MURDER CASE HAS STYRED SUSSEX

Wm. Ryder's Death Is Chief Thing Talked About

(Special Times) Sussex, N. B., Oct. 23.—Slowly the veil of mystery which surrounds the death of William Ryder at White's Mountain on Wednesday, October 18, is being drawn aside and the glimpse of the tragedy which has been given by the evidence revealed new points only too clearly to the fact that the unfortunate man met a violent death at the hands of some one as yet unknown.

The theory of suicide, which was accepted by Coroner A. S. Lamb when he allowed the body to be buried without inquest is declared entirely discredited by a post mortem examination of the body which was made on Saturday.

The post mortem examination was made on Saturday afternoon by Dr. G. H. Bunnell of Sussex and Dr. B. Thomas of Havelock, in the presence of Coroner F. W. Wallace of Sussex, Chief of Police McLeod of Sussex and the jury consisting of H. R. Keith, foreman; City Manning, G. W. Kay, F. H. Oldfield, F. M. Campbell, City Hall and Ambrose Manning.

SEEK RESTAURANT WHERE AVIS LINELL AND MINISTER DINED

(Canadian Press) Boston, Oct. 23.—Efforts of the police were further extended today to complete the evidence and substantiate the testimony of witnesses in connection with the murder of Miss Avis Linell, the 19-year-old music student whose death by poisoning occurred in the Young Women's Christian Association building on the night of Oct. 14.

The police today continued their endeavors to locate the restaurant where Miss Linell and Rev. Clarence Virgil Thompson Richeson, pastor of Immanuel Baptist church, of Cambridge, charged with the murder, ate and had their evening meal on the day the girl was found dead.

Deputy Superintendent of Police Watts, says that the young woman who brought him information concerning a conversation with Miss Linell is rather positive that the victim of the tragedy told her of being given a headache powder by the minister. The police have no idea that the man to whom she referred is the man who is sought.

In his cell in the Suffolk county jail, in Charles street, Rev. Mr. Richeson remains calm. He has made no statement. He slept peacefully during the greater part of last night and awoke early. After eating a light breakfast, he read the newspapers, and his sister and lawyers arranged to see him. The jail officials say he is one of the coolest prisoners that has ever been confined in the jail with murder.

(Special Times) Toronto, Oct. 23.—To promote immigration of Scottish and English farmers to the Canadian Northwest, the Duke of Sutherland, who has returned to Toronto from the west, is inaugurating an interesting and practical experiment.

The scheme is quite analogous to the C. P. R. plan of offering prepared farms to men with a little capital who will take hold of the enterprise as a going concern.

The Duke explained that his plan was twofold. A tract of land comprising 4,500 acres has been secured in southern Alberta near Clyde, on the line of the C. P. R. This land has been divided into twelve farms and is ready for occupancy.

A manager is already in charge. Picked farmers from the duke's estate in Scotland will be placed on each of these farms next spring with the view of eventually becoming proprietors.

The second part of the scheme is represented by 1,500 acres of land near Edmonton, to which His Grace proposes to send laborers from Scotland. Farm laborers to start with, these men will be trained as farmers capable of starting out in a few years for themselves.

The wages they receive will be double what they would receive in Scotland, and it is hoped that they will select homesteads for themselves and have sufficient from their savings to start with.

His Grace intends to associate in the enterprise prominent Canadians whose positions and influence will be sufficient to warrant the provincial government making grants for colonization, road and other work.

Following are mentioned as being among the personnel of the syndicate: Sir Wm. Rhyrie and Major Sanford Evans, Winnipeg; Sir Henry Pellatt and (probably) Sir Wm. MacKenzie and Sir Edmund Walker of Toronto. Some British Columbia men are also mentioned, including Hon. F. L. Carter of Canton.

(Special Times) Windsor, Ont., Oct. 23.—John Nolan, a white man, was murdered by an unidentified negro at Madison and Beaudoin streets in Detroit, a little after midnight yesterday. The murderer made his escape in the darkness and is still at large.

This is the third murder in Detroit within a few weeks and in each case the murderer has got away.

The wave of crime has thoroughly alarmed the authorities and the negro resorts are being closely watched.

HON. MR. ASQUITH TO THE PEERAGE

Lloyd George to Be New Leader Of The House

(Canadian Press) London, Oct. 23.—The Express this morning, says that Prime Minister Asquith is to be elevated to the peerage before the opening of the 1912 session of parliament, and that Lloyd George, now chancellor of the exchequer, is to become leader of the House of Commons.

Thomas Hardy has donated the manuscripts of his novels to various museums. According to the Daily News, Mr. Hardy's decision was prompted by the attempts of J. P. Morgan to purchase the manuscripts of 'Tess of the D'Urbervilles.' It is said that Mr. Hardy said he could not listen.

Charles Stapleton Pellam-Clinton, eldest son of Lord Charles Pellam-Clinton, and grandson of the fourth Duke of Newcastle died yesterday. He was born in 1857, and in 1886 married Elizabeth, daughter of Louis H. Zerega Di Zerega of New York.

Speaking at the Glasgow Conservative Club, Mr. Balfour referred to Canada's decision on the question of reciprocity, which he regarded of imperial importance. "Are you certain?" he asked, "that the recent is not one wherein you will depend the future of the empire, as well as its influence and position among the nations of the world?"

"He ventured to prophesy that 1911, would be enumerated among the great annals of the empire and that generations to come would regard the Canadian election as an event which settled for all time the future course of the empire."

Deputy DeMarinis, the Italian consul in Toronto, undoubtedly one of the most important points on the Mediterranean, by the existence of a concrete agreement between England and Italy for the occupation of Tripoli and Cyrenaica. The occupation of Tripoli brought forth immediate criticism on the part of the English press.

From a rope maker's boy to a director of naval construction in the British navy, is the record of Sir William E. Smith, who has been appointed to succeed Sir Philip Watts, the constructor of the Royal Navy. He is just over sixty years old. He worked himself up through every grade of the service.

