OWING to the fuel situation the Public Library will not be open before 3 p. m., until further notice.

LET A FLAG fly from every house, store, office and shed for the Fair today. God bless the Union Jack.

GENERAL FOCHI is a heavy smoker of two-cent cigars. Probably this is the reason he laughs at the enemy's gas attacks.

FIRST SNOW of the season Sept. 26th. This is said to be the earliest in fifty years. In some parts of Ontario it snowed for about two hours.

NOTWITHSTANDING the efforts of the printer, the SYNOD of HURON is still in a healthy condition and likely to live for many years to come. What a difference two little letters make.

RECRUITS ARE WANTED for Military Mounted Police, Siberian Force. Must be Category A and have mounted training. Apply at Headquarters, Military District No. 1, London, Ont.

A MEETING of the St. Clair District Press Association will be held in Petrolia on Friday next, when Mr. H. O. Hammond, manager of the "Victory Loan Advertising" will address the members.

RAINCOATS for ladies. Special heavy coats for High School girls.—SWIFT'S.

SARNIA CANADIAN-OBSERVER.—The sermon delivered by Rev. Mr. Sawers last night was probably one of the most timely listened to in this city. His message was a message of encouragement. The sermon was well received and favorably commented on.

AS SOME of those attending the Teachers' Convention last year had difficulty in finding places to stay, the Women Teachers' Guild will try to find suitable accommodation for any who will communicate at once with Miss Jennie Ford, Secretary, Women Teachers' Guild, Petrolia, Ont.

WHAT Ontario will be practically without white sugar before Christmas is the assertion of H. E. Guppy, wholesale merchant, of Windsor. "There will be some relief in a week or two," said Mr. Guppy, "when the best sugar is ready for the market, but as Canada only grows enough beets to give the Dominion sugar for one week there seems to be no chance of a permanent supply until the Cuba crop is ready."

AN OBSERVANT PERSON passing along the street frequently hears young boys use cuss words. Those who are in the habit of using that kind of language are cautioned that the law does not permit its use and any person can be brought before a magistrate for such talk. Some lads when they think they are out of reach, belch out oaths and obscene language that they seem to be quite familiar with. Stop it, boys, it is a most unmanly thing.

OUR CUTTER, Mr. Letherland, is ready for that suit or overcoat.—SWIFT, SONS & CO.

THE SARNIA CANADIAN-OBSERVER, Lambton's daily newspaper, issued a special 24-page edition on Sept. 21st that is a credit to the publishers. The edition was issued as a Fall Fair and Fashion number and contains an exceedingly interesting lot of news and special articles. Considering the many drawbacks consequent to war conditions it is exceedingly well gotten up and the editors, contributors and publishers may justly feel proud of it.

THE THAMESVILLE HERALD says:—"Mrs. Mead has received an official telegram reading as follows:—Sincerely regret to inform you 528784 etc. George Fredrick Mead, Medical Service, officially reported admitted 83 General Hospital, Boulogne, Sept. 12, shell-gas. In this connection Mrs. Mead received a cablegram from Mr. Mead Sunday, saying that he had seen George and that he was doing well. Mr. Mead also stated that he would be in Canada soon. George's schoolmates and friends will hope that he will make a speedy and complete recovery, and be none the worse for his unfortunate experience."

REV. A. C. TIFFIN received a cable on Sunday from his son, Lieut. J. B. Tiffin, R.A.F., that he had arrived safely in England. The cable was dated London, Sept. 28th. He sailed from Quebec on Friday, September 13th.

THE attention of the public is called to the fact that rural mail boxes may not be used for the free distribution of advertising matter or for free distribution of any publications or mail matter whatever—such as auction sale bills, samples, etc.

SAVE to make Canada secure. THE WILL that saves is the will that wins. SAVE to save—both yourself and Canada.

HEAVY HOAR FROST the night of Sept. 30th.

THE PUBLIC are cautioned not to use water out of the fire tanks.

LIVE within your means and your means will be increased.

THE prayer service in Trinity Church will be held on Friday evening this week. "STICK IT, CANADA," has been selected as the slogan for the approaching victory loan campaign.

IF YOUR BOY'S name is not in the "Roll of Honor" let us know and we will place it there.

OWING to the inclement weather only a few of the H. S. field day sports were pulled off last Thursday.

A SMART young lady commercial traveler attracted the attention of some of the "boys" on Main street, Tuesday morning.

A GOODLY NUMBER of Watford people attended the anniversary service at Zion Methodist church, 2nd line, Warwick, last Sunday afternoon and evening.

SOME people are getting so much profit of one sort and another out of their war gardens that they think of having themselves arrested for shameless profiteering.

MISS WILLIAMS' auction sale of hats, millinery and fancy goods on Saturday night attracted a large crowd of ladies, the store being packed to the door.

A CUBAN has invented a palm fiber substitute for cedar cigar boxes. Now if he'll just find a substitute for the Christmas cigars that once a year go in them!

THE sale of Nelson Chambers' household furniture was well patronized and fair prices realized. The house was not sold. The family will move to Detroit where Mr. Chambers has obtained a lucrative position.

You can always tell a lady with a well-tailored suit—she feels well dressed. See SWIFT'S Ladies' Tailoring Department.

THE Rev. Geo. W. Conners has resigned charge of the Watford and Calvary Baptist churches. He goes to Caledonia in about two weeks. A contributor submits an account of the matter in another column.

THE people of Canada are asked to deny themselves something the first week in October to aid the Belgian people. You won't need to deny yourself very much to take a tag of the Daughters of the Empire on Fair Day to help your country and her allies.

It is reported that the last "gasless" Sunday was fairly well observed in this locality, yet it appears that some were not loyal enough to carry out the government's request to refrain from joy riding. Sterner measures will likely be adopted so that some people may learn that war is really being waged.

A YOUNG fellow from Brooke went out for an automobile ride and of course took his girl with him. When about five miles from home the car gave him trouble and phoning home to his father he said, "Father, she won't spark." "Well, what will I send you," queried the father, "a new car or a new girl."

MANY OLD FRIENDS of the Rev. F. G. Newton of Sarnia attended service in Trinity church last Sunday evening, glad of the opportunity to again hear a sermon from the one-time rector of Warwick. The reverend gentleman preached an exceedingly interesting and forceful sermon on the benediction, II. Cor. 13:14. All his hearers were deeply impressed and enlightened by the telling discourse.

THE EPWORTH LEAGUE service in the Methodist Church meets every Friday evening at 8 o'clock. Last Friday evening Mr. Burton Cook had charge of the meeting and Miss Gretta Tiffin gave a very interesting topic. All the young people not otherwise engaged on Friday evening are invited to spend an interesting and profitable hour with the Epworth League.

RAINCOATS for men and young men.—SWIFT'S

THE FUNERAL service of the late William Thomas was held at the home of his daughter, Mrs. A. J. Hagle on Thursday evening by Rev. A. C. Tiffin, assisted by Rev. J. C. Forster. On Friday morning the remains were taken to Sole, Mich., where they were interred. Mrs. Hagle, Mrs. John McCormick and Mr. C. E. Smith went with the remains to Sole.

NOW THAT THE ALLIES are pressing on and driving the Hun to his hole, why not have a celebration in Watford on Thanksgiving Day? How does the idea strike you? It would be better to show our appreciation of the work of the boys at the front than to pass the day wandering about the streets as usual on Thanksgiving Day.

REV. A. E. SMITH, D. B. Toronto, representing the Dominion Alliance, will preach in Watford, Calvary and Wyoming Baptist churches next Sunday at the usual hours.

Pte. C. W. Haskett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Haskett of Watford, is reported wounded. His name appeared in the casualty list last Monday as being from Watford. Mr. Haskett states that the number given is that of his son.

