BURNED TO DEATH ON WEDDING EVE

Clerk in British Columbia Store Dies in Fire — Proprietor Is Arrested.

Vancouver, B. C., April 5.—John F. Wright, owner of a store and restaurant at McBride, on the Grand Trunk Pacific Railroad in the northern part of the province, has been arrested charged with manslaughter in connection with the burning to death of Stuart Ross, a clerk in his store, a few days ago.

Wright, it is said, threw a kerosene lamp at a visitor, setting fire to the premises, and Ross, who was asleep at the time, was unable to escape. Ross was to have been married the next day.

LOCAL NEWS

Amos Belliveau, of Moncton, prohibition inspector for Westmorland county, has been detailed for duty at Grand Falls. He went to that town Saturday.

The St. John Life Underwriters met on Saturday in Bond's and it was decided to endeavor to bring the dominion convention of life underwriters to St. John in 1922.

Stanley Elkin, M. P., accompanied by Mrs. Elkin, left on the Montreal train Saturday evening for Ottawa in order to be present at the opening of the house tomorrow after the Easter recess.

Harry Quinn, skipper of a local water boat, fell into the harbor from Thorne's wharf on Saturday and was pulled out by John Carlin none the worse for his wetting.

The latest reports from Rev. J. A. MacKeigan are most encouraging. In a recent letter to T. H. Somerville, Mr. MacKeigan, writing from the southern states, said that his health was daily improving and that he felt greatly encouraged.

Lee Hansen, a longshoreman, lost his house and all its contents and part of his barn at Willow Grove by fire recently. His house had been condemned by the board of health a short time ago and having a large family to support he moved his family to the city. There was no insurance on the house.

Several Scottish dances, expertly interpreted by Miss Gillis, and interesting motion pictures made up the Saturday night programme at the Seaman's Institute, which more than 150 seamen enjoyed. The regular Sunday night service was conducted by Walter Brindle last night, with some fifty seamen attending.

The following have passed the recent examination in home nursing: Miss Barker, Miss Gallivan, Mrs. Gielchrist, Miss Francis Kerr, Mrs. Meyer, Miss Elspeth MacLaren, Mrs. Otto Nase, Mrs. Harold Schofield, Miss Thompson, Miss Trentowsky and Miss Wilson. The class was conducted by Miss Agnes Warner and the examination was held by Dr. S. Skinner.

The mayor, city commissioners and local representatives in the provincial legislature held a conference in the office of the mayor, city hall, on Saturday afternoon, when matters in connection with the New Brunswick Power Company bill, which is now before the authorities at Fredericton, were discussed and the city's policy considered.

An enthusiastic and well attended open meeting of the Sugar Workers' Union was held in their hall, Waterloo street, yesterday afternoon, with the president, L. Stevenson, in the chair.

The meeting was addressed by F. A. Campbell and J. E. Tigh, who talked on the benefits of organization and other matters of interest to labor. Wage matters came up for discussion and also working conditions. During the afternoon several old members were reinstated and some new ones joined. Another open meeting will be held this week.

At a meeting of the ratepayers of Fairville Saturday evening Councillor O'Brien explained the object of the new vehicle taxation bill, which has been presented to the legislature at Fredericton, and it was decided to send a delegation to urge the support of the Lancaster proposals. The bill, he said, did not provide for heavier taxation but was intended to provide that all the monies raised would be handed over for the upkeep of the highways instead of being used for general county purposes. Many spoke in defense of the bill.

Will Maritime Provinces Offer Newfoundland Produce Second Mary Pickford?

An article is appearing in today's column which is going to cause a furore in this community, or we will miss our guess. The Universal Film Manufacturing Company of Universal City, California, is offering a limited number of Eastern Canadianians an opportunity to gain fame and stardom in the movies. The proposition is open to everyone, young or old, male or female, and according to the advance publicity received by this paper, it will include railroad fare to Universal City, California, an assured salary during a few weeks' "try-out" period, a chance for a contract and stardom, or return fare home and a consolation gift of $100 cash if the parties fail to make good.

A Movie-Star Maker. In Sunny California, the home of the movies, the Universal studios are usually referred to as "The Cradle of the Stars," because so many of the most popular film stars got their first foothold upon the laurels of fame and fortune and started in their first pictures under the Universal banner.

Many Canadian Stars. The Pickford family, including Mary, Jack and Lottie, have made Eastern Canada famous among millions of movie "fans" because they were born and reared in Toronto. Mack Sennett of Toronto and pie-throwing fame was born in a small town in the province of Quebec.

Who Will Be The Movie Star From The Maritime Provinces?

Universal Film Company of Universal City, California, Offers the Residents of Eastern Canada and Newfoundland an Unusual Opportunity

A DECADE or so ago, almost every girl in her teens, and many beyond that age, longed to go upon the stage and win fame and fortune behind the footlights. To-day the dream of almost every young miss is to be a star of the "Silver-sheet"—the Movies.

Young Ladies—How many times when you have seen Mary Pickford, the Gish sisters, Norma and Constance Talmadge, Mme. Petrova, Dorothy Phillips, Mae Murray, Priscilla Dean, Mary McLaren and other stars of the film firmament have you imagined yourself playing their parts on the screen? How many times have you said to yourself, "I could be just as great a star as I was given the opportunity?" Well, here is your opportunity.

And Young Men—How many of you have felt that you have the makings of a second "Doug" Fairbanks, Bill Hart, Eddie Polo, Lee Moran, Eddie Lyons or Charlie Chaplin within you? Probably you have. Here is your chance to find out without one cent of cost.