(Special Times) Toronto, Oct. 23.—(Special)—The body of Violet Smith, the school teacher at Dillon port, an isolated settlement, who met death by drowning, was interred on Saturday afternoon beside those of her mother. The jury said suicide, but the girl's friends are not satisfied, and they say the autopsy and inquest were hurried.

Chief coroner Arthur Jukes Johnson and Dr. George W. Graham made a private autopsy yesterday for the family at the request of their solicitor, W. D. McPherson, K. C. As all of the vital organs of the woman were not at hand at the post-mortem, it is said the doctors could not determine for certain the cause of death.

A Canadian Press despatch says that it is contended that the evidence of school trustee Miner should have been secured, as his complaint to the school inspector, following Miss Smith's action in degrading his son from the fourth to the third, had started the school trouble over which the girl was concerned.

(Special Times) Toronto, Oct. 23.—(Special)—James E. Bazzo, a manufacturer, agent was pumping up an awning on Saturday at his home, 381 Markham street, when he fainted and fell. He fractured his skull. The body will be buried in Montreal.

(Special Times) Smith's Falls, Ont., 23.—Some children playing in the home of Milton Hay, of Halville, secured a box of dynamite caps, not knowing what they were, and gave them to the baby to amuse him. He let the dynamite toy fall to the floor and immediately there was an explosion.

The room was badly torn up and two little girls were seriously burned though they were not injured. There were several children in the room, but none of them were injured.

SIX COMETS NOW NEAR SUN

(Special Times) San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 23.—(Canadian Press)—Six comets, two of them bright enough to be seen with the naked eye, are now within the neighborhood of the sun according to reports from Lack Observatory, University of California. Of the two brightest, one is visible just after sunset north of the sunset point. It has a bright head and a tail about seven degrees long. It will remain visible for several days.

The second comet is said to be brighter than the first. It was discovered by Mr. Brooks, last July. It had, last night, a tail twenty degrees in length. It should be looked for in the morning just before 6 o'clock northeast of Venus, the morning star.

A photograph which was immediately recognized as that of a daughter who died about four years ago. The photograph was found in the clothing of the son.

Mother and wife then claimed the body at the morgue.

(Special Times) Halifax, N. S., Oct. 23.—The Royal Bank lost $100 in a peculiar way on Friday. Two boxes were sent to the post office with a satchel containing packages of bank notes and $100 in specie, the satchel was delivered to the post office and later by express. The bills were forwarded but the clerks left the satchel with the silver on the outside counter and went away.

In a minute they returned for it but the satchel had disappeared. It had been handed in at the post office wicket but when the clerks found and opened it the money was gone. Some one had picked up the satchel in the interim and the police are now looking for him.

REBELS ARE IN CONTROL OF TWO MORE CITIES

(Canadian Press) Now Gives Them Sway Over Two More Important Provinces

(Canadian Press) Shanghai, Oct. 23.—The occupation, by revolutionists, of two more important southern cities, Chang Sha and Nan Chang, was announced in despatches which reached this city early today. Chang Sha is the capital of the province of Hunan and Nan Chang is the province of Kwangsi. Their capture therefore delivers into revolutionary hands, the local governments of two important provinces, thereby more than doubling the territory in which the rebels are masters.

Chang Sha is a city of 300,000 population and is the chief commercial centre on the railroad between Hankow and Canton. It is 200 miles southwest of Hankow, while Nan Chang, a city of 100,000, is correspondingly situated 200 miles southeast of Hankow.

The fall of Chang Sha and Nan Chang had been rumored here for a day or two. Today's advices definitely confirm them. Both cities are entirely in the hands of the revolutionaries. Four of China's eighteen provinces are now regarded as under revolutionary influence. See Chen, where the movement started; Hu Peh of which Wu Chang is the capital; Hunan and Kwangsi. The fall of Nanking, where the garrison is regarded as siding with the revolution, would deliver to them the entire Yang Tze valley, the gradually succumbing to the revolutionary infection.

No uprising has yet been reported at Nanking, which is only 400 miles from Shanghai, but there is every reason to believe that the garrison there cannot be relied upon by the imperial government. Nanking is not only a great commercial center, but is also the most important military depot in Central China, and its fall would be the most severe blow which the government has yet received.

Shanghai, Oct. 23.—The imperial government has sent $1,000,000 for deposit in the native banks. This has materially helped the financial situation.

Berlin, Oct. 23.—The German foreign office received inquiries today from the United States government regarding the situation brought about by the revolution in China. Germany believes the situation does not call for intervention. It is considered that the naval forces in Chinese waters are apparently adequate for the protection of foreigners, should the latter be endangered, of which contingency there is, however, no sign at the present time.

(Special Times) Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 23.—The grounds looked so bad to Empire Brennan today that he expressed the opinion that the son would have to come out strong to dry them sufficiently to permit a game tomorrow. He felt sure a game would be played on Wednesday. The weather forecast for the week calls for more rain, beginning on Thursday, and cold weather.

The present world's series is a record breaker. Not only has the series exceeded the figures for attendance and receipts at one game, but the record for the number of postponements of one game has also gone by the board. Furthermore the present series will come to a close at a later date than any series heretofore played. Since the world's championship games have been played under the rules of the national commission, they had ended on the following dates: 1905, Oct. 14; 1906, Oct. 14; 1907, Oct. 12; 1908, Oct. 15; 1909, Oct. 16; 1910, Oct. 23.

(Special Times) New York, Oct. 23.—A new world's record for the 26-pound shot put, is marked up to the credit of the Irish-American Athletic Club today as a result of the performance of P. J. McDonald, the big Metropolitan champion, at Coney park yesterday. McDonald hurled the heavy ball 38 feet, 10 1/8 inches, improving the mark made three years ago by Ralph Rose.

(Special Times) Toronto, Oct. 23.—(Special)—Rev. Dr. A. R. Gregory, principal of Westminster Ladies' College here, whose death occurred here on Saturday night was known to several graduates now living in the Maritime provinces.

