

AWFUL CRIME AT NORTH ST. HOUSE

Diego Siracuso, an Italian, Struck on Head With Club and Will Die.

Suspicion Points to Andrew Rossa as Guilty Man and Robbery as Motive.

ying unconscious in his bed, the pillow of which was literally soaked with blood from a ghastly wound on the back of his head, apparently inflicted by some would-be assassin, Diego Siracuso, a young Italian, was found by the police in a small room in the rear of his store, 37 North street, shortly after 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. He was removed to the general public hospital, where upon examination it was found that he was suffering from fracture of the skull, and but little hopes is held out for his recovery.

That he was stricken unconscious by a blow on the head with some heavy weapon in the hands of a person intent upon murder, and that robbery was apparently the object of the crime was shown by the disappearance of the injured man's watch and $75 in cash which he is known to have had in his possession.

Although the would-be assassin has, for the time, made a clean getaway, the circumstances surrounding the case clearly point to Andrew Rossa, also an Italian, who for some time past has been stopping with Siracuso, and who was known to have been in the house on Saturday night and who could not be located yesterday.

Blood Soaked Handkerchief.

A blue bordered handkerchief, identified as similar to one worn by Rossa, which was found soaked with blood in a coal scuttle in the adjoining room from which Siracuso was struck, would almost conclusively establish him as the attempted slayer of his fellow countryman, who had befriended and given him protection in a strange land.

Siracuso came to St. John about five months ago and started a small grocery store on North street. Some time later Rossa drifted into the city and becoming acquainted with Siracuso entered his employ. The two men lived in two small rooms in the rear of the store until about a month ago when they quarrelled and parted. Rossa going to work with the coal storage company and later securing employment in John deAngelo shoe shine parlors. About a week ago he went back with Siracuso, and as far as the neighbors knew everything seemed to be running smoothly with the two men.

Early Sunday morning Joseph Jones, a young man who lives with his mother in the house adjoining the store, heard shouting coming from the Italian's rooms, as if the men were having a heated argument. About 11 o'clock yesterday morning "Tony" Venditta a seissor grinder, who is an intimate friend of the injured man, called at the house to get Siracuso to go to church, they having arranged to go together on Saturday evening. The doors were found to be securely locked, and thinking that his friend had gone out "Tony" went on his way without further inquiry. Some time later, shortly before noon the Jones had become suspicious and hammered loudly on the doors, but received no answer from within.

French Count Makes Three Ascensions On First Day Of International Aviation Meet—Brookens Flies High.

Special to The Standard. Montreal, June 26.—The first day of Montreal's aviation week was to some extent spoiled by the fact that the machines had not been quite tuned up. As it was, however, the crowd of 5000 people got the worth of its money. In witnessing three fine flights yesterday by Count De Lesseps, the man who recently crossed the English Channel, and by Walter Brookens and Ralph Johnson, two of the Wright brothers' quartet of aviators. Brookens was the first man to fly at Montreal.

His flight was a complete success, consisting of a journey three times around the course, the announcement being made that he had covered three and half miles in five minutes. Count De Lesseps followed in a Bleriot machine. The count labored under the disadvantage of using a machine

KILLED WIFE, HER MOTHER AND HIMSELF

Triple Tragedy At Home Of David Downes Near Oldtown, Me.—Latter Was Maddened By Threat Of Wife

Bangor, Me., June 26.—A double murder and suicide occurred Sunday morning at 9.30 o'clock on the Prentiss road, 1 1/2 miles beyond Springfield and has thrown the community into a state of excitement the like of which has never before been known.

David Downes, aged 33 years, shot his mother-in-law, Mrs. Iva Woodard, and his wife, aged 28 years. He then turned the rifle upon himself and fired. His death, too, was instantaneous. Because his wife had determined to leave him on account of his temper and because the girl's mother had urged her to act, impelled Downes to commit the deed.

Coroner Charles Rackliffe of Oldtown, was notified. Downes and his wife, with their five year old daughter live in a small one story house of two rooms on the Prentiss road, about 1 1/2 miles from Springfield proper. The building is of cheap construction, Downes having been a man of small means. Directly across the road lives Mr. and Mrs. Woodard, parents of Downes' wife and a short distance away in the home of Downes' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Downes. In fact the locality was a sort of settlement for the Downes and Woodard families.

It is said that Downes had frequently made threats against his wife, but they were not seriously regarded, as he appeared to be an evenly balanced man. On Saturday Mrs. Downes with her little daughter, spent the night at her parents. During the day she would almost conclusively establish him as the attempted slayer of his fellow countryman, who had befriended and given him protection in a strange land.

On Sunday morning Mrs. Downes and her mother called at the former's home, just across the road and found David Downes. Presently Iva Woodard, father of Downes' wife, together with Mr. and Mrs. Gibson, the former a son of Mr. Woodard, dropped into the house and there was held a sort of family reunion, just such a gathering that was in evidence on ever Sunday.

S., June 26.—Under the cover of darkness last night, the Kingdom, the flagship of the Holy Ghosts, which has been in port for the past week, lifted anchor and started out to sea with Elijah Sanford and his hand of moonlighting converts on board. Where the Kingdom sailed for is unknown, as she did not enter or clear at the customs, but the staff at the signal station at Camperdown saw her disappear to the westward. It is thought she is bound to St. John.

WOMEN DROWNED FROM BURNING STEAMER

All But a Frenzied Few Saved Out Of 1,500 When Wisconsin Steamer Ran Ashore—Captain's Prompt Action.

Lacrosse, Wis., June 25.—With 1,500 excursionists on board the Acme Packet Company's big steamer, J. S. caught fire on the Mississippi River between Genoa and Victoria tonight, and although the steamer was burned to the water's edge, prompt action by Captain Streokufus in beaching the boat when the first alarm was sounded, saved every person on board. Only one woman was injured in the mad rush from the boat to the island on which the steamer was beached.

MR. R. L. BORDEN CONCLUDES HIS TOUR AT FINCH

Farmers Of County, Represented In Parliament By A Liberal, Turn Out En Masse To Greet Opposition Leader.

CIVIC ADDRESS READ BY VILLAGE REEVE

Special to The Standard. Ottawa, Ont., June 25.—Mr. R. L. Borden, the Opposition leader, concluded his political tour of Ontario at Finch, Stormont County on Saturday afternoon. He leaves for Nova Scotia on Wednesday and after a series of meetings in his native province he will return from the East and make another political tour of Ontario in the fall. Indeed he has tentative programmes mapped out which will keep him busy up to the next general election.

At Finch on Saturday the meeting took the form of a picnic, and it was eminently successful. It was essentially a farmers day and the large number of rigs in the village was suggestive of an old fashioned fair. There were visitors from Ottawa and Cornwall, and altogether there must have been about 1,500 present.

Finch is strongly Liberal, but both parties united to give Mr. Borden a warm welcome. Mr. George L. McLean, Reeve of the village, led the way and in presenting a civic address to the Opposition leader said: "We are pleased to note that our present visitors have fearlessly and honestly upheld the principles for which they stand both in parliament and before the country and we hope that in the near future any public men at whom the finger of scorn is pointed on account of actions that are not in the public interest and honestly upheld will be driven permanently from public life."