Mrs. TYE received a telegram on Friday stating that her granddaughter Jean, the five-year-old and only child of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Purdy was dangerously ill. She left at once for Toronto. Word was received later that the little one had passed away. This is the third child that Mr. and Mrs. Purdy have lost and much sympathy is felt for their friends and acquaintances.

SHORTLY AFTER EIGHT O'CLOCK on Thursday evening of last week fire was discovered issuing from the shed at the rear of Mrs. C. Willoughby's frame house on Warwick street. The firemen were on the spot in short order and had a stream playing on the burning building in a very few minutes.

There was a brisk wind blowing from the northwest at the time which fanned the flames and made the most strenuous fighting necessary. At one time it was thought that the entire building was doomed, but through the excellent work of the firemen the blaze was extinguished before it got very much of a headway in the main part of the house, but nevertheless that part was badly damaged. Willing hands removed most of the furniture from the building but the loss from a small amount of insurance was on the premises. As the alarm sounded just at mail time many people were on the street and no time was lost in getting the engine on the spot. Mrs. Willoughby and her daughter, Miss Flossie, were in Chicago and the house had not been occupied for several weeks, consequently it looks as if the origin of the fire was incendiary.

PERSONAL

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Brown returned home Friday.

Mr. R. McLeay, Toronto, was here for the week end.

Miss Flossie Willoughby returned home from Chicago, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Dodds are visiting relatives in Chicago.

Mrs. Chas. Kenward and children, Gary, Ind., are visiting Col. and Mrs. Kenward.

Mrs. A. Dunlop, Chatham, returned home Monday after visiting relatives and friends in this district.

Mr. John Reid, California, called on his niece, Mrs. Wm. M. Styles on Saturday last.

Miss Celestine McManus left Monday for Toronto, to attend Faculty of Education.

Mrs. Wright, Detroit, and Mrs. Oxenham, Toronto, are the guests of Mrs. A. D. Hone.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Maloney, M. J. Maloney, Mrs. J. Costello and Miss Burke called on friends in Watford, on their way to Stratford.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Howard and Miss Kent of Lucan, and Mrs. Bryce of London spent the week end at Mrs. J. McGillicuddy's, Victoria street.

Mr. I. L. CONNORS, B.A., who has been holidaying under the parental roof, returned on Monday to his work as chemical inspector in service with the Imperial Munitions Ministry, Trenton, Ont.

W. Clarke Lee, of Louisville, Kentucky, who has spent the past six months visiting his relatives and friends in Watford and Grimsby, left for Beaumont, Texas, on Monday, where he will spend the winter with his son.

Divine Service will be held in St. James' Church on Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

The Epworth League of Bethesda will hold its anniversary services next Sunday Oct. 6. The Rev. D. D. Thomson of Stratford, will preach at 11 a. m. and 7.30 p. m. There will be special singing. A generous offering is requested in aid of the League church fund. Come and enjoy these services.

The Clover Club Mission Band gathered at the home of Miss Ella McCabe on Thursday evening, Sept. 12th, and gave her a miscellaneous shower. The bride-to-be was taken completely by surprise. Many useful and beautiful presents were showered on her. Luncheon was served by the hostess after which the evening was spent in music and games.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Wiley, 14th con, returned on Thursday night from a pleasant two months' visit with relatives in Northern Saskatchewan. While there they made their headquarters about two miles from Norquay and in numerous trips by auto viewed the surrounding country for a radius of about 75 miles and in this way had a good chance to see the country and crops. Mr. Wiley reports the grain crops in that district all good and heavy, with the exception of a small territory of gravel land where they were haled out. The root and vegetable crops are also abundant. In some places the wheat was five feet high. This was cut some twelve inches from the ground. While there Mr. Wiley did his bit to help out with the rush, and with a four-horse team and seven-foot binder cut 215 acres of grain. He found tacking a fifty-acre field somewhat different from the small fields he is accustomed to at home.

An auto accident, which might have had fatal results, took place last night on the corner of the 4th concession and 18th sideroad, a half mile south of town. Mr. Wm. Annett, Reeve of Brooke, had stopped his car to put some cattle in a field in the old McDermid Farm. Finishing this he got into his car and started for town, intending to put on his lights when the car got on to straight road. As he was turning the corner, the wheels of the car ran off the culvert crossing the ditch, with the result that the car turned completely over in the deep ditch, pinning Mr. Annett beneath it. As it happened though, he was able to pull himself free from the wreckage, with no bodily injuries. After summoning help, the car was hauled back onto the road, the only damage being the top of the car and the windshield were completely destroyed. Had the top been down, Mr. Annett would have been crushed beneath Alvinston Free Press.

Gunner G. W. Parker and Gunner Clare Fuller, of 2nd Royal Canadian Artillery Tank Battalion, Petawawa, spent the week end at their respective homes on the Main Road and 2nd line south. This was their last leave as they expect to leave for overseas this week. All unite in wishing them a safe and speedy return.

The congregations attending the anniversary services at Zion Methodist church, 2nd line, last Sunday afternoon and evening were very large and much interested. The floral decorations were tastefully arranged. The choir surpassed its general record of excellency in its appropriate selections for the occasion. The ministers, Rev. E. H. Sawers and Rev. A. C. Tiffin, gave splendid gospel messages of a stimulating and inspiring character. The response of the congregation in a financial way was fully up to or perhaps a little beyond any previous record, which is saying a good deal for their invariably do the generous thing.

Tecumseh Chapter I. O. D. E.

Fifteen members and two visitors attended the meeting of Tecumseh Chapter I. O. D. E. held at the home of Mrs. A. G. Brown on Tuesday. Letters were read from C. Gibbs, C. McCormick, W. Kent, W. Bruce and others thanking the chapter for parcels.

A knitting contest will be put on for the months of October and November with Mrs. D. Hamilton and Miss Margaret McLeay as captains. A prize has been donated to be given to the lady who knits the most pairs of socks and the losing side in the contest will treat the winners to a war time luncheon. It is hoped that every knitter in Watford will help in this sock drive. The boys need them for the winter months. The Box committees were authorized to send 50 Christmas boxes overseas the first week in November. Mrs. Fitzgerald and Mrs. Brown are Tecumseh Chapter delegates to the rally of the First Military District at London this week.

Mrs. Kamms and Mrs. Baird two members who cannot regularly attend were welcomed at the meeting. The autumn decorations of the tea table were most artistic. A very enjoyable meeting was closed by singing the National Anthem. Next meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Stapleford.

East Lambton Teachers' Institute

The annual meeting of the above Institute will be held in Petrolia on Thursday and Friday of next week. The program is an exceedingly interesting one this year. Mr. E. J. White of the London Normal School will deliver two addresses, one on Teaching of History, the other on Primary Arithmetic. Mr. A. B. Steer will speak on Entrance Geography, Miss A. Ross and Miss L. Park will report on the O. E. A., and Misses Mott, Lucas and Wordsworth on the Summer Courses. Miss Ford's class will give an illustration of Class Singing, and Miss Hoban and Miss Stevens will read papers on Oral Reading. There will also be addresses by Inspector MacDougall and President Shrapnell, and a solo by Miss Cameron. A discussion on the Ontario Readers will be led by Miss May Reid. On Thursday evening there will be the usual meeting in Victoria Hall.

Five head of young cattle dead, entailing a loss to their owner of $500, was the experience of John W. Bradley, who turned a drove of nine head of cattle into a field of alfalfa clover, where they were grazing for just 20 minutes. The entire herd got bloated and five of them died after an unsuccessful effort of a veterinary surgeon to relieve them of the gas by punching holes in their sides.

