it would be anything up to 10 days.

Q.996 Having got the papers, where did you go?
A. Immediately to 13 Bn 2 CBR Gp.

Q.997 How long were you there?
A. I should say over a week.

Q.998 Where did you go then?
A. 4 Bn.

Q.999 How long were you there?
A. About the same amount of time. At Nijmegen I telephoned Col Barham. I took a jeep down with me, the one being used at the clmb. The idea, my own idea, was, he did not know I had taken the jeep.. When I got down there I drove it that day from Grave to Nijmegen. When I came back I parked the jeep and left it over-night. I found the carburetor had been taked out of the jeep and was told it had been done by Major Rose, who said he had orders from the SIS to make that vehicle so it would not run. I telephoned Col Barham what had happened. He said "Stop worrying, get that vehicle sent to car company immediately". I said "I cannot give any orders but the Adm Offr of 13 Bn is here. Will you give him that order". Col Barham then spoke to the Adm Offr.

Q.1000 Did the car go some place or do you know?
A. I think about that time the SIS arrived and the car was taken back to Car Company.

Q.1001 Do you know anything about a Rolocord camera?
A. Yes.

Q.1002 Tell the court what you know about that and what the circumstances were involving the disposal of it?
A. Shortly before I left for repat, perhaps a day before, I went into Col Barham's office and he had been wanting to get a camera like that. Mine was broken and I wanted it fixed. I said to Col Barham "Col Ball has been very decent about this whole thing, do you think he would mind if I gave him this as a parting gift". Col Barham replied "He is a very touchy fellow, but I would like it myself". Whereupon I gave Col Barham the camera.

Q.1003 Did you ever hear about that camera again?
A. Yes. When I was in a detention cell in England the SIS, a Lt. Johnson came to me and asked me if I had given Col Barham a Roloflex camera in a case, to which I replied "Yes". He described it as I knew it.

Q.1004 Would you say, from the description, if it was the camera you gave Col Barham?
A. Yes.

Q.1005 What is that slip of paper?
A. That is a statement of my bank account.

Q.1006 Is that a monthly statement or quarterly?
A. That is a Cdn Bank of Commerce statement which shows an over-draft of £14.17.11

CANADIAN BANK OF COMMERCE STATEMENT RELATING TO THE ACCUSED IS PRODUCED, MARKED EXHIBIT "O", SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT.

Q.1007 When did you receive that?
A. In the mail yesterday.

Cross-examined by Prosecutor:

Q.1008 Did you know the witness Haffert who gave evidence in this case?
A. Yes sir.

Q.1009 You had some business transactions with him I understand in June and July 1945?
A. Yes sir.

Q.1010 Did you accompany him on a tour of various restaurants and cafes in the Hague and on that occasion did you peddle approximately 8 cases of liquor?
A. Yes sir.

Q.1011 For each you received a price of approximately 200 guilders a litre?
A. I do not remember the price. I know it was old money.

Q.1012 You received the proceeds of that sale?
A. Yes sir.

Q.1013 Who was the Sgt who accompanied you?
A. Sgt Derby.

Q.1014 Was he on that trip pursuant to your instructions?
A. Sgt Derby was following up my instructions.

Q.1015 Where did this liquor come from?
A. Most of it came from the 100 Club and some of it came from Germany.

Q.1016 You heard Sgt Derby say he had delivered to you four cases of Avocaat, four cases of Steinhager and two cases of Old Mab?
A. Yes sir.

Q.1017 Where did that come from?
A. Out of the stock at the 100 Club.

Q.1018 You know the witness Vulker?
A. Yes sir.

Q.1019 Do you remember his telling the court that he had made a deal with you through Pine Mertens as interpreter by which you acquired a diamond ring from him and for which you exchanged 120 bottles of Avocaat and 40 bottles of cognac? Is that true?
A. Yes sir.

Q.1020 Where did the liquor come from?
A. Not out of the stock of the 100 Club. It came out of the cellar of a building in which I was living and I am almost dead certain that some of it was brought in by some of the lads from the vicinity of Oldenburg or somewhere around there.

Q.1021 I suggest to you that that was part of the First Cdn Army's free issue?
A. I will not say it was not and I will not say it was because at that time I did have some liquor given to me by an officer and there is a possibility it may have been, because at that time we were getting a lot of stuff that I personally did not know where it came from but I had also received some Avocaat and other liqueurs from one of the transport officers in the Army Service Corps.

Q.1022 Do you know the witness Schoak?
A. I know Tony Schoak very well, sir.

Q.1023 Do you know of the trip on which you took him to the Hague, on which occasion you took 15 or 20 bottles of Steinhager and cigarettes, which were disposed of there?
A. Yes sir.

Q.1024 And subsequently you acquired from the proceeds of these sales a ladies fur coat and a diamond ring?
A. Yes sir.

Q.1025 Where did that liquor come from?
A. It came from the stocks of the 100 Club.

Q.1026 In what vehicle did you deliver the liquor which was peddled in the Hague in July?
A. In the HUP, an army vehicle.

Q.1027 With respect to the 100 sheets which were delivered by Schoak to Haffert one evening in the Hague, were they delivered pursuant to your instructions?
A. Yes sir.

Q.1028 Were you present at the time?
A. Yes sir.

Q.1029 Did you fix the price?
A. That I cannot remember.

Q.1030 Did you receive the proceeds?
A. Yes sir.

Q.1031 You told my learned friend you did not remember if these were German sheets or sheets brought to the club by Royen?
A. When I said I did not know if they were German sheets, I am pretty well convinced they were of German manufacture, but what I meant by that statement was that I did not know whether they were part of some which Bill Markham brought me from Germany.

Q.1032 If they were brought by Royen, where did he get them?
A. That I cannot say sir, because I only suspect.

Q.1033 What was his capacity at the 100 Club?
A. Headwaiter at the 100 Club, sir. He was also more or less manager of the civilian staff, and in that capacity he performed many duties.

Q.1034 And in that capacity you had occasions to send him to the ADOS dump for stuff?
A. Yes, and occasionally he went without my permission.

Q.1035 But he could not draw on his own authority?
A. He was so well known there that he could, and on top of that because we had no establishment, our signing was not accepted half of the time anyway.

Q.1036 Is there any doubt whatever in your mind that those sheets came from the ADOS dump?
A. I am telling the truth on this witness stand, and I am telling you, in my own mind, yes.

Q.1037 And you knew that at the time you sold them?
A. Yes, I knew that at the time. They came from an A DOS Dump but I did not know which one.

Q.1038 In any event, they are ADOS property?
A. Yes.

Q.1039 That transaction took place in the latter part of July?
A. Yes sir.

Q.1040 And it was approximately the same time that the trip was made in the HUP described by the witness Bernaard, and Pepin, in which five hundred sheets were taken to Tilburg?
A. I believe so sir. I went, but I will not swear it was that date. I remember the sheets going to Tilburg but I don't remember the month.

Q.1041 Bernaard said he got those sheets from your room on your instructions?
A. That is correct.

Q.1042 From your room?
A. No sir, it was not my room.

Q.1043 Whose room was it?
A. Fine Mertens.

Q.1044 As a matter of fact there was very little distinction, is that right?
A. You are making it .....

Q.1045 As far as the staff was concerned, one was the same as the other?
A. My personal property was always kept in the other room.

Q.1046 You knew all about these five hundred sheets?
A. Yes.

Q.1047 It was you gave the order to load them?
A. Yes sir.

Q.1048 You say it was somebody Else's deal?
A. Yes sir.

Q.1049 Whose was it?
A. It was a deal that I know Fine Mertens had on with somebody else. Who, I do not know, but I did not receive the money for those sheets.

Q.1050 Where did those sheets come from?
A. I imagine from the same place the others came from.

Q.1051 From the ADOS dump?
A. I imagine so.

Q.1052 How did they get from the ADOS dump into your premises without you knowing about it? Or did you know?
A. I do not remember any details about those sheets prior to the time they were loaded on the vehicle and I do not even remember, or did not until the evidence came into the court here.

Q.1053 As a matter of fact Fine Mertens was employed by you as the interpreter at the club about 24 April at Enschede?
A. Yes sir.

Q.1054 From that time on she acted as secretary, interpreter and many other functions as far as you were concerned?
A. That covers a lot of territory.

Q.1055 Did she act as your agent in other deals?
A. Yes sir.

Q.1056 How many other deals?
A. That I cannot remember sir, but you are making it look like she acted as an agent for me alone which is not correct.

Q.1057 She was employed under your direction?
A. She knew every officer in Army HQ and she had been working there a long long time and I never stopped her if she wanted to make a deal with other officers. It should have been my affair but I would not, and did not make it my affair.

Q.1058 You told the court a few minutes ago that you acquired this car for some clothing, a few guilders, besides postal notes?

A. Yes sir.

Q.1059 Were you in any doubt whatever that that car which you bought was war booty?
A. I did not believe at the time it was war booty but I did think that there was some law at that time regarding vehicles of Dutch Civilians having to be turned in or registered with the military Gezacht. What the exact rule on that was I did not know but I remember at the time thinking that over, and seeing that it was a Dutch Officer, and I looked the car over and it did not look like an army vehicle and I needed the car for the club to run around in, and even if it had been war booty, if I needed a vehicle I would have got one.

Q.1060 You saw the car here. You know it had German camoflage paint on it?
A. There are lots of civilian cars painted Cdn Army green. It does not make them Cdn vehs. When I got this car there was no German color paint on it. It was not that yellow colour definitely and how that got on I do not know. The car I bought was definitely not to the best of my knowledge, aGerman yellow.

Q.1061 You saw the colour of the car?
A. Yes.

Q.1062 What colour was it when you saw it?
A. A grayish blue I believe sir, certainly nothing to do with the German army camoflage yellow.

Q.1063 Did you tell Col Barham or any other of your superior officers thatyou had sold a vehicle likely to have been war booty?
A. Yes sir.

Q.1064 When did you tell them that?
A. It came up on a couple of occasions. Once was when we were sitting around talking as people do and we were talking about Germans selling loot and some of the civilians got around to selling those things on the black market and I said I could not criticize a man too strongly for selling anything out of Germany and I said what did they feel about it and they said the same way. I said I had sold a car I bought and I did not know where it came from. I said I had a receipt and I had no compunction about selling the car whatsoever. Anyway, I actually told my superior officer I had sold the car.

Q.1065 Did you ever discuss it with them as a basis of disciplinary action against you?
A. It is a very hard question, hard for me to interpret what you mean, but... yes, I informed Col Barham that I had sold the car.

Q.1066 When?
A. After the raid on the 100 Club and after all the investigations started, sir.

Q.1067 Did you tell them it was war booty and you had sold it and kept the proceeds?
A. I told him I was accused of selling a car that should have belonged to the Cdn Army, and told him I was accused of selling a car that the SIS said should have been turned into an "Eclipse" dump.

Q.1068 The SIS did not know anything about that car?
A. They certainly did sir. Lt. Johnson told me that himself.

Q.1069 Did you tell Col Barham you had taken two hundred sheets to the Hague and sold them for 30 guilders each?
A. I did not tell him the number.

Q.1070 You did not tell him they were Cdn Army sheets?
A. I told him they were sheets seized by us from the Germans.

Q.1071 Did you tell him about the 1000 sheets that you had in your room?
A. Sir, I have just stated that I mentioned no number of sheets. I mentioned the sheets several times. I did not mention the price because I figured it was not a case of number of sheets, but a case of irregularity of the deal.

Q.1072 You did not supply sufficient detail to him at the time to enable him to know what had happened?
A. No, what I meant is this, that Col Barham was more interested in having everything quieted down instead of listening to me sir.

Q.1073 Then he never addressed his mind to the question of discipline against you at all with respect to this transaction?
A. He certainly did sir. I had another occasion to go to him and the very fact that he said to me that the police had wanted to arrest me and he stopped that, that certainly went to show he addressed himself to disciplinary action.

Q.1074 He went to Col Ball in connection with the transaction of the 1000 kilograms of soap at the 100 Club, is that what you mean?
A. No sir. He went to Col Ball again after that. He went to Col Ball on more than one occasion.

Q.1075 You do not know what he said?
A. I know what he said he told him.

Q.1076 That is an entirely different matter.
A. Yes.

Q.1077 I suggest to you also that the discussion you had about sheets related to the thirty-five hundred sheets that were delivered to you in Amsterdam. You know all about that transaction?
A. No, that is wrong. You said regarding the sheets, at that time, no sir. At that time that was not discussed.

Q.1078 I do not care if it was discussed then, but the sheets you discussed with Col Barham were the thirty-five hundred sheets you sold here in Amsterdam on the 8th Nov 1945?
A. Do I have the privilege of refusing to answer?

Judge Advocate:

There is no suggestion is there, Col Campbell, that the witness took part in this transaction?

Prosecutor:

My suggestion is that the discussions which took place with respect to sheets was in connection with an entirely different transaction about which the witness knows, and in which he had a part as intermediary in the discussions.

Defending Officer:

I suggest that if there was a discussion about 3500 sheets which were not the subject of a charge, there is not much point on pressing the point on theprosecution's part, in view of the fact that the charge is only 200, granted the fact they may be different transactions.

Judge Advocate:

I read from RP 60(D) "The accused when giving evidence may be asked any question in cross-examination notwithstanding that it would tend to criminate him as to the offence charged, but shall not be asked, and if asked, shall not be required to answer any question tending to show that he has committed, or been convicted of, or been charged with, any offence other than that with which he is then charged, or is of bad character, unless the proof that he has committed or been convicted of such other offence is admissible evidence to show that he is guilty of the offence with which he is then charged."

Do you feel you come within that section?

Prosecutor:

Yes sir.

Defending Officer:

I do not agree. It is definitely a matter with which he is not charged.

Judge Advocate to Defending Officer:

You have raised the point that this has been condoned. I believe it is fair for the prosecution to prove the matter condoned is another matter.

Defending Officer:

You are asking that it tends to show he committed another offence?

Prosecutor:

I am not asking any such question.

Defending Officer:

If there was a discussion about 3500 sheets, what could that be?

Prosecutor continues cross-examination of witness:

Q.1079 Did you have some discussion with Col Barham with respect to a transaction relating to 3500 sheets which were delivered here in Amsterdam?

A. I do not know about any number of sheets. I know that I discussed, as I told you, one deal, my only sheet deal, with Col Barham, and quite a while before that time I had a discussion with Col Barham about the same trouble.

Q.1080 You had a discussion with Col Barham with respect to some trouble another officer was in about sheets?

A. I believe it was sheets.

Q.1081 You know perfectly well it was sheets?

A. Yes, I do.

Q.1082 You know a message was sent to you at the Borderij Bar and as a result of that message you went to Apeldoorn to see Col Barham. Is that not true?

A. I still don't think I have to answer that question. First of all, I don't feel that I am being tried on having anything to do with the subject the prosecutor brought up. Secondly, that discussion, I have told the prosecutor, had nothing to do with this case. I have admitted that I had a discussion with Col Barham. I did have a discussion and I have admitted it was not the same discussion , as I have discussed the thing twice with Col Barham. I believe it is irrelevant and might involve me and I feel I have the right to refuse to answer that question.

Prosecutor:

I think it is a perfectly legitimate question. I do not think it is necessary to pursue it any further. I am content to leave it at that.

AT 1230 HRS 4 APR 46 THE COURT ADJOURNS TO RE-ASSEMBLE AT 1400 HRS 4 APR 46. AT 1400 HRS 4 APR 46 THE COURT RE-ASSEMBLED PURSUANT TO ADJOURNMENT. PRESENT THE SAME MEMBERS AND JUDGE ADVOCATE AS AT ADJOURNMENT.

Cross-examination continues:

Q.1083 Before the adjournment I was directing some questions to you on the question of sheets. I want to direct your mind again to the 500 sheets that you directed should be loaded in the HUP which was proceeding to Tilburg. How did it come about that you gave the order for the loading of the 500 sheets?

A. First of all my own memory of the incident is hazy but it is perfectly natural that any order regarding anything to be loaded into the HUP would be given by me. I have told you that I knew Fine Mertens handled the sheets and told me she was going to Tilburg, and that I ordered the driver to load the sheets. I myself do not remember telling Bernaard to load the sheets. I may have done, but I am not definitely clear.

Q.1084 Bernaards also said that after the 500 sheets had been taken away there were approximately the same number left, what happened to those?

A. I do not remember them being left.

Q.1085 You heard his description about the type of package and the way they were tied, cellophane cord?

A. Yes sir.

Q.1086 You never directed their mind as to where they came from?

A. No, it all happened over a long period of time, and so much has been involved that I cannot remember any dealing in sheets that went to Tilburg or the fact of how many people were standing there.

