When Killeen gave the sealed envelope to the accused, the accused became a "bailee" of the money therein contained and it was believed to him for the purpose of ultimately re-delivering to Mrs Howe. This the accused failed to do as Mrs Howe definitely stated having never received any money from the bailee (the accused) for safekeeping for the Killeens.

There is in fact between the time the accused received the money [illegible] and the time he was asked for part of it by the Killeens he has no [illegible] as the money was not with him or with Mrs Howe.

Furthermore, it has been established that the 1000 francs note the Killeens received was not the same that had been deposited by him in the envelope. It was of a different size and it was more or less a restitution from the accused of part of the money he had "stolen" to Killeens. This is then sufficient evidence to substantiate the charge as it reads i.e. stealing property belonging to a person to Nicholaky Love in that he in Brussels on or about 21 May 45 stole 4,500

Defence Summing Up

On the first charge of stealing, the whole thing hangs on Graham's intent. He states he did not steal the money and there is much evidence to show that it would be impossible for a man in his position to steal such money without being caught at once, specially when a signed receipt was given. No man will steal when he knows he will be caught.

On the alternative charge the only particular which discloses an offence is essentially negligence. The evidence shows that he tried to hand the money in the envelope to Mrs How but she could not be found, so he did the next best thing and kept it on his person. During the evening he put it in his pocket and buttoned it up. I submit that he took every reasonable precaution to safeguard the money and was not negligent in any respect.

The rest of Graham's story and actions are fully consistent with those under mental storm a man who thinks he will be accused of stealing and tries to obtain money to repay the loss without any official inquiry. This is shown by the fact that he arranged to borrow 3500 Belg francs from Jones before Gillies had asked him for any money at all. This is not the action of a thief.

Plea in mitigation - Graham

Graham came to England in Feb 40 and to France on 19 Jan 44

His conduct sheet is not absolutely clear but the only entry of any importance, the earlier Court Martial could not have been serious when he was only reduced one step to the rank of Sgt.

The rest of his history has been brought out in evidence - he is married with one child

In his own mind he never thought he was guilty of any offence. First, because ~~the~~ it would not have been worth risking so much, specially with the war just over. He would risk his rank, pay, gratuities and of course the disgrace of being convicted for this money. Second, before being asked for the money he took steps to replace it and is still willing to pay Lyllies the balance, 3500 Bely Francs. He is making arrangements to give this to Lyellus as soon as he receives the money from his wife in England.

For these reasons I submit a very light sentence would be ample.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

Summary of Evidence in the case of B.33091 Sgt GRAHAM, William, Herbert, RCCS (X-10 List) att Cdn Sec HQ Brussels Garrison, an NCO of the Canadian Army Overseas.

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence shall be given on oath.

FIRST WITNESS B.132120 Pte GILLIES A S, HLI of C, having been duly sworn states:

"I am B.132120 Pte GILLIES A S, HLI of C. On the 21st of May 45 I arrived in BRUSSELS on a 72 hr leave. I arrived by train at approximately 1330 hrs. I was allotted a room in the requisitioned Monico Hotel. At approximately 1600 hrs I came down to the lobby of the Monico from my room. I asked the Sgt at the desk (Sgt GRAHAM) whom I now recognize as the accused, if there was any place where I could deposit money for safe-keeping. He answered that Mrs HOW had a safe in which the money could be kept and that if I gave him the money he (Sgt GRAHAM) would turn it over to Mrs HOW. I put the money (4,500 Belgian francs) in an envelope with my name on it after the Sgt had counted the money. The Sgt took the envelope and gave me a receipt (Exhibit "A") for the money therein contained. The following day, 22 May 45, approximately 1100 hrs I asked Sgt GRAHAM if he could give me some of my money. He answered he could not give me any money as Mrs HOW was not there at the time and that I would have to wait until she returned. The Sgt went out of the front door of the Monico. I stayed in the lobby approximately half an hour until Mrs HOW came in. Mrs How asked me for my name, and went to have a look in the safe, she came back and made an appointment with me to meet her there (at the Monico) at 1400 hrs the same day, then I went over to the Cosmopolite for lunch. When I got in the dining room of the Cosmopolite Sgt GRAHAM was there. He came to me and gave me 1,000 francs and he said that he had left the balance of the money with Mrs HOW for safe-keeping. I suggested to the Sgt to go back to the Monico to straighten the thing out with Mrs HOW. When we got to the Monico the Canadian Provost were there and took Sgt GRAHAM away with them."

Questions by the Officer taking the Summary.

Q. This envelope you gave to Sgt GRAHAM containing the money, was it sealed?

A. Yes, I sealed it myself after the Sgt had counted the money.

Q. What were the notes in the envelope?

A. They were seven 500 franc notes and one 1000 franc note.

Q. What conversation exactly took part between the Sgt and yourself at the Cosmopolite?

A. The Sgt came to me and said "Here is 1000 francs you asked me for this morning" which he gave me. I then said "what about the rest of the money?". The Sgt said, "I left it with Mrs HOW". To this I replied, "As soon as I have finished my meal let's go over together to see Mrs HOW at the Monico and straighten the thing out".

FIRST WITNESS (contd)

Q. Was the 1000 franc note that the Sgt gave you the same 1000 franc note that you put in the envelope?

A. No Sir, the 1000 franc note I put in the envelope was the small size bill and he gave me a note of a 1000 franc of a bigger size.

Q. Did you at any time ask the Sgt to give you back the total sum of money you had left with him?

A. No Sir, I did not. I only mentioned to him that I would like to have a 1000 francs.

On entering the Monico approximately 1245 hrs, 22 May 45, I was called to the desk by Military Helper, and Pte GILLIES asked me for some money I had for him. I had no money in the safe for GILLIES and inquired of him to whom had he given the money. I thenwalked across the Place Rogier to see our Supervisor, found him in the Hotel des Boulevards, explained him the circumstances and he suggested a meeting for 1400 with Pte GILLIES and the Managerial Staff and myself. Eventually the meeting was called and Pte GILLIES told his story and produced a piece of paper stating that he (Pte Gillies) had received 1000 francs from Sgt GRAHAM and that Sgt GRAHAM had given me 3,500 francs. I wish to add that I have never received better help and efficiency from anybody than from Sgt GRAHAM and he was a hundred per cent during his first fortnight with us and at all time when sobep."

Questions by Officer taking the Summary:

Q. Is it a custom for the members of the Monico Staff to accept money or other valuables for safe-keeping and if so where are said kept?

A. They have definite instructions to hand them to me to be put in a safe or to send the leave personnel in question to me.

Q. Was Sgt GRAHAM present at the meeting mentioned in your statement?

A. No Sir.

SECOND WITNESS (contd)

Q. Did you see Sgt GRAHAM between approximately 1600 hrs 21 May 45 and 1400 hrs 22 May 45?

of C 9658 Pte B Grant

This man joined the Bn.
approximately one week after
D. day and until this present case he had only previously been to the Bn A&C for two hrs.

We had not seen his brother for three years. We applied for a transfer to his brother's unit while he was with the R.A.M.C.
England but due to the exigencies of the service this was denied him.

After being posted to the Inf.
he applied for leave to go and see his brother but this was refused.

He has been worried about his brother and while he was at Hoofplatt he found out where he was and went over in order to see him.

CASE OF

K-4002 Lt. CRAMS, (RR & Can)

The defence makes a plea of guilty, but offers a plea in bar of trial on the following grounds: That the accused has previously been tried and sentenced by his Commanding Officer for this charge.

The defence then calls the following witness:

H-26005. CSM Holiday HB, having been duly sworn, states;

I identify the accused as Lt. Crams. I was present when the accused was brought before his C.O. on the charge of absence from 0830 hrs 31 Mar 45 until 22.30 hrs 6 Apr 45, as covered for Court Martial. This was Lt Col Muthurst, of the Edm. Rifle Centre. It was last Wednesday. He was given 28 days' detention. I marched him out. After I went out, the C.O. called me back and told me to have him stand by. Then he told me he would see him again after dinner. I brought him in again in the afternoon to the C.O. He was paraded again on the same charge and remanded for Court Martial.

Court.

The accused was not asked at that time whether he wished to be tried by the C.O. or by Court Martial. On the first occasion, the C.O. asked the accused if he accepted his punishment. On the second time, he did not ask the accused whether he wished to be tried by him or by a Court Martial.

At the time, he was held as a soldier awaiting trial.

RP 92 B complied with Young Gordon Capt

Defending Officer submits that the accused cannot now be tried by Court Martial for the same offence.

Plea in Bar of Trial

Evidence has been produced to show that the accused has already been awarded 28 days detention by his commanding officer on this same charge.

I would refer the Court to AA sec 46(7) which says "an offender shall not be liable to be tried by court-martial where the offence has been dealt with summarily by his commanding officer ..." and to KR & X p 40 para. 36 which states "When a commanding officer has once awarded punishment for an offence, he cannot afterwards increase it. It is considered that his award is complete when the man has left his presence."

In view of the above I submit that the court has no jurisdiction to try the accused.

Statement in mitigation. I sentence submitted on behalf of the accused Pte Graham

The accused is aged 20 and single. He was a student at High School before enlisting in the army on 5th Nov 1942. He came to England in May 1944 and came to the Bn in early July 44 as a Rfn. He was a rifleman and was wounded once.

He returned to the Bn and served as a rifleman for a time and was then sent on a sig course. He returned to the Bn and was wounded slightly again. While the Bn was crossing from Antwerp to Nijmegen. He returned to the Bn after this but was very nervous and was sent to C.C.S. He was evacuated because he still seemed very nervous. He came up to the Bn again as a rifleman and was wounded once more and evacuated to hospital.

He returned to the Bn while it was in a rest area at Nijmegen and before the Bn moved off went A.W.L. because he state that he had completely lost his nerve.

He is very young and of a nervous type. After a history such as this it seems rather peculiar that in this so called modern army with up to the minute medical treatment that a lad who has done his bit and been wounded three times and evacuated three times even though his period of service is short should be given special medical treatment and rest if he is so nervous as a result that he goes AWL and is willing to risk a court martial for his own relief.

He is unable to call any witnesses as to his character since those who knew him for any length of time before he was evacuated the first time are either killed or wounded and those who knew him in the signal platoon have been sent to Canada or posted elsewhere in the Canadian Army.

TRIAL OF SPR HENRIK GRANBERG :- Hall R

After arraignment, the Prosecutor announced that he did not have sufficient evidence to present with respect to the 1st charge.

Motion by defending officer that 1st charge be dismissed on ground that no prima facie case established by the Prosecution.

Motion allowed by the Court regarding the 1st charge.

1st Witness for Prosecution: CSM. Walker, R.E., having been duly sworn, states:

I am B 25923, CSM. Walker R.E. 3 C.C.C.U. R.C.E. On 22nd May I went to a Simka garage & found an army type tire. I investigated & took this back to Camp with me. Right after lunch, lined up all the men in Camp & held an identification parade; Store keeper after walking up & down, picked the accused & stated in the accused's presence & hearing that he was the man who had sold him the tire. The accused said he didn't know anything about it.

Jack

I've been in Army 5 yrs + was NCO since 1943. I have standing orders - time + mileage taken from Garage. White cross on tire to show which tire I took from the Garage; it also has marked on it the word "Military." I delivered tire to Lt Donaldson for safe-keeping

X-exam. I don't handle transport + not part of work of member of this dept. I was instructed by an MT officer on Eng. that tires with "Military" on it ~~or~~ with arrow were property of Army. Lt. Bailey was the instructor. I believe tire is made in U.S. There's a possibility that tire might be foreign I've inspected tires on jeeps before. Broad arrow. C is on most tires, more usual than the word "Military." As ground rule, the accepted marking is broad arrow. C but I've seen "military" on some also. I don't know how U.S. Military property is marked.

~~Cross~~

By Court - I made no personal check in Unit we had + have two similar to Exhibit 1 in our Unit.

R.P. 93(B) complied with

2nd Witness Joseph Petrus, Kerkhof, Prosecution: Deventer, having been duly sworn:
I am J. P. Kerkhof, employed in Kitchen "V" sec. 3 CCCU. I recognize the accused Granberg. 8 may, wednesday ~~after~~ about 7:30 P.M. I borrowed a bicycle ~~in the Camp~~ from a Dutch fellow out of Camp + went to Hotel where V sec is located to get my camera. At back of Hotel. a 15 cwt Dodge truck + I put bike ~~in~~ up upon the truck + I saw Ward Granberg carry a Jeep tire with wheel out of the Garage + put it in the Dodge truck. I went into Kitchen, got my camera + left.

X- exam - I know it was a Jeep tire because I've seen lots of them. I've never seen other people carrying Jeep tires I've seen tires on ~~cars~~ cars + being fixed. I was about 5-7 metres away from accused when I saw him carrying the tire. He might have been taking the tire to somebody place. Next day I told ~~an officer~~ an officer about Granberg taking the tire. So far as I know Granberg + I were friends. Granberg said at one time that Poland should be fired. I don't remember his saying this to an officer. I never found out he wasn't my friend." Did you ever hear Granberg say that other ~~people~~ who had not done what he told them should be fired. Ans: No.

By the Court - didn't see the Dodge truck drive away after tire was placed in it. I couldn't identify the tire in question for sure. Corporal Williams asked me about the tire

R.P. 83 (B) complied with

3rd Witness

Prosecution: Johan Schuppert, Holten,

having been duly sworn, states:

I am Johann Schuppert, garage keeper at Holten. A tire and wheel were in my Garage. A relation of mine, Schuppert, ~~[illegible]~~ brought the tire + wheel to my Garage. Witness examines tire + wheel Exhibit 1. There are so many tires like these it is very difficult to say if this is the one I had in my Garage. I was going to change it to fit a Chevrolet car + then I think it was a Capt. who took the tire away.

X-exam - Relation of mine gave tire to one of my workers. ~~Tire in garage~~ I can't say exactly how long tire was in my garage before being picked up.

By the Court: Not sure of the rank of person who got tire but quite sure he was not a Private soldier.

R.P. 83 (B) complied with

4th Witness Frederik Jan Schaapert, having been duly sworn states:

I am F. J. Schaapert, a dry goods dealer in Holten. I recognize the accused (pointing). On 8th May in the evening I bought a tire from the accused. It was between 8 - 9:30 in evening. I was serving a customer when Cdr. Car drove up & the accused & Kappert came out. Kappert had asked if I had a sofa for sale several times but as I had no new ones, I sold a second-hand one & Kappert came to pick it up. The two came into my shop & then the accused said something in English which I didn't understand. I asked Kappert what accused said & Kappert told me that accused had tire with which to sell. I was rather surprised at the offer because as it happened I had several flats a few days before & this offer came in very handy. I bargained with Cdr.; he asked 200 guilders I offered 100 & bought it for 100 guilders. I am very sorry this thing happened & know it is not in order but he have a busy business & large staff to keep employed. Kate went & bought the tire - to Delden on the road. Went inside & Kappert got his sofa; he was not present when I bargained with Cdr. All of us went inside & had a drink. Put tire in the cellar & two days later, it was taken to Johannes Schaapert's garage to be fixed to for my car. Witness looks at Exhibit 1. This ~~is~~ tire looks exactly the same type as one I bought but not sure of the number. I paid accused in 4 - 25 guilder notes. I should like to add that accused did not appear to be quite sober when the tire deal was made because my uncle who had bought a little toy dog with elastic showed it to Cpl who showed rather exaggerated pleasure at seeing the toy.

X-exam: I don't speak English. I bargained with accused by ~~using~~ asking Rappert only in the first instance to find out what accused had said. We bargained I using Dutch. My brother took the tire to the garage for me.

By the Court: Car that came to house was a truck, an Army vehicle with rounded front.

R.P. 83(B) complied with.

5th witness Prosecution

Mr. E. Rappert, Holten, having been duly sworn, states:

I am E. Rappert of Holten, Holland, formerly employed by 3 CCC. ~~I~~ I saw the accused about 8 P.M. He picked me up with the truck at my place. I told him I wanted to pick up the sofa at Schoppers

We drove to Schwartz store, Schippert was loading furniture on a truck. I told Schippert I wanted my sofa at same time, Hank said something which Schippert did not understand. I explained that Hank had a tire, Schippert was not to buy it. I got the sofa down when I had sofa in the truck, we went into the shop into kitchen + Schippert told me he had bought the tire; Hank was present at this time having a drink with us. Sat there for awhile + then we left and went home. Truck was a Dodge army truck - small Dodge. I don't know if tire was in truck when I was picked up. I saw a tire in Schippert's shop afterwards. I think tire was in shop when we first went in. I know Hank pretty well + he was not quite drunk but he had had quite a few drinks + quite happy + gay. I did not see Hank get any money.

X-exam - Granberg doesn't speak Dutch + Schippert doesn't speak English. When Schippert told me about buying tire from Granberg, I don't think Granberg would understand what Schippert said. I did not act as interpreter in this deal.

By the Court - I understand English a little but Granberg told me he had a tire + I understood the word "tire". He first told Schippert + Schippert told me. I did not see Hank handle the tire.

Defending Officer's Address.

Sir: What are the usual set of facts established by the prosecution in the case of a stealing charge. First it is shown that some article has been taken from its owner: and secondly that it was the intention of the person taking it to permanently deprive the owner of the article taken.

This is usually done by the owner, or person in possession of the article, coming into Court and saying that the article, which he identifies, was taken from him or that he missed it from amongst his belongings. Then it is shown that the accused was found with the article or evidence is produced to show that he sold the article. and again it is identified by those who saw it in the possession of the accused or bought it from him.

In the present case the accused is involved through the evidence of Schuppert who says Greenberg sold him a tire and wheel. About two weeks later Edson Weller found a tire which he produced as an exhibit here in a garage belonging to another man. Schuppert, then the prosecution has attempted to establish that these two tires are one and the same.

I would like to point out to the Court that much of what was said in this connection by Edson Schuppert is hearsay evidence. Perhaps I am at fault for failing to keep it out of the minds in the first instances ~~it~~ it is sometimes difficult, particularly when working with an interpreter to realize that something is hearsay. I am referring to the statement by Johan Schuppert to the effect that Schuppert brought the tire to his garage. On cross examination he stated that he did not receive the tire himself but was told by an employee that that was where it came from. Then again Frederick Schuppert said the tire was taken to Johan Schuppert's garage - and again on cross examination it was found that he had merely given it to his brother to have repaired.

Taking out this purely hearsay evidence which is actually inadmissible there is nothing to connect up the tire bought by with the one here in Court. No one could identify this tire as being dealt with except Cpl. Walker and he could only say that he seized it.

Not only is there no evidence on that point but the matter of ownership of the tire has not been satisfactorily established.

It is not my intention to discuss law in detail but I must point out that this charge is not an ordinary one of simple larceny but is laid under s. 18(4) of the Army Act. It must therefore be established that the property which has been stolen is public property. In the manual of military law at p. 444 we find this note: "10. If it turns out that the property belongs to some person or persons not included in the category contained in this paragraph the accused must be acquitted, as the offence could in that case only have been charged under s. 41."

the prosecution must establish therefore that the accused took government property.

Elton Walker was called as a witness to say that government property is sometimes marked with the single word "military" and that the tire before the Court is so marked. I believe however that in these days when Army equipment formerly used by the Allies is being sold to civilians that such evidence alone is not sufficient to establish any article as being public property. One has only to look about the streets of any city over here to see civilians driving jeeps which have been sold to them by certain of the Allied Governments. These vehicles & the tires on them will continue to carry certain markings of a military nature - Tires marked "military" such as this one. The Court is entitled to take judicial notice of such matter as are of common knowledge.

It has been suggested that the accused stole a tire from the unit garage. Kirkhoff says that on the 8th of May he saw Granberg putting a tire & wheel in a truck. He could not specifically identify this tire now say whether it was taken away. Yet it was on the evidence of this lad who went as soon as possible to accuse Granberg of theft on such foolish evidence - this small, who because Granberg had no use for him and considered he should be fired, had a grudge against him - that the prosecution would have the Court believe that a tire was stolen from the unit garage.

that is the present type of evidence in any case.
It is easily explained by a legitimate need to take a tire by a person handling transport.

So, if a tire was stolen from the unit it would be a simple matter to produce the unit records to show by a person who had made a check that a tire was missing; or in the alternative to produce someone to say at least that a wheel and tire for a certain jeep, or car at the wheel and tire were missing.

I do not think I need to go on any longer it has not been established 1) that Granberg stole a tire - that is that he took it from the owner 2) that the tire here in Court was sold by Granberg to Schuppert and 3) that the tire involved was public property.

For these reasons I respectfully submit that the accused must be acquitted on this charge.

Lt. Pritchard (sp).

I A. Summing up.

It is my duty to advise the Court on the law and to sum up if necessary, the evidence. The Court however is sole Judge of the facts and anything I have said or may say which indicates my own views, ~~[illegible]~~ must be disregarded. My advice on the law should be followed unless you have very strong ~~[illegible]~~ reasons for not so doing.

You have only one charge to consider, the 3rd on the charge sheet which reads as follows: (read the charge)

By virtue of A.A. 190 (33A) the expression "steals" has the same meaning as it has for the purposes of the "Larceny Act". Under the Larceny Act a person steals who without the consent of the owner, fraudulently & without a claim of right made in good faith, takes and carries away anything capable of being stolen with intent at the time of such taking, permanently to deprive the owner thereof.

~~Re: [illegible] It is incumbent on the prosecution to prove first, that the goods were stolen & [illegible]~~

~~Last one.~~

When an accused is charged with theft, the ownership of the property alleged to have been stolen should be clearly shown in evidence & its identity established (where possible) by production & identification in court. ~~It is for the Court to decide~~ whether, from the evidence presented before you, all the elements in the ~~above definition have been proven~~. The intention must be permanently to deprive the owner of the property, there must be taking of the goods, either actual or constructive. Owner is defined in the Act (p. 013 to include any part owner, or person having possession or control of, or a special property in, anything capable of being stolen. The thing stolen must be proved as laid in the charge sheet. You have heard the evidence and you must decide from it alone whether or not all the elements of the above definitions have been proven; if not then the accused should be acquitted of the charge.

In considering the burden of proof, regard should be had to two rules:

(1) every man is presumed innocent until proven guilty.

62763 Pte Granberg M.

Sir: this man has been in the army for five and a half years and as the documents presented show has only one offence previous to the present trial. It is a very good record and should indicate that this man has been a good soldier. For one reason or another he has gone slightly astray but one lesson in these cases of this sort is enough and a heavy punishment is not required.

Granberg was induced by Robertson & Scallion to improperly use the vehicle he was in charge of. It is a difficult matter to turn down the request of a friend in circumstances such as this. What he did was a very minor offence of a purely military nature, an offence correctly dealt with by a commanding officer.

Granberg has already spent 31 days in custody and I feel that this is more than sufficient punishment for an offence of this nature. For that reason I ask that the Court award a purely nominal punishment.

[illegible] Capt.

(2) The burden of proof is always on the prosecution. Once the Prosecution has established a prima facie case, the onus of explanation shifts to the accused & it is then for him to give a reasonable explanation in satisfaction of the Charge. Unless the guilt of the accused has been established beyond all reasonable doubt, the accused must be acquitted, as the Prosecution has failed to sustain adequately the burden of proving his guilt. A reasonable doubt is understood as one which an ordinary man would have in the conduct of his own business. It should not light or capricious.

Just a word as to the evidence: you are entitled to believe one witness & disbelieve another. you may believe or disbelieve either the whole or any part of the evidence presented & you may attach whatever weight you decide proper to any of the evidence accepted.

That is all I wish to say unless requested to give further advice by the Court or by the Prosecutor or the Defending Officer.

Respectfully submitted
A.D.S.A.

PLEA OF MITIGATION

2 NETD

Avvellino
17 May 45

To the President & Members of the Court

Sir,

I have the honour to submit for your consideration and that of the Court a plea for Mitigation of Sentence in the case of D 72163 GRANDCHAMP ROSAIRE who has pleaded guilty this day to three charges of

ABSENCE WITHOUT LEAVE

While the defendant is fully aware that the army Crime of Absence without Leave is inexcusable, there are certain factors to be considered which are beleived justifiable for a plea for mitigation of sentence. There are factors of enlistment and active service as follows:

The first is that the defendant enlisted as an infantry rifleman the 7th Dec 1940 in the Victoria Rifles in every expectation at that crucial period of the war that he would be fighting soon. While in that action he has not differed from the thousands of other soldiers that did the same, who do not face this Court Martial, yet considering as we may at this phase of the war, that action, bearing in mind that other thousands did not see fit to follow the example of their fellow Canadians, it is a factor to be considered in so mitigating his punishment that he as a soldier that has seen fighting service and as a citizen of Canada be not unduly penalized for a crime he would have been subjected to had he shirked his primary duty to undertaking service.

The second is that as a Bren Gunner, he fought in Sicily and Italy and at Ortona with the RCRs of the 1st Cdn Division. During that time he was wounded twice with shrapnel. His periods of service were interspersed with AWL periods-and for these derelections of duty has been punished. It is trusted that despite these failures in duty-due weight and credit be given to the fact that in the service of this country, this French Cdn did risk his life and was twice wounded.

Sir: I have the honour to be

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans. No.(5)

(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 2, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on the charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.

(1. Court may be cleared to consider statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)

(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex. A, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)

(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)

(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)

(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charge, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence ? Ans.(1)

(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the charge(s).(2) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the charge(s), and allowed on the charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)

(1. Delete remainder of this para if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 73 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D8.)

NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 80(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither ?

Ans.

Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf ?

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court is (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.

(1. RP 43, 44(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D8. The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.(1)

Or, The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith, and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.(2)

(1. AA 54(3), (5), RP 45, 120(6). 2. AA 54(3), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character ?(1)

After release from hospital, he again made application for transfer to another branch of the service with no results. Finally he went absent and during his absence stayed with the American Army. The onus only the word of an Italian against the word of a Japanese who is in good standing.

First I took care of this large wound and then made a splint for the leg. Then I saw the thigh bone was broken also and also the right leg was broken and the last thing I treated was a broken arm at the left side. Then came a car from the red cross and they had all kinds of things to help. I used them and I gave her a morphine injection and two injections for the heart and brought her personally into thecar from the red cross and took her to the hospital at Velp. That was about 1500 hrs. In the evening about half past nine they brought me a letter from my fellow doctor in the hospital [redacted].

Q.216 Was the road wide enought to pass a vehicle?
A.216 In most places.

Q.217 Is there any reason why Granger could not have been driving in the centre?

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS

SUBMISSION BY DEFENCE OF NO PRIMA FACIE CASE

The case before the court is one of manslaughter and one definite thing that has to be proved is that someone was killed and in this case that the person killed died as the result of the accident. In the case before the court we have a lady who was run into or ran into the vehicle and sustained certain injuries. The Doctor pointed out some of the injuries and more or less termed them in the nature of wounds. He did not go into detail merely mentioned wounds. The evidence of the husband says she died the same night. I don't think the Prosecution has brought sufficient proof that the woman died as the result of the accident. There is evidence that might suggest that but I don't think it is sufficient in a case of this magnitude. Further there is a criterion in a case of manslaughter that the negligence must be so great of so gross as to be culpable and show a complete disregard as to the rights of others. I submit the case shown by the Prosecution does not show negligence of any high degree. However, the facts are for the court to decide but I submit the Prosecution has not fulfilled his duty and the as a man is innocent until proved guilty not prima facie case has been established.

REPLY BY THE PROSECUTION

The evidence of the Doctor in this case was that the woman suffered two broken legs a broken arm and a broken thigh bone and two or three other wounds and was taken to the hospital but although the Doctor did not see her there the evidence of the husband was to the effect she died that same evening. Although the evidence is not strong I think there is sufficient evidence that the woman did die and I am safe is saying she died as the result of the accident. It is also my submission there was negligence in this case on the part of the driver and as to the degree that is up to the court. I therefore, think I have established a prima facie case and leave it up to you.

COURT IS CLOSED TO CONSIDER THE MOTION

COURT IS RE-OPENED - THE PRESIDENT ANNOUNCES THE MOTION IS DISALLOWED

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE - The accused B 100640 Pte Granger, G 4 Cdn Armd Div Tps Coy RCASC having been duly sworn is examined by the Defence

Q.223 Do you remember the accident you were involved in on the 24th of June this year?
A.223 Yes sir.

Q.224 Could you tell the court exactly what happened beginning prior to the accident from the time you came out of the petrol yard and to where the accident occurred?
A.224 On the 24th of June we were coming down this road from Dieren.

Q.225 What were you driving?
A.225 I was driving a vehicle, a 3 ton lorry. I was coming down this road and noticed quite a few holes all over the road mostly on the right hand side and pulled over on the left side of the road which was better and I could avoid some of these potholes and just before the accident happened I was pulling over on my right hand side and then I saw this couple coming down the road with the woman in the lead and she seemed to get confused and did not know which way to go and she made a left hand turn and I swung the same way and it was impossible for me to avoid striking the woman.

Q.226 How fast were you going?
A.226 About ten miles an hour.

Q.227 In which gear?
A.227 In third gear.

Q.228 What control over your vehicle would that give you?
A.228 It is much better with a load on and in view of the condition of the road.

Q.229 In this particular spot why were you on the canal side?
A.229 It was owing to the condition of the right hand side of the road.

Q.230 When you first notice these people on the bike how far were they from you?
A.230 I would say a good six feet.

Q.231 Is that the first time?
A.231 I was watching the road so carefully trying to avoid getting in these potholes and then glanced up and saw these people.

Q.232 Do you think there was room for a person to get by between your truck and the trees?
A.232 Yes if the woman had stayed in her place there was plenty of room but she sort of jumped off and swung at the same time or seemed to lose control of the bike.

Q.233 How long have you driven?
A.233 Not very long.

Q.234 About how long?
A.234 I drove through France and Germany since the start.

Q.235 Where did you first learn to drive?

Q.236 Did you do any driving in civilian life?
A.236 Yes for ten years or more.

Q.237 Have you ever had an accident before this time?
A.237 No sir.

Q.238 Do you think from your experience as a driver you were being reasonable in driving on the left hand side of the road?
A.238 I thought I was doing the right think in trying to avoid these potholes.

Q.239 What sort of work were you doing?
A.239 Hauling Durve.

Q.240 As soon as thislady got in your way what action did you take?
A.240 I immediately put on the brake and as the truck was in third gear the motor stalled.

Q.241 How far did you go before you stopped?
A.241 It is hard to say, when I jammed on the brakes the motor stalled and I put it in neautral.

Q.242 What kind of a day was it?
A.242 There was no sunshine.

Q.243 What was the surface of the road like?
A.243 I would say it was asphalt.

Q.244 Was it dry or slipper?
A.244 It was not slippery sort of damp, it had been raining either the night before or early morning and was not yet dry when the accident happened..

Q.245 Could you have travelled any slower?
A.245 I figured I was not doing too bad at 10 miles an hour in third gear.

Q.246 That gave you complete control in your estimation?
A.246 Yes sir.