HALF-YEARLY CONTRACTS OR LONGER
The Universal Film Manufacturing Company of Universal City, California (the largest and most progressive moving picture concern of the world) is going to give a limited number of young folks, middle-aged folks and old folks (either sex), an opportunity to become Movie Stars. If you consider that you have "Acting ability"; if you long for world-wide fame; or if you are interested in the million-dollar-a-year salaries many of the leading film stars receive each year, it will pay you to get full details of this exceptional offer from the special branch of the Universal Film Company which is being opened in connection with the St. John Universal Agency, at 87 Union Street, St. John, N. B. Information will only be given upon receipt of the inquiry blank below, properly filled out and sent to 87 Union Street, St. John, N. B.

AN UNUSUAL OPPORTUNITY
The persons chosen will have their railroad fare paid to Universal City, California. Some of the best directors of the Universal Studios will then take these persons under their direct supervision and give them a four weeks' try-out at $25 per week with every opportunity to become a star. Those who film well and show talent and ability will be contracted with by the Universal Film Company for six months or possibly permanently. Those who are unsatisfactory will be given cash consolation gifts of $150 and returned home.

There are thousands of young ladies and men in Canada and the United States whose parents would willingly pay large sums of cash to secure an opening for their daughters or sons in "Movie-land" similar to these openings offered by the Universal Film Company to the residents of Eastern Canada. There are thousands more who have gone to California hoping to "break into the pictures" only to find that every movie employment office was already filled to overflowing; that there were thousands of applicants, whose names were already registered for positions and that the chances of becoming even an "extra" were very remote.

These difficulties will be smoothed from the paths of the persons sent by the St. John special Branch of the Universal Company to Universal City, and the beauty of it is that it will not cost any of those taking advantage of the offer one cent.

ANOTHER MARY PICKFORD
Mary Pickford a few years ago was a little Toronto girl. To-day she occupies the leading place in filmdom and receives a salary of almost two million dollars a year. Who can say but what we may discover another "Mary Pickford" here in Eastern Canada?

For full details regarding this exceptional offer, fill out the inquiry blank attached herewith and mail it to the special Branch of the Universal Film Company, 87 Union Street, St. John, N. B.

LET EVERYBODY VOTE

The candidates are nominated and it is now for the citizens to choose their men to be members of the city council for the next two years. Why not make it a record vote for a civic election in St. John? It cannot be said that there is no choice to be made among the candidates, and a record vote would make it plain that the three men finally chosen had a clear mandate from the majority of the people.

MANITOBA SCHOOLS.

The annual report of the Manitoba department of education is a very interesting book. It shows that despite liberal expenditure the prairie province has a serious educational problem. More than twenty-five per cent of the teachers in rural districts are without normal school training. There are in the province 1,226 one-room school houses, with an enrolment of 29,885 pupils and an average attendance of 19,685.

It is noted in the report that medical inspection in the schools is fast becoming a reality. Last year 48,950 children were examined once and 6,964, twice. BOYS AND PLAYGROUNDS.

In Bangor last week the Chamber of Commerce, after listening to an address by Mr. John R. P. French of Boston, endorsed a plan for a great athletic field for Boston and also pledged themselves to provide a Boy Scout Council for Bangor and Brewer. Here is one of the moving stories Mr. French told about playgrounds.

"Some twenty years ago when I was a kid playing in a suburb of Boston, there was a field not far from where I lived which was known as Billings' field. It was about the only place in the neighborhood that was level enough and large enough for either baseball or football."

It is announced that Canada will have a permanent air force. This offers a new field of activity for young men, and though the force will be limited at first, the time is not far distant when the commercial air services will call for many aviators.

France fears that the troubles in Germany may call for armed intervention by the Allies to ensure the carrying out of the terms of the peace treaty. There is also the possibility of further serious trouble with Turkey.

EASTER MESSAGE TO CONGREGATION

Comes from Rev. J. A. MacKeigan of St. David's, Who is Recuperating in States.

Word received from Rev. J. A. MacKeigan is to the effect that his health is improving more rapidly than had been expected. In a letter to Robert Reid, which was delayed and arrived only this morning, he sent the following Easter message to his flock:

To the Members and Adherents of St. David's Church,
My Dear Friends,—As the glad season of Easter with its joyous message of life approaches, my heart goes out to you in greetings and good wishes.
May the Living Christ be very special fest in our midst at this time, comforting, cheering, guiding. May we see the tomb broken and round about it the garden and discover that even there the lovely flowers of heartiness grow. Where the road dips down into the valley may His vibrant voice be heard. "Fear not, I have overcome death." May those who find in Him life's noblest and best, and may we all hear, above the sob of our own sorrows, the cries of our fears and the insidious whispers of our own weak wills, Christ's claimant call to a larger, richer life, in which our joy will be full and our service fruitful.

"Thanks be to God who has given us the victory, through our Lord Jesus Christ."

Yours faithfully,
J. A. MACKEIGAN.

AFTER "FLU," GRIP

Fevers and Other Prostrating Diseases that Exhaust the Blood.

There is often that extreme tired feeling, loss of appetite, tendency to anemic nerve exhaustion, inactive bowels, constipation and great danger of still further prostration and serious illness.

Hood's Sarsaparilla first works upon the blood. It is remarkable how promptly its purifying, vitalizing effects are noticed. It "makes food taste good," promotes assimilation so as to help secure the greatest nourishment possible, promotes digestion. Nerve strength and cheery health inevitably follow, further danger is avoided and the glad-to-be-alive feeling again prevails. To read this is well, to realize it yourself is better.

Get Hood's Sarsaparilla today, and for a cathartic, nothing better than Hood's Pills, in small doses a gentle laxative; larger, an active cathartic.

THE BUSINESS COLUMN EDITED BY MANSFIELD F. HOUSE

Featuring Toys As Reward for Study.