The Fair

As the Guide-Advocate goes to press the judges are busy in the fair buildings making decisions on the fruits, grains, vegetables, ladies work, dairy products and other classes shown indoors. For the past few days Secretary Kenward and his assistants have been very busy receiving entries, making out entry tickets and generally attending to the numerous other matters that crop up on the last few days before the fair. Officials and workmen have been busy fixing up the grounds and making preparations to receive the big crowd expected at the fair. The entries so far are fully up to an previous year, 1500 being recorded at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning. Owing to the heavy rain Wednesday morning the exhibits are slow in coming in but those in at time of writing, have the appearance of being of first-class quality. The prospects are good for a splendid show and there will undoubtedly be a big crowd present if the weather is fine.

Resignation of Rev. Geo. W. Conners

The respective congregations of the Wyoming, Calvary and Watford Baptist Churches were surprised and saddened when at the close of each service last Sunday, their pastor, Rev. Geo. W. Conners, tendered his resignation and asked that he be relieved of the pastorate by the middle of October. On every hand evidences of deep and sincere regret were to be seen, for Mr. Conners has proven himself as a wise and capable leader, a good preacher, a fluent speaker, a faithful pastor and a kind and sympathetic friend to young and old alike, both within and without his own communion. He has rendered most acceptable service for almost three years. During his residence in Watford Mr. Conners has won the esteem and confidence of the citizens generally, has ever displayed the most cordial and fraternal feelings with his colleagues in the ministry, and has always identified himself with every movement having for its aim the public weal.

As teacher in the Sunday School and worker in the Mission Circle, as well as in the arduous tasks which fall upon a minister's wife, Mrs. Conners has shown herself to be a helpmate indeed.

Mr. Conners has accepted an unsolicited call to the pastorate of the Caledonia Baptist Church, which affords an opportunity for intensive work, eliminating the long and tedious driving which the work here requires.

Mr. Conners and family carry with them to their new field of labor the best wishes of their people and a host of friends.—COM.

Don't be a victim of circumstances: help to shape circumstances by saving.

BEST CARTOON GETS $50 BOND

In connection with the coming Victory Loan campaign, the Dominion Press News and Feature Committee announces a cartoon contest. Artists are invited to submit sketches suitable for a two-column engraving, which will be judged on their merits as to publicity calculated to assist in the selling of Victory Bonds. The committee offers a $50.00 bond of the new issue for the best cartoon. A number of cartoons will also be awarded special mention. The sketches submitted are to become the property of the committee and a nominal fee will be paid for any that are used in the campaign.

Mr. C. F. Crandall, managing editor of the Montreal Star, and the editor of Victory Loan National Press News and Feature Service will be the judges.

The contest will close on October 15th, and awards will be announced a few days later.

It Saves Doctors' Bills!

This is the Rev. A. D. McLeod's opinion of Zam-Buk. This clergyman, who lives at Harcourt, N.B., writing to the proprietors, remarks upon the unusual popularity which Zam-Buk enjoys in the homes of the people of his parish. He says: "I know of nothing that can compare with it. Having charge of an extensive mission, over which I travel constantly, I meet with many sick and afflicted people, and I have been amazed at the good which Zam-Buk is doing daily. I have learned, as an absolute fact, that for bad ulcers, old wounds, eczema and skin diseases of all kinds its healing powers of Zam-Buk are simply marvelous. For the painful ailment, piles, also, it is excellent. Many a doctor's bill is saved by the use of Zam-Buk."

For cuts, burns and scalds Zam-Buk is equally good. Nothing ends gain and heals so quickly. 50c. box, 3 for $1.25. All dealers or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto. Send 1c. stamp for free trial box.

WATFORD, OCTOBER 4, 1918

NOTE AND COMMENT

Borlin Ulk.—"Formerly I changed a collar every day," writes a dispondent subscriber, "and a hundred-mark note once a week. Now I change a collar once a week and a hundred-mark note every day."

The Globe.—"The employment of children under school age is becoming too common. There will always be selfish parents to abet selfish employers. The children must be rigorously protected by law. Before long it is hoped they will have the further protection of an extended school age."

"We do not like to see returned soldiers acting as book agents or magazine peddlers. Their medals and honors are degraded in this sorry trade. Because it is scarcely decent for a business house to trade on patriotic gratitude. Big-hearted citizenship hates to refuse a hero from France, and buys when it has no use for the books or magazines. The business man who takes advantage of this fine human trait can scarcely be said to be walking in a righteous path."

The "Canadian Official Record" is the name of a weekly to be published by the Dominion Government

$100 REWARD, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and this is catarrh. Catarrh being greatly influenced by constitutional conditions requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine is taken internally and acts through the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in the curative powers of Hall's Catarrh Medicine that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

following lines of the United States publication. The aim will be to keep its readers fully informed of the actions and decisions of the Government and activities and program of Government departments more particularly in connection with war efforts. Establishment of the weekly is said to be only a phase of a wide scheme of publicity of Canadian war effort which the motion picture film will be used to a greater extent than hitherto. The co-operation of the various Provincial Ministers of Education is also to be sought in an endeavor to ensure that the lessons of war are not overlooked in Canadian schools.

Ten Commandments for Present Day Wives

"How to hold a husband" is condensed into 10 commandments for modern women by Rev. P. R. Knickerbocker, who recently gave Los Angeles women the benefit of his experience in this decalogue:

1. Thou shalt have no other man except thy husband; neither shalt thou eye another.
2. Thou shalt not neglect thy home for a bargain sale or club or suffragette propaganda.
3. Thou shalt not be a peach on the street, a pippin in society, and a lemon in the house.
4. Thou shalt not wear $50 bonnets and imported lingerees when thy husband wears 5c socks and hand-me-down trousers.
5. Thou shalt not play bridge whist for gain, neither shalt thou sip the sparkling glass.
6. Thou shalt use the same blandishments on thy husband as thou didst use on thy sweetheart, and he shall always be thy lover.
7. Thou shalt not nag thy husband nor thy son, nor thy daughter, nor thy servant.
8. Thou shalt suffer little children to come, for thy greatest name is Mother.
9. Thou shalt not neglect to pray for thy children; neither shalt thou neglect to spank them.
10. Thou shalt not rear thy children by proxy, but thou thyself shalt be their mother.

A BOON FOR THE BILIOUS.—The liver is a very sensitive organ and easily deranged. When this occurs there is undue secretion of bile and the acid liquid flows into the stomach and sours it. It is a most distressing ailment, and many are prone to it. In this condition a man finds the best remedy in Parmelee's Vegetable Pills, which are warranted to speedily correct the disorder. There is no better medicine in the entire list of pill preparations.

"Heart to Heart"

Yes, mother, I know the dark fear in your heart
As you scan the dread list every day.
But, mother, there's one who is still by your side,
Even though He seems far far away.
He knows all the hopes and the fears in your soul,
And never will leave you alone.
The prayers of a mother are sweetest to God;
Like incense, they rise to His throne.
He knows that you grieve that dear boy for his sake,
He knows how the mother heart yearns;
Have faith, little woman, you'll meet him again,
So smile till your laddie returns.
So smile, longing mother, smile; smile all the time,
And dream of that meeting to be,
For, mother, he could not look you in the face
Unless he had gone overseas.

Miller's Worm Powders never fail. They immediately attack the worms and expel them from the system. They are complete in themselves not only as a worm destroyer, but as a highly beneficial medicine, correcting weak digestion and restoring debilitated system to healthfulness, without which the growth of the child will be retarded and its constitution weakened.

Give Your Country A Leg Up—Save!

Canadian patriotism demands the practice of thrift by all her sons. The men who are holding the line at home are they who are making it easy for the business of the country to go on with little jar to its mechanism. The steady pulling together of all citizens in the production of goods and in the conservation of all field crops marks the thrifty nation. Saving on the part of our citizens is going to be the greatest insurance we will have in Canada against a period of depression after the war. The combined capital of the individuals who make the country will form a fund of sufficient power to drive business along in a most satisfying way in spite of the prevailing hard times of such a period. The saving man is therefore a real patriot. He has Canada's interests fundamentally at heart. May his tribe increase in these days when wealth is piling up under the

More Satisfied Customers and Increased Profits

MANY storekeepers extend their business by taking advantage of the uses to which a motor truck can be put.