Cross examined by the Prosecution

Q.247 At this particular spot where the accident happened was the road passable on the right hand side, could you have driven over it?
A.247 It was very rough there it was a bad spot.

Q.248 If another vehicle was coming toward you instead of a bike what would you have done, would you have gone over to the rough side?
A.248 If another vehicle had come I would have had to go over or take the consequences.

Q.249 Was there any other course open to you? Could you have stopped?
A.249 I dare say I could have stopped O.K.

Q.250 Just before the accident you were on the canal side?
A.250 Yes but just before the accident happened I was making my way to the right hand side.

Questioned by the court

Q.251 I understand there is a curve in the road near the scene of the accident?
A.251 Yes sir, you have to go over some railway tracks.

Q.252 What distance could you see along the road immediately before the accident?
A.252 I could see quite a bit ahead.

Q.253 Could you see 100 yds?
A.253 Yes I would say that.

Q.254 How far away from you did you see the bikes?
A.254 They were at least 12 ft.

Q.255 You could see 100 yds of the road ahead of you?
A.255 I could not say the distance but I could see a good stretch of road.

Q.256 How far was it from you to the bend in the road approximately?
A.256 I would say 100 yds but I am not sure exactly.

Q.257 Did you first see the bikes when they came around the bend?
A.257 I was going along watching for these potholes and when I raised my eyes I saw these people and I was making my way to the right and she jumped or wobbled and she turned the same way and I could not avoid striking her.

Q.258 What was the number of the vehicle you were driving?
A.258 I have forgotten the number I think the last three numbers were 896.

Q.259 Could that be 986?
A.259 I cannot say for sure, I gave it to the police at the time when I gave my name and number.

In the opinion of the court and the judge advocate it is not necessary to comply with the provisions of R.P. 83(B)

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS

Closing address of the Prosecution

In summing up this case there are a few points I would like to speak about. There is evidence the accused drove his vehicle along the left side of the road and I think it has been proved that he crowded the two bikes coming towards him necessitating Mrs Bosch going ahead of her husband in order to avoid being struck by the vehicle. He must have crowded her pretty close or she would not have tried to avoid him. In other words it is my submission that she was caught in a place and could see only one way out and that was to go around to the left of the vehicle. There is the evidence of the Doctor as to the injuries and the evidence of the husband that she died later and there is evidence that she was hit by the truck and you have the evidence that Granger was on the wrong side of the road. There is evidence of the defence that the right hand side of the road was rough but the evidence of the accused was he could see 100 yds ahead and that side of the road could be driven on. However, he says he did not see the woman until she was only 6 or 12 ft away. I submit that Granger was paying attention to the bumps and not to what was ahead of him and therefore due to this negligence he hit Mrs Bosch. I submit the court can find this man guilty of negligence which directly contributed to the death of Mrs Bosch. As to the degree of negligence whether it would support a charge of manslaughter, I leave to the court.

Closing address of the Defence

The case before the court is one that involves a very serious charge, that of manslaughter. In a case of manslaughter and particular one where negligence is involved a certain yardstick should be used in coming to a conclusion. Now it is known that human beings err but in a case of this kind the law is quite definite as to the degree of negligence necessary to constitute the crime charged. The interpretation of the law is one that will be put forward by the J.A. but my argument will be based on that law as I see it. I submit it is one the court should consider when they are coming to a conclusion. I will read from MML page 117 (Reads). It is my submission that the court should keep that before them and if they find the negligence was so gross and culpable then of course the accused must be guilty. If they find the accused was so utterly reckless as to have a complete disregard for others then the charge is supported, but if not then he should be acquitted. An examination of the evidence in this case as to what happened that afternoon and I don't think there is any question of recklessness. It may be a question of an error in judgement on the part of the accused not recklessness. The accused was travelling along very slowly with a heavy load and he was doing what he throught was proper in travelling on the smooth side of the road. He had a job to do and was doing it in the way he thought best. He has had some ten years experience and was a good driver. I submit the left side of the road was more used than the other in view of the pitted and rutted surface. However, he suddenly sees these two figures and thinks they have enough room to get by but notices that the woman is somewhat unsteady and swerved toward him and swung further over to get out of the road. There is some controversy as to the amount of room on the side, but the husband said it was possible to get by. Now the police has said he found a skid mark and found it to be a metre from the side of the road which would be 3'9" and then says it is 14 or 15 " to the trees which in all makes one inch less than five feet and I submit that is sufficient room to allow a bicycle to pass. I submit the woman saw the truck and got flustered did not realize this truck was travelling very slowly and did not act normally in trying to go in front of it. She was riding a man's bike and swerved into the vehicle. I submit the death of this woman was not due to the culpable negligence of the accused, that it was a misjudgement on her part. I submit it was death by misadventure rather than culpable negligence of the accused. Further I feel that under the Road Traffic Act there is not sufficient evidence to show that the accused was driving in any way but the way the vehicle should bedriven.

Summing up by the J.A.

It is my duty at this stage to sum up.

In the first place I wish to make it perfectly clear that the court is the fact finding body just like a jury in a civil case and I am only here to see that the rules of evidence are adhered to and that the case is conducted in a legal manner. Any opinion I may inadvertently express as th the facts should be disregarded. However, any of my directions on the law should not be lightly disregarded.

The court will bear in mind that under our system of jurisprudence the accused is innocent until proven guilty and that the onus of proof rest on the prosecution throughout. In other words there is no onus on the accused to prove his innocence but the prosecution must prove his guilt.

The court will further remember that the accused is entitled to the benefit of any reasonable doubt. A reasonable doubt is just not any doubt no matter how flimsy but such a doubt as would affect a reasonable man in making a decision affecting his own affairs.

The accused is charged with committing manslaughter.

Every crime is composed of two parts, a guilty mind and a guilty act. In other words there must not only be a guilty act committed by the accused but the intention to commit that guilty act. In the case of manslaughter the law finds constructive intent if the degree of negligence is sufficiently great.

Manslaughter is one of the forms of culpable homicide and is of course a very serious offence. Manslaughter is defined (Archbold's Criminal Pleading, Evidence and Practice 31st Ed page 859 read.

Negligence (Archbold's Criminal Pleading, Evidence and Practice 31st Ed page 882 read)

I advise the court that if it does not feel that sufficient negligence has been established in this case, the court will then consider whether or not the prosecution has made out a case of Dangerous Driving under the Road Traffic Act 1930 (Archbold's Criminal Pleading, Evidence and Practice 31st Ed page 961 read)

I have tried to make it clear and as the Defending Officer has pointed out, a very high degree of negligence must be proved to find the accused guilty of manslaughter, and failing that that it is open to the court to find him guilty under Sec 11 of the Road Traffic Act which would be a dangerous driving charge at home. If the court is not satisfied the accused drove in a dangerous manner it will acquit the accused.

With regard to the evidence, it is clear that two Dutch civilians were riding along the road and the accused was driving a 60 cwt going in the opposite direction. The civilians were on the right hand side of the road which was the correct side for them and the accused was on the left hand side in order to avoid certain potholes. According to his own evidence he was so intent on avoiding these potholes he did not see these civilians until he was about 12 ft from them. When he saw them according to his own testimoney and according to the testimony of the cyclist he swerved to the right. At the same time the deceased apparently got into a flurry at the sight of this vehicle bearing down and also swerved in the same direction, that was to her left, and they collided and the woman died of injuries. The husband stated he thought he could have ridden his bicycle between the vehicle and the line of trees but he doubted the ability of his wife to do so. That is the situation and evidence before the court, and it is up to the court to decide whether the action of the accused amounted to manslaughter, failing that, dangerous driving, and failing that, he should be acquitted.

I should point out also that pursuant to R.P. 74 the court may take judicial notice of all matters of notoriety including all matters withint their general military knowledge as a result of their service as army officers.

Is there anything else you wish me to say Mr. President?
No

And you Mr. Prosecutor?
No

And you Mr. Defending Officer?
No

Plea in Mitigation

The court has heard the evidence but there are a few things I would like to bring to the attention of thecourt before they consider sentence. The accused in this case is 41 years of age, and is not married. Prior to the war he worked for a paper mill in Toronto and intend to go back to the same type of work when he is released from the army. He has had a good record in the army and is proud of that record and wants to use that record in obtaining a good job. The man volunteered for the army and has gone through the whole campaign on the continent and has an excellent character as born out by his Pl Sgt. This should be taken into consideration when awarding sentence. If at all possible this man would like to go home without a blemish on his record. The facts of the case suggest not so much recklessness but an error in judgement. Taking all this into consideration I think the accused should be given the lightest sentence possible by the court. The range of the Road Traffic Act is very wide and the degree of negligence is very limited. This man was on duty and was doing a job that had been ordered by the army and was doing it in the manner he thought was best, has had an unblemished record, and I wish to have the court give earnest consideration to all these factors when determing sentence.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of

B 100640 Pte. Gordon GRANGER, of the 4th Canadian Armoured Divisional Troops Company, Royal Canadian Army Service Corps, Canadian Army Overseas.

The Officer Commanding, Major H.A.V. Faiers, directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS: Adriaan Maartin BOSCH, of 30, Spoorstraat, Dieren, having been duly sworn, states:

"I am Adriaan Maartin Bosch of 30 Spoorstraat, Dieren. On Sunday 24 June 45 in the mid-day at 1445 hrs I rode with my wife J.B. Winkels, both riding on bicycles for men, along the way of the canal to Dieren, coming from the direction of Lattenburg and going to Laag-Soeren. My wife rode on the right side of the way and I immediately on the left side from her. On the bagage carrier of my wife's bicycle, my young daughter Johanna Alberdina was seated. We both rode on the right side of the way reserved for us. When we neared the Oxygenium Factory on the way, I saw coming from Laag-Soeren a military truck that rode on the left side of the way reckoned from it's direction, that is to say, on the part of the way that is reserve for us. This truck had a speed of approximately 20 kilos per hour. As there was not sufficient space remaining for us to let the truck pass, I said to my wife, "you can better ride in front of me so we can pass the truck", which my wife immediately did. The driver of the mentioned truck, who had neared us, did not try in the least way to go to his right and continued to drive straight ahead. For one moment I got the impression that my wife tried to pass the truck on the left because she turned that way. However it was too late and she was struck by the left front wheel of the truck. She fell under the bicycle just before the left wheel of the truck and the truck went over her bicycle and her two legs. Had she not tried to pass the truck in this way, then perhaps she might have been brushed between the left side of the truck and the trees on the road. The driver of the truck did not try to stop the truck at the moment my wife fell. My wife was dragged by the truck for 5 metres before the driver of the truck got stopped. My little daughter was thrown from the bicycle onto the road, happily away from the truck. The driver of the truck was still in the cab, when I called him to get out of the cab. I did not hear the driver give any warning and declare that he was driving on the left hand side of the road."

Questioned by the accused.

Question: "Before the accident did the woman try to get off the bicycle?"

Answer: "I did not notice but the army truck appeared to swing her with the bumper. At the last possible time the driver turned to the right."

The above statement was read back to the witness.

This is to certify that to the best of my ability the above is a true interpretation of the statement as taken in the Dutch language.

SECOND WITNESS: A 9937 Pte. McKenzie, D.F., of 4th Cdn Armd Div Troops Coy, R.C.A.S.C., having been duly sworn, states:

"I am A9937 Pte. McKenzie, D.F., of 4 Cdn Armd Div Troops Coy, RCASC. On 24 June 45 at approximately 1500 hrs I was coming out of Dieren driving a 3 ton vehicle carrying a load of derv. The load was to be delivered to the Borne Supply Point. At the time I was travelling behind Pte Granger, who was driving truck CL 4251986. I was about 30 yds behind Pte Granger and our speed was about 10 miles per hour. Suddenly I noticed his vehicle coming to a halt and I saw him swing towards the right side of the road. I stopped within 20 yds of him and got out of my vehicle because I saw civilians running towards Granger's vehicle. When I reached the front of Granger's truck, Granger was out of his vehicle, a woman was lying under the vehicle tangled up in her bicycle, and a small child was sitting on the road approximately five feet from the truck. It was a man's type of bicycle. After some time a doctor attended the injured woman and later an army ambulance took her to the hospital."

Questioned by the accused.

Question: 1. "What was the condition of the road surface?"

Answer: "The road was very rough on the right hand side."

Question: 2. "From your position could you see the bicycle approaching?"

Answer: "No."

Question: 3. "Did truck CL4251986 give any warning with horn?"

Answer: "Not that I could tell."

Question: 4. "How far was left hand side of truck from trees on left side of road before it pulled to the right?"

Answer: "I could not see as there is a curve in the road."

The above statement was read back to the witness.

The accused was then warned in the following manner:

"Do you wish to make any statement or give any evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence."

ACCUSED: The accused declined to make any statement.

Certified that Rule of Procedure 4 has been complied with and that the evidence of the witnesses was taken down by me in writing in the presence and hearing of the accused.

APPENDIX "A"

POLICE REPORT - RHEDEN-DIEREN

Subject - Concerning an accident between veh CL 425196, the driver being a Canadian soldier, G. Granger, No. B100640, and a lady cyclist named J.B. Winkels, address Spoorstraat 30, Dieren, in which Mrs Winkels was mortally wounded and died a few hours later.

On Sunday 24 June 45 at approximately 1455 hours, there came a report at the Police Station at Dieren that just before, on the canal-way "Kanaal-weg" at Dieren in the community of Rheden, an accident took place between a military truck and a lady cyclist, in which the cyclist was badly wounded.

Immediately I, Hendrikus Heijink, policeman and constable of Rheden at Dieren, went to the named place and saw that in front of the Oxygenium Factory on the Kanaal-weg, a six wheeled military truck No. CL 425196 was standing with his nose pointing in a south-east direction. This truck which was laden with filled jerricans was not damaged. Right next to the left front wheel lay Johanna Berendina Winkels, whom I knew, born in Ermmen on the 24 August 1909, wife of A.J. Bosch, address Spoorstraat 30 at Dieren, and who was administered first aid by Dr. F.W. Bottger.

This lady was badly wounded in both legs and after having been bandaged she was immediately brought by hospital car to Algemeene Hospital at Velp.

At approx two metres from the said truck, lay a completely ruined men's bicycle on the verge of said road. It was obvious that one of the wheels of said truck had gone over it. As I heard later, this was the bicycle on which Johanna B. Winkels had been riding before the accident. Over a distance of six and one half metres, reckoning from the front axle of said truck, there was an obvious skid mark on the road, which was made of asphalt. The skid mark ran from the front axle underneath the truck and extended behind. The road at this place is six metres wide and as it had rained a bit, it was rather wet.

In the house right next to the Oxygenium Factory I found J.A. Bosch-Winkels little daughter, who had been sitting on the back of her Mother's bicycle and who had a few sligh bruises on her left foot, Johanna Alberdina Bosch, aged 8 years and living with her parents.

Said truck, being a military vehicle, I did not check its brakes.

Sunday evening at approx 2000 hrs the said Johanna Berendina Winkels died from the wounds at the Algemene Ziekenhuis at Velp.

A chart of the place where the accident happened is added to this police report, as is also a statement by the doctor examining Johanna Berendina Winkels. The names of these people were checked on their identification cards.

I have made this report after duly being sworn.

Signed - Hendrikus Heijink

This is to certify that to the best of my ability the above is a true interpretation of the police report as submitted by the police of Rheden, Dieren.

J.A. Grant case.

Not guilty plea of Dfnt.

Prosecuting Officer: Sir & Court this a case where honour & dignity of Cdn Army is brought out. A soldier of the Cdn Army who in any way disgraces it is not a credit to our Cdn Army. Personal unit or honour from our regt. were duly warned of this & asked to behave themselves during this part. out camp 50% of pers. are Cdns. 90% of crime committed is done by Cdns. Mingling with Eng. soldiers our actions are closely watched & for this reason inter pers. behave themselves, others will do, reputation have I would ask this court to uphold this prin. of the Cdn Army.

Def officer to 4th Pte - Were you given nominal roll. Yes

Statement by Grant: Wishes to give evidence himself Not to be sworn " " " Call Pte Jones H.A. " " " "
(I-6)

Statement by Def Officer: I feel that we can plead sufficient to leave a grave shadow of doubt as to whether Pte Grant was drunk.

Address by Def Officer: I feel in the def of Grant that he is charged with only 1 thing - drunkenness. Drunkenness is a thing which for many years has been a guess as to drunk or not. In this case, evidence as given by Pros., states accused was picked up while unconscious. Rarely does anyone become so drunk as unconscious. But there are many other reasons why a man may become unconscious. Natural to bring suff evid. to prove accused was not drunk but unconscious for another reason.

1st Wit Def — The accused K76116 Gnr Grant, AA, duly sworn, states:-

On 26 Mar was drinking in bar in BARI - I mentioned to Gnr Jones that I had headache - an English soldier offered me some pills - I took 3 + later left the bar not having drank more than 1 bottle of wine. That is all. Vermouth wine. Took pills for curing headache only. Pills looked like aspirin, small white pills. Bar closed 1400 hrs. When left bar felt no effects. Gnr Jones left me as we left bar - he left me outside bar.

Cross-exam:- Entered bar approx 1200 hrs - can't say if before or after 1300 hrs — had 1 whole bottle Vermouth. Thought pills would cure headache only. When left bar intended to walk around town. Last place I remember - sort of looked like a jail much an English + Italian soldier on gd. Picture took pills

Re-exam - nil

Court:- Headache started in bar. Bottle similar to ration beer bottle. Took pills prior to 1400 hrs. Bottle almost finished when took pills. Headache had lunch at 12 o'clock. Had nothing to drink in morning. Was had an all-night trip from Camp 5 Bari - on night before - left Camp here around 1000 hrs + got to Bari 1900 hrs. Then to rest camps, saw a play + then to bed about 2200 hrs. Got up about 0500 hrs 26 Mar, went in to BARI after lunch. Remember close to 1 hr after leaving bar - just walking around by myself have drank 2 Italian wine before — one bottle does not have any effect on me.

Usually take 2 or 3 aspirin.

Can't say if wine strong or weak

Have heard of taking aspirin + Coca-Cola that knocks one out. Did not think about taking aspirin with wine. Was part Try at Vermouth at 1130 hrs 12 Apr 44 court adjourn until 1300 hrs 16 Apr 44 at 1300 hrs 16 Apr 44 court re-assemble pursuant to adjournment. Present same members as on adjournment.

Pros:- Will call 2 witnesses of Provost Corps to prove charge.

1st Wit Pros:- } C70962 L/Cpl Graham W.J. 8 Can Provost Coy, duly sworn, states:-

On 26 Mar at approx 1515 was on patrol with Cpl Kippen noticed a chap laying on pavement - went over & examined him. A Cdn was present & told us to grab tongue so wouldn't swallow it. Breath smelled strongly of liquor & he was unconscious. Loaded him in truck & took to L of C Provost Coy. Had to hurry out on another call & when returned it collected receipt for his body & recognized the man from his pay book. The accused is the man. Believed him drunk because breath smelled strongly of liquor & unconscious — he remained unconscious while in my custody. Was laying on back, arms outspread, had greatcoat on. Was a fine day, sun shining, moderate temperature.

Cross-exam:- I have had a drink. Depends how much I had to drink whether I was sober or not. Came to conclusion that drunk because smelled of liquor - never occurred to me that unconsciousness due to anything else. Can't remember if tongue swollen - don't think would have noticed anything out of the ordinary Re-exam:- Am not medical man.

Court:- He was lying in street - in center of thoroughfare - 10 or 15 ft from sidewalk. Not positive where his head was. Clothing had dust but not as though rolling around excessively.

2nd Wit Pros:- } *7688081 Cpl Kippen H., 230 Pro Coy, duly sworn, states:-

On 26 Mar 44 on duty at DARI at about 15 20 hrs in car with L/Cpl Graham. Saw small crowd in Prog's area on investigation found Cdn soldier lying on back unconscious. I bent down, smelled breath - very strong of drink. He was taken to CMP pd in order identified as Pte Grant & handed over to pd Cmdr & he detained - charged with being drunk Opinion drunk because comatose condition & smell of drink. He remained unconscious. Agreed as the man identified him by his pay book at DARI.

Cross-exam:- Was on brothel patrol. Received no instrs from any unit regarding accd up. I heard L/Cpl Graham accused of trying to help his friend. Tongue out & head on one side. Don't say whether condition due to other causes. I think & stated as much. May with liquor on breath not necessarily drunk

1st Wit Def] The accused K76116 Pte Grant, AA, duly sworn, states:
On 26 Mar was drinking in bar in BARI - I motioned to Pte Jones that I had headache - an English soldier offered me some pills - I took 3 + later left the bar not having drank more than 1 bottle of wine. That is all. Vermouth wine. Took pills for having headache only. Pills looked like aspirin, small white pills. Bar closed 1400 hrs. When left bar felt no effects Pte Jones left me as we left bar. He left me outside bar.
Cross-exam:- Entered bar approx 1200 hrs - Can't say if before or after 1300 hrs - had 1 whole bottle Vermouth. Thought pills would cure headache only. When left bar intended to walk around table. Last place I remember - sort of cooked like a yard with an English + Italian soldier on gd. Positive took pills
Re-exam - nil
Court - Headache started in bar. Bottle similar to ration beer bottle. Took pills prior to 1400 hrs Bottle almost finished when took pills. Started headache. Had lunch at 12 o'clock. Had nothing to drink in morning. Was had an all-night trip from Camp 5 Bari the night before - left Camp here around 1000 hrs + got to Bari 1400 hrs. Then to rest camps, saw a play + then to bed about 2200 hrs. Got up about 0800 hrs 26 Mar. Went in to BARI after lunch. Remember close to 1 hr after leaving bar - just walking around by myself have drank 2 Italian wine before - one bottle beer not have any effect on me
Usually take 2 or 3 aspirin.
Can't say if wine strong or weak
Have heard of taking aspirin + COCA-COLA that knocks one out. Did not drink about 1 hr after aspirin with wine. Was first try at Vermouth

Def offr in closing:-
Great deal of doubt whether drunk - Was unconscious - Reason for being unconscious can be questioned. Took pills but no intention of making himself unconscious - was to cure headache. Smell alone does not say drunk. Accd is entitled to benefit of doubt. Innocent until proved guilty. No evidence to prove that drunk.

Pros. in closing:-
Accd on leave, took full bottle Vermouth mild which not entirely familiar, no experience with that brand before. Left car apparently fairly sober because had consumed bottle in less than 1 hr. Full effect did not take place but was found unconscious on the street.
Accd says took pills - these brought about or merely aided the liquor. Quote "page 27 MMA says (reads). ∴ he was drunk - incapable of looking after himself. Considers proven.

Judge Advocate:- Defines functions of court re facts, credibility of witnesses, burden on pros: "reasonable doubt": drunkenness Court closed.

2nd wit for defence Opr Jones, recalled under provisions of RP 76 + still under oath, is examined by the Court:- Accd went back to camp by truck - 7 or 8 miles - was riding on back of truck - open - back to camp about quarter to 3 + saw Cdn 20. - then went to my hut. Was feeling "merry" when I got back to camp. Knew Accd had been drinking but was not drunk.
RP 83(b) complied with

Def offr in mitigation:- Consider that this Accd is the first in 8 mos. While may have been drinking - should not be considered too seriously. Alcohol different effects at different times. Did not consume more than could usually consume + control - should be shown leniency.

Accd + 2 to Bair to pub - had 2 bottles of Vermouth between us. While there accd complained of headache. English fellow offered some pills. Shortly after we left about 1900 hrs closing. 2 left him outside + went back to camp. Between 22 + 23 hrs that night he came in + said had been picked up.
Left Rest camp night after dinner, left about 1230.
Went into pub just before one. 2 saw Eng give accd pills - saw Grant take them - not sure how many "a couple" - maybe 2 or 3.
2 was OK when left Grant. He was OK also when left pub night after consumed bottle Cross exam - Bottle about size of ration beer bottle.
Had nothing to drink during morning.
Grant is my friend. Would not have allowed to take if thought would do harm - pills could have been anything at all. Returned to look pills 2 went back to camp.
Re-exam: nil
Court:- Eng soldier - did not take any notice of him.
Label on bottle - was sealed bottle.
Vermouth not as good as they have here - Better than North African.
Had a cup of coffee before buying the wine Bought wine about 1315 hrs - bought both bottles at same time. Think 150 lire a bottle.
R P 83 (B) complied with.

Accd in my tp 8 mos - little trouble before last few months right on the list and lying. Work has been good + no trouble. No complaints from offrs. Accd is gun-op. - He is good gun-op - valuable
Cross exam:- Has been charged with drinking before - once that 2 know of when 2 had any dangers to do with it. He has been valuable man when 2 have had anything to do with him. 2 says accd is not bad - unreliable. when charged with drunkenness he formerly he was on leave + it is just human nature. He has never had good conduct badge
Man of good character would have one
Re-exam - nil
Court:- Accd charged for drinking in Brighton and was not drunk. General reputation good + is honest. gets along well with other men.

I was the officer in charge of the leave party, and on 24 Mar 44 I called all the leave personnel together. I read to them orders from SCAD concerning leave. I emphasized the fact that good behaviour on the part of these men meant that other personnel in the Regt would get leave. I also read from orders that 60% of the personnel at the leave camp were Canadian and that 90% of the crime was committed by Canadians. I stressed the fact that we did not want this to happen with our own lads. I repeated this again on Saturday morning 25 Mar 44 just before the truck left camp.

PROCEEDINGS Lt. Wright May (1)
Pres.

The accused before arraignment makes a plea in bar of trial because he was not given a copy of the charge sheet or told why he was under close arrest until 1900 hrs 27 Aug 44 (37 hrs. 30 mins.) after being placed in close arrest.)

On being questioned the accused admits that he did not request a copy of the charge at all within this period.

The court having regard to Sec 45 footnote (1) of the A.A. where it states that the charge must be forthcoming within 48 hrs and a copy given to the accused at his request — Also the fact that the 27 Aug 44 was a Sunday which made it unnecessary to bring the accused before the O.C. until the following morning despite the fact that the 48 hrs. in confinement were up at 0730 hrs. on Sunday morning disallow the plea and continue with the trial.

1st Witness M. 7157. Sgt. Nelson L.F. 32 Fd. Coy. R.C.E.
Having been duly sworn, state.
I called parade at 0730 hrs. 25 Aug. 1944. Spr. Grant, a member of my Pl. appeared on parade in an unsteady and wobbly condition. I asked him what was wrong. He stated he was drunk. He had all the appearance of being drunk. I left him for a few minutes, but he appeared unable to straighten himself up, so I sent him back to his own tent. When told to fall out and go to his tent. He went in the opposite direction, and had to be assisted to his own tent.

Question by Prosecutor:
Q: Was Spr. Grant required for work that day?
A: He was sir.
Q: Could he have been able to carry out this work?
A: He would not

Question by Defence:
Q: Did you smell liquor on the accused?
A: I did not. I wasn't close enough.

Q- If he was very sick might his reaction have been similar?
A- No. They would not know.

Question by Court:-

Q- Did accused complain of being ill on the morning in question?
A- No. Sir.
Q- Had he attended sick parade that morning?
A- No. Sir.
Q- What were accused's exact words to you on parade?
A- "I'm drunk Sgt."

Question by Accused:-

Q- Was I on parade & did I answer my name on roll call?
A- Yes in both cases.
Q- Did you make any attempt to find out whether I was drunk or whether I was sick?
A- By the time I got through with parade your were in your bed sound asleep.
Q- Why did you not place me under close arrest immediately when you thought I was in a drunken condition?
A- Because there was a parade on & was detailing men for the job. and knew that in the condition you were in, you were harmless.
Q- Did you come down to my tent later?
A- I did at approx 0800 and the accused had his head covered up and all the appearances of being asleep.
Q- You made no attempt to find out whether I was asleep or not?
A- I did not.
Q- Was there a guard on my tent when you visited me at approx 0800 hrs?
A- There were two men detailed and one was on guard. He told me you Drunk was asleep.

2nd Witness:- M-7012. Lt/Sgt. Tamoureux. J.A. 32 Fd. Coy. R.C.E.

Having been duly sworn states.

4th Witness - D-40997 Gpr. Pascoe. T.G. 22 Fd. Coy. R.C.E.

Having been duly sworn states

After the morning parade on Aug. 25. I was detailed to guard Gpr. Grant. I went to his tent. Gpr. Grant was asleep inside.

Q. Did you smell liquor on the accused?

A. No. Sir.

Q. Were you close enough to him that you could have smelled it?

A. No Sir.

Q. Was Gpr Grant sick?

A. Yes. He appeared to be sick.

Q. Was he detailed in a sick condition for the next 24 hours, while you were my guard?

A. Yes.

5th Witness: D-82203 Gpr. Grant. A.B. 32 Cdn. Fd. Coy R.C.E

Having been duly sworn states.

In evidence Gpr. Martin gave, I agree with. I did buy a bottle with him, we drank it, and went to bed. I had been suffering, more or less from diarrhea, and I believe that to be one of the contributing causes of my condition the next morning. I also don't think that I was in any condition to go to work. But I do not believe, and I know that it was not due to drunkenness, although I do believe that what I had to drink the night before had something to do with it. I made my way out onto parade all right and fell in on parade in the usual manner, and I think my condition was due to a combination of the condition of my stomach and what I had to drink the night before.

Question by Prosecutor:-

Q- How do you know you were sober on parade on the morning of Aug. 25?

A- I was able get up, get on parade, without assistance, and also fell in on parade in the usual manner. I also answered my name when the roll was called.

Q- Your definition of a drunken man, then, is an unconscious man?

A- No. Sir.

Q- Surely as long as you were conscious, and heard your name called. You could answer it?

A- Yes. Sir.

Q. ~~Could you~~ Have you a better explanation than of why you think you were sober?

A- In my opinion my mind was clear.

Q- Why did you tell the Sgt. you were drunk?

A- It was just that I did feel so miserable that at the time I didn't think any action would be taken. I just wanted to get out of parade, as I was sick

Q- Why did you wait until you were ordered to leave parade, rather than ask permission on account of illness?

A- Because I knew that by the way the names were being called, that the parade would soon be over, and I would have a chance to leave, then.

Q- If you were doubtful as to when you were going to throw up, why did you go to a latrine instead of to your tent?

A- I had been throwing up, and was trying to suppress the urge to throw up, as there was nothing left in my stomach to throw up.

Q- Over drinking causes people to vomit, does it not?

A- It depends on the person.

~~Q- If a person became ill in the manner I would it necessarily make him drunk?~~

Question by Court:-

Q- Why did you not report sick on morning of 27 Aug.

A- I was too sick to care whether I went to the M.O. or not.

Q. Do you know of any one else who has had diarrhea, and has thrown up?
A. Only two men, that I know of.

Prosecutors Closing Address:-

The evidence of two witnesses has shown that Spr. Grant appeared on parade in an unsteady condition that could not be mistaken for illness. He was by his own admission not in a fit condition for work. In my opinion he has failed to give a satisfactory explanation of why he believes he was sober. There is no evidence to show that he actually was sober. It has also been shown, that the accused had a considerable quantity of strong liquor, 8½ hrs. before parade time.