The A. S. Hatcher Company of Macdon, Ga., believed that it had exhausted every known method of advertising children's toys. Long in business, and a consistent advertiser, the head of the firm began to question the man who said that "something new can be done every day in the year, if you think hard enough."

lost. His workshop door may be closed, but the customers can scribble a note and drop it into the mail slot. Or, if they wish to see him personally, the clock dial shows when he will return to headquarters.

His sign, like that of the quack, inspires hope in the breast of the most decrepit article; for it reads: "If Kelly can't fix it, throw it away."

Tag System Makes Sizes Easy to Find.

Have you ever wandered into a men's furnishing store, carefully inspected the sample case filled with collars, discovered one that fits your fancy and returned "half a dozen of those"—only to have the clerk come round in front to find out the name of the style, spend five minutes looking for the size you want and then announce in a discouraged voice: "We don't seem to have that size."

Of course you have—and, equally, of course, it did not occur in the Mittrauses of Browning, King & Co. for this organization has worked out a system whereby customers can purchase their collars in pretty close to "nothing flat."

Here's the answer: On the back of each collar in the glass sample case is pasted a tag, containing the style-name and some cryptic figures. Suppose, for example, that the customer asks for a Talbot, 15-8-4—not naming the style, but merely pointing to the collar. From his position behind the counter, the clerk can see and easily read the tag which carries the information: "Talbot—2 1/2—18 1/2 to 17 1/4—4" and below a large figure "96."

This tells at a glance the name of the style, its height (in the event that a similar height may be desired in another style), the range of sizes in stock, the fact that the collar comes in quarter sizes, and, most important of all, the number of the compartment in which that collar will be found.

This compartment arrangement is a Browning-King specialty. Instead of keeping collars in their original boxes, and thus eating up lots of valuable shelf space, they are taken out of their containers and placed in deep drawers with separate compartments for each size. Each drawer bears a number, corresponding to the one on the back of the sample collar.

Simple Phone Order Blank Ends Errors.

Most of the difficulties and handicaps incident to sales soliciting over the telephone are eliminated by a form of order blank used by Ames and Doppie, of Cincinnati, O.

The blank is of generous size, and is arranged as follows: Name ..... Address ..... Phone No. .... Date received ..... Time ..... Goods ..... Filled by ..... Time ..... Sent .....

These blanks are of a different color from other store forms. In each instance the customer's telephone number is entered. If the store is calling up, this is known, of course. If the customer calls, she is asked for it, just as for her name and address. This entry of the telephone number serves a double purpose. It is a convenience for the store if it must notify her that the goods are in stock, or if prices have changed. Likewise, it helps to identify the customer if there chances to be a mistake in the taking of the name or address.

So far as is possible each customer is assigned to a particular clerk. The clerks soon get to know their telephone customers, their tastes and preferences. This also helps on days which are dull at the store, when the clerks busy themselves calling up their lists and suggesting the purchase of certain goods it is agreed on before hand to push.

With the inauguration of this telephone system a few years ago, the store won a great deal of good-will and attracted the attention of its prospects to the new service by calling up on New Year's day and wishing its customers the compliments of the season, coupled with the simple announcement that in the future it intended to make a feature of its telephone service. On that occasion customers were not asked to buy anything.

"If Kelly Can't Fix It, Throw It Away." About every one in Highland Park, Calif., knows just whom to see when the door lock gets out of order, the baby carriage refuses to work easily, the gas engine won't breathe naturally or the faucet refuses to turn off.

"Why Handy Andy, over on Fifty-eighth street, of course." This isn't because they see very much of Handy Andy, for he's out much of the time. But it is because the business of callers who find him out is not

If You Are A Skilled Workman You Will Appreciate The C.C.M. Bicycle

Not only because it will take you to work easily and speedily— Save you time— Save you car fare— But because your trained eye can see the skilled workmanship that has been put into its manufacture.

Your trained ear can tell that the C.C.M. is mechanically perfect. It runs with velvety smoothness. Not a sound of friction.

No "Give" to Frame There is no "give" to the frame when you drive hard—proof positive that the C.C.M. bicycle has quality, strength, stamina, built into every part.

If you were to visit the big C.C.M. plant you would be even more proud of your C.C.M. bicycle.

Trained for Quality Here you would find a large, smooth-running organization. Many have worked in the C.C.M. factory for from ten to twenty years. You can see that they enjoy their work. They take pride in it. So thoroughly are they trained to quality-production that it would be next to impossible to switch them to the making of a low-grade bicycle, even if we so desired.

You would see the most modern methods of treating metals, of enamelling and nickelling. For instance, you would find that C.C.M. parts remain in the nickel baths two hours instead of the twenty minutes or so allowed for cheap nickelling.

Improved Machinery You would find here the most improved machinery for making and finishing the various parts of a bicycle. Batteries of the famous Gridley and Acme automatics. A complete equipment of inspection gauges for measuring and checking up the accuracy of every bicycle part.

Watch-Like Precision There are 1,761 parts in a C.C.M. bicycle. Many of them are made to even closer limits than the time fuses on shells. With such watch-like precision in manufacturing is it any wonder that a C.C.M. bicycle runs so easily, so smoothly, and so quietly?

Canadian workmen who take pride in and know the value of skilled Canadian workmanship have every reason to purchase C.C.M. bicycles. See the 1920 models at the dealers'. They are equipped with the new Hercules Positive Drive Brake—the Coaster Brake without a side arm.

DEATH OF SOLDIER.

TO THE ELECTORS.

Ladies and Gentlemen— Upon solicitation of many friends, I have decided to become a candidate for the office of Commissioner in the forthcoming civic election. If favored with your support, I promise to devote my full energy to forwarding the interests of the City with a view to making St. John a better place to live in.