Q.1087 That is not the question I asked you. I asked you to direct your mind to the question of where the 1000 sheets came from?

A. Frankly, I do not remember there being a thousand sheets there.

Q.1088 Assuming that the evidence of Bernaards is correct, 500 went out to the HUP, and approximately the same number were left. Do you mean to say that as a member of the Cdn Army you directed the staff to take them off as they were taken?

A. Do you mean instruct the car to go to Tilburg?

Q.1089 And take army sheets, yes?

A. It is a matter of definition whether they are army sheets or not.

Q.1090 Sheets that came from Army Stores then?

A. I remember the load of sheets going to Tilburg but to go on oath and tell you there were 400 or 600 left, I cannot remember.

Q.1091 I want to know whether you directed your mind as to the propriety of sending one of your staff on a mission of that character?

A. First of all, I did not send the member on a mission, I sent the driver because he was taking someone there. As far as I was concerned, I will admit that it was not a thing an officer should do. I realize that now and I admit I realized it at the time.

Q.1092 Were there so many of these transactions that you cannot remember a quantity of 1000 sheets in your room?

A. No, not a case of so many transactions. It is a case of the fact that I cannot remember the details any further than I told you and it is no good trying to put words in my mouth which do not give --- or do not jive.

Q.1093 I suggest that you were a party to the transaction and that you received a portion of the proceeds?

A. You may suggest that sir, but to the best of my knowledge I received nothing from it.

Q.1094 With respect to the 500 sheets which you ordered loaded in the HUP to be taken to Tilburg sometime in July, did you receive any of the proceeds or any benefit as a result of that transaction?

A. I cannot remember honestly receiving anything.

Q.1095 Are you sure you did not?

A. I am saying that I cannot remember sir.

Q.1096 You do not remember whether you got any of the proceeds whatsoever?

A. I do not and it is no good my saying I did or I did not. I cannot remember.

Q.1097 This morning you have the court a fairly elaborate description of the 100 Club which was a club assigned to provide certain amenities for the staff of HQ First Cdn Army?

A. That is right sir.

Q.1098 And you described likewise quite a number of transactions in which you carried out either the orders of Col Barham or did favours for him extending from the time the club was formed in Tilburg down to and even after the club was finally closed?

A. Yes sir.

Q.1099 And you told my learned friend it had been given to you as an order that Col Barham was to have whatever liquor he wanted out of the 100 Club stocks, is that correct?

A. Yes sir.

Q.1100 What were the mechanics by which those advances of liquor were made. How was the accounting taken care of?

A. That was quite a job at times sir. I will try to explain. Prior to D day at the club there was another Sgt whose name I have forgotten. A message would be sent over to me and I would get whatever was wanted from the Sgt for Col Barham and up until that time I believe if I remember correctly, that he paid for it at NAAFI prices. Later on at Enschede or elsewhere on several occasions or most of the time when officers wanted liquor for a party, we sold it for bar prices, but to Col Barham we sometimes charged four and one-half guilders for bottle of whiskey, and other times bar prices, and at other times he would tell me, like for example, the Col Q Accommodation was going on leave to Paris, and Col Barham said that he was to have so many cases and that was paid for at bar prices , but as I was not the bookkeeper I cannot remember how often bar prices were paid, or how often NAAFI prices.

Q.1101 Rougaly what quantities did these transactions involve?

A. That I cannot tell you exactly for this reason. At Tilburg alone I remember four or five occasions taking liquor to him myself and then on quite a few occasions having other people come over with a chit from him for liquor and then when I closed the club I was told that stuff such as Victory gin was to be sold by the bottle, but that English gin and whiskey was to go to Col Barham himself. I believe there was quite a flurry at the time because they said it should have been turned in to NAAFI instead.

Q.1102 Sometime, along about those last few days, you told the court that you got an order from Col Barham with respect to either two or three cases of cognac to sell it for black-market prices and get him an enlarger. "Flog it" was the word I believe you used?

A. Yes.

Q.1103 And you did subsequently get the enlarger which cost 250 guilders?

A. I think that was the approximate price.

Q.1104 And you said that the price was approximately 30 guilders a bottle?

A. I think so, sir.

Q.1105 By my calculations that comes to 720 guilders?

A. Yes.

Q.1106 Even for two cases, 720 guilders. And you said that you gave to Col Barham the enlarger and about 200 guilders in cash?

A. I do not remember the exact amount of cash.

Q.1107 Is what you said this morning your best estimate?

A. I would like to answer that this way. I bought the enlarger for Col Barham. I gave Col Barham all the money that I got from the deal later on, with the exception of what I spent that night on my own personal amusement, which might have run to 150 guilders. I had dinner.

Q.1108 Was the liquor paid for, did you pay the club for it?

A. When I say I paid Col Barham all that was left, naturally the price of the liquor was deducted. I remember I was a few guilders short to pay for the liquor and I forget if I paid the money from my own pocket or how, but that liquor was paid for and deducted from the sum which I paid to Col Barham.

Q.1109 Then on another occasion you obtained for Col Barham a Voiglander camera and that was paid for also from the proceeds of the 100 Club liquor?

A. Yes sir.

Q.1110 Did Col Barham know what the source of these funds was?

A. Yes sir, he knew I traded liquor for it. I told him when I gave him the cash.

Q.1111 Did he give you any money or articles at all in connection with that transaction?

A. As I said before I cannot remember whether I was paid for it, I definitely cannot remember having been paid for it, but I remember having been promised.

Q.1112 Then you said on a number of other occasions you made purchases for him in the Hague and elsewhere, of various articles including perfume, for which you never received payment?

A. Yes sir. He would ask me to get him things, and eventually, you do not like keeping asking a senior officer for money.. once he mentioned owing for a bottle of perfume when he owed me for four, and I said "That is alright, it comes from outside sources". He said "I will pay you, it must have cost you something".

Q.1113 I suggest to you, Mr. Greenslade, that these transactions you had with Col Barham, all the way through, were extremely good arrangements for Col Barham, the whole thing was a very good arrangement for him?

A. In what way sir?

Q.1114 He got a lot of things for nothing?

A. That sir, I agree with, quite a bit for nothing.

Q.1115 And he got it through your auspices as manager of the club?

A. Yes sir.

Q.1116 So that later on when you got into difficulties it is only fair to say that you said "I helped you out of difficulties, now what are you going to do to help me?"

A. I made it strictly this way. I never turned around and addressed Col Barham, like you might say, put the pressure on. Anything I said to Col Barham, I told him right to his face. I said "I am willing to take any punishment for what I have done". That was my attitude because I had a great deal of respect for Col Barham. I have said things in this court today that I did not like saying to an officer, but putting things over his head, there was never any suggestion of it.

Q.1117 But throughout all the discussions he could not help but be extremely conscious of his obligations to you?

A. I suppose you are right. I had never considered it that way before. In that Army HQ.....

Q.1118 Yes, continue, please?

A. I was going to say that in that Army HQ it was a tight packed bunch and they all sort of stuck together, but Col Barham was definitely not a loveable character and I would not definitely have dared to threaten him.

Q.1119 You have made some reference to BSM Rief. Did you have some discussion with him about this liquor, the three cases of cognac or two cases of cognac and one whiskey, taken from the club?

A. Yes sir.

Q.1120 Did he inform you that the provost knew all about that transaction?

A. Just a minute sir, I thought you meant before I took it when I said "Yes".

Q.1121 After you had taken the three cases and they had been sold for the benefit of Col Barham as you say, did you have a discussion about this matter with BSM Rief?

A. About selling it for Col Barham?

Q.1122 Yes?

A. That I cannot remember sir.

Q.1123 Do you ever remember using this explanation when told about the fact that the provost knew about the three cases of liquor "I am very glad because the cognac I took out was for Col Barham. If I tell them thecognac was for him andthe whiskey for me, they will have to fix it?"

A.1123 No sir, I definitely do not think I made that statement.

The Defending Officer declines to re-examine.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it is not necessary to comply with RP 83(B)

The Witness withdraws.

Defending Officer:

I had intended to call BSM Rief as my second witness. However, he is not available until later in the day, and I do not think now that it is necessary that I use him.

Prosecutor:

I am quite satisfied.

Defending Officer:

We have no other witnesses.

THE DEFENCE HAS NO OTHER WITNESSES.

The Prosecutor makes a closing address.

May it please the court. On the present trial the accused stands charged with five charges, one of which is framed in the alternative. The charges are all under Section 40 of the Army Act with the exception of the 5th charge which is framed under Section 18(4) of the Army Act.

I think the balance of continuance may best be served by discussing these in the order in which they appear on the Charge Sheet, and to review the evidence adduced in support of each of these charges. Before doing so, there are comparatively few points of law involved, except the point of condonation which will be discussed at some length later, and the matters of credibility of witnesses, and the matters of reasonable doubt; on these things I do not propose to say anything as that is the function of the Judge Advocate.

The first charge we have before us, that is the third charge in the charge sheet, is as follows "When on Active Service, conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline, in that he in the Field, in Holland, between 1 April 1945 and 20 Nov 1945 was improperly concerned in the trafficking in liquor with Dutch civilians to the extent of approximately 280 bottles." The three major transactions which were described here were; first the transaction in which the witness Schonk was present, and he says that approximately fifteen to twenty bottles of Steinhager gin were taken by the accused and himself to the Hague, this was disposed of and subsequently there was acquired in exchange for it or purchased from the proceeds of the sale of the liquor and the cigarettes a ladies fur coat and a diamond ring. These facts are acknowledged by the accused. The second transaction is the transaction described by the witness Haffert, supported in part by the witness Sgt Derby in which six to eight cases of liquor, four of Old Mab gin, two of Steinhager and two of Avocaat, were taken to the Hague in a HUP, army property, and there sold in the Hague by the accused for a price of two hundred guilders per litre. This liquor was obtained out of the stores of the 100 Club and was accounted for in its records by a payment into the club funds of the appropriate amount of money for the liquor taken at what are known as bar prices. Bar prices were established by the witnesses to be thirteen guilders a bottle, and as a bottle is three quarters of a litre, the selling price for all practical purposes was 150 guilders a bottle. That transaction is acknowledged by the accused to have taken place, and that he received the proceeds of it. A further transaction which took place was the exchange of a diamond ring by one Vulker for 120 bottles of Avocaat and 40 bottles of cognac and a German piano. That transaction is acknowledged to have taken place by the accused. The facts having been established that the buying and selling of liquor took place, it becomes only of importance to consider whether that conduct constitutes conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline, and if it does, then there can be no doubt as to the offences having been committed as charged.

The accused was the manager of the 100 Club and it was his responsibility as manager to preserve the property of the club and likewise it must have been known to him that the trafficking in liquor with civilians was definitely in violation of the laws of the country and likewise violation under the terms of which the liquor is brought into the country for consumption by Cdn Army personnel. If that is so, then clearly what the accused did in connection with those transactions was definitely conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline. If further indication of its being conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline is required, there is one further fact the court can take into account and that is the spectacle of a Cdn officer peddling liquor in the capital of a country we occupied, together with a person of junior rank; that is most certainly conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline.

With respect to the fourth charge, again conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline, in that he, in the Field, in Holland on or about 20 July 1945 improperly used Cdn Military transport forprivate purposes namely to deliver liquor to Dutch civilians in the Hague, Holland. That is occurred, there can be no doubt. It is acknowledged by the accused, and you will require no further submission from me in support of the contention that what was done in this case amounts to conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline, and that all essential facts to prove the charge have been established.

The fifth charge is framed under Section 18(4) of the Army Act, and reads as follows: "WOAS stealing public property in that he, in the Field, in Holland in the month of July or August 1945 stole two hundred bed-sheets, public property." The appropriate section of the Army Act under which this charge is laid is 18(4) which provides that every person subject to military law who commits any of the following offences, that is to say, steals, embezzles or fraudulently misapplies or receives, knowing them to be stolen or embezzled, any money or goods the property of a person subject to military law, or any money or goods belonging to any regimental mess or band, or to any regimental institution or to the Navy, Army and Air Force Institutes, or any public money or goods....

With respect to the two hundred sheets which were sold on the direction of the accused by Haffert, and for which the accused received the proceeds, there may be in your mind some doubt as to the identification of the articles. From the very nature of the articles themselves, being unmarked, it would be impossible to have positive identification. The witness Schonk who took the sheets there says that they were sheets of the type issued to the military and civilian staffs at the 100 Club. Likewise the witness Derby says that the sheets which were an exhibit in this case are also of the type issued to the civilian staff. The witness Bernaards also confirms that. That, combined with the acknowledgment of the accused that they probably came from the ADOS dump, will surely be sufficient to satisfy you that they were public property, and as far as stealing is concerned, the JA will direct that stealing under this section will be precisely as it is under the Larceny Act "A person steals who, without the consent of the owner, fraudulently and without a claim of right made in good faith, takes and carries away anything capable of being stolen with intent , at the time of such taking, permanently to deprive the owner thereof; provided that a person may be guilty of stealing a thing, notwithstanding that he has lawful possession thereof, if being a bailee or part owner thereof, he fraudulently converts the same to his own use or to the use of any person other than the owner". It is my submission that the facts are more than ample to prove that the 200 sheets were stolen by the accused.

The sixth charge, framed in the alternative to the fifth, is framed under Section 40 of the Army Act, and if you should be in sufficient doubt as to the identity of the property or the fact that it was public property, then my submission will be with respect to the sixth charge that for an army officer to traffic in sheets at obviously black-market prices, that in itself constitutes conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline. You will remember that the witness van Haren said that the sheets which were sold and which are an exhibit in this case, had a controlled price at that time of eight guilders and fifty cents each and the evidence is that these were sold to civilians for thirty guilders each. I think on the fact of it that is a transaction which should be deprecated and which should in itself be considered as conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline.

With respect to Charge Seven, again framed under Sec 40 of the Army Act, in that he, in the Field, in Holland, in the month of July or August 1945 improperly dealt in merchandise in that he sold five hundred bed sheets, other than those mentioned in Charges Five and Six, to Dutch civilians. The evidence is that the accused directed that these sheets be loaded into a military vehicle and taken to Tilburg by a confidential employee of the accused, and there is evidence that 100 of them were sold at the price of 27 guilders each. That may not be sufficient to bring the transaction home to the accused, in the light of his own testimony. That is a matter which you will have to decide on after considering all of the evidence, as to whether or not, in light of the number of times that Fine Mertens acted as agent of the accused in transactions of this character, whether or not this particular transaction, and the part which the accused took in it, amounts to an improper dealing in merchandise of 500 bed-sheets, and to a lesser quantity of 100.

If you feel the evidence does not support the charge insofar as 500 bed-sheets are concerned, I am sure the learned Judge Advocate will tell you of your rights to enter a special verdict as to the difference in quantity.

Military law acknowledges an anomalous sort of defence, and a very understandable one in view of the nature of the services which a person under military law has to act from time to time, that is the defence of condonation. It is provided in RP 36(A) that "The accused at the time of his general plea of "Guilty" or "Not guilty" to a charge for an offence, may offer a plea in bar of trial on the ground that (i) he has been previously convicted or acquitted of the offence by a competent civil court or by a court-martial, or has been dealt with summarily for the offence by his commanding officer or by an officer having power to deal summarily with the case, or a charge in respect of the offence has been dismissed, or (ii) the offence has been pardoned or condoned by competent military authority".

There is no question of pardon involved here because pardon is something quite beyond condonation. It will be only necessary to consider condonation itself. The notation which is given with respect to the expression "Condoned" in note 2 "It has long been recognized that a military offence can be "condoned". I emphasize "For the purpose of barring a trial condonation means such conduct on the part of a competent authority -- i.e., an authority having power to determine that the charge should not be proceeded with--as is inconsistent with subsequently trying the offender, and as would make it inequitable to do so; it must be a deliberate and intentional act, done with full knowledge of all material facts."

The accused's evidence was directed very largely in an effort to establish the defence of condonation. In the first place, may I submit that the word "military offence" in the beginning of that note, note 2, is a precise term and a military offence is one as distinct from a civil offence. It is difficult to see how a military commander should be in a position to condone a civilian offence, but upon that point the JA may have a different point of view and may direct you along a different line. In any event, it is material in my view because, and I am satisfied, and it is my submission, that insofar as the offences in the 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th charges are concerned, that the competent military authority referred to in the section "condoned by deliberate and intentional act and with full possession of all the facts, draws his mind to the question of discipline with respect to this charge at all". There was some general discussion about sheets with Col Barham and may I say I am quite satisfied that Col Barham was a competent military authority within the meaning of this section, but from the evidence as we have it here in this court, I am satisfied that he never directed his mind to the question of actual discipline in respect to these charges and that if he did, he did not have full knowledge of the facts.