Defence Closing Address:-

Spr. Grant had previously been sick with diarrhea. This combined with the liquor, made him very ill. Under such condition, a person can very well be shaky and unsteady on their feet. A full eight and a half hours had passed since he had drunk the liquor. No evidence was given that he smelled of liquor. My contention is, that Spr. Grant was sick and the evidence does not prove he was drunk.

Plea in Mitigation of Sentence by the Accused:-

I have been overseas for four years, and I know my crime what it is now too good. Most of my time has been spent in the infantry. About 2 years ago, I was sent out of the infantry, on account of my age. I didn't want to leave, and after being sent to 5 C.I.R.U. I had two opportunities of going back to Canada. On one of them I was detailed as a P.O.W. escort and I was paraded, and asked to be taken off. This wish was granted. Later I was sent to N.E.T.L. for re-allocation, and could have gone back to Canada from there. I did the P.S.O. office there to do what he could to keep me overseas. I didn't feel as though I wanted to spend all that time over here, and be sent home at the last moment, just when it appeared something might happen. The result was, I was posted to "J.C.E.R.E." I didn't at the time, care much for the Engineers, I suppose, on account of having spent the years I did in the infantry. As a result, I got into three crimes in "J.C.E.R.E." all A.W.L.'s. My reason was that I thought by doing so I might get sent back to my own unit. I was treated there, on those charges very leniently, as they seemed to understand the way I felt. The last time I saw the C.O. of "J.C.E.R.E." he told me that I would most likely be posted to the P.E. establishment, when I had finished my training. After I had finished my training as a sapper, I asked to be paraded to the C.O. again. At the time, I told him I did not want to go on P.E. but wished to get with a more active unit. He told me that, with my age and through C.M.H.O. orders concerning age, I would the best he could do. would be to post me to Army Troops, which was done. Since coming to the Engineers in the field I have been in no trouble to speak of, outside of a little of an hours, which happened at Maidstone. Outside of that, I don't think that any fault could be found with my work and duties. I have always wanted, and still do, to have a more active part in things than I am doing. I tried, about every thing possible, to get back to my original unit, or the infantry, and still do. Want to get back. I can't say that I'm happy in the Engineers, because I am not, but rather than be out of things altogether I would prefer to be there. I think that most of the trouble I've been in, in the last year, have been due to that course of events, when I was sent from an outfit that I liked, and still would like to be with. There is nothing the matter with me physically, that I know of and I would welcome an opportunity to get back if possible.

I hope that the court will try and understand the way I feel about being in the position I am in now, and if I thought that drinking that night would place me where I now am, I certainly wouldn't have taken any. I think that I have acted and tried to stay with an active part of the army, and at that to be sent out of it right at this moment.
Regardless of any of the things I do, and always did want to do my bit in this war, ~~and~~ I

Question by the Court:

Q. Are you a married man?
A. Yes. I have a wife in the U.S.A.
Q. Have you any children?
A. No, sir.

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. CASE OF

E-1 D-82203 Sapper GRANT, A.E., R.C.E. - No. 1 C.E.R.U.

PLEA IN MITIGATION OF SENTENCE

It is quite obvious from this man's conduct sheet why he was sent up for Court-Martial, even though he was only AWL seven days. From his Army record it is quite clear that he has been a consistent offender, as far as being AWL is concerned. There are some possible reasons why he has been a consistent offender. In the first place, he is an American citizen. He enlisted voluntarily in the Cdn Army on 23 May 40, in the 1st Bn of the Black Watch Regt. He came overseas with the regt and he was with them until the end of 43, at which time he was returned to NRTD to be sent back to Canada and possibly discharged as being overage for inf but at that time he was compulsorily transferred to the Engrs as he was a carpenter in civilian life. I may point out here that during his stay with the Black Watch, he had little opportunity to practice at his trade of carpentry. This has been quite a concern to him, as he could foresee his return to civilian life. As he had not practiced at his trade for three to four years, he realized that he would be under a definite handicap. With the Engrs, he evidently became a tradesman carpenter Gp "C" and joined the 32 Fd Coy and landed in France at the end of Jul 44. However, he didn't have much opportunity to practice at his trade but carried on his military duties until a charge of drunkenness was placed against him on 6 Sep 44. At that particular time, it was not unusual for people to drink under the stress of war and he was given quite a severe punishment considering. About this time, he had injured his knee, developed water on the knee and was in hospital in France from 16 Sep to 12 Dec 44. He returned to this country and finished his detn on 30 Dec 44. From that time on, he was given fatigue duties in the RU and was consequently "browned off", but not working at his trade. I also may state that the accused had no leave for a period of 20 months, but he was eventually given 9 days' leave from which he failed to return at its expiration. Again he returned to the unit and was given these fatigues to do in the course of which he went AWL for this period of 7 days. The accused has a cat of L-3. From his Army record, it is quite clear, although his stability is classified as 1, it should be considerably lower than that. He is married and has been on occasions worried about his family at home. I think the Court should definitely consider this man's case in the light that he be discharged as soon as possible. His use to the Army is very limited and it is no cury to sentence him to further detn. He has done his duty and his age is such that he should be returned to civilian life.

A- By the time I got through with parade you were in your bed sound asleep.

A- Because there was a parade on & I was detailing men for the job. and knew that in the condition you were in, you were harmless.
Q- Did you come down to my tent later?

PROCEEDINGS E&W Night May Pres (1)

The accused before arraignment makes a plea in bar of trial because he was not given a copy of the charge sheet or told why he was under close arrest until 1900 hrs 27 Aug 44 (37 hrs. 30 mins.) after being placed in close arrest.)

On being questioned the accused admits that he did not request a copy of the charge at all within this period.

The court having regard to Sec 45 footnote (1) of the A.A. where it states that the charge must be forthcoming within 48 hrs and a copy given to the accused at his request — Also the fact that the 27 Aug 44 was a Sunday which made it unnecessary to bring the accused before the O.C. until the following morning despite the fact that the 48 hrs. in confinement were up at 0730 hrs. on Sunday morning disallow the plea and continue with the trial

1st Witness M-7157 Sgt. Nelson L.F. 32 Fd. Coy. R.C.E.
Having been duly sworn, state.
I called parade at 0730 hrs. 25 Aug. 1944. Spr. Brant a member of my Pl. appeared on parade in an unsteady and wobbly condition. I asked him what was wrong. He stated he was drunk. He had all the appearance of being drunk. I left him for a few minutes, but he appeared unable to straighten himself up, so I sent him back to his own tent. When told to fall out and go to his tent. He went in the opposite direction, and had to be assisted to his own tent.

Question by Prosecutor:-
Q. Was Spr. Brant required for work that day?
A. He was sir.
Q. Would he have been able to carry out the work?
A. He would not

Question by Defence:-
Q. Did you smell liquor on the accused?
A. I did not. I was'nt close enough.

3rd Witness - M-100264 Spr. Morkin. R.J. 32 Fd. Coy. R.C.E

Having been duly sworn states.

On the evening of Aug. 24. two civilian came into our bivouac area. at approx. 2100 hrs. with a bottle of spirits. Spr. Drant + I bought the bottle. We drank the bottle and went to bed.

Question by Prosecutor:-

Q. What size bottle was it?
A- The ordinary size wine bottle.
Q- What kind of spirits were in the bottle?
A- I thought when I bought it. it was Cognac. but later found out it was Calvados.
Q- Did any one else but Spr. Drant + yourself have any of that bottle?
A- No. Sir.
Q- About what time did you go to bed?
A- About 2300 hrs.

Question by Defence:-

Q- Did you see Spr. Drant before morning parade on Aug. 25?
A- Yes. Sir.
Q- Did he appear sick to you?
A- Yes he was sick.
Q- Did you consider him still drunk?
A- I am unable to answer that question.
Q- What evidence of his sickness can you give?
A- He was throwing up. when he first got up.

Question by Court:-

Q- In your opinion was the accused fit for work that day?
A- I don't think he was too sick to work

2nd Witness:- M-7012. L/Bdr. Lamoureux. J.A. 32 Fd. Coy. R.C.E.

Having been duly sworn states.

I was on parade with "A" Pl. 32 Fd. Coy. R.C.E at 0730 hrs. 25 Aug. 1944. and saw Spr. Grant. He was unable to stand steady on parade. He was ordered to return to his own tent, and staggered off to a tent other than his own. He had to be assisted to his own tent.

Questions by Prosecution:-

Q. Could the accused have carried out his duties that morning?
A. No. Sir. Not in my opinion

Question by Defence:-

Q. Did you smell liquor on the accused?
A. No. I did not.
Q. If he were violently sick might he not have been in the same condition?
A. In my opinion. No.
Q. At what time had the tents been put up?
A. The previous evening in daylight.
Q. So it possible the accused did not know for sure where his tent was?
A. No. I hardly think so.

Question by Court:-

Q. Did Spr. Grant complain of any illness on the morning in question?
A. No. Sir.

A. Yes.
Q. Did you hear the conversation between Spr. Grant & Sgt. Nelson on parade.
A. Yes Sir.
Q. What was his reply to Sgt. Nelson?
A. "I am drunk Sgt."

Question by Prosecutor:-

Q- How do you know you were sober on parade on the morning of Aug. 25?

A- I was able get up, get on parade, without assistance, and also fell in on parade in the usual manner. I also answered my name when the roll was called.

Q- Your definition of a drunken man, then, is an unconscious man?

A- No. Sir.

Q- Surely as long as you were conscious, and heard your name called, You could answer it?

A- Yes. Sir.

Q. ~~Could you~~ Have you a better explanation then of why you think you were sober?

A- In my opinion my mind was clear.

Q- Why did you tell the Sgt. you were drunk?

A- It was just that I did feel so miserable that at the time I didn't think any action would be taken, I just wanted to get out of parade, as I was sick

Q- Why did you wait until you were ordered to leave parade, rather than ask permission on account of illness?

A- Because I knew that by the way the names were being called, that the parade would soon be over, and I would have a chance to leave, then.

Q- If you were doubtful as to when you were going to throw up, why did you not go to a latrine instead of to your tent?

A- I had been throwing up, and was trying to suppress the urge to throw up, as there was nothing left on my stomach to throw up.

Q- Does drinking cause people to vomit, does it not?

A- It depends on the person.

~~Q- If a person is really ill in the manner I mean, is it necessary to be sick?~~

Question by Court:-

Q- Why did you not report sick on morning of 27 Aug.

A- I was too sick to care whether I went to the M.O. or not.

A. Yes. he appeared to be sick.

Q. Was he left in a sick condition for the next 24 hours while you were my guard?

A. Yes.

5th Witness:- 2-82203 Cpl. Grant A.H. 32 Cdn. Fd. Coy R.C.E

Having been duly sworn states.

In evidence Cpl. Workin gave. I agree with. I did buy a bottle with him, we drank it, and went to bed. I had been suffering, more or less from diarrhea, and I believe that to be one of the contributing causes of my condition the next morning. I also, don't think that I was in any condition to go to work. But I do not believe, and I know that it wasn't due to drunkenness, although I do believe that what I had to drink the night before had something to do with it. I made my way out onto parade all right and fell in on parade in the usual manner, and I think my condition was due to a combination of the condition of my stomach and what I had to drink the night before.

back to Canada from there. As the P.S.O. officer there to do what he could to keep me overseas. I didn't feel as though I wanted to spend all that time over here, and be sent home at the last moment just when it appeared some thing might happen. The result was I was posted to #1 C.E.R.U. I didn't at the time, care much for the Engineers, I suppose, on account of having spent the years I did in the infantry. As a result I got into three crimes in #1 C.E.R.U. all A.W.L.'s. My reason was that I thought by doing so I might get sent back to my own unit. I was treated there, on these charges, very leniently, as they seemed to understand the way I felt. The last time I saw the C.O. of #1 C.E.R.U. he told me that I would most likely be posted to the P.E. establishment, when I had finished my training. After I had finished my training as a sapper, I asked to be paraded to the C.O. again. At the time, I told him I did not want to go on P.E. but wished to get with a more active unit. He told me that, with my age and through C.M.H.Q. orders concerning ages, I would the best he could do would be to post me to Army Troops, which was how since coming to the Engineers in the field, I have been in no trouble to speak of, outside of a few of an hours, which happened at Maidstone. Outside of that, I don't think that any fault could be found with my work and duties. I have always wanted, and still do, to have a more active part in things than I am doing. I tried about every thing possible, to get back to my original unit, or the infantry, and still do. I want to get back. I can't say that I'm happy in the Engineers, because I am not, but rather than be, out of things altogether I would prefer to be here. I think that most of the trouble I've been in, in the past year, has been due to that course of events, when I was sent from an outfit that I liked, and still would like to be with. There is nothing the matter with me physically, that I know of

Q. Do you know of any one else who has had diarrhea, and has thrown up?
A. Only two men. That I know of.

Prosecutors Closing Address:-

The evidence of two witnesses has shown that Spr. Grant appeared on parade in an unsteady condition that could not be mistaken for illness. It was by his own admission not in a fit condition for work. In my opinion he has failed to give a satisfactory explanation of why he believes he was sober. There is no evidence to show that he actually was sober. It has also been shown, that the accused had a considerable quantity of strong liquor, 8½ hrs. before parade time.

Defence Closing Address:-

Spr. Grant had previously been sick with diarrhea. This combined with the liquor, made him very ill. Under such condition, a person can very well be shaky and unsteady on their feet. A full night and a half hours had passed since he had drunk the liquor. No evidence was given that he smelled of liquor. My contention is, that Spr. Grant was sick and the evidence does not prove he was drunk.

Plea in Mitigation of Sentence by the Accused:-

I have been overseas for four years, and I know my crime what is now too good. Most of my time has been spent in the infantry. About a year ago, I was sent out of the infantry, on account of my age. I didn't want to leave, and after being sent to the 5 C.I.R.U. I had two opportunities of going back to Canada. On one of them I was detailed as a P.O.W. escort, and I was paraded, and asked to be taken off. His wish was granted. Later I was sent to N.E.T.D. for re-allocation, and could have gone and I would welcome an opportunity to get back if possible. (7)

I hope that the court will try and understand the way I feel about being in the position I am in now, and if I thought that drinking that night would place me where I now am, I certainly wouldn't have taken any. I think that I have acted, and tried to stay with an active part of the army, and I hate to be sent out of it right at this moment. Regardless of any of these things, I do, and always did want to do my bit in this war, ~~and~~

(8) Question by the Court:-

Q- Are you a married man?
A- Yes. I have a wife in the U.S.A.
Q- Have you any children?
A- No, sir.

CDN ARMY (O)

First Witness - M7157 Sgt Nelson, L.F. having been duly sworn states: I, M7157 Sgt Nelson, L.F. am platoon sergeant of No 1 platoon, 32 Cdn Fd Coy. The accused D82203 Spr Grant, A.R. a member of 1 platoon, whom I recognize, was in a shaky and unsteady condition on the morning parade at 0730 hrs 25 Aug 44. I asked him what was wrong with him and he stated that he was drunk. He had all the appearances of being drunk and was in no condition to go to work to carry out the duties required of him. I told him to go to his tent and lie down and he did not seem to know where it was. He had to be assisted in order to get there.

Spr Grant and I bought a bottle between us and we each drank some during the evening. It was about an average size wine bottle of spirits which I believed to be cognac but have since found out to be similar to what is commonly known as Calvados. We finished the bottle and went to bed at about 2300 hrs.

CASE OF

E-1 D-82203 Sapper GRANT, A.R., R.C.E. - No. 1 C.E.B.U.

PLEA IN MITIGATION OF SENTENCE

It is quite obvious from this man's conduct sheet why he was sent up for Court-Martial, even though he was only AWL seven days. From his Army record it is quite clear that he has been a consistent offender, as far as being AWL is concerned. There are some possible reasons why he has been a consistent offender. In the first place, he is an American citizen. He enlisted voluntarily in the Cdn Army on 25 May 40, in the 1st Bn of the Black Watch Regt. He came overseas with the regt and he was with them until the end of 43, at which time he was returned to NWTD to be sent back to Canada and possibly discharged as being overage for inf but at that time he was compulsorily transferred to the Engrs as he was a carpenter in civilian life. I may point out here that during his stay with the Black Watch, he had little opportunity to practice at his trade of carpentry. This has been quite a concern to him, as he could foresee his return to civilian life. As he had not practiced at his trade for three to four years, he realized that he would be under a definite handicap. With the Engrs, he evidently became a tradesman carpenter Gp "C" and joined the 32 Fd Coy and landed in France at the end of Jul 44. However, he didn't have much opportunity to practice at his trade but carried on his military duties until a charge of drunkenness was placed against him on 6 Sep 44. At that particular time, it was not unusual for people to drink under the stress of war and he was given quite a severe punishment considering. About this time, he had injured his knee, developed water on the knee and was in hospital in France from 18 Sep to 12 Dec 44. He returned to this country and finished his detn on 20 Dec 44. From that time on, he was given fatigue duties in the EU and was consequently "browned off", but not working at his traded. I also may state that the accused had no leave for a period of 20 months, but he was eventually given 9 days' leave from which he failed to return at its expiration. Again he returned to the unit and was given these fatigues to do in the course of which he went AWL for this period of 7 days. The accused has a cat of L-3. From his Army record, it is quite clear, although his stability is classified as 1, it should be considerably lower than that. He is married and has been on occasions worried about his family at home. I think the Court should definitely consider this man's case in the light that he be discharged as soon as possible. His use to the Army is very limited and it is no cure to sentence him to further detn. He has done his duty and his age is such that he should be returned to civilian life.

Order convening the Court

On Active Service, this 29 day of January, 1943.

Whereas it appears to me, the undersigned, an officer in Command of 5 Cdn Inf Bde, on active service, that the persons named in the annexed Schedule, being subject to Military Law, have committed the offences in the said Schedule mentioned.

And whereas I am of opinion that it is not practicable that such offences should be tried by an ordinary General Court Martial; * ~~and that it is not practicable to delay the trial for reference to a superior qualified officer~~.

* Omit where Convening Officer is a Commanding Officer or is of Field Rank.

I hereby convene a Field General Court Martial to try the said persons, and to consist of the Officers hereunder named.

* Omit if not applicable.

* ~~I am unable to appoint~~
~~five (three Officers to form the Court)~~
~~two duly qualified Officers as President~~
~~three Officers having more than one year's~~ ~~service~~
~~for the following reasons, namely:-~~

In my opinion, military exigencies, namely, the dispersion of units, and difficulties of communication and other difficulties render it inexpedient to observe the provisions of those rules inconsistant with Appendix "A" to A.F.O. 292 on the trial of the person named in the annexed schedule.

ADDRESS BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

All I have to say is that the object of the defence is to prove that the man was in camp until the 17th of April which I think has been accomplished. The reason his name had not been called on parade is that he had been marked AWL at the muster parade and it seems that the unit made no effort to ascertain whether he was in camp or not, they marked him AWL and seemed to forget him.

ADDRESS BY THE PROSECUTING OFFICER

I would suggest that when a man is charged with being A.W.L. even if it is only five minutes late on parade he is still AWL in fact. While we have no evidence to the fact that this man's name was called on parade it may be true that it was not. The onus rests on him to see somebody about it and have his name put on the roll. If he attends parades and doesn't have his name called out I would suggest that man is AWL for the whole period.

THE COURT IS CLOSED TO CONSIDER IT'S FINDING

THE COURT RE-OPENS

PLEA OF MITIGATION BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

The accused volunteered for Active Service in Jan 43, just two days after his 18th birthday. He came overseas in April 44 but due to an L-3 category he was withheld from action but as we can see he volunteered as soon as he could with a view of going into action. On his last summary trial where his C.O. told him he would be returned to Canada as soon as possible. He asked if it was possible for him to be held in this country for a short while to straighten out personal difficulties. He was told,no you will go back to Canada at once. He doesn't want me to go into it in detail but the gist of the matter is that there is an illegal child born of a woman he had known and he didn't know whether the child was his or not. The C.O. was not interested in this matter but the man wanted to know definitely whether it was his child or not, if it was his he wanted custody of the child and see that it was brought up properly, it was with that idea in view that he went absent. He has since learned that is is not his child and wants to return to Canada as soon as the Army sees fit to send him home.

Mr President + Members of the Court.

You are called upon to punish a man who has decided to go absent as he was actually sitting in the train which was to take him back to camp in due time. This statement goes to prove the character of the accused Pte Grant joined the army voluntarily as he was 19 - and now after three years service he has only been found guilty of a few negligible offences if one considers his age.

I would also like to bring up to your attention the fact that Grant was quite unhappy to be posted to a French Canadian unit as he could not ~~stand~~ speak French. You must agree that a man of his age would less apt to overcome such handicaps.

[redacted]

The Prosecutor declines to make an opening address.

The witness, Capt J. Mitchell, RCAMC attached to 1st Regt RCA, having been duly sworn is examined by the Prosecutor:

A. 6 On the morning of the 24 May, I was called to see a gunner who had been shot. I arrived at the barrack room and found the gunner lying on the floor. One of the men had applied first aid and stopped the haemorrage. I examined the gunner and found a wound in the right side of the chest, going through the upper end of the right arm resulting in a combined comminuted fracture of the right humerus at or above the surgical neck. I removed the first aid dressing and applied a shell dressing, treated for shock with [redacted] while later he was removed to the station hospital at Kapyong and from there to the Seoul Victoria Hospital.

Q. 7 Was Gnr Cannon the man who was injured?

Q. 9 Will you tell the Court what happened?

A. 9 At the time, the troop returned from the firing range and were engaged in cleaning their rifles when the accused came in the room and asked if anyone knew just exactly how the cartridge was extracted from the rifle. There was some controversy about that question and my rifle was used to demonstrate. I had just finished cleaning my rifle and the bolt was on the bed. Gnr Cannon handed the bolt to the accused who assembled it. The accused said "If I had a round, I could demonstrate more clearly whereupon I gave him a round. I was

A. standing on the right of the accused and Gnr Buchanan on the left. The bolt was pulled back twice while I was watching and I proceeded to remove the 2 by 4 from the rifle through and wind it up. During this time the accused continued to demonstrate to Gnr Buchanan. At this time the rifle discharged. Looking in the direction the rifle was pointing I saw Gnr Bannon walk towards the accused and myself saying he was shot. I might say that the accused was holding the rifle at the point of balance with his left hand and the muzzle was held low pointing towards the corner of the room while his right hand worked the bolt.

Cross Examination by the Defending Officer

DEFENCE

The Defending Officer declines to make an opening address.

1st Witness, Richard Cut Charles Lewis CLUTT, [illegible] 2nd Bn Regt RCA. Having been duly sworn is examined by the Defending Officer:

Q. 57 Will you give the Court an account of what happened on the morning of 24 May?
A. 57 On the morning in question, we were at tyfl and we had come back in from the ranges. In our unit there are a lot of recruits who have not been with us only a short time. Now the men had bolted out their rifles and were cleaning them in the ablution room. The room in question is a long affair about this size and there were about 30 men in the room, rifle cleaning utilities. The beds of which they speak were palliasses. They were in front of Dow and Buchanan's beds which are along the right side and in about the centre of the room. I was in this room inspecting some of these rifles when it suddenly occurred to me that all the men who were on the ranges that morning know how the rounds were ejected. From my question, a short discussion ensued and there was quite a conversation on the ejector and extractor of the No 4 Mark 1 Lee Enfield rifle. I walked over to Dow's bed where he was sitting cleaning his rifle and I showed the men in the room, the screw in the slot which acts as the ejector. Most of the men took my word for it but Dow and Buchanan seemed to be in doubt. I then took the bolt of Dow's rifle and assembled it. At that time I was standing at the foot of Dow's bed which would be about 4 feet from the wall. I showed the two of them how the action worked. Dow seemed to grasp the idea while Buchanan still argued the point. I then made the remark that if I had a round I could show him more clearly. I was given a round. He moved then in between Dow and Buchanan's beds, Buchanan about 3 feet from the wall, then myself, and then Dow. I was holding the rifle, at this time, pointing to the corner of the room and as far as I can recollect, while the men were in front of the beds, there were none in the corner where the rifle was pointing. The round was put in the rifle, I closed the bolt, lifted the bolt back once while leaving the round in the magazine not far enough out for the extractor to work. I then grasped the rifle but Buchanan made a remark that

A. ...stating such a fine lot as storeman he was, without ... and wanted to attain unto his three stripes. This he did after a good deal of hard work on his part for during the day he was, of a necessity, in the stores and had to get practice in gun drill and knowledge of guns almost entirely on his own. He mastered this subject just as he mastered all other subjects and soon became a very capable Lewis instructor. He was promoted to Sgt and became a detachment commander and is today considered one of the best detachment commanders in his bty. He has always been above average in his smartness of appearance, his manner and his dress and I believe he is an example of a smart soldier as well as a very capable and willing instructor.

In summing up this case, the evidence for the prosecution, produced so far, shows that the demonstration was made at Tidal Camp on the morning of 24 May in a barrack room. It was made possible because of the fact that nothing else was available, with a live round.

The evidence shows that by accident, someone walked in the line of fire of the rifle and the evidence also shows that the rifle apparently fired itself. The trigger was not pulled by the Sgt. That also appears to be purely accidental. So far as the prosecution is concerned, negligence was due to the fact that someone walked across the path of the rifle while the accused was not looking and speaking for the prosecution that appears to be the only negligent thing which occurred.

ADDRESS TO MR. PRESIDING OFFICER

In opening, I would like to dwell shortly on the service of the accused which constitutes 10 years service - 2 years in the RCAF prior to the outbreak of war and 3 years with the Active Force. Four years of the seven which he served in the WAR was carried out with the Infantry, the first winter of which the accused carried the rank of Sgt. He has been overseas since the arrival of 5 Cdn Armd Div, one year and eight months ago.

The entry of this NCO into a barrack room at Lytt practice camp was prompted by zeal and enthusiasm. He was not sent there but chose in his line of duty as instructor to assure himself that the weapons were receiving the proper care. Being an instructor and being aware that there were several men in that unit who were newcomers from Canada who were likely unused to the No 4 Mark 1 rifle, he decided to take the opportunity of finding out what knowledge they may have of one of the more intricate parts of its mechanism. The answers were not altogether satisfactory and having in mind the attitude entertained that one simple demonstration is worth a thousand words of explaining and with the latter was uppermost in his mind, he proceeded with method to his demonstration. This demonstration took place in the course of a few minutes before dinner. The accused contends that perhaps the best of his recollection should have been considered but the opinion of the court that the use of live ammunition for training or demonstration is rather a practice in the Army today. Live ammunition in battle schools and training in the use of grenades are a regular habit. The defence feels also that some responsibility rests with the others as well as with the individual handling the firearms, that is a man should not step in the path of a rifle whether loaded or unloaded.

The charge against the accused is one of negligence. I have sought a dictionary definition of the word. I quote "habitual neglect" and neglect is defined as "not to care for". At no time in the record of service of this NCO has there been any reference of any kind of his behaviour or demeanour in his records. I have from one of his seconds, one of the officers records, stating that as an NCO he is considered very capable.

It is the contention of the defence that the unfortunate accident, I say again accident, which we all have been used to the prosecution and also by the court that this trial was due, to zeal and enthusiasm on the part of an efficient soldier and the defence is of the firm conviction that it was pure accident. The defence submits that this case be dismissed on the grounds that there is no evidence to show negligence.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE IN THE CASE OF

B.15080, Sgt. GRANT, Charles Lewis,

41 Cdn Lt AA Bty

5 Cdn Lt A A Regt R.C.A.

The accused demands that all evidence be taken under oath.

First Witness: B.15342 Gnr.Dow,J.H. 41 Cdn Lt AA Bty
having been duly sworn states:-

After coming back from Rifle Range at Lydd Camp on the morning on the 24th of May 1943, we went to our barrack room to clean our rifles. Sgt. Grant came into the room and asked anyone in the room how the cartridge was ejected from the rifle. Some controversy enused as to how the cartridge was ejected from the rifle. At this time I was cleaning my rifle along with others in the room. My rifle was used to demonstrate just how the cartridge was ejected from fifle. Gnr.Buchanan and myself were with Sgt.Grant. Sgt.Grant said,"If I had a round I could show you". I gave Sgt.Grant a round I had picked up outside the Garrison Theatre the night before and at that time was on the window sill. The round was eased back once or twice but still remained under the extractor, which Sgt. Grant pointed out to us. Iwas standing on the right of Sgt. Grant during the demonstration. I commenced to wind up my pull through while Sgt. Grant was demonstrating to Gnr.Buchanan. It was during that time that the rifle discharged. I did not see what caused the rifle to discharge. When I heard the shot, I looked in the direction the rifle was pointing. The next thing I saw was Gnr. Bannon walking towards Sgt. Grant, Gnr.Buchanan and myself. He said,"I've been shot, get a doctor".

Questions by the accused:

Q.1: Can you recall where we were standing in the room?
A.1: We were standing between my folded blankets and Gnr. Buchanan's about the centre of the room along the right wall

Q.2: How close to the wall would it be?
A.2: About four feet.

Q.3: Was the rifle waving around the room or was it pointed in one direction?
A.3: No, it was held pointing low towards the corner of the room

Q.4: Do you recall how I was holding the rifle when the shot was fired?
A.4: No, I was not looking at that time.

Q.5: How was I holding the rifle before you looked away?
A.5: The left hand held the rifle at the point of balance, right hand being on the bolt head.

Q.6: Do you recall how I was dressed?
A.6: Yes, you had coveralls on with web equipment and steel helmet.

Second Witness: F.86621 Gnr.Buchanan 41 Cdn Lt AA Bty.
Having been duly sworn states:-

After coming back from Rifle Range at Lydd Camp on the morning of the 24th of May 1943, we went to our barrack room to clean our rifles. Sgt. Grant was giving us a demonstration on the ejector of the rifle, to show Gnr. Dow and myself how it would eject a cartridge. Sgt.Grant asked for a round, the round was picked from the window and passed to Sgt. Grant. Sgt. Grant took the round and placed it in the rifle, then shoved the bolt home and eased the bolt back slowly extracting the round from the chamber. Then I said to Sgt. Grant that the round did not eject, and he pointed out that he had not brought the bolt far enough for the ejector to work on the round. Sgt. Grant closed the bolt again and the round went off. Then I looked up and saw Gnr.Bannon holding his arm, he said to Sgt. Grant, "I believe you hit me" Sgt. Grant went to Bannon's assistance.

Questions by the accused:

Q.7: Can you recall where we were standing in the room?
A.7: I was standing between the two folded blanket rolls about a foot from the wall and you were standing in front of me, Gnr.Dow was standing next to you, facing me.

Q.9: Did the round go off immediately I closed the bolt?
A.9: Yes.

Q.10: Do you recall how I was dressed?
A.10: Yes, you had coveralls on and skelton web with steil helmet.