Those who use the horse and wagon for delivery are restricted to a limited area. But the merchant who owns a truck can cover many times the area possible by horse and wagon. He is able to increase his list of customers without interfering with the service he renders nearby customers. A rural delivery route can be added or lengthened. His loads can be increased. His service is improved while his costs are reduced.

The Ford One-Ton Truck Chassis fitted with a stake, express, or closed body will fill every requirement of the merchant. The Ford Truck is of service in all weathers.

spur of war-time efforts. Save because it hits both ways. It is a high form of patriotism. And it gives one's country a leg up in a critical time. Put by the extra dollar now. The long procession of thrifty dollars will make a line that will not waver—Hindenburg or no Hindenburg.

RELIEVES ASTHMA AT ONCE. If you could read the thousands of unsolicited letters received by the makers from grateful users you, too, would realize the remarkable curing powers of Dr. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy. All cases, incipient and chronic, are benefited by this great family remedy and many of them are cured. Why suffer or experiment with worthless preparations when the genuine Kellogg's can be purchased every where.

Squibs by Dad

The prevailing shade in sugar this season is yellow.

Dealers get many a sour look when they quote the price of sugar.

Other girls may have their Sunday out but "Lizzie" will remain in her own garage.

Suburban dogs and chickens report the first gasless Sunday as being quiet and restful.

Ham has been rescued from the firey furnace but Shem and Japhet are still suffering from the heat.

Hindenburg is kept as busy as a boy at a three-ring circus watching where his well-known line is going to crack next.

In the rush of war work, Christmas slippers and embroidered sofa pillows for the pastor and his family may be overlooked. The patriotic parson will accept the will for the deed and bear his loss with Christian fortitude.

To conserve labor and encourage early rising, Los Angeles ice dealers now deposit their morning delivery on the curb at the owner's risk. The sluggard who slumbers too long only gets a dissolving view of a once solid asset.

George Ade, who made a fabulous fortune by writing fables, has offered his country home to Indians, one of the finest in the state, to the government for war work. Uncle Sam is not in the habit of taking "slang" from anybody, but he decided to "let George do it."

A pleasant medicine for children is Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator, and there is nothing better for driving worms from the system.

"The Victrola"

Every musical longing is easily satisfied when there is a Victrola in your home.

Finished in various sizes and models and at prices that makes it attainable in every home. You may take your choice of the models, feeling assured that you are securing an instrument that will bring you a perfect rendition of any music you want to hear. If you haven't a Victrola in your home, it is because you don't know how perfectly it will bring to you all the music you like best.

ATTENTION! Sick Women

To do your duty during these trying times your health should be your first consideration. These two women tell how they found health.

Hellam, Pa.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for female troubles and a displacement. I felt all run down and was very weak. I had been treated by a physician without results, so decided to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial, and felt better right away. I am keeping house since last April and doing all my housework, where before I was unable to do any work. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is certainly the best medicine a woman can take when in this condition. I give you permission to publish this letter."—Mrs. E. R. CRUMMING, R. No. 1, Hellam, Pa.

Lowell, Mich.—"I suffered from cramps and dragging down pains, was irregular and had female weakness and displacement. I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound which gave me relief at once and restored my health. I should like to recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's remedies to all suffering women who are troubled in a similar way."—Mrs. ELISE HEIM, R. No. 6, Box 83, Lowell, Mich.

Strange Mania for Gambling

ONE would suppose that a man who had "diced at the dawn with death" in Flanders would, when he got home to England for a few days' leave, prefer to sit out in his garden and smoke, instead of hieing him to a gambling house. Undoubtedly the great proportion of men do, but enough of them are still slaves to the gaming mania that they, together with a number of munitioneers and others who have got rich quick, are now making London a paradise for the parasites who run gambling rooms. According to the correspondent of the New York Sun, who is usually to be relied upon, gambling in London is to-day a curse. In his view the police are unable to act because the bankers and their victims are usually people of influence or prominence, and would rather suffer their losses in silence than face the publicity of appearance in court, even if by so doing they could recover the money that had been filched from them.

One woman, who passes for respectable, is said to have made $100,000 by gambling in her apartments in the past couple of years. Particulars of her game were given a few days ago to a London newspaper by an American woman who concluded her letter by threatening to go round to the place and break the windows when she heard of another game. She says that one American officer lost $2,100, another $1,500 and a Canadian $500 just before leaving for the front. These men were decoyed to the place by girls with whom they had struck up an acquaintance in a more or less informal manner. The charming young ladies, exquisitely gowned and turned out, showed a patriotic interest in the officers, but declined to permit them to squander their pay on dinners or other entertainments. Instead they insisted that the entertaining should be done by their friend, the proprietress of the fashionable gambling dump. The delighted and deluded officers were only too eager to make a call, and one followed another with the result recorded by the correspondent.

There is another man living in a fine country house in a delightful district within easy motoring distance of London who is regarded as a model landlord and a fine type of good old English sportsman, who is said to have an income of $100,000 a year. Before the war he had nothing. He has made his fortune out of the games that go on in his rooms in town. He is a rich man because he was one of the first to make the discovery that the war did not end the gambling instinct, but, on the contrary, had the effect of making daring gamblers even more desperate. He found out that men just back from the front where they had been risking their lives a dozen times a day for weeks on end, were just as anxious to risk their money when they returned on leave, if they had been gamblers before they became soldiers. He was somewhat aided by the natural reluctance of the police to interfere any more than possible with the relaxations desired by officers just back from the front.

The officers, going or coming, form only one class of several upon which the professional gamblers prey. A source of constant income to them is provided by the great number of people who have made a great deal of money since the beginning of the war, manufacturers and contractors from places other than London. A good many of these people have the notion that the swiftest way in which to scrape an acquaintance with the aristocracy is over a green table, the race track and the dog show being under a temporary eclipse. They do not mind the money they lose so long as they can enter on the credit side of the ledger some titled acquaintance. Again, many of them who have become wealthy in a few months have acquired with their wealth a solid appreciation of their own merits as shrewd business men. They have the notion that they can beat the gambler at his own game, with results that might be foreseen by others not so gifted.

Perhaps the most to be pitied victims of these bridge sharks and roulette wolves are the women. London contains tens of thousands of them, many being women from overseas who are living in England in order to be near their husbands in France. They are lonely. Many of them are wealthy. They are marked down by a gambler or his agent and plans are laid for an introduction. From sheer ennui, or from a desire to relieve an ever-pressing anxiety, they fall ready victims to the card-table, even if before they had known nothing about rolling the bones or kindred gestures. Naturally enough, they are not floored at the first seance. They are probably allowed to win, and their charming new friends are most cordial in their felicitations. But presently the real work is put on, and the women are cheated out of all the money that they can lay their hands on. The story is told of one who lost $20,000 before her husband could get back from the front and rescue her.

Home in Halifax roofed with Brantford Asphalt Slates

A handsome roof that defies the weather

An added touch of beauty to any house is a roof of Brantford Asphalt Slates, which are in soft, harmonious shades of reddish brown and dark green. The colors are permanent and unfadeable, being the natural shades of the slate just as it is taken out of the quarries.

It will also prove a very economical roof, because Brantford Asphalt Slates do not split, get loose, absorb water or rot. They are strongly fire-resistant and are classified as non-combustible by the fire insurance companies, and allowed to be used in cities where the most rigid fire-prevention By-laws are in force.

Brantford Asphalt Slates are very moderate in cost. The regular size of the slates and their pliability make them easily and quickly laid, thus saving time and cost of labor. Being made of high grade felt saturated and coated with asphalt, and with a surface of crushed slate, they make a roof that defies the elements and is a permanent part of the building, just like the walls and the foundation.