There is another arguement to which I would like to address myself for a moment or two, and that is this. The defence of condonation, it is my submission, clearly contemplates bona fide conduct on the part of that military authority, and that if his conduct was induced by any improper act of the accused, even if he was junior in rank, surely that would vitiate completely his act, even if he intended to condone the offence, because if by the fraud of the accused in any form he induces his military commander to act in improper fashion as he did in this case, then I say that it does not amount to condonation. On any one of these counts it will be sufficient to defeat the defence of condonation if first he did not direct his mind as a deliberate and intentional act to each of the offences in respect of which condonation is claimed. Secondly that he had full knowledge of all the material facts, for if he did not, that will defeat the defence of condonation. That competent authority must have addressed his mind to the subject of the charge, and it is my submission in this case he did not. In the third place, if you find all those things condoned, I invite you to consider the other point I raised, which you will find discussed in the section, and that is the good faith of the person purported to have condoned the offence.

The Defending Officer makes a closing address.

May it please the court. In this case we have the accused charged with a third charge of improperly trafficking. He admits he trafficked. He has admitted a portion of the proceeds were used for his own benefit but he has also shown you I submit that the vast bulk of the proceeds of this trafficking was used on an army club of which he was the manager. He has been in the box and submitted himself to a very able cross-examination. His evidence has been that the vast majority of the proceeds of the liquor mentioned in charge three were used for club purposes. On the 4th charge he is guilty, and while two wrongs do not make a right, I put it to you that every Cdn officer in Europe has been guilty of the same charge although very few have been charged. In view of the seriousness of the other charges, I submit it is not important in the courts considerations. In the 5th charge, of larceny, you have heard all the evidence without my going through it again. But I wish to draw your attention to the fact that the witnesses Haffert and Schenk have received proceeds in this deal and I direct your attention to the rule re accomplices. Furthermore, I submit there is no evidence which directly identifies those sheets with sheets from any Cdn Army depot or dump. The prosecution has raised only a presumption and the accused's own evidence has stated that he did not know where they came from. They might have come from Cdn army sources, and they might not have. There is such a doubt as to their origin that the court might well consider the charge of larceny not proven.

The accused has told you in connection with that charge that he had on various occasions things brought to him from Germany. In view of the Cdn Army Orders against trafficking in Germany, while it is true things did come from Germany, and these may have come from some German civilians, as well as from other sources.

In the alternative to the 5th charge, a charge of trafficking has been laid, If it is improper or conduct to the prejudice etc, then the accused stands guilty and he has explained that the proceeds from that trafficking were used to equip the club, and he has explained generally where the equipment of that club went.

It did not go to private sources, bar one rug. The balance went to Messes or other Army institutions.

On the 7th charge I invite the court to consider there is absolutely no connection between the accused and either the articles mentioned in this charge or the proceeds of the sale of these articles. Again I submit there is no such a case as a prima facie case, for the prosecution has not adduced evidence that he had anything whatsoever to do with this. The accused pointed out that the club truck was going to the town on that day, and what is more natural than that his secretary should take these things down with her when the trip was being made.

One thing I want to draw to the attention of the court is this. All the transactions mentioned with the single exception of the liquor deal in connection with the enlarger, took place before the change in Dutch money. In other words, the proceeds were in all cases old guilders. It is common knowledge that the Cdn Army had more old guilders than could be counted, every man in the Cdn Army in Europe had a pack full of old guilders, and if they had cigarettes, they had more guilders in the form of cigarettes. Therefore, when the price of 20 or 40 guilders is mentioned, I draw to your attention that that figure never represented the true value of any article.

Now, under RP 39 it has been pointed out to ~~me~~ you that a military offence can be condoned so regardless of the consensus on evidence or otherwise in connection with the charges. Aside from condonation, I put it to the court that there can be no question whatsoever that this man's superior officer was such an officer who could properly condone an offence. There can be no doubt about that, a full Colonel A & Q of the First Cdn Army under whose direct orders this man ran the club. Now, the question of military offences, I submit that all the offences are military offences simply because they are under military law and tried by a military court. It is alleged that all the articles involved in the charges were military property, in some form, either purchased or captured, and whether that be true or not, I submit that the wording of the charges "Committing a civil offence" does not take the offences outside this RP on condonation. There is evidence by the accused which was unshaken on cross-examination that he discussed all the material facts of these charges with Col Barham, his superior officer, there is evidence that Barham discussed it with Col Ball, the DPM of First Cdn Army, and if he discussed it with Col Ball, what more can we assume than he must have been directing his mind to these irregularities. There is no question in the foot-note or in the section itself about good faith, and I submit that it is not therefore without very good reason. It makes no difference if a junior officer doing favours for a superior officer, has an offence condoned by him, then there is remedy against the senior officer, and the penalth of senior officers condoning in good faith should not be visitated on the man concerned, who is the accused. The evidence is that Col Barham, this man's superior officer, had knowledge of the facts, including as it turns out, the facts relating to the first and second charge which have already been tried and disposed of.

The accused came into the box, he had no hope of favour nor fear, andin his evidence in chief and in cross-examination he revealed that he had done more than the charge sheet would lead one to believe. I suggest his story is true and corroborated as far as possible by the prosecutor being willing to accept his statement on the witness I was going to call, without being called. That does not say that all portions of his evidence have to be believed, but I submit it supports the credibility of the accused's evidence.

I submit, gentlemen, that this man's evidence shows his offences were in fact, in view of the RP, condoned by his superior officer, whether or not proven in this court, and that with full knowledge of the facts the senior officer allowed him to proceed out of the theatre on the way home, and that constitutes full condonation.

Mr. President and Members of the Court. It is part of my duty as Judge-Advocate to sum up the evidence and advise the Court on the law. The Court is, however, the sole judge of the facts and anything I say now or may have previously said indicating my personal views as to the facts should be entirely disregarded. The Court and the Court alone is the sole judge of the facts.

I do not consider it necessary to sum up on the evidence and with your permission I will not do so, at this time. I wish however, to point out to the court that the defence has raised the question of credibility of witnesses. If you consider that any of the witnesses for the prosecution were accomplices, that is persons who had willingly taken part in the crime charges, then their evidence should be treated as the evidence of accomplices. I read from MML page 83, Sec. 45 "Apart from any statutory requirement the evidence even of an accomplice is in strict law sufficient, if the jury consider him credible; but it is now held to be the duty of the judge to warn the jury of the danger of convicting a prisoner on theuncorroborated evidence of an accomplice and, in his discretion advise them not to do so, though at the same time pointing out that it is within their legal province to convict upon it if they choose. In a trial by court-martial where the court performs the functions of both judge and jury, they should very carefully consider the danger before convicting on the uncorrobarated testimony of an accomplice; and, if there is a judge-advocate, it is essential that he should direct their attention to the point. Except where a statute makes provision as to the nature of the evidence necessary, the corroboration required is independent testimony which confirms in some material particular not only the evidence that the crime has been committed, but also that the accused committed it." With regard to corroboration, corroboration may be found in the evidence of the accused himself.

The evidence with respect to some of the charges may be circumstantial and I wish to direct the court to the law with regard to circumstantial evidence. I read Section 42, page 81 of the MML. "From the circumstances in which crimes are ordinarily committed, it follows that direct evidence of their commission is not always obtainable, and that in very many cases reliance must be placed on circumstantial evidence. Such evidence is in no way inferior to direct evidence, and is in some respects superior to it; for it has become a proverb that "facts cannot lie," whilst witnesses may. On the other hand, it must always be borne in mind that if facts cannot "lie", they may, and often do, deceive; in other words, that the interpretation which they appear to suggest is not that which ought to be placed upon them. Therefore, before the court finds an accused person guilty on circumstantial evidence, it must be satisfied not only that the circumstances are consistent with the accused having committed the act, but that they are inconsistent with any other rational conclusion than that the accused was the guilty person".

Further, with regard to the evidence, I wish to advise that the court may accept part of a witnesses's statement, none of it, or the whole of it, and the weight they give to any statement they do believe is entirely a matter within the jurisdiction of the court. Weight to be given to the evidence of witnesses is a matter for the court and the court alone to consider.

The accused is charged in the third charge under Army Act Section 40 as follows "WOAB, Conduct to the prejudice of good order and Military Discipline, in that he, In the Field, in Holland, between 1 April 1945 and 20 Nov 1945 was improperly concerned in the trafficking in liquor with Dutch civilians to the extent of approximately 280 bottles." To be guilty of this charge, the Court must be satisfied that the prosecution has proven that the particulars of the charge are materially proven and that if proved, it constitutes conduct to the prejudice of both good order and military discipline.

I should advise the court that at the beginning of the deliberations the court must consider the accused to be innocent. The onus is on the prosecution to prove that the accused is guilty, not for the accused to prove himself innocent. Therefore, it is necessary that the necessary elements in each charge are proven before the court can find the accused guilty on any of the charges.

The 4th charge is "WOAB, Conduct to the prejudice of Good Order and Military Discipline, in that he, In the Field, in Holland, on or about 20 July 1945 improperly used Canadian Military transport for private purposes namely to deliver liquor to Dutch civilians in The Hague, Holland." In this charge also the prosecution must satisfy the court that the particulars of the charge are materially proven, and if proven, that it constitutes conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline.

The 5th charge is under Section 18(4) of the Army Act, as follows "WOAB stealing public property, in that he, In the Field, in Holland in the month of July or August 1945 stole two hundred-bed-sheets, public property." Theft, under Sec 18(4) of the Army Act is by virtue of s.190 sub sec 35(a) of the Army Act the same as theft under the Larceny Act. "A person steals who, without the consent of the owner, fraudulently and without a claim of right made in good faith, takes and carries away anything capable of being stolen with intent, at the time of such taking, permanently to deprive the owner thereof". The expression "Carries away" is the removal of anything taken away from the place where it occupies. "Owner" is described as a person who is legal owner of the property stolen, or he may be part owner or person having control of or special property in anything capable of being stolen. The article must be taken fraudulently, fraudulent intention must exist at the time. The slightest amount of moving is sufficient, and the property must be taken with the intention of permanently depriving the owner thereof. The court must be satisfied that all the particulars are proven, and that the articles taken were public property. If the court cannot find the articles are public property, then the accused cannot be found guilty of this charge. On this charge there may be an alternative finding of Fraudulent misapplication under Sec 56 of the Army Act. Public property means the property of any allied government, regardless of whether it is Belgian, French, Canadian or Dutch.

The 6th charge, under Sec 40 of the Army Act, is the alternative to the 5th charge, in that he, in the Field, in Holland, in the month of July or August 1945, improperly dealt in merchandise in that he sold two hundred bed-sheets to Dutch civilians. To be guilty of this charge, the prosecution must satisfy the court that the particulars of the charge, if proved, constitute prejudice to both good order and military discipline.

The 7th charge is WOAB conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline, in that he, in the Field, in Holland, in the month of July or August 1945, improperly dealt in merchandise in that he sold five hundred bed sheets, other than those mentioned in Charge five and Six, to Dutch civilians. The same law applies to this charge as to other charges under Section 40. In this charge the court may make a special finding provided that it does not materially alter the particulars of the charge, that is, if the court finds all other elements of the charge are proven.

With regard to the third, fourth, sixth and seventh charges, all are laid under Section 40 of the Army Act. The prosecution has introduced into the court a Routine Order which has been published twice, once in November 1944 and once in July 1945. The accused is not charged with neglect to obey that order nor is there any evidence before the court that the accused was aware of the existence of the order.

These offences of conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline under Section 40 may be of two kinds. The offence may be one that is bad in itself, that is malum per se, and if the court finds that the offence is one that is bad in itself, then it is not necessary to show that it is bad by virtue of some routine order in order that the accused may be guilty of that offence, provided that the particulars of that offence are materially proven. If the court finds however, that the offence is not one that is bad in itself but is an offence only by virtue of a Routine Order, that is malum prohibito, then I would advise the court not to find the accused guilty as there is no evidence that the accused was aware of the existence of the Routine Order.

The defence has raised the point of condonation of the offence. This has been argued also by the prosecution. I read from page 640 of MML, the note to AP 86 "It has long been recognized that a military offence can be "condoned". For the purpose of barring a trial condonation means such conduct on the part of a competent authority i.e. an authority having power to determine that the charge should not be proceeded with -- as is inconsistent with subsequently trying the offender, and as would make it inequitable to do so; it must be a deliberate and intentional act, done with full knowledge of all material facts." The defence has not raised the defence of condonation as a bar to trial, but this does not prevent this defence being raised at this time. If the court finds that these offences or any of them were condoned, then the court should find the accused not guilty. Before an offence can be said to be condoned, it must be proven that a competent authority, that is, an authority having power to determine that the charge should not be proceeded with has conducted himself in such a manner as is inconsistent with later trying the accused. Condonation must be a deliberate act, it must be intentional and the competent authority doing the condoning must have full knowledge of all material facts of the case. By full knowledge of all the material facts it is meant he must have a comprehensive understanding of the charge that he is condoning before its condonation. The question was raised between the prosecution and defence of condonation being done in good or bad faith and nothing is said in the MML about this. I would advise the court that the motive of the officer condoning the offence at the time of condonation is immaterial, that is if he condoned the offence with an ulterior motive to protect himself or for some other reason that is material and beneficial to him, then it would still be a good case of condonation. However, if he condoned the offence as a result of threats made to him, either physical or a threat of black-mail, by the accused, then the condonation would not be a good condonation, having been adduced by threats, duress or black-mail and therefore if you find that all particulars of the condonation as laid down are complied with with the exception that you may feel that the officer condoning the offence acted for his own benefit, then I advise the court it is a good case for condonation and I advise the court the accused should be acquitted on those charges which have been so condoned.

It is also my duty to point out to the court that the accused is entitled to the benefit of any reasonable doubt. I say a reasonable doubt, that is some doubt which is based on the facts before the Court and not some doubt which is purely imaginary. If the Court had a reasonable doubt after hearing and weighing the evidence then the accused is entitled to the benefit of that doubt.

That is all I wish to say sir, unless the court or the Prosecutor or the Defending Officer require an explanation on anything I may have overlooked.

THE COURT, THE PROSECUTOR AND THE DEFENDING OFFICER REQUIRE NO FURTHER EXPLANATION.

The court is closed to consider the finding.

THE COURT IS CLOSED FOR THE CONSIDERATION OF THE FINDING.

STATEMENT BY ACCUSED

I left Europe 18th or 19th Dec 45. Approximately 7th Jan 46 I was taken off the Queen Elizabeth. Approximately one week later I went to hospital with Jaundice. The day after admittance the SIS (Lieut Johnston) visited me and told me I was under arrest. He made me get up and accompany him to another part of the hospital which was reserved for soldiers under sentence or awaiting trial from Headley and other punishment camps or barracks. The windows were barred and the bldg was surrounded by barb wire fences.

Lieut Neff (Cdn P. Corps) was present. It was first intended to place me in a cell but that was stopped by a doctor. I was placed in a small room. There I was stripped of all my personal belongings including clothes and told by Johnston and Neff that I was to be treated as any other soldier under sentence, to be allowed no visitors and that my mail would be censored. Neif and Johnston left me in the room under guard of an OR who was outside the door. The OR was told to escort me if I walked out of the room for any purpose.

A charge dated 16 Jan 46 was handed to me after I had been there a day or two. My Regt Padre tried to see me and was refused admission on three occasions in four days.

At not time was I paraded to any CO nor remanded for trial. I remained in that place from approximately 16 Jan to approximately 11 Feb and at no time in that period was I paraded to anyone nor did any officer approach me to speak of this charge. I have been under close arrest ever since.

PLEA IN MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT BY DEFENDING OFFICER.

I have endeavoured in the defence of this officer to bring out the fact that conditions around this club were to say the least, poor. It is undeniable that there were irregularities and if not condoned, were certainly known in general, and probably in some detail, and there is evidence of one irregularity taking place at the order of a superior officer. At some time or other there was disclosure of the whole thing or part of his irregularities prior to his leaving Europe. In the face of that he was allowed to leave Europe which is a different procedure than in other cases which are of common knowledge. I think it has been demonstrated by the evidence and corroborated by a bank statement that this officer has been infinitely more foolish, and that his personal gain from these irregularities has amounted to nil. I believe it to be corroborated by his bank account, that he will have made nothing out of these deals, for if he had, he would have a coveted balance in his bank account. In addition to that, as he has stated in his statement, he has been under close arrest since 16 Jan 1946. At no time has he been paraded. A coveriag charge was given. I believe that is contrary to proper military procedure. I submit that an officer with nearly four years of service that his treatment was not what it should have been for an officer while he is still presumed to be innocent, in a detention wing of a hospital with an OR on guard at the door, with his padre not being allowed to see him, and his mail was being censored. That, I submit, with 63 days in close arrest, which is 63 days loss of pay, should bulk largely in the courts consideration of the punishment to be awarded on the charges on which he may stand convicted. I think the fact that this investigation started sometime, according to the evidence, around 20 Nov 45, andthe accused is only now being brought to trial, also should count heavily in his favour.