JUDGE CARLETON'S LECTURE

"An Evening with John Boyle O'Reilly," was the title of the lecture delivered last night in the C. M. B. A. Union, street, by the Hon. Judge Carleton, before one of the largest audiences which has ever filled the room. The evening was one of pleasure and interest to all and the speaker made his usual fine impression. C. P. O'Neill, president of Branch 134, presided, and made a brief speech, introducing the speaker.

Judge Carleton was closely followed throughout the address as he told of his life of the famous poet, the "Poet of Humanity" as he had been styled; his writings, and death. He went very far into his writings, giving with good effect recitations from some of his works. His rendering of quotations from "In Bohemia," "Innistrail," "A City Street," evoked much applause. All through the lecture proved decidedly entertaining, and was keenly enjoyed by the large audience present.

October's bright blue weather. O suns and skies and clouds of June, And flowers of June together, Ye cannot rival for one hour October's bright blue weather.

When loud the humblebee makes haste, And shrills his fading song, And golden-rod is fragrant, And lanes with grapes are fragrant; When gentians roll their fringes tight To save them from the sun's rays, And redder still on old stone walls Are leaves of woodbine twining; When all the lovely, waxy things Their white-winged seeds are sowing, And in the fields, still green and fair, Late afternoons are growing;

When spring rains low, and on the brooks In file, golden freighting, Bright leaves sink noiseless in the hush Of woods, for winter waiting; When comrades seek sweet country haunts, By snow and shades together, And count like miners hour by hour, October's bright blue weather.

O suns and skies and flowers of June, Count all your boasts together, Low hoods be hatched for all the year, October's bright blue weather. —Helen Hunt Jackson.

FOOD AND COMPLEXIONS. Fruits, especially uncooked fruits, contain acids that are extremely irritating to the stomach, while only a few of them, such as bananas, figs, grapes, dates, etc., contain any nourishment. They, too, have the inevitable virtue, however, of facilitating the work of the intestines, and when cooked are not so irritating to the stomach. Water gives invaluable assistance in helping to flush out the entire system and wash away the poisons. We can hardly drink too much. Most people take far too little.—Harper's Bazar.

CHEER UP

Whether the census figures tell the truth or not concerning the population of St. John, it remains true that the last ten years, and especially the last five years, have witnessed great material improvement. It remains true that real estate has increased in value; that bank clearings have shown a remarkable increase; that there has been a notable increase in the number of banks and other financial institutions...

sion to the world, then, according to my conception, is to demonstrate the possibility of harmonizing the warring creeds for the benefit and enlightenment of mankind. How would the average Christian advocate fare in an effort to convert this philosopher to Christianity, as it is understood in Canada, for example, where religious prejudice may sometimes determine the fate of governments? With the centuries of Oriental civilization stretching away behind him into a remote antiquity, this Japanese observer looks out upon universal humanity and its problems from a viewpoint quite different from that of the Anglo-Saxon. It is well to realize the fact, and all that it involves in relation to the work and the success of Christian missions in the Orient...

CONCERNING RELIGIONS

It may cause a slight shock to the self-complacency of so-called Christian nations to learn that, while they are proceeding with the task of providing the world with a religion, there are those who are far from believing that the last word has been spoken concerning the supremacy of Christianity as a world faith. Let us note some observations on this point by Mr. Hiroo Tatsuuro, a Japanese writer, in an article lately printed in a Japanese magazine. He quotes a statement made by Lord Curzon to the effect that Christianity as proclaimed today contains nothing that is new to Eastern nations, and they proceed as follows: "I am not of the opinion that the preaching of Christianity is meaningless here. But the Christianity we have received from the West will have to be so transformed, that is, japonicized, as to be no longer the same thing. The attitude of the Japanese mind to religion is free from the narrow-mindedness found among Occidental nations. In the same house you will see a Buddhist shrine and a Shinto shrine, and, moreover, you will often hear the head of the house quoting Confucian maxims to the members of the family, and even referring to the Christian Scriptures. In the hearts of the people Christ and Shaka hold the same rank. All the religious and moral teaching we have received from foreigners in past centuries has been so modified by us to suit our tastes and life as to be hardly recognizable. The pessimism, asceticism and other-worldliness of Buddhism, as it was taught in India, Ceylon and elsewhere we let alone. When used by us it became optimistic and intensely secular. Christianity today is undergoing the same process of assimilation to our national life and fundamental ideas. The nations which in past years have been sending missionaries and subscribing large sums of money in order to convert us to their way of thinking, are beginning to realize that there is no longer any need for their efforts in this direction. Left to ourselves we shall develop the Christianity we have accepted in our own way. We shall adapt it to surrounding conditions. . . . In religion we Japanese are sufficiently broad-minded to take what is good from a number of different creeds. In religious broad-mindedness, and assimilative power there is, I think, no nation equal to us. And if I were asked to name a country where in the future the various creeds are likely to be harmonized and made to form a part of a new religion, I should certainly name Japan."

WHOLESALE EXTENSION OF HOTEL SYSTEM

C. P. R. Finds it Has Not Accommodation Enough For Its Tourist Business

Montreal, Oct. 23.—It is announced that the Canadian Pacific Railway will spend a considerable sum of money in making extensions to its chain of tourist hotels. During the summer season just-over, the company's hotel business increased to such an extent that there were hardly a hotel out of the whole seventeen where the managers did not find a great deal of trouble in satisfying all the demands for accommodation which were made. Particularly was this the case in their mountain hotels, where the increasing of the tourist traffic to proportions that had never before been reached, caused the hotels to be taxed to their utmost to provide for all wishing to stop at them. In fact, at Banff, which seemed to be the stop-over point most favored by visitors, conditions were such that on several occasions hotel accommodation could not be secured, and tourists had to spend the evening in sleeping cars backed up on the sidings. This state of affairs is the more remarkable when it is considered that last spring the C. P. R. had just concluded a series of extensive alterations to its mountain hotels with the idea of being able to provide for its patrons for some time to come. It is significant that since it was built the C. P. R. has found it necessary to increase the accommodation of their Chateau Lake Louise four or five fold. No later than last spring extensions were made at this hotel which increased the size of the dining room to 120 feet by 40 feet, and which enlarged the kitchen to 100 feet by 23 feet, and added 60 bedrooms to the hotel proper. This gave the Chateau 170 bedrooms, but even then, during the rush season the accommodation was taxed, and so it is the intention of the C. P. R. to this year make very substantial improvements to all its mountain hotels. In connection with its other hotels equally important extensions are planned. Even now work on the new hotel at Calgary is being rushed, and at Winnipeg, at the Royal Alexandra, probably the biggest extension of all will be made. At the Place Viger hotel in this city, work on new improvements will start just as soon as the Place Viger Station officials move to their new quarters. At the Chateau Frontenac, the alterations include the building of a huge chimney, which will be modelled somewhat after the big stack at the Windsor Street Station, in this city.