Brantford Asphalt Slates

are being used more extensively every year for city, country and summer homes, churches, golf clubs, stores, garages, and wherever an artistic effect is desired on a pitch roof.

If you are going to do any building this year or have an old roof that needs replacing, it will be to your advantage to investigate Brantford Asphalt Slates.

RECOGNIZE VALUE OF WHEAT

Shortage Has Shown Us the Wonderful and Unique Qualities Contained in the Grain.

As absence makes the heart grow fonder, so does scarcity of wheat invite attention to its wonderful and unique qualities as food. We have been eating wheat products all these years as a matter of course, and it never occurred to us that we might ever be called on to go without them. Now that it is necessary to use wheat substitutes, we have discovered that useful as they are there is nothing that really takes the place of wheat flour.

The magic of the wheat lies in its gluten—what the baker refers to as the "binder." He must have a certain proportion of wheat flour to furnish the binder, or his oatmeal bread or his rice pastry crumbles. The substitutes have the same nourishment as the wheat. But they lack the quality of the wheat flour crust. There is nothing in them to imprison the gases liberated by yeast, and so they refuse to rise like wheat dough. Bread made of the substitutes is heavy and soggy unless there is enough wheat dough mixed in to give it life.

Without wheat we go without bread, without cake, without pie, without strawberry shortcake. No affection for corn pone can make it a substitute for all these stand-bys of the table. If it is necessary for the sake of the war, we shall cheerfully go without. Any deprivation we may feel is as nothing to what our associates in arms already have undergone. But we shall look forward to the happy days when there will be an abundance of wheat once more.—Kansas City Star.

RECORD BELONGS TO SIRIUS

Small Vessel Was the First to Cross the Atlantic Wholly Under Its Own Steam.

This spring marks the eightieth anniversary of an important event in modern history—the voyage from Cork to New York of the Sirius, the first vessel to cross the Atlantic wholly under its own steam. All that remains of that staunch little craft is a number of brass paper-weights made from the metal work after it was wrecked in Ballycotton bay in 1847. Captain Roberts, commander of the 412-ton Sirius on its maiden trip, was later transferred to the President, which went down with all on board. Thus both the Sirius and her master met with a tragic end.

The Sirius made the voyage from Cork in 19 days, reaching New York only a few hours before the Great Western, another steamship which had sailed from Bristol. The latter made the best time, crossing the ocean in 15 days. The Sirius had a passenger list of seven on its initial voyage, the youngest of whom was Vincent E. Ransome, then four years old, who was reported living a few years ago in Wiltshire, England, where he was long the rector of a parish church.

The Sirius was a schooner-rigged ship and was 178 feet over all, with a beam of 25 feet and a depth of 18 feet.

 WATFORD, OCTOBER 4, 1918
 NOTE AND COMMENT

Buyers of matches may be pardoned if they are still unconvinced that they should pay nine cents more for a box of matches because the Government has imposed a five-cent tax. The explanation is altogether to ingenious. They would like the privilege of paying the old price and affixing a five-cent tax to each box. They would save four cents and the Government would get its five cents just the same.

"Moterless Sundays" appear to be more a matter of honor and keeping faith than law. In consequence it strikes harder and deeper in the moral sense.

President Wilson's reply to the Austrian proposal for a peace parley was made exactly thirty-three minutes after the delivery of the document, and contained exactly twenty-eight words.

Toronto Mail and Empire—If the war ended next month how many people would enter the new and difficult peace era with considerable savings from the present inflation of values? Too many householders as we are well aware have found advancing costs cutting down their margin for savings. Some have found their increased earnings quite inadequate to meet their heavier outlay. But there are plenty of others who are earning—and spending—larger sums of money than ever before. They fail to realize that the time of plenty and ease is a time to husband resources for the inevitable reaction. At any time thrift is an armour against adversity and an ally in the struggle for success. But under the present abnormal circumstances thrift is like a lifebelt to a person going on a dangerous sea voyage. It is an insurance against want and dependence if, after the war, there is a great industrial impression.

An Advertisement by Charles Dickens

Here is what he has to say in one of his books:

"My other piece of advice, Copperfield," said Mr. Micawber, "you know. Annual income £20, annual expenditure £19. 19. 6—result, happiness. Annual income £20, annual expenditure £20. 0. 6—result, misery. The blossom is blighted, the leaf is withered, the God of Day goes down upon the dreary scene, and—and in short you are forever floored. As I am."

The saving of a part of one's income was always a good policy.

Prudent men and women have always maintained a margin of saving.

But to-day we must go farther in our efforts to save than ever before.

To-day it is a matter of the gravest importance that each Canadian seek ways and means to economize by cutting down expenditures for unnecessary things, saving the money he spends on things he could do without, so that when the Nation needs to borrow money he will be in a position to do his full duty.

There is war-shortening work waiting for every dollar that can be saved.

IF Charles Dickens were writing to Canadians to-day he would probably give us advice to this effect:

"My other piece of advice, Canadians, you know. No matter what percentage of your annual income you have previously saved, your efforts to-day should be to save more. The advantage of so doing is threefold: By the practice of economy you conserve the material and labor which must be devoted to the grim task before us; you cultivate the priceless habit of thrift; you gather more and more money to lend to the Nation for the prosecution of the war to a quick and certain victory."

Quite a bit of excitement was aroused at the threshing on the farm of J. King, fourteenth Concession, Bosanquet, recently. A number of teams were engaged drawing the grain from the stooks to the machine, when a load of oats took fire from a spark from the engine and nearly spread to the stack. The burning load was drawn away and allowed to burn itself out, destroying the wagon and the rack. Ebenezer Bannister, who was on the load had some of his clothes burned but fortunately escaped injury.

CROSS, SICKLY BABIES

Sickly babies—those who are cross and fretful; whose little stomach and bowels are out of order; who suffer from constipation, indigestion, colics or any other of the minor ills of little ones—can be promptly cured by Baby's Own Tablets. Concerning them Mrs. Jean Paradis, St. Bruno, Que., writes: "My baby was very ill and vomited all his food. He was cross and cried all night and day and nothing helped him till I began using Baby's Own Tablets. They soon set him right and now he is fat, healthy boy." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Maddock-McCabe

A very pretty but quiet marriage was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. McCabe of the tenth concession of Brooke, on Wednesday, Sept. 18th, when their daughter, Eleanor Verna, became the bride of Basil Maddock, only son of Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Maddock of Brooke. The bride carried a beautiful bouquet of white asters and pink sweet peas, and was superbly gowned in shimmering silk, (the silk being the gift of her soldier brother, Robert McCabe, dispatch rider in Mesopotamia, and sent to her from far away India), with plaited overskirt and bodice of georgette, the trimmings were of pearl and she wore a gossamer silk bride's veil and was crowned with orange blossoms. To the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Bessie Alderman, the bride was led by her father to the waiting bridegroom, who stood under an arch of evergreen crowned with marriage bells. Master Willie Searson, the little nephew of the bride, filled the unique position of Master-in-Waiting, carried the ring nestled in asters and assisted the bride. The marriage ceremony was read by Rev. Campbell, of Inwood. After the ceremony a dainty luncheon was served, the table decorations being in pink and white.

The bride received many useful and costly presents among them a substantial cheque from her father and a handsome chest of silver, etc.

The young couple left amid showers of confetti for an extended trip to Toronto and other eastern points followed by the best wishes of hosts of friends.

The bride travelled in a navy serge suit with white satin hat with ostrich mount.

Mr. and Mrs. Maddock will reside on the groom's farm on the 9th con. Brooke.