While he knows, and I know, and you know there are difficulties on these things occasionally, I ask the court to have the feeling that the gathering of the necessary evidence in this case could have been done more expeditiously than it was. That, plus his completely unmilitary treatment, should result in considerably lighter punishment than might otherwise be the case, that, coupled with the obvious knowledge of certain of his superior officers of at least some irregularities in the conduct of this club. Thank you.

At 1600 hours 4 April 1946 the court closed for the consideration of the sentence. The President announces that the sentence to be awarded by the court, being subject to confirmation, will not be announced but will be promulgated later, and the proceedings in open court are accordingly terminated.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

Summary of Evidence in the case of Capt T.L. Greenslade, RCAC, 3 Cdn Transit Camp, an officer of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer the evidence is taken on oath:

First Witness Prosecution B27265 Sgt Derby, Milton Whitney, R.C.E., having been duly sworn states:

"I was bookkeeper and stockkeeper at the "100" Club at Tilburg, Enschede and Apeldoorn from 14 Feb 45 until it closed about 20 Nov 45. Capt Greenslade was officer in charge of the club for the whole period I was there. I was responsible for a proper accounting of the liquid stock.

At Tilburg we obtained NAAFI beer, wine and whisky, a weekly quota of 105 bottles of whisky and 53 of gin and whatever beer they could spare. We got about 160 bottles of Cointreau liqueur at one time and on two or three other occasions obtained about a dozen bottles of mixed liqueurs, Cherry, Orange and Apricot, etc. The boss, Capt Greenslade, made several trips to Belgium and returned with small quantities, maybe a dozen bottles. He'd present me with a bill and be reimbursed out of the till.

In April the club moved to Enschede and set up in a club house. While there we took in our regular NAAFI supplies and also about 300 bottles of liqueurs and Steinhager's Gin, hard laquors and about 1200 bottles of wine. This was given to us by an offr from the Amenities Control Board.

Capt Babe, now Major, bought about 30 cases, roughly 360 bottles of Camus Cognac for the club. This was delivered to the Club just before we closed at Enschede. He also got about 500 bottles of Victory Gin.

About the 8th of June we closed at Enschede and Capt Greenslade and I re-ced the Apeldoorn site. On moving to Apeldoorn we had on hand about 280 bottles of whisky, 100 NAAFI Gin and all but about half a case of the Victory Gin and 80 bottles of liqueurs.

Some time late in June or early July, Capt Babe got 500 bottles of Old Mab Gin and 100 bottles of vermouth. I think this is about all we had besides one NAAFI is we until the Recreational Centre took over the administration. They gave us Benedictine (Dom), Cherry Brandy, Raspail, Triple-Sec and Champagne and also 75 bottles of Gin Royal. I looked after the liquor stock and books until 25 Aug 45 at which time I was injured going to 2 CCS, returning to the club on the afternoon of Aug 30th. I was also on leave from the 2nd of Aug until the 18th. These were the only periods I was away from the Club and during my absence Capt Greenslade was responsible. He kept track of the bottles sold and the money taken in but never touched the books.

CSM Reif arrived about 10 Nov 45 to take over my job and he looked after it for a few days, but after the delivery of boots and soap on 20 Nov 45 to the club he left and I again took over the books and closed the account when the Club was closed.

At no time while I was looking after the stock did Capt Greenslade take liquor, wines, spirits, etc, out of the Club in any quantity. He did have authority for a bottle a day for entertainment but I know this was used for entertainment.

During the time we were at the Club we were short of transport. At Tilburg we had a Utility Austin. We took it to Enschede and finally to Apeldoorn. The last time I saw the Austin was when I towed it into wksp 1356 and for a couple of bottles of whisky I got a jeep which I used. This was the vehicle I used to haul rations and supplies in as the boss was away most of the time with the HUP, which the Car Coy, Army HQ, loaned the Club.

There was a period of a few days, maybe a week, when a Civilian Car was parked right out in front of the Club at Apeldoorn, if I remember correctly it was a Ford with a left hand drive. I don't know where it came from or where it went. It didn't belong to any of the civilians on the Staff and I cannot connect it with anyone. It disappeared just as mysteriously as it arrived, sometime before I took my leave or during my leave to the UK on 2 Aug 45.

Regarding the sales of spirits in the period while I was on leave. When I returned it seemed to me there was more sold than over the average period of that time. Whisky sales were very high and the Gin sales were even higher. I had built up a stock of about 200 bottles of Scotch and about 100 of Gin to be saved for Christmas. Besides this there was the weekly allotment which amounted to about 100 bottles of Scotch and 50 Gin but I later found that this allocation had not been drawn. When I returned there were about 180 bottles of whisky and possible 40 Gin all told left.

We had two floor shows at the "100" Club in Oct and I was to get sheets and bedding for them. Frank Van Royen, the head waiter, then said he would go and get them and he returned with sheets and hospital mattresses, the biscuit type, in potato sack cloth. He had sufficient for 10 people. The next week another show came and they complained about dirty sheets and Frank said he'd fix that and I heard no more about it.

I know the boss, Capt Greenslade, had a number of cameras but I don't know where, how or when he got them or the other photographic equipment. He got all this stuff with the exception of the cameras and set up his dark room while I was away on leave. I have seen the boss with jewelry, a chronographic gold watch, which he stated he got in the Hague. He also had a couple of rings, one Miss Mertens had and the other he wore. He also had a necklace, a fine chain with a diamond in a drop. This he had before I went on leave, then he had a bracelet with maybe 10 stones in it, set in a white metal.

One time about 1 Sep 45 Miss Mertens gave me a piece of cotton to make pillow slips, it was folded up like a sheet. I got the cloth from Miss Mertens in Greenslade's room and I noticed she took it out of a box about 3' long 2' wide and 18" deep. This box was just plain wood and had steel straps around both ends of it. There was a paper lining inside the box. This is the only occasion on which I have seen the box.

Frank Van Royen used to go to the ADOS Dump in Apeldoorn and get stuff about once a week. On one occasion he got about 6 sheets and on others he got boots, the odd battledress, underwear, socks and pyjamas. On one occasion he also got 20 towels. The civilian staff used to come to me and say Frank had something and request me to get it for them but because it was Army stuff I refused.

On the 20 Nov in the morning CSM Reif and I went into ADOS Dump at Apeldoorn and drew two cases of soap and washing soda for the club. About 1530 hours returning from Apeldoorn with the rations on arrival at the Club we found we couldn't drive into the garage because there was a pile of shoe boxes. I think there were about 12 boxes 5' long and 1½' by 1½' square and two on the top were open and I could see they contained shoes.

Sometime later I was in my room with CSM Reif and his wife and Capt Dixon came in. I had been up to Army HQ and on return found Provost men loading up shoes and soap in cars. When Dixon came I told him the Provost had been there and took the boots and soap. He turned pale and said something like "I guess I can kiss my gratuity good-bye". Then he said "Come here" and we stepped into the hallway and he asked me if I had any idea who had informed the Provost and I said no. He left and I didn't see him again that night."

Questioned by accused

Q. Was it not possible that Capt Dixon said to you 'Why did the Provost come and who called them?' when you were standing outside the door?
A. He may have but I understood him to say 'Who called the Provost?' but the radio was playing. I answered 'I do not know'.

Q. Did we have any regualr war establishment for the club or did we have to scrounge for almost everything?
A. We had no regular channels except for NAAFI supplies.

Q. Have you ever seen a Canadian soldier wearing the same boots you saw in the boxes, officially?
A. No sir.

Q. Was my dark room at all times open to any Provost officer who wanted to come in?
A. Yes sir, it was open to anybody.

Q. Did any of the Provost Officers prior to the soap raid question my possession of the equipment used in photography?
A. Not in my presence.

Q. Have you seen me working in the studio with Provost officers present?
A. Yes sir

Q. Can you identify those offrs?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Did my commanding offrs, Major Babe and Col Hooper know of the camera eqpt I had?
A. Yes, I have seen them in the darkroom several times.

Q. Was I or was I not popular with the officers?
A. As far as I know you were.

Q. Have I ever bawled employees out for going to offrs and getting stuff in my name?
A. Yes, you have.

Q. Do you recall a large hand made lighter given to me by Capt McAllister of the RCASC?
A. Very well, sir.

Q. Were gifts to me from offrs an unusual occurrence?
A. I know thatlots of things you had were given to you by offrs.

Q. Were you and I ever asked by offrs if we could secure various articles, such as jewelery for them?
A. Yes sir.

Q. What was my attitude toward offrs who attempted to obtain extra liquor by paying more than the legal price to us?
A. I remember once you heatedly refused to sell a British offr a bottle of whisky for 200 guilders stating he might have got it at normal bar prices but by trying to bribe you he'd never get it.

Q. Would you say that in our work it was impossible to adhere strictly to routine orders and operate efficiently?
A. Yes, that's right, it was impossible.

The accused declines to question the witness further.

"M.W. Derby"

Second Witness Prosecution — Capt H.F. Dixon, RCOC, 3 Cdn Transit Camp, having been duly sworn, states:

"Approximately the middle of Nov I was instructed to supply units in Army Tps with whatever stores were available to carry the units until time of disbandment or despatch for repatriation. As a consequence I discussed with Capt Greenslade the necessity of his club, the "100" Club at Apeldoorn, drawing stores at that time, including stores of soap, as the dump was looking forward to cutting down stocks in the near future, the policy being to cut dump stocks to a bare minimum.

The quantity at that time was not discussed as I recall but that is a long time ago. On the 20th of Nov I issued 2000 lbs of soap to the "100" Club. This quantity was arrived at by referring to the dump records and thus determining the quantity which the club had been accustomed to consuming, the issue being made to cover the Clubs needs until the end of January.

During the times stated above I was OC ADOS Dump at Apeldoorn.

The accused declines to question the witness.

"H.F. Dixon"

Third Witness Prosecution — H8603 Pte Link C.O., RCASC, having been duly sworn, states:

"On 20 Nov 45 I was a driver for No. 35 Composite Coy, RCASC. On this day in the morning I was instructed to go to the "100" Club in Apeldoorn for duty. On arrival there I reported to Capt Greenslade, who I now recognize. He ordered me to report to ADOS Dump to Capt Dixon. I do not recall whether he told me to report to Capt Dixon personally. I there reported to Capt Dixon and proceeded to the soap store where 50 cases of soap were loaded on my vehicle. I then had lunch and then about 250 pairs of boots were loaded on my truck. An indent or receipt was made out by one of the loaders and I signed it.

From there I proceeded to the "100" Club and reported to Capt Greenslade. I turned the copy of the receipt over to Capt Greenslade and was then directed by a man to the basement to unload the goods. Four or five men unloaded the goods, and I then proceeded with one of the men to Capt Greenslades office where Capt Greenslade offered me a drink of liquor. I had the drink and proceeded back to my unit.

Accused declines to question this witness.

"C.O. Link"

Fourth Witness Prosecution — K73340 BSM Reif M.H., RCA, having been duly sworn, states:

"On 13 Nov 45 I was posted to the "100" Club in Apeldoorn as NCO in charge. On 20 Nov 45 I had been to ADOS Dump with Sgt Derby and a civilian named Frank who was the civilian manager, about ten o'clock in the morning, and there had drawn soap for the kitchen, washing powder, boots for myself, sheets for the club and a large can-opener.

After dinner I went to Recreational HQ to draw rations with Sgt Derby. On returning to the "100" Club at about 1600 hrs I was unable to drive the jeep into the garage on account of a large number of boxes being stocked in the doorway. I saw a number of civilian employees breaking open the boxes, part of which contained soap, which they were carrying to cupboards in the garage and part of which contained brown US Army type boots which they were taking to a small recess in the garage. Some of the civilians were carrying the boxes to the back of the club where they were burning them with petrol. I dismounted from the jeep with Sgt Derby, proceeded through the kitchen upstairs to Sgt Derby's room. I asked my wife who was in the room when these things had come in. As a result of what she told me I took the number of a ~~60 cwt~~ truck which was parked in front of the Club. I then went with a jeep to recreational HQ and reported what had happened to the Major in charge. I then heard the major call the Provost.

I returned to the Club and approximately two hours later two members of the Provost arrived in a station wagon. They identified themselves as members of No. 1 S.I.S. They confiscated the boots and a portion of the soap, the balance of the soap I being ordered to lock up in the liquor room as they would return for it in the morning.

The accused declines to question this witness.

"M.H. Reif"

Fifth Witness Prosecution — Mr. G.H. Vulker, Oliemolinsingel 30-32, Enschede, having been duly sworn, states:

"Sometime during the month of April 1945 I met a Canadian officer who I now recognize as Capt Greenslade, the accused. Shortly after I met this offr, he expressed his desire to buy a ladies platinum ring which had a two and one half carat brilliant in a blue sapphire setting. I offered this ring for sale for 10,000 guilders. Capt Greenslde offered to pay 8,000 guilders for the ring, however, I did not accept this offr. Three days later I met Capt Greenslade at his billet, where we again discussed the sale of the ring. As I speak very little English, a girl named Fune, who had been introduced as Capt Greenslade's secretary, acted as interpreter. Capt Greenslade offered in exchange for the ring, 120 bottles of Dutch Advocat, 40 bottles of cognac and one old piano, German make. I accepted this offer and gave the ring to Capt Greenslade. I received all the liquor a few days later it being delivered to me by Capt Greenslade. I was to have received the pianon when the club moved from Enschede. After the club had moved from Enschede I made enquiries about the piano, but I was unable to get it. I then contacted Capt Greenslade and told him this. Capt Greenslade was apparently unable to locate the piano and promised to bring me 1000 guilders, which to date I have not received. During the early part of June 45 I offered to sell Capt Greenslade a ladies platinum ring with a large black pearl for the sum of 6000 guilden. Capt Greenslade received the ring and promised to pay me later. I have not as yet been paid for this ring, nor have I received anything in exchange for it. The girl named Fine again acted as interpreter during this transaction. Approx in mid October of 45 I contacted Capt Greenslade at the 100 Club in Apeldoorn. On this occasion I had a ladies white gold narrow bracelet with about six diamonds in a setting. Capt Greenslade agreed to buy this bracelet for 1800 guilden. The officer stated that he was unable to pay me at this time and added that he would see me within a few days. I met Capt Greenslade several days later at the Club where I accepted an offer of 50 bottles of Advocat and an old bicycle in exchange for the bracelet.

Approx mid November I returned to the 100 Club and requested that Capt Greenslade complete payment for the jewelry that he had received from me. Capt Greenslade stated at this time that he was expecting 3000 kilo of soap, which he offered for sale. He stated his price was 3 guilders for one kilo. After making enquiries I returned to Capt Greenslade and stated that I would buy 1000 kilo of soap, at 2 guilden per kilo. Capt Greenslade accepted my offer and stated that he would have the soap delivered to my home in Enschede. I had also arranged to buy 100,000 Gillette razor blades from Capt Greenslade, for 3000 guilden to be delivered with the soap. The soap was to arrive at my home one evening late in November but it didn't actually arrive. The same girl named Fine acted as interpreter during this transaction.

The accused declines to question this witness.

(G.H. Vulker)

Sixth Witness Prosecution — Mr. Antonius Shonk, 139 Oostervijkselaan, Tilburg, having been duly sworn states:

"I was employed as a cook at the "100" Club at Tilburg, Enschede, Apeldoorn, from Jan 1945 until about 1 Dec 45. During the month of July 45 I travelled to Den Haag with Capt Greenslade, who I now recognize as the accused and who was manager of the Club, and spent the evening there. We stayed in rooms above the Mari Bar cafe. We arrived at the rooms at about 1630 hours and carried about 6000 cigarettes and 15 or 20 bottles of German gin from the HUP to Capt Greenslade's room. A civilian named Haffert entered the room a short time later and arranged to sell the cigarettes and gin for Capt Greenslade. The cigarettes were then taken from the room, together with the gin by Haffert and Capt Greenslade. Capt Greenslade returned a short time later with a lady's brown fur coat. I do not recall the time but sometime during this same day an elderly man came into the room. This man spoke very good English and discussed the sale of diamonds with Capt Greenslade. Capt Greenslade bought a diamond ring from this man for approx 6000 guilden. On another occasion I was with Capt Greenslade at an address in Den Haag, Waggon Straat, 10 where he bought two diamond rings and a gold bracelet. Capt Greenslade paid this civilian 2500 or 2600 guilden for one of the rings, but I do not recall the price of the other ring or the bracelet. On another occasion I accompanied the Capt to this same address. I waited in the vehicle while Capt Greenslade went into the house. He returned a short time later with a diamond ring which he stated he had bought, however, he did not state the price of the ring.