CYCLONE KILLS THREE IN WEST

Terrific Storm Swept District a Mile Wide Near Moosejaw—Father And Two Children Dead—Seven Injured.

Special to The Standard. Moosejaw, Sask., June 25.—A frightful story of death and desolation as the result of Thursday's storm, reached this city today over the long distance telephone from Section 34, 1930, which is situated in the "South Country," about sixty miles from Moosejaw.

While details are not full, it appears that a terrible cyclone struck the neighborhood about two o'clock on Thursday afternoon and was followed by a terrific hail storm which swept a strip of country a mile wide. Every house and shack in the path of the storm was destroyed. Three persons were killed and seven more were seriously injured. The dead are: Ed. Maddigan and two little children. Injured, his mother, two sisters and two brothers, a hired man named Wilson, leg broken. A man named Palmer, collar bone broken and two others Thomas and Ward, cut and bruised about the face. Medical help was rushed to the scene.

He was kept in the police station for some time then being rearrested no less than 12 times for violation of the act on different dates. These cases were adjourned.

FOUR KILLED IN FIGHT WITH BOLD ROBBERS

Three Russian Polanders Shoot Down Lynn Manufacturer And Policeman—Unsuccessful Attempt To Escape.

10,000 PEOPLE JOINED IN PURSUIT

Lynn, Mass., June 25.—Three desperate bandits armed with murderous automatic magazine revolvers of 30 calibre, shot and instantly killed Thomas A. Landregan, a well known shoe manufacturer of this city, fatally wounded police officer James H. Carroll and ran away with a bag containing $5,000 which the manufacturer and policeman were taking from a bank to the shoe factory of which Landregan for the weekly pay roll today.

The robbery which was the most daring ever committed in this city, was perpetrated on a busy thoroughfare. Hardly had the noise of the shots and the powder smoke cleared away before the three bandits were fleeing from an unorganized posse of ten thousand persons. An hour after the first shot had been fired one of the bandits was dead from a self-inflicted wound, a second was in the hospital bleeding from five bullet wounds while the third of the desperadoes was in the custody of the police and Abraham Lynn, an innocent person who was wandering through the woods, was shot in the thigh by one of the robbers who mistook him for a pursuer. All but $7 of the money that was stolen was recovered. The robbers had divided the bills among themselves, and the bag containing most of the silver was found at a point where the three men separated in order to facilitate their escape.

He pointed out to the president that through the exercise of pardoning power, he could have the ability to gratify his desire. The letter was first sent to his wife who enlisted the assistance of Senator Hale, of Maine, and the latter transmitting it to President Taft, who said he would be glad of any action that would afford any measure of relief in the case.

TONG WAR IS RENEWED IN CHINATOWN

New York, N. Y., June 26.—The furious tong war that sleeps but never dies, despite threats, promises and solemn treaties, broke out again this Sunday afternoon, within the little triangle of narrow streets just off the lower Bowery, known as Chinatown. In 80 seconds, three Chinamen were shot, two of them fatally, a third was painfully wounded and more than 40 shots from heavy calibre revolvers spattered against the bricks or stained the pavements red. In three minutes seven Chinamen were arrested. It was all over nearly as quickly as it had begun, and the remainder of the afternoon, the streets were as quiet as they had been an instant before battle and murder broke the stillness.

It happened that the 200th anniversary of the founding of the Society of the Four Brothers fell on this day of rest and in its honor the members were to give a banquet in Pell street, at 5 o'clock. A monster scarlet flag, scalloped in green, floated from the banquet hall, and guests began to arrive early. On Sunday the streets are thickest with sightseers.

Police Were About. It was in the midst of this restless, shuffling throng, soon thick with policemen, that the shooting began, at just four o'clock. There is no certainty of the precise provocation, but it is generally understood in Chinatown that the Ong Leong Tong did not relish the fact that Chu Hen, recently acquitted of the murder of Ong Leong Tong man, was to be the guest of honor.

The Hip Sing Tong, the Ong Leong Tong and the Four Brothers occupy each their own street and no prudent member of one society trespasses on the territory of another. Pickets have been posted today at the ends of Pell street, by the Four Brothers, and scouts of the Ong Leong Tong patrolled the adjacent boundary of Mott street. There were more policemen than usual, both because this was Sunday and because of the banquet. Somebody stepped over the line.

Somebody began to shoot. It is doubtful if any white man will ever know who trespassed and who was punished, because the rain of bullets came too fast from too many directions at once for the eye to catch the first flash. And no Chinaman will ever tell. Sen Chin, Chinaman will not shy about the inevitable innocent bystander, was the first to fall, shot through the abdomen. He will die. Chu Foo was shot behind the ear and in the back. He died tonight. The Pan was shot through the left thigh. His injuries are not serious. Thus far it has been impossible to tell to which Tong the individual wounded belong. All were taken to a hospital.

Special to The Standard. Montreal, June 26.—The situation in regard to the negotiations between the Canadian Pacific Railway and its trainmen now appears to be that after having served ultimatum upon one another the two parties are looking for a peaceful settlement. A conference between the representatives of the men and the company has been arranged for tomorrow and it is expected that this will pave the way for an agreement. A considerable number of the men do not want a strike, their feelings in this regard being dictated by the fact that they have a considerable number of years service to their credit on the company's books, and if they were to go Newcastle, June 25.—The Conservative party feel confident of an overwhelming majority in this county. If the proceedings at the annual meeting of the Liberal Parish Association held here last Friday, can be taken as a criterion. An open revolt led by ex-Mayor Patrick Hennessey, the new president of the board of trade, and one of the oldest Liberals in the province, indicates a widespread feeling of discontent in the constituency.

Mr. S. Loggie, M. P., addressed the meeting, striving to pour oil on the waters troubled by the recent antagonism between the wings led by Ex-Mayor Miller and Hennessey, over an appointment at the I. C. R. station here. Mr. Hennessey spoke, bitterly referring to the turning down of every Irish candidate at the meeting, in company with several others he left the hall in disgust.

The patronage committee was the cause, probably, of much of the trouble. There has been friction developing for some time among the party leaders here.

Mr. Hennessey claimed shabby treatment by other Liberals on account of a new ticket being elected with ex-Mayor Miller as president. He severely criticized the running of affairs by the machine here for several years.

Irish Not Represented.

He said he would stand it no longer. He thought it inexpedient that the Irish portion of the party should not have due representation on the patronage committee. He knew that that section and other well known Liberals resented the action of the machine in carrying out affairs. "They put you in power Mr. Loggie," he continued, addressing the county's representative, "and they will vote you down."

Mr. Hennessey said no more. He took his coat and left the meeting in disgust.

Mr. Loggie Tried to Smooth Matters Over by Saying the Majority Should Rule.