CASE OF

F-55584 Pte. GRANT, E. 3 CITR

STATEMENT OF ACCUSED

I am 35 years of age, single, and grade 11 education. I helped my father run a hotel before I enlisted, a temperance hotel. I enlisted 15 July 1940 in the Cape Breton Highlanders. I came over with them in 1940 as Coy Clerk in "A" Coy. I was reboarded to Category "C.1" because of a broken foot in 1940. I was sent to 5 CDRU (AD). I was there until it was disbanded in Feb 1943. I then went to 7 CIRU until it disbanded in March 1944. While there I was in charge of "A" Coy quarter stores as well as Coy Clerk. "A" Coy was reception Coy and the QM came from the field and after a few days went to another company and the staff was always changing so I was placed in charge as there was nobody there except a few category men. I had to sign for all stores. I was never in trouble over my job. I was reboarded in March 1944 and given L.4 which was for old "C.1" of broken foot before I enlisted. When unit was disbanded I was sent to CTS as a batman. I did not ask to be one, I was told I had to go. After 6 weeks I paraded to the Colonel to be returned to my unit as I did not like being a batman. When I got to 4 CIRU I was hut orderly for a few weeks and was then sent to 3 Cdn Reallocation Unit, 21 Army Gp. I was sent from Reallocation Unit as my category was too low for a Field Unit. I was returned to 4 CIRU and a week later sent to H. "D" Gp as a clerk. I stayed there until end of Sep 1944 and left because I did not get along with the CSM. I had no trouble with my job, and got along alright otherwise. I came back to 4 CIRU and was put on fatigues and sent to 2 Cdn Tobacco Depot and got along alright there until I was replaced by CWAC personnel. I was sent back to 4 CIRU and put on sanitary fatigue and the week before I went absent was put in QM stores. I was fed up with being pushed around ever since I have been in the army. The only reason I was fed up and could not be satisfied in employment for my work was - Nine of the men in the unit were categorized at the same time and all the others have been returned to Canada but I have been kept because I was a clerk but instead of working as a clerk I have been on fatigues.

NO CROSS EXAMINATION

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 86(D).

STATEMENT BY DEFENDING OFFICER.

Sir, I was at HQ "D" Gp, CRU, at the time the accused worked there as a clerk. Any connection I had with him I found his work as a clerk to be satisfactory and I feel that something should be done to see that he is suitably employed or returned to Canada. This man is a qualified clerk Gp "C" and has grade 11 education.

Sworn Statement by B 37637 Pte GRANT GEORGE JAMES ON PLEA OF GUILT

To start with just after I came over to this country I had trouble with my wife, just after Christmas time through correspondence we became reconciled and I then awaited my leave. I went on leave in March and while on leave made proper reconciliation with my wife but at that time she had not received her dependents allowance which I had started in Jan. This time my wife was very pressed for money while at home I asked for an extension of leave in London & was told to make the proper application through my unit. On return I made the application through the proper channels which came back for a statement in my hand writing, this was refused again I had in the meantime made further investigation about her dep. allowance and I was told that it would go through in Jan. then papers came back stating it would start in Feb. in the meantime I had signed an allotment of one hundred dollars to my wife out of my deferred pay which I was all I could sign, ~~I had~~ money started to go to my wife after the incident which involved this charge. I had gone to the town of Gra this night and purchased 2 bottles of creme de Cognac. from R.A.F. Chaps, my chum & I had these bottles to drink between. My last memory was in the Cafe and my first memory the next morning was in the R.P. Hut. I was worried about my wife while I was drinking. Normally I can hold my drinks but this night I went over the wire and apparently had too much to drink. In the army I have a pretty bad record and since coming with the C.W. Bat have tried to mend my ways as I like the unit I did not wish to cause any trouble as it would only reflect on my crime sheet again. That night I drank approx. 5 pts of bee and one bottle of creme de Cognac. I had letters from my wife to the effect that my home might be broken up again abou one week before I made my mistake. I have one child three years old.

Question. How long was the dependents allowance started for.
ans. For about 18 months.

Character Witness Capt C. Bridges A/oc 1 Cdn. C.W. Bat.

sworn states:-

Question Capt. Bridges would you tell the court your capacity at the C.W.B.

ans. I serve as Adj and in the absence of the OC. have acted in his Capacity. I have been Adj for 4 yrs.

Question Tell the Court briefly what you know about Pte Grant & how he has acted in the C.W. Bat.

Ans. Pte Grant joined the C.W. Bat [illegible] he came

With rather a dirty Conduct sheet and I had a talk with him to the effect that I hoped he would not give any trouble because in a small unit we did not want anyone around who could not behave themselves. Pte Grant did on one occasion use his M.C. for his own use without permission I did give him a talking to & I believes that he would do what he was told from then on & give no more trouble. Pte Grant has always been a very hard worker even while under open arrest he has done a good many jobs & has been very keen to make himself useful at the unit. In addition to that Pte Grant has had a certain amount of domestic trouble, he came to me about it, I tried to help him but compassionate leave could not be granted. He is in my estimation a man that has to be kept busy & I have never found any mean streak in him.

(Question 3) Do you know anything about the restoration of Pte Grants Dep. Allowance.

Pte Grant at one time had proceedings started for a divorce but later reconsidered this with his wife and reconciliation was made, naturally the Dep. Allowance was stopped & due to no fault of Pte Grants it has taken more time then it should have to start again and I know that has caused him a good deal of worry in support of his wife (Question 4) Do you know any dates in regard to the starting up of the dep. allowance.

No but I believe a letter was held up at C.M.H.Q and a second one was sent to start the Dep. Allowance & then the results of the first started it going. this caused an approx. 2 months delay.

Summary of Evidence

Summary of Evidence in the case of No B 37637 Pte Grant G. J. 1 Cdn. C.W. Laboratory CAO, charged with striking his superior officer [AA Sec 8(1)], charged with using threatening and obscene language to his superior officer [AA Sec 8(2)], charged with disobeying a lawful command given by his superior officer [AA Sec 9(2)], charged with resisting an escort [AA Sec 10(3)], charged with drunkenness [AA Sec 19].

By direction of the Officer Commanding, the evidence is taken on oath.

First Witness Capt W.D.P Cavanaugh 4 Coy Cdn Dental Corp. sworn states:—

At approximately 2315 hrs 8 Apr 45, in the wash room between Dental Clinic and RAP, HQ 1 First Cdn Army, the following incident occurred. I was standing near the doorway of the washroom, when the door was flung violently open, knocking me backwards across the room. Pte Grant G. J. after opening the door in this manner, lurched into the room in a dishevelled and excited state, and by demanding the Sob damn M.O. I told him to quiet down and before I could say any more he had struck me a glancing blow on the shoulder I seized him, and opened the door and called the Provosts who had just entered the hallway. The Provosts forcibly took the man towards the RAP office. Capt Cavanaugh states that during this time he was in his shirt sleeves with no insignia of rank showing.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

Second Witness Capt J. G Middleboro RCAMC. M.O. HQ First Cdn Army sworn states:—

On the night of 8 Apr 45 at approximately 2315 hrs I was attending to the injuries sustained by two soldiers in the RAP, HQ 1 CA (Main) when the accused was brought in by a chum of his, the guard on the main gate, and a medical corporal from my private RAP. I requested them to have the accused sit on a chair, to avoid undue the chair to the floor. I then assisted him back to the chair but he wished to speak to the M.O. concerning his wound. The M.O. was busy at the moment with two other patients of more serious nature, so I asked him to wait a moment. The accused walked from the chair to the M.O's desk and demanded to speak to him about his face. The M.O. ordered him to sit down. He refused to sit down. He made several threats using profanity. He went with his chum out of the RAP. Ten minutes later I saw the accused wrestling with his escort in the room adjoining the RAP. The accused returned to the RAP and walked at the M.O. catching him by the front of his tunic. The M.O. ordered him to be quiet and sit down. He refused and left the RAP with the escort. The M.O. then phoned the Provost and walked over to Camp Office to contact them. About 15 minutes later I saw the accused with the Provost outside the RAP buildings. The accused returned to the building accompanied by the Provost. The M.O. instructed the Provost what to do with the accused.

I planned for the Provost to come for him after I had determined that his lip was cut and asked his escort to have him returned to the RAP, the following morning for treatment. The accused objected to this and demanded treatment immediately. I tried to reason with him and explain that it was impossible to treat him in his present condition. He then became violent towards me seized the front of my tunic, and said "I don't give a God damn if you are a capt or a major I am going to poke you". at this point I left for the camp orderly room to call out the guard as the Provost had not arrived. I then returned to the RAP and found the accused arguing with the dental officer Capt W.D.P. Cavanaugh in a threatening manner. In a few minutes the Provost arrived and removed the accused. Re Accused [illegible]

Argument for the Defence

1. Accused admits having been drunk and on return that he was appearing before the Summary of Evidence stage. He knows nothing of the matter except indirectly but appears to recognise the testimony of witnesses.

2. Under the circumstances he only pleads for the least of the forms of punishment and in doing so he accepts [illegible] all possible blame in respect of the story set up by the statements of Capt Bridges.

3. The testimony about the disorder is borne in of such a weight that the action of the accused in punching in order to get away from it is understandable. It further brings out the appalling conditions which [illegible] any sensitive man [illegible] to which he would object. He pays allowances and therefore no one of his wife [illegible] his family suffer.

4. The statement of Capt Bridges brings out a further point that some comfort to the CO's Unit. Gabriel has been working hard and willingly and that whenever Evans was trying to take a straight line in spite of his part. He should be taken into account along with his trouble at present again to the accused his temporary upset of the whole affair — removing at least the suggestion that the actions of the accused arose from a mere trouble making tendency — a suggestion which the facts although ~~weight~~ determine these.

5. Under the circumstances it is submitted that there is a proper case for a suspended sentence, or if the Court can not see fit to go so far, then for the minimum sentence. This man has learned very well to his present regret and, if possible, should remain there.

CONFIDENTIAL

FIELD GENERAL COURT-MARTIAL

DEFENCE FOR SGT GRANT

1. Sgt Grant has pleaded guilty on all three charges. The Defence pleads for mitigation of sentence in view of the following considerations:

(a) Length of Service

Sgt Grant joined the 48th Highlanders in September 1939, and came overseas December of the same year. He has served five years in the Army, practically all of that time in the UK. He joined the Army out of sense of duty and left a civilian job at which he was earning between 40 and 50 dollars per week as a broker in arbitrage. He served in France June 1940, and now wears the 1939-43 Star.

(b) Record of Service

Sgt Grant remained with his regiment until September 1941, when he was SOS to hospital for thirteen weeks with a fractured leg. After a brief period in the Holding Unit in January 1942, he was selected by Selection of Personnel Section as an officer's assistant because of his superior mentality, his age (now 37) and his ability to meet people. In June 1942, he was specially selected for work in the Section at CMHQ. I have been acquainted with him on duty since November 1943, and selected him above all other clerks, both military and civilian, to take supervisory charge of my statistical section composed of fifteen clerks. During his entire period of service in SP Section, Sgt Grant was completely above criticism. He proved himself to be alert, conscientious and capable of carrying supervisory responsibilities. His loyalty was unquestionable and he was entirely reliable both in regard to the accuracy of his work and its confidential nature. He was liked by his associates, both soldiers and civilian women clerks and there was never one case of bad working relationships between him and his staff or myself. His skill in planning statistical production work was an important contribution in the transferring of SP records to the Hollerith Machine system. This was a vital operation and required six months to complete. During his service with SP Section he has never been late or absent without good cause and has always appeared in condition fit for work, never suffering from effects of intoxicating liquor. To my knowledge he never allowed his domestic and personal affairs to interfere with his military duties. In view of this satisfactory service, he earned his rank as Sgt. He is missed by his associates who on many occasions since 2 October, have expressed their regret about Sgt Grant's trouble. I state, on my own part, that he has been a useful and valued assistant.

(c) Crime Record

During his entire length of service, Sgt Grant's crime sheet has been entirely clean and there is no evidence whatsoever of a civil crime record. This is his first offence. This is not the record that is usually associated with criminal tendencies.

(d) His State of Mind

May I draw your attention to the events in the life of Sgt Grant immediately preceding and leading up to his acts which unfolded on 2 October 1944. This will describe, at least, in part, the state of mind of the accused. He is, first and foremost, a human being with feelings and emotions, prides and prejudices, strengths and weaknesses. He has not, at his age, the intents and predispositions of a congenital lawbreaker. His actions on 2 October, were committed as a momentary lapse, the result of a series of emotional circumstances which all seemed to heap themselves upon him simultaneously. Sgt Grant was married in October 1942. He has one child and he and his wife are now expecting another. He has felt, justifiably or otherwise, that his mother-in-law took a more than normal interest in his domestic affairs, and that his wife's primary loyalty sometimes vacillated between her husband and her mother. During the Flying Bomb episode, Mrs Grant and their son evacuated London and Sgt Grant was left alone to carry on their domestic establishment. He missed his wife and son. Late in the Flying Bomb attacks their home and neighbourhood was blitzed and Sgt Grant was one of the first who assisted in the immediate rescue work even though he had been badly shaken up. It wasn't until after a night of distressing circumstances that he returned to assess his own loses and put his own home in order. He was profoundly disturbed by this event and we noted this at the Section. Shortly after, he obtained leave which he spent with his wife and family, at which time he learned of his wife's intentions to leave him. He naturally argued his case with her and no decision had been reached when he returned to London. Shortly after, however, his wife informed him, by letter, that she intended to carry out her intentions, even though they were expecting another child. He got good and drunk and returned home to find his wife's allowance cheque from the Canadian Government to the amount of £16.11. 8d. He was broke, he was mad, he was mad at his wife, it was only natural to want to get even with her, part of the cheque was assigned pay anyway, he decided to cash it and continue his "bender", which at least gave him momentary release from the circumstances which had seemingly descended upon him from all sides at once. In trying to hurt his wife, in the emotion of the moment, he didn't realize the consequences or the degree to which he was hurting himself. Yet during those moments of sobering up, when he realized what he had done, his only thought was to get this thing cleaned up. He accordingly confessed and promptly submitted a full statement on the whole matter (I refer, sir, to Exhibit "G"). He pleads guilty, he is prepared to face the music and pay his debt. That the accused had something to get drunk about is further illustrated by the events since his arrest. While he has been under close arrest, his mother-in-law, of course, has dominated the thoughts, feelings and actions of her daughter. She was discouraged from writing or communicating with her husband. He has not heard from her. It was by a letter from his mother-in-law only a few days ago that the accused finally learned of his wife's intentions to petition for divorce, retain custody of their son and give away by adoption their child who is not yet born. Here, Sir, stands a man who less than one month ago had all that a man could want - a wife, family, the ability and opportunity to work and earn, a good Army record, self-respect and good standing among his superiors and associates.

Today, because of a single act of indiscretion committed under distraught circumstances, he sees his world disintegrating and crumbling around him. He is ashamed of himself. He feels he has let down everybody - his family, SP Section and the folks back home. He pleads for the opportunity to become a useful soldier again. He pleads for the opportunity to fight for his family rights, his home, his wife, his son, his coming child. This was not the act of an inveterate or even potential lawbreaker. He doesn't need a long term of detention to learn his lesson. He has already suffered. He wants only to pay his debt and get on the right track again, as soon as possible.

2. Summary

The Defence pleads for mitigation of sentence. It pleads for mitigation because of Sgt Grant's long length of service. It pleads for leniency because of Sgt Grant's clean record sheet. This is his first offence. It pleads for mitigation of sentence because of Sgt Grant's good record of service, both as a soldier and as a valued officer's assistant in SP Section. It pleads for leniency because of the distress and duress which Sgt Grant was under at the time of his offence. It pleads for leniency to give him a chance to put his own house in order and reconstruct his own affairs. It pleads for mitigation of sentence because Sgt Grant realizes what he has done. He pleads guilty and he is prepared to take the penalty. As his defending officer, may I respectfully ask the Court to consider that, to impress the offender with the seriousness of his offense, a full and adequate sentence is not always desirable. The accused has already suffered and now pleads for leniency. Finally, if it please the Court, may the fact that Sgt Grant has been under close arrest for 21 days pending Court-Martial be taken into account.

3. Respectfully submitted.

1. At 0900 hrs 2nd Oct 44, the above named N.C.O. was reported to be absent without leave.

2. On the 4th Oct 44, Sgt. GRANT was apprehended by the Civil Police at 48 Richmond Park Road, London. This absentee was escorted to the Barnes Metropolitan Police Station. He was subsequently transferred to No. 6 Provost Detention Barracks, 30, Henrietta St. London, W.C. 2.

3. Since Sgt. GRANT's absence, Mrs. Grant the wife of this N.C.O., has complained to the Paymaster of the non - receipt of her last Allowance Cheque. It has now been ascertained that Sgt. GRANT forged and cashed this cheque in his wife's absence and spent same on drink.

4. On the 5th. inst., Sgt. GRANT was interviewed and interrogated by the writer concerning his absence and also the missing allowance cheque. The following voluntary signed statement was obtained in writing from Sgt. GRANT in which the points in question are covered:-

BEGINS: COPY 5 Oct. 44.

First

I Reg. No. B.73036, Sgt. GRANT, G.R. have been cautioned by C/Sgt. Denton of the S.I.S. that I am not obliged to say anything unless I wish to do so, but whatever I now say will be taken down in writing and may be used in evidence.

This is to certify that I have read over the above caution and to show that I understand its meaning, I sign my name hereunder.

Signed; G.R.GRANT.

Apropos to the above statement I wish, of my own volition, and in all sincerity, to try and give as complete a picture of the circumstances leading up to this final charge of being A.W.O.L.

It is I'm afraid an admission of a person, fond of drink, who gives way to excessive indulgence under provocative circumstances.

The story starts on my wedding day, Oct 10th. 1942. with an excess of drink in male company on my pre-marital night, and too many mixed drinks at our reception following the church ceremony, I'm ashamed to say I create a distinctly unfavorable impression on my wife, her Mother and other relatives and friends. However the rest of our honeymoon passed in fairly convivial atmosphere, with perhaps the exception of the Friday evening, Oct. 16th., when I stayed below in the bar drinking with friends whilst my wife retired to bed alone. Apparently I came up stairs many hours later in a more or less helpless condition, to become involved in a domestic argument in which, tho I was entirely to blame I was the abusive one, not physically, but mentally.

On several occasions in the months to follow, the same sort of scene was renacted. On one particular occasion, during a visit to my Mother-in-law in Brighton, my wife and I met her Mother and some of her friends from R.E. Records office at Brighton, for noon-hour drinks. Altho I had asked my wife not to accompany these people back to their office, for a very particular reason which is of no interest to anyone except my wife and me, she listened to their pleading and did so with the promise of staying but one half hour. After remaining in the pub for over an hour during which time I had a goodly number of Scotches, I proceeded during an alert to the R.E. office in search of my wife. I waited for some time and then returned to the pub and continued drinking until closing time. I then repaired to my Mother-in-laws home, where meeting my wife and being furious by this time, I lost my temper and smacked her face. The rest of the week-end was a very trying one but after a two-hour conversation with my Mother-in-law, we parted on somewhat strained but I though friendly terms. I was wrong. A month later my Mother-in-law moved to London and I consistently managed to make excuses for not accompaning my wife on visits and refusing invitations to meals etcetera. In the month of August (1943) whilst on leave my wife had decided on Saturday to rent a self-contained furnished flat in Ruislip, we had been living in Barnes but as my wife was an expectant Mother we had decided to search for more suitable accomodation. The following day, Sunday, my Mother-in-law accompanied my wife and me to view the flat at Ruislip. It was an unfortunate visit, it ended in a very nasty insulting scene at the end of which I felt obliged to tell my Mother-in-law to leave. My wife was horribly upset and I of course furiously angry. This same occurrence I made my excuse for excessive drinking on more than one occasion. We of course did not let the flat at Ruislip.

Then came the birth of our son on October 28th 1943. At first relations with my Mother-in-law were more or less friendly but during my wife's stay in nursing home she managed to make my wife very miserable over a stupid argument as to our choice of Christian names. We, as was our right chose two names appearing on both family ties. His first name Antony, after my wife Antonia, his second Rutherford after myself. When my wife told of this scene a good week after the happening, I was adamant re changing the names and vowed never to speak to her Mother again and to go back on my promise to have the child baptised a Catholic. At first we had bad luck with the youngster, he was seriously ill for quite a long spell. During this period I was very worried and as usual sought refuge in drink, as was my wont. Ever since we married, altho I gave my wife a certain amount of money each pay day, I'm ashamed to admit I usually managed to borrow most of it back before next pay-day and occasional other sums as well. To this day these sums have not been repaid.

Came a change of residence in January this year and a return to health of our youngster and for a few months almost normal married home life. Then a bad spell in May when I borrowed twenty pounds from my wife which I squandered, mostly on drink. This led to another nasty argument at the end of which my wife promised to forgive me and I agreed to start paying her back at the rate of two pounds a pay. The next pay day I kept my word, but the following one I missed. I had been away on a special job for my office, and as usual spent far more money than my expense sheet allowed for. However I determined to make it up.

Then came the awful Robot raids and an exceedingly trying period. Getting little if any rest at night, I drank very heavily but I was always sober enough and close enough to my house to be of help should the situation warrant it. During these many weeks, my wife's nerves got steadily worse until early July she evacuated to her Mothers home at Levens, Westmoreland. The following week our home was blitzed whilst I was in. All that early Monday morning I helped rescue people at the incident, returned home at six in the morning to try and tidy our own house. My nerves were badly shaken.

shaken/. The house was in such a state that I dreaded going home at nights, most evenings I spent in the local. We both wrote regularly and lovingly and quite freguently. Finally I got what I though was a grand break, leave was restored and I was given nine days leave. My wife seemed equally pleased as I had made arrangements for all three of us to stay at a lovely family house practically next door to her Mothers. I arrived late on the Friday night of Sept 1st. looking forward to a grand reunion and may say, hoping that it might be a real honeymoon. The first few days were very quiet and I enjoyed family life again. Our baby was grand and I loved to be with him again. On the fourth fifth & sixth days of my leave my wife seemed very distraught. On my taxing her with being under her Mothers influence too much she threw a bombshell. To my utter amazement she said she had decided to leave me and would I give her a divorce. It was such a rude shock after all her loving letters and her early behavior I was at loss as to what to say. I refused to discuss it any further that day and said I was leaving the next morning (Friday) close up the flat and wait for a change of decision on her part. I've forgotten to say my wife is expecting again, much too soon after the first I know but I though and prayed things would be alright. My wife accompanied me to Kendal the next day and after a long conversation at lunch and during a shopping tour, I had convinced her that she should come back, if not for herself, for the sake of the children. She promised to write over the week-end confirming this but I waited until Friday in vain and then received a most distressing letter, reverting her last decision and stating definitely she would never come back. Off the deep end again. Got drunk on Friday the 15th. and on Saturday the 16th. converted her D.A.cheque to my own uses. I had neglected to forward it on to her as I had promised. I was determined to drink myself into an illness or a break down. I have ever since I first met my wife been terribly (perhaps too much so) in love with her and always will be. My people at home who fortunately know nothing of all these my miserable shortcomings are terribly anxious to see my wife and our grand baby. He is the only grandchild. My actions in this drunken episode were stupid and silly, I've no excuse to make other than that as always in moments of stress, go on a bender, hurt myself physically and those I love most, mentally. The amount of the cheque (£16/11s/8d/.) I will of course redeem in full. The arrangements will have to be made through the Paymaster, I have no money of my own at present. All other monies owing to my wife I shall endeavour to repay at my earliest convenence. To close may I express the sincere wish that normal relations between my wife and myself may soon be resumed. I still have enought faith in myself that I still have the power and the will to make her happy.

TRIAL OF

B-73036 PTE GRANT GR ---------- 2 CORU

The accused, sworn, states:-

I went AWL on 5 Jul 45 because I received a letter from my wife stating that she had accepted a full time position and had arranged for the care of the youngster aged 1 year and 11 months at a day nursery. I was worried about that situation because due to the carelessness of someone at a nursery home after the baby's birth we almost lost the child. Instead of applying to the officer for compassionate leave, I immediately went home at East Sheen, near London. There I found that my fears regarding his welfare were justified. He had developed a sthreptic throat and jivinitis, a form of trench mouth under those conditions. It was impossible that he could be cared for at a day nursery on account of the possibility of contagion. My wife and I tried to make other arrangements. That was not possible; under the doctor's advice I wrote to the Adjutant of 2 CIVR, explaining my reason of absence and asking that I be granted leave. On 10 Jul 45, I received a wire from the OC, RD Wing, 2 CIVR, granting me leave until 0300 hrs on 22 Jul 45. During that period I cared for the youngster to the best of my ability, my wife being at work all day long and on 23 Jul 45 at 8 o'clock in the evening when we last saw the doctor he gave me a medical certificate saying that the child was fit to be returned to the nursery. I took him to the nursery on the morning of 24 Jul and I then returned home. My obligation was of course to return to the unit immediately but as I was still worried about his condition and so I remained home. From day to day, I kept on postponing my departure to the unit making myself generally useful around the house and for a period of two weeks I had part time employment for two hours a day, in order to meet my share of the expenses. I attempted to return to my unit on 19 Aug and reached Haywards' Heath to change train for Wassocks and there I was informed by a soldier that the unit had disbanded and the present whereabouts of which he didn't know. I returned to London that evening and instead of reporting to the Provost Corps, as I should have done, I went home. On the evening of Fri 24 Aug, I surrendered myself to the Provost Corps as being a legal absentee. My category is "A". I was a trader on the stock exchange in civilian life. I have been in the army just over six years, Sir. I served with a field unit in 41, 48 Highrs of Canada. After coming out of hospital and convalescence I was assigned to the Personal Selection Section to give units M-Tests. In June42, I was posted to CMH, as a clerk in that section; I remained there until Oct 44. I got married in Oct 42. The reason for my AWL is not an excuse but it is just that I didn't have anything to occupy my mind in the army and I was worried about the child; I just couldn't stand it any more; since the past year I have had no use ofr the army; I've tried to get employment and I've tried; I have ability as a clerk and I know quite a bit about pay work; I was a cashier in civilian life.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 68 (B)

E-1

B-73036 Pte. George Rutherford Grant.

This soldier enlisted 11 Sept. 39, and arrived overseas 30 Dec. 39.
He was employed at C.M.H.Q. from June 1942 until Oct. 1944, on the Selection Personnel Section as a Sgt. in charge of statistics and coding. Up to this time he had a clean record.
Since arriving in England he has been married, and is the father of a child.
Several times he has applied to be given a job, that would be an outlet for his active brain, but this was never granted.
He has also volunteered for Occupation Services. Due to not being employed in a position that he could capably fill, and worries over family affairs, the accused had been in a very troubled state of mind.
In passing sentence, I ask the court to take into consideration this soldier has already spent 24 days under close arrest, and would rather take a forfeiture of pay, so he could be placed in some position where he could be of some use, and releasing some other person so that they could be repatriated to Canada.

Cdn. Army. England.

B 73036 Pte. Grant. G.R.

Sir:

In regard to my being illegally absent without leave, may I submit the following statement.

I absented myself from R & D wing 2 C.I.T.R. Depot Thursday after having been awarded a forfeiture of pay and a sentence of fourteen days Field Punishment, which I felt rather unjust. However that is no excuse for my behavior as I well know but in view of my present personal problems that is the step I chose to take.

Due to straightened financial difficulties my wife has been obliged to take a full time position. We made arrangements for the care of our youngster at a Day Nursery but owing to his having an infected throat and mouth he can stay there for the time being as not possible according to Public Health regulations. As my wife only started work this week any leave for her is out of the question. I am making myself responsible for the care of my son. He is not a hospital case so naturally personal attention is absolutely necessary.

With all due respect for my obligations to the Army. I beg to be allowed to remain at home here. Where rightly or wrongly

I feel my present duty lies.
until Monday, the sixteenth instant, on which day I will report myself to the Authorities at 2 C. I. T. R. and submit to whatever punishment they see fit to award.

Altho on the Point System (I have 212) I should be due for Repatriation,
I am hoping that the Army may find me some further employment in this Country for any period up to a year.

On my return to
Unit I shall submit Doctor Certificates and other Documentary to substantiate the above.

I have the honor to be, Sir,
Your obedient servant
F. R. Grant

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. -DEFENCE-

FIRST WITNESS

The accused, having been duly sworn, states:

Sir, on the morning of 15 Jan I was at home in London, not on leave, and when I went to get up in the morning I found I couldn't get up. My wife went to get the Dr but he wasn't able to come until the morning of the 16, at which time he told me I was suffering from fibrositis, strained muscles in the back, and that the only cure for me would be to stay in bed with heat treatments, and said that I wasn't fit for duty. I have here a certificate from him dated 16 Jan 45 that I tender to the Court.

CERTIFICATE MARKED EXHIBIT 3

On the 16 I wrote a letter to the OC Recep Wing, 2 CITR, and I mailed it. This is the letter with the Receipt Stamp of the Unit on it.

LETTER MARKED EXHIBIT 4

Before sending the letter I sent a telegram to the OC Recep Wing 2 CITR, and I have here the telegram which my Def Offr obtained from the Unit where it was received.

TELEGRAM MARKED EXHIBIT 5

It is true that on Sun the 14 I was with my wife in London without leave, but I had intended to return early Mon morning in time for the first parade. I had lumbago some yrs ago and my back had been hurting me for about 3 wks before the 14th. I did as the Dr directed, stayed in bed, and taking heat treatements, and the following week I sent a second letter to my OC, but I got no reply to my telegram or either of my letters, and I expressed the opinion that I would be free to rejoin my unit the follow-weekend, but the Dr didn't give me my release until 1930 hrs the 29 Jan and on that day all the pipes had frozen in the house, and that evening when I was planning to rejoin my unit the pipes in the loft burst and the lounge ceiling came down. There was nobody else living in the house at the time except my wife and child, and I naturally stayed on to help her clear up the mess, and I decided to stay overnight and report in in the morning, the 30th Jan. At 4 o'clock the same morning the hall ceiling came down, making a terrific mess, and I spent the rest of the morning until noon clearing up the place and wringing out the rugs and carpets, and at this time my wife sent a telegram to the unit saying I would definitely be reporting on the 1 Feb as I had to stay at home and help. I have here the telegram which I offer in evidence.

TELEGRAM MARKED EXHIBIT 6

For 3 days after I was busily occupied with my wife to clear the place up as she isn't able to do heavy work on acct of a miscarriage she suffered last Nov, and on Thurs night when I fully intended to report for duty I was so dead tired and my back was bothering me again that I decided to stay for another day or two. I thought I was doing my wife a favour by doing this and all the work about the flat, and I just continued to do so I'm afraid, Sir. The week of 5 Feb I checked by phone with the Pro Corps at Henrietta St to inquire as to whether I had been posted an absentee and was told there was no record. After that I just stayed on from day to day with the wife thinking I was of help to her and that she was improving, but on the evening of 26 Feb we were discussing matters between ourselves and the wife remarked that the neighbours were getting rather curious as to my continued stay at home and she felt it would be better if I returned to my unit. I can say that my wife frankly admitted that same evening that all the time she wanted me to go back, but I didn't want to as I thought I was doing so much for her. Sir, I was a trader on the Toronto Stock Exchange in civil life, my category is "A" and my age is 38. I would like to make a plea to go across the channel either in a fighting capacity or as a clerk. I was once a Sgt IC of the Statistical Dept in CMHQ, until I made an unfortunate mistake last Nov which I've now paid for. That is all I wish to say, Sir.