One day during the latter part of July 45, I was with Capt Greenslade when we delivered 200 white sheets to the home of a civilian named Haffert. Capt Greenslade actually stayed in the car and I carried the sheets into the house and told Haffert Capt Greenslade wanted 30 guilden apiece for them and would return for the money a few days later. Several days later I returned with Capt Greenslade to Haffert's home. Haffert handed a handful of money to Capt Greenslade who accepted it without counting it. Capt Greenslade then gave Haffert about 600 or 700 guilden for selling the sheets.

Capt Greenslade had told me that he was buying jewelry for another party.

The accused declines to question this witness.

"A.C. Schonk"

Seventh Witness Prosecution — M2219 Sgt Morris R.C., Cdn Provost Corps, having been duly sworn, states:

"I am an investigator for the Special Investigation Section, Cdn Provost Corps. On the 26 Jan 46 in the company of one Cpl Haffert of the Netherlands Army I proceeded to a cafe known as the Mari Bar in Den Haag. From this cafe which has a hotel on the premises I seized 25 white bed sheets, bearing no distinctive marks, which I now produce (Exhibit "A"). These sheets have been in my safekeeping since that time.

On the same date in the company of Cpl Haffert I proceeded to a dressmakers shop of M. Zolowsky in Den Haag and there seized two pieces of material, one printed in a flowered design (Exhibit "B") the other being plain (Exhibit "C"). I identify these pieces as being that material and they have been in my safe-keeping since that time.

Accused declines to question this witness.

Sixth Witness Prosecution (Recalled) — Mr. Antonius Shonk, 139 Oestervijkselaan, Tilburg, on his former oath, further states:

"I was employed at the "100" Club, Apeldoorn from Jan 45 until Dec 45. During the last seven months of this period I was chief cook and Capt Greenslade was manager. At about 1000 hrs 20 Nov 45, Capt Greenslade came to me and said that a large quantity of soap would be delivered to the club sometime during the day. My instructions from Capt Greenslde were to unload the vehicle on arrival and burn the cases immediately. The veh carrying the soap arrived at the Club at about 1500 hrs. I directed the driver to a garage in the cellar of the Club. I obtained the assistance of four cleaners and unloaded a large quantity of soap in card-board cases. We also unloaded a large quantity of brown leather boots. I had the cleaners remove the soap and boots from the card-board cases. The cases were then taken to the side of the club near a bush. Petrol was poured onto the cases and set alight, as instructed by Capt Greenslade. After the veh had been unloaded I went with the driver to Capt Greenslade's room where we had two drinks of whisky with the a/m officer. After having the drinks I returned to the kitchen. Capt Greenslade was present at the time the veh arrived at the Club with the cases of soap and boots. I had expected because of what he told me, a delivery of soap only and upon seeing the boots I remarked "I thought the laod was to be only soap". Capt Greenslade replied "Probably Capt Dixon put them on. They are good for the business". As this was a normal expression of Capt Greenslade's in connection with normal business and everything about the Club, I thought nothing of the expression.

Accused declines to question the witness.

"A.C. Schonk"

Eighth Witness Prosecution — 163103 Cpl Haffert, Henry, C.G.R., Emmalaan 2, Amsterdam, having been duly sworn, states:

"One day during the early part of June 45 I was standing on one of the main streets in Den Haag, when a Canadian Lieut approached me and asked the direction to the Hotel Terminus. I now recognize Capt Greenslade, the accused, as this officer. As I was unemployed at this time I volunteered to direct the offr to the hotel. While on the way to the hotel I noticed that the offr was carrying a camera. I remarked that it was a very nice camera. The officer then told me that he had exchanged cigarettes for the camera, and pointed out the store where the exchange had taken place. I made an offer that I would exchange further cigarettes for wrist watches and cameras with other persons for him. I left the offr at the Hotel Terminus. Before leaving he told me his name was Ted and that I could contact him at the hotel the following week. I returned to the hotel several times to see the offr but was unable to contact him. I left my name and address at the hotel to be given to him as soon as he returned. During the third week of June 45, Capt Greenslade called at my home with a driver named Rocky. He asked me if I knew of any person willing to exchange a camera for cigarettes. I told him I did not know of any person at the time, but that it would not be difficult at the town square. We proceeded in the jeep to the square and a short time later the offr contacted a civilian with whom he exchanged approximately 800 cigarettes for a folding type camera. About one week later this offr returned to my home with the same driver. He stated that he would like to have a good wrist watch. I directed the offr to a civilian while the driver remained at the hotel. I called the civilian out of his house and I remained in the hallway. The civilian went to the car and talked to Capt Greenslade. Later at the hotel Capt Greenslade gave me 150 cigarettes and several chocolate bars, I presumed for arranging the transaction for the purchase of the watch.

About the first or second week of July 45 this offr came to my home and suggested I go to No. 4 Merwede Straat, Den Haag, as he had there a quantity of dress material he wanted to exchange for diamonds and brilliants. I went there that evening and a girl opened a door and we went into a private room where she showed me a large quantity of flowered dress material. I wrapped the material up and took it to my home. He returned two days later when I told him that I had been unable to arrange the exchange as he requested, but that I could arrange the sale of the material. He agreed to this and I sold the material to two parties for the total sum of 10,500 guilden, which I handed over to the officer three days later or thereabouts. Capt Greenslade gave me 600 guilden for arranging and completing this sale. Approx ten days later the offr returned to my home and stated that he had a quantity of gin for sale. He requested that I accompany him and arrange the sale of same. We got into the vehicle and I noticed a Sgt in the front seat. The offr drove the vehicle to a cafe located at Laan Van Meerdevort, Den Haag. I entered the cafe where I contacted the wife of the proprietor. This woman bought about 50 litres of Old Mab and Steinhager Gin for 600 guilden. I returned to the vehicle and turned the money over to the Sgt. On this same day we proceeded to the Cafe Aml Appim, Oude Molstraat, 26, where I sold 8 bottles of Advocaat and approx 12 bottles of Old Mab Gin. I received approximately 2500 guilden from the proprietor, which I handed over to the Sergeant. Capt. Greenslade then, I believe, instructed the Sgt. to give me 600 guilden as my percentage on both deals.

One evening towards the latter part of July 45 a civilian named Tony, who I had previously met with Capt. Greenslade came to my house with 200 white sheets. As a result of what he told me I sold the sheets to various civilians in town and two or three days later I gave Capt. Greenslade 6000 guilden, while I retained a profit of 450 guilden. In addition Capt. Greenslade handed me 400 guilden. A short time later Capt. Greenslade stated he had 500 more sheets for sale and would see me later. Two or three days later he returned to my home and stated that the case was over and he had nothing to deal with. This was done thru Tony as an interpreter.

Part of the flowered dress material I mentioned before I sold to a dressmaker's shop. I identify the piece produced (Exhibit "B") as part of this material and I accompanied Sgt Morris when he seized it on 26 Jan 46.

Sometime during June or July 45 I met Capt Greenslade at the Mari Bar in Den Haag. On this occasion he stated he had a Ford Car for sale, V8 model. Capt Greenslade asked me if I could sell this car for him for about 4000 or 5000 guilden. As a result of arrangements made by me Capt Greenslade some evenings later went to the Mari Bar and I went there also arriving shortly before half past ten. About half past ten an intended purchaser whose name I do not know, came in. Capt Greenslade was in one corner of the bar and the purchaser in another. The proprietor of the bar, the purchaser and I sat in one corner and discussed the purchase. The intended purchaser went out and I presume he looked at the car, which was standing in front of the hotel, then returned and paid 4000 guilders to the proprietor of the bar, whom I only know as "Frank". I was later paid 350 guilders by "Frans" and left the bar. I don't remember whether I talked to Capt Greenslade after the transaction."

The accused declines to question this witness.

Supplementary Statement

163103 Cpl Haffert, Henry, CGR, having been sworn, states further:

"As I had worked in Germany for 2½ years and had stolen some food and spent 3 weeks in the cells of the Hall of Justice in Hamburg, being released in mid-December 1944 and returning to work in Hamburg until May 1945 I was in a nervous state at the time of these events and I cannot remember exactly dates nor every word or everything I have done with Capt Greenslade exactly.

"H. Haffert"

Supplementary Statement

163103 Cpl Haffert, Henry, CGR, The Netherlands Army, having been sworn, states further:

"When I made my original statement my memory about the payment for the car was not clear. I now remember that Frans, Hillman and I were in the bar and other people. We discussed the transaction but I saw Capt Greenslade in the bar. I do not know whether Capt Greenslade was in the bar during the discussion but he did not enter into the discussion. As a result of our discussion Mr. Hillemase took out a bundle of guilders, I don't know whether it was four or five thousand guilders. I don't remember whether he placed them on the table or handed them to Frans. Frans counted the money and I was at the table. We rose and Mr. Hillemasr left the bar. I don't remember whether I went upstairs and I don't remember whether I saw the money paid to Capt Greenslade. I then left the bar and went home."

The accused declines to question the witness.

"H. Haffert"

Ninth Witness Prosecution — K52869 CSM Sharp J., 1 S.I.S., Cdn Provost Corps, having been duly sworn, states:

"About 20 Nov 45 I examined a large quantity of laundry soap, approximately 2000 lbs, and 190 pairs of brown leather ankle boots which appeared to be U.S. Army type at SIS HQ, Apeldoorn. About six weeks later when our section moved to Amsterdam this property was surrendered to No. 1 Cdn Turn-in Depot and a receipt was obtained. This receipt was produced as an exhibit in a previous case.

I later interviewed about 1 Dec 45, Mr. Vulker of Enschede at this town. As a result of what he told me I then interviewed a Miss Fina Mertens from whom I received several articles of jewelry, a white metal bracelet with seven large stones and several small stones mounted on it, (Exhibit C), a black pearl platinum ring (Exhibit D), one gold ring with a blue stone surrounded by small pearls, one pearl being loose from the ring (Exhibit E), one 10 guilder gold piece (Exhibit F), one "Eclipse" fountain pen (Exhibit G) and one gents gold stop watch with no face and loose back (Exhibit H). They have been continuously in my safekeeping ever since."

The accused declines to question the witness.

"J. Sharp"

Tenth Witness Prosecution — Mr. Frans Frederick Ruifrok, Nieuze Marie, Den Haag, having been duly sworn, states:

"I am an assistant at the Marie Bar in Den Haag. Five or six months ago an officer who I knew only as Captain Ted and who I now recognize as the accused stayed several times at the Marie Bar. One day Capt Ted through Harry acting as an interpreter, offered a car for sale to me. I now recognize Harry as Harry Haffert. They asked me if I knew someone who would buy the car. Three days later at about seven-thirty in the evening Harry & Capt Ted arrived at the bar and on this occasion they had the car with them. I saw the car and it was green in colour but I do not know whether it had any military markings on it.

At half-past ten a man named Hillenaae arrived at the bar. We had some conversation and Hillenaae paid five thousand guilders to Harry for the car in the bar. During this time Capt Ted was up in the room No. 1 of our hotel. Harry and I went upstairs and there Harry paid four thousand guilders to Capt Ted. Harry counted out the money on the table to Capt Ted and Capt Ted put the money into his pocket. Hillenaae was on his motorcycle so he asked me to drive the car to his garage which I did. I do not know definitely what date this took place but my wife made a notation of it at the time in my daily guest register. Harry retained five hundred guilders and I received five hundred guilders.

The accused declines to question the witness.

"F. Ruifrok"

Eleventh Witness Prosecution — Mr. J.C. Krul, Troelstraekade 429, den Haag, declares:

"In September 1945 I met a man named Haffert in company with a Canadian officer, Capt Greenslade, who had stayed at the Marie Bar several times.

About a fortnight after this meeting Haffert offered to sell me fifty white sheets in my bar. At first I did not accept the offer but a few days later I purchased forty of the sheets for 150 guilders and the sheets were delivered to the bar by Haffert.

About 26 Jan 46 I turned 25 of these same sheets over to Sgt Morris of the Cdn Army."

In my opinion the attendance of this witness cannot be readily procured due to expenses and loss of time involved. A written statement signed by him and reading as above has been read to the accused and is included in the Summary under RP (4)(G). The accused does not demand the attendance of this witness for cross-examination.

"E.C. Peckham" Major
Officer detailed to take the Summary.

Twelfth Witness Prosecution — Mr. Marin Zolowsky, Plaats 1, den Haag, declares:

"In May or June of 1945 I purchased a quantity of plain and flowered dress material, five rolls of about four metres each. I paid 750 guilders for this material. On 26 Jan 46 I was visited by a member of the Cdn SIS and the man from whom I bought the material, who was in the uniform of the Netherlands army, and I surrendered a small piece of the materials to the SIS investigator. The pieces surrendered consisted of two rolls."

In my opinion the attendance of this witness cannot be readily procured due to expenses and loss of time involved. A written statement signed by him and reading as above has been read to the accused and is included in the Summary under RP 4(G). The accused does not demand the attendance of this witness for cross-examination.

"E.C. Peckham" Major
Officer detailed to take the Summary.

Thirteenth Witness Prosecution — Mr. F.J. Hillenaar, Haagweg 84, Den Haag, declares:

"In June of 1945 I met a man named Harry in the street in Den Haag. During our conversation he stated he had a Ford V8 car for sale for which he wanted ten thousand guilders. We walked to the Marie Bar and I there saw the car, which was green in colour. I refused to buy the car at that time. This was about seven o'clock in the evening. Later in the evening Harry phoned me and as a result of what he said and I returned to the Marie Bar on my motorcycle. Harry & Frans the proprietor, were waiting outside the bar and we there arranged that I would buy the car for 5000 guilders. We stepped into the bar and I there paid Harry the money personally. I did not see a Canadian officer in the bar. I then left with my motorcycle. Frans drove the car to my garage alone. The motor number of the car I purchased was 74-BB647 and I later had it requesitioned by the Government. During the time I had the car I had it painted dark red."

In my opinion the attendance of this witness cannot be readily procured due to expenses and loss of time involved. A written statement signed by him and reading as above has been read to the accused and is included in the Summary under RP 4(G). The accused does not demand the attendance of this witness for cross-examination.

(E.C. Peckham) Major

Fourteenth Witness Prosecution — Miss Jean van Drongelen, Vossiusstraat 15, Amsterdam, having been duly sworn states:

"I consider that the oath I have just sworn is binding on my conscience.

I know Capt T.L.G. Greenslade whom I identify as the officer in this room and I first met him about the middle of August 1945 at the 100 Club in Apeldoorn. I went to live in the 100 Club where I was a guest of Capt Greenslade for a period of eight weeks, commencing about the 15th of August 1945. I left the 100 Club and returned to my residence in Amsterdam about the middle of October, a few days before Capt H.F. Dixon left for Italy on his leave. I did not pay anything for board or room and I do not know if anyone else paid for me. When I was at the Club I was there as a friend of Capt Dixon, rather than Capt Greenslade. I had met Capt Dixon about the end of June 1945 and it was through him that the arrangements were made for me to go to stay at the 100 Club. I was not employed there in any capacity.

From the time when I met Capt Dixon at the end of June 1945 down to the time when I went to stay at the 100 Club at Apeldoorn, Capt Dixon came to see me on the average of three times a week at my home in Amsterdam. It is my understanding that at that time Capt Dixon was residing in Apeldoorn. Later, when I went to live at the 100 Club, I saw Capt Dixon every day. After I left the 100 Club around the middle of October 1945 I saw Capt Dixon once in Amsterdam before he left for Italy around the 11th of October 1945. For 17 days after that I did not see him at all. I next saw Capt Dixon again about the end of October and from that time until he left for Canada at the end of November I saw him about three times a week at my home in Amsterdam. During the time when I was staying at the 100 Club in Apeldoorn, Capt Dixon and I drove into Amsterdam almost every Saturday afternoon in a jeep.

During the time that I was at Apeldoorn I had no business dealings with Capt Greenslade or Capt Dixon. On the 15th Nov 45 a birth-day party was held for Capt Dixon. The party started originally at the Villa d'Este Cafe at Amsterdam. At this party were Capt Dixon, Capt Greenslade, and another captain called "Douglas". I believe Douglas is his Christian name. The other people who were on this party were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wiemar; Mr. and Mrs. Dick Homberg, and their son, and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Kees Homberg. After the party at the Villa d'Este, we went to the house where I lived and the party was continued. There may have been other persons present there besides those I have listed during the first hour after we left the Villa d'Este, because I went upstairs to my room and had a sleep for about an hour, approximately.