Several speakers claimed that the funds of the association had been misappropriated and on this point there was another heated discussion. The proceedings grew very fiery. Mr. Stewart backed by some of the officers again aired his grievances, bringing Mr. Loggie sharply to task. The latter made a feeble reply and the wrangling was kept up until 11 p. m., when the meeting broke up. A feature of the night's proceedings was the presence of the town marshal, Adam Dickson, in full uniform, whose attendance is said to have prevented many pugilistic encounters.

About the streets the meeting is the sole topic of interest. An effort to settle matters was a distinct failure. The much harassed member took a hurried departure, for his home in Chatham and will probably spend the next few weeks "down coast with the fishermen."

AMERICAN WHO HAS INTERVIEWED FISHERMEN SAYS FISHERY TROUBLE IS ALL BETWEEN GOVERNMENTS-CANADA'S POSITION

London, June 25.—The separation of the Duchess of Marlborough, formerly Consuelo Vanderbilt, from her titled husband has not been allowed to interfere with her plans to make the most of her dearly bought title. With the liberal expenditure of Vanderbilt dollars, the duchess has paved her way to the point where she is now allowed to "open" charity fairs, shows, bazaars, etc., which she does in the prettiest frocks imaginable. The duchess has also gone in for "workmen's rights" to the extent of telling them that the harder they work, the more success they will meet with.

Raymond McFarland writes to the Boston Transcript on the feeling in Newfoundland with regard to the fisheries question. He says:—
 "The writer had spent several days at the Bay of Islands, Newfoundland, engaged in studying local methods of the herring fishery and in getting first hand information regarding the fisheries dispute from the Newfoundland point of view. For the fisheries question, in its economic aspects at least, concerns itself with the securing of herring by American fishermen on the west coast of Newfoundland. Formerly the question involved the inshore fishery for mackerel at the Magdalen Islands and in other parts of the Gulf of St. Lawrence; but in late years the inshore catch of mackerel in the Gulf has been so small that this fishery, both in economic importance and in its international aspects, may be left out of consideration. The real question today centres about the herring fishery of Newfoundland.

"What is the trouble between you and the American fishermen?" I asked of a merchant with whom I was in conversation. "The trouble is not that way," he replied. "We like them and they like us. The trouble is between our Government and the American fishermen." Further inquiries among the fishermen of Bay of Islands failed to reveal anything but the most friendly feelings towards Gloucester skippers and their crews. In fact, I received positive assurance from the Gloucester magistrate, Mr. Bartlett, that the Americans are considerably more popular among the Newfoundland fishermen than are their own kinsmen who resort to the Bay of Islands from Nova Scotia and other British possessions. The Americans are more hospitable towards the native fishermen, they generally treat the workmen better and pay more liberally for the fish.

"The fall herring fishery of Newfoundland begins about the middle of October and lasts until the bays freeze over, which is usually near the first of the year. The fishery is carried on by means of nets by native fishermen from the vicinity of Bay of Islands, Bay St. George, Bonne Bay and other settlements on the western coast of the island. Under the law the herring may be admitted to this country duty free if brought in American bottoms. American merchants send vessels for cargoes of salt herring to be used in the smoked and bloater herring industries at Gloucester and Boston, and for frozen herring to be sold for food and for bait in the deep-sea fisheries. The cargoes of frozen herring are sold at Gloucester, Boston and New York.

Three Arrangements.
 There are three ways in which American vessels may secure cargoes of herring at Newfoundland. Using the rights under the Convention of 1818, they may take their own crews, nets, dories and other gear and catch their own cargoes. This procedure is rarely resorted to now. Again, under the terms of the modus vivendi American fishing vessels have the privilege of entering bays and harbours of Newfoundland at a fee of $1.50 per ton for the purpose of purchasing bait. In recent years, however, another arrangement has been in practice—Gloucester captains have agreed with Government officials at Bay of Islands to forego temporarily their right of fishing and to become traders. Under this arrangement licenses are issued free of cost to all vessels to purchase herring, and likewise to native fishermen, enabling them to catch take and sell herring to any ship or vessel for export for food purposes. The purchaser of the herring agrees that not less than $1.25 per barrel will be paid for the fish. As a matter of fact, the usual selling price for salt herring is between $1.35 and $1.50 per barrel, and for frozen herring from $2 to $3.50 per barrel.

The herring fishermen of Newfoundland have good reason to feel kindly disposed towards American fishermen. The fall herring fishery is carried on at a time when other fisheries of the West Coast are lax, so that the influx of American gold is most acceptable to the local fishermen at the beginning of their long winter. Between 500 and 400 Newfoundland boats, with three men in each, engage in the fishery. The men share from $25 to $250 apiece for a little more than two months' work, the amount of the share depending largely on luck in securing fish. In 1907 the best boat at Birch Cove, Bay of Islands, with three in the crew, shared $385.

American fishermen leave more money in western Newfoundland than is derived from any other source. From 1904 to 1908 there were annually at Newfoundland cargoes of herring valued at $1,800,000. The value of the herring purchased by the American fleet was $185,000 on an average for each year, and most of the money went direct into the hands of the Newfoundland boat fishermen. The value of the herring secured by British vessels in the same time was $100,000 annually. It is of vital importance to the Newfoundland fisherman that no change be made in the fisheries agreement that will lessen the influx of American gold.

What Canada Wants.
 As the fisheries question now stands it is a three-sided affair in which Canada, Newfoundland and the United States are each striving to hold fast to the privileges they now possess and, if possible, to further their commercial interests by new treaty arrangements. Canada, on her part, wishes to secure the free admission of her fish and fishery products into our country. Her own markets are inadequate for the annual supply of fish that her Maritime Provinces furnish. She believes that the removal of import duty from fish would lessen the cost of fish to the American consumer and would thus develop a greater market for the products of the sea that her fishermen can secure. Canada occupies an advantageous position in the mackerel fishery and has excellent boat and train facilities for shipping fresh fish into American markets. Newfoundland occupies a prominent place in the fisheries question due to

GIRLS CAN KEEP COOL

Hot Weather Wisdom for the Little Business Woman Who Must Leave Her Home—Suitable Clothes.

The hot weather is exceedingly hard on the women who work all day, that is who work outside the sphere of the home. For the home woman or girl, no matter how busy she may be, can nearly always find a few minutes now and then wherein to rest. She can also indulge in comfortable negligees which the girl or woman in shop or office cannot. Imagine the surprise of a business man if his stenographer appeared at the office in a kimono! And yet the kimono is quite an ideal garment for hot weather and suggests a model that might well be more universally copied.

The problem for the business girl to tackle during the summer months is how to be neat and presentable and yet attain the greatest amount of comfort and coolness. The experience of one business woman speaking to another may not come amiss. In the first place do not dress the hair elaborately. Pads, braids and curls add enormously to the heat of the head and if the heat hits the whole body it is a torment.