Cook—Eastman

On Wednesday evening 25th inst. the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey M. Eastman, Adelaide, was the scene of a quiet and pretty wedding when their daughter Lela Kathleen, was united in marriage to Fred J. Cook, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Cook, Kerwood. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Brown in the presence of a few immediate relatives. Miss Edith Hughes played the wedding music. The bride who was unattended, was given away by her father and looked charming in a very effective and pretty frock of white chambrase. Her veil was arranged most becomingly over the face with a floral bandeau. She carried an exquisite bouquet of white Ophelia roses and white asters, and stood before a floral arch handsomely decorated with the same. After congratulations a splendid dejeuner was served to all present. The happy couple left on the 9.45 train going west, the bride traveling in navy blue with black velvet picture hat and black fox furs.

Coristine—Williamson

A quiet autumn wedding took place in Watford at the home of Rev. E. H. Sawers, on Saturday, Sept. 28th, when Alma Pearl, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Williamson, became the bride of Willard George Coristine, youngest son of Mrs. A. Coristine, Brooke. The bride was attended by Miss Gladys Jarriott, and wore a travelling suit taupe grey velvet, hat and furs to match. Mr. Kinney Williamson, brother of the bride, acted as best man. The young couple left by auto for Strathroy where they took the 5.40 train for London, Toronto and Georgetown. On their return they will reside on the groom's farm, 12th line, Brooke. The young couple have the best wishes of their many friends.

The Late Dr. R. S. McAlpine

Dr. R. S. McAlpine, of Petrolia, and formerly of Parkhill, died at his home on Thursday evening, September 19th. He graduated from Toronto Medical School in 1866 and located in Parkhill where he practised for 23 years. In 1889 he moved to Petrolia, where he has practised ever since. While a resident of Parkhill he took an active interest in its public affairs, being a member of the Board of Education for years. In Petrolia he also took a prominent place in that town's activities. He was medical Officer of Health for 20 years. He was born in the township of Warwick. Mrs. McAlpine died shortly after taking up their residence in Petrolia. He is survived by one son in France and two daughters at home.

"HER BOY" A GIFT

Supreme Sacrifice for Country Made Willingly

Spirit of American Women Manifested in Statement of One Who Had Been Called On to Give Up All She Had.

It was in a Red Cross workshop somewhere in New York City. The limelight woman moved around among the workers and talked incessantly. "My boy has gone to France," she said mournfully. "I can't get reconciled. It doesn't seem right for a mother to devote years to the raising of a boy only to have him snatched away in the twinkling of an eye. I am patriotic enough, goodness knows—I am willing to give everything, within reason, to my country, but I can't help but get other two boys exempted. I think all mothers feel that way, don't you, Mrs. Smith? It's the 'mother in us.'"

She wiped away some tears and slowly rolled a bandage.

"It is easy enough for those who have no sons to preach these high ideals," answered Mrs. South in sympathy. "I am really not dependent upon my son, but if I can keep him from going by putting in that claim, I certainly shall do it. I think it is every mother's right to save her son for herself if she can. Don't think I'm not patriotic. I am working every minute in some sort of war relief work. Indeed I have no use for these unpatriotic women. What do you think, Miss Sawyer?"

A frail little woman in a chair by the window looked up from her work with glowing eyes.

"My boy is in France, and I am glad of it," she said simply.

"Your boy?" came in voices in unison.

"Yes, my boy. My sister died when Jack was two weeks old, and I have had him ever since. He was such a dear little fellow, such a dependable boy as he grew older, and such a comfort when he reached his manhood. . . . He has been to me what sweetheart, husband and children have been to you. We were just beginning to feel that life was easier when our country entered the war. For three evenings after the president's war message he sat without talking. I knew what was on his mind, so the fourth evening I told him not to think about it any more, but just go. He said: 'But you, auntie, you deserve some ease now. You have done so much for me, and you have had such a hard fight to make both ends meet.' I said, 'Nonsense, the fight never hurt me. What if the mothers of Washington and Grant had wept and wailed and kept them at home? No, my boy, I want you always to do a man's part, no matter where it takes you or where it leaves you.' He has gone, and I am glad that he has. I couldn't bear to have some other woman's boy protecting me. If Jack does not come back, I shall still be glad he went—for I didn't loan my boy to my country. I gave him."

There was silence in the workshop. The limelight woman was staring straight ahead of her. Mrs. South hesitated for a moment, then leaned forward and tenderly patted the work-roughened fingers which stitched so steadily.

"Thank you," was all she said.

Ships Must Have Wireless.

Every ocean steamer that leaves an American port is required by law to have wireless telegraph apparatus and operators. An act of congress, passed in 1910, made it unlawful for any ocean-going steamer carrying passengers to leave or attempt to leave any port of the United States without being equipped with an efficient apparatus for radio communication, in good working order, in charge of a person skilled in the use of such apparatus, which apparatus is capable of transmitting and receiving messages over a distance of at least one hundred miles, night or day. After the Titanic disaster, in 1912, this act was amended by providing that "the radio equipment must be in charge of two or more persons skilled in the use of such apparatus, one or the other of whom shall be on duty at all times while the vessel is being navigated." The provision for two skilled operators was to cover the possibility of one being overworked.

Corrupt Prussian Elections.

The present electoral system is indirect; the ballot is open and verbal instead of secret and written; no real redistribution of seats has been made to conform to the great shifting in population since 1860; and the three-class system, the rock on which the state is built, has done to the grossly and corruptly unfair.

Indirect election to the Legislature and public voting are, both agencies, through which a dominant class may revamp the popular will to suit its own interests. The former cannot be defended by the junketers themselves, for Bismarck condemned it, fifty years ago: "I am convinced that indirect suffrage falsifies the result of elections, and that direct elections, would bring more talent to the Chamber." On the other hand, there is a serious attempt to justify the open ballot. In Conservative circles the stock argument in its defence is the salutary oversight which it makes possible over the proletariat, whose caprice and material interests would lead them to abuse the franchise if unrestrained. It is certainly true that the Prussian system leaves little room for the personification, repeating, and ballot-switching with which American elections are afflicted. Elections are more honestly conducted. The Conservatives also claim that the open ballot calls out the highest of all Prussian virtues, die echte Buzzerung. It is a test of the courage of a man's convictions, a challenge to his civic sense of duty.

Such is probably the case where the majority of the electorate is free to speak its own mind. But John Stuart Mill wrote: "If the dependent relation are such that the individual voter in any considerable number or to any great degree is afraid of the public ballot, and either abstains from voting or votes contrary to his convictions, then the secret ballot is the lesser evil." This is the condition in Prussia, and the election has been so freely used and so frankly admitted by both Liberals and Conservatives that the Social Democrats characterize the whole election system as one of terror. Butchers, bakers, and grocers are terrorized by Social Democratic housewives who threaten to trade strictly within party lines. Beer gardens are boycotted if the management is of a marked anti-Socialist complexion. In return, Treitschke asked in a widely circulated pamphlet: "Why do not our great manufacturers declare that they will employ no workmen who take part in the Social Democratic agitation?"—Review of Reviews.

A Waterproof Match.

An inventor who is said to have won a large prize from the Belgian Government for inventing a non-phosphorous safety match, has recently developed a match which, he claims, is waterproof, wind proof, and also foolproof. After tests made by United States authorities, orders have been placed for a quantity of these matches, which will be especially serviceable in lighting signal rockets, certain types of bombs, and on shipboard in bad weather. Water does not harm them and in the face of a strong wind they will burn for five minutes at least. As soon as a blaze is extinguished the ash is cool, and the burned match can be thrown anywhere without danger of starting a fire. Because of this feature the new article is called foolproof.

Japanese to Visit China.

A delegation of members of the Japanese House of Representatives will soon visit China, Manchuria and parts of Siberia to observe conditions. Harbin and Vladivostok are among the places at which they will call. The projected visit is occasioning some interest because of the possibility of Japan eventually being forced to send an army into Eastern Siberia should Japanese interests be in peril.

Clearing Out Forests.

Because of the war, Scotland has been cutting down a great many trees to supply its own needs. Much of the land thus cleared will eventually be used for agriculture.