As a general thing Capt Dixon did not discuss with me his work or business affairs, but on a Saturday night just about the time of his birthday, when he and I were having a drink in the Borderij Bar in Amsterdam, between 7 o'clock and 8o'clock in the evening, a man came into the bar and gave his name as "Joop Verhoeven".

He spoke to Capt Dixon and called him outside the bar. Capt Dixon went out of the bar with Verhoeven, and shortly afterwards returned alone and said to me "Excuse me, I must speak with Capt Greenslade". I had seen Greenslade in the bar earlier the same evening with two drivers, called "Rocky" and "Scotty". Capt Dixon returned and joined me in the bar, and a few minutes later Capt Greenslade came in and spoke to Capt Dixon, and said "I will go straight out to Apeldoorn, and I will fix it for you". Capt Greenslade left the bar and I only saw him once after that - in Apeldoorn, when I went out to the 100 Club to recover some shoes. After Capt Greenslade had left, I asked Capt Dixon if he had any troubles and he said "No, that is not women's business". I never herd any more about this incident.

On the occasions when Capt Dixon came to see me when I was living at my home in Amsterdam, we frequently visited the bars in the Liedscheplien, the Villa d'Este and the Borderij. I am sure that were at the Borderij bar at least five times. We also visited the officers de Groot club and the Park club.

The accused declines to question the witness.

Fifteenth Witness

STATEMENT OF: D-95792 Sgt TIMMONS, Norman, Andrews, No. 2 Section Catering Pool, RCASC. present location Oldenburg, Germany.

I consider that the oath that I have just taken is binding on my conscience.

I know Capt T L J Greenslade whom I identify as the officer in this room. As well as I can remember I met him at the De Groote Club in Amsterdam sometime in the summer of 1945 of which club I was the manager.

I know Capt H F Dixon, a Canadian Officer whom I identified yesterday and whom I met sometime in July or August 1945. I met him at the De Groote Club. I saw Capt Dixon at the De Groote Club several times but on each occasion when he spoke to me it had to do with reservations for evening meals at the Club.

Sometime during the month of June I became the military manager of the "Suisse" hotel and from the time I became the manager until the 9 November 1945 I had my personal sleeping quarters there. One day in late August 1945 Capt H F Dixon came to me at the De Groote Club and inquired if I was in a position to arrange for sleeping accommodation for him for the night in Amsterdam. I got in touch with the staff at the Suisse Hotel and arranged for him to have a room there. By reference to the hotel register of the Suisse hotel I can fix the date as the 27 August 1945.

When I had arranged with the Suisse hotel for the room I reported the result to Capt H F Dixon whom I directed to the Suisse hotel. Shortly after this Capt Dixon came to my room, number 23 at the Suisse hotel.

While he was there I introduced him to Mr. Maartin Vastenhouw whom I know as an agent for the sale of liquor, and whom I identified yesterday. This occurred sometime late in the afternoon. It is my recollection that Mr. Vastenhouw came to my room on that occasion for the purpose of discussing with me the possible sale of liquor to the Canadian Leave Centre.

First Witness (Recalled)

STATEMENT OF: B-27265 Sgt DERBY, Milton, Whitney, RCE

I consider that the oath that I have just taken is binding on my conscience.

In my previous statement in this Summary of Evidence I made the following statement: "At no time while I was looking after the stock at the "100 Club" did Capt Greenslade take liquor, wines, spirits etc., out of the club in any quantity. He did have authority for a bottle a day for entertainment but I know that this was used for entertainment.".

I now wish to correct this statement by referring to one incident. The incident I wish to refer to is as follows: One Morning during the first half of July 1945 Capt Greenslade came to me at the "100 Club" and told me to put four cases of "Old Mab"gin, two cases of"Steinhagger" and two cases of Avocaat into the HUP. I inquired from Capt Greenslade what it was for and he stated that it was for one of the messes. I gave orders to the civilian staff to load this liquor into the HUP and I requested Capt Greenslade touring back the receipt for it. Capt Greenslade told me when he gave me the order that the arrangement was that the other club to which the liquor was to be delivered would pay at the rate of the bar price of the liquor at the "100 Club" which at that time was 13 Guilders a bottle for "Old Mab" gin, 10 Guilders a bottle for "Steinhagger" and 8 Guilders a bottle for Avocaat. Later the same day Capt Greenslade paid me the money for this liquor at the bar prices, but at first he did not give me the receipt.

Sometime later the same night he handed me a receipt covering the liquor signed by some S/Sgt. I had no further transactions of this character with Capt Greenslade. All other transactions of this nature of transferring liquor from one mess to another were made at NAAFI prices for the goods.

Sixteenth Witness

STATEMENT OF: M-17014 Pte PEPIN Jeanne Baptiste, commonly known as "Rocky".

I consider that the oath that I have just taken is binding on my conscience.

I know Lieut T L J Greenslade whom I identify as the officer present. I first worked for him as batman and part time as driver. I went to work for him in January 1945 and continued with him until sometime in April 1945 during which time he was manager of the "100 Club" at Tilburg. I went to another unit at that time and later returned and performed the same duties for Lieut Greenslade at Enschede sometime in June 1945 and continued in that capacity at Apeldoorn down to the time that the Club was wound up in November 1945. During the time I drove for Lieut Greenslade at Apeldoorn I drove an Austin, a HUP, and later there was a jeep. In September or October there was an army staff car as well.

Sometime in July or August 1945 I went with Frank Van Royen the head waiter at the "100Club" to the ADOS dump in Apeldoorn in the HUP where we picked up a load of blankets and sheets. I think there was about 50 of each I do not know what was done with these but it was my understanding that he was to distribute them to the staff and I received two of these sheets shortly afterwards. The sheets I received were the same kind that were shown to me this morning.

On two or three occasions after this Frank Van Royen went to the Army Service Corps platoon and got a truck to go for some more sheets and blankets. I have seen him on one or two occasions unload two or three armloads of sheets and I think he took them down to his room.

Later, around the month of September 1945, I again drove Frank Van Royen down to the ADOS dump where we drew a further load of blankets and sheets, about the same size as the first load, which were taken to the "100 Club".

She was manager of the Golden Swan Hotel at Tilburg during the summer of 1945.

One evening a Dutch woman came to the hotel with a sample of a bed-sheet and offered to sell a quantity of sh eets of the same kind. Some negotiations followed and then she agreed to purchase one hundred sheets. The price was either 27 fl or 25 fl each.

The Dutch woman went away and returned in a few minutes with a Dutch man who carried the sheets into the hotel.

When the sheets had been delivered the witness paid to the Dutch woman the purchase price.

The witness used this material to make clothing for her children pillow slips and sheets for the hotel and will identify one price of material purchased from the Dutch woman.

ABSTRACT OF THE EVIDENCE

OF

Leonardus Cornelius BERNAARDS

19 Bachstraat, Tilburg

who will say:-

He was employed as cook and later as waiter at the "100 Club" from March 1945 until November 1945 during all of which time Capt T L J Greenslade was club manager and Miss Fine Martins was his secretary and interpreter.

Sometime in the latter part of July 1945 he asked permission to go to Tilburg to visit his family which was granted and he went in an NUP with Miss Fine Martins and Pte "Rocky" Pepin.

Before starting out Capt Greenslade ordered him to assist in loading 500 bed sheets into the NUP. These were obtained from Capt Greenslade's bed-room where there were large piles of such sheets in bundles of ten.

On arriving in Tilburg Miss Martins directed the driver to the Golden Swan Hotel near the home of the witness. Miss Martins went into the hotel and after a few minutes returned and directed the witness to carry 100 sheets into the hotel from the NUP. This was done and they were delivered to Mrs Cornelia van Stiphout.

During the negotiations between Miss Martins and Mrs van Stiphout the witness heard the price of 27 fl per sheet mentioned and saw Mrs van Stiphout pay to Miss Martins a large sum of money.

These bed sheets were the same kind as were supplied for the use of the civilian staff at the "100" Club.

On one occasion during the latter part of the time the "100" Club was at Apeldoorn the witness saw a pile of twenty heavy cardboard carton boxes just outside the bedroom of Capt T L J Greenslade. These boxes were uniform size 1 metre by 40 cm by 40 cm.

He examined the contents of one of the boxes and found it to contain heavy dark brown boots with thick soles. He did not see these boxes again although he saw Tony Behonk the head cook at the "100" Club wearing a pair of these kind of boot sometime later.

OF

Miss Fine Mertens

161 Sarphatistraat, Amsterdan.

She was employed by Capt T L J Greenslade as interpreter at the "100" Club from 24 Apr 45 until the end of November 1945 and was put on the staff pay roll.

During the latter part of May 1945 she acted as interpreter in a deal between Capt Greenslade and a civilian by the name of VULKER in which the civilian sold a lady's platinum ring with a large diamond for a German piano, 120 bottles of Avocaat and 40 bottles of cognac.

When the "100" Club moved from Enschede to Apeldoorn she went with it and continued as interpreter secretary for Capt Greenslade.

One day during July 1945 she accompanied Capt Greenslade to The Hague in a staff car which was followed by the NSF used for the Club. Greenslade indicated that he knew "the king of the Black Market" in The Hague who was going to sell the staff car for him. He then drove to the home of a civilian named HAFFMET who was not at home. A message was left for HAFFMET to come to the Marie Bar in The Hague.

Some time later the same day HAFFMET arrived at the Marie Bar and it was arranged that HAFFMET would endeavour to find a buyer for the car. Later the same evening Greenslade told her that he had received 4000 fl for the car.

Sometime in October, Vulker came to the "100" Club and wanted to sell a ladies diamond bracelet - the price was to be 2000 fl. The witness acted as interpreter. A deal was finally arranged by which Greenslade agreed to give a bicycle and 60 bottles of liquor. The bicycle was delivered but witness does not know if the liquor was delivered.

The witness also acted as interpreter in a further deal between Greenslade and Vulker in which Vulker agreed to buy 1000 kilograms of soap for two guilden per kilo.

PLEA FOR MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT
BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER.

The accused No K53062, Pte. GREENWELL, E.A., enlisted in Jan 1940 at the age of 21 and came overseas in July of the same year. He had just been through a period in Canadian affairs, in fact world affairs, when conditions were exceedingly unsettled and opportunities for employment were few and far between. The conditions existing at that time are too well known to the memories of this court for me to dwell further on them other than to emphasize that their influence almost created an upheaval in the social strata. This tended to create a feeling of restlessness and uncertainity particularly among the younger generation, one of whom you now see before you in the person of the accused.

Pte G has served 16 days in detention and/or undergoing FP on 12 charges of AWL, during a period of 4½ yrs of Army life, approximately 6 mths of which time he was with his FU. This is undoubtedly not a record to be proud of but I believe that the evidence that has been produced before this court has shown that it has been due to the unbalanced condition of the accused and his total lack of responsibility. However there is one obvious conclusion which I think this court must draw and that is that disciplinary action has no effect on the accused.

On April 27 1944, Pte G was given a medical category of S- 5 which I submit on the evidence and his record, he should have received several years ago. At this point I would like to point out to the court that according to his MFM 4 and MFM 6 all the charges on which he has been convicted with the exception of ~~one~~ 3 minor offenses have been under Sec 15(1) of the A.A., which is an Army crime only. In other words the accused is only a criminal in the army sense and I feel that the crimes of which he has been convicted and for which he shs paid the penalty are not due to a wilful desire to disregard army discipline but are a direct result of his mental instability and total lack of a sense of responsibility which have been engendered to a large extent by the years immediately preceeding his enlistment. This is I think brought out in the SPOs report which I have submitted as appendix (E).

I would now like to draw the attention of this court to the fact that Pte G has only been married for 2 yrs. Those members of this court who are married will agree with me when I say that the 1st few years of married life are the most important and that those years decide it's success or failure and that aprolonged absence during that period might have serious effects not only on him but upon his wife in their future relationship.

The charge on which the accused is now before you has arisen as a direct result of his married life. On 24 Jun Pte G received a letter from his mother-in-law to the effect that the plant in which his wife worked had been bombed and that she (his wife) was suffering from shock. He naturally wanted to rush down to look after her welfare but did not feel that he would be granted permission as he had only just returned from a 48 hr compassionate leave. He had secured this leave in order that he interview the labour exchange in regard to his employment in this country in the event of his obtaining his discharge over here. On the 26th June as brought out in thesummary of evidxnce he was dispatched to 2 Cdn Medical Centre at Leeds. On arriving at the LMS station at Sheffield and while awaiting a train to Leeds he dxcided that he must personally satisfy himself as to his wife's conditionand as the London train left from the same platform he caught it and proceeded to London. According to him he gave no thought to the fact that he was AWL and even neglected to mention the fact to his wife. It is hard to imagine a individual with such a mentality that he would apparently completely disregard this fact, and yet, in this case, I submit, on the evidence it is comprehensible.

Eventually he decided he would report to 2 Can Medical Centre but was packed upby the M.P., at the train L.M.S. station, Sheffield awaiting a train to Leeds.
I should not think that there can be any doubt in the minds of the members of this court as to the mental lack of stability and total irresponsibility of the accused. I submit that the opinion of the SPO, as brought out in evidence, which you may consider is to some extent theoretical, has been more than substantiated practically by the evidence of CSM McIntyre, from his own personal knowledge of the accused. If any additional corroboration is necessary the record of the accused should be more than sufficient.

I nowwant to deal for a moment on the question of punishment. Inflicting punishment for crime began in the beginning of creation. It's object was to protect society in two ways, (1) by acting as a deterrent against a repetition of the offense and (2) as an example to other potential wrongdoers. In the case of Pte G I submit that in his condition the 1st objective will not be obtained as continual periods of AWL have clearly shown that punishment has no effect upon him. The 2nd objective I feel is wholly unnecessary as without his there are quite sufficient cases to act as examples to maintain army discipline.

I have just referred to crimes against society in general, I now wish to refer to purely Army crimes, on one of which the accused is now before you. The basic reason underlying the awarding of punishment in the army is primarily to enforce discipline and produce as a result a good soldier. I submit that on the evidence in this case, punishment is futile. ------See (1) below ---- (1)

In view of the plea of guilty by the accused this court has only two alternatives. Either to inflict a severe punishment sentence which will undoubtedly have a prejudicial effect upon the accused or having regard to the fact that he has already spent 17 days under close arrest and bearing in mind the evidence which has been submitted award a nominal punishment and give him an early opportunity, to which I believe he is entitled, of returning to civilian life and his wife, where I feel sure with his ability and her steadying influence he will become a credit to society.

In conclusion may I request that this court adds a ryder to it's verdict to the effect that it's proceedings be forwarded to the senior officer administration officer at CMHQ for review in the hope that some steps may be initiated to prevent or curtail the ever increasing occurrences of army and civil crimes committed by personnel ofsimiliar Pulhems grading to the accused.

(1) I want at this point to draw the attention of the court to one fact in particulsr. That is, that as brought out in evidence there has been a material and radical change in the form of the medical certificate necessary before an accused with an S-5 category may be tried by FGCM. Although the witness for the defence Capt STEVENSON refused to admit that a soldier with such a category would be liable to suffer from a lengthy period of detention, I submit that it should be fairly obvious from his remarks or lack of remarks both in his direct examination and in his cross examination by the prosecutor, that it is felt by higher authority that a lengthy term of detention would be prejudicial to a soldier with such a category.
I believe it is reasonable to assume that the amendment to the medical certificate was issued to act as a guide to members of Courts Martial in awarding sentence, as a soldier with an S-5 category is not capable of doing the same type of punishment as one with an "A" category.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of No. K-53062 Pte. Greenwell, E.A., Seaforth Highlanders of Canada, on the strength of No. 1 Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer this Summary of Evidence is taken on oath:

FIRST WITNESS for the PROSECUTION

K-53653 Cpl Smith G., Seaforth Highlanders of Canada, on the strength of No. 1 Cdn. Inf. Reinf. Unit, a soldier of the Cdn. Army Overseas, having been duly sworn states:
I am K-53653 Cpl Smith G., on the strength of No. 1 Cdn. Inf. Reinf. Unit and employed in the First Aid Post of 1 C.I.R.U. On the 26th Jun 44 at 1000 hours I gave Pte. Greenwell whom I now recognize a railway warrant to Leeds and a 292 which is the admission form to No. 2 Cdn. Medical Centre. If Greenwell had reported to No. 2 C.M.C. he would have been kept for 48 hours, if not admitted as a patient. If he were admitted as a patient, the F.AP. at this Unit would be notified within 4 days. So that within four days, Greenwell should have reported back to the FAP at this Unit or the F.A.P. should have been notified that he was a patient at No. 2 C.M.C. Pte Greenwell did not report back to the F.A.P. The F.A.P. was not notified that he was being kept at No. 2 C.M.C. as a patient.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

O.C.,
"A" Wing, 1 CIRU

K.53062 Pte Greenwell, E.A.

