THE IRISH HOME RULE BILL.

GLADSTONE WILL MAKE LARGE FINANCIAL CONCESSIONS.

The Unionists have thousands of amendments and the Parliament will be rushed through the Committee. The Retention Question Will Be Carried.

New York, April 30.—The World's London cable says: The opening of the committee stage of the Home Rule bill has been deferred until a week from Monday instead of next Thursday.

The ministers intend to proceed with the committee work without a break as the only means of retaining the bill in the bill. In order to do this they must first get a quantity of imperative business disposed of.

The Unionists are flooding the measure with thousands of amendments, the vast majority of which are flimsy and purely obstructive.

The Parliament has also put down a quantity of amendments, some important, others impossible.

The Nationalists have not yet offered any and it is quite likely they may not do so at all.

Still there are two points in the bill which they regard as imperative and demanding alteration and improvement. One is as to the retention of the Irish members under limited conditions. The other financial.

As to the retention question, it is now certain that the proposal will be carried with the assent of the ministers.

As to finance, the ministers themselves will refer to an amendment making a large concession.

Home Rule Protestants.

LONDON, April 30.—A large number of residents of Ulster belonging to Presbyterian and Unitarian churches, have signed the resolution in opposition to Irish Home Rule which was sent to Lord Salisbury on the name of the protestants.

The opinions of the Protestants of Ulster Home Rule Protestants have therefore caused a communication to the Prime Minister Gladstone expressing confidence in Mr. Gladstone's policy in regard to Ireland.

Mr. Gladstone has sent a reply to the communication, in which he states that he is pleased to observe the existence of such an enlightened opinion as that held by his Protestant subjects in the face of violence and intolerance at Belfast.

The MONEY MARKET.

The Australian Financial Crisis Firmly Held—Gold Yields From the Bank of England.

LONDON, April 30.—Discount rates had risen materially during the week, the quotation being 2 1/2 for both three months and short bills.

The change is largely due to caution caused by the Australian crisis.

Gold is scarcer and borrowers have drawn fully £2,000,000 from the Bank of England.

Gold is also scarce in Australia. The decrease of the New York gold shipments causes expectations of a stronger demand in this market for Australia.

Silver was steady during the week. The Stock Exchange was busier during the previous week. The Australian crisis was somewhat remarkable firmness.

Yield—American Railroad Department 4 1/2—United States Government 4 1/2—Consols 3 1/2.

Before the hour of service all that portion of the church not reserved for the sermon, and the remainder of the service, and a few minutes later filled the rest of the building.

The Rev. gentleman chose for his text Psalm lxxviii, 8: "I am become a stranger unto my brethren." The greatest sorrow, most cruel, and the most painful, is the loss of brotherhood.

There was a preconcerted code of signals between David and Jonathan, by which David received timely notice of impending danger when he was in the midst of the forest.

Jonathan shooting the three arrows and sending the little boy to pick them up. The speaker then alluded to the sacredness of brotherhood. He referred to the appreciation of the affection of His brethren, and the speaker then alluded to the sacredness of brotherhood.

Mr. Charles Wilcox, who has been conducting the Rev. Dr. King's services by telephone and was specially referred to in prayer.

The sum of $85.66 was collected, which was divided between the Home for Incurables and the Nursing at Home Mission.

AN ACTION MAN MISSING.

Left Home on Tuesday and Possibly May Have Killed Himself.

ACTON, April 30.—William Ramshaw, formerly a farmer in Nasagawaga, who left his home in Acton on Tuesday morning, has not been seen since.

He disappeared very suddenly. The dam has been dragged and searched in every direction, but without any success up to this morning.

Ramshaw has been unhinged in his mind for some time past, and his friends are apprehensive that he has done away with himself.

A piece of rope is missing, and some other facts, which he has done away with himself. It is hoped that this surmise may not be correct and that the unfortunate man will be found.

Mr. Horace Harvey Inquested.

At the Reform Club on Saturday night a dinner was given to Mr. Horace Harvey, who is about to go to the Northwest, where he will enter into partnership with Mr. Peter McCarty, G.O. of Calgary.

County Attorney Dewar presided in a most genial and acceptable way, and many bright and clever speeches were made during the evening. The toast of "The Guest," Mr. Harvey, was proposed by Mr. J. S. Willison in a brief complimentary speech. Mr. Harvey made a grateful and admirable response. Later he was presented by Mr. Thomas Reid, on behalf of his friends, with handsome sets of Shakespeare and Tennyson, and speeches appreciative of his many good qualities, full of respect and admiration, and abounding in hope for his future success, were made by most of those present. Mr. Harvey has been much liked by his friends in Toronto for the past few years, and his departure is a loss to the city.

In Mr. Harvey Calgary will gain a thoroughly reliable citizen.

WATCHED THE GIRL, GOT THE MAN

A Former Leader of Victoria Society Who Keeps a Hand on the Young Men Trapped in the Woods.

VICTORIA, B.C., April 30.—F. Boucher, formerly a leader in society in Victoria, who abandoned the young men and disappeared last summer at the time Miss Genn, teacher in a girls' seminary, was missed, was trapped in the woods in South West Victoria yesterday and has been sent back to winter under arrest.

There will, of course, be an immense amount of transatlantic traffic this year to the World's Fair, and a large proportion will come via New York and return through Canada, or vice versa.

GEORGE WATTERS' WIDOWS.

A LIFE OF DECEIT ENDS IN A PAUPER'S GRAVE.