Another hot weather hint is to be sure and wear the right sort of hat. Hats that are heavy are no protection from the sun, should all be taboo in the hot weather. The next item to be considered is the collar. A high tight collar-band is more conducive to heat than almost any thing else. If it is at all possible wear the fashionable turn-down or Dutch collar. If it, and some women simply cannot do without, wear a comfortable fitting lace collar with props to keep it neat. Starched linen collars should be banished during the hot weather. They are exceedingly uncomfortable and will run any neck. Another article of clothing during the dog days is the corset. If the signs of relief that go up when the corsets are taken off at night could be massed together it would make a regular paeon of joy. Why will women make themselves so uncomfortable?

The only right thing to do is to keep in such perfect condition that a corset is unnecessary, but if that is impossible, a brassiere answers the purpose, combined with the proper use of the corset. The last hot weather item there is time to touch upon is the question of footwear. I do believe that nine women workers out of ten wear high French or Cuban heels. There is only one heel that is practical for the business woman who loll at home and eat sweets all day, and that is the low, square heel, almost exactly like a man's heel. Do you ever see a man wearing French or Cuban heels? Do you ever see a man weighing his head down with pads and braids and puffs? Do you ever see a man torturing himself with tight, stiff corsets? Men have learned common sense in clothing and the sooner we women do our playing our part in the world creditably and of obtaining the much desired vote.—OC. in Montreal Star.

body will suffer. Some girls think they look hideous without their puffs and pads and whole elaborate process, but if they only knew it they look twice as pretty and refined with the hair simply done. The other morning I happened to see a woman I knew slightly and I was struck by her good looks which I had never noticed before. When I thought it over it dawned upon me that it was because she had not yet done her hair for the day and it was simply parted and done in a soft roll at the back.

The same day I saw her with not a vestige of prettiness or youth left because she had curled and waved her hair and done it up in a most complicated manner over a wire pad with braids and puffs pinned in. Simplicity is beauty—that is a motto that should be on every dressing table.

Avoid Heavy Hats.

CROPS LOOKING GOOD IN KINGS COUNTY

Hay Promises a Bumper Yield While Grain is Also Well Advanced—Low Freight Service on I. C. R.

Portage, Kings County, June 25.—A heavy thunder storm passed over here Thursday night, there was also a heavy rain the night before, but no damage is reported. On account of so much rain, those that have low lands are delayed in finishing their seeding. Never was the prospect better in this end of the county for a very large hay crop. Grain crops are looking splendid.

Mr. Albert Stockton was in St. John Tuesday on business.
 Miss Frances McLeod, Anagnone Ridge, is visiting with her aunt, Mrs. Thos. Dunfield.
 Mr. Walter Colpitts, Colpitts, Albert County, is spending this week with Mr. A. J. McAnesey.
 The steam shovel is now at work at the I. C. R. gravel pit. It is not likely to remain long at work this year as there is no talk of election.
 There is much complaint of the way freight trains are now run, there being no set time for their arrival or departure.

Andrew Carnegie Almost Penitent, Surprises the Hub-- Women Suffrage Campaign for the Hot Weather Months

Boston, June 24.—Sweet sixteen and graceful seventeen are capable of showing the spunk of their revolutionary forebears when, so to speak, the tail of the graduating gown is stepped upon. The movement for durable and inexpensive simplicity at high school exercises has received a setback in greater Boston. The school board of the good suburban city of Somerville, being composed of mere men, influenced by the prevalent fashion of the high cost of living and the foolishness of sumptuary display, tried this year to persuade the high school pupils to don ten dollar gowns and ride in the humble trolley car to be graduated. "But not for much." Not in Somerville, the girls came in autos and taxis. Some wore white mesaline, with bead garniture trimmings; others white silk and satin, point d'esprit over white silk and, one young lady, a delicate shade of lavender cut de-collete. Silk stockings enmeshed in white kid shoes further emphasized the girl graduate's kick. The members of the school committee who appeared in business suits, looked like fifteen dollars, marked down from twenty-three, by comparison. The spirit of 1910 was a month ahead in the observation of one of the young ladies: "Next to the wedding day, this event is the most important in our lives. Comparatively few of us will go to college, and we want to emphasize the importance of our graduation from the high school, a proud epoch in our career, by dressing well. Despite the vote of the school board, my father said I could have as nice a gown as I wanted and I got it."

"Don't leave your cat to the tender mercies of the neighborhood when you go away on your vacation. It is kinder to entrust her to the animal rescue League or some such organization. Yet if you feel that she can shift for herself be at least as thoughtful as a Boston woman whose neighbors on the other side are a family with a large brood of children; on the other side, an elderly couple. Leaving town for a month or so, the mother asked her neighbor, the mother of many youngsters, if she would see that the cat was fed in her absence. "Consent was given, even though with suppressed feelings of annoyance, and the vacationist went away. Next day the doorbell rang and an expressman delivered a big box which, when opened, proved to contain twenty-nine cans of an expensive brand of salmon and a note on which was scrawled, "For my darling." Just who the meat was not at all doubtful; but after trying to eat a meal in the back yard with constant interruption from the inconsiderate brats the cat never came back. He proceeded, however, to develop a remarkable fondness for the quiet old people on the other side of the fence. So that now every other day a telephone message goes from house to house: "Mrs. Smith, will you send another can of that salmon over for Albiades? He's finished the last." The only moral to which little tale is that some cats are wiser than some women.

"I had set aside $28 for a new summer suit. I have decided to wear my old one and send the amount to you. The 'you' means Secretary D. W. Waldron, who administers the Fresh Air Fund, one of the noblest of Boston's many noble charities. Just how this plan of getting suffering children and their mothers away for a short time from the germ laden atmosphere of the great city originated is worth recalling this summer when the thirtieth anniversary of the good custom is about to be celebrated. One hot August day in 1880 a business man sent a check for twenty dollars to the Boston City Missionary Society with a request that the money be expended in car rides for poor children, blind mothers and invalids. That was the beginning of the most beneficent of our institutions, which is supported by contributions from persons in moderate circumstances, as well as from the wealthy. The work has expanded until it now includes car rides for crippled, invalids and weary mothers, day excursions down the harbor to Nantasket, picnics at Franklin Park and two weeks' vacations for a limited number at Rosemary Cottage, Eliot, Maine.

The summer's warmth bids fair to be no warmer than the "votes for women" campaign that will be waged among the industrial centres of the Bay State, beginning about July 1. It will revive memories of a year ago. Peas Agnes E. Ryan, central speaker, of Massachusetts have hardly yet ceased talking of the picturesque trolley tour which was conducted by a group of enthusiastic suffragists last August. Experiences were crowded into the five weeks of stamping. At Pittsfield the chief of police turned the lights out on them. They invaded a barber shop in Taunton to get the half shaved mayor's permission to hold a meeting. They spoke from flour barrels and nail kegs. They learned a lot of geography while the large audiences learned something about the equal suffrage cause. This summer, under direction of a brilliant young English woman, who has had experience under Mrs. Fawcett they will follow out a programme of stamping for a week in each of several of the larger centres of population. Meetings, indoors and out, and distribution of literature will make many voters and their representatives in the Great West witness the closing tea of the season on June 24, at the suffrage headquarters, in Copley Square, this time in honor of the Woman's new office and of its installation in its new offices adjoining the state headquarters, with Miss Alice Stone Blackwell and Miss Agnes E. Ryan, central speakers; or again, as witness the recent election of Mr. Edwin D. Mead to the presidency of the Massachusetts Men's League for Woman Suffrage, an organization which is scheduled to do things.