Born in Victoria, B.C. 24 Aug 19, is the oldest in a family of 5 - 1 brother and 3 sisters. According to subject parents were in good health until just recently. The last letter from home mentioned his father's failing health but indicated no reason.

Attended city school in Victoria and completed Grade 8. Attended High School one year but did not try exams. Started school at age 7 and left age 17.

Immediately on leaving school subject's first job was that of personal chauffeur for Capt. Troop, a retired naval officer. He remained on this job for a year -1936- and then became employed in a logging mill as a grader for 18 months, following which he worked at a sawmill on edging saw. He remained at this latter employment for 6 months when he accepted employment as driver with B.C. Rfg. Co. where he was employed for 1 year to enlistment.

Subject enlisted 15 Jan 40. Basic Trg completed in Toronto and Adv Trg completed C/S. Arrived C/S Jul 40. Is a qualified Dvr IC (W) Cl III. Arrived C/S as a rft for Seaforth Highs and remained with that regt with the exception of 8 mos 1941-2 during which time he was employed as batman driver in the Provost Corps. During this latter period subject had one minor crime for making an unauthorized trip in an Army vehicle.

Subject has had a series of major crimes during his period in the service. First crime in 1940 AWL 23 days and most recent in Apr 43 AWL 16 days.

Subject is a young man of average height and weight with above average intelligence and learning ability. Family relations on a good level, states he got along well at school. Between time of leaving school and enlistment employed in 4 different occupations. States he was never dismissed from a job. Worked for a period, got fed up and quit.

Was married 25 Jul 42, no children. Wife persently employed with Atlas Lamp Coy, North London, manufacturers of electrical appliances for planes. States he is very fond of his wife and that the feeling is mutual. Is on exeellent terms with his in-laws.

When questioned regarding the present charge he states that he had received from his mother-in-law a letter advising that the plant where his wife is employed was hit by a flying bomb causing considerable damage. The following day he was en route to hospital for a spinal test when he decided he would return home and see his wife. This he states was due to his troubled frame of mind since learning ofthe accident. On his return home he states he gave no thought to the possible consequences of his being AWL nor was it ever mentioned by his wife. This, I take it, is further evidence of his inherent instability.

Subject's civilian work history, changing from job to job, would indicate some instability. This, however, is not unusual in young men starting out in the world who are not qualified tradesmen. He has no civilian crimes. It is quite possible that, with the influence of his wife and home environment, subject might settle down and become a responsible citizen. His record in the Army would indicate that this instability has been continually present amd is not a result of his marriage two yesrs ago. According to subject his wife's family are in the brick laying business and can provide him with employment as soon as he is available.

In the opinion of this SPO subject has never properly adjusted to army life and it is very doubtful if a further sentence at this time would help toward his rehabilitation in civilian life. Rather it would most probably have a detrimental effect. It is strictly a case of deciding whether or not he is worth salvaging for civilian life as his S5 would indicate his total unsuitability for the Army. I believe he is worth salvaging.

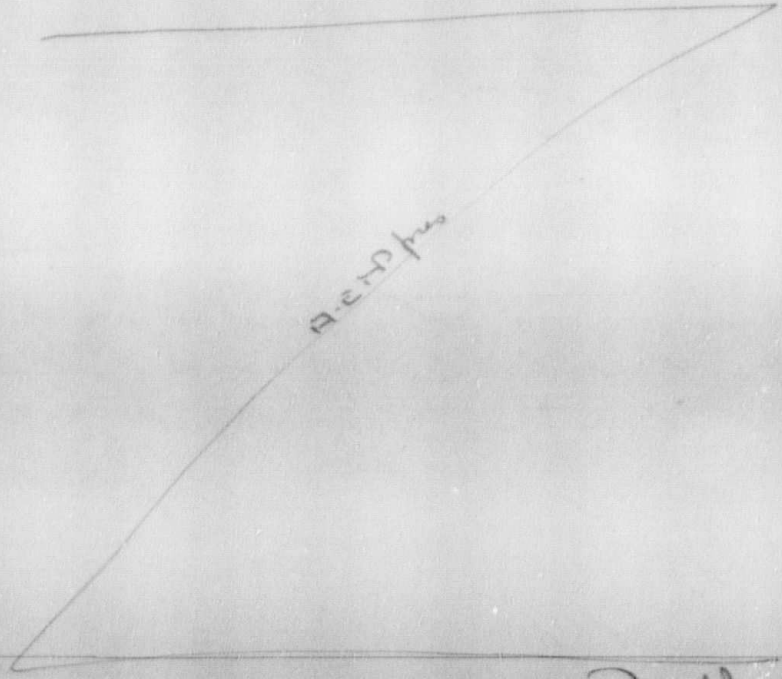
Closing Remarks by Defending Officer

The accused and his brother enlisted together on 19 Jan. 40 They are determined to go into action together. The accused is not afraid to fight or die for his country. It was signs of action that brought him back.

I was speaking to his brother this morning and during our conversation he began to cry. He can not see himself going into action without his older brother.

The accused got married in July 42 and is very devoted to his wife. The fact that his wife has been sick was the cause for him going A.W.L.



The day before he returned he met a friend of his from the P.P.C.L.I. in London. From information received from his friend the accused felt that action was at last coming. He therefore immediately returned to his unit.

Gentleman of the board I strongly ask you to give due consideration to above remarks so that the two brothers can be together when the day of action comes.

2. Proceedings were forwarded to CMHQ for consideration prior to confirmation, and conclusions thereon have now been received.

3. It is the opinion of the A.J.A.G. at C.M.H.Q. that there was no evidence before the court to prove that the sugar and tea referred to in the second charge were public property or that there was any impropriety about the possession thereof by the accused. The DJAG considers, however, that there was sufficient evidence before the Court with respect to the jam referred to in the said charge.

4. Under instructions of the Major General in Charge of Administration, the Court is directed to reassemble and enter a special finding that the accused was Guilty of the second charge except that he was not improperly in possession of the sugar and tea, the said articles to be specified in the manner shown in the charge. This procedure is done by virtue of A.A. 84 and R.I. 81 and it should be noted that the Court will have to impose a new sentence.

THE PROSECUTOR MAKES AN OPENING ADDRESS:

Mr. President:

The circumstances of this case are Sir, that on the night of 3 Oct. 43 the accused is said to have received stolen property - rations - the same night that the theft took place in the reserve ration stores at No. 7 Coy. It will be shown that the accused paid another soldier a sum of money for the rations. It will also be shown that the accused received money from a civilian for which he gave him some sugar and told him to "keep it out of sight."

It will be shown too that the civilian police searched the home of the accused and found rations - public property - there and these rations will be identified in this Court as the goods taken from the Reserve Ration Store Room at No. 7 Coy. C.P.C.

I now call on the first witness for the prosecution -

First witness for The Prosecution:

Detective-Sergeant Urquhart, age 40 years, Inverness Constabulary, stationed at the Castle, Inverness, being duly sworn, states:

Q. Do you recognise the accused?

A. Yes. (witness identifies accused).

Q. Do you recall investigating a case in October at No. 7 Coy., C.P.U. in which the accused was concerned?

A. Yes.

Q. Tell the Court about this investigation as far as it relates to the accused?

A. On Thursday, 7 Oct. 43, along with another constable, I proceeded to No. 7 Coy. camp and made inquiries in connection with the theft of rations from the reserve ration stores. In the course of the inquiry we learned that there was a strong suspicion of a man, Mr. Archibald MacDonald, crofter and railway man, East Hill, Culloden, may be in possession of some stolen property. We went to MacDonald's house, saw him and told him the purpose of our visit. He denied all knowledge of connection with the theft but had no objection to a search being made of his house and premises. In carrying out the search I found in the bottom of a swill tin in his motor car, six 2 lb tins of Green Gage Jam. He said that he got the tins from Mrs. Greenwood, wife of the accused, on Tuesday 5th Oct. when she was leaving for Inverness. On being further questioned he led us to believe that he suspected two people at the camp as being connected with the theft.

On the strength of this we went to a house at 6, Glenurquhart Road, Inverness. We saw the accused, Sgt. Greenwood, about 11 o'clock that night - he was just leaving to catch the 11.30 train from Inverness back to camp. We told him the purpose of our visit and that we had reason to believe that some stolen property was in his house. He said that he had no objection to a search being made and then he left the house. In the course of our search, we found in a cupboard in the kitchen tin boxes, containing approximately 8½ lbs. sugar, a khaki coloured box containing 7½ lbs. of tea. In the sideboard I found 22 two lb. tins of Green Gage Jam. Mrs. Greenwood was cautioned and asked how she came to have this property. She stated that the jam was brought to the house one night in the previous week by her husband. We took possession of the property and brought it to our H.Q..

Q. I'm showing you Sgt. Urquhart, 3 cases; look at them and see if you can identify them?

A. This first tin is the one which contained sugar and was taken from the accused's house at Glenurquhart Rd. It contained about 8½ lbs. of sugar.

Q. And this one?

A. This was the tin found containing approximately 7½ lbs. of tea.

Q. And this case?

A. This contains the 22 two lb. tins of jam found at the accused's house at Glenurquhart Rd.

Q. Do you identify all this as the property found in the house of the accused?

A. Yes, I do.

First Witness for the Prosecution: (continued)

Q. What day was that?

A. It was on the 7th of October.

Q. How long before that did the alleged theft take place?

A. On Sunday 3 Oct. - 4 days.

Q. Can you describe the demeanour of the accused on 7 Oct.?

A. We just met the accused at the door of his house - he was on his way to catch a train back to camp.

Q. Did he appear to have any knowledge of stolen property?

A. He didn't say so.

Q. Did he convey anything to you in this connection?

A. No, he was on his way to catch a train.

Q. Did you spend some time around No. 7 Coy. camp investigating the case?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you find that it was common knowledge in the camp that you were making an investigation?

A. Yes.

Cross-examined by Defending Officer:

Q. In the early part of your statement you say that six 2 lb. tins of jam were found in a swill tin?

A. Yes.

Q. Was there anything to indicate that these tins could not have been bought in a store?

A. I've never seen that type of a tin in a Grocer's store.

Q. You make the statement that Sgt. Greenwood made no objection to his house being entered and searched?

A. Yes.

Q. It certainly did not appear then that he was trying to conceal anything?

A. No.

Q. Was there anything to indicate that the box containing the sugar came from No. 7 Coy.'s reserve ration stores?

A. Only that it was the same type of tin as those stolen.

Q. The tin was not concealed in any way?

A. No.

Q. The 22 tins of jam were found piled on a shelf on the sideboard?

A. Yes.

Q. They were not concealed in any way?

A. No.

Cross-examined by Defending Officer: (continued)

Q. You state that Mrs. Greenwood said she had received the jam from her husband?

A. She said her husband had brought the jam in a box to her house one night the previous week. Tuesday, I believe.

Q. And the theft took place on Sunday the 3 Oct.?

A. Yes.

Q. Will you please tell the Court the condition you found Mrs. Greenwood in on 7 Oct.?

A. A bit upset.

Q. Why was she upset?

A. It was quite natural for her to be upset when we conducted a search of her house.

Q. Anything else?

A. Yes, she was in a certain condition.

Questioned by the President:

Q. Sgt. Urquhart, tell the Court what the ration of jam for civilians is?

A. I don't know.

Q. Haven't you any idea?

A. I'm afraid I can't tell you - it varies - I leave that to my wife.

Q. Would it be possible for a household - say Greenwood's - to be legally in possession of 44 lbs. of jam?

A. It would be unusual.

The witness withdrew.

Second Witness for the Prosecution:

K.99116 C/S Rigbey, R., Reinforcement Section, C.W.C., formerly of No. 7 Coy. C.W.C., being duly sworn, states:

Q. What were your duties at No. 7 Coy. C.W.C.?

Q. What dates?

A. From about 18 July, as far as I remember.

Q. Was you C/S of 7 Coy. on the 3 Oct?

A. Yes.

Q. Do you recognise the accused?

A. Yes. (witness identifies accused).

Q. This list was compiled by whom?

A. This list was compiled by me as the rations which were kept at all times in the store room.

Q. There are prices listed on this sheet - from whom did you obtain these prices?

A. These prices were obtained from the Officer i/c Supply Depot, R.A.S.C., Inverness.

Q. Why did you go to the R.A.S.C. to get these prices?

A. Because these rations had been issued by them.

Q. These rations belonged to whom?

A. These rations were public property on charge to No. 7 Coy.

Q. Does this list include sugar, tea and green gage jam?

A. Yes.

The List shown to Witness is marked exhibit "B" signed by the President & attached to the Proceedings.

Q. On or about 4th Oct. what did you discover in regard to these rations?

A. The reserve ration store room had been broken into.

Q. What was the condition of the store room?

A. The outer door which was kept locked at all times was unlocked and the padlock missing. The inner door which was at all times locked was ajar.

Q. Having observed the condition of the store room and rations, what was your conclusion?

A. I came to the conclusion that the store room had been burglared.

Q. Was it common knowledge at 7 Coy. camp that a theft had taken place?

A. After that date, I discovered it was common knowledge.

Q. I show you another form (Prosecutor hands witness a form) what is it?

A. This is the monthly return sheet, copy of which would be sent to the Officer i/c Supply Depot, R.A.S.C., Inverness. THE EXAMINATION IS CLOSED.

The Defending Officer makes a motion for dismissal of the charges:

Mr. President and Members of the Court:

I refer to R.R. 40 note 1 and the charge sheet, and respectfully submit that from the evidence that has been presented, the property which was taken from the home or premises where Mrs. Greenwood lived on Sunday 7 Oct. 43, has not been identified as public property.

The sugar and tea are of the same quality that may be found in any home. The tins which could be associated with a military camp are handy tins to have around a house and Sgt. Greenwood no doubt took these home from the camp for his wife to use. The jam was found in 2 lb. tins, the type of tin a soldier is not likely to see in Company rations, as the regular jam ration is issued in 7 lb. tins. They are of the type to be found in most any grocery store. I contend then, Sir, that the goods have not been proved to be public property.

I submit too that no evidence has been produced before the Court to prove that Sgt. Greenwood had knowledge of their being stolen.

The same holds on the second charge. If value was received for value there can be no question of improper possession and again what proof is there that these goods were part of No. 7 Coy.'s rations.

From the evidence brought before the Court, I would submit that the prosecution has not made out a prima facie case and accordingly ask for a dismissal of the charges.

THE COURT IS CLOSED FOR CONSIDERATION OF THE FINDING.

THE COURT RE-OPENS.

By President to Defending Officer:

The Court has carefully considered the motion for dismissal, but is of the opinion that the prosecution has made out a prima facie case and accordingly the motion has been denied.

First Witness for the Defence:

K.99014 Sgt. Greenwood, J.G., Reinforcement Section, C.F.C., formerly No. 7 Coy. C.F.C., having been duly sworn, states:

Q. Sgt. Greenwood, you are accused of having stolen rations from No. 7 Coy. camp. This public property - 8 ¼ lbs. of sugar, 7½ lbs. of tea and 22 two lb. tins of jam - was it taken by Detective-Sgt. Urquhart from your house when it was searched?

A. Yes.

Q. Insofar as the canisters containing the tea and sugar are concerned, how long did you have these canisters?

A. The one with the tea and the one with the sugar I had taken home some time before the theft for the wife to put stuff in.

Q. Did you receive any goods from Pte. Stevenson?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you pay Pte. Stevenson for them?

A. Yes.

Q. Was there anything about the goods to indicate that they were stolen?

A. No.

Q. Look at these tins of jam - did your wife purchase tins similar to these from the grocery store?

A. Yes.

Q. Did Pte. Stephenson indicate to you where they came from?

A. No.

Q. Did he suggest to you where they came from?

A. The Camp was breaking up and I figured the rations were from the boys' supplies they had of their own. I was in the canteen getting some soap and Stephenson asked me if I had any money. I was digging around in my pocket and I pulled out a 10/- note and some silver. He asked me if I wanted a few extra rations for the wife and said they were some the boys had lying around. I asked him what he wanted for them and he said whatever I had. I gave him the money I had in my hand. We went outside and he gave me a gunny sack. I didn't know what was in it.