PAN'S NEW HAT

There's nothing sorer about my pa, you bet he's always up to date; To look at him you'd never guess that he is almost forty years old; Of course, he's pretty nearly bald, and then again he's rather fat. But he won't let on that he's old and now he's bought a fuzzy hat. Ma held her sides from laughing when pa came back home the other night, An' she had to leave the room, the way she acted was a fright. "Oh, dear," says ma, "tee-hee-hee-hee, good gracious, will you look at that. Com' children, all an' share the fun your father's got a fuzzy hat."

"Almost all Western students of comparative religion are of opinion that Christianity is superior to all other creeds. So they prejudice the case before investigating it. Thoroughly impartial investigation is very rare in Western countries. The Japanese mind is specially adapted for this kind of study. Our religious mis-

OCTOBER It is no joy to me to sit On dreary summer eve, When silently the twilight moon Kisses the sleeping leaves, And all things through the fair hushed earth Love, rest—but nothing grieves Better I like old autumn. With his hair tossed to and fro, Firm striding o'er the stubble-felds, When the equinoxials blow. When shrillingly the sun creeps up Through misty mornings cold, And robing on the orchard hedge, Sings cheerily and loud, While heavily the frosted plum Drops downward on the mold; And as he passes autumn Into earth's lap does throw Browns apples gay in a game of play, Firm striding o'er the stubble-felds, When the equinoxials blow. When the spent year its carol sings Into a humble psalm, Asks no more for the pleasure draught, And all its storms and sunshine bursts Controls to one brave calm. With steady eyes that show No grief, nor fear, to the death of the year, While the equinoxials blow. —Mrs. D. M. Craik.

MAN WHO TRIES TO MAKE DREAMS COME OUT TRUE

A Great Reception Planned For Earl Grey on His Return to London

SOCIETY IN ENGLAND

Cupid Busy Among Canadians There—Death of Lord Northcote of Kent—The Latest Fad in Higher Social Circles

(Times Special Correspondence.) London, Oct. 15.—Great preparations are being made here by the partnership in housing societies to give a rousing welcome to Earl Grey when he returns from Canada.

He is, as you have discovered ere this, no doubt, one of those rare individuals who combine with a thoroughly practical and businesslike nature enough of the dreamer to impart imagination to his schemes; more valuable than this still, he has enthusiasm and this enables him to put some of his visions into practice.

It is often said that Americans work because they have to. Earl Grey is one of the exceptions to this rule. He had a brilliant career at school and the university and at twenty-one married Miss Holford, a great heiress, so he could have lived very pleasantly to the end of his days had he wished.

But he is the last man to adopt a "soft job" sort of life. His energy required an outlet, and he devoted it to pulling down some of his beautiful dreams from the stars to have earth. Social problems he attacked in every variety, and finally Cecil Rhodes, perceiving in him a man with expansive ideas like himself, invited him to go to Rhodesia as it then was. Here he found work and surroundings exactly suited to his taste. He was made administrator, and the new colony grew and flourished under his unconventional but able rule.

It is said that the more conventional aspect of administration as governor-general of Canada did not appeal to him at first, but that soon left him, and now he was as loth to come away as you were to lose him. Of the great changes he has seen during his "reign" we are anxious to hear him speak. He has seen the population nearly double itself; he has seen the country's wealth heap itself nearly out of sight; he has seen more railways spread themselves over its surface. One thing is certain, Canada will have no more enthusiastic "boomers" than her popular governor general when he returns to the old country.

An amusing episode occurred when he was quite a young man. As Albert Grey he put up for parliament and both he and his opponent, embodying your favorite pursuits, hobbies or even flowers. Queen Mary's is a simple wreath of may-flowers as she was always known as Princess May before she married, and this is the name her brothers still call her—with her monogram and crown above it. In Queen Alexandra's is a minute picture of Elinore, her home when a child, and some drawings of her favorite animals and flowers.

Among the lesser lights, Lady Angela Forbes possesses one of the most artistic designs, which was made especially for her. It is a true lovers' knot, surrounded by flowers.

It is, of course, a revival of an old custom. In those days, you used your copy of arms as your book-plate, and some people do that now. It is a good check on your yet volumes it is a good check on that peculiar form of absent-mindedness which attacks even members of the caste of "Vere de Vere" in the matter of borrowed books. Clever designers of these pretty things are making quite a good harvest over them just now.

Smart society is never without some fad, which becomes the rage for the time being. For a few weeks or months, as the case may be, nobody who is anybody can exist without it. At the end of that time, the particular fad having become accessible to anybody who is nobody, it is dropped and a new toy takes its place. The particular conceit of the moment is book plates. This is a rather more useful fad than usual, for besides being distinctly ornamental to the front page of your yet volumes it is a good check on that peculiar form of absent-mindedness which attacks even members of the caste of "Vere de Vere" in the matter of borrowed books.

TRIPOLI, FOR WHICH NATIONS DO BATTLE

Not a Land of Interest to the General Traveler—Cameled the Chief Beast of Burden

Although the country has only 800,000 population, it stretches for 1,100 miles along the shores of the Sea of All Antiquity, says The Brooklyn Eagle. Like the western frontier of Egypt, in the Sahara sands, Tripoli has no southern demarcation except that the Oases, Ghadames and Ghat are included. Beyond them one can go as far as he likes.