REQUISITE ON THE FARM.

Every farmer and stock raiser should keep a supply of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil on hand, not only as a ready remedy for ills in the family but because it is a horse and cattle medicine of great potency. As a substitute for sweet oil for horses and cattle affected by colic it far surpasses anything that can be administered.

Flight-Lieut. D. H. McGibbon, son of the late David McGibbon, of Sarnia, was killed in an airplane accident in England.

Experiments are being made in St. Thomas with peat secured on H. J. Hales' farm in Dunwich.

The McAlpine hotel, Glencoe, has been rented by a Detroit man, who is preparing to open it up for a boarding and rooming house.

Dan McLean of Metcalfe township was taken to Strathroy hospital suffering from a compound fracture of the leg. Mr. McLean was driving a horse on a hoist when the whiffletree broke, striking him in the leg.

Mrs. Reynolds Sr., of Goderich, nearly 82 years old and blind since the first year of the war, knitted 756 pairs of socks between February 1, 1915, and August 30, 1918, and treasures a letter from Queen Mary recognizing her valuable service.

RECEIVING WAR CROSS

The patriotic spirit and devotion with which Canadian women have so far performed war-service work and made sacrifices has never been equalled in the history of any country. Mothers, wives and sisters support this burden with strength and fortitude. But those who are already miserable from the complaints and weakness which are so common to women should take the right temperance tonic for the womanly system.

If a woman is borne down by pain and sufferings, by nervousness or dizzy spells, by headache or backache, "Favorito Prescription" should be taken. It can now be had in tablet form as well as liquid at most drug stores. Send to Dr. Pierce's Branch at Bridgeburg, Ont., for a 10c trial pkg. of tablets.

For fifty years Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets have been most satisfactory in liver and bowel troubles.

Windsor, Ont.—"Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription made a new woman of me. For about six years I suffered with women's trouble during which time I became all run-down, weak and nervous. I would have severe backaches and pains in my side. I doctored with the doctor but did not get cured of my ailment and was so bad that I could scarcely walk across the floor when I began taking the 'Prescription.' When I had taken two bottles I was much improved and four bottles completely cured me, and I have enjoyed better health than I ever did before taking this medicine. It is truly a wonderful medicine for women."—Mrs. Martha Mulaster, 4 Albert St.

PACKED BUTTER KEEPS

See! Corn Situation Is Critical—Select Own Seed Now.

Select Ears From Field for Height, Strength, Leafiness and Earliness.

(Contributed by Ontario Department of Agriculture, Toronto.)

THE first point to observe in the packing of butter, in order to have it keep well for winter use is to have good butter. The best butter for packing is usually made in the months of June and September. It is preferably made from comparatively sweet cream which has been pasteurized. However, on the farm pasteurization is not commonly followed, hence the butter should be made when the weather is comparatively cool and the cream should be churned before it becomes very sour—in fact, the sweeter the cream the more likely it is to produce good keeping quality in the butter, so long as there is sufficient acid in the cream to give good churning results.

The cream should be churned in the usual way, except that the butter may be washed once with brine, which is made by dissolving salt in water, instead of using water at both washings. Salt at the usual rate—but not over one ounce of salt per pound of butter, because salt does not preserve butter as is commonly supposed, except in a minor degree for unpasteurized cream butter. It is a mistake, however, to add so much salt that the fine flavor of the butter is covered up.

Having worked the butter as usual, pack it firmly into crocks, tubs or boxes. If unparaffined wooden packages are used, these should be soaked several days in salt water to prevent "woody" flavor in the butter. A better plan is to coat the inside of the tub or box with hot wax, then line with heavy parchment paper, before packing the butter. Glazed crocks which are clean, need no lining.

When the package is full, preferably all from one churning, smooth the top of the butter, cover with parchment paper or a clean cotton cloth, then tie heavy brown paper over the top and place in a cool cellar or in cold storage. Sometimes a salt paste is put on top of the cloth or paper and this is kept moist by sprinkling on water from time to time. This excludes the air and helps to keep the butter.

We recommend packing the butter in solid form which is to be kept for some time, rather than holding the butter in prints, even though these may be submerged in brine.—Prof. H. H. Dean, O. A. College, Guelph.

Select Seed Corn Now.

Unless every precaution is taken this autumn the supply of good seed corn of the desirable varieties will be inadequate for the requirements of 1919. The autumn of 1917 saw the corn crop harvested with an excess of moisture. Wet cold weather followed, during which time the corn did not cure, consequently, when the very cold weather of December set in the corn was frozen and germination was reduced to a very low percentage. This situation which caused the agricultural authorities of North America so much anxiety during the winter and spring of 1918, and which was described by them as "a national calamity," is not yet averted. The problem which that committee had to face was one of supplying North America with seed which would give a fair germination. To secure this seed was no easy task and recourse was made to districts in the United States hundreds of miles to the south of Ontario which produce large, late maturing varieties. In bringing this seed into the country there was little expectation that it would produce much grain, but it was hoped it would produce fodder. The situation in Ontario was so acute that an embargo was placed on the seed grown in Kent and Essex counties prohibiting the exportation from those counties to other districts in Ontario. Some seed of fair germination was available but not sufficient for all their local needs, and as those counties located in southern and western Ontario furnish the chief source of seed for the remainder of the province it was felt that such action was justified in order to conserve those varieties for seed purposes which had proven themselves adapted to Ontario conditions.

There was never a time in Ontario's history when it was more necessary to take every precaution in the selection of seed corn than at the present time. The most satisfactory method of seed selection is that of selecting in the field. The grower can go up and down his rows and select those ears which are early, well developed and possess all the varietal characteristics. When selecting in the field the grower has before him from those plants which possess the height, strength, leafiness and earliness desired. When once the desired type is established in the grower's mind good progress can be made in selecting the ears. This method offers many advantages over that of selecting from the shock or from the crib. The crib is the least desirable, in that it offers only husked ears to select from. With the shock, when husking, the grower has the wilted or matured stalks, while the field selection has everything in its favor, the whole plant and its environment which may mean normal or abnormal conditions for development.—Dr. C. A. Zavitz, O. A. College, Guelph.

TOO MUCH COMPETITION.

Disappointed Students in Japan Driven to Suicide.

According to Rev. Dr. Sidney L. Gulick, who has lived long in the Far East, suicides among Japanese students are probably more prevalent than among any other students in the world. The causes he mentions are: First, the high strung nerves and exceptional sensitiveness to anything that may be regarded as a personal humiliation; and, second, the extraordinary competition among students to secure places in the Government schools.

Dr. Gulick also notes the three causes given by the Christian Literature Society, of which he is a member, namely: The struggle for existence, the handicap of poor physique, and the absence of an enlightened faith.

As to student suicides due to failure in examinations, it may be noted that in Japan it is not easy to enter any schools. Of the boys 13 and 14 years old who strive by competitive examinations to enter the middle schools, only 61 per cent. we learn, though intellectually qualified, are admitted. The rest are excluded from lack of room. In Tokio the annual applications for admission to the higher institutions are several times greater in number than can be admitted. A year ago more than five hundred youths were refused admittance to the Doshisha, the only Christian university in Japan, entirely because of lack of accommodations.

It is interesting to compare the above with the statement that suicides among German school children are widespread. This leads to the conclusion that these catastrophes, both in Japan and Germany, may be due to still another factor than those mentioned, namely, to the ingrained teaching of materialism. If boys and girls are taught that material success is the measure of life, and do not achieve it, they naturally feel that life is a failure.—The Outlook.

Friction Between Services.