REPORTS FOR THE YEAR AT FERNHILL

Annual Meeting of Company This Afternoon

Expenditures Considerably Larger and Receipts From Burial Fees and Annual Care Show Decline—Thirty-Four Soldiers in Field of Honor.

The annual meeting of the Fernhill Cemetery Company is being held this afternoon in the rooms of the board of trade. The annual report of the company shows much of interest performed during the year and shows the expenditures considerably advanced. The report is as follows:
To the Loyalists Fernhill Cemetery Company:
Ladies and Gentlemen—Your directors herewith submit the seventy-second annual report for the year ending Feb. 28 last, in which is incorporated the twenty-sixth annual report of the superintendent, J. P. Clayton. The financial statement and balance sheet of the secretary-treasurer have been duly audited by H. B. Shurtleff, auditor, and he has verified amount of debentures held on account of perpetual care accounts in bank.

FINANCIAL
Expenditures show a considerable advance over previous year caused by higher rates of wages and increased cost of material, but this has been met by usual receipts and sale of lumber, saving of cost of feed by sale of two horses last fall and careful conservation of funds by your board. The total cost of labor was $11,182; feed for horses, $446; tools, cement, upkeep of carts, etc., $760; insurance, premiums, $98.50; marble posts and markers and balance of paving contracts, $184; office rent, salaries, telephones, sundries, $8,169.50. Receipts from burial fees and annual care show a decline from previous year.

Perpetual care fund now stands at $120,506, a gratifying increase, representing 1,245 lots and about 300 monuments under care. The amount is invested in government and municipal debentures.

POWER LAWN MOWER
Your directors have arranged to purchase a power lawn mower to be delivered early this spring, and with this it is believed that the grass will be cut with much better results and at a reduced cost. The machine can be used on lawns and also on small lots when the paths are turfed, and will save the wages of two or three men.

Our superintendent was sent to Toronto in September to attend the convention of cemetery officials of Canada. The visit was productive of much good and valuable information was obtained, while it is satisfactory to know that our Fernhill company is favorably known among cemetery officials in Canada.

NEW LOTS
The new lots, about 180 in number, opened in Central Water avenues last year, are nearing completion, and the whole section has met with a ready sale comprising lots and half lots from very low prices upwards, either with or without perpetual care. This plot will be finished on the lawn plan with grass paths, reducing the cost of grass cutting and giving a more uniform appearance. The new small plot section for single graves, under care, has rapidly sold and more ground must be prepared very soon. This fills a long felt want for those not requiring a full or half lot. Your directors hope to prepare a new section as present consecrated lots are nearly all disposed of.

NEGLECTED LOTS
Every effort has been made to improve the condition of neglected lots without owners, or owned by people who are unable or unwilling to spend a few dollars on them. In a few cases we have had dilapidated fences and hedges removed, but there are still numbers of such lots in attractive parts of the cemetery, which by their unsightly and neglected state detract from beautiful surroundings. It is hoped that lot-holders or the public may devise some scheme to put these lots, wherein the bodies of many once prominent citizens are buried, in proper order and under care.

GENERAL
The usual work, including care of lots and upkeep of avenues and paths (of which there are over fifty miles), has been well performed during the year, and the general appearance of the cemetery was never better. The gates and fence at South Avenue have been reset and painted. Conditions during the past severe winter with heavy snow storms entailed much work, and never has the receiving tomb and chapel been more appreciated by those who had to follow their dear ones to their last resting place in cold and stormy weather. There were 274 interments during the year, in addition to removals, rather less than the average. Your directors urge lot-holders and the public to visit the cemetery and realize the amount of work they carry on, while at the same time they may be able to admire the natural beauty of Fernhill. Any suggestions for improvement, if made, will always receive careful consideration by the board of directors.

The death, last October, of R. W. W. Peink, a director for several years, was a distinct loss for our board. He always took the deepest interest in the affairs of the cemetery and was an active worker. The vacancy caused has been filled by the election of G. A. Kimball, who has previously served in same capacity. The directors have endeavored to carry

BY-LAW CASE

A by-law case against W. F. McLeod, charged with driving on the wrong side of Main street on March 27, was taken up before magistrate Ritchie today. He pleaded guilty and a fine of $10 was imposed.

EASTER AT ST. MATTHEW'S
The services at St. Matthew's church yesterday were very well attended. The church was filled both morning and evening services. Baptism was administered in the morning. Rev. Mr. Eisenor preached a most inspiring and eloquent sermon which held the close attention of all present. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was held at the close of morning worship. A large number of communicants partook of the sacrament. The evening service was most inspiring. The choir sang two Easter anthems. An added feature was a mixed and male quartette. The hymns sung and palms read were in keeping with the festival.

The pupil platform was nicely decorated with plants which have been sent to the Home for Incubates, provided by the church societies, and the Easter offering was exceptionally large. The attendance yesterday at the church was the largest for several years. The evening sermon was based on "Go tell his disciples and Peter, a message for the times."

BURGESS-REAMOUNT

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Rev. H. A. Goodwin on Wednesday, March 31, at 7 p. m., when he united in marriage Miss Mabel Burgess of Fairville and Harold E. Burgess of Fairville. The bride was carried in a pretty blue crepe de chine gown with hat to correspond and carried a bouquet of bridal roses. She was attended by Miss Margaret Brown, who wore a gown of cream silk. Mrs. James Harvey of Moncton, aunt of the bride, gave her away. The groom was supported by Charles Irvine of this city. After the ceremony the wedding party motored to the home of the groom, where a dainty supper was served. Many beautiful presents were received, including a check from the groom's sister in Boston. The groom's present to the bride was a check, to the bride's maid a carrying ring and to the best man gold cuff links. The groom is an employee of the C. P. and the bride was employed as an engraver with the Famous Player Film Company. They will reside in Fairville for the present.