As little is known about its area as its population. The latest authority places it at 400,000 square miles, three-quarters of which is worthless. The Turkish Government only stopped the claims with the Tropic of Cancer, which lies approximately 60 miles south of the Mediterranean. Unlike Egypt, Tripoli has often heavy showers, and the limestone ledge that underlies the thin coating of drifting sand forms pockets in which water remains for months, defying evaporation.

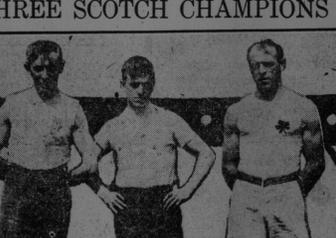

Remains of vast cities exist in many parts of interior Tripoli, and one of the early benefits of Italian occupation will be the exploration of these ruins to determine the character of the ancient inhabitants. Antiquarians have found rows of standing stones—megalithic structures of many kinds; dolmens and circles like the famous one at Stonehenge, England—mounds similar to those in Ohio; step pyramids, resembling one at Sakkarak, near the site of ancient Memphis on the Nile.

THE PARSON'S MISTAKE An amusing incident was witnessed at a big railway station recently. An old gentleman who was waiting for a train and at the same time interested in the surroundings, did not notice the approach of a porter struggling with a large traveling trunk with the result that he was promptly rushed to the unfortunate man's aid, and thinking he was the worse for liquor, remarked:

"My good friend, whiskey has done that." But the old gentleman quickly replied: "Wrong again, mister. It was porter."

THREE SCOTCH CHAMPIONS

On the right is Donald Corbett, a champion pole vaulter; in the centre "Mac" Speedie, a wonderful little high jumper, who though only five feet, five inches in height, does five feet ten to six feet day in and day out. The outside man is Walter R. Knox, weight thrower, of Orillia, Canada, who went to Scotland this summer and cleaned up a lot of things.

QUITE RIGHT.

A young surgeon, who was very retiring and awkward, was asked to dine by a lady who was at least fifty and tried to pass herself off as twenty, and apparently imagined that being rude and tomboyish assisted to sustain the youthful illusion. At dinner she asked him to carve a fowl, and never having carved a fowl before, and being painfully shy, he made a mess of it.

QUITE RIGHT.

Instead of trying to cover his confusion his hostess called attention to it pointedly by looking down the table and saying loudly: "Well, Mr. P., you may be a very clever surgeon, but if I wanted a leg off I should not come to you to do it." "No, Lady Alice," he replied, politely, "but then, you see, you are not a chicken."

In a Scotch town a grave digger was walking along the street when he happened to look round, and, noticing two local doctors at his back, he stopped so as to allow them to get in front. Astonished at his proceeding, one of the doctors said:—"What's the matter, Dave?" "No much," replied Dave, dryly, "only I ken na place in the procession."

ST. JOHN CREAMERY

THE DAUGHTERS OF EMPIRE; FIGURES IN THE TROUBLE

Mrs. P. D. Crenar, of Hamilton, Vice-President of the Daughters of Empire.

Mrs. S. Nordheimer, of Toronto, President of the Daughters of Empire.

The were some stormy meetings of this organization in Toronto, arising, it is said, out of the action of the officers in correlating too many invitations to the coronation festivities in London this year.

TWO GET PLACES IN THE SENATE

Borden Government Also Appoints a New Head of C. T. P. Commission

Ottawa, Oct. 22.—The eminent railway "expert" selected by the government to succeed Hon. S. N. Parnell as chairman of the National Transcontinental Railway Commission is Reuben E. Leonard, of St. Catharines (Ont.).

On the recommendation of Hon. Frank Cochrane, minister of railways, Mr. Leonard was appointed by the cabinet council on Saturday to succeed Mr. Parnell at a salary of $10,000 per year, the same as that given Mr. Parnell. For the present, at any rate, there will be no further change in the personnel of the commission.

Mr. Leonard is better known as a mining capitalist than as a railway engineer. He has had some experience in railway construction in connection with the building of some of the C. P. R. lines of the St. Lawrence & Adirondack Railway and the "short line" to St. John, but he can hardly be classed as a railway engineer of outstanding national reputation.

Two of the senatorial vacancies left unfilled by the Laurier ministry were filled on Saturday by the Borden government and two Conservative ex-M. P.'s have received their rewards. Adam C. Bell, ex-M. P. for Pictou and the Conservative candidate against E. M. Macdonald, M. P., in the recent election, was appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the late Senator McGregor.

J. A. C. Lariviere, ex-M. P. for Proton, Manitoba, was appointed to succeed the late Senator Chevrier.

HOW THIN FOLKS CAN GET FLESHY

New Accidental Discovery Gives Startling Results—Put Flesh on Thin People and Rounds Out Imperfect Figures

For women—and men, too, for that matter—who can never appear stylish with anything they wear, because of abnormal thinness and angularity, this remarkable prescription is destined to solve the problem. As a beauty maker for the figure it is simply wonderful while it adds brightness to the eyes, and color to the cheeks and lips. It requires no particular diet, but acts as an aid to nature by its peculiar action on the nerves and blood supply. The blood and nerves distribute over the body all the nourishment or flesh building elements obtained from the food.

The trouble with thin people has always been that they do not absorb or retain enough of the flesh making elements from their weight even to normal extent, but this new discovery is destined to remedy this less than normal condition. It contains science and hundreds of years of experience condensed into a few simple pills. When you get the right weight, then stop using.

The general health and strength is greatly improved in anyone from the age of sixteen to sixty. Women soon get plump, with well rounded arms and full bust, and men become straight, strong-looking and healthy.

In a half-pint bottle get three ounces essence of poson and three ounces syrup rhubarb. Then add one ounce compound essence cardui, shake and let stand two hours. Then add one ounce tincture cadme compound (not caradom). Take a teaspoonful before and after meals, and weigh before beginning.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY. Take LAXATIVE BREAD (Bismark) pills. Drugs and reform more for sale to cure. E. W. GROVE'S pills are in each box. 25c.