Q. Where were you staying?

A. At MacDonald's home.

Q. It is not far from camp?

A. No.

Q. Did you leave MacDonald's on Monday?

A. Yes. I had arranged with Major Clarke for the day off and I was all packed ready to move.

Q. When did you open the sack?

A. When I took it home I threw the sack in with a lot of packing cases which were moved into town. I didn't open the sack until I got into town. We moved everything into town but a suitcase.

First Witness for The Defence

Q. When did you return to camp?

A. Monday night.

Q. Did you spend that night there?

A. No, the wife was still staying at MacDonald's.

Q. Then the story goes - you went to MacDonald's on Sunday night, you stayed there for the night and on Monday you moved most of your belongings to Inverness but your wife did not accompany you?

A. Yes.

Q. When did your wife move from MacDonald's?

A. Tuesday.

Q. Then it would be Tuesday morning before you opened for mail?

A. Tuesday night.

Q. What ration cards were held by your wife?

A. Her card, one for the baby and a special card from the Doctor for the ~~expectant~~ baby.

MR. [illegible]

Q. Will you tell the Court the condition of your wife at this time?

A. My wife was not in very good condition and in a very short time she was to be confined. A few days afterwards she went to the hospital.

Q. When was the baby born?

A. I think it was about 15th of the month.

Q. From the gist of your remarks it would appear that Pte. Stephenson offered you some extra rations which you believe he had gathered from the boys in the camp and which you as a married man was pleased to get, and that these rations were subsequently found by Detective-Sgt. Urquhart when he searched your house.

A. Yes.

Q. Had you any reason to question Pte. Stephenson in regard to where he obtained the rations?

A. No. I knew Stephenson well and had always found him to be a good man. He was a carpenter in the Coy. and well liked.

Q. You wouldn't have any reason to suspect him when he offered you the goods?

A. No.

Q. When were you first aware of the theft of reserve rations from No. 7 Coy. camp?

A. Tuesday night.

Q. Was there any reason why you should suspect that the goods you had received from Pte. Stephenson had been stolen from the reserve rations?

A. No, I didn't know that jam was put up in this type of tin for the men.

First Witness for The Defence: (Continued)

Cross-examined by The Prosecutor:

Q. You became aware of the theft of rations on Tuesday 5th?

A. Yes.

Q. You still had the rations on the 8th?

A. Yes.

Q. Were you aware you were harbouring stolen rations?

A. No.

Q. Pte. Stephenson came to you and was in need of money?

A. Yes.

Q. He was broke?

A. Yes, I believe he was at that time.

Q. Did you ever see a tin like this in a grocery store? (Prosecutor holds up tin of jam, Exhibit "A").

A. I've never given it a serious thought.

Q. Did Pte. Stephenson ask you for money?

A. Yes.

Q. Is Pte. Stephenson a carpenter?

A. Yes.

Q. Do you normally buy groceries from a carpenter?

A. No.

Q. Did you really believe it to be his property?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you know what the sack contained when you bought it?

A. No.

Q. You bought a sort of "pig in the poke"?

A. Yes.

Q. You gave him 15/- ?

A. Yes, I think it was about that much.

Q. You mean to say you gave good money for a gunny sack when you didn't even know what was in the sack?

A. I'd known Pte. Stephenson ever since I'd been over here and he often made various things for me such as a high-chair for the baby. I always paid him for these jobs and I knew him to be a square fellow.

Q. But was your susspicions not aroused when he asked you to buy groceries?

A. No.

Cross-examined by The Prosecutor: (continued)

Q. You thought they were surplus goods?

A. Yes.

Q. What did Pte. Stephenson say they were?

A. Some "overs" in the camp.

Q. Do you want to tell the Court that rations are for sale when surplus?

A. No.

Q. Why didn't you go to the Q.M. Stores to buy the goods?

A. I thought the boys bought the goods from the NAAFI and they were left overs.

Q. Did you ever see a tin like this in the NAAFI? (Prosecutor holds up tin of jam Exhibit "A".)

A. Yes.

Q. The fact is that you found out on Tuesday 5th Oct. of the theft and you still had the rations on the 6th Oct.

A. Yes, but when I heard about it I thought it was in connection with another incident in which a pig was concerned and which was taking the attention at that time.

Questioned by the President:

Q. Have you ever bought any quantity of sugar at the canteen?

A. Maybe about 6 lbs. from the canteen.

Q. Have you ever bought jam from the canteen?

A. No.

Q. When Pte. Stephenson said the goods were "overs" what did you think he meant?

A. Every hut in the camp practically had some rations of jam, tea and bread of their own and the boys had a sort of "nagging-up" at nights. It would be easy for them to have some surplus rations at that time as the Company was breaking up.

Q. Did you as a Sgt. not know you couldn't purchase rations?

A. Yes.

Q. You hear on Tuesday that the reserve ration store room was broken into. Did it not occur to you that some of the food you bought might be from there?

A. No, because there was another affair regarding a pig and rations and I thought it was this. It was taking the attention at that moment.

Q. Did you send for MacDonald on Sunday night?

A. I sent for MacDonald but not in connection with rations.

Q. What did you send for him for?

A. To make another deal with a pig.

Questioned by the President: (continued)

Q. Did you not send Pte. MacCrae to tell MacDonald you had 50 lbs. of sugar for him?

A. No, it was nothing about sugar.

The [illegible] is CLOSED.

The Prosecutor makes a closing address:

Mr. President:

To briefly deal with the charges against the accused I respectfully submit that -

Evidence has shown that rations were obtained by Sgt. Greenwood and were found in the house in which Sgt. Greenwood's wife resided. It is logical to assume that these rations were from the reserve ration stores at No. 7 Coy. Canadian Forestry Corps.

It is a remarkable coinsidence that the theft of the reserve rations at No. 7 Coy. should take place on 3rd Oct. and that a quantity of rations were found in the accused's home a few days later. The accused must have heard of the theft and it is surprising that he did not report that he had received a quantity of rations from another soldier at that time.

By the admission of the reluctant witness Mr. MacDonald we learn that he picked up rations at No. 7 Coy. on 3 Oct. 43 after receiving a message from Sgt. Greenwood to come to the camp. Pte. MacCrae who delivered the message has stated that the message concerned about 50 lbs. of sugar.

Mr. MacDonald himself, after a great deal of prodding, stated that when he picked up the 3 tins at No. 7 Coy. and put them in his car the accused, Sgt. Greenwood, told him to "put it out of sight."

Whether the accused knows the goods were stolen or not is something we don't know. Only the accused himself knows this, and the circumstances show that he should know. MacDonald states that the accused told him to "keep it out of sight". The whole thing is referred to as a "deal". Why Greenwood would pay good money for a gunny sack when he didn't even know what was in it and didn't even open it until a day later is beyond me.

Detective Sg. Urquhart in his evidence states that he found the goods in the accused's house and has identified them here in Court to-day. These have been identified by CQMS Rigbey who was CQMS at No. 7 Coy. on 3 Oct. as the goods taken from No. 7 Coy. The accused himself admits having them in his possession.

On the alternative charge I need not dwell for I feel sure that he is quite guilty of the first charge against him and I feel that the evidence brought before this Court to-day has proven beyond a doubt the charge against the accused.

I ask the Court to find the accused guilty as charged.

The Defending Officer makes a closing address:

Mr. President and
Members of the Court:

The accused does not deny possession of "Exhibit "A". But concerning the fact that they are public property or the fact that they are part of the rations of No. 7 Coy., I submit,Sir, that a great deal of doubt exists.

The quantity of tea and sugar is small. Any civilian could accumulate this amount in a short period of time. The canisters are of the type found in a military camp and available to personnel who cared to go out of their way to get them.

The accused is a married man and had taken some of these canisters home to his wife who could use them to advantage in their home.

The jam did not appear in the carton until put there by the civilian police. It was taken from the shelf of the sideboard in the accused's home. This 2 lb. type of tin is not the everyday ration to soldiers. The ordinary ration comes in 7 lb. tins. The 2 lb. type of tin can be purchased from any grocery store. Any man would ordinarily be ready to pick up rations which would cost points and could be obtained without points, if he had the chance.

I suggest that these rations were not public property and were not on charge to No. 7 Coy.

Regarding the improper possession: The accused stated in his evidence that Pte. Stephenson needed money and had something to give in exchange. Sgt. Greenwood did not ask Stephenson where he obtained the goods. He was more concerned with his wife at home and her condition. Stephenson was well known to him and he had always found him fair in his dealings. Stephenson had something he wanted and he had something Stephenson wanted.

Regarding Sgt. Greenwood's knowledge of the theft on Tuesday night; the accused stated that the 50 lbs. of sugar had something to do with a pig. This was another thing altogether and had nothing to do with the case. I suggest that he had reason to suspect that the rations found in his possession came from the theft of reserve rations as there was too much going on in the camp at the time and his direct attention at that time was concerning another case of rations and a pig.

I submit that there is no evidence to show possession of public property or on which to base the fact that the accused knew such was the case.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE FOR CHARGES UNDER SECTION 18 (4) and 40 A.A.
IN THE CASE OF K-89014 SERGEANT GREENWOOD, John Gladwell,
Reinforcement Section, C.F.C., Canadian Army (Overseas) (A.F.)

By direction of the Officer Commanding No. 3 District, C.F.C., the summary of evidence is to be taken on Oath - R.F. 4(F).

1st Witness for Prosecution.

A-32003 Cpl. Saunders, J.R., No. 3 Detachment, Canadian Provost Corps, being duly sworn states:-

On the 8th Oct 43, I accompanied Lieut. Luker to the County Police Stn., Inverness, where we were introduced to Det/Sgt. Urquhart. We were shown some foodstuffs and we were informed that these foodstuffs had been found at the home of a Sergeant belonging to No. 7 Coy. C.F.C. by the name of Greenwood, J.G. I was then detailed to carry out an investigation into this matter in co-operation with Det/Sgt. Urquhart and Constable E. MacDonald. We proceeded to Highwood Camp where we questioned Sgt. Greenwood and, after duly cautioning him that any statement he made might be used as evidence, obtained the following statement:-

"I was in the Canteen on Sunday, 3 Oct 43 when I was approached by K-89131 Pte. Stephenson and he asked me if I wanted a few tins of jam and some tea and sugar. I asked him what he wanted for it and I put my hand in my pocket and gave him all the change I had in my pocket. It would be about 12 or 15 shillings; there was a ten shilling note. As I left the canteen I was handed a gunny sack. I opened the sack when I got home and found it to contain tins of jam, tin with some tea in it and also a tin with sugar in it. Previously to making the above deal with Pte. Stephenson, I met Mr. A. MacDonald, a farmer with whom my wife and I resided, and he asked me if Pte. Stephenson was in the canteen and I said yes. He then asked me to inform Stephenson that he, MacDonald, was there. I did so and Stephenson came outside and spoke to him. Stephenson was outside for about half an hour. He then came back into the Canteen. When I moved to Inverness on Monday, 4 Oct 43, I brought the goods I had purchased from Pte. Stephenson with me and when my residence was searched the goods were found by the Civil Police and were taken to Police Headquarters. I did not take any other goods to my home at any time nor did I ever give him any goods or food at any time. I did not ask Stephenson where he got the rations. He said to me this is some overs. When I returned to Camp on Monday night after returning from Inverness, I went into the Canteen to get some change and I noticed MacDonald's car parked along beside the Canteen heading towards Inverness Lake when I overheard some men talking. I recognized MacDonald's voice and MacDonald was saying, is it alright and a person I do not know said in reply - Oh Yes, it is O.K., it is cached over beside Royan Place. This is all I know about the affair."
(signed by J.G. Greenwood)

On further investigating the matter, I visited a house and interviewed the occupant, a Mr. A. MacDonald, and during the course of this visit I was informed by Mr. MacDonald that - "I gave to Sgt. Greenwood a £1 note as he had hinted to me he was broke. It was a £1 note. Then on Sunday night he sent Pte. G. MacRae about 9 o'clock to my house to say Sgt. Greenwood wanted to see me at the camp. I went to the Camp and met Sgt. Greenwood who took me to another soldier who was the carpenter and he asked me to take this sugar if it was any good to me, or bully beef or anything like that, and I said I don't want any of it and he asked me to take this sugar which he had in three large tins at the side of the road. I took it in my car and Sgt. Greenwood told me to put it well out of sight."

The accused declines to cross examine the witness.

Detective Sergeant G. C. Urquhart of the Inverness-shire Constabulary, The Castle, Inverness.

A written statement of the witness's evidence purporting to be signed by him has been read to the accused and is included in this summary attached to be known as "Exhibit "B"."

Having regard to difficulty of obtaining the presence of this witness cannot in my opinion be readily procured. The accused does not demand the attendance of this witness for cross-examination.

R.E. Rapple, Capt.

The accused having been cautioned in accordance with R.F. 4(E), elects to give evidence on Oath, and being duly sworn, states:-

I was in No. 7 Company canteen on Sunday 2 Oct 43 when I was approached by K-99181 Pte. Stephenson and asked by him if I wanted a few tins of jam, some tea and sugar. I asked him what he wanted for it and put my hand in my pocket and gave him what change I had. It would be about twelve or fifteen shillings. There was a ten shilling note. As I left the canteen I was handed a gunny sack. I opened the sack when I got home and found it to contain tins of jam (10) with some tea and also some sugar. Previous to making the aforementioned purchase with Pte. Stephenson, I met a Mr. MacDonald, a farmer with whom my wife and I resided. He asked me if Pte. Stephenson was in the canteen and I said yes. He then asked me to inform Pte. Stephenson that he, MacDonald, was there. I did so and Pte. Stephenson came out and spoke to him. Pte Stephenson was outside for about one half hour. He then came back into the canteen. When I moved to Inverness on Monday 4 Oct 43, I took with me the goods I had purchased from Pte. Stephenson and when my residence was searched, the goods were found by the Civil Police and taken to Police H.Q. The goods taken by the Police were on the shelves in a cupboard and I did not at any time try to hide same away. I did not at any other time take any goods or foodstuffs to my home nor did I at any time give any foodstuffs away to any other party. I did not ask Pte. Stephenson at any time where he got the foodstuffs from. All he said to me was "This is some overs". When I returned to camp on Tuesday morning, not Monday night as I previously stated to Cpl. Saunders, C.P.C., and carrying on with my duties mostly in the bush all during parade hours. On Tuesday, 5 Oct 43, after having my supper I went into the canteen to get some change I noticed MacDonald's car parked alongside the canteen heading out towards Inverness. I overheard some men talking and recognized MacDonald's voice. MacDonald was saying "Is it alright?" and a person I do not know said "Yes, its O.K., it is cached over by Royn Place." I further state when I purchased the ~~xxx~~ foodstuffs from Stephenson I was not aware that any foodstuffs or rations had been stolen from any place. If I had of been in camp, I probably would have heard same, but I was granted leave to move my wife from MacDonald's farm to Inverness from 1000 hrs. 4 Oct 43 to 0700 hrs. 5 Oct 43 and as stated before, when I did report to camp, and after having my breakfast, I immediately proceeded to the bush to pick up tools, repair a fence and other various duties. I further wish to state, had I been aware that any foodstuffs or rations had been stolen I certainly would not have made the purchase under any circumstances.

Exhibit "B"

INVERNESS-SHIRE CONSTABULARY.

Statement made by Detective Sergeant Gregor Calder Urquhart of the Inverness-shire Constabulary - Re. charge against No.K.99014, Sergeant J. G. Greenwood, dated this 5th day of November, 1943.

On Thursday, 7th October, 1943, I was detailed by Deputy Chief Constable MacKay to investigate a theft of Reserve Rations at No. 7 Coy., Canadian Forestry Corps Camp. Upon making a search of Archibald MacDonald's residence at Easthill, Culloden Moor, I found 6-2 lbs. tins of Greengage Jam which he said he obtained from Mrs. Greenwood, wife of Sergeant Greenwood, on 5th October, 1943. MacDonald also advised that Mrs. Greenwood had just moved to No. 6 Glenurquhart Road, Inverness and I would probably be able to locate more of the stolen rations there. This I did. On arrival there we saw Sgt. Greenwood. I informed him of the purpose of my visit and enquired if he had any objection to us searching the house. Both he and his mother-in-law, Mrs. Fairweather, consented to the search. I found a tin containing approximately 8½ lbs. of sugar, another tin containing 7½ lbs. of Tea also 22-2 lb. tins of Greengage Jam. Mrs. Greenwood volunteered the statement that the 22 tins of Jam were taken to Easthill by her husband one night the previous week, Mrs. Greenwood apparently being under the impression that her husband got them as a present. These Reserve Rations were also conveyed to the County Police Headquarters.

I charged Sgt. Greenwood with Reset on the 9th October, 1943, and he replied - "I told you everything yesterday I possibly could. I have nothing to add or draw back".