The superintendent has faithfully carried out his duties, assisted by the staff, and the clerical and detail work of the office continues to be efficiently performed by Miss Magee, the secretary-treasurer. ## Prices In London Lower Than In United States

British Profiteer Tame Beside His New York Brother, Says Writer — Food, Recreation and Rents.

(By T. R. Ybarra in the N. Y. Tribune) To one back from a winter in England the biggest things in New York are not the skyscrapers but the prices. I came back the other day from London and I suddenly felt a strong desire to absorb the next outward bound ship. It wasn't lack of patriotism. It was lack of cash.

They make an awful noise about their profiteers over in England. They point the finger of scorn at them and hasten to compare them with the profiteers of the House of Commons. Yet the English profiteer, compared to him of New York, is a woolly lamb. Where he leaves off raising prices his New York brother begins. He adds shillings and pence to yesterday's figures and timidly waits to see whether the public will stand for it. The New Yorker backs on a fat dollar or two and quotes what Commodore Vanderbilt said about the public.

ed—for three shillings, or seventy-five cents, and ten or fifteen cents more will give you potatoes. You can lunch at any one of a dozen of the very best restaurants in London, eating all that one needs at midday, for a dollar and a half or two dollars, including alcoholic drink. If such places are too high for your taste, you can get a good meal from a stall up. All over London there are places where table d'hôte luncheons and dinners are served at prices which take a New Yorker's thoughts back to happy days of ten or fifteen years ago, when a table d'hôte dinner of first-class "spaghetti, joints" and French restaurants serving dinners at sixty cents or thereabout.

Two people can go to one of London's most celebrated restaurants, which has been synonymous with good food (not table d'hôte but hand-picked) including wine, merely memories to the law-abiding New Yorker, represented about one-fourth of the total outlay.

To one accustomed for months to meals of that sort, or to others proportionately reasonable, the first sight of New York food price lists is bewildering. Why these steaks, ranging from fifty cents to $2? Are they all recently re-recovered from sacred cows? What meat these soups, these vegetables, these desserts, which apparently are kept from costing a dollar per only by tremendous power on the part of those who suppose New York's menus? There are without dollar signs tacked beside them must feel the way you do in a dream when you walk into a crowded ballroom of self-control on the part of one who has just returned from England and wanders into one of these places of profiting not to come down on the spot with an acute attack of angina pectoris.

The Cost of Playing.

After you have had a London meal the next day you have had a New York meal of the vintage of 1920, your mind heavily turns toward jumping off a dock. In London you can get an orchestra seat

Polished Surfaces Reflect Good Housekeeping

WOULD you have your Dining Room so clean, sparkling and inviting as to add to the enjoyment of every meal? This result may be obtained by the use of O-Cedar Polish.

Give it a trial and learn how wonderfully it lightens housework. A wet cloth, a few drops of O-Cedar on it—a light rubbing to remove all dust—then a brisk polishing with a dry cloth; and you have a surface that gleams brightly, with the grain-beauty of the wood revealed in all its original charm.

The goodness of this Polish is "reflected" in the beautifully polished furniture of our best homes. The quality of the O-Cedar Polish Mop is "reflected" in the clean and brilliant wood-work, floors, stairs and shining linoleums of the most particular Canadian women.

O-Cedar Polish, 25c. to $3.00 sizes. O-Cedar Polish Mop without handle $1.50—the handle, 54 inches long, is 25c. extra. Both Polish and Mop at your Hardware or Grocery Shop.

CHANNELL CHEMICAL COMPANY, LIMITED, TORONTO

at one of the popular shows for $2.50 or $3—yes, you can really get it, not simply read outside the box office that it costs that much. If you get it from an agency you pay an extra twenty-five cents for the front rows! Of course, if the show is having a good run, you will have to get seats quite a while ahead, but you know just what you will have to pay. What a difference in New York!

Incidentally, in London, only about one-half of the orchestra seats are disposed of at the above prices. The remainder, all those in the rows under the balcony, which are known as the "pits" cost only fifty or seventy-five cents. They are not reserved, however. Those occupying them have to stand in line outside the theatre sometimes as much as two hours. But once you have secured up your courage to doing this, you can have an orchestra seat half or three-quarters of the price. The things that strikes a stranger in London most forcibly is the kind of Londoner who is not above sitting in line to get a pit seat. In the throng outside on the sidewalk waiting for the theatre doors to open, there are plenty of people who may be easily spotted as clerks and stenographers, but standing close behind them are others who look like their bosses. The pit is a great leveler.

Taxis in London are ridiculously cheap compared to those in New York. The charge for the first mile is sixteen cents, after which eight cents. Assuming thirty cents as the average New York taxi charge for the first half mile, a ride of one mile comes to fifty cents in London, a ride of two miles to ninety cents as against fifty cents in London, a ride of three miles to $1.20 as against eighty-five cents in London, and so on. Remember, here again, that all this is calculated at the old rate of exchange of approximately twenty-five cents to the shilling. Don't try to calculate London taxi rates at the present rate of exchange. You might turn into a Bolshevik.

Clothes are far cheaper in London today than they are in New York, and they still are clothes of the old English brand of genuine English workmanship, the kind that don't seem to know how to wear out or shed buttons or misbehave along the edges or emulate mirrors. In London you can have an excellent West End tailor make you a suit or overcoat at a price for which, in New York, you can get nothing but a ready-made suit—and not one of the more expensive ones at that. Nobody need be ashamed to go to a really good London tailor prepared to spend only $50 or $70 for a suit of clothes. He'll get something for that price which will make a swaggar come naturally into his gait.

Rents Over There.