Clothes-lines should never be left out of doors when not in use. They should be carefully dried and put away, otherwise they will soil and mark the linen.

MISSING LINK IN THE BOSTON MURDER CASE

Police Say Young Woman Will Be a Valuable Witness Against Clergyman

GAVE GIRL POWDER

Report From Kansas City Says Richeson Was Engaged to Three Young Women There—Hanged in Effigy at Hyannis, Avis Linnell's Home

Boston, Oct. 22.—Deputy Superintendent Watts said yesterday that he had the testimony of a young woman, which will form the missing link in the chain of evidence the police are trying to weave around Rev. Clarence V. T. Richeson.

MISS AVIS LINNELL

declared the clergyman had given her a powder. Despite the headache, she was apparently in the best of spirits in the course of their conversation mentioned the restaurant where she dined with Richeson.

Mr. Watts says the young woman came to him voluntarily and furnished the information that he has so eagerly sought. She has been promised protection and her name will not be revealed until after the Richeson case has passed through the lower courts. She is not a lodger at the Y. M. C. A. and does not live near that institution.

The meeting place of Miss Linnell and this mysterious woman, the deputy would not reveal, but her statement, he is confident, completes the case.

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 21.—The Rev. Clarence V. T. Richeson, held in Boston on a charge of murdering Miss Avis Linnell, was pastor of the Bethany Baptist church in this city from 1901 until 1904, when he resigned by request, following the sensational disclosures of three young women, each of whom accused him of being engaged to her.

A scandal was created among the congregation when the three women, two of them members of the church, made their accusations against the pastor at the close of one of his Sunday morning sermons, when he had preached eloquently on "Temporality of Young Girls in a City."

Boston, Oct. 22.—In his efforts to clear up the circumstances of the death of Miss Linnell, the Hyannis Sunday school teacher and music student, with whom the Rev. Clarence V. T. Richeson is charged, the police have been unable thus far, it is said, to locate the poison receptacle.

When the girl took the dose of opium which caused her death she was in the bath room of the Young Women's Christian Association home on Warren street, and though the home was searched immediately after her death by order of the medical examiner and later by the police, the receptacle which had contained the poison, however, was poured it into a cup to drink, cannot be found.

It was said at first that a piece of paper found beside the body had contained the poison, but this is now denied. At the time of her death Miss Linnell wore a bath robe over her nightgown and this has become stained in the autopsy. She was tucked beneath the feet of the girl as she lay in her casket and was buried with her. When this fact came to the ears of the police they at once surmised that the cyanide container had been thrust inside the pocket of the bath robe and it was believed that orders would have to be given to exhume the body.

Further inquiry tonight, however, revealed the fact that the medical examiner's assistant examined the bath robe carefully and he declares there was nothing in the pockets of the garment.

S. Nickerson, whose home is directly opposite the church. Mr. Nickerson is not a Baptist and has no friendship for Mr. Richeson, but he did object to such a gruesome object hanging opposite his residence.

Boston, Oct. 21.—Watched every second by guards, who pace constantly to and fro in front of his cell, the Rev. Clarence V. T. Richeson, pastor of the Immanuel Baptist church of Cambridge, who was arrested Friday morning in the home of Moses Grant Edmonds, at Chestnut Hill, charged with the murder of Miss Avis Linnell, a nineteen-year-old student of the New England Conservatory of Music, whom it is alleged that he divorced in the Charles street jail tonight.

Calm and smiling when he faced William Hahn, a Newton Centre druggist, who declared in his presence and that of John H. Dugan, chief of detectives, this morning that he sold enough cyanide potassium to kill ten persons to the street on the evening of October 19, Mr. Richeson collapsed when the cell door closed upon him and sat on the rough wooden bench, with his face buried in his hands.

Mr. Hahn's statement of what transpired when he saw the cyanide is according to W. B. Watts, deputy superintendent of police, one of the most remarkable pieces of evidence ever produced in a criminal case.

Mr. Watts says: "When he bought the cyanide from Mr. Hahn, Mr. Richeson said: 'I've got a dog at home; she's whining around the house and making a disturbance and I want to put her out of her misery. She's going to have pups and I want to put her out of the way.'"

Mr. Richeson is being held without bail until October 31, the date on which he was to have married Miss Edmonds, herself a widow, to a million dollars. Still faithful to her fiancé, Miss Edmonds remains in the mansion of her parents, refusing to see even the girl of her school days and the friends with whom she has moved in Brookline's most exclusive society.

He did not kill Miss Linnell. He could not have done it. It is all a horrible mistake," she cried in her mother's arms and then she sobbed while Mrs. Edmonds stroked her hair and pleaded with her to be God will see that justice is done. "We must trust Him."

The evidence that the police are mercilessly piling up against Mr. Richeson is kept hidden in the files of Chief Dugan, veteran of thousands of criminal cases, declares this is the most disbelievable piece of evidence ever brought to light.

"It makes me shudder," he said, "when I think of the frenziedness of the man who gave an innocent girl cyanide of potassium, the most deadly of poisons, and told her to take it, for she might be relieved of a condition that was causing her the deepest anguish."

"We lack only one link in this case," said Chief Dugan. "That is the actual delivery of the cyanide of potassium to Miss Linnell. We have not yet been able to find out where she dined on Saturday, but I am positive that she met Mr. Richeson between 2 and 5 o'clock that afternoon."

LUMBER AND INSURANCE CASE. An interesting case was decided at Dalhousie on Saturday morning when Guimond, Courillard Freres & Cie and La Banque Nationale were awarded the full amount of their insurance claim against the Fidelity Phoenix Co. The lumber firm and bankers were suing the Fidelity Phoenix, Western Commercial Union, London Norwich Union, Liverpool & London & Globe and Manitoba Assurance Companies. The amount of insurance was $31,000; the loss claimed $30,470.10, for birch, spruce and pine lumber piled in Guimond & Co.'s yard at Campbellton and burned in August, 1910.