A Toronto House Painter Who Became a Big Game and Sportsman—His Death of Two of His Children—Two Years Sent in State Prison for Forgery.

In the early seventies George W. Waters, married at Toronto. Waters, who was a house painter by trade, was a bright young man, and a bright young woman.

They lived happily for a while, two children being born to them. After the birth of the second child Waters began to abuse his wife, and one day disappeared from Toronto.

Saturday he was buried in the pauper's lot of the Elson Cemetery at Lowell, Mass., the undertaker and grave diggers being the only witnesses, although he left behind a wife and two children.

Watters was buried as George W. Waters, the name which he was known by in his youth. His life since leaving Toronto had been one of intrigue and deceit.

From Toronto Waters went to Hamilton, Ont., where in 1878 he married Alice Torrey, daughter of Dr. Torrey.

The Toronto Wife Discovers His Porphyry. Waters went to work on the railway, and while coupling cars in the yard one day fell on the track, breaking his leg so badly that it had to be amputated. Dr. Torrey attended him.

In course of time two children had been born him by Alice Torrey. Then Waters got into trouble. He forged the paper of a sewing machine company, was convicted and sentenced to two years in the Missouri State Prison.

While he was in prison his wife Alice returned to her parents, and one day a poorly-dressed woman with two children rang the bell.

It was Waters' Canadian wife and family, and from her Dr. Torrey learned the true character of his son-in-law.

The fact of the assignment has been known to some men on Wall-street for several days, therefore no surprise was expressed by many bank officials when the matter was mentioned to them. It was said that it was known he had a good deal of paper out, having borrowed wherever he could.

In Trust For the Creditors. NEW BRITAIN, S.I., April 30.—Erasmus Wiman denies that he has made an assignment of his real estate in Ontario, and unable as such to own land in the State of New York his large real estate assignment in Ontario, which he had hitherto been held in the name of his wife, Wiman says that his firm was not going to take any action to protect his creditors' interests.

The only available assets are believed to consist of some land in Ontario, which stands in the name of his wife, Wiman as a Canadian and British subject being unable to hold any land in this country in his own name.

But for the transfer of this land the fact of Wiman's failure might not have become generally known for some time.

Mr. King declined to give out a list of creditors (the assignment deed does not mention them in detail) or state the amount of Wiman's liabilities.

The assignment deed was executed by Mr. E. W. Wiman, it is said, and estimated the property transferred for the benefit of the creditors at $1,000,000, but other persons whose opinions have been asked do not value it as a quick asset, but as a piece of real estate, which if forced sale were made it would not realize that much.

Does Dun & Co. $300,000. Probably the largest creditor of the firm of R. G. Dun & Co. Mr. Dun, senior partner, is out of town this morning, and other persons decline to say anything on the subject further than to admit knowledge of the assignment and that the firm was numbered among the creditors.

Upon the information given a reporter the Evening Post alleged that Mr. Wiman was indebted to R. G. Dun & Co. for a very large sum, said to be between $300,000 and $400,000.

Charged With Trickery. Some weeks ago, after Mr. Wiman retired from the firm of R. G. Dun & Co., the Evening Post was informed on trustworthy authority that it had been discovered that while ostensibly a member of the firm of R. G. Dun & Co., Wiman had pledged the credit of the firm by issuing notes in its name to the amount of several hundred thousand dollars and that suit was begun to prevent the notes falling into the hands of other and innocent holders and to secure settlement of the indebtedness. Mr. Wiman and also members of R. G. Dun & Co. declared at the time there was no truth in the story.

The Evening Post informant, however, assures the World correspondent to-day that Wiman pledged the credit of R. G. Dun & Co. as stated, and that it was not until after suit was begun that Wiman secured the release of the firm from the debt, and that he then retired the notes.

On Feb. 22 last, when it was reported that Wiman had retired from the firm of R. G. Dun & Co., Mr. Dun stated "because of certain actions of Mr. Wiman some of the creditors of the firm of R. G. Dun & Co. as stated, and that it was not until after suit was begun that Wiman secured the release of the firm from the debt, and that he then retired the notes."

Mr. Wiman's name from the firm and that was the reason the firm returned to its normal state and the firm of R. G. Dun & Co. as stated, and that it was not until after suit was begun that Wiman secured the release of the firm from the debt, and that he then retired the notes."

A PILGRIM'S PROGRESS.

ERASMUS WIMAN ASSIGNS.

His Liabilities Said To Exceed a Million—His Sole Asset the Property in Ontario.

New York, April 29.—Erasmus Wiman, king of States Island, advocate of commercial reciprocity with Canada, promoter of the Erie and Ontario Canal, and a prominent member of the New York Chamber of Commerce, the New York Board of Trade and until recently a member of R. G. Dun & Co., has joined his wife in making an assignment for the benefit of his creditors.

The total amount of Wiman's liabilities and assets is not known, but it is estimated, however, that the liabilities will amount to $1,000,000 at least and may exceed that sum.

The only available assets are believed to consist of some land in Ontario, which stands in the name of his wife, Wiman as a Canadian and British subject being unable to hold any land in this country in his own name.

But for the transfer of this land the fact of Wiman's failure might not have become generally known for some time.

THE FIRST DAY OF MAY.

A Popular subject with English-People. The last London May Fete-Proseas Associations of the Day in the United States.

May-day festivities, superstitions and amusements seem to have originated in the pagan feasts held in honor of Flora, the goddess of flowers.

Other authorities are of opinion that it is derived from the Latin "Maia" and as early as the Salic laws this month is called "Meo."