Friction in Canada between the chaplain service and the Y.M.C.A. is indicated in the relations between these two services in France. The chaplains are indignant at the claim of the Y.M.C.A. to have organized the Vimy Ridge University. This excellent educational course originated with Revs. Clarence McKinnon, of Halifax, and Dr. Oliver, Saskatchewan University. Both the chaplains and the Y.M.C.A. are doing good work in France, and both services are required. It is true the Y.M.C.A. gains considerable funds by sales at a large profit, but they also aid the men with free entertainments, etc. The work of the chaplains of the army is unequalled for sacrifice and for sympathetic aid for the men. The chaplains' work at Passchendaele called forth generous praise from the higher command as well as the rank and file. The quarrel between the two services is deeply regretted for if a settlement is not reached the work of both will be handicapped with serious loss to the men. All last winter, before Lens, the chaplains were continually in the front trenches looking after the comforts of the men. Funds for the chaplains' work are inadequate, and there should be an equal division of contributions for the work of the chaplains and the Y.M.C.A. in France.

Whale Steak.

An interesting experiment was recently inaugurated at Vancouver, where two thousand pounds of whale steak were offered in the leading fish and meat markets at the price of fivepence a pound. Many citizens took home a sample, but reports are not yet to hand as to the reception accorded the sea dainty by the families. Although it is in the nature of an experiment in Vancouver, it is stated that whale has already become a more or less standard fish in San Francisco, Seattle, Victoria and other Pacific coast cities. The Japanese have long used the lean part of the whale for food. It looks like beefsteak, and tastes something like beef. It is more tender than the average beefsteak, and is said to compare favorably with the more common meats in nutritive value. Each whale, it is estimated, is good for between two and three tons of meat, and, as there are no bones or other waste, a season's whaling catch might go a long way toward feeding the people in these days of food restriction.—Family Herald.

Letter From Bandsman Everett

The following letter from Corp. Fred W. Everett to his wife will be found interesting. Corp. Everett is an old Watford boy who when here was an enthusiastic member of the Citizens' Band. He went to France with the 215th Battalion Band last April.

Somewhere in France, Sept. 1st, 1918.

Dear Wife—

Well this is Sunday morning and in France. Sitting out in an oat field behind the sheaves of oats, on the sunny side as it has turned a little colder. It seems very strange sitting here after this last few days. I had just written you a letter when we were ordered to get ready to proceed up the line as stretcher-bearers. We passed through it but the battalion got badly cut up. The first day did not seem so bad, but the second day was something awful. I could not tell you, so you could never really understand what we seen and experienced. Some day I hope to be able to tell you all.

Well they cannot say but what we did go up the line and do our best. The first day we had to follow up the battalion and carry in the wounded and we had to carry them so far back to the first dressing station. They couldn't get the ambulance up very close on account of the way the road was being shelled where we had to carry them. So we had to carry them about two or three miles.

All the 215th Band boys are O. K. and came through all right but two of the French Canadian boys that played with us got hit. One of our buglers, a fine young lad too, got hit with a piece of shrapnel right in the face and killed him, and one of our clarinet players was hit and taken to the dressing station, another of our boys who plays bass was also struck with a shell which burst a few feet away from where we were standing. He was taken to the ambulance and I don't know how serious his case is yet. If the shell had burst a few feet nearer to us quite a number would have been killed.

One evening when we had been carrying in the wounded from morning until night, and I was feeling so tired, as we were passing through a village (or at least what had once been a village) I met the officer who was in charge of our party and he asked me if I would take the men out into "No man's land" to get some of our wounded. We did not feel much like going for it was dark, but I said we would go for if we did not they would have to stay there all night and perhaps we would never get them. Well we went and believe me I thought we would surely get hit, the shells were coming all around us and sometimes we would drop into a shell hole and crawl on hands and knees and try and to keep down as low as we could. We came across a fellow in a shell hole who was wounded and he told us he had been there five hours. So we helped him as best we could, put him on a stretcher and started back with him, we had not gone far when Fritz began to send over some shells with gas. So we put the wounded fellow's gas mask on him and then put on our own. It was getting then pretty dark and we had some time getting along. But we are thankful to be back again out of the line. I don't know for how long.

We took quite a few prisoners, you would see them fall over the wire and into the shell holes and throw up their hands and yell "Kamerad, Kamerad" when they have been taken they are not much trouble they seem to be content and glad they are prisoners. This is the first chance I have had of writing you since the one I wrote Aug. 25. This paper I am writing on I got in a German dug out.

I hope you are all well, we are fine. I will write again as soon as I can and let you know how I am getting along.
Bye bye, Your loving husband,
FRED.

Frank Wiley Writes From English Hospital

Pte. Frank Wiley, No. 845555, son of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Wiley, of Brooke, writes under date of Sept. 6th to his parents as follows:
Howard De Walden Hospital, Maidstone, England.

Dear Mother and Dad:
Well, this is some awkward, trying to write with my left hand, and I do hope you can make it out. I dare say you will have got word from Ottawa that I was wounded in the big fight on August 27th. I was in front of Arras and was leading a section against a German salient when I was hit. But don't let it worry you. I didn't even get a bone broken—just a flesh wound on right hand and cheek. That's pretty lucky, considering I was over the top five times in August. I have a golden bar to show that I was in a fight when we made the enemy run. I am sending home a watch and spanlet that I took off two of my fallen foes in personal conflict. I got the watch August 8th and spanlet August 27th. The nurses here are splendid; so kind and attentive to us. Tell the Invincible Red Cross I often think of their good work when I am in the trenches. As it is so hard for me to write I wish you would tell all the friends and relatives to write to me just the same and tell them I will write to them all as soon as I am able.
Write to me often. Now I must close.
Your loving soldier boy,
FRANK.

WEAK BOYS AND GIRLS

It is a mistake to think that anaemia is only a girl's complaint. Girls probably show the effect of weak, watery blood more plainly than boys. Delayed development, pale faces, headaches, palpitation and a feeling of listlessness, call attention to weak blood in the case of girls. But many boys in their teens grow thin and "weedy" and have pimples on the face, showing that they have not enough blood. The anaemic boy is just as likely to become a victim of consumption as the pale breathless girl with her headaches and worn-out look. Let the boy in this condition catch cold and he will lose his strength and his health become precarious.

To prevent serious disaster to those of the rising generation, let both boys and girls be given the rich blood which Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are famous for the world over for making. When giving these pills watch how soon the appetite returns and how the languid girl or the weak boy becomes full of activity and high spirits. Remember that the boy has to develop, too, if he is to make a strong hearty man. Give both the boys and girls a fair chance to develop strongly through the new, rich blood Dr. Williams' Pink Pills actually make. You will then see active boys and girls, instead of weakly children around you.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all medicine dealers or may be obtained by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

INWOOD.

Cameron Bisset, formerly of St Andrew's congregation, was killed in action in the recent fighting. Although twenty-one young men of this congregation are now in uniform, Cameron is the first of that number to give his life in the defence of Canada. He will be remembered by his many friends as a fine upstanding young man, who for two years was eager to enlist and finally went into the first draft last Autumn. His mother resides in Sarnia, the sister, Mrs. Reid, is a soldier's widow and the other sister, Mrs. Ed. Ironsides, resides near the old home in North Brooke. To these we offer sympathy and gratitude for their priceless gift.

Kind Words for a Watford Minister

(From the Sarnia Canadian-Observer)
Even if a youth does not appear to be of the brightest type, yet he may "go over the top" in after years and startle the world with his integrity, energy and ability. This was the keynote of a Watford pastor's sermon delivered in this city yesterday. He quoted several instances when it would appear that "the odds were against" the youth in his endeavor to make good. His sermon was eagerly relished by an attentive audience and he left a good impression behind him. But there was one illustration that he forgot to tell. Some of us happen to know that this same minister coming from Scotland had but little, in so far as this world's goods are concerned, on which to base his future, but he had a wealth of determination to win, and win he did eventually, and few ministers of the Presbyterian General Assembly in Canada, are held in higher esteem today than is the case of the Rev. E. D. Savers.