The defendant companies set up the defence of arson and also took advantage of all the numerous technical objections that the number of policy conditions render available. The case against the Fidelity Phoenix Co. was begun on September 26 last and occupied all that week, was adjourned until the 19th inst. and a verdict only reached on Saturday morning.

M. O. Teed, J. H. A. L. Fairweather, A. E. G. McKenzie and W. M. Jarvis represented the assurance companies and Hon. J. D. Hazen and Fred R. Taylor appeared for the plaintiffs. In addressing the jury Mr. Teed stated that he did not ask for a finding of arson as there was not sufficient evidence. Questions were left to the jury but owing to the company having taken advantage of all the numerous technical objections that the number of policy conditions render available.

CAUSE FOR ALARM. Loss of Appetite or Distress After Eating a Symptom That Should Not Be Disregarded

Appetite is just a natural desire for food. Loss of appetite or stomach distress after eating indigestible food, or dyspepsia. Over-eating is a habit very dangerous to a person's good general health.

It is not what you eat but what you digest and assimilate that does you good. Some of the strongest, healthiest, and healthiest persons are moderate eaters.

There is nothing that will cause more trouble than a disordered stomach, and many people daily contract serious maladies simply through disregard or abuse of the stomach.

Large all in St. John, who suffer from any stomach ailment, indigestion or dyspepsia, will find relief in the distinct understanding of the fact that their money without question will refund their money if they do not feel better after using these medicines, they are not perfect.

SEEKING WORK FOR HUSBAND, FALLS OVER PRECIPICE

Young Woman Slips on Path and Goes 100 Feet Over Hudson Palisades

New York, Oct. 23.—Gangs of men at work on the new houses in course of construction at Kings' Wood on the Palisades above Weehawken, N. J., noticed a pretty young woman start slowly down the steeply inclined road which leads down to the edge of the Palisades. The road is slippery with a covering of autumn leaves, and the young woman had some difficulty in retaining her footing. She stumbled along, each step carrying her forward just a little faster, until finally she was almost running. The watching men laughed, till suddenly they heard the woman scream. Then they saw her dart forward, keeping her feet only by fairly bounding over the path. Only a few yards away the road turned sharply along the edge of the Palisades. Straight ahead there was an almost sheer drop of 100 feet down and off the path. She seemed powerless to obey them and as they watched her, striving to reach her in time, they saw her shoot off the edge of the precipice, screaming in terror. The woman was taken to a hospital, the physicians saying that her condition was critical. Her skull had been fractured, her left ankle broken, and her body terribly bruised. In addition, it is feared she has internal injuries. In a moment of consciousness the woman said she was Mrs. Minnie Hahn. She said her husband, a carpenter, had been out of work and she had been going to apply for work for him, when she slipped on the path.

At a meeting of all the Liberal members of the Ontario Legislature, as well as the Liberal candidates who have been chosen to contest seats in the approaching election, held in Toronto last week, a resolution was passed on motion of Daniel Read, M.L.A., for West Middlesex, expressing confidence in the leadership of Mr. Mackay, and he will continue to lead the party in the next election. After the meeting the following statement was issued by C. N. Smith, former M.L.A., for South St. Mary: "The general political situation in Ontario was freely discussed by the members of the caucus, and the unanimous conclusion was expressed that the Whitney Government had failed to measure up to the expectations of the people of Ontario. The census returns show that the population of the province has actually decreased during the regime of the present government. LYDDY'S FIGURES OF NEW VESSELS BEING BUILT

From the returns compiled by Lloyd's Register of Shipping, it appears that, excluding warships, there were 492 vessels of 1,446,317 tons gross under construction in the United Kingdom at the close of the quarter ended September 30, 1911. The tonnage now under construction is about 90,000 tons less than that which was on hand at the end of last quarter, but exceeds by 292,000 tons the tonnage building in September, 1910. Of the vessels under construction in the United Kingdom at the end of September, 573 of 1,903,497 tons are under the supervision of the surveyors of Lloyd's Register with a view to classification by the society. In addition, fifty-six vessels of 193,295 tons are building abroad to the society's classification. The total building at the present time under the supervision of Lloyd's Register is, thus, 429 vessels of 1,198,292 tons. Details of this total follow:—

AFTER PERILS OF THE DEEP, LANDS ONLY TO BE ARRESTED

Sanford's Bark Reaches Portland, Two Men Down With Scurvy, No Food Aboard—Leader is Taken in Charge on Old Writ

Portland, Me., Oct. 12.—As the climax of months of hardships, during which he and his little band of followers at times suffered from hunger and thirst as their yacht Coronet was buffeted about by sea and wind, the Rev. Frank W. Sanford, leader of the Holy Ghost and Us Society of Shiloh, was brought to this city to night in the custody of the county authorities. The arrest was made on a writ in a civil suit brought by Mrs. Florence N. Whitaker, wife of one of the Holy Ghost and Us leaders, who alleges that she was illegally detained aboard the Kingdom forty-one miles off the coast of Maine. She was released on habeas corpus proceedings in June, 1911, and since then the authorities have been awaiting the appearance of Sanford within the jurisdiction of the state that they might place him under arrest. Tonight two men were brought ashore from the Coronet by health authorities and placed in a local hospital, both suffering with scurvy. Seven others, six men and one child, died of the same disease and were buried at sea during the past few months, according to statements made by members of the crew. Many others have had touches of scurvy. In the vessel's larder there was not a loaf of bread and no fresh meat has passed the lips of the religious seafarers for many days. So exhausted and weakened were the crew and passengers that it is doubtful if they could have kept their craft afloat for many days. The Coronet has been at sea since June 27 when she sailed from a Haytian port and was last reported on September 27, when she was sighted by the steamer Lapland flying signals which indicated that she was short of provisions. The Lapland sent relief, then proceeded. At that time the Coronet was off Cape Sable.