 When the name of Andrew Carnegie appeared in the list of passengers aboard the Numidian from Glasgow, Boston ship news reporters were for a moment electrified. This was something new in the way of steamship arrivals, for the Allan line boats, while excellent and sea worthy and well stocked with eatables and consignments of Scotch whiskey, and all that are not the kind on which multi-millionaires ordinarily travel. They are slower than the ocean greyhounds and less magnificently equipped than the big floating palaces of some of the lines that serve New York. Still, they are, of course, Scotch vessels, and it was thought that the canny Andy might be patronizing one of the industry's great men. The reporters found, instead of the laird

NOT COUNCILLED TO CHURCH UNION

Correspondent Objects to Action Recently Taken By The N. B. Methodist Conference - Not Authorized to Act

To the Editor of The Standard: Sir.—A statement has been made in the local press to the effect that a strongly worded resolution on the union of the Presbyterian, Congregational and Methodist churches was unanimously adopted at the recent session of the New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island Conference...

While therefore the members remaining are large enough to make it legal, they were so small that it could not be fairly regarded as a confidential deliberation. But even if it could only have been regarded as the personal opinion of its members...

In view, therefore, of its tremendous and far-reaching importance, and the long acquaintance of the people with what is involved in it, the course taken by the Montreal Conference in declining to deal with it until the people had been heard from, would appear to be a wise one...

3 BANDITS TERRORIZE CITY OF LYNN

The murder of Mr. Landrean and Officer Carroll occurred a few minutes after nine o'clock this afternoon. Accompanied by the policeman, according to his custom when returning from the bank with the company's pay roll, Mr. Landrean had neared the factory...

The bank is at the corner of Oxford and Market streets, and the police say that the three robbers were waiting diagonally across the street from the bank. As Mr. Landrean and Officer Carroll started down Oxford street the robbers followed them...

As Willow street was reached the robbers had closed up behind their victims. At this point the factory of Welch and Landrean was a few steps away. Two of the robbers, according to witnesses to the shooting, drew their pistols and began firing at Mr. Landrean and the policeman...

After locating High Rock, the murderers, by a circuitous route they managed to reach a field off Six Foot street. It was near this point that Abraham Lyons, of 229 Summer street, Lynn, was shot by one of the bandits. Shortly after he was shot, the police discovered one of the bandits in a thicket near Ford street...

While the first bandit was being pursued a second was located by the police on Boston street, a short distance away. He surrendered only after he had been shot in the arm, the leg, the breast, and had his skull fractured by a bullet wound over his temple...

Returning from the hospital, the crowd had heard of the capture and made a dash at the robber, punched him, knocked him down and kicked him, and it was only after a sharp struggle that the officers were able to lodge the prisoner safely within the station. This man gave his name as Bacchini. He said that his home was in Boston, but that he had no fixed place of residence in that city...

Police Saw Terrible Sight As They Entered Siracuso's Room - Victim Was Lying On His Bed In Pool Of Blood - Assassin Had Looted The Till - Was Rossa Assisted By Another Man?

Continued from page 1. Although fearing that something had happened it was not until after four o'clock that Jones communicated his fears to Police Officer Rankine and Sergeant Campbell, who were on the York Point beat. The officer thinking that Siracuso was merely intoxicated at first did not take Jones' story seriously, but was finally persuaded and determined to investigate...

Was This Weapon Used? A large heavy stick which it is claimed by the police and doctors, who attended the injured man, would inflict such a wound as he received, was found lying near the open window from which the criminal made his exit. Had He An Accomplice? That Rossa had an accomplice and that they both attempted to leave the city yesterday, and who knew Rossa personally, Miss Wickham said last evening that while coming along Mill street about 7 o'clock yesterday morning she met Rossa, who remarked "Oh, yes," but appeared to be in considerable hurry...

Attacked While He Slept. That Siracuso was stricken on the back of the head while he slept by a heavy club, and that in trying to reach his revolver, which was found lying fully loaded, under his pillow, fell unconscious from the blow is the theory advanced, and that the assault was committed in the early hours of the morning as indicated by the fact that much of the blood on the pillow was dry and hardened...

May Have Been a Carrel. That the men quarrelled, and that Rossa, awaiting until his friend had gone to sleep, determined to rob and murder him, and accordingly struck him with some heavy club while Siracuso lay face downwards on the bed, and that the attacked man made a desperate effort to reach his revolver, with which to defend himself, is plain evidence to those who visited the scene of the crime...

thus aided matters in their ultimate capture. Reaching the summit of High Rock, the bandits stopped long enough to divide the stolen money. Because of its weight, all of the silver, with the exception of some seven dollars which had been scattered by the winds, were hastily divided. The bag was then thrown down the side of the hill, where it was found later...

LITTLE SPECULATION IN STOCK MARKET

SPECULATORS CAUTIOUS ON SATURDAY

Uncertainty of Weather Had Effect

COVERING MOVEMENT

Active Selling on Friday Left Balance Which Were Bought Slowly—Money Market Now Easy in Future.

New York, June 25.—The week-end in the stock market brought little disposition on the part of operators to enter on new commitments.

Not only the immediate uncertainties of the weather conditions over Sunday in the northwest states had their effect in quieting speculative activity.

Yesterday's active selling amongst the traders, who bought moderately to cover, thus supplying a sustaining influence on prices.

The east tone of the wheat market and the reports of rains and colder weather in the northwestern states had their part in inducing this covering movement.

So, also had the prospect that Congress was about to end its session. Net changes in prices were small at the end of the day.

A temporary hardness of money rates is considered not improbable in connection with the July settlements which involve the distribution of record amounts for dividends and interest.

It is pointed out also that the estimated $25,000,000 due for the corporation tax and payable to avoid penalty before July 1, remains almost entirely to be paid, thus constituting a requirement on next week's money market.

The renewed pressure on stock before the close was due partly to next week's money prospects. Confidence remains unimpaired that a season of great ease of money is to follow.

The bank statement failed to show the expected gain in cash in the actual figures. Moreover, an actual loan increase by the clearing house banks of $14,464,000 and an expansion in the loan averages of other banks by $6,714,000, disclosed the workings of demands for credits outside the dull stock market of the week.

Preparations for the July settlements and several important bonds operations which have gone through during the week must be looked for explanation.

Bonds were steady. Total sales, par value $465,000. U. S. threes have declined half per cent. on the bid price.

TROUBLE SAID TO BE BREWING IN EGYPT

III Feeling Existing Between Christians and Moslems May Lead to Bloodshed—Capt. Accused of Conspiracy.

Cairo, June 24.—A story is being published by the leading Nationalist organs here to the effect that the Copts are conspiring to create a demonstration against the Arabs, and that a deputation of Copts is preparing to leave Cairo for England to lay their case before His Majesty's government.