In London they are howling madly about the way rents are shooting skyward and about the appalling shortage of housing accommodations, but London isn't in it with New York. The newspapers in the British metropolises filled every day with advertisements of houses and apartments to let at figures which would make a prospective New York tenant look at the date on the paper for fear that he had inadvertently picked up something printed in 1919 or possibly earlier. Apartment hunting is algebraically prevalent in London; it is far more common, in fact, than apartment hunting, but the London apartment hunter has a good chance of eventually moving into premises which in New York would cost him a good bit more than he has to pay. Comparisons in this field are difficult, because so many London apartments which rent at figures lower than those prevailing here are far more primitive in the matter of up-to-date conveniences than the general run of apartments in New York. Nevertheless, it may be said that London rents are from 25 to 50 per cent lower than those in New York, despite the fact that the war created an acute housing crisis and that rents have been jacked up again and again during the last five years.

sources including provincial and municipal bodies, comprises lands which were unoccupied and uncultivated at the time the information was obtained. They are intended to assist the prospective settler by enabling him to get in touch with those who are not cultivating their lands and who may therefore be willing to dispose of the same. They are of special advantage to the intending settler who wants information as to such lands as may be available in some particular locality. As these lists are prepared from many sources of information on a side the control of the department, no assurance can be given to their absolute correctness in all respects." The location and name of owner of land is given in the lists.

A glance over the unoccupied and uncultivated lands in Kings county show the different parishes to contain the following:

- Cardwell—Sixteen farms, totalling 4,922 acres.
- Greenwich—Seven farms, totalling 1,100 acres.
- Hammond—Ten farms, totalling 2,500 acres.
- Hampton—Three farms, totalling 350 acres.
- Havlock—Seven farms, totalling 700 acres.
- Kars—Twenty farms, totalling 2,975 acres.
- Kingston—Forty farms, totalling 5,165 acres.
- Norton—Thirteen farms, totalling 2,409 acres.
- Springfield—Six farms, totalling 885 acres.
- Stadhelm—Nine farms, totalling 2,800 acres.
- Upham—Fifteen farms, totalling 2,065 acres.
- Waterford—Twenty farms, totalling 3,400 acres.
- Westford—Thirty-six farms, totalling 4,030 acres.

The farms listed range in size from ten to 1,000 acres.

In London you can get a good small steak for thirty-five cents at a decent fifty or seventy-five cents you can partake of it in one of the best places in town. Are there any cabbages seventy-five cent steaks, for that matter? You can go into a place like the Savoy Grill in London, a world renowned resort of celebrities, and get a steak—small, to be sure, but an excellent cut and excellently cooked.

GENERAL DEWET STILL HOPES FOR INDEPENDENCE

Pretoria, Union South Africa, April 4.—General Christian De Wet, who commanded the Orange Free State forces in the Boer War, declared in a speech here on Saturday that South Africa here on Saturday put in pleading with England for independence until England granted it. He said that although he had been called a rebel, he knew his heart was right. General De Wet asserted that Paul Kruger, former President of the Transvaal, and Marthinus Steyn, former president of the Orange Free State, had sown a seed which it was impossible to eradicate.

MANY VACANT FARMS IN KINGS COUNTY

Sussex Paper Gives List With Call for Effort to Get British Settlers.

(Sussex Record.)

Two hundred and fifty Church Army emigrants, mostly ex-soldiers and their families, sailed for Canada by the Empress of France on Saturday. King George sent a farewell message expressing "the hope and the desire that each one of you may prosper and by showing the true pioneer spirit and brave endeavor help in building on strong and lasting foundations the mighty dominion of the west."

Almost every steamer that has arrived of late at St. John has brought to Canada a good number of people who left England to make their home in this country, and of this very desirable class emigrants, very few if any, remain in the mar-time provinces. This is not as it should be.

There is a vast area of unoccupied and uncultivated land in New Brunswick that emigrants might take up and do just as well, to say the least, as locating elsewhere in Canada. According to a pamphlet prepared and issued by the Natural Resources Intelligence Branch, Department of the Interior, Ottawa, Canada, last year, there was at that time 62,275 acres of land available in Kings county to settlers.

The authors of the pamphlet state that "This series of lists, compiled from recent information obtained from various

The plebiscite referred to is to be taken in this province some time in June to finally determine the question for Alberta of inter-provincial traffic in liquor. The Premier takes the stand that if the vote is overwhelmingly against the importation of liquor the province will go "bone-dry."

evening, under the direction of T. C. Cochrane, the organist and choir leader. Mrs. S. D. Wilson, Stanley Stout, David Allan, Mrs. Murray Long and Mrs. Osborne were heard in solo parts.

Rev. E. W. Mackay of Toronto, who will supply in St. David's church in April May and part of June, during the absence of the minister, Rev. J. A. MacKeigan, was heard in splendid addresses in the church yesterday when he preached his first sermons there. In his evening sermon his subject was "Immortality and experience and his text was taken from Luke xxiv:35: "And they told what things were done in the way."

C. P. R. Labor Problem.
Saskatoon, Sask., April 4.—Labor is the big problem which the C. P. R. has to consider in drafting its construction programme this year, according to D. C. Coleman, vice-president and general manager of the C. P. R. The class of people the company has had to rely upon in the past for pick and shovel work he said, is leaving the country in large numbers. "At least," Mr. Coleman declared in qualification, "they are down east trying to return to Europe."

"And Mother Says to Send Over Some Pure Gold Jelly Powders"

The children know the name of their favourite dessert and never tire of it. You can't fool them with imitations, either. The rich flavour of luscious fruits in genuine Pure Gold Jellies is not easily forgotten.

The kiddies—and grown folks as well, have a great habit of sending their plates back for more whenever these delicacies are served. Give them all they want. They're absolutely pure, and so good for them. Better get a supply and have them handy. Raspberry, strawberry, lemon, orange, red currant, pineapple, cherry and vanilla.