SPECIAL FEATURES IN CHURCHES

St. James Congregation Begin the Celebration of 60th Anniversary—Trinity's New Curate

For the 60th anniversary of St. James' church yesterday special services were held and a new supplied choir was introduced for the first time. The choir consisted of thirty members, twelve women, twelve boys and six men, and some very excellent music was rendered at both services. The women of the parish have labored for some time at the making of the cassocks and surplices. The church was specially decorated for the occasion with ferns, flowers, leaves and grain presenting a very pleasing appearance. Rev. H. A. Cady, the rector, preached in the morning on the text "To what purpose is this waste?" and his sermon was of a thanksgiving nature in which he referred to the many things that the people should be thankful for, but which they were too likely to take for granted. He made appropriate reference to the anniversary of the church and to his connection with the church.

A special Sunday school service was held in the afternoon at 3 o'clock at which a large number were present. The evening service was held at 7 o'clock and Rev. Mr. Cady took as his text "God requireth the best of the church and to his connection with the church." In Trinity church last night Archbishop Ramsay of Moosehead gave an interesting sermon on the missionary work being done by the Anglican church in that district and also among the Eskimoes.

CRIPPLED WITH SORE BACK

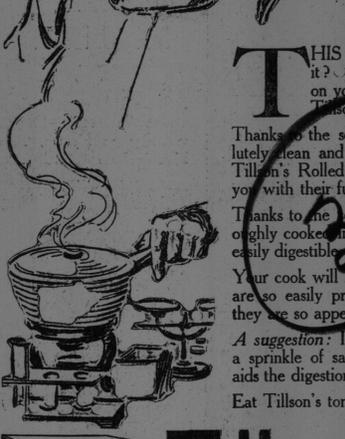

Kidneys Were Badly Diseased and She Didn't Know It. Was Completely Cured By Less Than Three Boxes of DR. CHASE'S KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS. Women are very often deceived and mistaken in regard to kidney diseases. The pains in the back are attributed to other arrangements, and kidney disease is allowed to run on and on until beyond the reach of medical science. There is needless suffering and life itself is risked, because medicine is not recognized as the most marked symptom of kidney disease. There is no treatment which so quickly relieves and cures kidney pains in the back as Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. As proof of this read Mrs. Patterson's letter: Mrs. Richard Patterson, Haldimand, Gallop Co., Que., writes: "I will gladly say that it was cured of kidney trouble by using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. When I began using this medicine I was crippled with sore back and did not know what was the trouble. In looking over Dr. Chase's Almanac I saw Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills advertised and decided to try them. I had not used two boxes before my back was all right, and before I had completed the third box was entirely cured. ### SPECIAL SALE OF BOYS' SHOES

Some dealers think anything in the way of shoes will do for the boy, and some parents seem to agree with the dealer. The boy doesn't, however, and we side with the boy, and make his shoes as well as his father's, but we charge a great deal less for them.

LITTLE GENTS' SHOES, made like papa's, with heels and lacing books, Vici Kid, Oxf and Enamel Leathers, $1.50, $2.00 and $2.50.

YOUTH'S SHOES, duplicate in style and shape of the most popular men's shoe styles of the day, in all leathers, $1.42 to $1.75.

DREDGE TURNED TURTLE

Effort to Tow New Brunswick Into Harbor Failed—Will Try Again

An attempt was made on Saturday to tow the wrecked dredge New Brunswick into harbor here. During the early morning the government tug Helena went down to the stranded craft, which had been stripped of the machinery. After some pulling the battered hull was pulled off the rocks and the tug started with her tow for here. Apparently the holler, which is still in place, made the dredge unsteady, for it turned turtle and had to be beached again after being towed some distance. Cables were taken ashore and what is left of the dredge was made fast and a later effort will be made to get it into the harbor.

Logue arrived in the city only a few days ago from Moncton, where he had some trouble in the courts over a horse which belonged to G. W. Fowler, M. P. of Sussex.

John Ferry, a cripple, charged with begging, pleaded guilty. He said he arrived in the city on Saturday from Newfoundland. He was remanded and an effort will be made to have him sent back to his home.

CARVILL HALL TO BE CONVERTED INTO APARTMENT HOUSE

The apartment house idea seems to be gaining in favor in St. John. An interesting announcement was made this morning to the effect that Carvill Hall in Waterloo street, is to be remodelled along the lines of the new idea in homes. Mrs. John P. Morrison, who has been the lessee of Carvill Hall for some time, will give up her lease at the first of November and Mr. Carvill now has an architect preparing plans for the scheme which he has in his mind.

His idea is to have four apartments, one to take in the whole of the first floor, another the whole of the second floor, and two on the upper floor. There will be rooms in the basement for a janitor. All of the large centre stairways will be removed, thus throwing the large area of the building into commodious living apartments.

WIFE OF DAVID RICHARDS IS DEAD

Rain General Along River and May Help Some of the Lumber Out

Fredericton, N. B., Oct. 23.—Mrs. Richards, wife of David Richards, a Campbellton lumberman, died last week. She was a native of Carleton Place, Ontario, and was seventy years of age. Three sons and four daughters survive. Rev. Dr. MacDonald went to Campbellton on Saturday to preach the funeral sermon.

Heavy rain set in here on Saturday and continued until this morning. The storm was general along the river, and a rise of water is looked for. There are 30,000,000 feet of lumber hung up at the head of the river, and it will not require a great deal of rain to move it.

John Palmer, revenue commissioner for York county, declares that the Fredericton enumerators did their work in a most careful manner, and he is certain that a complete count was made.

MORE BREAKS INTO HOMES OF SUMMER RESIDENTS NEAR CITY

The practice of breaking into the summer homes of suburbanites at some of the stations along the C. P. R., which has given annoyance to them in other years has apparently not ceased. On removing to the city the suburbanites usually secure their windows and doors to safeguard whatever furniture, bedding, dishes, etc., may have been left for the winter, but although this was done in the home of a summer resident at Sagua, the house was entered recently, and whoever gained admittance helped themselves to a stock of canned goods and groceries, besides taking a refrigerator and some other articles.

From the fact that in many houses which have been entered, canned goods only were taken, while clothing and other articles were left untouched, it is believed that oftentimes those who force an entrance are hunting parties of two or three. The houses nearer the river are those which are more open to breaks of this nature as there is less danger of being seen than nearer to the main roads.