The statement that the Copts are busy plotting a conspiracy against the Arabs is a most serious matter, as besides being utterly without foundation, it produces a very strong feeling of uneasiness in the country, and paralyses business to some extent.

Such articles as these only lead to the growth of the ill-feeling at present prevailing between Christians and Moslems, and may ultimately lead to bloodshed in the streets—indeed, looks very much as if that were the object of the Nationalists.

The Copts—that is, the Christians—are being accused of a fantastic plan for massacring the Arabs, and the latter are obliged, seriously as a matter of self-defence, to strike first, to avoid being struck themselves.

The extreme Nationalists are equal to the perpetration of any crime, and they are gaining ground daily, and they obtain the sympathy of the Egyptian cabinet, particularly as the prime minister himself is a Nationalist.

It looks, therefore, very much as if the day were approaching when the British authorities in this country, to save their own position and the lives of the Christians in general, will have to take very decided action.

Waterborough, June 24.—A very heavy thunder storm passed over this section of country last Monday night, the 22nd inst, accompanied by very heavy hail. The like of the storm has never been known in years.

Miss Hattie Snodgrass went to St. John on this morning's boat. Miss Theo. Smith was also a passenger to St. John.

Miss Ada Kennedy went down by this morning's boat to spend a few days in St. John.

The warm weather of the last few days is ripening the cultivated strawberries. There will be some ripe for shipment next week.

We are having fine growing weather and the crops and hay are looking well. Everything looks favorable at the present for a good harvest.

Cobb Robbed in Line Drive Which Would Have Scored Two Men--Matty Pitches Giants to Victory Jeffries and Rickard Dispose of Rights for Half That Amount--Gleeson Holds On To His.

Washington, June 25.—Washington played poor ball today and New York won, 7 to 4. Heinrich made his debut in the American league, pitching the last two innings. While Daniels also came out for the first time, relieving Chase for the final round. Score by innings:— 00010000—4 7 3 New York 01002111—7 16 2 Batteries:—Johnson, Heinrich and Street; Warhop, Sweeney. Time—1:45. Umpires Egan and Sheridan. Detroit, June 25.—Stone's one hand running catch of a line drive from Cobb's bat in the fifth inning saved today's game for St. Louis. There were two men on bases and both would have scored had the hit gone safe. St. Louis won, 2 to 1. Both sides fielded brilliantly. Score by innings:— 00100000—2 7 0 Detroit 00100000—1 9 0 Batteries:—Ray and Stephens; Summers and Stange. Time—1:35. Umpires Connolly and Dineen. Chicago, June 25.—Chicago made it three straight from Cleveland today, winning 4 to 0. The veteran Young was hammered for three singles each in the third and fourth innings. Score by innings:— 00220000—4 8 1 Cleveland 00000000—0 6 1 Batteries:—Scott and Payne; Young and Easterly. Time—1:42. Umpires Evans and Kerth. New York, June 25.—New York today defeated Philadelphia by a score of 4 to 1 before one of the largest crowds of the season. This was the fourth tenth victory of the year over the Philadelphia, who were unable to hit Mathewson. The score by innings: Philadelphia 00000100—1 5 12 New York 00000100—4 10 0 Batteries:—Pitler, McQuillen and Jacklitsch; Mathewson and Myers. Umpires, Klem and Kane; Time, 1:45. Pittsburg, Pa., June 25.—Pittsburg today took another game from Chicago, full of wrangles and objections by the players. After hitting two batters, Leever was requested by the Chicago players to leave the rubber. The players appealed to the umpires, claiming Leever's wildness might prove dangerous to life and limb. Umpire Moran ordered Leever to pitch several balls over the plate to demonstrate his control. He did this and was continued in the game. Steinfield and Chance were ordered off the field for too vehemently protesting. Pittsburg won in the third inning in which Reulbach was hit hard and often and five runs were scored. Score by innings:— Pittsburg 00501020—8 12 2 Chicago 01000001—2 8 1 Batteries:—Leever and Gibson; Reulbach, Richie and Kling. Time—2:10. Umpires Johnson and Moran. National League. St. Louis, June 25.—St. Louis won two games from Cincinnati today by scores of 9 to 1 and 5 to 4. The visitors put up poor games. The second game was called after seven and one-half innings were played because of darkness. Score:—First game: St. Louis 00013050—9 10 2 Cincinnati 00000001—1 5 6 Batteries:—Harmon, Bresnahan; Doyle, Beebe and Clarke and McLean. Time—2:32. Umpires, Rigler and Enzelle. St. Louis, June 25.—Second game:— St. Louis 00012300—6 9 2 Cincinnati 01020100—3 9 1 Batteries:—Buckman, Corridon and Lash, Willis and Bresnahan; Rowan, Burns and McLean. Time—1:55. Umpires Rigler and Enzelle. Eastern League. At Providence (first game); Montreal 2; Providence 3 (11 innings). Second game, Montreal 0; Providence 2. At Jersey City, second game, Buffalo 1; Jersey City 0. At Newark, Rochester 7; Newark 8, 0.

Fight May End Any Time. In order to carry out the terms of their contracts all contestants in the ring are required to do is to enter the ring here July 4th and begin fighting. Rickard is required to use all his best efforts to see that the fighters come together. All other responsibility develops upon the picture men. Tex Rickard said this morning that according to information which he has received from the Southern Pacific headquarters, he is inclined to believe that no diminution in the number of fight visitors will result from the change of battleground from San Francisco to Reno. The promoters estimate that the crowd that will witness the contest will be 17,000. Many complaints are being made by visitors desirous of inspecting Jack Johnson's training quarters and seeing the champion work because of the inaccessible location of his camp. To reach the road house where Johnson is quartered it is necessary to secure an automobile or some other conveyance, as it is entirely off the line of the local trolley system, and is far out of reasonable walking distance. Moana Springs, however, is touched almost directly by Reno's street cars and for that reason Jeffries' camp is expected to draw a much larger number of visitors than Johnson's.

SUNDAY BALL. American League. At Chicago: Chicago 10000300—4 6 3 Cleveland 00050000—5 8 2 Batteries:—Walsh and Payne; Koestner, Falkenberg and Easterly. Time 2:02. Umpires Evans and Kerth. At St. Louis: St. Louis 00010000—4 9 1 Detroit 01020000—3 5 2 Batteries:—Peltz and Killifer; Killifer and Schmitt; Time 1:42. Umpires, Dineen and Connolly. National League. At Cincinnati: Cincinnati 00020003—6 5 1 Pittsburg 00101000—3 9 0 Batteries:—Suggs and McLean and Clark; White and Gibson. Time 1:43. Umpires, Rigler and Enzelle. At Chicago: Chicago 01000200—3 7 0 St. Louis 00002000—2 8 2 Batteries:—Kroh, Cole and Kling; Sallee and Bresnahan. Time 2:15. Umpires, Johnson and Moran. Eastern League. At Jersey City, second game, Buffalo 1; Jersey City 0. At Newark, Rochester 7; Newark 8, 0.