The City Boosted

FOR GOOD STREETS
GOOD CITIZENSHIP

"Hell is Paved With Good Intentions"

Probably on general assessment principles. Good enough for it. It has no credit anyway. That kind of paving isn't the kind of pavement that St. John wants, or that any ambitious city, that has a credit to sustain, wants.

St. John—the home of progressive people—wants permanent pavements—the kind that will help our city to grow—the kind that our people will not be ashamed of.

Such a pavement cannot be had, and the bulk of our streets will never be paved, unless the abutting property owners are willing to pay their share of the cost. You can't load it up on general assessment. A tumble is sure to come.

It's only a third of the cost that abutters are asked to pay for. The city pays the other third.

MONTREAL FELL DOWN

Montreal, a wealthier city than St. John, tried to pave its streets under general assessment. What was the result? The city is practically bankrupt. Its borrowing power has been exhausted, and it will be ten years before that power can be restored. Montreal finds itself now compelled to do what it should have done at the beginning. It is going to make the abutter pay hereafter.

DANGER AHEAD FOR ST. JOHN

There is danger ahead for St. John sure, if it attempts to follow Montreal's example. We don't want the good old Loyalist City to do anything that it will regret next year or the year after.

Begin right, by compelling the abutters to pay their share of the expense. It isn't much that will be required of them—Not More than a Dollar per Foot Frontage per year for the best kind of pavement, and that only for ten years.

WHY? YES, WHY?

Why should a man living on a side or out of the way street that never will be paved be taxed for the benefit of the man who owns property on a valuable thoroughfare? Answer that, please!

That's "passing the buck"—a thing that the general bunch of ratepayers should refuse to stand for.

"A PERFECT RIGHT"

Following the last sleet storm two men were strolling along the "Avenue" behind a pretty North End damsel who was holding her skirt rather high. After an altercation as to the merits of the case, one of the men stepped forward and said: "Pardon me, Miss, but aren't you holding your skirt rather high?"

"Haven't I a perfect right?" she snapped.

"You certainly have, Miss, and a beauty of a left," he replied at once.

The moral is that if we would have our city attractive, we must have perfect streets on our right and our left—perfect streets on the West Side as well as on the East Side—perfect streets in the Erin street district and perfect streets in the Douglas Avenue district—perfect streets everywhere. Perfect streets cannot be obtained unless the abutter pays his share.

AGAIN, WHY?

There are thousands living on streets that are not paved and never will be paved; why should they pay pro rata for the whole costs of streets which they seldom use? Clearly, the abutter should pay for the improvement of his frontage.

A FOOLISH IDEA

One of our amateur farmers answered an advertisement headed "A Sure Way to Make Hens Lay." This is what he got for his money: "Tie a stout string 'round the hen's body, place the bird on her side on a board and fasten the string underneath. If it is thought desirable a pillow may be placed under the hen's head."

A fool idea that, you say. But is it any more foolish than the idea that the streets of St. John can be paved throughout without asking abutters to pay?

JUST LOOK AT OTHER CITIES

Toronto makes the abutter pay. That's the reason why Toronto is such a clean and go-ahead city. Hamilton, Brantford, and every live town in Ontario does the same. Boston, Buffalo, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Chicago—all the best American cities—require that abutters shall pay from 50 to 100 per cent. of the cost of street improvements.

EVEN HALIFAX DOES IT

And yet there are short-sighted people in St. John who think, or profess to think, that this city can do something that all other go-ahead cities have failed to do. "It can't be did."

WHAT A LOVELY EASTER GIFT

it would be, and what a commendable Easter spirit it would show, if the citizens of St. John, one and all, would say: "We're tired of knocking and kicking our city. We're tired of this spirit of narrowness and selfishness that is holding our city back. Let us have improved streets and let us have them in the same way as other cities. We're willing to pay our share and do our bit!"

Then we could "glory in expansion" to our heart's content.

THINK IT OVER, PEOPLE.

IT'S NOT AN IMPOSSIBILITY

Watch for the City Booster Tomorrow.

Antwerp, April 5—The course for the Olympic marathon race, the principal individual event of the Olympic games, has been officially selected and promises an excellent test for the long distance runners of the world. The start of the race, provisionally set for August 21 or 23, will be made from the Royal Palace at Laeken, just outside of Brussels, and the finish will be made in the Olympic stadium at Antwerp. The distance will be 26.36 miles, including the final laps over the stadium track proper. Leaving Laeken, the runners will follow a little used road from the palace for a kilometre, making a detour which will bring them to the main highway between Brussels and Antwerp. This road is almost as level as a table and leads through five or six small villages as well as the large city of Malines. There is but one hill of not more than 10 per cent grade near Malines and this is the only obstacle which the competitors will have to surmount during the race. All traffic will be stopped during the race and the course will be well guarded. New York, April 5—Late reports from Belgium indicate that the Olympic games eligibility rules, always strictly enforced in past Olympiads, will be observed to the letter. The slightest flaw in the status of an athlete is sufficient to bar him from the games, according to a statement made by F. W. Rubien, secretary of the American Olympic committee. The rules are: "Only amateur athletes to be admitted to the Olympic games. "It is necessary to be a native of any given country or an naturalized citizen of same, or of the sovereign power to which said nation forms a part. "Whoever has taken part in the Olympic games as a citizen of any given nation even if he has been naturalized in that country, save and excepting cases of conquest or the creation of fresh states, duly notified by treaty. "In case of naturalization, the naturalized subject must supply adequate proofs that he was an amateur in his native country up to the time of his change of nationality."

SAYS EARLY RUIN FACES NEWSPAPERS

Jason Rogers, Returning from Canada, Declares Dominion Paper Mills Are Oversold.