NO CROSS-EXAMINATION

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B).

THE DEFENCE IS CLOSED

STATEMENT BY THE PROSECUTOR ON THE FINDING

Documentary evidence has been produced to establish the date of AWL and the date of return are as in the Charge Sheet. The Prosecution wishes the Court to refer to footnote 1, AA Sec 15(1) in this respect.

STATEMENT BY THE DEF OFFR ON THE FINDING

I'd like to point out that this accused made every attempt to notify the authorities of his absence and of the fact that he was ill and that it was impossible for him to return until 30 Jan 45. At no time whatsoever did he make any attempt to hide his absence from the Army.

THE COURT IS CLOSED TO CONSIDER ITS FINDING

THE COURT IS REOPENED

(NOTE ATT)

13 Jan. 45.

In the case of: L 73036 Pte. Grant. D.R.

In asking the court to be lenient with this man I would like to point out that he realizes that he has erred but in so doing he believed that his duty to his wife and child came before everything else. He now realizes that his decision was faulty and wishes to make amends.

This man is a cat. "B" years of age and has the benefit of 2½ yrs. Service as a Dpt in charge of a unit section of the Personnel Selection Branch at C.M.H.Q. x He has taken a wrong turn in life but with a little help and understanding he could once again travel the right path.

I will ask the court to be lenient with this man in order that he may once again become a useful member of His Majesties' Forces.

Prosecution: 1st witness HQ Eighth Army.

T/ann 2695760 RSM Lunn J. Manning.

Sworn, states:-

On Friday 10 Nov 44 on returning from Senigallia to Rimini in a 15 cwt Ford I observed 200 x in front a veh. at 45° angle across the main highway. My driver also saw it and geared down. I stopped 20 yds in rear of the veh. My driver sounded the horn when he saw the front veh. reversing. The front veh continued to reverse despite further sounding of the horn. I shouted for the veh. to stop but it came on a bit the bumper of our veh. I got out to investigate and went up to the veh and asked if he had heard a horn sounding - he replied NO. At this moment I saw a MP on a motorcycle and shouted for him to stop which he did. I explained the case to him and handed accused over to his charge. The MP asked the driver to produce his pay-book but the driver said he did not have it with him. The H.P. asked me to take my vehicle and drive in front of the accused (who I now recognise) and told accused to drive behind my veh and that he would follow in rear, we were to proceed to Corps MP HQ. En route to said HQ the accused overtook my veh at a speed of aprox 40 mph and was almost in collision with Southbound traffic. When accused did get in front of my veh I observed that his veh was not under proper control as it was zig-zagging across the rd. I then got out on the stamp board of my veh and started for the MP to overtake the veh in front and to stop it - irrespective of MP's own danger he got ahead of the accused veh and stopped him. The MP went up to the accused and ordered him to step down from his veh - he refused to do so. On the second order he made an attempt to get out but had to be assisted. He was being brought over to Austin 15 east to proceed to HQ - when on his way he did resist and further assistance was necessary At the police station - he was asked to produce his pay book which he then did and when asked to quote name, rank and number he did repeat it correctly.

Questions by prosecutor :- (Results)

① I recognise accused as driver of the veh.
② The visibility was good.
③ In my opinion the accused heard our horn and shouts.
④ When accused passed my veh he was driving dangerously and was near the ditch several times.
⑤ Accused was not steady when he stepped from veh. Three people had to assist him.
⑥ The veh was not under proper control.
⑦ I judge his speed to have been 45 m.p.h.

Cross Exam: By Defence: (Results)

① The veh slowed down after passing me.
② I do not think the zig zagging was a result of load because the veh was nearly in the ditch several times.
③ The Southbound traffic was heavy, as 30 vehs passed me with no space.
④ When accused left his veh he did not need to be supported and was not in danger of falling down.

On 10 Nov 44 at about 1615 hrs I was on mobile patrol on Catoblea Riccione main rd. At a point 2½ miles South of Riccione I was signaled to stop by RSM Timm he asked me if I would take Pte Grant's particulars. I ordered Grant to step down from his veh. I asked for his pay book he replied "I have not got it" I then asked RSM Timm to proceed to 105 C/Pl HQ. I ordered accused to follow RSM Timm and I followed up in rear. After one mile of travelling I saw the accused overtake the RSM. I gave chase and overtook the accused's veh and signaled him to stop, which he did. I ordered him to step down from the veh. He made no attempt to step down. He made a second attempt in which I had to help him from the veh. I then noticed he was unsteady on his feet and his breath smelt of alcohol. I gave an outgoing 15 cwt and signaled the driver to stop. I ordered accused to take in rear of this vehicle which was accompanied by myself. On ordering accused into the 15 cwt he resisted and I then called for assistance and he was subdued. We managed to get him into the 15 cwt and I told the driver to proceed to 105 C/Pl HQ. On entering HQ I handed accused over to RSM North where accused produced pay book and particulars taken. Accused was then detained for further enquiries.

④ accused stopped immediately when I rejected him in his veh.

Statement in defence of P 17297 Pte Grant Harold Whitfield.

Pte Grant has been with 3rd Inf Bde for approx 10 weeks during which time he has had no charge against him previous to that he was with 3rd Can S.L.I. (M.G.) for a few weeks during his duty with them he had no charges against him.

In the evidence brought out at this court martial he was driving on a road which had heavy traffic, he had no accident other than bumping a fender when he was in reverse and during which time it is quite possible that he could fail to hear the horn of R.C.M. Driving vehicle when ordered to stop which he did promptly when asked for his pay book at C.M.P.O. he produced it and reported his name, No, and Regt. When turned over to Lt Wilson Pte Grant was under the charge of C. Guard Comdr. He was sober and properly dressed. Pte Richard was with Pte Grant at Approx. 1430 hrs and they were not drinking.

It is quite possible that when Grant was ordered into the 15 cwt and told that he was under arrest that a normal argument could result in his having to be helped into the truck.

The evidence brought out fails to establish the fact that P to C had been drinking previous to 1545 hrs.

Plea for mitigation of punishment in case of G 19297 Pte Grant Harold Whitfield. Saskatoon Light Infantry.

Pte Grant enlisted in the Canadian Army when he was 18 years old and had served for the past 5 years, having overseas early in the war. He has been through the Italian campaign to date.

Grant was a youngster when he enlisted and apparently has got off on the wrong foot according to his crime sheet. But for the past seven months he has been doing a good job and has had no crimes against him.

He has been on Line Traffic control through the last action and therefore subjected to many heavy shell fire and this trouble he is in now may be due to a nervous reaction so to speak.

In recommending this I would like to point out the fact that soldier is still young, healthy and can be of very valuable assistance to the army for the time and that he knew what his job was when war started in that he joined up and came overseas in 1934.

G17297 Pte Grant H.W.

1st Witness for the Prosecution - 2695160 R.S.M. Lunn J. Main H.Q. Eighth Army having been duly sworn states -

I am 2695160 R.S.M Lunn J. On 10 Nov 44 I was returning from Sangatta to Rimini in the front of a 15 cwt Ford - at about 1600 hrs I observed a truck 80 yds in front on an angle of 45 degrees across the main highway - my driver also observing this changed down to lower gear and stopped his vehicle about 30 yds from rear of the vehicle in front. Our truck had no sooner stopped when the truck in front started to reverse, my driver on realizing the danger ~~of our position~~ of a collision sounded his horn repeatedly and him and I also shouted as the truck got nearer to us for the driver to stop; the driver still reversed and collided with our bumper. I immediately got out to investigate the case and asked the driver if he had heard a horn sounding. He replied no. Just at this moment a military Policeman on a motorcycle approached the scene of the accident. I shouted for him to stop which he did - I then explained the entire case to him and handed the accused who I now recognize over. The Policeman asked the accused for his pay book and he replied I haven't got one. He was then ordered by the Policeman to get into his truck and he would have to come to his C.M.P.'s H.Q. The Policeman asked me if I would go in front with my 15cwt and he would follow the rear. And told the accused to follow behind me. En route to the above H.Q. the accused driving the Vehicle passed me at approx 45 M.P.H. almost coming in collision with the oncoming traffic. When the truck was immediately in front of my Vehicle I could observe the Vehicle Zig-Zagging on the road. In my opinion not under proper control. I got out on step board of my vehicle and shouted for the Policeman to overtake & stop him which he unnecessary did, unaware of the danger. When the accused stop his vehicle the M.P. ordered him to step down from his truck which he refused to do so. On the 2nd order the accused made an attempt but had to be assisted. He was then told that he was under arrest and that he would have to proceed in another 15cwt to our H.Q. He did resist arrest at that time, until assistance was put into said truck. On reaching the H.Q. he was asked to produce his pay book by Sgt. Major of C.M.P., H.Q. This he did and also quoted his Rank Name & Number as registered in his pay book.

He was then detained for further investigation

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s).(1) and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans.....(5)

(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex....., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

On the fifteenth of August 1944 on approaching our start line to put in an attack I was approached by Cpl Farmer who was in charge of number five section and told me that L/Cpl Grant J. H. was missing from the section. I did not have time to check personally as we were near our start line, but after we had consolidated our position L/Cpl Grant was missing when I took up my consolidation report. I was L.O.B. at the time. L/Cpl Grant reported back.

The defending officer addresses the court:

The charge states that the accused absented himself without leave with intent to avoid an attack. Pfc Gpl Grant has been with the H.H.& H for approximately 1½ years. He came to France on D Day and has been in every battle until this one. He states that he lost his company when it left the start point and reported to B.H.Q. almost at once and tried to get back to his unit. I don't think he had any intention of deserting.

Q Tell the Court your relationship with the accused and the type of person you found him to be A I bunked with Pte Grant and we had several talks about the action of 17 Jan 44 and he admitted he was quite nervous after that action. I believed that the nervousness was gradually disappearing and after we had had a rest I thought it had completely disappeared. When we took over from the Westminster Regt I was given another sec and did not have much to do with Pte Grant. When we went into Camp at Casalnuovo I was sure enough of him to recommend him as 2ic of a sec. Shortly after this he was chosen to attend the Junior Leaders Course. On returning from the Course he was very enthusiastic about it and took over the Brew up in a very good manner. He was on the Coy adv pty to the present front and was waiting for us at Santa Maria and from there to the front everything went fine.

A at the Ortona front I came under MG fire. My nerves got the better of me. I told no one about this just tried to wear it off. At the front on 10 Apr 44 we were under shell fire this worked up my nervousness. When I went in the next night with the pl and hearing stories about being surrounded my nerves snapped. Def Offr remarks in Mitigation of Punishment

I ask the court to consider the circumstances under which this man left his companions. My submission is that it was due to his nervous state and that if we look into and study human beings and their reactions under abnormal circumstances we will not find it difficult to understand about this case. This man must be punished and I ask that his punishment be with the Perth Regt and that his character, his front line service and his prospects for the future be given sincere consideration

* The prosecutor produces certificate of apprehension and submits it to the court The certificate is marked Exhibit "C" and initialled by the president

Plea in Mitigation of B116646 Rfn Ronald Robert GRANT X-9 List RRR, attached 20 Cdn Special Emp Coy.

Rfn Grant joined the RAF in March 1939 as ground crew. In June 1939 he was transferred to air crew and started to train as a pilot. In March 1940 he was sent to Canada on the Air Training Scheme and in May 1941 he received his commission as an officer and afterwards did instructional work.

In October 1942 his chum whom he had known for years was killed when his plane which was in front of Grants, crashed as they were taking off the field. Grant's mind went blank and his plane crashed into a hanger. After four months in Hospital mostly for nerves he was posted to ground work which was a keen disappointment to him, so much so that in July 1943 he asked for a discharge so he could join the Can Army. This was granted in Aug 1943 on medical grounds and he was taken in the Canadian Army as a Sgt, instructing on aircraft recognition.

Being anxious to get overseas he reverted voluntarily to the rank of Pte and was sent over as a reinforcement in April 1944. On the way over three of friends were killed in front of him when they were caught in the closing of a watertight doors. This affected him so much that he was taken off the boat in a stretcher and spent a month in the Hospital for nerves.

In June 1944 he received word that his father who was commander of a Corvette had been killed in action and on D plus 6 Grant arrived in France where he joined the Regina Rifles in the line.

He was sent out of the line in the latter part of Aug for Battle Exhaustion, after having been nearly hit by a 88mm shell. He then spent six weeks in the mental ward at 10 C G H from where he was transferred to the surgical ward for an operation for Haemorrhoids. After convalescence he was sent to 10 CBRBn, then to 20 Cdn Spec Emp Coy in Jan 45.

While at 10 CBRBn in Jan he received word that his mother had died in December. He tried to get a week compassionate leave to England but was unable to do so and after a few days at 20 Cdn Spec Emp Coy went AWL and again in March, when, after a few days he pulled himself together and gave himself up voluntarily to the Provost Corps in Ghent.

Whilst with the RAF Rfn Grant always had a clean record, but having once held a commissioned rank in the RAF, life in the Army hasn't been easy for him as he has had to take a lot of razzing. Grant's one wish now is to take his punishment so that he can make a fresh start then return to Canada to live and marry the girl he is engaged to.

Grant was born and brought up in Scotland and only went to Canada when he went over with the RAF in 40. His only relative now is a sister who is in the ATS and is married to a Cdn Sgt. Grant's present category is M-2, S-1.

In my opinion Grant has undergone considerable mental anguish and punishment prior to going AWL and it is hoped that the Court will take this into consideration. As far as the charge of being in improper possession of revolver is concerned - it so happened that a friend brought it down from his regiment along with several other personal items, that he had left there, just two days previous to giving himself up, and being AWL at the time he had not had a chance to turn it in. From the history of this soldier the court can see that besides being a naturally high strung and nervous soldier, he has had more than his share of bereavements and hard knocks. I hope the court will consider the difficulty this man has had in adjusting himself in the Army as an other rank after serving as an officer in the RAF. He has certainly proved his patriotism and good intention by joining the Cdn Army voluntarily after getting his discharge from the RAF. The fact that he gave himself up indicates, I believe, that he intends to turn over a new leaf and I believe he has suffered punishment mentally in deciding to surrender himself and take the consequences of his wrongdoing and start afresh with a clear conscience.

OBSERVATIONS:

1. In the case of pleas of guilty:- There is nothing in the record of the proceedings which required the Court to advise the accused to change his plea as to 1st & 2nd charge NOT as to 2nd charge.
In the case of pleas of not guilty:- ~~There is legal evidence to justify the finding.~~ ~~In substantial injustice to the accused.~~

2. Rec'd sheet 7 Feb 46

Para 2 disagreed with: No admissable evidence as to orders in question Para 4 " " " : A soldiers duty under K.R.Can.1491 to [illegible] himself with unit orders is limited to "orders so published"; i.e. no provision for in the article. There is no evidence as to publication within the meaning of 1491. The Court was faced with notice that publication had NOT been proved in the summary since, added to the summary is purported notice under R.P. 76 that a unit was, learned, will appear to prove publication of the Orders. From the Address in mitigation the Court was faced with notice that the accused was away from his unit a substantial, not one straight from Aug 44 to 4 Jan 45 and so that Unit Orders 27 Nov. 44 had been received during his (unfortunate legal) absence. From the particulars of 1st charge the Court was faced with notice that the accused was A.W.O.L. at the time of the issuance of unit orders of 6 Mar 45. Accordingly the Court was faced with knowledge that responsibility for breach of these orders was based on a conditional duty under K.R.Can.1491, and since at most that the conditions of this duty had not been established, should have refused the plea, &/or advised accused to change his plea following address in mitigation.

3. Summary: This consists of a list of exhibits, A to K, with a marginal notation as follows "Cdn R.O. (21 Gp) No 774 (xxx)" This R.O. is a reprint of P.C. 2563 of 10 Nov. 44 relating to documentary evidence.

The exhibits attached to the summary are not signed or initialled by the officer taking the summary nor are they identified in any other way as being part of the summary except by an also "Exhibit A" etc.

Exhibits A, B, C, D, H & J are described in summary as certified true copies: they are NOT certified true copies. They are NOT admissable under the a/m R.O.

Exhibits E and I are described in summary as certified true copies of AFs B 252. They are NOT certified. They are NOT admissable under the a/m R.O. The signatures of these (NOT marked as Exhibits) could have been introduced under R.P. 46 as signed statements of evidence, but they were NOT so produced.

Exhibit G. is stated to be "certified true copies of extracts" from the Unit orders in question. They are NOT supposed to be "extracts" They are NOT certified true copies.

4. Sentence: Address in mitigation. Very full. This soldier appears to have had an extraordinary series of misfortunes quite supplimental to demoralize anyone and to explain his misconduct from Jan 45 on. Note para 6 Pch rev. sheet

1. In my opinion the finding of "guilty" on the 3rd charge should remain. The prosecution had given notice before the trial under Sec R.P. 76 that a witness would be called at the trial to give evidence as to the publication of the order, so that it could be proved that the accused had knowledge of the order and that it was known to the accused & the date of publication. The accused pleaded guilty to the charge. Although the accused could not have had notice of the order of 10 March 45 being dated from the time of its publication until the time he was found in possession of a pistol on 10 March 45, he showed he had notice of the order dated 27 Nov 44. As the order of 10 March 45 merely repeated the prohibition against the carrying of weapons which was already in force under the Order of 27 Nov 44, the subsequent acquittal has resulted to the accused from his plea of guilty to the 3rd charge which refers to both orders.

REVIEW SHEET

FGCM - 19 Apr 45 (29/91)
B-116646 Rfn Grant R.R.
X-9 List R Regt C, att 20 Cdn Spec Emp Coy

1. The m/n soldier was charged with two offences of absence without leave and disobedience of Part I Orders. He pleaded guilty to all 3 charges and was found guilty by the court.

2. The particulars of the 3rd charge allege that on 10 Mar 45 the accused was in possession of a P35 automatic pistol contrary to 20 Cdn Spec Emp Coy orders dated 27 Nov 44 and 6 Mar 45. Both Part I Orders referred to are produced in the summary of evidence without proof of posting or that the accused was award of the existance of the orders, or their contents.

3. The plea in mitigation states that the accused was in hospital installations from Aug 44 until sometime in Jan 45, when he went to 10 CBR Bn and then to 20 Cdn Spec Emp Coy. He remained with this latter unit a few days and then went AWL, remaining absnet until 10 Mar 45, the date of the offence concerning the pistol.

4. As the soldier was with 20 Cdn Spec Emp Coy for a period after 27 Nov and prior to his absence, under KR (Can) 1491 it was his duty to make himself acquainted with published orders. Ignorance of such orders is no excuse unless a mis-apprehension arose through lack of clarity. Therefore the accused could be found guilty of neglect in relation to the order of 27 Nov 44 provided posting were proved. As he was not with the unit from the issuance of the order d/6 Mar 45 until the commission of the offence, breach of this latter order should not have been alleged in the particulars of the 3rd charge.

5. By his plea in mitigation the def offr stated "As far as the charge of being in improper possession of revolver is concerned - it so happened that afriend brought it down from his regiment along with several other personal items, that he had left there, just two days previous to giving himself up, and being AWL at the time he had not had a chance to turn it in". This, of course, is no excuse in law, as the failure to turn in the pistol was due to the fault of the accused in remaining absent and the statement can be considered only one in mitigation and not in exculpation.

6. The plea of guilty can be accepted as a judicial confession of the offence, and on that basis alone the 3rd charge has been passed. Attention of appropriate authorities has been drawn to the record of service of the accused as outlined by the defending offr.

7. The ADJA 3 Cdn Base Reinf Gp should in future return defective summaries for correction such as the present for adequate proof of posting or notice of orders before trial is advised.

PLEA IN MITIGATION

Plea in Mitigation of B.116646 Rfn Ronlad Robert GRANT, X-9 List RHR, attached 20 Cdn Special Emp Coy.

Rfn Grant joined the R.A.F. in March 1939 as ground crew. In June 1939 he was transferred to air crew and started to train as a pilot. In March 1940 he was sent to Canada on the Air Training Scheme and in May 1941 he received his commission as an officer and afterwards did instructional work.

In October 1942 his chum whom he had knownfor years was killed when his plane which was in front of Grants, crashed as they were taking off the field. Grant's mind went blank and his plane crashed into a hanger. After four months in Hospital mostly for nerves he was posted to ground work which was a keen disappointment to him, so much so that in July 1943 he asked for a discharge so he could join the Canadian Army. This was granted in August 1943 on medical grounds and he was taken in the Canadian Army as a Sgt, instructing on aircraft recognition.

Being anxious to get overseas he reverted voluntarily to the Rank of Private and was sent over as a reinforcement in April 1944. On the way over three of his friends were killed in front of him when they were caught in the closing of a watertight doors. This affected him so much that he was taken off the boat in a stretcher and spent a month in the Hospital for nerves.

In June 1944 he received word that his father who was commander of a Corvette had been killed in action and on D plus 6 Grant arrived in France where he joined the Regina Rifles in the line.

He was sent out of the line in the latter part of August for Battle Exhaustion, after having been nearly hit by a 88mm shell. He then spent six weeks in the mental ward at 10 Cdn General Hospital from where he was transferred to the Surgical ward for an operation for Haemorrhoids, after convalescence. He was then sent to 10 Cdn Base Rft Bn, then to 20 Cdn Special Emp Coy in January 1945.

While at 10 Cdn Base Rft Bn in January he received word that his mother had died in December. He tried to get a week compassionate leave to England but was unable to do so and after a few days at 20 Cdn Special Emp Coy went A.W.L. and again in March, when, after a few days he pulled himself together and gave himself up voluntarily to the Provost Corps in Ghent.

Whilst with the R.A.F. Rfn Grant always had a clean record, but having once held a commissioned rank in the R.A.F., life in the Army hasn't been easy for him as he has had to take a lot of razzing Grants one wish now is to take his punishment so that he can make a fresh start then return to Canada to live and marry the girl he is engaged to.

Grant was born and brought up in Scotland and only went to Canada when he went over with the R.A.F. in 1940. His only relative now is a sister who is in the A.T.S. and is married to a Canadian Sgt. Grants present category is M-2, S-3.

In my opinion Grant has undergone considerable mental anguish and punishment prior to going AWL and it is hoped that the Court will take this into consideration. As far as the charge of being in improper possession of revolver is concerned - it so happened that afriend brought it down from his regiment along with several other personal items, that he had left there, just two days previous to giving himself up, and being AWL at the time he had not had a chance to turn it in. From the history of this soldier the Court can see that besides being a naturally high strung and nervous soldier, he has had more than his share of bereavements and hard knooks. I hope the Court will consider the difficulty this man has had in adjusting himself in the Army as another rank after serving as an officer in the R.A.F. He has certainly proved his patriotism and good intention by joining the Canadian Army voluntarily after getting his discharge from the R.A.F. The fact that he gave himself up indicates, I believe, that he intends to turn over a new leaf and I believe he has suffered punishment mentally in deciding to surrender himself and take the consequences of his wrongdoing and start afresh with a clear conscience.

B.11007 Sgt. Grant, W.H. 27 July 44

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION - Capt. L.F. Kirkpatrick, 12 Cdn Fd Regt RCA, having been duly sworn, states:-

I am Capt L.F. Kirpatrick, O.C. "B" Tp, 12 Cdn Fd Regt RCA. Shortly after 2200 hrs, on 20 July 44, I went to B.4. gun position which gun had been reported out of action. At that time I thought there had been drinking among the members of the crew of B.4. I warned Sgt. Grant who was in charge of B.4 and his two Bombardiers, that there was to be no further drinking at the gun. I left and returned there again at 2300 hrs, at which time Sgt. Grant definitely showed evidence of having had too much to drink and he was placed under open arrest by T.S.M. Kukulski.

EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTION:-

Q. Do you hold your Sgt. responsible for what happens on your guns 24 hrs a day?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was Sgt. Grant in charge of the gun to the extent that he was in charge both times you visited the gun?

A. He was on the gun itself and I don't recall him giving orders.

Q. Was "B" Tp in action and responsible for fire from 2000 to 2359 hrs?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. In your opinion was Sgt. Grant drunk?

A. I would say he was drunk.

Q. What evidence in particular made you draw this conclusion?

A. His movements were very uncertain; he was rather boisterous.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENCE:-

Q. Was the gun out of action for a logic reason when you first went to it?

A. Yes it was.

Q. Had drinking been prohibited in "B" Tp by any previous order?

A. Not to my knowledge.

Q. Was the Sgt. on his tour of duty on the gun when placed under arrest?

A. I don't know, that is something that is worked out between the No.1. and his Bdr.

Q. Have you sufficient knowledge of Sgt. Grant to conclude that his boisterousness and uncertain movements were due to too much to drink rather than over fatigue and strain?

A. Yes I think so.

Q. How long have you known Sgt. Grant?

A. Over a month.

Q. How long have you been personally in touch with Sgt; Grant during that month?

A. Less than two week's time.

c o n t i n u e d

EXAMINED BY THE COURT:-

Q. Drunkenness, insofar as the A.A. is concerned, is vaguely defined. In fairness to the accused whom the court must assist if any doubt exists relative to the charge, the court would point out in their opinion an individual is said to be drunk if he is incapable of carrying out his duties and orders given to him. I will allow you after having made your statement to reconsider an answer to your previous question and ask having heard the court's opinion of drunkenness, was the accused drunk while in charge B.4 Gun at 2300 hrs 20 July 44.

A. No, the accused was not drunk but under the influence of liquor.

QUESTION BY PROSECUTION:-

Q. Would you have been willing to go up with the Infantry while Sgt. Grant's gun fired a close D.F. Task with Sgt. Grant i/c Gun?

A. I think there would have been a certain amount of risk to it, above the normal risk due to the fact he had been drinking.

Q. If that risk was involved do you think he was fit for duty?

A. No, not if his 2 i/c was there and could have done the job.

SECOND WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION - Lt. W.D. Cook, 12 Cdn Fd Regt RCA, having been duly sw orn states:-

I am Lt. W.D. Cook, Tp Ldr, "B" Tp, 11 Bty, 12 Cdn Fd Regt RCA. The accused Sgt. Grant is a # 1 on B.4. Gun. At 2300 hrs on 20 July 44, I went to B.4. Gun to see what I would do about putting B.4. on line. Coming up to the gun, I heard T.S.M. Kukulski put Sgt. Grant under arrest. At that time Sgt. Grant had, in my opinion, been drinking previously but was not drunk.

EXAMINED BY PROSECUTION:-

Q. Would you have been willing to go up with the Infantry while Sgt. Grant's gun fired a close D.F. Task with Sgt. Grant i/c Gun?

A. No, sir.

Q. Why not?

A. In my opinion, the gun crew under and including Sgt. Grant would not be operating 100% efficient.

Q. Do you then think he was fit for duty?

A. In my opinion, the duties that Sgt. Grant would perform would not be performed with 100% efficiency.

Q. From the basis of the court's opinion of drunkenness, or what constitutes drunkenness, was Sgt. Grant drunk?

A. No, sir.

THIRD WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION - B.11042 T/BSM Kukulski, S. having been duly sworn states:-

I am B.11042 T/BSM Kukulski, Tp Sgt Major of "B" Tp, 11 Fd Bty, 12 Cdn Fd Regt RCA. The accused, Sgt. Grant, is No.1. of B.4. Gun. I returned on the night of 20 July 44 from a recce, reported in to our Tp Command Post, and heard from Lt. Cook and Bdr. Millar that B.4. Gun had been reported out of action. I went over to B.4, which was No.1 on that position, and noticed that Sgt. Grant had had a few drinks. I placed him under arrest.

EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTION:-

Q. In your opinion, was Sgt. Grant drunk?

A. No, sir.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENCE:-

Q. Did you have any further trouble with B.4. Gun?

A. No, sir.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE IN THE CASE OF B11007 Sjt. GRANT, W.H., 11 Fd Bty 12 Cdn Fd Regt a member of the Canadian Army Overseas.

The CO directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS for the prosecution - Capt. L.F. KIRKPATRICK 11 Fd Bty, 12 Cdn Fd Regt having been duly sworn states:-

I am Capt L.F. Kirkpatrick, troop commander, B Troop 11 Fd Bty 12 Cdn Fd Regt. Sometime after 2200 hrs 20 Jul 44 B 4 gun was reported out of action. I was in the troop command post at the time, and I went to B 4 to investigate. Sjt. Grant reported trouble with his buffer and recouperator system, and they were working on it at the time. I thought that some of them had been drinking, and I warned Sjt. Grant and his NCOs before I left the gun. At 2300 hrs I returned again to B 4 to see if the "Tiffy" who had been sent for had anything to report. At this time Sjt. Grant definitely showed signs of drink, and Sjt/Major Kukulski, who was there at the time placed Sjt. Grant under open arrest. In my opinion Sjt. Grant was NOT in fit condition to carry out his duties as a No. 1.

Q.1 - Who was the Sjt. in charge of B 4?

A.1 - Sjt. Grant

Q.2 - Was he on duty, and in charge of the gun between 2200 hrs and 2359 hrs 20 Jul 44?

A.2 - The duty shift on the guns are arranged between the No. 1 and his NCOs. Both times that I visited B 4 Sjt. Grant was on the gun.

Q.3 - Were B Troop guns in action, and engaging targets between 2000 hrs and 2359 hrs?

A.3 - Yes.

Q.4 - What led you to believe that Sjt. Grant, and at least part of his crew had been drinking?

A.4 - The actions and speech of Sjt. Grant and some members of his crew did not appear normal.

Q.5 - What was not normal about Sjt. Grant's action and speech?

A.5 - Sjt. Grant's movements and actions were uncertain.

Q.6 - What in particular led you to decide that Sjt. Grant was unfit for duty?

A.6 - His uncertain movements led me to believe that he was not in a fit condition to carry out his duties.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

L.F. Kirkpatrick

SECOND WITNESS for the prosecution - Lt. W.D. Cook, 11 Fd Bty, 12 Cdn Fd Regt having been duly sworn states:-

I am Lt. W.D. Cook, Troop Leader, B Troop, 11 Fd Bty, 12 Cdn Fd Regt. On the night 20 Jul 44 I was on duty at B Troop command post. B 4 had reported to me over the Tannoy System, that it was out of action, due to difficulty with the recoil mechanism. At approx 2300 hrs, B 4 reported to me over the Tannoy System that this trouble had been fixed, and also that they needed new line as the recordings to the GAP 1 and 2 had been rubbed out accidentally while working on the recoil mechanism. I went out to see what I would do about putting B 4 on line. When I arrived at B4 I heard Sjt/Major Kukulski talking to Sjt. Grant. I went over to them, and heard Sjt/Major Kukulski tell Sjt. Grant that he was under open arrest. By Sjt. Grant's speech and manner, I think that he had been indulging in alcoholic stimulents, and in my opinion was not in condition to control B 4.