DAN McDONALD ISSUES DEFICIENCIES

Claims He Was Badly Used by Referee in Bout With Berry--Offers Handicap off Three Falls an Hour

Dan McDonald writes from Chatham as follows:— Sporting Editor of The Standard:— Sir:—Allow me a space in your valuable sporting column regarding the report of my match with Eddie Berry of Providence, R. I., at Chatham. Now I couldn't see where Berry got the decision according to the floundering of St. Clair. I gave Berry the first fall in 17 minutes and after 10 or 15 minutes wrestling in the next bout, I sprained my wrist, which was useless for the rest of the time. In 30 minutes, however, I am positive I got Berry in the corner, but he would not show up for me, but I paid no attention for I knew I could get him any time. I would have gone on, but I did not want to have any more trouble with St. Clair. Now, if Mr. Berry wants to meet me again I will undertake to beat him, and give him a handicap of 3 falls inside of one hour. Anyone who witnessed the contest could see where Mr. Berry was the man who showed me in an even match, then he would try to pull down the moon. Yours truly, DAN McDONALD, Middleweight Champion Wrestler.

GREAT FINISH AT SHEEPSHEAD BAY RACES

Sheepshead Bay, N. Y., June 25.—Amid the cheers of 15,000 persons, Round the World won the Great Trial stakes here today. The victory stamps her as one of the best fillies ever brought from the west, for she met and defeated some of the best colts in the fall. Her victory was due partially to the riding of Jockey Walsh. Iron Mask, which is supposed to be the best in the Keene barn, met his first defeat but was not disgraced for Round the World won by only a head.

Rossler. He pleaded not guilty and was paroled until July 1 for a further hearing. Rossler has also begun a civil action for $5,000 damages.

ST. PETERS IN TWO ON SATURDAY

Harrington's Stellar Work Gave North Enders Victory Over St. Josephs--A. O. H. Forfeits Chance at Eve'ing Game

St. Peter's 6; St. Josephs 5. Only Harrington's wonderful work in the box for the North Enders and the poor support behind Howe in the fifth lost the game for the St. Josephs Saturday. Howe pitched a great game and fielded his position well, but the Boston boy had a good shade on him. Each team had a bad inning, three of the purple and white pattern making the circuit in the fourth, on a lone hit by Donovan, and in the fifth the North Enders more than evened up by sending four men over the plate with three consecutive hits, and two errors by the St. Josephs. St. Josephs' more loose work was indicated in both teams played brilliant ball at times, and a double play on both sides marked the game. In both cases the opposing twirlers figured in the proceedings. With one out in the third, Donnelly hit safely, and went to third when Britt muffed Harrington's throw. Riley smashed a hot one at Harrington who made a dazzling catch, and nailed McCormick, first sacker off third. In the eighth, Howe gave a pretty demonstration of heady work. Harrington, the first man up smashed out a ringing three bagger to right field fence. McCormick walked and stole second. Things looked hairy for the St. Jots then, but they were equal to the occasion. McGowan hit to Daly at short, who made a pretty stop, and caught Harrington at the plate. McCormick walked, and the cushions were filled to the brim. Doherty sauntered to the bat, and the St. Peters rooters yelled him to knock the cover off the sphere. Georresponding by grounding a wicked one at Howe, who nipped McCormick at the plate, in time for Mills to cut off Doherty at first. With the score 4-1 in favor of the St. Josephs in the fourth, it looked as if the McCormicks were going to win in spite of Harrington's brilliant work. The Fun Begins. Howe apparently weakened in the fifth, however, which netted the green and white four runs. J. McGowan rapped one out to third and Mahoney duplicated the trick. Doherty then placed one over second and McCormick romped home. Harrington hit to Daley, who rumbled and Mahoney crossed the plate. C. McCormick elevated one to Harris, and Doherty scored on the throw to the plate. Doherty was safe on Donnelly's error. Britt filed out to Riley, and Harrington took occasion to come home on the throw in. Riley ended proceedings by pulling down Harrington's long hair to centre. Two hits and a sacrifice added another to the St. Peter total in the 9th. The score by innings: St. Peters 000140001—6 St. Josephs 100300001—5

Baseball fans will watch the work of George Stovall, first sacker of the Naps, with considerable interest from now on, for Brother George has been appointed captain of the Cleveland aggregation. Jim McGuire, veteran manager of the team, says Stovall is one of the brainiest men playing the game. It was something of a surprise when McGuire made the appointment, as this spring he had Stovall on the bench, LaJolie playing first and Terry Turner on second. McGuire, however found that Stovall was needed in the game because of his general all-around ability and he shifted his infield to get George back. In the old days it was generally believed that all a first baseman had to do was to catch balls thrown to him by other infielders. Fred Tenny, Anon, Hal Chase, Harry Davis, Frank Chance, and others changed the style of play, and now managers agree that a first baseman is really the proper man to direct the defensive work of a ball team. Harry Davis with the Athletics, Chance with the Cubs and Hal Chase with the Yankees have shown just what a first sacker can do when bossing a ball team. Tenny captained the Giants, Anson put Chicago on the baseball map and other first sackers have made good.

and the Hibernians evidently afraid to continue, at the instance of their captain, delayed the proceedings, until Umpire Mitchell announced St. Peters as winners. Dever started in to pitch for the St. Peters, and after 4 hits were made off his delivery, the first inning, leading three Irishmen across the plate, Harrington was sent in to finish the game. He gave a remarkable exhibition and allowed but two puny singles, and fanned 9 later in the remaining 5 innings. Following is the official score and summary: St. Peters. A. B. R. H. P. O. A. E. INSTRUCTIVE SERMON ON TRAINING CHILDREN

Rev. Mr. Waller of Cheltenham England, Delighted the Congregation of St. John's (Stone) Church.

Rev. Mr. Waller of Cheltenham, England, one of the English delegates to the World's Sunday school convention recently held at Washington, occupied the pulpit of the St. John (Stone) church, yesterday morning. He preached an interesting sermon on the education of the child, basing his remarks on the text of Kings 4: 22.

"You must, he said deal with your children in the way Elisha dealt with the child of the Shunammite. The prophet wanted to restore the child who was dead and laid on his bed, to life. But he did not rely on his own strength or wisdom. He prayed unto the Lord, and then went up and stretched himself upon the child. So in teaching and elevating the child the personal contact, the personal interest of father and mother is vital. The teacher can only build upon the foundation of the home teaching; without it the teacher is lost. The soul of the youngest wants spiritual life. If you have the truest welfare of the child at heart you

DEATH TAKES ONE OF CITY'S BEST SCHOLARS

Dr. W. P. Dole Passed Away on Saturday After Five Months Illness--Was in His 86th Year.

With the passing of Dr. Wm. P. Dole in the 86th year of his age, St. John loses one of its best classical scholars, and a man who in a quiet, unostentatious way played a large part in the educational and literary life of the community for many years.

The death of the well-known educationalist occurred on Saturday after an illness of about five months, at his residence, 32 Sewell street. He leaves one son, Richard Dole, local manager of the Bank of New Brunswick at Florenceville, and two daughters, Miss Mary F. and Miss Annabel P., at home. One sister, Mrs. Wm. Spiller of Waterville, Maine, also survives him.