(From Editor and Publisher, March 27) Unless some very real step is taken by the newspapers in the larger cities of the country, for the curtailment of the use of print paper, the whole industry of newspaper making will suffer an annihilating shock next fall which only those who are provident from now on will survive.

"Spot paper is selling at from eleven to twelve cents, wherever shown. Publishers are struggling with one another to buy extra tonnage which they think they require against the poor devil without any supply. Nearly all of the mills are booked for more paper than they will produce. These are the facts in the situation."

"I heard of one leading newspaper which is already assured of very heavy tonnage, buying 1,000 tons at 11.5 cents a pound and offering the same price or 'the market' for as much more could be secured. He was merely playing safe according to the standards of a hypocrite."

"I heard of other important newspapers having representatives overseas or going over 'to buy' tonnage which they imagine they must have, regardless of this annihilating effects such purchases must have upon the newspapers of Europe just emerging from the frightful strain of the great war."

30 Cent Spot Paper by Fall

"Canada is justly annoyed and amazed at the delay of the United States in ratifying the Peace Treaty and League of Nations covenant, and at the heavy, differential in exchange against her. They feel that there is no more justification for such a penalty than there would be between two states in the Union."

"Canada is much alarmed over the threatened destruction of her forests by paper makers, to supply a people so rich and so prosperous that they are erroneously thought to have forgotten the much heavier sacrifices of a smaller brother in the great world war. The sooner our newspapers are brought to the realization of what they are up against, the better off they will be."

"Unless those newspapers which are turning out one pound dailies and two and a half pound Sunday newspapers are brought to their senses, we will see spot paper at from twenty to thirty cents a pound by October, with practically no free tonnage obtainable at even these prices."

"In such a crisis as is upon us, the publication of a daily of over twenty-four pages or a Sunday of over fifty pages should be prohibited. The argument that business declined

PROPOSED DUTY ON CANADIAN WHEAT TO U.S.

Bill Not Likely to Pass, However - Duty on Pulpwood and Paper Also Suggested - Other Bills.

Washington, April 3.-(By Canadian Press)—Several bills calling for tariff readjustment which affect Canadian interests are now before the United States congress. Owing to the pressure of other business these measures have received but little attention from the members of the United States house this session, and it now appears likely that most of the bills will be sidetracked. Nevertheless, their introduction indicates that the United States has not abandoned its protection principles and it is generally believed that had it not been for the favorable balance in trade with Canada, some of these measures might have been pressed more strongly than they have been.

Two of these bills propose to put a duty on wheat and flour. One, introduced by Representative Young of North Dakota, calls for a duty of 25 cents a bushel on wheat, and $1.25 per barrel on flour, with a 10 per cent ad valorem duty on semolina and other products of wheat not specifically named in the act. This bill has met with a good deal of opposition and it is not likely to be passed. Mr. Young has a second bill which is now before the committee of ways and means, and which proposes a duty of 10 cents per bushel on wheat, and 45 cents per barrel on flour and other wheat products, as well as 25 per cent ad valorem upon potatoes. These bills indicate that Canada is still regarded as a competitor of the United States in wheat and flour.

A bill which has attracted a good deal of attention in view of Senator Underwood's campaign to force the cancellation or modification of Canadian provincial regulations limiting the export of pulpwood to the United States, was introduced by Representative Hull of Tennessee. Senator Underwood's proposal was to appoint a commission to study the question with a view to discovering what measures could be adopted to induce the provincial governments to let down the bars on pulpwood and his resolution merely contained a hint of retaliation. Mr. Hull goes him one better. His bill includes a provision intended to penalize Ontario and Quebec for their export prohibition on wood used for the manufacture of woodpulp. It calls for a duty of 12 per cent on printing paper valued above eight cents per pound, provided, however, that of any country, dependency, province or other subdivision of government shall impose any export duty, export license fee, or other charge of any other kind whatsoever (whether in the form of additional charge or license fee or otherwise) upon printing paper, woodpulp, or wood used in the manufacture of woodpulp, there shall be imposed on printing paper, valued above eight cents per pound, when imported either directly or indirectly from such country, dependency, province or other subdivision of government, an additional duty equal to the amount of the highest export or other charge imposed upon either printing paper or upon an amount of woodpulp or wood for the manufacture of woodpulp necessary to manufacture such printing paper. The effect of this would be to force the American customers of Canadian mills to pay extra duty upon paper imported from the provinces which have pulpwood exportation restrictions, and would mean the penalizing of United States newspapers, which are forced to look to Canada for a large percentage of their print paper supply. The bill is now before the ways and means committee. The general opinion is that it has but little chance of being enacted. Other bills still under consideration which affect Canada include the following:

A bill providing for a duty on magnesite ore of one-half cent per pound and a higher duty on manufactured magnesite. In the year 1918-19 Canada sold the United States magnesite to the value of $786,286. A bill proposing to regulate the importation of coal-tar products by prohibiting the bringing in of any of these products if they can be secured in the United States. This would affect Canadian exports only to a comparatively small extent. A bill providing for a duty on shell and pearl buttons. Bills calling for duties on tungsten ores

Worth Dashing After. A professor was teaching his evening class in English composition. "I would like you to consider this sentence, gentlemen, and tell me how you would punctuate it," he remarked: "A lady was passing along the street smiling pleasantly."

"What about a dash after the lady, sir," came the quick query from one member of the class.—Fitzburg-Chronicle-Telegraph.

How about a full stop?

and zinc ores. Both of these have passed the house of representatives and are now before the senate committee. An anti-dumping bill which provides extra duties on goods the importation of which is likely to injure any United States industry or prevent an industry being established. The bill to repeal the Reciprocity act of 1911, which was passed by the house last October, is still before the senate.