Q.1 - During the 2 or 3 hours previous to 2300 hrs was B Troop in action, and engaging any targets?

A.1 - Yes.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

W.H.

THIRD WITNESS for the prosecution - B11042 TBSM Kukulski, S. 11 Fd Bty, 12 Cdn Fd Regt having been duly sworn states:-
I am B11042 T/BSM Kukulski, S., T/BSM of B Troop, 11 Bty, 12 Cdn Fd Regt. I returned at approx 2230 hrs 20 Jul 44 from a recce of the new position, and reported into the Troop Command Post. Lt. Cook told me that B4 pivot gun in this position had been reported out of action. I went to the gun to find out what had gone wrong. I noticed that Sjt. Grant had been drinking. I concluded this from the fact that I smelled alcohol on his breath, and his speech was not normal. I placed him under open arrest.

Q.1 - How long have you known Sjt. Grant?

A.1 - I have known Sjt. Grant since July 1940 when we were members of the then 11/69 Battery.

Q.2 - How long have you been T/BSM of B Troop?

A.2 - Since January 1942, at which time Sjt. Grant took over a gun.

Q.3 - Did you consider Sjt. Grant unfit for duty?

A.3 - Under the circumstances of darkness, his gun not being on correct Zero Line and having close targets to fire upon, I do not think he was fit for duty.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

S.S. Kukulski

The accused having been duly cautioned in accordance with RP 4 (E) says - "I do not wish to make a statement at this time"

W. Harry Grant

FIRST WITNESS for the defence - B11124 Bdr. McILREAVEY, J. 11 Bty, 12 Cdn Fd Regt having been duly sworn states:-
I am B11124 Bdr. McIlreavey, J. B Troop, 11 Fd Bty, 12 Cdn Fd Regt. About 2300 hrs 20 Jul 44 I was on B4 and Sjt.-Major Kukulski came over and called Sjt. Grant off the gun. Sjt. Grant went down and the next thing I heard was Sjt.-Major Kukulski placing him under arrest, and telling him he was unfit for duty. Sjt. Grant came back to the SP and he called up to Troop Command Post on the tannoy and asked for line to No. 2 gun. They passed the line back and Sjt. Grant put angle on dial sight and layed the gun. I put out the night picquet then both of us remained on duty until the battery moved.

Q.1 - Was Sjt. Grant on duty and in charge of the gun when Sjt.-Major Kukulski put him under arrest?

A.1 - No Sir. He went off duty at 2200 hrs.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE IN THE CASE OF B1100/ Sjt. GRANT, W.H., 11 Fd Bty 12 Cdn Fd Regt a member of the Canadian Army Overseas."

FIRST WITNESS for the defence (Con) -

Q.2 - Did Sjt. Grant take charge of the gun during fire orders after 2200 hrs?

A.2 - Yes, part of the time. I acknowledged some of the orders myself, as we were alternately helping top up the gun.

Q.3 - Had Sjt. Grant been drinking during the evening?

A.3 - Yes, he had a little cider.

Q.4 - When did he have the cider?

A.4 - He had several small glasses during the evening, from 1900 hrs on.

Q.5 - Did you consider he was unfit for duty?

A.5 - I consider he was fit for duty, which is shown by the fact that he laid the gun after he was placed under arrest.

Q.6 - Was there any check to prove the gun was laid properly?

A.6 - Yes, Lt. Cook checked it by compass, and declared it was OK. We did not fire again on that position.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

CERTIFIED THAT RP 4 complied with.

When the Prosecutor called as first witness B16247 Sgt MacDonald, D.I. 12 CBR Bn the accused was asked whether an adjournment was required before the evidence of this witness was given. Accused replied no adjournment was desired.

FIRST WITNESS

B-16247 Sgt. MacDonald, D.I., 12 CBR Bn, having been duly sworn states:

I am Regt Provost Sgt. 12 CBR Bn and I deal with men sentenced to Field Punishment. I recognize the accused as Tpr Grant. I personally instructed Tpr Grant to report to the Guard Commander at 2200 hrs 8 Jul 44.

Court — The accused was now asked whether an adjournment was required before cross examination of the first witness. The accused did not desire an adjournment.

CROSS EXAMINATION

Q. Does the Guard Commander know who is undergoing F.P. and who is to report to him at 2200 hrs?
A. Not to my knowledge, Sir.

COURT

Q. Was the accused man instructed concerning his duties on 8 Jul 44?
A. No Sir. He was instructed on the 7 Jul 44 as there are special duties over Saturdays and Sundays.
Q. How do you know who is undergoing F.P.?
A. I have a list Sir.

SECOND WITNESS

H-77213 Sgt Buckwold, H.K. 12 CBR Bn having been duly sworn states:

I recognize the accused as Tpr Grant having recognized him since 11 Jul 44. On 8 Jul 44 I was Unit Guard Commander. I had a paper on which the men signed their names when they reported. I turned it into the Guard Room when I was relieved. I did not see the accused either that night or in the early part of the following morning.

CROSS EXAMINATION

I did not have a list of the personnel undergoing F.P. There is nothing in Guard Standing Orders Concerning personnel under F.P. to my knowledge. I believe it is a weekend arrangement.

COURT

I was in the Guard Room personally. I received the passes and had the defaulters sign the list as they reported to me at 2200 hrs. I didn't know the defaulters were to report until the first one actually came in.

THIRD WITNESS

H-26005 S.S.M. Holliday H.B., 12 C.B.R.Bn., having been duly sworn states;

I recognize the accused as Tpr Grant. Tpr Grant reported to me at Coy office shortly after 1530 hrs 9 Jul 44. Previous to this I made a number of tours of the lines, I did not see Tpr Grant. When Tpr Grant reported to me he was sober and properly dressed.

Plea For Mitigation of Punishment

1. The evidence on this charge shows a lack of supervision of troopers under going F.P. which is a temptation to them.

2. His Crime Sheet shows no detention - bigest crime A.W.L. 1 day 8 hrs all in nearly 4 years service in this country.

3. For his crime he has already spent 11 days in detention for which he automatically loses 11 days pay. This should be enough for 17 hrs A.W.L.

Its use [illegible] is rather to avoid waste of ammunition, by ensuring that the opening round of a shoot is close enough to the target to make sure of its being observed and to enable fire to be corrected quickly on to the target.

In unmapped country, or in country where observation is particularly difficult, the method should save both time and ammunition in addition to allowing surprise to be achieved more easily.

3. The method can be used equally well with ground bursts instead of air burst, provided that there is suitable open country on which the percussion rounds will be observed from both posts.

4. The procedure to be followed is laid down in an addendum to "Flash Spotting Training Pamphlet No. 2" (in preparation), and all observation

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(*1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). PLEA IN MITIGATION

Mr President and members of the court. Pte. Grantham has pleaded guilty to the charge as read, but at the same time he would like you to bear in mind that during his period of absence he did not bring discredit on the Cdn Army, but conducted himself like a normal law-abiding citizen.

In spite of the fact that, when Pte. Grantham went away there was no indication, rumour or otherwise, that his unit was leaving for overseas, and at that time they were still stationed in Eastbourne, he was under the impression that should he return he would be charged with desertion, because his unit had left for the Mediterranean theatre during his absence.

I ask the court to remember that Pte. Grantham's knowledge of Military Law consists of a brief resume of Sec's 4-44 as laid down in K.R. para 490.

Pte. Grantham has wanted to come back many times but, due to the mistaken impression he has been labouring under, he has spent many a sleepless night wondering how he could make amends.

Consider also gentlemen, his PYR 6. It will be noted that this soldier is one of the first to join in the defense of his country and except for this unfortunate incident he has a comparatively clean record. This soldier admits that he has done wrong and now he is willing to pay for his misdeed. He asks the mercy of the court and their consideration to let him atone for his mistake by letting him fight for his country.

Offenders Plea in Extigation

82 CDN ARTY COY R.C.A.S.C.

I have known the accused for a considerable length of time- first with the 11th L A ARegt Pl RCASC and again with the 2nd H A A Regt Pl RCASC. During these times that he has come under my command he has been in trouble most of it, has served a lot of time in detention and has lost the greater portion of his pay. After some investigation I have found that this "crime wave", let us say, is not new, indeed it has been going on from the first day he joined the Army. Punishment does him no good whatsoever for he would,no doubt, as he has proven before, carry right on in his old rut as soon as he was released.

He has no reason for his actions, and I'm not saying he doesn't know what he is doing, because he does, its just that he cannot help himself. To him it's the natural thing to do, his only course. The force that drives him is something beyond deliberate malicious planning, he doesnit feel that the army is against him and he must get even. No Mr President, he is driven by something deep in his mind, which to him seems quite right, and over which he has no control at all. This man is absolutely of no use to the Army and of no use to himself. I believe that in some way he is mentally unbalanced and request that a Psychiatrist's examination be applied for as soon as possible.

Sir: "I am D 121580 Cpl Hampton W, 82 Cdn Artillery Coy, R.C.A.S.C. On 30 Jan 44, in my official capacity as Administration Corporal of 82 Cdn Artillery Coy R.C.A.S.C. I had occasion to report L 7585 Pte Grass, C.F. whom I now recognize, absent without leave. Pte Grass had been given a pass from 1700 hrs 28 Jan 44 to 1700 hrs 30 Jan 44. On orders from the C.S.M. I was to see that all men who had been detailed for guards were available. At approx 1700 hrs when Pte Grass had not reported in I immediately carried out a search of the entire area but Pte Grass was nowhere to be found. I reported him A.W.L. and substituted another man to take his place on guard, at 0930 hrs 9 Feb 44 as I was going into the men's kitchen I met Pte Grass and asked him if he had reported himself back. He informed me that he had not and I immediately reported to the Orderly Room that Pte Grass had returned. I then got the R.P.Corporal who placed Pte Grass under close arrest, Sir.

Evidence of Capt. J. Balfour, RCAMC, 15 Cdn. Gen. Hospital. Duly sworn states -

Q - (Prosecutor) - Were you in charge of the V.D. ward, 15 Cdn Gen Hosp. during the period March and April?

A - Yes, I was.

Q - Do you recognize the accused as one of the patients you treated during that period?

A - No.

Q - When V.D. patients are in your ward are they fully aware of the nature of the disease they are being treated for?

A - Yes

Q - Are they aware of the length of time necessary for complete cure?

A - The time differs with individual cases. We can give an estimate of time to the patient.

Q - Would 21 days be sufficient for cure for V.D.?

A - The average time is five weeks.

Q - Would there be any way in which a patient could get word that he had been cured other than by official notification.

A - No.

Q - Will you tell us briefly what happens when a patient is notified?

A - As a general rule the man is not officially notified of discharge until he appears on a discharge parade. On my rounds I decide whether the man is or is not cured. The man is previously notified only under exceptional circumstances. In the case of soldiers under sentence the staff is always warned not to divulge to the patient the fact he is to be discharged.

Q - (Ordinary Officer) - Does the length of time to effect a cure depend upon where the disease is contracted?

A - Yes. The patient would more readily respond to treatment in England than he would in Italy.

Q - Would it be obvious to a patient that he is cured?

A - He might be convinced in his own mind a cure had been effected.

No re-examination

S T A T E M E N T

I, the undersigned, corporal of the Carabinieri, CARLO GIORDANO, stationed at Avellino, make the following statement:-

From 17 hours of April 23rd. 1944, to 17 hours of the following day, I was ordered to be on service at the Carabinieri barracks in Avellino. From the Lance Corporal, PLACIDO CANTELLI?, from whom I took over, I was informed that there were in the cells three diserters from the Allied Forces, for whom, under no consideration whatsoever, should the door be opened, as, for any reason whatsoever, even for supplying food to them, or for taking them to the toilet, soldiers of the Canadian Police would attend to their needs. In fact, about 19 hours of the 23rd. April as mentioned, three soldiers of the Canadian Police came to the barracks, in their presence had the door of the cell opened and gave to the three prisioners three tins of bully beef and some biscuits whci were packed in a cardboard box, after which they caused the door to be closed again. After this the cell door was not opened again, neither by me nor by the other carabinieri under my orders.

During the night several times we passed before the cell door without noticing anything unusual.

About 6.30 hours of the follwwing day, on visiting the stables, I noted the existence of a hole, made in the wall which leads into the said cell, and that the door leading from the stables into Via Mancini was open, and, rendered suspicious by this, I noted that the three prisioners had escaped through the hole.

In proof of the above statement I sign,

Signature.

Dalle ore I7 del giorno 23 aprile I944alle ore I7 del giorno successivo ero comandato in servizio diispezione alla caserma dei CC.RR.di Avellino.Dall'appuntato CANTELLI Placido,smontante dallo stesso servizio,all'atto della consegna mi fu fatto presente che nella camera di sicurezza erano rinchiusi tre disertori delle forze alleate,ai quali,per nessun motivo,si doveva aprire la porta,perché,per ogni cosa,anche perla somministrazione del vitto ad essi o per condurli alla ritirata,avrebbero provveduto militari della polizia canadese locale,Infatti verso le ore I9 del 23 aprile detto,tre militari di poliziavennero in caserma,facendo aprire l'accesso della caseradi sicurezza alla loro presenza e consegnarono ad essi tre scatle di scarne e dei biscotti contenuti in uno scatolo di cartone e quindi fecero rinchiudere la porta.Dopo di ciò la camera di sicurezza non venne aperta né da me,né da altri militari in seguito a mio ordine.

Verso le ore 6,30 del giorno successivo nel visitare i locali della scuderiaiotai l'esistenma di un foro,praticato nel muro che immette in detta camera di sicurezza e la portacina della scuderia che mena in via Mancini aperta ed,insospettito di ciò,attraverso il foro praticato rilevai che i tre disertori erano evasi.In fede di quanto sopra misottoscro.=

The 1st Witness as to Character, Capt. E.J. M. Lawrence, C.C. Clerks Training Wing, 1 CORU, having been first duly sworn, states:

The accused was an Instructor on the Regimental Clerks' Course when I took over the Company in September, 1942. Since that time I have found him a very congenial man to work with, he got along exceptionally well with the students and on the whole was a very good instructor.

THE PROSECUTOR DECLINED TO CROSS EXAMINE THE WITNESS.

The court is here faced with a delicate problem insofar as military affairs are concerned. The accused has committed no crime or ignored no duty. Indeed we have his by Commander praising his record.

We have now the position where the military tribunal is sitting before what is a simple breach of discipline of the British Army brought into your Court by virtue of a R.O.

~~[illegible]~~

~~[illegible]~~

For not obeying these rules - though I submit strictly they were insufficiently brought to his attention - he shows that he is a bad soldier in non-military matters. I feel that insofar as the accused is concerned there is little wish to punish him personally, in a severe manner.

~~[illegible]~~

A proper punishment would be fully brought about by a reduction of the corporals rank and we urge no further penalty be given him.

~~[illegible]~~

(me) RM

He has been a confirmed Corporal for a number of years and is an excellent Soldier. He has not taken the time of the Court by a facetious plea and we respectfully ask that the Court take that fact into consideration in giving a moderate sentence.

Finally, while there might have been some explanation in case it were a moderate time for the accused to have been awaiting trial.

We put to you that you will strike off the 23 days that he had served.

City Gate House,
London, E.C. 2

Second Witness for the Prosecution — K85437 Sgt Johnston, S.L., S.I.S. Canadian Provost Corps having been duly sworn states:-

On information received from Sgt Carriere, I proceeded to Clerks Training Company on the 29th of June 1943 and there interviewed the accused. I identified myself to him and informed him that I was investigating the finding of Canadian cigarettes in the possession of a civilian in London. The accused was properly cautioned in the presence of Capt Lawrence and stated that he had sold some cigarettes belonging to Pte Barber to a civilian in London as a favor to Pte Barber. Further questioning regarding a carton bearing his particulars which was found in a civilians possession and the accused replied "I was taking 1000 cigarettes to my girl friends home in London and lost them on the train. I did not sell them and do not know what became of them". The accused refused to make a written statement. He was then placed under close arrest by Capt Lawrence. On the 3rd of July 1943 I was present at Clerks Training Company when an identification parade was held and saw the civilian, Mr. Billham, pick out the accused from a parade of 12 men.

Cross-examined by the accused.

Q. Did you caution me that anything I said would be used against me?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you not state that Gnr Barber had told you that he gave me some cigarettes for which he received from me £ 3 -10 -0 and from which I had £ 1 -0 -0?

A. Not in those exact words but I stated that Gnr Barber had stated that he had accompanied you to London and he had given you 600 Sweet Caporal and 400 American cigarettes which you had sold and handed him £ 3 -10 -0 and he in turn handed you back the £ 1 -0 -0.

MM

Q. Did I state that I sold those cigarettes to a civilian?

A. You stated that you had sold Barber's cigarettes for him.

Q. On what date did this take place?

A. That was not brought up at all.

Q. Did you not when questioning me about Gnr Barber's cigarettes without giving me a chance to explain suddenly switch to the subject of a carton of cigarettes with my name on found at a civilians in London? When attempting to explain did you not turn to Capt Lawrence and state that "I can not accept the explanation that these cigarettes were lost on the train" and that "this man should be placed under close arrest?"

A. When questioning the accused, he was given sufficient time to answer all questions and did in fact make several statements and was given every opportunity to make a written statement if he desired. This he declined to do. After his declining to make a statement I requested Capt Lawrence to place him under arrest. I may have said "I find it hard to believe your story of losing them on the train due to the fact that they were found in the same house with Gnr Barber's carton."

Q. Did you not assume the attitude that I was guilty?

A. Witness declines to answer the question.

The accused was cautioned as follows:

" Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence".

After the caution the accused elected to give evidence as follows:

The accused, L- 161 Cpl. Gratrix, R.J. Clerks Training Wing, #1 C.G.R.U. having been duly sworn, states:

On the week-end of 19 June 1943 I carried with me to the train when proceeding to London 1000 cigarettes which I had received from Canada the day before. The cigarettes disappeared somewhere between Aldershot and Waterloo. I boarded the train in company with Cpl. Ladoucer, Cpl. Atkinson, Pte. MacKay and Pte. McCreary. The train was full. I placed the cigarettes on a baggage rack. Cpl. Ladoucer and myself stood outside the carriage in the corridor. The remainder finding seats. Cpl. Ladoucer and myself proceeded straight through to Waterloo. The remainder of the party changed at Wimbledon to go to Clapham Junction. On arrival at Waterloo I remarked to Cpl. Ladoucer that the cigarettes were gone and that I hoped one of the boys had taken them with him when he left the train. On Saturdays it is a regular habit of mine to go direct to Waterloo, sometimes accompanied by Cpl. Ladoucer, for the purpose of purchasing, if available, a "Greyhound Express". I left Waterloo and went to Clapham Junction and asked the remainder of the party if they had picked up my cigarettes. They stated that they had not. On Monday morning in the Assistant Instructors Office, Clerks Training Wing I remarked to Sgt. Gemmell that I had lost 1000 cigarettes on the train. I request Cpl. Ladoucer, Cpl. Atkinson, Pte. MacKay, Pte. McCreary and Sgt. Gemmell to appear as witnesses on my behalf. Having frequented Clapham Common and area during the past year on week-ends and other leaves and having been billeted there on a three months course, Mr. Billham has repeatedly seen me at Charlies' Coffee Stall and has spoken to me on several occasions. He was, during part of that time, working at the Coffe Stall. He must have heard my name many times as most of my friends call me Gratrix and consequently it would be easy for him to pick me out on an identification parade.

Mr. T.J. Neill now has the cartons at City Gate House Customs and Excise, Special Inquiry Staff, London, E.C.2.

I certify that the foegoing Summary of Evidence consisitng of four pages was taken down by me in the presence of the accused and that Rules of Procedure 4 (c) (d) (e) and (f) have been complied with Letter re Gratrix R.J.

Pte Gratrix joined the Sask Light Inf in Sep 39. From that regt he was sent to 1 Div HQ in Nov 39; shortly after he became MBO & Camp Commandant's Office. In April 42 he left 1 Div HQ to take a three months course in London and on completion of this was sent to Kent Cyclist where he was T.O.S. an instructor. He is a qualified typist and stenographer and entitled to Group B trades pay as such. His duties in the Cyclist were well discharged; his CO was entirely satisfied and recommended that he be promoted to rank of Sgt.

The only entry on his AF B 6 prior to June 43 was an entry for awol. Through some misunderstanding he missed a church parade and was charged with absent from Sunday morning until 1400 hrs.

Pte Gratrix was tried by Court Martial and found guilty of selling cigarettes, received as a gift from Canada, to civilians. For this offence he was reduced to the ranks, awarded eight months detention and placed under stoppages of pay amounting to 265 days.

He felt that the punishment was harsh to the point of being unjust and decided to try to get out of detention and to make his way somehow to North Africa or Sicily. He thought that if he got back to the first line troops surrendering to the U.S. he might be allowed to go out and fight after three or four months of detention. Earlier in 1943 he had asked to be returned to Div but his request was not granted. He made good his escape almost immediately but when he started to try to get to North Africa he discovered that it was virtually impossible.

Finally realising that he had to take his punishment he returned to Hohenstaufen of his own free will and surrendered to the proper authorities. He could have spend away absent indefinitely if he had wanted to - which he had but he came back in order to finish his duties and get back to the field.

This man is an intelligent well trained soldier who has never been a cause of trouble before. He realizes now how wrong it was to sell cigarettes to civilians and why the Court martial punished him so severely; he realizes too how fortunate it was to try to escape from the hard fighting before the war ends for the Canadian Army before the war is over and his only hope is to get back to a unit as soon as possible. He knows himself at the mercy of this Court martial hoping that his plea in mitigation of punishment will receive a sympathetic hearing.

Regt. No. L-1161, S/Sgt. GRATRIX, R.J.,
Clerks' Coy., No.1 C.G.R.U., C.R.U. Command.

BEGINS:

I have been cautioned by S/Sgt. NELSON, of S.I.S. that I do not have to say anything unless I wish to do so, but that whatever I do say will be taken down in writing, and may be given in evidence.

To show that I understand this caution, I sign my name here.

STATES:

One day last week, I think it was Saturday Sep 30, 1944, I was in the N.A.A.F.I., Stanhope Theatre, Aldershot, ~~xxx~~ at lunch time in company with, Sgt. Gemmell, N.A., Sgt. Davies, J. and Sgt. Johns, R.T. all of No 1 CGRU. Sgt. Gemmell stated that he knew of some buckshee blankets on which we could make some money if we could dispose of them.

On Sunday, 1 Oct 44, we were all in the Sgt's Mess (Maida) No 1 CGRU we again discussed the blanket proposition. Sgt Davies said that he might know someone in London that would take them. It was decided that Sgt Davies and I would come to London and see if arrangements could be made. We came up that night and we arrived in the Elephant and Castle district about 2030 hours. In the tube station there, Sgt Davies made inquires of the Warden's office about a man named Pop, whom he said knew of someone who would take the blankets. The warden said he would send him around to the Kings Head public house. We went from there to the Black Prince public house, where Sgt Davies went up to a man called "Ginger Mack" or "Ginger Mick" and they had a whispered conversation together, I did not overhear what was said but Sgt Davies said that he would take around 500 blankets if we could deliver them and that he would pay 7/6 a piece for them, he told me this after the conversation. We were to bring them up on Thursday Night and to meet him in the Black Prince. This Civilian would be about 40 years old, Five Feet Eight Inches, stocky build, reddish complexion, ginger stubble, thick lips , I noticed that he spoke with down cast eyes and would not look you in the face. He was wearing a grey check cap with light brown stripes running through, a cheap dirty blue suit (light) of smooth cloth, white scarf and old brown shoes. ~~xxxxxxxxxx~~ RJG

We left the Black Prince and proceeded to the King's Head where we saw the old man named "Pop" and Sgt Davies told him he had already seen the man he wanted him to locate. "Pop" is quite an old man about 5' 6" . He needed a shave and light grey stubble. He was wearing a black coat. I think he is a warden in the Elephant and Castle tube station but he said that he had been sick and that he expected to get discharged soon, on this account.

RJG

After a couple of drinks we went back to the Black Prince with "Pop" and Sgt Davies had a couple more words with "Ginger" there was another civilian with him but I would not recognise him again. We spent the night in London and returned to Aldershot the next morning.

That morning I saw Sgt Gemmell and told him everthing had been arranged. He said arrangements would have to be made for transport. Later in the day he saw me and said that arrangements were being made for the blankets to be ready on Thursday. Sgt. Gemmell, Sgt. Johns, Sgt. Davies and myself usually go into the Stanhope N.A.A.F.I. every day at lunch time and one day I think it was Wednesday Sgt. Johns said that transport had been arranged for the blankets on Thursday. We were together that day at noon, and Sgt. Gemmell went over to talk to CQMS Miskimmins. He then called us over and Miskimmins said that everythingwas all arranged. Sgt Davies was to go to London with the truck load of blankets and Sgt Johns and I were to meet him in the Black Prince. He had a letter addressed to No 23 Cdn Gen Hosp RCAMC, Watford, covering shipment of 1000 blankets which would safeguard him on his journey. Later it was arranged that I should go to London with the truck and the letter was handed to me, I don't know where it came from. Sgts Johns and Davies would meet me on arrival at about 1830 hours in the Black Prince, I was to meet truck No L 762820 outside the Garrison Theatre, Aldershot at 1600 hours and show the driver how to get there. I didn't know where the blankets were coming from all I knew was that CQMS Miskimmins was arranging to get them. I

I met the truck at 1600 hours as arranged and proceeded via Staines, Kingston, Clapham Junction to the Elephant and Castle area where I had some difficulty in finding the Black Prince Pub, driving around for approximately half an hour in that area before finding the right pub. I stopped once at a Black Prince Pub but found it closed and decided it was the wrong one. We then drove back following the tram lines and stopped again to ask inquiries to the tube station after which I found my bearings and arrived at the proper place at about 1830. I told the driver to wait and found Sgt Davies and Sgt Johns inside the pub, they said there was nobody there yet but a civilian who knew Ginger was trying to get him on the phone. He came in about an hour later and went out again to make some arrangements but sent word back by another civilian between 20 and 2030 hours that arrangements could not be made that night. I would recognize Ginger again if I saw him but not the two other civilians.

While we were in the pub I gave Sgt Davies 5 shillings for the driver to go for supper, Sgt Davies stayed with the truck while he was away at about 1930 hours, he came back about 20 minutes time and I took him out some cigarrets and matches, I don't know the lad and never saw him before in my life.

After we got "Ginger's" message Sgt Johns, Sgt Davies, and I went by tube to the west end to see if we could find a place to store the blankets, we tried in a pub near Oxford Circus without success and took a Taxi to some club or other that Sgt Johns knew about and left him there while Sgt Davies and I went back for the truck by Taxi, I was to follow the Taxi back in the truck. I left Sgt Davies talking to the driver and when I crossed over to the truck a couple of plain-clothes policemen stopped me and asked me what I was doing, I said I was going back to Aldershot but they said I had better come with them and took me to a police station near by. Another officer followed with the driver in the truck. Later S/Sgt Nelson of the SIS came and took me and the driver back to No 6 Provost Detention Room, he cautioned me and then asked me if I had any business in London with the truck and blankets to which I replied "No".

I have never been concerned in anything of this kind before except one case of selling 1000 cigs. but I was due to go on leave

PLEA IN MITIGATION ------S/SGT. R.J.GRATRIX 22 NOV 44
39

S/Sgt. Gratrix joined the Canadian Army on the 14 SEP 44. He was a member of the Sask. (L.I.) He was posted to H.Q. 1st Div. Nov 39. In June 1940 he went to France. He was employed as N.C.O. i/c Camp Commandant's office until April 42.

Following a Shorthand course he was retained at #1 CGRU as an instructor on Regimental Clerks Course. From March 43 until June 43 he was N.C.O. i/c Clerks Course at C.M.H.Q. This course known as 139 Clerk Course was started and operated by him.

From that time until 19 DEC 43 he was in detention for selling cigarettes. Following a short period, when he was employed as a Court Stengographer, he had been with Major Lawrence, having been recommended by Col. Tweedie. He was promoted to L/Cpl. on 5 JAN 44; then in March was promoted to Sgt. He was promoted to S/Sgt. in JUN 44. This promotion he received over senior NCO's who had been with the unit for 2 and 3 years.

This NCO has had no leave since MAY 43, in common with his custom he has let his instructors take their leaves first. He is an untiring worker and it has been a common practice for him to take examination papers and general work for correction on Saturday afternoons and Sunday. In this way the beginning of the week saw all the work up to date.

Having checked the results of his taking over School 139, it is found that from 50% - 75% failures rate has been raised to 15% - 25% failures.

Gratrix is in the process of qualifying for the Pitman's Shorthand Teachers Examinations. Here is a man who is away above the average in his line of endeavour. He is a glutton for work, having worked many extra hours to compile a list of shorthand outlines for Military Phraseology---used as precis in schools.

And now we see him in this trouble. It just doesn't add up and make sense. His mentality is very high; his disposition and social behaviour do not indicate any reason for any lapse from discipline.

The defence could carry on at length with good examples of Gratrix ability; he has made a plea of guilty to the charge against him to-day. The Court has heard the evidence and are in a position to to judge the degree of his activity in connection with the offence. The defence urges the Court to consider this man's worth to the Army; his past record of service and his future usefulness to the Canadian Forces, very, very carefully. When this has been done the defence is certain that special consideration can be shown and the minimum penalty imposed.

Evidence as to Character

1st Witness as to character

Lt S. R. Ramsay on strength of 1 CGRU having been duly sworn states:

I am the Admin Offr of the Clerks Training Coy. 1 CGRU. I have known Staff Sgt. Gratrix for over a year and during that time I have had much to do with this NCO. He was our chief instructor at CMHQ Course 139 (Short hand Steno) he has been, in my opinion, a damned good instructor. He has been a good organizer and he certainly knows his Pitman's shorthand. During the time I have known him there has been no occasion to check him in his work. Apart from his official duties I know little of his habits, but I have never until now, heard anything detrimental to his character. But he has carried out his duties in a very satisfactory manner. He has always been on the job.

He is a Group "B" clerk qualified both a shorthand steno and a general duties clerk. "B" group is the highest classification for clerk at this unit, if our W.E. allowed us an "A" group S/Sgt Gratrix would have been one. His ability is above average as an instructor. He and Sgt Gemmel are our best instructors.

Captain R.D. Keane, an officer of the Canadian Army Overseas on strength of No. 1 Canadian General Reinforcement Unit, having been duly sworn states thati- I am the transport Officer of No 1 Canadian General Reinforcement Unit. On 6 Oct 44 I was recalled from a twenty four hour pass and told that truck No. H 762020 had been stolen and was in London. I was told also that the permanent driver of the vehicle, Rifleman Dudley, whom I now recognize as one of the accused, was detained in London. I questioned my despatching staff as to what duties the vehicle had been on. The only permanent persons on that staff are L/Cpl Warren, W. . and Cpl Joynes, whom I now recognize as one of the accused. I found that the vehicle had been detailed to go to accomodation stores. That evening I brought to the attention of Cpl Joynes there was a letter written by the Quartermaster to the effect that vehicles would not be despatched to the accomodation stores unless a chit, signed by an officer had been presented. It be inferred on that as H.Q.C. had phoned and asked that the vehicle be despatched to the accomodation stores. He inferred to it was Cpl Hawkins had phoned him, whom I now recognize as one of the accused. I was present when Cpl Joynes was interviewed by the S/Sgt Nelson from the Special Investigation Section and I was present when Pte Olsen was brought in and interviewed, and I was present when L/Cpl Warren was interviewed. These people denied any knowledge of the circumstances.