Dr. Doyle, who was born in St. John of loyalist descent, was educated in private schools here, and at the Kings College at Fredericton, now the University of New Brunswick. He graduated from that institution with honors, winning the Douglas medal for excellence in English composition.

After leaving college he studied law in the office of the late Chief Justice Ritchie, was called to the bar, and practiced at his profession for a time. But he had a strong bent for educational work, and in 1870, in association with the late Dr. Hutchison, Thomas Stohart and Wm. McLean, now Inspector of public schools, he opened a private school in this city. Later when the free public school system was organized he taught for a while in the city schools and was for a number of years school inspector for the district.

He was also for a time civil service examiner for the district of St. John. Of late years he has conducted a private school which has enjoyed an enviable reputation for the quality of instruction it furnished young people.

A Fine Classical Scholar. Dr. Doyle was one of the foremost classical scholars of the Maritime Provinces, and a poet and essayist of distinction. His essays, many of which were published in American magazines, showed ripe scholarship, rich culture, and a fine command of style; while his original poems, and metrical translations from Anacreon, Horace and the French classical writers, earned him many eulogies. His ode on the Jubilee of Queen Victoria, probably one of the best evoked by the occasion in this country, will long be remembered for the nobility of its conception and the beauty of its style.

Mr. Dole was a regular contributor to St. John's Quarterly, a St. John publication that enjoyed a brilliant, if not very lengthy career. He also wrote numerous articles, and fugitive poems for the St. John Globe, the Telegraph and other periodicals.

As a teacher of the classics, Mr. Dole had few superiors, and his kindly disposition, and painstaking zeal, endeared him to all the pupils who attended his school and enjoyed the benefit of his tuition.

The funeral service will take place tomorrow at the St. John (Stone) church.

LEAPED TO DEATH IN REVERSING FALLS

Patrick O'Neill, a Patient in the Provincial Hospital Jumped from Suspension Bridge on Saturday Afternoon.

Patrick O'Neill, a harmless patient of the Provincial Hospital, leaped to death at the Reversing Falls on Saturday afternoon and his body has not yet been found.

O'Neill, who was a native of Restigouche County, had been five years in the institution, and on several occasions Dr. Anglin had thought of allowing him to return to his home, as, although he was mentally weak, his affliction was of such a mild type that it was felt he would be just as well at home. He was allowed the freedom of the grounds and buildings, and only the slightest sort of watch was kept on him, as it was felt that he was fit to be at large.

On Saturday afternoon he finished making beds in one of the wards, and then went out of the institution in the direction of the Suspension Bridge. He was followed, but before any one could reach him he managed to climb over the railing of the bridge and plunged into the falls below.

He was a good swimmer, and those who watched any he had succeeded in swimming almost down to Miller's Mill before he sank. Search was at once made and all afternoon the vicinity was dragged, but there was no trace of the body. O'Neill was 70 years of age and although it was reported that he had shown signs of suicidal mania before he was admitted to the institution, it had apparently left him and he was regarded as harmless.

At the time he jumped from the bridge, Albert Nice, of West End, was on the bridge and a few yards from the old man. Nice saw him climb over the railing and called to him to stop, but the warning was not heeded. At the same time an automobile was passing and the boy called the attention of the driver to what was taking place. The driver, however, paid no attention, and drove on to Fairville, where he reported the case to Police man Lawson, who was unable to do anything.

SAYS WE DON'T NEED THE SUNDAY MAILS

Secretary of Lord's Day Alliance Declares Proposed Opening of Post Office on Sabbath is Unnecessary

"The Sabbath was made for man, not man for the Sabbath." From this text in Mark 2:27, Mr. Hannah, travelling secretary for the Lord's Day Alliance, explained to a Centenary congregation last evening the aims and methods of the alliance in Canada.

After showing that Sunday was an institution appointed to give opportunity for rest to body, mind and soul, he said that one purpose of the alliance was to preserve the Sabbath. By its efforts the present Lord's Day law was passed and is being more closely observed. The law has brought order as good as that of Winnipeg into the Yukon and Dawson City, where formerly disorder and tumult reigned.

Referring to the recent action of the postoffice department in opening, or attempting to open the St. John postoffice, Mr. Hannah said that in the west on account of the springing up of new and thinly settled districts, post offices had been kept open on Sunday. The alliance however, seeing the extra tax it put on all postmen and mailmen, and the loss of the mail service from Manitoba to the Pacific coast only those offices situated in the sparsely populated far north remain open. It had been claimed that convenience and a closely crowded population demanded Sunday mail service at St. John. "Why is it then," he said, "that Toronto and Montreal, cities of over a quarter of a million population, do not demand it?"

Mr. Hannah said further that in his opinion, policemen and fishermen should obtain rest on the Lord's Day. The alliance had secured so far the freedom from toll for 24 hours in the week of 100,000 toilers out of 150,000 who had had to work the whole seven days, and were gradually working toward setting free the rest.

"The methods of the alliance," said the speaker, "have frequently been bitterly complained of on the ground of their severity. The real case was quite different. Of those reported to central office, 98 per cent. were settled by correspondence, only 2 by force. These 2 per cent. consisted mostly of corporations, impelled by greed. Yet they were all given a fair chance before the law was called in. The alliance was rather too lenient than otherwise. The speaker closed with the statement that in the matter of whether the day of rest was ready Saturday or Sunday, they could provide full proof to those who would apply for it as to its occurring on Sunday.

Mr. Hannah preached in the Victoria street church in the morning and in Carleton Methodist in the afternoon.

BIG SCHEMES A'FLOAT FOR THE LABOR MEN

$20,000 To Be Spent in Organizing Workers in Maritime Provinces--Organizers To Be Brought Here.

Whether it may be regarded as one of the signs of the renaissance of the Maritime Provinces, or merely as an evidence that the workers are alarmed over the steady increase of the cost of living, the unrest in labor circles is not without significance. Agitation and organization is the order of the day, a fact which seems to indicate that the workers of the Maritime Provinces are waking up to the advisability of playing a part in the world-wide movement of labor today.

Although in Nova Scotia the political labor movement has made considerable strides recently, in New Brunswick trade unionism has only recently begun to receive much attention. But apparently the workers here have caught the contagion of the new ambition inspired by the success of organized labor in the Mother Country, the Australian colonies, and different parts of Canada.

Men in the councils of the International trade union movement have reported that conditions are ripe for the successful prosecution of a big organizing campaign in the Maritime Provinces. Over $20,000 has been voted for carrying on organizing work in these provinces, and next winter the best labor organizers in Canada will be put into the field.

"No doubt, one result of the effort to strengthen the labor movement in these provinces will be to induce the employers to form associations on their own account," said a local labor official yesterday. "Since the St. John Building Trades Council was organized the contractors have been talking of forming a Builders' Exchange. Probably organization will be as advantageous to them as it is to us, and in any case we can view with complacency of our employers with complacency. The more organization we have the better it is likely to be for the community."