The only authority received would be communicated direct to my second in command Lieut Draper, by the Adjutant.

The officer detailed to take the summary of evidence recalls a witness for the purpose of clearing up an ambiguity in the evidence given by this witness.

CAPT C.E. LAKE. Examined by the officer detailed to take the summary

Q.1 You have been recalled to clear up an ambiguity in your evidence in regard to the shortage in blankets. You stated in your evidence that a blanket check showed there were seven to eight hundred short. It is not clear to me whether you mean that there are seven to eight hundred blankets short including the blankets alleged to have been discovered in London, or whether you mean there are an additional seven to eight hundred missing.

A.1. I have here a recapitulation of the blanket check taken by Canadian Barrack Services, submitted to me by Lieut Fraser, Assistant Quartermaster. The actual amount of blankets checked totals 8900 even. There were approximately 50 blankets that were not checked in the pioneers quarters and 50 blankets with the medical company which they had out on a scheme that day. That makes a grand total of 9000 checked

The unit long roll figures were 8824 as of that date. This left a surplus of of 176 blankets. Taking into consideration the 700 already in London not checked by the Canadian Barrack Services makes a total SURPLUS of 876 blankets. Mr Fraser and I calculated as closely as possible the number of G 1098 blankets belonging to individuals on unit strength all of whose G 1098 blanket were counted in the check. Taking the units strength as of that date less the incoming drafts in Reception Company we calculated that there were approximately 966 G 1098 blankets in possession of the individuals. This can only be approximate as in the length of time that the check was made it was impossible to get the exact figure. The surplus of 876 blankets against our approximation of 966 G 1098 blankets showed an apparent shortage of 90. This figure could of course be wrong to the extent of 200 either way, depending upon how accurate our estimation was of G 1098 blankets. When I speak of this day I mean Oct 11th, 1944, the day of the check.

The accused elects to give evidence upon oath:

The accused B 96927 Cpl Joynes, J.C.M., a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas on strength of No 1 Canadian General Reinforcement Unit having been duly sworn states that:-

"On the morning of the 5th of October, 1944, at about 0930 hrs, Sgt Johns, whom I now recognize, came to me in the motor transport office and asked me if he could get a vehicle to handle some blankets going up to London. These blankets were to be delivered in London at exactly 1630 hrs. I understood that these blankets were to be sold to someone in London. Sgt Johns told me that if I would arrange the vehicle, the driver and I would get approximately £15-0-0 each, depending upon the price received for the blankets. I said that I would do so provided I could get a driver and provided that an emergency demanding the use of a lot of transport did not come up during the day. I had in mind Rifleman Dudley as the driver of the vehicle. Sgt Johns said he would have to know by 1400 hrs that day and was not satisfied unless I could tell him right away, so I said I would let him have the vehicle, intending that if anything came up that I could not use it, not to bother letting him know differently. Sgt Johns told me to have the vehicle just below the stop-lights on the Upper Hale road at exactly 1555 hrs, where it would pick up another Sgt. I understood that the blankets were to be obtained from the Hale laundry. I went out into the yard, met Dudley and asked him if he would do this. He agreed to do so. I then made out a ticket for the trip, filling it out, and then stamping it several times with the unit motor transport stamp, so that that particular ticket could not be used. I then gave Dudley a blank work ticket already stamped and told him to copy on it exactly what I had written on the first ticket. He was then to destroy the first ticket, the reason for this was so that if he was stopped or anything went wrong, my handwriting would not show up on the work ticket. I also told Dudley that once he set out he was strictly on his own and that I had no knowledge of the deal whatsoever. I also told him to make sure his tanks were full so that he would have enough gas to get to London and back, and so that he would not have to draw any anywhere. About 1500 hrs I got Dudley's genuine work ticket on which he had been operating on legitimate business, and made an entry on it for a journey via Farnham and Farnborough. The purpose of this was to protect him until he met the Sgt at the stop-lights in Hale, pick up the blankets, and was out of the immediate area of Aldershot. Once out of the immediate area of Aldershot his London ticket would protect him. As far as I know Dudley has never been mixed up in any illegal involving transport before. The only reason I approached him was I knew he was broke and going on leave soon. I have never been mixed up myself in anything like this before either.

STRATRIX

New Scotland Yard,
9th. October, 1944.

STATEMENT of Ernest Cook, Detective Sergeant, New Scotland Yard, who saith:-

At about 8.15 pm., on 5th, October, 1944, I received information that a soldier in the Canadian Army had been endeavouring to dispose of a load of blankets which he had brought on a lorry to Walworth. With Detective Sergeant Webb and other officers I went to Walworth Road, Walworth, S.E., and after searching the vicinity saw an Army lorry Index No. CL 7625520 parked by the side of the road about 100 yards from the Elephant and Castle and facing South. The lorry was covered with a tarpaulin sheet secured by ropes.

We went up to the lorry and saw DUDLEY who was in the drivers seat. I said to him, "We are Police Officers. What are you doing here?". He said "I am waiting for my Sergeant who has gone to get something to eat". I said to him "Where are you from. Where are you going and what load have you got on?". DUDLEY replied, "I'm from Aldershot and I am taking a load of blankets to Watford. I said "What are you doing here, you are miles off your route". He said "I am only acting on instructions". I then asked him where his Sergeant had gone to and he said "I haven't any idea".

I looked under the tarpaulin covering and saw at once that there was in fact a large quantity of blankets on the lorry. I told DUDLEY that I was not satisfied with his explanation and that I was going to make enquiries with a view to verify his statements. He then handed me a printed form showing particulars of a load of blankets to be taken from Aldershot to Watford, saying, "This is my authority". I told him that I was still not satisfied and that enquiries would be made. DUDLEY then said "I will tell you the truth. The blankets are stolen. I made the particulars out myself and my Sergeant told me what to do and where to go".

I then left an Officer in the lorry with DUDLEY whilst we kept observation in the vicinity. At about 10.15 pm., I saw GRATTIX, who had come from the direction of the Elephant and Castle, endeavouring to climb into the cabin of the lorry. We went up to him and Sergeant Webb said "We are Police Officers, are you in charge of this lorry?". He said "Yes". Sergeant Webb said "Can you explain what you are doing with it". GRATTIX said "I am taking a load of blankets to Watford". He was then asked if he could say who he had come to Squire the Post that day and he replied "I have been drinking with some friends". Sergeant Webb asked him who his friends were and GRATTIX said "I don't know. I have only met them casually to-night". He paused and then added "As a matter of fact I have been with another soldier from my Unit but I am not saying who he is". Sergeant Webb then said "I have reason to believe that the blankets are stolen". GRATTIX said "I don't think so".

I then said to DUDLEY and GRATTIX "I am not satisfied with your explanations, you are going to be arrested and taken to the Police Station where you will be detained pending enquiries". I cautioned them. GRATTIX said "I don't know what it is all about". DUDLEY did not reply. They and the lorry were taken to Carter Street Police Station.

The Canadian Military Police Headquarters were then informed of the detention of DUDLEY and GRATTIX and later Staff Sergeant Nelson, R.C.M.P. Canadian Military Police attended and took both men into his custody. I handed to Staff Sergeant Nelson the printed form obtained from DUDLEY.

This statement is true.

Flying Squad Office,
New Scotland Yard.
9th October, 1944.

STATEMENT of Albert WEBB, Detective Sergeant, New Scotland Yard, who saith:-

At 6-15 p.m., 5th October, 1944, I went with Detective Sergeant Cook and other officers to Walworth Road, S.E., where I saw an Army lorry Index No. GL-7688820.

We approached the lorry and saw Dudley in the driver's seat. Sergeant Cook told him we were police officers and said, What are you doing here?" Dudley said, "I am waiting for my sergeant. He has gone to get something to eat." Sergeant Cook said, "Where are you from, where are you going, and what load have you got?" Dudley replied, "I've come from Aldershot and I'm taking blankets to Watford." Sergeant Cook pointed out that Dudley was miles out of his route and Dudley said, "I am only acting on instructions." Asked where his sergeant had gone to he said, "I haven't any idea."

We looked under the tarpaulin covering of the lorry and saw piles of blankets. Sergeant Cook told Dudley he was not satisfied with his story and that he would have to verify his statements. Dudley then handed Sergeant Cook an Army Form giving particulars of a load of blankets to be taken from Aldershot to Watford. Dudley said, "This is my authority." Sergeant Cook told him that further enquiries would have to be made and Dudley said, "I will tell the truth. The blankets are stolen. I made the particulars out myself. My sergeant told me what to do and where to go."

Leaving an officer in charge of the lorry we kept observation in the vicinity and at about 10-15 p.m. Gratrix came from the direction of the Elephant & Castle and endeavoured to climb into the lorry. We approached him and I said to him, "We are police officers, are you in charge of this lorry?" He said, "Yes." I asked him to explain what he was doing with it and he said, "I am taking a load of blankets to Watford." I then asked Gratrix if he could give an explanation as to where he had been during the previous two hours and he said, "I have been drinking with some friends." I asked who his friends were and Gratrix said, "I don't know. I have only met them casually to-night." He then added, "As a matter of fact I have been with another soldier from my Unit. I am not saying who he is." I then said to him, "I have reason to believe that the blankets are stolen," and Gratrix replied, "I dont think so."

Sergeant Cook then said to Dudley and Gratrix, "I am not satisfied with your explanations. You are going to be arrested and detained pending enquiries." He continued then and Gratrix said, "I dont know what it is all about." Dudley made no reply.

They were both then taken to Carter Street Police Station with the lorry and later Staff Sergeant Nelson, S.I.B., Canadian Military Police, attended and took both men into custody.

Regt. No. B-64113, Rfn. DUDLEY, R.O.C.
"A" Wing, M.T. Sect., No.1 C.C.R.H., C.R.U., Command.

BEGINS:

I have been cautioned by S/Sgt. MILSON, of S.I.S. that I do not have to say anything unless I wish to do so, but that whatever I do say will be taken down in writing, and may be given in evidence.

To show that I understand this caution, I sign my name here.

(SGD) R. DUDLEY

STATES:

On 4 OCT 44 up-and dinner-time I was working on my truck, No. 1-768820 in the workshop at my Unit when one of the other men in the M.T. Section came to me and asked me if I would like to make myself some extra money. He is a friend of mine and I don't want to say his name and maybe get him into trouble. I was broke and wanted to get some money so as to be able to go on leave, so I said "Yes I would", and asked him how it could be done. He told me there was some stuff to go to London next day and if I would take it in my truck I'd get a cut out of the deal. I said I'd do it, and he told me that if I'd take the truck round to the Blanket Hut sometime during the afternoon next day the Staff-Sergeant in charge of Mob. Stores would get the fatigue men to put on a load of blankets. All I had to do then was drive up to the Garrison Theatre where somebody would be waiting to go up to LONDON with me and look after things from there on. My friend also told me I'd better take out a Work Ticket showing a load of Hospital Blankets for ALDERSHOT.

I had two trips next morning - one to the Govt. Siding in ALDERSHOT at 01:30 hrs. and one from 11:30 hrs. to 13:30 hrs. to ALTON and return. When I got back I was notified by Cpl. JEYNES for a journey to FARNHAM and FARNBOROUGH. He made out my Work Ticket for 15:30, signing it "Keen, Capt." and initialling it "F.J.", as the N.C.O. Despatcher usually does.

After lunch I didn't go to FARNHAM, but took my truck round to the Blanket Store at about 15:30 hrs. and backed up to the door. S/Sgt. FITZSIMMONS (I think that's his name - he's i/c Mob. Stores) came out, I opened up the back of the truck and got in. The S/Sgt. told the fatigue men to start loading blankets. I only said "Hello" to him, and nothing much more was said. He told the men to count out so many blankets for Despatch Coy., and so many for other Coys. in the Unit. They were all in bundles of 10, and I'm sure the fatigue men didn't know anything about the deal. They only counted them. I stacked the blankets inside my truck.

During the Break Period that morning from 10:00 to 10:30 hrs. I went into the M.T. office while no-one was in there and took a Work Ticket which I made out as instructed, signing it "Keen Capt.". I kept it with me for the trip to LONDON in the afternoon.

I didn't know how many blankets I had in the truck, but when the S/Sgt. said "O.K., that's the lot", or words to that effect, I tied up the tarpaulin and drove up to the Garrison Theatre as arranged. I stopped there, and another Staff-Sergeant I didn't know came up and got in the truck. I know now his name is S/Sgt. GRAYBIEL. He told me where to go from there on, as I didn't know the route past SHEPHERDS BUSH. We headed straight for LONDON. I know we went through OTTERLO and KINGSTON, according to the road signs, but I don't remember much about the roads. I think we were pretty well into LONDON when he said to turn off and after a lot of turns round fair-sized roads he said to pull up in a street where there were cars-tracks. He said "Wait here", and got out for 8 or 10 minutes. I don't know where he went. After that we did a lot more turns, and I was completely lost. Once we passed a place where he said: "I was pinched over in there once". We didn't stop any more until we got to the place where the Police found us. I guess it was about 10:30 hrs. when we got there. I know it was getting dark. S/Sgt. GRAYBIEL got out and told me to wait. About half-an-hour later another soldier got into the cab with me and we, - or rather I, - waited a little while yet. I'd better go and get something to eat". I couldn't see his face in the dark and wouldn't recognize him again. I couldn't tell from the way he spoke whether he was Canadian or not. I didn't notice what sort of uniform he was wearing. I went to a snack-bar a little way down the street and when I came back a few minutes later the soldier got out of the cab and said:"We'll be back".

I waited a long time and then both doors of the cab opened, somebody grabbed me by the arm and asked me what I was doing. I said I was waiting for my chum and he'd gone to get something to eat. They said they were Police Officers and that they'd wait too. After a while S/Sgt. GRAYBIEL came back and the Police grabbed him too. I didn't see any other civilians and didn't know who was supposed to get the blankets. The Police told me to drive to a Police Station nearby, which I did. One of them drove with me. They took S/Sgt. GRAYBIEL in their car.

I can honestly say that I have never been mixed up in anything like this before in the Army or in civil life, and my crimes in the Army have all been trivial. I only agreed to do it on a sudden impulse because I wanted to make a little money to go on leave, as I'd lost a bit over being 5 days A.W.L. a little while ago. I was only in LITTLEHOT with a girl. Nobody talked me into taking blankets to LONDON. I just didn't stop to think how serious a thing it was. I figured it was safe enough, too, because somebody else was doing the job and I was just driving my truck and didn't even know where the stuff was going. I'm sorry now I had anything to do with the business.

I have read over the above statement, which has been made voluntarily, without fear of any threat, or hope of favour to come, and it is true. /ENDS.

(SGD) R. J. ORTELL

STATES:

On Sunday last week, I think it was Saturday Sep 30, 1944, I was in the [illegible] Theatre, Aldershot, at lunch time in company with, Sgt. Gosnell, [illegible], Sgt. Davies, J. and Sgt. Johns, R.T. all of No. 1 CCRU. Sgt. Gosnell stated that he knew of some blackmarket sheets on which we could make some money if we could dispose of them.

On Sunday, 1 Oct 44, we were all in the Sgt's Mess (Maida) No. 1 CCRU were in discussed the blanket proposition. Sgt Davies said that he might know someone in London that would take them. It was decided that Sgt Davies and Johns would go to London and see if arrangements could be made. It was decided that we would arrive in the Elephant and Castle district about 2000 hrs. In the taxi on the way up, Sgt Davies made inquiries in the Sgt's office about blankets. The men met at the Elephant and Castle at about 2000 hrs. Sgt Davies went up to the Kings Head public House, where Sgt Davies went up to the bar. Johns joined Gosnell and myself and we went

After a couple of drinks we went back to the Black Prince with "Pop" and Sgt Davies [illegible] there was another civilian with him but I would not recognise him again. We spent the night in London and returned to Aldershot the next morning.

That morning I saw Sgt Gerrell and told him everything had been arranged. He said arrangements would have to be made for transport. Later in the day he saw Capt and said that arrangements were being made for the blankets to be ready on Thursday. Sgt. Gerrell, Sgt Johns, Sgt Davies and myself usually ate into the Stanhope M.A.F.I. every day at lunch time and one day I think it was Wednesday Sgt. Johns said that transport had been arranged for the blankets on Thursday. We were together that day at noon, and Sgt Gerrell went over to talk to Capt Miskimmins. He then called us over and Miskimmins said that everything was all arranged. Sgt Davies was to go to London with the truck load of blankets and Sgt Johns and I were to meet him in the Black Prince. He had a letter addressed to Sgt Pop [illegible] Watford, covering shipment of 1000 blankets which would presumably [illegible] journey. Later it was arranged that I should go to London with the truck and the latter was handed to me. I don't know where it came from. Both Johns and Davies would meet me on arrival at about 1630 hours in the Black Prince. I was to meet truck No. L 968820 outside the Garrison Theatre, [illegible] 1600 hours and when the driver knew [illegible] where the blankets were coming from all I knew was that Miskimmins was arranging to get them.

I met the truck at 1600 hours as arranged and proceeded via Staines, Kingston, Clapham Junction to the Elephant and Castle where I had some difficulty in finding the Black Prince pub, driving around for approximately half an hour in that area before finding the right pub. I stopped once at a Black Prince pub but found it closed and decided it was the wrong one. We then drove west following the tram lines and stopped again to ask directions to the tube station after which I found my bearings and arrived at the proper place at about 1630. I told the driver to wait and found Sgt Davies and Sgt Johns inside the pub, they had been there for there yet but a civilian who knew Ginger was [illegible] the phone. He came in about an hour later and said he would make some arrangements but went away by another civilian between 20 and 2030 hours that arrangements could not be made and that I would recognize Ginger again in if I saw him but not the two other civilians.

While we were in the pub I gave Sgt Davies 5 shillings for the driver to go for supper. Sgt Davies stayed with the truck while he was away at about 1930 hours, he came back about 20 minutes time and I took him out some cigarettes and matches, I don't know the lad and never saw him before in my life.

After we got "Ginger's" message Sgt Johns, Sgt Davies, and I went by tube to the west end to see if we could find a place to store the blankets, we tried in a pub near Oxford Circus without success and took a Taxi to some club or other that Sgt Johns knew about and left him there while Sgt Davies and I went back on the truck by Taxi, I was to follow the Taxi back in the truck. I left Sgt Davies talking to the driver and when I crossed over to the truck a couple of plain-clothes police men stopped me to ask me what I was doing, I said I was going back to Aldershot but they said I had better come with them and took me to a police station near by. Another officer followed with the driver in the truck. Later S/Sgt Nelson of the SIS came and took me and the driver back to No 6 Provost Detention Room, he cautioned me and then asked me if I had any business in London with the truck and blankets to which I replied "No".

I have never been concerned in anything of this kind before except one case of selling 1000 cigs. but I was [illegible]

It was my job to direct the driver to the correct place, the arrangements being left to the others. I did not realize how serious an offence of this kind could be, or I would not have had anything to do with it.

STATES:

At some time after the return of 1 CCRU to ALDERSHOT it came to my knowledge that there were in the Unit three or four thousand surplus blankets. I am not sure who first told me about it. It may have been CQMS MISKIMMINS: but I was under the impression that this was common knowledge. It was mentioned several times.

Ever since last August when we were at Weeley S/Sgt. GRATRIX, Sgt JOHNS and I have been drinking somewhat heavily. About a month ago I asked Maj. LAWRENCE, O.C., Clerks' Coy., if he would post me to the Field. This was to get away from the associations and drinking habits I had formed, as I was afraid that sooner or later it would get me into trouble. As I was Chief Instructor he wouldn't consider this posting at that time.

On Thurs., 28 SEP 44, after 13:15 Parade, Sgt JOHNS and I went down to the "Wellington" Public House for a quick drink as two of us had got in the habit of doing occasionally for some time. We had a few too many and didn't return to the Unit until about 15:00 hrs., when we learned that Maj. LAWRENCE had been enquiring for us and we'd be in trouble over it. Next morning Maj. LAWRENCE informed us that we were posted to Reinforcement Strength. Automatically I had to revert from A/S/Sgt. to Sgt., and commenced Basic Training on 4 OCT 44.

On Saturday, 30 SEP 44, between 15:00 and 17:00 hrs. Sgt. JOHNS and I were alone together in our quarters at A.I.F.A Bks, when S/Sgt. GRATRIX and Sgt. DAVIES came in. They had been drinking, but we had not had a drink all day. We were all just about broke and the question of how to raise some money cropped up. I said: "Well, there's some bastard blankets over in the Q uartors' Stores" and from there on there was just some general conversation about the possibilities, although I think no-one had any serious idea of doing anything about it. Certainly I didn't myself.

Next afternoon, Sunday, 1 OCT 44, the four of us were together drinking again in the Sergeants' Mess. JOHNS had borrowed a couple of Pounds. The subject of selling blankets cropped up again and we were discussing the possibilities of disposal. Sgt. DAVIES said he knew of a man in LONDON who might take them. Later he and S/Sgt. GRATRIX went off together to LONDON and next day in the Mess at noon they told me that the arrangement for disposing of 1000 blankets had been made in LONDON and asked me to see CQMS MISKIMMINS about it. I did not see him until next day, Tuesday, 3 OCT 44, in the NAAFI, when all I said to him was: "If you're interested in disposing of some blankets those guys over in the corner will handle it", indicating S/Sgt. GRATRIX and Sgt. DAVIES. I had not discussed the subject previously with CQMS MISKIMMINS, and that is all I said to him at the time. I had one drink with him and left the NAAFI, as I was due for Parade. Sgt JOHNS was there with the other two. CQMS MISKIMMINS said that it was OK with him if they could arrange it, and that he would see them next day about it. That night in the Mess I told them what he had said when they asked me about it.

Next day Wednesday, 4 OCT 44, I went alone to the NAAFI at noon and joined S/Sgt GRATRIX, Sgt. JOHNS, and Sgt DAVIES at their table for a glass of beer. Later CQMS MISKIMMINS came in and joined us. The matter of disposal of blankets was discussed and I was told when I asked that transport had been arranged. MISKIMMINS suggested that they be picked up at the laundry next day, as had been arranged, but I didn't know when I left them where they were to come from or at what time.

Next day, Thursday, 5 OCT 44, at noon in the NAAFI, I was looking over a Racing Sheet with MISKIMMINS and figuring if I could place a good bet with a Bookie who comes in there. S/Sgt GRATRIX, Sgt. JOHNS, and Sgt. DAVIES came over and final arrangements about the blankets were made. S/Sgt. GRATRIX had a letter which I recognize as the one in your possession. I had not read it, but I knew its contents. I do not know who wrote it. A truck was to pick up the blankets that afternoon, and S/Sgt. GRATRIX or Sgt. DAVIES was to go up to LONDON with the driver. I did not know what driver or what transport would be used. Next day I learned that GRATRIX went with the truck and that Sgt. DAVIES and Sgt. JOHNS went up together by train to meet him in LONDON. I heard also that GRATRIX and the driver of the truck got pinched.

On Friday noon in our room, Sgt. JOHNS told me that the civvy in LONDON who was going to take the blankets didn't turn up. He went over to a Club in the West End to try and find some other way of disposing of them, but when he got back the truck was gone.

I did not go to LONDON and had nothing to do with the deal other than stated above. I didn't know exactly how much money was in it, or how it was to be divided. Some time during the week Sgt. DAVIES said there was 7/6 apiece coming in for the blankets, and GRATRIX said Six Shillings. To my knowledge no detailed division of the proceeds was discussed. Had they chosen to give me a cut out of the deal no doubt I would have accepted it, as I was pretty well broke. I had no doubt that they would come through with something, as I had knowledge of the project from the start, although I took no active part in the business once the others got started on it. I have been living and working with S/ Sgt. GRATRIX and Sgt. JOHNS over a period of two years, and have always been on the best of terms with them. It is only natural, therefore, that I would not give them away when I knew what was in the wind. After the arrangements had been made I did not like the set-up too much, and did not myself wish to become too deeply involved. By then, however, there was little I could do about it. I am sorry now that I had anything to do with it at all, as I have never been mixed up in anything of this kind before.

I have read over the above statement, which has been made voluntarily, without fear of any threat, or hope of favour to come and it is true. (SGD) N.A. GRAZELL 10 OCT 44

STATES:

On Sunday, 1 OCT 44, during the afternoon, I was in the Sergeants' Mess, No. 1 C.G.R.U., in company with S/Sgt. GRATRIX, Sgt. JOHNS, and Sgt. GEMMELL. We had all had quite a few drinks by then, and being more or less broke, the question of how to get some money became the subject of conversation. I remember that someone mentioned that there were 4,000 backshee blankets to be had in the area. I don't remember who said this, and I never did hear where the blankets were supposed to be. There was quite a crowd in there, and the matter was not discussed at any length. No-one else heard this conversation. I suggested that I thought the Black Market was rife around the Elephant & Castle and so without any delay, S/Sgt Gratrix and myself were delegated to sound out the possibilities.

About a year ago I was in the Elephant & Castle district and there was a man who had suggested that any time I had anything to sell it was possible to make connections in that locality. He was addressed by one of his friends at the time as Ginger Cheek and was wearing a grey check cap. He would be about fifty years of age and about five feet nine inches in height. He had light hair and reddish complexion with a gingerish whiskers (stubble). He was clean shaven and I think he had a cauliflower ear. I know he was rather uncouth looking and wore a blue suit with a white scarf.

That evening S/Sgt Gratrix and I went to the Elephant and Castle district and after having a few drinks at various pubs entered the "Black Prince" and the "Ginger Cheek" (described above) was in the pub. It was suggested to him that we had a number of blankets to sell, and he replied that he was not in a position to handle them. Another man entered the pub and I would describe him as follows:-

Foreign appearance but spoke with a Cockney accent, middle age, height about 5' 9", black hair swarthy complexion, thin face, clean shaven, wearing trilby hat and dark overcoat. He came over to our table and commenced a conversation with S/Sgt Gratrix. I did not hear the topic of the conversation and once when I made a remark I was told to "shut-up" by the civilian. At this stage I was quite drunk having been drinking since 12 o'clock noon. Gratrix was comparatively sober as he had not been drinking to any extent owing to stomach trouble. We left the pub at closing time and went to Streatham, to spend the night, and on the way home I understood that it had been arranged that the blankets could be disposed of.

STATEMENT OF:

On Monday or Tuesday S/Sgt Gratrix, Sgts Johns and Gammell and I discussed the matter again and it was decided that some effort be made to obtain transport for the blankets. On Tuesday Sgt Gemmell and I went to see a friend of mine at another unit who might have been able to help but he refused to have anything to do with the transaction. The person who was eventually responsible for arranging the transport I do Not know. There was some talk about getting the blankets from a laundry.

On Thursday morning, October 5th, 1944, I drafted a letter addressed to No 23 Cdn Gen Hospital concerning an imaginary shipment of blankets to that Unit. I thought it would cover the load of blankets en route to London. On it I used a fictitious file number and signed it L. Skinner Lt. I know of no such Officer and used the first name that came into my head. The letter you have in your possession is the one referred to in the previous sentence. In the NAAFI at noon I saw S/Sgt Gratrix and the two other Sgts and passed round the letter for their comments. It was suggested that I accompany the load of blankets to London, but for various reasons I declined and S/Sgt Gratrix volunteered to do this, and he took the envelope (which I had addressed) and the letter. I was not aware of the final arrangements for picking up the blankets. At approximately 2.30 p.m. S/Sgt Gratrix came to my office and requested permission from QMS Martin to have me leave early as he wanted me to assist him with some clerical work he was doing at Woking. At 3.30 p.m. I left the office to go to the Clerks Training Wing and it was then arranged that I go by rail to London with Sgt Johns to meet S/Sgt Gratrix at the Black Prince. We left on the 4.16 p.m. train and met S/Sgt Gratrix, as arranged soon after opening time.

For some time we sat in the pub drinking beer, and I took five shillings from Staff Gratrix to the driver of the truck which was outside in the street to let him get some supper. Ginger came in about 7.30 p.m. and said 'hasn't he turned up' - no name was mentioned, meaning the man who was to take the blankets. He left the pub, apparently to find the man in question, but sent back a message by a stranger, that he couldn't be found. I suggested that the truck and blankets return to Aldershot where they came from, but owing to the difficulties of that procedure it was decided to explore the possibility of making other connections. We visited several pubs and finished up in the West End at some pub or other where Sgt Johns met some people who were interested. He stayed there with them while Staff Gratrix and I went back to get the truck, hiring a taxi for the journey. When we got there, S/Sgt Gratrix went over to the truck and I gave instructions to the driver of the cab to turn around so that the truck could follow us back. We went round the block to do this and when I got back the truck and Staff Gratrix had gone. I returned to Sgt Johns and told him what had happened, so we went to Streatham for the night, returning to Aldershot in the morning.

The agreed price was 7/6d each for the blankets. Transport was to have cost £40 or £50 and I understood that the remainder of the proceeds was to be split between Staff Gratrix, Sgts Gemmell and Johns, myself, and whoever supplied the blankets.

The whole plan was evolved whilst I was under the influence of liquor, and it was through drinking activities that I had got behind financially and seized on this method of getting myself straightened out. If I had been in a sober frame of mind, I would not, under any circumstances, have considered being a party to any such undertaking, as I have never been connected

STATES:

I have read over the statement of L-1161, S/Sgt. GRATRIX, R.J., dated 9 OCT 44. I see we don't agree about several small matters. I met the Warden named "Pop" to whom he refers about a year ago last Summer, when he found a bed for myself and a pal of mine down the "Elephant and Castle" tube station one night when we were stranded. To the best of my knowledge he has never been mixed up in anything criminal. The man named "Ginger" did not agree to take the blankets, and S/Sgt. GRATRIX is definitely wrong when he says so. Otherwise, as far as it concerns me, and to the best of my knowledge, his statement is correct.

I have also read the statement of L-16184, Sgt. GEMMELL, N.A., dated 10 OCT 44, and wish to state that apart from a few minor details the essence of his statement seems to be correct.

Other guys owe me 20 or 30 pounds and I have got plenty of money back home if I want it. I had nothing to do with the blanket deal but I knew it was coming off. I only went to London for a steak supper at Gaetrix's place. I went to a club in the West End and got a girl friend of mine to phone up a garage to store the truck. When I told her there were blankets in the truck she phoned again and none of them would have no part of it. I had nothing to do with arranging transport. I have been drinking heavy for the past three or four months since leaving Witley. I remember being with the others but did not always know what they were talking about. When I am drinking I can do my job but forget what people say to me. I figure Gaetrix is O.K. Gemmell is close as can be. Gemmell always talked alone to Hakimmons. Davies is O.K. STATED:

I am C.S.M.S. I/C Accommodation Stores, No.1 C.G.R.V., where I have been for 4 years in the same position. I have always worked hard to keep all Barrack Stores in good order, and have never at any time disposed of stores to outside individuals. Before the war I worked for 18 years for T. EATON & Co., TORONTO, in the Creamery Dept., and left there in excellent standing.

About two weeks ago a new Reception Coy. was formed in 1 CGRV and my Q.M., Capt. LAKE, instructed me to collect all surplus blankets throughout the Unit for the use of this Coy. These are all accounted for on the "Long Roll". We do not as yet keep Coy. Inventories. I started at the beginning of last week with Medical, General, and Despatch Coys., keeping over 1000 in the Blanket Store to be laundered. Next morning, 4 OCT 44, I took 1000 of these blankets to the Hal. Laundry in FARNHAM. I don't remember which truck or driver was detailed. I made two journeys. My Storesman, Pte. GOLD, and Mr. SHORT, i/c R.S.A. Stores and his staff know I was going to do this, and of course our M.T. Section knew what I was doing.

The following day, Thursday, 5 OCT 44, at about 13:30 hrs., I took the truck and driver I had all morning round Unit Lines to FARNHAM, where I collected 800 clean blankets, in bundles of ten, leaving 200 to be collected later. I put them in the Blanket Store.

Upon my return Pte. GOLD told me that Reception Coy. required a lot more blankets, and as I had requested another truck at lunch-time, when I was told I could have the first one that came in, and having despatched the one I had to another job, I told Pte. GOLD to remain in the Blanket Store, where he was working, and to start loading the first truck which arrived. I went back to my office and on my return at about 15:30 hrs., I found a truck there and gave Pte. GOLD and the Driver a hand in loading on the blankets. I'm not sure how many were there, but I kept back about 150 in the hut. I distinctly remember telling the driver to take them to Reception Coy., within Unit Lines, and Pte. GOLD heard what I said. I went off then about my business, and the first I heard that anything was wrong was next morning, when Capt. LAKE asked me what trucks I had had booked out to me and said that one had been found up in LONDON the night before. I had no reason to think that any blankets were missing, and the first I heard of this was when my Charge was read by Maj. MacLEAN.

Never at any time did I [illegible] the subject of blankets to any of them, nor have I given any of them their disposal and sale. Neither have any of them ever bring up the subject to me in my presence. It is possible that they may have mistaken someone else for me, but I don't think for a minute that could be the case, as I [illegible] of anyone else in my department, and I am positive that no part of the theft of the blankets was entirely on my part, to the best of my knowledge.

I do remember being in the N.A.A.F.I. [illegible] Tuesday week at noon (11 or 2 OCT 44), I had a newspaper showing the runners in a horse-race [illegible] over to a table where [illegible] were sitting. I sat down for a minute or two at the [illegible] beside their table and told them I had a good thing for the Third Race - "CADET". I don't know what they acted but I finished my beer and went to dinner. I was only in there a few minutes. I wasn't taking any bets - just passing on a good tip. I'm interested in horses, but don't bet then much just a shilling here or there when I get hold of a good thing.

I want to repeat that this whole business has been a shock to me because never at any time have I been guilty of disposing of stores to any unauthorised person whatsoever.

I have read over the above statement, which has been made voluntarily, without fear of any threats or hope of favour to come, and it is true.

THIRD STATEMENT OF:

R.gt. No. L-1161, S/Sgt. GRATRIX, R.J.
Clerks' Coy., No. 1 C.G.R.U., C.R.U. Command.

BEGINS:

I have been cautioned by S/Sgt. WILSON, of S.I.S., that I do not have to say anything unless I wish to do so, but that whatever I do say will be taken down in writing, and may be given in evidence.

To show that I understand this caution, I sign my name here. (SGD) R.J. GRATRIX

STATES:

I have read over the statements of L-161[illegible], Sgt. GEMMELL, W.A., dated 10 OCT 44, D-91032, Sgt. DAVIES, J.C., dated 11 OCT 44, and B-88451, C/MS MISKIMMINS, W., dated 12 OCT 44, and wish to state that prior to the occasion I mentioned, lunch-time on Thursday, 5 OCT 44, I never discussed the question of blankets with C/MS MISKIMMINS, nor did he discuss it in my presence. Further, the letter which Sgt. GEMMELL says I had - the one which you took from me in LONDON - was passed round amongst the five of us. Who all read it I don't know, but it was not in my possession until later in the afternoon, when it was given to me by Sgt. DAVIES.

On the Sunday night DAVIES and I went to LONDON (1 OCT 44) I visited the Black Prince and Kimre Arms Public Houses, Elephant and Castle, for the first time in my life. I had never frequented that area. To my knowledge no arrangements were completed that night between "Ginger" and Sgt. DAVIES. "Ginger" was certainly arranging the disposal of the blankets. The civilian described by Sgt. DAVIES when "Ginger" called over held a short conversation with "Ginger", and when Sgt. DAVIES interrupted, this man told him to "shut up" and left. The topic of conversation I do not know. I had never seen "Ginger" before and had no part in the arrangements for disposing of the blankets.

C/MS MISKIMMINS was at the same conversation at which the letter mentioned above was produced, and certainly knew of all the arrangements as to the loading and the intended destination (LONDON) of the blankets.

I have read over the above statement, which has been made voluntarily, without fear of any threat or hope of favour, and it is true./ENDS.

STATEMENT of:

H-59092, Pte. OLSEN, C.R.,
M.T. Sect., R.A.S.C., 1 C.C.R.U.

STATES:

On 5 Oct 44, at 03:30 hrs., I was detailed for Government Siding, ALDERSHOT, but the detail was cancelled and my next detail, with Mob. Stores, at 08:30 hrs., was over-written on the same line of my Work Ticket. I was driving all morning with Unit tilts for CQMS MISKIMMONS. I was not particularly busy. I didn't handle any furniture.

After lunch at about 14:00 hrs., on the direction of CQMS MISKIMMONS, I drove him to the Hale Laundry near FARNHAM and picked up 200 blankets which we brought back to Blanket Stores at 1 C.C.R.U. Pte. Harry TROOP went with us and also Pte. GOULD. They work in the Mob. Stores.

After I delivered the blankets, CQMS MISKIMMONS told me I would not be needed further, but to pick up another S/Sgt Clerk FARNHAM where he was working on stores, and drive him back to the Unit. That was around 15:00 hrs. I did this, and checked in my vehicle, No. T-765783, at 16:30 hrs. I had one more trip to ALDERSHOT Station that day.

I know nothing of what was going on concerning theft of blankets that day, and know nothing much about it now.

I have read over the above statement, and it is true.

(SGD) J.C. JEYNES.

STATES:

I am Corporal Dispatcher in the Transport Office, No. 1 C.G.R.U. On Thursday, 5 OCT 44, just before dinner, Rfn. DUDLEY, who drives L-86282, saw me as I was leaving the office and said CQMS MISKIMMINS would be needing another truck that afternoon to get blankets from the Hale Laundry near Farnham and asked if he could have the detail. I had no suspicion of any ulterior motive on his part, and just said "OK".

At approximately 15:00 hrs. in the Despatch Office I received the request for another 60 cwt. truck for FARNHAM and FARNBOROUGH from CQMS MISKIMMINS. He already had one 60 cwt. with Pte. CLEEN at Mob. Stores. He said he wanted another one to get blankets at the Hale Laundry. We seldom used more than one big truck at a time, but I put it down to an impending draft. I said I'd have a truck over in about 15 minutes. We did not request any particular driver, but I had DUDLEY in mind because of his request, and despatched him at about 15:30 hrs. I made out his Work Ticket for the journey. I know nothing about the other Work Ticket you have in DUDLEY's particulars for WATFORD. It is not genuine. He must have pinched it and made it out himself. I still had no reason to suspect his actions, and the first I heard that he'd been mixed up in any trouble was next morning, when he was reported to have been picked up in LONDON. I was definitely not in on the deal, and have never at any time been mixed up intentionally in any crime where Unit transport may have been used.

STATES:

I have been a driver at No.1 C.G.R.T. for over a year. I have never had much trouble in the M.T. Section, but on 5 AUG 44 I was driving CQMS MISKIMMINS who is R.C.O. i/c Mob. Stores at the Unit. He got me into trouble by taking me on a lot of unauthorized journeys and also getting me drunk. On 6 OCT 44 I was paraded before Capt. KEEN, my O.C. I made to him a statement which he typed out and which I signed. It is the statement you have in your possession. The Mob. Stores Sgt. referred to is CQMS MISKIMMINS.

While I was driving him that day (I can't remember just when), CQMS MISKIMMINS said to me: "Some day when we get a chance you and I are going to make ourselves some money on some blankets. We'll get about Forty or Fifty Pounds apiece out of it". He meant that he wanted to get me to deliver some blankets for him some place where he would sell them. I didn't know what the set-up was, and made no promises. I didn't think very serious of the idea and heard no more about it from him or anybody else. He never sold anything that day when I was with him; but when I heard last week that my friend Rfn. DUDLEY was caught with a load of blankets I figured who it was who got him to take them in his truck.

I have read over the above statement, and it is true.

(SGD) E.G.GOULD

STATES:

I am attached to Accomodation Stores, 1 C.G.R.U., where, with one short absence of about 6 weeks last Summer I have been for about a year. I am a storeman in that Department.

On Thursday, 5 OCT 44, I was working at the Accomodation Stores all day. I can't quite remember what I was doing during the morning, but after lunch I was at the Blanket Store supplying palliasses in company with Pte. TOMS, D., another Storeman, C/MS MISKIMMINS came over and told us to load 1000 dirty blankets into a 60cwt. truck driven by Dvr. OLSEN. We had about 1200 there in bundles of 10. At about 14:00 hrs. C/MS MISKIMMINS, Pte. TOMS and I went with the truck-load of blankets to the Field Laundry near F.RENLN and left the blankets there to be cleaned. We then loaded 600 clean blankets for return to the Unit. We always exchange 1000 blankets at a time at the Laundry.

The reason why we did not bring the full 1000 back was that TOMS made a bad job of loading at the start, it was raining hard, and we couldn't get more than 600 on the truck without getting the last ones wet. C/MS MISKIMMINS made arrangements to collect the remaining 400 due on the following morning.

We got back at about 16:00 hrs., and TOMS and I unloaded the blankets into the store. Dvr OLSEN drove his truck away. About half-an-hour later another 60cwt. backed up to the store. C/MS MISKIMMINS arrived on his bicycle about the same time and said we had to load 700 clean blankets for Reception Coy. TOMS & I were a bit sore, having just unloaded them, but C/MS MISKIMMINS and the driver, to whom I paid no attention, gave us a hand, and I counted out the bundles. The driver stacked them in the truck.

I distinctly remember C/MS MISKIMMINS telling the driver: "Take that to Reception". They had a Fatigue party over there, so we didn't go with the truck, but C/MS MISKIMMINS followed the truck away on his bicycle. The driver never said anything at all. We worked fast because it was getting late. I do know that Reception Coy. had been hollering for blankets for several days. TOMS and I just went on working with the palliasses, and that's all I know about it.

At no time had I any reason to suppose that the blankets were to be taken elsewhere than to Reception Coy.

I have read over the above statement, and it is true.

THIRD STATEMENT of:

Sgt. No. B-64113, Sgn. DUDLEY, R.D.C.
M.T. Sect., "A" Wing, No. 1 C.G.R.U., CRU Command.

BEGINS:

I have been cautioned by S/Sgt. NELSON, of S.I.S., that I do not have to say anything unless I wish to do so, but that whatever I do say will be taken down in writing, and may be given in evidence.

To show that I understand this caution, I sign my name here.

(SGD) R. DUDLEY

STATES:

I have read over the statement of B-96927, Cpl JEYNES, J.C.M., dated 13 OCT 44, and wish to state:

The man who asked me if I wanted to take the blankets to LONDON, and arranged it all for me was Cpl. JEYNES. I was willing to take the rap myself, and the only reason for not saying who he was at first was to keep him out of trouble if I could. I'm no squealer.

All I said in my other statement is true, except that I didn't steal the Work Ticket. During the afternoon after he spoke to me about the job Cpl. JEYNES came to me and gave me two work tickets. One he had made out as a sample for me to copy, and the other, which is the one you have, was blank. He told me to fill it in like the one he made out, and to destroy the sample for his protection. I did this that afternoon, and put the one he made out down the toilet in the Provost Lines opposite the Garage.

Cpl. JEYNES also told me I'd get about £15 for the job, and I figured he'd get a good cut out of it as well. He said: "You know who's running this, don't you?", and I said: "I have a pretty good idea" and left it at that. I figured it was CQMS MISKIMMINS, and I'm sure that's who he meant. What day he told me to gas up my truck and take some I don't recall.

I was busy that day like I said on a draft job. The first idea was to get the blankets from the laundry at FARNHAM, but when I didn't get back till 14:00 hrs. he said: "Never mind, you can pick them up at the Blanket Store", and made out my Work Ticket for 15:30 hrs. He knew I had the other one to cover me for the LONDON trip.

I never asked Cpl. JEYNES for the job - he asked me in the first place and fixed it all up himself. I never did any jobs before for CQMS MISKIMMINS (taking stuff out, I mean) but I kind of figure others have, and I know Gnr. WOODS got caught over him once on a buckshee run when they got him drunk and he got back late.

I have read over the above statement, which I have made of my own accord, without fear of any threat or hope of favour to come, and it is the truth. ENDS

(SGD) J.C. JEYNES.

STATES:

On Thursday, 5 OCT 44, at about 09:30 hrs., Sgt. JOHNS, of Clerks' Coy., 1 CGRU, came to me in the Despatch Office, M.T. Section, where I am in charge, and asked me if I could fix him with a big truck to take some blankets to LONDON. I asked him how long it would be needed and he said from about 16:00 hrs to 19:30 hrs. I said I'd let him know later, but he said he'd have to know before 2 o'clock. He said there would be about 700 blankets and that the driver and I would receive about £40 between us, depending on what they got for them. He didn't say who else was in the deal, but as the blankets were coming from Mob. Stores, I concluded that CQMS MISKIMMINS was in it. I told him I'd fix it for him unless some emergency arose and I'd have to cancel it. He gave instructions that the truck was to be at the stop-lights in FARNHAM just below the Hale Laundry at exactly 15:55 hrs., when a Sergeant would be there to direct the driver. He didn't say what Sergeant. I stipulated that there was to be no drinking on the trip. I told Sgt. JOHNS to expect No. L-762820, as that was the logical vehicle for the job. He said "O.K.", and left the office.

I immediately left the office to contact Rfn. DUDLEY, the driver of this 60 cwt. L-762820, and met him outside the office. I asked him if he wanted to take a buckshee trip to LONDON, and mentioned that there would be roughly £15 in it for each of us. He agreed to take the trip, and I told him I'd fix up a sample of a work-ticket for him to make out to cover his journey. I gave him his directions as instructed, warning him also against drinking, and be careful with his driving. I picked DUDLEY because I know him and knew I could trust him. He doesn't know LONDON, but I figured somebody would show him the way.

I returned to the office, and when I was alone I stamped two blank Work Tickets, making one out for DUDLEY to copy. I stamped it several times so that it would be unusable. At about 10:00 hrs. I met Rfn. DUDLEY at the Workshop door and gave him the two work-tickets with the warning that the sample work-ticket must be destroyed after he had copied it. He agreed to do this, and I told him that he was on his own hook once he was on the road with his vehicle. I later advised him to see he had enough gas. He did a trip to ALTON, and I gave him his Work Ticket for FARNHAM and FARNBOROUGH to cover him through the area at 15:20 hrs. I can remember no change of plan, and he must have received instructions elsewhere to go to Blanket Stores.

The driver for Mob. Stores that day was Pte. OLSEN, who was on that job the day before, and was warned that night that he would be needed again at 08:30 hrs., 5 OCT 44. At no time during that day was any call received at the Transport Office from Mob. Stores for another vehicle. Rfn DUDLEY was sent solely in consequence of the request of Sgt JOHNS that morning. I knew nothing of any further arrangements connected with the deal.

When I made my first statement on 13 OCT 44 I figured that to tell all I knew would do nobody any good. Now I feel it isn't fair for Rfn. DUDLEY to take all the blame. I have read his statements, dated 6 OCT 44 and 19 OCT 44, and with the exception of the differences I have pointed out above, his statement is correct to the best of my knowledge. I am quite sure that he has never been mixed up in anything of this kind before. Neither have I.

STATES:

I am attached to Reception Stores, I CORps where I have been working since JUNE, 1944.

On Thursday, 5 OCT 44, I was working in connection with Reception Stores all day. I was with Gnr. GOULD all morning at the Blanket Store emptying palliasses. At noon CQMS MISKIMMINS, who was i/c Reception Stores, told us to beat the Blanket Store at about 14:00 hrs., as we were going to get blankets from the Hole Laundry, PARNHAM, having taken a thousand there to be cleaned a couple of days before. When the truck arrived, driven by Spr. OLSEN, CQMS MISKIMMINS, Gnr. GOULD and I went with it to the laundry at PARNHAM, where we started to load clean blankets in bundles of ten. C.Q.M.S. MISKIMMINS said we were going to take 700, so I wasn't too busy. Now I started loading. When I had loaded that 500 he said we'd better take 1000, but I didn't pile them very tightly in the 3/4 ton truck, and only got 800 on. I'd have had to empty the truck again to have taken the full thousand, but he said not to bother. It was raining that day, and if I'd put on more than 800 they'd have got wet at the back of the truck.

We brought the 800 blankets and unloaded them into the Blanket Store, and the truck went away. Gnr. GOULD and I went on working on the palliasses for a half-hour or so, when the 3 ton cat. truck, driven by Pte. DUDLEY, pulled up. I asked him what he wanted, but he didn't seem to know, and said CQMS MISKIMMINS wanted him to report there. A minute or two afterwards CQMS MISKIMMINS came up on his bicycle and told us to load up 700 blankets for Reception Coy. We thought that kind of funny because we could have taken them straight over in the first place, but he said that's what they wanted now, so we just got busy and loaded them and the driver stacked them in the back of his truck. Gnr. GOULD counted them, on CQMS MISKIMMINS's instructions. I didn't hear any instructions given to the driver, but when we had finished loading at about 16:30 hrs. the truck pulled away with the blankets, and that's the last I saw of them. I figured they were for Reception Coy., and CQMS MISKIMMINS said we didn't have to go with the truck because there was a fatigue down there to unload it. I had no reason at all to suspect that there was anything wrong, and just went on with my work.

with my work/.

I didn't know anything had happened until next day, when I heard some talk around the Camp that the truck-load of blankets had been picked up in LONDON.

At that time I had 1000 blankets at the Hole Laundry, PAIGNTON, and as I thought that would be a good place to pick them up from I told Sgt. When the truck was/loaded I began to feel a bit guilty and s id to the driver, Pte.
DUDLEY: "Slim, take them to Reception Coy. To Hell with it!" He said:
"O.K., Bill", and drove off. He looked a bit scared, too. I thought he was going to do as I said, and even went down to Reception Coy. on my bike to see if he was there. I would have had them unloaded right there, the way I was feeling, honest to God, but he didn't show up.
Neither Ptes. GOULD or TOMS knew what was going on, and I really meant what I said to the driver. I knew something had gone wrong next morning when Capt. LANE called me into his office to ask me about the truck which was missing. That is all I have to do with the deal, and I'm sorry now that I ever had any part in it. I was not short of money, and I honestly don't know whatever made me consent to it.

It is true that Reception Coy. needed more blankets, as those I had previously sent were dirty, and had to be replaced by clean ones.
Some fellow I don't know signed for a few days previously that the police in ALDERSHOT were watching for a blanket deal that was supposed to be coming off, and that is why I was getting a bit scared about the whole thing.

The statements I previously made are pretty untrue, because I knew I had a surplus to cover the loss and I thought that I might be relieved of blame.

I admit that for a long time past I have been scrounging stuff to make good deficiencies in the Unit, but I can truthfully say that apart from the above two instances, when I disposed of stores to Sgt.
GRENELL, I have never sent anything to unauthorized persons, or sold or disposed of stores to civilians. I don't think that a complete Unit inventory would show any shortages in my agreement. It might even show a surplus.

I have read over the above statement, which has been made voluntarily, of my own free will, with no fear of any threat, or hope of favour from any person or persons, and it is all true.

Lt Col D.L. Redman,
PERMANENT PRESIDENT, Courts Martial
HQ CRU.

F.C.C.M. - Tpr Dudley

1. At the recent Court Martial of the m/n OR, he declared that he had been threatened by myself, as officer taking the Summary of Evidence. He called, as witnesses, six ORs on whom a Summary was also being taken.

2. I feel that in view of his evidence, an explanation is required.

3. The nature of this threat was that I had stated that I would make a pitchfork out of the evidence against them by laying a great number of charges.

4. The facts are: when Dudley and the remainder of the accused appeared before me 1 Nov 44 for the purpose of taking a Summary of Evidence, I carefully explained to them their rights at the Summary; told them that if they had witnesses for the defence they could call them or not as they pleased; told them that in due course they would be given an opportunity of making a statement in regard to the charges but that they did not have to do this and also advised them as to their rights in cross-examining the witnesses. I then read the charge sheets to them; explained to them that the charges now laid against them were not necessarily the charges which would finally be laid; explained also that it was quite probable that more than one charge would be laid against them depending upon the evidence brought out at the summary.

5. At this point Dudley himself asked me why more than one charge would be laid and whether it was legal to do this. I told him that it was and in order to make the position clearer to him I stated that Law was like a pitchfork, that in committing a crime a man frequently runs afoul of one tine of the fork and at the same time runs ~~xkxxk~~ into another, pointing out to him that he was charged with stealing blankets, that apparently his share in the crime was to drive a veh to London and that in doing so he laid himself open to a possible charge of illegal use of the veh. This is an explanation of the 'pitchfork' phrase, about which the accused talked at Dudley's trial.

6. I have taken a great many Summaries of Evidence and have always been particularly careful to explain the exact position of the accused. In this case I was even more careful than usual because of theserious nature of the charges. I took the greatest pains to see that all the accused thoroughly understood what was going on. Whenever any witnesses referred to any of the accused by name or when any evidence was brought out mentioning any of the accused, or in any way affected them, I invariably called the attention of the man concerned to the fact and once more explained to him that at the end of the witnesses' evidence, he had the right to cross-examine him. I was particularly careful to do this in the case of Tpr Dudley, who obviously had only a vague idea of what was going on, and in the case of Sgt Johns, against whom the evidence was not particularly strong, but who was affected because all the witnesses mentioned his name and all of the accused, except himself, had made statements involving him. None of the accused were in any way prejudiced in their defence by anything stated or done at the Summary. All of them were treated with great fairness and consideration and the entire Summary was taken in the strictest accord with the Rules of Procedure.

Proceedings on plea of Not-Guilty on Second Charge A.A. sec 9 (1)

The Prosecutor does not make an opening address.

1st. Witness for Prosecution: 13020048 Sgt Leslie Robert Brady 3rd Coy. Pioneer Corps having been duly sworn states: I recognise the accused. On the 30th June 43 at about 1130 hrs. at Moore Lane Guardroom, Birmingham, I was N.C.O. in charge of Prisoners Compound. I told the accused that he was to peel potatoes for the midday meal. He replied: "I will not". In the presence of Cpl Bather I read him an extract from King's Rules & Regs. sec 7 Para 5(c) and explained him why he should comply with my order. I then said: "Peel those potatoes" He replied "I will not do any work at all". I therefore placed him on a Charge report. I gave them about five minutes to execute my order. We have a Compound surrounded by barbed wire. It was not raining that day it was sunshine nearly as much as to day. I did not gave orders to make fire that day, as much as I can remember. I did not see anyone attempting to make a fire and we had no stuff to make one. Nevertheless when the weather is very inclement it has happened that a fire is lit. On that time I gave order to peel potatoes that they were at least six prisoners outside. There hut is the yard apart from the three accused. Inside the guardroom there always a box of biscuit and if it can be proved that a prisoner had had no meal we can give him something to eat In this case I cannot remember if the accused told me he had no breakfast because if it has been so I could have given them some biscuits.

W. C1

Cross-examined by the defence:

Q1- Were the biscuits shown to the accused
A1- no because they have not asked for.
Q2- Did the accused tell you that he was ordered to stay inside the guardroom
A2- no it is perfectly untrue.
Q3- Did the accused ask you to see the orderly officer because he was sick.
A3- no.
Q4- Do you remember any expression about the Canadian and British army
A4: The only thing I could have said: These Kings Regs & Regs to apply as well to the Canadian than to the British army.
Q5- Who went to the guardroom to fetch the Kings Rules & Regs.
A5- Cpl Baker and he was there when I read them to the accused. The R.P. 83(b) has been complied with.

2nd Witness for Prosecution: 130225 Cpl Cesar Charles Baker 337th Coy Pioneer Corps having been duly sworn states:

I recognise the accused. On the 30th of June 43 I was on duty at Moore Lane guardroom, about 1130 hrs I heard the Sgt Brodie giving order to peel potatoes. The accused did not comply with order. The Sgt then sent for an extract of Kings Rules & Regs. He read this abstract. In my presence he gave the order to peel potatoes and the accused replied that he was not going to do it. The Sgt then placed him under a charge report. It was not raining that day but it was cloudy and misty. I am sure that the other prisoners were not outside, but in their hut. When the Sgt read the King's Rules & Regs I was outside of the barbed wire. The Sgt called for me as witness when he gave to the accused his last order to peel potatoes.

Cross-examined by the Defence.

Q1- Did you go yourself to the guardroom to fetch the King's Rules & Regs. The Sergeant sent someone else for them.

A1- NO.

Q2- Do you keep some food or biscuits in the guardroom.

A2- They are some biscuits every day but that is for the supper.

The R.P 83(b) has been complied with.

The Prosecution is their closed.

W D

The R.P. 40 (A) & (B) having been complied with, the accused wishes to give evidence on oath and to call witnesses as to the facts:

1st Witness for defence — D 46 876 Pte Gerard Gratton, the accused R. 22 R. 6 C/Pte having been duly sworn states: On the 30th of June 43 I arrived, with Ptes Sabourin and Lacas, to Moore Lane Guardroom at about 1100 hrs, and we have been undressed as prisoners. It was cold and raining. We went into the Compound. I asked to my escorts to see an officer. They took me to the Officer in charge who asked me what I wanted. I explained to him that it was cold in the hut and asked him if I could get back my blouse, if we could eat because we had no breakfast that morning and if I could see the M.O. because I was suffering of trench mouth. He replied to me that it was impossible to see the M.O because I was not belonging to that camp, but that he was to make light a fire in the hut and told me to stay inside untill the meals hour. I went back to my hut where were my two other friends. Then an escort came in the Hut asking: "are you the three bloody french canadian just arrived, the Sgt wants you." We went outside and the Sgt told us: if you want to eat, you have to peel those patates. There was a big bag of patates. I then explained to him what the officer told me. The Sgt replied to me that I had no reason to see that officer. He then asked some body to fetch the King's Rule - Regs.

W.

He told me also: "If in the Canadian army you do whatever you like, here you will do what you will be told." He then read the extract and after having called Cpl. Bahney to be a witness, he ordered me to peel potatoes. I replied to him: "I am not going to work at all unless you give me something to wear besides or fatigue dress. He then made me go in the hut and went away. I had never heard of that charge until when I attended to the Summary of Evidence. They were no other prisoners outside, they were in their hut. I got the trench mouth in the civilian prison where we stayed about ten days. On my arrival here I reported myself to the M.O. who sent me to the Dentist and I followed a treatment.

Cross examined by the Prosecutor.

Q1. Has a fire been lit in your hut?

A1. Yes

The R.P. 83(2) has been complied with and I certify that to the best of my knowledge and ability it is the true translation of the testimony

2d Witness

2d Witness for defence: D 59200 Pte Jos. Aime Sabourin R.C.A.S.C. 6 C.I.R. having been duly sworn states: On the 30th of June 43 at about 11.30 hrs it was raining, and a fire has been lit in our hut because it was cold. We were just the accused and the Sgt in the yard, the other prisoners were in their hut. The accused Pte Dalton was suffering of something in the mouth, and as soon he has arrived here he followed a treatment at the Dental Clinic.

The R. P. 83 (b) has been complied with and to the best of my knowledge and ability it is the exact translation of the testimony.

3rd Witness for Defence: E 5708 Pte Emile Lacas R. 22. R. 6 C.I.R. having been duly sworn states:

I know the accused. On the 30th of June 43 he was with me and Pte Sahaurin at the Moore Lane Guardroom. When we arrived to the Compound the accused asked to be paraded to an officer because he was suffering of trench mouth. After that, a fire has been lit-in and but the Sergeant did not change his mind. That day it was cold and raining. We had no time to work outside and the accused to the Sgt that he was sick and could not work outside. When the escort came in to tell us that the Sgt wanted us, he said "are you the three bloody french canadians just arrived this morning. The Sgt before reading us the King's Rule-Regs told us: If in the Canadian army you do whatever I am like here you will do what you will be told. When we got outside to the Sgt, he told us if you want to eat-peel those potatoes.

The R. P. 83 (b) has been complied with and to the best of my knowledge and ability this is an exact translation of his testimony.

WL

The defending officer made his closing address.
According to the evidence given before this court it is still more clear that there has been provocation before the orders for peeling potatoes has been given. Moreover the conditions for the execution of the orders were not suitable. Besides that the accused was sick has been provided to an officer who gave him the permission to stay inside of his hut.
The testimony of the Sgt is very doubtful.
he says that it was a very nice day, and we have three witnesses saying it was raining and even the Cpl Baker himself says now D. that it was cloudy and misty. Sgt Brasco says that they were at least six other men outside of their hut and Cpl Baker says that they were in their hut. Moreover Cpl Baker says having been called as a witness only at the last orders, and the Sgt says that he was there for reading the King's Rules Regs what it has been denied by Cpl Baker.
As no wilful defiance of authority has been shown in that case I ask to the Court that the accused should be acquitted.

The Prosecutor in his reply
As in the previous case all the elements of the charge have been proved and I asked the Court the decision.

The court is closed for the finding.

The court is reopened

The accused is acquitted on the second charge.

W. Statement of the accused in mitigation of Sentence.

Since December 1941 I was with Le Regiment de Maisonneuve. I have been transferred to R 22e R about four months ago and I was fed up. My conduct sheet is white. I am waiting since two months in detention for my trial. On the 5th of August I helped the M. Ps to prevent other prisoners to escape during a big fight in the Guardroom.

1st Witness as to Character

: D 56 219 Pte Bros J. H. R de Mais 6 CIRC having been duly sworn states:
I know the accused since about the 15th of July 43. On the 5th of August 43 while during a big fight which occured in the Guardroom at 0425 hrs, he helped me with ten other prisoners to reestablish order and prevent some other one escaping from the Guardroom.
The Court was then closed for the Sentence.
